1973 Pickle Program
According to Mr. W. C. Burr, Vice President - Field Operations, Hirsch Brothers & Company, there is good news for the 1973 pickle program, namely: Price increase, a larger percent of hybrids in the blend, and further experimentation with a new pickle seed, which produced greater yields for the six stations using it in 1972. Mr. Burr further states, "In an effort to keep you informed in advance of our thinking for 1973, we are shooting for an approximate 50% increase in pickle acreage for 1973. This is a big undertaking, but with your whole hearted cooperation, I'm sure the goal will be obtainable with the proper ammunition, such as: Price Increase-Specific information will be forthcoming in the next few months, but in the meantime there will be an upward movement in the larger size, Larger % of Hybrids in the Blend - An increase of 20 to 25% more hybrids in the blend mixture and a proportionally lesser amount of pollinator should also help to increase yields, a new hybrid seed - In 1971 we experimented with the Bounty Hybrid at a few stations. As the yields were superior to that of other stations, we tripled our experiment in 1972. Preliminary results showed the Bounty Stations yielded very well and we will want to increase our tests in 1973 by adding additional stations to the program."

According to William K. Bullen, Station Manager for Hirsch Brothers Company, Pickle Processors, approximately 70 acres of cucumbers were grown in Rockcastle County in 1972 and brought growers the total of $19,153.79.

Bake Something Special
The rich, tempting aroma of freshly baked bread reminds everyone of something different. It may call to mind home or family, or perhaps bygone days, when life's pace was a little slower. Traditionally it's a symbol of bounty or plenty. But along with its subtle meanings, the aroma of freshly baked bread always means get ready for some very special good eating! Because fresh bread has a flavor that's hard to match, too.

Perhaps you've shied away from making your own breads and rolls, because you think it's difficult. Well, it's really a lot easier than you might think.

So if you have a little extra time on your hands, now's a good time to roll up your sleeves and do some baking. In addition, flour and other wheat products are especially good supply; in fact they are on USDA's plentiful foods list for October.

Here are some recipes—one for rolls and two for breads—you may want to try: YEAST ROLLS (24 large rolls) About 4 cups flour, unsifted 1/4 cup sugar 1 package yeast, active dry 1 1/2 teaspoons salt 1 cup milk 60 minutes

1 egg
Mix 2 cups of the flour with the sugar, yeast and salt. Heat milk and fat together over low heat until warm. Stir into flour mixture.

Mix in enough of the remaining flour to make a soft dough that leaves the sides of the bowl. Knead on a lightly floured surface until dough is smooth and elastic, about 10 minutes.

Place in a lightly greased bowl and turn over once to grease upper side of dough. Cover and let rise in a warm place (80 degrees F.) until almost double in size (1 to 1 1/2 hours). Grease two 8-inch pans. Press dough down to remove air bubbles. Shape dough into 24 balls and place in pans. Let rise in a warm place until double in size (about 1 hour).

Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. (Hot). Bake rolls 15 to 20 minutes until golden brown. Remove from pan and cool on rack.

WHITE BREAD (2 loaves, 16 slices each) 5 to 5 1/2 cups flour, unsifted 1/4 cup sugar 1 package yeast, active dry 2 teaspoons salt 2 cups milk 1/4 cup shortening Mix in 2 cups of the flour with the sugar, yeast, and salt.

VOTE FOR KENNETH ADAMS

TO: VOTERS OF EDUCATIONAL DISTRICT NO. 5
CONWAY, ROUNDSTONE, EAST MT. VERNON

I am asking the voters of these precincts to re-elect me as School Board Member on November 7, 1972. During my past term on the board I have tried to fulfill my promises to the people. We have given you many improvements without higher taxes.

I think that you need only to look around you to see the improvements we have made. Not only have we built one of the best high schools in the state but, we have closed all the one room schools in the County. Every child now has an equal chance to get an education.

Our high school curriculum is now broad enough that a student can be selective in choosing his career. We plan to complete the educational complex by adding a football field with seats and lights in the near future.

Since I have been involved in these improvements from the beginning I wish to stay on the board to see these things finished. I think that with time and finances we can have the best school system in the state. We can do this without raising your taxes.

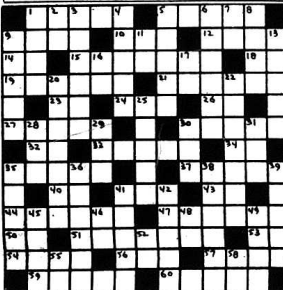

Would you please give me a chance to finish the projects we have begun?

