HEART-DAYS FOR BUSINESS

Calling a gift to the Heart Fund "one of the best investments you can make."

Mrs. Carrie Baker, Rockcastle County Heart Fund Chairman, announced that Charles M. Baker, Jr. of Mt. Vernon will have a special business block solicitation known as Heart-Days-for-Business.

"The Heart Fund has been a spearheading force in our defense against the nation's foremost killer," said Mr. Baker in accepting the Heart-Days-for-Business chairmanship. "Much progress has been achieved, as indicated by a decrease of 20 per cent in the mortality rate applying to Americans aged below 65 since 1950. But much remains to be done, as is evident from the fact that diseases of the heart and blood vessels are still responsible for more than half of all deaths."

Heart-Days-for-Business to have heart fund contributions will be conducted here next week, according to Mr. Baker, who announced that several representatives of the business community are being recruited to visit all business offices, stores, professional buildings, beauty parlors, barber shops, filling stations, and all types of business

Heart Fund dollars have made possible more than 24,000 scientific treatises, each containing new information about the heart and its circulatory system.

County Agent's Notes

By: H. Lee Durham
Farmer's Farm-Needs Determine Burley Variety He Should Pick
Farm needs determine the variety of burley tobacco to be grown there, says Dr.
J.H. Smiley, U.K. Cooperative & Extension Service
tobacco specialist.
Soil environments are an important factor in selection; soils may have organisms from black root rot, fusarium wilt or black shank, for instance. These diseases will influence variety selection. "Pick the one that does the best job for you," Dr. Smiley advises.

Some variety notes:
BLACK ROOT ROT, FU-SARIUM WILT OR BOTH:
If your farm has a problem from one (or both) of these,
KY 13 or Ky 14 is recommended. If wild-fire is a problem, either Burley 21, or Ky 12 or Ky 14 are recommended.
BLACK SHANK: Using a

black shank-resistant variety is a last resort. Stay off infested ground three years if possible. This is the best control system.
But it depends on land availability and a carefully managed tobacco operation.
Black shank resistant varieties are B21 x L8, Ky 12, L8, B37 x L8, and B 37.
If there are no direct problems, stick with the variety that has given best yields and quality. If you want to switch varieties, try the stick-row system first to compare varieties.
Characteristics of some burley varieties: Ky 14 is a stand-up, high yielding variety with good quality. The leaves are approximately the same length as B 21, but a greater number and plant height are about the same as B 21. It matures about 5-6 days later than B 21. There is a good retention of bottom leaves on the stalks before and during harvest.
Burley 21: Extreme stand-up, good yielder of high quality leaf. Plants are early and vigorous. One of the easier varieties to work because of its stand up nature. Has shallow root system and does not withstand extreme dry weather.
Burley 37: Generally recommended in areas where black shank is a problem. When grown in black-shank-infested soils, produces good yields of fair quality tobacco. Has medium resistance to black shank and low resistance to black root rot.
Ky 12: Stand-up, high yielding variety of fair to good quality. Leaves are shorter than other varieties but there are more of them.
Leaves will be longer if plants are topped early (when half the plants are in bloom) and there are 22 to 25 leaves per plant.
Late-maturing variety. Most useful variety where black rot and fusarium wilt are problems.

Ky 10: Late-maturing variety, but may get greater spots in cured leaf if cut before fully ripe. Stand-up variety, high yielder and produces fair to good quality tobacco. Resistant variety, to black root rot and fusarium wilt.
MS Burley 21 x Ky 10:
This is a hybrid of two acceptable and satisfactory varieties. Produces high yields of good quality smoking tobacco. Has good resistance to wildfire, tobacco mosaic, and mediumlow resistance to black root rot and fusarium wilt.
Plants are taller than Ky 10, stalks usually larger than Burley 21. Matures about five days later than Burley 21.
Farm Income Tax Declaration Due March 1 is the new deadline for farmers to file their final Multiple returns and pay their tax in lieu of estimated tax by January 15, the Internal Revenue Service has announced.
IRS said the Tax Reform Act of 1969 changed the date from February 15 to March 1 for farmers who have not filed the declarations of estimated tax by January 15, have until April 15 to file their income tax return.
This means farmers will have an additional two weeks to file their income tax return if timely declarations are not filed. March 2, 1970 is the deadline for 1969 returns because March 1 falls on a Sunday.
For-estimated tax purposes farmers are defined under law as those who get two-thirds of their income from farming.

