BE A THRIFTY MOTORIST
Whether you've been driving for 10 days or 10 years, if your objective is saving money, knowing a few basics about how to drive and maintain your car for maximum energy and efficiency is the key.

Drive easily. Fast starts are an enormous strain on mechanical parts. It has been estimated that a single "blast off" from a traffic light costs ten cents in tire wear alone, not to mention the cost in general wear and tear. When choosing a new car, safety should be as important a factor as styling. Volvo, for example, which redesigned their cars for the first time in eight years, reshaped the front end of their 240 series for safety as well as styling. A 40 mile per-hour crash test into a barrier showed that the new design based on Volvo's experience with its experimental safety vehicles, de-crossed the average force on the occupant compartment up to 20 percent.

WHAT TO DO IN FEBRUARY

Usually in February, when the new seed catalogs and almanacs have been thoroughly read and contents noted, symptoms of that malady known as spring or cabin fever appear. This disease, which is occasioned by being cooped in the house for a long time, can be treated by forcing the blooms of such shrubs as Forsythia, Pussy Willow, Flowering Quince, and Oriental or Cornelian Cherry.

Gather some small branches from these shrubs and submerge them in lukewarm water for 36 to 48 hours. Then place them in a vase of warm water and put a few small branches in a large plastic bag, fastening it to hold in moisture.

recommends Benny Tjia, Extension Horticulturist with the UK College of Agriculture. After five days, bring the vase out again, set it in a sunny window, and soon there may be a touch of spring in the house.

While waiting for these blooms to appear, report any house plants that need this attention. To make a good potting soil, take one part of good loamy soil and thoroughly mix in one part sphagnum peat moss and one part perlite or vermiculite; also for each gallon of this mixture, add a tbs. of limestone to counteract the acidity of the peat moss. The soil should be sterilized to get rid of any diseases, insects or weed seeds that it might contain. Tjia says: spread it in a pan and put it in a 220-degree oven for thirty minutes. He warns that soil used by itself for potting house plants may cause trouble since it probably will have enough air-holding capacity.

During the warm days that usually occur in late February is a good time to apply commercial oil sprays to dormant plants and shrubs infested with scale. Dormant spray is most effective when outside temperatures are between 40 and 70 degrees. Don't apply dormant spray to broadleaf Rhododendrons, Magnolia, Boxwoods, Yew or Holly. Scale insects on these plants can be controlled with other types of chemicals when the insects are at the crawler stage.

During the lull of February, check, clean, and repair all garden tools. Put new handles in hoes and shovels where needed. Change oil in lawnmower and power mower and check and, if necessary, replace the driving belts of these machines. Few things are more irritating to the gardener when he goes out in spring to stir up a pea patch or some other plant bed than to have a worn belt on his tiller break in the middle of the job.

Check house plants for insects. If mealy bugs or red spider mites are found on the undersides of the leaves, turn the plants upside down and immerse in a malathion solution. This works with small potted plants, but a spray will be needed for large house plants. For sale of this job out on doors on a warm windless day, and leave the plants there until the odor disappears. Tjia suggests. Also, as it should be done when using any type of insecticide on any kind of crop or plant, be very sure to read and heed directions on the label on the bottle or bag.

As a while doing the aforementioned jobs in February, take a look at stored bulbs, corns, and tubers. If any are wet, dry them out if any have decayed, pick out and throw away.

If all isn't enough to calm the restless and assuage the dull ache of cabin fever, the lawn can stand a good raking, bluebird boxes can be hammered together and erected on garden fence posts, and if the ground should become dry enough, hardy vegetables such as peas, beans, spinach, radishes, and onion sets can be planted.

February is also a good month to set out hollies, azalias, and all evergreens. In February, whether a gardener or not, just about everyone starts anticipating and looking forward to another gorgeous and wonderful spring when, as it states in Psalms, "blessings multiply greatly." The thing to do during this month is to get as many spring-time jobs as possible out of the way early. This will permit more free time later on to enjoy these blessings.

GET MORE AND BETTER FEED FROM GRASS FIELDS THROUGH RENOVATION...

More and better feed from your pasture and grass hay fields with no investment in expensive nitrogen fertilizer? That's what you can expect if you renovate your grass fields this year, according to J. Kenneth Evans, Extension Forage Specialist at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.

Renovation involves seeding legumes such as clover or alfalfa into grass fields without plowing. Legumes increase total feed production, says Evans, because much of their growth takes place during the hot summer months when the growth of grasses such as tall fescue and bluegrass is slowing down. As legumes increase pasture quality because they tend to be higher in protein than grasses and to have greater palatability and digestibility, especially during hot summer weather.

The greater production and better quality of grass-legume pastures show up in animal performance, says Evans. He points out that many experiments have shown that animals perform better on grass-legume pastures than on straight grass pastures.

Perhaps the greatest advantage of legumes is their unique ability to take nitrogen from the air and "fix" it, or make it available for plant growth and protein formation. Legumes can be inoculated at seeding time with a culture of bacteria which will infect the plant roots. The legume plants supply energy to the bacteria, and the bacteria take nitrogen from the air, change it to a form that plants can use, and supply it to the legumes. As the legume roots die and decompose in the soil, nitrogen is also made available to the grass plants.

Research has shown that alfalfa can fix as much as 225 pounds of nitrogen per acre in Kentucky. This is about 80 worth of nitrogen at current fertilizer prices. Red clover will fix up to 175 pounds of nitrogen per acre per year, or between 80 and 90 worth. Korean Leyseder, vetch and other annual legumes may fix up to 100 pounds per year, or 325-30 worth.

It should be kept in mind, says Evans, that these amounts of nitrogen are not left in the field if the legumes are grazed or harvested as hay. Much of the nitrogen which is fixed is used by the legume plants, and the legumes are harvested, the nitrogen they have used for growth is removed from the field.

Evans recommends close grazing or mowing of pastures before renovation. This will make tillage easier and will weaken the grass, making it easier for the legume to become established.

You should also test the soil of fields you plan to renovate and apply needed lime, phosphate, and potash. Do not apply any nitrogen.

The tillage needed for renovation can be accomplished with a disk, field cultivator or field tiller. Tear up 40-60 percent of the grass cover if you plan to seed clover at 80-100 percent if you plan to seed alfalfa. This tillage opens the sod so that the legumes will have a better chance to germinate and thrive. The tillage can be done anytime from late fall up to seeding time when the ground is dry enough to work.

