GOOD EATING!

It doesn't take long each year for 500 pounds of poke to move from the kettle, left, to the appetizing plate, center and then into the mouths of hungry people such as 18-month-old James Forrester, II. The occasion is the poke salt festival at Harlan. In addition to the poke greens there are corn muffins, hard-boiled eggs, green onions, and slab bacon fried crisp. It's typical of Kentucky's festivals where people get-together, eat, listen to good music and just visit.

Kentucky Afield

By Hope Carlson
Dept. of Fish and Wildlife

Squirrel hunting is a tradition among Kentuckians that dates back to the time when Daniel Boone was credited with being able to "bark" one off a limb with his trusty "Zottock" rifle. And it's still the No. 1 choice for Kentucky hunters.

The annual harvest of this cunning and challenging animal exceeds two million and indications are the 1973 season should be another good one.

Harold Barber, chief forest game biologist for the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, says that studies and observations show a good production of mast (mature nuts and seeds) in 1972 - which afforded an ample food supply for the squirrels during the critical winter season. This allowed a healthy population of squirrels for the annual reproduction. (Squirrels produce several litters throughout the year with the two major reproducing cycles being in late winter and early fall.)

So, there should be plenty of squirrels available when the first portion of the split season opens August 18. (The first part continues through October 31 and reopens November 15 to continue through December 31. The daily limit is six, the possession limit 12).

Barber pointed out that during the first two or three weeks of the season hunters often find fewer squirrels than they expect. This is due, he said, to the fact that squirrels are scattered at that time and don't concentrate in a given area until the mast has ripened.

It doesn't indicate a low squirrel population, as some hunters think, Barber added.

There are several hunting techniques for harvesting squirrels. Some hunters choose to establish themselves in a given spot in the woods and wait for the squirrels to walk about. Others like to move, look, stop and listen for squirrels. Both methods are good and in the course of a season will produce good results.

Another very effective method is used during the latter part of the season when the trees are bare of leaves. This technique calls for the use of "squirrel" dogs and this combination of man and dog is one of the most challenging ways to hunt squirrels.

With opening day only weeks away, now's the time to scout your territory, get the landowner's permission and check out that trusty weapon. And don't forget your hunting license.

Over 3 Million Get Disability Payments; Social Security Program Starts 16th Year

Over 3 million disabled workers and their families are getting monthly social security payments as the social security disability program begins its 16th year this month, according to social security officials here.

When social security disability payments were first paid in July 1957, only disabled workers between 50 and 65 were eligible for payments.

"Today, severely disabled workers of any age under 65 and certain members of their families can get disability payments," a social security spokesman said. "And starting this month, disabled people who have been entitled to social security payments for 2 years or more can get Medicare protection," he said.

To be eligible for social security disability payments, a worker must be severely disabled and unable to work for a year or more. Payment begins for the 6th month of disability.

Generally, a worker who becomes disabled in 1973 must have worked in employment covered under social security for at least 5 1/2 years—and 5 years of the work must have been during the year.

"Young workers, however, may be eligible for disability payments with as little as 1 1/2 years of covered work, depending on their age and when they become disabled," the spokesman said.

A worker between the age of 24 and 31 needs credit for having worked under social security half the period between the time he became 21 and the time he became disabled," he explained. "Before age 24, the worker needs credit for 1 1/2 years of work in the 3-year period before his disability began."

When a worker applies for disability payments, he submits medical evidence to establish his disability. Then, physicians and other disability experts in a State agency—usually the State's vocational rehabilitation agency—decide whether the worker is disabled under the social security law.

"In most cases," the spokesman said, "the State agency can make the determination on the basis of medical evidence from the applicant's own physician. If additional evidence is needed, further medical

In selected cases, social security helps pay for vocational rehabilitation services, he said. Rehabilitation can include job training, physical therapy, and similar services.

Nearly 2 million disabled workers get monthly checks averaging $179 and about 1.7 million social security beneficiaries will get Medicare coverage starting July 1, the spokesman said.

CRIME COMMISSION RECEIVES FUNDS

FRANKFORT, Ky.—Gov. Wendell Ford announced today that the Kentucky Crime Commission has received an additional $1,938,000 in anti-crime funds from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the United States Department of Justice.

Ford said the newly-acquired funds will enable Kentucky's Department of Corrections to implement several progressive and long-needed programs. Two state correctional institutions at Paducah and LaGrange will be among the major beneficiaries, where money has been earmarked for:

- Expanded industrial and work programs;
- Renovation of existing facilities;
- Improved educational programs and facilities;

-And increased security.

In addition, $95,000 was allocated to establish a five-year master plan, making it possible for the Crime Commission, Department of Corrections, and the recently appointed Legislative Correctional Facilities Review Commission to work together in producing priorities and directions for corrections in Kentucky during the coming years.

Ford said the grant was a "pleasant, though not entirely unexpected, surprise."

"These funds were made available to Kentucky after other states and cities throughout the country were unable to use them within federal time deadlines," the Governor continued. "We stayed on top of the situation and let the Justice Department know we were interested if the additional money did become available."

