Automatic Vehicle Information System (AVIS) is the name of the computer installed Tuesday in the County Clerk's office. The computer reportedly will help in police investigative work since it can immediately print out current information on any vehicle registered or ever registered in the state of Kentucky. It is also capable of presenting complete past and present vehicle ownership information on anyone who has ever owned a vehicle while living in Kentucky. Kelly Roeden of the Clerk's Office is shown sitting at the machine which is expected to be in full operation in about three weeks. Clerk Irene Bales said that the office personnel is excited about the switch to computers and invites the public to come in and see the computer.

Handicapped persons over the age of 18 living in Bell, Clay, Harlan, Jackson, Knox, Laurel, Rockcastle and Whitley counties now have comfortable and attractively decorated apartments available to them without regard to race, color, creed or ability to pay.

The new apartments located on the American Greeting Road are known as the Edith Felner Apartments and are owned and operated by the Cumberland River Regional Mental Health/Mental Retardation Board, Inc. The building contains sixteen single-bed units with a common living room and kitchen facility. Residents are admitted with an understanding that they will take an active part in a planned program of habilitation through various community resources. The home-like atmosphere encourages the development of independent living skills, recreational skills and social skills. Qualified staff also provides counseling for the residents on a daily basis in order to facilitate the development and refinement of those skills.

Several vacancies now exist for male and female residents and applications are being accepted for the apartments.

Anyone wanting more information or an application may call Mrs. Debra J. Cooper, Director at 606-528-7010 or come to the District Office of the Cumberland River Regional Mental Health/Mental Retardation Board, Inc. on the American Greeting Road in Cobrin, Ky.

DHR Figures Show 382 May Be Effectuated in Rockcastle by Cutbacks in Social Services

According to information from the Department for Human Resources, Rockcastle County stands to lose an estimated $413,555 in revenue doled out to the indigent here.

DHR projected figures reflect about 382 Rockcastle Countians now receiving some assistance from the federal government will be dropped from the food stamp and Aid to Families with Dependent Children programs. The cost reduction figure also includes cuts in Medicaid spending since some cut from AFDC will no longer be eligible for medical assistance.

DHR figures show that 4,534 of the county's nearly 14,000 citizens, or roughly 1/3 of the county's population, receive assistance from the federal government. This 4,534 figure does not include those also receiving Social Security, Medicaid and Mental Security Income.

Department for Human Resources Secretary Grady Stumbo said that the October 1 federal guidelines which will discontinue assistance to some 75,000 Kentuckians includes benefits for recipients of AFDC, food stamps, Medicaid and social security disability payments to the tune of $107.3 million.

New guidelines for AFDC will disqualify some 28,000 Kentucky clients and another 27,172 food stamp recipients will be effected by the cutbacks. A total of 33,888 Medicaid recipients will no longer be eligible and 11,942 of the 98,280 Kentuckians (or roughly 12%) receiving Social Security payments because of disabilities will be dropped.

"If we take someone's disability payment away and he can't go back to work, I really don't see where the savings are going to be," Stumbo said at a press conference recently.

"He'll become indigent and this department will have to step in with food stamps and Medicaid."

Linda McCauley, Field Service Supervisor for the local Bureau for Social Insurance said that her office is now in the process of implementing policy changes based upon the new federal guidelines which take effect October 1.

"We really don't know how many cases or how many people in Rockcastle County will be effected until we start reworking some cases," Ms. McCauley said Tuesday.

"I don't think Rockcastle will be effected as much percentage wise as some counties' such as Fayette, where more food stamp recipients have dual incomes."

In July, Rockcastle County households received $154,000 in food stamps effecting an estimated 3,550 persons according to local figures.

The new eligibility limits would cut food stamps from a household of four with a gross (before deductions) monthly income of $916. with some allowances for persons in the household over 60 or receiving SSI.

Major changes in the AFDC, according to Ms. McCauley, prohibit a woman with two children receiving $292.00 monthly income from also receiving assistance. Other eligibility rules are stricter also. A step parent's income must now be counted toward seeing that the child's needs are met. Previously a step parent's income was ignored as a source of support for step children. Households with children who will graduate from high school before the 19th birthday are still eligible for AFDC otherwise the ineligible date is the 18th birthdate, however they may still qualify for medical assistance.

There are approximately 305 AFDC cases or families in Rockcastle.

