for the 65 to 63 win. With the score tied 63-63 and 6 seconds left, Oneida had a one plus one foul shot but the shot missed and Billy Gambrel cut loose with a thirty-foot shot just before the horn sounded to give the Devils the two point edge.

However, the victory cost Livingston the service of their starting guard Danny Reynolds who sprained his ankle severely during the game.

Individual scorers for LHS were: Mink 21, Owens 18, Reynolds 8, Jackson 7, Gambrel and Hurley 2 each and Stephens 4.

The Devils will meet Shopville at home next Tuesday night and the following Friday will play host to Bumside who are ranked third in the 12th region and sport a record of 18 wins against two defeats.

"We would appreciate having our fans turn out in force to cheer the team," Coach Preston Parrett said. Coach Parrett also said, "These boys are a great bunch of fighters and I am sure the fans would enjoy seeing them get beatall to toenail and eyeball to eyeball with our opponents. So come on out fans, shake the dandruff out of your hair and give a few rebel yells for these boys."

Coach Billy Riddle of Brodhead was so pleased with his team's performance against the Livingston Blue Devils that he rewarded them by giving them Monday and Tuesday of this week off for a rest.

Coach Riddle said, "our team has played a long schedule and with the tournament coming up in two weeks, we need to be up for both games if we plan on going to region this year. Broadhead last all week started last year and things looked very bad at the close of the season but the new team decided it was going to make a good showing and they have winning 15 and losing 12."

"Seven of these 12 losses have been by 4 points or less," Coach Riddle further stated.

Brodhead will meet Eubank at home this Friday night, and will journey to Barbourville for next Tuesday night's game, and will close out their season next Friday night in a home game with Shopville.

It was a close game up until the fourth quarter Tuesday night for the Mt. Vernon Red Devils when they were defeated by Burgin in a home game by a score of 61 to 42.

The Devils had a very bad night shooting percentage wise when they were able to connect on only 17% of their shots.

The score at the end of the first quarter was tied 11 to 11 but after that Burgin led all the way.

High scorer for MVHS was Taylor with 10, followed by Kirby with 9, Helton, Allen, and Renner with 7 each, and Powell with 2.

The Devils will meet Crab Orchard, this Friday night at home, play host to Berea next Monday and will journey to Anville next Friday night to close out their regular season play.

90 and 9 MEETS
The 90 and 9 Sunday School Class held their regular business meeting and dinner Tuesday night in the basement of the Christian Church. Dr. Jack Henderson, president, presided at the meeting, which was followed by a dinner served by the Berea Sunday School Class.

Food Cues

BY: BECKY SUSAN
Potatoes offer menu planners the kind of cooking magic that can make meal time fun, tasty, delicious and different.

And the Consumer and Marketing Service reminds southern homecooks that potatoes are now in good supply and selling at attractive prices. This year's crop is estimated at 16 percent above average. For some people, potatoes, are a staple food—standard to be included in most menus in the traditional boiled, mashed or baked style. But most people know the kind of menu miracles potatoes can perform. The potato is an entirely usable vegetable...no need over to waste any of it. Just scrub the jackets and the potatoes are ready to be cooked. They yield readily to instant cooking which modern homemakers demand, too.

If you have about 25 to 40 minutes, then cook whole potatoes in bubbling salted water until tender. But, if you have only half that time, cut the potatoes into halves or quarters. If your time is shorter still, dice or slice the potatoes and they will be "serving tender" in the time allowed.

Here are some tasty potato menu boosters:

WEINERS, POTATOES AND SAUERKRAUT. Cook halved potatoes in bubbling salted water until just about tender, add weiners and cook for 7 minutes. Add the sauerkraut and cook for another 5 minutes. Serve this typically German fare with horseradish mustard and lots of butter, salt and pepper for the potatoes.