Combined with $500,000 the state received two weeks ago, the Crime Commission gained more than $2,083,000 in funds for crime control projects during the last 15 days of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973.

William Gant, commonwealth attorney in Owensboro and vice-chairman of the Crime Commission, said the award of the new funds is a "major coup for the Crime Commission. It shows that Kentucky is recognized by the Department of Justice as a state both willing and able to take new initiatives in the fight against crime."

The Court also approved a motion to borrow $30,000 from the Bank of Mt. Vernon for operating expenses and authorized County Judge Charles Carter to sign the note which will be repaid from tax collections in November.

There was also a meeting of Fiscal Court on June 30 to wind up the 1972-73 fiscal year. At the meeting, the Court approved the closing of a segment of the old Mt. Vernon-Somerset Road. The portion closed is as follows: "Beginning at the north corner of the yard of Robert Gentry and proceeding north 1275 feet to the right of way of Mrs. Leonard (Janie) McKinney."

On Saturday, the Court also set up $4,000 for each district for road work by the Magistrates for fiscal year 1973-74.

LOCAL FARM OFFICIAL EXPLAINS EXPORT POLICY
 During the twelve months ending in September, exports of soybeans, cottonseed, and related products will be larger than exports for the corresponding period last year despite the licensing system that has now replaced a June 27 embargo, reports our local farm program official. However, these shipments will not be as large as they might otherwise have been, in order to protect feed supplies needed by American livestock producers and their consumer-customers.

"We simply couldn't meet this year's sudden jump in foreign demand with old-crop soybeans and meal," says Homer Hale, Chairman of the Rockcastle County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee. "Therefore, it has become necessary to allocate available supplies."

Mr. Hale quoted U. S. Department of Agriculture authorities, who point out that even with the embargo and subsequent export licensing system this country expects to ship overseas a record 491-million bushels of soybeans this year - some 67 million bushels more than the previous record set in 1970.

"At the same time, we will now retain sufficient supplies of old-crop beans to meet domestic needs thus providing for our livestock producers and, ultimately, consumers," Mr. Hale said.

After considering domestic requirements, the Government determined that approximately 33 million bushels of soybeans and 750,000 short tons of soybean oil-cake and meal are available for export. Hale explained. This represents 50 percent of the outstanding contracts for soybean exports for the remainder of the season and 40 percent of the reported unshipped contracts for cake and meal.

Therefore, the Federal Government has established an export licensing system under which each contract for soybean exports will be reduced to 50 percent of the unfiled quantity. Each contract for soybean meal-oil-cake will be reduced to 40 percent of the unfiled quantity. Licenses for cottonseed and cottonseed meal and oil-cake will be issued for the full quantity of the unshipped balanced balance of contracts that were in force on June 13, 1973, because supplies are adequate to meet these exports and still fill domestic needs.

The Department of Agriculture estimates that this system will allow for a 145-million-bushel crush and a 40-million-bushel carry-in of beans this fall.

Mr. Hale said, thus protecting livestock producers and consumers - from possible shortages of food and feed.

"Our first responsibility is to our own citizens even though we want to keep the export markets that we have built up so carefully," Hale said.

A number of unrelated and unpredictable events have occurred together around the world, resulting in the current global shortage of protein meal, the ASC Chairman said. These include harvesting problems in the U. S., crop failures and droughts last year in Russia, India, Australia and South Africa.

Failure of the Peruvian fishmeal industry the past two seasons, the continuing growth in world demand for livestock products and U. S. dollar devaluations that have made this country's commodities more attractive to foreign buyers.

A Consumer Trio from the Extension Specialists at the UK College of Agriculture Use small servings of meat, poultry or fish and rely on more economical food— potatoes, rice, macaroni products, or breads— to fill in meals. This suggestion comes from Extension foods specialists at the University of Kentucky.

School Board Approves More Parking at RCHS

There will be additional parking for basketball fans at Rockcastle County High School this fall. The Rockcastle County Board of Education voted at its regular monthly meeting July 2 to purchase 1.2 acres of land from Joel C. Gentry located adjacent to the present parking lot at the school. The cost of the land was $2,400. The Board then approved a motion to grade and gravel an additional two acres of parking lot, giving visitors to the school a total of 3 1/2 acres of parking.

The Board also voted to share in the cost of resurfacing the outside basketball court at Mt. Vernon Elementary School. John Bullock, representing the Mt. Vernon Recreation Council, asked the Board to share one-half of the $320 cost of the project.

In other business, the Board approved a $5 per month pay raise for regular bus drivers and a $200 annual raise for Paul Owens and Ed Reynolds, hired Quentin Cummins as custodian for Mt. Vernon Elementary School at a salary of $300 per month, approved a two-month leave of absence for Mrs. Claudina Cash beginning August 24 of this year, approved the authorization and preparation of an application for $410,100 in funds for fiscal year 1973-74 and authorized the application for funds to operate an adult education program at Broadway, Blue Springs and possibly Mt. Vernon Elementary and to employ Vera Stott and Catherine Graves as teachers.

