For Car Insurance

COMPARE OUR RATES...AND COVERAGES

Not only are State Auto's rates attractively low, but you may qualify for additional discounts. Like low mileage discounts. Or discounts for insuring more than one car. Or for certain anti-theft devices and passive restraint systems. Changing deductibles can lower your rates, too. And, if you wish, you can pay your premium in convenient budget-size amounts rather than in one lump sum each year.
Check with us for State Auto rates and coverages for your car. You'll find we're friends you can depend on.

Ky Utilities announces winter-care energy fund

Kentucky Utilities Company announced today that the "Wintercare Energy Fund" is being established to assist those who qualify for assistance with their winter electric bills.

William E. Bechman, company president, said that KU's customers are encouraged to participate by voluntarily adding $1 or more to their electric bill payment. Or anyone may send a contribution of any amount to the agency which will administer the fund.

"Some of our customers are experiencing difficult times as the result of the recession and we are providing a way for anyone to participate in giving assistance to our neighbors," Bechman said.

"The Company has always been concerned about the economic conditions in KU's service area and we are planning to continue our economic development activities for more and better jobs for Kentuckians.

"The Community Action agency in Lexington will be the coordinating office," Bechman said, "but it will be distributing funds throughout the Company's service area based upon the number of customers served in each county."

Electric bills will be designed so customers can indicate their desire to make the $1 or more contribution, Bechman explained. The customers should add that amount to their electric bill payments.

KU's president said that all funds collected each month will be forwarded to the Community Action office in Lexington for distribution in cooperation with other Community Action agencies throughout the Company's service area. The agencies will follow established poverty guidelines to determine who will receive the assistance, regardless of who provides the electric service.

"The funds will be audited and contributors can be assured that every dollar will be used to help those persons who truly need assistance in paying their electric bills," Bechman said. "Both KU and Community Action will provide their own administrative costs and none of the funds contributed to the KU Wintercare Energy Fund program will be used for this purpose."

"Anyone who would rather send his dollars direct may make contributions payable to the Wintercare Energy Fund and send them to Community Action, P.O. Box 11610, Lexington, Kentucky 40576.

"Even though these funds help only on electric bills, their availability will make other assistance dollars go even further," Bechman concluded.

School begins August 17; Board awards addition bid

By Rick Anderkin

Rockcastle County teachers will report for work on Wednesday, August 17th and students will enroll at their respective schools on Thursday, August 18th, according to Rockcastle County Schools Superintendent Charles B. Parsons.

Parsons passed out school calendars to all board members at the regular monthly meeting Tuesday night. The calendar showed that children will go on Thursday to register, but that they will stay home on Friday, August 19th. Teachers will have to attend in-service on that day.

Bids were opened for the classroom addition at Livingston School and J.C. Newland and Son of Brodhead had the low bid of $149,750.00. Although Newland, who was present at the meeting finally received the bid, Superintendent Parsons told him that he felt like his bid was still high and wanted Newland to work with the county's architect Donald Sheldy in an effort to lower the bid. Shelton, who was also at the meeting said that he felt like that changing the type of windows used in the addition and using less hardware than had been expected at first, they could get the cost of the project down to $145,000.00. Newland told the board that was fine with him because it was not any money out of his pocket either way. The project will begin at Livingston in the near future.

Four local businesses submitted bids to the board for gas, oil and grease lubricants which the school system uses throughout the school year.

37 people donated blood on July 19 at the Bank of Mt. Vernon and, with one community drive left this year, Rockcastle County is 83 pints under its goal.

The county goal of 165 pints per year has not changed since 1979, while blood transfusions have increased dramatically during that time.

The bids which were received from J&L, Inc., DeBorde Oil Company, Mt. Vernon Automotive and M.L. Becker Oil Co. varied in the prices that they charged for the different products. School Board Chairman Rudolph Burdette suggested that the board follow their old policy and accept the low bid on each of the products and not buy all the products from one company. The motion passed unanimously.

The board opened two bids for coal, the first was from Ikerd-Bandy Coal Co. at a price of $40 a ton at the tipple at Ferguson in Pulaski County, and a price of $47.00 a ton, delivered. The other bid was from R.S. Coal Company at $42.00 a ton at the tipple at Snider in Rockcastle County. The board decided to wait until they could advertise for coal haul bids before they accepted either bid. "I think we should advertise for coal haul bids and if they can't haul it for less than $7.00 a ton then we should buy the coal from Ikerd-Bandy and have it delivered," said board member George Poynter.

Several other bids were opened for needed supplies for the coming year and in each case the board accepted the low bid.

With the August meeting being the last one before school starts the board hired substitute teachers, cook, lunchroom managers, bus drivers, contract haulers, substitute drivers, school secretaries, school nurses and nurses aides.

