Hearings on Women in Combat

By Phyllis Schlafly

In the midst of the Iranian crisis, the House Armed Services Subcommittee on Military Personnel held four days of hearings on the proposal to repeal the existing laws which exempt servicewomen from military combat. The witness for this proposal didn't talk much about combat itself, but they spoke glowingly about "career assignment" of servicewomen to military aircraft and ships.

When it came to the question of assignment to the combat infantry, most of the witnesses gasped a bit. But if the rule is changed for the Air Force and Navy, it's only logical to change it for the Army, too.

Fearing agnosticism, the repeal of the laws which exempt women from combat assignment were General William Westmoreland, who saw plenty of combat as U.S. commander in the Vietnam War and Admiral Jeremiah Denton, who spent more than seven years in a POW camp after being shot down in Vietnam. After listening to them tell what combat is really like, it is easy to see why the laws exempting women were enacted in the first place, and why common sense requires that they be retained.

The witnesses against the repeal of the current law described some of the problems that already exist with a growing number of women in the armed services. During 1978, in the Army alone, 7,832 of some 50,000 female soldiers (15%) became pregnant. Of this number, 2,698 had abortions and 3,138 female soldiers had their babies and stayed in the service. Since large numbers of births are illegitimate, several witnesses express dismay at this new policy of funding and rewarding immorality.

Whichever route the pregnant soldier chooses, it takes its toll on combat readiness, which is what the peacetime services are all about. Combat-readiness is eroded because of time lost due to pregnancies, by the voluntary resignations due to pregnancies, and by the child-care problem which results when the female soldier keeps her baby and brings it back to the post.

The first reason that pregnancies have become such a major problem is that the number of women in the armed services has tripled since 1972, from less than 2% of the total force to about 6%. Under projected figures, the number of servicewomen will double again by 1983. In 1972, 90% of the women in the armed forces were in traditional women's jobs; today this percentage has shrunk to 80%.

The second reason that pregnancies have become such a big problem is that the services no longer discharge female soldiers who become pregnant. They must issue them GI maternity uniforms, pampers their condition with lighter jobs and time off for which male soldiers must pick up the slack and then let the soldier-mothers bring their babies back to the post-nursery.

Pregnancy is only one reason why women in combat units reduce, not increase, their combat-effectiveness. Rape is another, which in our country is said to be twice what it is in our cities. A third reason is that (according to the Air Force Surgeon General) females have only 80% of the physical strength of males.

Colonel Phelps Jones, USA (Ret.), representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars, testified that "the presence of thousands of women in our armed forces, and the prospect of many more thousands in the future, is a 'quiet revolution' with profound implications for our national security...As structured today, should our armed forces be called upon to fight, American women will be killed, wounded and captured in numbers that have no precedent in the history of the modern world."

Several witnesses pointed out that every nation which has experimented with women in combat, including Israel and Russia, has abandoned the notion. It simply doesn't work. As the old saying goes, those who don't learn the lessons of history are doomed to repeat its mistakes.

Notices to the Public of Finding No Significant Effect on the Environment and Request For Release of Funds

Applicant:

City of Mt. Vernon
Mt. Vernon, Kentucky 40456
Roland Mullins, Mayor

To All Interested Agencies, Groups and Persons:

On or about January 17, 1980, the city of Mt. Vernon proposes and will request the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to release federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (as amended) to be used for the Main Street Parking Lot Project.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION:
The proposed activity for the Mt. Vernon Community Development Block Grant is that of acquisition, demolition, and clearance of the Ideal Cafe building on Main Street in Mt. Vernon to be used as a site for a parking facility.

An Environment Document respecting the project has been made by the city of Mt. Vernon which documents the environmental review of the project.

It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment; and, accordingly, the city of Mt. Vernon has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (PL 91-190). The Environmental Information Document of the project more fully sets forth the reason why such a document is not required.

The Environmental Information Document is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying, upon request at the Mt. Vernon City Hall during normal business hours. No further environmental review of such project is proposed to be conducted prior to the request for release of federal funds.

