

Girls win and lose in last two outings

The Lady Rockets won one and lost one in their last two outings, defeating Williamsburg 50-42 last Thursday night and losing to Estill Co. 48-43 Monday night. The girls are now 4-5 on the season.

In the Williamsburg game, the girls led at all three quarter stops and were 14-1 in scoring by senior forward Betty Milburn who got 22-14 of them in the second half. Sophomore center Sandy Hunter got 10. Paige Andriaga, 9, and Cindy Fair, 2.

Monday night the girls were flat and it showed as they were beaten on the boards badly in their 48-43 loss to the Lady Engineers of Estill Co.

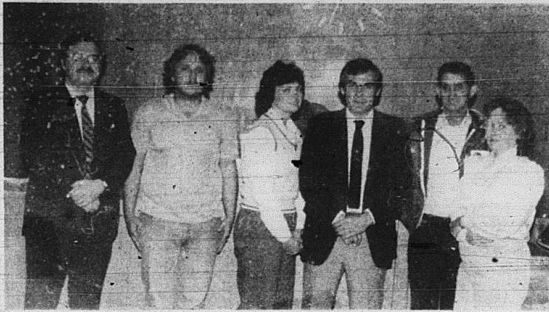

The girls were down at all the quarter stops but it looked like they might come back when, early in the third quarter, they took a 21-20 lead and were down by only two at the end of the third quarter 28-27.

But, the costly turnovers and some foul free-throw shooting by the Lady Engineers (8-9) in the fourth quarter proved the girls' undoing.

Hunter had a good fourth quarter, scoring 10 of her game high 16 points during that period. Milburn got 14 points in the game. Lori Mink, 4; Anderkin, 3 and Machal, Fain and Regina Lewis, 2, each.

This Thursday night, the girls journey to Garrard Co. and to Richmond Model for a Friday afternoon game.

Mitchell promoted

John A. Mitchell, son of Robert L. and Katherine Mitchell of Livingston, has been promoted in the U.S. Army to the rank of Sergeant.

Mitchell is a chemical operations specialist at Fort Bragg, N.C., with the 82nd Airborne Division.

His wife, Lee Ann, is the daughter of Donald B. Putnam of Rt. 1 Mt. Vernon.

The sergeant is a 1981 graduate of Rockcastle County High School.

"ELECTION STORY"

First District Magistrate Donald Rowe, who was displaced because of the county's new magisterial lines, has also made his intentions public for election as the Republican nominee for the office of County Judge/Executive in the May Primary.

Rowe, who filed Tuesday, becomes the sixth such candidate for the highly sought-for position.

The local barber was a winner in his first time out in the 1981 Primary when he easily defeated a field of nine.

Rowe is the son of the late Robert and Winnie Rowe and is a 1963 graduate of Brodhead High School. He graduated from Tri-City Barber College in 1964. The Kentucky Colonel is President of the Rockcastle County Little League, Vice President of the Mt. Vernon Lions Club, a member of the Mareburg Baptist Church and a member of the Mt. Vernon Business and Professional Association.

Rowe is married to the former Linda Sue Moore and they have two sons, Greg, 15, and Kevin, 12. During the past three years,

Rowe has been very outspoken at times during Fiscal Court meetings, such as when he voted against the new district lines because he felt former Deputy County Judge/Executive Mark Jasper might have influenced where the new lines went. The new lines caused Rowe to be put in the same district as Tom Denny, leaving no incumbent in District One.

Boys win two

The Rockets boys' team split their last four outings, defeating Powell Co. in the Choo Choo Classic and Jackson Co. Tuesday night and losing to Estill Co. in the classic and to Somerset last Friday night. A complete rundown on boys' action, with individual scoring, will appear in next week's Signal.

Saylor Graduates

Army Pvt. Rant J. Saylor, son of Rant J. Saylor of Brodhead and Joyce K. Saylor of 512 Mary Lane, South Lebanon, Ohio, has graduated as a recommissioned scout at the U.S. Army Armer School, Fort Knox, Ky.

The training was conducted under the one station unit training (OSUT) program, which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training into one 13-week period.

Known as the "eyes and ears" of the unit, the scout's job is to make a complete evaluation of a tactical situation and report what he has observed or learned to his commander.

Wondering whether to use income averaging or minimum tax allowances this year? How about that capital gain—should it be reported or carried over to minimize tax liabilities?

There's a software program that was developed to meet the critical needs of tax planners burdened with increasingly complex tax laws, computations and forms.

Based on input from CPA and tax professionals, the program called Tax Decisions from Eagle Software Publishing Inc., follows the format of the IRS 1040 and 17 supporting forms and schedules.

Since compliance calculations are performed automatically and accurately, CPA services become more cost-efficient to a client as the professional can spend less time working with numbers and more time working with results.

With the new program, tax planners and financial advisors can:

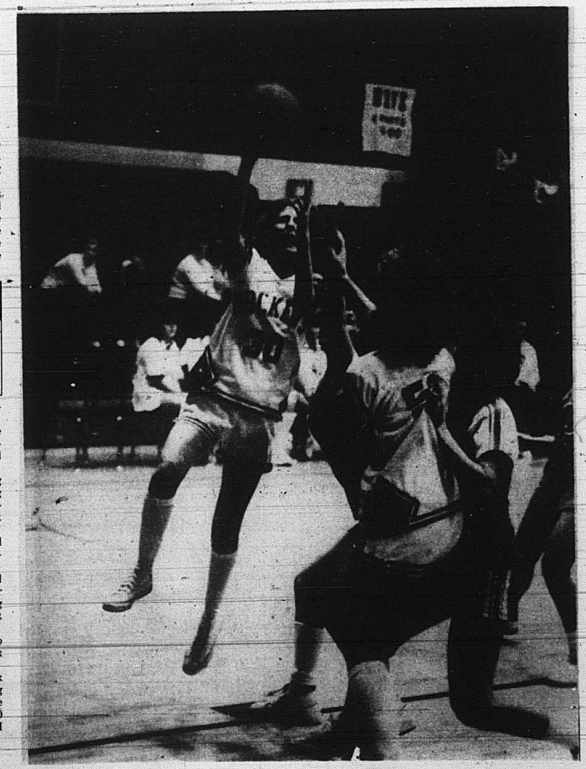

- Build tax plans with little prompting because the Tax Decisions screens are similar to actual tax forms.
- Calculate tax liability using rate schedules, income averaging or the alternative minimum tax allowances. The program will select the best method.
- Instantly view the before and after effects of increased taxable income on tax liability.
- See whether to take a capital gain in a particular tax year or carry it over. The new tax planning package also handles installment sales.
- The easy-to-use program also includes a free update of the tax laws for the first year.

