Mrs. Larry Gene Millard
Miss Nell Doris Hoskins Weds Larry Gene Millard

Miss Nell Doris Hoskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Hoskins, London, and Mr. Larry Gene Millard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Millard, Waynesburg, were married Sunday, July 13 at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Clarence E. Patton, and Mr. Patton at London.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Winn T. Barr, pastor of the First Baptist Church, London, before an improvised altar of two seven-branched candelabra entwined with fern and white satin bows, flanking a white prayer bench.

Proceeding the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Harold Taylor at the piano. Mr. Jimmy Morrison, soloist, sang "O Perfect Love." At the close of the ceremony, he sang "The Lord's Prayer" while the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice trimmed with Venice lace applique, and the sabrina neckline. The ton home. Mrs. Carl Jones, the bride's cousin, and Mr. Jimmy Morrison served at the bride's table.

The new Mrs. Millard is a graduate of Georgetown College, Georgetown, where she was a member of Sigma Kappa Sorority. Her husband attended Sue Bennett College, London, and Eastern Kentucky State College, Richmond.

The couple will make their home in Lexington where the bridegroom is employed. Mrs. Millard will be teaching at Deer Spring Elementary School.

Mrs. Millard is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hillton.

2 Men Injured In Wreck

Three tractor-trailers wrecked Tuesday night on the rain washed highway, injuring two men seriously.

Preston Doughty, 29, of London, received such severe injuries to both legs that amputation is feared. He is in Lexington hospital listed in critical condition.

Claude Manning, 39, Preston Ave., is in a Lexington hospital with a concussion. His condition is reported as fair at this time.

State police troopers Gary Godby and Johnny Sims investigated the incidents. Trooper Godby stated that Manning was southbound some 3.8 miles south of Mt. Vernon on U. S. 25 in the Pine Hill curve when his empty transfer truck skidded into the northbound lane of traffic.

Doughty who was hauling a cargo of steel reinforcing rods was unable to avoid skidding into Manning.

The second mishap occurred at 10:20 p. m. some 6.3 miles south of Mt. Vernon on U. S. 25 near a gift shop.

Robert H. Canterbury, 47, at Fayette, Ala., told Trooper Godby that he repeatedly attempted to slow-up his tractor-trailer loaded with steel pipe. Canterbury said that everytime he applied the brakes the truck started into a spin and he finally lost control, turning over and landing within 20 feet of a gift shop.

Canterbury apparently received any injury. The truck he was driving had the cab torn off and the truck frame twisted.

Edmund Wilson Attends Research Conference

Edmund Wilson was among 65 persons attending the 4-day conference at Eastern Kentucky State College at Richmond.

The conference to seek methods of promoting the growth of cottage industries in the Appalachia region was sponsored by the United States Cooperative research branch U. S. office of education and by a federal grant of $8,306.

Also attending the conference were State superintendent of public instruction Harry Sparks, Congressman Carl Perkins, a representative from Denmark and other professional craftsmen, artists and experts in the field of cottage industries.

This convention, held in Combs Hall, was attended by invitation only.

The conference recommended that pilot programs for both adults and students get underway this year, using existing industrial arts facilities and teachers. Detailed plans will be made and put into effect sometime this fall, Dr. John Rowlett, conference director, said.

A retraining program for industrial arts teachers in Appalachia was proposed. These programs would be held at teacher-education colleges during the summer with instruction by professional artist-craftsmen.

Specialists in finance, private marketing, and cooperative marketing told of factors needed for success for both beginning and experienced craftsmen.
