STOP MILDEW DAMAGE TO HOUSE AND FURNISHINGS

If your house has taken on a musty odor, chances are mildew is right now doing damage to your walls, carpeting and other furnishings.

Your best protection against mildew is to keep things clean, get rid of dampness, and improve ventilation. But if mildew already has its food in your door, here's what to do.

First step is to stop mold growth. When you find mildew on any kind of fabric, brush it off outdoors. If you brush indoors, you could spread the mold spores throughout the house. Sun the fabrics, air them thoroughly, then wash or dry clean. If stains remain on washable fabrics, wash them again, using a laundry bleach this time.

Most man-made fabrics are resistant to mildew, unless they're dirty - soil gives mold food for growth. After brushing upholstered fabrics or rugs and carpets outdoors, wipe them with cloth wrung out of a solution of 1 cup denatured or rubbing alcohol to 1 cup of water. Dry thoroughly in the sun. You may need to give the rugs and upholstered furniture a more thorough cleaning with a commercial shampoo.

If mold has grown into the inner part of an upholstered piece or carpeting, send it to a reliable fumigating service for treatment.

Spunge off wood surfaces with a mild alkali solution, such as washing soda or tri-sodium phosphate, using 4 to 6 tablespoons of one of these to a gallon of water. Rinse well and dry. If mold has grown into the wood, you may have to strip off the finish and refinish the piece to undo the damage.

If mildewed wallpaper is washable, wipe it with a cloth wrung out of thick soapsuds, then with clean water. Don't wet the paper any more than necessary. Do not rub. Pat dry with a soft, dry cloth.

Wash tiled floors and walls with a dilute solution of chlorine bleach. If mildew has discolored the grouting in between tiles in your bathroom, you can make a thick paste about the consistency of tooth paste with household bleach and baking soda. Apply the paste and scrub it with a toothbrush. Rinse with clean water and wipe dry.

You can buy other products that will help you route out mildew. Ammonia cleansers will sanitize, and fungicides and special wood preservers will stop the mold growth.

If you have a cellar with a dirt floor, sprinkle chloride of lime on it to kill the mustiness. It is gone, then sweep up the lime. Protecting damp and musty books from further damage is a real problem. They should be stored in airtight containers as soon as possible. If they're very damp, sprinkle cornstarch or talcum powder between the pages to take up the moisture. Leave it on several hours, then brush off. Use paradichlorobenzene or parafomaldehyde in a closed storage area to stop mold growth. These same precautions should be used to protect old snapshots and photographs from mildew.

Get your whole house dried out as soon as possible. Air conditioners and dehumidifiers help to dry the air. Heating the house for a short time also helps. An exhaust fan could also be used to take moisture-laden air out of the house. Silica gel, activated alumina, or calcium chloride absorb moisture from the air and are particularly effective in closed closets.

"Mildew is a recurring problem here in Kentucky if your house isn't air conditioned. It grows best in damp, dark places that are warm and poorly ventilated. So keep the air moving through your house, run a dehumidifier if possible in the muggiest weather, and be alert for signs of mildew, particularly in closets and basements."

Sentiments are for the most part traditional; we feel them because they were felt by those who preceded us.

FAIRVIEW

By: Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Ninety four persons attended Sunday School at Fairview August 31st and the attendance was good for the weekend worship services. Thank the Lord.

Our revival closed Saturday night with one addition to the church - Baptismal services followed the Sunday night at the church. We thank God for this sweet girl. We also thank God for the wonderful sermons we heard from Rev. Luther Johnson, Pastor of the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church. We pray God will continue to bless Bro. Johnson in his ministry. He has a great love and concern for all people (something we don't see much of these days). May God make us all love and be more aware of the needs of our people.

We appreciate the presence of our visitors during our revival and baptisms. And welcome them back anytime.

Mrs. Clitius Peters and Mrs. Hubert Chasteen spent a very enjoyable day at Valley View Tuesday August 19th. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Ashcraft.

Miss Beverly Peters visited Mrs. Belinda Reppert in Berea Monday night.

Mr. Fred Merritt of Conway is hospitalized in Lexington. May God bless him to be home soon.

Mrs. Darleen Church and daughters Mrs. Hubert Chasteen and Connie and Ricky Adams were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Smith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pingleton and son of Berea visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Church Labor Day.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Reppert Thursday night after worship services were Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Peters and Beverly and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peters and Beverly.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cope were their daughters and families - Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Powell and Dwayne of Berea and Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Hayes and Brenda of Winchester.