Those hired as substitute teachers were Randall Adams, Elnora Burke, Martha Eversole, Coia Grace Wilson, Sue Cromer, Dennis Lawrence, Barbara Rader, Polly Abney, Darla Reams, Sharon Caudill, Charlotte Philbeck, Donna Johnson, Mary Heise, Darrell Sparks, George Isaacs, John Nugent, Deborah Cash, Ricardo Barnett, Jennifer Deborde, Lisa Raines, Linda Whitehead, Carrie Hedrick, Deborah Stevens, Darlene Cameron, Deborah Philbeck, Donna Roberts, Kay Payne, Dusty Carlotta, Jerry Pensol, Charlene Appleman, Brenda Powell, Jimmy McKipney and Kizzie Owens.

Fiscal Court meeting riddled with controversy over items

By Rick Anderkin

Controversy over a county grader, the buying of culverts and paying the county's bills for last month, were the main issues discussed during Tuesday's regular monthly meeting of the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court.

After rejecting two bids for the purchase of culverts at last month's meeting the board re-advised and received only one bid this month.

Mt. Vernon Produce was the only bid received this time. Last month, All Metals Company from Indianapolis, Indiana submitted a bid but their price, which was much lower than Mt. Vernon Produce was for culverts at the factory and not delivered. All metals did not submit another bid this month.

First District Magistrate Donald Rowe, who voted against the purchase of the culverts, brought up the question in open meeting, concerning a possible conflict of interest for County Judge/Executive Bob Jasper, who's son Wayne, is the owner of Mt. Vernon Produce. "You all remember when Mr. Howell was here from the state several months ago and told us that we could not deal with our kin folks at all," Rowe said. However, County attorney James H. Lambert said he did not see any problem in buying the culverts from a company that the Judge used to own. He said that the price that Mt. Vernon Produce was getting was in line with the price that should be paid for culverts.

"The people in my District are pretty upset; they come to me and complain all the time about the judge is drawing a big salary; he brings his grandson in and he draws (Cont'd to P-11)

Local families entertain five international visitors for four weeks

By Leigh Anne Hiatt

To see the five international visitors in Druthers you'd never know that only a few days ago they had traveled eight hours by plane and 20 hours by bus to Kentucky from their native Luxembourg.

In fact, you'd never know they weren't Americans until you got close enough to hear them speak rapidly in a foreign language. And even then you probably wouldn't recognize it. Luxembourgish, the primary language spoken in Luxembourg, one of Europe's oldest countries.

The five exchanges arrived in Rockcastle County on July 20 to spend four weeks with local families. There were seven visitors in all with one staying in Laurel County and another in Bell County. The visit was arranged through the International Four-H Youth Exchange (IFYE) by the Rockcastle County 4-H Extension office.

Martha Brown, the county 4-H Extension agent, explained how the exchange came about. "The Town and Country Homemakers Club had asked about it a year ago and at that time it was too late to get in on that year." But she pursued the project along with several interested people in the county and learned only about a month before the arrival date that the exchanges were finally coming.

"They're supposed to be taken in and treated as a member of the family," said Mrs. Brown, of the visitors. "They want to learn how family life is." The National 4-H Council has declared that the purpose of the program is to increase international awareness. Exchanges are sent here to learn about our culture and share it with people at home.

That purpose is being fulfilled by the county hosts who are doing their best to give the exchanges a taste of American life, Kentucky style. The visitors have found that there are differences and similarities between the United States and Luxembourg. Luxembourg is a small country about the size of Rhode Island and is nestled in the middle of Germany, Belgium and France. Luxembourg has been independent since 1839 and their government is a constitutional monarchy. The Roman Catholic Church is the predominant religion. The country is noted for its scenery, yet at the same time, it is also known for its industrialization. The main industry is steel.

The location of Luxembourg may account for the fact that, besides speaking Luxembourgish, their own language, the people in Luxembourg are required to take German in school for 12 years, French for 11 years and English for four years.

Although the exchanges were in Rockcastle County only a week before they met to be interviewed at Druthers, they had already formed opinions about life in the United States.

Diane Siebenaler is 19 years old and has never been involved in an exchange program until now. She made the trip to America to see how people live in this country. She spoke English in a soft voice and when asked if she was homesick, she answered, "No, I don't think so."

Diane is a guest of Jerri Lynn and Keith Smith. Mrs. Smith said, "We've been to Henrico Valley and the Horse Park; we've tried to do some different things." Would she accept an exchange again? "I might," she said and then added, "If they're as nice as Diane."

Rockcastle County man found dead at Climax

A Rockcastle County man was found dead Sunday afternoon around 1:30 at his home on Ky 1912 in the Climax Section of Rockcastle County, according to Rockcastle County deputy Coroner Roy Martin.

Troy Lee "Dick" Jones, 33, a farmer, was found in the doorway of his home, by his brother Jimmy Jones, who had gone to visit him, according to Martin.

