Accident On I-75 Claims Life

One woman was killed and two persons injured in a three car collision on I-75, 8 miles south of Mt. Vernon last Wednesday, October 14, about 1:35 p.m.

Fatally injured was June Lyon, 67, of Hendersonville, North Carolina, driver of one of the vehicles.

According to a report filed by state trooper, Gilbert Accardo, a witness saw the entire accident and helped substantiate the evidence concerning the details of the accident.

The report verifies the fact that two vehicles on I-75, one driven by Carol Bertram, 52, of Reynoldsburg, Ohio and the other driven by Irvin Bronner, 48, of Louisville, were traveling south on I-75 and as the Bronner vehicle attempted to pass the Bertram vehicle, which was pulling a trailer, Bertram attempted to change into the passing lane also. Realizing that the Bronner vehicle was passing, Mrs. Bertram then reportedly swung back into the right lane. The swerve began a rocking motion of the trailer causing Mrs. Bertram to lose control of her car. The Bertram vehicle skidded across both lanes, causing the Bronner vehicle to collide with the trailer unit, then both vehicles went across the median and into the northbound lane. The trailer then became separated and came to rest blocking the northbound lane and the Bronner vehicle struck the northbound vehicle driven by June Lyon, in the left front side.

James Lyon, 71, a passenger in the car, was taken to Patti A. Clay Hospital in Richmond and treated for class 2 injuries.

Carol Bertram received class 2 injuries and was transferred to the St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington for treatment.

A case of wreckless homicide was opened against Ms. Bertram in connection with the accident, according to a spokesman for the state police post at London.

Almost an Accident

Three train engines and 17 coal cars passed over the body of Fortner Junior "J.R." Mink, 57, of Mt. Vernon about 8 p.m. Monday night about 1 1/4 miles north of the railroad crossing on Richmond Street, according to Charles Hurd, policeman for the city of Mt. Vernon.

Ironically, Mink came out from under the train without a scratch. Mink said that the train operators told him they saw the man lying between the tracks and began trying to stop. The front engine of the train came to rest about a mile down the track from where Mink was lying. Realizing that the man had been run over, train officials, and rescue members were expecting the worst.

However, Mink who, ac-

Election Roundup

By Rick Anderkin

In a Republican dominated county such as Rockcastle, a general election sits about as much interest in the voters as a one horse race does.

However, in this general election, there should be a little more interest for Rockcastle Countians than in the past.

For one reason, the next County Judge Executive will be chosen on November 3rd as well as the next State Representative from the 80th District which is made up of Rockcastle and Lincoln Counties and northern Pulaski County.

In the race for County Judge, Republican Frank DeBorde, who defeated incumbent Hubert Thacker in the May Primary, will face Democrat Bob Jasper who easily downed his counterpart Graydon B.

Cummins in the primary.

DeBorde, who is magistrate of the 1st District at present was defeated by Thacker in the primary 8 years ago while Jasper is running for the office for his first time.

The State Representative race pits Republican Danny Ford from Rockcastle against Democrat Andy Colburn of Lincoln. One of the two men will replace long-time Republican Representative William Harold DeMarcus of Stanford, who declined to run in the primary because of health reasons.

Ford easily defeated now Circuit Court Clerk Money Ed Cummins in the primary while Colburn beat Cal Smith of Lincoln County in the Democratic nomination. Colburn is the owner of the Western Auto Store in Stanford and Ford is co-owner of Ford Realty and Auction Company in Mt. Vernon.

There are only three other races that are being contested in the county during the General Election and they are magisterial races. Republican Tom Denny will face Democrat Lee Faulkner in the second district while Republican incumbent Joe Clark faces Democrat Earl McNew in the fifth and Republican Alex Albright will face Democrat Doug Bishop in the third.

All three city council races are on the ballot this November. In Livingston incumbent Bobby Wilson will face former mayor Bertie Rice and seven men, Michael Robbins, Tod Mink, Don Jones, Ed C. McHargue, Danny L. Bullock, James McClure and Eugene

During the course of the day in Washington, D.C. the candidates also met with John R. Brock, Secretary of Agriculture, Drew Lewis, Secretary of Transportation, Ray Donovan, Secretary of Labor, and T.H. Bell, Secretary of Education.

November 23 is Date Set To Start Burley Sales

Tobacco growers and warehousemen attending the Burley Sales Committee's annual meeting generally agreed that the 1981 burley crop is of good quality, but some disputed the committee's production estimates.

"I think the crop's not as big as everyone says it is," said Gerry Deatherage of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture. "I don't think 700 million (pounds) is in the picture."

"Certainly, it will be a big crop, but maybe the estimates will be high" in central Kentucky, added Milton Shufflet, an agricultural economist at the University of Kentucky.

"Let's face it," said Albert Clay, chairman of the Burley Auction Warehouse Association. "A lot of it is speculation. But we should produce enough for normal disappearance."

think we'll have a more pleasant experience than last year."

The committee followed the pattern of recent years in setting auction dates, voting 8-2 to begin sales of one cigarette burley bell November 23, the Monday before Thanksgiving. Sales will continue Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday that week.

Warehouses will sell the first four days of each subsequent week, closing at the end of business December 17 for the Christmas holidays.

Sales will resume January 4, continuing four days a week until the 1981 crop is sold. Each sale day will be 3 1/2 hours.

Warehouses selling leaf in baskets were limited to 1,260 baskets per day, per set of buyers-an average of 360 baskets per hour.

An Editorial

One definition of a community is a group of people living in relatively close proximity and having some things in common. A community is usually termed good or bad depending upon, among other things, the religious and moral climate, educational level, cultural advantages, economics strength and the cooperation or unity of members and/or leaders of the community.

In specific terms, there are factors which determine a community's desirability as a place to live, factors over which those living in that community have direct control.

A good community is one which places value on its youth. A community which places value on its youth will initiate and support such endeavors as organized athletic events and programs, safe playgrounds and various other recreational facilities, a PTA or PTO for every school, athletic and band boosters clubs, scouts, various enrichment, performing arts program and cooperative church sponsored youth social activities.