Sometimes, in Kentucky, fish populations in farm ponds are destroyed by the ice. It occurs only when there are prolonged cold spells and ice stays on the pond for several days or weeks.
It doesn't happen in all ponds. It does occur in ponds where there is much debris on the bottom where there is a heavy runoff into the pond from areas where cattle, have grazed, or when the pond has been highly fertilized.
The kills occur because no winds can agitate the waters thereby infusing oxygen. Where sunlight cannot penetrate the ice because of snow, sunlight is necessary to stimulate the chlorophyll in the plants to give off oxygen.
This is the situation as told by Charlie Bowers, assistant director of the Division of Fisheries. Laymen know fish die under ice, but perhaps don't know why.
If a pond owner suspects a fish kill, or sees dead fish through the ice, all may not be lost. He may cut two holes in the ice, one on each side of the pond, and then force air under the ice.
This gives the fish a reprieve and by periodically using the pumping practice method in fish kills, the board motor with the propeller barely submerged in the water to agitate the water and add oxygen.
The agitation should not be so great that it will stir up sediment on the bottom because that is worse for fish than the ice covering over the ice, causing it to use in some areas to the north but probably never as far south as Kentucky, is to place a black covering over the ice, causing it to use in the south.

SAVING HEARTS AND LIVES-- NOW!
Coronary Care Units Sharply Reducing Heart Attack Toll

This is the first of a series of three articles presented by your Heart Association to inform readers of this newspaper about progress in the fight against heart and circulatory diseases.

With diseases of the heart and blood vessels responsible for more than half of all deaths in the United States, it is obvious that an immense challenge faces medical science in identifying the precise mechanisms responsible for "hardening of the arteries" (atherosclerosis) and high blood pressure, the leading causes of heart attack and stroke.

Until these mechanisms are fully understood, paving the way for prevention or even cures, is there anything that can more than 1,000,000 lives yearly?

The answer is yes. In this series of articles, we will examine some of the presently available methods of treatment and prevention advancing that are saving hearts and lives as of this very moment. Virtually all of them were spearheaded by the Heart Fund, the first national campaign of which was conducted just 21 years ago.

Let's begin with coronary artery disease, which includes heart attack and which kills about 573,000 people yearly in this country. In this category, heart-saving development of profound importance has been the coronary care unit, now functioning in hundreds of American hospitals but lacking in many others.

For those who survive heart attack long enough to make it to a hospital, coronary care service can literally spell the difference between life and death. In-hospital deaths following heart attacks can be reduced by about 30 per cent if patients get high-quality coronary care service rather than routine hospitalization.

Some authorities believe that coronary care units have an ultimate potential of saving up to 50,000 lives yearly in this country.

In these installations, the heart's electrical activity is monitored continuously, with an alarm system bringing trained personnel within seconds if there is any change in heart rhythm or rate above or below a preset range. Some units also monitor body temperature, respiration and blood pressure. Additionally, there may be an "instant reply" system to permit quick review of changes which have occurred during the several moments which precede a crisis.

Such crises usually occur within 72 hours of the heart attack and most often involvan irregularly beating heart, a cardiac arrest. However, if the alarm is given, corrective measures can be applied. These include intravenous medications, electrical methods of restarting or re-pacing the heart, mouth-to-mouth breathing, chest compression and others. Quite often fibrillating hearts -- those beating with total irregularity -- can ultimately be restored to normal function.

Heart Associations
throughout the country are sponsoring coronary care training programs for physicians and nurses and are carrying forward intensive educational programs for understanding the value and essentiality of this service.

Yet another under-utilized technique -- designed to meet emergency situations on the street, or in the home, office or factory -- is the external compression of the sternum combined with mouth-to-mouth air ventilation following "cardiac arrest" -- a term used to describe sudden cessation of circulatory function. The idea is to keep oxygenated blood from leaving the brain until appropriate medical treatment can be applied to restore normal heart function.

To meet this need, Heart Associations throughout the country are conducting educational programs which should enable physicians and nurses, and police, firemen, utility workers and ambulance attendants as well, to apply emergency measures when signs of sudden death are evident. A significant number of cardiac arrest victims can be saved if resuscitation maneuvers are started promptly -- usually no later than four minutes after the arrest occurs.

Ground is just being broken in another promising area -- the mobile coronary care unit.
Here, ambulances or helicopters would be equipped with monitoring devices and applying measures to be performed by persons prepared to restart or repace a heart in grave peril during the extremely critical moments between heart attack and the patient's admittance to a coronary care unit of hospital.

If optimal performance and equipment were available in these two additional areas -- on-the-spot resuscitation and mobile coronary care units -- the additional saving might run into the thousands and perhaps even into the tens of thousands.

As matters now stand, should you suffer a heart attack and go into cardiac arrest, you will be extremely fortunate to have at your side a trained person capable of recognizing certain symptoms and applying emergency measures. And your chances will be much improved if you obtain high quality coronary care service rather than routine hospitalization.

heart attack.

