Storing Apples-Winter Pears
A root cellar is the ideal keeping place for tart fall cooking apples and hard winter pears. Root-cellar temperatures here in Kentucky range from about 40 to 50 degrees and the humidity usually stays a high 90 to 95 percent.

But don't store fruits and vegetables close together. Partition off a little section from the rest of the root cellar for storing apples and pears. Wrap each fruit. Wrap each apple or pear individually in newspaper and put them gently in ventilated wooden boxes, crates, or shallow cardboard cartons.

Soapy, hard water, especially apples will keep from 4 to 6 months. Freshly-picked pears that are mature, but still green and hard, will keep from 2 to 7 months.

Check fruits every few weeks and remove any that might be starting to spoil. Don't forget about them!

Ripening stored fruits. Once you remove them from cold storage, apples can be used right away for cooking and eating. The pears will probably need ripening. Several days at room temperature, and out in the direct sunlight, will probably do the trick.

Basement Storage. If you don't have a root cellar, shelves along the outside wall of an unheated basement should make a good storage place for apples and pears. Another possibility would be an extra refrigerator.

If you'll watch the ads and garage sales or shop the second-hand stores, you can often pick up a used refrigerator for very little money.

A refrigerator is the modern-day replacement for a root cellar, offering about the same temperature range for keeping foods fresh and safe. But refrigerator air is much drier, so use perforated plastic bags to help hold in natural moisture, and check the fruit more often than you would in a root cellar.

The World's Greatest Athlete is proud to have been Newspaper Carrier

"It takes meanness to be a champion man," Bruce Jenner says. "And that's what Newspaper Carriers give you—meanness performance every day."

Bruce delivered newspapers through his 5th, 6th and 7th grade years in Tallahassee, Fla.

Being a Newspaper Carrier helped me to acquire the discipline I needed for training. And becoming a pro athlete. Competing with pain and injury. Bruce Jenner entered the 100-meter dash at the Montreal Olympics to win the most grueling of all competitions. The 1976 decathlon champion also won the only Olympic honor ever given to a newspaper carrier.

Now he's asking you to join the Treasury Department in saying "thank you" to our local Newspaper Carriers. It's their day—Newspaper Carrier Day, 1977.

Newspaper Carriers have steadily supported the U.S. Savings Bond program, buying Bonds regularly with their earnings. Through their Newspaper Carrier Thrift Clubs, many have set aside money for their college education.

Like Bruce Jenner, they believe in goals for the future. And that's what U.S. Savings Bonds are all about.

Vacation House & Tax Deferment

Among the benefits of being a homeowner are the unique tax advantages available. One of them to be wary of is the provision which allows you to defer paying income tax on any profit made from the sale of your home if you buy a more expensive one within a certain amount of time. It does not apply in all cases.

For example, if you sell a vacation home at a $2,000 profit and promptly buy a much more expensive place, can you defer paying the income tax on the profit? The answer is no.

This tax break is available only

Down on the Farm

By Danny McKinney
Cumberland PCA
Branch Manager

Tobacco stripping is really getting underway "down on the farm". If you noticed, I said stripping rather than grading. We used to grade tobacco but nowadays we strip. We're more interested in getting the leaf off the stalk and tied than we are in quality. Most of us strip tobacco and sort it according to length of leaf more than any other characteristic. Occasionally we will start a 2nd or 3rd grade with damaged, green or dirty leaves. The tobacco buyers have permitted us to do this over the years and I think quality is really suffering and our pocketbooks are, too, possibly.

Some years ago we used as many as seven grades and that many is probably too selective. We should give more consideration on the texture, color and type of leaf and grade this tobacco rather than just stripping.

Cash Payments To Make Up "Shortfall"

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) will make cash payments totaling $758,498 to schools in Kentucky to make up for a shortfall in food donations for school lunches. The funds are part of a national payment of $34,848,000 announced by Assistant Secretary for Food and Consumer Services Carol Tucker Foreman.

The National School Lunch Act provides that schools are to be given a specified value of donated foods for each lunch they serve. If they are not provided all the foods programmed for their school, they are to be given cash payments to make up the difference. For this fiscal year 1977 (ending Sept. 30) the value of donated foods was programmed at 11.75 cents per lunch.

As of Aug. 1, the foods actually donated and scheduled to be donated amount to approximately 11 cents a lunch. USDA's Food and Nutrition Service is therefore making payments of approximately ¼ of a cent for the 4.7 billion lunches being served this year.

The notice announcing that the cash payments will be made is scheduled to appear in the Federal Register of Aug. 26.

