"A half-hour's wages"

... on my dairy route runs our refrigerator-freezer for a month"

"Just 30 minutes of delivering milk," says Frank Phaup, Jr., who lives near Lexington, "and I've earned the price of a whole month's electricity to operate my family's refrigerator-freezer. I'll buy that kind of a bargain in good living any time."

"Our refrigerator-freezer is a bargain in more ways than that," adds Mrs. Phaup. "It has all the refrigerator space I need, and lots of room for good buys in frozen foods, for left-overs, even for things I freeze myself, and it's always saving me trips to the store."

New, compact units save room in the kitchen too, as well as time and money... give more convenience, better living. No wonder the Phaups regard their refrigerator-freezer as one more step up to the best in modern living - All-Electric Living!

Once Over Lightly

HAVE YOU got a poor memory? Well, leave it that way. I wish mine were poorer. Some of the happiest people I know are those who've forgotten the most things. For example, I got together the other night with an old friend whom I hadn't seen in a long time and he asked me if I remembered the old well that his family used to have when they lived on a farm. I remember it all right. I remembered that it was deeper than most oil wells and everytime I drew a bucket I expected to find brimstone in it instead of water. And I remembered that it had a big heavy chain that you wound up on a windlass that must have been made from a California redwood. Sticking out of one end of it was an iron crank handle affair. Any time a small boy found it easy to draw water with that apparatus, it meant one of two things: He hadn't filled the bucket or he had knocked most of the water out of it banging against the sides coming up. And I remembered that once you finally got the water drawn, your troubles were just half over. You still had to carry the water into the kitchen. That was the first form of irrigation in America: A small boy trying to tote water from the well to the kitchen without spilling it. The route he covered was always the best watered spot on the farm. And I remembered something else about that well—my friend's father was always threatening to throw Archibald in it. Archibald was big Maltese tomcat that refused to earn his keep. Rather than keep the barn free of rats, he would spend his days sleeping and his nights either making love or jumping up in your lap and sharpening his claws on you before you could dig them out of your leg. Every time this happened to my friend's father he would threaten to throw Archibald in the well; which I don't think he really meant but every time Archibald would be missing more than a day my friend's mother would start saying that the well water tasted funny. With that, his father would start vowing that he had laid a hand on the animal but if Archibald was missing another 12 hours his mother (my friend's not Archibald's) would stop drinking the water. Then my friend and I would get marching orders from his father: "Go out and find the (X) cat before your mother dyes the (X)." So, instead of being out fishing on the creek, we'd be out combing the countryside looking for that love-mad Archibald. But you know what my friend had to say about all this the other night? He said: "You don't get water like that any more. Man, that was good water. Remember that gourd dipper?" Not a word about how happy he'd been when they'd installed the electric pump. All he could remember about that well was how good the water tasted... and a gourd dipper that had so many green mouldy spots it looked like they were raising penicillin in it. A long memory can have its shortcomings.

Attention Brodhead

The Board of Directors of the Piney Grove Cemetery have spent more than $1100.00 in the past few months in improving and maintaining our cemetery and they plan many additional improvements in the future in order to make this cemetery a more lovely resting place for your loved ones. The only source of income is from the sale of lots and this is by no means sufficient to maintain and improve the cemetery. Therefore, we are asking you to contribute to this worthy cause just as liberally as you possible can. As we approach Memorial Day, a time when we are particularly mindful of our loved ones who have departed this life, we hope that you will not only read this but "ACT" by mailing or giving your contributions to Mr. Guy Roberts, Secretary and treasurer of Piney Grove Cemetery.

Rent Payments Behind For Road Equipment

"LOOKS GLOOMY" CARTER SAYS

Everyone needs more money these days, and the Rockcastle County treasury is no exception—suddenly. The problem the county faces is that it suddenly finds it will be $10,168.50 behind in rental payments for county road equipment on July 1.