Martin said that a preliminary autopsy report revealed that Jones died between 9 and 10 p.m. Saturday night from a single 12 gauge gunshot wound to the chest. The coroner said that the gun was found on a bed in the Jones home.

Authorities are still investigating the shooting, but police at the Kentucky State Police Post in London, said the death was an apparent suicide. However, the deputy coroner said Tuesday that he had made no ruling in the case and that no ruling would be made until a complete autopsy report had been received by his office.

Mr. Jones was born in Rockcastle County on October 11, 1949, the son of the late Larry and Stella (Cont'd to P-11)

Dear Editor:

I'm writing to you for two reasons. One is to thank you for the fine article you wrote about the cave rescue last April. The other is to ask your help.

I'm one of the cavers who was trapped in Precinct #11 cave when it flooded. I also happen to be the Chairman of the Greater Cincinnati Grotto, the group most of the trapped cavers belong to. As you certainly know, that whole incident was given an awful lot of national attention, a lot more than it deserved. But because of this, I received copes of newspaper articles from all over the country. Naturally, the cities around here had more extensive coverage than those farther away.

Richard Mullins gave me a couple copies of your April 28th issue of the SIGNAL. Jack Hissong and I also bought several copies when we were back in Mount Vernon the following weekend. By far, your article about the rescue was more complete and accurate and, more importantly to us, more fair than those of the papers in surrounding Erge cities, including our home town, Cincinnati.

Our biggest concern from the whole affair was how the people living around Mount Vernon would feel about us causing such a fuss. Thanks to your fine article, they were at least told the accurate story of what happened. They could then make up their own minds based on the facts. We all thank you very much for your responsible reporting.

We've made a lot of friends around Mount Vernon in the 15 or so years we've been studying the caves in the area. Per- mitted to so many of the folks living in town know us, but those out East of town, around our caving area, do they've treated us almost like family. And we've always tried to do the same with them. They're fine people and they've helped us a lot in our studies of the caves in and around their land. We sure don't want to do anything to change the good feelings between us.

That brings me to my second reason for writing. You're probably aware of some of the bad articles written in the Lexington and Cincinnati papers, specifically about the supposed "bill" the Rockcastle Rescue Squad was supposed to have sent us. Those reports were just plain wrong! No Bill was sent to us by anyone. We told all the papers that, too.

Needless to say, the whole story upset Mr. Paul Hansel and the Squaer very much. It upset us, too. I told Paul that right after I read about it. And, it apparently upset the folks in Mount Vernon. We've heard from some of them. They were also rightly upset about the expenses the Squad has during the rescue. Their squad's money was being spent on people who didn't live there.

Dear Editor,

I just wanted to write to tell you that I enjoy reading the Signal very much.

I am a descendant of O.M. Payne and my father was Stanley Payne. I lived in Mt. Vernon at one time when I was very young and went to kindergarten there. I later went to school at Mt. Vernon High for three years and was boarding at Langdon Girls Dormitory. I have a lot of happy memories of Langdon and friends I knew there.

I have lived in California since 1941, but return to Ky. for visits now and then.

My aunt, Hilda Gabbard, writes a column for your paper and I enjoy the way she writes and think it helps to keep a lot of people in touch with each other and gives us all some pleasant memories of home by.

Thank you very much for your paper and all the work that goes into putting it together.

Sincerely,
Jane Payne Donandville

Dear Editor:

I am writing in regard to last week's letter to the editor, concerning the softball league at the Mt. Vernon Playgrounds. Brave Carol for writing about the problems that we, the participants of the softball league, must face each summer.

As Rockcastle County offers very little community activities, summer softball activities is about the only entertainment many of us have to participate in. I also feel that the Women's Softball League would have more attention given to it than what has been given in the past. We work hard for the $175.00 collected for the entrance fee just as the men do. So I'm with you Carol, for making Women's Softball people they didn't know. Though I guess we all have to help strangers sometime, it's a fair question to ask if they really belong there.

"LETTER"

Well, we in GCG agree that money shouldn't be taken lightly. The Squad, and an awful lot of folks who live near the cave, spent a lot of their time and sweat helping get us out of that cave. We thank them from the bottom of our hearts. The very least we can do is help them recover some of their expenses. We feel it's an obligation we owe them not just because it's money, but because they're our friends.

Enclosed you'll find a copy of our letter, just sent to Paul, Hansel and the Squad, with a donation to help cover their expenses. On the day we were rescued, we'd told Paul we'd try to do what we could to help with the cost. It was completely voluntary on our part. He didn't ask us to.