MASHED POTATOES whipped until fluffy are good with any menu. For variety, vary the liquid used during mashing use whole milk, sour cream, half and half, vegetable juices or meat stock. For real economy, drain the cooked potatoes, whip to break into particles, then add nonfat dry milk and use

HEREFORD SHOW AND SALE

Polled Hereford Breeders are cordially invited to attend the annual Kentucky National Polled Hereford Show and Sale on February 24, 1968 at the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center. The event will begin with a social hour at 6:00 p.m. followed by banquet Friday February 23, in the Sycamore Restaurant in the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center. Judging will start at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday with the sale scheduled for 1:00 p.m. All animals entered have met rigid requirements established by the show and sale committee. The judge for the show is Joe Lewis, Larned, Kansas. This event will provide you with an excellent opportunity to observe an outstanding Polled Hereford Show and at the same time give you an opportunity to purchase some of the best animals the breed has to offer.

APPLE DWARFING ROOT-STOCKS

The use of dwarfing or semi-dwarfing apple rootstocks has become increasingly important in recent years. The orchardist has found that in most cases they give substantially increased yields per acre and are easier and cheaper to spray, prune, and harvest. The semi-dwarfs give the best yields per acre, but the full dwarfs are particularly good for pick-your-own apples. They seldom grow over 7 feet high. The homeowner also finds the dwarfs, very valuable as the dwarfs are small and take up less space. This enables the homeowner to utilize his area more efficiently. In addition, he can often plant more trees, and therefore have a greater range of apple varieties. In landscaping a house, small trees are usually more attractive than large ones.

It is important in choosing a rootstock to decide what size tree is required. There are the semi-dwarfs (approximately 40 percent dwarfing); EM II, MM 111 and MM 104. There are the semi-dwarfs (approximately 65 percent dwarfing); EM VII and MM 106, and the full dwarfs (approximately 40 percent dwarfing); EM VIII, EM IX and EM 26. The most commonly used stocks in each size are EM II, EM VII and EM IX. However, other stocks are preferred in certain moisture and soil conditions.

Any apple variety can be grafted onto the rootstock that is chosen, providing it is compatible. There are certain rootstock variety combinations that are not compatible or form weak unions. Some good combinations are as follows:

1. Red Delicious on MM 106, MM 111 or EM II
  2. Jonathan on EM II or MM 104
  3. Golden Delicious on MM 104 or MM 111
- It is just as important to have a good rootstock as a good scion. Dwarfing rootstocks should be healthy and vigorous. The scion should be budded high (about 14") on the rootstocks. When the trees are planted, they should be placed deeper in the orchard than in the nursery (usually about 12" deeper). Any shoots arising from the rootstocks should be removed, as this will bear fruit of the rootstock variety and not of the scion. The rootstocks have been selected for their qualities as a rootstock not on acceptability of the fruit.

Trees on dwarfing rootstocks usually bear fruit in two or three years. The more dwarfing the rootstock the earlier the tree begins to bear fruit.

NEW ALL-AMERICA SEED SELECTIONS

Each year as the spring wildflowers begin to bloom, amateur gardeners begin to think in terms of colorful displays around their homes. Since most wild flowers do better in their native situations than on home grounds and as they have only a limited effect when used in mass, it is advisable to use the commercially developed bedding plants around the home. Some of these, such as petunias, celosia, marigolds, salvia and vinca will tolerate a wider range of environmental conditions than the spring wildflowers. This year gardeners will be able to choose from several new varieties of annual flowers, including seven 1968 All-America Seed Selections. One celosia variety, 3 geranium, 2 marigold, 1 verbenas and 1 sinnia variety qualified as this year's All-America Selections. The plumbea celosia, Golden Triumph, is a relatively compact plant which will attain a height of about 2 feet. The plant bears one large center plume which is surrounded with 10 or more smaller inflorescences (or blossoms).

