and sewage systems for the town of Brodhead. Extension assisted with farmer-businessmen tours to various parts of the United States, June Dairy Days, and the recreation potential study for Rockcastle County. The resource development specialist worked with the Rockcastle County Development Association. He participated in discussions dealing with development of the county and informed the Mt. Vernon City Council of developments at Lake Linville. Feasibility studies of rural water districts were conducted in two rural communities and a workshop for the industrial committee was held.

TOBACCO AND HEALTH

Through the federally established Tobacco and Health Program on the Lexington campus, UK scientists are working to resolve the health-and-smoking controversy... to help protect an industry vital to the economy of Rockcastle County and the state. In 1968 Rockcastle County alone produced nearly 3,000,000 pounds of burley tobacco, a crop which sold for more than $2.1 million.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO BUSINESS

A new UK service offers the time and talent of trained consultants to firms needing special help with management or production problems. UK has served four Rockcastle County businessmen in this manner already. The program is free to small operators who do not have the budget for professional consulting services. Five Rockcastle County citizens have been served by UK's new research organization, the Development Services Information Analysis Center. Through the center, business and industry can use University researchers to locate needed information.

In addition, the same office assisted Rockcastle and three other counties in arranging for a 10-year economic project. At the request of the Development Association in Mount Vernon, UK service collected information that business and industry can use University researchers to establish a sanitary landfill facility for all of Rockcastle County.

PROFESSIONAL AID

Dr. Thomas P. Field of the UK Geography Department produced a town plan for Mount Vernon... The industrial the actual rules.

The Council finally decided to let the water customers, who are actually paying for the lake, decide for themselves what the lake would mainly be used for. This will be done by sending a mimeographed form to each customer asking him to check the items which he would most like to see the lake used for and returning it to the Council so that they might tally the results.

The Department of Highways has asked the City Council to authorize the installation of another stop sign at the intersection of U.S. 150 and Richmond Street in Mt. Vernon. This additional stop sign would make it a four-way intersection instead of a three-way stop. Mayor Linville said that he had been contacted and asked to bring this matter before the council because the Department of Highways felt that the four-way stop was needed at this point.

The Council, however, decided to hold off on this matter until a representative of the Department could meet with them to discuss the situation.

As the last item of business, Mayor Linville passed to the Councilmen copies of two proposals to the Council by Renfro Valley Enterprises.

Under the first proposal, Renfro Valley would pay the City of Mt. Vernon $25 a month for approximately 1/2 acre of land where the old "Tobe" Lair House now stands. According to their proposal, the house would be used for non-commercial business and/or pleasure meetings of personnel of their combine and officials of the City, or present organizations of the area. A plaque would be erected on the grounds commemorating the house as the childhood home of John Lair.

Under the second proposal, and the most important one to the City Council, Renfro Valley offers to lease the land adjacent to the site of where the City's boatdock will be built, for a campground. The proposal states that Renfro Valley has already purchased a nationally known franchise, Kamp Grounds of America, for $6,800 and that their total investment in the area would be about $70,000.

The proposal also sets forth that they (Renfro Valley Enterprises) would answer any and all questions of the city, county, and state health laws such as sewer disposal, water supply, etc., at no cost to the city or county whatsoever. Renfro's first offer for the asked for twenty-year lease was 6% of the gross income per annum, based on actual accounting by the city and/or Renfro's accountants. Of course, this is by no means the set percentage but is negotiable until the City Council makes a final decision on the lease.

In the proposal, Renfro stipulates "that the City regulate some kind of planning code to protect us (Renfro Valley Enterprises) from fly-by-night investors that might spoil the natural beauty of the area and/or our investment."

In conclusion, the proposal states: "We (Renfro

minerals section of the Kentucky Geological Survey, working with UK, answered inquiries about the possible use of sandstone in Rockcastle County for mortar sand... The United States Geological Survey joined the state counterpart organization in producing three maps over the past two years that will be helpful in developing the county's potential mineral, oil and gas wealth. In 1967 the two groups mapped the Berea Quadrangle for oil, gas and mineral resource prospectors' use.

In 1968 the surveys, on a geologic map of the Wildie Quadrangle, showed the locations of known coal, limestone and building stone quarry and mine sites as well as reserves of some mineral commodities... The third map covers parts of Jackson and Rockcastle counties, complete with geologic diagrams.