According to Ms. McCauley approximately 1/3 of the 111 cases of "medical assistance only" will be discontinued. These involve mostly children.

Stumbo said he felt like it would be a year before people realize that a mistake has been made by those in Washington.

A Machine to Help Farmers

By Nancy Mullins

Most farmers will agree that stripping and hand-tying tobacco takes more time than any other one job connected with growing and marketing the area's largest cash crop.

Last Wednesday, Billy and Darrel Whitaker of Wabd, purchased a tobacco stripper from the southern Ohio farmer who developed the table model work-saver. The 110 volt stripper power overload protected motor, a strip-plate and two feed rollers, which pull the stalks through the machine, is said by the developer to add 70 pounds per acre to the total production by streamlining stalks cleaner.

A demonstration of hand stripping and the amount of burley leaf left on the stalk and a stalk which had been run through the stripping machine showed clearly that the stalk which leaves the machine is cleaner. It remains to be seen whether or not 70 pounds to the acre can be realized with the machine, according to Darrel Whitaker.

The blades are enclosed in the stripping plate and there is an opening large enough for a tobacco stalk only, so the safety of the machine is an added feature.

Henry Ring of Georgetown, Ohio invented the 200 pound

Janant Scott's barn was the scene of much excitement last Thursday as Billy and Darrel Whitaker and their families operated for the first time their new tobacco stripping machine and curious farmers and others came from all around to see how the apparatus worked. The Whitakers grew Mrs. Scott's 1,500 lbs. of Burley. Shown in the picture is Melissa Whitaker, feeding the machine.

Letters To

The Editor TO THE EDITOR:

It has recently come to my attention that the Kentucky Joint Committee on Education is considering a bill (82 BR 460) that would eliminate the mandate for environmental education (KRS 158.280) from the existing School Laws of Kentucky.

The stated reason is that the General Assembly should move away from mandating programs to be taught in public schools. With increased emphasis being placed on the 'basics' of education, it would be consistent to remove these courses.

I assume that what the legislators are referring to as the basics are Reading, Writing and Arithmetic. Educators, of late, have been concerned about narrow approaches which eliminate integrated learning such as those which acknowledge students' development stages and seek to develop intellectual and mechanical skills according to their natural capabilities and tendencies at each stage. Education must be based upon what we know about how children learn.

Environmental education does not detract from reading writing and arithmetic; rather it involves those skills and builds competency in doing them. It has proven to be a vehicle by which high-quality learning can occur. It stresses concrete learning through immediate contact with the world around us; focuses on observing real things rather than talking in abstractions, and builds upon a firm base of understanding to achieve a good grasp of ecological concepts which provide insight into how life and its systems operate on this planet. What could be more basic than understanding how life works?

While it is important to prevent over-regulation and to improve the quality of education statewide, it would be a step backwards to remove the environmental education mandate. The mandate has, in the past, provided a channel for the development and dissemination of curriculum enrichment materials, teacher training and program consulting that otherwise may not have occurred. As populations increase so does the demand on our natural resources and resultant pollution and destruction of the earth's life support systems. Environmental education is needed more urgently now than ever before in the earth's history. As a matter of principle the mandate recognizes the need for environmental education and good learning. As a practical measure it provides a channel for valuable assistance to educators.

Perhaps this legislation should receive substantial scrutiny and comment from professional educators before politicians unknowingly eliminate a valuable component of our Kentucky School Laws.

My name is John Harvie Taylor, Rt. 2, Box 1022AB, Mt. Vernon, Ky. It seems to me that everybody in this county knows more about me than I do myself and everybody believes too much gossip. Well, if there is anything that anyone would like to know about me, please send a self addressed, stamped envelope along with your question and I will be more than glad to answer them and if you want to stop by and ask it in person. Don't listen to gossip.

Dear Friends,

It was with mixed emotions that I submitted my resignation last week as a member of the Mt. Vernon City Council. I feel very privileged that you, the good citizens of Mt. Vernon, have put enough confidence in me to allow me to serve you for so many years. I made my decision to resign because I felt that my campaign for Rockcastle County Judge Executive was taking up so much of my time that I could no longer give my duties as City Councilman the proper attention that you, the taxpayers, truly deserve. I would like to say thank you to all of you who have shown me so much kindness.