Rockcastle Co. to share in new federal program

A total of $385,791 or more than half the amount allocated to Kentucky, will be going to Fifth District counties under a new program compensating them for tax-exempt federal lands within their boundaries.

Congressman Tim Lee Carter, in an announcement about the amounts for each county, said, "The Payments in Lieu of Taxes Act of 1976, which I had cosponsored and actively supported in the House, provides a more equitable return for the counties."

"The payments being made under this new law will be especially helpful in our area because of the Daniel Boone National Forest lands on which the counties have been unable to obtain normal property tax revenues. The money being channeled through the Bureau of Land Management can be used for any governmental purposes, and this will be a boon to our local governments also," the Congressman said.

The annual payments to counties are made under a formula taking into account the acreage of "entitlement lands," population and certain other payments received under various federal land laws.

The total to be paid this year to Rockcastle counties is $672,399. The amount for Rockcastle County in lieu of taxes is $7,293.

Asst. Chief Grider Resigns; Cites "Personnel Problems"

The resignation of Assistant Police Chief John Grider was accepted by the Mt. Vernon City Council at their regular meeting Monday.

Grider was a member of the Mt. Vernon Police Department for 2 1/2 years. He is now an officer with the Berea Police Department. The resignation was effective Saturday.

In Mr. Grider's letter of Resignation, he stated that he had been treated with fairness and consideration in his 2 1/2 years with the police department.

The letter further stated, "Being assistant chief, my goal was to organize a police department that the community could be proud of. I feel this has been accomplished to a great extent, with one exception.

Due to a recent conflict within the department, I was not permitted to use the authority that was once given to me - when I felt it was needed - and it has effected the morale of the whole department."

The letter went on to say, "In order to have an organized department, there must be rules and regulations that apply to all with no partiality shown - this has not been applied and has affected the department as a whole. Therefore, due to the recent conflict, I feel I can no longer perform the job that is expected of me."

Mr. Grider's letter did not specify the nature of the "recent conflict" nor was it brought out at the council meeting.

A special committee was appointed by Mayor Roland Mullins from among the council members to investigate the police personnel problems. They are to determine whether or not a new officer will be needed. They will make their recommendations to the council next Monday at a special meeting.

The council received two bids for insurance coverage for the city in the coming year. Singleston, of the Agency had the low bid at $6,540. The other bidder was the Norton Insurance Agency which bid $7,194. Singleston-Ford will also continue to hold the city's bonds.

The annexation project on the north end of Mt. Vernon ran into another snag. The area to be incorporated will need to be re-surveyed or new descriptions of the city limits drawn because of a break-down in communication between Fannie Mullins, a resident of the area and the city.

Mrs. Mullins requested that only 200 feet of her frontage be incorporated but all of the property was surveyed.

Parking problems were brought to the council's attention at two locations. John Bullock requested that "No Parking" signs be replaced on School Street near Richmond St. at Mt. Vernon Elementary School. He said trucks were parking there near the school creating a hazard for school children.

Sam Ford and Dennis Singleston requested that parking be restricted on the south side of Highway 25 behind the courthouse. Parked cars have been parking along the cement wall there obstructing view. According to them, 3 accidents have occurred there within the past year.

Annexation of the Hale-Robinson property on Rose Hill Road was brought to near completion Monday night. The final survey will be verified by city attorney Carl Clontz. Notice was made to annex the property subject to his approval.

The city accepted three streets for maintenance, two in Valley Manor subdivision and another on Town Hill.

The city accepted North St. from Clarence Carter and a portion of U.S. 150, for water. A committee will investigate the possibility.

The council also discussed a request from Arthur Dowe, a resident on U.S. 150, for water. A committee will investigate the possibility.

Food Stamps will be free in spring of '78

In the spring of 1978, Kentucky food stamp recipients will get their food stamps without paying a fee, according to Gall Hucker, social insurance commissioner in the state's Department for Human Resources.

Under the current system, persons eligible for food stamps must buy them, paying a slide-scale fee less than the value of the stamps they receive. A billigned last week by President Carter removed the payment system from the federal food stamp program.

When the new law takes effect next spring, each client will receive free food stamps equal to that client's present "bonus" amount. "Right now, for instance, a person may be paying $400 for food stamps with a value of $100," Commissioner Hucker explained. "Under the new law, this person will (Cont. 'd to P-4)

Over 3 million budget approved for 77-78 by school board

The close estimate budget for Rockcastle County schools was approved by the Board of Education at their regular monthly meeting last Wednesday night.