Information regarding how Tax Decisions can aid in tax planning is available by writing to: Eagle Software Publishing, Inc., 6350 Cornell Drive, Cincinnati, OH 45242 or calling 1-800-242-9600.

Sophomore center Sandy Hunter goes high for a shot during action last Thursday night at home against Williamsburg. Hunter got 10 points in the game which the Lady Rockets won 50-42. Junior forward Betty Milburn was high scorer in the Williamsburg game with 22. In the Estill Co. game, Hunter led the scoring with 16—10 of them in the fourth quarter—but the Lady Rockets lost 48-43. In the bottom shot during action last Thursday night at home against Williamsburg while junior forward Caroline Machal, No. 50, takes a hard push while trying to get rebounding position. Parrett got 4 points in the game and Machal, 3.

HOLDING LOCAL TAXES DOWN
The maximum amount of community services for a minimum of taxes that's been the highly successful approach to government used by a public official in America's largest township, and it's an example that may soon be saving taxes in many other communities throughout the nation.
Thomas S. Gulotta, Presiding Supervisor of the Town of Hempstead on Long Island, New York—a township with a larger population than 11 states—has developed programs of fiscal prudence and social responsibility that have managed to cut taxes by eliminating waste without cutting services. In fact, services have been expanded for the elderly, handicapped, minorities and students.
Among his cost-cutting measures: a purchase freeze on vehicles and unnecessary office equipment, a gradual reduction of the town work force through attrition and the installation of a competitive bidding process on general town insurance.

The controversy over a proposed landfill also continued with a two-day hearing in the Rockcastle County Circuit Court room, and one suspect was arrested in connection with the rash of break-ins. Earl Overberg was arrested by Mt. Vernon City Police Chief Ronnie Hurd.

During the last part of July, the second suspect in the menacing break-ins that had plagued the county was arrested. Clontz & Cox, attorneys, P.O. Box 749, Mt. Vernon, Ky., attorneys for said estate, no later than April 23, 1985. 23x3

During the last part of July, the second suspect in the menacing break-ins that had plagued the county was arrested. Clontz & Cox, attorneys, P.O. Box 749, Mt. Vernon, Ky., attorneys for said estate, no later than April 23, 1985. 23x3

The August 9th issue of the SIGNAL featured the first motion by Fifth District Magistrate Joe Clark to withdraw the county's landfill application although the county had already spent over $21,000 on the project; the local school system ranked 137th among the state's schools—a jump of 24 places, and local Realtor and Auctioneer Sam Ford also elected President of the National Auctioneers Association. Also that same week, Roundstone Principal Glen VanWinkle resigned his post and Bill Jack Parsons was hired as his replacement.

During the last part of August, it was learned that some rooms at the Brodhead Elementary School, contained asbestos; Katherine Pettit pled guilty to second degree manslaughter in connection with the death of her 11-month-old baby on U.S. 25 in May; Citizen's Bank announced their plans for a 1800-square-foot addition, and Roundstone Elementary became the first county grade school to get air conditioning. Also that same week, Junie Kirby of Mt. Vernon was sentenced to one year in the county jail after he was found guilty by jury of second degree warrant endangerment charge that stemmed from an incident which involved Rockcastle County Sheriff William Taylor, and Lisa Jones' murder trial ended after three days in a hurry jury.

Rockcastle County School Superintendent Charles B. Parsons was the featured speaker at a special called meeting of the Brodhead P.T.A. during the last week in August over the possible existence of asbestos at Brodhead. No results came from the meeting which at times became very heated. Also that week, Willie J. Taylor, Kenneth Adams and Shirley Long filed for School Board; the City of Mt. Vernon set a $67,517 grant, and Murrell Denny became the new Vice President at the Bank of Mt. Vernon.

The local Board of Education rejected the state's proposal for a new school at Mt. Vernon during the first week of September. Randy Graves pled guilty on separate charges of receiving stolen property, and Philbeck's Restaurant south of Mt. Vernon was destroyed by fire.

Two local men were involved in a stabbing incident and a local man escaped serious injury after he was involved in a car accident on Highway 150 during the second week of September which also saw over 250 people present for the annual Mt. Vernon Alumni Association's homecoming.

Two local men were arrested for producing marijuana during the last part of September. Clarence Kirby and Brent Kirby were arrested by State Police after they received reports that the two were growing marijuana on Chestnut Ridge, and Roundstone Elementary ranked the highest in test scores of all of the county schools. It was also announced.

NOTICE
Come January 1, 1985, every individual using a motor vehicle for both business and personal use, is required to maintain a contemporaneous record of auto usage in order to be able to obtain a tax deduction and/or investment tax credit.

Your accountant, preparing your 1985 tax returns, will be unable to sign your return without receiving from you a written confirmation that contemporaneous records were kept.

This is a very serious IRS crackdown!
Your failure to maintain a daily contemporaneous log recording the date of the trip and the mileage driven for business purposes, will result in NO DEDUCTION AND/OR CREDIT for your auto expenses, and may also result in the assessment of negligence and/or fraud penalties.

This requirement is mandatory whether the motor vehicle is leased or owned. If you have any questions, please contact our office.

1984 Headlines

(Conf. From 19)
that week that Livingston would sponsor their first Homecoming.

Katherine Pettit was sentenced to eight years in prison by Circuit Judge Dan Venters; a controversy arose over a county road that leads to a farm owned by Fifth District Magistrate Joe Clark, and the Rockcastle County School System's budget for 1984-85 would exceed $6,000,000 during the first week in October.

The October 11th issue of the SIGNAL featured a random poll which showed support for a new grade school at MVES, and School Superintendent Charles Parsons and board Chairman Dr. K. R. Burdette said that they were reconsidering their position after the results of the poll were released. Also that same week, a problem with a recreation room at Fairground Hill in Mt. Vernon prompted a large turnout at the Mt. Vernon City Council meeting because residents said they were worried about their safety.

