Letters To The Editor

I recently read in your paper that there is currently an effort underway to change the name of Lake Linnville to Lake Renfro, with the attraction of tourists, given as the main reason.

I feel that a change in the name of the lake would not make two cents worth of difference from the standpoint of tourism. However, I do think that naming the lake for Mr. Clyde Linnville is the least that the people of Rockcastle County can do for the man most responsible for obtaining the lake. It seems that people are pretty fast to forget the time and effort that Mr. Linnville spent in obtaining the lake, as well as many other major improvements in Mt. Vernon such as public sewers and low-rent housing.

I feel that what Rockcastle County really needs is a few more people like Mr. Linnville who are willing to work for the improvement of the county and less bickering about such things as somebody wants to take the ridiculous' as changing the name away from them too. They all want it to be Renfro Valley Lake. They would rather say they live on Renfro Valley Lake than to say they live on Linnville Lake.

Sincerely,
 Jim Cass

Dear Sir,
 As a former resident and present subscriber to the Signal, I would like to comment on the lake controversy which was explained to some degree in the September 13th edition of the Signal.

I feel that the City officials should settle personal differences in private and keep them out of City Government. Since the lake has already been named by the City, why shouldn't it be left that way? The name wouldn't make one dime's difference to tourist trade, nobody is going to drive any farther than Madison County to see a 480 acre pond. Mr. Vernon has long been noted for his personal differences. Many people feel this is the reason the town hasn't grown any in the past 20 years.

Sincerely,
 Carl Rowe

We think the people in Renfro Valley ought to have something to say about naming the lake. They had to sell the best part of their land and some of them their homes against their will to make the lake and now it looks like

One Who Wants Fair Play For People in Renfro Valley

Although the letter to the editor printed below was run in last week's issue of the Signal, there were two lines left out. Therefore, we are reprinting the letter in its entirety.

Dear Editor,
 I was pleased to read in your paper that members of the Mt. Vernon City Council are considering a change of the official name previously suggested for the lake at Renfro Valley.

People have expected and known that this would happen. We know that men who gave of their time with the generosity required for service on this council are not people who would ignore the public welfare to the extent of discarding a name which has the advantages of almost 200 years of common use and several million dollars worth of nationwide advertising.

At the same time, it does not seem desirable to discard the idea of giving public recognition to the Mayor and Council members who worked so hard to secure financing for the flooded land and the water works, the city's part of the project. An appropriate plaque proudly displayed against their will to make the lake and now it looks like and erected.

 It would also be appropriate to devote some space on the plaque to do honor to the people of Kentucky. They, through their official representatives, mostly highway engineers and the Commissioner of Highways, proposed the lake idea to this community, first to the county government and later to the city for a water works. Some time after this the Highway Commissioners, acting for all Kentuckians, agreed to delay the construction of a portion of this major highway so that the city would have a longer time to secure its part of the money for the project. It was unfortunate that all the people of Kentucky were better served to suffer the inconvenience caused by this highway delay, and through this to help us become a stronger and more prosperous part of Kentucky. With these thoughts in mind, it seems likely that very soon we will do proper honor to all local and State people connected and will officially see to it that no part of Renfro Creek will have its name changed.

Very truly yours,
 Dr. Jack Henderson

SALES OF ALL CLASSES OF LIVESTOCK EVERY FRIDAY LANCASTER, KENTUCKY

Under U. S. Government Supervision & Bonded For Your Protection.

Putting you-firsts:

(A quick tour of some of the thoughtful new features the 1969 Chevrolets offer that other cars in Chevrolet's field don't.)

Headlight washers
 You push the windshield washer knob and hold it, and your headlights come clean. Fluid is diverted to two jet nozzles at each light lens. Outer lights only on dunks.

The spray removes up to 80% of accumulated dirt.

The feature is standard on 1969 Corvettes, and comes with the hidden headlights available on Camaro, Caprice and Kingswood Estate Wagons. It is available on all other models except Corvair.

Heated glass
 In a moment your rear window will self-defrost. Because we've built onto it a network of tiny ceramic strips capable of heating the entire surface.

Fog and frost disappear quickly and quietly. You just flick a switch.

The heated rear window is available on the 1969 Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe.

Pushbutton tire chains
 You press a button on the instrument panel and the rear tires get a shot of "liquid tire chain."

You spin your wheels once, wait a moment, and you're off — fluid possible on slick ice, or packed snow.

Available on all 1969 big Chevrolets.

Steering wheel lock
 When you own a car as desirable as the 1969 Chevrolet, you don't take chances.

When you leave it, you lock it. Not just the doors.

You lock the ignition, steering wheel and transmission lever, too.

Our new lock on the steering column takes care of all that. Standard on all 1969 Chevrolets, Chevies, Chevy Novas, Camaros and Corvettes.

Sorry, car thieves.

Power steering plus
 The 1969 Caprice, Impala and Camaro are available with a new type of power steering.

Variable-ratio power steering. What it does is give you faster steering with fewer turns of the wheel.

Variable-ratio power steering is particularly helpful in short, full turns.

And parking becomes unbelievably easy. You'll see.

Walk-in wagons
 The tailgate swings open like a door on most of our 1969 station wagons.

Which in itself is no big deal. But wait, there's more.

We've built a concealed step into the rear bumper.

You simply step up, over, and in.

The way we build our wagons, you can do it without bumping your head, and without acrobatics.

Walk into a wagon soon at your Chevrolet dealer.

Sorry, car thieves.