According to figures in the budget, total receipts from all sources expected this year will be $3,561,000.05 as compared to $3,184,317.52 received last year. The increase of $376,712.53 will be made up primarily of $104,000 in par equalization funds and $245,807 more from the foundation program. Decreases in the amount of local taxes received of $145,000 and $300,000 less from franchise taxes are monies that instead of being collected and paid directly to the school board will, this year, be sent to the state who will then return the money to the local board of education with actually no loss of revenue to the schools.

At Wednesday night's meeting, school board member, Mrs. Isabelle Mason questioned where the par equalization money had been placed in the budget.

Supt. Charles Parsons, who, along with finance director Lloyd Shuttles, prepared the budget, explained that most of the money would be used to keep pace with inflation.

Supt. Parsons pointed out that $118,000 was budgeted this year for the purchase of five new school buses and some panel buses. These buses are estimated this year at $15,000 each and $10,000 for the panel buses. Last year, $48,284.33 was spent in this category.

Another area where the allocation was raised were gasoline and lubricants, $38,000 to $50,000, $12,000 more for electricity, $10,000 more for coal and $69,000 was budgeted for contingencies - up from $30,000 allocated for this last year.

Mrs. Mason told the board that she would have liked to have seen the par equalization funds used to purchase land for a middle school. However, Supt. Parsons explained that a site was already available for the middle school in front of the new high school on land already belonging to the board. Mrs. Mason then suggested that some improvement or even replacement might be made of the teaching trailers at Mt. Vernon Elementary. Mr. Parsons said that it was to the board's discretion where the money should be budgeted but reminded the board that, in his opinion, any monies expended on the trailers, particularly if replaced entirely, could conceivably delay construction of the new middle school which would alleviate the overcrowded condition at the school resulting in the necessity for the trailers now.

Mr. Parsons then reminded the board that any of the funds allocated to the various accounts but not expended, reverts to the general fund at the end of the fiscal year and is treated as income for next year's budget.

The board approved the close estimate budget as presented and it breakdown generally as follows with the amount received last year following in parentheses:

Rockets average 1 point loss; paste Casey Co. 50-6

The Rockets averaged a 1 point loss to Casey County last year and never required the services of their punter as they rolled over the Rebels 50-6 last Friday night.

Although the Rebels received the opening kick-off and had to punt from their own 36 after Kyle Miller got to the runner in the backfield on a 3-2 for a two yard loss.

The Rockets' first score came on their first drive which began on their own 40. A 13 yard pickup to the Rebels 29 and a 14 yard pass from Hammons to right-end Eddie Thompson set up the touchdown with Hackworth going over for the score from the 10. Hammons then added two extra points and it was 8-0 with 5:59 left in the first quarter.

Miller's kick goes into the end zone for a touchdown and Casey began their drive from the 20.

Two illegal procedure penalties against Casey, a quarterback sack by Tony Saylor and a blocked pass by 61, 71 and 77 forced Casey to punt from their own 5; however, the punt hit a Rocky player on the way down and Casey recovered on their own 42. The Rebels kicked the ball and had to punt.

On the Rockets' next series, two runs of 45 and 21 yards by Steve Mitchell through a hole made by lineman Dusty Carlotta and Brian Stokes, put the ball on Casey's 1 yard line and Mitchell scored from there and Hackworth's try for the two extra points was good. The Rockets were ahead 16-0 with 11:58 to go in the second quarter.

The Rebels returned Miller's kickoff to their own 48 and lost as though they might be going to pick up their second first down of the game; but, the Rockets defense had other ideas as they held the Rebels on 4th and inches on the Rockets' 45.

On the first play from scrimmage, Mitchell picked up a first down to the Rockets' 35.

David Owens got 7 yards on the next play and Hackworth got 5 and a first down on the next play to Casey County's 25.

There was another good gain by the Rockets on the next play which was nullified by a personal foul penalty on the Rockets back to the Rebel 40.

The Rockets were not to be denied however as, on the next play, Earl Hammons connected with Rick Anderkin for a 30-yard pass and Anderkin ran the last 10 yards for the score. The extra (Cont. 'd to P-7)

It's 'Lasses-Makin' Time in Rockcastle County

It's "Lasses-Makin" time in Rockcastle County and that is exactly what the Charles Brooks and Aster Durham families of the Copper Creek area are busy doing these days.

It's not your usual mule-powered, pot boiling method of molasses-making. Mr. Brooks, an employee of the City of Mt. Vernon, has built quite a sophisticated grinder powered by a 220 electric, 5 h.p. motor.

As soon as the juice is "ground" from the cane, it flows into a converted washing machine tub where it is strained, then pumped to a holding barrel where it is strained again and then gravity fed into a five-stage evaporator which Mr. Brooks also built. The evaporator is heated to over 300 degrees by a furnace on which it sits and the juice is skimmed five times while being processed through the evaporator. Finally it leaves the evaporator and is strained for a last time before being cooled and bottled.