The seeding of renovated pastures can begin in late February in central, southern, and western Kentucky, according to Evans. It may be better to wait until March in Northern and Eastern Kentucky, but seeding should be completed by March 31. Recommended seeding rates are 12-20 pounds per acre for alfalfa, 8-12 pounds per acre for red clover, and 1-3 pounds per acre for white clover. Be sure to broadcast the seed.

After seeding, renovated fields should be grazed short until the livestock begin biting off the young legume plants. Then the cattle should be removed. Pastures seeded with clover should be left four to six weeks, and those seeded with alfalfa should be left for eight to ten weeks. After that, the field can be grazed or hay can be harvested.

A publication entitled "Renovating Grass Fields," AGR-26 is available from your local County Extension office.

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

figures released by the Bureau for Social Insurance of the Dept. of Human Resources (DHR). A total of $3,796,821 was paid to Kentucky's unemployed during the week ending January 25. Compared to the same period last year, during which $1,755,148 was paid, benefits increased by more than $2 million.

Recent federal legislation, passed in the form of the Special Unemployment Assistance (SUA) program, makes eligible for benefits many of the unemployed who were not covered under regular unemployment insurance laws. The individuals who now qualify include domestic and farm workers and government employees.

During the first two weeks of January, more than 1,500 people filed claims for the new SUA benefits. However, that number is expected to reach 12,000 to 15,000 during the coming weeks under the regular benefits program totaled 28,178 for the first three full weeks of January compared to 16,971 for the same period last year.

Those who filed initial claims and those returning to local DHR offices for re-determination, claimed a total of 46,187 weeks of unemployment insurance during the first full week of January; 53,988 during the second, and 85,702 during the third—a steady increase in the number of weeks being claimed.

Notices of individual farm poundage quota for 1975 will be mailed to farm operators by local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Offices as soon as adjustments can be made to reflect undermarketings and overmarketings of 1974 farm quotas.

Burley tobacco is grown principally in Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Missouri.

The action to sponsor Mr. Lair's book on Rockcastle History was voted on after Mr. Lair stated he felt he might need some help in the distribution of the book. The club, realizing the importance of the book to Rockcastle history, voted to help in any way Mr. Lair feels necessary to distribute the book, publicize it, etc.

Mr. Lair who has worked for years on the book stated it would soon be completed and ready for the printers.

In other action, the Mt. Vernon Club voted to present a white cane to Mr. Bob Cummins of Mt. Vernon and to ask local news media to help educate the public toward the law on safety precautions for the blind concerning the white cane.

THE ROUNDSTONE EAGLES came in third in the recent Midget Basketball Tournament held at Livingston Elementary School and sponsored by the Livingston Lions. * The law from KRS 189.57b states: "Whenever a pedestrian is crossing or attempting to cross a public street or highway, guided by a guide dog or carrying in a raised or extended position a cane or walking stick which is white in color or white in color and tipped with red, the driver of every vehicle approaching the intersection, or place where such pedestrian is attempting to cross, shall bring his vehicle to a full stop before arriving at such intersection or place of crossing, and before proceeding, shall take such precautions as may be necessary to avoid injuring such pedestrian, and that any person who violates any provision of KRS 189.575 shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not exceeding twenty-five ($25.00) dollars." The Club also acknowledged receipt of $225.00 from the Keeneland Foundation to be applied to local charities. Floyd Owens, Vice President, presided over the meeting in the absence of Ed Hunt President. The next meeting of the Club will be February 6th at 6:30 p.m.

State Bidding Requirements Must Be Followed—L. D. Adams, Jr., director of Prison Industry of the Bureau of Corrections, asked if his office is required to follow the state bidding requirements when the purchase exceeds $300, since the action is both costly to Prison Industry as well as the taxpayer. It is the opinion of the Office of the Attorney General that no legal relief from the present formal bidding requirement can be found, since no exception is applicable to the Bureau of Corrections.

Indians Scalp Rockets In Double Overtime

Garlan Vanhook, the Rockets' 6'2" center held his own against McCreary County's 6'9" center, Dennis Tindle, and shared scoring honors with Tindle at 20 points apiece in Tuesday night's home contest between the Rockets and the Indians.

Vanhook also played impressively on the boards, pulling off more than his share of rebounds and taking over on a well-timed steal. But, it was all in vain as the Rockets fell to the Indians in a double-overtime 53 to 50.

Rocket forward Eddie Hammond, while scoring only five points, made several nice defensive plays and led the Rockets in rebounds.

With less than two minutes left of regulation play, the Rockets trailed by six points. However, some hard pressure by the Rockets and a steal proved the difference and the Rockets, after missing a game-winning shot, were into overtime with the Indians with the score knotted at 43 all. Only two points by each team was scored in the first overtime with Tim Stephens putting the first two in for McCreary and John Clontz quickly retaliating for the Rockets. Several missed shots later found the Rockets with the ball and they froze it for over a minute and a half with Vanhook forcing the last shot up and it missed.

The Rockets fell quickly behind in the second overtime and a turnover by the Rockets gave McCreary a chance to stretch the lead to four points, 51 to 47. The Rockets scored again and were behind by one one-point with seconds left in the game when McCreary quickly worked a man open under the basket for a lay-up and the icing on the cake.

The Rockets usually decide outside shooting in the form of Dale Whitaker and Dwight Griffin was held at a minimum by the Indians with Whitaker getting only four points and Griffin getting five. Jeff Laswell came off the bench and displayed some hustling defensive play and scored two points.

Friday night, February 7th, the Rockets take on Monticello at home and next Tuesday night, they journey to Lincoln County for a match there.

GARLAN VANHOOK, playing one of his best games for the Rockets, matched points with Tindle for scoring honors in the game. Vanhook rebounded well, shot excellently and timed a steal perfectly to help the Rockets stay with the bigger Indians. This photo was taken in an earlier game and shows well Vanhook's ability to go high for the shot.

EDDIE HAMMONDS, Rockcastle County good defensive forward, tries for two against McCreary's big six foot-nine inch center, Dennis Tindle. Tindle blocked this shot and put twenty points through for the Indians, some of them on a very nice hook-shot for a high school senior. The Rockets lost the game 53-50 in a double overtime. Tim Stephens, No. 30, for the Indians came through with some crucial buckets for his team.