We'd appreciate it a lot if you could somehow, quietly, let folks know we really do care about how they feel about us... And that we really care about them and the town of Mount Vernon. We wouldn't do anything to upset any of them, certainly not on purpose. We're sorry if our rescue caused any problems. We enjoy studying the caves around Mount Vernon, not just for fun, but for the interesting things we learn. The caves teach us a lot about the Geology and Hydrology of the area. The cave lifetimes are quite varied and interesting too. We hope the things we learn will be of use, not only to the scientists among us, but also to the people who live there. We've been shown most of the caves by people living there. Many have asked us to check them out for them. We're more than glad to do that. Also, if anyone is having a problem with a cave, we'll be glad to help, if we can. Any success we're going to have in exploring the caves depends on being on good terms with the owners. So, I'm sure you can see why we need your help in letting folks know we don't want to be in the way. If you can help, I'll be eternally grateful. Thank you for anything you can do.

Sincerely,
Greater Cincinnati Grotto

Nancy Sigmon Elected to Membership in AEA

Nancy Sigmon of Mt. Vernon, has been elected to membership in the American Angus Association, reports Dick Spader, executive vice-president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The American Angus Association, with some 38,000 active life and junior members, is the largest beef cattle registry association in the world. Its computerized records include detailed information on nearly 10 million registered Angus.

The Association records ancestral information and keep records of production on individual animals for its members. These permitted records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U.S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for U.S. consumption

In other business, head coaches Mike Appleman and Preston Parrett were at the meeting to request that the board make a set policy for all the grade schools to go by in setting up their basketball programs. Parrett and Appleman, who were both hired as county-wide athletic directors, asked that each grade school have a 5th and 6th grade girls team, a 5th and 6th grade boys team, a 7th and 8th grade girls team and a 7th and 8th grade boys team. Appleman said that Mt. Vernon and Brodhead both had so many students that they would have an intramural league at the school's gym each Saturday, besides the regular teams—Appleman and Parrett both agreed that this would be the best solution. The board asked that Appleman and Parrett talk to each principal and try to get them in agreement with this program. However, the board did vote to pass the coaches request that school field the teams.
If there is school then there has to be lunch, so the school board approved their 1983 Lunch Policy statement at the meeting. Elementary lunches will cost 75 cents and 35 cents for reduced lunches. Lunch will cost 80 cents at the high school and 40 cents for reduced. Extra milk will cost 20 cents. The adults eating in the lunchrooms will pay $1.05. Mr. Parsons told the board that this was a five cents increase from last year but that the cooks all got a 3% raise and that cost had to be offset somewhere.

This year, the free lunch program will have a newly added decision. Everyone out of thirty-three applicants will have to have their income verified by the lunch program, which will require home visit by foods director, E.J. Smith.

Only one change was made in the five secretaries that will be employed by the board. Blanche Baldwin, who was secretary, Brodhead, resigned and the board voted to replace her with Carol Jean Riddle. Mrs. Riddle was the new in line to get a job of the employees that had been laid off in previous years. Secretaries will make $550.00 per month and will work 9 1/2 months a year. The other secretaries are Vonie Mink at Livingston, Jerri Nunnelley at Mt. Vernon, Renee Burdette at Roundstone and Barbara Fain at RCHS.

In order to start school off smoothly, the board gave Mr. Parsons authority to make any changes necessary to begin school on August 17th.

NOTICE AS TO PASSAGE AND SUMMARY OF ORDINANCE

Notice is hereby given that the Fiscal Court of Rockcastle County, Kentucky, at a meeting held at 10 a.m., local time, on July 29, 1983, at the regular meeting place of the Fiscal Court at the Courthouse in Mt. Vernon, Kentucky, gave second reading to and passed and enacted (following first reading at an earlier date) the Ordinance relating to the approval by the County of the execution of an (Inter-local) Cooperation Agreement between said County and approximately 22 other Counties (the number of which Counties may be supplemented or reduced), providing for the joint issuance by said Counties of Bonds entitled "Combined Counties of Kentucky Residential Mortgage Revenue Bonds", in 1983; agreeing that the County of Clark shall serve as the "Authorizing County" as to all of the Counties constituting the "Combined Counties of Kentucky", in the issuance of said Bonds; and authorizing and approving the plan of financing whereby Clark County will pursuant to said Inter-local Cooperation Agreement, advertise for sale, accept the successful bid, issue, sell and deliver such Bonds, provided the interest rate, price, and certain other provisions comply with the parameters specified in said Inter-local Cooperation Agreement.

Said Ordinance specifically approves the proposed Cooperation Agreement among all of the Counties, appropriate establishment of a Single Family Mortgage Purchase Program, ordained in said Ordinance, and declares that such Program is reasonably necessary to carry out a proper governmental function, viz., the facilitation of the construction and purchase of new housing and the purchase of existing housing, through the issuance of the proposed revenue bonds to finance residential mortgage loans. A copy of the Cooperation Agreement is attached to said Ordinance.