The Board also authorized a contract as recommended by electrical engineers for night setback controls on the heating/cooling system at Rockcastle County High School. The controls are being placed on the system in an effort to reduce the consumption of electricity while the school is in operation. The contract cost of the project is $1,000.

School Budget

The general budget of the Rockcastle County School system, recently compiled by the school superintendent's office, estimates that expenditures for the 1973-74 school year will be

Blue Grass Festival Is This Week-End

The third annual Blue Grass Festival and Old Time Fiddlers Convention will be combined this year and will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 13, 14, and 15 in Renfro Valley.

Mac Wiseman, nationally known Bluegrass music singer, will again headline the attractions and is also the man responsible for organizing and bringing the festival to the Valley.

Talent line-up for the festival includes such greats as

The largest expenditure in the budget is $1,165,000 which has been allocated for instruction in the form of salaries for principals, supervisors, regular classroom teachers, clerical staff, etc.

Set aside for administration (salaries, office supplies, miscellaneous expenses in connection with operation of the office of the school superintendent) is $39,000. Included in this category are those of the office of school superintendent, secretaries, finance officer and secretary to the board.

Both instruction and administrative allocations are the same as for the fiscal year.

Pupil transportation is up $10,000 over last year's figure of $200,000. This amount includes the cost of salaries and other employees in the transportation system, plus fuel, repair parts, insurance and bus replacement.

Operation of the school plants, including custodial services, utilities, contractual services, salaries of bus drivers and other employees in the transportation system, plus fuel, repair parts, insurance and bus replacement, has been set at $125,000 (as compared to last year's figure of $106,500); while maintenance of the plants and grounds, repairs and replacements, has been fixed at $300,000.

Attendance services, made up of salaries of the director of pupil personnel, school social worker, secretarial and clerical and travel expenses, has been allotted $13,694 (same amount as last year).

Fixed charges will amount to $40,912.75. This category includes social security payments, insurances, fidelity bonds, employee insurance and rentals.

Capital outlay for the year will amount to $25,000 (as compared to $65,000 last year) and debt service will amount to $200,000.

Grand total of all estimated receipts for the 1973-74 school year coincides with the expenditure budget of $1,838,606.75 with balance expected from the following sources:

Balance on hand, $117,816.14; general taxes, $149,495.21; franchise taxes, $33,330.11; bank shares, $3,540.76; and poll tax, $4,800. These receipts from local sources will be reduced by $12,000.00 by the following deductions: cost of tax collection, $7,500; exonerations, $4,500.

Deputy Sheriff Marshall Shepherd, far left, watches as workmen clean up the debris from a truck which wrecked on Interstate 75 Wednesday night near Brantley Ridge. The truck, driven by Ernest Wolfe, 58, of Van Wert, Ohio, was loaded with cheese. Mr. Wolfe died shortly after the accident of a crushed chest, according to Coroner Bill Dowell. Police reports say Mr. Wolfe apparently fell asleep while traveling south on the interstate. His truck crossed the median into the northbound lane, went through a guardrail and over an embankment. Mr. Wolfe is Rockcastle County's third traffic fatality of the year.

Robert Ball Charged In Martin Slaying

Robert Ball, of Orlando, Fla., has been charged with Willful Murder in connection with the slaying of Freddie Martin, 30, of Horsebess Bend, last Thursday in a wooded area of Brush Creek.

According to Sheriff Billy Kirby, Martin was shot twice in the head with a .22 automatic rifle and died shortly after 3:00 P.M. in a Lexington hospital.

BURGESS HYSINGER

Burgess Hysinger, 78, of Mt. Vernon, passed away Tuesday, July 10 at the Rockcastle County Hospital after a long illness. He was born in Rockcastle County on December 20, 1894, the son of the late David Hysinger and Rebecca Owens Hysinger, and was a member of the Rose Hill Christian Church where he had been a deacon and superintendent for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Pearl Hysinger of Mt. Vernon; two sons, Ray of Dayton, Ohio and Lee Earl, of Mt. Vernon; two brothers, Wade Hysinger of Mt. Vernon and Roscoe of Brodhead; two grandchildren, Mrs. Francis Fry of Mt. Vernon and Jimmy Hysinger of West Chester, Ohio; three great-grandchildren, Ricky and Carmen Fry of Mt. Vernon and Jeffery Hysinger of West Chester, Ohio and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mr. Hysinger will be conducted Tuesday, July 12 (today) at the Dowell and Martin Funeral Home at 2:00 p.m. with Bro. Ronald Sams and Bro. Bill Coffey officiating. Burial will follow in the Rose Hill Cemetery.

A STATEMENT BY CLESTON SAYLOR:

As principal of Rockcastle County High School, I wish to explain to the public just how and why a $3,000 check was cashed on May 29, 1973.

Using the same procedure as in past years, I authorized a check on the school book fund to be cashed to secure money to purchase textbooks from the students and to make locker refunds to students.