Growing geraniums from seeds, a new concept in the bedding plant industry, seems to be advancing rapidly. The new hybrids are known as Carefree geraniums. Because of their hybrid origin and freedom from disease (which is present in some of the material propagated by cuttings), the plants are exceptionally vigorous. These geraniums naturally produce numerous branches pinching to induce new breaks. Usually 2 to 4 heads (about 3 to 4 inches in diameter) composed of single flowers are present throughout most of the growing season. Carefree geraniums which were chosen as All-America Selections include Carefree Bright Pink an intense rose-pink; Carefree Deep Salmon; a deep salmon color, and Carefree Scarlet, a rich-orange-red.

The marigold, First Lady, with its bright yellow flowerheads about 3 inches in diameter bloom freely and uniformly throughout most of the growing season. The marigold, Orange Jubilee, has rich orange flowers borne on a bushy plant. Both of these marigold cultivars range in height from 18 to 24 inches. A dwarf compact verbenas, Blaze, is very showy with its nearly solid brilliant scarlet flowers about 1/2 inch in diameter and arranged in 3 inch clusters. The zinnia, Wild Cherry, a giant cherry rose cactus type flower, will develop flowers up to 4 inches in diameter. The bushy plants which will abundantly will attain a height of about 2 1/2 feet.

The 1968 All-America Seed Selections are only a few of the many excellent cultivars of flowering bedding plants which will be available at garden centers, florist shops, nurseries and other outlets this spring. Plan for a splash of color around your home in 1968.

QUOTAS PROCLAIMED ON BURLEY, OTHERS; REFERENDUM DATES ARE SET BY USDA

Kentucky farmers vote this month on marketing quotas for the 1968, 1969, and 1970 crops of burley tobacco. The U.S. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) state committee said this week that burley growers vote Feb. 26 - March 1. The fire-cured and dark air-cured areas, in a referendum last year, approved the program for the 1967, 1968, and 1969 crops.

The referendum is being conducted by mail, the U.K. Cooperative Extension Service notes. Ballots will be mailed to each person known to have had an interest in burley crops in 1967. All ballots must be returned to the county ASCS offices no later than March 1, or be postmarked March 1.

The quota for the 1968 burley crop was announced this week as 356.8 thousand pounds, with 249,686 acres available for allotment this year. The 1967 crop had 249,926 acres allotted. Support rate for the 1968 burley crop will be more than 3 percent higher than for the 1967 crop.

There is no authorization for an acreage-pounding referendum for the 1968 burley crop, it was pointed out.

On The Hardwood

Friday night, February 9, when the Brodhead Tigers won over the Livingston Blue Devils by a score of 73 to 74, it made it 100% this year for BHS over the county teams. They have beaten Mt. Vernon twice and Livingston three times. It was a close game however for the Tigers as they were hampered somewhat by losing three of their starters late to foul. Brodhead led at all the quarter stops, 19-15, 33-28, 59-50, and the final 77-73, but the Blue Devils were in there fighting all the way.

Leading scorer for Livingston was Lonny Mink with 23, followed by Norman Owens with 18, Earl Jackson got 15, Kenny Hurley 8, Danny Reynolds 7, and Billy Gambrel 2.

High scorer for BHS was Stevens with 24; followed closely by Bussell with 23, Brown had 16, Sargent 8, and Moberly, Bullock and Daugherty, each contributed 4.

The Blue Devils went on Monday night to defeat Kentucky School for the Deaf by a score of 57 to 52. The Devils were ahead 33 to 15 at half time but things were a little closer the second half.

Leading scorer for LHS was Norman Owens with 18, followed by Earl Jackson with 10, Kepny Hurley, Danie Holt and Lonny Mink, each with 6, Danny Reynolds, Billy Gambrel, Rayle Duhm and Douglas Lewis, each with 2 and Kenneth Mink with 1.

The next night found the Blue Devils playing Oneida at home which was their seventh game in 13 days.

Circuit Judge R. C. Tartar Succumbs After Short Illness

Roscoe Conklin Tartar circuit judge in Palaski and Rockcastle County died at 7:15 p.m. Monday in Somerset City Hospital. He had been a patient there 12 days.

