Health Clubs or Figure Salons

All of us have read advertisements that claim you can "lose inches in weeks," or "rid fat quickly without strenuous exercise." These sales pitches are generally made by the increasing number of health clubs or figure salons in America.

Everyone wants to have a beautiful body, and to be "physically fit," but many consumers do not realize it is that simply joining one of these clubs there is no guaranteed improvement in one's appearance and overall physical fitness.

When investing in a membership in one of these clubs, remember that in order to attain a physically fit body, exercise at these clubs must be regular and vigorous. Do not assume that by paying money you will automatically have the willpower to participate. Consider all aspects of membership before signing the club's contract.

First, you should visit the spa at the time of day that you will be most likely to use the facilities to make sure they aren't overcrowded. Talk to other patrons and ask if their workouts are supervised by professional staff members. Consumers should not assume that expert, professional staff will be available to assist you in your exercise program. Inquire about the background or educational experience of the staff with the salesperson. Be cautious of the statements "our staff is trained by professionals at our national headquarters" or "our staff has completed a course conducted by the world renowned Dr. X that qualified them as exercise specialists." The best assurance that the staff member is qualified to supervise you is if he or she has a college degree in a field related to exercise, such as physical education or physical therapy.

After you inspect the facilities, prepare yourself for the sales pitch and the contract you will be asked to sign. Don't sign the contract for membership immediately, even if you are told if you "sign tonight you'll get a special bargain."

Read the contract very carefully.

making sure all blank spaces are filled in and that the cost, the length of membership and the financial arrangements are exactly the same as the salesperson told you.

A reputable company will give you a "cooling off" period in which to change your mind or to reconsider before signing the contract. Be suspicious of high pressure sales tactics and "guaranteed" results for often they are an indication that the club is not a reputable exercise business.

It is a good idea to get a medical checkup and approval from a doctor before getting involved in any exercise program. Be sure the contract allows cancellation if for some medical reason you can no longer use the services of the club.

Ask yourself these questions before joining a health club or figure salon:

Are you willing to invest in months or years of dues?

Are you sure you will utilize the service regularly enough to benefit from the program?

Are the verbal promises the salesperson makes the same as in the written contract?

How much interest do you have to pay?

If you change your mind or are unable to attend the club, is the contract cancellable or transferable to another person?

Once you have committed yourself to one of these clubs by signing the contract there is usually no cancelling or transferring of the membership contract. Some of the clubs or spas will tell you that if you move out of town your membership can be transferred to an affiliated club where you move.

However, ask to see a list of the other affiliated clubs for these seldom are any affiliated clubs in the other towns.

Be absolutely sure you know what the club is offering and that you will utilize the facilities for the full period of your membership before signing the club or spa contract.

If you have any questions concerning health clubs or figure salons, contact the Office of the Attorney General, Consumer Protection Division, Frankfort, Ky. 40601 before you get yourself involved and sign a contract.

Mrs. Floyd Halcomb of Albany loaned us this snapshot of the Class of 1944 at Mt. Vernon High School. Not all of the students were in this picture of the senior class but, in the photo are, bottom row, from left: Flora Pittman, Lois Rowe, Katherine Mullins, Lucille Mason, Emma Franklin and Mildred McFarland. Second row: Doris Bullock, Evelyn Cummins, Ruth Scott, Evelyn Cloud, Emerine Rice and Lucille Burdette. Third row: Mary Virginia Lyons, Lois Bowman, O.B. Inspirations to Appear in Concert

One of America's foremost gospel groups will present a concert in Phelps Stokes Chapel on Berea College Campus in Berea, Kentucky, Thursday, November 3, 1977 at 8:00 p.m.

The Inspirations of Bryson City, North Carolina, were voted in 1972 as America's number one gospel group and again in 1976. Most recently the Inspirations were voted again America's number one group for 1977.

The office has found that it can most effectively deal with written complaints and encourages you to write if you have a consumer complaint. However, if you have an emergency situation or just need some information, call the toll free consumer hotline number which is 1-800-372-2860.

The group has traveled extensively throughout the nation presenting concerts, and they appear weekly on the nationally syndicated, award winning, gospel singing Jubilee.

Many of the songs recorded by the Inspirations with Canaan Records of Waco, Texas, such as "Touring That City," "I'm Taking a Flight" and "When I Wake Up to Sleep No More," have been award winners within themselves.

The public is cordially invited to see and hear this group of enthusiastic, sincere, clean-cut, Christian gentlemen. Advance tickets are $3.50 each, tickets at the door, $4.00 and children 12 and under admitted free. Tickets may be purchased by mail from P.O. Box 423, Berea, Ky. 40403 or at Sam Ford Realty Co., Mt. Vernon.

Burgess King (top photo) of Sand Hill and Bob Fields (bottom) of Pongo demonstrate two different methods of TSI. Burgess is girdling trees with an axe. Bob is using a "hypo-hatchet" which makes a cut and injects a herbicide with each hit. Both methods do a good job.

What Is TSI?

By Greg Stephens

Rockcastle County

It is estimated that by the year 2000, demand for wood will increase by 10% over present demand. To meet this demand we must act now to grow trees for tomorrow. With winter coming farming activities slow down and there is more time to think about and make improvements in our woodlands.

Approximately 70% of the total land area in Rockcastle county, 13,400 acres, is woodland but very few acres are producing to their best potential. Last year there was more federal cost-share money used in Rockcastle County to improve woodlands than any other county in the State but there needs to be more work done. Rockcastle County is ideally suited to growing high quality hardwood timber species (hickory, walnut, etc.) but after many years of woodland abuse and neglect our forests are filled with trees that are small and often of inferior quality and species. To improve this situation a forest owner must select potential crop trees and release them from competition of less valuable trees, bushes, and vines. This process is known as Timber Stand Improvement, TSI. TSI is very similar to growing a garden. Certain plants are set and weeded, and vines are cut. The process is planned to produce maximum yields. In a forest situation potential crop tree are selected and unwanted competition is controlled to allow these trees to make maximum growth.

Timber Stand Improvement, TSI, can be done on 1 acre or 1000 acres, so just because you have a small woodlot, don't feel TSI is not for you. Professional advice is available through the Rockcastle Conservation District, to evaluate your woodland situation and make recommendations on how it could be improved. Contact any of the Conservation District Supervisors or stop by the District Office in the courthouse or call Greg Stephens at 256-2541 for woodland advice and assistance.

Although the practice has been carried on since the beginning of gardening, modern garden specialists do not generally recommend saving seed from home grown vegetables.

There are a number of reasons for this. One is that several vegetables readily cross with each other and seeds from these crosses do not run true to form. Then home grown seed may be diseases, resulting in a poor crop, or no crop at all. However, if a gardener wishes to keep on growing a certain variety of vegetable, especially an older variety, it may be necessary to save seed.

Seeds from hybrids and vegetables that cross easily should not be maintained, if a particular variety is to be maintained. To help the seed saver determine which seeds are safe to save, garden specialists have listed some of the more common ones that are safe and some that aren't.

Beans, for instance, rarely cross with other beans no matter how closely they are planted together. If the beans are free from disease, they may be safely saved. As a matter of fact, some beans like the old-fashioned "salute" peas, have been saved for generations without change.

Tomatoes, the specialists say, do a very small amount of crossing with other tomatoes and the seeds are relatively free from disease. Therefore saving tomato seed, unless the tomato is a hybrid, is not a bad practice.

