DRY WEATHER CAN DAMAGE PLANT BEDS

Fertilizer injury and dry weather can cause plant bed bed failure, says Dr. Joe Smiley, University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service specialist. Usually, application of too much fertilizer is the problem, he says. But since trouble sometimes follows the use of calcium cyanamid (a nitrogen fertilizer) for weed control. This sometimes raises the nitrogen content to a level in the soil dangerous to plants.

Also, over-heating of the soil during the burning process (to kill weed seed) causes accumulation of alkaline salts and this will often cause plant failure. Keep the plant bed soil moist until the seedlings have become established. Do this by watering. Use about 150 gallons of water for each 100 feet of plant bed nine feet wide, or 75 feet of plant bed 12 feet wide. This amount will moisten the surface adequately. After plants are established, 300 to 500 gallons of water per 100 square yards of bed may be needed, each week. The water should be applied if the soil surface of the plant bed is dry, Dr. Smiley emphasizes. He also cautions about confusing fertilizer-injury with nitrogen starvation. In both, the plants turn yellow. Farmers may add nitrogen fertilizer to a bed already damaged by fertilizer-injury, thus making the situation worse. "Be sure plant beds need to be fertilized before you add additional fertilizers," he says.

STONE BARBECUE
 A welcome addition to summer outdoor living is a barbecue you can build yourself. Because of its rugged beauty, building stone is one of the most popular materials. A favorite type is a stone barbecue in the round. Only five feet in diameter, it will fit into almost any yard. Its main feature, a large semicircular wind wall of flagstone, makes an excellent working counter.

A PARTY TO START THE DAY

What better way to start the day than with a party? On a spring Sunday, a late breakfast or early lunch get-together can make the most enjoyable part of the week-end. More and more people seem to be discovering this. A recent survey indicates that 17 per cent of all guests are entertained at breakfast!
 Consider the appeal of a menu including Pineapple Welcome, a refreshing drink for which rum-flavored pineapple is served from a fresh pineapple shell; popovers made from your favorite recipe or boxed mix, baked ahead and reheated just before serving; a creamy cheese mold served with fresh berries; and large cups of coffee.

FACTS ABOUT TERRAZZO

Terrazzo is a type of durable flooring made by setting chips of marble into concrete, then planing the surface to a high gloss. Terrazzo is not a copyrighted name; it is sold under many trade names. Here are some facts about this widely-used flooring that may interest you.

NON-SLIP FLOORS

Wherever pedestrian traffic is heavy — office buildings, hospitals, schools — non-slip terrazzo floors are being used. The warmth and beauty of terrazzo, in addition to its safety and durability factors, are further reasons for its wide acceptance wherever people gather.

COMFORT FIRST

Apartments with spacious rooms and plenty of play space outside, non-slip terrazzo floors that are easy to walk on, and tinted all-climate windows are just a few of the comforts, resulting from the belief of the "new" architecture that your comfort comes first.

DURABLE FLOORS

Economy-minded builders are using more and more terrazzo flooring in their constructions. The life of terrazzo is often measured better in decades than in years. Once it is properly installed, terrazzo flooring requires a minimum of upkeep effort and expense.

NEW BUILDINGS

Some of the most important buildings completed in the last two years show a movement away from the glass-and-steel boxes of the recent past. Many designers stand out in their use of new materials, or a new use for old materials — like durable, economical terrazzo.

Letter To Editor

"I have never lived in Mt. Vernon, but I have passed through it so many times that it feels almost like home to me. Mark Maggard, who used to live in Mt. Vernon was a native of Burning Springs, Kentucky, where I was born, reared, and lived for 40 years of my life. One of the I. C. McDaniels boys married a girl from Mt. Vernon, and from the last account that I had of him, he lived there. A dentist by the name of Henderson, as I remember, did some dental work for me once upon a time. Since I am a mountaineer, the rocks that you see around Mt. Vernon look good to me. The Rock Castle that you can see from the highway has made Rockcastle County famous. The creek called Drowning Creek that goes under the ground is another phenomena that is different and causes me to wonder where the water goes.

