AUXILIARY MEETS

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Rockcastle County Baptist Hospital met at the hospital Monday evening for their regular meeting. Two churches were represented. Mrs. Rissie Wright, president, presided. Many worthwhile projects were discussed, including the special Mother's Day offering for the hospital, which will be taken up on the second Sunday in May. At this time, all churches are asked to contribute to the hospital.

HEART DRIVE ENDS

According to Mrs. John Allen, Heart Fund Chairman, the Heart Fund Drive this year totaled around $840. This figure is lower than the $1021.00 collected last year.

"SCHOOL BOARD"

(Cont. From Front Page) ion until November of 1970. Other items on the agenda was the school time, which had been voted on at the March meeting. At that meeting, the board decided to change the school hours to 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. This was due to the "fast time," scheduled to go into effect April 28. However, the board received a petition from Brodhead School signed by 257 students, 10 bus drivers, and 37 teachers, asking them to reconsider their decision and go on "fast time" leaving the hours as they are now set.

Mrs. Miracle told the board members that she felt the parents of the students should be the ones to decide whether the school moved the time ahead or not. The board then voted to send out questionnaires to the parents asking them their preference and if the majority wanted to move the school hours ahead to rescind the original motion.

The board also voted to send out letters and application blanks to all teachers asking them if they wished to re-apply for positions for the 68-69 school year. The teachers, under the governor's recent budget, will receive an average increase of $800 over the next two years. The pay ranks for the next school year will be as follows: Rank I (one year beyond a Master's degree) $5950 - $6550 - $6990; Rank II (Master's Degree) $5550 - $6150 - $6500; Rank III (Bachelor's Degree) $5150 - $5750 - $6100; Rank IV (Emergency Certificate) $2900 and Rank V - $2500.

The number of years a teacher has taught will decide the amount of pay they will receive within their rank.

Mrs. Miracle also reported that the county would be ready, by this September, to provide educational television for the schools. However, she stressed that only one school in the county had expressed a desire to use the new equipment. It was then decided to purchase at least one set and then decide later if there were sufficient demand for more.

According to a report by Tommy Harold Mink, there are presently 140 children enrolled in the rehabilitation program. The meeting was then adjourned.

"FOOD STAMPS"

omy of the communities in which it is operating. The benefits of the food stamp program to the community and to the individual are numerous. Teachers have noticed improved learning power and changes in attitude among students whose families are now receiving "food stamps." Another recipient stated that now she could serve "green salads" to her children.

Another area where the food stamp program has shown its value is among the elderly as evidenced by this statement: "Food stamps is the best thing that could have happened to me and my 91-year-old wife. We buy mostly milk, juices and soft foods."

County Judge Wayne Van Hook stated that, "The Food Stamp Program in Rockcastle County represents definite human activities afoot in our county. Leaders have begun to notice problems of poverty and to do something about them. In Rockcastle, the 'welfare line' up for commodities has been alleviated. The diet resulting from the variation of food is improved. The merchants now have paying customers in people who previously had been turned away. Little children can now shop for their food, and return home with a sense of dignity."

"Local merchants receive added business from the program which pours more receipts into the local economy which is of course desirable. Interested parties realize that there is a certain built-in initiative in the program, partial pay by the individual receiving help. Social minded persons feel good that trained and competent social workers are examining the circumstances of our needy people."

"So long as I can see persons in need being helped, and in a manner which allows them to help themselves, I must support the program. I feel that the program is good and our citizens realize the help being given in the kind long needed in our area. When mothers tell me their children are eating better and looking better, I know things are better."

Mrs. Irene Vertrees, Social Service Supervisor, Department of Economic Security, Division of Public Assistance, sums up the program's value as follows: "There is no doubt but what this program has helped to a great extent to boost the economy of the county. Numerous merchants in the county throughout the year have expressed their appreciation of this program, and what it has meant to them to have their customers buying on a cash basis rather than running a charge account. Not only has the fact that the purchasing of food coupons has enabled the lower income groups to 'pay their bills as they go,' this also has given these people greater buying power due to the fact that in many instances recipients are eligible for a great many bonus coupons."