The full text of the Ordinance (and the aforementioned Cooperation Agreement, together with certain related exhibits) is and will be on file and open to public inspection in the office of the undersigned Clerk in said County Courthouse, where same is and will be available for public inspection.

castle River Community Land Trust. The purpose of the group is to make land available to local residents for community needs. The most immediate need, that the group will focus upon, is local housing. Already secured for this purpose is a 150 acre tract of land located on County Road 29 near the Rockcastle River.

According to Don Martin, organizer of the group, the concept of a community land trust was developed to assure that land be protected and used in ways that meet the needs of those closest to the land.

One way the group plans on providing low-income housing is by eliminating the land costs associated with building.

Several units will be built using materials off the land. Occupants would make their own payments and would eventually become owners of the homes. The Trust would retain ownership of the land and thus ensure that the land always remain for local uses.

Other founders of the group include Ray and Molly Scoggin, Mary Evelyn Leach, Lee Faulkner and Todd Mink from Livingston and Dorothy Williams from Mt. Vernon.

Race track to re-open

Rockcastle County Raceway, formerly known as Rockcastle County Speedway, will reopen Friday night, August 12. The new managers, Jim and Sandy Adams of London, plan to run three classes: street stock, sportsman and dune buggies.

who understood it. As does the rest of the exchanges, Vic Goebert speaks four languages, including English. He is also fluent in Dutch and Don Stewart-Shackelford. The 18-year-old is the first member of his immediate family to travel abroad and he did it partly because his aunt was an exchange student 20 years ago.

What does he think about Kentucky? "Nice," he said and laughed. Vic is from a farming village and his plans are to start a five-year engineering program at the university when he gets home in the fall. He would like to do an exchange program again. He mentioned what he found different about Kentucky. "In Luxembourg you have houses only in the village and here you can find houses everywhere in the country."

Edith and Harold Ballinger are the hosts of Frank Christophory who is 20 and comes from a 120 acre farm. His brother came to American recently and that encouraged Frank to make his first trip. He also had another reason for coming. "The first thing I think of was to travel to America to see the states."

He said, "This area is like the north of our country, but the farm, I'm astonished, are small in the states." He added "I farms in Luxembourg average 200 acres. Another point of interest for him is the size of our cars. "A lot of large cars here," he said. "Our cars over there are very small."

Frank lives at home and has had a job as a mechanic. He would like to return to the United States someday and visit California.

Georgia Bourg is the guest of Betty Jo and Danny McKinney and she seemed to be the talkative one of the group. Her reason for making the trip was based on curiosity. "I wanted to learn the way Americans live because I was told about it in school and I wanted to see if it was true," said the 19-year-old.

Her parents, a brother and a sister have also been to the United States. She explained, "My father works in an iron factory and my mother is a housewife, but they like to travel all over the world."

Georgia aspires to learn another language when she returns home, maybe Dutch or Spanish. "It's very good to know a lot of languages when you go on holiday," she said. In September she will be going to school to earn a two-year degree to be an educator and then hopes to get a job taking care of young children.

The group leader of the exchanges is 20-year-old Annick Gillen and she is visiting with Cheryl and John Witt. It was her responsibility to see that the group arrived in America safely. Although she has never been in this country before, she has traveled to France, Italy, Austria, Switzerland and Spain with her friends.

Annick has had the experience of being on the other end of an exchange. Her family has entertained exchanges in their home from South Dakota, Iowa and New Hampshire. She has found our language to be a little different than what she learned in school. "In school we learn English and here you speak American-English and that's the difference."

Mrs. Witt said Annick is like another member of their family and that having an exchange is a "real learning experience." The McKinney family has also benefited from opening their home to Georgia. "I thought the children and ourselves would learn a lot," said Mrs. McKinney. "I also think it's a way to promote world peace."

The Luxembourg visitors have been busy while in this area. Besides each person's activities with their host family, the group also spent some time at the J.M. Fletner 4-H Camp in Laurel County where they got to meet other American teenagers. They are planning to visit the Broadhead Little World's Fair and possibly the state fair.

The exchanges will be leaving Rockcastle County on August 30 for two weeks of free time. They want to see Cape Kennedy and Disney World in Florida, and then they will stop in Washington, D.C., for awhile before catching their plane home in New York.

Meanwhile, the international visitors are experiencing that good old southern hospitality. They've even been served their first cornbread.

Danny McKinney said, "Georgia went with me to a fish fry and about 450 Rockcastle Countians were there. Everyone began to talk to her and ask questions. It makes you quite proud of your community when they get out of their way to meet them."

Perhaps Frank Christophory summed up the feelings of the exchanges when he commented on the impression he got of Rockcastle County. "I think people here like strangers coming from abroad."

a salary from the county money and now we are buying culverts from the Jude's son," Rowe said. He went on to say that if he were County Judge that he would not buy culverts from his son.

