icipated in the most unique dealer new car meeting in American Motors' history. He was one of more than 2,700 American Motors dealers 'admitted' to Los Angeles International Airport in a single day to meet with company officials and to view AM's 1969 car lines.

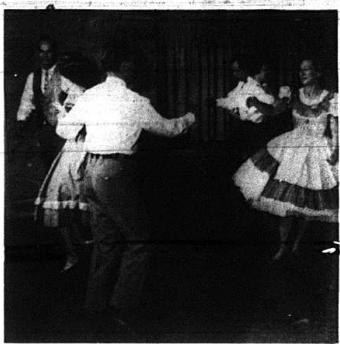

Nineteen giant jets carried the entire American Motors dealer force from all parts of the country to Los Angeles in the morning, and returned them to their starting points late the same day. Some dealers traveled more than 6,000 miles roundtrip to attend the meeting.

The meeting began even before the dealers arrived in Los Angeles. While en route, they watched a 45 minute product film on AA's Astrolator, in the first auto sales meeting in the sky.

Upon arrival at the airport, they were taken to the American Airlines hangar area to see the 1968 Ambassador Rebel, Rambler, AMX and Javelin cars, and to learn about AM's 1969 sales objectives from Roy D. Chapman, Jr., board chairman, and William V. Luneburg, president.

Dealers had lunch at the airport, saw a performance exhibition by Craig Breedlove, world land-speed record holder, who drove the company's AMX sports car, and then rebounded the jets to return home.

MINIMUM ACREAGE DIVERSION FOR 1969 FEED GRAIN PROGRAM

In response to many requests and in order to help growers make cropping arrangements for 1969 production of fall-planted barley and wheat, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman announced that the minimum acreage diversion for those planning to participate in the 1969 Feed Grain Program will be not less than 20 percent nor more than 25 percent of the feed grain (corn, sorghum and barley) base. Minimum acreage diversion has been 20 percent for each of the eight years of the Feed Grain Program. The secretary also indicated there will be a need for additional diversion for payment in the 1969 program in order to balance production with requirements. Final determinations relative to the 1969 Feed Grain Program Provisions will not be made for some time, Secretary Freeman said. However, studies of the supply situation and alternative courses of action available have progressed to the point where it is possible to indicate that the minimum qualifying diversion will fall in the range of 20 to 25 percent. The Secretary of Agriculture indicated that some farmers may want to divert 25 percent of their feed grain base in order to qualify for the 1969 program; and to plan their 1969 crop wheat program acreage substitution alternatives. If, subsequently, it is determined that a minimum of 20 percent diversion is required for program qualification, such a producer would have two alternatives; He could leave the 5 percent acreage diverted and qualify for payment under the voluntary diversion provisions to be a part of the 1969 Feed Grain Program, or plant the acreage to late fall or spring seeded crops.

DAIRYMEN TO VOTE ON MILK PROMOTION
Dairy farmers over Kentucky will be casting their votes Saturday, September 21, on the question of promotion funds to increase the use of dairy products. According to H. H. Bellow, Jr., President of American Dairy Association of Kentucky, and a Barren County farmer, "The approval of this referendum will give the dairy farmer a much stronger voice in reaching consumers in this competitive time. Many imitation products are here now or are just around the corner, and we must meet this invasion now with the story of real dairy products." The board of dairy farmers of American Dairy Association of Kentucky will administer the program. Rockcastle County dairymen will be voting at the Rockcastle County Courthouse from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

EDA Approves $1,609,000 Grant And Loan

The City Council of Mt. Vernon has been notified by the Economic Development Administration (EDA) that a grant and loan, in the amount of $1,609,000 has been approved. The loan amount is $624,000 and the City of Mt. Vernon will have forty years to repay this sum. The total grant and loan reflects an increase of $425,000 over the amount originally requested by the City for the overage. The additional funds were necessary for the project since the low bid received for the pipeline construction was over $200,000 over what the engineer's estimate for that phase of the construction had been. Also, the land was more expensive than originally estimated. The City does not have it's hands on the actual cash yet since Mayor Clyde Liviville told the Signal that it would take about a year to finalize everything. Meanwhile, the project will have to be carried by interim financing which the city has a commitment for from Citizens Fidelity Bank in Louisville. The interest rate for paying back the loan will be 4 1/8% on $474,000 of the money and 4 3/4% on the last $150,000. The first payment will be due July 1, 1970 in the amount of $5,000 and the final payment in, would you believe it, 2009 will be $24,000.

Dr. Jack Lewis Files For School Board

Dr. Jack D. Lewis, 33, a general medical practitioner here since 1960, has filed for the Rockcastle County Board of Education. Dr. Lewis is seeking the fifth district seat on the board presently held by Coleman Mink, who chose not to stand for re-election. So far, this is the only seat on the board for which there is competition. Kenneth Adams announced last week that he would also seek the post from the fifth district. Harold Ballinger and Willie Taylor, who hold the two other seats up for election this year, have announced their candidacy for re-election and so far there have been no other announcements from their districts. Dr. Lewis, a native of Leslie County, is a graduate of Berea College and the University of Louisville Medical School. He interned at Wichita, Kansas. He is married to the former Betty Reed of West Virginia and they have three children.

REPUBLICANS TURN OUT FOR CAMPAIGN KICK-OFF--Between eight and ten thousand Republicans turned out last Saturday to help get the fall Republican campaign in Kentucky under way at Levi Jackson State Park near London. The weather was beautiful and the Republican dignitaries were on hand. Present were both Senators Morton and Cooper, Gov. Louie B. Nunn, Congressman Tim Lee Carter, senatorial candidate Marlow W. Cook and other congressional candidates.