Ambulance Service Forced To Increase Non-Member Rates

Effective February 1st, Central Ambulance Service (CAS) raised rates for service to non-members of the organization.

The Ambulance Service was forced to this action by their inability to obtain funds for the payroll of the drivers which were promised by the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court when the ambulance service was organized last June 1st. At that time the ambulance service realized that they could not operate unless there were funds provided for salaries for the drivers. And, they (CAS) were assured at the time that these funds were available and could be obtained.

The contract between CAS and Rockcastle Fiscal Court in part that, "second party (Fiscal Court) will provide labor to first party (CAS) in the event state or federal aid can be obtained for this purpose."

The only aid which could possibly be obtained was through the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) program but this has not come about, due to reasons which have not been made clear by anyone in position to know the reason.

Representatives of the ambulance service have made several trips to Frankfort and the CETA Office in Corbin to try and ascertain why their applications were turned down but to no avail. The Ambulance Service has been told several times that the dispersal of CETA funds in Rockcastle County were up to the County Judge; however, County Judge Hubert Thacker told CAS that he was informed by Frankfort that the ambulance drivers, presently employed, could not be certified due to a technicality of which he had no control.

There are presently twenty men employed under the CETA program in Rockcastle County and four slots are being held for the ambulance drivers, by Judge Thacker, should their certification ever be approved. However, the Judge's office was notified a few days ago that in order for the county to receive funds allocated to this county under the CETA VI Program, the four slots left unfilled on the previous program would have to be filled.

At this time the ambulance service is completely without operating funds to the extent that money to meet the last payroll for the drivers had to be borrowed from the Bank of Mt. Vernon. At a called meeting of the directors of the service last Thursday night, at which Judge Thacker was present, it was decided that two representatives of the ambulance service and Judge Thacker would go to the employment office in Corbin this past Monday afternoon to try one again to again to have the ambulance drivers certified and placed on the CETA VI payroll. However, Judge Thacker did not make the trip to Corbin and the representatives of the ambulance service were informed by Mr. Jarvis, CETA Coordinator, that he had been told that Rockcastle County's CETA application was to be handled in Frankfort. Mr. Jarvis also said that this was not a regular manner in which an application for CETA funds was normally handled, but it was the manner in which this (Rockcastle County's) application was being handled.

As the situation now stands, unless some federal state or local funds can be obtained, the ambulance service faces financial catastrophe since over $5,000 is owed the Bank of Mt. Vernon for equipment and salaries and since collections for service are not sufficient to meet the full cost of operating the service.

The raising of rates to non-members will help to alleviate future operating costs of the service and the rates now break down as follows:

In Rockcastle County, $45; to Berea, $55; to Somerset, London, Stanford or Richmond, $65; to Danville, $70; to Lexington, $85; other, $45 plus $1 per loaded mile.

In addition, the charge for a membership which expires May 31, 1975, which entitles the member and his family to reduced rates for service, has been raised to $25 from the original $15. Reduced rates for members remain the same and were:

Jaycees Tournament Begins February 24th

The Rockcastle County Jaycees Eighth Grade Basketball Tournament will begin Monday night, February 24th at 6:30 p.m. when Mt. Vernon meets Livingston at Mt. Vernon Elementary School gymnasium. The second game, the same night, will be between Roundstone and Brodhead at 8 p.m. On Tuesday night, February 25th at 6:30, East Bernstadt will take on Lancaster and at 8 p.m., Clark-Moore (from Madison County) will meet Point Lick. These games will also be played

In Rockcastle County, $15; to Berea - $25; to Somerset - $35; to London - $35; to Stanford - $35; to Richmond - $35; to Danville - $40; to Lexington - $50; and other, $10.00 plus .75 per loaded mile.

Operation of the service such as the bookkeeper, manager, and the Board are all furnished by volunteers and they receive no compensation for their service. Board of Director members are Buddy Cox, Bill Dowell, Frank Watson, E. J. Smith, Roland Mullins and Bertie Rice.

Burley Tobacco Quota For 1975 Announced

Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz has announced a national marketing quota of 670 million pounds for the 1975 crop of burley tobacco. The 1975 crop quota is ten percent larger than the 1974 quota of 608 million pounds.

Department officials pointed out that the increase was necessary to provide an adequate supply to meet market demands. Domestic use and exports of burley tobacco during the three years the poundage quota program has been in effect have exceeded marketing by 275 million pounds. Further increases in domestic use and exports are expected in the years ahead.

Legislation provides that the poundage established for any farm for any year shall be increased by the number of pounds by which marketings from the farm during the preceding year were less than the farm's poundage quota. Likewise, any marketings in excess of a farm's quota are deducted from the farm's quota for the following year. If producer marketings turn out to be 584 million pounds, as currently estimated, undermarketings of 1974 farm quota will increase farm quotas in effect for 1975 by about 121 million pounds. Thus, farm quotas in effect for 1975 are expected to total about 791 million pounds about 12 percent more than the (Cont. to 13)

NICELEY IMPROVING...

Tomy Niceley, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Denver Niceley of Mt. Vernon, is reported improving following surgery for facial fractures Monday at Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington.

Mr. Niceley was injured last Wednesday night in an accident on the Richmond Road in Lexington.

FARM SOLD-AT AUCTION

The 120-acre dairy farm of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burton, located in the Willalla section of Pulaski County, was sold at Public Auction Friday, January 24th, to Messrs. Elmer Ponder of Rockcastle County for $113,500.

The sale was handled by Ford Realty and Auction Company.

FIT IS FUNDAMENTAL TO FASHION...

A good fit is fundamental for a fashion right look. No amount of careful cutting, sewing or hand detail can make a poorly fitted garment look neat. One of the joys of sewing is being able to achieve this good fit. First, you must determine your correct pattern type and size. Then, many figures need minor pattern adjustments to fit individual figures. Finally, the adjustments are made by altering the fashion pattern.

To learn how to understand the points of fitting and pattern adjusting, you may be interested in attending a workshop on fashion fitting which is open to anyone who wishes to attend, will be held by Cheryl Witt, County Extension Agent, Home Economics Monday, February 10, 1975 at 7 p.m. in the PCA Building in Mt. Vernon. If interested, call 256-2403.