The city of Mt. Vernon will undertake the project described above with Block Grant funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The city of Mt. Vernon is certifying to HUD that the city and Roland Mullins in his official capacity as Mayor, consent to accept the jurisdiction of the federal courts if an action is brought to enforce environmental reviews, decision making and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that, upon approval, the city of Mt. Vernon may use the Block Grant funds, and HUD will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. HUD will accept an objection to its approval of the release of funds and acceptance of the certification only if it is one of the following bases:

- (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the chief executive officer or other officer of applicant approved by HUD; or,
- (b) that the applicant's Environmental Information Document for the project indicated omission of a required decision, finding or step applicable to the project in the Environmental Information process;
- (c) that the regard to a project for which the level of clearance finding was made, the applicant omitted one or more steps;
- (d) that with respect to a property listed on the National Register for Historic Places, which is affected by the project;
- (e) the applicant fails to include an Environmental Information Document;
- (f) that another federal agency submits to a written finding to HUD that the project is unsatisfactory from the standpoint of public health, welfare or environmental quality. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR, Part 58) and may be addressed to the Federal Department of Housing and Urban Development at P.O.

Box 1044, Louisville, Ky. 40201. Objections to the release of funds on bases other than those stated above will not be considered by HUD. No objection reviewed after Feb. 1, 1980, will be considered by HUD.

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration to the Mayor at City Hall in Mt. Vernon. Such written comments should be received on or before Feb. 6, 1980.

All such comments received will be considered and the city of Mt. Vernon will not take any described prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

"GENERAL TELEPHONE"

customers will have more valuable and convenient telephone service because of their work," Black said.

As evidence of the improving service, Black, who is located in Continental's London office, said that during 1978 the number of average reported troubles per 100 customers averaged 6.4, well below the company objective of 8.0. And for the first 11 months of 1979, the average was down to 6.1.

According to Black, the construction project first began in 1966 when what was then known as the Kentucky Telephone Company secured a loan from the Rural Electrification Administration to begin an upgrade program. The project slowed during the late 1960's and early 1970's due to financing problems, but in 1973 a new loan was granted to continue the program.

In 1975, the Continental Telephone Company of Kentucky set a five-year deadline to complete the project. With the installation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Porter, the objective was met.

How do you like this column so far? What would you like some information on? Let the paper know.

Since I haven't been asked to write on anything special, I've been trying to put down things I thought would help you and interest you.

Let's do something on "etiquette". Now Etiquette is a sophisticated word for good manners. There is a right way and a wrong way to do anything.

You're planning to give a party? Send your invitations several days before the party and always include R.S.V.P., meaning "respond to the invitation by writing or calling to let the host or hostess know if you are planning to attend." If R.S.V.P. isn't on the invitation, you are required to entertain anyone who drops in.

You are the one who is to plan someone's wedding. The Library has several books that will help you. They tell you how to write the engagement announcement for the bride and groom, show you how to deal with parents who are divorced, and re-married, how to write the invitation to attend the wedding how to seat the guests, how the bride and groom and their attendants are to stand; in fact, how to do a wedding from start to finish.

No one likes to talk of a funeral, but they have to be seen to.

A mature member of the family or friend should be chosen to be in charge of the funeral arrangements. He or she will co-ordinate the events, dealings with lawyers, the funeral home, the cemetery, make calls and dispensing the necessary information.

The death notice should include the name of the deceased, spouse's name, children, and other surviving family members, where the funeral is to be held, where the burial will take place; the correct time, whether or not the family is receiving flowers. Unless notified as a "Private Funeral", any friend, relative or whoever may attend. But if it private only the immediately family is to attend. Thank you cards should be mailed to one minister, the priest, the funeral home, the people who send flowers, food or are helpful in any way.

The Library has many books that will help you prepare for anything. So use the Library if you don't want to check out a book. There are tables you can sit down at and write the information in a note pad.

Teach your children that a phone is to be respected. Don't allow them to play with it as a toy. Teach them to use it properly. No one likes to get crank calls "asking if your refrigerator is running," or "if pop is in the bottle." Most people have their phones to talk to friends, business people and to get help in an emergency. When you get a call asking for someone and you know its a wrong number, be polite, but firm. Give your last name, never give first names or let them know you live alone and never, never give your number. Be careful.

Be wary of strangers. If someone comes to your door listen to them, but don't let them inside. Call a neighbor or the police. If someone is really who they say they are, it is hard to tell. Anyone can have business cards and paper printed. Take the business cards, lock your door then call the numbers on it and make sure of who they are.

DUMP CAKE

- 1 can pie filling (cherry, blueberry or strawberry)
- 1 can drained crushed pineapple
- 1 box cake mix, any flavor
- 1 1/2 sticks margarine, sliced
- 1/2 cup walnuts, chopped
- 1/4-1/2 cup flaked coconut

Spread the pie filling in a 9x13 inch glass pan. Sprinkle dry cake mix in a layer over the filling. Drop slices of margarine over the cake mix. Scatter nuts and coconut on top (do not stir). Bake at 350 for 40 minutes or until cake is done and lightly browned. Serve plain or with ice cream.

