A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
 By: Billy Dowell
 You probably have noticed some people at times have peculiar ideas about themselves. No minister, priest or rabbi is supernatural. They are human beings. The inner voice which beckoned them to their calling usually provides them with patience, tolerance and benevolence. But they are still human and have the same traits of curiosity and anxiety as every other people.
 We imagine most men of the cloth wonder at times about their adequacy or inadequacy. Hours of preparation and prayer precede a worship service. Even so, no clergyman can strike a responsive chord to or for every one on every occasion. This is just as impossible as it is for a ball player to hit a home run every time at bat.
 But, when a responsive chord is struck, wouldn't it be a good idea - at least once in a while - to write a note and say so? Remember - they're human too.....

You And The Draft

Recently we received a letter from our National Headquarters (N HQS) to review the Selective Service file of a Lexington, Ky., registrant, to reply to his correspondence and send a copy of our reply to N HQS.

The registrant, who is attending graduate school, wrote to the President requesting help in having his deferment extended so he might complete the requirements for his doctorate degree. He pointed out he came from an economically depressed area, and upon completion of his degree requirements and fulfillment of his military obligation, he planned to return to his home community to help his neighbors in their efforts to improve their earning capacity. The White House sent the director of Selective Service for Kentucky, in view of these circumstances your letter has been forwarded to the state director for his attention. We assumed the registrant was a Kentucky registrant. However, when we checked our central indices his name did not appear in the master file. We wrote asking the registrant to furnish us with his Selective Service Number which appears on his Registration Certificate and Classification Card. He was told in the event he did not have those forms to furnish the address he gave at the time of registration. In reply to our letter, he furnished us with a Selective Service Number that placed him under the jurisdiction of a local board in another state. Upon receipt of this information we forwarded the registrant's letter to the state director having jurisdiction over his local board for whatever action required.

The point is, if the registrant had included his Selective Service Number or the address of his local board, considerable time would have been saved in contacting him. It is most important for any young man to remember that the address he gives at the time of registration determines his local board and that he remains under the jurisdiction of this local board at all times.

He may request a transfer for physical examination or induction. The Selective Service Regulations are designed to assist the registrant who, because of unusual changes in his, or his family's place of current residence is so far from his own local board that returning to his local board for examination or induction will be a hardship. The local board of transfer may or may not approve this request.

Q. I have been found acceptable for military service at an Army Examining Station. I prefer to fulfill my military obligation by joining the National Guard. My question is, may the copy of the physical examination be given to the National Guard to eliminate a second physical?

A. Yes, you may request your local board in writing to furnish the National Guard with copies of the Report of Medical Examination and Report of Medical History and Armed Forces Security Questionnaire. If you have been issued an Order to Report for Induction by your local board such records cannot be furnished.

Q. When I was 18 years of age, I registered for the draft. Shortly thereafter I enlisted. Following my discharge, I went to another local board and registered. My question is, which registration is the valid one and what steps do I take to void the invalid one?

A. If you were properly registered at the time required by law, you should notify the local board with which you registered following discharge from the service and they will then take the necessary action to cancel the registration in that board. When the cancellation has been completed they will transfer the records they have to the board in which you are properly registered. You will remain under the jurisdiction of this local board at all times.

Heart Attack? Facts Presented Here May Save Your Life

(This is the first of a series of three articles presented by your Heart Association to inform readers of this newspaper about the urgent need for prompt medical help in the event of heart attack.)

It may occur while you're driving an automobile, eating a meal, mowing the lawn, watching television, sleeping or in countless other situations:

• You feel a prolonged oppressive pain or discomfort in the center of your chest, just behind the breastbone.
• The pain may radiate to a shoulder, arm, neck or jaw.
• The pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating.

• Nausea, vomiting and shortness of breath may also occur.
• The symptoms may subside, then return.

Symptoms vary but there is the usual warning signs of heart attack. If these things happen to you, you may be suffering a heart attack. And, if this is the case, the next 72 hours may be the most critical in your whole life.

The first four hours are especially perilous. Although your heart may be literally "too good to die," having suffered relatively minor heart muscle damage, the chances of your incurring a severe and ordinarily fatal change in heart rhythm (ventricular fibrillation) are about 25 times as great during the first four hours than during the next 24.

Instant recognition of heart attack symptoms, and immediate medical assistance, may well represent the difference between life and death insofar as you are concerned.