ONE MAN JOB—At the R.J. Reynolds Farm near Lexington, Amos Ethington shows how one man, unassisted, can house burley tobacco using new portable steel curing frames. With them, operator Ethington says he can house two acres of tobacco by himself in a day, eliminating the tedious problems and expensive costs of hand-hanging sticks in the barn. In 1967, his method of handling reduced leaf loss by about 280 pounds per acre over the conventional practice. The UK College of Agriculture is continuing its studies to evaluate leaf losses through handling techniques. The new steel frames, fabricated by Thoro-Speed Corporation from U.S. Steel galvanized sheet, were demonstrated during a special "Tobacco Mechanization Field Day" in September, sponsored by the USDA and the University of Kentucky.

sing of firearms is strictly enforced, criminals have little difficulty in obtaining guns. The law disarms law-abiding citizens. Merchants, cab drivers, and bus drivers, who are unnamed because they have obeyed the gun law, become the easy prey of the criminals who have evaded it.

The answer is not for the innocent to arm themselves to defend their own rights and property. There will be no freedom from fear if we turn America into an armed camp. The answer lies in the state assuming its duty to protect society and to disarm the criminal.

It is time that society moved at the federal and state level to deal directly with the armed criminal. He is a special menace and special deterrents are needed. The gun criminal uses in the commission of his crime should become as great a threat to him as it is today to his victim.

Any person convicted of using a gun in the commission of a major crime should receive a mandatory prison sentence. Only in carefully delineated and exceptional circumstances should the trial court have the discretion to suspend the sentence.

For its part, the Congress should consider immediate legislation providing for a mandatory prison term of substantial duration for any felon who uses a firearm in the commission of a serious Federal crime. The fifty states should consider action along identical lines.

In Great Britain the use of firearms in the commission of a major crime carries with it a mandatory sentence of up to seven years. The United States would do well to emulate the British example, for their record of controlling armed criminal violence is certainly superior to our own.

Such legislation - and it would have to be enacted at the state level to be truly effective - would be directed toward and would fall with decisive impact upon the estimated 115,000 professional criminals in this country, particularly the multiple offenders, who are responsible for most of the crimes of violence and brutality. What remains to be said about Benjamin Franklin?

Insurance companies, magazines, sociologists, scholars, scientists, diplomats and businessmen all regard him as one of their own.

But Ben Franklin was a printer and newspaperman first, last and always.

Like so many newspaper publishers today—particularly publishers of weekly newspapers—he was apprenticed as a printer in the trade at an early age. At 24 he became sole owner of The Pennsylvania Gazette, the largest and most successful newspaper in the Colonies. Later he branched out into book and magazine publishing, started a chain of newspapers, and pioneered many publishing innovations (such as hiring newspaper correspondents) which have become common in the industry.

Ben Franklin always thought of himself as a printer and newspaperman. He never "lost touch" with the Pennsylvania Gazette. On his tombstone he directed that the words "Benjamin Franklin, printer . . ." be engraved. One of his many aphorisms about journalism still finds prominent place on the walls of newspaper offices: "That if all printers were determined not to print any thing 'til they were sure it would offend nobody, there would be very little printed."

Ben Franklin proved that a newspaper run on sound business principles can both make money and perform a public service. He and his newspapers were basically different from earlier Colonial publishers and their newspapers. He made American journalism respected, a respect which found formal place in the First Amendment to our Constitution.

Franklin showed intelligent young men what they can do, in newspaper work. Ever since his time, newspapers have provided generations of young men with a rich and satisfying life.

These were Franklin's own words, for his epitaph: "The body of Benjamin Franklin, printer (like the cover of an old book, its contents worn out, and strips of its lettering and gilding) lies here. Join'd for worms! But the work itself shall not be lost, for it will, as he believed, appear once more in a new and more beautiful edition corrected and amended by its author."

Newspaper work is fast-moving and demanding. Those who have the background, brains and interest to keep up with it, find it to be—as H. L. Mencken said—"a 'three-ring circus'." And newspapers today still serve as essential stepping-stones for those who later branch out into other related lines of work.

That's something for you to think about during National Newspaper Week Oct. 6-12, 1968.

Brodhead Residents Urged To Continue Boiling Water

Residents of Brodhead are urged to boil all drinking water until notified otherwise by the State Health Department. According to Bobby Proctor, Chairman of the Brodhead Town Board, it will be necessary for citizens to continue boiling their water until the springs, which normally supply the town's water. However, until it rains again a lake, located at the mouth of Moore Spring, will be the chief source of supply. Mr. Proctor said that the water is still chlorinated but that the State Department of Health thought it advisable to have residents boil all drinking water.

The Brodhead Town Council is presently in the process of trying to obtain a loan and grant, in the amount of approximately $600,000, from the Economic Development Administration which will enable them to hook onto the Mt. Vernon water line at Ben Craig's property on U.S. 150. The money will also enable the city to construct a sewer system.

One more step, of the many involved, was completed recently when the City was notified that approval of their (the city's) Compliance Report had been granted by the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration. This is, of course, just one step that must be completed before EDA will give their final approval.

TWO KILLED-- Mrs. Anna C. Threlkeld, 72, and Mrs. Elizabeth C. Owens, 68, were both killed Monday morning in the above auto on the Interstate 75 exit at Conway. Both had left their homes at Maysville a short time earlier for a trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn. Mrs. Owens, driver of the car, died a short time after the accident at the Berea Hospital. Mrs. Threlkeld was killed instantly. Three eighteen year old boys from Cincinnati, Ohio were occupants of another of the vehicles involved. They were all treated and released at the local hospital. According to reports, Mrs. Owens apparently pulled across the northbound lane into the path of a gravel truck. The driver of the truck was not injured.