Sweet corn crosses easily with other sweet corn, popcorn and field corn and saving sweet corn may be a bit risky. Irish potatoes hardly ever cross, but occasionally they do and they do transfer disease.

The group of vegetables a lot of people think cross among themselves includes watermelons, pumpkins, cantaloupes, and cucumbers, but their crossing is limited. Cantaloupes or muskmelons will cross with other varieties or muskmelons but not with cucumbers, pumpkins or watermelons.

Watermelons will cross with other watermelons, citrus, or preserving melons but not with pumpkins, as is sometimes thought.

Pumpkins, both field and pie varieties, will readily cross with the summer squash such as Summer Crookneck, Cocozelle, Zucchini, Acorn and Scallop if they are close together and blossoming at the same time. The cushaw and Butternut Squash will sometime cross with the other pumpkins and squashes listed previously as well as between themselves.

Since many vegetables will cross, it is the best idea to purchase certified seed each year, or seed grown for the purpose of sale. Else a gardener may wind up as a friend of the writer did when he planted seed saved from a fine big hybrid tomato with the expectation of harvesting a like crop. What he got was a garden full of "tommy-toes" scarcely larger than a bird egg.

Warm Hearts Code Hands OR WHY MORSE was all KEYED UP.

In 1832, Sam Morse knew he had a great idea in his fingertips. Sending messages by wire. When he did, the results were electrifying. The future of the telegraph (and Sam Morse) was assured. Your future could be assured, too, if you get this message: Invest in United States Savings Bonds. Sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan where your work and your earnings will automatically buy Bonds. And your results could be even more electrifying than Sam's. Buy U.S. Savings Bonds. They're something to get keyed up about.

Series E Bonds pay 8% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Interest is compounded twice a year on local income taxes, and federal tax will be deferred until redemption.

Be Cautious With Deeds

Probably the deed to your property is filed away, all but forgotten. Probably you've never checked it since the day it served to pass title from the previous owners to you. Perhaps you didn't even check it then. There may have been no urgent reason to. Nevertheless, an apparently secure deed can turn out to be a worthless piece of paper.

For instance, suppose the deed states the name of the seller, but doesn't contain his signature? Suppose the seller was under 21? Suppose the seller died before you received the deed? Suppose there's an error in the way the deed describes the property? Any of these defects, as well as many others - could make your deed invalid. But defective deeds are the exception, not the rule, so don't be frightened. Just be cautious. And the best way to be cautious is to deal with a reputable, real estate professional and a knowledgeable real estate lawyer.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at Ford Realty & Auction Co., Inc., Mt. Vernon, Ph. 256-4545. We're here to help!

Quail Homemakers Meet

The Quail Homemakers, after a hectic summer schedule, got back into full swing with their first fall meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ora Lee Hurst on Sept. 19th.

On Saturday, October 15th some of our members motored to Lorain County to attend the Wilderness Trail Area Homemakers Meeting.

The hostess used the Halloween motif in decorating and serving. We all enjoyed "autumn" refreshments such as: delicious tangy fruit salad, spicy homemade pumpkin bread, apple cider, etc.

Sat. Night Plane Crash Claims Life Of Ohio Minister and Two Sons

A Hamilton, Ohio minister and his two sons were killed Saturday night when their single engine Beech Bonanza crashed in the Sand Hill section of the county near the residence of Ted Mink.

Dead in the crash are Rev. Pearl Robinson, 41, and his sons, Terry, 19 and Richard, 16. The bodies were discovered by Dwight and Doug Mink, sons of Ted Mink, about 10 a.m. Monday morning.

The plane had come down beside a cliff into some trees and was hidden from view by the trees. The Civil Air Patrol had mounted a ground and air search for the missing aircraft and the Rockcastle County Rescue Squad searched until 2 a.m. Monday morning in the Possum Kingdom section of the county after residents there reported an "explosion" some time Saturday night.

the site of the impact. Rev. Robinson was also thrown about 15 or 20 feet from the plane and one of his sons, Terry, had to be cut from the wreckage. Deputy Coroner Roy Martin said that all three men died instantly of massive head and internal injuries.

A spokesman for the London-Corbin Airport said the Robinson took off from the field at 9:45 p.m. and that was the last radio contact they had with the plane. When discovered, the plane was headed south, whether this was from the way the weather changed or whether they had attempted to get back to the airport is not known. However, Lt. Col. Robert Gray of the Civil Air Patrol at London, said the weather which had been good for an hour before Robinson took off, was marginal when he took off and got worse immediately afterward.

Gray further said weather reports indicated a cold front and a rainstorm were moving through the area about that time. The flight from London to Hamilton, Ohio should have taken about one hour and fifteen minutes.

The bodies were removed from the site by members of the Rockcastle County Rescue Squad who were assisted by members of the Laurel County Rescue Squad.

Rev. Robinson, a native of London who had been pastor of West Side Pentecostal Church in Hamilton for 12 years, had been in London for several days conducting a revival meeting at the East London Pentecostal Church officials said. The meeting ended Saturday evening.

The purpose of the dinner is for organizing the Republican Party in Rockcastle County for the November General Election. The County Chairman and the Campaign Chairman have requested that all Republican candidates and their families, all Republican Precinct Workers and their families and all interested voters attend this important meeting.

Week End Revival

A gospel meeting will be held October 21-23 at the Roundstone Missionary Baptist Church, at 7:30 o'clock each evening.

Bro. Rick Everett will bring the message each evening. Bro. Herbert Berry is the pastor.

Everyone is invited to attend.

"Weatherization" Program Available For the Poor and Elderly

Winter brings frosty air, leawork snowflakes, festive holidays-and hardships. For the poor and the elderly, the joys of winter can be buried under an avalanche of problems. Sometimes, survival itself is at stake.

The Kentucky Department for Human Resources (DHR) is working to ease the winter burdens of some of the state's low-income citizens. The department's Bureau for Social Services recently obtained more than $3 million for projects to make their homes easier, safer and cheaper to heat.

Most of the work is being done through the state's 21 community action agencies (CAAs) which are regional, non-profit service organizations. The CAAs with a federal grant, are hiring unemployed or under-employed people to do "weatherization," which includes home repairs and improvements designed to minimize heat loss.

Crews will be installing insulation and weatherstripping, caulking, replacing broken windows and sealing loose-fitting windows and doors with plastic, repairing roof leaks and, when necessary, repairing and adjusting heating systems. At this time, improvements cannot exceed $250 per-house.

Many of Kentucky's poor and elderly suffer severe physical and financial hardships last winter," said DHR Secretary Peter Conn. "By making their homes more energy-efficient, we will help them reduce cold-weather illnesses and lower their fuel expenses. We estimate that weatherization will stretch some families' income during the winter months by as much as 20 percent."

Persons eligible for this service include individuals and families whose incomes fall within guidelines set by the federal government. A family of two whose income does not come from farming must make less than $4,912 annually. The income of a four-member "non-farm" family must not exceed $7,312. The limit for a family of six is $9,712. Maximums for farm families are slightly lower.

A person or family who rents and pays utilities is eligible to apply for weatherization assistance if the landlord agrees to the improvements and agrees not to raise the rental fees or eject the tenant for a specified period after the improvements are made. There are similar requirements for landlords who pay the heating bills.

Persons in Rockcastle County wanting application forms or additional information about this service should contact the Daniel Boone Development Council, P.O. Box 431, Manchester, Ky. 40962. Ph. 606-598-5127.

Rate is up in Rockcastle Co.