Being a large school, it took a sizeable sum of money to make these transactions. The $3,000 was disbursed as follows: $2,072.00 - textbooks, $563.00 - student locker refunds and an unused balance of $365.00 was redeposited in the bank.

Records are on file at the school as proof that this money was properly used.

This transaction was handled by my high school staff and me. The superintendent and school board had nothing to do with this matter and were not knowledgeable that we had cashed the check.

My two assistant principals, Mr. Cornelius and Mr. Towery, helped me with textbook purchases and locker fee returns. The entire teaching staff and student body at the high school know that we bought books and made locker refunds on this date.

We three (3) undersigned administrators attest that the above facts and figures are true.

Court Sets Tax Levy At 19.5c for 1973-74

The Rockcastle County Fiscal Court, at its July-called meeting, set the tax levy for 1973-74 at 19.5c, per $100 assessment for real estate and tangible personal property, which is the same as last year's levy.

The levy breaks down as follows: County general fund, 13.7c per $100 assessment for all property subject to taxation except bank shares, Health Department, 2.8c; Library Fund, 1.5c; Agriculture Department, 1.7c and Soil Conservation, .25c. The franchise rate was set at the same level of 19.5c and also broken down as in the general fund.

The school rate was upped from 36.7c to 38c per $100 of assessment and a poll tax of $2.00 for school purposes only was set.

The state taxation rate remains the same at 1.5c per $100 assessment on real property; 15.0c per $100 assessment on tangible property and 25.0c per $100 per assessment on intangible property.

A 3c per acre (forest land) tax was also levied on all privately owned forest land in Rockcastle County for purposes of forest fire protection. The money collected from this tax is paid to the Kentucky State Treasurer for fire protection by the Kentucky State Division of Forestry Service in Rockcastle County.

Also during the meeting, the Court approved a resolution concerning the closing of a county road through what is known as the Old Owens property, just south of the southern quadrangle of Interstate 75 and U.S. 25 in Rockcastle County. The Court also appointed David Bales to serve as temporary road supervisor without compensation. The Court also appointed Frank DeBorde

Sam Jones Appointed Title III Director

Sam P. Jones of Somerset has been appointed director of Region V, ESEA Title III Educational Programs. The program is made up of eleven counties, encompassing fifteen school districts surrounding Somerset. Title III operates non-federal funds under the Elementary Secondary Education Act of 1965, and its projects are planned to bring about improvement in educational programs through innovations and model exemplary projects.

The current Region V project is in the process of planning and putting into operation two new components for this area. One is to develop a model early childhood curriculum for preschool children to better prepare them to enter the first grade. The other is the development and implementation of environmental education in three pilot schools in the region. Rockcastle County High was selected as the pilot high school for the region.

Mr. Jones was selected as the program's director due to the retirement of George A.

Cordell, who had served as director for the past seven years. Mr. Jones had previously served as an elementary and high school teacher and as an elementary principal in Rockcastle County. For the past seven years he has served as Supervisor and Evaluation Coordinator in the Region's Title III programs.

He has thirty-one years service as an educator and earned his B.S. and M.A. degrees and the Educational Leadership Certificate from Eastern Kentucky University.

Section of 934 to Be Closed for Period

District Highway Engineer, E. V. Hilton, today announced that a 2.9 mile section of Ky. 934, from Jct. of Ky. 461 to Jct. of Ky. 935, will be closed, except to local traffic, from July 18, 1973 to approximately August 10, 1973.

This road closure is due to bridge deck repairs being made on the bridge over Brush Creek, 0.7 miles West of Ky. 461. The bridge will be closed to all traffic.

Eastbound traffic on Ky. 934 will be detoured over Elrod Road to Ky. 461. Westbound traffic will be detoured over Ky. 461 and Elrod Road. (See map below.)

This road is located in the Northeastern section of Pulaski County near the Rockcastle County line.

The successful low bidder on this project was All-Points Construction Company of Lexington.

The amount of the contract to be executed is $20,847.80.

AGRICULTURAL LOANS AVAILABLE TO STUDENTS

F R A N K F O R T, Ky., Commissioner of Agriculture, Wendell Butler, recently announced the regulations under which more than $300,000 will be made available to the form educational loans to eligible applicants.

The money is being provided by the Kentucky Rural Rehabilitation Fund Student Loan Program.

Survivors besides his parents are one brother, Bentley Martin of Route 2, Mt. Vernon, three half brothers, Jack Martin of Hamilton, Ohio, Johnny and Earl Cornett, both of Mt. Vernon, four half sisters, Mrs. Mary Likes of Louisville, Mrs. Beatrice Polson of Somerset, Mrs. Alice Burton of Erlanger, and Mrs. Sylvia Martin of Indian.

Services were held at 1:00 P.M. Saturday, July 7 at the Cox Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Harvey Penol officiating. Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

The inked in portion of the above map shows the detour which will be used while Ky. 934 is closed for a short period.

Frankfort Watchline

The matter of how the Kentucky Democrats raised $850,000 so quickly in an amazing fund campaign may be with us for some time.

