VOLUME 72—NUMBER 18

MOUNT VERNON, KENTUCKY

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1961

MVHS Gets Team Ready To Meet Winning Wayne

If excitement continues to rise, it will be "standing room only" at Brodhead High School Gymnasium at 8 p.m. Thursday, February 2, when the Mt. Vernon Red Devils meet the 12th region favorites, Wayne County High School, in a basketball game that could be Mt. Vernon's "game of the year."

With no ball game scheduled Thursday night for any of the schools in the area, most fans will probably head for Brodhead for a look at the highly regarded Wayne County team.

David L. Hacker

Mt. Vernon's team, that showed flashes of power in downing a strong Bush High School team 69 to 52 last Friday at Bush, will be idle until the Wayne County game. Coach Jack Laswell also gave the boys a week off from practice for a well earned rest before the team meets on Wednesday night at half of its season schedule.

D.L. Hacker Named District Road Boss

David L. Hacker, who will be the district engineer of the Kentucky Department of Highways for this district in the reorganization ordered by Commissioner Hugh W. A. ...

Wayne County to date has lost one game. It lost to Lily, at Lily, by one point earlier in the season. Its last reported win was over Cumberland College's freshmen team, plus two of the county's varsity players, adding to its prestige.

MVHS has lost games to Loyall and Memorial. Its record now stands at 16 wins and 2 losses, the best record an MVHS team has had in 20 years.

A game with Stanford High School, scheduled for Friday night, has been postponed.

MVHS 69; Bush 52. Gary McClure and Lee Childers teamed up against highly regarded Bush High School Friday night at Bush to lead Mt. Vernon to an impressive 69-52 victory.

For the two players it was their best night of the season. They accounted for half the points, the Red Devils made during the game—a total of 37. McClure made 19 and Childers 16. Both also turned in an expert job of rebounding.

Following the two, Howard Coffey scored 13 points; Paul Thomason 10, Jim Barton Nunneley 8, and Jerry Adams 6.

For the Devils, it was the comeback trail in the game. At the half Bush led 27-26. But at the last quarter, Mt. Vernon turned on the steam to out score Bush 25-12.

Quarter Scores were: MVHS 14, Bush 16; 27, MVHS 44, Bush 40; MVHS 69, Bush 52.

High scorer for Bush, and high scorer for the game, was H. C. Proffitt with 21 points.

Mt. Vernon committed 18 fouls, Bush 22. Of the foul shots, Mt. Vernon played 19, Bush made 12 out of 23 free throw attempts.

Water Damages Office

A frozen water pipe, that thawed during Monday night, caused several hundred dollars worth of damage to the new offices of County Atty. James Lambert.

Gallon on gallon of water poured through the ceiling from the vacant upstairs of the building and accumulated several inches deep on the office floor.

County All-Star Teams To Play Polio March Tuesday Night

A basketball tournament featuring former all-star teams from the Vernon, Brodhead and Livingston is scheduled for two nights during the last two weeks of February, according to an announcement from the Mt. Vernon Lion's Club.

The exact nights the tournaments will be held at the site will be announced at a later date.

Also scheduled for the two nights is the grad school tournament between teams from Mt. Vernon, Brodhead, Livingston and Roundstone.

May Up Burley Quotas

An increase from seven to 10 per cent in burley acreage allotments appears likely for 1961 production.

It could be closer to seven, although the burley industry generally recommended to the Department of Agriculture in Washington yesterday that quotas be increased 10 per cent.

This was the first group to see Secretary Freeman since he became secretary. He gave a 30-minute talk, but the details of the department's views on burley quotas.

Freeman is expected to set burley acreage by Feb. 1. The meeting was called by the department to get the reactions of the industry and congressional delegations on the acreage situation.

Attention also was focused on the need for the same growers who get increases to take comparable decreases should a future cut be made. This will take legislation, but it will be no problem, apparently.

Sentiment is for the increase to be made from a base average level (probably 1960), and then, in the event of a future decrease, to revert to the base.

Many Recommendations Among recommendations made this week: Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association - At least an eight per cent increase.

Burley Auction Warehouse Association - 10 per cent increase.

Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation - not less than five per cent, but eight per cent.

U.S. Sen. Thurston B. Morton - 10 per cent.

U.S. Rep. John C. Watts - 10 per cent.

U.S. Sen. John Sherman Cooper - 10 per cent.

Manufacturers, For the markets of the industry and congressional delegations also were represented at the session and supported increases.

Lighter anti-Myers Tobacco Co. and R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. favored 10 per cent increase, while American Tobacco

Co. suggested that acreage added to burley quotas be "substantial."

Dr. Frank J. Welch, dean of the University of Kentucky, College of Agriculture and newly named assistant U.S. Secretary of Agriculture were at the session.