Mrs. Anna Lee Chasteen and Mrs. Janet Adams, Ricky and Connie attended the twenty-first Annual Reunion of the Miller Valley View School held at Valley View Sunday August 31st. We enjoyed the day very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Reppert of Berea have returned from a two-weeks vacation in Georgia and Florida. They visited Mrs. Reppert's sister and family in Waycross, Georgia and also visited points of interest in Florida.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Chasteen Labor Day were Mrs. Casteren's niece and family Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heckathorn and son Joshua of Fulton, Indiana. We enjoyed their visit so much.

Attending a cook-out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Chasteen Monday evening were all five of their children. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chasteen, David, Darryl, and Darvin, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Chasteen, Robie and Rodney, Mrs. Janet Adams, Connie and Ricky, Mrs. Joyce Seals and Kim and Mrs. Darleen Church, Tammy and Toya.

Please remember church and Sunday School. We all need to live as close to God as we can. We as Christians should walk, talk, and act like God would have us to do. The end of time is drawing near and we need to be trying to get our loved ones, our friends and whoever else we can serve before it is too late. One day God will call us home and will be able to say "We have done our best! May God bless and keep you wherever you are and wherever you are is my prayer."

Rockets Fall To Pirates; Play Lincoln Friday Nite

The Berea Pirates avenged their 168 loss last year to Rockcastle County by downing the Rockets 28 to 0 Friday night on the Pirates field.

The Rockets took the opening kick-off but were unable to gain a first down on the first series and had to punt the ball away. The Pirates took the ball and were also unable to move it. David Owens took the punt and returned it to the Rockets 30 yard line and following pick-up by Hackworth to the 35, Jerry Pensol went over for the first down. Pensol again picked up a first down on the Pirates 44 on the next series and then a Rockets pass was picked off and returned to the Pirates 36 yard line. A pitch-out by the Pirates was good for a long gain to the Rockets 35 yard line, finally stopped by David Owens and Bobby Boring. The Pirates went in trouble with a couple of incomplete passes and it was third down and eight yards to go. The Pirates quarterback tried for another pass and the Pirates receiver dropped the ball. The Rockets took over on their own 31 yard line.

The Rockets were unable to pick up the first down however and Noe's punt was taken by the Pirates on their own 48 yard line. A big gain by the Pirates

The Pirates next touchdown came on a 47 yard pass to a receiver wide open in the end zone and 1:30 left in the game. Again, the extra point try was not successful and the Pirates led 19-0 at half-time.

Berea took the kickoff to begin the second half but their drive is stopped by a fumble on the Rockets 14 yard line recovered by David Whitehead. The Rockets then found themselves in a 4 and 2 situation and went for it anyway and were successful in picking up the first down. However, on the next series, the Rockets quarterback is intercepted and the Pirates take it in for a touchdown which is called back because of an illegal lateral. On the next play, Larry Welch forced a Pirates fumble and Hackworth recovered for the Rockets on their own 25 yard line. At this point, Welch is shaken up and had to leave the game. The Rocket's can't get anything going again and have to punt the ball away but shortly the Pirates again fumbled. Shane Bullock recovered the ball, and the Rockets took over on their own 35 yard line. Another punt by the Rockets was downed on the Pirates five yard line. But, from there, the Pirates began a steady up-the-field drive which was climaxed with their fourth touchdown of the game with 43 second left on the clock. The extra point was good for the final score of 28-0. Statistically, the Rockets were just outplayed by the quicker Pirates. The Pirates accumulated 292 in rushing yardage as opposed to the Rockets 87. Berea picked up 10 first downs to the Rockets 3. The Rockets gave up nothing on fumbles, except some yardage, as they recovered both of their fumbles. Berea fumbled six times and recovered three of them.

Offensively, the Rockets were led by Jerry Pensol with 41 yards for 8 carries. Billy Hackworth picked up 21 yards in 14 carries. David Owens gained 19 yards in 5 carries and Tim Whitehead picked up 7 yards in 2 carries.

Defensively, the Rockets were held by sophomore Mark Holbrook who had 5 tackles. Shane Bullock and Larry Baker got 4 each. David Hunt, Billy Hackworth and Bobby Boring got 3 each and Jerry Pensol was credited with 2. Assists were led by Pensol with 6, Baker got 5, Bullock 4, David Hunt and Billy Hackworth 3 each, Bobby Boring 2 and Holbrook 1.

Poetry Corner

By: Mrs. George Burton
 IDEALS ARE LIKE STARS

In this world of casual carelessness
 It's discouraging to try

To keep our morals and standards and our ideals high.

We are ridiculed and laughed at By the smart sophisticate Who proclaims in brittle bratter That such things are out of date. But no life is worth the living Unless it's built on truth.