(1) Motor vehicles sold to the United States, or to the Commonwealth of Kentucky or any of its political subdivisions.

(2) Motor vehicles sold to the institutions of purely public charity and institutions of education not used or employed for gain by any person or corporation.

(3) Motor vehicles sold or transferred to licensed motor vehicle dealers for resale.

(4) Motor vehicles sold or transferred to nonresident members of the armed forces on duty in the Commonwealth under orders from the United States Government.

(5) Commercial motor vehicles (excluding passenger vehicles having a seating capacity for nine persons or less), owned by nonresident owners and used primarily in interstate commerce and based in a state other than Kentucky by reason of operational requirements or fleet proration agreements and are registered pursuant to KRS 186.145 (Forced Registration).

Rockcastle County Court Clerk Clifford Bales said the state County Clerk's Association opposed this new method of collecting tax on motor vehicles, but lost the battle in Frankfort.

Miss Myrtle Bryant County Educator, Dies

Following an illness of several months, Miss Myrtle Bryant passed away at the Rockcastle County Baptist Hospital, April 3. She was the daughter of David L. and Sallie Denny Bryant. Miss Myrtle was a graduate of Eastern College, (now University), and was connected with school work in this county for more than fifty years, having been a teacher, Director of Pupil Personnel, and Superintendent of Rockcastle County Schools. The present Administration Building, on Richmond Street, was built during her tenure as Superintendent.

She was a member of the Buckeye Christian Church and local Women's Club. After her retirement, she contributed one half day each Saturday as Clerk at the Rockcastle County Library.

In 1933 Miss Bryant was designated by the Governor, on behalf of the Kentucky Library and Bookmobile, as a Kentucky Colopel. Her many former pupils will cherish with pleasant memories their contacts with Miss Myrtle, and her good influence will remain with them always.

Miss Bryant is survived by one brother, Logan Bryant, of Mt. Vernon; two nieces, Mrs. Lorene Sigmond of Mt. Vernon and Mrs. Mary Kasanof, New York City, and one nephew, Lewis Bryant, Newport News, Virginia.

Funeral services were held Friday, April 5, at the First Christian Church in Mt. Vernon with Bro. Norman Howard officiating. Burial was in the Elmwood Cemetery.

Sparks Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

BEAUTIFICATION PROJECT—Members of the Mt. Vernon Boy Scout Troop No. 155 participated Saturday in a Beautification Project for the City of Mt. Vernon. The boys planted Iris bulbs, donated by Mrs. Clifford Bales and Mrs. Joe Young, in the city park. Mrs. Bales and Mrs. Jack Henderson, left, helped the boys decide where to plant the flowers. Members of the troop helping in the project were: Dwight Hopkins, Bill Stewart, Kenny Robinson, Johnny St. Clair, Billy Daley, Mike Van Winkle, Jerry Mullins, Jim Mullins, John Richie, Howardson, Ricky Kirby, Billy Cook, Lonnie Moore, Paul Travis, Ricky Dixon, Marjory Bray, Clinton Clay Winstead, Billy Jeck, Larry Ray Travis, and Jimmy B. Burdette.

Mrs. Miracle Re-Hired; Nunnolley Replaces Saylor

On a motion made by Coleman Mink, chairman of the Rockcastle County Board of Education and seconded by Harold Balingier, Mrs. Neuraul Miracle was rehired as County School Superintendent for the next four years. The motion was made and carried unanimously at the April meeting of the board last Thursday night.

Expressing surprise, Mrs. Miracle told the board that she appreciated their support and only hoped that she would be able to fulfill her duties to their satisfaction.

Preston Nunnolley was named to replace Bradley Saylor at the meeting. The vote was also unanimous for Mr. Nunnolley's appointment.