It's not too often that fish kills due to ice coverings happen in Kentucky but this could be the year.

INDIANS VALUED BLOODROOT

A small flowering herb, admired by lovers of the outdoors, is the Bloodroot, which produces beautiful white blossoms. This herb grows wild throughout the eastern portion of the United States. It is easily identified because of its star-shaped flowers and by the fact that it is located on rocky slopes. This herb was much valued by the eastern tribes of American Indians. They used the sap from the plant to paint their faces. The sap is red-colored and thus the name, "Bloodroot." The use of the sap by the Indians caused the herb to become commonly known as Indian Paint.

ELECTED— These gentlemen were elected officers and directors of the Rockcastle County Livestock Improvement Association at the annual meeting of that organization held last week at Brodhead School. They are, seated, from left: Roy Brown, president; Dr. Mac Whitaker, guest speaker for the meeting; G.D. Burton, director; Al-

Annual Meeting Of R.C.L.I.A. Held Feb. 6

The annual meeting and banquet of the Rockcastle County Livestock Improvement Association was held at the Brodhead School cafeteria on February 6. Dr. M.D. Whitaker, Extension Swine Specialist for the University of Kentucky, was the principal speaker for the meeting. Dr. Whitaker discussed "Pigs and People." He told the group, "We are now producing better pork products than at any other time in history. The future of the swine industry is looking very good."

re-elected officers for the year. They are: Roy Brown, president; Clay Colson, vice president; O.J. Sutton, secretary-treasurer. Bobby Randolph was named as a new director of the organization. The group also appointed an agri-business tour committee: Named to this committee were Smith T. Powell, Jr., chairman; G.D. Burton, Clay Colson, and H. Lee Durham. The ladies will be invited to go along on the tour this year. It was decided to either the Pennsylvania Dutch Colony, Shenadoh Valley, or historic Jamestown.

NEW DIRECTORS NAMED FOR HOSPITAL

Directors and officers for 1970 were chosen at last Monday night's meeting of the board of directors of the Rockcastle County Baptist Hospital. Named to serve for the coming year were: Bradley Saylor, president; James O. Smith, vice president; A.L. French, secretary; Cletus Peters, treasurer; John E. Holbrook, Kenneth Parsons, John Bullock, and Danny Price.

The hospital is currently accepting contributions toward the purchase of a Heart Monitor and Defibrillator Machine. There are two machines in the unit and cost around $1400-$1500 for both. To date $550 has been received in contributions. Donations have been received from the Mt. Vernon Lions Club, $50; London Laundry, $100; Rockcastle County Shrine Club, $100, and others, $300.

VALENTINE DANCE AT CLUB

There will be a Valentine Dance at the Cedar Rapids Country Club Saturday night, February 14 for members only. Refreshments will not be provided.

"OLE JOE" RECORDS

A recording by Ole Joe Clark entitled "Live, On Stage" will be released next week under the Alvic Records.

Ole Joe also plans to appear overseas sometime this year and has been booked for appearances on several top country and western television shows besides plans for appearing in a new movie.

He is being handled by Alice Combs Enterprises of Radco Valley and Nashville.

RENNER ARRESTED

Junior Renner, about 40, of Mt. Vernon was arrested Monday night by members of the Rockcastle County Sheriff's Department at his home in Owens Subdivision and later charged with "Possession of Alcoholic Beverages for the purpose of Sale," and "Selling Alcoholic Beverages in a Local Option Territory."

According to Sheriff Billy Kirby, the officers found 32 half pints of whiskey and 39 half quarts of beer. Renner was released after posting bond and is scheduled to appear February 24 in County Court.

JAIL FILLED

Rockcastle County Jail Frank DeBorde tells us that things were a little crowded at the County Jail last Saturday night. The jail's capacity is 22 and there were 23 prisoners incarcerated there Saturday night.

Things were so tight that one prisoner could only lay his weary head on Jailer DeBorde's couch. From all reports, this is the first time that the jail had been filled to capacity with an overflow crowd. Think maybe it's a sign of our time?

Tigers Win Three Devils Avenge Loss

The past week was a big one in Brodhead basketball history as the Tigers downed all three of their big rivals Crab Orchard, Mt. Vernon and Livingston.

Monday night, February 2 began the action when the Tigers traveled to Crab Orchard and defeated the Cubs by a score of 76 to 64. This was the second time in as many years, that Brodhead has defeated Crab Orchard both seasons after Crab Orchard had won the Brodhead Thanksgiving Tournament.