And we lay our life's foundation In the golden years of youth; So allow no one to stop you or hinder you From laying a firm and strong foundation Made of faith and love and prayer And remember that ideas are like stars up in the sky. You can never really reach them.

Hangin' in the heavens high But like the mighty mariner, Who sailed the storm tossed sea. And used the stars to chart His course with skill and certainty.

You too can chart your course in life With high ideas and love Like the stars that light up the sky above. You cannot ever reach them. But lift your heart up high. And your life will be as shining

As the stars up in the sky.

Estill Alcorn, manager of the Rockcastle Ambulance Service, was also before the Court to inform them of the contract for the new 1972 ambulance. Mr. Alcorn told the Court that the ambulance was "going bad, using a lot of oil and beginning to knock".

After some discussion, the Court voted to have the ambulance taken to a repair shop in Somerset for an overhaul.

Mr. Alcorn then told the Court that since he had managed the service since the contract was made in July at the same salary as the other drivers received, he wondered if something might be done about providing the extra funds for him. He said that oftentimes he was called upon to work a double shift due to illness of the other drivers and he also pointed-out that all the other drivers worked a 48-hour week as opposed to the 40-hour called for in the original contract.

Boating Accident Claims Life of Mrs. Vincenta F. Howard, 27

A boating accident on Laurel River about 8 p.m. Sunday night claimed the life of a local woman, Mrs. Vincenta French Howard, 27, of Route 1, Mt. Vernon, also killed in the accident was Mrs. Sharon Sparks, 26, of McKee.

According to State Trooper Huchaby of the London Post, Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Sparks were seated in the front of an aluminum fishing boat when the boat was struck on the bow by a 17 foot runabout occupied by Chester Disney and Bobby Taylor, both of Corbin.

Mrs. Sparks was seated in the rear of the boat at the time of the collision. Mr. Sparks was reportedly thrown from the boat and swam to shore. Mr. Howard is in a Lexington hospital in critical condition.

The accident occurred about a mile from the Craig Creek Boat Landing at the White Oak Campground.

Mrs. Howard was born May 1, 1948 in Laurel County, daughter of Ben C. and Geraldine Durham French of Route 1, Mt. Vernon. She was a member of the Mareburg Baptist Church, the Kentucky Education Association and was a teacher at Roundstone Elementary School.

Survivors besides her parents and husband are one sister, Miss Benedetta French of Route 1, Mt. Vernon; her maternal grandmother, Betty French of Hamilton, Ohio; her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durham of Route 1, Mt. Vernon; and her maternal great grandmother, Mrs. Charles Durham of Hazel Green.

She was preceded in death by her paternal grandfather, Rolfe French.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Mareburg Baptist Church with Bro. Don Gunning and Bro. Charles Shivel officiating. Burial was in the Mareburg Cemetery.

Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Board Certifies Hunt Position On State Recommendation

At Monday night's meeting of the Rockcastle County Board of Education, the Board took up the question of certification of the position now held by Miss Martha Lewis Nicely.

At the August meeting of the Board of Education, KEA representatives were present requesting that the position now held by Miss Hunt be certified.

However, the Board refused to take action at that time.

At Monday night's meeting, Mr. Parsons gave the Board a recommendation on the matter which he had received from Ray Corns, an attorney for the State Department of Education, and Sam Alexander, also with the State Department of Education.

The recommendation was as follows: that Miss Hunt's present position be certified for one year, beginning July 1, as a full unit. This would enable Miss Hunt to receive retirement benefits and tenure and would cost the Board $7,208.

The Board was already paying Miss Hunt $6,980 plus $535 for one-half of the retirement benefits therefore they will be out less actual cash.

Of course, certifying the unit as eight-tenths of a unit also means that Miss Hunt will only work for eight-tenths of the nine month period normally worked by teachers.

After the recommendation, the Board voted to go into executive session while the matter was discussed between Board members and two attorneys present, Carl Clontz representing Miss Hunt and Tommy Bell of Lexington retained by Mrs. Isabelle Mason, a Board member.

A short time after the executive session was ended and the recommendation put forth earlier by Supt. Parsons was put in form of a resolution. Miss Mason, seconded by Mr. Adams and unanimously approved by the Board.

In other business, the Board acted the resignation of Marshall Norton as physical education teacher at Mt. Vernon Elementary School and approved the hiring of Kenneth Jackson as physical education teacher, MVES football coach and assistant baseball coach at the high school.

Martha Lewis Nicely was hired as teacher at Roundstone Elementary School. This position came open after it was found that Roundstone had enrolled 38 additional students over last year's figure and therefore qualified for an extra unit.