The meeting began with a talk to the board by Jack Taylor, Resource Development Specialist in Adult Education with the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service.

Mr. Taylor told the board that there would be more money available this year for adult education and that it would be highly possible for Rockcastle to expand their adult education program. He commended the job presently being done by Mrs. Vera Scott at Brodhead with the adult students.

He told the Board that there was a great reservoir of adults in Rockcastle County from which to draw the students for the program. Quoting some statistics from a 1950 survey he said (1) Rockcastle County has 1488 people with less than five years of education, about 24% of the population; (2) 85.7% of the population has less than four years of high school (from no education, up to, but not through, high school); He said this was about average for most counties; (3) Rockcastle is doing above average in keeping children in school. Today 30 out of 100 children that enter as high school freshmen will drop out.

Following Mr. Taylor's meeting with the board, they with Mr. Nunnolley went into executive session. After the session was over, County Judge Wayne Van Hook saw Mr. Nunnolley in to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Saylor. Under state law Mr. Nunnolley will not have to stand for reelection.

New Usage Tax Problem For Many Car Owners

The change in the motor vehicle usage tax, brought about by action of the recent state legislature and effective April 1, has been causing considerable consternation among persons who have had to transfer cars since that date.

The change is this: A 5 per cent usage tax must be collected by the county clerk on the transfer of all motor vehicles. In the past, usage tax was collected by car dealers.

The new tax is based on retail value and amounts to five per cent of 97 per cent of the retail value as shown by the NADA book. Regardless of the selling price, the clerk must refer to the book to get the value upon which he charges the tax.

The "occasional sales" provision of the former 3 per cent usage tax is no longer effective. This provision permitted an individual to transfer tax free two cars each year. Under the current regulation, the 5 per cent tax is imposed on every transfer.

The new law gives credit for a trade-in on a used car, but on new cars, no credit is given and the tax is charged on 99 per cent of the retail value.

In other words, a person trading a $1,000 used car for a $2,000 used car will pay usage tax on 90 per cent of the difference in the price, or $900. The usage tax will be 5 per cent of $900 or $45.

If a person purchases a used car and has no trade-in, the usage tax is charged on 90 per cent of $3,500 or $3,150, therefore the usage tax will be 5 per cent of $3,150 or $157.50.

Regardless of the value of the vehicle that is traded in, a purchaser must pay tax on 90 per cent of the retail value of a new car.

Suppose a new car is valued at $5,000. The purchaser pays tax on 90 per cent of $5,000 or $4,500. The usage tax will be 4 per cent of $4,500 or $225.00.

On models up to 1950, the county clerk's office charges usage tax on a flat rate of $50.00 or $25.00. After 1950, the NADA book must be used.

The statute provides for the following exemptions from the usage tax:

Red Cross Drive Hits $2,000 Mark

According to County Judge Wayne Van Hook, Chairman of the County Red Cross Chapter, the amount contributed to the fund drive now totals a little over $2,000 and several areas have not been heard from. The fund drive was coordinated by James Robinson, fund drive chairman, and Roy Lee Martin, fund drive co-chairman.

The chapter has now installed a telephone in the home of Mrs. Rudolph Burdette, secretary of the organization. The number is 256-2915 and anyone with a relative in the service that needs to contact them should use this number.

Judge Van Hook expressed appreciation for the support given the drive by everyone in the county. Judge Van Hook said, "It was heart warming and encouraging to see how people rallied behind this great and worthwhile cause especially the children of the community. Mrs. Raymond McGulve's school children at Maple Grove School made cookies and candy and sold them and donated the money ($25) to the drive and Glen Whitaker shined shoes one Saturday in Mt. Vernon and also donated the proceeds from his efforts to the fund drive. There are some examples of people's efforts to make this a successful fund raising campaign."

