Dairying Fits Rockcastle Soil Capabilities

By - Clay Colson, Soil Conservationist

Dairy farming in Rockcastle County fits the capabilities of our soils like a hand fits a glove.

Not many years ago the dairy industry in Rockcastle County consisted of selling a few buckets and cans of cream then a family had more milk than they needed for home consumption. At that time the agricultural teachers, veteran teachers, the soil conservationist and a few farm leaders came to the conclusion that the type of soil found in Rockcastle County and the water available would sustain a livestock and forage type agriculture.

A survey of farms revealed that there was not a single dairy type bull owned by Rockcastle County farmers. Through a neighborhood trade-in plan, purebred dairy bulls were placed in every section of the county. Carloads of "holders" were brought in from outside sources for veterans, FFA, 4-H Club boys and farmers. Dairy farming was on its way. Then came milk canning, then dairies and a dairy manufacturing plant.

How did this affect the country? It meant selling farmers seeds for more pasture, fertilizer and lime too were used. Business men sold milkers, coolers, water systems, disinfectants, detergents, and many farm supplies not needed before.

Farmers were interested in their improved livestock to the point where a veterinarian could be profitably located in the county. Artificial breeding was another big step forward. Trucks were sold to haul milk. Drivers for those trucks had employment. Service men for equipment were busy. Business in general improved.

You ask how soil and water conservation fits in with dairy farming. First, let us look at what soil and water conservation really means to a farmer. It is in simple words, "using every acre according to its capabilities and treating it in accordance with its needs." Farmers are getting row crops off the steep hillsides and putting them in grass and trees. Terraces and diversions are keeping water from gulling their fields and from wetting good bottom land. This is used to carry away surplus water from poorly drained level land. To come when future generations take the place of today's farmers. Dairy farming and water conservation mean progress for Rockcastle more livestock per acre. Many coun-

Fiscal Court Discusses Roads, Finances, Insuring Courthouse

At the regular monthly meeting of the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court, Tuesday, Rhoda Parsons, supervisor of road work in the county, appeared before the court and reported that he and other men working on the RS highways in the county have not been paid.

The court voted to pay their portion of their salary which is half. The other half is to come from the State Highway Department.

After some discussion, Clell Pike of Livingston informed the court that the reason no funds were forthcoming from Frankfort was that no payroll had been submitted to Frankfort.

A group of men volunteered to go to Frankfort and try to determine the type of report required to get funds forwarded to personnel or the county treasurer.

Bonds from the Department of Finance at Frankfort amounting to $10,000 were returned to the county, cancelled and paid on the hospital bonds. To date some $47,000 of the total $167,000 has been paid on the hospital indebtedness.

James Barries appeared before the court and requested the county to build up the road to the creek won't get in it. The court agreed to use county trucks if he would cut or get the right of way cut.

As a result of the request, rock put on the road near his home. Magistrate J. R. Poynter of District 2 promised him that it would be done in a week.

The court voted to pay the $500 bill to Atty. Calvert Little which had been voted previously for employment of Atty. Calvert Little in the case involving the County Fiscal Court and Clarence Carter, Lovell Clontz and Atty. James Lambert. The case was dismissed.

County officials were entitled to retain the statutory limit of $7,200 if their salary and fees amounted to that or whether they must return all above $5,000 to the county.

Circuit Judge R. C. Tartar of Somerset ruled that the statutory limit of $7,200 prevailed.

The court also discussed the insurance of the courthouse. The court voted to insure the courthouse for $25,000. It is insured for $100,000. Even that amount would not replace the structure, should a fire occur, he declared.

Tree To Be Presented Each School Child

more acres of permanent hay have been seeded. Good farmers are seeing that good land means better production. Dairy farming and soil and water conservation are indeed a team which makes for a better farm. Available labor is employed profitably. Business men sell more equipment and farm supplies. The farmer has an income that will support a higher standard of living. The proper use and treatment of the soil means greater yields for today and also for years to come when future generations take the place of today's farmers. 'Mail Volume Reaches All-Time High Upward Trend Continues' - Smith

A new all-time high in the nation's mail volume was reached during fiscal year 1960 ending June 30, which continued the steady upward trend of the past seven years at a rate which even exceeds the population growth, according to information made available to Postmaster James O. Smith.

Although subject to last minute revisions, the year's total has been estimated as 63.6 billion pieces of mail which includes about one billion pieces of parcel post. As an example, this would mean an increase of nearly 25 percent over the corresponding figures for 1953 when the annual volume was 50.9 billion pieces.

During this same period, it was pointed out, the revenue of the Department also has shown an impressive gain with an increase from $2,091,714,400 in fiscal year 1953 to $3,276,800,000 for fiscal year 1960.

Here in Mount Vernon, receipts of the post office climbed from $7,000 in 1953 to $15,000 last year.

"There is not much we can do about how much mail we have to handle from day to day or how many people are mak-

GOOD NEWS for TOBACCO GROWERS

... and for the businessmen of Kentucky

A Message from Senator John Sherman Cooper

In recent weeks I talked with Vice President Nixon about our successful tobacco program, and asked him to include it as an essential part of his new farm program. This he has done.

