Rockcastle Health Department Aiming for District Organization by July 1

By Riek Anderkin

The Rockcastle County Health Department should be part of a district program by July 1, 1981, according to Steve Midkiff, Sanitarian for the department.

Midkiff said that he was told by now administrator of the district, Herman Johnson, that Frankfort was shooting for the July 1st date, apparently because this is the date on which the fiscal year will begin.

Rockcastle's Health Department will be part of a district comprised of at least three counties and no more than eight. There are two counties at the present, Clay and Jackson. Midkiff said that it is not definite on the number of counties that will go into the district besides Rockcastle but Midkiff said that he felt like there would be more.

"I don't think we can predict that we will get more money by going with the District," Midkiff said, "but if we had refused to go along with the state and not went into the district we would have had 25% of our state funds cut."

Midkiff said that one of the biggest advantages of the district will be that the health department will be getting some more part-time help that they could not have afforded if they had stayed within the county system. He also said that the department might receive more Federal money because the Federal Government gives more money to Districts than to little county systems.

Midkiff said that each health district will have a supervisor that will watch over the separate counties to make sure the departments are being operated efficiently and effectively and have no problems.

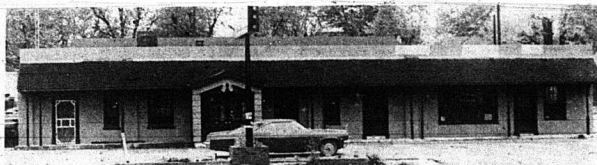

"It's better than closing the doors," Midkiff said, "but if we could stay open and operate the way we are now we not have any of our state and federal funds cut I'd rather not be in the (Cont'd to P-10)

CLEAR-UP

In last week's Signal it was reported that Graydon B. Cummins, Democratic candidate for County Judge Executive, did not file his report on financial spending by April 24th which was the deadline.

This was not wrong. However, on May 8th Mr. Cummins did file his report two weeks late. The report shows that he had received no money and spent $125.

It was also reported that Ernest Stanley candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, had spent $121.76 when he actually spent $1,121.76. The Signal regrets this error.

According to a political advertisement of Judge Thacker in this week's Signal, he has received a check for $50,000 from Area Development Funds (ADF) which will be used to purchase the above building for the County Health Department. The Health Department, located on the first floor of the courthouse at the present, is not in compliance with Federal law.

Letters to the Editor

[Editor's Note: This letter was received from Mrs. W.F. Peters in November 1968 but misplaced here in the office. We ran across it recently and decided better late than never. pa]

Dear Editor:

Would you please put the following letter in the Signal along with the picture. Mrs. Peters (Virginia, Mrs. Bud Holt's mother) taught a year and really like it. Our daughter had the desire to teach since she was five years old. She retired last year after teaching 30 years, without using any of her sick leave days. Her schools consisted of one room (1-4), two rooms, two teachers in one room (sharing), also remedial reading and math. She really enjoyed helping the children. They were a happy family, as she was a Mother to them as well as a teacher.

Mrs. Virginia Holt

In every school she always did her best to teach the pupils.

Seeing and knowing they learned was her greatest blessing, because she loved them and they did her. Her faithful service was provided by the Lord, so that she could perform her full time duties.

We are proud parents, as well as our daughter. We give God all the glory and praise, not ourselves. Each day was begun with prayer and Bible reading, which gave all a good start. She always said, "If they took her Bible out of school she would go too." Without God's help nothing could have been accomplished. She is especially proud of all who helped make her years happy and successful. A special thanks to her parents, husband, also Superintendent and his staff. Her desire was to be faithful and inspire others to do their best and have perfect attendance. Friday was the children's special day, work seemed like play. They did their best and worked hard to be successful.

She misses everyone, but sends God's blessings to all. Her goal was always to help others to succeed.

Wishing the best always to everyone. I really appreciate your doing this for me. Each week I look forward to the Signal and really enjoy it. We are grateful to you and your staff. Thanks so much.

Sincerely yours,
Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Peters

To the Editor,

This is in response to Mrs. W.R. Kidwell's letter in which she gave her version of what happened in the Rockcastle County Jail when I was assaulted by Deputy Jailer Oscar "Larney" Durham, who is now a candidate for Sheriff.

I wonder where Mrs. Kidwell got her information. Obviously, she was only repeating someone else's story, since she was not present when the event took place. Before making such a reckless statement as, "He was under arrest for being drunk," Mrs. Kidwell should have taken time to check the public records of the Rockcastle County Court House. She would have found that I was never informed of any charges against me concerning this incident. Mr. Durham was charged, indicted, tried and found guilty of Third Degree Assault. He was sentenced to thirty days in jail, one year of probation and fined $500.

Mr. Durham's conviction and the facts in the case are not hearsay or someone's biased opinion. I urge all interested citizens in general, and Mrs. Kidwell in particular, to look at the public record and verify the facts for themselves. I'm sure concerned voters will think twice about giving Mr. Durham an opportunity to repeat an incident of this sort.

Sincerely,
Timothy Van Bullock
Rt. 1,
Brodhead, Ky.

To the Editor:

In response to Leola Wynn's article last week about Mr. Cromer working so hard while his critics lay on the Creek Bank with a jug. I didn't know they raised tobacco and hay in the courthouse or it got to 90 or 110 degrees in there. I always thought it was air conditioned. As for leaving the county, I don't want to go to Russia but I would consider first class accommodations to Las Vegas.

Wayne Adams

To the Editor,

I am writing in answer to Mrs. Kidwell's article concerning Mr. Durham. As I don't know her I wonder what she meant. Did she mean she was at the jail the night the beating occurred. Well, Mrs. Kidwell, I appreciate your thinking I am intelligent enough to be a sheriff, but my knowledge goes further than that. I plan on using it for something else. But thanks just the same for the compliment. Yes, every story has two sides but there has never been but one side to this one.

Mrs. Hamilton

Dear Editor,

I believe that it would be fair if you would print this before the election since it seems that a "turn about"

To The Voters of Rockcastle County

As the election comes to an end, I'd like to thank the people of Rockcastle County for their encouragement and support.

I've told you what I stand for and what I'll do. Listed below are a few of these commitments:

1. A concerned citizen from each district deputized.
2. Someone on call 7 days a week, 24 hours a day.
3. Someone to check out each and every complaint.
4. Someone to patrol the roads.

I have made these commitments and I promise to keep them. They are not just campaign promises.

I have named William "Willie" Powell my deputy from the 4th District and he will be the ONLY one from that district.

I have named Clarence "Jib" Hasty my deputy the Second District and he will be a full-time deputy and the only one from the Second District.

I will have to name three more deputies, one from the 1st, 3rd and 5th districts and I promise the men I pick will be men of good standing.

Let me say this, if anyone I pick does not prove to a man who will do a good job, I will replace them with someone who will.

I believe a good Sheriff's Dept., with the help of the people, can change Rockcastle County for the better.

I want to be elected your next Sheriff and I need your vote and influence. I'm running on my record of honesty and truthfulness and if you don't know me, ask someone who does or feel free to call me at my home - 758-8019. I have nothing to say about my opponents. I'm not running on their record - they are! If I miss seeing you before election day, I would still appreciate your voting for me. However, I will try to see everyone I can and I hope I will see you.

No 16B is my number on the voting machine.

I really believe that people want a good Sheriff's Dept. and, if I'm elected, that's what people will have. Friends, Willie, Jib and myself don't have much money to spend on this election but I believe we've got enough friends to make up the difference and be elected and we sure appreciate your standing beside us.

Also, we would like to thank all the people who took the time to be with us at our Gospel Singing last Friday night. We had a good turnout (500-600) and it really made us feel good.

THANKS,

REMEMBER FOLKS, VOTE FOR US AND YOU'LL HAVE A GOOD SHERIFF'S DEPT.

Your Vote and Support Will Be Deeply Appreciated.

I like to remind the people that I am running for Magistrate in the 4th District, and my motto is "Don't Pray After the Devil Comes". In other words, clean the ditch lines before it rains, not after.

I have donated the County $500 to fix the county road, which is a school route and mail route by my farm. They have layed around and let the rain wash the road away, due to not opening the ditches (before it rained).

I like to thank the people for their support through this campaign and that if I'm elected I will give them the best shot I got and with their help we'll make it.

PHOTOGRAPH EXHIBIT SCHEDULED FOR LIBRARY

"Folk Art of Kentucky" is a selection of photographs drawn from research and an exhibition done by Ellsworth

Taylor of Lexington. It will be on exhibit at the Rockcastle County Public Library from May 20th to May 27th from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

The folk/primitive traditions are as strong in Kentucky as anywhere else in the country. Objects represented in the exhibition range from a house shaped like a goose, by G. Stacy Wabaco, Kentucky to the religious carvings of Edgar Tolson, Campton, Kentucky. No common theme is evident among the artists' work, but that all feel the need to create "something." Their final products are strong statements about individuality, experience and the need to communicate that every artist has.