Each county will eventually receive a copy of its official records now being microfilmed by the Special Collections Department of the University Libraries in cooperation with the Geological Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. This project is nearing completion.

A CONTINUING PARTNERSHIP

The University of Kentucky is grateful for the support it has received from Rockcastle County citizens during the past biennium. Funds county residents have given through gifts, tuition and tax dollars have made a variety of UK services possible. This support enables the University to improve and expand its programs not only within the county but throughout the Commonwealth.

Valley Enterprises) feel that an investment of this nature is a compliment and add dignity and prestige to the community. We also feel that without any financial investment, the City of Mt. Vernon could enjoy a sizeable income for years to come."

And in summary, the proposal lists three reasons why Renfro Enterprises is requesting this lease on city-owned land rather than using land which they already own.

Reasons given are (1) city site more strategically located (2) already being in the Valley, it is more feasible to include in the Valley operation, and (3) An adventure of this magnitude might cement an enjoyable relationship whereby every citizen of Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle County could feel he or she was playing in the industrial growth of their community.

In Memory of our Dear Mother, Mrs. Bettie Davis. "The door that leads to a mother's heart is always open wide. And in her heart is a special place where peace and love abide. There is no lock on a mother's heart. Her children freely go. For a pat on the cheek or a comforting word, or something they want to know. Through years of work and prayer, she's learned. Her wise and tender art. For the nearest thing to the love of God is the love of a mother's heart."

Martin Resigns Council Seat

Roy Martin, Mt. Vernon City Councilman, tendered his letter of resignation from that office to the Council at their meeting Tuesday night. He was elected in November of last year and took office in January.

Mr. Martin cited the main reason for his resignation as being, "On December 1, 1969, Billy Dowell and I purchased Sparks Funeral Home, which at the time of my announcement for councilman I had no idea of doing so. Being the type of business it is, I will not be available to devote adequate time and attention to the duties of this important office."

His secondary reason was because of his appointment as Deputy Coroner for Rockcastle County which, according to the state statutes, makes him ineligible to hold a city office at the same time. Martin later told the Signal that, "I hope everyone understands my position and the necessity of my action."

The other five councilmen will now have to appoint someone to fill Mr. Martin's unexpired term of almost two years.

Fiscal Court Meets

Several items of business were brought before the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court at Tuesday's meeting.

The court authorized the sell of public auction of the county's building behind the Mt. Vernon Christian Church. This is the building originally used by the county to store its commodities and will be sold on March 7.

The court also decided to purchase two or three new dump trucks with funds removed from the state rock hauling contract. Two of the old county trucks will be traded in on the new purchases.

County Attorney William D. Gregory was authorized to proceed with a suit against the courthouse contractors. Attorney Gregory warned the Magistrates that the suit might be an expensive undertaking since it may require the testimony from expert witnesses, whose expenses the court would be liable for. The Magistrates agreed however that the suit should be filed.

County Judge Charles Carter asked the Magistrates for a motion to the effect that if he accepted his first month's salary check of $325.00 that this acceptance would not be considered an estoppel or be asserted as a defense by the Fiscal Court to any increase that may be granted by the Circuit Court or Appellate Court. The motion was made, seconded, and passed unanimously.

Magistrate Danny Sargent asked that the road from the Ottawa Schoolhouse to Highway 518 about two miles be added to the rural roads.

The final settlement of former sheriff Tilford Reppert was also accepted by the Court and he was granted a quietus for his tax collections for 1969.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY TEACHERS MEET

The Rockcastle County Teachers Association held its mid-winter meeting at the Mt. Vernon School on Monday afternoon, February 2.

The primary business of the afternoon was voting instruction for the three Rockcastle County delegates selected to go to the special called KEA Delegate Assembly at Frankfort.

Rockcastle teachers voted to instruct their delegates to work with KEA leadership in negotiating a cost of living salary increase. They also instructed their delegates to vote against a teacher walkout.

Rockcastle County's delegates will report to the local teacher association on the action of the KEA Delegate Assembly. The local teacher's association, as part of the Kentucky Education Association, will, of course, abide by the final decisions of the KEA Delegate Assembly.