Goff and Scoggins were the scorers for the Tigers with 28 and 22, respectively. Last Thursday night, the snow was melted from the gym floor and the hottest contested game ever played in the Brodhead gym between the Tigers and the Red Devils of Mt. Vernon and at the end of a double-overtime game, Brodhead had emerged victorious 72-66.

The game was hard fought from start to finish. The half ended with Mt. Vernon in front 39-31 but Brodhead came back in the third quarter to take the lead and the rest of the game was nip and tuck. Mt. Vernon had a four-point lead near the end of time in regulation play but Brodhead took advantage of two Red Devil floor errors to tie the score.

In the first overtime, Brodhead had a two point lead and the ball with eight seconds to go. A Brodhead player took a shot, missed, and Dale Coffey grabbed the rebound, dribbled to mid-court and let fly with a jump shot which went in to tie the score at the buzzer. The second overtime was all Brodhead. Dale Scoggins played an outstanding game for the Tigers not only on offense with 32 points but his rebounding and defense were excellent. Leading scorer for the Red Devils was Tommy Coffey with 25.

Friday night finished a busy week for Brodhead as the Tigers traveled to Livingston and made in three in a row with an 80-33 victory over the Blue Devils. The Tigers dressed 13 players and all of them saw action in the game with 10 of them scoring. Goff was the leading scorer with 23, followed by Scoggins and McWhorter with 15, Bussell got 8, Bray 6, Mullins 5, and Pope, R. Graves, G. Groves, and Gentry with 2 each.

Also last Friday night, the Mt. Vernon Red Devils traveled to Nicholas County to try to get revenge for the 36-point defeat in December at the hands of the Blue Jackets. In one of the greatest comebacks Mt. Vernon team ever made, the Red Devils upset the big, strong, Nicholas County team, on a side shot by Rudy Burdette with 5 seconds to go, 69-67.

At the start of the 4th quarter, the Red Devils were down 17 points 59-42 and in a complete reversal of form from the night before, in which they made many bad passes during the fourth quarter and overtime defeat at Brodhead, the Red Devils kept their cool and shooting an amazing 14 out of 17 shots played a perfect fourth quarter by outshooting Nicholas County 27-8.

Coach Jack Laswell said that in 24 years of coaching, he never had a team to come back from 17 points down in the fourth quarter to shoot like that.

Tommy Coffey, who normally is not a good outside shooter, hit five straight from the corner. Dale Coffey hit three straight from the head of the circle, Rudy Burdette got three from the side, and George Powell

Have you had the flu (?) seems to be the common query among residents of Rockcastle these days and for the past several weeks. The flu bug has hit the county, and surrounding counties, so hard that 600 students were reportedly out of the county schools, on one of those fortunate days it was held last week. From all reports it seems to be a particularly fiendish type of flu bug that lays its victims low for several days with chills and fevers not to mention other side effects like high temperatures, etc.

However, we have escaped, thank goodness, so don't worry everyone, you will not be deprived of the weekly scandal sheet, for a while anyway.

Speaking of scandal, that is what I think of the present problem of often not being able to distinguish between the boys and girls. The guidelines used to be simple, one wore long or short neatly curled hair and dressed in a manner, if not beretting a lady, at least leaving no doubt as to the person's sex. The other wore clean cut hair styles and would have been considered downright hoodlums if they let their locks wiggle down around their ears, not to mention the present-day shoulder length.

Maybe I'm overly concerned since students of the 50's can remember very well when their parents reactions were to the long sideburns, duck-tails, and tight jeans of the youth of that day. The majority of these are now strong, their responsible blue or white collar workers with their locks short to a respectable length and deploring the present-day hair and dress styles.

It seems that each generation must rebel against the "establishment," but today's rebellion seems to be, by the youth in the large cities especially, directly aimed at confusing people as to their gender.

But getting back to the hairdos, we can only offer one hope and that is that this style too will die and we will once again revert, maybe not to the crew cut, at least to a style that separates, not the men from the boys, the men from the women.

We understand that school will not be out now until June 9, that is barring any more lost days due to the weather. That's bad, particularly for the rural children who are needed to help with the farm work, but it's good especially

Sen. Cook Announces Extension Of Postal Service Delivery

Senator Marlow W. Cook announced today that he has been advised by Postmaster General Winton M. Blount of a major new postal service program that will expand home deliveries to an additional 19,178 Kentucky families, principally in small communities, for the first time.

Under the program, persons living more than a quarter mile, but less than half a mile from the post offices that do not have city delivery are now eligible to receive the delivery at home. Previously, they have been compelled to go to the post office for their mail.