On September 7 the Vice President wrote me, and announced publicly in his first statement on farm policy, his complete support for the present tobacco program, including its fixed price supports based on 90% of parity.

"I wholly support the present tobacco program, and if improvements or technical modifications, as have been made in the past, appear to be needed in the future, I will depend on the recommendations of tobacco growers, tobacco-State farm organizations, and their representatives in the Congress.

"I believe this position is consistent with my view that each crop must have a program best suited to its needs, and I am glad to give my wholehearted and enthusiastic support to this successful farm program."

—Richard Nixon

Following this statement, the Vice President affirmed his position over nationwide television on "Meet the Press."

As one who introduced the 1948 amendment which fixed price supports for tobacco at 90% of parity, and has supported fully the tobacco program, I am glad that Vice President Nixon has assured tobacco growers of his complete support for the present tobacco program.

I know this is good news for tobacco growers, and for the hundreds of businesses in tobacco counties, for it will help to assure their income in the years ahead.

—John Sherman Cooper

Here's the car that reads you loud and clear—the new-size, you-size '61 Chevrolet. We started out by trimming the outside size a bit (to give you extra inches of clearance for parking and maneuvering) but inside we left you a full measure of Chevy comfort. Door openings are as much as 6 inches wider to give feet, knees, and elbows the undisputed right of way. And the new easy-chair seats are as much as 14% higher—just right for seeing, just right for sitting.

Once you've settled inside you'll have high and wide prizes for Chevrolet's spacious new dimensions (in the Sport Coupes, for example, head room has been upped as much as 2 inches, and there's more leg room, too—front and rear). Chevy's new trunk is something else that will please you hugely—what with its deep-well shape and bumper-level loading it holds things you've never been able to get in a trunk before.

Yet, generously endowed as this car is with spaciousness and clean-cut elegance, it holds steadfastly to all the thrifty, dependable virtues Chevrolet buyers have come to take for granted. Your dealer's the man to see for all the details.

There's never been a trunk like it before! The floor's recessed more than half a foot and the loading height is as much as 10 1/2 inches lower.

A contest is underway to find a slogan to promote dairying in Rockcastle County.

The Rockcastle County Development Corporation is planning to award $25 to the winner of the contest. The presentation will be made at the Tobacco Festival, November 4.

The winning slogan will be printed on three signs to be erected somewhere in the county.

CONTEST RULES

1 -- A prize of $25 will be awarded by the Rockcastle Development Corporation to the person who composes the winning slogan which conveys the following idea: "Milk production can be important to Rockcastle County's future and by promoting pride in milk production and in Rockcastle County, the county will soon become more prosperous."

2 -- There is no limit to the number of words in the slogan. But, the entry which presents the important ideas in the fewest possible words will be the winner.

3 -- The contest is open to everyone, regardless of age, sex or residence, except employees of the Mt. Vernon Signal and directors of the Rockcastle Development Corp. and their families.

4 -- Entries may be typed or printed. They must be clear enough to be understood by the judges.

5 -- Enter as many different slogans as you wish.

6 -- You may use the entry blank printed in the Signal. However, several business places in Rockcastle are offering additional prizes if the entry is on a blank furnished by their place of business. Ask your local stores for entry blanks so you won't miss out on additional prizes, should you win.

7 -- Your name and address must be typed or printed clearly on each entry.

8 -- All entries must be sent to the Mt. Vernon Signal, Mt. Vernon, Ky. They should be post marked no later than Oct. 17.

10 -- Contest entrants agree to be bound by contest rules and winning entrant grants permission to publish his or her name, and - or picture.

11 -- In case of ties, prize money will be divided between tying contestants.

12 -- Judges from out of the County will be selected by the Mt. Vernon Signal and the decision of the judges will be final.

THE '61 PONTIAC IS OUT TODAY!

It's All Pontiac! on a new Wide-Track!

New track-to-Body proportion! The track is the width between the wheels. Pontiac is the only Wide-Track car. Body width is reduced, shaving side overhang, balancing more weight between the wheels. Best relationship of body width to wheel width ever tailored. Lean and sway are ancient history.

Announcing the new Pontiac Trophy V-8 Engine! We've improved the engine the experts said was perfect. New fuel induction system saves gas by using more air in the gasoline mixture. This makes the engine breathe more efficiently, giving you better acceleration. Eleven versions to choose from. Horsepowers range from 215 to 348. For best economy, specify the Trophy Economy V-8. Its lower compression ratio lets you use regular gas.

More headroom, legroom, footroom for greater comfort! You'll take great comfort in the extra roominess we've built into the '61 Pontiac. Seats are higher, yet there's more clearance beneath the steering wheel and more hatroom over your head. There is more legroom, more footroom. Doors are wider and designed to swing open farther. The more highway you put behind you (Pontiac specializes in this) the more you'll appreciate the new room that's all around you in this sleek new '61.

THE ONLY WIDE-TRACK CAR!
