ALSO IN THE NEWS. Once in awhile the Signal gets in the news. It did last week when our review of Clarence Lewis' "Cry to the Hills" was discussed during an interview with Mr. Lewis over a Dayton, Ohio tele-vision station. Mr. Lewis discussed this book on the program, and took alonr a Signal which he referre. to in the interview. Thanks! He tells us his book is selling well. ALSO IN THE NEWS .

NONEWSYET A check reveals that de-spite the fact there is no news yet of a grant and loan for the Renfor Valley Lake, there seems to be no real problems concerning the project. We are still assured it will go through. It seems it is all a matter of checking the application and announc-ing the loan. We hope so.

FOR THE GROCERS Weare told a grocers meet-ing: concerning the Food Schup Plopenday 10 was been postponed. We are has been postponed. We are labotold igrocers who winh to know the new date for the meeting should contact the Hazard office.

MORE SSS MONEY HORE SSS MONEY we hear from San. Cooper and Rep: Carter that the of-fice of Economic Opportunity, has approved S32,000 for a summer camp program for the Camberland Valley area, in-cluding Rockcastle. Union College will conduct the pro-gram. It will be for "fabout ISO educational and econo-mically deprived youths of innical high school age in an eight county wear."