If it dies for awhile, you can be sure the Republicans will bring it up again conveniently — that is during some election in which they need to make hay.

But perhaps the first thing to remember in touching bases on this issue is that the GOP is far from clean as a hound's tooth. In fact, as Democratic chairman J. R. Miller correctly pointed out, the Louis E. Nunn appreciation dinner of several years ago was held, and profitably, with not nearly the news media fanfare that accompanied this latest Demo fund drive.

We happen to remember Gov. Nunn's little ole dinner. We recall a vagueness by his friends and party colleagues that was most frustrating. As we recall the general defense: "It's nobody's business what's done with the money raised from this sentimental affair."

With that as our preamble, let's go to the astonishing Democratic achievement. All that money in a matter of weeks! Golly! Well, as you may have heard, perhaps half of it can't be traced with any accuracy. In short, who knows who contributed how much of about 400 grand?

Miller held a press conference and invited reporters — some, not all — to check the printout of the campaign and to ask county chairman about the details. And he scolded us for not having covered this thing while it was underway.

Well, a number of county chairmen were contacted and they don't seem to remember much about how the money was gathered.

We'll not list the bad memories and ignorance of what seems to have taken place. Let's just say a huge question is raised about the sources of the funds and it doesn't help the Democratic Party's image at a time when Watergate clouds the land.

As for Miller, Well, J. R. seems to have a thing about the press, a feeling that it's society's tool of persecution and that it's not wielded with the proper responsibility. This didn't just crop up from the fund raising matter. We remember a few years ago when Miller told the Kentucky Press Association he ought to change its ways and stunned its members with the admonishment that they ought to consult an administration before writing critical stories.

We think he's sincere. And we believe he honestly feels put upon unnecessarily. We gather he wants to cooperate with news media to the extent possible for a man of his position.

But we're also afraid that Miller doesn't entirely grasp the function of the press or realize that it can never — and should never — become a partner in government. But that's another story.

What we have on the state level now is perhaps a thin skin that sturdy Ford Administration armor in the wake of the fund-raising issue.

Not that Kentuckians are terribly excited or indignant about the points we've discussed here. Rather, they're weary of hoping that at least one governor, one administration, one party is going to tell the truth on issues about which the public has a need to know.

This, in our view, is the real damage. Not an adverse reaction to this administration so much as a tired indifference to the political system.

Help From Above — Governor Ford was recalling the other day about a preacher who seemed to have a great deal of success at getting the Lord to hold back the rain clouds at important outdoors occasions.

Actually it was Parks Commissioner Ewart Johnson who remembered a minister whose prayers for better weather at a recent ground-breaking occasion or "dime" such were actually answered. The moment he asked for the rain to stop, it stopped.

Well, far be it from Johnson, a good Catholic, to delve into the whys and wherefores of a Protestant preacher's good luck with the heavens.

But Governor Ford, trading where the angels sometimes fear, picked up on the story when it came his turn to talk. He had a simple explanation for the whole thing.

Ford, a Baptist, explained that the minister who got the rains to quit, was a Methodist. "And you know these Methodists," he reminded, "they require very little water."

News and Views From Rockcastle Co. Library

Let's talk about overdue library books... It's a sad commentary that one of the most workable systems of honor in this country is being abused by more than a few.

Do you realize that the overdue book you have may be just the one someone is waiting to read?

The books you have are needed in the library so that they may be enjoyed by someone else.

Look around your own house and cars for books and records that don't belong to you and install in your children a feeling of integrity for something they've borrowed.

Your books may be dropped in our deposit box outside the library door.

Like the water? Below is a list of books which may be of some interest to you.

America's Favorite Fishing by E. P. Rice - A complete and comprehensive guide to America's favorite form of angling.

Basic Scuba, by F. M. Roberts - This book is profusely illustrated to assist you in understanding every phase and detail of this sport.

The Complete Beginner's Guide to Skin Diving, by S. Frey.

Complete Guide to Fishing Across North America, by J. W. Brooks - Comprehensive in scope and rich in detail, the author reveals where to find the most exciting fishing.

Competition Swimming, by C. Lakin - The training way to championship.

The Diver's World, by E. Burke - An easy way to learn the underwater field, designed for the beginning diver.

Instant Water Skiing, by R. Hester - An easy way to learn the fastest growing water sport in America.

1001 Fishing Tips and Tricks, by V. Eschoff - Fully illustrated, the book offers a distillation of years of experience.

Sailing and Racing Catamarans, by E. F. Cotter - This has become the most exciting innovation the boating world has experienced in the post-war era.

Sailing for Beginners, by M. H. Farnham - Everything you need to know to sail a small boat safely under conditions.

The Science of Swimming, by J. E. Counsilman.

Below are listed some "Fun for Land Lovers" books.

Baseball Lingo, by Z. Hollander - An informal dictionary of the colorful and baffling language of the national game.

Campground Guide 1967-1968, by R. O. Klotz - Public campgrounds throughout the United States and Canada for tent and trailer tourists.

Complete Book of Family Bowling, by G. Sullivan - An invaluable manual for bowlers of every age and degree of skill.