Judge Tartar, 87, had become ill some time ago, and when he suffered an apparent pinched nerve in his hip while attending a funeral in the county, complications developed and death was attributed to massive hemorrhaging of an ulcer.

From almost two thirds of a century he served the public as a circuit judge, state representative, county judge and as a federal tax agent. In November, 1963, he was re-elected circuit judge of the 28th Judicial District. He had served a little more than four years of this six-year term. He had been a circuit judge in Palaski and other South Central Kentucky Counties for the past 26 years.

An ardent Republican Judge Tartar, unwaveringly throughout South Central Kentucky for the Grand Old Party, the party that had elected him to office in 11 of the 15 campaigns he waged during his lifetime.

He was born in the western part of the county Jan. 17, 1881, the son of Jerome Terrell and Margaret Weddette Tartar. When he was a child his family moved from Cain's Store to Somerset, making their home just north of the city limits of Somerset where Cardinal Hills Subdivision is now located.

TRAILER BURNS
A house trailer, owned by John D. and Joe Bullen and located on the outside of their father, Dewey Bullen, at Roundstone, was completely destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon.

John D. Bullen was asleep in the trailer when the fire started and stated that after he woke up and opened door to another room the fire went out of control. He suffered a burned hand when he attempted to break out a window from the trailer, but he had escaped from the trailer.

Both trailer and contents were described as total loss.

His father had been elected county judge in 1881 and he was required to live near the county seat. Judge Jerome Tartar served that term as county judge and the first two years of his second term, dying while in office in 1888.

Roscoe Tartar was an ambitious man, a man who was self-made. He attended Somerset schools and graduated from Somerset High School in 1898.

Few were able to go to college in those days. Judge recently recalled, "and when you had seven brothers and sisters it was out of the picture," but that didn't interfere with his constant search for knowledge.

"I liked to read and study books and I studied on my own systematically," he said. Law books fascinated him and he developed a career in the legal profession. He was admitted to the Bar in 1910.

After graduating from high school, he got a job as a general clerk in the First National Bank. For two and a half years he held this position until he was appointed deputy revenue collector for the Federal government and assigned to the Danville area.

Two years later he returned to Somerset, and he came interested in Republican politics, an interest which became an avocation and then his life's vocation.

In November, 1909 he conducted his first successful race for public office and was elected state representative from Palaski County and served one term in the State Legislature.

But serving his people in Frankfort was not the same as serving them in his own county. He returned to the local political scene and five years was re-elected county judge.

In 1928 he successfully tried for a higher judicial post, that of circuit judge of the district which was then composed of Clinton and Wayne Counties, as well as Palaski and Rockcastle.

He has served continuously six years since 1946. In 1952 re-districting of the judicial districts removed Wayne and Clinton Counties from Judge Tartar's circuit and since then he has held court only in Palaski and Rockcastle Counties.

All totaled, he served 26 years as circuit judge. He lived and breathed Republicanism throughout his life and served his party on county, district and state levels. For 16 years he was a member of the Republican State Central Committee, 16 years as Republican chairman of the old 11th and Ninth Congressional Districts, as a member of the Palaski County Republican Executive Committee and as its present chairman.

In addition to conducting 11 successful campaigns for himself, he managed many other races for his friends and relatives, among them Senator John Sherman Cooper, a nephew of Judge Tartar's command of the English language was unparalleled and his orations were fiery and forceful.

He perfected his oratorical ability during the days of his political career, traveling with his opponent for office in a horse drawn carriage throughout the country, debating the issues in rural schools, and churches and on the steps of the

Dates-Districts Told For Stamp Recipients

Food Stamp recipients are to pick up their food stamps on the dates listed below, according to their districts.