NEW SCHOOL SITE RE-EVALUATED

Paul W. Thurman, Director of Buildings and Grounds, State Department of Education, and three of its members visited Rockcastle County on January 29 to re-evaluate the site for the high school.

They evaluated the site at the Vocational School and the sites along Highway 150 and 461.

Mr. Thurman said he would take all the facts back to Frankfort and meet with other state officials. If such a letter would be sent to the Board as to their decision.

SECOND HONORS

Two students from Rockcastle County, enrolled at Somerset Community College, have achieved second honors at their college. The members visited Rockcastle County on January 29 to re-evaluate the site for the high school.

They evaluated the site at the Vocational School and the sites along Highway 150 and 461.

Mr. Thurman said he would take all the facts back to Frankfort and meet with other state officials. If such a letter would be sent to the Board as to their decision.

Attaining second honors were Ronnie Dean Cash and Shannon Lee Hellard.

One Injured In Wreck

One person was injured in a two-car accident which occurred at 1:45 p.m. Monday afternoon at the intersection of Main and Richmond Streets in Mt. Vernon.

Injured in the collision was John Edward Moore, 57, of Mt. Vernon, a passenger in a car driven by Marie McClure Gentry, 46, also of Mt. Vernon. Mr. Moore received class A injuries and was admitted to the local hospital for treatment. George Bert Gentry, 52, was the other passenger in the car. Neither Mr. or Mrs. Gentry were injured in the accident.

According to police reports, the accident apparently occurred when Mrs. Gentry, traveling south on U.S. 25, pulled out to pass an auto driven by John Gidd, Effie Brummet, 23, driver of 3 Crab Orchard, driver of the other car involved stated that she was traveling in the northbound lane when she saw Mrs. Gentry pull out. Mrs. Brummet stated she stopped and was still motionless when the collision occurred. The Gentry auto traveled on, after the collision, hit an iron fence and rock wall and bounced back 17 feet before stopping.

Neither Mrs. Brummet or her passenger, Jimmy Hiatt, 19, of Crab Orchard, were injured in the accident.

WEATHER

Warmer Thursday with zero chance of precipitation through Friday. That's what the weatherman says.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE--The First Lady of the Land, Mrs. Richard M. Nixon, is shown welcoming Mrs. Madison Graves of Bloss to a coffee held in the Nixon's personal dining room recently for the women for Voluntary Action, of which Mrs. Graves is a member. This meeting of the women's organization was held as a preliminary planning session for the President's White House Conference on Food, Nutrition, and Health. Mrs. Graves served as a representative to this conference from the Council of the Southern Mountains, of which she is a Board Member-at-large. 25 panels made up the Conference and Mrs. Graves served on the panel studying the problems of the aging. Mrs. Nixon served as honorary chairman of the Women for Voluntary Action Task Force. Mrs. Pat Young of Scranton, Pa., was the presiding chairman.

Renfro Road Aid Extended By Council

Residents of Renfro Valley met with the Mt. Vernon City Council Tuesday night to again ask their aid in fixing the road around Lake Linville so that it would be passable.

Postmaster James O. Smith, also a landowner in this section, told the Council that the mailman for that route was unable to deliver mail on that road Tuesday and that the school bus was having to travel a much further distance than normal to haul the children living on that road to school.

After much discussion, the city agreed to purchase enough rock to fix the road temporarily so that it would be passable. Magistrate for that district, Hewitt Jones, who was contacted during the meeting, agreed to help the city with the trucks for hauling the rock.

Mayor Linville also told the landowners that Evans Hilton of the State Department of Highways had asked for emergency funds from the state to be used on the road and that the state had agreed to work on that section of the road which belonged to them.

In other business before the Council, Mayor Linville told the councilmen that Freddie Noe, local game warden, and a representative of the State Department of Conservation had met with him to offer to take full responsibility for patrolling the lake area and enforcing the city's laws concerning the lake.

Mayor Linville told the council that it would be necessary for them (the council) to set up the rules and regulations under which the city would operate the lake.

TRAIN DERAILS

Twenty-two cars of a 112-car Louisville and Nashville Railroad freight train derailed just north of Livingston Sunday.

A spokesman for L & N in Louisville said the train, which was loaded with coal, was making an extra run from Ravenna to Corbin when the mishap occurred. There were no injuries.