Fiscal Court Imposes 15c Per Ton Coal Tax

In a 3-2 vote, the Rockcastle Fiscal Court voted Tuesday to impose a 15c per ton tax on coal mined in the county. Magistrate Ernest Mason made the motion saying that he felt the tax was only fair since "This is a one-shot thing and if we don't get something for our coal then it will be gone and residents of the county will have to be taxed extra to fix roads torn up by coal trucks."

Magistrate Chester Whitaker, one of the abstaining votes, said "We, (the public) will have to pay the 15c anyway in the form of higher electric and coal bills," and Magistrate

EIGHTH GRADE TOURNEY BEGINS MONDAY NIGHT

The annual Eighth Grade Basketball Tournament will begin next Monday night at Brodhead with Mt. Vernon and Roundstone clashing in the first game at 6:30 p.m. The second game will be between Livingstone and Brodhead.

The second night of the Tournament will be Thursday night, February 28th with the consolation game being played at 6:30 followed by the championship game.

Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

BOARD OF EDUCATION HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The Rockcastle County Board of Education held their regular monthly meeting Monday night and transacted the following items of business:

Approved the sale of a 59 1/2 x 90' lot for $501 located near the old Dees Plant at Brodhead to Mrs. Ann Brown Matheny of Middleboro. Mrs. Matheny submitted the only bid for the property.

Mrs. Norma Eversole was approved as a substitute teacher, subject to certification requirements.

Mrs. Ebylene Holbrook was employed as a substitute cook for Brodhead School.

Danny Sargent, casting the other abstention, said that he opposed it since Rockcastle was only the fifth county to impose such a tax and there is a lawsuit pending questioning the legality of such a tax.

The Court decided to hold the funds collected in escrow until such a time as the legal question is settled.

Magistrates J.R. Cromer and Bill Wren voted with Mr. Mason on the motion.

The Magistrates also split over accepting the 1975-76 County Road Aid Program as presented by a representative of the State Department of Highways. The Court was told that no new projects were added to the program and the same number of roads, as in the 1974-75 program, would be maintained. Magistrates Ernest Mason and J.R. Cromer voted against accepting the program while Magistrates Whitaker, Sargent and Wren voted for it.

The Court also voted to accept County Attorney James Lambert's settlement which showed a total of $41,728 in fees and salaries collected for 1974 which is under the $14,300 allowed by law. They also voted to approve payment of a $241.98 bill for stenographic work in the taking of a deposition in the Wade Graves Murder case.

Dog Warden Delno Mink presented his report to the Court for December and January showing the following: December - License Sold - II and eight dogs picked-up and six disposed of, January - License Sold - 6 and one dog picked-up and two destroyed.

School Board Receives $5000.00 Federal Grant

Earlier this year the Rockcastle County Board of Education had filed an application with the office of Highway Safety Programs, and the State Department of Education for Federal matching funds to be used toward blacktopping a Driver Education Range on the parking lot at RCHS. The project, which was estimated to cost $30,000.00, was set up to be completed over a three-year period with one-third being blacktopped each year.

Superintendent Charles B. Parsons reported to the Board at Monday night's meeting that the project had been approved. The Board will receive a $5,000.00 Federal Grant this year toward the project. The Board must match the federal money on a fifty/fifty basis. This will permit blacktopping about one-third of the parking lot this summer at a total cost of $10,000.00.

The first section to receive blacktopping under this project will be the area directly between the Vocational School and the football field. Mr. Parsons told the Board that placing the driving range on the parking lot would be like killing two birds with one stone. The end result would be both a driving range and a blacktopped parking lot for school activities while taking advantage of available Federal funds.

Another third of the parking area would receive blacktop in 1975-76 FY with completion in FY 77 if funds are available.

This project is administered by the Div. of Program Development, State Department of Education, Frankfort, Kentucky.

Frankfort Watchline

BY: GARY AUXIER

In last year's Senate campaign, Senator Marlow Cook won the hearts of the conservatives with his opposition to the Red River Dam. At the same time, Gov. Wendell Ford was plumping the benefits of the dam, winning the approval of U.S. Rep. Carl Perkins and, in the long haul, not damaging himself to any degree with the voters.

A month before election day, both Cook and Ford were willing to concede they did not believe the proposed dam was much of a statewide issue, not politically at any rate.

Now the issue, if it is to be a campaign issue again, rests on the shoulders of Gov. Julian Carroll. If he decides in favor of the dam as his predecessor did, the Republicans will no doubt take the issue up once again and try to run with it.

This is not to mention what Carroll's primary opponents will try to do in the weeks ahead. On the other hand, if he steps out against the dam and the corps, the dam might remain an issue through the primary, but it is unlikely the Republicans would risk an about face of Cook's position just to get on the opposite side from the governor.

Carroll's political advisors are not particularly concerned about which way he goes.

"It's of concern to people all over Kentucky, but in terms of being a real hard issue it's pretty well limited to Central Kentucky," said Bill Cox, Carroll's chief campaign advisor.

That is almost exactly how Cook and Ford read the political scene on this issue.

The governor has indicated to me that he's more interested in doing what is administratively right than viewing it from a political standpoint.

"The truth of the matter is it has been viewed too much from a political standpoint in the past anyway," Cox said.

Consumer Comments

By: Ed W. Hancock
Attorney General of Kentucky

If your friend tells you he had something notarized, has he seen a dry cleaner, a doctor or a member of the clergy? The answer is, "None of the above." In fact, he has not seen a notary public, a person certified by the state to verify that a person has appeared, furnished proof of his or her identity and signed a document or taken oath.

The notary simply serves as a kind of "witness" who attests to someone's signature. A notarized statement does not attest to any facts. It does not mean that the facts are necessarily true. And, in the same respect, a notarized statement is not necessarily a true statement; it simply is a witnessed statement. For example, if Wanda Weightless makes a notarized statement that she lost one hundred pounds in two days, the notarization only means that Wanda appeared before a notary, showed her identification and made the statement. The notarization does not prove that she lost weight quickly, but it certifies that she did, in fact, say she lost weight.

Don't be fooled when an ad claims a notarized guarantee. A notarized guarantee, like any guarantee, should be in writing and should be specific as to exactly what is guaranteed, when and for how long. And remember, the guarantee is only as good as the person or firm making the guarantee.