Fiscal Court Meets

Earl Bullock, chairman of the Board of the Rockcastle County Baptist Hospital, met with the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court Tuesday to ask the county to stand the bill for scaling down the hospital's boilers. It seems that some time ago, the court purchased about $500 worth of chemicals, which were to be applied to the boilers so they would not have to be scaled down.

However, the chemicals were not applied properly and now the repair work on the boilers, about $500 worth, will have to be done.

There was considerable discussion by the Fiscal Court members about whether it should be the county's responsibility to pay for the repairs since the court had originally paid for chemicals which, had they been properly applied, the repairs would not have been necessary.

program might not fare as well this year as in years past. There is a possibility that the contract for hauling white rock for the state will be cut back to 5,950 tons instead of the approximately 17,000 tons, the county was paid to haul last year.

Willard Hansford of the Division of Engineers in Somerset told the court members Tuesday that the county would get to haul 5,950 tons at 90¢ a ton. The court agreed to ask $1.00 a ton for hauling the rock. Mr. Hansford told them that he would check back with his office and let them know. Judge Van Hook said later that another highway official had contacted him and told him (Judge Van Hook) that he would see if some adjustment couldn't be made in the number of tons to be hauled and the amount paid.

There will be a call meeting of the Fiscal Court when more information is available.

Educational TV Meeting October 6

On October 7, 1968, at 3:10 p.m., Mr. Charles Klasek, Director of the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television, will speak to the Roundstone School Faculty on the use of Educational Television in the classroom. This will be the first of a series of meetings involving our faculty in preparation for the ETV endeavor.

We welcome the parents of Roundstone Children to attend this meeting that they too might better understand the significance of Educational Television.

Sherman Sargent finally made a motion to have the court repair the boilers but with the stipulation that should the necessary chemicals not be applied next year, the hospital would bear the cost of any repairs.

The motion was seconded by C. W. Phillips and carried.

In other business before the court, Judge Wayne Van Hook informed the members that the cost of replacing the courthouse air conditioner would be $5,805.77.

It was decided by the court to partially pay for the air conditioner out of some funds left over in the courthouse building fund.

Lamb New ASC Chairman; Shellie Mullins Re-Elected

Willie Lamb of Conway will serve as County Chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee for the coming year.

Mr. Lamb, already vice-chairman of that committee, was named to the chairman's post at a meeting held last Friday of the recently elected fifteen community committeemen.

Shellie Mullins, who was incumbent chairman of the County Committee and whose three-year term had expired, was re-elected to the committee in a close one vote decision over Hewitt Jones.

The Community Committee named Mr. Mullins to fill the vice-chairman's job. E.C. Watson, another member of the committee will serve as Regular Member.

Investiture Service At Christian Church

There will be an Investiture Service and Court of Honor at the Mt. Vernon Christian Church, Friday, October 4 at 7:30 p.m. Parents will be asked to come and stand behind their son as he receives his new rank. Each mother will be presented a miniature pin of their son's rank.

The program will also include Junior Leaders Recognition; Installation of New Patrol Leaders, Scribe, Quartermaster, and Bugler.

Precinct Workers

PRECINCT WORKERS-- These Republican ladies will work in their individual precincts to help promote the candidacy of the Republican nominees for the upcoming election. They are, seated, from left: Hazel Owens, Mrs. James Woodall, Mrs. Robert Witt, Mrs. Gilbert Bates, Mrs. Hubert Thacker, and Mrs. Carrie Baker, Campaign Chairwomen. The gentlemen standing in back were also on hand at the meeting of the precinct workers. They are, from left, Clyde Barnett, County Chairman, C.W. Phillips, Campaign Chairman, and Hubert Thacker.

With basketball season just around the corner, Coach John E. Renfro and the Cumberland College Indians are about to start a new year. Last year, the Indians compiled a record of 8 wins and 17 losses due primarily to injuries and a young ball club. With the experienced lettermen returning, Coach Renfro is expecting a better year.

Coach Renfro has high hopes for his returning play-making guard, Jerry Hodges. The 5'10", 18 year old sophomore from Mt. Vernon said: "My greatest desire for this year is concentrating on my defense." a starter on the varsity as a freshman, Jerry has shown he can hold up to the best. Jerry held up nicely with a season average of 10 points and 70% from the line. Jerry is majoring in history and minoring in biology. After graduation, he plans to go into business.

A graduate of Mt. Vernon High School, Jerry excelled in all three sports (football, basketball, and baseball) during his high school career. He was named to the district and regional basketball teams while playing for Mt. Vernon.

At Cumberland, Jerry also plays on the baseball team and last year wound up with a .455 batting average for the season.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Estill Hodges of Mt. Vernon.

There will be an Open House this Sunday, October 6 at Our Lady of Mt. Vernon Catholic Church.

Following the morning services, both the church and the rectory will be opened to the public. Everyone is invited to attend the church service at 8:30 a.m. at which time an explanation of each part of the Mass will be given. Refreshments will be served at the rectory after church.

County School Enrollment Up Over Last Year's Figure

Pupil enrollment in all of the four county consolidated schools and the 12 rural schools for this year is 3,133, according to Charles B. Parsons, Superintendent. Enrollment is up 46 over last year's figure.

The biggest gain in enrollment was at Livingston High School which shows 584 pupils enrolled this year as compared with 548 last year.

Mt. Vernon School gained 7 students for an enrollment total of 907 and Brodhead has 894 students in attendance as compared to 873 last year.

Monday in each month at 7:30 p.m. The meetings are open to the public and anyone is welcome to attend.

DYNAMITE FOUND-- Livingston policeman Dick Arley, left, and Sheriff Tip Reppert look over the 6 boxes of dynamite found Thursday by a young boy on the Piney Branch near Livingston. According to Arley, some of the boxes had been opened and the dynamite had obviously been hidden for some time.