A catalog of the exhibition is available from the Kentucky Arts Commission (302 Wilkinson Street, Frankfort, Ky. 40601) for $4.00.

AF ROTC SCHOLARSHIP APPLICANTS SHOULD APPLY NOW

High school students who will be seniors next fall should begin to apply now for Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps Four-Year College Scholarships, according to Col. Hugh D. McCracken, Jr., Air Force ROTC Registrar.

"Students' chances for selection increase by submitting their scholarship applications during the summer and early fall," says Colonel McCracken. Applications for the freshman scholarships, beginning in the 1982-83 academic year, are now available at Departments of Aerospace Studies at any college or university hosting Air Force ROTC and at U.S. Air Force recruiting stations or students can write to the Office of Public Affairs, Air Force ROTC, Maxwell AFB, AL 36112.

An Air Force ROTC Four-Year Scholarship provides for payment of full tuition, books and most fees, plus a $100 monthly stipend during each academic year. The scholarships can be used at about 600 colleges and universities that offer Air Force ROTC.

All 15 districts in the county are strictly Republican, however the Brown precinct has the largest percentage of Democrat voters-280 to 312 Republicans. West Brodhead also has a large number of Democrat voters in comparison to the other precincts-273.

The strongest Republican voter registration seems to be in the West and East Livingston and Climax precincts where only 137 Democrats are registered in all three precincts.

There are 6,774 Republicans registered county-wide and 1,735 Democrats for a total of 8,551 voters.

My name is Donald J. Clark. I am married to the former Paula Bullock and we have one son, Trent.

Friends, as the election draws near, you as a voter have some very important decisions to make. Who will you support? I urge you to look very closely at all the candidates and support those persons who will serve all their constituents with no special interests in mind. Don't be swayed by friendship or personal considerations.

If elected as your next Magistrate, I will work with other members of the Fiscal Court to have the roads in the 3rd District repaired. The roads which are in greatest need will be repaired first - no matter where they may be. I will also work to make a sound county government for all the people of the county.

I ask you to keep this in mind. What our county government does today, our children and grandchildren will have to live with tomorrow.

might be fair play.
I'm referring to the late attempts by some parties to cause trouble in our fiscal court by insinuating that Judge Thacker has been less than fair.
I don't believe that for a minute and I believe that we need to admit that we got one of the most honest and dedicated judges that Rockcastle County has ever had.

To the Editor,

Recently I was back in Rockcastle County visiting relatives and while going through some old Mt. Vernon Signal's, I came across an article on "Old Piney Branch". Although I find the information of all parts of the County most interesting, I really enjoyed the one on Piney Branch. My great grandfather, Will Ponder, had settled in the Red Hill-Piney Branch community in the 1800's and I was born and raised on a farm he had deeded to my grandmother, Martha Ponder May. One of the outstanding events I remember from my childhood was going to Red Hill Church on Memorial Day for dinner on the ground. When all those old people from every creek and holler got together, it seemed like everyone there was related. In election years, all the politicians would gather at the Red Hill School for a pie supper and speech making occasion. I once read a poem about Kentucky that said in part—"the liquor is the quickest and pistol hands the slickest in Kentucky; and wondered if the writer had been to Red Hill. Although about all the office seekers some to these affairs, some stand out in my memory more than others: George Murphy, Circuit Court Clerk always sang, "Give Me My Roses While I Live." And then there was Boone Saylor and Charlie Carter, the forerunners of family feud. Charlie Carter was almost always elected to the office he was seeking and was held in high regard by the people of my community. Apparently the people of the County see some of the quality and integrity in the younger generations of the Saylor and Carter families for they are still being chosen to serve the people of Rockcastle County.

I always come back to Red Hill on Memorial Day and enjoy the fellowship of friends and relatives that come there to pay their respects.

Thank you "Signal" for your informative style that for many people brings "home" a little closer to the places we live.

Most respectfully,
Ebb Ben Allen
Rt. 3
Totz, Ky. 40870

Dear Editor:

As the election day is almost here, I would like to remind the voters of one thing. I hope that when the next election rolls around, you can say that you are pleased with the people that you helped to put into our county offices.

I also would like to thank Judge Thacker for the fine roads that he mentioned in his political ad. Yes, I agree some of the roads are good, BUT evidently he has not been over on Negro Creek, Copper Creek, Bowling Ridge or Chestnut Ridge, just to name a few of the roads in the county that are in bad need of repair. Yes, we pay TAXES, and are registered to VOTE and we intend to be counted in this election.

How else should we be thankful for the little patching that we did get; too bad the election does not come every six months.

Four years ago several of the residents of Copper Creek met with the Fiscal Court to try to get our road blacktopped. We were told by Judge Thacker that it was not left up to him and the magistrates to get the road fixed. (I still don't know what we are paying them for.) We then went to Somerset to the State Garage with a petition signed by over 100 voters that used the road for travel and to and from work. Judge Thacker went with us, saying that he was behind us 110%. He must still be behind us because he hasn't done anything yet. We did get some money appropriated to do 4 miles of blacktopping, but when it was juggled around at the courthouse we only had enough left to do half the job. We never did know where the other half went. Our road is still not completed except for the little patching and our children must cross a bridge that is in bad need of repair. This bridge is over Dix river. This I have repeatedly called to the Good Judge's attention, only to get the same old promises that have been going on for about eight years. I, for one, am tired of the promises, I would like to see some action.

The Garbage Deal STINKS, not the dumpsters as much as the way the deal is being managed. And is the county really behind on the rock bills.

Good Roads and bridges in the county would have meant more to "Most People" than being able to say "WE" own the Brodhead Fairground. An investment such as this should be investigated and not by the county officials and the magistrates.

Therefore, Mr. Deborde this is no time for you to try and straighten out the county. You as a magistrate should have known what was going on and spoke up when it happened, not wait until election time.

I could go on, but I hope that you the voter has got the picture. I am for a change. I am not campaigning for any one person. I just hope that you will take a good look at the candidates and then vote for someone who is honest, dependable and can be trusted with the welfare of the county, be it Democrat or Republican.

Let's make a change for the better!

Janet Brooks

Dear Editor,

Our nation was founded upon the principles that all governing bodies was the representatives of the people. This means to me that the people is the government and cast their votes on election days for those that will represent the peoples government.

The government of the people is also structured to maintain a balance of power. This was done for the sole purpose that no one individual or governing body could become so powerful that the government of the people would become a dictatorship and control the government as they so desired.

The last two newspapers that you have printed makes me concerned as to the course our county government has taken. My main concern is that of the balance of power.

The governing body of our county government is the magistrates with a County Judge Executive as the representative of the magistrates. The County Judge Executive is not the government but an agent for the government. The magistrates duty is to make all decisions for the county government and their agent, the County Judge Executive is to carry out their wishes. All the officials are elected by the people so that the balance of power can be maintained.

Your newspaper reported May 7th that Magistrate Deborde made a motion that persons receiving the almost four thousand dollars of emergency funds be given to the magistrates of the fiscal court for their inspection. Judge Thacker overlooked his motion and quickly moved that the court be adjourned. Does this sound like a balanced government.

First, why did Magistrate Deborde even have to make a motion to obtain the list. To my understanding all bills to be paid are supposed to be authorized by the fiscal court and a list of those to receive the funds submitted to them for inspection. Does this mean that Judge Thacker has been spending the people's money without it first being authorized by the fiscal court.

Judge Thacker also overlooked Magistrate Deborde's motion-Overlooked or ignored his request. No request by the people's representative is overlooked but satisfied especially when it comes to the disbursement of county money. I see no reason why his request was unreasonable especially since this disbursement was not authorized by him.

After Judge Thacker overlooked Magistrate Deborde's motion, he then quickly moved that the court be adjourned. Why did Judge Thacker want the fiscal court ended so quickly since it had only started. The remainder of the article shows that the fiscal court had other business to attend to. Were the vouchers that Judge Thacker authorized payment for so regret that he did not want the issue discussed in a public meeting. Besides this I thought that the magistrates were the ones who asked to be adjourned.

Second, the issue of a citizen, Mr. Ernest Mason, wanting to see the vouchers and being told by Judge Thacker that they were public records and that he had access to them. Judge Thacker was quick to inform his personnel to close the books thus denying public access to them. Judge Thacker was correct at first for the people have the right to view county records of this nature. In this way, the people of our government assume the right to be the last in the balance of power, for in this manner can no person in any level of government overpower the people that elect them to office or transact business in an

ELECT A County Attorney Who Cares

James H. Lambert

Dear Friends and Fellow Citizens of Rockcastle County,

I wish to again express my heart-felt appreciation for all of the encouragement so many of you have given me throughout this campaign. I want to say "Thank You" from the bottom of my heart.

Next Tuesday, we will choose many of our county officials. I urge all citizens to vote and make your voice heard. As you know, voting is one of our basic and most important freedoms and it is so important that each of us exercise it.