Don't be fooled when an ad claims a notarized guarantee. A notarized guarantee, like any guarantee, should be put in writing and should be specific as to exactly what is guaranteed...by whom and for how long. And remember, a guarantee is only as good as the person or firm making the guarantee.

Consumers themselves may be asked to have certain documents notarized, or "witnessed." If you have trouble finding a notary public, check with your county clerk.

Letter To The Editor...

Dear Sir:

I am sure that all present and former members of Mt. Vernon Christian Church are grateful to Rev. Fite for the fine article on the history of the church which appeared in the Signal a few weeks ago and to the Signal for publishing it.

As a member of that church many years ago, before Bro. Fite's pastoral labors, I would add a few lines to this history, just for the record. As he correctly stated, the church building which preceded the present one and which is now occupied by the Signal was built on land donated by Egbert Thomas Fish, Sr. and wife, Ann Elizabeth Fish shortly after the close of the Civil War. E. T. Fish, Sr. was born January 12, 1827 and his wife, Ann Elizabeth Wallace was born November 22, 1842. They were married January 30, 1861. He died September 16, 1872.

When the land was donated, the deed stated that if at any future date it would no longer be used by the Christian Church, the ownership would revert to the heirs of the donors. The reason for this was that at that time the Christian Church, known by some as the Campbellites, was comparatively new and things were quite upset following the War.

When it was decided that a new church was needed in the mid-twenties, and the building was to be sold, the heirs of E. T. Fish and Ann E. Fish were the children of F. Logan Thompson of Mt. Vernon and his wife, Alza Jackson Fish, the daughter of E. T. Fish and who died in 1907. All of these children were members of the church and gladly signed a quit claim deed in order that the proceeds from the sale of the old church could be applied to the construction of the present building as was undoubtedly intended by the original donors.

The history of the Mt. Vernon Christian Church is a good and happy one. Sadly enough, I can think of very few people now living who were members when the old church existed.

Sincerely,
William W. Thompson
Pompano Beach, Florida

POETRY CORNER

(Sent in by Mrs. George Burton and written by Annie Johnson Flint)

God's Kind Care
 God hath not promised skies always blue,
 Or flower-strewn pathways, all our lives thru;
 God hath not promised sun without rain,
 Joy without sorrow or peace without pain.
 God hath not promised, we shall not know,
 Toil and temptation, trouble and sorrow,
 He hath not told us, we shall not bear many a burden, many a care.
 God hath not promised, smooth roads and wide,
 Swift easy travel, needing no guide,
 Never a mountain, rocky and steep;
 Never a river, turbid and deep.
 But God hath promised, strength for the day,
 Rest for the labor, light for the way,
 Grace for the trials, help from above,
 Unfailing sympathy, undying love.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anglin and Nancy visited W. R. Coffey and Lillian Anglin Sunday evening.

ASCS Holds State Conference

Kentucky farm program officials from the Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) met January 29th and 30th at the Galt House in Louisville to discuss better service for farmers, farm programs, and the image of the farmer in today's urban society. Attending the meeting from Rockcastle County were: Harold D. Ballinger, County Executive Director, Deimer New, Chairman County Committee, James E. Brown, Vice Chairman, and Homer Hale, Regular Member. Many interesting speakers were heard during the two-day confab, but the principal speaker was Kenneth E. Frick, Administrator, ASCS.

Frick called for a recycling of basic ideals of the country's heritage, stating "The new approaches are needed for new problems." He also called for the "revival of integrity, independence, and the work ethic in the nation." "Our past farm policies cost this nation billions of dollars in payments, billions in food aid, and billions in storage costs - without achieving farm family incomes equal to the nonfarm sector, without appreciably increasing the world's food security, and without truly protecting the farmer. The farmers I have talked with never want to return to the system of Washington determining their farming patterns or to get back into a cheap food policy."

ASCS' top official continues, "ASCS can be very proud of its role in helping move decision-making back to the farm where it belongs. I have only praise for the work of ASCS people. ASCS is the best service agency in government in responding to needs and farmers view ASCS as being very capable of serving agriculture."

Frick indicated he thoroughly enjoyed his Kentucky visit and characterized the ASCS employees here as "energetic, bright, and responsive."

Other speakers during the conference included Victor Senechal and Merrill Marxman, ASCS, Washington; Wendell Butler, Commissioner, Kentucky Department of Agriculture; Barney Arnold, Farm Director, WHAS Radio and TV; Jack Crowner, Farm Director, WAVE-TV; Fred Durr, President, National Association of Farmer-Elected Committee men; representatives from other agricultural agencies; and a Kentucky county committeeman and county office employees.

James C. Finley, Sr., Monroe County, is chairman of the Kentucky State ASCS Committee and Carl E. Dohn, Jefferson County, is a member. Homer V. Yonta, Lexington, Kentucky, is the State Executive Director.

Unemployment Benefits
The Rise - A total of $3,735,521 was paid to Kentucky unemployed during the week ending January 23rd. Compared to last year's statistics, benefits have increased by more than $2 million. One reason for this increase is the Special Unemployment Assistance (SUA) program, which makes eligible for compensation many unemployed who were not covered under the regular laws.

THANKSGIVING DIETING
Stuffing yourself come Thanksgiving Day won't add to your festive mood. Actually, when you think about it and possibly remember last year, all that overeating just makes you feel uncomfortably sluggish and it definitely wrecks havoc with a dieter's morale. You don't have to make a glutton of yourself just because it's a holiday - so don't use that as an excuse.

Let's start with the big bird. Turkey meat is not terribly fattening if you give up the skin. Four ounces of the light meat (that's two healthy slabs) amounts to 200 calories. The same amount of dark meat has 230 calories. If you just can't resist that crackly skin add about 125 calories to each slice you eat. Half a cup of turkey giblet gravy has 80 calories. If you must have it, don't have more than a quarter cup. Regular bread stuffing or dressing straight from the turkey has 180 calories per cup; corn bread or chestnut stuffing has less, 175 per cup. Better limit your quantity of this, too.

Everyone seems to have his own Thanksgiving favorite vegetables, but one favored by many is candied yams. They run high, 295 calories each. If you bake those sweet potatoes (the smaller ones) instead of candying them, they'll have only 155 calories each. Boiled, they're higher, 170 each.

Squash is another favorite. Mashed and baked, winter squash has 65 calories per half cup and that's something you can fill up on without filling out too much. Summer squash has even less - just 17 calories per half cup. Creamed onions are another seasonal choice and they're not bad at about 80 calories per half cup.