Judge Jasper told the court he had not been involved in Mt. Vernon Produce for seven years and that he did not care where the court decided to buy the culverts. He said that all he wanted was to get the culverts as cheap as possible if you think you can get the culverts cheaper somewhere else then go ahead and get new bids, it doesn't matter to me," Jasper said.

Fifty District Magistrate Joe Clark said in open meeting that he did not care where the county bought the culverts just as long as they could save money. "I wouldn't care if we bought them from Russia if we could get them cheaper," Clark said.

Although quite a bit of discussion surrounded the purchase of the culverts the court voted four to one to purchase them from Mt. Vernon Produce. The court will be paying the following price for the culverts, all culverts are in twenty foot sections: 12 inch culverts, $83.00; 15 inch $95.00; 18 inch $119; 24 inch $151; 36 inch $252 and 48 inch $319.

The county's head mechanic Doug Bishop and road supervisor Paul Hansel were both present at the meeting to discuss with the court the route they should take in repairing one of the county graders that had been torn up for about two months. Bishop suggested two alternatives: the first was that the county have the old motor in the grader rebuilt for a cost of about $2,800 with no guarantee on the rebuilt motor and the second to buy a new block which would be on level on the ground. Wren said,

"When the motion to pay the bills came to a vote, Magistrate Denny and Albright voted no and the other three voted yes. A few money transfers were made in the county's checking accounts and the lengthy two and a half hour controversial meeting adjourned.

One note of clarity, Magistrate Alex Albright of the third District asked that it be printed that he voted against the Garbage Contract that was made between the county and Clarence Hasty, Harlan Farthing and Ronnie Bradley during a called meeting of the Fiscal Court last month.

However, Magistrate Bill Wren said that the garbage haulers had encountered several problems while trying to collect the garbage during July. He said that they had two dumpsters burnt. "Those dumpsters cost $4,000 each and I know one of them was almost completely destroyed, because it was warp and would not level on the ground," Wren said.

He said that he did not feel that they had lived up to their part of the contract and that they should not be paid the whole amount in the contract.

The Cross of Christ

I Cor. 1:17-24 is one of the most informative paragraphs relating to the benefits of the cross of Christ. In these verses Paul shows several effects of "Preaching of the Cross."

The cross of Christ can be made of none effect (v. 17). This may be because the people who hear it consider it foolishness and it becomes a stumbling block (vs. 18, 23). Or this may be because of the way it is preached—after the wisdom of words (v. 17).

The cross of Christ and salvation from sins are inseparable (vs. 18, 21). You cannot have one without the other. Jesus died on the cross for our sins. He was our Lamb or sacrifice on the cross (I Cor. 15:3; John 1:29).

The gospel is the message of the cross and man has freedom from his sins when he obeys a form of this death, burial and resurrection (Rom. 6:3-4).

The cross of Christ and the proper separation of the covenant are inseparable. The cross is the exact spot where the old covenant ended (Col. 2:14; Heb. 9:16-17). From that point onward, we must look to the New Testament law for justification (Heb. 1:1-2).

Redemption is fixed to the cross of Christ (Eph. 1:7). It was His blood which we reach His blood in baptism which is a form of that death (Rom. 1:1-14). Thus, when we obey the gospel "we come to the cross." Acts 22:16 further shows that the cleansing from sin, which is by the blood of Jesus, is to be had when the gospel is obeyed.

The church centers around the cross, too. The blood, which Jesus shed to save man is said to have "purchased the church (Acts 20:28). The head of the church is the One who died there (Eph. 1:22-23). Thus, it is said that Christ is the Savior of the church, the body (Eph. 5:23).

The Lord's supper, which is an integral part of the worship of the New Testament, is inseparable from the cross of Christ (I Cor. 11:23-29; Acts. 20:7). Without the idea of the cross, the Lord's supper is an empty form without meaning.

We conclude that Christianity centers around the cross. All depends upon it (I Cor. 2:2)

Rockcastle Co. Saddle Club News

By Sue Thompson

Thirty-eight riders met under I-75 near Ft. Sequeoy Sunday for a fifty-mile ride sponsored by Jay, Sherman and Sue Thompson. After a leisurely ride of about ten miles riders stopped for a break where they were met by Jimmy, Chris, Sherman and Sue Thompson, Tammy, Bobby, Cody and Tara Cox, and were just missed by Darrell Owens and Mary Heiss, who had to make a fast exit because Mary was stung by a hornet. After munching on hot dogs, baked beans, potato salad, cookies and plenty of soft drinks, the riders completed the last five miles of the ride.

Next week's ride will begin at the home of Everett Adams in Lincoln County.

The horse-showing members of our club have had a busy week, first in Danville on Wednesday and Friday night, then in Richmond and Somerset and again in Danville on Saturday night.

At the Danville-Boyle Co. Fair and Horse Show, Winston's Sundancer and Sue Thompson won the blue in the Plantation Pleasure No. 1 and 2 classes. In the Open Plantation Pleasure class Winston's Sundancer came back to win another time, this time with Jay Thompson in the irons.