Minutes and seconds count. The first thing for you to remember is minimize physical exertion. Then, immediately, you should call a doctor—or, preferably, have someone do it for you. If for whatever reason you can't reach him, do not delay but get by the speediest means to the emergency room of the nearest hospital with the hope of getting "wired for sound" at the earliest possible moment. Get there in an ambulance, automobile or taxi. But get there—and fast!

Ideally, within minutes you will be in a coronary care unit with electrodes touching your skin as a part of a complex system which continuously monitors the heart's electrical activity.

If there is any change in heart rhythm or rate above or below a preset range, an alarm will sound and within seconds skilled personnel will act to forestall or correct what a lever is wrong—most often an irregularly premature beating heart, shock or total cessation of circulatory functions.

Despite the fact that the first hours are the most critical, one group of researchers found that the average "decision time"—that is, the time intervening between the onset of symptoms and lifting the patient off the cradle—is three or more hours.

On the average, it is believed, about eight hours elapse between the start of warning signs and one's admission to a hospital emergency room.

The decision to seek medical assistance is far too serious to be entrusted to the patient. It is a responsibility that must be accepted by the wife, husband, relative, or friend.

Emberton Announces Gubernatorial Candidacy

Thomas D. Emberton, a 38-year-old attorney from Edmonson in Metcalfe County, today announced that he will seek the Republican nomination for Governor of Kentucky. Emberton, a former county attorney, executive administrative assistant to Governor Louis B. In his formal declaration, Mr. Emberton said, "There is a new, vital spirit in Kentucky that must be preserved and I want to be a part of preserving that spirit."

"It is a spirit that says, 'Go forward—build, create, improvise.' It is a spirit that says, 'We are going to do it, no matter how tough it is.' It is a spirit that says, 'We are going to do it, no matter how tough it is.' It is a spirit that says, 'We are going to do it, no matter how tough it is.'"

MRS. WYNN DIES

Mrs. Suste Wynn, 90, of Mullins Station died suddenly February 2.

The body was taken to the Dowell-Martin Funeral Home where funeral arrangements were being completed at press time.

WE WERE WRONG

In last week's Signal, we unintentionally reported that Bro. C.F. Mullins, Sr. received a Gold Membership Emblem and a Gold Lifetime Membership from the Dave Jackson Lodge No. 731 F & A.M. This was incorrect. A Mason must have 50-years in the fraternity to receive the emblem and card to Bro. Mullins presented the emblem and card to Bro. Charles E. Monte, on the occasion of his fiftieth-year in the lodge. The Signal regrets this error.

Clear Creek Road To Get Long Awaited Repairs

A solution to the problem of the slide on the Wildie-Clear Creek Road may have finally been gained by the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court.

The slide, long a problem for residents of the road, is so bad that for some time school buses have been unable to cross that section of the road involved. The main hold-up on repairing the road was that on one side, there is no where to cut another bed since, through the years, Clear Creek, along which the road was originally built, has gradually eroded the bank. On the other side, private land and a home, belonging to the William Ramsey heirs, had to be obtained for the right-of-way to cut another road around the slide.

The State Highway Department had already agreed to build the road as soon as the right-of-way could be obtained and on Tuesday, the Court began proceedings to acquire the needed land. It was a complicated situation, since the land in question belonged to three living Ramsey heirs and the descendants of six of the other heirs. In order to obtain the necessary 50-foot wide right-of-way, the Fiscal Court made and passed a motion Tuesday to offer the heirs $1,500.00. The offer was accepted by one of the heirs, Mrs. Mae Ballinger (who lives in the house located on the right-of-way) and Mrs. Ballinger told County Judge Charles Carter, County Attorney William Gregory and Magistrate Cleith Thacker, who were authorized by Fiscal Court to make the offer, that her brother and sister would probably also accept the offer. A condemnation suit will still have to be filed against all the heirs known and unknown after which the County Judge will appoint three land commissioners to officially appraise the land for the Court. In other action, the Court voted to accept the 1971-72 County Road Aid Program presented to them by Evans Hill-ton of the Somerset Office, Department of Highways. The program this year calls for $97,020.00 to be spent maintaining, reconstructing or constructing certain county roads.