At Roundstone, which is the only school in the county with less enrollment than last year, 357 children are in attendance as compared with 360 last year.

Total rural school enrollment is 391 up 83 over last year's figure.

Follow-Up Program For Upward Bound Students

The school year follow-up program for Berea College Upward Bound students has begun. Nine students from Rockcastle County, Eugene Jean Cook, Donald Cummins, Raymond Graves, Albert Leach, Larry Ponder, Fred Robinson, Richard Shively and Frieda Smothers, are participating.

Thirteen of the 50 Upward Bounders will be taking correspondence courses in foreign language to further prepare them for college. The students taking this course have no foreign language studies offered in their high schools. A library of one hundred books will be maintained which will allow each student to be reading two books at all times. These books were chosen because they are outstanding classics of their kind and are necessary for intellectual achievement on the college level.

expected to develop a service project or participate in one already existing in the community. Both of these aspects of the program will be coordinated with and partially supervised by the East Lake Cumberland Area Improvement Council.

Eight tutor counselors from Berea college will continue to work with the students throughout the academic year. In addition to assisting the students in their academic work the tutor counselors will also coordinate the research and service projects in their assigned counties. The students will continue to come to campus one Saturday each month for programs planned especially for them and also to participate in general college programs.

NEW MANAGER-- Joe Gay, 21, of Somerset has been named manager of the Food Fair Store in Mt. Vernon. Mr. Gay is a graduate of Somerset High School and attended the Eastern Baptist Seminary for two years. He is now pastor of the Bethlehem Baptist Church in Science Hill. He and his wife, the former Paulsette Barlow of Nashville, plan to make their home in Mt. Vernon.

One of the greatest needs in Appalachia is to have many more native leaders. The Upward Bound program hopes to see all 50 students in high school and college and return to Appalachia as leaders. This fall the students will be working toward this goal in many ways.

They will first do a research project in the community or town in which they live. This will help them discovered the nature of their environment and also discover ways in which they can function as leaders to help change the environment to make their towns and communities a better place to live.

After completion of the research project each will be expected to develop a service project or participate in one already existing in the community. Both of these aspects of the program will be coordinated with and partially supervised by the East Lake Cumberland Area Improvement Council.

WE'RE FOR PEDEN-- seems to be the general agreement of these young Democrats shown at a fund-raising dinner last Thursday night. Miss Lois Gayle Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Payne of Mt. Vernon, and Coy J. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Brown of Brodhead, were married September 7 at the home of the bride.

Rev. Jeffrey Wheddon officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a street-length gown of white crepe and lace with an empire waist and detachable train. Her veil was held by organza pearls embellished with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white mums centered with an orchid.

Miss Jenny Payne, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of pale blue crepe, with an empire waist. Her headpiece was a matching bow and veil. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and daisies.

Bill Ponder, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man.

The bride is a graduate of Brodhead High School and is now employed by the Rockcastle County Court Clerk.

The groom, also a graduate of Brodhead High School, is a junior at Eastern Kentucky University.

The couple are making their home in Mt. Vernon.

to deal with the armed criminal.

Certainly rigid control of mail order handguns and rifles can prevent youngsters and "alcoholics and addicts" and those not mentally competent to handle a gun from circumventing state and municipal gun laws. State or municipal licensing of gun owners can further reduce the number of rifles, shotguns, and pistols in the hands of those not qualified to possess them.

But these laws do not keep firearms out of the hands of criminals of all kinds, from assassins to common thugs. According to some, there are an estimated 200,000,000 guns in this country. Even in cities such as New York where registration and licen-

NIXON SPEAKS OUT ON GUN CONTROL

One of the chief forces behind proposed gun control in the country and in Congress is the urgent demand of the American people that the criminals preying upon society be disarmed.

In 1966 in the United States, 6500 murders were committed with firearms. One hundred thousand Americans were the victims of rapes or assaults or robberies committed by persons armed with guns. Of the 57 police officers who died in the line of duty in 1966, all but two died of gunshot wounds.

For the peace and security of the rest of the nation, the criminal class in this country must be disarmed.

Yet, the gun control legislation now being considered by Congress would not achieve this objective. This legislation would do little or nothing DISCUSS FEEDER PIG NURSERY.—In the above photo, Bert McWhorter of the Brindle Ridge service, discusses his new nursery building, now under construction, with a group on tour during Saturday's Feeder Pig Day. The group also visited the farm of Roy Brown and Walter Chaney. According to Wayne Stewart, owner of Rockcastle Farm Service, their Feeder Pig business is presently bringing approximately $250,000 per year into the county and is expected to triple in 1969.

FINISH LINE--Amos Ehrington, Lexington tobacco grower, prepares to house a steel curing frame full of burley tobacco. He brought a wagon load of eight frames from the field in one trip at the "Tobacco Mechanization Field Day," presented by the University of Kentucky. The burley had field-wilted nine days and withstood a rain storm and driving wind. The curing frames kept the tobacco off the ground, safe from damage. The galvanized frames resist weather, can be stored outdoors.

I beg of you to give Superintendent Charles Parsons a chance to prove himself as an administrator. Don't saddle him with board members who are against him. It is my opinion that he is the best qualified man in the County morally and educationally to be Superintendent of Schools.

I know these things because I worked under him for thirteen years while he was principal of Livingston. I would like to add that I do not stand to lose or gain by this because I am near retirement age, but you stand to lose the best administrator the County has to offer.