In past issues of this newspaper, I have introduced myself and told you of my pledge to work with other law enforcement officials to bring strict law enforcement to Rockcastle County.

I have also expressed my desire to work closely with other officials and agencies to encourage additional industry to locate here. This is very important so that our fine group of recent graduates and other young people will not have to leave home to find work.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I genuinely want to be your County Attorney. But, as well as being your County Attorney, I will be your friend. I, today, make you that solemn commitment. If you give me the opportunity to serve you, I promise that I will strive hard to cause you to be pleased with your choice.

Yours for a Better Rockcastle County,

YOUR FRIEND,

James H. Lambert

P.S. I want to take this opportunity to recognize the ladies of our county who baked pies and cakes for the Rockcastle County Little League and Senior League Pie and Cake Auction Saturday night at the Fairgrounds. I bought a pie and a cake, both of which were delicious and, of course, the proceeds went to a most worthy cause - the young people of our County. So thanks, Ladies!

NOTICE TO THE LADIES: Many of you have told me that you received your calendar and the wise old owl. I hope you will find it attractive and useful. Your names and addresses came from a voting list from Frankfort and were probably not entirely complete. If you did not receive your calendar, please drop by the office and I will have one for you or I will have them available Saturday at the May Festival in Mt. Vernon. I would like for everyone to have a calendar who wants one. THANK YOU!

"LETTERS TO THE EDITOR"

 unethical nor illegal manner. Judge Thacker used poor judgment denying access to the vouchers in question for the people will always think the worst when things are kept secret.

In my opinion, Judge Thacker has far exceeded his authority as a representative of the people and as an agent of the fiscal court. If a magistrate no longer has a voice in government that voters sent to represent is suppressed, then what rights of the peoples government shall be consumed under the cover of progress. No one man can nor should assume supreme authority of a governing body. Neither should any governing body allow such an imbalance of power to be created that the voice of peoples representatives and the voice of the people themselves suppressed.

For years, there has been controversy over the spending of county funds. The current state of our county government has yet to be revealed as to the financial status and the disbursements of county money. I cannot recall the last time that I saw a financial statement published by our county government for the inspection by the people. I would like to know how far in debt our county is in and where the money of the county is being spent.

My opinion is that we the people deserve and have the right for an open and balanced-powered county government that is of the people, by the people and for the people. Soon the people have the opportunity to once again create the balance of power necessary for good government.

Accident Report

One person was killed and seven persons injured in Rockcastle County in the month of April, according to Stanley C. Hale of the Kentucky State Police Post in London.

There was a total of 23 accidents on County highways of which 18 were property damage only, 4 were personal injury accidents and one was a fatal accident.

Forty-one persons were issued citations for moving hazardous violations and 29 were issued citations for other traffic violations. Forty-two motorists were issued courtesy notices for faulty equipment and other types of traffic violations. Thirty-eight persons were assisted with tourist information and breakdowns.

The state police recovered two stolen vehicles in the county.

Five persons were arrested for driving while under the influence of intoxicants and 11 persons were arrested for public intoxication.

During the month, there were 34 criminal investigations which resulted in 15 criminal arrests.

"BURGLARS"

A little bit later the three burglars were surprised to find that they were so quickly apprehended by local city police Charles Lovell and State police Jimmie Silvers.

Arrested as they were entering the north bound entrance ramp to I-75 from US 25 at Renfro were Rodney Rutherford, 22, of Rt. 5, Lexington; Thomas Wayne Besley, 22, of 1038 Darley Drive, Lexington and a seventeen year old juvenile, according to Jimmie Silvers.

The three were riding in a blue Dodge in which was found

$1,159 in currency, travelers checks, payroll checks and valuables taken from a Michigan van, items worth $673 taken from a Michigan car, items valued at $145 taken from a van from Flemingsburg, $73 worth of valuables from a Louisville car, items valued at $92 from a South Carolina car and items valued at from $10-$15 from a Hartford, Ky. car.

Witnesses reported the color, make and three digits of the license plate number to police who were able to spot the car traveling north on US 25 and apprehended the occupants before they headed onto the Interstate.

I Thank Frank

During his public life, three important character traits have become very clear in Frank DeBorde, candidate for County Judge/Executive.

I. RECOGNITION OF WHAT IS RIGHT

A. Frank has pointed out that it is wrong for the Judge-Executive to funnel hundreds of thousands of tax dollars to family members through a special privilege contract.

B. Frank has questioned the fact that thousands of tax dollars have been paid out to non-elected administrative officials to do work the Judge-Executive is paid to do.

C. Frank knows that using tax-supported vouchers to gain votes is wrong.

II. ADMINISTRATIVE ABILITY

A. Frank has discovered questionable expenditures, even though the Judge-Executive refused prior access to the annual budget.

B. Frank has discovered, and reported, that the current garbage service is operating without a contract with almost $4,000 being paid out in each of the last 2 months.

C. Frank has expressed concern about free spending on gravel and non-payment of this year's gravel bill - over $90,000.

III. BRAVERY

A. Frank DeBorde has stood alone against the odds and against the things he knows to be wrong.

For this, we thank Frank and endorse him as the honest and conservative man we need in the office of County Judge/Executive.

FILM FOCUSES ON KENTUCKY'S TOURISM

Scenic mountain tops, thoroughbreds grazing in fields of bluegrass and wool being spun the old-fashioned way are just a few of the colorful and familiar scenes of Kentucky which combine in the state's new tourism promotional film. "Oh, Kentucky."

The 12-minute film, which has also been edited into six-minute and one-minute versions for television, is now available to school, clubs, community organizations, tourism businesses and other business groups through the Kentucky Department of Tourism.

"Since the governor (John Y. Brown Jr.) has had to reconsider Kentucky's out-of-state tourism campaign due to cut-backs, we have directed our efforts to presenting Kentucky as a vacation spot to Kentuckians. Our film will show Kentuckians that they can save time and dollars in gas by planning their vacations in our beautiful state," said Tourism Commissioner Lois Mateus.

"We're encouraging all interested parties to contact us about using the "Oh! Kentucky" film," Mateus said. "The film will not only help promote in-state travel, but will also increase the awareness and ap-

Several citizens of Rockcastle and Pulaski County have inquired of me concerning Dale B. Mitchell.

Dale and his wife, both, worked with me while I served as Governor. Through that association, and my long-standing friendship with Dale and his family, I am in a unique position to speak of his abilities, character, loyalty and integrity. Dale is a sober, honest and responsible individual. As a skilled lawyer, he will never abuse the power of the office of Commonwealth Attorney, or abuse the citizens of his district, because of the power possessed by him as Commonwealth Attorney. He is a law and order man, with unexcelled trial ability.

It is my considered judgment that he is a loyal Republican and would work actively for other Republican candidates, rather than Democrats. I can recommend him without reservation. If I lived in that judicial district, I would vote for, and support, him.

To The Voters of Rockcastle County

Since this is the last chance I will have to express my opinion to you the citizens and voters of Rockcastle County by the way of this paper, since it is the last issue before Election Day, I would like to bring to your attention some of the important things that are going on with our County Government.

1. In the past 3½ years, you and I, as taxpayers, have spent thousands of dollars for garbage pick-up in this County. As most of you know, the garbage contract expired some time ago. According to the contract, it was supposed to be renewed prior to the expiration date by both parties, the county and the owner. Why it has not been done, I do not know.

2. As most of you know, in the past the county has had a contract with the Judge's son-in-law, who owns the well-kept and beautiful garbage containers which help to beautify our county. You know what I am talking about if you have hauled your garbage off lately. I think rust is the newest color.

3. As most of you know, the county purchased the Brodhead Fairgrounds a few years ago to have a county park and recreation center and gathering place for the citizens of Rockcastle County. We have heard a lot of criticism about this purchase. As one person said: "They built a good grandstand that gives a good view of the horses head if the horses head is all you care to see.

4. At the fairgrounds there has been a Senior Citizens building built at a cost of approximately $48,000 which most people think is a restroom facility. I have seen bigger restrooms.

5. During the past the past week, a contract was let for approximately $18,000 to build public restrooms at the Fairgrounds. Well, that is cheap for a one-hole John.

6. I have read several letters to the editor praising our County Judge for friendliness and willingness to listen. I don't know where his eyes and ears were when he tried to dismiss the Fiscal Court when I was there to talk with them at the last meeting. I, for myself, am a voter and a taxpayer and I feel you and I should have the right to address the fiscal court anytime.

7. This is a sample of the kind of government we have under the leadership of the honorable County Judge Executive-Hubert Thacker.