County Residents Have Received $436,622 In Food Stamps

"The food stamp program is the best thing that has ever happened to me and my children," a Kentucky woman said.

Rockcastle County residents have become accustomed to hearing comments like this from recipients of U.S. Department of Agriculture food stamp coupons. April 1, 1958 marked the second anniversary of Rockcastle County's food stamp program for low-income families.

John R. Baskin, officer-in-charge of the Consumer and Marketing Service's food stamp office in Somerset, said that Rockcastle County had issued $436,622 worth of coupons during the past two year period. Needy families exchanged $194,250.00 of their own money for the coupons and then received an additional $242,372.00 worth of free, bonus coupons to help them buy a variety of foods at local food stores.

The Department of Economic Security, Division of Public Assistance is responsible for interviewing and certifying eligible families for food stamp aid and for issuing coupons to certified families.

USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service handles authorization of retail and wholesale grocers to accept the coupons from recipients in exchange for food. It is the federal agency with overall supervision of the program. There are currently 55 authorized retailers in Rockcastle County and these food stamp recipients can spend their food stamp coupons.

A total of 1,780 persons in the county took part in the food stamp program in December.

"It is pretty obvious what the food stamp program means to this area," Baskin said. "We've seen it improve the diets of low-income families, increase food sales and expand farm markets for food items. It stimulates the whole economy."

Easter Seal Drive Now Totals $200

Contributions totaling barely $200.00 have been received to date during the 1958 Easter Seal Campaign in Rockcastle County, according to Mrs. Jack D. Lewis, chairman of the local drive, which opened March 1.

Mrs. Lewis urges Rockcastle residents to mail contributions this week to her at box 358, Mt. Vernon.

Easter Seal receipts are the principal means of support of the services of the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children which owns and operates seven facilities in the state.

"Crippling accidents and illnesses have no season," Mrs. Lewis said. "They can strike anyone. Your gifts to Easter Seals can help children throughout Kentucky and here in Rockcastle County to overcome their crippling conditions."

The Easter Seal Campaign will continue through Easter Sunday, April 14.

Easter Services Set By Local Churches

Several of the local churches will have special services in observance of Easter.

The Brodhead Christian Church will have a Candlelight Communion Service Friday night at 7:30 p.m. with special music. Regular Sunday Services will be held Easter Sunday.

The Wildie Christian Church will hold Sunrise Services at 6 a.m., Easter Morning above the scenic View Motel on US 25 Scottie Richmond, minister of the church, will be the speaker. The Buckeye Christian Church will also participate in this service.

The Buckeye Christian Church will show film strips at their evening service.

The Livingston Christian Church will have Sunrise Services Easter morning at 6 a.m. at the church.

The Mt. Vernon Christian Church will also have Sunrise services beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the church.

The high school Sunday School class will be in charge of this service. Following the Sunrise service, coffee and doughnuts will be served in the church basement. The youth choir will bring the copral service during the regular Sunday School service and the adult choir will present a special program of Easter music during the morning worship service. At the church's evening service at 7 p.m. a film will be shown entitled "Miracle of Love."

Rev. Cummins Called To Local Pastorate

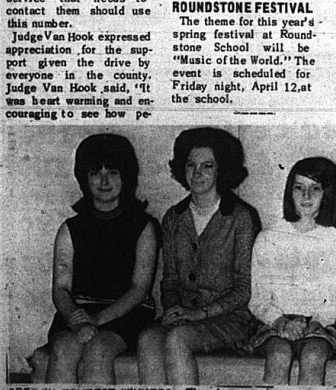

Rev. Ray Cummins has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist Church in Mt. Vernon.

Rev. Cummins, 33, is a native of Shelbyville and was formerly pastor of Campton Baptist Church at Campton, Ky.

POINT OF VIEW

IMPORTANCE OF SUMMER PLACEMENT FOR TEEN-AGERS

Mounting costs of education, especially those from large families and/or with limited means. Then, too, it is vitally important to keep teenage idleness at a minimum during the hot summer months when urban violence is so easily sparked.