The track was cleared by wreckers from Louisville and Corbin by early Monday.

Additional Appointments Made For Heart Drive

11 further appointments to leadership posts in the 1970 Rockcastle County Heart Fund drive have been announced by Kentucky Campaign Chairman, former Governor Edward T. Breathitt, from Mt. National Allotment For 1970 Burley Crop Announced

By: H. Lee Durham

The U. S. Department of Agriculture today announced a national acreage allotment of 224,549 acres for the 1970 crop of Burley tobacco. The national acreage allotment for 1969 was 249,397 acres. The Department announced also that acreage-pounds marketing quotas will not be announced for the 1970 Burley crop.

Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin, in announcing the allotment reduction, said he realized it will cause economic problems in the Burley-producing area. It is the least reduction that can be made under existing law. The Secretary said and, "USDA is prepared to work with producers and the entire Burley industry to improve the program so it will be kept sound and can continue to work under changing conditions in the years ahead."

Acreage allotments for farms not protected by minimum provisions will be 10 percent less in 1970 than in 1969. Legislation provides that the acreage allotment for Burley tobacco for any year shall not be less than the smallest of (1) the allotment established for the farm for the preceding year, (2) five-tenths of an acre, or (3) ten percent of the cropland in the farm. Approximately 55 percent of the 282,875 farms having Burley tobacco allotments in 1969 had allotments of one-half an acre or less. These minimum farms had about 25 percent of the total allotted acreage.

The law provides further that the additional acreage required to maintain minimum allotments shall be in addition to the national acreage allotment.

For some farms, on which the tobacco acreage history in recent years was less than 75 percent of the farm's allotment, allotments may be reduced more in line with plantings. As in the past, a small acreage will be reserved for establishing allotments for farms having no Burley tobacco acreage history during the past five years, for correcting errors, and for adjusting inequities.

Department officials pointed out that following reductions in allotments in 1964, 1965 and 1966, Burley production has shown a steady appearance the past 4 years, resulting in some reduction in supplies. However, due to record high per acre yields obtained in 1969, and decreased usage in the United States, production during the current marketing year may exceed domestic usage and exports. The present total supply of Burley of 1,899 million pounds is sufficient for about 3.3 years at current levels of domestic use and exports. It is generally agreed that a desirable level of supply for Burley is about 2.8 years.

The level of price support for the 1970 Burley crop will be announced soon. The 1969 crop was supported at 65.8 cents per pound. Under existing legislation, the level of support for the 1970 crop will be about 3 1/2 percent higher than for the 1969 crop.

Marketing quotas on an acreage basis have been in effect for Burley tobacco each year since 1939. In a referendum held February 26 - March 1, 1968, 97 percent of the 299,696 growers voting favored continuation of marketing quotas on the 1968, 1969 and 1970 crops of Burley tobacco.

COOK STILL OPPOSES ALLOTMENT CUT
Senator Marlow W. Cook (R-Ky) said today that he still opposes the 10% reduction in the 1970 burley tobacco acreage allotments that the Department of Agriculture announced on January 30. Earlier, Cook had voiced his strong opposition to such a reduction in a meeting with Secretary of Agriculture, Clifford M. Hardin. Kentucky's junior Senator stated that such a burley tobacco allotment reduction was merely a short-term solution and therefore not desirable. However, Senator Cook said that Secretary Hardin attempted to avoid a cut in allotments but was advised by legal counsel in the Department of Agriculture that a 10% reduction was the least that could be made under existing law.

Cook was optimistic that the leadership of Kentucky farmers and grower groups would give the situation close attention and possibly suggest improvements or adjustments which could be made to save the tobacco program. Cook said, "I am looking forward to meeting with the leaders of our burley farmers and hope that through such a meeting we can devise such a plan that will enable Kentucky's burley farmers to continue to prosper."

Mt. Vernon Wins Three

During the past week, the Mt. Vernon Red Devils have chalked up three more victories over Lynn Camp, 94-70, Burnside, 71-49, and Jackson City, 64-49, making their season record 11 wins against 5 losses.

In the Lynn Camp game, the Red Devils led at all quarter stops to win the game easily.

Rudy Burdette with 21, George Powell with 20, and David McCauley with 23, were the leading scorers for the Devils and Stanley Burton and Dale Coffey were outstanding in floor play.