So, youlike cornish hens and don't have a good recipe to fix. Try this one.

Rock Cornish Hen With Wild Rice

- 1-16 oz. pkg. long grain and wild

- rice mix
- 1/2 cup chopped peanuts
- 1/4 cup orange marmalade
- 2 tbs. water
- 1 tbs. vinegar
- 2 Rock cornish hens (1-1 1/4 lbs. each)
- 2 tbs. butter, melted

Cook rice according to package directions and add peanuts. In small bowl, mix well: marmalade, water and vinegar; set aside. Lightly stuff cavities of hens with rice mixture. Bake any un-used stuffing separately. Close cavities; the leg and wing with string going around hen. Place breast side up on rack in shallow baking pan. Brush with melted butter. Bake 425 degrees oven for 55 to 60 minutes. Brush hen with marmalade mixture during last 15 minutes of baking. Remove string out birds in half. Makes 4 servings.

Kidney Beans Delight

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1 can kidney beans (cooked pinto beans will do)
- 1 6 oz. can tomato sauce
- 2 tbs. chili powder
- 1 tbs. salt
- 1 large onion (optional) chopped

In skillet, fry ground beef, breaking into pieces as it fries. When done add other ingredients and simmer 20 minutes. If you use onion, fry onion with meat. Then add other ingredients. Serve over lettuce leaves, or over hot dogs on buns. Or put beans and meat mixture on buns, sprinkle with chopped pickles and bits of cheese. Makes a great sandwich.

Hints:

Use an old toothbrush to clean the grooves in your furniture, glassware, around the faucet tap when cleaning.

When your nail polish has gotten thick, add a few drops polish remover. Shake. This is as good as a new bottle.

Coat the inside of your ashtrays when furniture polish when dusting. Help keep down odors and ashes from spilling so easy.

Some tools that a person should keep in the kitchen: a screw driver, wire pliers, and a hammer. They are easier to find than trying to get into the tool kit when something is needed.

And now have a happy week.

Keep smiling,
Calamity Jane

Kenneth Cornelius of Mt. Vernon has been named Superintendent of Laurel County Schools, effective July 1, 1980. The action came Monday night at a meeting of the Laurel County Board of Education. Mr. Cornelius was given a four-year contract by the board.

A native of Rockcastle County, Mr. Cornelius is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Cornelius of Mt. Vernon. He graduated from Mt. Vernon High School and received his B.S. and M.A. degrees and his Rank I certification from Eastern Kentucky University.

For the past eight years, Mr. Cornelius has served as assistant principal at Rockcastle County High School.

Mr. Cornelius is married to the former Ruby Jean Thomas and they have four children: Kim, a senior at Cumberland College who will be a student at the University of Louisville School of Medicine in the fall; Gina, an employee of Rockcastle County Hospital; Chris, an eighth grader at Mt. Vernon Elementary; and Kenya, a fourth grader at Mt. Vernon.

Mr. Cornelius and his family plan to move to Laurel County this summer.

VFW CLUB BURNS

The V.F.W. Club, located just north of Livingston, U.S. 25, was gutted by fire early Tuesday morning. The club was the scene Friday night of a shooting which took the life of Roy Lee Goforth, 41.

Livingston Fire Chief Bob Wilson said the club was turned in about 2:05 a.m. when it was noticed by a passer-by. Chief Wilson said when the fire department arrived, the inside was completely ablaze.

Chief Wilson also said that arson is strongly suspected in the fire.

LUMBER DEALERS HELP IN FIGHT AGAINST INFLATION

Now is the time to build that new home you have been longing for. The building material people displaying the Anti-Inflation posters can save you much money on both materials and labor.

If you have your own house plans, take them to the building material people participating in the Anti-Inflation fight and they will show you how to cut corners and build a well-constructed home for less.

These people know lumber, brick, concrete, flooring, plumbing, wiring, fixtures, and can show you many ways to save on all these items. They also know construction workers who will work below scale in order to find work.

If you don't have your own house plan, the building material people will supply you with a large selection to choose from. The banks and savings and loans have both money and payment plans to fit your budget.

RECEIVE PROMOTIONS—Several employees of Citizens Bank in Brodhead were promoted recently by the bank's board of directors. Keith Smith, seated, was promoted to vice president. Other promotions included, from left: Mrs. Glenda Gentry to assistant cashier; Mrs. Violet Cash to assistant vice president and Mrs. Delores Phelps to cashier. Bobby Proctor is president of the bank and C.E. Frith is chairman of the board.

