We all have our troubles, trials, and heartaches but please remember God is always there ready to help us. People are like stained glass windows, they glow and sparkle when it is sunny and bright but when the sun goes down their true beauty is revealed only if there is a light from within.

Please remember church and Sunday School. Continue to pray for our American boys around the world serving in the Armed Forces. God bless each one of them and you too wherever you are.

prices--or higher--for meat after the "hanging weight" has been slashed by boning and fat removal. Some customers have reported that they ended up paying more than $1 a pound for beef cuts that included hamburger.

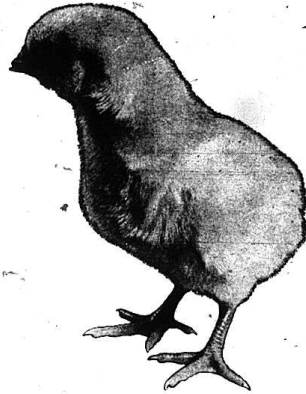

WATCH OUT FOR WORK-AT-HOME AND MAIL-ORDER GYPS

Beware of the glamorous ads that tell you how to go into the mail-order business or how to make things at home that you can sell for a fortune, usually to the company doing the advertising. Here again the Better Business Bureau advises against responding to any glittering claims, particularly when you must send money to find out what it is all about. There have been instances where customers have bought expensive machines for turning out textiles, novelties, or clothing, with the promise that the company will buy the results. More often than not, fault is found with the customer's product; all that the firm cared about was unloading the costly machine.

There is no safer field for "padding the bill" than auto service. One prevalent gimmick of some quick-buck garages is to offer a tune-up or a special overhaul for such a pittance that it is difficult to resist. Then, once the car is in the station, it is simple for the workman to find a few other things that need repair since he "had the hood up." Best way to avoid this trouble is to belong to an association such as AAA or the ALA and have your jobs done at their recommended agencies. The association lawyers will often fight back if you report serious overcharges or work done that you did not agree to in advance.

THE BIBLE STORY
Matt. 16:21, 28:1-7

Easter means the beginning of a new life. It is the day in which we remember the resurrection of Christ our Lord. Jesus had come into the world to redeem man from the curse in which sin had brought him and did so by dying in man's place and giving his blood to cleanse from all sin (1 John 1:7) Jesus had made many promises, like as, he that believeth in me shall never die (John 11:26). The Son came to seek and save the lost (Luke 19:10). I am come that they may have life more abundantly and that I should lose nothing but should raise it up in the last day (John 6:39, 40, 44, and 54) because I live ye shall live also. Jesus lived a perfect life and fulfilled every prophecy concerning himself, then went to Calvary and payed the penalty for man's sins with his life, gave his blood for their sin and to imitate the same against sin forever (1 John 3:9), then his dead body was buried but on the third day it was raised to life again to live forever, with power to raise others. His resurrection was the seal of the Holy Spirit as proof that he was and is everything that he claimed to be. His rising from the dead is evidence that he will raise from the dead all who will trust him. Have you trusted him yet?

cut hay from diverted acres at any time during the year. RABIES: A RARE DISEASE STILL A THREAT (Reprinted from the National Observer) Human rabies, though no longer common, is still a dangerous disease. If there is no treatment, or treatment is administered late, the disease will be fatal. About 500 people have died of rabies in this country in the last 20 years. The disease, which is an infection of the brain, affects all age groups, although young males seem to contract it most often. The disease may be transmitted by war-blooded animals. But evidence indicates that about a third of the cases reported cannot be associated with the bite of an animal, raising the possibility of some other means of transmission. Bites around the face, head, and neck may be most dangerous, with a shorter incubation period. Generally, however, the time between infection and the appearance of symptoms is about 57 days. Once symptoms have appeared, the disease runs its course in about seven days. Because the virus infects the central nervous system, the victim has convulsions, chokes, and can't swallow liquids. Eventually paralysis sets in. There is a great fear of water; in fact rabies is also called hydrophobia. If the symptoms set in before treatment has been given, the victim dies. Fortunately, the time between infection and the appearance of symptoms usually is long enough for effective vaccine therapy. Because the nerves are affected, though, the length of incubation depends on the proximity of the infection of the brain. In the past, vaccine was developed by growing the virus in brain tissue. Now however, the preferred vaccine consists of embryonic duck tissue containing killed virus. It leads to fewer reactions, and contains little of the paralytic factor in the brain-tissue vaccine. It also produces antibodies no later than the 15th day after the bite.