I would also like to express my appreciation to all the city employees, city councilmen, and mayors, both past and

Legislative Report

By Rep. Harold DeMarcus

The Commonwealth's

constitutional systems will be, as always, one of the most important areas addressed by the 1982 General Assembly.

Primarily, the major focus will be on the appropriation of revenues to fund the state's myriad of educational programs and services.

Also, several changes in workings of elementary and secondary school procedures will be offered for the legislature's consideration. To date, six bills have been prefiled with the legislative Research Commission towards that end.

Bill 107 seeks to require the local board of education, in school districts where one or more schools are used as polling places for primary or general elections, to declare such election dates to be in-service days for professional staff, without the presence of pupils for all schools within that district. Also, this bill would require in-service days so declared to count as part of the number of in-service days normally mandated by statute.

Profiled Bill 138 seeks to require school teachers to lead pupils in one minute of silence at the commencement of each school day.

Profiled Bill 139 seeks to provide military recruiters access to public high school campuses and student directory information if access is made to other relevant information.

Profiled Bill 148 seeks to allow a child to be enrolled in the school nearest the home if this does not affect the federal desegregation plan in effect at the time of enrollment.

Profiled Bill 153 seeks to allow schools to charge fees to students for participation in

Giving God the Leftovers

In Malachi 3:8 God said to Israel, "And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person?" Because Israel was giving God their leftovers, He said, "Neither will I accept an offering at your hand" (Mal. 1:10).

Some people seem to be given to give God their leftovers. They give Him their leftover time, their leftover money, their leftover talents. When their own wants and wishes have been fully and completely gratified, anything left (if it is convenient), is presented to God. If they tried this on the governor they would end up in jail, or pay a heavy fine.
How would you like it if you never had anything served on the table but leftovers? How would you like it if your boss paid you only if he had any profits left over after taking all he wanted from the company? How would you like it if your children gave you what little affection they had left over from their friends-pursuits,

David refused to offer in sacrifice to God "THAT WHICH COST ME NOTHING." And this should be our attitude. We should give to God a service that is meaningful and sacrificial. Rom. 12:1 states in clear terms: "PRESENT YOUR BODIES AS A LIVING SACRIFICE..."
One of the saddest things is to see a person who has given his entire life to the Devil, then when death draws him in the face he wants to drag the old worn-out leftovers to God for acceptance.
Christians, in their sing-ing, giving, praying, study; worship and living, should give to God the best they can offer. Nothing but the best should be offered. Remember, the nature of the gift reflects the attitude you have toward the one giving the gift. Does your worship reflect that you love and appreciate Him?

Two Proposed Amendments Will Be on the Ballot Nov. 3

Two proposals to amend the Constitution of Kentucky will appear on the November 3, 1981 General Election Ballot. One of the two proposed constitutional amendments which will appear on the ballot for voter approval or rejection concerns the eligibility of the governor and other officers to election for two successive terms, with sheriffs eligible to election for unlimited successive terms.

House Bill 14, which was passed by the 1980 General Assembly, will appear on the ballot in November of 1981 for voter approval or rejection. This amendment would amend Section 71 of the Constitution to permit the governor to run for one successive term; Section 82 to permit the lieutenant governor to run for one successive term; and Section 93 to permit the treasurer, auditor of public accounts, secretary of state, commissioner of agriculture, labor and statistics, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, and register of the land office to run for one successive term. This amendment would also amend Section 99 to permit sheriffs to run for unlimited successive terms.

State constitutional officers, except sheriffs, must now wait four years after the end of the term to which they were elected before they are eligible to run again for the same office. This requirement would not change under the proposed amendment; the only difference would be that the amendment would make these officers eligible to election for two, rather than one, four-year terms before waiting out one term prior to running again.

The other of these amendments concerns the broad subject of property taxation and has two parts. The first would extend to disabled persons the benefits of what is commonly termed the "homestead exemption." The second part would, if the amendment is approved, offer property tax incentives for the repair and rehabilitation of certain types of property.

The second proposed constitutional amendment offered by the 1980 General Assembly, which will appear on the ballot, would allow those persons presently receiving benefits from the exemption. Those property owners over age sixty-five will continue to qualify and definitions of "residence" and "ownership" will not change.