Council Establishes Committees; Holds Hearing on Sewer Plant

Monday night's meeting of the Mt. Vernon City Council was combined with a public hearing concerning the city's proposed application for a loan to expand the sewer plant and system.

A spokesman for Schemper-Corrodino Associates, Inc. and Jack Crawford of Crawford and Crawford Engineers were present to bring the council up-to-date as to what phase the project was now in. The council was told that the 201 facilities survey portion of the project was nearing completion and the next step would be a Sewer System Evaluation Study which would probably be completed by late May.

Expansion of the sewer plant would increase the number of gallons of sewage which could be treated to 500,000 from its present capacity of 200,000 gallons.

Committees for the next two years were set up at the meeting and included the formation of an additional committee, that of Public Safety and Recreation. Named to this committee were: Councilmen Tom Welch and Roger McClure, Conrad Parrett and Ernie Tolle were named to the street committee and Bob Jasper and Ernest Stanley will serve on the water and sewer committee.

The newly-formed public safety and recreation committee's functions will encompass: day to day operation of the police department, development and operation of recreation and park facilities, public parking and maintenance and city beautification.

Shell Changes Unit Pricing Method for Selling Gasoline

A new method of selling gasoline is now being used by Shell stations in Rockcastle Co. and elsewhere in the Shell Nashville district.

Terry Mann, owner of Rentro Valley Shell, said the new system of using liters to measure gasoline rather than the old familiar gallon measure was necessitated by the higher prices of gasoline.

Pumps presently being used by the majority of stations in the country only register to 99.99 for total sale and to 99.99 per gallon. When gasoline prices topped the dollar mark, oil companies were given permission to temporarily change their unit pricing on pumps to the half-gallon. This permission was originally given for only six months which meant that by some time in January of 1980, all pump heads would have had to be replaced with new pump heads which would register as high as $99.99 in total sale and over $1 per gallon. However, Mr. Makin said this permission must have been extended since Shell and some independent stations were the only ones he known of to thus far change to the liter system while other companies are still using the half-gallon pricing method.

One reason for the switch to liters rather than to new pump heads, Mr. Makin said, was the cost involved. The cost of switching existing heads to reflect the liter measure is only about 10% of the cost of installing complete new heads. Phillip Argenbright, owner of Rentro Valley Chevron, said that, at present, Chevron intends to continue selling gas by the half-gallon until the new pump heads become available and since there are only one or two factories in the country who manufacture the heads, this could take several years, Mr. Argenbright said.

Don't despair, you can still drive in and ask for 2, 5 or 10 gallons of gasoline because the stations have a conversion chart which tells them how many liters to pump to obtain the number of gallons requested and Mr. Makin said he would soon have hand-out conversion charts for customers to keep.

James L. Browning, 49, Dies of Gun Shot Wound; Frank Griffin Charged

James Logan Browning, 49, of Mt. Vernon died Saturday night following a shooting incident on U.S. 25, across from Superior Food Market, about 5 p.m.

Charged in the shooting is Lester Frank Griffin, 36, of Route 4, Mt. Vernon.

Mr. Browning was shot once in the upper left chest with a .38 caliber two-shot derringer. He was dead on arrival at the Rockcastle County Hospital. No preliminary hearing date had been set at press time.

Griffin is lodged in the Rockcastle County Jail under $50,000 bond, charged with murder.

Mr. Browning was born in Lincoln County on February 26, 1930, the son of Florida Cummins Hatfield and the late Walter E. Browning and was a member of the First Christian Church of Mt. Vernon and a Veteran of the Korean War.

Besides his mother, Mrs. Florida Hatfield of Moline

City, Ohio, he is survived by: his wife, Mrs. Barbara Hanel Browning of Mt. Vernon; three sons, Barry L. Browning of Berea, James M. Browning of Miamisburg, Ohio and Walter G. Browning of Mt. Vernon; two daughters, Mrs. Becky Sharp of Miamisburg, Ohio and Miss Carolyn J. Browning of Mt. Vernon; one sister, Mrs. Jane Earl Thomas of Moline City, Ohio.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, January 15, at the Dowell and Martin Funeral Home Chapel by the Rev. Ernie Johnson and the Rev. Bob Fields. Burial was in the Buffalo Springs Cemetery at Stanford.

Active pallbearers were: Bill Preston, Danny Ford, Sammy Ford, Dr. Oscar Akin, Glen Bullock and Bobby Proctor.

Honorary pallbearers were: Dewey Brock, Don Thompson, Floyd Owens, Ray Thomas, Paul Holbrook, Squire Cummins and Bill Bailey.

