Local Fiscal Court Meeting Held Here

The odds and ends of the fiscal year were cleared up by the Rockcastle Fiscal Court at a meeting Tuesday.

As usual, the Court voted to continue the licenses for soft drinks, cigarettes and other such items. County Clerk, Clarence Carter, reported the licenses are available for those who wish to purchase them.

The Court also voted to increase the salary of Gwendolyn Abney, secretary in the county agent's office, from $100 to $125 per month.

It also voted to pay $3,300 for county agent office expenses. The expenses include such items as clerk's salary, auto mileage, expenses for county agent and home demonstration agent, rent and miscellaneous items.

While it was on salaries, the Court OK'd a $50 a month increase for Lonza Bullock, commodity checker. The Court agreed that Mr. Bullock's job had increased markedly in the past few months. Mr. Bullock told the Court there are 5,200 persons on the county's commodity list, and that their distribution is unevenly spread over a month than he is making.

Road right-of-way condemnation proceedings were initiated by the County against William Hill, Ed Hazelwood, on the Hammond School Road in the Desputata area.

The magistrates also agreed to renew a contract with Mrs. Gertrude Eilton for the rent of the Pulaski Assisted Home. Monthly rent is $37.50.

The Court agreed to gravel one-and-a-half miles of Branch Road in the Gum Sulphur area.

The next meeting of the organization has been scheduled for July 11.

LIVINGSTON MAN DIES IN AUTO

Robert Lincoln Southard, 77, of the Livingston area, apparently died of a heart attack Wednesday night while driving his auto on the Sand Hill Road.

Mr. Southard, alone in the car, was found when police and an ambulance arrived at the scene. The auto left the road and overturned.

Funeral services will be held at Cox Funeral home, where funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Dinner At U Of K

The kick-off banquet for the University of Kentucky Alumni Fund Raising Drive will be held at the University of Kentucky, in the ballroom of the UK Student Union Building.

Principal speaker at the banquet will be Secretary of the Army, Elvis J. Stahr, former dean of UK's College of Law.

Funeral services for the late John King, reported only three fires for Berea District.

In spite of frequent rains there have been many days throughout the spring season when forest fires would burn somewhere in the Kentucky Forest Service.

Forest Supervisor Collins extends thanks to every Kentucky citizen who made an effort to help, or passed a word of caution or guidance to others, in furthering the protection of this valuable forest land.

Forest Rangers report that their organized Fire Warden crews prove a necessary source of manpower in times of fire emergency. Many wardens take independent action in gathering their forces and controlling forest fires in their localities.

Cooperation of the wardens is remarkable, said Forest Supervisor Collins. These men are voluntary firemen who are only paid when they are fighting forest fires. They perform many

Methodist Church To Have Services

First church services in the newly reactivated, redecorated and remodeled Brodhead Methodist Church will be held at 11 a. m. Sunday.

The church is the only Methodist Church in Rockcastle County.

Howard Jones, London auto dealer and Kentucky Conference lay leader, will be the speaker at the services.

Following the service there will be dinner on the ground. During the afternoon, a census to discover church affiliation will be taken in Brodhead. The information will be made available to all churches.

Formal dedication services for the church will be held June 18. The Rev. Ralph Wesley, superintendent of the church's Danville District, will deliver the first sermon. Also on this date, a weeks revival will begin, with John Fitch, of Williamsburg, as evangelist.

The following week Bible School will be held at the church.

For about seven months, various lay leaders from the Danville District will be in charge of the services. The Rev. Harry Wolfcamp, pastor of the Starbuck Methodist Church, will be pastor in charge of the Brodhead church, and T. G. Ashley, also of the Starbuck church.

The public is invited to attend all services.

KU Manager Owens Dies

Roy Beckham Owens, 58, manager of the Mt. Vernon area of Kentucky Utilities, died at the home of his daughter at Danville June 2.

He was a victim of cancer, and though he had been ill for a considerable time, his death was unexpected.

Mr. Owens had been an employee of KY and its predecessor for 35 years. For the past 22, he was manager at Mt. Vernon.

Prior to his employment with the utility, he worked as a brakeman for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad.

He was a member of Ashland Lodge F&AM, the Rockcastle Chamber of Commerce, the Mt. Vernon Lions Club, the Mt. Vernon Christian Church, as well as active in many civic enterprises.

Mr. Owens was born in Rockcastle County, the son of James Ashley and Nannie Doble Owens. Both preceded him in death.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. William Jerl Thompson, Danville, he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Naomi Stephens, of Lexington, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at the Mt. Vernon Christian Church, with the Rev. Gene Keasom, pastor of the church, officiating. He was buried with Masonic rites in Elmwood Cemetery. Cox Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Howard Funeral Home

COURTEOUS & UNDERSTANDING FUNERAL DIRECTORS - 24 HOUR SERVICE - LANCASTER ST. PHONE EL-2341 CRAB ORCHARD, KY.

In transacting business with this capable firm of undertakers during your bereavement of a loved one, you cannot help but be impressed by the efficient, tactful manner in which we discharge our duties and relief of details which at the moment seems so distressing. This Funeral Home, while striving for greater efficiency in its special field of endeavor has been keen to recognize the value of having equipment designed to meet the present day demands for quiet and unostentatious funerals. They have been quick to equip their business with such motor vehicles as convey an impression of refinement and reverence.

It matters not whether your desires are for the most elaborate and costly, or the most humble origin, they are in a position to supply you at once and are always willing to advise you in matters that seem so confusing and to direct you in a spirit of friendship and brotherly love, rather than as a business man to a customer.

Fabric Shop
