Senior Guard Benny Blanton tries for two of his game high 21 points in Tuesday night's action at home against Estill County. Blanton had a fine game both offensively and defensively but it wasn't enough as the boy's varsity fell 68-66 in two overtimes.

few if any pondering-glances from the starters toward the bench to see if a sub was on the way.

2. Kenny Walker has not exhibited (yet) any frustration with the double and triple team attention he is getting. In fact, the all-American is using his all-American temperament to good effect and does not seem to mind

Estill county took a shot from the floor. The shot was no good but Senior Greg Mink committed his 5th foul. Estill County hit both free throws with no time on the clock to send the game into the second overtime.

After dodging bullets all night long Estill County pulled the road victory out 68 to 66.

The boy's b-team also lost their first game of the season Tuesday night by two points.

Benny Blanton lead all scorers with 21 points. Graves had 17, Senior Scott Parrett added 10, Tony Harrison got 8, while senior Tommy Payne added 5, Greg Mink got 2 and Robbie Mink had 3.

Two Powerful Reasons to BUY FORD NOW!

1. Increase your part-time farming and ranching production.
2. Decrease 1985 taxes with Investment Tax Credit and Depreciation.

Buying or leasing a new Ford tractor now, before the end of 1985, can mean substantial cash benefits to you through reduced tax liability, PLUS you'll have new Ford equipment NOW to increase your productivity.

At the 10% rate the investment credit on a $10,000 tractor would be $1,000 a net reduction from your tax, not merely a reduction of taxable income... PLUS 15% first year depreciation (accelerated cost recovery system) for even GREATER savings! To determine the actual tax effect of a 1985 purchase or lease of a new Ford tractor in your particular situation, consult your tax advisor.

And, you can benefit from the Ford 7 3/4% annual percentage rate finance program, or waiver of finance charges until March 1, 1986, with a 10 1/4% annual percentage rate for up to an additional 60 months.

We can give you all the details on eligible implements, financing and trade-in allowances.

"BOB WATKINS"

bring a decoy in the offense occasionally. A good sign.

Comment: Remarks made by Hawaii coach Frank Arnold summed up well enough.

"The kid is like a greyhound. I bet there isn't 5 percent body fat on the guy. He's strong, fast, rebounds, shoots and works so well without the ball. When he doesn't have the ball, he is working, walking and working so that when he catches the ball in the point he is in prime position to score. You know that he is going to have a great shot because he has worked so hard for it."

3. Winston Bennett is playing very well, not only taking medium range jump shots, but swishing them.

4. While it may change when the stakes become higher, say, against Indiana, Coach Sutton has remained under control at the bench instead of raving, pacing and 'working' the officials. A nice change.

5. Sutton teaches during a game too. On a number of occasions when substitutions were made, he spoke quietly with the outgoing player upon his arrival at the bench, presumably, pointing out ways to improve play.

6. While many fans believe that UK's success this season rests on Walker's shoulders, I suggest that is not the case. Two other things have to happen as well. The guards must score from the perimeter naturally, but perhaps more vital, UK must get help from Cedric Jenkins and Rob Lock.

Jenkins shows promise. The gangly 6-9, 205-pound sophomore is a raw talent at this point. But he is quick, jumps well and runs the floor well. He looks to be quite capable of becoming a good rebounder and playing solid defense, when the experience comes.

UK recruiting

Kentucky landed Rex Chapman and Reggie Hanson, but Wildcat recruiters struck out after that in the early signing period last month. Terry Mills, 6-10 chose Michigan; 6-11 James Munlyn from Winston, S.C., signed with Georgia Tech; 6-6 Ricky Jones of Pendleton, S. C. picked Clemson, 6-8 Larry Rembert chose with UAB; 6-9 John Fedor of Port Orange, Fla. picked Florida State.

Waiting till spring are 6-3 Kevin Pritchard who may be leaning to UNLV, 6-6 Derrick Miller who could have grade troubles, 6-7 Myron DeVoe of Louisville Western and 6-5 Nick Sanford of Cowdod.

Kentucky's rookies

About his 3-guard lineup UK Coach Eddie said last week. "We won't be able to start that club against a larger team."

True enough.

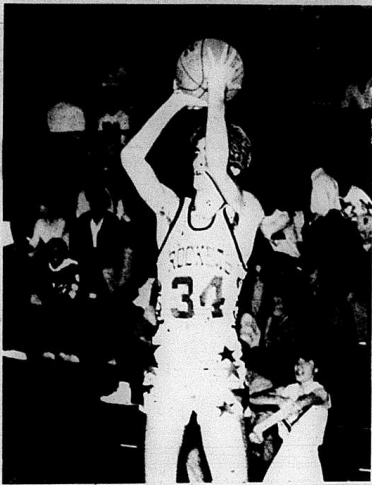

So, UK must get production at center and 6-9 rookie Cedric Jenkins looks to be the best bet. And the gangly sophomore can get some valuable experience on the Hawaii trip.