Roy Lee Goforth Dies In Shooting At V.F.W. Club

Richard Eugene Barnes, 33, of Route 2, Mt. Vernon, has been charged with murder in the Friday night shooting of Roy Lee Goforth, 41, of Calloway.

The shooting occurred about 7:30 p.m. at the V.F.W. Club just north of Livingston.

State Police said the shooting apparently followed an argument after which Goforth left the club, went to his home and returned to the club with a shotgun. State Policeman Jimmy Silvers said Goforth stepped to just inside the club with the gun and was shot seven times through the door, which opened to the inside, with a .22 automatic rifle.

Silvers said Goforth then staggered into the parking area of the club where he died. According to police, Goforth apparently did not discharge his weapon.

Barnes has been released on $25,000 bond.

No preliminary hearing date had been set at press time.

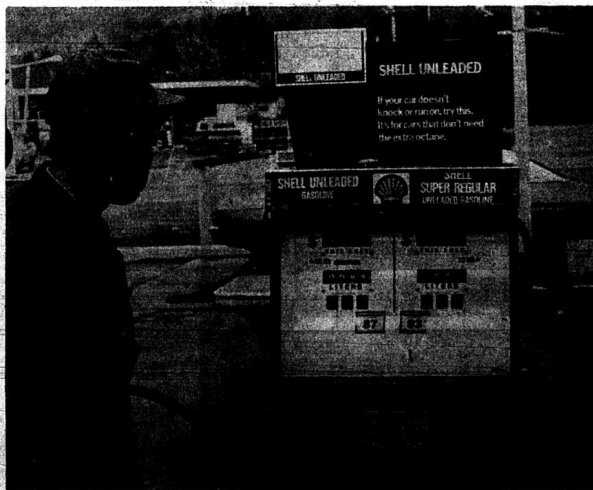

Mr. Goforth was born in Rockcastle County on March 30, 1938, the son of Cleo Martin Goforth and the late Walter Preston Goforth.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Charlene Arnold Goforth; one son, Troy Lee Goforth at home; four daughters, Mrs. Vickie

Lynn Hall of Ft. Folk, Louisville; Mrs. Donna Kay Fulton of Honolulu, Hawaii, Miss Tammy Renee Goforth of Chicago, Illinois and Miss Trishia Ann Goforth of Rt. 2, Mt. Vernon; five brothers, James Delbert Goforth of Rt. 2, Mt. Vernon, Robert Goforth of Rt. 1, Mt. Vernon, Harold Monroe Goforth of New Mexico, Franklin Boone Goforth of Mt. Vernon and Glen Edward Goforth of Indian; three sisters, Mrs. Ruby Faye Hayes of Tampa, Florida, Mrs. Flora Ann Lavigne of Knox, Indiana and Jean Pratt of Colorado; two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday, January 14 at the Dowell and Martin Funeral Home Chapel by Bro. Oliver Abney. Burial was in the Maple Grove Cemetery.

FILLER UP with liters that is and that's what Jack Roberts, an employee of Rentro Valley Shell is doing. A liter is 3.785 of a gallon and four liters is equal to 1.1 gallon. The price should make you feel better anyway—it's 30.3 cents per liter which figures out to $1.15 per gallon for regular gasoline—right now that is.

Dear Editor:
 [Editor's Note: The following letter was written to Mr. Frank Arneson, founder and chairman of the John Wayne Memorial Fund.]

Mr. Arneson:
 After John Wayne's death, I wrote a poem about him. I met him once in California some years ago and found him to be a friendly and very fine person. After reading about the "John Wayne Memorial Fund" in the paper this week, I thought I would send my poem to you. If there is any way at all that you can use it to help the "John Wayne Memorial Fund" please feel free to do so.

Special Tribute to John Wayne
 By Jerry Ayers

I remember how sad the news was that day
 That we heard that John Wayne had passed away,
 Tears were shed throughout this and every other land,
 For this actor, hero, legend, and great American,
 On the silver screen there were many actors that stood tall,
 But the fans, they loved the Duke best of all.
 A cowboy was the kind of role, we most loved to see him play,
 As fans would go to the movies on Saturday,

For John Wayne was always at his very best,
 When he upheld the code of the west.
 He always fought on the side that was right,
 And rode off into the sunset after he had won the fight.
 Off the screen, he would defend this country against any man,
 For America was big John Wayne's land.
 In his lifetime, he fought many a battle and always won,
 That is all but this, his last one, As he went up against the villain Cancer.
 With his famous grin,
 But this was the one fight that even he could not win,
 Still he will always be with us, in movies, books, poems and song.
 And when he rides off into the sunset,
 This time, his fans can't go along.
 But he won't ride the trail to Heaven alone,
 For God will be at his side,
 As the Duke, John Wayne takes his last ride.