The Complete Guide to Softball, by G. Sullivan.

Family Fun Outdoors, by R. P. MacFall - Activities to which all family members bring enthusiasm and interest rather than elaborate, expensive equipment.

The Master Key to Success at Golf by L. King - Leslie King gives you a positive method for improving all your shots from driving to putting.

My 55 Ways to Lower Your Golf Score, by J. Nicklaus

Orienteering, by J. Disley - All aspects of this New-To-America, practically no-cost sport are simply stated.

Questions and Answers

Q. I understand a retired worker getting social security checks can now earn $2,100 in a year without losing any of his monthly benefits. Was any change made in the number of hours a retired, self-employed person can work in a month?

Celebrates First Birthday - Eric Glenn Childress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Glen Childress celebrated his first birthday July 3rd at his home. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Ruth Schrecker and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jess Childress.

A. No. There was no change made in the definition of "substantial service" in self-employment. Generally, you are allowed to work up to 45 hours in a month without loss of any benefits for that month. However, if yours is a highly skilled profession, you could be considered to be working substantially with even fewer hours.

Q. I'm 39 and working regularly, but each week-end I have to get kidney dialysis. My doctor told me that as of July 1 Medicare helps pay for this treatment. How do I apply for this Medicare coverage?

A. To see if you are eligible for this Medicare coverage, call, write, or visit any social security office.

RESTITUTIONS MADE TO FRAUD VICTIMS

More than $6 million was restored to potential victims of mail frauds during a recent nine-month period, Postmaster James O. Smith reported today.

Mr. Smith said he had been advised by Chief Postal Inspector and Assistant Postmaster General William J. Cotter that Postal Inspection Service enforcement activities resulted in $3,222,680 in restitutions to those victimized by mail frauds. The report covered the first three quarters of the current 1973 Fiscal Year, through March.

"The report shows that it is worthwhile for those who have good reason to conclude they have been the victim of a scheme to defraud in which the mails were used to report the facts to the post office," the local postmaster commented.

The restitutions resulted from 3,650 promotions that were discontinued largely on Inspection Service action. Restitutions ordered by the courts totaled $2,883,528; "voluntary" restitutions totaled $2,009,706 and an additional $1,589,426 resulted from other recoveries.

"Included in the 12,000 or more mail fraud investigations completed each year by Postal Inspectors," Postmaster Smith said, "are those based on complaints from postal customers who allege failure to receive merchandise or promised refunds from all mail order firms. Not all such failures or broken promises indicate a scheme to defraud, but may, in fact, be merely the result of poor business practices," he said.

"However, when a postal customer cannot obtain satisfaction through his own efforts," Mr. Smith added, "he should not just write his transaction off as a loss of money if his money is possible in some cases."

Fourth Birthday - Cindy Lou Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Edward Stephens of Lexington, celebrated her 4th birthday June 21 at her home with her parents and friends. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Kirby of Mt. Vernon and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stephens of Paris.

Those attending from a distance were Mrs. Ray Young and four children from New Orleans, La.; Gay, Richard and Janice Coulter from Orlando, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Oron Abbott from Indianapolis, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. John Payne from Mansfield, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Payne and two daughters from Farmerville, Ohio; Mrs. Tom McLaughlin, Mrs. Anna Barge, and Mrs. Agnes Wiebe, all from Reading, Ohio; Mrs. George Honaker from Loveland, Ohio; Mrs. Olen Goodby and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Manda and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Noe and friends of Lexington, Ohio; Mrs. John Pearce and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Davis and family from Campbellsville, Ohio; Mrs. Olen Goodby and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Goodby and son from Versailles; Miss Ruth Scott, Mrs. Raymond Herold and Malissah, Mrs. Freddie Pruitt and Diana from Hamilton, Ohio; Mrs. Cordia Good and Mr. and Mrs. Don Cummins and family of Eubank; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reynolds and family of Danville; Mrs. Edith Noe, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Noe and daughters and Mrs. Catherine Noe and Anthony, all from Stanford; Mrs. Oscar Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Scott and family; Mr. and Mrs. Walker Cummins, all of Crab Orchard, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Payne and Patty of Somerset; Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart and family of Mayville, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip DeBorde and family of Cynthia.

Many more happy occasions are wished for Mrs. Cummins by her family and friends.

FIVE GENERATIONS OF THE G. W. BURTON family were together recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Burton on the old Broadhead-Mt. Vernon Road. Mr. and Mrs. Burton are 53 and 52 years old, respectively, and have been married for 73 years. Shown in the above photo are, seated, G. W. Burton and his great-grandson Stanley Burton holding his daughter, Penny. Standing are Harris Burton next to his father, George Burton, Jr.

store fresh meat in the refrigerator? - Fresh meats can be stored at refrigerator temperature (approximately 32-40 degrees F) for a few days without losing eating quality. Bacteria that cause illness do not grow at refrigerator temperatures. Wrap meat loosely for best keeping. This allows air to circulate and dry the meat surface slightly. Bacteria will grow less quickly on a dry surface.