Saturday night, the Devils journeyed to Burnside and with a balanced scoring attack led by Dale Coffey who came home with a 71-49 win.

Other scorers were Rudy Burdette with 15, Powell with 12, and Burton 10.

The first three quarters of the game were nip and tuck but the Red Devils won in the fourth quarter by outscoring Jackson City 21-6.

"I am well pleased with the way the boys are improving this second semester, especially the way George Powell is coming around. If we can continue to improve and cut down on floor mistakes, this team will be hard to beat in the district and since all the players are juniors and inexperienced at the start of the season, they should really be tough next year," Coach Laswell said.

Thursday night, playing an outstanding game, according to Coach Jack Laswell, the Red Devils defeated a tough Jackson County team 64-49.

Tommy Coffey no doubt helped the cause with his 12 rebounds and the Devils scoring was well-balanced. McCauley got 14, Dale and Tommy Coffey, 12 each, Rudy Burdette 13, and Stanley Burton 7.

If the 1970 federal census shows a need for redistricting the Kentucky Legislature on the basis of population, Gov. Louie B. Nunn said he would call a special session to do so in time for new district lines to be settled before the May, 1971, primary elections.

All of Kentucky's 100 House seats and 19 of its 38 Senate seats will be up for filling in the Nov. 1971 election, with nominations in the May primary. The governor indicated if a special session is necessary, he might call it for Dec. 1970 or Jan. 1971.

The interview with Governor Nunn came on the heels of an announcement by Indiana Gov. Edgar D. Whitcomb that he would not call a special session for legislative reapportionment in that state. A Federal court ordered its own version of reapportionment there.

STRICKER VEHICLE INSPECTION SUGGESTED

The consistency of delegates from eight groups of the auto industry who met with Robert Shirley is that Kentucky should restore to its motor vehicle safety inspection program the practice of pulling one wheel from a car to check the condition of the brakes.

This report came in an interview with Shirley, director of the motor vehicle inspection division of the Department of Public Safety. The wheel pulling was eliminated two years ago.

Mechanics currently check brakes by putting a foot on the brake pedal. Shirley said this "has worked to some extent" but really is inadequate.

WOULD EASE VOTE REQUIREMENTS

Residence requirements for voting in Kentucky to encourage greater participation would be reduced by adoption of a constitutional amendment proposed in a bill submitted for legislative approval by Governor Nunn.

If approved and adopted, the amendment would cut the required periods from one year to six months in the state and from six months to three months in a county. The requirement of 60 days residence in a precinct would remain the same.

Another provision would enable a new resident of Kentucky to vote for president and vice president but not any other office, although he had not lived in the state six months prior to a presidential election. He would do this by applying for a new resident's ballot at least 30 days before the election.

OHIO GOVERNOR PASSES FOR BOUNDARY CHANGE

Kentucky's northern boundary line is additionally extended to the low water mark of the Ohio River on the Ohio side, and Ohio's Gov. James Rhodes found Kentucky's Governor Nunn practically noncommittal when he visited him in Frankfort this week to discuss again changing their common boundary to the middle of the river.

Rhodes argued the compact he proposed would result in Ohio sharing many of the financial burdens now borne by Kentucky, such as the construction of bridges. Nunn held out to Rhodes the hope he might be invited to present his arguments to the Kentucky Legislature.

HOMEOWNERS RATE RISE DENIED

Rejection of a request for a 14 per cent rise in homeowners insurance policy rates by companies which write 90 per cent of such business in Kentucky was announced by State Insurance Commissioner Robert Preston. He estimated such an increase would cost Kentuckians an additional $2.5 million a year.

Preston recalled a hearing last December indicated some relief would be needed ed this year. He added-- increase would be granted when "a request for a bigger amount, properly substantiated" is made. He said it was the second time in seven months his department had denied such a request "because it was excessive."

SENATE VACANCY VOTE FEB. 14

A special election has been called for Saturday, Feb. 14, in Lewis, Carter, Greenup and Elliott counties to fill the State Senate vacancy caused by the death of Sen. George M. Plummer, R-Vanceburg.