"The player off the bench who impressed me the most was Jenkins," Sutton said after the Northwestern State game. "He played very well I thought."

Jenkins did and he has the tools to be a major factor for UK—long arms, quickness and intelligence to get good rebounding position. He won't be much of a scorer, but that should not be a major problem if Winston Bennett is effective from medium range. And, if Richard Madison—who Senior Forward Tommy Payne shoots a jump shot during the Rockets 68-66 loss at home to Estill County Tuesday night. The Rocket varsity dropped the season opener as did the B-team by two points. Tommy had 5 points.

COZY COMPANIONS

...gifts that create a WARM SPOT

You can help someone on your gift list keep warm this winter while they save on heating bills.

Portable electric heaters and electric blankets create a "warm spot" while the heat is turned down in the rest of the house. This can save energy and money.

These "cozy companions" are 100 percent efficient, produce no offensive odors, don't require messy, flammable fuels and cost just pennies per day or night to operate.

For more information on how to save with portable electric heaters and electric blankets, contact your local KU office. Better yet, go to your nearby retailer and ask to see them.

appears to have eaten a few extra... (Cont. From B12)

But Jenkins is the key. For UK fans with good memory...

A few instances to stir a few memories. In 1956-57 UK had a rookie named Johnny Cox...

In 1964-65 there were two rookies-Louie Damperley averaged 17 points...

In 1965-66 Rupp's Runts were the NCAA finals. The key to the team was a 6-5 rookie center...

In 1972-73 there were three rookie starters-Kevin Grevey, 18.7 ppg...

In 1977-78 Kyle Macy was the rookie. He averaged 12.5 points and was playmaker in UK's march to a 39-2 season...

Why did May leave Kentucky? It just wasn't the ideal situation for me. The school was so large that I was lost...

When May was being recruited, did May receive any illegal offers?

People probably won't believe it but I never was. All of them (recruiters) went directly by the book...

When May was at Kentucky, did anyone hint that perhaps there might be some type of summer job or payoff? May: No, like say, I worked down there in the summer...

Western Kentucky. Western Kentucky plays in one of the country's toughest, if not the toughest, leagues...

Victories over Chamaine and Auburn in the Wendy's Classic this weekend...

Western showed itself to be a very fine basketball team when the Hilltoppers "smothered" Cincinnati last week in Bowling Green...

And yet Western shut Cincinnati down, which brings us to a bit of a quiz.

How many times can a college team shoot only 40 percent score four fewer field goals than an opponent...

1985 UK FOOTBALL REDSHIRTS: Eric Banks, Tom Curpene, Doug Hooper...

Table with columns for player name, position, and statistics. Includes names like Eric Banks, Tom Curpene, Doug Hooper, etc.

Message for Peter Ueberroth. A few months ago it was suggested expect to win a game? Answer: In the 1980s, smother and whittle.

Western Kentucky. College basketball fans in these parts will do well to watch for the Hilltoppers.

WKU and Auburn make it to the Wendy's Classic finals. I believe while the game won't receive the media hype it deserves...

Watch the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers.

UK football. Kentucky football coach Jerry Claiborne says there are 9 or so in-state prospects...

More immediately however, what follows is a list of UK's redshirts and leading returnees for next season.

from prosecution, admitted using hard drugs during their careers, should be punished by the commissioners.

In a recent public opinion down by the Washington Post and ABC television "nearly 3 of 4 Americans favor drug testing and nearly 68 percent say professional athletes should be using drugs for the first time...

All-Name Team. The college basketball season is well underway, but it isn't too late for your annual All-Name Team, is it?

At forwards: 6-7 Jayvis Bassnight, Nevada Las Vegas and 6-8 LaFester Rhodes, Iowa State.

At center: 6-8 Hartmut Ortman of Wake Forest. At guards: 6-1 PeeWee Barber of Florida State...

Parting shot. Like Kentucky, Indiana's high school basketball will employ a seat belt rule on coaches this season.

"They make this rule because they're afraid to step on one or two coaches. The officials already had the power to control any coach that got out of hand...

"If the officials don't have the nerve to do that," he went on, "they're not going to be very good officials anymore."

to enlighten the public in a matter as important as this. The people from drinking and driving during "D" Day...

"D" Day on Trafficways. The mission is to reduce the mess as a result of a close to improve it. The name for the exercise was derived from the actual "D" Day battle...

Symbiotic, this type of misadventure, government agencies, the driving public and media representatives could note a step in the right direction...