8. As you have read this article I am sure you have been wondering why is Ernest Mason doing this. Well, let me tell you why. As I served four years as Magistrate of the 5th District in this county, I became familiar with the cost and expense to operate this county. Seven and a half years ago when I took office, the county did not have money to pay the electric bill. We had to struggle to do the things that had to be done, such as for the first two years, we had to borrow money to operate on but we, the Fiscal Court, overcame all of this by working together and management. When I left office three and one half years ago, the last contract we let was to build the ambulance service garage and had the money to pay for it. We did not leave a lot of bills for the incoming Fiscal Court. For an example, at this time the county owes Kentucky Stone approximately $100,000.00. This makes me wonder how much the county will owe by the end of the year; how about you. Since the County does not have a contract for garbage pick-up, it leaves me to wonder if this has been overlooked for a reason like maybe to cost the county more money for the next four years.

When you go to the polls Tuesday, May 26th, to exercise your right as a citizen and voter. Think about what the future holds for you and the county.

I would like to leave you with this thought-When the funds are low and the debts are high and you want to smile but have to cry, if this is what you want, vote for Hubert Thacker, County Judge Executive.

SHERIFF

To The Citizens and Voters Of Rockcastle County

This will be my final appeal to you through this paper concerning how you vote in this upcoming primary election as to who will serve you in the sheriff's department for the next four years. I have seen many of you and talked to you about the duties of the sheriff. You have expressed to me your desire for someone who will maintain a strong Sheriff's Department with good morals and common sense.

I have chosen two men to serve with me that most people know. You know that they are good men. We will not have people carrying badges and guns that you, the citizens, do not approve of. We are able and intend to do a good job for you, the public. We want you to be able to take pride in your Sheriff's Department and at the end of our term, be able to tell us that we have served you well.

The Sheriff's Department will not be closed at any time during the day so that if necessary, you may come during your lunch hour and conduct any business without having to wait. Mr. Green will take care of the office and radio communications while Mr. French and I will answer your calls and patrol. Being on call twenty-four hours a day is not a special service, it is our sworn duty to the citizens of this county to be on call at all times.

I believe now is the time to take a long and serious look at all the Sheriff's candidates, then each individual needs to decide which candidate is the most qualified, willing and able to serve you in this very important county office. I feel that you will find that I, Oscar "Larney" Durham, along with my deputies, Mr. Wilson Green and Mr. Junior French, is the most capable team to serve the public in this capacity.

Let me tell you in closing that I have not been affiliated with any other candidates in any race in the past, presently, nor do I plan to be affiliated with anyone in the future. If elected, our department hopes to work well in harmony with other officials that you, the citizens, elect, so that we can all work for your benefit. I want to point out that I have had nothing to do with any letters to the editor in this paper that have been commenting either on my behalf or against me.

I want to add that I have a clear conscience in that I have not slandered or talked derogatorily concerning other candidates in this race. I do not feel that would be becoming to myself as a candidate. I don't want to win this race by tearing someone else down. I want to win and be able to say that the people elected me because they trusted me to serve them honestly and execute my duties properly. I have lived in this area for nearly 45 years and most of the citizens know me quite well. I feel like I have made many friends and people can judge from all these years what kind of sheriff I would be.

I have been able to talk to many of you but, of course, I haven't seen everybody. I wish I could but that is just not possible. I want to ask you now for your support in this election. I want very much to be your next sheriff.

The Career of Ed Hunt...

By Mary Alice Hunt

(Excerpts from a presentation)

The year of 1951, little known to us, was to be the beginning of a very new and different experience at the Ed Hunt-Residence. None of us knew how long the experience would last but we were more than willing to accept the challenges and many there were, too. That year, Daddy began teaching the Negro Creek School and in the fall a position with the Commonwealth of Kentucky came open and he was asked to take it. He decided to give it a try if Mrs. Miracle would let my Mother hold his school for a few days so that he could go back if the job did not work out. Daddy went to work in an office next to the offices of Dr. J.D. Hefderston, Sr. and Sons. He worked with two ladies, Mrs. Renda Brown and Mrs. Lillian Collett. Lillian began work about the time he did. The office did not stay in that location very long but was moved to the O.V. Hilton Building on Church Street. During the time in the Hilton Building, many experiences were acquired that cannot be forgotten. I don't suppose there was one snowy day that Daddy and Doug Hysinger did not help at least one stranded motorist up that little hill in front of the office. There were many innocent passerby who got pelted on the head with one of those Doug "Cincinnati Red Tom Seaver" Hysinger snowballs. It was effortless for Doug to throw them over the length of the building to the street. The amazing part of it was that he never got caught. Why. Because he had a hind catcher sitting at a desk and if he saw someone start to enter the office he would give Doug a sign and Doug would hop onto his swivel chair and slide to his desk so that he would be at work by the time the person got in the door. There was also the time when Doug was challenged to meet a fellow outside the office and being the brave person he was, Doug accepted. Doug hit the man and the mucus flew from the man's nose and Doug fell off the sidewalk into the street with a chunk of shirt in one hand and the other covered with mucus. He got up and finished off the fellow and then went to the doctor to see why his leg was hurting him so badly. Much to his own dismay, he went home that night with a nice white cast and sports, a pair of crutches.

Little did Daddy know when he took the job that he was putting his wife into a full-time position that would require her to return to college. This meant a great deal of Summer School and Saturday classes and Daddy became the chief cook and bottle washer on Saturday. He had his two girls up and the three of them had the old washing machine cranked up and the wash on the line by nine-thirty. The rest of the day was spent with everything from making concrete to building a garage and heaven only knows what else. One thing I do know is that we just had one car and Mother had to have it on Saturday. That left us with no transportation. It was very much to our delight when Daddy decided to buy a little green Chevrolet pickup. This meant that we had wheels on Saturday and a set of air horns to play with to boot. That trusty little truck became like a member of the family. One Saturday, a man came and got the truck. Daddy told us that he was the man but when it didn't come back in a couple of hours, we knew that he had sold it and it did not take us long to inform him that he had sold our wheels and just made pure little ornaments out of it. One afternoon, a few weeks later and much to our dismay, Daddy came home driving a little red truck which looked just like the green one. We were outside to examine it before he could get it stopped and much to our great pleasure, it was the same little green truck only it had been painted red. It was not long after that when he was asked to go to Clay County to work for a month. His experiences there were many and none were to be forgotten. The first day he went to work there he made the mistake of wearing a white shirt and tie stepped at a little grocery store and went in. He said to the lady "Lady, could you help me out". She said, "We might just help you all the way out". It was then that he realized that she thought that he was a revenue man and he explained to her that he was up there trying to help the old people get their old age pensions. She said, "That's different, what can I do for you".

Tom Payne came to work in the office as a Child Welfare Worker and it was at this time that Tom gained an experience, never to be forgotten. He went with Daddy to make a home visit. He stayed in the truck while Daddy went into the house. As Daddy knocked on the door a man came to the door with a bag of plov points, etc., dangling over his shoulder and he bared his teeth and jumped at Daddy and Daddy just jumped back at him. At the same time a monkey came off the top of the house and jumped onto the top of the truck and Tom passed out. When Daddy finished his visit and went to get into the truck, he had to beg Tom to let him in the truck because Tom was holding both door handles. He told Daddy that he could just hear them crushing his bones in there and he knew that he would be next.

Easter: Sunday Morning, April 10, 1977, the Easter Bunny left our house and went to Prestonsburg for whom was supposed to be three days to help get money for flood victims. Those three-days turned into a week and things were very gloomy around our house. While they were working up there, the happenings as recalled afterwards were very amusing.

Once Daddy had a bologna sandwich on his work area and turned around to get a form. When he turned back around, his bologna sandwich was gone. Some of them found a place that was supposed to serve nice steaks. The place was located in Pikeville and since they had not had a lot to eat, they decided to make the trip up there. They enjoyed their steaks and all of a sudden a stage appeared and a band started playing some way-out music. I remember that Ethel Morgan and Hazel Gilreath wanted to get out but they were stuck there until the entertainment was over.

Over the years, there were many times when our family wondered if there was a father and husband in the home because most every night called for attendance at some meeting. He has served on the Selective Service Board, Rockcastle Chamber of Commerce, Member of Mt. Vernon Lions Club for over 25 years, served on the board of directors of the DHR Tenure Club, Rockcastle Chamber of Commerce, Red Cross American Legion, two-time president of Mt. Vernon School PTA, helped a group of men in Mt. Vernon erect a new house for Sally J. Newcomb, served several times on the All-Kentucky City committee for Mt. Vernon, served a term on Mt. Vernon Recreation Council, served on the board of directors of the secretarial and electrical department of Harry Sparks Vocational School. He has served many years on the Board of Directors of The Bank of Mt. Vernon, helped organize and served as secretary to the KIPP board. He also served on any committee that anyone happened to call and ask him to serve on.

As times and administrations in Frankfort changed, so did the work and workers and time marched on. The time finally approached when Daddy felt that it was time for him to clean out all the cupboards/bella and slip all the personal items home one at a time. It was during this time that one of the last pranks took place. One day as some of the memorabilia went into the trash can, so did the shoes of Louise Graves. Now you know the guilty party, Louise.