Republican leaders of the four-county district have nominated Luther Plummer, a brother of the late senator. The Democratic nominee will be former Sen. James E. Lewis, Sandy Hook, who was defeated by George Plummer in his re-election bid last November.

KENTUCKY DISTURBED BY CINCINNATI SEWAGE

Threats of a Kentucky suit against Cincinnati for letting 60 million gallons of raw sewage run into the Ohio River daily for four days apparently subsided with completion of repairs to a sewage treatment plant operated by the Ohio city. The sewage was not expected to cause any health problems for Louisville or other downstream communities. Kentucky has jurisdiction over that part of the Ohio which forms its northern boundary.

INNOVATIONS IN EDUCATION

Several hundred educators and civic leaders are expected to attend the second annual Kentucky Conference on Innovations in Education at the Elizabeth Brown Community College March 15-17 under the Title III program of the U.S. Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA).

Principal speaker at the opening session at 7:30 p.m. March 15 will be Supt. Wendell P. Butler of the Kentucky Department of Education. Egoject demonstrations and exhibits are scheduled for both March 16 and 17.

Conference purpose is to acquaint as many persons as possible with the new school programs being operated in the state's eight Title III regions.

DANVILLE AVOIDS BUS BYPASS

A plan to bypass Danville and other cities on a north-bound bus run from Chattanooga, Tenn., to Lexington was dropped by Greyhound Bus Lines after several Danville residents protested and the State Department of Motor Transportation called a public hearing, which was cancelled.

The bus, arriving in Lexington at 8:05 a.m., stops at Whitley City, Somerset, Stanford, Lancaster, Danville, Harrodsburg, and Nicholasville. Greyhound planned to reroute it non-stop on I-75 to Richmond and then on US 25 to Lexington.

TEAGUE NAMED TO ADVISORY GROUP

Kentucky's health commissioner, Dr. Russell Teague, has been appointed by U.S. secretary of health, education and welfare, Robert Finch, as the only state health official to serve on the 18-member, Federal Advisory Committee on Health Protection and Disease Prevention. The term is two years.

Social Security News

Not everyone looks forward with joy to that day on which, he will celebrate his 65th birthday. However, one of the reasons a person might look forward to that day would be that it is the point at which he may become entitled to social security health insurance benefits. These benefits often referred to as Medicare-- including both hospital and medical insurance.

Everyone receiving social security monthly payments when he reaches age 65 is entitled to hospital benefits automatically. Practically anyone who is age 65 or older can sign up for the voluntary medical insurance part of Medicare whether or not he has paid into social security. Half of the premium payment for this medical insurance coverage is paid by the beneficiary, and half by the government.

An individual does not need to retire in order to be covered by both parts of Medicare. However, he must complete an application with his social security office to receive these benefits. In order to get the protection the law provides, an individual not receiving social security at the time, should contact his social security office about two or three months prior to reaching age 65. A person receiving benefits at this time should receive through the mail a card form asking whether or not he desires medical insurance coverage. A beneficiary who has not received such a card form within two months of age 65 should also contact his social security office to complete the necessary application.

For additional information, write, call or visit the nearest social security office.

LANTANAS ARE VERY COLORFUL

The Lantana shrub produces very colorful flowers which has made it a favorite for ornamental gardens. Ordinarily, the colors produced by the Lantana shrub are either red or white.

However, the Lantana also produces orange-colored flowers. The Lantana requires warm temperatures and is grown in outdoor gardens only in the southern United States. It is cultivated in greenhouses in other sections of the country. Actually, the Lantana is native to semi-tropical regions. The shrub can withstand hot temperatures, and requires a minimum amount of water.

The Lantana flower is not rated for its fragrance. Telephone our flower shop when you desire an arrangement or bouquet of fragrant flowers. We have a complete selection.

A REPORT OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY - 1967-1969

This newsletter highlights some of the ways the University of Kentucky has assisted Rockcastle County residents during the past two years, 1967-1969. Hopefully, as more county residents become familiar with the services of the University, new ideas will be sparked which will contribute to the progress of the entire county.

EDUCATION, THE PRIMARY SERVICE

The main business and the foremost service of the University is education... UK now has 51 graduates living in Rockcastle County... Local students have numbered as many as 14, while 15 have been enrolled at Somerset Community College in neighboring Pulaski County. A Rockcastle County student received $4,000 to help finance his education from the Office of Student Financial Aid which makes available loans, grants, and scholarships.