During the third week of October, then United States Senator Walter "Doc" Huddleston brought his campaign to town, as he was the featured speaker at a breakfast held in his honor at the Rockcastle Steak House, and a special fund was set up for Mt. Vernon. Elementary School student Rodney Lewis who had contracted leukemia. After the moving presentation of the TV movie "The Burning Bed," it was learned that Rockcastle County had their own Spouse Abuse Center, which had been set up by the Christian Appalachian Project.

The fourth week of October saw the proposed landfill site at Livingston tentatively approved by the state, and Livingston area residents met to form a plan of action to combat the ruling. Fifth District United States Congressman Harold Rogers' $26,000,833 amendment for Hwy. 461, died in committee, and Rockcastle County got a new state trooper, Officer Joe Schendelfelder.

With the coming of November, 600 new voters had registered for the general election, which featured two local school board races, the State Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health program cited the Rockcastle County School Board over asbestos removal at Brodhead Elementary School, and local veterinarian Dr. K. R. Burdette received the 1984 Veterinarian Award from his peers during a banquet in Louisville.

The second week in November, three incumbent school board members were easily re-elected, and Republican Mitch McConnell pulled a surprising upset over Walter Huddleston.

Later in November, Rockcastle Manufacturing had a new plant manager as Steve Bates took over, and it was announced that November 15th would be the Town Forum on Education. The local School Board appealed their fine and citation which was levied against them by OSHA; the county considered trying to sell a garbage franchise, and the Rockcastle County Arts Council and director Allen Pensol presented their second production of 1984 in the form of the play "Scappino" which opened at the Cedar Rapids Country Club.

In the latter part of November, the tobacco market opened with a good price for '84 as the burley leaf averaged over $1.87 across the state, and 112 people turned out for the local Town Forum on Education.

Jack Martin received the Farmer of the Year Award from the Rockcastle Business and Professional Association; a local woman was killed in a hit-and-run traffic accident on Hwy. 150 just outside of Brodhead, and a new supermarket, Foodland of Brodhead, opened its doors. Also that same week, local businessman and Fire Chief John Cox received the Everett C. Brown Memorial Award from the Rockcastle County Improvement Council.

December saw the withdrawal by the county for a landfill at Pine Hill, and two prisoners that had escaped from the Rockcastle County jail in November were captured in Winchester.

A Georgia man was indicted for reckless homicide in connection with the traffic death of Evelyn Sargent on Hwy. 150. Local attorney William D. Gregory filed suit against the county over a county road, and two Rockcastle residents were arrested in Madison County for illegal possession of marijuana.

The December 20th issue of the SIGNAL featured a poll about the unfairness of representation on the local Board of Education; a state trooper was injured in a car chase at Ottawa, and David Bales became the first candidate to file for this May's Primary Election.

The last issue of December, a holiday paper, included the filings of the first two candidates for County Judge/Executive in May's Primary. Fifth District Magistrate Joe Clark and Mt. Vernon City Councilman Jack Renner made their intentions known, and a local lady said they would go to Mexico as Baptist missionaries.

Ellison files in first district

A second Republican candidate has filed his papers for election to the first district Magistrate's seat.

Glenn Ellison, of Rt. 3, Crab Orchard in the Copper Creek section of Rockcastle County, has joined former Mt. Vernon City Councilman Roger McClure as the first two Republicans to file for that seat. Tom Wallin has filed on the Democratic side.

Ellison is married to the former Marsha Riddle and they

Denny, Whitaker file for second district magistrate

Rockcastle County Republican Youth Chairman Darrell Wayne Whitaker has filed his papers for the Second District Magistrate's seat on the Republican side in this May's Primary.

Whitaker, who is the son of former Magistrate Chester Whitaker and Grace, joins incumbent Magistrate Thomas Denny, who also filed for re-election last week.

The former Young Republican President lives at Rt. 2, Mt. Vernon and is 31 years old. He is married to the former Mary Helen Mink. They have two children, Carla Grace, 11, and Warren, 2.

Whitaker, who graduated from Brodhead High School in 1971, is making his first attempt at a political office.

Incumbent Denny won his seat in 1981 in his first attempt at office when he defeated incumbent J. R. "Boone" Cromer by 61 votes.

Cromer has filed this year for the third district magistratical seat because of the new boundary lines.

attempt at a political office.

District one, which has no incumbent magistrate, is composed of North Brodhead and North Mt. Vernon.

Hayes, Kirby file for jailer

Two more local men have filed for the office of Jailer in this May's Republican Primary.

Leo Hayes of Rt. 1, Mt. Vernon and Ricky Ray Kirby of Brodhead have filed their papers in the County Clerk's office, bringing the number of candidates in the field to five so far.

Hayes is the son of Chan and Marie Hayes and is married to the former Debra Kite. They have one child, Bobby, who is 14.

Thacker, Rowe announce for Judge

Candidates continue to file for county office in May Primary

By: Richard Anderkin

The question has become who hasn't filed or who is not going to file for an office in this May's county primary.

Local Deputy County Clerk, Clerk David Bales opened the flood gates in December when he announced his candidacy. Since then it has been a steady flow to the County Clerk's office by local politicians who seek that ultimate victory.

As of this writing, 30 such hopefuls have paid their $20 and obtained their two signatures to make it legal for them to offer their talents as public servants.

All of the offices in the courthouse, except that of Circuit Court Clerk are up for election this year, but a few offices are still without their first candidate.

Six candidates have already filed for County Judge, Executive, five for Jailer, three for County Clerk, over a dozen for Magistrate and two for Constable.

However, no one has filed for Sheriff, although incumbent William Taylor has said he would seek re-election, and his former deputy, Clarence "Jibb" Hasty is a likely opponent. There are no filings as of yet for County Attorney, Property Valuation Administrator, County Surveyor and Coroner.

Former Rockcastle County Judge, Executive Hubert Thacker has announced that he will be a candidate for his old office in this May's Republican Primary.

Thacker, who lives in the Scaffold Cane section of Rock-castle County, was defeated in the 1981 Republican Primary by then First District Magistrate Frank DeBorde by only 28 votes.

The former Judge, Executive, who also served two terms as Fourth District Magistrate in the 1960's was County Judge from 1974 until 1982.

Becoming the fifth Republican candidate to throw his hat into the ring for the county's highest office, Thacker joins a field of Joe Clark, Jack Renner, Henry Lee Abrev, Leonard "Bojje" Hammonds and Donald Rowe, who have already filed.