Rather, the amendment would simply extend exemption benefits to totally disabled persons. The General Assembly, realizing that the term "totally disabled" is not precise in its meaning, included qualifications in the amendment for meeting the required disability standard. Under the proposal, in order to receive "homestead exemption" benefit under the disability clause, a person:

1. Must be classified as totally disabled under a program of a United States agency or the railroad retirement system; and

2. Must have received disability payments; and

3. Must have been classified as disabled for the entire taxing year; and

4. Must file with the local Property Valuation Administrator, prior to December 31 of each year, a signed statement of disability.

Cong. Rogers Says . . .

Increased Pay Will Make Our Military Stronger

Last week I had the opportunity to fulfill one of the promises I made to you. I proudly cast my vote to raise the wages of our sorely underpaid soldiers.

I have said manjimes that ours is not a volunteer army and it was not drafted. Ours is a paid Army. If their wages are not good enough they'll go where the wages are better—and

"STRIPPING MACHINE"

(Cont. From Front) machine which has the capacity of about 1 stalk per second, however practical determination is made by the speed with which the operator can feed the tobacco into the machine.

The Whitakers say that ordinarily it takes 3 people about 4 days to strip an acre of tobacco. With the new machine, they anticipate stripping time to be cut in half and say they expect the $1,495 cost to more than compensate for the savings in labor costs.

The stripper can be operated by one person, but for best efficiency, three people are needed.

The Whitakers bale their tobacco and do not grade it, which also speeds up the process. Betty Ann said that with practice they might learn to grade it as it is stripped as the man who invented it demonstrated.

According to Billy Whitaker, the machine, which carries a year's full guarantee, is so simple there is not much to tear up.

Billy and Darrell Whitaker are dealers for the stripping machine in Rockcastle County.

The earliest known members of the modern cat family first appeared about 13 million years ago.

that's exactly what they've been doing by the droves.

Right now we're paying soldiers who operate machines costing a half-billion dollars less than a guy who works at a hamburger stand! If we're serious about keeping these highly skilled soldiers, we must pay them decent wages.

Among even more highly trained people, such as naval pilots and nuclear submarine officers, fewer than 40% remain beyond their minimum three or four year service requirement. This bill provides an across

"CLEARING-UP"

(Cont. from Front) physicians will be seeing patients in the emergency room for doctors of the hospital medical staff, as well as others who present themselves for treatment. During other times of the week, staff physicians will be available.

Mr. Hoskins wishes to correct the impression from last week's article that doctors could be seen within 5 minutes. ER physicians, like most others, see patients as quickly as work load permits.

Prefiled Bill 234 seeks to require that salaries for substitute teachers be based on the teacher salary schedule in effect in the district.

Will be many other education bills introduced during the 1982 General Assembly. And one thing is clear, the state legislature is committed to the enhancement of Kentucky's educational systems.

the board 14.3% pay raise for all military personnel. I'm convinced that this is the only way we will keep our highly trained military men and women.

Not only is this wage hike necessary to raise re-enlistment rates and attract new people to the military, it will also save the Defense Department money by reducing training costs. Every time we lose a radar technician or a top Pentagon strategist because they can make more money on the "outside", it costs tens of thousands of dollars to train someone to replace him.

If we are going to maintain and improve this paid military, we must make a military career attractive to not only those who are already in active service, but we must make it attractive to the next generation. Our young people won't want to join the military knowing that they can't make the same kind of money they would as a civilian.

The passage of this 14.3% pay raise is an important step towards improving the sad shape of our armed forces. America's military has been neglected for too long. I'm pleased to have had a hand in taking this important step.

Farewell Reception Scheduled for Monsignor Ralph W. Beiting

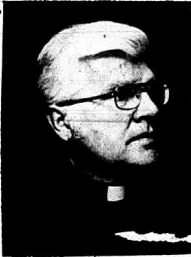

By Lynn Daniels and David Donnauer

On Friday, October 2nd, 1981, at 8 p.m., Our Lady of Mt. Vernon Catholic Church will be celebrating its 25th Anniversary and farewell reception for Reverend Monsignor Ralph W. Beiting, the founding pastor. The reception will be held in the Parish Hall.

Father Ralph W. Beiting, who was born in Newport, Ky. on January 1, 1924, is a native of Campbell County. He is the oldest of eleven children. He graduated from Newport Catholic High School and obtained his AB degree from St. Gregory Seminary in Ohio. His degree in Sacred Theology was granted by the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. in 1949. His ordination to the priesthood took place at the Cathedral in Covington in June, 1949.