Your vote for Kenneth Adams will be a vote for a harmonious and progressive school system.

KENNETH ADAMS

House Passes Emergency Medical Services Act

The House of Representatives recently passed the Emergency Medical Services Act of 1972, and I am pleased to have played a significant role in the passage of this important measure. If it becomes law, this act would provide new authority for the support of emergency medical services. At the present time, there is only limited Federal support for such services under existing general authorities.

The Public Health and Environment Subcommittee held extensive hearings on this matter, and I believe that we have passed a bill that will effectively promote efficient emergency care.

For too many years, most people have tended to view the ambulance as nothing more than a taxi, and skilled emergency treatment has been looked upon as a process that only begins at the emergency room entrance.

As a physician who has spent many long hours assisting accident victims in rural areas of Kentucky where adequate emergency facilities were not always immediately available, I know only too well the great need for a coordinated emergency medical services program combined with thoroughly trained personnel.

It is my feeling that this legislation would help us to establish a unified system from the present confusion. It would also clearly point out that the concept of emergency medical services is a system of treatment beginning with the initial call for help, continuing with proper treatment during the period of transportation, and including all activities taking place after the patient enters a hospital or receiving center.

This measure would provide three funding mechanisms to meet our needs: (1) planning and feasibility grants and contracts, (2) establishment and initial operation grants, and (3) expansion and improvement grants. Also, private, nonprofit groups would be permitted to make application for funds for training and equipment.

The 1972 fund-raising Victory Campaign by the Rockcastle County Arthritis Committee which ended September 30, exceeded its goal by $103,011 in contributions, according to Mrs. Charlie Hines, campaign chairman. "We never could have done it without the dozens of dedicated volunteers who did the leg-work. And we never could have done it without the warm-hearted response of the people of Rockcastle," she said.

"Speaking for the Kentucky chapter, my deepest thanks to all who helped. And speaking for myself, it's been a wonderful experience to be part of the Arthritis Victory Campaign and see our efforts carry over the top and beyond our goal."

Eighty per cent of funds contributed to the Kentucky Chapter is used for arthritis services here in Kentucky. Mrs. Hines said. The balance of funds goes to support national research and other medical programs seeking the final answer to arthritis.

"Our Victory March is over for this year," said Mrs. Hines. "But arthritis is never over for its 17 million victims, and until we find a cure, those who did not have an opportunity to contribute during the campaign may send checks to the Kentucky Chapter of The Arthritis Foundation at 1381 Burdettwood Lane, Louisville, Kentucky 40204. "We hope everyone will keep our campaign slogan in mind: arthritis can cripple you, it's a threat to everyone, and the only way to do away with it is through research to find its cause and cure."

Questions and Answers
MOUNT VERNON SIGNAL

Q. I just hired a cleaning lady to come in 3 days a week. I pay her a salary and give her a nonweekly meal on each day she works. Should I include the value of her meals as wages on her quarterly wage reports?
A. No. Only cash wages—not room, board, and meals—are reported for household workers.

Q. My husband was getting monthly retirement payments when he died. He had been supporting a friend's 18-year-old girl who was planning to adopt her. Since my husband's death, I've gone ahead with the adoption. Can my adopted daughter now get payments based on my late husband's work record?
A. Generally, if a child under 18 is legally adopted by the surviving spouse within 2 years after the worker's death, the child can get monthly checks. However, since there are certain other requirements that must be met, you should call, write, or visit any social security office for a specific answer to your question.

Brenda Holt And "Oscar"

"Oscar And Friend" Leave 'Em Chuckling

"Oscar And Friend" are an entertaining pair. After each performance, audiences are left chuckling.
Actually the billing of this act is erroneous, Oscar, a ventriloquist's dummy, has two friends, Miss Brenda and Becky Holt, daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Jack Holt of Madisonville.
Brenda found that it was fairly easy to make Oscar talk. He could even be made to sing, she found. She talked her 16-year-old sister, Becky, into accompanying Oscar on the piano.

Oscar was left over from Rev. Holt's college days and had lain forgotten all these years.
Last summer, Brenda, who is 13, was searching for some type of act for the annual 4-H show. Her mother remembered Oscar and he was dug out of storage, dusted off and put to work.
Brenda found that it was fairly easy to make Oscar talk. He could even be made to sing, she found. She talked her 16-year-old sister, Becky, into accompanying Oscar on the piano.

