versal in residence habits of farm workers; in 1948-1949, 65 percent lived on the farm; in the period 1954-1965, only 32 percent lived on the farm. Hourly pay scale for farm workers in the U. S. is $1.47 an hour below the average wage in manufacturing. In Kentucky, this "spread" is more, $1.54 an hour lower.

FARM-LABOR SHORTAGE BIG PARADOX IN ERA OF SUPERPLUSES, U. K. MAN SAYS
What's one of the "strongest paradoxes" in American agriculture today?

Another reason for farm labor shortage, he believes, may be that the small-farm owner does not care to leave his own unprofitable enterprise and work for a larger farm for wages.

"Dairy farms in Kentucky are going out of business because they can't get hired help, Sir—

He describes a successful working agreement between management and farm labor as one that gives the worker "dignity, responsibility, growth opportunities, a sense of belonging, a successful team operation" and the like.

"These are probably reasons for the fact that hired workers doing 250 or more days work on farms per year" declined 14 percent during the three-year period, 1963-1965 from the previous three-year period (1960-1962).

TOBACCO FIELDS SHOULD BE PLOWED FROM 3 TO 6 WEEKS AHEAD OF SETTING
Plow the field you've picked for your 1967 tobacco crop four to six weeks ahead of setting-out.

Flower Talk
By RUTH FAIN
WILD FLOWERS ON THE HILL
Georgia's poet, Robert Loveman, wrote these words: "It isn't raining rain to me, it's raining daffodils. With every dimpled drop, I see wild flowers on the hill."

So, you can reduce organic matter toxicity and amount of root diseases if the field is plowed well in advance to tobacco setting-out.

The hills bloomed with these lovely flowers in Loveman's home state and spring gardens everywhere become alive with their blossoms.

He recommends that not more than 10 tons of manure per acre be applied to fields to be used for tobacco. Amounts higher than 10 tons will not rot rapidly enough. It still will be present in the rotting stage when tobacco is set out.

“Organic matter toxicity comes from plant residues. Such things as cover crops, grasses and manure contribute to this condition. They may injure the tobacco roots shortly after transplanting so that the roots are more susceptible to black root rot. They may stay in the soil from 30 to 50 days after plowing.”

MEASLES NEXT—Kentuckians will be seeing 150 of these billboards all over Kentucky in the weeks to come. They are helping to publicize a statewide effort to eradicate measles, sponsored by the State Department of Health and Kentucky Medical Association in cooperation with local and county health departments. Dr. Russell E. Teague, State Health Commissioner, said eradication programs have been conducted in 30 Kentucky counties, and "We hope to hold measles vaccination clinics in all of the 120 counties by the end of 1967."

VOTE FOR Dexter McCowan For STATE SENATOR
Republican Primary, May 23

Friends,

I want to be your Senator from the 19th Senatorial District. I am a young man, married, and have one child. My home is in Laurel County. I have served two terms as State Representative from Laurel County. I have tried my best to do a good job as their representative and I want to help my neighbors in Rucklesville and the other counties in the 19th District as their State Senator.

I am a farmer and will work with untiring efforts for the farmers. I am an Army veteran, and a member of the Scottish Rite, 32 Degree Mason. In 1965, I was selected as one of America's Young Men by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. I am a Republican and am serving my party as Vice-Chairman of the Laurel County Young Republican Club, and 2nd Vice-Chairman of the State Federation of Young Republicans. I am a member of the State Federation for Retarded Children and a member of the London Rotary Club.

I am presently serving on the following important committees in the State House of Representatives: Agriculture, Roads and Highways, Forestry, Banks and Banking, Penal and Reformatories.

I will work hard as always for economy in State Government, try to stop waste, and make your tax dollar worth a dollar.

I will wage an active campaign and I urge my friends to continue helping me.

If elected, I will work hard to make a record you can be proud of and one as a young man I can live with.

Regardless of how great or how small, I want your problems to be my problems and I want to help you with them.

REMEMBER A VOTE FOR DEXTER PUTS YOU IN THE SENATE SEAT

I will be ever grateful for your confidence and will never let you down.

Dexter McCowan

cargo, regardless of size or weight. And, two, airlines have been able to demonstrate over and over again, that the compound transport costs for air cargo are not only equal to, but often lower than other ways of shipping.