Crime in Kentucky was down 12.6 percent during the first six months of this year over the same period last year, according to the Uniform Crime Report released today by Justice Secretary John L. Smith and State Police Commissioner Ken Brandenburg.

Violent crimes decreased 15.1 percent over the first six months of last year, while the report shows decreases in each reporting category. The largest decrease (26.9 percent) was reported in the robbery category.

The 49,278 serious crime reported during the first six months of 1977 were down from the 56,394 serious crime reported the first half of 1976.

Murders dropped 10.9 percent from 174 in the first half of 1976 to 155 in 1977. Feticide rapes went from 304 to 294, a 3.3 percent decrease. Hobbies fell 28.9 percent from 1,666 to 1,218.

Reported aggravated assaults went from 2,179 last year to 2,004 this year, an eight percent decrease. Breaking and entering cases fell 9.9% from 15,492 to 14,006. Total larceny-theft reports decreased 14.2 percent from 32,312 in 1976 to 27,712 in 1977. Auto thefts were down 8.9% from 4,267 to 3,889, the report shows.

Justice Secretary John L. Smith said he believes many factors played a role in the reduction of crime across the Commonwealth, but he said one major factor is the increased emphasis the department has placed on crime prevention activities.

"When the citizens unite behind programs designed to curb crime, the ultimate effect is that crime is going to be reduced. It's a good common sense approach, and it seems to be showing positive rewards," Smith said.

Crime figures for Rockcastle County are: murder, non-negligent manslaughter, up from 1 in 1976 to 3 in 1977; robbery, down by 50% from 4 to 2; aggravated assault, 3 up to 4; burglary, up from 62 to 65; total larceny, from 45 in 1976 to 53 in 1977 and auto theft up from 6 in 1976 to 10 in 1977.

Council Meets in Called Session

Mt. Vernon's City Council went into executive session Monday night to discuss petitions from prospective police officers.

A committee appointed by Mayor Roland Mullins recommended in open session that a person be hired part-time to replace Officer John Grider, who resigned last week. In executive session for about one hour the council discussed those who had applied.

Only four men had completed applications for the position. A special meeting will be held Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. to further review applications which must be submitted by 5 p.m. Thursday.

Mt. Vernon received updated reports on three state and federal programs it applied for. The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has awarded the city $26,000 for an elderly housing project. Funds have been set aside and will be officially awarded when the project begins construction.

The city's fire department has been given $240 for the purchase of equipment through a Rural Community Fire Protection Program. The funds are designated by the state Department of Forestry.

Preliminary approval was given for construction of a city garage and storage building. The amount of the grant is uncertain but also comes from HUD.

The city's park project near Lake Loville stalled at Monday's meeting. Representatives of civic groups that the council hopes will maintain the park were not at the meeting. The project will be discussed with the Lions Club, Jaycees, and the Recreation Council, Thursday.

The city has 45 days to break ground on the project before funding is lost. The park consists of 18 acres of land with various recreational facilities.

Pesticide Applicator Training Program

After October 21, 1977, restricted-use pesticides can be bought and applied by those who are certified as required by federal law. This includes farmers and other private applicators.

Training required for certification is being provided by the Cooperative Extension Service.

You can become a Certified Private Applicator by attending a Pesticide Applicator Training Program being given Thursday, October 27, at the Rockcastle County High School infirmary beginning at 7:30 p.m.

There is no test or fee involved. It will take about 2 1/2 hours of your time. If you have a question, call the Rockcastle County Extension Office at 256-2181.

Planning Project for Long Branch Creek

State Transportation Secretary Calvin G. Grayson has announced a planning project for a bridge over Long Branch Creek in Rockcastle County, north of US 150 on Cupps Chapel-Broadhead Road.

Grayson said that he expects the plans to be completed by October of next year. The project is being funded 70:30 with federal and county road aid money.

The federal cost share of the project comes out of the Off-System Federal-Aid Highway Program established two years ago to assist state and local governments in improving roads and bridges that previously had not been eligible for federal aid highway money.

Matching dollar support for the project is being drawn from onies previously allocated to Rockcastle County under the state's 1977-78 County Road Aid Program by the Kentucky Department of Transportation.

The 1977-78 allocation for Rockcastle County, as announced earlier this year, was $113,444.

The County Road Aid Program was established in 1936 to help local government meet the costs of maintaining their county road systems. It is administered by the Division of Rural and Municipal Aid in KYDOT's Bureau of Planning.

Under that program, nine tenths of every cent collected in tax on each gallon of motor fuel sold in Kentucky is set aside for allocation one annually, on a fiscal year basis, to Kentucky's 120 counties.

MRS. BROWN AND THE ROCKCASTLE MUSIC MAKERS TO APPEAR ON TELEVISION

Mrs. Eva Brown and the Rockcastle Music Makers will appear on the Wade Rollins Show Wednesday, October 26th at 9 a.m. The Music Makers are: Wade Hopkins, Junior Anglin, Larry Napier, and Debbie Randolph.

Mrs. Brown now has a recording, "The Scotia Miners", out for which she wrote both the words and music. She belongs to a music union in Tennessee and has contracts with two companies for her songs.

Country Music Benefit Show

The Livingston Lions Club will sponsor a country music show Thursday night, October 22, at 7:30 p.m. at the Livingston School Gym. A host of local talent will be on stage to provide the best in entertainment. Denver Miller will be the Master of Ceremonies. Admission is 75 cents for students and $1.00 for adults.

Preceding the musical program the physical education classes will be competing in contests and games from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

All proceeds go to the Lions Club to be used to purchase eye glasses for the needy. Everybody come and support the Lions Club and enjoy good entertainment.

Program Being Initiated by Health Dept.

The Rockcastle County Health Department is initiating a supplemental food program for women, infants and children (WIC).

The WIC Program is funded by the United States Department of Agriculture through state health agencies. The WIC Program in Kentucky operates through local health clinics that serve a low income population and persons considered to be at nutritional risk.

Persons interested in participating in WIC must sign a memorandum of agreement with the local project agency.

The agreements shall insure that: 1. The current market price is charged. 2. All categories of food are stocked. 3. Only approved foods are given upon presentation of an authorized voucher and identification card. 4. The completed redeemed voucher is submitted for payment within thirty days from redemption. 5. The voucher is redeemed during the valid period.

Any grocery store interested in participating in this program, please call the Rockcastle County Health Department at 256-2242.

Letter To The Editor

We would like to call to your attention that Rep. Harold DeMarcus was unwilling to take a Pro-Family stand in the 1976 Kentucky General Assembly. He was unwilling to support the effort to rescind the Equal Rights Amendment and thereby demonstrated his lack of concern for the welfare of the family in Kentucky.

The ERA which states:
1. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.
2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provision of this article.
3. This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification; it is the most detrimental piece of legislation to come out of the U.S. Congress in the history of our nation. This vague and undefined amendment mandates that women will be drafted and will serve in combat in times of war. The ERA will give power to the federal government and take away states rights. We urge you not to support the above candidate in the November 8 election.

CROMER'S RESTAURANT

I-75 MT. VERNON, KENTUCKY

Fri., Oct. 28, 1977- 2 p.m.

LOCATION: Exit # 59 - Mt. Vernon-Livingston Exit of I-75.

Due to other business interest the Cromer's have decided to sell this thriving restaurant business and for the absolute high dollar.

The restaurant is a 40 x 60, total electric with a comfort air conditioner. It has seating capacity for 66 and is equipped with the most modern restaurant equipment available. It has a completely stainless steel kitchen. The restaurant and equipment will sell together and will not be offered separately.