This is effective March 1 and no exemptions will be made except in the most extreme emergencies. First District, Monday, Mt. Vernon (town only). Second District, Tuesday, Mt. Vernon, Route 1 and 2. Sand Hill, West Livingston, Pongo, Bloss Sand Springs, Blue Springs, Calloway and Pine Hill. Third District, Wednesday, Brodhead and Copper Creek. Fourth District, Thursday, Route 3, Conway, Scaffold, Case, Wilde, and Boone. Fifth District, Friday, East Livingston, Red Hill, Olando, Climax, Lamero, Johnson and Morrill. Persons wishing to apply for food stamps should do so on days designated for their district.

Due to the volume of work, a food stamp case cannot be processed on the same day as the recertification, recollection, or new application is made. It is necessary also that food stamp identification cards be mailed rather than given out in the office as the certificate has to clear the case and it must be checked before the identification card can be issued.

Tobacco Vote To Be Held February 26 To March 1

Barley tobacco growers will vote during the period February 26-March 1 on marketing quotas for the next three crops. Shellie Mullins, Chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Commission, notified farmers today. The vote this year will be conducted by mail.

A ballot will be mailed to each person 18 years of age or older known to have had an interest in the 1967 crop of Barley tobacco. Any person who shared in a Barley crop in 1967 who does not receive a ballot may obtain one by calling, writing, or visiting the ASCS county office. All ballots must be returned to the ASCS county office or be postmarked no later than March 1, in order to be counted.

those 18 years of age or older who produced Barley tobacco in 1967 and shared in the crop or its proceeds. Also each person 18 years or older who was either the owner or operator of a farm for which a 1967 Barley tobacco allotment was established is eligible to vote, even though no tobacco was actually produced on the farm in 1967.

For the 1968 crop of Barley tobacco, the Department of Agriculture, has announced a total of 249,686 acres available for allotment. This compares with 249,926 acres allotted in 1967. Under an allotment program, the allotments are announced annually for one year at a time. Farm acreage allotments for 1968 are generally the same as they were for 1967.

making year is 1,940 million pounds including an October 1 carryover of 1,381 million pounds and estimated 1967 production of 559 million pounds. The carryover included 277 million pounds under Government loan. This total supply is enough for 3.2 years at the current level of domestic use and export. The law provides for a normal supply of 2.8 years' use. Domestic usage of Barley tobacco in recent years has not kept pace with increased cigarette production largely because of the continued shift to filter tip cigarettes and the increased use of reconstituted shag tobacco. U.S. Barley exports have remained steady at 56-57 million pounds (farm sales weight) for the past 4 marketing years. Barley face increases competition from expanded production abroad.

FARM FINANCES AND THE GREAT SOCIETY
 Between 1940 and 1965, the nation's population increased from 132 million to about 195 million... a gain of almost 50%. During this same period, farm population declined from 30% of the total to less than 13 million... a drop of nearly 60%.

SELF-DEFEATING EFFICIENCY
 About 100 years ago when numbered not much more than 30 million people—some 6% of all Americans lived on farms. Today our farm population is less than 7% of the total. In the late 1800s and in the forefront of the present century, the exodus from farms to urban and suburban areas was gradual as the U.S. shifted from an agrarian to an industrial society. But since 1940, the pace has been vastly accelerated... as farm efficiency soared.

BARGAINING NO CURE-ALL
 Administration after the past quarter-century or so. Our national income has multiplied eightfold since 1940... ballooning from $81 billion to $653 billion. Net farm income, however, has made only about a threefold gain... from $4.2 billion to $14.6 billion. And the farmer's share in the national income has dipped from 5.2% to 2.2%!

WHY PEOPLE LEAVE THE FARM
 Despite this severe income squeeze—and the increasing displacement of manpower by machines—farming is still the nation's Number One employing industry. We have over 5 million farm workers... or more than the total work force in the transportation, public utilities, auto, and steel industries combined. Yet the number is declining each year as capital in the form of mechanical power, machinery, fertilizer, and bought feed, seed, and livestock are increasingly substituted for manpower and farm-produced crops.