Thacker was in office during the remodeling and expansion of the Rockcastle County Hospital, the starting of the Rockcastle County Industrial Park, the building of the Senior Citizens Center in Brodhead and the many improvements to the Rockcastle County Fairgrounds.

Brown, Albright make it official in third district

A field that saw 11 candidates four years ago already has 4 hopefuls for this May's Republican Primary, including Raymond Brown of Ottawa.

Brown has filed his papers for the third district Republican Magistrate's seat.

The 1963 graduate of Brodhead High School joins incumbent D. G. Albright, J. R. "Boone" Cromer and Ray Bullock to announce their intentions so far for the third district magistratical seat.

Brown, a farmer, is married to the former Diane Brown and they have two children, Mark, 16, and Rameela, 6. He is the son of the late Marcus Brown and Edith Nicely.

This will be Brown's first attempt at a political office.

Four years ago, incumbent

Albright needed only 214 votes to win his seat because of the eleven candidates in the field.

Telephone rates are going up

The Continental Telephone Company has requested a rate increase that would raise flat fee business and residential charges in the county by about one-third.

An advertisement that has appeared in the SIGNAL the last three weeks shows the company's request. Under the request, if granted in full, the basic monthly residential rates would rise from around $16.00 per month to $20.67 for about a 35% increase.

For a four-party residential line, the charge would go from around $12.00 per month to $16.05, a 33% increase. For a one-party business line, the increase would be from around $28.00 a month to $35.63, also about a one-third increase. For a business with a four-party line, the increase would be from about $18.00 a month to $23.64.

L. W. Darden, Jr., Vice President and General Manager of Continental Telephone at London, said that the company's last rate increase took effect January 4, 1984.

If this one is approved by the Public Service Commission, Darden said that it would take effect around the middle of this month.

The request by Continental would raise annual revenues to the company by $3,882,021.

OSHA drops fine to $1.00, board drops appeal

The State Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Department has agreed to lower a fine that they levied against the Rockcastle County School Board in November for improper removal of asbestos at Brodhead School to $1.00 if the Board would agree to drop their appeal of the fine and to give up material they were removing from the two kindergarten rooms contained asbestos.

Thursday night, Vice Chairman Willie J. Taylor made a motion, which passed unanimously, to drop the board's appeal and take the $1.00 fine.

In other business of the board, Dr. K. R. Lortie, to no one's surprise, was re-elected Chairman of the Board of Education, Willie J. Taylor was made Vice Chairman by his counterparts and School Superintendent Charles B. Parsons was appointed

Landfill, school board races big news in second part of 1984

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of two stories about the headlines that appeared in the MT. VERNON SIGNAL in 1984. The other story appeared in last week's SIGNAL.

By: Richard Anderkin

The summer of 1984 began with over 20 people turning out at a Mt. Vernon City Council meeting to find some answers to the crime problem that had been facing the county for several weeks. The meeting resulted in the Mt. Vernon City Council putting two policemen on night shift and placing Frank DeBorde in charge of the force until the problem was taken care of.

The Rockcastle County Fiscal Court took similar steps to curtail the crime problem and voted to pay Rockcastle County Sheriff William Taylor $1,000 to put an extra deputy on the roads at night. But the crime wave continued. Superior Food Market near Mt. Vernon was robbed of over 20 garbage bags of merchandise during the last part of June.

July brought the drowning deaths of a Madison County couple in Lake Linville. Virgil R. Histon, 22, and his 18-year-old wife, Janet, were found by passersby on July 10th. They were only the third and fourth victims to lose their lives in Lake Linville since it opened in 1970.

Mt. Vernon Signal
Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Dear Editor:

The Department for Social Services would like to thank each agency, group, business and individual who donated gifts and/or money for our Christmas party for foster children.

Each child received a gift from Santa Claus and each child had an enjoyable time at the party. We also had a clown at the party and each child had their face painted by the clown.

Below is a list of groups, agencies, individuals and businesses that donated. Thanks to all and may you have a happy 1985.

Modie and Augustine Dillingham, RCHS Teens, Kings' Pic Pac, Stewart's Fertilizer, Young's Pharmacy, Taylor's Produce, Ann Rovey, Larry Henson, Katherine Pope, DSS Employees, ARP, James Carpenter, Rosalind Philbeck, Citizen's Bank, Bank of Mt. Vernon, Brodhead S & T, Fletcher

Grocery, Brodhead Mill, Brodhead Cafe, Bishop's Grocery, Hammond's Market, Martha Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carter, Carpenter's Farm & Equipment, Phillis Holbrook, Ford Realty, Brown's Food Market, Mrs. Anglin's 6th Grade Friendly 4-Hers, Happy Home, Tinsmakers, and PCA

A very special thanks is given to Debbie Carpenter who helped collect the donations.

Thanks again and may God bless you.

Sincerely,

Gordon W. Pope,

Thanks....

To The Editor:

On behalf of the residents of Souder Nursing Home, I want to thank all the families, groups, and individuals who made this a wonderful Holiday season. We had lots of wonderful things given to us - a clock, flowers, fruit, candy, cards, lap robes, gowns, and other new clothes. Others sang carols, Santa Claus came, decorations were put up, and even the staff was treated by thoughtful families and friends.

The participation by people in the community made our annual Christmas Bazaar a success, and we thank you.

So, if in 1985 you find yourself with some time on your hands, we hope you will be here who are your friends and neighbors, and who are out of touch because of age and infirmities, who would love to have you spend some of that time with them. They have years of wisdom and memories to share.

For more information about visitation or volunteering, call me at 758-8711 or 758-8315.

by: perlina m. anderkin

The battle of the VCR/Satellite rages on at our house-sometimes I feel like it's me against the world over my stance against buying anything else that could cause me or the children to spend more time than we already do watching the "boob tube."

It gets pretty amusing at times-the other night, Sara informed me that she had a kid in her eighth grade class who could only get 3 channels on the television. I reminded her that we could actually get 4 and, by the blank look, I figured out she was not an avid fan of the KET Channel.