Father Beiting's first assignment in the priesthood was as an assistant pastor at St. Bernard's Church in Dayton, Ky. He also taught at Newport Catholic High School at that time. In October of 1950, he was put in charge of a thousand square mile area of South Eastern Kentucky which included Garrard, Rockcastle, Jackson and Southern Madison Counties. All of the Catholic facilities in these counties were built under his direction.

In 1956, Our Lady of Mt.

Rev. Msgr. Ralph W. Beiting

Vernon Catholic Church was founded. Beiting was first held in Mom Reynolds' candy store across from Mt. Vernon Elementary School, in homes and even in a radio station at Renfro Valley. The present building on Williams Street was completed more than 12 years ago.

Since 1960, Father Beiting has served as Dean of the Catholic Church of twenty-seven mountain counties in Eastern Kentucky.

One of the most interesting and rewarding works done by Father Beiting in the area has been the annual street preaching program.

In 1937 Father Beiting started Cliffview Lodge, a camp for the children of the mountain area. This led to the formation of the Christian Appalachian Project in 1964. This is a non-profit nondenominational corporation dedicated to the task of affording the people of Eastern Kentucky an opportunity to help themselves.

Presently, CAP operates in six counties on a full time basis and has assisted programs in six more counties. Nearly 150 people are employed by CAP and several businesses were started by CAP and now owned and operated by the people who at one time were employees.

In 1969, Father Beiting helped to form the Catholic Committee of Appalachia which represents twenty-three dioceses in the thirteen Appalachian states. He is also the official representative of the Diocese of Covington to the Commission on Religion in Appalachia, which is the organization representing seventeen major Protestant denominations, as well as Catholic churches, that work for the benefit of the people of God in Appalachia. In the course of the last eight years, Father Beiting has been given a dozen national awards for helping the poor, promoting the story of Appalachia for the good of all people. This past spring word came from Bishop William Hughes that Father Beiting would be transferred to Floyd and Knott counties in Eastern Kentucky. He will be based in St. Juliana located in Martin.

Despite the great amount of traveling that takes him to all

Halcomb Sparks Rockets As Berea Pirates Fall 20-6

By Riek Anderkin

The Rockcastle County Rockets traveled to Berea Friday night and came away with their second straight win. The Rockets easily downed Berea by a score of 20-6.

Rockcastle, now 2 and 3 on the season, was led by junior running back Steve Halcomb who gained 218 yards on 26 carries. Halcomb scored all three of Rockcastle's touchdowns; the first coming with a drive over 3 minutes to play in the first quarter. Rockcastle was on their own 40 yard line and, on the first play of the series after a Berea punt, Halcomb took the ball around right end and went 56 yards for the score. Once Halcomb got around the corner, there was no doubt that he would go all the way. He left Berea stunned and behind 6 to nothing.

Berea threatened late in the first half when they were on the 3 yard line with 1 minute on the clock; however, a holding call sent them back 15 yards. On the next play, senior Barry Hurst intercepted a Pirate pass and helped Rockcastle take a 6-0 lead to the dressing room at halftime.

In the second half, Rockcastle received the football and, on their first series of plays, took the ball in for another score to make it 12-0. Halcomb was the man who scored doing so from the 3 yard line. Rockcastle managed to use up most of the time in the third quarter. Instead of attempting to kick the extra point, Roddy Carr found Craig McGuire all alone in the end zone for 2 points to make the score 14-0.

The Rockets managed to shut the Pirates out for three quarters but, with 8 minutes to go, Berea managed a score and failed on the extra point try. With about 4 minutes to go, Rockcastle had the ball and a 14-6 lead. It looked as if Rockcastle would just sit on the bank. But, Steve Halcomb, who had played such a fine game, did it once again as he scored on a 45-yard run to give the Rockets an even bigger lead at 20-6.

Rockcastle failed on their extra point but, when they missed, Rockcastle had beaten Berea for the first time in 4 years by a score of 20-6. Rockcastle will try to make their record an even 500 this Friday when they play host to Lone Jack at 8 p.m.

Charlie Hasty [with football] goes through the line downed the Pirates by a score of 20-6. Rockcastle will play Lone Jack Friday night at home. Hasty played a good game for the Rockets on defense as they

Redskins Win 22-0 Steelers Win 30-2

In the second week of the Little League football season the Redskins down the Buccaneers, 22-0 and the Steelers beat the Bengals, 30-2.