It is a family affair. Mr. Brooks hauls the cane to the site; Mr. and Mrs. Durham's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carolyn Durham, then removes the "heads" from the cane and helps anywhere else needed; Ernest Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks' son, and a helper, Conley Peters, then feed the cane into the grinder or crusher; then Mrs. Brooks, Mr. Durham and the Brooks' daughter-in-law, Janet, keep the juice moving through the evaporator while skimming it, and finally bottle the finished product. Of course, there has to be someone to load the wood chopped to feed the furnace and this chore is performed by David Croley.

Mrs. Brooks said it would take about 10 days to "make" the two acre crop and the yield would be around 250 gallons.

In addition to their two acres of cane, the Brooks and Durhams families will make 3 other crops of cane.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks' daughter-in-law, Janet, left, and Aster Durham, work the juice through the five stage evaporator while Mrs. Willis Kidwell looks on. The juice is gravity fed into the evaporator and kept near 300 degrees heat by a wood-fuel furnace under the evaporator. Mrs. Brooks said the advantage to the evaporator, where the juice is skimmed five times, is that a redder, clearer produce is achieved.

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK EDITORIAL

What They Don't Know Won't Hurt Them

By George Jopin
President
National Newspaper Association

The hour was late; the streets were dark and empty. A night watchman made his rounds from door to door of the downtown businesses. Most people had gone home for hours, many of them already in bed asleep. But the lights still glowed brightly in the newspaper office and the old manual typewriter clikety clacked away as the editor recorded what articles had been taken at that council meeting that night.

Soon, thousands of people would read that story and learn what city council had done to perhaps change their lifestyle, alter their business routine or lower their insurance rates. They would learn how each councilman voted on an issue and who they should contact if they disagreed with the position a councilman took. The people wanted this information and knew they could find it in their newspapers.

That's why the lights burned late in the newspaper office, because an editor was dedicated to giving his subscribers a detailed accounting of just what transpired at that council meeting. The next night it would be a school board meeting; the next a civic club dinner, then a meeting of the planning and zoning commission and on and on. The newspaper would be represented at each of these. Stories would be written and published so the people would be informed of what was going on in their community.

"Congress shall make no law... abridging freedom of speech, or of the press." The First Amendment to the Constitution states the cornerstone of our democracy. Without this, all of our liberties would be insecure. Yet these freedoms are being threatened by representatives in government who assume the attitude that it is better for the people to not know what is going on, what action they are considering or have already taken. "What they don't know won't hurt them," they boast. But what they really mean is that if they transact their business under a cloak of secrecy, no one will know what they are doing and they can run the government as they darn well please.

How many times in recent years has it been noted in stories that a school board, city council, fiscal court or some other governing body has gone into executive session to discuss a problem, a situation that possibly would be embarrassing? All too many! If it is public business they are discussing, then rarely should it be conducted behind closed doors.

When you pick up a newspaper today you have freedom in your hands, but will you still have that freedom of information tomorrow if governmental bodies are allowed to go unchallenged into one secret executive session after another?

The threat, the challenge rests in the hands of the people and if they - you and I - don't speak up and tell our representatives how we feel, personally or through editorials and letters to the editor, then we may soon find ourselves without a right to know - unable to hold freedom in our hands.

Then there will be no need for the lights to burn into the wee hours of the night in the newspaper office, no need for the typewriter to clikety clack. In fact, there will be no need for the night watchman to make his rounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Derrell Proctor and son of Covington spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Proctor, Doug, Paula and Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny DeBorde were in Lexington Friday to consult a doctor for Mr. DeBorde.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mullins, Mrs. John Glovack, Sr., and Mrs. Ruth McFerron were in London Saturday to attend a Woman's Club Meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mullins was in Lexington Thursday night and Friday due to death of Dr. Byron Young's grandmother who lived in Richmond.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McWhorter were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crowley and Danny of Dayton, Ohio.

Conley Peters and Ernest Brooks feed cane into the grinder which was mainly built by Mr. Brooks. The juice derived is strained twice before being fed into the evaporator. The two-acre crop, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Aster Durham will take about 10 days to process. In addition, they are also processing three other crops. One of the last steps to the molasses-making procedure is being carried out by Mrs. Charles Brooks and Mrs. Willie Kidwell, right. The juice is strained the final time before being bottled. Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Kidwell are getting all of the juice through the cheesecloth used to strain it.