Just what happened to get the county into its predicament was the sudden lack of use of the road-working equipment by the State Highway Department. When County Judge Charles C. Carter was asked if the county will be able to solve its financial problem by meeting its obligations on the road equipment on July 1, Judge Carter replied that the situation "looks gloomy," and about the only solution, other than allowing the equipment to be repossessed, is for the state to use the equipment at a maximum, and the Wayne Supply Company, of Louisville, to allow the county to carry over a balance once again.

The story of the road equipment purchase began in May 1960. State officials approved before the Rockcastle Fiscal Court and explained if the county would purchase certain road equipment the state would rent the equipment for use in its Secondary Road Program. With this rental money the county could pay for the equipment and own it.

An order was written to purchase the equipment after a discussion in Fiscal Court on June 30, 1960. A payment was made to the Wayne Supply Company of $8,000 on July 11, 1960 and the equipment was delivered. Later, the state informed the county the equipment had to be purchased on competitive bids and the county complied. The Wayne Supply Company was low bidder. By this time the state had paid $2,812 to Wayne for rentals.

In December 1960, the Wayne Supply Company and the county entered into a contract (with the usual blessing) whereby the county would purchase the $4,714 in machinery. A schedule of payments was agreed on by all concerned.

The county got for its money three pieces of equipment: a Caterpillar tractor, one Caterpillar motor grader, and one portable air compressor drill. The rate paid by the state for use of the equipment was $4 per hour for the tractor, $2 per hour for the motor grader, and $2 per hour for the air compressor drill. The state also allowed $6 per hour for the operator and operating expenses.

The county reasoned that if the three pieces of equipment were used at a maximum eight hours a day, five days a week, for one year at the rental rate, the county would owe rent totaling $17,680, or more than enough to pay the purchase price of the equipment. The total bill for the equipment was figured as listed below: $4,714 equipment; $13,441.43 operating; 100 percent on deferred pay.

Five Fined For Liquor

Rockcastle Residents Convicted

Five Rockcastle County residents were convicted on liquor charges in Rockcastle County Quarterly Court Monday.

Three were tried as an aftermath of a series of raids throughout the county about two weeks ago by county, state and federal agents. Marion Moore, of Calloway, was fined $30 and given 30 days on a charge of selling liquor.

Robert Rowe, of Mt. Vernon, was fined $100 and given 60 days in jail on a charge of possession of untaxed paid liquor.

Mrs. Elsie McFarlane, of Calloway, was fined $100 and given 30 days in jail on a charge of selling liquor. Delbert Isaacs, of Mt. Vernon, was fined $50 and given 60 days in jail on a charge of possession of untaxed paid liquor.

James Goforth, charged with selling liquor, had his case dismissed on a motion by County Atty. James Lambert for lack of evidence.

Ruth Thomas, of this area, was fined $20 and given 30 days on a guilty plea of selling liquor.

Moore, Rowe, and Mrs. McFarlane appealed their cases in Circuit Court. Several other cases were continued until the next session of court.

Retired Teachers—Mrs. Alice Albright, right, and Miss Jane Clancy, have taught collectively 98 years in Fayette County schools at their retirement.

The most rewarding thing about teaching," they said, "is to see our children grow up and do well. When they don't do so well, it hurts us as much as it does them."

They feel that most of their students have been successful in fulfilling their vocations—whether it be housewives or professors. After retiring, both Mrs. Albright and Miss Clancy plan to do more church work. Mrs. Albright is a member of Broadway Christian Church.

Mrs. Alice Albright Retires

Mrs. Alice Albright, a native of Mareburg, and Miss Jane Clancy, of Lexington, retired recently from teaching in Fayette County schools after teaching collectively for 98 years.

Both taught 34 years together, and at retirement were grade teachers at Mary Todd school, Lexington.

Each attended Eastern Kentucky State College and graduated from the University of Kentucky.