A good community is one in which members feel relatively safe from harm, whether from petty thieves or from committers of violent crimes. Members of a good community will take positive legal action to get habitual offenders removed from the community by filling their obligations as members of juries and by fearlessly pressing court officials for more responsible and responsive action against threats to the safety and well-being of its citizens.

A good community is one in which there is a healthy business atmosphere brought about by members who patronize local merchants and by merchants who cooperate and are willing to accept change in order to better accommodate the changing needs of patrons.

A good community is also one in which business and industrial leaders live in and become a part of the community in which they thrive economically.

Rockcastle County has many of the attributes of a good community and the potential for all. The next generation will only be as good as this one because only things we value will become valuable to them.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I feel compelled to write this letter to your fine paper in my opinion of your District Judge, Walter F. Maguire.

For two years I was employed by the Division of Driver Licensing in Frankfort as a Driver Improvement Officer. Pulaski and Rockcastle counties were both in my district and each week I was in Mt. Vernon. Somerset visiting the District Court.

During this time I saw first hand, the way Judge Maguire conducted his court. I found Judge Maguire to be a very fair man, understanding and sympathetic, but never fearing to enforce the laws as he was elected to do.
Judge Maguire has what it takes, and should be highly considered as the man to keep in this important office.

Sincerely,
R.E. Asher

Legislative Report

By Rep. Harold DeMarcus

The worthy act of according the just due and respect our Viet Nam veterans richly deserve should not be used as an excuse to legalize gambling.

First, let me emphasize that I support prefiled bill 67 which seeks to authorize payment of a bonus to all members of the armed services of the United States during the Viet Nam era, who were on active duty for 90 days or more, who were residents of the Commonwealth for at least six months prior to entry into service and who have not received a prior bonus. This bill will provide Vietnam veterans a payment of $9 per month for service in the continental limits of the United States, not to exceed $300, and payment of $15 per month for service outside the United States' continental limits.

Also, this proposal will cost the Commonwealth approximately $350,000.

I worked for and supported this very same bill during the 1980 legislative session. The bill would have been passed except that an amendment was tacked on to which sought to establish a state lottery to pay for the Vietnam bonus.

The Vietnam veterans served our country with honor and all they have received is disrespect and neglect.

Now, an honest attempt is being made to reward the

Senters, will run for four commissioner seats.

In Mt. Vernon, Mayor Roland Mullins will run unopposed while 12 men will try for six council seats. Incumbents Tom Welch, Ernie Tolle, Roger McClure and Conard Parrett will face opposition from John C. Bullock, Marshall Bullock, James W. "Pete" Hurd, Gary C. Noe, Joel C. "Buster" Gentry, Hubert Taylor, Oscar Bullock and Joseph W. Martin. Now councilman, Ernest Stanley will not seek re-election and Bob Jasper resigned to run for County Judge.

In the Brodhead town council race, Mayor D.A. Robbins is running for one of the four city commissioner's seats. Former commissioner Ronnie Cash is running unopposed for Mayor, while four other men besides Robbins will run for commissioner. The bill are Johnny Wilcox, Billy Bussell, Eddie Cash and Harold Harris.

On November 3rd several offices and the county will be decided and those of you who are registered to vote should take part in the election. Remember that if you don't vote and make a choice then you can't fuss when you don't like what is going on in your county, state and city governments.

"BURLEY SALES"

Warehouses selling by the pound were limited to 340,200 pounds per day, per set of buyers.

Any warehouse exceeding the daily poundage quota by more than 2,000 pounds will be forced to switch to basket sales, according to a committee resolution. The overage will be deducted from its first sale the following season.

Committee members Ansel Herndon of Danville and Gene Rose of Owensboro dissented in the voting, saying central Kentucky markets needed an earlier starting date.

"This crop is anywhere from 10 days to two weeks early," said Herndon, adding that many farmers, fearing theft, already are hauling leaf to warehouses.

"There's going to be a terrific jam, in my opinion, before Christmas," added Rose, an officer of Lexington Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse.

"Poundwise, there will be a lot less tobacco bought before the holidays."

Clay, a Mount Sterling warehouseman, agreed that central Kentucky markets face a serious problem selling bales and sheets of leaf.

"You're going to be in a block from beginning to end" and, possibly, only half the crop will be sold before Christmas, Clay said.

Bales and sheets are especially popular in central Kentucky, where crops tend to be larger, Rose said. In areas where crops are smaller, leaf is sold mostly in traditional, hand-tied bundles.

Warehouses by law are limited in the number of floor "spaces" from which leaf can be sold. Warehouses can pack up to 700 pounds of banded tobacco in each space, compared to 600 pounds of banded tobacco and 100 to 200 pounds of leaf in sheets.

"This makes a big difference in the amount that can be sold," Rose said.

Forty percent of the burley sold in Lexington last year was baled, Rose said. He predicted that would increase to 60 percent this year.

For the first time, an unlimited quantity of banded burley has been approved for federal price supports. The supports have not been extended to sheets, however.

I, D.G. (Alex) Albright, your Republican candidate for Magistrate, wish to thank each and everyone who supported me in the May Primary.

As you know, the November election is drawing near and you want to elect someone who is familiar with the area. Due to my hauling occupation, I travel most of the county roads at least once every week and I am aware of which roads are in most need of maintenance and repairs.

I would appreciate your help and support again this fall.

FARMING BACKGROUND

Born and raised on a small farm and I understand the problems and needs of the farming community first hand.

DEVELOPMENT INVOLVEMENT

President of Bi-County Economic Development District. Secretary and treasurer of the Lincoln County Industrial Development Authority. Worked on initial phase of recreational parks for Lincoln County.

REGULAR INVOLVEMENT

Member of the Stanford Baptist Church, raised in Christian home and president of the Baptist Student Union at Western Ky. University.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Member of the Stanford Baptist Church, raised in Christian home and president of the Baptist Student Union at Western Ky. University.

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

10 years banking and farming experience. Two years in business for myself.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Economic Development-Continue work to reverse the economic condition of our district which has one of the highest unemployment rates and the lowest per capita incomes in the state.
2. Road Development-Work to improve our road conditions-many of our gravel roads need blacktop, and many of our blacktop roads need resurfacing, widening and straightening.
3. Availability-I will keep a full time office open in the district and have monthly meetings at various locations throughout our area.