These cargo flights operate with the timetable precision of passenger service. In this age of modern jet transportation, you can think in terms of minutes: 75 minutes from Frankfurt to London, 140 to Madrid, 55 to Milan—these are regular flight times for the swift Boeing 727 jets of Lufthansa German Airlines. Many manufacturers find that the reduced time lapse is enabling them to bring in the money from their sales to overseas markets more rapidly.

With air freight, you can get your goods to any spot within a maximum of 48 hours. Via Lufthansa, 30 tons of air cargo arrive in Frankfurt barely 8 hours out of New York. From the Frankfurt terminal, the carrier's jets speed your goods to the major commercial centers of the world.

Air freight also eliminates the need for warehousing. Less handling means lower costs, and thus, higher profits. Insurance rates are lower, because chances of theft, loss and damage are reduced to a minimum. Packing costs are also lower, since items sent by air freight require only light, inexpensive containers.

10 WAYS TO SAVE YOUR LIFEBLOOD

Here are 10 easy ways to save your lifeblood—the soil. Fertilize at or before planting; spread a high analysis, water soluble plant food—like Ammo-Phos by Olin, or you can top dress with Olin's urea fertilizer, depending on your needs—on steep spots to help keep the soil where it is, increase water intake, hike yield.

NIAGARA OF THE SOUTH—Cumberland Falls near Corbin, one of Kentucky's most famous tourist attractions, is a favorite spot for honeymooners. Located at Cumberland Falls State Park amid the scenic splendor of the Daniel Boone National Forest, the falls of the Cumberland River attracted nearly one-million visitors last year, many of them newlyweds.

Thicken stand with fertilizer: yields can be doubled while you're reducing erosion by top-dressing 300 to 500 pounds of high analysis fertilizer on your old pastures and second-year yields. One such fertilizer, called Ammo-Phos—used extensively on corn, cotton and wheat crops—has revolutionized the fertilizer industry, according to scientists at Olin Mathieson. You'll find that pelletized Ammo-Phos stores well, distributes easily and uniformly, and functions both as superior starter and source of plant food all season long.

Furrow around gully: takes very little time. Leads water around gully sides until you have time to seed eroded areas.

Turn soil uphill: a two-way plow can move 12 tons of soil uphill per acre. Rougher furrows can save up to 15 per cent more soil in fall plowing. Two-way leaves no dead furrows to start erosion, good for maintaining some terraces. Rough edge on waterway: no extra work—just pull up plow at different places, leaving fingers of sod to pull runaway water, soil into waterway.

Field strips: lay them out with your eye; they work best on broad, regular slopes. Set up when field is in hay. Then each row, hay is one field; grain, hay in other; rotate.

Furrow openers: a planter attachment, when planting corn on the contour, makes each row a water trap. In a dry year, this can be worth 10 extra bushels to you. Plow on contour: leave furrows rough and each becomes a dam. Operating on level saves gas, too.

Cut up stalks: shredded cornstalks cover more soil than whole ones. When they're spread evenly on soil, stalks prevent up to half the usual soil loss over winter. Coger crop of rye is sometimes used.

Buffer strips: doesn't take you a minute to skip 20-foot strip of sod on contour when you plow. Water's slowed and soil's trapped in strip of close-growing crop.

Walnut
 Walnut timber is a crop, and a valuable one. As such, the mature trees should be harvested in an orderly workmanlike manner to insure that:
 • the smaller trees (the crop of tomorrow) are not damaged, and
 • selective cutting gives trees every opportunity of reaching maturity in the shortest possible time, and
 • a forest management plan be drawn up which would include the planting of seedlings.

"Rainbow Tag Day" May 13

Members of the Future Homemakers of America of Mt. Vernon High School will join a nation-wide army of teenage volunteers to take part in a major fund-raising event for United Cerebral Palsy of Kentucky, according to Agency's president, John Perkins.

Known as "Rainbow Tag Day," the event is scheduled for Saturday, May 13, when the campaign will be staged by teenagers to "tag" pedestrians and shoppers for a contribution to those handicapped by cerebral palsy, Perkins said.