The theme for state and local law enforcement this "D" Day is "Together We Can Make A Difference."

During the French revolution, kings, queens and clerics were removed from the standard deck of cards. They were replaced with "nature," "liberty," and "virtue."

Russell Springs man arrested on I-75

A Russell County man was arrested the day before Thanksgiving by Kentucky State Police for illegal transportation of alcoholic beverages for the purpose of resale.

Agee McCorkle of Russell Springs was lodged in the Rockcastle County Jail after KSP Trooper E. L. Johnson, of Richmond, arrested him at the 67 mile marker of Interstate 75 in Rockcastle County.

According to police reports, McCorkle was transporting 100 cases of beer, 60 bottles of Kessler whiskey, 72 bottles of Heaven Hill whiskey, 12 bottles of Early Times whiskey, and one case of vodka. McCorkle filled a $400 cash bond and is scheduled for a Dec. 9 arraignment in Rockcastle District Court.

Police arrested McCorkle after several complaints were phoned in to the Richmond post. Police also impounded the 1975 Ford McCorkle was driving.

Santa to be at Brodhead-Mt. Vernon

Santa Claus will arrive at Mt. Vernon at 10 a.m. Saturday during the annual Christmas Parade. The parade will form at 9 a.m. at Mt. Vernon Elementary School.

Santa will arrive in Brodhead at 2 p.m. during the Christmas Parade through the downtown area.

Christmas Bazaar

Souder Nursing Home Christmas Bazaar and bake sale will be Saturday, Dec. 14. Donations of homemade or home-baked items will be appreciated. Free refreshments, punch and cookies.

Hospital fire

A transformer burned out of the heating system on the roof of the Rockcastle County Hospital last Sunday night around 7:30. The fire caused smoke to be pushed down into one side of the Skilled Nursing Facility.

The Mt. Vernon Fire Department was called to the scene, but found very little damage had occurred to the buildings. One wing of the Skilled Facility was evacuated while smoke cleared.

Thieves arrested

Two Mt. Vernon men and a Mt. Vernon juvenile were arrested early Tuesday morning after they reportedly stole a 1972 Chevy pickup from Robert Bryant of Mt. Vernon.

Earl Overbay, 19, Mike Baker, 19, and a juvenile were arrested at 2 a.m. Tuesday.

Overbay and Baker are being held in the Rockcastle County Jail in lieu of $10,000 bond. The juvenile was transferred to the Juvenile Detention Center in Pulaski County.

The three are also charged with the theft of a Pepsi machine from Franklin's Variety Store on U.S. 150 the same night.

The truck was recovered by police and the Pepsi machine was found at Sand Springs.

Members of the Rockcastle County Rescue Squad are shown above with the jaws-of-life that they recently purchased to assist them in freeing people from car wrecks. The jaws cost in excess of the $10,000.00 and the squad is taking donations to pay for it. All of the fire departments in the county have access to the tool. Above squad members are from left Mike Stewart, Randall Reynolds, Jack Weaver, David Bates, Gary Hansel, James Price and Rescue Director Paul Hansel.

Lower insurance rates

Brodhead survey planned

By: Ray McClure

Residents in Brodhead and western Rockcastle County may get a break on their insurance rates if the Insurance Service Office (ISO) approves a change in the area's insurance classification. The Brodhead City Council was told at its monthly meeting Monday night.

The ISO, located in Nashville, Tenn., will re-survey the area at the request of Brodhead Fire Chief Brian Bussell, who asked that the city's classification be changed from Class 7 to Class 6, and the county's from Class 10 to Class 9, now that there is a new city fire truck stationed at the Brodhead Fire Department Building.

The ISO will visit Brodhead during December. Its first survey since 1982.

The change in classification would mean city insurance customers would save an estimated 11 to 13 percent on their insurance rate, and the county from 18 to 20 percent.

The county rate would apply to persons living within a five mile radius of the fire station.

The council approved a motion to forward to the ISO a resolution indicating the fire department makes fire runs outside the city limits with the county truck and asking for a re-classification for rating purposes.

Chief Bussell told the council there have been no problems with the new county fire truck or equipment and reported the Brodhead department is in as good shape now as it has been in a long time.

He also reported the Seaboard Railroad will appraise the city-owned railroad owned parking lot opposite the Citizen's Bank for possible gift or sale to the city for use in building a new fire station.

The department personnel and others started a new addition to the present fire department building early in the fall, but it halted work when it was learned of the possibility of getting the lot as a gift.