Since they live less than half a mile away from a post office, they have not been eligible to receive rural delivery service prior to the new order, Senator Cook explained. And because they live near a post office that does not have city delivery they have missed out on these too.

Senator Cook said he has been advised that the Postmaster General is issuing instructions in the Postal Bulletin that this additional postal service should be effective February 16, 1970. The only requirement to obtain the service is that it be requested of the postmaster, and a majority of those living in the area must desire the service.

Mt. Vernon, Livingston, and Brodhead are all included in the area affected by the new program.

In Mt. Vernon, according to Mt. Vernon Postmaster, James O. Smith, the new program means in effect that if a majority of persons living more than a quarter mile from the post office desire home delivery then it will be provided. This takes in such populous areas as Tower Hill, Fairground Hill, parts of Owens Subdivision, streets off of Richmond Street, etc.

BANKS WILL CLOSE FEB. 12 and 23

Both the Bank of Mt. Vernon and Citizens Bank in Brodhead will be closed Thursday, (today) February 12 in observance of Abraham Lincoln's birthday and again on Monday, February 23 in observance of George Washington's birthday.

Are You Guilty?

Several months ago, interested citizens put together a drive to try and clean up trash dumps along our roads in Rockcastle County. The above photos show a section of one of our roads which was cleaned up and signs erected which said "No Dumping." These three photos were taken within a space of less than 200 yards. This is not exactly the sort of image we should want visitors to our county to leave with. Yes, it is a condition prevalent over areas throughout the county. Perhaps we should pay more attention to President Nixon's program to stop pollution. Although these dumps don't really pollute the air, they can certainly be credited with spoiling our beautiful landscapes in the county.

An Editorial

The Mt. Vernon City Council will have to decide right away what is to be done concerning developing the potential tourists facilities around Lake Linville.
 At last Tuesday night's Council meeting, Mayor Linville gave the councilmen copies of a proposal by Renfro Valley Enterprises concerning leasing the land adjacent to the city's boatdock site. This proposal was, in effect, an offer to lease the land for a tourist campsite with all necessary facilities installed by Renfro Valley with a return to the city of a percentage of the gross income.
 We really have no set opinion on this subject except to say that the City Council should explore all possibilities of developing and operating the site itself before binding itself to a long-term lease at a certain percentage. If, after this possibility has been explored to its fullest and the Council decides that their safest avenue to the maximum income possible from this land is to lease it, then we do feel that the lease should be thrown open for bids from other responsible parties as well as Renfro Valley Enterprises.
 We really don't know whether other bids would be forthcoming or whether or not other parties could match Renfro's offer. But, for the sake of fair play and harmony in the community, the Council might be wise to cover all possibilities.

CARD OF THANKS
 We, the family of Arthur Clark wish to thank everyone who were so kind to us during our recent time of sorrow.
 We especially wish to thank those who sent food and flowers, Sparks Funeral home, Bro. Cecil Dailey and everyone.

Letter To The Editor

Mt. Vernon Signal
 Mt. Vernon, Ky.
 Dear Editor,
 I would appreciate your printing the following letter in your next issue of the Signal with the hope that some taxpayers and other interested in "other than self" persons may act before it is too late.
 "A cry of desperation for the future of Lake Linville, yes indeed, even the future of Mt. Vernon."
 In the February 5 issue of the Signal, Mayor Linville again had to use the words which have "haunted the dream, planning, construction, and completion of the wonderful Lake Linville, "proposed restrictions by certain parties namely, 1. no swimming, 2. no skiing, and 3. no motor over 10 h.p.
 These words have been tossed about since the dream was first announced. If this is to become the fate of Lake Linville and even more, Mt. Vernon, why doesn't the city simply erect a large mound sign along I-75 at the dam which reads, "Closed to the Public."
 As a taxpayer, citizen, father, new water customer, and water lover, I appeal to the better judgment of the citizens of Mt. Vernon to express themselves in favor of using this "greatest of assets to our county," to the best advantage of all. This is have it open to the public with certain restrictions as to size of boat, restrooms, etc., but not those three items as noted.
 To anyone who watches the Ohio, Michigan, and Kentucky tourists pulling boats through Mt. Vernon going to Lake Cumberland all summer, it sure doesn't take long to determine that possibly every "00th boat is of the size and h.p. the "fishing" lovers would restrict us to.
 My fellow citizens, if you love and spend all possible free time on the water as I do, it doesn't take but one trip to Lake Cumberland or Herrington Lake to see what the revenue means to these communities.
 My fellow citizens, if we let this most golden of golden opportunities go by, to put Lake Linville and Mt. Vernon on the map, then let's all bow down in shame for the damage we will have done now and for generations to come.
 Mayor Linville has stated that a sheet will be mailed out to the water customers asking their opinion. Well, what are we waiting for. Open up the beautiful lake to water lovers. It's been too long already.