YOU AND THE DRAFT

How are aliens affected by the draft?
Lawfully-admitted, non-immigrants have no military obligation to the United States, and do not have to register with a local draft board of the Selective Service System. Immigrants entering the United States who have not yet reached the age of 26 are required to register within six months of their entry into the U.S. Alien medical specialists are required to register until they reach their 35th birthday.

An immigrant who has been in the U.S. for more than six months and under the age of 18 must register within 30 days before or after his birthday. Several categories of immigrants do have to register but are not liable for military service. These immigrants include, for example, those who have served 12 months or more in the army of a country with which the United States is associated in mutual defense activities.

Immigrants who do not qualify for an alien exemption are liable for induction into the U.S. military after having resided in the country for one year. Provided they do not qualify for a deferment or any other exemption, they will be part of the pool of draft-eligible men during the calendar year of their 20th birthday.

What is the Extended Priority Selection Group and how does it work?

This group was established by Executive Order in September 1970. "Extended Priority Selection Group" consists of registrants who on Dec. 31 were members of the First Priority Selection Group whose random sequence numbers had not been reached, but who had not been issued Orders to Report for Induction.

The Extended Priority Selection Group is intended to maximize equity for and among all registrants. A man is placed in this group because he is not available for induction when his number is called.

For example, the calling number for inductions for 1971 was random sequence number 125. All men who were classified I-A, were 20 years of age or older, had a number of below on Dec. 31, 1971, and who were not available for induction when their numbers were called, entered the Extended Priority Selection Group. There were approximately 115,000 men in this group.

Current Selective Service policy requires that registrants in this group stand vulnerable to induction for 90 days. Because there were no draft calls for January, February or March, all men who entered the group on January 1, 1972, placed in the Second Priority Selection Group—meaning that they will all not be drafted unless there is a national emergency. *****

Another touchdown for the Rockets is shown being scored above. The Rockets scored 18 points the first quarter in Monday night's game with KSD, led by quarterback Troy McClure. Two of the TD's came on passes to Kenny Burton. The Rockets continued to score in the second quarter and at half-time held a 40-0 lead. Coach Polly substituted freely the second half and KSD managed to get on the scoreboard.

Parents of the football players were on hand for Monday night's game with KSD. They were seated on the back of the parent's chairs corresponding to the numbers worn by their son on their football jersey.

Questions and Answers

Q. When I went to the hospital earlier this year, I had to pay $68. They told me this was my deductible. I thought I met my deductible earlier when I had some doctor bills. Now I'm really confused. Can you tell me why I had to pay the deductible twice?

A. You didn't pay the same deductible twice. There is a deductible under each of the two parts of Medicare. For the hospital part the deductible is $68 for each benefit period and for the doctor bill part the deductible is $50 a year. You had met the $50 deductible with your doctor bills, but you had not yet met the hospital insurance deductible when you went into the hospital.

Q. I became disabled a couple of months ago and want to apply for monthly disability benefits from social security. I know I can't do my regular job any more. Who will decide whether my disability will keep me from doing any other work?

A. You apply at your social security office, but doctors and vocational specialists in a State agency (usually the Vocational Rehabilitation Agency) who have had experience in seeing the effects of disabilities upon peoples' abilities to work make this decision. They study all the facts you have submitted, the medical reports, and information about your training, skills, and education.

Q. A couple of months ago I had my third heart attack and my doctor isn't sure I'll ever be able to go back to work. If I apply for monthly social security payments, how will social security determine if my condition is severe enough to keep me from working?

A. The medical report from your doctor will show the severity of your condition—to what degree you are unable to do such things as move about, handle things, hear, speak, etc. The medical evidence, together with other information about you—the kind of work you have done in the past, your education, your training, and other abilities is the basis on which a decision can be made as to whether your condition prevents you from doing any "substantial gainful" work.

Board Of Education Will Sell Cove And Victory School Buildings

The Rockcastle County Board of Education decided, at last Thursday night's meeting, to sell the Cove School Building at Public Auction on Saturday, October 28 at 10 a.m. The Victory School Building will be sold the same day at 2 p.m. with Estle Bullock acting as auctioneer for both properties.

The Board also turned down a request by Concrete Products, Inc. to release them (Concrete Products) of any further responsibility for the roof on the vocational school. Concrete Products finished the decking on the school roof and the roof later had to be replaced with Concrete Products shingles in the cost. However, the Board saw no reason to release them from further claims and therefore denied the request.