The Redskins from Roundstone look like this year's favorite to win it all. They were ahead of the Steelers last week by a score of 14-6 when the game was postponed because of the weather and they easily handled the Buccaneers this Monday night.

The Steelers beat a very young and inexperienced group of boys from Brodhead who had had about two weeks less of practice than any of the other teams.

Next week the Steelers will play the Buccaneers and the Redskins will play the Bengals.

This week's most valuable players were Chad Williams and Chuck Shields from the Redskins and Tim Hodges and Jeff Winstead from the Steelers. Each boy will receive two free meals at Druthers this week.

Girls Start Sept. 29th

By Preston Parrett

The basketball season for girls gets underway September 29th with Mt. Vernon at Roundstone and East Bernstad at Livingston. October 1st, Livingston plays Brodhead at Brodhead and East Bernstad plays Mt. Vernon here. The following week on October 5, Roundstone at East Bernstad and Mt. Vernon at Brodhead. October 8, Livingston at Mt. Vernon and Brodhead at Roundstone.

The girls have two teams in each school, a fifth and sixth grades team and a seventh and eighth grades team. Many girls, who have participated in the grade program, have gone on to become outstanding high school players. Several of these girls have made all district and all regional teams.

The goals of the girls program are to see that players are well grounded in fundamentals, to teach players basic knowledge and skills, to teach players game rules, and to give players game experience. The ultimate goal is to develop a sufficient number of talented players to maintain consistently winning teams at the high school level.

In starting a new season it behooves all of us; players, coaches and fans to display good sportsmanship. Let us remember that visiting fans and teams are guests in our schools and are deserving of the best hospitality that we can bestow upon them. As guests, fans and teams should act in such a manner as to reflect pride in their school and teams.

Basketball is one of the most difficult sports of all to officiate. It is a high speed game that calls for many split second decisions during the course of the game. Many of these decisions will be controversial, but ere are usually as many one way as the other. Officials have a tough job. Let's all respect their decisions. My ideas of a good official is one who takes charge of the game, one who lets coaches, teams and fans know what he calls; one who has the courage to stand behind his call-right or wrong; one who is serious minded and hard working throughout the game.

In closing, I would like to express my appreciation to the Mt. Vernon Signal for their support of girls athletics, the principals and teachers who work the games, the coaches for sending up talented players, the parents for helping get players to practice and games, the fans for their support, the bus drivers and referees who make it possible for us to play, the cheerleaders and their sponsors, the Superintendent and board for giving an opportunity for so many young people to participate in athletics.

The first state to enter the Union after the original 13 was Vermont in 1791.

IN ONE MINUTE YOU CAN SAY "KISS THE KIDS FOR ME, TELL THEM I'LL BE HOME SOON." 12 TIMES.

Calling someone you love when you are away means giving something of yourself. Showing that you care.

It means sharing a moment with those you love—a gift so personal that everyone at home can feel and share in the warmth of the conversation.

It costs so little and means so much. You can call anytime for little more than the price of a hamburger and a soft drink, even less after 5 p.m. and on weekends.

ELECT BOB JASPER

"Your" County Judge Executive

TO ALL CITIZENS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

I have been encouraged very much by the confidence that so many of you have placed in me by giving me your support in my campaign for County Judge Executive. When I made my decision to run, I knew that if I was to serve the people of Rockcastle County as their next County Judge Executive, that I must have the vote and support of all the people of our county, regardless of political affiliation. I appreciate very much the support that you, the voters and taxpayers of Rockcastle County, have offered, because it is only with your help that I can work for and serve you as your next County Judge Executive.

If you, as the voters of both parties, will give me this opportunity to serve you, I promise that I will make every possible effort to work with all five magistrates to insure that the taxpayers in each district receive fair and honest consideration. It is now becoming more important than ever, that the County Judge Executive be a man with solid business and governmental experience, so that the Fiscal Court is managed efficiently and effectively so the taxpayers receive the most benefits and the best services for the money available.

I assure you that I am completely serious about my campaign for the office of Rockcastle County Judge Executive and I invite anyone that has any questions to contact me and I will be happy to talk with you. I am trying to see as many of you as I can, but I know it will be impossible to see everyone personally, so I would like to ask, for your support and together we can work to make Rockcastle County a better place to live and work, both for ourselves and our children.