During the meeting, the Board also Granted Beverly Hill, third grade teacher at Mt. Vernon Elementary, a leave-of-absence for the rest of the school year; employed dMamie Louise Kirby as part-time custodian at Mt. Vernon Elementary, five hours per day at $200 a month or the minimum wage; employed the following substitute teachers, subject to certification: Juanita Robinson, Debra Stevens, Michael Robbins, Janet Lew Hunt, Brenda Skidmore and Carolyn Hoskins approved the general budget for 1975-76 and appointed Mrs. Doris Towery, R.N. as School Health Coordinator.

School Board Member Billy Burdine also recommended to the Board that forms be prepared on which bus drivers could detail what was wrong with their bus when it was brought in for repair at the schoolbus garage in Mt. Vernon. Mr. Burdine said that these forms the bus drivers could verify that the repairs had been made when he picked up the bus and sign for it.

As the final item of business, Chairman Rudolph Burdette told the Board that he felt the Board should pay Mr. Bell's fee (the attorney hired by Mrs. Mason) since the Board had not obtained the services of a lawyer for their use and since they were advised by Mr. Bell when the group went into executive session at the meeting. However, following some discussion, the recommendation was not put in the form of a motion by any Board member.

The Board also discussed the addition of a form to the records of each teacher, particularly one which has not received tenure, on which principals could note any comment or recommendation concerning the teacher and this would be passed on to the Superintendent and Board and be referred to when tenure for the teacher was discussed.

Fiscal Court Hears Opposition To Landfill Site; Sets Tax Rate

The Rockcastle County Fiscal Court met in regular session Tuesday morning and Wade Hopkins spoke to the Court concerning the location of their proposed landfill on land belonging to Clyde Payne on Highway 150 near Mr. Hopkins machine shop.

Mr. Hopkins told the Court that the proposed landfill would be located right over five big springs and would be a disaster to the community because of the possible contamination of the water supply in that area. Mr. Hopkins also said that there were about fifty persons living in the valley near the proposed landfill who would breathe nothing but smoke off the landfill should it be located on the Payne farm. One resident in particular who would be affected, Mr. Hopkins said, was Granville Holland whose water system is located less than 800 feet from the proposed site.

Mr. Hopkins further stated to the Court that should it prove necessary he and other residents of the area were ready to go to the federal level about it (the landfill site), "because it works".

The Court heard Mr. Hopkins out without comment and no discussion followed.

The next person before the Court was Superintendent of Schools Charles B. Parsons who asked the Court to approve the school tax rate for 1975-76. Mr. Parsons said that it was later than usual this year in being set due to the lateness of the school system receiving the forms from the State Department of Education.

Mr. Parsons asked the Court to approve a 59.2c rate per $100 of assessed property value this year as opposed to 39.0c last year. Mr. Parsons pointed out to the Court that this was not a large increase and that the rate set by the State Department of Education rather than locally.

The Court approved the rate and then proceeded to set the county rate, which breaks down as follows with last year's rate following in parentheses:

General Fund, 13.8c (13.7c); Health Department, 4.0c (3.8c); Library, 1.5c; Agriculture Department, 2.0c (1.75c); Soil Conservation, 25c for a total county levy of 21.2c per one hundred dollar assessment for real estate and tangible personal property.

The tax rate on bank shares remains at one hundred dollar valuation. The franchise tax rate was set as follows: General Fund, 13.8c; Health Department, 4.0c; Library, 1.5c; Agriculture Department, 2.0c; Soil Conservation, .22c for a total franchise rate of 21.2c.

The rate for state taxation was set as follows: 1.5c per hundred dollar assessment on real estate; 15.0c per one hundred dollar assessment on real estate; and 25.0c per one hundred dollar assessment on intangible property.

A 3c per acre (forest land) tax was levied on all privately owned forest land in Rockcastle County for the purpose of forest fire protection. The money collected for this tax is paid to the Kentucky State Treasurer for fire protection by the Kentucky State Division of Forest Service in Rockcastle County.

In other business, Magistrate Chester Whitaker brought up the subject of putting the question of taxation to support a garbage collection system and the ambulance service on the November ballot. Mr. Whitaker said that he felt this was the only way that the two services would ever be successful. After some discussion on the question, no action was taken by the Magistrate.

Estill Craig, Executive Director of the Cumberland Valley Area Development District, came before the Court and reminded them that the public hearing to record any comment on the county's use of coal severance tax funds to pay a $1,000 note used by the local improvement committee to take an option on an industrial site was scheduled for this meeting. Mr. Craig then asked if anyone in the courtroom had any comment and no one did except Magistrate Ernest Mason.