Finding jobs for vacationing students will be a more significant problem than ever during the forthcoming summer season. Many youngsters will need money to meet the ever-

LABOR FORCE ON THE INCREASE

The sudden and dynamic expansion of the labor force when schools and colleges close down for the summer is nothing new. It has always presented difficulties. But the summer of 1968 promises perplexities well beyond the usual. In the first place, Labor Department statistics for the twenty largest metropolitan areas of the nation indicate that some 2,555,000 mostly full-time positions must be found if work opportunities are to be made available for all teenagers expected to be seeking jobs.

Total teenage employment during the summer of 1967 amounted to only 2,125,000. While the increase of 430,000 anticipated for this year's vacation season may not at first glance appear excessive, it will still take efforts of private industry and of government agencies to absorb this additional labor reservoir. During recent years, both private and public employers have put on impressive campaigns to place young people in summer jobs with the smallest amount of delay and confusion. Vice President Humphrey has spearheaded these campaigns, and he will strive for even greater success this year.

FOCUS OF TROUBLE IN THE CITIES

While the question of finding summer employment is general throughout the country, the problem in urban centers is always particularly difficult. There are just too many youngsters for the number of job openings. That is why special co-operation is essential among all concerned during the critical time of transition from spring into summer. Companies anxious to help by providing all possible full-time employment for the vacation period can find many sources of encouragement.

In most areas the boards of trade and chambers of commerce are actively working to achieve maximum placement. Federal and state labor and employment security divisions will be ready to aid both in lining up openings and in channeling available boys and girls into them. Service clubs — such as Kiwanis, Lions, etc. — are working with business and industry to promote the fullest possible summer employment of young job seekers.

Neighborhood groups are another important force where population is especially localized, frequently spurring retail and service outlets to expand their staffs for the summer.

PERMANENT EMPLOYEES MAY BE FOUND

With the basic labor shortage still acute, especially in lines demanding high skill and adaptability, astute employers will be on the lookout for temporary youthful workers who might become valuable permanent workers. Personnel officials would therefore do well to observe their summer jobbers and their capabilities with exceptional care, even if the youths still have another year or more of education to complete. A great many concerns have found it rewarding to offer unusually gifted youngsters, part-time employment after they have returned to school. On-the-job training and evening classes can develop some extraordinarily loyal and talented employees.

Ambitious youngsters with a keen eye to the future should seek out positions with companies that may be looking for

OBSERVE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Singleton of Livingston observed their 50th Wedding Anniversary Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Mary Leach in Livingston. Three of the couple's five children were able to be present for the day of festivities. They were: C.E. Singleton and family of Louisville, Mrs. Earl McNutt, Jr., and Mr. McNutt, of Louisville, and Mrs. Leach. Their grandson, Jack Leach of Robbins AFB, Georgia, was also present for the occasion. He will be leaving soon for Alaska for two years. The couple's two children not present were, W.E. Singleton of Tennessee and W.O. Singleton of Louisville. Mr. Singleton is a retired railroader and they are members of the Livingston Baptist Church.

likely young job aspirants on a permanent basis. In the long run, this will likely contribute far more to their careers than the immediately enticing prospect of "flash" jobs at summer resorts with perhaps ten or twelve weeks of operation at high pay. Wise parents will guide their teenagers in such matters, helping them to plan for their future working lives as early as possible.

OLDER ADOPTIVE PARENTS NOW BEING SOUGHT

Area Agent's Notes

BY: H. LEE DURHAM
TERMITE-SWARMING REPORTED FOR FIRST TIME THIS YEAR

The first report of termite-swarms for this year has been received by the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service entomology Department.

This means, says Dr. R.A. Scheibner, entomologist, that termites are

(1) establishing new colonies and (2) it's time to protect the home if the swarming is noticed.