The amusing part to that incident is that I can hear Sara telling her children about what a hard childhood she had. I mean none of these foolish stories about having to go barefoot as much as possible to save on her one pair of shoes, or of only getting one toy, an orange and some candy for Christmas, or of having to walk a mile each way through snow drifts to school-Sara's children will understand immediately that she was definitely a deprived child. Of course, if they don't pay any more attention to her horror stories than my children have to mine, she's out of luck anyway.

Local attorney James W. Lambert posed a question to me Tuesday (you see, the man knows where to come for information) but I failed him and we decided that if I asked my readers about it, someone might have some information. Mr. Lambert wanted to know about an ELEM Post Office, listed as being located near Mt. Vernon about the turn of the century. If you have any recollection of this post office, let us know about it through our Letter to the Editor column.

Mr. Lambert was one of the first people whom I met when we moved here in 1966. He came into the Signal Office one day and introduced himself and proceeded to tell me what information he wanted about us from me (in a gentlemanly way of course) and then gave me a little background on the community. I won't go into the whole hairy background story he gave me. Just suffice it to say that I swallowed it hook, line and sinker. It was some time before I would allow anyone outside after dark but someone finally clued me into the fact that there's nothing "Jimmy" loves better than to "get one on you."

Mr. Lambert is gifted with a dry wit that often catches the intended victim unaware. When he came to ask me about the ELEM Post Office, he said, "You might say something about it in your paper, it might be interesting." While I was busy politely agreeing he added, "Lord knows it could use something interesting." The only comeback I could think of quickly enough was that it was easy to tell who wasn't a candidate for county office this year.

And, speaking of county elections, this year's should prove an interesting one with the numerous candidates that have already filed and with several more expected to file for each office. One bit of local color will be missing this year in the person of Ernest Mason who has moved away. Mr. Mason was never a candidate himself but was a bit bashful about publicly backing his favorite candidate or, also publically, going after his not-so-favorite ones. County elections only come around once every four years and it is always an interesting time.

Fairview

By: Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Rev. Harvey Penson filled his regular appointment at the Fairview Baptist Church over the weekend with good attendance.

Sunday School attendance was 109. This month's average attendance was 105.

Our Christmas program presented on Saturday night, Dec. 22nd and the cantata entitled "A Song Was Born" on Sunday night, Dec. 23rd were well attended. Both presentations were well done and enjoyed very much.

Special Watch Service was also well attended and we enjoyed such a good spiritual evening together.

Baptismal services were conducted on Sunday night, Jan. 6th. We thank God for the fine young man who was baptized and pray God will bless and keep him.

Perfect attendance Sunday. School pins were awarded Sunday morning, Jan. 6th to the following: 1-year pins went to Rev. Harvey Penson, Vida Richmond, Devon Dursey, Dewey Thomas and Michael Peters; 4-year pins to Kenny Alexander, Joyce Cain and Gail Lee Gabbard; 9-year pins to Dreama Cummins and Nancy Pickle; 12-year pins to Michael Pickle and Gustavo Peters; 13-year to Shirley Poynter, Cletus Peters and Jimmy Cummins; 15-year to Judy Cummins; 16-year to Buddy Gabbard; 18-year to Lloyd Pickle; and 19-year to Wesley Lambert. Thank God for making it possible for us to attend every Sunday in 1985.

Following the cantata, the cast was invited by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brock to their home at Indian Hills (near Berea) for a Christmas party. Also on this day, Mrs. Brock's parents, Cletus and Gustavo Peters, had been married 35 years. So Beverly had her parents a wedding anniversary cake, and everyone sang Happy Anniversary to them. They later sang Christmas carols and everyone enjoyed the occasion so very much. They had such a good time visiting and fellowshiping together.

Mrs. Mona Treon is improving very nicely following a stay in the Mt. Vernon Hospital suffering from a broken hip. Bless her heart, her many friends wish her a speedy recovery. She is a wonderful lady whom we all love. God bless you, Mona.

During the Christmas holidays, Gerald Peters of New York visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Bill P.

Christmas Eve guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Thomas were Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Gabbard and daughter, Gail Lee, Mrs. Gladith Rose, Mrs. Mona Treon, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Tpeon and son, Bruce, and Mr. and Mrs. Casey Howe. They all enjoyed a delicious potluck supper and exchanged gifts. Mrs. Thomas relates, "It's always nice to have family members and friends visit with you, but even more so at Christmas time."

Mrs. Ann Linnville spent Christmas-Eve with her son, Preston and wife, Bonnie. She spent the holidays with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Thomas. Mrs. Linnville is another sweet lady whom we all love and loved for many years.

Christmas Eve supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peters were

Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brock and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Croucher. They all later went to Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Peters' home for another "Auntie" enjoyable evening with a nice family get-together. God bless you all. We love you.

Stewart and Stanley Noland visited at the home of their sister, Barbara Croucher, and husband, Bert, recently.

Mrs. Willie Cope, who has been on the sick list for the past few weeks, is feeling better. Her children who live near in and out at Christmas time. William of Ohio came and spent a few days with his parents. Thank the good Lord for Mrs. Cope's improvement.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith of Clear Creek, Christmas Day were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peters and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ridwell and Sherry spent Christmas Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ridgett of Corbin.

The Mt. Vernon Signal Thursday, January 10, 1985 P.7

The rest of the Chasteen family were dinner guests of our son and family, Junior and Lynetta Chasteen and Rodney of Berea. Attending were Hubert and I, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chasteen, David, Darryl and Darrin, James and Joyce Seals and Kim, Darlene (Chasteen), Tammy and Tonya Oshas, Rose, Kenny and Robin Harold, Mrs. Faez, Lamb and Lynetta's sister and family. We had a very delicious dinner and the day was both happy and sad. Our family, along with many others around here, had a lovely one from our midwest this year. We all missed Johnny. But, bless his heart, one day we will meet him in Heaven. You know, we as Christians never see another Christian, because one Christian never sees another Christian for the last time. Each day that goes by we are getting closer to our Heavenly home and all our loved ones. There will be a blessed and wonderful home coming in Heaven one day. I'm sure you all [as I do] long to see our loved ones who have gone on before. But, as our relatives and friends go out one by one, it just to me! makes Heaven a little nearer and a little dearer. So to all of you out there who are in sorrow or grief of any kind, you have our love and prayers. And I'd like to thank those of you again who have been so kind and good to our daughter, Darlene Chasteen and Tammy and Tonya since Johnny's death. Your love, prayers and sympathy are appreciated more than you will ever know. God bless you all. We love you dearly. Ira Reppert of Crossville, Tenn. visited his brother, Tip, and family and his sister, Hubert, Chasteen and Mr. Chasteen last Sunday. He attended church with us at Fairview. Then we all had a delicious dinner at People's Restaurant in Berea. Attending were Ira, Hubert and I, Darlene Church, Tammy and Tonya, and Joyce Seals and Kimi. It was so good to see Ira again. And he always enjoys being here. He is a wonderful brother and such a good man and so much fun to be with. I love him so much.