Salad is another good way to fill up. A whole cup of fresh raw vegetables won't amount to more than 25 or 30 calories. I know it's a drag to make yours separately and use diet dressing, but it's worth the trouble. Just one tablespoon of oil has 100 calories and most dressings are based on oil. Commercially bottled diet dressings have as little as 10 calories per tablespoon, and I've found that they're really quite tasty.

Cranberry sauce is a lot more fattening than some think. 405 calories per cup from the can, and only slightly less if you make your own from whole cranberries. You love cranberries, better to have a glass of the juice rather than a mess. The cranberry juices and most dressings are based on oil. Commercially bottled diet dressings have as little as 10 calories per tablespoon, and I've found that they're really quite tasty.

And, perhaps you'll want a little white wine with your special turkey dinner. You needn't abstain, but do limit yourself to one four-ounce glass which will add 95 to 100 calories depending on type - the dryer the better, by the way.

Traditional Thanksgiving desserts can run high - pumpkin pie has 150 to 60 calories per one-eighth of pie slice and mince-meat pie has 200 to 245 calories per slice, depending on the recipe. If it's pie or die, have just a half of a normal slice.

FREE RECIPE: If you want a great recipe for pumpkin-lovers Christmas dinner dessert, just send a postcard to me in care of this newspaper. Be sure to include your name, address and zip code and allow a few weeks for delivery. It's a terrific alternative to the usual pumpkin pie and cuts calories by about 35 per slice. Send for it.

molasses: the history of the Mullins family in America begins with Nathan and Verilla Mullins who arrived here in 1820, on the much-crowded Key-Boat. Their daughter, Friedella, is said to have been the heroine of Courtship of Miles Standish. The roots of the family were traditionally in France, where the name was spelled Molinieux or Molinies. Forced out by religious persecution, they went next to Delaware where over the years they acquired the characteristics of their clan with a sense of humor, a proficiency in music and an instant accommodation of anybody looking for trouble.

B. C. (Snippo) Mullins, family historian, now deceased, left a record of the first of the name to reach Rockcastle County. He says the group consisted of five brothers and two sisters, who came in through Cumberland Gap in 1783, following Boone's Trail to White's Valley, near what is now Richmond, Kentucky. On their way in they camped for awhile on White Oak Branch in Rockcastle County, before going on to White's Valley. While camped here, they lost a packhorse, with his load.

Sometime later, recalling the many advantages of White Oak Branch and the valley through which it coursed, they sold their claims in White's Valley to Dirk White, accepting as part payment a two-wheeled Oczart, a supply of iron rods for making iron shoes and a young bull. Coming back to White Oak, they settled on or near its principal stream and lived there for the remainder of their days, building up a colony consisting almost entirely of those who bore the same name. At one time 500 Mullins lived in the hills and voted the Republican ticket in Rockcastle County.

The names of the original settlers were given as follows: Terry (the oldest), Mordecai (sometimes known as Madkins), Spencer, Champion, Gardner, Sally and Rebecca. All were married and raised families, except Gardner. Of their children born after coming to Kentucky, Terry Mullins was the father of John, Dove, Buck, Ballenger, Henry, Ann, Polly, Sally, Becky and Emily Hester. There were three others whose names are not now remembered. Mordecai had eight children. They were: Henry, John, Marshall, Elijah, Cal, Betty, Patty, Susie and Bert. There were six sons and daughters of Spencer Mullins. Their names were Fred, Wesley, Champ, Jackson, Lucy and Martha. Champion Mullins also had six children: Morgan, Calloway, William, Grandser, Sally and Becky. Grandser was never married. He left Kentucky in 1850 and was never heard of again.

John Mullins, son of Terry, had five children. They were: Good Enough, Henry, Sidney, Ann and Mary. Dove, another son of Terry Mullins, was father of Terry, Jr., W. D., Walker, L.D., H.K., J.G., Amanda, George and six others whose names are unknown. Terry's son Buck had seven children. They were: Nancy Jane, Henry, Link, Dove, Jalia, Mary and Lu Lucy. Ballenger, another son of Terry Mullins, married Mary Metcalf and they were parents of H. A., W. G., Grayville, B.F., D.D., John, Mose, Ann, Sack and Sissy. Hezekiah Mullins, Terry's last son married Sally Black. These were twelve children born to this union, namely: Mary Jane, Nancy E., Tilda Francis, Boone, Alice, Tucker, Louellen, J.W., Sherman, Emily, Beecher and Wesley. Of Terry's daughters, Ann married Mark Morris, early Indian fighter, and they had five children, of which Bob and Jim are the only ones remembered. Polly married Calloway Mullins and their ten children were: Gardner, H.J., Mordecai, Daniel, C.A., Frances, Emily, Margaret and Ballard.

Champion Mullins, of the original group to come to Rockcastle County, had a son, William, who married a Miss Brown. Jephtha, Emily and Mary were their children.

John Mullins, son of Calloway, married Susie Mullins and they had one child, Ella. Calloway's son, Gardner, married Mary Chestnut and had ten children. They were: Jim C., Frank, Lucy Summers, Gardner L., George, Rosie, Money, Mose, H.T. and Frances. Another son of Calloway, James Henry, married Sarah Singleton and the following were their 12 children: Molly, John, Daniel, Emily, Ballard G., Susie, Logue, Mitchell, Telitha, Ulyssis and Lee. Mordecai Mullins married Nancy Griffin and they were parents of T.R., John C., Charles A., Mary, Becky and Susie. Calloway's son, Daniel, married Patsy Barnett. There were no children. Calloway's daughter, Emily Mullins, married W. G. Mullins and had nine children. They were: Kansas, Clara, Sarah Margaret, Callie, Ballenger, Ollie, Artimach, Leroy and Cecil. Another daughter, Francis, married B. H. Cummins and had six children: Molly, John, J.H., Margaret, E. E., Dee, Lula, Charles A. Mullins, another son of Calloway, married Mary Jane Mullins and had four children: J.X., Ballard C., Sarah F., Larkin. Mary Jane Mullins died in 1832 and Charles A. then married, Lucy J. Mullins, by whom he had two children: Beeler and Elmer. Margaret Mullins, daughter of Calloway, married Wilson Baker. They were the parents of Lottie, Collie, Henry, Pearl and one brother who died unnamed Calloway's son, Ballard, never married. He was killed in Jackson County, by parties unknown.