2. Is botulism only caused by improperly canned vegetables? - The botulinus organism thrives under anaerobic (lack of air) conditions, which we normally think of as only occurring in canned foods. However, vacuum packaged meats and fresh oysters, packed into a jar, create anaerobic conditions. Because there is no air present, we do not get the usual red light signal such as molds and off odors from organisms that depend on air. The botulinus organisms will grow at refrigerator temperatures under anaerobic conditions. It takes time, probably three to four weeks. So, vacuum packaged fresh foods such as oysters and meats should be used at least within two weeks.

3. Cooked meat balls with gravy have been in the freezer six months, but the recommended time is one month. Are they safe to eat? Illness-causing organisms do not grow at freezer temperature. If the meat balls were safe to eat when put into the freezer, they are safe to eat when removed from the freezer. Short storage time is recommended for quality (flavor, texture, odor) rather than safety.

4. I left some canned foods in our camper and they froze. Are the foods safe to eat? - Check the cans to make sure they have not bulged or that there is no leakage. Many times canned foods survive freezing with no damage at all except some deterioration of food texture. If the cans have become bulged, or if you see any slight trace of leakage, do not take a chance of eating the foods.

5. Someone told me that I should wash my cutting board often. Is this really necessary? - Yes, it really is necessary. Cutting boards, particularly wooden ones, provide an ideal breeding ground for bacteria. They should not only be washed but also disinfected, using chlorine bleach. Thorough washing with lots of soap and hot water will remove grease and food particles. To kill germs you must go one step further and flood the board with liberal amounts of chlorine bleach solution. Two tablespoons of bleach per gallon of water will give a solution of adequate strength. This additional step to disinfect the board is especially important after preparing raw meat and poultry and other foods prepared on the board.

Local 4-H'er Wins Third In State Talk Meet

Kentucky youth spoke out on issues that concern their generation, future and the state during the state 4-H Talk Meet at Lexington Friday, July 6, at the University of Kentucky.

Taking part from Rockcastle County was Anthony Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvel Davidson, Route 2, Mt. Vernon. He was awarded third place in the division for eleven-year old boys. Anthony had earlier won top division honors in county and area 4-H Talk Meets, with his speech on "The Drug Society" to become eligible for state competition.

Among the subjects selected by the young people taking part in the Talk Meet were pollution, drug abuse, inflation, education, physical fitness, patriotism, conservation, and the use of 4-H work.

The 4-H Talk Meet competition is divided into seven age divisions, so those taking part compete only against those in their own age group. Separate competition is held for nine-year-olds, ten-year-olds, eleven-year-olds, twelve-year-olds, thirteen-year-olds, those ages 14-15, and those ages 16-19. In all these divisions, boys compete only against boys and girls against girls, making a total of 14 different competitions.

Mrs. Amos Burdette, Mike and Chris spent Thursday in Lexington with their daughter Mrs. Mrs. Bob DeBorke and daughters. Bridgette and Brandt returned home with their grandmother for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvel Burdette were Friday night supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Chastain at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mink and children of Miami, Florida spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Camwerson and sons.

Phillip Gene Lark of Mt. Vernon spent the weekend with Billy and Bonnie Cameron.

The most popular with salads such as potato or macaroni, is that they receive a great deal of handling during preparation, which makes the chances for contamination quite good. The salad ingredients (potato, macaroni, meat, etc.) provide the ideal food and moisture level for bacteria to grow. Proper refrigeration of these salads is a must. If salads and other perishable foods are to be taken on a picnic, refrigerate until cold (40 degrees F) then place in cooler for transporting. Remove from cooler only long enough to serve.

7. I wrapped leftover meat in aluminum foil and refrigerated it. When I unwrapped it three days later, the foil was pitted. Is the meat safe to eat? It looks and smells all right.

The amount of aluminum dissolved in the meat is not toxic. Aluminum is toxic only when consumed in very large amounts. The dissolving of the aluminum that is accelerated by the slightly acid, moist and salty condition of the meat.

4-H HOME ECONOMICS JUDGING

Learning to judge helps you in learning to make decisions.

4-H judging gives you an opportunity to learn more about your project. It helps you to be a better person.

In 4-H home economics judging there are three areas: clothing, foods and home furnishings. You do not have to be enrolled in a project to judge in an area. Both boys and girls can judge in home economics. Each 4-H'er in the judging activity is given training or lessons on how to judge and what to judge. Then the 4-H'er chooses the best, second, third and fourth items from a display. The 4-H'er also checks the reasons for his or her choices. Several counties will be receiving judging training during the same time. A 4-H'er may participate in more than one judging activity.

Those who have received training will be eligible to judge at the State Fair in Louisville on Thursday, August 16.

The following dates are ones in which you can participate. Foods, July 20, London, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.; Clothing, July 24, London, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

If you wish to be in the 4-H judging or want more information, call the County extension office, and arrangements will be made for you to go to the judging center. There are no fees involved and lunch will be provided.