But to achieve these objectives, we must have someone in Frankfort that can have an effect on the democratic administration that runs our state. The choice in this Representative race should not be which candidate is from Rockcastle or Lincoln or which is a Republican or Democrat. The choice in this Representative race should clearly be which candidate can and will get the most done for Rockcastle county and the 80th District. And with the heavy democratic administration, House of Representative and Senate if we want and expect to get things done for our district, we must have someone in Frankfort that can work with the people that run our state.

Andy COLBURN - State REPRESENTATIVE

Republican County Chairman Alonzo McCollum, far left, and Benton Stokes, local farmer and real estate agent, far right, were recently presented with a

United States flag which had been flown over the Capitol for them. The flag and a certificate by Don Girdler, field representative for Congressman Harold Rogers. Cong. Rogers arranged for the flag to be flown.

Elect Bertie Rice Mayor

I am running for Mayor of Livingston. I might say I am proud of Livingston's Fire Department and it shouldn't be long until we will be able to pay a smaller premium on our insurance.
There are several things I would like to do for our city's improvement. If elected I will serve you for four years, then quit. We have, at last, finished the sewer which I do hope you all enjoy.
I am running with Charles "Todd" Mink and James McClure. We have always had a harmonious council and I have no fight with anyone. Please vote for me.

Descendants of pioneer Benjamin VanHook, buried near Brodhead, recently erected a memorial marker at the gravesites of Benjamin and his wife Susannah and about 30 other graves of family members. Benjamin was born in 1786 in Virginia and was captured by the Indians at Ruddles Station with his father Samuel VanHook in about 1781. Indians scalped his mother, Hannah, and took the father and son north to Detroit. They escaped some four years later and made their way back to Kentucky. Most of the VanHooks of Laurel and Pulaski Counties are descendants of Benjamin who reared two families having a total of 19 children. Shown beside the marker are from left, Charles Helton, Wayne VanHook, of Somerset and former Bockcastle County resident and W.E. Helton. The Heltons live in Lincoln County.

Memorial Stone Erected At Brindle Ridge In Memory of Benjamin J. VanHook and Wife

By Nancy Mullins

A memorial stone has been erected at Brindle Ridge to mark the homestead and grave sites of Benjamin J. VanHook and his second wife, Susannah Higgins VanHook and about 30 other of the county's earliest settlers, many of whom it is believed were members of the VanHook family.

The marker, bought and erected by descendants of this Benjamin VanHook was placed on the site last week.

Benjamin was born in 1768 in Virginia, the son of Samuel and Hannah Higgins VanHook. His long life was doubtlessly one filled with adventure, hardship and daring. Benjamin lived to be 86 years old, dying in 1854 near Brodhead.

His father, Samuel, however, was a frontiersman and Revolutionary War soldier as tough as any of his time. According to Illinois Historical Society records and other documentation, Samuel VanHook was with George Rogers Clark when he and 127 backwoodsmen captured Vincennes on the Wabash River in February of 1779. "When a powerful British force followed him and recaptured Vincennes, Clark and his followers doubled back for a surprise attack across 180 miles of frigid swampland.

"The floods that winter had driven all the game from the forest and Clark's men soon ran out of food. Wading for days at a time through freezing shoulder-deep water, the expedition took a week to cover the last 9 miles before Vincennes. But Clark's approach was so unexpected that the British commandant capitulated on February 25, 1779." (1)

Samuel VanHook was 46 years old at the time and already had a distinguished service record having served in the Militia since 1774.

Samuel was born in 1733 in New Jersey and migrated at an early age to North Carolina and Virginia with an uncle and some cousins. In Virginia, records show land transactions and his marriage to Hannah Higgins. It was in Virginia that Benjamin and other children were born.

In the late spring of 1779, following the grueling Illinois campaign, Samuel VanHook entered Kentucky with Daniel Boone on Boone's second trip into Kentucky and settled at Ruddles Station. According to the Collins' History of Kentucky, Vol. 2, he came with Boone then and, according to deposition given by Samuel and preserved in the Harrison County court records, Cynthia, Ky., site of former Ruddles Station, a 73-year-old Samuel testifies in a boundary dispute that he came to Ruddles Station in the summer of 1779.

He answered the questions stating that his trade was raising corn and hunting. When asked if he were not a tailor by trade, he answered that he had made only 2 or 3 pairs of leather breeches and "did not follow it further" (2).

Certified court records, as well as a deposition of Kentucky, tell the story of Samuel and his 12-year-old son, Benjamin, having been captured by the British and Indians in 1781 after the family had settled in Kentucky.

There are two versions of the Indian attack.

According to former Somerset lawyer and judge, Ben VanHook Smith, now deceased (descendant of Samuel via Benjamin), the wife and Mother, Hannah and her son Benjamin "were trying to call the cows and she had climbed a tree so her voice would carry when Indians sneaked up and killed her with a tomahawk."

(2) They captured the boy and his father and took them north to Detroit. Admiring the courage and endurance of the two, the Indians adopted the boy and gradually gave Samuel more and more freedom. He and the boy found the opportunity and made their escape south, mostly by following waterways. They returned to Bryants Station in 1784 or 1785, according to Samuel's deposition.

The deposition reads as follows: "In the Spring of seventy nine, I settled here, in the year eighty, in the winter after Christmas, I moved to Martin's Station, taken prison in June following and returned in four or five years. I don't recollect which, but I believe about four years and 2 months..." (2)

Mr. W.E. Helton and his son, Charles, of Route 3, Crab Orchard, are descendants of Samuel and Benjamin heard a slightly different story concerning the particulars of the capture. Hannah, her son and husband were in a field of tobacco when the attack occurred, according to recounted versions of the capture they have heard. Other children were safe at the fort.

Following his return home, Samuel married (in 1788) widow Hannah Wilson Williams, whose husband had been killed by Indians.

To this marriage were born several children, one of them, a girl, Winnifred, who later married a William Whitley (presumed to be the son of the

"MEMORIAL STONE"
(Cont'd from P-5)

William Whitley who built the early brick home near Crab Orchard. According to Harrison County records, Samuel was married at least two more times later in life.