 Nearly $1 million in federal aid will be made available to build a new gas pipeline system in Scottsville which virtually was shut up for several days last month when natural gas was escaping from aged pipes threatened the Allen County city of 3,400 with explosions.
 The announcement by Gov. Louie B. Nunn brought from Scottsville's Mayor Mel Traylor Jr. an expression of gratitude and thanks that federal assistance will be available.
 Scottsville leaders had been told by state and federal officials that gas would be cut off unless major repairs were made. City crews were reportedly still repairing leaks discovered after an odorizing was put into the gas.
 Governor Nunn said 60 per cent of the funding was expected to come in the form of a grant from the Economic Development Administration and 40 per cent as a loan from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. An aide to the governor said it could come within three weeks.

ANNEX SPACE SOUGHT FOR ASSEMBLY OFFICES
 A resolution introduced in the House by Rep. Dexter Wright, R-Louisville, and eight colleagues says office space currently allocated to the Legislature is "totally inadequate" and it cannot "properly function under such crowded conditions."
 Then it asks that Finance Commissioner Albert Christen determine the maximum space that can be permanently allocated to the Legislature on the first floor of the Capitol Annex and report his findings to the Legislative Research construction by Feb. 20. The resolution says the 28-story state office building now under construction in North Frankfort should relieve crowded conditions in other state buildings. The Capitol Annex is just across the street south of the Capitol, where the Legislature meets.

PRESIDENT PRAISED FOR WATERWAY ALLOCATION
 "A most significant and meaningful step."
 These words were used by Gov. Louie B. Nunn to commend President Nixon's inclusion of a $1 million appropriation in his proposed federal budget for fiscal 1971 for a start on construction of the 23-mile Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway which directly affects Western Kentucky.
 In another reference to the proposed canal which would provide a shorter route to the Gulf of Mexico than the Mississippi River, Governor Nunn, chairman of the five-state waterway authority promoting it, said:
 "Never have so many people and groups supported a water resource project."

GUILTY OR NOT, TV GETS CREDIT
 A change from white to royal-blue and other brightly colored shirts that look good on television has been apparent at this year's Kentucky Legislature, one correspondent said in a story in his paper. Then, he added:
 "Fact: Television has had a tremendous impact on the General Assembly. One thing I'm proud of this session is that not one member has had a drink on the House floor," observed one sober veteran. "Now the word gets home pretty fast. I think television has been responsible for this."

STATE GETS CUT IN VACCINE PRICE
 The state has contracted with the Philips Roxane Labs Inc. Columbus, Ohio, for 300,000 doses of the new German measles (rubella) vaccine at $1.25 a dose, nearly 15 per cent less than the $1.46 it had been paying.
 This means, according to Dr. Calisto Hernandez, director of the State Health Department's division of epidemiology, that about 15 per cent more children can be vaccinated in the statewide immunization drive for the same amount of money. Rubella is rated a mild disease in children but can be communicated to pregnant women and cause tragic birth defects.

KENTUCKY COAL MINE DEATHS DOWN IN '69
 Thirty-four coal mine deaths occurred in Kentucky during 1969, compared with 58 in 1968, according to the annual report of the U.S. Bureau of Mines. The national mine fatality total was 203, a record low. West Virginia's total was 70.

On the basis of fatalities per million tons of coal mined, Kentucky was "behind" among the 23 production states, with 33 fatalities per million. In production, West Virginia was first, Kentucky second and Pennsylvania third.

FRANKFORT BUS FRANCHISE BRINGS $11
 Phillip B. Herald, Lexington, was the sole and successful bidder at $11 for a new, five-year, City of Frankfort bus franchise. The previous franchise holders ceased operation. Herald said he would have his three "mini" buses in operation soon. The city said rates would be 30 cents for adults and 20 cents for children and persons over 65.

CAR TAG DEADLINE COMING SOON
 March 1, the deadline for obtaining auto license plates in Kentucky, is coming soon and State Revenue Commissioner James E. Luckett this week said nearly one million still are to be purchased. The lag in buying was attributed largely to the wintry weather.
 Many counties report they have sold hardly a third (Cont. to 4)

Report Farm Changes To County ASCS Office

Changes in the number of acres being farmed, and mean changes in farm records at the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office. And that means when a farmer buys, sells, leases, rents, or otherwise acquires or disposes of farmland, he should drop by the County ASCS office as soon as possible thereafter to set the records straight, according to Rockcastle County ASCS Committee Chairman.