Timothy Loyd Cameron celebrated his 18th birthday, July 21, 1983 with many friends present. Timothy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mosey Cameron and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mullins and Mrs. Ruth Mullins and the late Mr. Preston Cameron. Those attending the Hobo Supper given in honor of Timothy were, Mr. and Mrs. Mosey Cameron and Rebecca, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Powell and Ralph Andrew, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Mullins and Emily, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Philbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hoggard and Jerusha, Mr. and Mrs. Poncho Hoggard, Jennifer and Chrystal Ann, Mr. Elkins Johnson, Mr. Ed Powell, Timothy's aunt, Lyla Powell, baked his cake.

Gerald Holt Miracle was recently promoted to Senior Engineer by the IBM Corporation in Poughkeepsie, New York. Since joining IBM in January, 1982, Gerald has held the positions of Junior Engineer, Associate Engineer, Senior Associate Engineer, Staff Engineer and Advisory Engineer. He started his career in the product testing lab during the advent of the S/360 family of computers. He later transferred into the engineering lab, and participated in the design of various computers in the S/370 series. Gerald is a 1968 graduate of Brodhead High School and a December, 1964, graduate of the University of Kentucky with a BSCE degree. His parents are Mrs. Nevaul Miracle and the late Mr. Otto Miracle of Route 3, Wrensboro. Gerald is married, has two sons, and currently resides in Pleasant Valley, New York.

On Friday night, Delight's Sewanee, owned and shown by Cecil King, tied second in the 15.2 and Under class. Then Mr. Roan's Chance, also owned and shown by Cecil, tied fourth in the Open Amateur Class.

Rockcastle County Saddle Club members scattered far and wide on Saturday night, showing their horses at three different shows.

Cecil brought his horses back to Danville where he and Delight's Sewanee won third place in the 15.2 and Under Championship. In the Amateur Open and Championship he rode Mr. Roan's Chance to a big fourth place win.

On to Somerset, where Mr. Bojangles, owned by Gary Smith and ridden by Ronald Nicely, won the Trail Pleasure class, with James Reppert and Becky tying third.

ure class and The Untouchable, owned and shown by James Reppert, tied fourth in the Show Pleasure class.

At the Madison Co. Fair and Horse Show in Richmond, it was Jay Thompson and Winston's Sundancer ridding off with the blue in the Plantation Pleasure class.

It's been an exciting week-congratulations to our members and their fine horses.

Some of our readers who have Plantation Pleasure horses will be interested to know there's an added Open Plantation Pleasure class at the Brodhead Fair this year. It's class 5A, and it's on Thursday, August 4, so let's all bring our horses and have a good class so they'll keep it in their show permanently.

Best wishes to Margie Elliott and her new husband, Roger Baker. They were married July 13 and we all hope they have many happy years together. That's all the news for now-see you next week

Missionary Meeting

Literally, the Brodhead Christian Church group went up to Bowling Ridge to Marge Shive's home for the Ladies Aid Missionary Meeting. The ladies were glad to have Lou Payne and Ella Mae Martin back with them after several months of absence.

Emily Glovak reported that the Sowder Nursing Home's personnel preferred the quilted wall hangers for the patients' rooms bulletin boards rather than the covered boards that we planned to make.

After Kaye Carr gave a report on the family retreat last weekend at the Camp Hill, she read, "The Space Program and the Bible" taken from The Evening World, a newspaper in Spencer, Indiana. The highlights of this item were when the computer's measurements, back and forth, over the cen-

tures, came to a halt, denoting a mistake they found there was a day missing in space in elapsed time. A religious astronaut said "In the Bible, Joshua asked the Lord to make the sun stand still" so "The sun stood still and the moon stayed and did not go down about a whole day." Joshua 10:6-14 in 11 Kings, the prophet Isaiah asked the Lord to let the shadow be brought ten degrees backwards. Ten degrees is exactly 40 minutes. So twenty-three hours and 20 minutes in Joshua, plus 40 minutes in 11 Kings make the missing day. The space travelers had to log in the logbook a missing day in the universe.

After Kaye read the poem, "Following in His Steps", the ladies joined hands for sentence prayers. To end a rewarding spiritual experience, the Christians sat around Marjorie Shive's table and partook of a delicious salad and drinks before adjournment.

Emily Glovak will be the hostess in August with Lou Payne leading our devotion.

Local students selected for national honor society

Dr. Charles Hedrick has announced that six students from First Baptist Church have been accepted for membership in The Society of Distinguished American High School Students. Founded in 1968, The Society has honored some of the most outstanding high school students in the nation.