Samuel was an active leader whose name appears on many of the official documents designating county boundaries. Records also show he petitioned the Virginia State Legislature to make Kentucky a state. Young Benjamin VanHook married thirteen year old Frances Higgins around 1787. Frances was his first cousin, the daughter of his dead mother's brother. To the marriage were born nine children: Samuel (whom many descendants in this area are of the lineage), Hannah, Elizabeth, Peggy, Polly, Benjamin, Jr., Frances, Nancy and Thomas.

Frances died after 20 years of marriage at the age of 33. Benjamin then married his dead wife's sister, Susannah Higgins, another first cousin. Their marriage is recorded in Pulaski County and dated 10-21-1806. (Rockcastle County was not made a county until 1810 and was formed from several surrounding counties including Pulaski.) To this marriage was born 10 more children: Martin, Sarah, Lydia, Rebekah, Harriet, Eliza Jane, James H., Susan, John Larkin and Nancy. (Rockcastle County resident Shirley Riddle is a descendant via Eliza Jane. It is no mistake

The farm is situated on the Old Wilderness Trail and nearby is a cliff spring and a cave. It was very possibly a resting and watering stop for travelers along the early route. The marker is inscribed as follows: "The site of about 30 graves of Revolutionary to Civil War ear pioneers. Their endeavors, historic adventures and hardships paved the way for us. Erected in 1981 by VanHook descendants."

Encased in the marker is the only remaining portion of Benjamin's tombstone. Much of the tough and rugged men who settled Kentucky and although women settled came to Kentucky to stay in 1775, they are usually ignored in histories. They are often depicted as fearful and timid. But to learn of a woman migrant on horseback fording a swift river, one child in her arms and one hanging on behind her, to find women improvising a substitute for flax, defending a fort under siege or fighting off Indian attackers is to see women as active participants in the rough, uncertain life in the settlements.

The migration itself weeded out all but the hardy. Although a party might start out in wagons, most of the route was fit only for pack animals. Hundreds of miles of walking lay ahead. In packsaddles, one on each side of a horse, small children could ride swaddled in bedding. Babies were carried in their mothers' arms, and those too sick to walk were carried in litters. Some migrants rode pack animals, but most walked, carrying part of the load. Rain added to the miseries of the trail. Flooded by wet shoes were common. Without wagons, the travelers slept outdoors, the women unloading the packhorses each night and setting up makeshift shelters of blankets. In wet weather, neither bedding nor clothing was ever dry. Babies and small children must have presented special problems for although clothing could be washed in creeks, it could not be dried in a rainy Kentucky spring or fall. The further the migrants went, the more tedious the food seemed. A diet of meat, often without salt, was unsatisfying. Most of all the solitude of the wilderness oppressed them. One account tells that the silence affected even the dogs. But these difficulties were trivial compared to the threat of Indians or winter. Because Indians were more active in the summer, many parties of immigrants started out in early fall, with the goal of arriving in Kentucky before cold weather. Winter on the journey was dreaded almost as much as Indians. In the bitter winter of 1779-1780, cattle froze, sheep died from eating ivy, ice formed in minutes on travelers fording creeks, the Kentucky River froze two feet deep, and deer and buffalo starved in the forests. The trail to Kentucky was no place for the delicate or fearful, though the women who traveled it are sometimes described. (3)

Sports Report

Lynn Camp Spoils Rockets' Homecoming

By Rick Anderkin

The Rockcastle County Rockets fell below .500 Friday night as they lost their homecoming game to Lynn Camp 24-14.

The Rockets now 4 and 5, experienced great problems on offense Friday night as the offense accumulated only 2 of Rockcastle's 14 points.

The two Rockcastle touchdowns came on a 80 yard kickoff return by sophomore Scotty Robinson and a 30 yard run after recovering a fumble by sophomore Burley Burkhardt.

The two scores came in the fourth quarter after Lynn Camp had caught Rockcastle in the end zone for two safety and a punt return of 60 yards by the Wildcats which gave them a 12-8 lead early in the fourth quarter. Lynn Camp scored twice more to make the score 24-12.

Burkhardt recovered his fumble with very few minutes on the clock.

Rockcastle's defense spent most of the game on the field and it showed in the fourth quarter when Lynn Camp put 20 points on the board. Lynn Camp, 14 and 4 on the season, got the first of their two safeties in the first quarter when Rockcastle quarterback Roddy Carr fumbled the football and fell on in the end zone. The second safety came in the third quarter when Rockcastle was called for clipping in their own end zone.

Rockcastle's offense managed only 6 first downs all night and left Lynn Camp in excellent field position just about every time they gave up the football. Rockcastle's quarterback found the going rough as he completed only 3 of 17 pass attempts of which one was a 2 point conversion to senior Steve McClure.

Rockcastle will travel to Harrodsburg Friday to play Mercer County and will play their last game of the season a week from Friday when they will host the Knox Central Panthers.

"Experienced With County Government"

My experience in County Government as Jailor, with the Sheriff's Department and in Circuit Court have given me a broad understanding of the workings and needs of Rockcastle County Government.

I have learned that County Government ought to be managed carefully and responsibly, as any business where large sums of public funds are handled. However, County Government is not a business operated for personal gain but must be a servant dedicated to the good of all its citizens. There have been times in the past when I have stood alone, in opposition to some practices, because of what I believe County Government ought to be.

The past years in County Government have taught me to: Listen to people concerning their hurts, their needs and their views of County Government;

Learn from people their dreams and ambitions for County Government; Look for ways to bring into reality our combined needs, dreams and ambitions for Rockcastle County Government.

Some of the needs, dreams and ambitions I plan to work toward, when elected County Judge/Executive, are:

ROADS...equal to our neighboring counties. Why not??? Our road equipment is as good as their's. Roads over which our senior citizens can get food and medical attention when needed, our working citizens can get to and from work and children can get to and from school safely.

HOW???...

1. By returning to the magistrates a voice in the maintenance of their districts;
2. By spending State Allocated Funds where they were designated to be spent;
3. By listening to each citizen's needs concerning his roads.

NEW INDUSTRY...So our citizens can work, live and spend their money in the County;

So our youth do not have to leave home to find jobs; So the tax burden can be lightened as it's shared by new working citizens.

HOW????