Mr. Mason had earlier expressed dissatisfaction with the motion because he felt that the application for this money might in some way hinder the county's application for funds for an industrial site from the fund.

At Tuesday's meeting, Mr. Mason again expressed dissatisfaction with the motion particularly since the Court has found that instead of the $12,000 expected in severance tax funds for this year there will only be a little over $2,000.

Mr. Mason said that this made his argument even stronger in that the county only had about $5,000 in these funds built up and this $2,000 asked for by the Improvement Committee represented quite a large portion of the money.

However, Mr. Mason told

FRANKFORT WATCHLINE

BY: GARY AUXIER

At 27, Nicky Nicholson already has been involved in more politics than most people see in a lifetime.

There was the Wendell Fordenate campaign, being a stint as campaign manager for Ewart Johnson in Johnson's unsuccessful bid for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor last May.

Before, after and in between there have been assignments with the state Democratic Party, including such responsible jobs as heading the delegation to the last mid-term miniconvention.

Knowledgeable insiders see Nicky Nicholson as "a man to watch" in coming years.

He recently proved his abilities in a tough and successful campaign for vice president of the National Young Democrats.

In the end, it looked easier than it was, when his chief opponent withdrew and Nicholson was elected by acclamation.

In the days and weeks before the election, Nicholson was very busy accumulating what turned out to be enough delegate votes to lock it up.

The main fruits of Nicholson's work with the Young Democrats are yet to come, though.

In the offing is a job as the first paid executive director of the National Young Democrats, a move that would install him in National Democratic Headquarters.

Nicholson said nothing is definite yet, but he admits he wants the job.

"You can't run a national organization without a competent national staff," he said, and he wants to run it.

On his return from the convention, Nicholson said he saw three concerns among the young people there, some of them rather surprising.

First of these, and not so surprising, is concern among the young Democrats about Gerald Ford's "good guy" reputation.

Nicholson said there is some fear among the young people that, "It's the kind of attitude that might get him re-elected. A good guy to them would be one who provides more competent leadership."

Attacks on the Democratic leadership in Congress came as Nicholson's biggest surprise at the meeting in St. Louis.

"There were very blunt discussions about the need for new leadership in the Democratic Congress," Nicholson said.

He noted that as Sargent Shriver pointed out, it has been one of the Ford administration's biggest victories having votes sustained by a Democratic Congress.

Nicholson's other big surprise at the convention was the evident support for National health insurance.

"At the mere mention of national health insurance, the place would break up every time."

Based on talk about the subject in Kentucky, Nicholson said he had no idea the interest in the controversial legislation was so high elsewhere.

Despite the broad splitting of votes among presidential candidates at the convention, Nicholson said it appears the young Democrats are ready to overwhelmingly support almost any candidate who can beat Gerald Ford.

Nicholson admits to being partial to one in that crowded field of contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination, but he declines to say who.

ramblings

Would like to take this space and opportunity to say a few words about Mt. Vernon Elementary's partial face-lift during the summer.

During the summer, the walls in the hall were painted a light blue in color and the lockers were also given a coat of paint in addition to the gymnasium.

This improvement was one certainly needed and we feel sure is appreciated by student, teacher and parent alike.

One "improvement" which I don't favor is the price charged to get into the football games at the new school. The first game we went to, against Russell County, it was $7.50 total. Now, I personally think the games are worth it but it does seem a little high at $1.50 a head. Maybe not for adults but for anyone who has several children as we do it begins to get expensive paying the same admission for them.

We hope that the tickets will be sold again this year to children at school at a reduced price although we haven't heard for sure yet. Berea's admission price was a pleasant surprise last week when it only cost us $4.00 on their family plan. Of course, we realize that their facility was built with matching federal funds is probably paid for, or close to it, but at the same time school administrators - have a heart...

Don't forget the pre-game ceremonies this Friday night officially opening the new football field at the high school. The field was not quite ready for a ceremony at the opening game so it was put off until this week and is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. The field is a community project in that donations were used to install the lighting system at the field to the tune of approximately $12,000. By the way, not all of this money has been pledged or donated and contributions, we are sure, would be

After September 6th, there will be a simpler way to dial long distance.

We've made it even easier to dial long distance. And with the millions of dollars we've spent for new equipment, a lot more reliable, too.

Instead of dialing three numbers to make a long distance call, dial "1" + the number for all station-to-station calls inside your area code.

For all station to station calls outside your area code, dial "1" + the area code + the number.

It's that easy.