Spencer Mullins had a son, Westley, who had eight children. They were: John, Moss, Henry, Welk, Jack and two daughters, names unknown. Spencer's son, Alfred, had five children whose names are not remembered. His son, Champ, was married twice, his last wife being Mary Martin. He was father of Lucy J., Egily, Martha, Alice, Spencer, Campbell, Walter and Fannie. Spencer's son, Jackson, had two sons, Pete and Champ. Polly Mullins, Spencer's daughter, married Will Cummins. Their children, if any, are unknown. Spencer's daughter, Martha, was never married.

John Mullins' son, Goodenough, married Sias Abney and they had four children. They were Champ and Bill and two others, names not remembered. John's son, Henry, married Het Smith and had six children, including Fannie, Amanda, John, Irvine and Jack.

Champ Mullins, a son of Calloway Mullins, had two sons, John and William. Ann Mullins married Alfie Owens and their children were: Emily, Lucy, Alfred, Martin, Sallie, Becky, Steve, Rena and Jack.

Dowell Mullins, generally known as Dowe, son of the original Terry Mullins, had a son, Terry, Jr., who married Judy Abney and had one son, who was killed by Indians. William D., another son of Dowe married Jalia Abney and had five children: Terry, Johnson, William W., Wyssa, and Jalia. William D.'s second wife was Louise Warren and they had ten children: Amanda, Wellington E., Frances, America L., Milton H., Louella, Mose, Raymond and two sons who were never married. Dowe's son, Walker, married Mary Chasteen and had one son, J. W. Walker's second wife was Liddie Ash and they had one son, Overton Mullins. Dowe's son, Loransi D., married a daughter of John Mullins. There were no children. Loransi's second wife was Nancie Ballenger and they had one son, W. H. Mullins. Another son of Dowe's, H. K. Mullins, married Becky McGinnis and had ten children. They were: William, Walker, Taylor, Sissy, George, Mary Doll, Haeley, Jim B., Jalia and Reuben. Dowe's son, J.T. Mullins, married F. Francis Mullins. Their six children were Laska, Janey, America, Nannie, Flora and Elijah, who was killed in Germany in 1918. Bright G. Mullins, another son of Dowe, married W. H. Mullins. There were no children. Jack. To Bright and his second wife, Elizabeth Laswell, were born five sons: Wallis, Duffee, Theodore, Dave and Cecil. There were four daughters, names unknown. Dowe had a daughter, Amanda, who married Mike Jennings. Their children were: America, Rosa and Laura. Another of Dowe's daughters married Bright Chasteen. Another married Arch McGuire and another died as a result of a fall from a tree. The first names of these last three are unknown.

In this report on the Mullins family I have followed the original record as prepared by their family historian some years ago. David Singleton, a local historian, related to me and was acquainted with some of the older set, says that Mordecai Mullins, one of the first five brothers, came in well ahead of the others, settling on the Licking River, near Falmouth. When he found that to be troublesome he moved his family into Overton's Station, later settling on River, in the vicinity of Cruise's Ferry, not far from the White Oak Branch area. Dallas Mullins, son of Lloyd Mullins, writes from his present home in Tempe Arizona of his boyhood in Rockcastle County, recalling that there were so many of the tribe bearing the same given names that they had to differentiate between them in some way. For instance, where there were two, Bill Mullines, they would be called Bill Tink, Red Bill, etc. to tell them apart. Henry Mullins got shot. He was henceforth known as Shot Henry and his children were known as the "Shot Henry Set." The two main divisions of the family were "Upper Creek" and "Lower Creek" Mullineses.

Other settlers bearing the Mullins name came into the county at a later date, such as Jephtha Mullins, one of the principal state owners in the county, Solomon Mullins (Money-making Sol. the gunterfeiter) and Jackson R. Mullins (from Lee County, Va. Solomon returned to Virginia, Jephtha's descendants settled in the Level Green area of the county, while the Jackson R. Family located around Mareth Mareburg.

The Mullins family furnished sheriffs, county judges and other officials for Rockcastle County. One of them, a revenue officer, was well known over the state and was often selected by the governor of Kentucky to handle particularly dangerous riots. He was killed in one of these riots, on Christmas Day. His wife lived to a very old age. I taped an interview with her in her 100th year. Two of their sons became involved in local feuds and killed several men and were themselves killed, one by his own uncle.

Kentucky Afield
By Hope Carlston
Dept. of Fish and Wildlife

Do you have a farm pond you'd like to get stocked with bass and bluegill? Or would you like to know how to increase the amount of wildlife on your property? Or maybe you've got a snake in the washing machine. There's a man in your county who may help with any of these problems, or with practically anything else pertaining to fish or wildlife. He's your county conservation officer and, as the local representative of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, he's the man to see when you need any of the services offered by the department.

For the farm pond owner, a call to the local CO is the first step in signing up for the Department's free fish stocking program for new or renovated ponds. The officer will inspect your pond, make recommendations for any improvements needed, and provide all the necessary forms and information for participation in the program.

If your pond is presently stocked but you feel that it is not producing as it should the CO will be happy to request the services of a fishery biologist from the Division of Fisheries to examine your pond.

The conservation officer is also on hand to aid those landowners wishing to increase wildlife populations on their lands. The CO. will request that a wildlife biologist from the Department's Game Management Division visit the land and draw up a wildlife management plan which will increase the numbers of both game animals, such as quail or rabbits, and songbirds and other desirable species.

The CO. is also the man to see if you have any questions about hunting and fishing regulations, seasons, license requirements, pet permits for holding wildlife or anything else pertaining to fish and wildlife laws.

As a wildlife law enforcement officer, the CO. should receive reports of any illegal hunting or fishing activity. Also, he is the official to whom any instances of water pollution, particularly those involving a fish kill, should be reported. In cases like these, it is important that the CO. be reached as soon as possible, since fast action often is necessary to apprehend a violator or to determine the cause of a fish kill.

To find the name and phone number of your county conservation officer, call the county clerk or county judge's office, or the local sheriff or police station.

State Board of Elections To Hold General Meetings

General meetings with all state election officers and precinct workers have been set up by the state Board of Elections in order to explain the voting regulations that have changed due to a revision of statutes by the 1972 and 1974 General Assemblies.