Well, as 1984 has gone and 1985 is now with us, I hope you achieve and have every good thing that you wish for and that will make you happy, such as peace, good health, joy and prosperity. To all of you who read this column, especially to all of my brothers and sisters and their families, I'd like to say I love you (though we are many miles apart) and I pray God will bless and keep you safe and well in this new year. We have six members of the Reppert family in Heaven. One day when God calls, the rest of us will be going. I hope and pray we will all meet Mama and Daddy there. I love you all.

Please remember Church and Sunday School. May God bless and keep you in 1985.

Pvt. Vince E. Halcomb was home for the holidays with his family. He has just completed his basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C. and will be taking his A.I.T. at Fort Gordon, Ga. Pvt. Halcomb, a 1984 graduate of Lincoln County High School, is the son of Elizabeth and Eddie Allen of Crab Orchard, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Helton of Brodhead, and the great grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Nath Brummett of Brodhead.

Rogers urges restrictions on tobacco imports by ITC

Fifth District Kentucky Congressman Harold Rogers (R-Somerset) told the International Trade Commission this week that excessive supplies of foreign tobacco threaten the survival of American tobacco growers.

In testimony before the ITC as part of its investigation into the impact of imported tobacco, Rogers urged the Commission to approve limits on imported tobacco to help protect American growers. Rogers said huge increases in imports have created a tobacco surplus, which has already hurt American tobacco farmers. "We've seen our individual grower's income drastically reduced," said Rogers. "At the same time, because of the huge surplus stocks of tobacco, this grower's No-Net-Cost fees have skyrocketed (under the federal tobacco program)."

Rogers pointed to reductions in domestic tobacco quotas of 23 percent and in price supports of 12 percent as examples of the interference foreign tobacco is having on domestic tobacco growers.

"If we do not protect our domestic growers, we face undermining not only the livelihood of farmers, warehousemen, merchants, bankers and others who depend on tobacco, but also land values and the economy of entire communities," Rogers said.

"This would threaten a way of life that has been synonymous with Kentucky for hundreds of years."

Rogers said by allowing huge increases in imported leaf, we are cutting domestic markets to foreign producers, creating an unstable domestic market and lowering prices. Rogers said all three of these situations go against congressional intent in establishing the federal tobacco program.

Rogers asked the ITC to approve a petition which would set global quotas equal to one-half the average annual imports during the years 1970-1983, as has been requested by the Kentucky and American Farm Bureau Federations.

Some people once believed that they could make it rain by getting a black cat to swim across a stream.

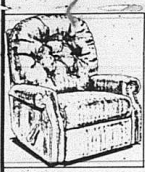

Congressman Harold Rogers testifies before the International Trade Commission, arguing in favor of quotas being placed on imported tobacco. Rogers told the Commission that tobacco growers are losing their market and paying higher growers' fees because of huge increases in imported leaf. Rogers urged the ITC to limit imports, as has been requested by the Kentucky and American Farm Bureau Federations.

New Books That Are in the Library

"Thers Be The Power" by Harry M. Caudill. The Moogals of Eastern, ever since his first book, "Night Comes To The Cumberland" (1963) by Harry Caudill's commentaries on Appalachia have sparked controversy and debate. His newest work, which conforms Caudill as one of the most foremost spokesmen, is no exception.

"Thers Be The Power" mines one of the richest veins running through Kentucky's history. This is the story of the coal barons and capitalists who industrialized Appalachia and transformed its immense mineral wealth into enormous personal fortunes.

Another book is "The Mysteries of Swift Creek" by Betty Jo Shepherd Chandler. While astronauts were exploring the depths of space, a Kentucky family searched the deep mystery of lost silver mines in Kentucky. This documentary of Bee Shepherd and his family's enthusiasm for, solving the mysteries of Swift Creek is a fascinating story that intermingles past and present.

FLOATING CHECKS

The Federal Reserve has recently initiated new check-clearing procedures that will shorten the "float" time many people have relied on when writing checks.

The "float" is the time it takes for a bank to receive the check, clear it, process it, sort it and send it back to the bank it is written against.

Currently, the Federal Reserve clears checks within 48 hours. However, under the new procedures the float time will be reduced to about 24 hours.

What this means, of course, is that many people who have relied on the 48-hour float, time when writing checks will now have to be more careful to avoid bouncing a check.

SHOE FIRST AID

Shoes take a terrible beating when the weather is wet or snowy, and those conditions will apply to most parts of Kentucky during the next few months.

Fortunately there are some simple "first aid" treatments which can be administered to reduce damage from poor weather conditions.

University of Kentucky College of Agriculture specialist suggests removing the shoes as soon as possible, and gently stuff them with paper to help them retain their natural shape. The shoes should not be put near any source of heat, however, as they will dry out too quickly.

Also, shoe trees should not be used nor should the shoe be overstuffed or it could be stretched too much. Let them dry naturally in a well-ventilated, open area and once completely dry, remove the stuffing and polish them quickly. They should be good as new.

Winter weather not only produces snowy, wet conditions but may introduce salt residue from treated sidewalks or streets. If you notice white stains along the soles or sides of your shoes, you probably have encountered salt, and emergency treatment is required. If it is not possible to care for shoes or boots as soon as the salt stain is noticed, seal them in a plastic bag so the stains stay moist until you have time to work on them.

As soon as possible, remove all loose dirt and crusty salt. Mix a solution of warm water and white vinegar in equal parts. Use a soft, clean cloth to dab the solution over the entire shoe (sole and heel as well). Be sure to focus on the stained area. Allow the shoes to dry naturally, then condition and polish.

HOMEMAKER CLUB MEMOIRS

I, Elizabeth Francisco Mullins, joined a homemakers club in Brodhead, Kentucky in 1928.

I taught 3rd and 4th grades that year at Brodhead's Independent School.