Thank you, Jerry Ayers,
 Rt. 1, Box 222
 Stanford, Ky. 40484
 Mr. Arneson will send a copy of the above poem to all donors to the fund, if the poem is requested.

 In a small mountain community in North Georgia a battle is being fought. It is a constitutional issue that could set a far reaching precedent.
 For more than 20 years a lighted Cross has stood on Black Rock Mountain... a memorial landmark that is very special to the people who live there. The American Civil Liberties Union has sued to have it removed, charging a first amendment violation. They cite "prayer in schools" as their precedent case.
 The first amendment to the Constitution contains only 16 words relating to religion; "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibit the free

Last week, the Kentucky General Assembly began its first meeting of the decade. With the new decade comes 25 new legislators. The House has 19 new legislators out of its 100 total members. Six out of the Senate's 38 members are new. The average newcomer to the General Assembly is a 39-year-old male, college graduate, married with two children. He is a businessman and attorney and belongs to the Baptist Church and the Democratic Party.

When the 1980 General Assembly convened on January 8th, one provision of the legislative constitutional amendment approved by Kentucky voters last November went into effect. This provision allows the General Assembly to recess for hearings or bad weather without losing any of the 60 legislative days. However, the General Assembly cannot extend the 60 days it must be beyond April 15.

Governor Brown gave his first State of the Commonwealth Address, on the first day of the legislative session. In his speech, Brown indicated state government was going to have to do some considerable belt tightening over the next two years.

During the first week of the session there were over 200 bills filed by members of the House and over 80 bills filed by members of the Senate.

There is abundant evidence that the writers of the Constitution had deep religious convictions. We have "In God We Trust" on our currency. We open Congress with prayer. We swear in persons for judicial proceedings using the Bible including swearing in the President. We have military Chaplains with crosses and Stars of David on their uniforms. Our pledge to the flag contains the phrase "one nation, Under God, indivisible..." Government officials observe religious days, i.e. Sunday, Christmas, Thanksgiving, etc. Our forefathers certainly did not intend America to be a religiously sterile nation. We are not a nation of atheists.

The intent to prevent the establishment of a state church like the pilgrims left in England—one that had strong political influence. We believe that our lighted beacon is no more a violation of those 16 words than the presence of a Bible in every courtroom in the United States of America.

The Supreme Court recently ruled that "In God We Trust" on our currency is "Constitutionally acceptable." We people of Rabun County strongly believe that our landmark is likewise Constitutionally acceptable. Crosses, religious symbols and buildings do exist on public lands such as Flander's Field with "crosses row on row", Arlington, Shiloh, Gettysburg, Pearl Harbor, sacred American Indian shrines and memorial objects by the tens of thousands, religious to someone or others.

The sponsor and owner of the cross is the Rabun County Chamber of Commerce, hardly an establishment of religion. The money for the construction of the cross and for the on-going bill comes from donations from the people of the community.

The cross was erected with the permission of the State of Georgia on the edge of Black Rock State Park. The cross is one mile due North of the city of Clayton and at 3500 feet elevation. At night it appears as a cross in the sky. From the high school, four miles away, the lights appear as a bright star. On a clear, crisp winter night it's light can be seen for 70 miles as a faint star. It is the "light in the window" when coming home to our County. It is a memorial to their deceased loved ones by many of those who made contributions to its erection. To take the position that is an effort to "establish" a state religion is patently absurd. In the past the A.C.U. may have championed some worthy causes, but we think they are dead wrong on this one.

If enough good people stand by and let the A.C.U. force this non-religious view to extreme, we shall all lose one more measure of our heritage. We people of Rabun County stand to stand on our rights and what we believe is right. We would appreciate your support and prayers.

Randall J. Carver, President
 Rabun County Chamber of Commerce
 Clayton, Georgia 30525

bers of the Senate. Some of these bills include proposals for pay raises for the state's judges, redefining the legal duties of the K. governor, reform of the state tax structure and legislation concerning the requirement of a referendum before an area can be annexed by a city.

Other issues which will be confronting the 1980 General Assembly include—

The management of hazardous waste within the state.

Should Kentucky establish a system of regional jails?

Should the property tax be replaced as the major source of revenue for local school districts?

The proposed Amendment to the U.S. Constitution which would grant voting representation in Congress to Washington, D.C.