In a statement filed in support of an increase, Senator Morton said he felt it "can be justified under the statutory formula, that it is wholly warranted and necessary by the situation, and that it is vital to the continuing prosperity of our tobacco farmers."

I have tremendous faith in the ability of our tobacco growers to determine a course of action in the best interests of the program.

Mr. Morton said that the market prices for burley have been at record or near-record levels for the past four or five years, and that the industry has been cautious approach which many growers have toward an increase.

The future of the industry is in delicate balance and the trend to greater use of burley clearly indicates that unless more burley is produced, the farmers' incomes will be forced to turn

False Rumors

Although it is early in the Campaign false rumors are being spread concerning my voting record as Representative in the 1960 Legislature.

Two false rumors in particular are being spread; number one that I voted for the bill that requires the Tax Commissioner to revalue the real estate of his County during the second year of each term of office. This bill I DID NOT vote for. Number two false rumor is that I voted for the so called egg law. This bill I DID NOT vote for either.

My voting record is recorded in the House Journal, volumes 1 and 2, and is a public record, which I have.

I will be glad to discuss my voting record on any subject, publicly or privately at any time or place, concerning the 1960 Legislature.

If you desire to call me about any question, I will be happy to give you a straight forward honest answer.

My telephone number is 6-2716.

To The Voters Of The 4th Magisterial District

Dear Friends:

I have filed my candidacy for the office of magistrate of the fourth district composed of the following precincts: Coway, Scaffold Cane, Tan-yard, Wildie, Cruise Ridge and Green Hill. Following is a number of things you can depend upon after you elect me as your magistrate:

- (1) When elected, I will call a meeting of all citizens of each precinct each year and we will sit down together and decide what is needed in your precinct and how best to meet that need.
- (2) I will see that your hard earned tax dollars will be used to benefit the district as a whole and not a favored few.
- (3) I will travel the roads in the district each year and see personally what condition they are in.
- (4) I will be on the road when the county machinery is working in our district and I will insist that all county machinery be properly operated and cared for.
- (5) I will always welcome your complaints and suggestions and will give them my personal consideration.

I hope to see each of you before election day. Any support you can give me will be highly appreciated.

Self-employed Farmers - Are you Getting The Social Security Credit Due You??

The older man who lives down the road from you gets social security old-age benefits somewhere in your community.

Well, to report your farm earnings and get social security credit, you need two forms. One is called FORM 1040, the other SCHEDULE F. They are Federal income tax forms. They are also used to report earnings for social security. You use them for social security even if you don't owe any income tax.

FORM 1040 is a general form, used by city and farm people alike. The other form, especially for farmers, is the Schedule F. This form looks hard at first. But it's really just a list of what you sold and what you spent running the farm in 1960.

On Schedule F, you add up what you got for the crops and livestock that you raised and sold, plus what you cleared on any livestock you bought and sold. This is your gross profit. Net Profit is your gross profit minus what you spent (all of your costs of doing business). If your gross profit is $600 or more, or your net profit is $400 or more, you can get social security credit for 1960. When you have both $600 or more gross profit and $400 or more net profit, the law requires you to report your income.

Kitchen Planning is Subject Of Farm Home Week Session

Did you know that 60 percent of the average homemaker's working hours are spent in the kitchen? Since you probably spend about this much time working in the kitchen, too, you'll want to attend the all-day program on kitchens at UK's annual Farm and Home Week.

Efficient kitchen planning; color pattern and texture in kitchen wiring; and equipment needs are among the subjects to be discussed.

The kitchen session will be held Wednesday, February 1, in the Guignol Theatre on the University of Kentucky campus. Mrs. Ruth Saunders, district leader of Extension home agents, will preside at 9 a.m., EST. Presiding at the afternoon program, which opens at 1:30 p.m., will be Mrs. Bay Tucker, Shelby County.

Speakers include Frances Holliday, who is with the L-P Gas Company; Mrs. Pauline Warren, a representative of TVA in Nashville; Marian Bartlett, UK Extension Specialist in home furnishings; Mary Alice Willis, who is with the Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Council; and Elizabeth Geddis, home economist with Columbia Gas Co.

Three homemakers who have recently planned new kitchens with UK Extension Service help will discuss their problems and decisions as another part of the morning program. They are: Mrs. James I. Sanders, Garrard County; Mrs. Eugene Ronald, Green County; and Mrs. Noble I. Macfarlane, Fayette County.

These three representatives of rural non-farm and urban homes. Mrs. Gladys Lickert, UK Extension housing specialist, will moderate this discussion.

Home Laundry To Be Discussed At Annual Farm And Home Week

"There's big news in the laundry" and you'll hear the "news" about your home laundry at the session by this title at UK's annual Farm and Home Week.

Fabrics, laundry equipment, and laundry supplies will be discussed at this Thursday Morning, February 2, session in Memorial Hall, which begins at 9 a.m., EST. The program is open to the public.