SUBJECT TO THE NOVEMBER GENERAL ELECTION

I am taking this opportunity to announce my candidacy for Magistrate of the 5th District as a Write-In Candidate, subject to the November General Election.

I am married to the former Maudie Carpenter and we have seven children and five adopted children. I earnestly solicit your support in the coming election. Reprinted below is the state law as it pertains to a write-in candidate.

Joe Clark

LIVINGSTON

Ky. Election Law KRS 117-265 provides that a voter may cast a write-in vote for any person whose name does not appear on the ballot as a candidate. Ky. law does provide in addition that a voting machine must be capable of permitting write-in votes, that the County Clerk is responsible for seeing that the machines are equipped with the write-in instruments, and that the precinct election officers must be capable of instructing voters of the write-in procedure.

Mrs. Brooks keeps the molasses stirred so that it will drain through the cheesecloth from the evaporator. It may not be the same method as molasses were made for years but it is no doubt much easier to process and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Durham think the product is better. From a personal sampling, we are inclined to agree.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Singleton, Stephanie, Holly and Adams, Penny Cruise of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parsons and Elizabeth of Lexington, Mr. Gervis Singleton, Craig, Allan and Leslie of London, Mrs. Cuba Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Craig, Stacy and Corey, Mrs. Barbara Watson was a Sunday afternoon visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McWhorter. Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Prewitt and family were also visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kessinger, Vicki and Debbie McWhorter of Clark County visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed McWhorter recently.

receive what we call the bonus value of stamps free of charge—in this instance, stamps worth $60 at the grocery. To buy their usual amounts of food, clients will need to supplement their bonus food stamps with the amount of cash they have been paying for the stamps.

The revision will not increase the state's cost per food stamp client, Ms. Huecker said. State money is involved only in administrative functions of the program. The cost of food stamps is paid totally by federal funds.

According to Leah Bentley, manager of the food stamp branch in the Department for Human Resources, the new law will make a difference to people at both extremes of the food stamp eligibility scale. "The income ceiling is being lowered, so some recipients with incomes at the top of the scale may no longer be eligible," Mrs. Bentley said. "On the other hand, persons who could not get food stamps because they had no income to buy them may now be eligible."

The Durhams' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carolyn Durham, also helps in making the molasses. Here she is removing the "heads" from the cane before it is fed into the grinder. Except for the heads, the entire cane stalk and leaves are used. The two-acre crop will yield about $250 gallon of molasses, Mrs. Brooks said.

Earl Hammons, No. 10 on the bottom of the pile, is shown just after scoring two extra points for the Rockets in Friday night's game with Casey County played here. The Rockets punted the Rebels 50-6 for their fifth win of the season. Other Rockets in the picture are, from

The referee indicates the final touchdown of the game for the Rockets as freshman quarterback Dwayne Thomason punched over from the five yard line behind some excellent blocking by Kenny Johnson. Other Rockets in the

Earl Hammons found tight end Eddie Thompson all alone in the end zone for a Rockets' touchdown last Friday night.

Hammons passed for two touchdowns in the game which the Rockets won 50-6.

"ROCKETS WIN"

point attempt was no good but the Rockets were ahead 20-0 with 8 minutes showing on the clock in the second quarter.

The Rockets next score came less than 3 minutes later.

The Casey offense turned the ball over to the Rockets on Casey's 40 on downs and David Owens immediately picked up 30 yards to the 10. Mitchell then got 4 and, on the next play Hammons hit Eddie Thompson in the end zone for the score. Hammons then punched over the goal line for the two extra points and it was 28-0 with 5:17 left in the first half.

With 1:21 left in the first half, Todd Fields blocked a Rebel punt and returned it to the Rebel's 3, two plays later, Hackworth scored and David Owens made the two extra points for the half-time score of 34-0.

Freshman Dwayne Thomason quarterbacked the second half and marched the Rockets to a touchdown on the Rockets' first series of the second half.

Sophomore Brian Owens did some hard driving running on the scoring drive and went over for the touchdown from the 2. Kenny Johnson got the 2 extra points and the Rockets were ahead 44-0.

Two face mask penalties and a long run by a Rebel helped to set up Casey's only score of the game, a 10-yard pass and 6 yard run resulted in the touchdown. However, the young Rockets defense wouldn't allow the two extra points.

The next scoring threat by the Rockets was set up by an intercepted pass by Walter Browning, who had already had his work-out with a recovered fumble and 15-yard quarterback sack.

Browning returned the ball to the Rebel 15. Two plays later, Thomason, after a good gain, fumbled the ball at the goal line and the Rebels recovered it for a touchback.