1. By working closely with the Rockcastle County Improvement Council.
2. By cooperating fully in every possible way with the Industrial Authority.

RECREATION...for young and old alike.

So our youth have wholesome places to go and things to do; So our children can be involved in supervised worthwhile activities; So our middle adults can go bowling, skating or see a movie without driving a hundred miles.

HOW????

1. Parks and playgrounds;
2. Skating rink...bowling alley, etc..;
3. Constructive community activities sponsored by Civic and Church Groups.

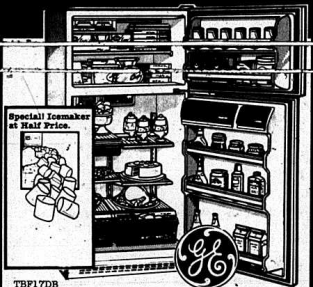

IMPROVED COUNTY SERVICES...

A more comprehensive Health Department in a more adequate location; Increased support for our schools as we continue to lose more and more aid from the State; Upgrading the Garbage Collection services throughout the County.

Some may say these are just a politician's campaign promises. NOT SO!!! These are goals I share in common with many of you, goals for us to work toward, goals which will make Rockcastle County a better place to live, work and raise children. Give me your support. Help me to be elected, and then help me as your County Judge/Executive to work for a united, growing County.

Meet Ernie Woods

This November 3rd, for the first time since the new court system went into effect, voters in Rockcastle and Pulaski Counties will have a choice of candidates for the office of District Judge.

That choice is Ernie Woods.

Ernie is running against Judge Walter Filippen Maguire, the present District Judge, who was elected without opposition four years ago.

Ernie has been a small boy in the Baptist community of Pulaski County. His father worked as a maintenance man at the Old Somerset City Hospital for twenty years and also farmed in his spare time.

Ernie grew up as a farm boy, milking cows, setting, cutting and stripping tobacco and working in the hayfields.

Ernie and his family attended Saline Baptist Church where he is still a member.

Like many others in Rockcastle and Pulaski Counties, Ernie worked his way through Berea College, graduating in 1967.

While studying for his teacher's certificate at Berea, Ernie did his practice teaching at Brodhead High School.

Ernie received a master's degree in education from Eastern Kentucky University in 1968 and spent the next two years working as a high school teacher and basketball coach.

Ernie graduated from the University of Kentucky Law School in 1974 and went to work as an Assistant United States Attorney prosecuting persons accused of violating federal laws. Upon leaving this office, he was presented with a plaque honoring him for outstanding service.

For the next two years, Ernie worked as the senior law clerk to Federal Judge Eugene E. Siler. He assisted Judge Siler with research on complicated legal points which came up during the trial of cases in United States District Court.

In January, 1978, Ernie returned to Somerset, where he was associated with John G. Prather in the general practice of law for over three years.

Ernie's background and experience will enable him to make fair, impartial decisions based on reason and common sense.

Ernie is interested in Rockcastle County and its people and he believes in working with all county and state officials and with all citizens for a court system that will be fair and just to everyone.

Now that you have a choice, make your choice Ernie Woods for District Judge on November 3rd.

Your Candidate for District Judge

Is Your Religion in the Bible?

The Bible is the word of God and the source of true religion. It describes, defines and sets forth God's will thoroughly, completely and perfectly (2 Peter 1:3, 2 Tim. 3:16-17). The logical and inescapable conclusion is that the religious faith and practice based upon what the Bible teaches is the only putably and unquestionably right. It is the infallible, eternal religion.

The important question, then, is whether your religion is really in the Bible. Is it? This is not to ask whether it contains some Bible principles-is your religion, from its center to its circumference and in all of its entirety, actually contained in the Bible?

Would you be willing to subject your faith to a Bible test in order to be sure?

Who does the Bible tell you how to become a member of the church of which you are presently a member? For example, if you are a Methodist, where does the Bible actually tell you to become a Methodist, and instruct you as to how to do it? Of course, the question applies with equal force to those who are members of other churches. Does the Bible tell anybody to be a Lutheran, a Baptist, or a Catholic? Does it?

Pick up your Bible. Open it. Read it for yourself. Does the church of which you are a member use mechanical devices to offer prayers or make music to God? If so, look for this practice in the New Testament so as to determine whether your religion is actually in the Bible. Listen to the sermons. Are they really "Bible" sermons? What of the means the church uses to raise money; is it in the Bible? (And the Bible does teach how the work of the church is to be financed; see I Corinthians 16:2). The practice of churches being in "business", buying and selling well, is it in the Bible? What about the almost universally accepted system of having an earthly ruler or governing body to determine

Does the Bible mention a pope, synod, or governing council? The Bible says there is one lawgiver; see James 4:12. Look at your religion item by item, and then check the scriptures to see if they authorize each particular.

The question-"Is your religion in the Bible?"-is a little tougher to answer than first thoughts take it to be. And sometimes the answer is tougher to acknowledge. Our plea is for you to earnestly and honestly face this fundamental question. If the Bible is really the word of God (and it is) we dare not evade the issue, for our souls are hanging in the balance. And there is a simple solution in the event that we find our religion did not come purely from the Bible. Let us take the Bible and let its teachings be our religion. We can learn what and how to do, and can content ourselves with being Christians after the New Testament order, and have a "Thus saith the Lord" for all that is held as precious faith. This is truly the infallible safe way.

We, at the Providence church of Christ, stand ready to give books, chapter and verse for all that we do and teach.

Celebration of Traditional Music

The Berea College Appalachian Center has scheduled its eighth annual Celebration of Traditional Music for October 29 through November 1.

The four-day festival will include old-time ballad and hymn singing, string music, folk dancing, instrumental workshops and a symposium that will examine the changes in traditional music of the region.

Singer and guitarist James "Sparky" Rucker opens the festival Thursday, October 29, with a 3 p.m. free performance at Phelps Stokes Chapel on the Berea campus. Rucker, a traditional blues and folk singer from Knoxville, Tenn., is one of the few black traditional music performers and recording artists in the Southern Appalachian area. His style and strong renditions of blues, spirituals, freedom songs and bottleneck guitar music have made him a favorite at mountain music gatherings.