Now however, the preferred vaccine consists of embryonic duck tissue containing killed virus. It leads to fewer reactions, and contains little of the paralytic factor in the brain-tissue vaccine. It also produces antibodies no later than the 15th day after the bite. Whether to give the vaccine is not an easy decision. A bite does not always lead to rabies, and the vaccine can produce dangerous side effects. Also, only about a fifth of the people left untreated after being bitten by an animal known to be rabid have developed the disease. Some rules have been developed. If contact has been indirect, or the animal has not broken the skin, no vaccine is given. For single bites not on the face, head, neck, or arm, vaccine is withheld if the animal appears healthy. But the animal is watched for 10 days; if during that time it is found to be, or appears, rabid, the vaccine is given. If the animal is rabid, cannot be found, is killed, or is wild, then the vaccine must be administered. If there are bites on the face, head, neck, or arms, then treatment should be given as soon as possible. Local treatment for the wound is important. It should be washed thoroughly with soap and water, and an antiseptic should be applied liberally. The wound should be left open for several days in order to drain. When the local infection has cleared, it can be closed surgically.—John Henderson, M.D.

KENTUCKY TOURIST INDUSTRY SETS RECORD—Tourism in Kentucky had by far its largest growth in history during 1966, when 26 million travelers from other states spent $295 million in the Bluegrass State. This is two million more people and $5 million more dollars than in 1965. The totals come from the eighth Kentucky tourist report prepared by University of Tennessee economist Dr. Lewis C. Copeland for the Kentucky Department of Public Information. Miss Cattie Lou Miller, commissioner of the department, said the one-year increase in tourist spending in Kentucky exceeds the combined increase of any four-year period between 1954 and 1963.

Gospel Meeting

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND EACH-NIGHT!

APRIL 3 TO 9

WILBIE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

7:30 P.M. EACH NIGHT

Our evangelist will be Mrs. Norma Howard, minister of the Mt. Vernon Christian Church. Mrs. Howard is from Columbia, Ind. and is a graduate of Lincoln Christian College. She has been ministering at Mt. Vernon for a year. Her wife, Norma, is a minister's daughter and they have two daughters, Kim 3, a 1963 graduate of Lincoln Christian College. This will be an opportunity to become better acquainted with this fine family.

Plan to attend every single service and hear the message that shall be proclaimed.

God designed man for the church - not for the dust.

Let's be CHRISTIANS ONLY - no more, no less!

An important message to Kentucky Republicans!

THERE ARE THREE MEN...

Marlow Cook

"Government should not be a selfish institution of 'I' and 'me' but of 'we' and 'us'."

Tom Ratliff

"State government is for all the people, not just the favored few."

Lester Burns

"State government needs new, fresh leadership... not old musical chairs."

Cook... Ratliff... Burns... The team with the winning way. They will win in November. You support them in May! NOTE: Results of a professional poll in Jefferson County released this month show Cook leading his primary opponent by more than 5 to 1. It also shows that among all registered voters, matching Republicans against Democrats, Cook leads Ward by 2 1/2 to 1, while Cook's primary opponent and Ward were exactly even.

CAMPERS' DELIGHT—The scene here is Lake Cumberland, but tent and trailer camping in Kentucky is offered at 23 State, national and interstate parks plus the 170,000-acre Land Between the Lakes National Recreation Area in western Kentucky. Almost 350,000 campers were recorded at the 20 State parks which have camping facilities during 1966. With family-camping vacations increasing each year, the State Parks Department is developing additional camping sites to accommodate more persons. Besides the public facilities, there are many excellent privately-operated camping areas across Kentucky.

You can't "pull the wool" over a toddler's eyes—not at mealtime, anyway. Surprisingly enough, members of the younger set are very discriminating eaters and, like everyone else, they prefer variety in their meals.
To add interest to breakfasts, serve old reliable foods in new and different ways. Pancakes served with Junior Peach Cobbler and topped with rich maple syrup make for a deliciously different morning starter. Teamed up with crisp bacon strips, these unique Peach Cobbler Folders provide an appetizing and nourishing breakfast treat.
Complete the morning menu with orange juice, bran muffins spread with butter and tall glasses of milk. And don't be surprised if you're greeted with a clean plate and a smiling tilt at the end of this taste-tempting meal.

PEACH COBBLER FOLDERS
Pancake Mix Soft butter
1/4 cup dairy sour cream 1 jar Gerber Junior Peach Cobbler
Prepare batter following directions on package for 6-8 pancakes. Blend sour cream into batter. (This makes a thinner, but richer flavored batter.) Make cakes as directed. While cakes are hot, lightly spread with a little soft butter and about one spoonful of Peach Cobbler. Fold each cake in half, then in half again. Spoon remaining Peach Cobbler over top cakes and serve hot with pancake syrup, if desired. Makes 6-8 folders.