The people of this county have to be hard working and thrifty or they could not make a living. You would not think it, but some of the best politicians in the State of Kentucky come from Rockcastle County. A politician is a man who understands people and knows how to get them to do what he wants them to do. May God Bless Rockcastle, and give them a new and a better way to make a living than they have at the present time. Sincerely, James William Jewell (AB, Berea College), (AM, University of Kentucky), (ThD, Christ's Seminary), professor of literature, Baraboo College, Concord, North Carolina."

(Thank you, Professor Jewell, for your kind letter. Not often does a visitor take the time to tell us how they like this county. For your information, Mark Maggard died several years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Rex McDaniel live in St. Petersburg, Fla. The Doctors Henderson are still very much in business here.

THINGS YOU NEVER KNEW ABOUT INSECTS

From the wool-nibbling moth to the Biblical locust to the ladybug of nursery rhyme fame, insects play a bigger and more interesting role in your life than most people realize. In fact, if we destroyed certain insects that pollinate plants, or feed on other insects that are harmful to crops, many of our favorite fruits and vegetables would disappear. Sexually known as Hexapoda - a name derived from the Greek words for "six" and "foot" - insects may be recognized by three pairs of legs, a body in three sections (head, thorax and abdomen) and one or two pairs of wings.

They range in size from the battledore-wing fairy fly with a 1/128-inch body to the African goliath beetle, which measures up to 3.85 inches in body length.

Clothes Moth
Beetles are insects in "armor", since they have a tough protective coating. Allied Chemical pest control experts report that the Coleoptera order, to which beetles belong, is the largest: at last count there were over 270,000 species.

The ladybug is a common beetle welcome in any garden. She lays eggs on the underside of the leaves of plants infested with insects.

Bees are members of one of the most beneficial and fascinating insect families. The honey bee, for example, has such a discriminating sense of smell that she can tell the bees in her own colony from those in another, and can distinguish the perfume of hundreds of different flowers.

Moths and butterflies are members of the Lepidoptera order. In the U.S. and Canada alone, there are more than 8,000 kinds of moths, but only 700 species of butterflies. Among the world's most fascinating moth species is the Hercules emperor moth, which has a wing area of up to 40.8 square inches and is the largest known. The smallest is the Nepticella microtheviella, with a wing span of less than 1/8 of an inch.

Probably the most familiar of all moths is the common clothes moth, whose larvae can eat a hole in both your clothes and your clothing budget. The adult lays its eggs in woollens and furs where the eggs can lie dormant for 18 months or more. Once hatched, the larvae go to work immediately making a feast of your clothes. Hungry ones have even been known to settle for soiled cottons and synthetics!

But your garments needn't become moth food! If you keep your closets free of mothballs, you can keep your clothes safe. Mothballs are made of naphthalene, a chemical that repels moths. They are sold in small, round containers. They are also available in liquid form. They are also available in liquid form. They are also available in liquid form.

While science has come up with a way to "para-lyze" higher than farmers want to pay. Guthion and Alfatox were most effective in U. K. tests, giving longer residual control. Alfatox is more expensive than Guthion. Rigid safety precautions are needed if Guthion or Parathion is used. Malathion is not effective if temperature is 60 degrees F. or less. The longest-lived insect is the 17-year cicada, but it spends 98 1/2% of its life underground in a larval state. The cicada is thought to be known to settle for soiled cottons and synthetics!

Such odd facts about insects are endless - and are interesting to anyone who is interested in the natural world. They are also interesting to anyone who is interested in the natural world.

Alfalfa Weevil May Be Around This Year
In the 1965 infestation of the alfalfa weevil was a standard, this year could be as bad, says Dr. R. L. Miller, University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service entomologist.

He listed a number of important facts this week, to get farmers ready to combat the pest this spring. Last year the weevil did heavy damage to Kentucky alfalfa crops.

Materials Permitted: Alfatox, Diazinon, Guthion, Malathion, Methoxychlor, and Parathion. These come in various preparations, but the emulsifiable concentrate (liquid) form is the only one recommended. Strengths of the materials, application rates, and waiting periods after spraying before harvesting or grazing, are listed on a special placard available through county agents' offices.