The council also voted to give $1,000 toward the purchase of a Jaws of Life to be used throughout the county when needed. The fire department will give $250 and possibly $350. A motion to contribute the money was made by Mayor Ronnie Cash, seconded by Councilman Billy Bussell. Eddie Cash voted yes. D. A. Robbins voted no. He said although the tool, which is used to free persons trapped in wrecked autos or other situations, is worthwhile, he was opposed to "public money being spent for charity." Councilman Johnny Wilcox did not attend the meeting.

To date, the county has contributed $3,000 and the City of Mt. Vernon about $3,000, perhaps more. Some will be contributed by REACT. No report has yet been made whether Livingston will contribute. Actually, the tool is already purchased and was used during a recent wreck at Livingston.

A letter received by the city from the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet praised the city's efforts to remedy problems at the city sewer plant. The state said the sewer plant

"seems to be operating properly and in good condition at the time of the inspection."

One councilman suggested the city frame the letter since there had been so few from the state complimenting the city.

Present Fiscal Court holds final meeting

By: Ray McClure

It was time for saying "so long" and "goodbye" for the Rockcastle Fiscal Court Monday as the present court met for the last time.

When the magistrates get together on Jan. 7, the regular meeting date, there will be a new county judge/executive and five new magistrates.

Four of the five present magistrates and County Judge/Executive Bob Jasper were on hand for the last meeting. Only Magistrate Tom Denny did not attend.

The new court will be made up of County Judge/Executive Hubert Thacker and magistrates Glen Ellison, Doug Bishop, Jack Bradley, Amos Burdette and Donald Bullock.

At Tuesday meeting, the court directed County Attorney James H. Lambert to write the State of Indiana asking for $3,000 in hospital bills accumulated by Charles Hayes Allen of Richmond, Ind., who was arrested as a fugitive from justice from Indiana and jailed here awaiting extradition.

He remained in jail for four months. He claimed to be ill and was taken to Rockcastle County Hospital for treatment. He was wanted in Indiana on a drug charge.

Board reports deficit during previous year

By: Richard Anderlin

The Rockcastle County School Board spent $228,299 more last year than they took in, according to the audit report of the General Fund by William E. Robinson, a Certified Public Accountant from Greensburg.

Robinson told board members in his report during Tuesday night's regular monthly meeting the board had only $287,569 in excess funds at the end of the 1984-85 fiscal year.

That figure is in comparison to a $515,868 balance in 1983-84.

In his report Robinson told the board they should consider the number of classes that can be combined to receive the maximum reimbursement from the state, consider the possibility of any jobs which can be combined to be performed by one employee, consider the formation of a community committee to consist of representatives from the community, board and teachers. The committee would promote public awareness of the financial obligation and needs to the school district. The committee should recommend cost saving ideas for the board's consideration and implementation.

Robinson suggested the board consider an incentive for early retirement of employees. A suggestion is to offer 30 percent of City wants lighting grant

An application for a grant of $25,000 to light the Ballpark at Lake Linville was made recently by the Mt. Vernon City Council at a called meeting.

If the grant is approved and the lights installed, the adult softball teams will play at Lake Linville ballpark, leaving the elementary school children to use the ballpark at Mt. Vernon Elementary School.

The lighting is the last of the development program at the park, according to Mayor Roland Mullins.

The grant money would come from the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, along with federal money from the Land and Water Conservation Fund administered by the National Park Service.

accumulated sick days to be paid for retirement at the earliest possible year. The second year they would pay 15 percent and zero percent for the third year; aid limit total accumulated sick days to 185 days.

Rockcastle County School Superintendent Charles Parsons said the board now offers 15 percent on accumulated sick days toward retirement and that an employee can get as many as 300 days built up.

The superintendent also gave some reasons for the drastic cut into the board's excess money over the past few years, and especially last year.

Declining enrollment is the big factor, according to Parsons, who said that since 1980 enrollment in Rockcastle schools has fallen off by 207 students.

He said that 207 constitutes 7.6 units as far as the state is concerned among the local system has not cut back on the number of teachers. In fact, the system has more teachers now than it did five

EPA asks for brine report from drillers

Thirty oil well operators in Kentucky have been told by the Environmental Protection Agency that they must submit comprehensive information on brine discharge and a schedule to meet a new chloride limit to stop discharges, according to a release by the EPA.

Included in the group was Ecus Corporation of Mt. Vernon. That well, being dug in a Scaffold Cane area, has been plugged.

Similar notifications were issued to 60 other operators on Oct. 18 and Nov. 4.

According to the EPA, the operators have been asked to identify their discharges on brine-ancient seawater that is a by-product of oil production—that are not covered by state and federal permit.

Operators are also asked to present a plan to bring brine discharges into compliance with the in-stream chloride limit of 600 parts per million. Chloride is the main pollutant in brine.