Also on Thursday, there will be an 8 p.m. street dance on Main Street in front of the Boone Tavern Hotel, with Lewis and Donna Lamb of Paint Lick, Ky. on the fiddle and guitar.

Old-time music concerts on Friday and Saturday will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Phelps Stokes Chapel. Admission is $3 for adults and $1.50 for children. All tickets will be sold at the door.

Both concerts will feature David Morris, singer and guitarist from Ivydale, West Virginia; Edna Ritchie Baker from Winchester, a member of the Singing Family of the Cumberlands, and Tommy Hunter and Carroll Best. Hunter, a native of Mars Hill, North Carolina, is known as one of the best old-time favorites while Carroll is banjo player from Crabtree, North Carolina. Also performing will be the Eller Brothers, singers from Hiwassee, Georgia; John and

Walter from South Durdinmouth, Ky.; the Mountain Band, a North Carolina group; banjo player Razor Wolfenbarger of Irvine; Dee and Delta Hicks, Tinchtown, Tenn.; The Vernon Payne Band, Berea and

The Gem Sisters; J.P. and Annadeene Fraley.

The Vernon Payne Band will also perform at folk and square dance sessions scheduled for 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights at the Berea College Alumni Building.

Saturday events at the Alumni Building include instrumental workshops from 9 a.m. to noon and music and singing workshops from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

At 2 p.m., Ralph Rinzler, director of the Office of Folk Life Programs, Smithsonian Institution, will lead the symposium "Music and Change in the Region." The session will focus on the music of Doc Watson and Bill Monroe.

Edna Ritchie Baker will lead a program of traditional religious music on Sunday morning at the Alumni Building. The 9 a.m. program is the last event of the festival.

CHANGE IN BURLEY WEIGHING PROCEDURES

There is a major change in the weighing procedures for burley tobacco this year, according to Agriculture Commissioner Alben W. Barkley, II.

In previous years, the department's division of weights and measures has set only one tare for each scale, Barkley said. This year, because burley producers are preparing tobacco for market in so many forms, the division will allow more than one tare.

For example, there may be a tare for baskets, pallets or sheets.

"It will be the responsibility of the warehouse to see that the correct tare is used for each method of sale," Barkley said. "But I want to emphasize to the farmers that they should check the tare also. Since this is new, it may be easy to forget to change the tare for a different method."

The different tares will be posted on the outside of each scale house, and farmers should check with the weighman to make sure the proper tare is being taken.

Also, Barkley said, the Burley Sales Committee voted to get uniformity of marketing by considering all burley containers as baskets for the purpose of allocating selling time and the number of basket per warehouse. Baskets, sheets, bales, pallets or any other units will count as baskets.

Hobbies can help your children grow.

THE ROLE OF GOVERNMENT IS CHANGING

For nearly 200 years now, we have been striving for a more perfect union, to make our great constitution work better for all.

The November 1981 election is just as important as the early gatherings of free Americans. This is what makes Democracy work.

With road funds, health funds, general revenue sharing, economic development and other funds being returned to local government allowing for citizen planning for spending, each of us has a new role.

The Republican party has an excellent field of candidates. So plan to vote. Encourage your friends and neighbors to vote. Get involved in the election, then get involved in planning our future.

Time is running out. You will have to make your decision as to who you will choose as your council. There are 12 candidates for the office, of which you will choose 6 to represent you.

I believe I stated when I first announced my candidacy for the office that I was qualified to represent you and I still feel that I am. I also stated there were several issues that demand our immediate attention, since that time I am more than convinced that some action must be taken.

I pledge to you that I will do everything in my power to see these problems resolved. There is no excuse for our water problem that comes up every year. There is no excuse for our streets being littered with beer cans and what have you. There is no excuse for our city to be unsafe to travel after dark, and there certainly is no excuse for our downtown area to look like a dump every Sunday morning, before the business owners can open up and get it cleaned up. There are Laws to deal with Drunks. There are laws to deal with Littering and there are Laws to protect the innocent.

I ask you, Don't you think a clean-up campaign by our Police Department, supported by a good strong council is in order? If you do...

veterans for their service, however, there are opportunistic politicians who want to use them once again by suggesting that we legalize gambling on their behalf. This is a disgrace and an insult to the Vietnam veteran.

Perhaps you may ask how will the state pay for the Vietnam bonus.

In the first place the Commonwealth's biennial budget is approximately $9 billion, and as you can see $350,000 is a small sum in comparison. For instance, if the state would sell its famous Sikorsky S-76 helicopter at half price, we could pay for the Vietnam bonus and have $700,000 left over for education and health care.

Our Vietnam veterans deserve a bonus but they do not deserve to be used by opportunistic politicians seeking to put state government in the gambling business.

The problems of government will always be complicated and I believe the appropriate solution is to trim the waste and make government more efficient rather than the simplistic and ridiculous demagoguery of those who advocate legalized gambling.

Continental Telephone To Restructure Operation

The Continental Telephone Company of Kentucky has announced plans to restructure its operations to provide more individualized and responsive telephone service for its customers.

The plans call for the company to decentralize its operations from a divisional to a state-run structure. These changes only involve some realignment of jobs within the internal make-up of the company and will become effective as soon as the new appointments are announced.

Currently, Continental Telephone Company of Kentucky is part of Continental Telephone System's Mid-South Division along with two companies in North Carolina. Under the new plan the Mid-South Division is to be disbanded and its companies assimilated into other Continental Divisions. Kentucky will become part of Continental's Allegheny Division.

The Kentucky company will subsequently increase its staff, enabling it to operate on a more autonomous arrangement. The Mid-south headquarters office in Knoxville, Tenn., will be closed as soon as possible with the employees there expected to fill posts within the new state organizations. Similar plans to reorganize operations on a state-run rather than divisional basis are also scheduled for the other states in the Gulf and Allegheny Divisions, most notably in Alabama and Pennsylvania.

Continental's Mid-South Division Manager Eugene Morris explained the move was due to the competitive, deregulated nature of the telephone industry. "There has been a dramatic increase in the way the telephone business operates. Competition is part of our industry now and the government is steadily loosening its regulatory controls," he said. "Working within these changes means providing faster and more dependable telephone service to our customers."

