Sat., June 4, 1977-10:30 A.M.

Bowling Ridge Section, Rockcastle County, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have purchased property in Waynesburg and have contracted our firm to sell this desirable farmland at public auction.

The farm consists of 30 acres more or less of which approximately 15 acres is cropland. Stock water is furnished by a spring. There is some young timber on the farm. The farm fronts on both the Bowling Ridge road and the Tark Hill Road. This is an ideal farm for the hobby farmer or investor. The farm could easily be divided into small tracts or lots.

To Be Shown

The Judgement, a new hift color motion picture, will be shown at the Lighthouse Assembly of God on May. String, full color motion picture ever produced. You are actually projected in the Judgement, hundreds have found Christ as a result of the film!

The Judgement was born 18 years ago. The Lord had dealt with Pastor Clendennens heart concerning this subject. The Pastor has prepared as extension on The Judgement, which was to be precibed on Sunday morning, hear entirely, God awoke Pastor Clendennen and told him not to preach the message as planned, but to wait until He showed him exactly what to do. A few days later, while in prayer, the Lord brought the matter to Pastor Clendennen's mind again and instructed him to write auter, waite in prayer, the Lord brought the matter to Pastor Cheedenen's mind again and instructed him to write themsess and instructed him to write themsessed and instructed him to write themsessed. ### Takeover Not Automatic

When huving an existing home, taking over a mortage can be practical and profitable. But be cautious. Don't take for granted that signing the mortage to another is automatic.

The lender has a stake in who's going to repay him. Many mortages are written which specifically prohibit this practice without the consent of the mortage lender. The teeth will be found in an inserted acceleration clause which makes the whole balance due and payable upon sile.

Among outstanding ministers in the early history of religion in Kentucky, Reversed, or "Edder John Smith, was one of the best known. He was born in the State in Franklin, later obsorbed by Tennessee, but in 1796, when he was eleven years old, he moved with his family to Stockton's Valley, in Clinton County, Kentucky, remaining a resident of this state for the remainder of his life.

of this state for the remainder of his life.

Little is known of his anceptry except that his father, George Schmidt, came from Germany to America at an unknown date, and was married to Rebecca Bowen who was of Irish discent. They were the parents of twielve other children besides John 180 and 180 and horses stolen by a band of horse thieves who operated on a big scale over a considerable area. Being anxious to acquire an education he started making the sixteen mile trip to Monticello each day to attend a school there. Since he made the round trip daily on foot it is apparent that he valued an education very highly. After a few weeks of this he was forced to give it up, as his dish is not only a proper than the started with the started and the started with the started was forced to give it up, as his dish is not made of the time. Latter he received so much of the time. Latter he received

Being religiously inclined he often read the Bible to his neighbors and prayed with them. They encouraged him to prysch and it was his own inclination to do so, but felt that he had not "been called" to the work and was awalting some special message from the Lord to undertake it. He finally got what he considered his call in a rather unusued was attacked by one of his own ozen and impaled on his horns. He said he was attacked by one of his own ozen and impaled on his horns. He said he would know that he was being spared to become a preacher and would consider it acill to do so. In 1806 he was ordained as Baptist minister and started as Baptist minister and started hollow.

In 1814 Smith sold his farm and moved to Huntaville, Alabama, with his wife, their four children and his wife is brother. The next year while be was away from home considered to the home burned with the same way to be suffered to the home burned with the same way to be suffered to the same way from home at the time, visiting a sick neighbor and had taken their youngest child with her. Before he could rebuild their cabin his wife died from a combination of grief and sickness and he himself was desperately ill for several months. After his recovery he went back to Stockton's Valley, leaving his two remaining children in Alabama with relatives.

When he got back to the home of his brother in Stockton's Valley he received brother in Stockton's Valley he received a letter from a friend urging him to attend a meeting of Tates Creek Baptist Association to be held at Crab Orchard, Kentucky. Asked to preach during the meeting he did not make a favorable impression, being hot and dirty and dressed in clothing much too large for his emaciated form. Precautions

Sometimes we hear parents anguishing because they contributed to their child's injury or death NOTIVE anglet of ordinary safety presentations. In the contributed to their child's injury or death NOTIVE and the contributed to take measures to help the child avoid them. Children innocently exploring their exciting, attractive world may reconding an unprotected electric light socket, a hot stove, the poisonous cleaning chemical, the "treasures" of the medicine chest, or sharp scissors and medicine chest, or sharp scissors and knives.

Parenting persons are warned "to protect" the adventurous child from danger and dangerous objects. Most dol. Vigilance and presence of mind are a must for the care-givers of young important! Looking in or "the child who is suddenly "too quiet" is necessary. Frequenty moments of "unusual quiet-ness" are times when the child in "into" the forbidden oor dangerous activity. Children eventually learn to avoid "the Ingerous" and "The harmful" dangerous" and "The harmful" have a responsibility to belp and teach the child.

Morning Thoughts
I wake each morning glad that I.
May know the sun, the rain, the sky,
The gently twittering of birds,
The joy of creatures without words,
Dear Lord, your wonders bring to me,
A deep sense of humility,
And I am awed each time I wake,
So thank You, Father, for every hour,
I live to see a tree, a flower,
A bird in flight, a sunset hue,
That I may share, Dear God, with You!

What do Hospital Insurance Benefits Cover?

Part A pays for the cost of hospital care outside of doctors services. The money is paid directly to the hospital on the patient's behalf. Some of the Hospital Insurance Benefits are: Bed in empirivate room (24 beds in room) and all meals, including special diets; Departing room charges; Regular nursing services finebuding intensive hospitals; Laboratory tests. X-ray and other radiology services; and most other hospital services.

If after hospitalization a doctor prescribes follow-up care in a skilled nursing facility, Part A will help pay the cost. Hospital Insurance Benefits will also cover home health care services such as part time nursing, physical therapy and medical supplies other than drugs which a doctor prescribes after a stay in the hospital.

Part A will belp pay fou up ninety days of hospital care in one benefit period. There is also a "litetime reserve" of sixty additional hospital days, to be used if more than ninety days of hospital care are needed in one benefit period. Each "lifetime reserve" day used permanently reduces the total days left. Part A will pay for 100 days of care in a skilled nursing facility in the part A will pay for 100 days of care in a skilled nursing facility in the part A will pay for 100 days of care in a skilled nursing benefit period. There is a 190 day lifetime limit on care in psychiatric hospitals.