Public Financing of Election Campaigns in Kentucky; The high cost of workmen's compensation in Kentucky compared to the benefits received by injured workers;

Shopping The Sales

Take Self-Control With prices outpacing our paychecks, we're trying to live more frugally. One way to go is shopping the sales-if you can muster the patience and self-discipline to do it right.

All kinds of events can come under that umbrella heading of "sales". There are pre-inventory, post-inventory, out-of-season and fire sales, after-holiday sales and going-out-of-business clearances, special buys and loss leaders, not to mention the yard sales, factory outlet and warehouse sales.

The secret is to know exactly what you want, have the patience to wait for it to turn up as a sale item, then have the fortitude to resist other "bargains" you could easily do without.

Almost anything and everything can turn up any time of year at flea markets, yard sales, and in the classified section of your newspaper. But seasonal sales at retail and wholesale outlets are somewhat predictable.

The following is an alphabetized listing of merchandise and the months in which you might expect to find bargain prices: Air-conditioners-August; appliances-February; automobiles, July through September and the end of January.

Baby clothes-January, March and July; baby carriages and strollers, January, February and September; barbecue sets, August; bedding, January and May and August; bicycles, January and February; books, January, October and November.

Christmas cards-December and January; Christmas gift-wrap, late December, January; clothing for boys, January, March, April, June, December, for girls, January, February, April, August, December; for men, January, March, April, August, December; for women, at end of each season.

Cosmetics-January, February, July; costume jewelry, January, July, August; curtains and draperies, January, February, May, July, August, November; cutlery, January, February, July, December.

Drug items-January, February, July, December.

Fans-August; food preservation equipment-October through January, floor coverings, January, February, July, August; furniture, January, February, August.

Games-January, February, July; garden equipment-August, September; gardening supplies, March; glassware, January, February, September.

Hifi and stereo equipment-January, February, July; handbags, January, May, July; housewares (utensils, dishes, Outdoor furniture: January, July.

Radios: January, February, July; school supplies, October.

Shoes for babies-January, April, for boys, January, February, July, for girls, January, February, July, for women, January, July, November and December; for men, January, November, December.

Silver and stainless steel flatware and hollow ware: February; sports equipment, January, February, July, August, stationery items, February.

Television sets: January, February, July; toys, January, February.

More frugality tips: If you can't get to a sale the first day when there's the widest selection, wait 'till the last day when prices are further reduced.

Tuck into your billfold a list of the things you and your family really need. When you're tempted to sink money into a special fund, make sure it's on that list. If not, and if you still simply must have it, see what you might cross out to make room for it in your life.

More Helps Available to You: A learn-by-mail course on a Look at Family Money Matters will begin in February. This course has been considerably revised and shortened from the one offered two years ago. Four lessons include ways to save money, using credit, budgeting and management tips. The fee for the course is $2.00. Send your name, address and fee to the County Extension Office, P.O. Box 297, Mt. Vernon. The first mailing will be made the first week of February.

News

By Stephen Minkitt
Health Environmentalist

Over the past year I have noticed a definite increase in the number of illegal, unpermitted establishments of several types. In Rockcastle County. Among these were food service operations, retail food markets, and mobile home parks, vending machine operators, and one youth camp. In nearly all of these cases, the primary problem was ignorance of the law. The persons involved were not aware that they had broken the law and cooperated fully when informed.

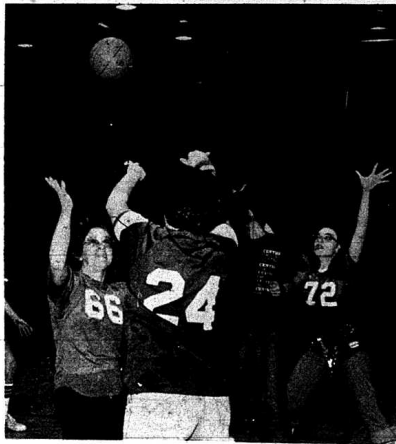

As a general rule, these short definitions apply: "Food service establishment" means any fixed or mobile commercial establishment that engages in the preparation and serving of ready-to-eat foods in portions to the consumer.

"Retail food market" means any establishment where food or food products are offered for sale to the consumer, and intends for off-premises consumption, but does not include establishments which handle only prepackaged, snack type, non-potentially hazardous foods.

"Mobile home parks" means a parcel of land, under the control of any person, available to the public in which two or more mobile home lots are occupied or intended for occupancy by mobile homes.

"Camps or Youth camps" means any area, parcel, or tract of land on which facilities are established, maintained or operated for recreational, educational or vacation purposes for five (5) or more youths under eighteen (18) years of age.

permit can be issued. Construction plans for these places must be approved by several departments of the state government. This means a person shouldn't expect to apply for a permit in the morning and be in operation that afternoon. Generally, one to several weeks are required for plan review and approval.