"This new organizational structure for Kentucky will assure that we neglect no opportunity to achieve efficiencies and innovation. 28th Judicial Circuit
Circuit Action File
No. 80-C-215

THE BANK OF MT. VERNON

Plaintiff
vs. notice of sale
Glendolyn Griffin, Et Al
Defendants

By virtue of judgment and order of sale of the Rockcastle Circuit Court, rendered on the 25th day of September, 1981, in the above cause, for the sum of Eighteen Thousand Seven Hundred Five Dollars and ninety-nine cents ($18,705.99), plus interest at the rate of Six Dollars and three cents ($6.03) per day from December 29, 1980, until paid, costs and attorney fees, I shall offer for sale at the Courthouse door, Main Street, Mount Vernon, Kentucky, to the highest bidder at public auction on Monday, November 2, 1981, at the hour of 10:00 a.m., the following described real property to-wit:

FIRST TRACT: Bounded on the north by the lands of James Griffin; on the east by the County Road; on the south by the lands of Champ Mullins (now John Griffin); and on the west by Solomon Griffin and Wm. Durham and containing fifty (50) acres, more or less. There is about one-eighth of an acre reserved on the property for a family burying grounds and privilege of going to and from.

SECOND TRACT: Beginning at the corner of the Cow Cliff; thence north with the fence across the hollow to a stone near the graveyard; thence west course to a chestnut, Solie Griffin's line, a stone on a ridge; thence south east course to John Griffin's line; thence with John Griffin's line to the beginning and containing fifteen (15) acres, more or less.

THIRD TRACT: Beginning on a small pine the second corner of the piece that Champ Mullins sold William J. Woodson and running straight with that line to John Griffin's line to a stake near a bark —; thence eastward with John Griffin's to a double poplar, north to a pine; thence southward to a stone on the north side of the road near the Wyatt Allen house, which is 3rd corner of the William Woodson tract; thence with the Saturday morning found me going up King Hollow which branches left off Clear Creek road as you go north. This hollow was named after this early native, Dick King and wife, Minnie and now their descendants live there. Dick was known as a honest, just man and Minnie was said to keep just about the cleanest house in the neighborhood without all the "new, improved products" we depend on today. They raised two children; Bertha, now deceased and Charlie of whom I wrote last week. Going as far up the hollow as I could drive, I found just an old shell of a house as mute testimony that people had lived there. I tried to get a picture of the past with Dick and Minnie sitting on the porch of the little house in the hollow while a sun poured its rays down around them. They were friendly people and made visitors welcome. Only the sighing of the wind rippled leaves across the empty porch and seemed to be my answer.

Bertha Long was taking a fragrant smelling cake from the oven when I entered her house just down the road. For all my sniffing, Bertha said she was expecting her only child, a daughter, Caplyn Nicely and family for lunch the next day at church. She said she prepared much of the food the day before for she didn't want to miss the church service. Bertha's husband, Bro. Floyd Long passed away in 1977 after a 38 year marriage and having passed different churches in this section for 84 years. A man gets a promotion for doing excellent work. I feel Bro. Floyd has just been promoted "upstairs" even though he was greatly missed here. Now Bertha is one of the five women in this community who not only helped build the home she now lives in but is building — one up there to be near Bro. Floyd by her work in the church.

I had heard much of Bro. Dillard Bowman's work for the Lord when we lived in the northern part of the state, and have wanted to hear him preach. So I walked across a wooden bridge to his and Mary Ida King Bowman's house which they had also built themselves. Of their 4 children, there were twin boys. All are grown and away from home now, but Mary Ida showed me pictures of her pretty daughters and handsome sons. She has just come through a siege of sickness but still retains a lot of spirit which is a good backup for her husband's work. The Bowman's have lived here mostly since 1949, after he tried the industrial cities up north for a year, but the hills called him back. He became an ordained minister in 1955. Some of the churches he has pastored have been Macedonia, Scaffold Cane, Roundstone, Clear Creek and he preaches at Macedonia now for the second time. We were able to attend the last night of the revival at Macedonia to hear him some. I tell you, Bro. Dillard, unlike the prophet in the Bible, is honored in his own country.

These hills did not hold Charlie Junior King any longer past the first 16 years of his life. He left for the northern city of Dayton, Ohio to find work and indeed stayed 31 years. He must have felt the call of the hills finally for 2 years ago he returned to settle in the King Hollow again. But this time he brought back a pretty Ohio girl, his wife Diane, to live the country life he was about to begin. They have no children so she sought work at Gibson Greeting Card Co. in Berea, was employed until recently when economy forced a lay-off and ruined her Christmas plans.

Eligah Abney and Julie King Abney have lived in this section for 28 years, rearing 2 children who are grown. Of all the King girls, Julie is the one who resembles her mother. Another daughter was when I retired due to disability. Being an industrious woman, Julie doesn't expect to starve this coming winter since they raised a large garden this summer.

Another daughter was when I learned that these self-constructed homes had running water in the houses and of course electricity is everywhere. A far cry from the hard work my mother, as well as hers, had to endure in keeping a home in the hills. I shudder over "wash days" when I had to help carry water for a large family.

Johnny and Rachel King must be industrious people. Johnny is a self-made man. Having married 26 years ago and settling on the old Lewis Rowlett place, sometimes called the Tanyard district, Johnny and Rachel have worked and seem to be ideal farmers. They built themselves a nice stone house on this spot 25 years ago. I looked around at hay, cattle, hogs and tobacco on this well-tended farm. We sat in the front of some one who told me of the work he and his wife did. She having gone to town, so I didn't talk to her. They have two grown sons, who join Johnny in playing music sometimes — one plays bass guitar, the other the steel guitar and Johnny plays a regular one and they join him in singing. All are self-taught. I was puzzled by an object in the field that looked like a race-horse starting gate. Johnny explained they were "pipe wagons" built of heavy metal put on wheels to haul tobacco to the barn. Each wagon holds 200 sticks of tobacco.