Mrs. Pauline Massie, home economist with the Kentucky Utility Company in Lexington, will open the program. Helen Kirtland, manager of General Electric's Consumer Institute, will discuss "The Changing World of Fabrics" and N. Elmer Day, regional home economist also with GE's Consumer Institute in Louisville, will talk about today's laundry equipment.

Closing the program will be a talk by Anne Lyon, associate director of Proctor and Gamble Co.'s Home Economics Department in Cincinnati, on "The Cooperative Laundry Supplies." Mrs. Ellj Anderson, specialist in home management with the UK Cooperative Extension Service, will preside at the meeting.

KHSAA Could Use Its Power

This week votes were mailed to the Kentucky High School Athletic Association from schools in Lincoln, Rockcastle and Casey counties for the site for the 46th District High School Basketball Tournament scheduled for March.

In the scheme of things that interest the public, the locale of a high school basketball tournament is generally irrelevant and immaterial. But this is not the case with youngsters in grade and high school who yearn to beat and undergo frustrations in their efforts to win the big prizes for their school and community.

For these reasons, and for the reason of plain old fairness we cannot understand why sites for basketball tournaments cannot be passed around to the various schools in each district, or at least to the schools in the district.

In the 46th District there are two sites that are most acceptable from the standpoint of crowd accommodation. These are Brodhead and Memorial. But as we have pointed out, Memorial will likely be the site for this year's tournament.

We know the hierarchy of KHSAA has many duties to perform, particularly around the larger cities, to be burdened about tourney sites "way down here." But we call on their sense of justice, as well as their authority they have (and we hope they continue to have) to make sure that the money from visiting fans will come into each county through rotation of tourney sites, as well as the elimination of the home floor advantage of the district schools.

We believe the KHSAA should use its authority to see that future tournaments in this area are held at Brodhead at least every other year.

Watts Wants 10 Per Cent Rep. Watts said his study of the situation indicated that "a 10 per cent minimum increase would suffice to meet the demands of the market and insure at least maintaining the growers present position in both the domestic and foreign markets."

Watts noted that he had "strongly supported the position of representatives of the growers and industry in the suggestion that adequate and proper legislation be drafted by the department looking toward the establishment of new criteria respecting grower participation in any future acreage reduction program."

"If legislation following these recommendations were enacted, the acreage allotment receiving increase over their 1960 base would share ratably in any future cuts except that no allotment would be cut below 5 of an acre of the 1960 allotment base, whichever is the smaller."

Watts said "the operational extension to the program shows the department must have flexibility in fluctuating the acreage allotments as needed and field goals as needed, and participation in future acreage up and downs is necessary in order to maintain a healthy balance between supply, demand and production."

Watts said "the reorganization is to reduce the number of the districts so that proper attention can be provided by the district offices to all aspects of the highest priority in the counties," Ward said. "The staff of the district offices will be strengthened. Four new positions will be established: 1. An assistant district engineer in charge of design, planning and right of way; 2. An assistant district engineer in charge of construction, materials and research; 3. An assistant district engineer in charge of maintenance, traffic and equipment; and 4. An administrative manager in charge of records, personnel payroll and clerical work."

Forestry Notes

By Ronald S. Singer

The time for ordering tree seedlings for spring planting is here once again, and, as usual, the deadline for receiving orders will soon be upon us.

The seedling nurseries receive orders from all the 120 counties of the State and must have enough time to process all of the orders, get the seedlings lifted from the nursery beds, pack them, and ship them to you in time for spring planting.

I will visit each landowner requesting trees and help him decide which of the many species offered would be best for his plantation. I will also prepare a plantation map of the site for the landowner so that he may keep a permanent record of his plantations, when he planted them, how many and what type of tree he planted.

This is a conservation service offered free of charge to the landowner.

So far, 27,900 trees have been ordered for spring planting, and the following landowners have already had their lands examined and approved for the plantings: Mrs. Ida Hysinger, 3 acres; Mrs. Pauline Mullins, 3 acres.

Strip Mine Commission In Compliance Drive

A drive by the Strip Mining and Reclamation Commission to bring all strip and auger mine operators into full compliance with the Kentucky Statutes entered its second phase this week when 150 operators were warned to complete reclamation work on land disturbed by them in past operations.

Conservation Commissioner J. O. Matlock, Commission chairman, announced letters were being mailed to all operators who had stripped or augered coal, but who, according to records of the Division of Strip Mining and Reclamation, have not completed the required reclamation work or have failed to make reports of their work.

The letters, which went to 121 operators in Eastern Kentucky and 29 in Western Kentucky, called attention to their non-compliance with the law and warned that if they had not complied within 40 days their cases would be turned over to the Attorney General in violation of the recommendation that he take whatever action is necessary to bring about compliance.