Library Notes

A shipment of new books has been received from the Department of Libraries. Among them are:

AMERICAN STORY, by Bruce and Beatrice Gould. In the early 1920's an ebullient and practically penniless young couple from Iowa descended upon New York, joyfully believing they could conquer the city as reporters, short-story writers, playwrights. And they did in all three ways. The charm of the book is that they have remained unspoiled by success and have never been bored or daunted.

THE BIRTHDAY OF A NATION: JULY 4, 1776, by Frances Rogers and Alice Beard. Today, as we are living new chapters of U.S. history, it is inspiring to relive the history of that earlier crucial period whose basic struggle, freedom versus tyranny, is being repeated in our own times.

BUD WILKINSON'S GUIDE TO MODERN PHYSICAL FITNESS, by Bud Wilkinson. As athlete, as coach, as sports-caster, and as physical-fitness adviser to President Kennedy, Charles B. "Bud" Wilkinson has probably done as much as or more than any living American to advance the cause of fitness in this country.

THE COMMON SENSES OF SMELL, by Russell C. Erb. So begins this delightful, fact-filled, fun-filled study of the science of smellolines, by Russell C. Erb. In his popular treatment of an important science subject, Professor Erb goes on to give hundreds of additional examples, all entertaining of how smells affect our lives.

THE CROSSING FEE, by Esther S. Warner. This book describes the author's two visits, 20 years apart, to Liberia. He tells of the people in a rural Mano-village and shows the changes made in tribal life by encroaching civilization.

THE GREAT AMERICAN WEST, by James D. Horan. Here is the full Western story, from the days of the Conquistadores to the 20th century, in an account notable not only for its comprehensiveness, but also for its amazing collection of photographs which show all aspects of the West as it actually was.

MAGIC AS A HOBBY, by Bruce Elliott. Here is a book from which the inexperienced amateur and the expert, too, can learn new tricks and techniques in the style of professional magic.

MANXMOUSE, by Paul Gallico. An imaginative and exciting adventure into the animal and human spheres, Manxmouse will transport its readers into a realm of fantasy tinged with reality or vice versa.

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT, by Russell Baker. This is the exciting account of the 1968 national campaign and election, making a zany, satirical novel of contemporary politics and politicians by a New York Times columnist.

A TUNE BEYOND US, by Myrtle C. Livingstun. "Through her experiences in bringing groups of children and poetry together, the author, herself a poet, has found works that have a rare potential for awakening fresh and unforced moods and many tastes. These poems that were written in other languages appear here in the original—Latin, Chinese, Japanese, etc., as well as English translation.

THE YOUNG SPORTSMAN'S GUIDE TO BASEBALL, by Clory Anderson. Here are the pointers: that all beginning baseball players need from a noted high school coach who has had vast experience in training young people to enjoy, play and win America's "national game."

THE YOUNG SPORTSMAN'S GUIDE TO PHOTOGRAPHY, by G. Howard Gillean. Howard Gillean, an outstanding wildlife photographer, explains in this book how an amateur can make his camera produce the best possible shots.

New books for children are:

ADAM BOOKOUT, by Louise R. Showell. This is the story of eleven year old Adam Bookout who couldn't accept the fact of his parents' death. He runs away to Brooklyn to live with cousins in a mixed neighborhood, but soon finds running away doesn't mean leaving personal problems behind.

THE BIG WHEELS, by William E. Huntsberry. The responsibility of citizenship and the price and values of democracy emerge with shock force in this story that begins with the well-intentioned plan of a group of high school students to organize the activities of their senior class. It is sure to interest the Junior high and high school groups.

GHOSTS, SPOOKS AND SPECTRES, by Charles Molina. This fine collection of stories of the supernatural of different periods of time and from many countries is for the discriminating and mature young reader.

Mrs. Phillip Davis, Librarian

We hope to have the stops for the Bookmobile each week. The Bookmobile stops will be as follows: Oct. 4, Renfro Creek; Oct. 5, Bush Creek and Calloway Hollow; Oct. 7, Brodhead; Oct. 8, Livingston and Blue Springs; Oct. 12, Wilde, Angel Falls, Scaffold Can, Hammond and Disputanta.

North Brodhead

Several attended the Sunday Morning Worship at the church of E. Blodgett, Kentucky. Remember our soldier boys in all of the services. Mrs. Effie Norris is living.

THANKSGIVING QUOTES OFFER WIT, WISDOM

In the language of the wise, Thanksgiving has always meant giving. "Words are but empty thanks," scoffed 18th-century poet Colley Cibber. A contrast to the poverty that wracks two-thirds of the put it more delicately: "My dame fed her hens with mere no wonder Thanksgiving Day reached its highest expression in the United States. For American abundance stands in almost embarrassing contrast to the poverty that wracks two-thirds of the world. Today, the awareness of the wealth-and-want gap has moved from the pages of literature into the world of action: In November, the 20th annual Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Campaign will collect used but serviceable clothes, shoes and bedding donated by American "haves" for 40 million "have nots" of all religions and colors in over 70 countries. Local Catholic churches are the depositories where you can take any surplus garment that will help clothe the world's ragged. "Give what you have," wrote Longfellow. "To some one, it may be better than you are to think."

Dryden's advice was: "let him give on till he can give no more." And in the same spirit, Wordsworth wrote: "Give all thou canst; high Heaven rejects the lore of nicely-calculated less or more." Emerson, to whom giving was a supreme virtue, said: "If there is any truer measure of a man than by what he does, it must be by what he gives."

"Thanksgiving," wrote Oren Arnold, "is for extra plus meditation... on how well off you are in contrast to how badly off you might have been."

Seen from that angle, it's in Mt. Vernon now. Mr. and Mrs. Edd Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jones visited Harold Jones in the Lexington hospital Saturday, who was seriously injured in a car wreck.