Girls, Ed is not on the unemployed list, he has already acquired a new job. Come Monday morning, the job description will be on the refrigerator door.

RE-ELECT JUDGE THACKER County Judge Executive

FELLOW ROCKCASTLE COUNTIANS:

Since this is the last issue of this paper before the Primary Election, once again I want to urge you to consider the future of our county. I am interested and I want to help keep our forward movement going. I have enjoyed serving you as I believe that we have accomplished as much as any county in Kentucky.

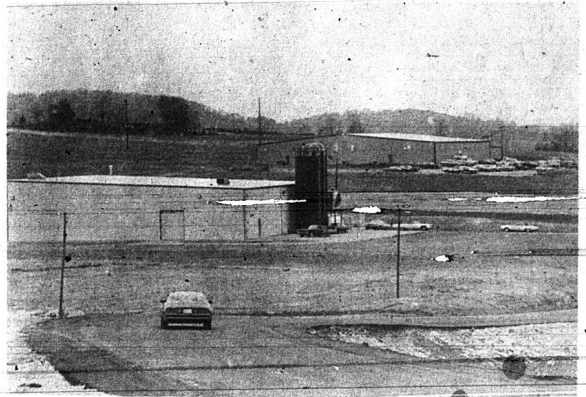

Naturally, there will be those who criticize during election time but let us consider the motive and continue to look toward the best interests of our county.

When you go to the polls, you will be the Judge. Decide whether we're doing the right thing or not. Shown in this article are pictures of several of our accomplishments. In addition to these, I am proud of many of our other services such as our new Rockcastle County Highway Department. Also, I know that most will be pleased with our new County Health Department Building. I am pleased to announce that we received a check for Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) dollars just last week to make this possible. Remember! This is not loan money but grant money that represents a part of our tax dollars that we have paid through the years.

If you approve, then let me know by voting for me on Tuesday, May 26th. By staying together, we will never fail.

Brown, of Brodhead, was personally responsible for raising $1,000 from his county for the Democratic Party. The Century Club was created to honor those party members who went beyond the bounds of the average patron and gave $1,000 or more to the Democratic Party. Century Club members enjoy special functions planned in their honor and are recognized at state headquarters on a special membership plaque.

CCC Offers Corn For Sale

Farmers and other interested persons will be eligible to purchase corn from the Commodity Credit Corporation starting May 21, Billy Lawrence, Chairperson of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said the CCC will offer corn for unrestricted use sale at market prices but not less than the formula price which is 145 percent of the county loan rate of $2.37 for corn where stored times 105 percent.

The minimum quantity that will be considered for acceptance is 1,000 bushels," Mr. Lawrence said.

Here in Kentucky, the corn is stored at the Central Soya Co., Henderson and Early and Daniel Co., Louisville. According to Mr. Lawrence, offers will be received and sales will be made on a first come, first served basis.

The CCC will offer for sale a total of 4.5 million bushels of corn stored in Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Interested persons should contact the county ASCS office as soon as possible for further details. The office is located in the courthouse, Mr. Vernon, phone 256-2525.

June 1 Last Day To Certify Crops

Farmers still have a little time left to report the sizes and intended uses of their wheat and barley crops to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service and qualify for the program benefits. June 1, is the last day to certify fall-seeded program crops.

Since there are no set-aside requirements or normal crop acreage limitations, all farmers who file an accurate acreage report will be eligible for deficiency and disaster payments, according to Billy Lawrence, Chairperson of the Rockcastle County ASCS Committee.

So far, 300 farmers in the county have certified the small grain program crops. Billy Lawrence said producers may also report spring seeded crops at the same time, indicating their intentions to participate in the 1981 program.

"To qualify for program benefits, acreage certification is essential," he said. We will randomly check farms to verify that acreage reports are accurate and also provide aerial photographs for farmers to identify their fields.

To be sure crop acreages are accurate, farmers may request measurement service. "Farmers who take advantage of this service will avoid unnecessary worry over the loss of 1981 program benefits," the ASCS official said. Rockcastle County farmers who have not certified their small grain program crops are urged to do so by June 1. The ASCS county office is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday-Friday.

Prepare For Food Preservation Season Ahead Equipment Check

A few early birds have already been putting up peas, asparagus and greens, but for most of us the food preservation season is still just around the corner.

Is your home canning equipment in good shape and ready to go. Check your water-bath canner for leaks, be sure it has a rack and tight-fitting lid. Remember that enameled water-bath canners do chip, then can rust out in the chipped place and spring a leak. So do handle with care!

Examine the gasket on your pressure canner and replace this rubber ring if it is starting to crack or has stretched out of fit. It's important for it to fit snugly so that no steam escapes too lower the pressure while you're processing food.

Jars and Lids
Don't anticipate a shortage of either jars or lids this year, but it's still a good idea to estimate the supply you'll need and buy some of it ahead of time as these appear in the stores.

Other Useful Items
A collander, blancher, jar funnel, jar lifter and tongs are hard to do without. They'll make your job both easier and safer. You should also have several large baskets, vegetable brush, sharp paring knife, measuring cups, dish towels and dish cloths, labels and a marking pen.

Freezer Check

Now would be a good time to defrost and clean out your freezer, and to make sure it is running as cold as it should—zero degrees or colder. If not, have it serviced.

Check your freezer on a regular basis to be sure it is still running. If your freezer should stop, never open the door unless it is absolutely necessary. A freezer that is fully loaded can keep food frozen for several days, if the door is not opened. If the power is off, it will usually be back on before the freezer has been off more than two days. If the power is on, but the freezer is not running, first check to see if it is still plugged in. Next, check the coil area. Often, the coils may like to lie or rest in the warm area. If your freezer has lost its freon, or if the coils are loose, call a repairman.

If the food has not been completely thawed, it is safe to refreeze. Meats that are refrigerator temperature or lower, and thawed, can be cooked and refrozen. The same is true for fruits and vegetables, but their quality will be lowered. They may still be used in cobblers, jams or casseroles. If any food has remained at 50 degrees or higher for more than two hours, it is unsafe to eat.

ELECT Money Ed CUMMINS Representative

To the Citizens of the 80th Legislative District,

As this will be the last issue of this newspaper before the Primary Election of May 26, 1981, I again want to thank you all for your interest, time and support you have shown and given me in my campaign for the Republican nomination for State Representative of the 80th Legislative District, composed of Lincoln, Rockcastle and Northern Pulaski Counties.

I have conducted this campaign on a high plane and intend to finish it in such a manner and I want to compliment my opponent for doing the same.

My record in public office speaks for itself. I have served the people in their best interest and many, many people know that this has been done with cheerful sacrifice on my part.

I am in favor of tobacco price supports for the farmers. I am against any increases in taxes on the tobacco industry since this will hurt the tobacco industry. I will support all phases of agriculture, being a farmer myself, and will support the interests of all our people.

I am not in favor of taking away peoples' right to defend themselves therefore I am against gun control.

I am not in favor of abortion and especially I do not want your tax dollars to pay for abortions.

It is my desire to work as hard as possible to assist the people of my district in road improvements. The recent budget reports show that it will be very important to have someone fighting for maintenance of our roadways.

My record shows that I am for professional negotiations for our school teachers.

I will support legislation to continue the help and service for our aged and needy people.

I have always supported and worked for the Republican Party as my people before me have and will continue to do so.

If elected your State Representative, I will be available to assist and help you at all time in anyway I can.

I am No. 2A on the ballot.

In closing, I urge each and everyone of you to go to the polls on Tuesday, May 26, 1981 and to exercise your right to vote.

YOUR FRIEND,

ELECT BILLY KIRBY SHERIFF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY

DEPUTIES

Roy E. McCollum and Ray Lear

CITIZENS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

People now are thinking about the all-important decision on May 26 - Who's the man for Sheriff. Let's stop together and think a moment. In 1966, I started as Deputy Sheriff. There I remained four years.

In 1970, I was chosen as Sheriff of Rockcastle County with that good old-time law that you've heard of. Yes, people did feel secure in their homes and knew there was a Sheriff on call and ready to come to their aid 24 hours a day.

As time would have it, the people chose me again in 1978 to be Sheriff. And a decent, self-respecting jail has been maintained.

With crime on the rise, especially during daylight hours when decent hard-working people are at work or at church; we need a Sheriff and hard-working deputies 24 hours a day.

ELECT THIS TICKET - BILLY KIRBY, ROY MCCOLLUM AND RAY LEAR. Your VOTE and SUPPORT will be GREATLY Appreciated. Please Pull Lever 15B on May 26.

Although replacement trout were eventually found, these fish were smaller than the ones that had been lost. These small trout, around five to six inches long, were stocked in April only because the fisheries division didn't realize that they were going to be that small, according to Pfeiffer.

"Trout are stocked on a 'put-and-take' basis," he says. "So we would like the fish to be a desirable size—at least around nine inches long—before we stock them. We decided that it would be better to wait a month and stock larger fish than to go ahead with the stocking as scheduled."