"If you see these ant-like insects swarming in or around your home, you have an infestation that is several years old," Dr. Scheibner says. "You will have to take remedial action rather than preventative action. Remedial treatments to kill established colonies that are below the ground and not seen often require professional help from pest control operators."

He noted that the swarming insects are distinguished from flying ants—also frequently seen around homes—by the following method:

(1) Flying ants have very narrow, pinched waists; termites do not have these; termites have four equal size wings twice as long as the body; flying ants have two long, rather narrow wings.

Area extension offices in the counties have information on detection and control of termites.

WEED KILLERS IN FIELD TOBACCO TESTED AT U.K. FOR FIVE YEARS

Good results were obtained in control of annual grasses and broadleaf weeds in field tobacco by using either of two chemicals, the U.K. Ag Experiment Station agronomy department reported this week.

Prof. Joe F. Freeman, weed control researcher, said the two chemicals are diphenamid (trade name Enide 50W) and venolate (trade name Vernam). Diphenamid is sprayed over newly set tobacco plants in a 20-inch band. Vernam is sprayed broadcast over the field.

Results with both materials were good, Prof. Freeman says. Venolate gave 95 percent control of annual grasses and broadleaf weeds, used at a rate of 3 pounds active an acre. Diphenamid gave more than 90 percent control of annual grasses and 85 percent of annual broadleaf weeds at 6 pounds active material an acre. There was some early injury to young plants with both materials, he said, but yields and dollar value of crops were about the same for the plots chopped and cultivated to control weeds.

Diphenamid is sprayed on over the rows of new plants. Venolate is a bit harder to put on; it is spray broadcast seven days after transplanting. The field also must be cultivated before applications and the material worked into the soil afterward.

"Farmers must not think that this early application of these materials gives season-long weed control. It does not. A lay-by cultivation with flat sweep equipment should be made to destroy escaped and late-starting ones."

Slight injury may be noted to plants after application. But usually this does not carry through to harvest, Mr. Freeman said. If Diphenamid is used, difficulty may be encountered in getting grass cover crops or small grain cover crops to grow where the material was sprayed in the 20-inch bands. But if rows are planted on the contour, the small grain cover in middles will reduce washing of soil during the winter months.

Shade tree fertilization. Deciduous (broadleaf) trees, like other plants, usually perform better if fertilized periodically. Tree appearance, resistance to certain insects and diseases causing organisms, and general vigor can be partly maintained by proper fertilization.

Type of fertilizer, and the time to apply, rate and methods of application are important. Fertilizers containing 10- to 15-percent nitrogen and lesser amounts of phosphorus and potassium are recommended. Combinations such as 10-6-4, 12-4-4, 14-7-7 and 15-5-5 are satisfactory. Spring and autumn are the best times to fertilize trees. Spring applications should be made from March through May. Frequency of fertilization depends primarily upon the amount of growth desired. Young trees can be fertilized annually. Large specimens may be fertilized once every three years.

One to two pounds of fertilizer should be applied for each inch of trunk diameter for trees less than six-inches in diameter. Larger trees should receive two to four pounds of fertilizer per inch.

If fertilizer materials are to be effective, one must place them close to the tree roots. Broadcasting fertilizer over the soil surface, even if it is worked into the top few inches of soil, is of little value to the tree.

Applying fertilizer in holes drilled around the tree is an excellent method. Holes, 12 to 18 inches deep and about 18 to 24 inches apart, should be made under the tree canopy. A punch bar or auger is satisfactory for drilling the holes. Fertilizer for the tree should be distributed uniformly among the holes.

Please attend church and Sunday School. Through the years I have repeated these words many times. I hope they have done some good.

There is much trouble in the world today, pain, sadness and heart ache. Also wars and rumors of wars. American boys are dying on the battle fields far from home. We are living far better than we have ever lived financially, but spiritually we are sinking deeper and deeper. Do you think God is pleased with us.