"Cathery" is extended to the family of Mrs. Joste Deneve lives sorrow. Mrs. Ernest Wallen has been on the sick list. We wish the sick a speedy recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Doan of Ohio, and Mr. Orville Tackett and family of Ohio visited Mrs. Mae Doan and family recently.

Miss Mary Jones of Lancaster visited relatives here over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cash and son, and Mrs. Vina Bengtson visited Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. John Spoonamore and visited their father on Sunday.

Mrs. Myrtle Barger, Miss Helen McGuire and a friend visited relatives in Mt. Vernon Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Baker of Renfro visited Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller and his sister here a few days ago. Mrs. Baker has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robins visited Mrs. Myrtle Barger Friday evening. Mrs. Barger and Mrs. Nadean Stevens have been suffering from a severe cold. Mrs. Martha Robinson of Bandy spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harve Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Elam spent the week end with her parents. Mrs. Eliza Carritt of Louisville and Mr. Carritt spent the week end with relatives here. The Carritts will spend a few weeks in Florida. We're sorry to report Mr. Willie Dillingham in the hospital.

Mrs. Elna Stevens is among the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Vaughn and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Norton and family of Plato, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Laos Stevens.

Mrs. Dorothy Jones and children visited her brother and family Saturday evening. Elizabeth and Hower Jones Jr., spent Saturday night with their uncle.

Mrs. Opal Parrish and children of Ohio, visited her father here who is ill. They also visited Mrs. Vina Bengtson and Mrs. Virgie Spoonamore. Mr. and Mrs. Laos Stevens visited relatives at Woodstock Sunday. Recent visitors of Mr. and

Mrs. J. D. Miller were: Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Norton of Eubank, Mr. and Mrs. CHH Daniel and June of Mt. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. John Spoonamore of Boones Fork, Mrs. Nadean Stevens, Mrs. Myrtle Barger, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Baker of Renfro, Mr. John Recker, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Deal Miller visited Mrs. Sue Payne and family Tuesday. Mrs. Payne's daughter remains in the hospital. We wish the sick a speedy recovery. Mr. Sam Cromer and Mr. J. Spoonamore were in Mt. Vernon Saturday on business.

The only known event dedicated to the sweet potato is Bentons' "Tater Day," started in 1843 at Benton.

2,788 lbs. of pork to market from one litter in 156 days

That's the performance story of a litter of 12 pigs raised at Ful-O-Pep Research Farm. You can probably match or top this record by following the precision, maximum efficiency Ful-O-Pep program on your farm.

Ful-O-Pep proving ground: Here's how the 15-pig litter progressed. Litter was weaned at 3 weeks. At 4 weeks the pigs averaged 23 lbs. each. Weighed again at 54 days of age, they averaged 80 lbs. At 156 days of age they topped the market averaging 215 lbs. per pig for a total of 2,788 lbs. Good hogman and smart nutritionists know that such fast growth is necessary for maximum feed efficiency and profits.

Maximum efficiency feeding program: Ful-O-Pep research has both the maximum efficiency feeds and feeding recommendations hogmen need these days for top profits. Here's the normal weaning plan:

- 6th day to 3 wks. use 3 lbs. Ful-O-Pep Gro Pig Pre-Starter per head.
- 3 wks. to 6 wks. use 12 to 15 lbs. Gro Pig Starter Bracer per pig.
- 6 wks. to 12 wks. feed 50 to 60 lbs. Gro Pig Grower per head.
- 12 wks. to market use Gro Pork 280 and figure 270 to 290 lbs. feed per 100 lbs. of gain.

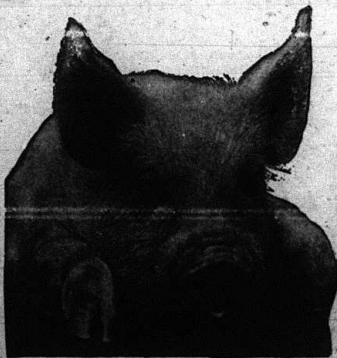

For early weaning, the Gro Pig Pre-Starter is fed longer, from 8th day until pigs consume 10 lbs. each... then continue them on the feeding program above. Finishing on Gro Pork 280 has shown production of 2.1 lbs. per head per day when fed in 100 lbs. on marketing. The precision of Ful-O-Pep programming gives pigs the right balance of nutrients when they need it. Ful-O-Pep aims to meet the absolute needs of pork producers who figure exact costs and profits from every phase of their operation.

Ful-O-Pep feeder reports 2.88 conversion: One Iowa hogman tested the Ful-O-Pep program on a lot of 82 pigs. His detailed records show a feed conversion for the entire program from birth to market of only 2.88 lbs. feed per pound of gain. You may do even better... and collect a $5 reward for trying these line hog feeds.

$5 DIVIDEND

This Ful-O-Pep feeder will pay you $5.00 a year when you use it on your farm. It's a new way to get a dividend. You can get it now. Write for your nearest dealer. This offer is good only in the U.S. and Canada. Offer good while supplies last.

DISTRICT DAIRY PRINCESS CONTEST

Miss Virginia Ruth Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis Coffey, Route 3, Mt. Vernon, will represent district number eight of the American Dairy Association in a Dairy Princess Contest which will be held at the Farm Bureau Building in Stearnford on October 8. The contest will be held in connection with the District Dairy Conference which is open to the public, and will begin at 8:50 p.m. and the coronation of the winner will be highlight of the program.

Virginia Ruth is the winner of the Rockcastle County Dairy Princess Contest which was held in June. She is an outstanding student, outstanding 4-H member and has participated in many community activities. She is now a student at Midway Junior College.