"Featuring People"

Time has not lost its serenity nor placed hours in King Howard for Morgan and Ida Abney. Age can give one that quiet time in life when you have nothing to do but reflect on life as it once was and that is what they do a lot now. They don't picture the future with all the conveniences of 13 children having been reared as well as numerous relatives' kids who came to play and I was among them, Morgan will be 92 next March and Ida is just 89 past. Some 73 years ago, Morgan told Ida some sweet tales about life and she believed him for they entered into a marriage that has lasted 73 years and produced 13 children, all raised to adulthood until the last years when three have died. They started life at Brush Creek, across the hills from here, then shortly moved to Clear Creek to be near his

Terms of Sale of Real Property: The property will be sold to the highest bidder on terms of ten percent (10%) of the purchase price in cash at the time of sale, the balance in ninety (90) days, with purchaser being required to execute bond with surety approved by the Commissioner, to secure the unpaid balance of the purchase price and bond in cash interest at the rate of eight (8%) per annum from date of sale until paid, and the bond shall have the force and effect of a judgment and shall be a lien on the said property until fully paid. Help Others With Tax Returns Through VITA

If you or your organization enjoy helping people and working with them to make a difficult task easier, VITA may be for you. VITA, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service, is looking for volunteers to help and organizations to sponsor sites where taxpayers will receive assistance with their tax returns.

VITA assists taxpayers who cannot afford professional tax help, particularly those who file short forms and qualify for the Earned Income Credit. VITA will also assist low income, elderly, handicapped and non-English speaking individuals.

To be a VITA volunteer you must be interested in learning how to prepare a simple tax return. Volunteers frequently include college students enrolled in business management and accounting programs, law students, and members of professional accounting organizations. Retirement, religious, military and civic groups, also participate in the program. All volunteers must successfully complete a special 3 to 5 day training course in basic income tax law and return preparation. VITA instructors and training materials are provided free by the IRS. Training is conducted at a location convenient to volunteers and instructors, generally starting in late December and continuing through January of each year.

As a volunteer, you are not considered a professional tax preparer, and will not be held legally responsible for the return. Rather, you simply assist the individual taxpayer to prepare the return.

Returns prepared with the assistance of a VITA volunteer are identified by the letters "VITA". This allows the IRS to count the number of returns prepared by VITA assistants.

For the convenience of taxpayers who cannot travel to an IRS office, and who cannot afford professional tax preparation assistance, most VITA volunteers provide assistance in local neighborhood schools, libraries and churches. Volunteers can give as much time as their schedule will allow.

During 1981 the IRS trained nearly 30,000 volunteers who assisted at over 8,000 sites nationwide.

If you would like to become a volunteer or if your organization would be interested in sponsoring a VITA program, contact the IRS VITA Coordinator at 582-6259 in Louisville, 255-2333 in Lexington, 628-0055 in Covington or toll-free, 1-800-428-9100 elsewhere in Kentucky.

Helping others is what VITA is all about.

Soil Tests and Fertilizer For Spring Crops
Kentucky farmers should now be making plans to take soil tests for fall fertilization. Soil samples taken now are going to give farmers a reading when the soil is under the greatest stress because of the bleeding effect that fall harvested crops have had on soil nutrients. Sampling now gives an advantage in that soil testing laboratories traditionally are not as busy at this time of the year as they are prior to spring planting.

Lime that is needed is easier to get applied in the fall and the lime has more time to dissolve and increase the pH before next year's crop comes on. When soil tests indicate a need for phosphate and potash, this is also a good time to apply because it usually costs less than if you wait until spring. There is a better chance that the weather will be good for spreading during the fall and P and K are not likely to be lost during the winter.

determine if lime and other nutrients are needed. If lime is recommended, put it on before disking tobacco stubble. This will cause a better reaction with the soil. Fertilizing now will also help reduce the risk of manganese toxicity in tobacco soils next year.

Food Preservation Clinic Storing Apples and Pears
If you are planning to store pears and apples in your root cellar, partition a little section off from the rest of the cellar. Fruits and vegetables should not be stored close together, because the flavors will mingle, slow down the respiration

To slow down the respiration ("breathing") process, wrap each apple or pear individually in newspaper. Put them carefully in wooden boxes, lugs, crates or shallow cardboard cartons. Be sure none of the fruit has bruises or scratches.

Plan to store only sound, hard, mature, late-variety apples such as Winesap, Stayman Winesap or Rome Beauty. These will keep from 4 to 6 months.

Freshly picked pears that are mature, but still green and hard, will keep from 2 to 7 months.

Be sure to check your fruits every few weeks and remove any that show signs of spoilage.

Potatoes That Turn Green
There have been lots of questions lately about Irish potatoes turning green. They'll do that if exposed to sunlight or too dark place. What happens is that chlorophyll A and B start forming in the cells, and this turns the skin green.

Sometimes a poisonous crystalline material called "solanine" forms in these green-skin areas of the potato. It gives the potato a bitter taste, and it can make you sick if you eat much of it. It's best to peel or cut off that part. If the rest of the potato still tastes bitter, throw it away.

Red skinned potatoes are more tolerant of light and don't green up the way white potatoes do. You don't have to worry about it happening to sweet potatoes.

Frosts Improve Brussels Sprouts
Frosts are good for the Brussels sprouts still growing in your garden. They can often go on into November safely. Before a hard freeze (temperatures in the mid to low 20's) pull up the whole plant. Leave soil on the roots and stand the plants up together in a cool cellar where they will not freeze hard. Pack moist soil or sawdust around the roots to keep plants fresh. Sprouts will stay crisp and tender and you can cut them off as you need them. Or you can go ahead and pick off the sprouts and freeze them. This saves washing and preparation time just before a meal.

outer leaves are frozen hard and are damaged, the rest of the head is probably okay.

Cabbage has a really strong odor, so don't store it where it can smell up the house.

Root-cellar storage is best.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Laura Calhoun would like to express their thanks to every one for their kindness during the illness and death of our loved one.

Words cannot express what we feel in our hearts for the beautiful flowers and food we received. And for all the lovely songs, and for the one who came to be with us and help us in our time of sorrow, especially Juanita Chasteen and Pat and Don who really helped us the last night at Rockcastle Co. Hospital. We will never forget them. Dr. Arvin and Dr. G.W. Griffith and the whole staff was really good to us, and our prayer will be with them always. We especially want to thank Christine Graves and Cox Funeral Home for their kindness and service to us. The family of Laura Calhoun