The Board did authorize the rental of Maple Grove, Sand Springs, Livingston and Brodhead School to the KIPP program and approved the cost of necessary improvements to bring these buildings up to standard. The Board also decided to allow some responsible person to move a house trailer onto the grounds of Maple Grove School (rent free) to help deter vandalism.

In other business, the Board approved and signed a contract for a fire hydrant at Roundstone School at an initial cost of $325 and $50 per year fee.

Approved the advertisement and accepting of bids for practice goals for the high school gymnasium and steam tables for the cafeteria; approved a contract to put water in Roundstone School; approved the book-up of Brodhead School to sewer line; approved the rental of truck service (for school bus garage) from Edd Reynolds at $30 per month; approved the employment of Brenda Stringer as replacement teacher at Mt. Vernon Elementary School; settled a $2500 claim from Marx Construction Company for rock removal at the Vocational School for $800 (including lawyers' fees); approved the sale of a trailer at Maple Grove School by sealed bids; approved a two month leave-of-absence for Harrison Holmes, bus driver and approved ten

Executive Vice President Jess F. Bullock looks over the damage done by fire in a lightning fixture ballast at the Bank of Mt. Vernon last Friday afternoon. Mr. Bullock estimated the damage at $1,000. After the first call, city firemen had to return to the scene to extinguish another blaze-up in the same location.

These Mt. Vernon residents seemed perturbed that perhaps their money was going up in flames at last Friday afternoon slight fire at the Bank of Mt. Vernon. However, there was no danger of that as the fire was contained in the ceiling of the bank.

JOHN NICHOLS'

Frankfort Watchline

When a football team has its back to the goal line, then gets the ball and begins churning forward—say to the 15-yard-line—the natural tendency is for the players to talk it up among themselves.

So it appears with the Kentucky Democrats. In the past week we've been hearing that they're on the move, that "this thing is beginning to turn around" and similar reports.

Well, undoubtedly. There was no place to go but up compared with a few weeks ago. However, we venture to say that the difference—to this point—is not near enough to save this state's nine electoral votes for Democratic presidential nominee George McGovern.

As McGovern becomes better known and understood, he will lure back the nervous Democrats who viewed him as a wild man or radical. But to overcome the Nixon-oriented electorate—at least based on historical trends—seems a long way from our bird's eye view.

Some Republicans have made wild estimates of a 200,000-vote majority for the president in Kentucky. Nonsense. They've probably changed their minds by now.

But does it matter much to the McGovern camp if the margin is 150,000 or 75,000?

Yes, for morale purposes. And, more to the home point, it sure does matter to Dee Huddleston, the party's nominee for U.S. Senate who is trying to overcome Republican Louie B. Nunn, Nixon costall and all.

There is a feeling among a few Democratic tacticians that if Niven's margin can be kept within bounds—say 50,000 votes—Huddleston can round up enough regular Democrats to upset the predictions of most observers and become the first Democrat to win a Senate post since the mid 1950s.

We must acknowledge that the reception for Mrs. McGovern last week—she is an attractive, petite, smart lady—gave cause for Democratic optimism.

The crowd of 500 or more at a motel near the airport was not only bigger than expected but also more important was a good cross-section, as former Gov. Bert Combs noted.

True, some of the Democratic hierarchy skipped the event. But not Gov. Wendell Ford or state chairman J.R. Miller or Huddleston.

Oh, well, there are three more weeks left.

AMATEUR HOUR—There is little doubt the McGovern campaign in Kentucky is run mainly by amateurs, which is both good and bad.

Good, because they exude enthusiasm and they work. Bad, because they blunder often.

For example, Mrs. McGovern's arrival at Louisville was mistakenly corrected to one hour later, but she landed at the airport promptly on schedule.

However, the two largest television stations were under the impression the later time was correct and so the McGovern people missed some excellent prime TV coverage.

What happened? Well, someone forgot that the central time zone, from which Mrs. McGovern flew into Louisville, is different than the eastern time zone in Louisville.

WENDELL WHO?—Gov. Ford probably is used to this sort of thing, but again he was introduced at a gathering—this time a Kentucky Council of Cooperatives breakfast—as Wendell Som-body-Else.

The speaker, quite apologetic, of course, tried to recover by noting there were four Wendells of some prominence on hand—and introducing them with their correct last names.