FALL TREATMENT ON LAWNS WILL HELP TO CONTROL WEEDS NEXT YEAR, MK SAYS

Treatments on lawns this fall (September or October) can help control broadleaf weeds next year, says Dr. James Heron, U. K. Cooperative Extension Service weed control Specialist.

Some of the weeds are dandelion, plantain, mustards, wild garlic and the like. Recommended materials (one of the following) are: (a) 2,4-D, (b) 2,4-D and Silvex, (c) 2,4-D and 2,4-5 T, or (d) 2,4-D and Bayel. These are sold under various trade names as single materials (2,4-D for instance or combinations 2,4-D and Silvex.)

They should be applied as sprays according to directions on the label. Care should be taken to avoid drift, particularly if hose-end sprays are used. The materials will not act as quickly as in spring when weather conditions are more favorable, but will be effective if properly applied.

Crabgrass and foxtail are in evidence now, he added, but good control can't be easily obtained now because of lateness of the season. "Hold off treatment for these until next spring," Dr. Heron says. "Fertilize and get a good stand of bluegrass, so they can compete better next spring."

Dallis grass, goosegrass, and other lawn pests can be controlled reasonably easily by spring pre-emergence applications, as can foxtail and crabgrass. Thin or bare areas should be chopped and seeded now to get grass established.

styrofoam is even better. Cut the rose tops short enough that a black polyethylene plastic cup can be capped over the cylinder and fastened loosely in place. The plastic cup is to keep the material in the cylinder dry.

VETERANS O. & A.

Q-My husband was killed while on active duty during World War II. Is it too late for me to buy a home with a loan guaranteed by the VA?

A-It is not. You still have nearly two years, until July 25, 1970, to obtain a G.I. loan.

Q-My husband, who served in the Army just before World War II, is now very ill. If he dies, is he eligible for the VA burial allowance and the flag for his casket?

A-Since he is not a war-time veteran, he would not qualify for the $250 burial allowance unless he receives compensation for a service-connected injury or was discharged for disabilities received in time of duty. However, if he served at least one enlistment and was honorably discharged during peacetime he is eligible for a burial flag to drape his casket.

Q-When does the time expire for seriously disabled veterans to apply for an allowance for an automobile?

A-There is no longer any time limit; the previous limitation has been removed. Your nearest VA office can provide the proper form to apply for the VA payment

(not to exceed $1,600) for veterans who have lost or permanently lost the use of one or both hands or feet, or suffered severe permanent impairment of vision of both eyes. But one word of caution: Do not agree to the purchase of any automobile before you have received VA's written approval.

Q-I understand that the guaranteed portion of G.I. home loans has been raised. Is this true?

A-Yes. It has been increased to $12,500.

Q-I have read references to Vietnam era service. What does this mean?

A-Active duty service on or after Aug. 5, 1964, is considered Vietnam era service.

NOTICE

I wish to announce that I am a candidate for School Board member of Educational District No. 4, consisting of Climax and Orlando precincts.

I am running to represent the people of District No. 4 and to try and get a consolidated grade school either at Orlando or Maple Grove.

We now have over 300 grade students in this district. We feel that we are not being very well represented as we have no Reading Program and no aids in our schools. We feel the aids are needed in the one and two room schools more than in the consolidated schools where they are now.

We know that money has been appropriated for this purpose but is not being spent in this district. Climax, Johnetta, Owen Allen, Poplar Gap, and Cove are the schools which have neither aids or Reading Programs. Maple Grove School, with over 110 students, has the only aid which is employed in our entire district.

Sincerely yours,

Virgil Mullins

OPERATOR loads new steel curing frames onto farm wagons. This was part of the "Tobacco Mechanization Field Day" held by the USDA and the University of Kentucky. Using the frames, tobacco can stay in the field longer, wilt in the sun and wind, and be housed at the growers convenience. Tobacco is handled only once - when it is placed on the frames. This reduces leaf loss, about 280 pounds per acre according to 1967 tests by the University of Kentucky.

BIG LIFT- Tractor-loader operator lifts 850 to 1,000 pound loads of burley tobacco on a portable steel curing frame. Frames were loaded on farm wagons, transported to the barn, and stacked two tiers high. Entire housing job was handled by one man. According to the University of Kentucky, the curing frame system helps the grower solve labor problems, cut costs, and reduce crop loss. The tractor-loader is conventional equipment. The tractor has an automatic hitch, so the operator can load, haul, and house the frames without leaving the tractor.

THE BASKETBALL SEASON PASSES IN REVIEW
BEST TEAM IN YEARS DEFEATED BY INJURIES

"WE'LL REMEMBER"

By Raymond McClure

Here's to the players of the Mt. Vernon High School basketball team of 1940-41 - to a swell group of boys.

Don't you remember the night of November 8th, in the Mt. Vernon High School Gym when you watched Totisie Noe, 6 ft. 7 in. center drop a basketball through an iron hoop? Don't you recall the cheering in the gym? The pleasure on the faces of the spectators? Most of us do. We remember the opening game of the 1940-41 season with Broughtontown and remember winning 45 to 23.

From the side lines you heard - "Best team in years" Five good players in there. "Good subs on the bench!" "Tournament stuff if you ask me!" Totisie Noe, Robert Harmon, Jim Cox, Mad Noe, Curtis Harmon, Opp Bussard, Earl Harmon, and Alfred Sparks were the players. We would have taken on any school in the state that night and sat back, smiled and come out victorious.

As long as any of those boys can remember, they will remember that night. They couldn't forget Coach Landrum incessantly chewing his gum and smiling. It was the opening of Mt. Vernon's most successful basketball season.

The Broughtontown game wasn't commented on very much. They had later to prove their real worth.