Mrs. Albright is the daughter of the late Jopp McCall. She is a sister to Charles Hunt, of Brodhead, and Mrs. Grace Bethum, of Mareburg. She has one son, Mack Albright, of Lexington. She is the widow of John J. Albright.

Neither teacher can recall any incident in particular that has stood out in her years of instructing, but both agree that "with teaching so many children, funny things happen everyday."

Miss Clancy and Mrs. Albright have always managed to keep in touch with former students. During World War II, they were in the service of the Army. He was a member of the Mareburg Baptist Church and Ashland Lodge 640 F.&A.M.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his wife, Gladys Bradley Hunt, two daughters, Mrs. Michael Hunt, and Gail Hunt, at home; Jimmy Hunt, Patterson, Mo.; and Jonathan Hunt, at home.

Governor To Dedicate Crafts Center

PART OF "MAIN STREET" AT RENFRO VALLEY — Fred Rose, Glimer Pruitt and William Moore at Work

Kentucky Gov. Bert Combs will dedicate a new hand-craft center and "Main Street" at Renfro Valley June 8.

The "Main Street" consists of a series of rooms which will house various craft shops and sales rooms. It is located about U.S. 25 and adjoins the Candy Kitchen.

The building which housed the County Store will contain a woodworking shop under the direction of Eli Edlar, Edlar and his father, Bob Edlar.

The County Store has been moved to the right side of the newly constructed "Main Street." A building adjoining the "Main Street" will be used later for book-making. A pottery-making shop will be constructed later.

At the dedication, the County Store will be open for the weavers. Temporary, only rag dolls and ties will be woven here. The spinner will probably be located in the back end of the front porch of the building. Only one spinner and one weaver will be on duty for the exhibit. Others who are engaged with this work will be in the store rooms. Mrs. Phyllis Bray will be in charge of rug and quilts.

There will also be an old-fashioned drug-store along "Main Street" which was in use until about five years ago. There will also be a collection of unusual dolls which will be on display. The dolls are made by Amy Mabley, of Sand Gap, and did not apply its heads. The dolls have received Rockcastle voters, who took the time to go to the polls Tuesday in the primary election, were more interested in the new voting machines than in the candidates. This was apparently the case, since there was comment at nearly every polling station about the use of the machines for the first time. Even with the new machines, voters still stayed home in droves, because of the hot, humid weather and the lack of any real contest in both parties.

As expected, political organization demonstrated its

Awards Night At Livingston

Many and varied awards were received by Livingston High School students at a recognition night and graduation ceremonies at the school Tuesday.

Sara a Marie Rigby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rigby, of Orlando, was named valedictorian, and Darrell Eugene New, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer New, was named salutatorian.

Participating in the softball league will be the following teams: Mt. Vernon, Brodhead, Livingston, Ottawa, Freshmen, Rebels, Teenagers, and the Aces. There is a possibility there will be two other teams before Monday's deadline.

Adult softball I a game games will be on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Livingston Monday. The Pee Wee League game will begin at 12:30 p. m., and the Girls' League begins at 2:30 p. m. The age limit for the girls is from seven to nine.

Senate Passes Works Program

Senate Democratic leaders, stung by Republican criticism of President John F. Kennedy's financing policies, pushed through the Senate Monday a compromise bill to fund the public-works program designed to combat unemployment. The vote was 44 to 32.

The Senate approved the bill after rejecting two Republican efforts to substitute more limited loan-and-grant programs.

The day-long debate was crisscrossed by a partisan exchange when Senator Proxmire charged that the President's original request for financing a $2,000,000,000 work-spending program was excessive.

Rabies Clinic Scheduled

Arrangements have been made to give rabies shots to dogs in the county and a schedule has been announced.

The arrangement was made with Dr. Rudolph Burdette, veterinarian, and the Rockcastle County Health Department.

According to Dr. M. A. Shepherd, county health officer, it is very important that dog owners have rabies shots given to their dogs. Immunization could prevent an outbreak of rabies such as been in neighboring counties.