After making one first down, the Rebels turned the ball over to the Rockets on downs on their 39. Two first downs later achieved by some excellent running by Thomason and Owens, Thomason went over from the 5 behind a good block by Kenny Johnson for the final score of the game.

The Rebels have 11 seniors on their squad and it was thought the game would be closer than it was. But, a good deal of the credit for the Rockets' impressive 5-1 record thus far lies with the Rockets' excellent offensive linemen, Eddie Thompson, Dusty Carlotis, Rick Anderkin, Robert Owens, Brian Stokes, Casey Hines and Todd Fields; an alert and quick defense led by Kyle Miller, Earl Lewis Hammons, Danny Hunt, Mark Holbrook, Tony Saylor, Matt Poynter and Walter Browning; a good deal of extra effort from the Rockets' running backs, Billy Hackworth, David Owens and Steve Mitchell and the improved passing game of quarterback, Earl Hammons.

This Friday, the game originally scheduled for Friday night at Estill County, will instead be played Friday afternoon because of a lack of lights on Estill's new playing field.

DHR to receive grants

Two federal grants will help the Department for Human Resources (DHR) make it easier for more than 285,000 older Kentuckians to obtain two vital needs - food and transportation, says Peter D. Conn, secretary of Human Resources.

The grants, which total $159,402, will be used to hire 14 "nutrition aides" and 14 "escort aides". The new workers will be DHR employees, but assigned to local agencies which serve senior citizens.

The nutrition aides will be outreach workers for nutrition programs which are funded through Title VII of the Older Americans Act. They will contact older people who would benefit either from group meals or home-delivered meals, telling them about those services and encouraging them to take advantage of them.

The escort aides will act as dispatchers or drivers for agencies which provide necessary transportation for low-income elderly and/or handicapped people.

In Eastern Kentucky, 45,000 older residents may benefit from two grants. There will be eight job openings, four nutrition aides, and four escort aides. Counties whose residents are eligible for the positions are Bath, Boyd, Greenup, Laurel, Lee, McCreary, Montgomery, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Rowan, Wayne and Whitley.

The grants were awarded under the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, which provides opportunities for low-income people. They apply to the 89 counties for which Gov. Julian M. Carroll is "prime sponsor" for training and employment programs.

What To Do In October

In the latitude that takes in the United States and with respect to meteorology, October is nearly always a delightful month. Certainly it is one of the "most beautiful and interesting months of the year." "At every turn," as the poet Edmund Clarence Stedman once wrote, "the maples burn," and the air has a mellow tang peculiar to the month alone. Happy is the person privileged to spend a lot of time outdoors in October.

In the northern parts of the nation, the first hard frost of the aging year usually comes in October. The accompanying cold spell, or spells, however, that follow do not often last for very long. Periods of warm lay, hazy days followed by crisp, bracing nights ideal for sleeping are usually the rule.

The chief beauty of October is in its changing foliage. The woods are a gorgeous kaleidoscope of an endless pattern of crimson and gold, yellow and burnt amber, and about all the shades and hues common to the color spectrum. Even the somber pine forests are brighter here and there by the scarlet tapers of the staghorn sumac and the red leaves of the trailing sawbrier. In unassuming beauty, goldenrod, farwell summer, cardinal flower, and the misty blue bloom of hardy ageratum make the lowlands and roadsides gay as in the days of spring.

October is a busy time for resident birds, most of which are seed eaters. Ripening weeds of the dry fields, meadows, and river bottoms furnish them with feasts and they take advantage of the abundance.

Woodpeckers, jays and endless forms of other wildlife scurry about storing up beechnuts, acorns and other provender for the austere times that are ordained to come by the seasons.

October is also a busy time for the farmer and gardener who, too, must harvest and store away for austere times to come. Then there are other things that can be done to help make the old homestead more beautiful next spring.

Horticultural and garden specialists of the UK College of Agriculture recommend the completion of such tasks in October as these: mow the lawn weekly and keep it leaf free; encourage bluegrass to fill in empty spaces. Plant broadleaf and needle evergreens during the month, as well as tulips and other spring flowering bulbs.

These experts also recommend planting deciduous plants when they start losing their leaves; cutting roses back to about 30 inches and tying the tops to prevent wind damage; digging summer bulbs before the ground begins to freeze; watering deeply and mulching any plants likely to suffer from winds and drought; and wrapping tree trunks to prevent sun scald. Visitors were also present from Jamestown Chapter.

Other tasks that may pay off in October is to check Irish potatoes dug earlier in the summer and discard any showing rot signs. After harvest, plow under or otherwise work the garden to help reduce weeds next season. Gather pumpkins and squash with a piece of stem attached and store in a shady, dry frost-free place.