A fire apple? This yellow apple was discovered growing on a branch of a fire bush in the yard of Sally and Fred Morris in Mt. Vernon. Sally said she didn't notice the apple until the leaves fell off. The appearance of the apples is quite a mystery since there is only one apple tree in the yard and it bears red apples.

Tower of Dutch Strength Still Going Strong After 350 Years

Travelers to Amsterdam this year will find something extra in addition to a beautiful city of canals. They can join the celebration of the 350th anniversary of the city's stately landmark Westerkerk.

A favorite subject of artists from Rembrandt to Josef Israels, the church is the place of Rembrandt's burial, a final honor to the master. Practically within the shadows of its walls is the house where Anne Frank and her family hid.

A series of organ, choral and capella concerts will sing the praises of the Westerkerk in honor of its great age—and ancient greatness, still going strong.

Jehovah Witnesses To Hold Open House At New Kingdom Hall Saturday

The Mt. Vernon congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses has completed a 15-month project in the construction of their Kingdom Hall assembly building. This week end, on September 26th, the group will hold an "Open House" from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Kingdom Hall, located on Poplar Street, one block south of Dowell and Martin Funeral Home. All area residents are cordially invited.

Construction and financing of the new building was handled almost entirely by volunteer workers from Mt. Vernon and 23 other Witness congregations. Construction began in July, 1980 and the building was in use by the end of the year.

Tomas Gonzalez, local presiding elder explained, "Jehovah's Witnesses world-wide have a custom of 'doing-it-yourself' as much as possible in the construction of Kingdom Halls, printing factories and the like. Skilled professionals volunteering our building included architect, electricians, roofers, masons, heating and air conditioning contractor, carpet installers, landscaper and others."

"Jehovah's Witnesses refer to their assembly buildings as 'Kingdom Halls' because they are devoted to community Bible instruction about Jehovah God and His Kingdom," Gonzalez said. He also noted, "Almost everyone has been taught from childhood the Lord's Prayer for 'God's Kingdom to come and God's will to be done on earth...' Jehovah's Witnesses believe God's Kingdom to be a real government directed by His son, Christ Jesus, and that soon it will eliminate all man-made governments and bring God's Will to be done on earth." (Matt. 6:9, 10; Dan. 2:44). "Anyone who wishes to learn more about God's Kingdom and what the Bible teaches is welcome to attend the meetings at Kingdom Hall," Gonzalez further said.

The Witness congregation has arranged a special program at which their Kingdom Hall will be formally dedicated. The program will include speakers on the history of Jehovah's Witnesses in this area and some highlights of the construction work to be shown in slide presentation. Highlight of the evening program will be the dedication talk presented by Joseph Scaglione, traveling representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society.

On Sunday at 10 a.m., the Bible theme, "Keep Growing in Your Relationship with God" will be presented. The public is warmly invited. Seats are free and no collections are taken.

Tom McCracken of Route 1, Orlando was a busy man last Friday morning as he attempted to carry as many groceries to the check-out line at Carter's Market as he could in 5 minutes. Mr. McCracken's wife, entered a Mt. Dew Sweepstakes and won a five-minute shopping spree at the few seconds grabbed some nearby packages of grocery of their choice. Rules of the contest said that everything had to be carried by hand to the check-out line and McCracken obviously knows how to gather groceries with his hand because his total came to about $770 for his five minute effort. McCracken stuck with meat items but in the last few seconds grabbed some nearby packages of candy.

Watch Potential Hazards During Harvest

By Tom Mills
County Extension Agent
For Agriculture

The coming of fall harvest season can bring many hazards to the farm. There is no sure way to prevent all of the hazards during fall harvest, but farmers need to be aware of the potential for accidents.

Harvest is a time of stress for all farmers. Farmers know about the potential for accidents, but many times stress, preoccupation and time factors cause them to be careless.

The farm presents a unique setting where the work and home environment are one and the same. Family members used to seeing the same workplace and situations all the time may overlook potential hazards on the farm.

Grain unloading can pose a threat on the farm. Grain augers are the root of the most severe farm accidents since the sharp edge of the auger can quickly amputate limbs. All new augers have protective shields and guards which farmers should be sure to keep in place.