Records are kept on farms participating in programs administered by ASCS. Major ASCS programs in Rockcastle County are: (LIST APPLICABLE ALLOWMENT AND ALLOCATION PROGRAMS FROM AMONG FOLLOWING: wheat, cotton, feed grain, tobacco, and in that period, a report should be made to the county office," he said.

The ASCS Committee Chairman emphasized that changes need be reported only by farmers participating in one or more farm programs administered by ASCS.

INDIAN AND ESKIMO ARTIFACTS OF NORTH AMERICA, by Charles Miles. In this primarily pictorial guide, the author has organized over 2,000 examples of all the major kinds of North American native-made and used artifacts and presents them under several functional headings.

THE KITES OF WAR, by Derek Lambert. In this suspense novel with political overtones, the scene is Tibet, in 1962, just before the Red Chinese invasion.

THE OLYMPIAN, by Brian Glavin. A highly charged story of the career of a great athlete and his special relationship with his classic type and fall.

ONE MAN ALONE: RICHARD NIXON, by Ralph de Toledano. The life story of an exciting life and a unique political career from Nixon's modest middle-class beginnings to the climax in the most incredible comeback in American Presidential history.

OWL, by William Service. This unusual miniature of a domesticated bird, raised from an orphaned fledgling, has surprisingly fresh appeal and humor.

OWENS GOES WITH KRECC

Floyd L. Owens, a native of Mt. Vernon, Kentucky, has joined the staff of the Member Services Department of Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Association (KRECC) in Louisville. Mr. Owens will serve with the State Association of Rural Electric Cooperatives as an Area Manager for consumer electrical products and services which are provided by the organization.

Mr. Owens brings to the organization a well-rounded background of experience in business and sales management. He attended Fultondale office last November when Mayor Burke was elected, and at the same time Judge Stephens was swept into office unseating a Republican incumbent.

LINVILLE ATTENDS DEMO LUNCHEON

Rockcastle County's Democratic Chairman, Howard Linville, attended a luncheon at Frankfort, recently to make further plans for the Jefferson-Jackson Dinner to be held at Convention Center in Louisville on Friday, February 27, at 7 p.m., EST.

The Honorable Frank W. Burke, Democratic Mayor of Louisville, who won election last November to return Kentucky's largest city to Democratic control, will be the main speaker at the $25.00 a plate Democratic fund-raising affair.

surely be in business come Tuesday night, the Red Devils traveled to Casey County and met defeat at the hands of a good Casey County High School team 76-52.

Casey County, playing an outstanding game, easily took command from the start with strong rebounding, a good defense, and good shooting to defeat the Red Devils.

David J. McCauley and Stanley Burton led Mt. Vernon with 16 and 9 points, respectively.

The Red Devils shot very poorly against the good defense of Casey County. Next week, the Red Devils will finish their home schedule with three games, Tuesday night they play Boplin, Thursday night they play Shippville, and Friday night, Crab Orchard.

The Livingston Stevedowned Camillus Tuesday night with a score of 64 to 26.

Livingston led all the way with K. Mink leading the scoring with 19. Hurley got 14, McGuire 10, Reynolds 7, Smith 8, and Mason, Hammond, and Jackson 2.

Library Notes

New books delivered to Rockcastle County Library. Among them are:

THE AGE OF ROCK, edited by Jonathan Eisen. A summary that tells just about anything anybody needs to know about music and the major rock groups and big names.

ALIENS IN THE SKIES, by John Fuller. The new UFO battle of the scientists.

AS I WALKED OUT ONE MIDSUMMER MORNING, by Laurie Lee. A young English poet's finely written account of his travels through England and Spain prior to the Spanish Civil War.

COLLECTING MUSICAL BOXES, by Arthur W.J.D. Ork-Hume. Written by a leading authority on mechanical instruments, this book traces the history and development of the musical box. The identification of musical boxes by their trends and points of recognition is also covered. Complete instructions are given on the repair and overhaul of various music box mechanisms.

EARTH SHINE, by Ann Lindbergh. This distinguished author describes her experiences as a meteorologist on the earth's life and man's reach to the moon.

FUN WITH FABRIC PRINTING, by Kathleen Monk. This new approach to fabric printing set forth by the author shows how easy it is to devise original designs with interesting and unusual backgrounds.

list is with Peanut Rice. To make enough for 6: Heat 4 cups of peanut oil in a large saucepan. Stir in 1/2 cup of salted peanuts. Add 1 cup sliced celery. 1/2 teaspoon each of salt and thyme, and 1/4 teaspoon of pepper. Cook about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in 1-1/2 cups of uncooked rice. Cook and stir 4 to 5 minutes longer. Add 3 cups of water and 2 chicken bouillon cubes. When the water comes to a boil and bouillon cubes are dissolved, cover the pan, lower the heat, and simmer until rice is tender and all water is absorbed. This should be 20 to 25 minutes.