In addition, three county roads were designated for improvement under the program. They are: Birmingham initial treatment for the Flat Rock-Pine Hill Road beginning at Ky 1004, SE and continuing for a distance of 7 miles; Grape, drain and traffic bound road for the Jopp Cash Road beginning at CR 1275, SW and ending at Ky 616, a distance of An aggravating problem for some time for residents of the Wildie-Clear Creek Road should be solved in the near future. For many months now, residents along the road have had to contend with the gradual sliding of the road (at the point of the warning sign in the photo) into Clear Creek. It got so bad that two buses had to be put on the road because one could not travel over the slide. However, Fiscal Court voted Tuesday to begin condemnation proceedings against the William Ramsey heirs, owners of the house and land on the left of the road in the photo, to obtain the necessary right-of-way to cut a new road bed around the slide. The house, shown in the above photo, is presently occupied by Mrs. Mae Ballinger, one of the Ramsey heirs.

Officers and directors for 1971 were elected at last Friday night's meeting of the Rockcastle County Livestock Improvement Association. Armed Robbers Hit Joe Clark Grocery

An armed robbery and two break-ins during the past week kept State Police and local law enforcement officers busy. The armed robbery took place Wednesday night, January 27, at a grocery store owned and operated by Joe Clark on the Red Hill Road.

Mrs. Clark, who was alone in the store at the time of the robbery, told officers that two men came into the store about 7 p.m. One of the men, according to Mrs. Clark, then pulled a pistol and told her, "This is a hold-up." Mrs. Clark further stated that she was ordered to lie down on the floor and to stay there for ten minutes as they (the two men) left the store. Mrs. Clark did as instructed and then called State Police and the Sheriff's Department. About eight copies of charges were filed and an undetermined amount of cash, checks and food stamps were taken in the hold-up.

Monday night, February 1 was also a busy night for thieves as the Kentucky Shoe Office on U.S. 150 and George Owens Shell Service Station, also on U.S. 150, were both broken into.

The glass from a side door in the store company office was broken in order to gain entry there and office machines, two electric heaters and equipment, valued at approximately $1,000, were taken.

At the service station, entry was gained by breaking out the glass in a front door. Two shotguns, cigarettes and personal tools were taken during the burglary. State Police and local law officers are investigating all three cases.

Red Devils Split Two

The Mt. Vernon Red Devils rolled over Lynn Camp last Friday night 62 to 59. The game was routine from the beginning with the Red Devils leading all the way. However, Dale Coffey, the team's star, pulled a ligament in his right foot with about two minutes to go which sidelined him for Tuesday night's game with Jackson County.

The Red Devils couldn't seem to pull it all together against Jackson County Tuesday night and suffered their fourth defeat of the season 59 to 55.

Without the services of Dale Coffey, the team just couldn't handle the tough Tigars. The scoring was balanced but the Devils were out of sync.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, February 1 at Wray Funeral Home in Berea with burial in the Berea Cemetery.

Friday night, the Red Devils held Rubin and on Tuesday night, Casey County came to town.

The game between Madison Model and Brodhead, scheduled for last Friday night was called off, and on Tuesday night, Brodhead traveled to McCree's County and defeated them 46 to 41.

President Nixon Lauds Farm Pro. Record

President Nixon recently lauded American farmers for providing this country's people the best food in the world at a lower percentage of family income than is provided in any other country in the world. For this, he said, the Nation owes American agriculture a very great debt.

He cited the fact that the area of the American economy that has had the greatest growth in productivity is American agriculture, and said this has not been adequately reflected in agricultural income.

This report on the President singled out American agriculture as the high productivity area of the American economy. It was supported by Homer S. Yonts, State Executive Director of the Kentucky Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Office. Mr. Yonts said, "I believe not only farmers but others as well will be particularly interested in these comments by the President. We who help administer farm programs for the U.S. Department of Agriculture have often reminded our urban friends that Americans are the best fed people in the world at the lowest real cost because of the efficiency of American agriculture. It heartening to have the President state this and other basic facts about agriculture."

In his remarks, President Nixon referred to the new Commission on Productivity, with a membership of ten leaders representing American industry, labor, the academic community, and agriculture, saying that "a very significant point was made, not only in the first meeting, but in the second and third. On every occasion, it was that: That that area of American economy that has had the greatest growth in productivity and that has the highest productivity per man hour, any way you want to rate it, is American agriculture."

Upon hearing this fact, the President said he checked further and found that "we are the best fed people, but at the lowest cost, the lowest percentage of our income, of any country in the world. And for that, we are most grateful."

"This fact," he said, "means that the Nation owes American agriculture a very great debt, which perhaps has not been adequately reflected in agricultural income."