Three young Rockcastle County men and a Decatur Indiana youth were injured last Thursday, (Thanksgiving Day) when the above pictured 1965 Buick they were driving left the road in downtown Livingston and struck a tree. The driver of the car Harvey D. Bond, 21 of Livingston was cited for D.U.I. after his southbound car failed to negotiate a curve in town, went through a yard and hit the tree. Bond was injured as well as Gary Sturgill 24 of Livingston, Bobby Bond 14 of Livingston and the Indiana youth. Sturgill is in U.K. Medical Center while the other passengers have been released.

U.S./SOVIET SUMMIT BEGINS THE PEACE PROCESS

We all owe a debt of gratitude to our President this week for a job well done.

After six years of near cold war and strained relations between the United States and the Soviet Union, President Reagan and Soviet Premier Mikhail Gorbachev sat down in Geneva to talk about Soviet/American relations. President Reagan was able to force Mr. Gorbachev to confront the most critical issues facing both nations, especially the threat of nuclear war. The two leaders did as President Reagan promised before he left for Geneva: "We will leave no issue buried no matter how uncomfortable or inconvenient."

After 15 hours of discussion -- including 5 hours face to face with only interpreters present (a meeting President Reagan calls the fireside summit) -- the two leaders emerged with some major accomplishments.

I am extremely encouraged by the agreement of both leaders to meet again in the United States next June and in the Soviet Union in 1987. This successful summit is only a first step toward peace. If we are to continue the peace process, we must continue to meet and discuss those issues which affect us all.

I am also particularly pleased that we have reached an agreement on air safety in the North Pacific. As part of the accord, the Soviets have agreed for the first time to allow aircraft in emergency situations to land in the Soviet Union. They have also agreed to participate in a voice communications link between air traffic controllers in Anchorage, Tokyo and Khabarovsk in the Soviet Far East, to communicate about lost or unidentified aircraft. This agreement will hopefully prevent tragedies like the downing of the Korean Airlines jet in September of 1984.

President Reagan and Soviet Premier Gorbachev agreed to reduce offensive nuclear arms 50 percent. And we have agreed to open a U.S. consulate in Kiev while the Soviets open a consulate in New York.

We have clearly made progress in our relations with the Soviets, but we have a long way to go. We must continue to fight the spread of communism wherever it begins to grow. We cannot condone the Soviet support of Marxist revolution in Central America and their continuing support of Cuban communists. We cannot tolerate the terrible war against the innocent people of Afghanistan where horror stories abound about brutality against the civilian population.

We are lucky to live in a free and strong country led by an effective President. Let us hope the continued negotiations between the two most powerful leaders in the world will lead us on a path to peace.

Legislative Report

By: Representative Danny Ford

With the 1986 session of the General Assembly due to convene on Jan. 7, the pace of state government activity quickens.

The legislature's interim committees are issuing their final reports and almost 200 bills have been prefiled.

During November, the Legislative Research Commission conducted a two-day workshop on federal issues at the Capitol. The workshop focused on actions taken by the federal government which will have an impact on the state. Included were such topics as the federal budget process, tax-reform and bond-market policies, Medicaid and agriculture.

Also, the day after the Federal Issues workshop, a one-day seminar on several issues related to criminal justice was held.

Later this month, on Dec. 17, a one-day budget seminar has been scheduled at the Capitol Annex. An overview of the 1986-88 state budget will be discussed, beginning at 9 a.m.

During the day, the budget will be broken down and discussed according to state government cabinets. The seminar will conclude at 4:30 p.m.

Enactment of the state's biennial or two-year budget is the single most important responsibility of the legislature as empowered by the Constitution.

As a member of the Appropriations and Revenue Committee, the budget-making and monitoring process is continuous throughout both legislative sessions and interim periods.

Over the past few years the legislature, in the form of its investigative committees which are arms of the Appropriations Committee, has kept a close watch over state expenditures and as a result many tax dollars have been saved.

For example, last month the Personal Service Contract Review Subcommittee disapproved a $93,000 state audit contract to a pair of Louisville accounting firms because it was revealed that another accounting firm, a nationally respected firm at that, had submitted a bid to do the same work for $60,000.

Naturally, the committee was curious as to why the lower bid never received serious consideration from the agencies responsible for awarding the contract, the State Auditor's office and the Department of Education.

The motivation for such a questionable action became obvious in light of the fact that executives of the companies that offered the $93,000 bid had contributed a total of $8,300 to the 1983 election campaigns of State Auditor Mary Ann Tobin and Education Superintendent Alice McDonald.

Also, it was reported that one of the aforementioned executives had served as a chief fundraiser for Tobin.

This highly questionable and irresponsible use of taxpayer dollars received a resounding veto from the legislature.

Clearly, the legislature rejected the contract because state agencies must not be allowed to practice the type of shady political favoritism which turns campaign contributions into investments that render lucrative dividends at taxpayer expense.