Control Factors: Parathion and Guthion are the most poisonous to human beings. Malathion is the least toxic to humans. Alfatox, diazinon and methoxychlor are between Malathion and Parathion or Guthion in toxicity range. Guthion or Parathion should probably be applied by custom operators only. In using any of the materials, however, safety precautions should be followed closely.

Dr. Miller notes that cost of Diazinon per acre for alfalfa weevil control may be safest to use if the farmer does his own spraying.

Food Stamp Program Underway May 1

Rockcastle County's food stamp program will get underway May 1, replacing give-aways.

Applications for stamps will be taken beginning Friday, Apr. 1. Applications will be taken by Magisterial districts.

Any Monday during April, persons eligible in Magisterial District 1 may apply. Any Tuesday during April, persons in District 2 may apply. Any Wednesday will be District 3; any Thursday, District 4; and any Friday, District 5.

Applications will be taken at the Public Assistance Office on Church Street.

Stamps will be allocated at an office on the third floor of the Courthouse. In charge of the office is Clinton Phillips, clerk, and Mrs. Jean Brock, secretary. Two certifying officers from the Department of Public Assistance will be in Mr. Vernon shortly to take charge of the program.

Applicants are reminded that they must sign on their prescribed day, or days, in April, since no commodities will be issued in May.

Under the federal stamp program, persons will receive stamps which may be taken to any qualifying grocery store and exchanged for groceries.

Jack Waddell, supervisor of the food stamp program in Kentucky, was the principal speaker at a district welfare meeting at Brodhead School recently.

Waddell emphasized the "dignity" of food stamp issuance compared with the surplus commodity program. A much greater variety of food can be obtained by a family using the stamps than they had to accept under the commodity program, he said.

HERE and THERE

By: Ray McClure

TRAFFIC SIGNALS
We hear Highway Commissioner Henry Ward has approved the new traffic routing and signals through Mt. Vernon. The engineers were due in this week to begin preparations. But we haven't noticed them yet.

INCOMPLETE
For the many who are writing, we are sorry but Signal files before 1959 are very incomplete. We have some copies of each year, but not all copies. However, since 1962 all Signals have been bound and are complete.

WE'LL STILL TRY
News may not be as complete in the Signal as in the next few issues. The editor has been summoned for federal jury duty at London. We tried to get off the jury for other years, but didn't make the grade. We didn't even try this year. But we'll still try to get as much news as possible. Please bear with us.

NO PASSING
Motorists on US 25 in Rockcastle County should take note that "no passing" zones have been changed in many sections of the county. Current signs to that effect have been erected. The yellow lines will come later. Be careful. You may get a traffic ticket.

REPAIR WORK
We see the L & N Railroad is concentrating this week on the crossings at Mt. Vernon, as you probably have noticed. They are making repairs. The US 25 crossing is getting very rough and needed the repairs.

NEW SIDEWALKS
We see workmen laying concrete for connecting walks in front of the courthouse. This is a good idea. Most of the grass to get around the building rather than go "all the way around."

CLUB TO MEET
The Womens Republican Club banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m., April 7 at the Geneva Valley Lodge. Tickets may be purchased from club members or at the door. Everyone is invited. There will be a charge for the dinner.

FOR THOSE WHO ASKED
For our out-of-state readers who are asking about the defeated Male High School for the championship of the Kentucky High School Basketball Association at Freedom Hall. For the record, our representative (13th Region) in the tournament, Knox Central, was in an outdoor drama will be presented this year at Indian Fort Theatre at Berea College. ## Judge Vacates Bench In Anderson Trials

Circuit Judge R. C. Tartar will give up his bench temporarily during this term of Circuit Court in favor of Judge Gilbert Wilson of Lancaster who will hear five liquor cases involving William Anderson, formerly of Orlando.

Judge Tartar stepped down after a motion was filed by attorney for Anderson in July, 1965 asking that Judge Tartar vacate the bench in all criminal actions pending against Anderson because, according to the motion, "he said R. C. Tartar is so biased and prejudiced against this defendant as to be unable to give this defendant a fair and impartial trial."

Judge Tartar waited until this past week before announcing he had decided to step down in favor of Judge Gilbert.

Fish and Wildlife Resources Commissioner Minor Clark said a portion of the extra money will be used to raise salaries of department employees, especially those of conservation officers.