Mr. Nixon continued, "I am not happy about the fact that agricultural income has not been at the rates it should have been over the past few years. I think the farmer deserves a fair share of the Nation's increasing wealth and its increasing productivity, due to the fact that American agriculture is so productive."

At the same time, Mr. Nixon said, "We have problems of hunger in this country, and there are problems of hunger in all countries, rich and poor,

REMAP SESSION TO START FEB. 25

The Kentucky General Assembly will convene in special session Feb. 25 to consider the reorganization of the state's 138 legislative districts to make them conform with population shifts recorded in the 1970 census.

Gov. Louie B. Nunn announced the beginning date of the session last week in a "State of the Commonwealth" speech to the Kentucky Press Assn.

The Legislative Research Commission has already begun drafting plans, and LRC officials indicate preparation of the plans could go well into late February.

The census figures show there may be slightly more than 35,000 persons in each of the state's House districts and about 84,000 in each of the Senate districts.

Recent court decisions have said all districts in a state could vary from the norm by no more than two or three per cent.

The job will have to be completed by March 31, the deadline for filing as legislative candidates from multi-county districts.

STATES REVENUE TOPS ESTIMATES
Governor Nunn has announced more money is coming into the state treasury than was expected a year ago, and he is rescinding across-the-board spending cuts he ordered last August.

Figures released by the Department of Revenue last week show Kentucky's receipts are the first six months of the current fiscal year totaling over $279.1 million, or

DERBY, FORT HARROD BIRTHDAY PLANS BEGIN

A new commission officially began the task of planning celebrations of the 200th anniversary of the founding of Fort Harro and the 100th turning of the Kentucky Derby in 1974.

The Kentucky Historical Events Celebration Commission, created by the 1970 legislature, also will plan Kentucky's celebration of the 200th anniversary of the U.S. Declaration of Independence in 1976.

A feasibility study completed last year suggested... special tourism projects to be considered and spending that will, once and for all, establish Kentucky as the cultural and recreational heartland of mid-America.

BANKING COMPUTERS TO SHOW WHERE MONEY GOES

Banking Commissioner E.G. Adams recently said his department is developing a computerized information system for banks and related establishments.

Adams said the system will show where the money goes of a decision upholding a contempt conviction of a Bath County man by Fayette Circuit Court for his refusal to testify about an alleged kidnapping last year.

In upholding the punishment noted in the case, the high court ruled unconstitutional the state's 1854 law that limits a court to a $30 fine or 24-hour jail sentence as the penalty for contempt.

Such a limit may not have been a material interference with judicial function as claimed by the defendant, but in effect, the court said, "But times have changed..."

KY. TURNPIKE TOLLS, IMPROVEMENTS UNDER STUDY

Governor Nunn recently outlined a number of proposed highway improvements in the Louisville-to-Bellshelbourn area presently under study as well as a plan to continue collecting tolls on the Kentucky Turnpike until the 1970s.

The proposed 20-year extension of toll collections would negate the current agreement between the U.S. Bureau of Roads and the state to cease collections when the highway's construction bonds are retired, probably in 1974.

The federal agency would have to incur before such a decision could be finalized. Additional turnpike revenue would probably be used for other highway projects, particularly in the Louisville area.

Other projects under consideration according to the governor are:
* Widening of the turnpike from four to eight lanes from the Waterson Expressway to Court Loop, and to six lanes from Outer Loop south to the still uncompleted Jefferson Freeway.

"Extending the turnpike southeast from Elizabethtown to the Lake Cumberland-Dale Hollow Reservoir area near the Tennessee line.

FIRE PROTECTION COMMISSION NAMED

Governor Nunn has appointed a nine-member commission to work toward better fire protection and improved professional standards throughout Kentucky.

The commission, authorized by the 1970 General Assembly, consists of Kenneth J. Newman, former Louisville city director; state Reps. Edward Holloway, Jefferson County, and Arthur L. Schmidt, Caldwell Springs state Sen.; Donald Johnson, Fort Thomas, and Edward Freeman, Harrodsburg; Earl R. McDaniel, former Lexington fire chief; Russell Francis, Glasgow; Charles Riggsby, Ashland, and Al Hayden, Owensboro.

A marriage license was issued to Kenneth James and Judy Carol Nicely, Route 2, Livingston, Ky., January 30, 1971.

John W. Branch, Carl Carson, 19 Broadhead, to Donna Gall Borch, Broadhead, Ky., February 1, 1971.