OPPORTUNITY - The property has city water and a good blacktop parking area. It is located on a busy interchange with eight (8) service stations, campground, motel and is located on the road to the Great Saltpetre Caves. It is also only two (2) miles from the World Famous Renfro Valley Barn Dance. Here is a rare opportunity to own your own business on one of the busiest interchanges of I-75. In addition to having a very busy tourist trade the Cromer's have established a substantial-dependable local business.

This sale is subject to a lease agreement on the land. The terms of the lease will be announced day of sale.

TERMS: 20 percent down day of sale and balance due in 30 days.

Mrs. Radida attended the Class Meeting at the Holiday Family Restaurant, also a gathering in the Community Room at the Bank of Mt. Vernon, Saturday evening. The Renner Family will be making new records by Layman Records in November. This Family Singing Group have brought Gospel music and songs to the delight of eight different states this year and Canada and they have been called to some of these states more than once.

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Ella Harp King who passed away, Oct. 8th, at the Laurel Heights Nursing Home, London. To Mrs. Lottie McHargue, whose son died Oct. 10th, we extend sympathy of love. Mrs. Viola Lawrence of Amo, Indiana and Mrs. Heien Wallen of Indianapolis, Indiana visited Mrs. A.J. Deborde, and Mrs. Jewell Brown recently. "When the press is free and every man able to read... all is safe." — Thomas Jefferson

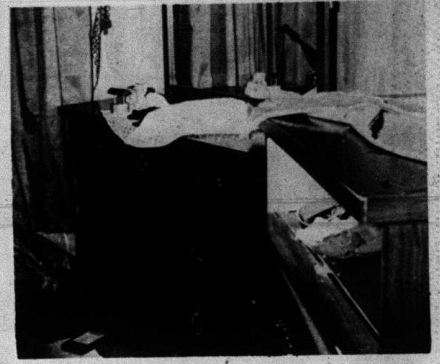

GOT THEIR DEER—Melvin Brock, in front, shows off his 7 point buck which he got recently with a Bear Compound LTD bow with one shot at close range actually. Mr. Brock said he shot in self-defense! Also in the photo, is Douglas Brock, who bagged a 9 point buck weighing 160 lbs. field dressed. This was Melvin Brock's first and Douglas's seventh deer to be killed with a bow and arrow and, in all, Douglas Brock has killed 13 deer. Doug was using a Bear Polar II Compound with a Bear arrow head. Doug said he shot his buck at 22 steps which traveled 75 yards before falling dead in its tracks. Both men, who are brothers, were hunting at the Blue Grass Army Depot in Richmond. Other members of the family hunting Saturday were Virgil Brock, Andy Faulkner and Reggie Benge. Both men are also members of the newly-formed Rockcastle Co. Archery Club. At this time, Doug feels that he is leading in the biggest deer killed in 1977 [is there anyone out there to dispute this claim?]

country's most outstanding campus leaders. Included in students named this year is Lawrence Ray Travis, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.R. Travis, of Mt. Vernon. Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential. They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,000 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

MT. VERNON PERSONALS

Mrs. Marion Abney and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Abney of Indiana spent Saturday and Sunday with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Rosey Mullins. Mr. and Mrs. Peanon Abney of Livingston visited his grandmother, Mrs. Rosey Mullins, Sunday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Moore on Fairground Hill was broken into some time Saturday. A Pioneer stereo and two speakers were taken in the break-in by thieves who entered the house through the front door. The stereo and speakers belong to their son, Ronnie, and was in his room which was also vandalized. Mr. and Mrs. Moore have offered a reward for information concerning the theft.

O.M.S. International, will speak at the home of Dr. Hazel Noble, Richmond, St., on Monday night, October 24th, at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. Brown, who is presently a foreman with Crouse Construction Company of Wilmore, Kentucky, will serve in construction and maintenance for three major centers of ministry in Columbia as well as several small ones. Besides twenty years of experience in various construction trades, Mr. Brown is a certified piano technician.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Ashbury College and has taught fourth grade for two years. She will teach missionary children in Columbia.

The Browns are active in their local O.M.S. Outreach, sent free for one year upon request.

Gigons International and is on their roster of speakers.

The couple has three grown sons. O.M.S. International, formerly The Oriental Missionary Society, is an undenominational faith mission with work embracing the globe. It specializes in direct evangelism through the training of a national ministry, the establishing of self-governing and self-supporting churches, and the distribution of gospel literature. O.M.S. cooperates with many mission boards on the foreign field. Full and current information on O.M.S. world ministries is made available in an official publication, O.M.S. Outreach, sent free for one year upon request.

Insulation Snooping?

Defeating the siphoning of your home's insulation would require the services of Sherlock Holmes. A ruler and a flashlight will do.

Inadequate insulation is the single biggest cause of energy loss in most homes. And money invested in additional protection now will pay off in the cold months ahead... with lower heating bills and energy savings.

Investigate today to save a year's home insurance. Then be assured of savings with the different insulation solutions. Adding energy to your home's insulation should be a top priority. Write for a free literature kit.

County Agent's Notes

By H. Lee Durham
County Extension Agent
For Agriculture

Popcorn, America's Oldest Snack
Popping was probably the first use man made of corn, according to M.J. Bitzer, Extension specialist in grain crops at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. And, from prehistoric to modern times, man has considered popcorn a favorite treat. Here in the United States, popcorn is the oldest of snack items and still one of the most popular. According to the National Geographic Society, more than 350 million pounds of it were consumed last year in this country. As a result, popcorn is a valuable cash crop in some areas - Kentucky produces over 10,000 acres of this grain, worth more than $1 million annually, Bitzer says. Popular long before the first Europeans visited the New World, popcorn probably grew as a wild grass in Middle America before 4000 B.C. Scientists exploring caves on the east coast of Peru found and popped corn 1,000 years old. In 1492, Christopher Columbus is reported to have discovered natives in the West Indies wearing popcorn decorations like corsages. Later explorers found Indians growing and munching the food all the way from South America to Canada. The Aztecs raised it as a crop and used it to make necklaces and other ornaments by threading popped kernels on a string just as American children have done for years at Halloween and Christmas.

In North America, English colonists probably were introduced to popcorn at the first Thanksgiving feast in Plymouth, Mass. Delighted with its taste, colonial housewives were soon serving popcorn with sugar and cream for breakfast, a forerunner of the huge puffed cereal industry of the future.

Further popcorn research reveals that Indians in the Great Lakes region considered popcorn soup a great delicacy. They prepared the main ingredient in a pottery crock heated by hot sand. The European colonists improved on Indian methods by using pierced iron sheets that resembled early bed-warming pans.

Then came the handy, long-handled screen wire popper that, on long winter evenings waded to and fro over beds of live coals across the width and breadth of the United States. The popped corn, which was called "caps", was eaten buttered and salted or as a confection called "popcorn balls". This homemade goody was the result of boiling sorghum to a thicker consistency, pouring it over the popcorn, and then rolling the corn into small round balls.

Late in the 19th century, county fairs, carnivals and circuses took popcorn out of the living room and put it into colorful wagons. No outing was complete without a stop at the "popcorn machine", with its overflowing popper filling the air with the irresistible aroma of hot, fresh popcorn. The introduction of popcorn stands into theaters promoted this popular snack into an industry grossing millions of dollars a year.