Dr. Shepherd asked dog owners to abide by the law, protect themselves and their neighbors, protect their livestock.

Dogs will be vaccinated for a special price of $1.50 for a three year vaccine. Vaccinations will be given at the following places at the following times:

June 4—Pine Hill School, 1 p. m. to 1:15 p. m.; Livingston, 1:30 p. m. to 1:45 p. m.; Barnett's Store at Red Hill, 2 p. m. to 2:30 p. m.; June 5—Orlando Post Office, 1 p. m. to 1:15 p. m.; Climax Post Office, 1:30 p. m. to 1:45 p. m.; Disputanta Post Office, 2 p. m. to 2:15 p. m.; Wildie Post Office, 2:30 p. m. to 2:45 p. m.; Conway, 3 p. m. to 3:15 p. m.; June 6—Sand Springs Post Office, 1 p. m. to 1:15 p. m.; Blue Springs School, 1:30 p. m. to 1:45 p. m.; Willsall (Herron Store) 1:45 p. m. to 2 p. m.; Negro Creek (Brummett's Store) 2:15 p. m. to 2:30 p. m.; Brodhead (opposite new bank) 2:45 p. m. to 3:30 p. m.; June 8—Dr. Rudolph Burdette's home, 5 p. m. to 6:30 p. m.

COUNTY EQUIPMENT

ments, $3,111; total, $49,166.42.

Apparently, as far as Judge Carter knew everything had been working satisfactorily since the purchase. He had not seen the contracts and did not see them until May 12, 1962, after he received a letter from J. M. Link, controller for Wayne Supply Company, which stated:

"The county is approximately $10,000 behind in rental payments due July 1, 1962."
Mr. Link further stated: "Due to the very considerable amount of rentals that are in arrears, we request the county set aside additional monies from its road fund (truck tax) to reduce the overall amount. Options are not effective unless they are current."

The company also enclosed the figures for Judge Carter to study and the figures quickly accounted for the arrears.

From December, 1960 to July 1, 1961, the rental due Wayne was $21,913.25. The county paid an $8,000 down payment to Wayne, leaving a balance as of July 1, 1961, of $13,913. The state paid $9,700 for rentals, bringing the amount down to $4,213.25 not paid to Wayne as of July 1, 1961.
The $4,213.25 balance was brought forward by Wayne and added to rentals to July 1, 1962 which totalled $13,673.25. This amount, added to the balance of $4,213.25 left the county owing $17,886.50. The state used the equipment during this period for a total of $7,718 and forwarded this amount to Wayne. The balance now stands at $10,168.50. Coming due on July 1, 1962 will be $13,579.92 for the new rental period, plus the $10,168.50 that was carried over, for a total of $23,748.42.

The county has actually been credited with paying $25,418 on the equipment.
By counting the number of hours that the state could use the equipment full time between now and July 1, the county could not possibly balance the payments, leaving the only alternative, the side-tracking of funds from the county treasury, which were to have been used on county roads, to pay all or part of the arrears.

This is the cause for Judge Carter's "looks gloomy" feeling.

Just what Wayne Supply Company will do about the fast accumulating debt is not certain. What the county can or will do remains until the contracts have been closely examined by County Attorney James Lambert and other administration officials.
Speculation has it that it is doubtful that Wayne will repossess the equipment, but the "financial going" could be rough for the county in the next few months.

MRS. ALBRIGHT RETIRES

ian Church and Miss Clancy of St. Peter Catholic Church. Keeping house and working with flowers are other pastimes they plan to devote more time to. Mrs. Albright also likes to play cards and fish.

Miss Clancy enjoys raising birds and for 30 years has been a sponsor of Audubon Bird Clubs for her students. She also likes race horses and dogs.
With numerous interests and hobbies, they are not concerned about becoming idle after retirement. "At least," they said, "we know we'll be all right in the summer."