Also, by all means, take time out to wander the countryside, listen to wild geese flying over, and gather in a supply of walnuts, hickorynuts, hazelnuts, wild grapes and persimmons. These wild crops taste mighty good in the depths of winter and are something less than work to gather. In fact, they are fun.

Two gospel singings scheduled for county Oct. 14 and 15

Eternal Truth

WORLD

By Austin Mobley, Minister
Providence Church of Christ

The term "rip-off" is often heard in our modern conversation. Some of us are more familiar with the words "cheat" or "steal". Regardless of the expression we use, they all signify the same thing - dishonesty.

Society's motto is: "Get all you can on any way you can." Standards are so low today that unethical conduct is described in terms which are less offensive, such as "rip-off," "looting," etc.

While hearing the interviews David Frost had with ex-president Nixon, one was left with the impression that Mr. Nixon's action in Watergate was to save the country. Whatever your political views may be, the term "patriotic" was used to cover up dishonesty. If not, why is the Watergate affair called a cover-up?

The head of a penal institution, while speaking to a church group, said, "If a man steals some coal from a railroad, they send him to jail; if he steals the whole railroad, they send him to congress." What a sad comment for our country when those elected to public office are dishonest!

Then consider the recent report where General Motors installed Chevrolet engines in higher priced cars. This was a fraud-it was dishonest. But to hear G.M. explain it, they sounded downright virtuous. They said, "We have been doing this for years, and no one has complained before. And besides, it is a good motor." They felt justified for past action because they had not been caught! What they did was dishonest.

This conversation between two women was overheard by a preacher in a Cleveland, Ohio airport. "Do you know what happened yesterday when I was shopping?" asked one of the ladies. "I bought a $50 coat, and the clerk mirrored the tag and only charged me $30." "You corrected her, didn't you?" the other lady asked. "Of course not. What's the difference? That big department store will never miss it!" Well, there is a great difference-the difference between honesty and stealing.

Many even some who claim to be Christians, can perform the most dastardly deeds and, by rationalization, try to justify them. That switch might work if we could judge ourselves on the final day, but Christ will be the judge, and His word the standard of judgment. The Bible teaches: "Provide things honest in the sight of all men."

Cong. Carter joining effort for permanent income tax cut

Congressman Tim Lee Carter is joining in the effort to force a vote in Congress on a proposal for a permanent, across the board income tax cut for individuals.

Rep. Carter, R-Tompkinsville, issued a statement Oct. 5, about his decision to support a move to force the tax cut bill out of the House Ways and Means Committee. House and Senate Republican leaders announced that day they would seek to bring the bill to a vote using what is known as a discharge petition.

The bill, H.R. 8333, was introduced originally by Rep. Jack Kemp, R-N.Y. The prime sponsor in the senate is William V. Roth, R-Del.

I am going to sign the discharge petition on the Roth-Kemp bill because it is time that the promises I give the people of this country some tax relief be kept, Congressman Carter said.

I had cosponsored this bill because I agree that the best stimulus we can give our economy is a tax cut to put more money into the hands of individuals.

This legislation would reduce all individual income tax rates by an average of one third. That 10 percent per year permanent tax cut, phased in over a three-year period, would be reflected immediately in larger take-home pay, and that is what our people need.

Many persons wrote to me this year asking, "When am I going to get my $50 check. I sure could use that money." While I regret that early promise of a $50 rebate was reneged on by the Administration, the many letters I received showed the urgent need among our people for financial help.

A tax cut as proposed in this bill would bring immediate and permanent relief to those workers in the lower and middle income brackets who most deserve and need a helping hand. I am pleased to sign the discharge petition in hopes that this action can help bring that relief to our taxpayers.

Come to the 50's Party, October 22 at 7:30 p.m. Dig out your old clothes and dress like you did then. Bring 50's records, pictures, analogs, etc. Admission is $2 per person.

"We have been trying to schedule the Russian team for some time and are extremely happy to offer such an international attraction to our fans," said Hagan. "We also feel this is an excellent substitute for our usual Blue-White game."

Wildcat head basketball coach Joe B. Hall, who was a guest lecturer with Russian coach Alex Gumeny at the World Basketball Congress in the Canary Islands this summer, said, "This will be most exciting game for us."

The timing of the game will come midway in our practice season and the difference in international rules and playing a tough Russian team will serve as a buffer to the usual boredom that normally sets in after three-to-four weeks of practice.

Not only will the Russians serve as a detractor to boredom, but it may be the only time this year the Wildcats, who feature four 6-foot-10 players, will look up to their opponents with the Soviets' roster listing 7-4, 7-2 and three 6-10 players.