CLINICS, WORKSHOPS, CONFERENCES

Seven Rockcastle County student journalists and one advisor attended the Kentucky High School Press Clinic in 1968... Rockcastle County had three teachers of handicapped children trained or retrained through a program sponsored by UK, the state government and the W.K.S. Chapter for Children... One Rockcastle County resident studied land surveying at one of several conferences directed by the College of Engineering in 1968... The librarian for the Valley of Parks Region, which includes Rockcastle County, participated in continuing workshops conducted by the UK School of Library Science and the Kentucky Department of Libraries.

HEALTH SERVICES FROM THE UNIVERSITY

The University Hospital makes available to many Kentuckians highly specialized medical services and excellent hospital facilities when needed. In a single year, 68 adults and 20 children from Rockcastle County received medical treatment at the University Hospital... A UK survey shows that within a year the state will need more than 2,500 newly trained persons to fill vacancies in health professions. As a result the Albert B. Chandler Medical Center increased training to help alleviate the problem.

Since 1960 Rockcastle County youth has enrolled in the College of Dentistry. Low-interest loans are awarded to future physicians and dentists who agree to practice in non-metropolitan areas of the state like Rockcastle County. In 1968-69 UK graduated 68 nurses and 77 pharmacists from Kentucky. Also, continuing education programs are available through the University to Rockcastle County doctors, dentists, nurses, and pharmacists.

AGRICULTURE

The UK College of Agriculture has four functions—teaching, research, regulatory services, and cooperative Extension work—all meshed into a coordinated program designed to develop the human and natural resources of every county in Kentucky. County Extension work, a joint effort of the Rockcastle County government, USDA, and UK, reached nearly every local resident through agriculture, home economics, 4-H and resource development programs.

In the past two years, Rockcastle County residents have received information in pepper production, cucumber production, swine, dairying, beef, landscaping, family relations, weight control, clothing, foods and nutrition, home management, and home furnishings. Local UK Extension agents presented information to individuals on over 7,000 separate occasions during this period.

Farming is the principal industry in Rockcastle County, with some 66 per cent of the people employed in agriculture. The agricultural income in Rockcastle County exceeds $4 million with approximately 50 per cent coming from tobacco. Dairying, horticultural crops, and feeder pig production have increased in recent years.

For the 350 dairymen, milk production per cow increased from 4,890 pounds to 6,540 pounds. Today, there are 14,300 cows and calves on Rockcastle County farms.

In 1969 approximately 250 families grew over 400 acres of bell peppers and sold them for more than $117,000. This crop was introduced into the county by UK Extension in 1967.

Feeder pig producers have more than doubled in number the last three years. Feeder pig producers in adjoining counties are working with Rockcastle County farmers in developing feeder pig marketing outlets. UK

Extension has assisted these producers by introducing up-to-date information, as well as arranging swine tours of successful feeder pig operations.

Local UK Extension agents, with the assistance of UK state specialists, have established applied research plots in the county to secure local data on pepper varieties, fertilizer requirements, and weed control. Tobacco variety tests were conducted to determine the resistance of the varieties to black root rot. Knowledge gained from these tests will be shared with the farmers in the Wilderness Trail Area.

Rockcastle County received the 1968 Kentucky Livestock Improvement Association award for the outstanding county program of work.

During 1968-69, 440 young people between the ages of nine and 19 enrolled in the 4-H camp program. These 4-H members participated in 4-H camping, rally days, speech contests, and the state fair.

Ninety-two housewives enrolled in five organized homemaker clubs and studied a variety of subjects on home economics. Club leaders receiving this training, in turn, taught others. Special interest workshops in weight control, basic clothing, landscaping, and knitting attracted more people than could be accommodated. Additional workshops will be scheduled to meet these needs.

The quality of living in Rockcastle County has been improved in recent years as evidenced by per capita income, which increased from $549 in 1964 to $1,225 in 1968, and the value of major farm products sold, which increased from $3,126,481 to more than $4 million.

UK Extension Service, through the local development corporation, was instrumental in securing grants and loans for water and sewage disposal systems. A $698,500 grant and loan was recently approved by the Economic Development Association for improved water (Cont. to 7)