If you plan to open an establishment such as one listed above, please call the Rockcastle County Health Department at 256-2242 for more information.

Doing things the right, legal way may be, at first, more expensive than some of the operations I have seen in the last year, but in the long run it saves money and possibly, legal difficulties.

Thomas Jefferson sold his 10,000 books to the U.S. government to replace the collection burned by the British. The books became the nucleus of today's of Congress.

...Once upon a dream
Before I knew there was you
I wondered how it would be
To feel love's magic
Now I know.
For you made it all
Come true.

...Awake or asleep
I carry a dream of you
And in some beautiful way
It keeps reminding me
How much sweeter my life is Because you're part of it.

WRAP BOTH YOUR HOME AND CAR IN ONE BLANKET OF PROTECTION

We have an innovative policy called PCP—Personal Comprehensive Protection—from The Continental Insurance Companies. And if you own a home and a car, PCP offers you exceptional value. Separate policies often mean differing amounts of protection for your car, for your home and for its contents. And separate policies often cost you more, in time as well as money.

PCP, on the other hand, gives you one amount of property protection for your home and its contents. And one amount of liability protection for your car and home. Plus, PCP gives you the option to include your hospital, disability income and mortgage life insurance in the same plan.

PCP is easy to understand, efficient and time-saving, and in many cases, more economical. Come see us or call. We'll be glad to show you what PCP can do to make you—and your property—more secure.

"Getting Involved In Your Marriage"

By Larry Keaton

You do not need me to tell you how fast a pace we all are living. You are experiencing it for yourselves first hand. As Toffer says in his book "Future Shock", the life-style in which we are caught up draws the future to us so quickly that it becomes the past before we are able to deal with it in the present. "Thus you and I are left with a bewildered look on our faces as we view our responsibilities and obligations and wonder how we are going to handle it. Relax, things will get worse."

As I see it, our sanity and well-being will only be maintained as we do two things: 1) have a meaningful relationship with God and 2) become really involved in our marriage. (If you are not married, stay with me, the article is for everyone.)

The most important institution known to man is marriage. "Give us the tutition because its characteristics are so similar to those found in the relationship man can have with God. Where else can you have such intimacy and caring and love in both such relationships? I believe that as we grow in relationship with our marriage partner we also have the potential for growth in our relationship with God. The two are so vitally related. (This, of course, does not mean you cannot have a meaningful relationship with God as a single person.)

I am fortunate. My best friend happens to be my wife. Even though we have our problems, as all married couples do, my "friend" and I manage to talk them out. I am very fortunate, because this also has a tendency to prepare me for a better, more growing relationship with God. Many of you are experiencing this. You also know it is not easy—it takes effort and an act of will and at times, self-denial. But you also know it is worth it; for by getting involved in your marriage, you find yourself more complete. With the pace we are living today, we cannot afford to lose sight of this.

The Family Life Center facilities are open to the public. We invite you to use our Family Game Room and Library, indoor/outdoor Recreation Facilities, Emergency shelters and picnic areas. Twenty-four hour counseling services are available. For more information phone (606) 256-5612 or write to Director, Family Life Center of Appalachia, Renfro Valley, Ky. 40473.

Continental Telephone Completes Five-Year, State-Wide Upgrading Program

Last December 21, when Caneyville installer-repairer "Bud" and crew installed a new telephone at the home of Charles and Verna Porter in Falls of Rough, Ky., it represented the end of a huge, five-year construction project by the Continental Telephone of Kentucky to improve the telephone service for their customers.

Since 1975, Continental employees have worked to upgrade all eight-party service into one- or four-party service for nearly 55,500 customers in the state. The long-term project included not only the replacement of hundreds of miles of new cable, but also improvements at the customers' homes, such as replacing the wires into the house and the outside protectors, and inspecting for faulty inside wiring or telephone instruments.

The Caneyville exchange, with its 2000 stations, was the last of 41 Continental exchanges in the state to undergo upgrading. Work began in the Caneyville area in May, 1979.

The total cost of the state-wide, five-year project exceeded $29,500,000.

"The completion of the Caneyville project with the installation at the Porter's home is indeed a milestone for us, because the entire program has been a driving force behind our work here in Kentucky," said J. Wallace Black, Continental's Customer Service Manager for the state.

"Upgrading the telephone service for all of our eight-party customers, most of whom are located in rural areas, was quite an undertaking, considering our employees had to maintain our standards in daily routine business.

We're very proud of our people's effort and I believe our