Oh, you'll still need to go through the operator for long distance calls such as person-to-person, credit card, collect, or calls for time and charges.

But for everyday station-to-station calls, our new direct distance dialing system means faster, more dependable service. And best of all, it saves you money.

appreciated to make up the difference...

The last two mornings have been rather chilly although it still warms up during the day - but the chilly mornings are definite indication that Fall is nearby. We have been told by the local "winter forecasters that this year's winter will probably be a very hard one. Local surveyor Buster Gentry mentioned that the hornet's nesters are being built near the ground which is an indication that the winter will be a hard one and if that big green thing that my 12-year-old daughter found on the top of her lungs until we knocked it off was a woolly worm, they are certainly big and huge. I dread it as usual. Mainly, this year because of the expected increase in the price of heating our home and office. The children are getting a little large to bring them all downstairs and stuff them into two bedrooms so we may have to heat bricks to the heavy quilts, heated bricks and flannel on the seat of her pants childhood. It will probably be more healthful except for the shock your heart, not to mention feet, gets when you first crawl out of the bed on those cold winter mornings...

The Rockets football team have been hit by several injuries through their first two games of the season. Sophomore Mike Polly suffered a broken leg in the first game and in Friday night's game at Berea, the comment was, "it looks like a hospital over there", meaning the Rockets' sideline. Joe Clontz was injured on the first play of the game, twisting some muscles in his knee, and is a questionable starter for this Whitehead who sprained his elbow and finger and Shane Bullock is definitely out for this week with a groin injury. The Rockets are more or less in a rebuilding year, following last year's successful season, and are having a rather rough time of it. They lost several key players and are having to rely rather heavily on sophomores whose lack of experience shows occasionally. However, they are a scrappy team and should get better as the season progresses. Anyway, see you Friday night when the Rockets take on Lincoln County at home...

Miss Phyllis Marie Noe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Noe of Mt. Vernon, became the bride of Mr. Henry Dale Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coffey, also of Mt. Vernon Sunday, August 3 at 3 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Mt. Vernon.

The Reverend Ray Cummins of Corbin officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony. Vows were exchanged before a group of friends and arched candelabras with a candle cross as the main focus. Two baskets of yellow and white daisies with a background of greenery and palms punctuated the candlelit altar. Br is pew candles entwined with greenery and white satin ribbons accented the aisle. The couple knelt on a double brass kneeling bench for the wedding prayer, sung by Rev. Cummins.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Pamela Cash of Brodhead and Mrs. Terri Cummins of Corbin. Mrs. Cummins, soloist, sang "Tune in a Bottle" and "Wedding Song."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a designer gown of white imported organza enhanced with beautiful Venise lace and self flounces. The sweetheart neckline, cuffed short sleeves, empire waist and A-line silhouette added to the beauty of the lovely attached semi-cathedral train. Her profile headpiece of lace motifs was sparkled with pearls and held her floor length veil with cascades of Venise lace for a total look and to complete the radiant picture. She carried a bouquet of white daisy poms, white sweetheart roses and greenery.

Miss Debbie Noe, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She was attired in a charming floor length gown of maize floral print voile, with square neckline, puffed short sleeves, empire waist and flounced hemline. She wore a picture hat in maize with grosgrain ribbon trim. Bridesmaids were Miss Janice Coffey of Mt. Vernon, sister of the groom, Mrs. Jerry Lynn Smith, Richmond and Miss Kathi Monn of Dayton, Ohio. They wore dresses and hats identical to the honor attendant. ## ROCKCASTLE COUNTY FIRSTS.

The first white man to visit what would later become Rockcastle County was Dr. Thomas Waler, in 1850, ending here the expedition which made him the very first man to visit Kentucky and keep a written account of his journey.

The first white man killed by Indians in Kentucky died in Rockcastle County. He was John Stewart, brother-in-law of Daniel Boone. He disappeared on a solitary hunting trip in 1770. Five years later his skeleton was discovered in a hollow sycamore tree about five miles from Great Saltpetre Cave. It was identified by Boone by the initials of the powder horn found with it.

The first named and established trail across Rockcastle County was Skaggs Trace, discovered in 1768 by Henry Skaggs and named for him. It may well have been the first in Kentucky, aside from the ancient Warrior's Path of the Indians.

The first new road in both county and state made by a crew of men employed for that purpose, was Boone's Path to Boonesborough.

First high-ranking officer of the Revolutionary War to settle in Rockcastle to make it his home was Colonel James Dysart.

First family of record to settle in this county was that of David Lewis, who came from Petersburg, Virginia, in 1787, and occupied a log house two miles west of Mt. Vernon. A part of this house still stands.