The popcorn now grown and popped is far different from that of the early Indians. Modern agricultural scientists have perfected types of corn that can explode into a fluffy mass up to 40 times the size of the grain. In other words, an ounce of modern popcorn can swell to a quart-size cup of this delicacy.

Classified as Zea mays everta, popcorn may be an old snack, but it still retains plenty of snap.

Glean Corn Stover for Beef Cow Feed
Gleaning corn fields after harvest can provide a low cost source of energy feed for the dry cows in your beef herd, says John T. Johns, Extension beef cattle specialist in the UK College of Agriculture.

Energy supplies in corn stover are borderline, and its crude protein, vitamins, and phosphorus levels fall short of what lactating cows and growing steers need, but dry cows generally can do well on stover supplemented with protein and phosphorus. Its high crude fiber content and low levels of other important nutrients make stover alone unsuitable for young growing cattle and cows giving milk, but with cheap grain prices, substituting some grain for stover is reasonable making it more suitable for lactating cows.

The milking cow's energy and protein needs could be met with 15 pounds of stover, four pounds shelled corn, and two pounds of 40% protein supplement. For the dry cow, 1/4 pound of 40% protein supplement added to 15 pounds of stover would fill those needs. These daily rations are based on average levels of nutrients in corn crop residue. Johns recommends a forage analysis to determine exactly what your supplement program should be.

Corn yielding 100 bushels per acre will leave two or three tons of dry matter per acre in the field, according to Johns. Weathering will reduce nutrient content, so the method of feeding corn crop residue is important.

Stalk field grazing is the easiest and least expensive but interferes with small grain planting. Harvesting as bales, stacks or silage eliminates this problem.

Late Seeding Helps Small Grains Withstand Diseases

Delayed fall planting is recommended to control diseases. Barley yellow dwarf virus, wheat spindle streak virus, and take all of wheat are three important diseases that delayed planting can help prevent. On farms where one of these diseases has been found, wait to seed until after the local Hessian fly-free date, which is October 15. Several other viral and fungal diseases are also less severe with later planted wheat.

Last year, late planted small grains produced yields well above average. Disease problems on wheat were less severe than in the past several seasons.

Fairview

By Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Weekend worship services were well attended at the Fairview Baptist Church but the Sunday School attendance was down to 84. But we thank God for that number and hope to have more next Sunday, the good Lord willing.

Baptismal services were held at our church Sunday night, Oct. 2nd without for baptism. The Scaffold Cane Baptist Church baptisms too the same Sunday afternoon. May God richly bless each one.

On Saturday afternoon October 1st, Mrs. Cletus Peters, Mrs. Nancy Pickle and Mrs. Velma Croucher met with their Sunday School classes, Beginners, Primary and Juniors for a picnic in the church basement (due to rain). Others attending were Mrs. Darlene Church, Mrs. Nancy Isaacs, Mrs. Evelyn Ponder and Mrs. Shirley Poynter. About 20 children attended and everyone had a very enjoyable evening.

We are very sorry to hear of the illness of Rev. Ballard Rader of Dayton, Ohio who has been hospitalized for several days. He is now returned home but remains very sick. Bro. Rader and his family formerly lived at Orlando and are known and loved by many people in Rockcastle County. Bro. Rader, our prayers are with you continually and we hope God blesses you to be feeling better soon. We still have a prayer-answering God-one who hears us when we pray and we are so very thankful He is there when we call on Him.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Rev. Lewis VanWinkle of Berea who passed away recently. He was 97 years old. He preached for many years and was loved and respected by many people. May God comfort his loved ones in our prayer.

The Rockcastle County Youth meeting was held at the Fairview Baptist Church Saturday night with good attendance and special singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Gabbard and daughter Gail Lee and Mrs. Gladys Rose recently spent a week vacationing at Fontana Dam, North Carolina.

Miss Robin Chasteen of Berea spent last week end with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Chasteen. Mrs. Della Bullens of Macedonia returned home Saturday, October 1st from a week's visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lanter in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander and daughter Jewell left Thursday for Orlando, Florida where they visited Eugene's brother, Johnny and family. After a very enjoyable time of visiting and sight-seeing they returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cope and son,

Buddy were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Linville of Scaffold Cane.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Rader of Berea, Dolie Rader of Orlando and Mrs. Lonnie (Gerry) Reppert of Conway spent the weekend with Rev. and Mrs. Ballard Rader of Dayton, Ohio. Gerry will stay on with her parents for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Chasteen visited Mrs. Della Bullens Thursday night.

Charles Nolan and son, Jimmy of Independence were Sunday afternoon guests of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Peters.

Connie and Ricky Adams were weekend guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Adams of Newby. Mrs. Grace Cole of Berea and Mr. Della Bullens were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stephens of Rockford. Mrs. Cole later visited her brother, Willard Todd.

Please remember church and Sunday School. The Lord is so good to all of us. We should at least take time to attend worship services. Without the mercies and blessings of God where would we be and how would we cope with life? God bless you all.

The Mystery of the Missing Barber Pole

A few days ago the barber pole that hung in front of Doug's Hair Designs for so many years, has suddenly walked away. I would like to know how and why it has disappeared. If anyone knows anything about it, I would appreciate it if they would let me know.

I know that some things have changed in the barber business, but I am still operating a Barber Shop. Although I do styling too. I have spent 10 years learning how to cut the men's hair and feel that I can give them as good, if not a better hair cut than they can get anywhere else. So you may be getting cheated if you're not getting your hair cut at Doug's. I now have a wedge cut for the boys and a nice hair cut for the gentleman also.

I know that here lately I have been very busy and due to public demand, I'm going to appointments on Wednesday's only. If you don't have much time or don't want to wait for a hair cut, call me at Doug's Hair Designs, 758-9621 for an appointment on Wednesday's. You can get a regular hair cut or a style. The rest of the week, I will take them in order as they come in.

Also, since school has started, I'm not always busy through the earlier part of the day. So you may not have to wait as long for a hair cut while school is in session.

If I can be of service to your hair cares, call me at 758-9621.

Rockets Win 5th Straight; Shut-out Estill 28-0

David Owens, No. 24, is shown in the above photo going over for the second score of the first half, however it was the only score that counted as the first touchdown was called back due to a holding penalty against the Rockets. The Rockets were only ahead 6-0 at half-time due to some very sluggish ball playing and didn't get on the board the first quarter as they had in every other game this season. Other players in the photo are Robert Owens, No. 51, Dusty Carlotts, No. 63, Harold Ballinger, 86 and Todd Fields, 71. Fields was hurt in the ball game and will not be able to dress Friday night for the Rockets big district game at Whitley County.

Earl Hammons, No. 10, is shown getting one of his 11 tackles in the above photo. Hammons led the defense on tackles. Also in the photo is Walter Browning, No. 81, who played one of his better defensive games. Browning recovered another fumble against Estill County, as did Casey Hines and Hammons. Browning is leading the team in fumble recoveries with five. Rockcastle recovered three fumbles and lost none as they stayed near the goal the first half but couldn't score but once. However, the Rockets played an excellent second half after Coach Glen Polly gave the boys great incentive at half time. Coach Polly was upset with their play the first half, to say the least, but the Rockets came back to score 22 points the second half and shut-out Estill County.

