$15,000, for as long as six years, under greatly liberalized terms. Primary emphasis will be placed on the character of the applicant and his past record of meeting obligations, and no application will be turned down merely because he lacks collateral to pledge as security for the loan.

"SEA believes that you people to take a chance on people," Mr. Blankenship said, "and we are taking a calculated risk in cases where we believe the applicant has a favorable earnings' potential sufficient to repay the loan."

"We have simplified our procedures and requirements of these loans. We believe it is important to help the many thousands of struggling firms as a means of creating new jobs and stimulating the economy in our State and Nation."

Blankenship urges businessmen needing this service to contact the Small Business Administration office, located at 1900 Commonwealth Bldg., Louisville, Kentucky, 40202, telephone number 582-5271.