HANDSHAKING STOP--After the speaking was over, Senatorial candidate Cook had a hard time of it to get out of the park since there were so many supporters on hand. Cook hit the Democratic administration hard on their economic policies of the last few years and told the crowd that with the fine support of the Republican administration in Frankfort that his way to election in the fall would be easier.

Controversy Grows Over Naming Of Lake At Renfro

How do you feel about changing the name of Lake Linville to Renfro Valley Lake? Do you have a preference, if so, now may be the time to voice it since the name is presently under a great deal of controversy. A petition is being circulated by advocates of changing the name to see if enough people will sign to make it worthwhile bringing up the matter at a city council meeting.

The matter was discussed at the September meeting of the council when Mayor Clyde Liviville (for whom the lake is named) told the council members that he would resign if they took action to change the name to Renfro Valley Lake. Councilman Ed Winstead, one of the leaders of the move to rename the lake, told council members that he felt that the name Renfro Valley Lake would mean more dollars to the tourist business in this area than Lake Linville did and that he felt that an overwhelming majority of the businessmen in the county desired the change. Mayor Liviville stated, when contacted by the signal, said that he considered this move a personal attack on him and that such a move "would be detrimental to my profession and integrity."

Mayor Liviville further stated that the proposition that the name Renfro Valley Lake would be of more value to tourists was than Lake Linville, was ridiculous since there would only be a sign at the Lake for tourist to see and not scattered all along the highway miles before reaching the site. The Signal staff has asked a cross-sampling of persons in the community and the answers have tended to be in favor of changing the name with but since it's extra effort put forth on the given most. However, several who were in favor of leaving things as they were said they felt that if it hadn't of been for Mayor Liviville's extra effort put forth on securing the approval that we probably wouldn't have had the lake now. A few felt that the lake shouldn't have been named Lake Linville to begin with but since it had been done that it should be left that. The motion was made at the December, 1964 meeting by Councilman Charles "Tuck" Baker and seconded by Councilman Carl Kelly. The motion passed unanimously. Since 1964, there have been two changes on the council. Baker moved outside of the city limits and was replaced by Wayne Stewart and Fred Morris chose not to stand for re-election last year and his seat was taken by Perciful McKinley. Concerning the petition presently being circulated for persons who wish to see the lake renamed, Councilman Winstead reported to the Signal Tuesday that over 95% of those asked to sign had done so. "Perhaps now is the time to express my opinion one way or the other and if you would like to do so we would be glad to receive your letter to the Editor which we will reprint, either pro or con."

VETERAN'S Q. & A.

Q - I understand that President Johnson recently signed into law a bill increasing VA compensation payments to veterans with service-connected disabilities. I am rated 100 per cent service-rated. How much of an increase will I receive and when will it go into effect?

A - As a veteran with a 100 per cent service-connected disability, your monthly VA compensation payment will be increased under Public Law 90-493, signed by President Johnson on Aug. 15, 1968, from $300 to $400 if your disability was incurred in time of war and from $240 to $320 if incurred in peacetime.

The increase will go into effect on Jan. 1, 1969, and should be reflected in your January check which you will receive around Feb. 1, 1969.

Q - Late last March President Johnson signed a law which, I understand, not only protects me against any loss in my VA pension due to the Social Security increase I received this year, but also increases my pension as the result of a new income scale the VA uses. My pension check is still the same. Why haven't I received an increase?

A - Because any increase to which you may be entitled as the result of the change in the income scale will not become effective until Jan. 1, 1969, under Public Law 90-275, signed by the President on March 28, 1968.

The provision protecting your pension against any reduction due to increased Social Security benefits before 1970 went into effect at the time the law was signed. However, the $200 increase in income limitation and changes in monthly VA pension checks were deferred by law until the first of next year.

Q - I am a disabled veteran eligible for vocational rehabilitation and would like to know if I can take part-time training. I would like to train for a better paying job, but can't afford to quit my present job and take full-time training because I have a wife and two children to support.

A - Since July 26, 1968, as the result of Public Law 90-431, it has been possible for service-disabled veterans in need of vocational rehabilitation to take part-time training and be paid a proportionate assistance allowance by VA. The present full-time allowance is $110 monthly for a veteran with no dependents, $150 for one dependent, and $175 for two or more dependents. Under the new law, the allowance for three-quarters time training will be $80, $110, and $130 respectively.

For half-time training the allowance will be $55, $75, and $85. Check with your nearest VA office.

CARD OF THANKS

I should like to thank everyone who was so kind and thoughtful at the time of the death of my brother, Claude Bullock. A special thanks to Bro. Elmer Stevens, Sparks Funeral Home, those who sent flowers, and the gravediggers.

DAIRY VOTE IS SCHEDULED
A referendum of Kentucky Milk Producers to determine if they desire a check-off on milk for promotion and research purposes will be held Saturday, September 21. The specific question to be decided by Kentucky Dairy Farmers is whether or not there shall be an assessment of 4¢ per hundredweight on all fluid milk and 3¢ per hundredweight on all manufactured milk sold.

Eligible to vote in the referendum are Kentucky farmers engaged in the production of milk on a commercial basis, including owners of farms, on which milk is produced, tenants and sharecroppers. This includes persons who receive income, or share in the proceeds, from the sale of milk. In order for the question to pass, it must be favored by a majority of those voting in the referendum. If approved, the assessment will be used to support promotion and research programs of the American Dairy Association of Kentucky.