There was no estimate of how much extra revenue the license boosts would generate.

Clyde Hubbard of Louisville, president of the League of Kentucky Sportsmen, said last night that while he doesn't like to see hunting and fishing licenses increased, he feels the action by the commissioners was necessary.

GLAZED BISCUITS SHINE ON MENU

Fragrant hot biscuits star as the main attraction at Sunday breakfast, holiday dinner or coffee with friends, especially when they feature a filling and glaze of Dutch Apple Dessert.

For a short-cut to new meal appeal use packaged refrigerator biscuits and the convenient ready-to-serve Dutch Apple Dessert. Made from a blend of apples, sugar, butter and tapioca with just a hint of cinnamon this new product combines easily with other pantry shelf ingredients and imparts a delicate apple-cinnamon flavor to these biscuits.

Serve them piping hot and serve them often. These glazed biscuits are destined to become an all-family favorite.

DUTCH-APPLE GLAZED BISCUITS

1/2 cup sugar	1/2 cup corn flake crumbs
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon	1/2 cup chopped raisins
1 jar Gerber Junior Dutch Apple Dessert	2 packages refrigerator biscuits

Combine sugar, cinnamon, Dutch Apple Dessert crumbs, and chopped raisins. Sprinkle about 1/4 cup whole raisins in well greased 9-inch square baking pan. Separate refrigerator biscuits and place half of them on top of raisins in pan. Place spoonful of Dutch Apple Dessert mixture on top of each biscuit with a dot of butter if desired. Place remaining biscuits on filling and press down. For glaze: Stir 1/2 cup corn syrup into filling and pour mixture over and between filled biscuits. Bake in a moderate oven, 375 F., about 25 minutes, or until puffed and browned. Makes 10-12 glazed biscuits.

Before you spend that loose change, spend a minute to read this

Just 68¢ a day for one month is all it takes to get you a U. S. Savings Bond.

Twelve crisp, new Savings Bonds at the end of one year. And for just 68¢ a day you've put away $225, which will grow into $300 at maturity.

8 1/2% interest is paid on all Bonds when held to maturity—a safe, steady rate. Something to grow on. Something to take honest pride in. That's why it's the star-spangled savings plan for all Americans. Millions of your countrymen have been saving the Bond way since 1941.

It makes mighty good sense to plan for your future with Bonds. Take just the tax angle alone. You pay no state or local tax on your income from Bonds—and you can defer the federal income tax until you go to cash them.

What's more, your Bonds convert easily to cash in emergencies.

So instead of blowing that loose change, put it to work for you and your family. And your country.

- Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds
- ✓ You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity
  - ✓ You can get your money when you need it
  - ✓ Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
  - ✓ You can buy Bonds where you bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work
- Buy E Bonds for growth—Bonds for current income

40 Years Ago
March 25, 1926

Miss Ida May Adams, a lawyer in Los Angeles, was a guest last week of Mrs. Deas Shaffery Diehl. Miss Adams has the distinction of being the first Kentucky woman to be admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the U. S.

Circuit court convened Monday with Judge H. C. Kennedy presiding. Among other things, the judge spoke in "strong terms" of the idle man. He admonished all to "watch the idle man" saying there was too much loafing going on in the streets of Mt. Vernon while the people here were importing potatoes. He predicted that if some of the idle men and boys would get to work there would be less stealing going on in the community. Solomon Griffin was named foreman of the Grand Jury and Levi Pennington foreman of the Petit Jury.

Miss Sallie DeBoorde and John Childress were quietly married a few days ago. Much praise is being given to our Deputy Sheriff, Noah Tipton, for the interest given to the Broodhead drive. He has made a number of successful raids capturing and destroying moonshine stills.

FIGHT CANCER WITH A CHECKUP AND A CHECK

A CHILD LOOKS TO THE FUTURE: Julia Alice Dillard, of Santa Rosa, California, almost did not have a future. When she was two-and-a-half, Julia developed Wilms' Tumor, a cancer of the kidney that most often strikes small children. It is frequently fatal. But prompt surgery and radiation treatments saved Julia. She is cured of cancer. Now, nine-and-a-half, she loves to swim, ride, paint and play tether ball. Julia is one of over 1,400,000 Americans cured of cancer.