Other unmarried girls my age formed a club. They planned to buy sweaters with initials, etc. to let it be known that they belonged to a special club. They didn't invite me, although my best girlfriend, Corinne Frith, pleaded for an invitation for me. One girl said, "We don't want anyone connected with school."

Oh yes, I remember the girl's name, but I'd rather not mention it.

When I had an older co-teacher, Rose Christie, about it, she said, "Elizabeth, don't feel badly. They're just jealous because you are smarter than they." This statement comforted me!

Our little town had been lucky enough to have Dr. and Mrs. Garrett and family move into our midst from Frankfort, Kentucky. She organized a homemakers club in 1928. I was invited to this older woman's group. After being spurned by the younger group, I thought, "why not?"

In 1928, you were considered an old adult when you started teaching!

At one of our first meetings at Mrs. 'Ela Cass' home, I read a Citizenship News item. I pronounced executive, accenting the third syllable. I'll never forget the look of horror on Mrs. Garrett's face!

After finishing the article, I added, "I pronounced executive wrong. These public readings are for the good for me." Elora Gray told me later, "I was so glad that you corrected the pronunciation."

I enjoyed meeting with Baptist and Methodist friends as well as our church friends in Mrs. Rose Christy's club.

We met at 6 p.m., right after supper, so we wouldn't be coming home late on our poorly lighted streets. Of course, snow and sleet cancelled some of our meetings. We called on Dees' hanging mail and telephone to let this be known.

We exchanged recipes, taught each other how to embroider, crochet and knit. We brought materials to work some together. We always had a devotion and prayer and usually read something on education, safety or citizenship.

Of course, Mr. Robert F. Spence, Rockcastle County's agent for forty years, could be reached about gardening.

Home agents were available in the summer to give us advice on canning.

I remember Berea College sent a Mr. Kincaid to Brodhead School to teach us songs. "This is the first time I heard 'Old McDonald Had A Farm' and 'Billy Boy' and a tune that taught all the health rules. Berea College has done pioneering work through the years in connection with county agent work. Later, they cooperated with Extension work with the University of Kentucky, Rockcastle County and the United States Department of Agriculture.

In 1957, a mutual agreement between Berea College and the University of Kentucky Extension Division ended Berea's subsidy in the local program.

We could call Mary K. Leubetter to get information on canning in 1928.

Small tomato canning centers were established in Mt. Vernon and Brodhead that Extension Services started later.

My grandmother, Bettie C. Tharp, tried to teach me to can vegetables after my mother's untimely death. When my grandmother died in 1928, I became a homemaker in reality as I kept house for my invalid father and twelve-year-old sister.

Canning was our way of having enough food to eat in our homes during the winter. I was eager for help in this chore from the Extension office.

Before Berea ended its part in Extension work, they sent a woman from India to meet with our club in the 40's.

I was honored to have her in my re-decorated home that Grandma Tharp had willed to my sister and me. It was a hot summer day. When we went through our small dining room, her flowing skirts almost got caught in our floor electric fan!

When we got to our freshly mowed backyard to serve refreshments on tables I had set up, I found that my Indian guest preferred hot tea to ice tea with lemon.

We had planned this setting, purposely so she could see the big vegetable garden that joined the yard. Our guest asked us many questions about planting, harvesting and canning what we raised. In fact, this is why she came to the United States of America—to learn better ways to plant and can vegetables.

We did some crafts. I remember joining the homemakers in the afternoon after school, to make a tray of aluminum like material. Most of the members left the trays to dry after acid had been used to make a design, in Mrs. Rae Anderson's garage.

In the 40's, the club was allowed to meet in an empty room in Brodhead's new stone building. This was handy for me, as my classroom was on the same floor.

Olive Roberts Cox was our president at this time. We see Olive at the Wilderness Trail Meetings often. Middleboro is lucky to have her as a home-makers member to share her many arts in weaving, pottery making, etc.

In the 50's we got help with lessons, etc. from Letta W. Jasper and Louise Hart, Home Agents.

Around the middle 60's, our club's "feet got to dragging" and we disbanded. A younger adult group decided to form a club and used their own ideas of what to do and not follow University of Kentucky's lessons, etc. that were made out by the county agent. I was past fifty years old, so wasn't invited to join this club. I lasted four years.

Betsy Smith moved to Brodhead in 1968 and started a club which she helped name the Brodhead/Willing Workers Home Makers Club. I became an active member again in homemakers.

She started, as president of the club, our first Community Thanksgiving Service. It was held in the Brodhead School's gym. Margie Wilcox directed the choir consisting of the churches combined choirs. John L. Saylor, Assistant Rockcastle Co. School Superintendent, gave a wonderful address.

Our club still sponsors this gathering each year, but we met at the church building.

We had our first "Santa Claus Coming To Town Festival" that same year and still sponsor this growing festival each December.

Easter Sunrise services are held on the Christian Church Camp Hill each year that started in the late 60's. Members of the Brodhead/Willing Workers Home Makers Club furnish donuts, coffee and hot chocolate to refresh the early morning worshippers.

Our first street lights in Brodhead were bought by funds made by the club and a few merchants' donations in the late 60's. New ones were purchased by the club in 1982.

This sounds more like a civic club, but Cheryl Witt brought us back to following lessons we chose as a part of Rockcastle County Homemakers Clubs. She was employed as County Extension Agent for Home Economics on August 17, 1977.

for County Judge Executive

Dear Friends,

As most of you know by now, I am a candidate for our office of County Judge/Executive. We will be electing someone to this office during this year of 1985. It's not too early for us to plan, because the selection of our officials is very important to our county.

I believe that most of you know me and know that I will do my best to serve you. I know that many of you can help, as in the past and I'll not fail to call upon you. Experience tells that we can DO things by working together.

I appreciate your friendship very much and I hope that you will consider me as you think of electing a candidate for this office.

Your Friend,

anie and Kevin Halcomb

Mrs. Manie Halcomb spent Christmas Day in London with her granddaughter. Mrs. Pam Childress and her family. All of Evelyn's family joined them for dinner and the exchange of Christmas gifts and had a nice time.