IT'S ONLY MONEY—It seems the news media belatedly caught on to the fact that Louie Nunn had filed his statement of financial worth with the Kentucky Registry of Elections at Louisville.

When a newsman checked with Larry VanHoose, his press aide, and happened to mention the subject, Van Hoose told him and others to wake up—that Nunn had said several times that he had filed the statement and no one had followed up.

True, true, as it turns out. But why didn't the candidate make an announcement? And as one was quipped:

"Filing it with the registry is like filing it with the Smithsonian Institution."

WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW—We must take note of the fact that a handful of state employees kept working in three buildings at Frankfort, not knowing the other day about reports that bombs were about to go off. They survived.

Also, Agriculture Commissioner Wendell Butler was telephoned and told to clear out of the annex quickly. But his office now is in the Capitol Plaza tower. No sweat—the bomb threat also applied to the Plaza.

There are 6,745 hospitals participating in the Medicare program.

by: perlina m. anderskin

Well, there was a little excitement in town last Friday afternoon when city firemen answered a fire call to the Bank of Mt. Vernon. Now don't get nervous you out-of-towners, it was only a ballast or a light fixture. My husband got a picture of customers of the bank peering nervously inside and he suggested a caption of "Are you Burning my money?" Personally, my first thought when I heard the news was, "I wonder if there's any chance the fire got my notes." The money was no worry to me the few coins I have there wouldn't burn anyway.

Mrs. Virginia S. Bray mentioned something last week that I hadn't thought much about until it was brought to my attention and that is the migration of birds in Mt. Vernon this summer. After she mentioned it, I realized that they aren't here as much as they used to be. No, I do remember the time I washed our car (yes, I did once or twice this summer believe it or not) and it didn't get bombed as usual. Maybe some of you bird experts in the county have some idea of where they are all...

Well, it's do or die for the Cincinnati Reds today and their final game would be played on Wednesday when I am chained to this place until my "lucky, little yellow sheet" (as some of my "friends" call it) is out. Of course, it's no world shattering event if the team makes it to the World Series but after following them all year long I'd love to see them make it. You know I can't get as wrapped up in football as I do baseball and I think it's because in football you never see the players' face so therefore the rest aren't as familiar to you as baseball players are. Anyway, by the time you read this it will be history and if they don't make it, I imagine I'll survive.

There is something I have been wondering about for some time now and I think some of you readers out there could probably give me the answer or maybe you all take it for granted and have never thought about it. Anyway, I have been wondering how some of our outlying areas around Mt. Vernon got their name. I'm sure there is some story connected with how Crooked Creek, was named or Three Links, or Brattle Ridge, or Brush Creek, etc. I'm curious and also think it would make interesting reading so if you know, call me or drop me a line and tell me about it and I'll pass it on...

The bill now goes to a House Senate Conference where the two versions of legislation will be resolved.

Miss Bullen Will Receive Honor From NAEHE

Miss Reba Kathryn Bullen, in recognition of her outstanding service as an Extension home economics agent in eastern Kentucky, will receive national recognition in Denver, Colorado, this week during the National Association of Extension Home Economists (NAEHE) annual meeting.

Miss Bullen, along with two other Kentucky Extension workers, will receive NAEHE's Distinguished Service Award at a Recognition Breakfast, Oct. 15. The other recipients are Mrs. Gertrude Paprota, Kenton County, and Mrs. Nanette Belle Huffman, Harlan County.

A native of Wilde, Miss Bullen has been Boyd County Extension agent for home economics for the past three years. Her 17 years of Extension work includes service in Jackson, Lawrence and Pike Counties, and as an Extension Rural Development Program specialist. A graduate of Western Kentucky State University, she holds a Masters degree in home management from Cincinnati State University.

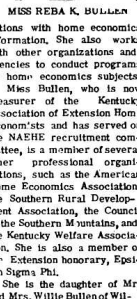

During Miss Bullen's service in Boyd County as the Home Makers organization there has grown to 31 clubs with a total of 550 members and, this past year, nearly 6,000 people were reached through the Extension home economics program. She has emphasized development of local leadership and use of mass media to reach more families with home economics information.

She has supervised nine Extension assistants in the Expanded Foods and Nutrition Program. These assistants, under her leadership, have made special efforts to help families become self-supporting and to work with them in such areas as family economics, nutrition, and human relations. Miss Bullen also works closely with the county 4-H program.