Permits On Sale

A new $7 permit that is good for entrance to more than 7,000 recreation areas will go on sale by Apr. 1 at U. S. Forest Service offices and other installations. Regional Forester E. W. Schultz said today. The gold-colored permit was authorized by the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act and money from the sale of the permit will be used by states and the Federal Government to acquire areas needed for recreation in the future. The permit replaces the recreation conservation sticker used in 1965. The permit will be effective from April 1 until March 31, 1967. The wallet-size permit will be good for entrance to about 2,000 Forest Service recreation sites throughout the United States. It also will be good at designated areas recreation of the National Park Service, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Bureau of Land Management, Bureau of Reclamation, the Army Corps of Engineers and the Tennessee Valley Authority. The card will allow its purchaser and all those with him in a private automobile to enter all designated Federal recreation areas. A $1 daily use ticket for one visit to a single charge area also will be available. Schultz said the permit will be sold at the Atlanta Regional Office of the Forest Service, at Forest Supervisors' and District Rangers' offices and at most designated recreation areas.

PREPARE YOUR WOOLENS FOR SUMMER STORAGE

Did you know that with just a bit of precaution you can protect your part of a billion dollar fortune? It's a fact!

This is the amount of money needlessly lost by Americans each year because of moth and carpet beetle damage. To be sure that your precious woolens are protected from these pests, heed these summer storage tips from the Moth and Carpet Beetle Information Center.

1. All garments to be stored should be clean, given a good dose of paradichlorobenzene, better known as para, and placed in moth-proof, air-tight, light-proof wrapping of aluminum foil. Contrary to popular belief, it is the vapors that kill—not the odor of the moth preventive. When sealed with a tight double fold, super-strength Alcoa Wrap retains these vapors because it is impervious.

2. There's no need to take up cedar chest space when you use the foil-wrapping spent last Tuesday with their sisters, Mrs. Gerald Peters and Mrs. Cletus Peters and their father, J. M. Noland all of Fairview. Cletus Peters returned home Sunday from Chicago, Ill. where he has been attending school for the past two weeks. While there, he visited Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Noland and family and enroute home, he spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gatliff and daughter in Rochester, Ind.

USE THIS DOUBLE FOLD method of storage. Just tuck the package into a drawer, or place on a cupboard shelf. It's also a good idea to seal your packages with masking tape and mark them with a pen for easy identification.

3. When mothproofing closets, the important thing to remember is that the vapors from the moth crystals are heavier than air, and tend to sink to the bottom. For this reason, crystals should be placed on a high shelf or suspended from a clothes rod or hook high in the closet.

4. Use 2 pounds of para for every 100 cubic feet area. Therefore, a closet that is 7' high, 5' wide and 3' deep (105 cu. ft.) would require a little over two pounds of good quality para such as Reefer-Galler moth crystals.

5. For a free booklet and information on storing woolens, send a postcard to Woolens in Foil, 1661 Alcoa Building, Pittsburgh, Pa. 15219.

Hubert Chasteen visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Barrett Sunday. Mrs. Cletus Peters, Mrs. Doris Gabbard and Mrs. Gerald Peters were in Richmond one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adams and Mrs. Hubert Chasteen visited Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Saylor and family Monday. Please remember Church and Sunday School. We are always thankful to see you at Fairview. God bless you all.

Use of the material this way is called "pre-plant," Prof. Freeman noted. The Eptam is best for grass weeds but even so gave better ragweed control at either rate than several experimental materials. At the 3-pound rate, there was a slight reduction of stand in the alfalfa planting, though not in the red clover or lespedeza. Ragweed was the principal pest against which the spray was directed. Freeman noted that some of the materials did a complete job against it but that Eptam was the best on this and on grass weeds.

EDCT Controls Weeds in Alfalfa

The herbicide material EDTC (Eptam) did a satisfactory job of controlling weeds in alfalfa, red clover and lespedeza plantings last season, says Prof. J. F. Freeman, University of Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station weed control researcher. The Eptam, cleared for use this year on such crops if used just before planting, was sprayed on at 2 pounds and 3 pounds active an acre, he said. Then it was incorporated into the soil 2 to 3 inches deep immediately.