The cancelled May stocking will be made up later, according to Pfeiffer, by a double stocking later in the year. A total of 30 streams, nine tailwaters and eight lakes are on the monthly stocking schedule.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service did not cancel its scheduled stocking of streams in the Daniel Boone National Forest, so if you want some trout fishing during May, one of the 11 trout streams in the national forest would be your best bet.

In the meantime, the intake pipe for the Wolf Creek Hatchery has been temporarily lengthened and plans are underway for a permanent extension to make sure the hatchery's water supply stays cold and the trout stay healthy.

draws water from the lake into the federal hatchery just below the dam is normally deep under the surface, where it can supply the under 60 degree water that trout need. But last summer, when this spring's trout supply was growing, the situation was different, according to Pfeiffer. "Low water and hot weather caused the intake pipe to be in a layer of 75 degree water," Pfeiffer says. "As a result, the young trout started dying. The hatchery lost 70,000 trout in a two-day period alone."

Kentucky Afield

By John Wilson

If you've been waiting for your favorite stream to get its May stocking of trout, you'll have to wait a while longer, according to Pete Pfeiffer, assistant Director of fisheries for the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources.

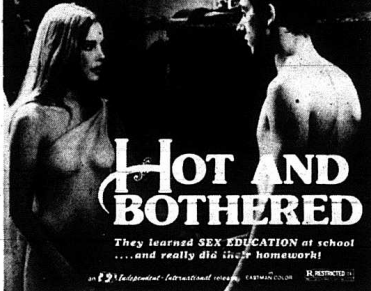

The May stocking has been cancelled, Pfeiffer says, because of weather conditions last summer. The prolonator hot spell, coupled with low water levels in Lake Cumberland, caused a serious loss of trout at the Wolf Creek Hatchery, Kentucky's source of trout.

Rep. Rogers Says "No" To Social Security Cuts

U.S. Representative Hal Rogers says that he is alarmed by proposed changes in the Social Security system and has pledged that he will not, under any circumstances, support cut-backs or delays in basic Social Security benefits.

"Our senior citizens have built America into the greatest nation on Earth," commented the Fifth District Congressman, "and I am not going to turn my back on them now when they are in their time of greatest need. Those who are presently receiving basic benefits from the Social Security system that they have paid into for most of their lives should not have their benefits cut back in any way and I will fight any move to postpone their cost-of-living increase."

The Somerset lawmaker noted that many elderly exist solely on their Social Security benefits—using that monthly check to buy groceries, pay the rent, keep their homes heated and meet the often times expensive medical costs that come with growing older.

"I don't believe that we should balance the budget and cure our ailing economy by neglecting our elderly," declared Rogers. "Our seniors must have their checks increased to keep pace with inflation. I generally support the Reagan economic program because it will bring down the inflation rate that is hurting our elderly who live on fixed incomes, but on this point I strongly disagree with the Administration and have already let them know it." Rogers went on to say that he supports efforts to make the Social Security system stronger and more financially secure for present and future generations, but he will not vote for changes Social Security that will harm those who depend on their Social Security check for their very existence, or changes that will threaten the future of the overall system.

"I have already stated my strong opposition to efforts by the Internal Revenue Sharing to tax Social Security benefits," said Rogers. "And the elderly of Kentucky's Fifth District can rest assured that their Congressman will also be fighting and hard to make sure that their basic Social Security benefits are protected."

COUNTY ATTORNEY

Folks,

It is my hope that you will vote for me in next Tuesday's election. I have become a candidate for County Attorney out of my concern for our county and its people.

The voters decide who will be in charge of prosecution for them for a four year period and, under this new court system, you should give careful consideration as to your choice for County Attorney. I submit that my record shows successful and fair prosecution, sound advice and awareness of your problems.

When you vote this coming Tuesday, VOTE FOR WILLIAM D. GREGORY as your County Attorney.

Are you interested in collecting things. What do you do with your collections. People love to collect things, whether old jelly jars, vintage wines or antique cars. Some items are expensive to collect. However, it is possible to collect items that are not too expensive, yet will increase in value.

What should you collect. You can quickly become confused trying to remember the different periods and dynasties. The best thing to do is to specialize in something you like and want to learn about. There are periodicals, books, seminars and dealers to help you acquire

81 "A Better Way!" ANDY COLBURN

Democratic Candidate For State Representative 80th District

Traveling around Rockcastle County during this campaign, I have found that most people's main concern is for the economic condition of their families and their neighbor's families. Our district's unemployment has been running from 17 to 20%. I have also found many of those employed have to drive long distances to their jobs. This does not tell the whole story. Because many of their sons and daughters grow up and leave the area to seek employment elsewhere.

I have two young sons and I want the same for them that I want for all the youth of the District - A chance to stay at home and work. And, if they do choose to leave, to have the cultural and economical background to compete with others for jobs in other areas. There is a better way for the people of our District.

That better way is for the people to elect someone to go to Frankfort to work with a Democratic Governor and a heavily Democratic Legislature to try and reverse the economic trends that have plagued our District for many years. With the help of the people of the 80th District, I will work towards that end.

AN EDITORIAL

Exercise Your Right To Vote Tuesday

By: Rick Anderkin

Next Tuesday, May 26th, registered voters in Rockcastle County will go to the polls and, with their vote, decide how our country will be run for the next four years.

However, one sad thing about next Tuesday's election, is the fact that not all registered voters in the county will take the time to vote.

One of the biggest reasons for this is that people feel that just one vote doesn't mean anything when, the fact is, that in the upcoming May Primary, one vote could mean the election.

Being a county the size of Rockcastle, with so many politicians on the ballot, winning so few jobs, each race could be decided by one vote.

Voting is not a chore - voting is a privilege that any citizen of the United States, 18 years or older, has. This privilege should be used whenever the occasion presents itself - such as the upcoming primary.

The argument that one vote won't make any difference could be accepted a little more easily in a nationwide election; but, in a county election, this argument doesn't hold water. For example, in the 3rd district's Magistrate race, there are 11 candidates who have filed for the office and there will be only one winner. The winner in that race could come out next Tuesday night with only 150 votes and have a seat on the Fiscal Court in the bag.

Your vote does count! But, the only way to make sure it is counted is by going to the poll in the precinct in which you are registered and casting your vote for the candidates you think will do the best job for our county the next four years.

Maybe you don't like the way things are being done and would like to see a change. Maybe you do like the way things are being handled and would like to see them stay that way. The only way to help your cause is by voting on Tuesday, May 26, 1981.

On stage in front of the courthouse Saturday during the May Festival beginning at 3:30 p.m. will be a group who performed to the crowd's enjoyment last year. Dora Mae Wagers (left), her daughter Evelyn (right) and son-in-law Moses Hamblin. Accompanying them will be Foster Young and Dale Fraley. Hamblin also makes musical instruments and will have his work on display on the lawn in the arts and crafts display.

Alternative Mortgages

By Steven L. Beshear
Attorney General

What do you do after you have found that perfect house you always wanted. Simple, you secure a mortgage to pay for it.

However, with today's high interest rates, consumers are discovering the traditional fixed rate, fixed term, level payment mortgage is difficult to secure and can produce payments larger than the family budget will allow.

There are already alternative mortgages available to meet the needs of the consumer, builder and lender. These alternative methods of home financing are the flexible rate, graduated payment and shared appreciation.

"The terms of these mortgages are more complicated than the traditional mortgage, and the wise consumer should understand each type thoroughly to determine the mortgage that will best suit his or her needs before signing," noted Attorney General Steven L. Beshear.

Flexible rate mortgages permit the lender to raise or lower the interest rate during the life of the loan. There are two types of flexible rate mortgages - renegotiable-rate mortgages and variable-rate mortgages. The renegotiable-rate mortgages are issued for a term of three to five years at a specific rate. At the end of the specified period the mortgage can be renewed for another three to five years at a higher or lower rate. The lender is required to automatically renew the loan and give the borrower 90 days notice of changes in the interest rate. The unhappy homebuyer has the opportunity to seek more favorable interest rates with another lender.

The second type of flexible mortgage is the variable-rate mortgage. These mortgages are indexed to the rate lenders must pay for money they lend and can change as often as every six months. This type mortgage should not be used by anyone who budget does not have room for a possible increase in housing output.

The graduated payment loans make it easier for the first-time home-buyers to acquire a house. Monthly payments are lower initially and rise each year for five years and level off at an amount higher than the borrower would pay for a standard, fixed-rate loan. For example, a $50,000 loan issued at 14 percent would cost the consumer $461 the first year compared to $592 with a fixed-rate loan. The amount rises annually until the monthly payment reaches $616.

The third type of mortgage is the shared appreciation mortgage which allows the borrower to lower the interest rate by an agreed-upon percentage in exchange for the same percentage of the house's appreciation when the house is sold. These mortgages are advantageous to young buyers enabling them to purchase more house than they could afford on the fixed-rate mortgage and advantageous to the elderly buyer who cannot afford big payments and who expect to own their house the rest of their lives.