First industry in the county was the extraction of saltpetre from Great Saltpetre Cave. By 1804 more than seventy men were employed here, making this the biggest commercial project in Eastern Kentucky.

First turbine wheel grist mill built by Moses Langford, near Langford's Station, on Roundstone Creek.

First waterpower sawmill brought into the county by Mordecia "Murdick" Mullins in 1805 and located on Rockcastle River a short distance above the mouth of Parker's Creek. Mullins and his four sons operated this mill for about ten years, in both grinding corn and sawing lumber.

First horse mill erected by Frederick Houk on farm now owned by Oliver Dowell.

Old Solly Griffin mill in Cove Valley is believed to have been the first grist mill operated by overshoot water wheel. The working parts of this old mill were carried away by vandals only a few years ago.

First census of Rockcastle County was taken by William Buford in November of 1810.

First County Court Clerk was Henry P. Buford. First Circuit Court Clerk was James Terrell. First jailor was James Proctor.

First town in Rockcastle County was Mt. Vernon, settled around 1794. Became County Seat in 1818.

First company of soldiers recruited in the county for service in the War of 1812 was raised and commanded by Captain (later General)

Company "H" Fourth Regiment Kentucky, under command of Captain John G. Lair, and organized at Somerset, Kentucky on October 3, 1812, was the first to include numerous volunteers from Rockcastle County. First to enlist from Rockcastle County was M.J. Miller, who in 1846 joined Col. Humphrey Marshall's Cavalry.

First to enlist in the Northern Army at the beginning of the War Between the States were Dr. Milton Frazier (made Captain), M.C. Miller, Jack and Granville Maret. First to join the Confederate forces were James and Lewis Smith and Toles T. Wallace.

First to go South with slaves for sale was Billy Smith, who left rockcastle at outbreak of Civil War with eight Negroes. One of them, George Mullins, escaped near Morrisstown, Tennessee, and came back to Mt. Vernon to his old mistress.

First party to start to California during the Gold Rush of 1849 consisted of J.R. Lawless, Oscar and J.J. Williams, Eliza Terrill and Harry Smith, a colored man. After reaching Missouri it was found that they did not have the required provisions for their party and it was decided by lot that J.J. Williams would turn back. Three months later the party reached California, where Oscar Williams died of typhoid. Others soon became discouraged and came home.

First stage coach line crossed Rockcastle in 1860. Operated between Crab Orchard and Cumberland Gap, running every other day.

First telegraph line through the county was built by the US Government connecting Camp Nelson and Cumberland Gap, with a local office in the Joplin Hotel, in Mt. Vernon. First local operator was Peter Jones. First acoustical telephone put in by J.E. Vowels, James Maret and J.L. Whitehead, connecting their places of business with the railroad depot. Electrical telephones installed by A.H. Bastian, James Maret and A.E. Albright in 1898.

First railroad in Rockcastle was the Louisville and Nashville, their tracks reaching Mt. Vernon in 1868. Livingston in 1870, and was not extended beyond the county line until ten years later.

First bank in Rockcastle County was the Bank of Mt. Vernon, established in 1900, with S.H. Martin as president, W.L. Richards as cashier and A.B. Furnist Assistant cashier. Capital $15,000.00.

First stretch of turnpike built by J.W. Rider, of Mt. Vernon. It extended from the city limits to the top of the hill toward Sand Springs, a distance of one-mile. It was built in 1906.

The first native of Rockcastle to own an automobile was 'Bill' Krueger. First garage and sales agency was installed by the Bryant Brothers. Their first Ford was the first new car in the county. Their first sale was to Mr. Frith of Brodhead, Kentucky.

W.H. Kirtley owned the first two-horse carriage in the county, J.L. Joplin soon brought in the second, for which he paid $400.00. It was in use for twenty-five years and parts of the running gear were still around more than fifty years later.

The first bicycle, a high-wheeler, was brought in by W.L. DeGraff.

William Cummins, at Moretburg, owned the first photograph in the county.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I invite every citizen of this county to come in and look my jail over. Ask the prisoners about me and the condition of my jail. These men know more than anyone else and they will tell anyone how this jail is.

The County Judge inspects this jail once each month - ask him. There is a man from Frankfort who is a jail inspector paid by the state. He makes a report on all of the jails in Kentucky and he says my jail is in real good condition and this man knows.

One complaint said my commodes were bad so I bought two and they cost the county over $1,800 in tax money. Now they say they want more. The next jury wanted mattresses so I put them in six months ago at a cost of $39.95 each. Then the next jury wanted blankets so I put them in at a cost of $29.95 each in tax money four months ago.