Other collegiate teams facing the Russians include four Kentucky foes: Louisiana State, Indiana, Notre Dame and Alabama, while UKTT participant St. John's also offers opposition.

Tickets to the game will go on sale October 31 at the Memorial Coliseum ticket windows on Euclid Avenue and are priced at $5.00 for general admission and $3.00 to UK students with I.D. cards. No mail orders will be accepted.

$10 million in contracts awarded for comm. equipment

Over $10 million in contracts have been awarded to three successful bidders on communications equipment for the Kentucky Emergency Warning System (KEWS).

KEWS, a network of microwave towers to be completed in early 1979, will give Kentuckians early warnings of storms and other threats to life and property. It will also provide critical communications during rescue and relief operations following disasters. During non-emergency periods, various state agencies will use the communication networks.

KEWS will provide weatherproof message transmission for the state police, the national guard, National Weather Service, Disaster and Emergency Services and for other state agencies. It will also provide video service for Kentucky Educational Television.

Awarded contracts were: *Farinon Electric of San Carlos, California, $3,685,837 for computerized alarms and microwave equipment.

*General Electric Co. of Lynchburg, Va., $4,286,067 for UHF equipment and consoles.

*GTE Lenhurst Inc. of San Carlos, Calif., $2,169,900 for multiplex systems.

KEWS, $20 million system approved by the 1976 General Assembly, will provide two-way voice-data and video transmission.

Only the Newspaper

Looking — whether it's for news, entertainment, or shopping tips — look first to newspapers. It's all there, in one package. Conversant people are farsighted enough to include regular newspaper reading to help keep them informed.

Freedom In Our Hands

By James E. Olson
President, Wisconsin Newspaper Assn.
Publisher, Richland Observer,
Richland Center

Man's struggle through history is his struggle for freedom.

In early times, he was under the control and domination by his government, and his government ruled by what was called the divine right of kings. There were few challenges inside a country to that idea. The only challenges came from outside a country, and then the prevailing end was that might made right.

In those times, education for the people was viewed as dangerous, not for the people but to the government. Only those who could be completely trusted by the ruling institutions were permitted the luxury of learning to read, and then that learning was provided under strict conditions and circumstances.

The period was termed in history as the Dark Ages.

Then came the Renaissance, the new birth, with its revival of art, literature, and learning. Integral to that era was the invention of Johann Gutenberg, the German printer who first used movable types. This made possible the publication of printed materials, however limited, and it in turn gave impetus to a demand by the people to learn to read.

Through the next 300 years, that demand grew, slowly but surely, and as it did so did the struggle of man grow to stronger ideas for greater freedoms.

Finally, of course, after trials and tribulations, the United States of America was born, the greatest experiment in government the world had ever seen.

It is highly significant that even before the Constitution of that new government was ratified by the several states, the Bill of Rights, the first ten amendments, was annexed. Upon those rights therefore guaranteed, are built the freedoms that this nation has come to enjoy. Those freedoms, to be sure, have spread in varying degrees to people throughout the world.

The most tangible and apparent of these freedoms, your newspaper, comes into your hands every day and every week. Your newspaper is freedom in your hands.

Your newspaper is an accumulation of facts, thoughts, and comments that reflect the daily or weekly events of your world, your state, and your community.

That your newspaper has the freedom to make its choices and selections of content and comments is the surest guarantee to you that you, too, may enjoy and live under those same freedoms.

That your newspapers are different provides you choice and freedom.

That you may select and choose, as your newspaper does, is to demonstrate the basic freedom that is a right and heritage in our system.

Every time you pick up your newspaper you can be sure that as long as it is free to publish what it determines to be essential, interesting, and appealing, the freedom of both you and the press is preserved.

It will only be when the newspaper has to publish what a government tells it or allows it to publish that your freedom and the freedom of the press will be endangered.

Freedom is in your hands when you read your newspaper.

ADD-ON HEAT PUMP

The York MaxiMizer™ Add-On Heat Pump is more than a reverse cycle air conditioner. It is a product specifically designed for heating and cooling a home or small business using the latest and most modern technology and techniques for economical, reliable and serviceable performance.

The Add-On Heat Pump consists of an outdoor unit and an indoor coil with applicable components. The indoor coil may be applied to a conventional electric, gas, or oil furnace. The Heat Pump becomes the primary source of heat for the building with the furnace becoming active only when the heat required is beyond the capacity of the Heat Pump.

Convert Your Fuel Oil, Gas or Electric Furnace To A High Efficiency York Heat Pump and Get the Added Advantage of Central Air Conditioning at the Same Time.