And, the legislature rejected the contract because state agencies must realize that their overriding concern must be to contract for the best possible service at the lowest reasonable cost.

In a situation like this where there are two firms of equal stature and ability and one firm's bid is $33,000 less than the other, a state agency must take the lowest bid. After all, this is why we have competitive bidding in the first place.

As your representative in the legislature, I am always happy to hear your thoughts on issues related to our Commonwealth. I would like to encourage you to write or call me at any time. During the 1986 session, I can be reached through a toll-free number. 1-800-372-7181.

IRA Record Keeping

The Internal Revenue Service has issued temporary and proposed regulations on recordkeeping requirements for the business use of automobiles and certain other property.

The regulations result from Public Law 99-44, in which Congress repealed the requirement for contemporaneous recordkeeping imposed by the Tax Reform Act of 1984. Public Law 99-44 requires that for tax years beginning after 1985 taxpayers must prove the business use of cars and certain other property with "adequate records or by sufficient evidence corroborating the taxpayer's own statement." The regulations are required from the legislative history of P.L. 99-44 and will provide guidance to taxpayers on the application of this recordkeeping requirement.

The new regulations clarify that contemporaneous logs are not required and include several special rules to minimize the burden of recordkeeping. These include a sampling technique that can be used instead of continuous recordkeeping and a safe harbor for farmers. The regulations also identify a number of "qualified nonpersonal use vehicles"--such as tractors and vehicles over 14,000 pounds--that are exempt from the new recordkeeping rules. The use of these special vehicles will not result in income when provided to an employee.

IRS also announced today that it will soon issue regulations on the tax treatment of fringe benefits. The regulation will permit use of an employer-provided allowance to value the personal use of an employer-provided vehicle regularly used in the employer's business, provided that the vehicle has a fair market value of $12,800 or less. This rule will apply as of January 1, 1985.

Today's regulations on recordkeeping were published in the Federal Register on November 6, 1985. Copies of this issue of the Federal Register may be obtained by sending $1.50 to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402.

It's safe to donate blood

This past year we have all heard or read about AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) and related issues frequently. Central Kentucky Blood Center wants to clear up some apparent confusion about one related issue.

The related issue is the safety of donating blood. You can't get AIDS or any other infectious disease from donating blood. All materials used are sterile, used one time for one donor, then discarded and destroyed.

Last year one of ten patients hospitalized in Shelby received a blood transfusion. The only source is the volunteer donor. At least 170 donors are needed daily to keep the lifeline flowing. For more information about donating, call Central Kentucky Blood Center, toll-free at 1-800-432-9528.

The Medicine Chest

By: Tina Cain Hasty, RPh

'Tis the season to be jolly... and the season to be bothered by stuffy nose, scratchy throat, and other symptoms of colds, flu or upper respiratory infections. These could even keep Santa Claus from being jolly. Luckily there are many over-the-counter drugs that treat these symptoms.

If you've ever closely read labels of cough/cold products, you'll know that there are many different ingredients in many different combinations available. This can be confusing, especially if you have several different symptoms. Some general terms to look for are antihistamines, decongestants, expectorants, cough suppressants, analgesics, and anesthetics.

Antihistamines are used for watery eyes, sneezing, runny nose, etc. They are used for allergies as well as in cold products. One disadvantage of antihistamines is their tendency to cause drowsiness. Decongestants are used in cold products for ear or nasal congestion. They are available orally or as nasal sprays or drops. The sprays and drops should not be used over 3-4 days since they can cause a rebound effect of more congestion.

Cough suppressants are available alone or more commonly in combination with other drugs. They simply reduce the frequency of a cough. Common side effects are nausea and drowsiness.

Expectorants are used to facilitate the removal of phlegm and to prevent the frequency of the cough from causing exhaustion. These are often used in conjunction with cough suppressants.

Analgesics are used for fever and body aches. But if a fever is present and persists for more than 24 hours in spite of over-the-counter drugs, a physician should be contacted. Another important note is that many cold products contain analgesics. So if you are taking a cold product, check the ingredients for analgesics. You might not need to take anything else.

Anesthetics are used in lozenges and sprays for sore throats due to their numbing effects. These, like the other drugs listed, are only used to treat symptoms. They will not treat the underlying cause of the illness. Any persisting symptoms should be checked by a doctor.

The next time you go to the drug store to pick up a cold product, check the labels.

