Atty. John Y. Brown won a second preliminary skirmish in his forthcoming court battle to defend Carl Price, 26, of Sand Springs, charged with the "willful murder" of Mary Rose Vance, 21, of Sand Springs on December 4.

Happy New Year

Before the next issue of The Signal, it will be 1962, and we take this opportunity to thank our many friends and patrons for their consideration during the past year, and wish for each and everyone a very happy new year.

Looking over the 1961 headlines on this page, the reader cannot but be impressed by the changes that have taken place throughout the county.

This year, unlike other years, is notable for the lack of tragedies that usually reflect the year-end report. Of course, there were tragedies, but generally they were far outnumbered by the changes and progress that have taken place.

A few of the progressive moves made during 1961 in our area are included in such headlines as: Lion's Re-Activate Boy Scout Troop; County C of C Scrapbook Wins Third Prize; Group Meets To Re-Activate County C of C; Casket Factory Opens At Livingston; County Band Wins Highest Music Rating; Dairy Field Day Draws 300; First Mt. Vernon Annexation Approved; Six Counties Approve Livingston Site For Dam; 7000 Attend Civil War Centennial Parade; Council OKs City Sewer System; County Route For I-75 Established.

All these moves, and others, appear to be for the betterment of the area, and we might add, long overdue.

As time goes by, we predict these progressive measures will bring encouragement to the people of the county and many more progressive changes will take place as the result of the beginnings made this year.

Again, let us wish for everyone a prosperous and happy new year.