Along came East Bernstadt, next Hazel Green, then Highland, down went these Greens in quick succession; then Livingston and McKee, and our rivals, Brodhead; on they went, London, Waynesburg, Berea. People everywhere said, "Who'll stop Mt. Vernon?" "Gosh! 9 victories, no defeats!" But Fate decided we had had enough glory and removed from the ranks of the team, Totisie Noe, our center. He was forced from the Liberty game but Mt. Vernon still carried on. East Bernstadt again, Rose Hill, McKee, Berea, Brodhead again, 17 games and still no defeats.

For the first game in February the team journeyed to London to bring home another victory. There we hit a real snag and was noosed out 33 to 23 an upset it was called by the newspapers. But our boys were through, no sir, Mt. Vernon was never through!

Then, we received our third blow, Jim Cox, another player, was taken out by doctors orders and again Mt. Vernon was crippled. Still the team took it like men and fought on. Down went Stanford, Liberty and a much improved Hazel Green five. But we needed more men to play strong teams. Highland came to Mt. Vernon and won a decision of 40 to 25 from the Red Devils and handed them their first decisive loss. Mt. Vernon went to Waynesburg and Livingston came to Mt. Vernon. Both teams were beaten badly.

But during the Livingston game the hand of fate really plowed us under. Curtis Harmon was taken from the game with a twisted knee. The injury hindered Curtis from doing his best in the tournament. On February 26 Mt. Vernon journeyed to meet Burpin, the much talked of, high scoring team. The locals went without three regulars, and returned all right - two ways - beaten to death and beaten 12 points. Without three regulars Burpin's high scorers showed up poor. Last to Rose Hill and the final victory.

Tournament time found Mt. Vernon a crippled, broken team. We drew Highland the first game and watched them take a 16 point decision from us.

We took down the red and white banners that night until another year. We saw our school defeated but not licked. In the future they would remember our string of victories and win and win and win.

To each player - and to those who are graduating, we say:

TOTISIE - Thanks a million for all the help you gave us.

ROBERT - You did your best this year and we are proud of you.

JIM - Thanks for your help.

EARL - May you always be as helpful as you were this year.

OPP - Always do as well when you are needed as you did for us this year.

MED and CURTIS - You are left to play in other years. Please make the best of them.

To those who are graduating the song is ended, but the melody lingers on. A toast to 6 boys. To 6 great players.

"Alligator, alligator, alligator bar, who in the heck do you think we are. We're the people, we're the staff. We're from Mt. Vernon and that's enough."

Social Security

Beginning in January, an older person who goes to the hospital under Medicare will be responsible for the first $44.00 of his hospital bill - no running about $600.00 for the average hospital stay by a Medicare beneficiary. James Mustian, Social Security Officer-in-charge, said. The $4.00 increase (from the present $0.00 deductible) results from a provision in the law requiring an annual review of the deductible amount. The first such review the law provided, was to be made in 1968.

The law specifies that if this annual review shows that hospital costs have changed significantly, the hospital deductible amount must be adjusted for the following year. Necessary increases in the deductible amount are to be made in $4.00 steps to avoid small annual changes. Following the formula in the law, and figuring the ratio of inpatient hospital costs under Medicare in 1966 with those in 1967, the deductible amount for 1969 worked out to $45.36. Rounded to the nearest multiple of $4.00, this will make the deductible $44.00 for 1969.

The results of the annual review of the inpatient hospital deductible also apply to the dollar amounts a Medicare beneficiary pays toward a hospital stay of more than 60 days, or a posthospital extended care stay of more than 20 days. These amounts therefore will also increase by 10 percent effective January 1 to $11.06 a day for the 61st through the 90th day of a hospital stay, to $5.50 for the 20th to 100th social security notes cont. day of a stay in a post-hospital extended care facility, and to $22.00 a day for each day of the (lifetime reserve) of 60 days, the reserve account a beneficiary can draw upon if he ever needs more than 90 days of hospital care in the same benefit period.

The changes in these amounts apply only to the hospital insurance part of Medicare and do not affect the financing of the supplementary medical insurance - the voluntary program which covers doctor bills and a wide variety of other medical services.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Slow Motion Divorce

Not long ago a man filed suit for divorce on the ground that his wife had committed adultery—20 years earlier. But his case was dismissed because of too much procrastination. The court, noting the difficulties of finding out what really happened that long ago, commented:

"A husband cannot wait to make his charges until the years dim the proofs to the contrary."

Like most lawsuits, a divorce suit too long delayed may be barred automatically by a state's statute of limitations. But even if there is no automatic bar, courts are usually skeptical of divorce suits in which the complaining spouse has postponed action for an excessive period of time.

One reason, mentioned above, is the problem of evidence—of dredging facts out of a distant past.

An American Bar Association public service feature by Will Bernard.

Another reason is the feeling that a grievance, if acted upon so slowly, could not have been too serious in the first place.

This woman failed to convince the court that two blows by her husband, inflicted 40 years before, had ruined her marriage.

"There must be some limit to judicial credulity," said the judge. "We think it has been reached here."

Nevertheless, there may well be a legitimate reason for delay. For example, a man who put off a divorce suit for a number of years, after learning of his wife's infidelity, gave an excuse that satisfied the court: he wanted to spare his young children from scandal as long as he could.

In another case a husband was held justified in waiting gallantly, before suing for divorce, while his wife recovered from a severe illness.

Perhaps the best reason for delay is that the wronged spouse continues to hope that the marriage may yet be preserved.

Thus, a court found no fault with a man who waited seven years—in recurring hope of a reconciliation—before finally seeking a divorce on grounds of marital cruelty. The court felt it would be unfair to blame him for wanting what the law itself encourages: the saving of the marriage.