However, one should be aware that a mortgage agreement of this type might state that the lender can collect his or her share of the appreciation after 10 years even if the house has not sold. Also the shared appreciation is a poor choice for the do-it-yourselfers. Home improvements done by a contractor can be subtracted from the total profit, but the most a do-it-yourselfer can deduct is the cost of the material. The value a homeowner adds through his own labors is shared with the lender.

"To prevent problems when purchasing a house, read the agreement very carefully and be sure you understand it thoroughly," emphasized Beshear.

Legislative Report

By Rep. Harold DeMarcel

Kentucky's state legislature will hold 17 public meetings in 15 counties this year as part of its citizens speak-out program.

The citizen's speak-out program was initiated by the Legislative Research Commission in 1979 to encourage public participation in the legislative process (cont. to B6)

UNEMPLOYMENT RATE RISES STEADILY

Although the Bluegrass region continues to have the lowest unemployment in Kentucky, the number of persons seeking jobs in the area has risen steadily since this time last year, Department for Human Resources statistics show.

March labor force estimates placed the area's unemployment at 7 percent of the labor force.

"This doesn't sound like much when you compare it to other counties which regularly have rate of 10 percent and above, but it is high for the Bluegrass," said Bob MacDonald, chief labor market analyst for the Human Resources Department.

In March 1980, the unemployment rate in the Bluegrass was 4.6 percent. MacDonald said the area's rate has been around 4 percent for the past several years.

"We believe this is an indication that the recession has hit the Bluegrass," MacDonald explained. "Because Lexington is a regional trade center and inflation is causing consumers to buy less, the metropolitan area has suffered job losses in their retail, wholesale and service industries."

Statewide, unemployment dropped to under 10 percent for the first time this year in March.

MacDonald credited seasonal hiring with causing the unemployment rate to drop to 9.1 percent during the month of March.

Nationally, the unemployment rate was posted at 7.7 percent for March.

Rockcastle County's unemployment rate for March was 12.1 percent.

able for those individuals who have questions or comments but do not wish to speak publicly.

The 1980 citizens speak-out series saw nearly 1,200 Kentuckians take an active part in the program. A follow-up survey found that 95% of those attending the meetings believed they were useful and informative.

By the end of this year's meetings, the Legislative Research Commission expects to have attracted more than 4,000 Kentuckians to the speak-out sessions since 1979.

Another indication of the speak-out's success is the 1980 General Assembly created a program through which Kentucky retail stores offer discounts to the elderly as a direct result of a suggestion made during a citizen's speak-out meeting.

The 1981 citizen's speak-out is an ambitious effort to provide Kentuckians the opportunity to meet with their legislators and voice their concerns.

Little League Senior League Roundup

By: Rick Anderkin

The Little League and Senior League programs at the Brodhead Fairgrounds are in full swing now with two weeks of the season already completed.

In Little League, the A's from Brodhead and the Pirates from Roundstone are tied for the league lead with 3 wins and no losses. The Pirates had a close call Saturday morning in a game with the Reds but managed to come out on top by a score of 2-1. The Pirates scored both runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to defeat the Reds and keep their winstreak alive.

The Reds, from Mt. Vernon are in sole possession of second place with a 3-1 record. They have played more games than both the Pirates and A's but both of these clubs have games to make up.

The Blue Jays, from Mt. Vernon and the Yankees from Brodhead, are tied for 3rd place with 2 and 2 records. The Blue Jays did beat the Yankees Saturday in a close game by a score of 16-15. The Phillies, from Mt. Vernon and the Rangers from Brodhead are holding down 4th place with 1 win each and the Orioles, also from Brodhead, are in last place this season with no wins and 4 losses. Sam Ford's young team just doesn't seem to be able to get on track thus far.

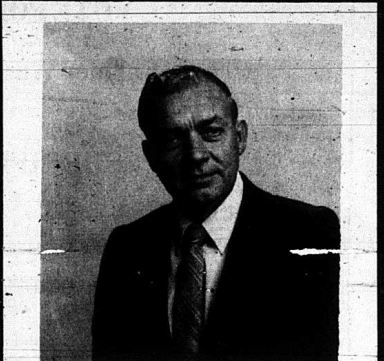

Results of all the Little League games played from May 11 through 16th are as follows: On Tuesday night the A's downed the Yankees 12-2 and the Phillies blanked the Rangers 29-0. On Friday night the Blue Jays beat the Phillies 18-3, and the Reds downed the Orioles 22 to 7. Saturday the Pirates beat the Reds 2-1. The Blue Jays slipped by the Yankees 16-15, and the Rangers downed the Orioles 23-16.

In the Senior League program the Reds from Mt. Vernon, are the only unbeaten team in the league with a record of 4 and 0. The Expos from Brodhead are right behind the Reds with a 3 and 1 standing. The Padres from Brodhead have managed 1 win against 3 losses and the Pirates from Roundstone are still winless with a record of 0 and 4.

Results of last weeks Senior-league games are as follows: On Tuesday night the Reds downed the Padres 12-2 and on Friday night they beat the Pir-

GOLF'S MOST CHARISMATIC PLAYERS

LEXINGTON - There's no truth to the rumor that I was there in that Scottish meadow the day a shepherd took his crook, hit a stone and invented the game of golf. But I have been around the game long enough to have become acquainted with many of the modern players. Perhaps that's why a magazine asked me to participate in a poll to choose the five most charismatic golfers in American history. Not necessarily the best golfers, just those with the most charisma. Here's my list:

ARNOLD PALMER. Arnie and television golf came along at the same time, and he made the sport sing on the picture tube. Arnie was a charger, a gambler, bold and fearless on the course. When he would hitch up his pants and wink at somebody in the gallery, we knew his game was on. Arnie's game has declined with the years but he still draws enormous crowds wherever he plays.

WALTER HAGEN. "The Hag" was even before my time but I've read many, many stories about this great golfer. Anybody who shows up at tee time still dressed in his tux from the night before has to have charisma.

LEE TREVINO. The Merry Mexican has brought a sense of humor to the game that hasn't been seen since Hagen. In the deadly serious world of golf, Trevino laughs and jokes with the gallery. He brings a lot of fun to the game. He also plays a pretty good game of golf.

JACK NICKLAUS. Nicklaus is generally regarded the best player in golf history. He played in the shadow of Palmer for many years, even though Jack was probably a better golfer than Palmer. He was known as "Fat Jack" in those days but he's taken off a lot of weight, changed his image and gotten rich.

BEN HOGAN. The only time I saw Hogan play in person was in an exhibition match and the man could flat play golf. Hogan was such a quiet man, but in his way he had charisma. He came back from a near-fatal auto accident to win major golf tournaments. They made a movie about him. Hogan was called "the ice man." Bobby Nichols played a practice round with Hogan once and Bobby said the only two words Hogan spoke during the entire 18 holes were, "you're away."

Those are my five choices for most charismatic golfers. What are yours?

Rockcastle Loses To Middlesboro In Region

The Rockcastle County High School baseball team traveled to Laurel County last Wednesday afternoon where they lost to Middlesboro in the Regional tournament by a score of 11-3.

Middlesboro scored their runs on 8 hits, 5 walks, 2 players hit by the pitcher and a team batting average of .208. The Rockets had the same number of hits at 8, walks at 5, but none of the players were hit by the pitcher and Rockcastle's batting average was also .208.

Middlesboro pitching was a key factor in the victory although Middlesboro walked 5 men they struck out 8. Rockcastle pitchers did not strike a batter out for the Yellow Jackets.

Senior Danny Offutt led the team in hits with 2 for the afternoon. Robbie Owens, Spencer Bengt, Willie Hiatt, Steve Halcomb, Craig McGuire and Jeff Ham all added one hit. Spencer Bengt picked up the loss after giving up 7 earned runs in the first two innings. Jeff Ham came in to shut the Yellow Jackets out for the rest of the game, pitching 4 innings and giving up only 2 hits and 2 walks.

Junior Craig McGuire who had 2 stolen bases to go along with his one hit was selected to the regional all-tournament team.

The Rockets finished the season with a losing record of 7 wins and 14 losses.

Value of Kentucky Agricultural Exports Increases

The value of Kentucky agricultural products exported during the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1960 totaled $651.7 million for an increase of 18 percent over the same period a year earlier, according to state and federal reports.

"There is a big foreign demand for Kentucky products and these figures support our belief that those markets are expanding all the time," said Energy and Agriculture Secretary William B. Sturgill.

The export figures were compiled and reported by the Economics and Statistics Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Kentucky Crop Reporting Service.

Soybeans and soybean products accounted for the largest export dollar with $204.5 million, up 20 percent from the previous fiscal year. Second only to North Carolina, Kentucky garnered $185.1 million from the export of tobacco, most of which was curly. This is an increase of 14 percent over the preceding year.