Christmas Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Hacker and Bubi and Shelly Lear were Harold Joseph of Louisville, Mitchell and Becky Joseph, Rhoda Hacker, Becky Hacker, Ricky and Nancy Padgett, Little Rick and David, Duchey and Tammy Hack and a little Dud and Casey of Lancaster. Russell and Magdeline Bullock, Ronnie, Cathy and Karen. Terry and Sherry Bullock and Ricky Wallen of Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph and Sherry and Mrs. Rhoda Hacker of Lancaster were Saturday night visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Hacker, Bubi... and Shelly Lear.

A birthday dinner was given for Joann Brown, Edgar Cash and Judy Wilson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gaffer Cash. A pot luck dinner, cake and punch were served. Everyone had a nice time. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cash and Netza Kayle. Mrs. Joann Brown and daughter, Mary Jo. Mr. and Mrs. Rhoda Cash and son, Mike. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cash, Mr. and Mrs. Gaffer Cash and Mrs. Maxine Daugherty. Sorry Edgar Cash and Judy couldn't be present.

On Sunday before Christmas, Manie Halcomb's guests in celebration of her birthday and Christmas for dinner were Herbert and Lydia Halcomb and daughter, Kim. Kim, Howard and Evelyn Rowlett of Berea, Eugene, Sue and Tena Halcomb, Jay and Stella Burke, Jerry and Janet Burke of Mt. Vernon; Evening guests were Mary Bowman and Alice Hill, Karen Durham and Stephen of Louisville, Pam Childress and Robin of London, and Joan Hammond and Lisa of Crab Orchard. Mrs. Halcomb says she had a nice time, received many gifts and money, and really enjoyed being together. Her daughter, Cathern, from Ohio couldn't be here due to the sickness of her daughter. Mrs. Halcomb spent last week in Berea with Evelyn and Herbert and families. Her son, Henry Halcomb and family of Iowa talked to her by phone as they could't be here due to 18d weather there.

Visitors of Grace and Evon Brown were Mrs. Mary Harper and Scottie, Hanna and Dixie Laswell, Irene Taylor, Alma Jean Cable and Shelly, Jewell, Denny, Georgia, Thomas, Micky, Thompson, and Joann Brown. Also, Mrs. Ella Faye Hellard and her mother, Mrs. Edna Caldwell, were recent visitors.

The following Brodhead friends-Lenora Cloyd, Ella Mae Martin, Emily Glovak, Elizabeth Mullins, Hazel Miller, Walter Baldwin, Tommy Baldwin, Patsy and Charles Fletcher joined Bob by Betty, Anthony and Alicia Machal in their home in Mt. Vernon for their annual New Year's Eve celebration.

The season's decorations greeted us in every room, with "Happy New Year" signs and table center pieces predominant. After a gourmet pot-luck dinner, the women played Bible Trivia and the men played Rook. The Bible Trivia proved not to be a trivial game.

Alicia Machal asked the questions and got so overcome with laughter at some of our answers that we were forced to join her in this evoking mirth. Later, we reminisced about our 1984 happy and sad times. Most of us agreed that the saddest time was when Bro. Roger Carr resigned from his ministry in Brodhead.

Seconds before midnight, we gathered around the television set for the countdown of New York City's Big Apple to the 1985 New Year. Usual greetings for this occasion became emotional. Then came the partaking of Betty Machal's punch and snacks. And, believe it or not, we were still wide awake at 2 a.m. when we departed with a "Happy New Year" farewell.

Mrs. Sophia Brown was very happy to have all her children with her over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Revel Pike and son, Wade, of San Antonio, Texas were here from Saturday until Thursday visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole of Richmond, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bray of Cincinnati, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brown, Michael and Melissa visited Mrs. Sophia Brown. Also visiting were Mrs. Florelle Brown and Charlotte and Barbara Ann of Brodhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Coffey of Easley, South Carolina spent the weekend with Mrs. Coffey's mother, Mrs. Alice Bussell. They also visited Joe, Ruth and Jerry Bussell.

SFC Joe M. Bussell was in Cincinnati, Ohio over the weekend for a Guard meeting and spent the night with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Winnie Bryant in Mason, Ohio. Mrs. Bryant remains about the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Jo Bussell and daughters, Amy and Jennifer of West Chester, Ohio spent Christmas Day with his parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bussell. They also visited his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gregory, Chrissy, Jamie and Jadawn.

Mr. Jerry Bussell and friend, Shane Owens, spent Sunday with Glen Smith of Copper Creek.

U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510

AFGHAN STRUGGLE IS ONGOING

The week following Christmas this year is the fifth anniversary of one of the most disgraceful acts against freedom in this century -- the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

The Soviet Union sent its army into the independent and non-aligned nation on Dec. 27, 1979, toppling its government and installing a puppet regime which takes orders from Moscow.

The Afghan people have firmly resisted these occupying Soviet forces. The troops have used ruthless terror tactics in an effort to create popular acceptance of a totalitarian communist state.

Afghan resistance forces called the mujahidin, or holy warriors, dominate the countryside. They have held the estimated 115,000 Soviet troops in a standoff, preventing them from suppressing the resistance. The Soviets have failed in their attempt to establish authority for their puppet regime, the Babrak Karmal government.

The 1979 invasion has led to tragic results: death and destruction. Brutality toward Afghan civilians has included retaliatory killings, torture and maiming of political prisoners, and destruction of food, livestock and property.

Soviet occupation of this neighbor nation created the world's largest refugee population -- an estimated 3 million Afghans who have fled to bordering nations, including Pakistan and Iran. That is nearly a quarter of the pre-war population. Millions more have been forced to leave their homes to avoid the war, fleeing to the cities, especially Kabul.

The United Nations General Assembly has overwhelmingly approved six resolutions calling for a negotiated, political settlement in Afghanistan. The settlement would be based on removal of Soviet forces, repatriation of Afghanistan's independent and non-aligned status, self-determination for the Afghan people, and safe, honorable return of the refugees.

The United States supports this continuing effort to achieve these goals through negotiation. Such a political settlement remains the goal of U.S. policy -- to provide for the withdrawal of Soviet forces and to end the agony of the Afghan people. The invasion has severely damaged Soviet relations with the West because it has underscored Soviet determination to impose its will by force, with little regard for human rights.

It is especially important that Americans -- while enjoying our freedom -- continue to support the Afghan people in their ongoing struggle. Since the time of Alexander the Great, the Afghans have showed their willingness to bear hardships and sacrifice in resisting foreign invaders. Their determination could soon return their nation to them.