"Mary didn't seem as sick today so I gave her just half a dose of medicine. I gave her just a tad less than the second mark on that whatchamacallit." Such dosings is, of course, not what the doctor or drug manufacturer intended. Drugs for children are usually in liquid form and accurate measuring is important. Here are some guidelines. A standard teaspoon is 5cc (cubic centimeters) or ml (milliliters) or thousandth of a liter). A standard tablespoon is 15 cc, or ml. The problem is that the size of teaspoons and tablespoons vary greatly, not only in size, but in how much they hold depending upon who says they are full and how thick the medicine is in them. Teaspoons were shown to vary from 4 to 9 cc and tablespoons by correspondingly greater amounts.

Doctors and pharmacists are guilty of referring to drug dosages in teaspoons and tablespoons. You should ask your doctor or pharmacist for a measuring spoon or even better, for a syringe to measure the drugs for greater accuracy. I know of no accurate way to account for the amount the child may get on his chin or may spit out if he doesn't want to swallow. If you use a syringe, you can place it a little ways back in the infant's mouth and push slowly on the plunger and he will have to swallow the contents. This should reduce the amount of spill. If the child vomits the medicine immediately, you should wait a half hour and repeat the dose. If he vomits after 45 minutes or an hour and may have absorbed the dose, or part of it, then it is better to wait until the next dose.

Try to work out a schedule to remember to get the medicine given at somewhere near the times indicated to get the best effect.

By: Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Sunday School attendance at the Fairview Baptist Church Nov. 24 was 121 with several more for worship service. Our average attendance for the month of November is 122. Thank God for each and every one.

Please remember in your prayers those who are on the sick list, Gustava Peters, Mrs. Anne Linville, Tip Reppert, and George Wren. Also Virgie Tinch of Franklin, Ohio, Charles Noland of Independence, and Joy Wren of Richmond.

We always need to pray for the sick, the heart-broken, and those who are bereaved in any way. If we have the love of God in our heart, we love people and are concerned about them.

Hubert Chasteen visited Tip Reppert on Tuesday of last week. Miss Dorothy Lambert and Mary Lou Reynolds of Augusta, Ga. spent last week at the home of Mrs. Della Lambert and family.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Coe were their daughter, Mrs. Jean Hayes, and husband, Frankie, and their daughter, Mrs. Brenda Hall, and son, Colton, of Winchester. Also another daughter, Mrs. Helen Powell, of Berea, and her son, Dwayne Spires, of Little Creek.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Peters on Friday were her sisters, Esther Hill and Abbie Perry, and Mr. Perry. On Sunday afternoon her brother, Charles Noland, and Mrs. Noland visited with them.

Saturday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Chasteen were Darrin Chasteen of Fairview and Mr. and Mrs. James Seals and Kim of Paint Lick (Indian Hills). Kim stayed overnight and attended Sunday School and church at Fairview.

Sylvester Cope of Berea visited his brother, Willie Cope, and Mrs. Cope on Friday.

We are having a beautiful autumn, not much cool weather so far, but quite a bit of rain. Everyone's flowers in planters and hanging pots are just beautiful. Just another blessing from God. He is so good to us and gives us everything we have. And we thank

State Police to step up enforcement

A variety of enforcement efforts will be utilized by Kentucky State Police during the coming holiday season.

The high-speed pursuit vehicles, which were introduced on the Labor Day Weekend, will be on the road this holiday season. The vehicles are lighter, more powerful and have standard transmissions. These unmarked cars contain state-of-the-art radar and VASCAR (Visual Average Speed Computer and Recorder).

The radar units are easy to operate with features that assist the operator. The Units have two target windows, as opposed to one in previous models; which enables the reader to lock in the moving vehicle and continue to track the speed at the same time.

VASCAR is a totally different concept, measuring time and distance to calculate speed.

The troopers that drive these vehicles have been specially trained to handle the added maneuverability of these cars.

Visual Display Radars will also be used on several of the state's interstate and primary roads. These display units show the approaching driver what speed he or she is driving and make adjustments to 55 MPH if needed.

Traffic checkpoints will be implemented along with the use of the new Mobile Breath Testing Unit. This DUI van is equipped with a breathalyzer, so a person arrested for driving under the influence can be tested there on the spot.

Operation C.A.R.E. (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) will also be in progress during the holidays. C.A.R.E. is a combined nationwide effort to enforce and make the public aware of three major highway safety issues:

- 1) The national 55 MPH speed limit.
- 2) The danger of mixing drinking and driving.
- 3) The life-saving use of safety belts and child safety seats.

Those out on the road this holiday season should take time to buckle-up themselves and those in the vehicle with them.

"Eleven people were killed while riding or driving in a motor vehicle last Thanksgiving holiday. None were in safety belts and seven of those were totally or partially ejected from their vehicles," says KSP Commissioner Moran T. Elkins.