GETTING A FORAGE STAND

By the time you're ready to seed a forage crop, you can figure you'll chalk up between $12.00 and $15.00 an acre in out-of-pocket costs for tillage and seed, and that is regardless of the stand you get. This means that the better job you do of getting a good forage stand, the better the return on your investment. "Firm, fine and mellow" describe the ideal seedbeds for forage. Why firm? If not firm, tender legume and grass roots grow into air pockets between soil particles and die. A "fine and mellow" soil makes it easier to get uniform coverage. A seedbed firm enough for a man to walk across without sinking into the soil more than a half inch is a good rule to follow. Band seeding forages is rapidly increasing for three important reasons. (1) Less seed is required. (2) Seed is placed directly above fertilizer band, encouraging fast growth. (3) Weeds are less troublesome because banded fertilizer stimulates plant growth immediately above the band rather than between bands. Successful legume and grass stands can be established in spring or fall. However there is more danger of weed competition from spring seedlings in summer or fall seedings. discing may be enough tillage. This leaves a firm seedbed. In spring seedings, a companion or nurse crop may help to control weed competition. If nurse crops are used remember to fertilize sufficiently for both crops. Maintenance fertilization and clipping, along with rotation grazing, are just as important as doing a good job of initial seeding. When the stand thins out from lack of plant food or overgrazing, weeds take over the quality, and quantity of forage is lowered.

Babson's Authentic Report

SCHEMES TO DEFRAUD THE INNOCENT CUSTOMER

There is today a flourishing underground of con games aimed at victimizing the naive, the poor, and the elderly. Involved are essential services and products, and the approach generally appears to be both helpful and honest. But the Better Business Bureau and other protectors of the buyer warn that millions of dollars are being siphoned from unsuspecting customers without their even becoming suspicious.

WIDE RANGE OF COME-ONS

The schemers don't have to try to sell Brooklyn Bridge or make an old lady withdraw her life savings to cover some allegedly "four" money that will be shared with her. Today's extortions take place in a most "natural" manner, in the marketplace, in the home, by mail. They have an everyday flavor; they look innocent enough, until it's too late. Frequently they are directed at the 18 million senior citizens whose incomes may be low but whose bank accounts are too often just big enough to be vulnerable.

Heating, plumbing, and house repair proposals should never be accepted from strangers without a complete investigation of the prestige of the companies involved. Far too commonplace is the furnace "renovation" that finds the unit a "fire hazard." A new furnace costing several hundred dollars is suggested. For most households, it is easy and necessary to take the word of the "expert" too often the furnace is already disassembled. Most victims don't bother to get professional help; they ante up the cash.

STORE LOSS-LEADERS SOMETIMES BAIT

Using the Better Business Bureau in many areas is a retail strategy including ads offering fantastic bargain prices for brand merchandise. When the customer arrives, he is "showered" with the proffered article by one excuse or another. Far more expensive merchandise is demonstrated, with a big spiel on how much better it is than the advertised product. So many unwilling customers have been hooked this way that Educational TV has been showing films to teach the guileless or the weak-willed how to avoid being bilked.

This sort of thing also goes on in some frozen-meat centers. Advertising ridiculously low prices for beef, for example, can end up in clever diversion of customers to far more expensive cuts. Then, too, many buyers find that they pay regular supermarket traffic truths!

Auto seatbelts have been credited with saving many lives in traffic accidents. However, accident investigations show that not all who have seatbelts use them. The best way for drivers and passengers to obtain maximum protection from seatbelts is to make using them a habit.

WARD FOR GOVERNOR

HENRY WARD SOUND BUILDER FOR KENTUCKY

You can help elect our next Governor

The Henry Ward for Governor campaign is attracting more supporters every day. But your help is needed, too. Tell the story of "Ward the Builder." Tell how Henry Ward's record proves he can get the jobs done that the Kentuckians want done... and save money while he is doing it.

THE WARD RECORD

- Courageous legislator
- Crusading newspaperman
- Father of Kentucky's modern park system
- Nation's leading highway builder
- Efficient, thrifty administrator

WARD THE BUILDER

- More schools, better education
- Bold development of industrial expansion
- Spur agricultural economy
- Promote tourism
- Increase momentum of highway construction

WHAT HENRY WARD IS

Henry Ward is a moderate man who talks straight, thinks straight, acts straight, and makes the kind of calm, reasonable decisions that are good for Kentucky. Kentuckians want honest men who bring integrity and firm leadership to the office of Governor.

WHAT HENRY WARD IS NOT

Henry Ward is not a "big promoter." He won't offer the moon and the stars—or promise the Capitol dome—to get votes. He has never been a shoot-the-works, promise-anything kind of official. "What's in the public interest?" This is Henry Ward's guideline.

APPRECIATION OF HENRY WARD HAS COME FROM ALL OVER KENTUCKY

"He has been both the best Commissioner of Parks and the best Commissioner of Highways this Commonwealth has produced."
THE ESTELLE HERALD

"He is a statesman, a champion of good government and an outstanding administrator of proven ability."
THE BARBESTOWN KENTUCKY STANDARD

"Henry Ward is a superb administrator; a magnificent cut-red-tape expert; and an imaginative and dedicated public servant."
THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS

"Henry Ward is a businesslike sort of fellow. He calls a spade a spade, and he counts the dimes and quarters."