For several years the average investment per farm worker has been rising steadily. Some observers feel it is now significantly above $25,000. This means that an investment of as much as $100,000 may be required for a farm big enough to yield a net money income of only about $4,000. Farms once large enough to produce a decent living for their family owners are now simply too small. So the owners have had to get out of farming if they could not enlarge their farms and/or their investment in them.

WRECK
 A car, driven by Kenneth Stevens, was totally demolished Wednesday when it was wrecked at the Chimax Post Office.
 According to two passengers in the vehicle with Stevens, the car flipped over and came to rest on its top. Stevens left the scene of the accident before officers arrived.

As the page two between farmers has tightened, farmers have showed renewed interest in market bargaining arrangements as supplements to, or replacements for, national farm programs. However, the possibilities of improvement through such arrangements are at best limited because of the very diversity of production and the consequent inability to exercise sufficiently tight control over market offerings.

RURAL POVERTY
 Meanwhile, the impact of the inexorable trend toward bigger and more highly mechanized farms—and of the continued disparity between the farm and industrial product prices—is being increasingly felt. Although it is the plight of the nation's urban poor that most often receives attention in the press and elsewhere, rural deprivation, too, is widespread and serious.

In these rural areas of America, more than 70% of the farm and industrial income annually, and 25% have less than $1,000. Such destitution suggests that the Great Society has a long way to go "down on the farm" as well as in the big cities.

Washington Report

By: Tim Lee Carter

This week I want to discuss with you an unhappy subject—the Federal Budget for Fiscal 1969. You all learned the hard way that an increase in the Budget leads to a bigger bite out of our pocketbook, either in the form of a tax increase or through the silent theft-inflation.

President Johnson wants to spend 10.2 billion dollars more than he did last year. For that is in Vietnam, the guys. But is this really so? Let me cite some non-defense spending figures for you. In 1965, non-defense spending was 68.4 billion dollars. In 1966, it jumped to $77.8 billion, and in Fiscal 1967, it was 88.3 billion dollars. This year, it is estimated that the Administration will spend $99.1 billion for non-defense items. Under the President's new Budget for Fiscal 1969, non-defense spending will reach the colossal figure of 106.3 billion dollars. This spending for non-defense items, under the President's various domestic projects, and an increase of $37.9 billion in only five years.

During the same five years, our defense spending jumped from $49.6 billion to an estimated $79.8 billion—an increase of $30.2 billion. The defense increase is understandable; we have the Vietnam war to fight. The question Americans are asking themselves is whether all the non-defense increases are really necessary. In fact, can they be afforded? You know, the President has again asked the Congress to pass the 10% surtax. But many of us in Congress feel that this tax increase would not be necessary if only Federal spending could be checked. But the new budget shows no evidence of belt-tightening. This is another "red ink" budget, and there will be a whopping deficit of $21.2 billion, unless a tax increase is enacted. Does all of this spending make sense while we are fighting a $2 billion a month war 10,000 miles from home? Many of us in Congress do not think so. A proposal will be placed before Congress this session to hold the Fiscal 1969 budget to the 1968 level, except for Vietnam war needs. This would be 10.2 billion less than asked for by the President. I intend to support this proposal. I believe this reduction is necessary and would negate the need for a tax increase. This would relieve the heavy burden already shouldered by taxpayers and also reduce the deficit. If the President won't practice fiscal restraint, The Congress must, and will.

Judge Wayne Van Hook met with a group of interested citizens at the Sand Springs Community Center Monday night of last week and spoke to them on "The Importance of a Craft Industry in Rockcastle County." Judge Van Hook told the group that "if others can make them (crafts), so can we. Crafts are being bought so why don't we use our talents and take advantage of this growing industry."
Tommy Mink also spoke on the possibility of a rehabilitation program being set-up to train persons to work in crafts. "To make such a program possible, Mr. Mink said, more people will have to show a lot more interest in working together. Any undertaking is just as strong as the people working for it."
Several inquiries have already been made about crafts from Rockcastle County. These handmade crafts include such items as: Whirlwind or carved items, well-made wooden toys, stuffed toys, hand-made quilts, and hand-sewn articles such as aprons, bonnets, etc.