THEY WERE STOPPED—the Rockets' David Owens was stopped cold in this photo as he tried for the extra points following their first touchdown. The Rockets failed to pick up their extra points on two occasions but picked them up on two others on a run by Hackworth and a pass from Hammons to Rick Anderkin. Owens scored two touchdowns in the game and Mitchell and Hackworth, who was the leading yard gainer with 131 on 21 carries, got one each. Also in the photo are No. 71, Todd Fields and No. 86, Harold Ballinger. The Rockets will carry their impressive 6-1 record into Whitley County next Friday night for a big district game. The old saying has always went that "nobody likes to follow a loser." Well, the Rockets are a far cry from a loser and they deserve more support than they have been getting from the fans.

WHERE DO I GO... seems to be the only thing that Estill County quarterback Jay Wiseman can be thinking as he is sacked again - a fate he suffered several times during the afternoon. The Rockets defense was rugged as they shut-out Estill County for no points the entire game and minus yardage the second half. An example of how well the Rockets' defense played is No. 76, Matt Poynter as he puts the clamps on Wiseman. Danny Hunt, defensive end for the Rockets, goes in to try and pick up one of the seven tackles he wound up with for the day and also in pursuit of Wiseman is No. 77, Mark Holbrook who played his best defensive game of the year Friday.

referred to Estill County:

1. Everyone remembers our extreme weather last winter which increased the co-ops' use of electricity 18 percent through August compared to a year ago. Our coal stockpiles were nearly depleted as were those of other surrounding utilities, and competition to re-build these stockpiles has been intense.

2. Government regulations restrict us from burning coal with higher sulfur content than 1 1/2% in one plant and 1% in another. At best low sulfur coal is difficult to find and much more expensive to buy.

3. The Carter Administration has insisted that certain industries switch to coal in their factories and now many companies in other parts of the country are buying coal from Kentucky, in large quantities. This high demand makes it a seller's market and drastically increases the prices. The amount of coal used in the U.S. is expected to double in the next few years.

4. Wildcat strikes have been prominent recently which added a major strain on coal supplies and will significantly affect the market price.

5. Recent congressional action has added new restrictions on strip-mining which will increase production costs and limit production capability.

Just last month EK Power entered into a lease agreement for mineral rights in 4,400 acres in Floyd County. The two major reasons for this action: (1) It assures EKP a dependable source of a substantial portion of its coal requirements (when the property is ultimately developed); and (2) allows EKP to be less dependent on the obvious fluctuating market prices of coal.

In summarizing, Mr. Rainson added, "I hope it is clear that we (East Kentucky Power) are doing all in our power to buy coal at the lowest price within the environmental restrictions placed on us by the state and federal government. But as you can see from the above information, the cost of coal is going to increase, and we've got to pay the price or we're out of business." And so is Jackson County RECC.

The first pole vaulter to clear the bar at 15 feet was Cornelius Warmerdam on April 13, 1940, in Berkeley, California.

Laughing on extended deployment

Navy Yeoman First Class Gerald A. Laughing, whose wife Deborah is the daughter of Dorothy Barnes of Livingston, Ky., recently departed for an extended deployment in the Mediterranean Sea.

He is serving as a crewmember aboard the aircraft carrier USS America, homeported in Norfolk, Va. While deployed, his ship will operate as a unit of the U.S. Sixth Fleet.

Jackson Co. RECC Expecting Prices for Electricity to go up

"Coal prices in no way have stabilized, and to the contrary we anticipate coal costs to rise considerably in the next few months," explained Ronald Rainson, East Kentucky Power President and General Manager, during a recent interview with Jackson County RECC Manager Lee Roy Cole.

East Kentucky's three generating plants supply all the electricity used by our co-op and 17 other rural electric co-ops in Central and Eastern Kentucky. The plants are all fired by coal and burn nearly two million tons of coal each year.

"Believe me, we have always done everything in our power to purchase the best quality coal at the best price, and we're doing it now, but certain factors now indicate higher prices this fall and winter," Rainson continued. "It could really be a tough situation."

DHR Receives $674,737 Grant To Hire "Child Health Screening Aides"

The Department for Human Resources (DHR) has received a $674,737 federal grant to hire 99 "child health screening aides," says Peter D. Conn, secretary of Human Resources.

The new employees will be outreach workers attached to teams of social workers. They will contact families whose children are eligible for preventive health care through the Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnostic and Treatment Program, informing them of the service and helping families schedule and keep appointments. Also, two administrative aides will work at DHR headquarters.

There will be 26 jobs open in Eastern Kentucky. Counties whose residents are eligible for the positions are Bath, Boyd, Greenup, Laurel, Lee, McCreary, Montgomery, Putnam, Rockcastle, Rowan, Wayne and Whitley.

"A continuing problem, both for my staff and the health professionals doing the screening, has been the 'no-shows,' people who fail to keep their appointments," Conn said. "The new screening aids will follow up with these families, encouraging them to take advantage of the service."

The health screening aides will also help overcome whatever problems a family may have in keeping appointments: lack of transportation or need for child care, for example, Conn added.

The screening program is offered under the Medical Assistance Program (Medicaid). It makes available to young people up to the age of 21 a yearly physical evaluation, to uncover health problems in their earlier and more easily treated stages. The screening aid, when indicated, diagnosis and treatment, are open 40 young holders of Medicaid cards.

The grant was funded through the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA), which provides opportunities for low income people. It applies to the 89 counties for which Gov. Julian M. Carroll is "prime sponsor" for training and employment programs under CETA.

Jack C. Lewis, commissioner of DHR's Bureau for Social Services, says that the placement of the screening aides has been determined by the need for their services in the counties. He expects most of the workers will be women who are now receiving assistance through the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program. While his staff are referring clients interested in the new jobs, actual recruitment of the new workers will be handled through DHR's Manpower Services office.

KSP Asking Citizens To Assist in Roadway Safety

The Kentucky State Police are calling on citizens band radio operators for help in keep roadways safe.

In an effort with the Associated Public Safety Communications Officers (APSCO), thousands of cards are being printed and distributed to C.B. clubs and related organizations advising motorists on how they can assist.

The instructions on the cards tell the C.B.ers what information is needed by the State Police. For example, in an accident situation the call should include any injuries; whether an ambulance has been called; if the road is blocked, and the exact location or "10-30."

Information should be relayed to a local C.B. base station, and the nearest State Police post will be telephoned since all the patrol cars do not have citizens band equipment.

The same procedure should be followed for any unusual incident to be reported...from cattle in the road to discovering a crime.

State Police Public Affairs Officer, Lt. Ernest Eivens, said, "Of all the information we seek, the located is most important. Wasted minutes lost searching for an accident or crime location could aggravate the incident."

Eivens added, "Our officers rely on C.B.ers for information, and consider them interested citizens who want a better community and are willing to assist."

VOTE FOR

JOE CLARK
Write-In Candidate for 5th District
MAGISTRATE

SUBJECT TO THE NOVEMBER GENERAL ELECTION

TO THE VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY FIFTH DISTRICT

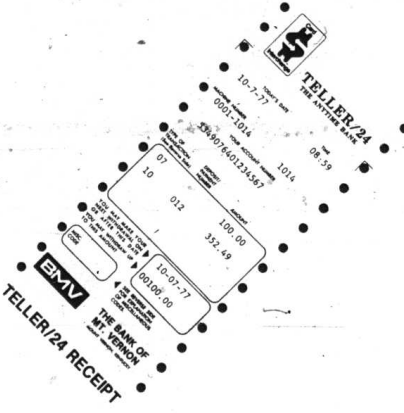

I am a candidate for magistrate in the fifth district as a write-in candidate. My name will not appear on the ballot. There will be a blank space on the voting machine for you, the people of the fifth district, to write JOE CLARK. If you want better roads in the future than you've had in the past, I think it is time we the people of the fifth district have a full time magistrate instead of a magistrate who is here only on weekends.