WORK PROGRAM

program amounted to a form "embezzlement."
Senator Robert S. Kerr (D., Okla.) floor manager for the bill, accused Bush of engaging in the "lowest level of partisan politics I've seen displayed on the Senate floor." He said Bush's remarks were unfair, incorrect, and "an insult."

The final version of the bill authorized $750,000,000 for projects next year in areas of high unemployment and an additional $750,000,000 "standby" authority for projects in the succeeding fiscal year starting July 1, 1963, to counter any economic downturn.

The compromise represented a "logical retreat" from the original $2,600,000,000 bill cleared by the committee, which would have given the President standby authority to spend two billion dollars on projects as an anti-recession weapon.
Democrats hailed the bill as a frontal assault on the unemployment problem.
More than 1,000 economically distressed areas in all 50 states would be eligible for matching federal aid for construction of roads, libraries, sewers, and other works projects if Congress appropriates the necessary money.

George H. Roberts Buried at Ottawa

Bond Sales

The sale of Series E and H Savings Bonds during April in Rockcastle County was $2,087, bringing the cumulative sales for the year to $32,861 or 39.9 percent of the annual goal of $81,450. At the same time it was announced the Freedom Bond Drive Goal was $42,355 and sales through April achieved 76.8 percent of this goal.

In Kentucky, sales for April were $4,265,045 while cumulative sales for the year totalled $20,314,199 or 34.9 percent of the annual goal of $58,200,000. It was also announced the Freedom Bond Drive goal for the State was $30,264,000 and sales through April achieved 67.1 percent of this goal.

Change Speed

The speed limit on Interstate highways and the Kentucky Turnpike has been increased to 70 miles per hour. Highway Commissioner Henry Ward has reported the new speed limit is for rural sections only.
The limit was 65 miles per hour during the day and 50 at night. The new maximum will apply at all times.

"The speed has been increased so the public can travel these modern roads at a speed which meets the standards for which they were designed," Ward said.

sees and benches, tables, lamps, books and magazine racks, plants and other accessories, depending on the size of your porch and the use you make of it.

A wide range of materials are available from which to choose. For seating, bamboo, cane, wicker, ash or redwood, wrought iron, aluminum, chrome, and painted iron are available.

For tables, you have a choice of all these plus rough glass. Consider durability, comfort, ease of cleaning, price and flexibility when making your selection.

You can choose porch rugs in fiber, hemp, cotton, wool, or combinations if the rug is protected from weather, you may prefer the cloth fibers. Fabrics are now available made with sun-resistant materials, mildew-proof solutions, and coatings which resist soil.

RIGHT USE OF COLOR. HESITATE TO WRITE. SPRING REDECORATING. Let color be a spring redecorating help when you choose wallpaper or paint.

Choose colors that the members of your family enjoy. The color scheme for your room may be taken from a fabric or a picture if you wish; study these to learn how much of each color to use.

Trends in wall colors are toward light neutrals or tints of a color. These combine more easily with other colors and make a good background for the furniture and fabrics.

Selection of porch furniture should be a family decision. You'll probably want to buy some things to go with those you have. If you wish, you can select furniture to be used in another room when not in use on the porch. You may want chairs, make a room look larger; contrasting colors give the room a smaller look. You have several choices as to the number of colors to use in one room. A single color may be used in different tints and shades. You may use two colors in varying amounts; avoid having even amounts of the two colors. Or three colors in varying amounts may be used.

To get a balance of color in your room, plan for some light, some medium and some dark color, with more light than dark. Accent colors may be bright colors; they are often seen in pillows and accessories.

For a restful room, try the blues, aquas, and greens which resemble the sky. For warm, cheerful rooms, you can use yellows and reds which resemble sunlight and fire. Wood colors in furniture, paneling and accessories also add warmth to a room.

White ceilings reflect light well, thus giving more light when artificial lighting is used. Tracks do not show up as much on floor or rug colors that are similar in lightness and darkness to the color of the soil outside your house.