These are just a few of the things with sale value. Tourists will soon be taking to the road and we should be ready for them with Rockcastle Made souvenirs.

COMMUNITY CLUB

Judge Wayne Van Hook met with a group of interested citizens at the Sand Springs Community Center Monday night of last week and spoke to them on "The Importance of a Craft Industry in Rockcastle County." Judge Van Hook told the group that "if others can make them (crafts), so can we. Crafts are being bought so why don't we use our talents and take advantage of this growing industry."
Tommy Mink also spoke on the possibility of a rehabilitation program being set-up to train persons to work in crafts. "To make such a program possible, Mr. Mink said, more people will have to show a lot more interest in working together. Any undertaking is just as strong as the people working for it."
Several inquiries have already been made about crafts from Rockcastle County. These handmade crafts include such items as: Whirlwind or carved

Brodhead School News

By: Deborah Watson
We are sad to announce the loss of one of our Senior cheerleaders, Mary Bennie Utley has moved to Evansville, Indiana to finish her schooling.

"The Future" Homemakers of America had their January meeting the 25th. Miss Renee Denney was the surprise speakers. She told the FHA members about her college home economics class and a few other things about campus clubs and activities. The president, Helen Kidwell and the other officers made a progress report from September up to the present time. The club also made plans for a Valentine Party to be held February 10 in the school cafeteria. "The Patch of Blue" will be present to entertain us. Refreshments will also be served. The highlight of the party will be the election of a Mr. and Mrs. Sweetheart. All of the students and faculty welcome a new teacher to the halls of BHS. He is Mr. Gaylon Yarbery a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University. Mr. Yarbery is teaching World History. He took the place of Mrs. Amanda La Favers who had filled the position because of the sickness of Mr. Millard Robbins. We are happy to have him with us, but we are also sad to lost Mrs. La Favers.

Things are finally back to normal at BHS. We have had our six weeks and semester tests. The seniors have been measured for their caps and gowns. Mr. Robbins told them graduation would be May 31.

The first day of February was a memorial day for the Seniors. At last the Senior pictures arrived. It's too bad that everyone couldn't always look as they did in their pictures. Everything is not all roses for the Seniors though. This Wednesday all of the Seniors have to take the college qualification test. It is one of those "concentration tests."

ENROLLED

Brock, who entered the service in February of 1951, is the son of Mrs. Josie Denney of Brodhead. He is married to the former Margie Albright of Brodhead.

IN VIETNAM.—Sgt. J. Brock has recently been assigned to Camp Rhan Bay in Chu-Lai, Vietnam. He is presently in charge of the dispensary with a helicopter outfit. Sgt. Brock, who entered the service in February of 1951, is the son of Mrs. Josie Denney of Brodhead. He is married to the former Margie Albright of Brodhead.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the people of Brodhead, Spira, Ottawa, and the Baptist Church, and everyone who was so kind to us in our fire disaster. We will never be able to thank each of you enough.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hamm

The top-selling post card of all time is reputed to be the drawing by the Briton, Donald McGill (1875-1962) with the caption: "He: 'How do you like Kipling?' She: 'I don't know, you naughty boy. I've never Kiplined.'"

The sun's up there, not on the ground

that's why modern electric ceiling cable heat feels like radiant sunshine

An especially popular type of electric heating is the ceiling cable system. Because it performs in the natural, efficient way of the sun... radiating heat downward to bathe everyone in delightful, sunshine-like warmth. As with other types of electric heating—baseboard and wall panel—it is silent, even, draft-free. Remarkably clean too—sharply cutting the usual costs of redecorating, of cleaning draperies and furniture. For comfort, cleanliness and control, switch to electric heat when you build or modernize.
