Due to the success of our November Clearance Sale we have decided to continue it through December. We want to move as many used cars as possible to make room on our lots for the many fine late model cars traded in on the 1966 Pontiacs. Now is the time to take advantage of our ever abundance of fine used cars. And if you wish, with the purchase of our 1966 model and on, we will also subtract our $20.00 worth of groceries. Take advantage of this sale, not only to beat us but to beat us on our own!!!

...cant go far enough. In such a rich honky as ours, weans ort to hand' together an gift our President to add to his.
My last was really teased when I went to set a spell with my naber. Theyuns live in 2 little room house with a wittle box lakked over the winder an theyuns got 4 pore little natty noed, barefooted younguns an theyuns was huddled around the fyre place so slyfull lookin. But what teached me deeply clear down in my hart was when I seen theyuns had to watch BLACK and WHITE Tellevisian, thats jst plain Ah Ject Poorerty hart class. Them pore younguns desave a better life than that. An if youuns will line me in fitting for theyre fights. The President will raise theyre Ade check-so theyuns can get a COLLEGE Tellevisian. Pore younguns.

Mrs. Baker Reaches 100th Birthday

It's wonderful to be a hundred, if you're well and can enjoy it, and Mrs. Laura Hatt Baker was both when she celebrated her 100th birthday Nov. 22 at Bloomington, Ind.

Mrs. Baker is the sister of J. A. (Pappy) Hatt of Renfro Valley and comes to Kentucky, her old home, each summer.

There were also relatives from this area at the birthday celebration, including Mrs. Claude McHargue, Mrs. John Cox, and Mrs. Ben Craig.

Mrs. Baker has been in Bloomington about 13 years, going there from Kentucky. She is the oldest of three children and lived most of her life on a farm. She credits her longevity to hard work and temperance in all things.

"Looking back over her long life she pinpointed her greatest joy."

"Being a housewife and mother, mingling with neighbors and friends, and just trying to be a good friend have given me the greatest pleasure," she said.

Mrs. Baker was married 28 years ago. She had six children, three of whom died in early childhood. She has been a widow since 1935.

Her last illness was as a child when she contracted typhoid fever. Also as a child she fell from a horse and broke an arm.

White haired, unstopped by her years, and looking more like 50 than 100, Mrs. Baker whittles away the hours doing some housework and watching television.

"Looking back over her life, Mrs. Baker says she has no regrets. Her theory throughout life has been to make the best of everything that happened to her.