Peanut Rice can be served as an accompaniment to meats. It is also good with curried or creamed chicken, and chicken is another March plentiful.

for those people who have four children, two not in school. It means that there will be two less children to watch around the pool when the country club opens Memorial Day.

Several men were discussing the weather in the Post Office the other day, one of those days when the high was 10 above you know, and I heard one old-timer state that this was a bad winter but nothing to compare with winters of his childhood. Well, maybe we're getting softer all the time, but the cold temperatures I can take if they're normal, say about 30 at night and 40 to 45 above in the daytime, but when you can't put a foot out the door without becoming mired in either mud or snow then it's getting a little ridiculous. Spring, beautiful lovely Spring, officially comes on the scene

ATTENTION VETERANS

All members of VFW Post 5423 are invited to attend the meeting Sunday, February 14 at 2 p.m. All veterans from Southern Madison and Rockcastle are urged to attend.

CECIL FILES FOR SENATORIAL SEAT

A hardy perennial, Jesse N.R. Cecil, Jefferson County, who probably has run for more and a wider variety of public offices than any candidate in recent history, is doing it again. He filed for the Democratic nomination for Representative from the Fourth District, a post now held by Republican N. Gene Snyder.

Cecil's most recent try was last year when he lost in the Democratic primary for Jefferson County judge.

F.G. PROGRAM HAS SPECIAL PROVISIONS

The 1970 feed grain program of the U.S. Department of Agriculture includes special provision for farms with 25 acres or less in their feed grain bases, according to Sheltie Mullins, Chairman of the Rockcastle County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee.

Also, producers with feed grain bases up to 125 acres will have the option of temporarily reducing their bases down to 25 acres to become eligible for the small farm provisions. No corn, grain sorghum, or barley is to be planted for harvest on farms with temporarily reduced feed grain bases and the 25-acre temporary base must be diverted to conserving uses.

The small-farm provision is the same as in previous years. A farm with a feed grain base of 25 acres or less can qualify for payment on the first 20 percent of its diverted acreage. (For farms with larger bases, no payment is made for the required 20 percent diversion.)

The payment rate for the first 20 percent diverted on small farms will be based on 20 percent of the estimated total county price support times the farm's projected yield on the 20 per cent reduction. The remaining diverted acres will earn payment based on 40 percent of the estimated total county price support times the farm's projected yield. The entire base may be diverted from feed grain production on farms with bases of 25 acres or less.

Other provisions of the 1970 feed grain program are the same for all participating farms. This includes price support payments, availability of price support loans, wheat-feed grain substitution, and sign-up and compliance requirements.

Sign-up period for the 1970 feed grain program will be Feb. 2 through March 20 at the county ASCS office. (Sign-up for wheat program will be held during the same period.)

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all who were so kind and helpful through the illness and death of our father, J.J. Nicols.

A special thanks to Dr. George Griffith, the nurses and entire staff at the Rockcastle County Baptist Hospital, Bro. Ralph Sears for his consoling words, The Cromer Trio and other singers for the beautiful songs, all our friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers and words of consolation. We could never express our gratitude in words. We are ever thankful to all.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our thanks for the kindness shown to us since our home burned recently. To everyone who donated money, clothing, and other household items, we say Thank You.

From Dawn Until Dusk With "V-8" Juice

Some food items are meant for a certain season of the year, time of day, or mood. Then there's "V-8" cocktail vegetable juice. A juice for all seasons, hours, and moods.

And at snack time, reach for "V-8" juice in the handy 8-ounce six-packs. Naturally low in calories (only 5 per ounce), yet high in nutritive value, "V-8" satisfies the urge to nibble between meals without adding undesirable calories.

Here's a menu that can be served from dawn 'til dusk and on into a midnight supper.

"V-8" with Banana Kabobs International Toast Applesauce

Coffee Milk

"V-8" WITH BANANA KABOBS 4 slices bacon 4 banana cubes

In skillet, cook bacon until just crisp. Roll up; secure with toothpick. Arrange banana on toothpick with bacon. Makes kabobs for 4 servings.

INTERNATIONAL TOAST 2 eggs, slightly beaten 1/2 cup milk 1/2 teaspoon vanilla 8 slices raisin bread 1 cup applesauce

Combine eggs, milk, and vanilla. Dip bread into egg mixture. Brown both sides of bread on lightly greased griddle or skillet. Meanwhile, in saucepan, heat applesauce. If desired, serve with raisin bread. Makes 4 servings.