If elected, I will survey each road in my district every month. I will be in my district at all times unlike my opponent who is here only on weekends. If elected I will see to it that the equipment your tax dollars paid for will be used on the roads, not parked in the garage as you saw it last winter, when your roads were covered with snow and ice.

18th Annual

MSU Choral Festival is

October 27 and 28

More than 500 high school singers from 37 high schools, including Rockcastle County High School, will visit Morehead State University Oct. 27 and 28 for the 18th annual MSU Choral Festival.

Guest conductor for this year's festival chorale will be Dr. Robert Rich, professor of music at Stetson University. The Eastman School of Music graduate has been recognized by the American Choral Directors Association.

In addition, Joe Figg, assistant professor of music at MSU, will conduct the festival chorus.

Both groups will perform on Saturday, Oct. 28, at 8:15 p.m. in Duncan Recital Hall.

Dr. Robert Rich

MSU groups, including the University Chorus, directed by Vasilie Venetozzi, the Chamber Singers and Concert Choir, directed by James Ross Beane, and the Jazz Vocal Ensemble, directed by Jay Flippin, will perform in Duncan Recital Hall Friday, Oct. 27, at 8:15 p.m.

All festival concerts are free and open to the public.

Along with the Alpha I Reading Program, first graders at Mt. Vernon Elementary School are presently being taught Career Education and Monday, Mrs. Wanda Cromer visited the class to serve a two-fold purpose. She personified "Mr. B" for the children in that she is a beautician and also gave the children some insight to what a beautician does. In the above photo, Mrs. Cromer demonstrates a haircut to the children with David Owens as model.

Friends and Neighbors Club

Organized at Sowder Nursing Home

Is your club or organization planning a special community project this year? If so, this announcement may interest you.

The Friends and Neighbors Club, a newly organized club composed of residents of Sowder Nursing Home in Brodhead, is having a holiday bazaar, December 9, from 10 to 2. This is the club's first project which has been planned for fun and also for a little profit which the club will use to help pay for a record player for their dining/recreation room.

A craft class at the nursing home has begun making a few items to be sold at the bazaar, but if the project is to be successful, the club will need the support and help of other clubs in the community.

Here are some ways you or your club can participate in this project. Ask your club members to:

1. Donate homemade items such as decorative crafts, sewn items, Christmas decorations, etc., to be sold at the bazaar.
 2. Donate homemade goodies such as cakes, cookies, candies.
 3. Donate white enamel items to the bazaar.
 4. Publicize the event and encourage your friends to attend.
- Those clubs or persons who are

The children from all four fourth grades at Mt. Vernon were very interested in Mrs. Cromer's talk and demonstration and their were several questions for her at the end. Other business interested in helping with this project are asked to call the Activity Coordinator at 788-8711 and offer your assistance. Your consideration and ideas will be appreciated.

Laurel Co. Voc. School

To Hold Open House

The Laurel County State Vocational Technical School will celebrate the completion of a new wing of the facility with dedication ceremonies at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 30.

Ray Roundtree, director of Region 13, said the new brick addition houses seven new vocational programs:

welding, machine shop, cosmetology, medical assistance, commercial foods, masonry, and auto body repair.

Construction of the wing began in the fall of 1975 and was completed in August. The 41,900 sq. ft. addition and equipment cost approximately $2.3 million.

The school now offers 12 vocational programs. Roundtree said there are approximately 300 high school students and 125 post secondary students enrolled in the vocational programs.

The dedication will be followed by an open house at the new wing, 2:30 to 5 p.m. Clyde Caudill, assistant to Gov. Julian Carroll, will give the address. Officials from the state Department of Education will be present for the dedication as well as state Rep. Albert Robinson (R-London) and state Sen.

Nuts in Family Meals

By Cheryl Witt,
County Extension Agent
For Home Economics

A Guide for Consumers

Nuts contribute rich flavor and crunchy texture to many kinds of foods. Nuts are not only tasty - but nutritious as well. Familiar dishes take on a different when nuts are added.

Nuts are filling because of their fat content, and may prevent between-meal hunger pangs that encourage nibbling. Most common nuts contain about 10 to 25 percent protein and can be an added source of protein in meals. Peanuts are highest in protein with about 25 percent. Coconuts and chestnuts contain very little protein.

Storing Nuts

To maintain best eating quality, most nuts need protection from oxygen in the air and from high temperatures than may cause the fat in the nuts to become rancid.

Nuts in the shell retain higher quality longer than shelled nuts. Whole nuts become rancid less quickly than nuts in pieces. Unroasted nuts keep better than roasted ones.

Nuts in the shell keep well in a nut bowl at room temperatures for a short period of time. For prolonged storage, keep them in a cool, dry place. Avoid storing them in a damp place.

Shelled nuts will keep fresh for several months stored in tightly closed containers in the refrigerator. Shelled nuts in unopened cans keep well in a cool, dry place but will maintain good quality longer in the refrigerator or freezer.

Shelled or unshelled nuts can be frozen in tightly closed freezer containers at 0 degrees or lower.

Roasting or Toasting Nuts

Roasting or toasting enhances the flavor and color of nuts.

Roasting is done in the oven. Peanuts and chestnuts are commonly roasted in the shell.

Toasting may be done in the oven or on top of the range.

To roast or toast shelled nuts - mix 1 teaspoon cooking oil or melted fat with each cup of nuts, if desired, for richer flavor and even browning.

To roast or toast, spread nuts on a shallow pan or baking sheet. Heat at 350 degrees for 5 to 12 minutes, or until lightly browned, stirring occasionally.

Toasting may also be done in a heavy pan on top of the range. Heat nuts slowly for 10 to 15 minutes until lightly browned, stirring frequently.

Nuts continue to brown slightly after removing from heat, so avoid overbrowning. Sprinkle hot roasted nuts with salt, if desired.

Cool nuts on absorbent paper. To roast or toast processed coconut use method for shelled nuts without added salt.

To roast peanuts in the shell spread peanuts in a shallow pan and roast at 350 degrees, stirring occasionally, for 15 to 20 minutes.

To test doneness, remove a nut from the oven and shell it. The skin should slip off easily and the kernel should be lightly browned and have a roasted flavor.

To roast chestnuts in the shell slash through the shells on the flat side of the nuts. Place chestnuts, cut sides up, on a baking sheet. Roast at 400 degrees until tender - about 20 minutes. Insert fork through cut in shell to test tenderness.

Using Nuts in Salads

Golden Cheese Salad
6 servings

Lemon flavored gelatin - 3 oz. pkg.
boiling water - 1 cup cream cheese, chilled - 1½ cups nuts (pecans, macadamias, or roasted peanuts) - ½ cup chopped, fresh pineapple - 2 cups
carrots, shredded - 1 cup lettuce leaves - as desired

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Chill. Cut cream cheese into 18 cubes. Coat cream cheese with nuts and roll into balls.

Stir pineapple and carrots into gelatin. Add cream cheese balls. Chill several hours or overnight until firm. Serve on lettuce leaves. Calories per serving: about 185.

For Sale: Freedom

If a civil right cost a ha'penny, Dr. Samuel Johnson once said, few people would buy.
As usual, Dr. Johnson had a point. We simply do not think of civil rights as having a value that can be measured in dollars and cents. How could anybody put a price tag on freedom of speech? How could we figure out a reasonable fee for the right to vote?