He pointed out that the all-teenage volunteer event will be national in scope and will have the backing of leading youth organizations. Hundreds of thousands of young people across the country are expected to take part in this one day special drive, according to Mr. Perkins. The rainbow has been picked as the distinctive badge of service for the

Officers Elected

The Rockcastle County Bowling League elected officers for 1967-68 at its annual banquet held Tuesday night at the Holiday Inn in Richmond.

Mrs. Henry Brown Named Chairman

Mrs. Henry Brown of Brodhead has been named Rockcastle County chairman for women's activities for the Ward for Governor Campaign, according to an announcement made recently by Mrs. Ben Combs, state campaign chairwoman.

In making the announcement, Mrs. Combs commended the efforts being made by women in all areas of endeavor—from the busy housewife to the business executive—who are giving of their time and talents to bring about victory for Henry Ward.

In making the local appointment, Mr. Ward joined Mrs. Combs in saying that "women working will bring about a tremendous victory to our campaign."

Large Crowd Attends GOP Rally

Louie B. Nunn, Republican candidate for governor in the May primary, spoke at the Rockcastle County Courthouse Monday morning. The crowd of about 300 was termed as an "excellent turnout" by Mr. Nunn.

The speaking was preceded by a breakfast at a local restaurant which was attended by Nunn and several of his local campaign workers.

Sammy Lee Ford, Rockcastle County Young Republican leader introduced Mr. Nunn to the audience. Atty. Nunn, who was defeated in 1963 for the office of governor by less than 13,000 votes, told the crowd, "More people voted for me than ever voted for any other Republican in an off-year election."

He also listed a few of his achievements for the GOP in the last several years, such as: statewide campaign chairman in the 1956 Presidential election, both Senators Cooper and Morton's campaign chairman in their last two elections, and state chairman for the vice president's campaign in 1960.

The crowd was reminded that in 1963 his platform contained a proposal for "one of the most progressive educational programs ever proposed. This program included, better transportation, a substantial increase in teacher's salaries, improved buildings, and more free textbooks, all without an increase in taxes."

According to Nunn, his opposition said these measures could not be accomplished without a substantial increase in taxes. Yet, Nunn stated: after the teachers were forced to stage a walk-out, the present administration conveniently "found" $25,000,000 to use for this purpose.

Elaborating further on the school subject, Nunn said, "My opponent went on television in Louisville on Dec. 17, 1964 and stated that free textbooks and bus transportation are phases of schooling that I honestly feel, could be eliminated."

"I am strongly opposed to any measure of this kind," Nunn declared.

Judge Nunn also pointed out that "as far as I know, Jefferson County is the only county in the state of Kentucky which has double sessions in their schools."

Kentucky's State Park system was also brought up as Nunn said, "I feel we have a fine state park system and I think more state parks should be built in feasible locations; however, my opponent has said that he is opposed to any more state parks. He has said that he would favor more local parks with the state putting up some of the major arguments against this idea was the fact that the majority of the counties throughout the state did not have the matching funds available."

I-75 Bids To Be Let

Bids for grade and drain on Interstate 75 in Rockcastle County will be received by the Highway Department on May 12.

Edward T. Breathitt and Highway Commissioner, Mitchell W. Tindler announced recently. Total distance of this improvement is 4.866 miles.

Soil Stewardship Week Set For April 30 - May 7

County Judge Wayne Van Hook has proclaimed April 30 through May 7 as Soil Stewardship Week.

The proclamation reads: "WHEREAS, through the ages man has been conscious of the need to give thanks to Almighty God for His bountiful blessings; and WHEREAS, in the spring, when the fields are becoming green and there is promise of a good harvest, prayers and processions to the fields are a reminder to feeble man to turn with humility and confidence to the Giver of all good; and WHEREAS, it is a custom of old to implore the mercy of God during Rogation days to give to the plants of the field an increase; and WHEREAS, during this period the soil conservation districts of America are sponsoring SOIL STEWARDSHIP WEEK in cooperation with the churches; and WHEREAS, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky has proclaimed the period beginning with Rogation Sunday, April 30 and continuing through May 7, 1967 as Soil Stewardship Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wayne Van Hook, Judge of the County of Rockcastle do call upon all citizens of Rockcastle County to observe the period of April 30-May 7, inclusive as Soil Stewardship Week and request all persons and religious organizations to unite during this period to offer supplications to God for the promise of a beautiful harvest and to ask for continued blessings from our fertile fields; and further urge soil conservation district superintendents to increase their efforts in offering wholehearted assistance to the churches in reaching the greatest number of citizens in our County on this occasion.

informed by a Federal Recreation Expert that from 50 to 70 employees would be required to operate the farm during the camping season.