Feed grains and related products ranked third among Kentucky's agricultural exports, accounting for $137.3 million in sales, up 29 percent from last year. Low-calcium beans is the world's largest producer of white corn, and Kentucky produces approximately 25 percent of the nation's total yield.

"Kentucky wheat exports totaled $33 million this year for an increase of 68 percent," Sturgill reported. "We're not going to put Kansas out of business, but $33 million is an impressive figure."

"The farmers in Kentucky are becoming more and more aware of the export markets," Sturgill added, "and those of us in state government intend to do all that we can to help them make the most of those opportunities."

One example of those efforts is the trade agreement signed in February between Kentucky and Italy. Sturgill said the pact will bring together those responsible for Italy's agricultural needs and those Kentucky producers who can supply them.

"Gov. John Y. Brown, Jr. has frequently stated his support for the state's agricultural community," Sturgill said. "We hope there will be more agreements such as the one recently concluded with Italy to guarantee foreign markets for our agricultural products."

ment of Education, said the survey was truly the teachers speaking.

"They came up with the topics and then told us what their need levels were," he explained. "It wasn't the Department of Education telling them their needs or superintendents speaking; it was strictly the teachers."

Identification of teachers' greatest needs will enable the Department of Education as well as local districts to provide workshops, conferences and training activities that will meet these needs, said Clark.

Survey results were sent to each local school district to enable personnel to look at their staff development offerings for teachers and see if they coincide with the needs identified by the survey for their district.

Survey results can be broken down by geographic area to see if the needs of teachers in urban areas differ from the needs of their counterparts in rural areas, he said.

Cobb said that one of the driving elements behind the survey was Dr. Donald Hunter, head of the department's Bureau of Instruction.

"I am excited by the scope of this project because of its ability to give us more current data on the needs of our teachers than any state in the union," Hunter said.

Former Governor Louie B. Nunn has announced his endorsement of local candidate for Commonwealth Attorney, Dale B. Mitchell, left. In a prepared statement, Nunn called Mitchell, a skilled lawyer who would help restore the power of the office.

Survey Determines Teachers' Needs

A statewide teacher survey, believed to be the first of its kind in the nation, has been completed to determine the greatest needs of Kentucky teachers.

Some 26,000 teachers in 156 of the 181 school districts responded to a survey sent to all public and private schools.

"The survey was part of a 'protocol materials' project initiated in 1960 by the Kentucky Department of Education's Bureau of Instruction. Each state university was asked to select a list of needs and prepare material which could be used in staff development activities for teachers. Western Kentucky University selected centralized needs assessment as its topic and decided to do a full blown statewide survey to determine teachers' needs on a major scale."

Kentucky teachers indicated through the survey that their greatest needs were in the areas of:

... techniques for motivating students;

... legal responsibilities of the classroom teacher;

... strategies for classroom discipline management;

... first aid training;

... teaching slow learners;

... dealing with drugs;

... teacher stress;

... training in child guidance;

... any resuscitation;

... managing classroom time more effectively; and

... self concept activities. Education

Department of Education staff believe that the survey is going to be a powerful data base for determining all kinds of needs, especially in determining inservice programs for the future.

"In order for us to get a true picture of what teachers' needs were for each local school district, we had to collect data from all the teachers in that district, not just a few," explained Cobb.

Statistically it is a very valid survey. The teachers did a superb job on cooperating with us."

Vote For David Mason

Magistrate

To the Voters of the 5th District.

I am David Mason, a young man interested in a better and more industrial county. I am for better roads, a better garbage pick up and more jobs in our county.

Due to the fact I am employed at Ten Killer Mining, it is impossible for me to talk to each voter. I wanted to take this opportunity to let you know that if I am elected Magistrate, I will be honest, fair and open to all. I am a life-long Republican.

YOUR VOTE AND SUPPORT IS APPRECIATED.

Thank You,

David Mason

A MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIRST DISTRICT:

As the election draws near, I assume a good portion of the voters have chosen a candidate who they will vote for and elect on May 26th. I sincerely hope you have included me in your choice.

If elected, I will try to serve the people of the First District and the entire county. I will make an honest effort to work with the County Judge elect and the Magistrates in making the important decisions concerning road work or any subject which should be discussed at the Fiscal Court meetings.

Don't hesitate to call on me. I am not saying that in every case there will be a quick, easy solution to your problem, but I will listen and act on these problems. And, after the election, I will not forget what the people of this district elected me to do. It will require a vote from you to make my pledge possible.

feeling that I might be questioned or in some way put-on-the-spot.

But this spring I was shocked out of my lethargy by my young 9 year old daughter who had obviously heard the term from listening in on some adult conversation. She casually said, "Mom, when we do spring housecleaning, I'd like to have my bed moved closer to the window."

I turned (it must have been sharply) and looked at her in dismay from my squatted position by the bath tub where I had been scrubbing seemingly unsuccessfully. She is a very sensitive child, and quickly realizing what triggered my shock and added apologetically, "That is, if we do any spring housecleaning."

How could I blame the innocent little thing. She had never been exposed to the reality of spring cleaning in her nine years.

Wherever she heard the term, she had started my mind wandering back to the days of sucking dirt head-on. Could I be doing my children an injustice by not hardening them up. I have to admit my house qualities for needing a good cleaning.

Following my youthful rebellion, maybe it might be the time in my life when the more traditional values of my mother should be embraced.

But, I wondered, do I have the "true grit". Am I made of "sterner stuff". Would I be able to work like a robot from sun-up to sundown detached from the world around me.

I rationalized that since I work part-time away from home perhaps I could take one room a week and turn it upside down.

Fortified with good intention and relatively good spirits, last Thursday I began on the six-year-old's room. That may have been my first mistake, starting on Thursday. My mom always started on Monday. The second may have been taking the time to cook and eat a big breakfast so I would have enough energy to last the day - in case I got too busy to eat lunch.

First, I had some laundry that had to be done and some trash that had to be burned. Then a friend stopped by to chat. I made some coffee and when she left I had two phone calls and then it was time for lunch.

In the afternoon I finally got down to business and chose the toy box as my first project. This is a chore that must be done when the children are not at home since a crayon box top can become a child's best toy if it is spied in the throw-away pile.

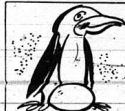

Cleaning out a toy box is a challenge even for the most conscientious housekeeper-mother. I will have to say the afternoon was well worth the three hours spent. I found my long lost Stanley brush, 6 missing sock mates, 3 books of green stamps, 25 pens and pencils and a book I had started to read 8 months ago.

Friday morning while I hurried and did my "have-to-do Friday things" I tried to fight the urge to spend the afternoon reading the rediscovered book or go cash in the green stamps. It would be bad to have the child's room torn up during the weekend. Is life just too complicated to clean house the way my mom did? Well, that's a good excuse anyway.

Spring Cleaning Blues...

By Nancy Mullins

When I have time to reflect on my childhood, it often comes to mind that I may have been seriously traumatized at some undetermined time during my years at home by something called "spring housecleaning".

It seems not as much a popular sport among wives and mothers now as when I was a child. My mother, for instance, started planning for the spring ritual of housecleaning about the time the last snow melted. She cleaned each room verbally in my presence going over each task in such minute detail that my arms, legs and head hurt from just listening. The groundwork for an overwhelming sense of duty and obligation was thus laid.

My mother's idea of spring cleaning did not mean that some time before hot weather she got around to washing the curtains or that she moved all the furniture one day and vacuumed under it or that she might in another week or so get around to scrubbing the woodwork.

No, spring housecleaning was at least a week set aside for disruption and misery followed by sore muscles and total exhaustion. It was something one had to be brave and take-like a dose of cod-liver oil-before normal life could resume.

My dad, who could never stand to have the floor swept white he was in the room, was usually (to put it mildly) in a sorry state of mind during this week. However, he too, had heard the weeks of pre-cleaning pep talk wind-up and sensing that it was one area where she would not back down braced himself and surprisingly, to us children, assumed a begrudgingly indulgent tolerance.

She, I think, fearful that his tolerance might wear out before she did, tackled the impossible job with the energy, determination and speed of a teenage superwoman. Not one inch of floors, windows, walls, ceilings, screens, shades, curtains, woodwork, beds, pictures or furniture was left unscrubbed, unpainted, unpapered or uncovered. Every mattress and all pillows were lugged outside for a "sunning". The beds were taken down and out into the yard where I was set to scrubbing the springs because "my little hands" could reach down inside the coils.

I decided early on that I would not take this dose of medicine all in one spoonful each spring. I would wash curtains when they needed it, scrub woodwork on snowy days, clean out a drawer now and then, wash one window a month, sun my bed in July when there is more sun and, in general, take a more "laid back" attitude toward this ancient custom.

I have, for this reason, been very careful not to let the words "spring cleaning" slip from my lips in front of my family.