CHIROPRACTOR SERVICE COVERED BY MEDICARE

Beginning July 1, Medicare can help pay for limited chiropractor services under medical insurance, but only under certain conditions, according to Henry Tackett, Social Security manager in Somerset, pointed out that the chiropractor must be licensed or legally authorized to furnish chiropractic services by the state and also meet federal standards in order to qualify for payment of eligible services by Medicare.

In addition, Tackett said, "We want to emphasize that coverage of chiropractic services under Medicare is very limited. It is important for beneficiaries to know that Medicare can help pay only for manual manipulation of the spine for the purpose of correcting a subluxation which can be demonstrated by X-Ray. No payment can be made for any other kind of chiropractic treatment or for any diagnostic services by the chiropractor, such as X-Rays or laboratory tests." A subluxation is defined as an incomplete dislocation, off-centering, misalignment, fixation or abnormal spacing of the vertebrae.

Tackett asked that beneficiaries with any question about chiropractic coverage get in touch with their social security office.

SCHOOL MEAL GUIDELINES ANNOUNCED

New guidelines for determining eligibility for free and reduced-price meals in Kentucky schools participating in the National School Lunch Program were announced recently by Dr. Lyman V. Ginger, superintendent of public instruction.

All schools participating in the National School Lunch Program, School Breakfast Program and Schools which receive federally-donated foods - are required to follow these guidelines, effective July 1, 1973, said.

In determining pupil eligibility, local school officials have the option of including reduced-price meals in addition to free and full price meal plans in their food service programs.

Applying these standards, school food service administrators in the state may consider both the family income during the past twelve months and the family's current income rate to determine eligibility. For these purposes, income is considered before deductions, said Ginger.

In addition to income levels, local administrators should consider special "hardship" cases, such as unusually high medical expenses, disaster or casualty losses, special education expenses and shelter costs over 30 percent of total income he said.

School children eligible to receive a free or reduced-price lunch may also receive a free or reduced-price breakfast in serving breakfast. Some 500 Kentucky schools participate in the National School Lunch Program, while 1,650 schools participate in the National School Lunch Program.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Owens of Ohio spent Friday night with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Charlie B. Owens and their son Mark returned home with them after spending three weeks.

Weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Casper G. Owens were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Holt, Mrs. Christine Brown and daughters, Mrs. Ruby Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Long, and Mrs. L. D. Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker of Mt. Vernon visited his mother Mrs. Pattie Baker Sunday afternoon.

Fly Control—No one has to tell dairymen about the nuisance of flies. Flies are annoying and harmful to cattle and are responsible for bacterial contamination of equipment and milk. Knowing a few facts about where flies reproduce will aid the dairymen in controlling flies on his farm.

The stable fly and house fly lay eggs in rotting materials. Stable flies especially prefer manure piles and other areas. House flies will lay eggs in split feed under feed troughs, rotting silage, manure piles, wet straw, garbage, etc. Therefore, you can eliminate many stable flies and house flies by having proper sanitation. Any amount of chemicals will not take the place of clean surroundings. If these flies have been a problem on your farm, look for their breeding areas and do a better job of cleaning this summer. Chemical control may also be needed.

The face fly and horn fly reproduce in fresh cow manure. They are more of a problem for cows in confined housing. These flies are very hard to control because eliminating their breeding grounds is impossible. In addition many dairymen do not see these flies because they often leave the cattle when they enter the barn. Dairymen should observe their cows in the pasture on a clear day to see the extent of face or horn fly infestation. The way to control these flies is with chemicals.

The horse fly and deer fly are semiaquatic and breed in wet or swampy areas. Again, there is not much that can be done to eliminate the breeding grounds; however, draining or filling swampy areas will help reduce fly numbers. Also, dairymen can keep their cattle out of swampy areas when fly numbers are up and use chemical control.

In each instance chemicals are listed as a method of controlling flies. Because of low insecticides tolerance levels, dairymen cannot afford to guess when using the chemicals. Your county agent has the 1973 insecticide recommendations for dairy cattle. This material can serve as an excellent guide to proper control of flies and safe use of chemicals. Be sure to read the label on any chemical before using it.

Tractor Drivers, Protect Your Ears! A farmer who is exposed to high noise levels may gradually lose his hearing, say agricultural engineers at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. The safe level set by industry is 85 decibels, but tractor tests at the University of Nebraska show that many farm tractors go over 90 dba. That's about what many tractors average while plowing, diking or doing power takeoff work last Wednesday. Mr. Gene Gentry this week. Q. When I signed up for medical insurance under Medicare, I couldn't get hospital insurance because I hadn't worked long enough under social security. However, my sister told me that this has recently been changed. How do I apply for hospital insurance coverage?

A. No. If you've worked long enough under social security to be insured, you, your wife and any dependent children who require dialysis or a kidney transplant are eligible for Medicare coverage. Eligibility begins the 36th month of the month in which dialysis is begun.

Q. I just started working full time and my first two check stubs showed the wrong social security number. What should I do?

A. Report the error to your employer as soon as possible, and show him your social security card so he can correct his records right away.