Babson's Authentic Report

OUR DOLLAR
The other day a vice-president of a huge N.Y. bank dropped a "bombshell" into international banking circles. He suggested that if foreign governments holding deposits here should insist on turning them into gold, the U.S. just might refuse to honor their requests. That we would simply sit on our $13-billion hoard. The fixed price of $35 per ounce, at which the U.S. agreed to redeem the dollar for foreign holders ever since the end of World War II, would be no more. In a word, we would divorce our dollar from gold.

FUROR IN FINANCE
Some immediately said that the banker's "trial balloon" had been handed to him for release by none other than the secretary of the Treasury. It has long been known that official Washington has been "all steamed up" because foreign nations - whom we rescued from the brink of economic disaster a few years ago - are continually exchanging their dollar holdings for gold. Such resentment has applied especially to France. Others, however, held that the startling statement was only the opening gun in the battle to give greater liquidity to all Free World currencies. This financial Armageddon is slated for Rio de Janeiro in September at the meeting of the International Monetary Fund.

Whatever the intent, whoever the instigator, the price of gold shot up in London. Long dormant and dumping bottom, gold shares in New York were sparked to life. Economists great and small were eagerly sought for press interviews. The central bankers of Europe shuddered. And we can guess that the "Gnomes of Zurich" laughed.

BEHIND THE SMOKE
It is said that you can count on the fingers of one hand the men in this country who really understand international money and its ramifications. Even this may be an overstatement. However, the smoke now belching from the banking and political capitals of the Free World does have a source in some serious financial fires. The two major ones are: (1) The now accelerating plunge of the U.S. into debt to the leading nations of Europe; (2) The failure of gold supplies to climb rapidly enough to accommodate a global credit expansion sufficiently large to finance ever higher levels of world trade.

On count number one, we stand at least partially guilty. For years, the U.S. has spent, lent, invested - and just given away - more to other nations than they have spent, lent, etc. In this country, it has been our dollars that our allies have been glad to amass. Why not? For Uncle Sam has said, ever since Bretton Woods in 1944, that he would redeem them for foreigners any time at $35 an ounce. And there's the rub! When we had over $20 billion in gold, the bottom of the barrel looked far away. But now that our gold stock is down to $13 billion and foreigners hold nearly 30 billion of our dollars - they ask us ever more insistently: "How long?"

SOLUTION LIES IN CO-OPERATION
Surely, we cannot go on forever flooding the world with dollars. The law of supply and demand would steadily force the dollar's value down. But the huge outflow of dollars has enabled our allies to finance their economic expansion and to support a world trade boom. It is only recently that doubts about the dollar have threatened world prosperity. The real job for the U.S. is twofold: (1) Restore confidence by slowing down our dollar hemorrhage; (2) work co-operatively with the other nations of Rio in September to establish a broader base than just the dollar for greater international liquidity. Our allies must help us to achieve the first, and we must sacrifice some prestige to attain the second objective.

DEVALUATION NO ANSWER
Admittedly it will be hard for us to "give ground" at Rio. When the International Monetary Fund was formed, we were king. That is not so now. As creditor we could call the tune. As debtor we must find a solution fair to all. And we shall have to learn to limit our world commitments, or slip deeper toward bankruptcy. Surely we must shun the suggestion of dishonoring our commitments. For the result would be devaluation and a train of financial and economic events with consequences that no man can foresee and that few would care to contemplate.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

By: CLAY A. COLSON

Soil Stewardship Week has been set this year as April 30th through May 7th. The purpose of soil stewardship week is to make all people, the city folk as well as the farm people, aware of the importance of stewardship of our great heritage, the soil and water.

The supervisors of the Rockcastle County Soil and Water Conservation District invited all ministers of Rockcastle County to a meeting Tuesday, April 25, to discuss this stewardship of the soil. County Judge Wayne Van Hook has issued a proclamation setting April 30 through May 7 as Soil Stewardship Week in Rockcastle County.