To qualify for Society membership, a nominee must excel in academics, extracurricular, or civic activities and be nominated by a local sponsor. Once accepted for this select honor, members become eligible to compete for college scholarships through The Society's National Awards Program. This year 118 colleges and universities have earmarked scholarship funds for Society members. Students from First Baptist Church awarded membership were: Bobby Bailey, Melissa Bryant, Betty Baker, Jeff Harmon, Desiree Thompson and Mike Bryant, Jr.

The Society has also presented a National Appreciation Award to Dr. Hedrick and First Baptist Church, the students' sponsor. This award was made "in acknowledgement of untiring efforts and steadfast dedication on behalf of the students from First Baptist Church."

To preserve the honor, these members' names and their biographical accomplishments will be listed in the Society's 1983 Membership Registry.

She lived many years ago with several children at the foot of Holt Hill where David Branch gets its start. There was a large, thickly wooded hollow behind her house, going back to the hills.

One dark night Aunt Ollie heard the sound of a woman's scream coming from the hollow just behind the barn. Again the scream tore through the night. She became mindful of the young calf born the day, which lay in a lot behind the barn.

"I can't put up with that noise all night and what might happen to my young calf," she was supposed to have said and buckled on a pistol. Shooting she could do alright.

Carrying a lighted lantern, Aunt Ollie stepped through the back door and left the house. There was an occasional scream which seemed to retreat. People feared these animals for they were dangerous.

Aunt Ollie sent two rapid shots into the thick trees and moved slowly on, flashing the light in order to catch the shine from the animal's eyes. The screams faded away were said to be like a woman's, ceased altogether. After that, nobody but nobody ever crossed Aunt Ollie.

Lorene Hurley has returned home from the Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington and is recovering from the operation she had while there. Raymond and family, as well as the rest of the community, hopes she gets better fast. Raymond had to have help with the housework while Lorene was recovering. Called on daughters, Judy and Sharon.

Alta Berry had a nice treat when Zola and Rich Berry came down Clear Creek and took Alta to Eubank one morning to have breakfast with folks Warren and Linda Berry who live there.

Dora Sue Campbell of Corbin, a granddaughter of Alta, is visiting her for a week. Nothing like going to Grandma's. In fact, I enjoyed visiting Alta myself after she gave me a bag of June apples which I made into fruit pies.

Mary Payne and daughter Peggy Rawlett of Berea were on Clear Creek one day visiting kinfolk. They also made a visit up King Hollow to visit folks they ever put down the hot weather, I'll bet they thought it might be a good time to check on Junior King's underground home which will be cool in summer.

Bluff's location of Climax doesn't hot rod it through Disputanta on Friday nights now since our new speed signs are up. I mentioned to Bill Stephens about seeing Bluffrod going by, he's coming up to join Clyde Linville and me to run our fox hounds. Bill said that went out with horse and buggy days but Bill says no, a group runs their fox hounds on Friday night for the sport of it and to hear the long baying sounds of the dogs in chase.

The hollows draining into Clear Creek have names gotten from some incident or the people who settled in them. Turkey Pen Hollow was so named because of so many wild turkeys that stayed in there. The Beaver Pond Hollow - attracted hunters long ago because the beavers were thick in there. It was near the Old Uncle Rube Abney house and gristmill. The Charlie Gadd Hollow because the family settled there. Then there is a Cummins Hollow.

Old timer Bill Shearer would have been happy to know that his daughters gathered together in family memory and told jokes on themselves about how they had played pranks on him as young girls at home. Especially Mary who he laughed at when she and her husband Chester Thomas had overthrown him in eeping down a ladder to get Ellen Himes of Davis Branch Road has had a new lumber smokehouse built. Now that's smart girl who knows its time new to get ready for the new harvest that comes soon. I imagine it will have strong rafters to hold sacks of onions, strings of red peppers, bunches of dried bone set plants for tea to cure folks (the worst tasting stuff you ever put down your throat) and also room for country hams and side meat. Leave a place, Ellen, for stone jars of kraut and pickled corn. (Then I'll know where to go when winter comes.)

The 100 degrees heat wave hitting us makes me think of the warm July night when the moon was bright, in the past. Rosa Fimmel, Jane Dondanville and sister, and I slipped down to the creek below our house to take a swim in water so warm you could hardly believe what made it fun was that this was forbidden by our parents. So we giggled and splashed without getting our clothes wet for the bikinis were unknown then.

"I can hardly wait to see these tall hills change their color in the fall," says Connie Esh, a recent graduate of E.K.U. at Richmond, who has moved into Disputanta on the Payne's heirs farm. With her are her son Mark, daughters, Kim and Bonnie and husband, Chris Still. They like this land very near parents, John and Raymond and two daughters have returned to live in Disputanta, also on the Payne farm. This puts her near parents, John and Mary Harding which is a handy place to be at "apple pie time."

Cleveland and I have just received word that our surviving brother, Blufford Payne, of Royal Oak, Michigan has undergone a very serious operation.