Board of Elections Chairman and Secretary of State Thomas L. Stovall has stated that the Board will hold sessions with only the County Court Clerks at 8 p.m. (local time) and meet with election officers and all other interested individuals at 7 p.m.

Both meetings involving Bell, Clay, Harlan, Jackson, Knox, Laurel, McCreary, Owsley, Rockcastle and Whitley will be held on February 12th at the Cumberland Falls State Park in Corbin. Election officers and all other interested individuals from Rockcastle County are urged to attend.

Landowners Urged To Plant Trees...

The Kentucky Division of Forestry would like to urge all Rockcastle County landowners to begin thinking now about planting trees on idle and unproductive land this spring. There are many vacant acres in Rockcastle County which are not being farmed or used for any other purpose. A $15.00 investment in tree seedlings today could return over $500 in stumpage during the next forty years. Besides this return, trees will stop erosion, provide food and cover for wildlife, increase property values and make our county look better.

Seedlings should be planted in March of April this spring. The Division of Forestry will be distributing seedlings to land owners during these two months.

For further information, contact Steve Bullen by phoning 256-2957 or contact the County Extension Agent, ASCS Office, or Soil Conservation Service.

NAVY ELECTRICIAN MATE
Michael Van Winkle has reported for temporary duty at the U.S. Navy Recruiting Station, Richmond. According to local Navy Recruiter, Chief Ben Holbrook, Fireman Van Winkle was selected for participation in a special "recruiting assistance program" and will be working in the Rockcastle County area.

Van Winkle enlisted in the Navy's Vocational School Graduate Program on September 30, 1974 and recently graduated from basic training at the Naval Training Center, Orlando, Florida. Upon completion of his assignment in Richmond, he will report for duty aboard the USS Opportune (ARS-41) in Little Creek, Virginia. He will perform the duties of an Electrician Mate, which include the operation and repair of the ship's electrical power plant and electrical equipment.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Van Winkle of Route 4, Mt. Vernon and a 1974 graduate of Rockcastle County High School.

THE STEER THAT GOES TO MARKET

The steer that goes to market is not all steak. It's not all beef, either, says the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture (USDA). From feedlot to packer to retailer, a 1,000 pound steer is reduced to about 440 pounds of edible beef. There's a long road, a lot of feed, nutrients, care and processing behind the beef you buy today. And today you're buying from an exceptionally large selection at prices trending downward in the face of an increasing grocery price index, according to marketing specialists with USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. The road the steer will travel will involve thousands of miles. It will go from range, to feedlot, to packing house. It will be fed about 2,200 pounds of grain, about 450 pounds of protein supplement, and an estimated 12,000 pounds of hay, silage and grass. All this will take from 18 to 24 months. Once it has reached the 1,000-pound weight, the steer is considered ready for market. After slaughtering and initial processing, the packer generally sells the carcass, which will weigh about 620 pounds. The retailer will then trim away about 180 pounds of fat, bone and waste. He will cut, wrap and label the various cuts to the consumer. Most cookbooks contain illustrations of the various cuts of beef and suggest ways to use them most efficiently. It's a good time to become familiar with these cuts to be able to readily identify them at your market. The most tender cuts will be the rib steaks, tenderloin, porterhouse, T-bone, strip loin, club n'd sirloin steaks. These are easily prepared by dry heat. Less tender cuts of meat are the blade, chuck, round steaks, arm chuck and flank steaks. They can be tenderized by marinating and preparing by moist heat. Whether you're buying porterhouse steak or steak beef, you're sacrificing, nothing in the way of nutritive value. The same perfectly balanced protein power is contained in the same amounts in less expensive cuts as in the most expensive beef. Bringing beef to your table is no accident. Neither is it quick. It is a well-programmed, highly efficient operation that is responsive to your eating habits and demands.

Down On The Farm
By: Roy G. Brown
Assistant Vice President
CUMBERLAND PCA
The year is moving on, and will soon be time for farming; thus, we need to be making plans for our farming program. We need to use every field to its best and most productive use. We can crop land that is not level by using no-till cropping system and not lose soil to erosion. Now is the time to start a good pasture renovation program for your farm. PCA is again sponsoring this program, and we will be having some meetings again this winter that will be of help to the farmer. Again, may I remind you of contracting your seeds, fertilizer, herbicides, and other needed farm supplies and repairs for your farming in 1975 and keep a good set of farm records. DOWN ON THE FARM.....

EHR TO ESTABLISH AN EMERGENCY SERVICE FOR THIS REGION.....
The Kentucky Department for Human Resources (DHR) has received an application from the Kentucky River Emergency Medical Services Plan in Hazard to establish an emergency service for the region. The estimated cost of this project, $487,000, places it under the jurisdiction of Section 1122 of the Social Security Act. This segment of the law applies to capital expenditures by health care facilities which, if not justified by increased service or efficiency, could result in unreasonable increases in costs to patients. The Comprehensive Health Planning Council will review this proposal at Lexington on February 11-12. The review is open to the public.

Card Of Thanks

The family of George Delbert Isaacs, Sr. wishes to thank everyone who was so kind and thoughtful during the recent death of our loved one. We especially want to thank those who brought flowers, the doctors and staff of Danville Hospital where he spent the last year of his life. The Cox Funeral Home for their wonderful services rendered, the ones who sang the songs and Bro. Raford Herin for his comforting words. May God Bless Everyone!

The children Mother, Brother and Sisters 22x1p

The family of Mary Syble McClure would like to express our deepest appreciation to those who sent flowers, food and money. We also want to thank the Cox Funeral Home, Bro. Barney Owens, the singer, Dr. Lewis, and the nurses at the Berea Hospital. We also want to thank the nurses and Dr. Lewis at the Rockcastle County Hospital for being so nice and kind to our mother and also our father, Joe McClure, who passed away June 19, 1967. Thank you all and may God bless you.

The Bereaved Children 21x1

The family of Sherman E. Phillips wishes to express our thanks to those who were so good to us in our time of sorrow. A special thanks to all those who brought flowers and food, the ministers, Bro. Jasper Carpenter and Bro. Billy Medley, and to Cox Funeral Home for the fine and efficient service rendered.

George Phillips, wife: Daughter, Vivian; C.W. Phillips, father, and all the brothers. 22x1p