Now, how could these be so filthy in four to six months. The cells were painted only three weeks before the jury inspected it. The entire cells were painted including the floors, the bars and the shower bath. The prisoners sweep and mop each cell twice a week. Come in and ask them - they know.

There is no jail like a motel, it is impossible, I am doing my best and it is not a bad job. As to me getting rid of the loafers, these people you call loafers are not. They have people in prison and they come in to see them and they are welcome any time.

A recent study gave my jail a good classification. The report read in part:

Jails rated "poor" in the following counties: Barren, Boyle, Bracken, Bullitt, Garrard, Grayson, Graves, Hancock, Hart, Harrison, Henry, Hopkins, Madison, Martin, Morgan, Pendleton, Perry, Powell, Pulaski and Scott.

County jails rated "fair" by the inspection report were: Adair, Bath, Boone, Breathitt, Campbell, Carroll, Davies, Fleming, Jessamine, Johnson, Knott, Knox, Lawrence, Letcher, Lincoln, McCracken, Metcalfe, Monroe, Montgomery, Nelson, Oldham, Owen and Simpson.

County jails rated "good" were: Boyd, Clark, Crittenden, Cumberland, Estill, Fayette, Floyd, Franklin, Gallatin, Grant, Green, Greenup, Hardin, Jefferson, Magoffin, Marion, Marshall, Ohio, Pike, ROCKCASTLE, Russell, Shelby, Warren, Webster and Woodford.

Thank you Jury for your report.

County Agent's Notes

By H. Lee Durham
WHAT TO DO IN SEPTEMBER

Now comes September, the month that calls youngsters back to school, gives the workman his Labor Day, and revives one again in almost almost every living creature, a strange yearning, a wanderlust to be across and away.

Across open fields, in the woodlands, along roadsides, and over croplands flows a browsing of vegetation the rust of autumn. Soon the yellow glow of the goldenrod will be illuminating old weed fields, and the scarlet tapers of the cardinal flower that so impressed Daniel Boone on his first visit to Kentucky will be in bloom.

September is a good month and beautiful month, a time when the first hours of autumn begin to spread across the land.

With so many "lovely tokens" of fall to see, to enjoy, and experience, it is rather difficult to bring up the subject of work and recommended things to do in the garden, but to maintain a good existence, to have a pleasant winter, and a joyous, beautiful spring, some things need to be done in September. Here are some suggestions from Extension specialists at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.

Potatoes should be dug and stored away in September, apples picked, and particular care should be given to cabbage, cauliflower, celery, and other late crops. These crops should be watched carefully and sprayed when necessary to prevent late insect damage.

Daffodil and tulip bulbs should be set now and, for a more beautiful flower garden next spring, such bloomers as slyson, Dantelberg bells, candytuft, daylilies, helianthus, foxgloves, and peonies should be divided and replanted.

House plants that have been outside in the full sun this summer should be moved now to a location where there is heavy shade. After about four weeks in the shade - or at least a couple of weeks before frost - they can be moved indoors.

However, don't move plants directly inside from a full-sun location outdoors - the shock could be fatal to them.

House plants for the winter should be started in September if possible. Cuttings may be taken from geraniums and similar bedding plants now and rooted in water or damp sand. The re-potting of old plants can also be done now to good advantage.

of information on lawn establishment and maintenance.

The Old Almanac recommends reading the 34th Psalm in September, and suggests that one will do well to check the chimney for cracks that might allow a stray spark to pop out and set the house on fire. It also urges one and all to go paw paw and wild grape hunting and to take time to enjoy the blooming of that last wildflower of the season which old-timers used to call "Farewell Summer".

This, too, is good advice. So do what must be done, but above all don't let garden chores prevent you from enjoying this month which as the poet says, holds "Summer's best of weather and autumn's best of cheer."

SOD WEBWORMS

SOD WEBWORMS have failed again to read our literature about them and are about two weeks behind in their normal population pulses. Ordinarily the moths reach a peak abundance in the first week of August. This year the moths are becoming abundant now. Because the weather is still hot and may continue to be up into September, it is advisable to apply controls through the first week of September. Ordinarily adequate control was attained with two seasonal sprays - one in late June and another in the second week of August. In recent years, the generations of WEBWORMS seem to be overlapping more and lagging in their expected appearance times. If this behavior becomes the normal pattern, a greater number of control sprays will have to be used during the season to avoid intolerable damage to lawns. Insecticides registered for SOD WEBWORM control include Sevin, Durban, Diazinon, Baygon, Dylax, and Zectran.