Yet, civil rights are anything but free. They do have a price. But the price is payable in a different sort of coin. For example:

We pay for the right of habeas corpus by letting some villains go free.

We pay for the right of privacy by letting some mischief stay hidden.

We pay for the right of jury trial and the right to appeal a verdict by slowing the pace and raising the cost of justice.

We pay for protection against unreasonable search and seizure by making it harder to fight crime, and we pay for protection against job discrimination by making it harder to do business.

Are we buying our civil rights at a fair price? The answer is never final. In fact, bargaining over how much civil rights are worth is the very essence of our political process.

Consequently, the law deals with civil rights in relative terms. It says (in Aldous Huxley's words):

"There is no such thing as 'natural rights'; there are only adjustments of conflicting claims. Or, in the homelier language of an old legal aphorism:

"Your right to swing your fist ends where my nose begins."

There are worse ways to describe what freedom is all about.

Kentucky Afield

By John Wilson

With the opening dates for several of Kentucky's hunting seasons just around the corner, sportsmen are busy with their pre-season preparations.

But there's one activity—a review of firearm safety—that should be on every hunter's check list, although it is often overlooked.

Kentucky hunters are safe last year, there were only four reported hunting accidents; two of them fatal, involving firearms. With over 300,000 licensed hunters in the commonwealth, that's an excellent safety record. (For comparison, there were 135 boating fatalities during the same year).

But four hunting accidents are still too many, especially since not one of the four should have happened or if it had happened if the hunter had observed the basic rules of firearm safety.

Two of the accidents resulted in self-inflicted wounds. In both cases, sloppy gun handling was the cause. The other two (the fatal ones) also resulted from ignoring safety rules. One fatality involved horseplay with a loaded gun, while the other was a "mistaken for game" accident in which the victim was dressed in camouflage clothing with no hunter orange—while deer gun hunting. Virtually all hunting accidents can be prevented by observing a few simple, basic rules. First, treat every gun as if it were loaded at all times, even guns you know are empty. This kind of respect for firearms helps develop instinctive safe gun handling habits.

Second, be sure that all guns are unloaded when they are not actually in use or when hazardous conditions exist. Guns should never be kept loaded at home, in the hunting camp or in an automobile. In the field, unload firearms before climbing fences, jumping ditches or crossing patches of slick mud, snow or ice. And never assume that a gun is unloaded—always check both chamber and magazine for shells.

Third, be sure of your target, and beyond. Don't shoot until you can see and positively identify the entire target. Never shoot at a movement or sound or something that "might be" a deer. Respect the range of modern firearms—over a .22 caliber bullet will travel over a mile. And know where your hunting companions are at all times.

Finally, remember that while only gun deer hunters are required by law to wear hunter orange, it is also an excellent idea for all hunters to wear garments of this color whenever circumstances permit. You wouldn't wear it in a duck blind, of course, or while turkey hunting, but there's no reason why rabbit, quail or squirrel hunters shouldn't take advantage of the extra margin of safety hunter orange affords.

Obedience these few simple rules and applying a modicum of good, old fashioned common sense will eliminate almost all hunting accidents. Hunting is a safe sport, but we all need to strive to make it even safer. Remember, the best safety record is no accidents at all.

Fishing Report

Although poor weather reduced weekend angling activity, black bass and crappie fishing is still fair to good on several lakes around the commonwealth. The lake-by-lake rundown, as compiled by the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources:

Nolin: Black bass good on crank baits along shoreline cover; crappie fair to good over submerged cover in 8-10 feet of water; clear, rising, 11 feet below summer pool and 69 degrees.

Cumberland: Black bass fair to good casting spinner baits and crank baits in upper lake inlets and bays and by trolling medium runners in the heads of inlets and bays in lower lake; white bass fair in upper lake trolling deep runners with spinner trailers; crappie fair around stick ups in upper lake and by drifting over creek channels in lower lake; in tailwaters, trout fair, crappie excellent (but small) with some limits; clear, to murky to muddy, falling slowly, 30 feet below timberline and 64 degrees.

Dale Hollow: Black bass and white bass fair on plunker and fly combination; and by trolling deep runners off points; clear to murky, stable, one foot below summer pool and 65 degrees.

Barren: Crappie fair to good (better on lower lake) over submerged stump beds; black bass slow on crank baits over submerged cover and shallow stump beds; clear to murky, falling, one foot below summer pool and 60 degrees.

Barley: Crappie good over submerged cover; black bass slow on crank baits in inlets and bays; in tailwaters, catfish slow; clear, falling slowly, 3 1/2 feet below summer pool and 65 degrees.

Kentucky: Black bass slow on surface and medium runners over shoreline cover; crappie slow over submerged cover; in tailwaters, catfish slow; murky, falling slowly, 3 1/2 feet below summer pool and 64 degrees.

Green: Black bass fair on spinner baits off points and around stick ups; crappie slow over submerged cover; mucky, falling, five feet above summer pool and 60 degrees.

Herrington: Black bass fair in the jumps early in the morning and on artificial nightcrawlers and dollies late afternoon and nights; crappie slow over submerged cover; clear to murky, falling slowly, six feet below summer pool and 59 degrees.

Laurel: Black bass fair on medium runners off deep points and steep banks; crappie fair in timbered cover; clear to murky, stable at power pool and 62 degrees. Cave Run: musky fair casting medium runners in timbered cover; clear to murky, stable at six inches below summer pool and 60 degrees.

Buckhorn: crappie fair over submerged cover; black bass slow on medium runners off rocky points in lower lake; mucky, falling rapidly, three feet below summer pool and 61 degrees.

Rough River: Black bass slow on medium to deep runners off points and over drop offs; clear to murky, stable at summer pool and 60 degrees.

Fishtrap: no activity; mucky, falling, 16 feet below summer pool and 55 degrees.

Dewey: no activity; clear, stable at one foot below summer pool and 58 degrees.

Grayson: no activity; clear to murky to muddy, falling slowly, one foot below summer pool and 60 degrees.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

by Will Bernard

Mugged at the Movies

Halfway through the movie, Jed went to the lavatory. He had just finished washing his hands when two men came in, beat him to the floor, and made off with his wallet.

In due course Jed sued the management for damages.

"They were in charge of the premises," he argued in court. "If they'd kept an usher anywhere near that lavatory, those men never would have dared to attack me."

But the court said that degree of policing was not required. The court pointed out that there had been no similar incidents in the theater to put the management on special guard.

By and large, a theater has only a "reasonable"—not an absolute—responsibility to protect its patrons from assault. This is true even if the management has actually contributed to the injury in some way. Thus:

A theater owner in another case decided to liven up a Saturday matinee by passing out free balloons to everyone under 12. In the balcony, an impulsive youth unlimbered his slingshot and fired a pebble at one of the floating balloons. The pebble missed the balloon but struck another boy in the eye, causing a painful injury. Could the theater owner be held liable because he had distributed the balloons? Decision: no. The court said he could not reasonably have foreseen this "isolated, willful, sudden act."

By way of contrast, consider a third case in which mischief at the Saturday matinee was a regular occurrence. A favorite stunt was to set fire to candy wrappers or to seat padding.

One day a boy poured lighter fluid on the girl in front of him and set her aflame. This time, the theater was held liable for the victim's injuries. The court said past experience of such a serious nature should have caused the management to keep up its security.