Frankfort Watchline

Things surely are back to normal. Republican Gov. Louie Nunn -- as shrewd a vote-finder as you'll see -- is accusing Democrats of playing politics.

And Democrats are denying their situation between chopping back at him and backhanding each other.

The flap over what role Gov. Nunn should play in the special session on legislative reapportionment was a standoff in one way.

The governor didn't budge from his position that it's up to the lawmakers to redraw House and Senate district lines -- and that he'll veto a bill only if it's manifestly unfair.

But House members leaders did lay groundwork for naming the governor for waster.

Cat Tail Flower
By Ruth Felt

Many persons have never considered the common Cat Tail, found around lakes, to be a flower, but officially it is a wildflower. The Cat Tail blooms in June and July, and is located around marshlands since wet soil is necessary for its growth.

The Cat Tail is also known as the Cat-o-Nine Tails and Flax-Tail, among other names. The Cat Tail sometimes reaches heights of seven feet or more and is located throughout the warmer portions of the United States. The Cat Tail spreads rapidly.

Cat Tails have their place in the wild, but cultivated flowers are more suitable for arrangements. We take great pride in furnishing the very finest and freshest flowers in our special arrangements. Order some flowers today.

ing the $10,000-a-day cost of a session if he winds up vetoing his work.

Still, it's hard to figure how anyone involved can make any political mileage out of a problem as thorny as redistricting. It's one of those times when almost everyone could lose much more than he can possibly gain.

The legislators, especially, remind you of the contestant Jones on the horse leading to the racetrack once more, saying: "I sure hope I break even today -- I need the money."

Perhaps the trickiest barb in the exchange between House Speaker Julian Carroll and Gov. Nunn, came as the governor wrote: "I am reliably informed that you and some who have publicly endorsed the race track once more, favor changing county lines, or even abolishing some of our counties."

"I am reliably informed that you and some who have publicly endorsed the race track once more, favor changing county lines, or even abolishing some of our counties."

Carroll's former Gov. Bert Conaway, writing mate for Lieutenant Governor, fired back at the "gross fabrication in your letter which must be corrected."

He said Gov. Nunn was the

County Agent's Notes

CORN SEED SITUATION

TERMED "TIGHT" - Most farmers in Kentucky already know the supply of acceptable corn seed for the 1971 spring planting is greatly diminished...

At the recent Combined Seeds Meeting in Lexington, Dr. Dennis M. Fickenscher, technology specialist for the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, said the seed corn situation is "simply going to be tight."

If 65, Enroll for Medicare Medical Insurance

People who are 65 and have already turned up their Medicare medical insurance may enroll now through March 31 at any social security office...

Medical insurance is funded by individual voluntary monthly premiums that are matched by the Federal Government.

social security repro-news and features

Almost anyone 65 or over in the United States is eligible for Medicare medical insurance, a social security program said.

Identity and percentage of the cytoplasm on the front of the analysis tag or label. According to Dr. Still, the new labeling requirements will enable Kentucky farmers to determine the kind of corn they're buying...

UK SERVICE HAS A BUILDING PLAN TO FIT YOUR NEEDS. If you're planning to build anything on your farm from the smallest feeder to a thousand-hen laying house...

HUNTING & FISHING

February, the shortest month of the year, is the longest so far as outdoor sportsmen are concerned. It is a month of little action in the field or on the waters...

The UK specialists who design the plans may spend anywhere from several days to several years on developing a specific building. We've spent about three years developing a new tobacco curing facility...

According to J.B. Brooks, specialist in structural structures for UK, several commercial builders, using the UK plans, are often able to construct farm buildings as cheaply as a busy farmer.

Whether you're a farmer, member of a church, civic, or community group, if you're going to construct a building, and you want to know how to do it right, the Farm Building Plan Service at UK is ready, willing and able to help.

Larry Brent Childress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Childress of Louisville, celebrated his third birthday January 7, Mrs. Curtis McFarland of Livingston and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Childress of Route 2, Mt. Vernon.

Dr. Parker explained that often farmers will construct buildings without using plans and they may get a poor arrangement for labor-saving equipment, and it might cost him more money than necessary.

The plans provided by the Farm Building Plan Service are complete building guides- they are detailed, blue-print like sheets with all the instructions needed for construction.

Dr. Parker said that some of the plans are developed by the Farm Building Plan Service and other agricultural engineering departments at universities throughout the nation.

"We've received requests for one plan for an economical, ly constructed house from most of the states and several foreign countries," Dr. Parker said.