This statement by Don Williams, Administrator of the Soil Conservation Service points up the national concern for the stewardship of our soil and water: "Today, there is indeed a 'crisis in the countryside' - or rather, two crises. One is the continued wastage of the land through erosion and improper use. The other is the result of man's partial success. This is the crisis of 'complexity' about conservation."

Why this complexity? Perhaps it is because the need for increased conservation measures does not immediately strike the eye. The dust may not be blowing today. And so we concern ourselves with the big headlines - no, space, missiles, murders! These are serious matters indeed. But, we lose more of our land every year to silent erosion than we have ever lost, or shall ever lose, to a foreign foe. Where is the battle cry for this?

What happens to the eroding lands in Rockcastle and Pulaski Counties affects us more directly than our landing on the moon. Where are the pleaders for this? And no matter what weapons of the future we develop - the most modern army in the world still travels on its stomach, still depends on the bountiful earth we take for granted. Do not misunderstand me. Our activities around the world, and out of it, are very necessary. But I will firmly believe to the end of my life that next to saving our soil there is NO work more important, now or for the future, than conserving and enriching our own land - the basis for our life, our living, our national wealth. Yet, we lose each year, through erosion and other forms of preventable damage, about 500,000 acres of formerly productive land. The bulldozer and the builder take another one and one-third million acres of the best land every 365 days for highways, factories, housing and so on. Our rivers continue to flood and destroy homes and hopes. Our water supply runs short, becomes polluted, erodes the land. And, as much of our land disappears, our population and that of the world increases.

Yes, our supermarkets are still full. Our time has not run out. But, quite literally, the sins of our forefathers are being visited upon us. We cannot afford to be wasteful in the future, if we desire our children's children to inherit an affluent America. We must plan more intensively, farm more wisely, care more urgently. And we must make sure the city man understand that what happens in rural America affects him immediately and profoundly. We call our land "God's Country," and it is. Let us clearly acknowledge it is our job to keep it that way. Farmers, as the chief soil stewards, have the heaviest responsibility. They, of all people, know the conserva-

Honey Oatmeal Casserole Bread

TWO HOUR BREAD -- WONDERFUL WITH CHEESE

Served warm, this golden-brown yeast bread, flavored with honey and quick-cooking oats, makes a satisfying accompaniment for a spring or summer meal.

Homemakers who enjoy fresh breads, but are short of time, find this simple recipe a boon to their time schedule. Honey Oatmeal Casserole Bread does not require kneading and is "proofed" or allowed to rise once. The entire mixing-rising-baking process can be completed in a mere two hours.

Benefits derived from three B-vitamins and two essential minerals are yours when you use self-rising flour. The enrichment formula in self-rising products offers thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, plus iron and calcium, at no extra cost. All self-rising products contain leavening and salt, preblended to eliminate measuring and sifting steps, thus providing still another bonus convenience.

|-------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| 1 package yeast | one 2-quart loaf |
| 1/4 cup warm water | 3/4 cups sifted enriched self-rising flour (about) |
| 1 cup hot water | 2 eggs |
| 1/2 cup softened butter | 1 cup quick-cooking oats |
| 1/4 cup honey | Melted butter |
| 1 teaspoon salt | |

Soften yeast in warm water. Blend hot water, butter, honey and salt in large bowl. Stir in about 1 1/2 cups flour and beat until smooth and elastic, about 1 minute on electric mixer or 150 strokes by hand. Beat in softened yeast, eggs and oats. Stir in enough more flour to make a stiff batter. Beat until batter is smooth and elastic, about 1 minute with electric mixer or 150 strokes by hand. Cover and let rise in warm place (80-85°) until light and bubbly, about 1 hour. Stir down and turn into well-greased 2-quart casserole dish. Bake at once in preheated 375° oven, 45-50 minutes; or until golden brown and bread begins to shrink from sides of dish. Cool 10 minutes before removing from dish. Brush with melted butter.

*If you don't sift and in the absence of other directions, for each cup of flour, spoon directly from container into a one-cup dry measure, level off, then remove two level tablespoons, according to USDA recommendations.