Farmers should be careful of doing "house cleaning" around augers, such as cleaning out trash from the hopper. Care should be taken in climbing and stepping over a running auger.

Farmers should keep young children away from such equipment. Also, children who are working and playing around the farm should be given complete instructions on what they can and cannot do.

Grain elevators also are potential hazards. When moving this large piece of equipment, farmers should be careful not to back it into a powerline. Beware of judging from a distance the clearances between overhead lines and elevators. Farm workers should review what to do to remove an operator from a tractor in case of electrocution.

Another frequent accident on the farm is grain bin suffocation. Grain flow like liquid in a funnel in large aluminum bins. With this movement, it takes one second to pull someone down into the grain. The new automatic grain systems have caused more of these accidents because the farmer may start them without being near the bins to check for people. A special warning should be made to children about playing in grain bins.

The same is true for gravity flow wagons. Anyone inside a wagon can be easily sucked through the door and into the grain moving system. Accidents in the field are also common during harvest. Farmers should be aware of the potential problems with combines and pickers. Snapping and husking rolls are very dangerous. Today's equipment is more aggressive. This makes it somewhat more safer because farmers are having to unplug the rollers less often and are not running the risk of getting caught. But today's injuries are more severe because of the aggressiveness of the equipment.

All combines and pickers should be equipped with fire extinguishers. The best way to prevent combine fires is to keep the equipment clean and to avoid spilling gasoline in the field or around the engine. A good multi-purpose dry chemical fire extinguisher is best for tractor and combine fires. Farmers should also review how to operate the fire extinguisher and make sure the pressure is up on the unit.

Most other farm accidents are related to everyday activities that farmers do not usually think of. They can prevent amputation of a finger if they happen to catch on a nail or wagon bed.

Falls are one of the most common accidents on the farm and can lay up a farmer for the rest of the harvest season. Farmers should be on the lookout for areas where falls can occur such as grain bin ladders and ladders on combining equipment. Care should be taken when climbing around on tractor tires and other equipment.

Moving equipment on the highway is also a dangerous aspect of fall harvest season. All equipment should be marked with the slow-moving vehicle emblem, which farmers should make sure is in good condition. Flashing lights should be used in good shape and should be used on the highway.

Power take-off drives are another potential hazard. PTO shafts should be kept covered with protective shields. Because of the colder weather, farmers will be wearing more clothing and the extra clothing could easily get caught in the PTO.

Because there is no sure way to prevent all farm accidents, farmers should be careful not to get too tired, and to reduce stress whenever possible.

IN MEMORY
 In loving memory of our Mother, Martha Griffin, who passed away in September, 1986.
 You can have only one mother, patient, kind and true. No other friend in all the world. Will be as kind to you. For all her loving kindness, She asks nothing in return. If all the world deserts you, To mother you can turn. So all we can do now Mother, Is go and tend your grave. And leave behind a token of love, To the best Mother God ever gave.
 We are thinking of you today, Although others may forget, As silent thoughts bring many a tear, For the one we loved so dear, To all who have your Mother, Cherish her with care, For you will never know, The teacher you will find, Until she isn't here.

LAND FOR LAND EXCHANGE

Notice is hereby given that the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, is considering an exchange of land with Carlos Carlotti under the authority of the Acts of March 1, 1911, as amended (16 U.S.C. 516) and October 21, 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1715, 1716). The lands, under the jurisdiction of the Forest Service that are being considered for exchange are described as Tract 858, being that portion of original U.S.A. Tract 1763 lying west of I-75 at the Livingston (State Road 929) interchange and containing about 63 acres gross (including the easement for I-75) in the Daniel Boone National Forest, Laurel County, Kentucky. The Carlos Carlotti lands are described as Tract 976 containing 130 acres, more or less, located on the waters of White Oak and Trace Branches being the same land acquired from Mason Poynter, Jr. and wife by deed dated August 21, 1969, also Tract 978 containing 40 acres, more or less, located on the Rockcastle River being the same land acquired from William Emily and wife by deed dated November 23, 1954. Tracts 976 and 978a total 170 acres and are in the Daniel Boone National Forest, Rockcastle County, Kentucky. Any or all of the above described lands may be exchanged provided the values are equal. In the event the values are not equal, either party may equalize the values by the payment of cash. The amount of cash payment may not exceed 25 percent of the value of the lands transferred out of Federal ownership.