She has initiated several new programs, such as Home Economics Special Workshops open to the public, to reach Boyd County residents who are not members of Extension organizations with home economics information. She also works with other organizations and agencies to conduct programs on home economics subjects.

Miss Bullen, who is now treasurer of the Kentucky Association of Extension Home Economists and has served on the NAEHE recruitment committee, is a member of several other professional organizations, such as the American Home Economics Association, the Southern Rural Development Association, the Council of the Southern Mountains, and the Kentucky Welfare Association. She is also a member of the Extension Home Economics Division, Extension Sigma Phi.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bullen of Wilde.

SS QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q. I have two small seasonal businesses. My net profit from each averages under $400 yearly. Can I combine the net profits and get social security credit for this work?

A. Yes. Self-employed people with more than one business during the year must combine the net profits. If the total net profit is $400 or more, it counts for social security.

Q. I own and operate a farm. My 16-year-old son is working on a 4-H project. He will earn about $800 from the project this year. Is he considered self-employed by social security?

A. Yes. If your son is carrying out his 4-H activity by himself, he is self-employed. Since his net earnings will be over $400 for the year, he must file an income tax return and pay the social security self-employment contribution regardless of his age.

People Underestimate Social Security Payment

People tend to underestimate the monthly benefits social security can pay. According to a recent survey, only one person in 25 gave the correct answer to this question:

"Let's take a man 35 years old, with a wife and two young children and average earnings of about $500 a month. If he became disabled and couldn't work any more, about how much do you think he and his family would get from social security? Or if he died, how much do you think his wife and children would get? (Just a rough guess.)"

The question was put to a sampling of people 18 and over across the Nation. The correct answer is about $500 a month, according to social security officials here.

"But three out of four people guessed the social security payments would be $350 a month or less," a spokesman said. "More than half guessed $250 or less. One out of four guessed $150 or less." Social security pays monthly disability benefits to eligible workers and their families if the worker is severely disabled and cannot work for a year or more. Survivors benefits are payable to certain family members if the worker dies. A worker's benefit amount is based on his average earnings covered by social security over a period of years. "If a worker's earnings becomes disabled in 1972," the spokesman said, "he and his family could be eligible for disability payments if he had worked in jobs covered by social security for 5 of the 10 years before he became disabled."

If the worker died, the spokesman said, his wife and children could start getting payments from social security if he had worked 14 years during the 3 years before he died in work covered by social security.

"A woman who works is building similar protection for herself and her family," he said.

Monthly cash social security benefits depend on the earnings credited to a worker's record.

LOUIE NUNN!!! WHAT LEADING REPUBLICANS REALLY SAY ABOUT HIM!

Because we're in a Presidential Election year a great deal of pressure will be brought upon Republican party office holders and officials alike to support the entire ticket. A sense of loyalty to the President will cause many Republicans to go along for the good of the party. What is important, however, is what these people really think about Louie Nunn and what they say about him when the pressure of Presidential politics is off.

Senator JOHN SHERMAN COOPER:

"Louie Nunn's campaign has had the purpose and effect of stirring up religious and racial prejudices."

"Whatever the immediate advantage might be, such a practice is contrary to our free system of government for all its citizens and damages the good name and honor of the Republican Party, the Commonwealth of Kentucky and its great people."

Senator MARLOW COOK:

"After spending an entire campaign attacking me, Jefferson County, and our entire Republican Organization, Louie Nunn now finds it necessary to attack our Senior Senator the Honorable John Sherman Cooper. The idea that he would cause Senator Cooper of conspiring to enter into a deal is so revolutive that an answer would on its face be ridiculous."

Congressman TIM LEE CARTER:

"The ugly ideas of racism, religious bigotry and mud slinging are being exploited throughout the 5th Congressional District and the State of Kentucky. I have seen Mr. Nunn attempt to exploit these issues and I saw him lose all minority groups as a result." Congressman Carter also said he suspected the Nunn forces of "disseminating hate literature."

Lt. Gubernatorial Candidate THOMAS RATLIFF:

"I publicly apologize to the people of Kentucky for running on the same ticket with Louie B. Nunn."

G.O.P. Candidate for Graves County ED ROGERS:

"Nunn's program has reversed the legend of Robin Hood to rob the poor and subsidize the rich."

Don't be misled by Presidential politics. ELECT DEE HUDDLESTON UNITED STATES SENATOR