First phase of the Commission's compliance drive was completed Monday, January 16, when the last of 105 operators cited for failure to obtain permits presented their cases. During the hearings, which extended over a two-week period, 38 operators met requirements of the law and qualified for permits, and 43 others agreed to comply by the last of January.

Nineteen of those cited for hearings failed to appear. As a result, Attorney General John B. Breckinridge said he would ask the Division of Strip Mining and Reclamation to assign field men immediately to investigate operations of these companies. Court action will be taken against them if reports of the field men warrant it, he said.

Feltner 4H Camp Group Authorizes Two Projects

The J. M. Feltner Memorial 4-H Club Camp committee said this week that two other camp projects have been authorized.

The camp, located near Levi Jackson State Park in Laurel County, is the beneficiary of a fund-raising campaign in 19 Kentucky counties. Object is to raise money for quarters and facilities.

The new projects for which funds are now available are two shower houses and a sewage system. In addition, funds have been received for completion of the water system.

Currently, committees in the 19 counties are seeking funds for 13 sleeping cabins holding 12 persons each, and four larger sleeping cabins that will be winterized for off-season use of approved groups.

Officially, the drive opens Feb. 1 and closes two weeks later but canvassers in various categories already are busy.

MY FELLOW CITIZENS AND FRIENDS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY

Dear Voters,

Having announced myself as a candidate for Jailer of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican Primary Election, May 23, 1961, I wish to ask for your vote and support in the forthcoming election.

I am 51-years-old and have lived in Rockcastle County all of my life. I am better known as meat cutter for George Parrett and Clyde Barnett for the past 25 years and feel that most of you know me and will consider me qualified for the job.

If elected, I will strive to fulfill my obligations and responsibilities as your jailer. It will be impossible for me to see each one of you before the election, however I will try to do so.

YOUR VOTE AND INFLUENCE GREATLY APPRECIATED

Sincerely Yours, SHIRLEY SOWDER

Heavy Outlays for Aid to Polio Victims Cause Drain on March of Dimes Funds

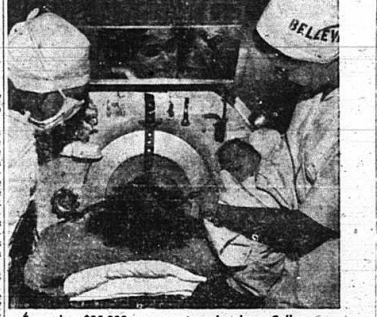

The National Foundation has the distinction and the honor of having exhausted its March of Dimes funds for patient aid," Basil O'Connor, its president, announced recently.

"Therefore, the March of Dimes has a $45 million job to do in 1961," he added. "But we always have had a tremendous job to do and have relied on the American people for financial support through the March of Dimes each January," he said. "At the same time, however, we do not live just from year to year but build broad research, educational and patient-aid programs for much longer periods. Continuation of these programs will require $45 million in 1961."

Speaking of the "urgent monetary needs of the 1961 New March of Dimes drive held Jan. 2-31, the leader of the world's largest voluntary health organization said that in 1960 about one-third of its 3,100 chapters had gone into debt to meet hospital and other bills for aid to polio patients.

"But our chapters are proud that they have not built up bank balances at the expense of human lives," he said. Since 1938, when The National Foundation (for Infantile Paralysis) was organized, a total of $325,200,000 has been spent for direct patient aid to polio victims. In 1960, that bill was about $125,000,000 for some 40,000 of the polio-stricken. Although the Salk vaccine has been available to the public for five years, patient-aid costs remain high chiefly for those stricken before the vaccine was developed, or for those who in 1956 neglected to get inoculated and thus contracted polio.

March of Dimes monetary assistance to individual polio sufferers has sometimes been extremely great. To cite two instances only, patient-aid costs in the case of Mrs. Ingeborg Cully, of New York City, thus far have totaled about $25,000 and the end is not in sight, while expenditures for Tommy Davy, six years old, of Boston, has received $50,000. Aside from the enormous financial aid in patient-aid substantial New March of Dimes funds have been used for research. Since 1938 The National Foundation has allocated $84,000,000 on its broad-based international research program which has produced, among other outstanding achievements, the Salk and Sabin polio vaccines and, incidentally, two Nobel prizes. In 1960, research funds are estimated at $5,000,000. The National Foundation's three health areas of birth defects, arthritis and polio. More than twice that sum, or $10,400,000, is needed for research in 1961.

March of Dimes continues the largest education program for the training of medical and health experts ever attempted by a voluntary health agency. Since 1939, when The National Foundation launched its program of professional education, outlays in this field have totaled $49,000,000. In 1960, total of $1,500,000 in March of Dimes patient contributions was required for the health organization's professional education activities. In 1961, $3,000,000 is needed for this part of the program.