The Mt. Vernon Signal Thursday, December 5, 1985 P.47

In addition, all 11 of those killed in motor vehicles were victims of a driver under the influence of alcohol. "This is a staggering number: 100 percent of those that died while riding in or driving a vehicle last Thanksgiving were in an alcohol-related crash," says Commissioner Elkins.

In total, 12 people died in nine fatal accidents over the 1984 Thanksgiving season. One of those 12 was a pedestrian accident.

This time of year is usually the beginning of inclement weather. With bad weather comes dangerous road conditions. The Kentucky State Police would also like to take this time to discuss winter weather driving tips:

- Check the car's condition. Make sure the battery is fully charged and in good condition.
- Check the ignition system for faulty wires or a cracked distributor cap.
- Keep sufficient antifreeze in the radiator and check for deteriorating hoses and belts.
- Always keep the gas tank

Double Jeopardy

By: Benny Ham

QUESTION: How many times can a person be tried on a criminal charge before they are required to be turned loose?

ANSWER: This raises the subject of double jeopardy.

And it is a complicated question. The rule starts out simply enough. The United States Constitution prohibits anyone from being tried twice held in jeopardy for the same crime. What this means basically is that a person cannot be tried twice for the same crime.

From here on in, the rule gets very complicated.

For instance, when does jeopardy attach? When the judge calls the court to order? When the jury is sworn? Or when the verdict is returned?

The old rule in Kentucky was that jeopardy attached whenever the jury was sworn to try the case. The current rule is that jeopardy attaches whenever the first witness is sworn.

What happens, for example, if midway through the trial and after the first witness is sworn, a defendant gets sick or a juror collapses from a heart attack. A mistrial is declared by the trial judge. Can the defendant be tried again even though jeopardy attached with the swearing of the first witness?

Both the common sense answer and the legal one are the same. If jeopardy has attached in a trial—that is, the first witness has been sworn—and a mistrial is entered through no fault of the prosecution, then the defendant can be tried again.

Mistrials are most often declared in cases of a hung jury when there is a deadlock and a unanimous verdict cannot be obtained. The judge simply sends the jury home, and the case is reset for trial. This does not violate the double jeopardy provision of the constitution since the termination of the case was neither final nor the fault of the prosecution.

If, on the other hand, a mistrial is declared during the trial due to something which the

Tobacco marketing quota

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is seeking public comments on the national marketing quota and level of price support for the 1986 crop of burley tobacco.

The 1986 quota will be based on estimated 1986 usage and on any needed inventory adjustment. The 1986 price support is based on the 1985 support plus adjustments for changing costs.

Current law requires USDA to announce the national poundage quota for burley tobacco for the 1986-87 marketing year no later than Feb. 1. Within 30 days after the announcement, growers will hold a referendum whether quotas should be in effect for the 1986, 1987 and 1988 marketing years. The 1988 marketing year begins Oct. 1, 1986.

Due to the lower price support for 1985 crop burley tobacco provided by P.L. 99-157 approved November 15, calculations pertaining to the size of the quota and support level for 1986 are being reviewed. Accordingly, a revision of the Notice of Proposed Determination which appeared in the Federal Register of November 18, 1985, is in process and will soon be published.

The deadline for receiving written comments on the 1986 program is being extended from Dec. 31 to Jan. 10. These comments should be sent to the Director, Commodity Analysis Division, USDA-ASCS, P.O. Box 245, Washington, D.C. 20013. These comments will be available for public inspection in Room 3741 of USDA's South Building, 14th and Independence Ave., S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250.

prosecution has done in bad faith, and the first witness has already been sworn, the double jeopardy provision will prohibit it from being tried again. For instance, if the prosecutor makes an illegal or improper closing argument, and upon motion by the defense lawyer a mistrial is given, in all likelihood the case will be over once and for all.

Many people confuse a double jeopardy matter with cases which are ordered retried by appellate courts. For example, if a person is charged, tried, and convicted of murder, that conviction may be appealed. Furthermore, the appellate court may decide there was error in the trial and reverse the verdict. If the case is reversed and remanded—as is the practice in most cases which are overturned—then the state can retry the defendant. Some cases are reversed but not remanded. In instances where it is not possible for the wrong imposed on the defendant at the trial level to be made right, then the appellate court will simply reverse and order the charge be dismissed. A reversal where the defendant was denied the right to a speedy trial would be an example of this triable harm.

There is another tricky little part dealing with jeopardy and the appellate process. If the defendant is charged with murder which carries a sentence of from twenty years to life, and a jury finds that person guilty of manslaughter

TOY-GIVING TIPS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

More toys are being during the holiday season than at any other time of the year. Around now, doing friends and relatives can also be found busily handcrafting toys to give as special presents. Whether you're a toy purchaser or toy maker, take note of these tips:

A toy should enhance a child's creativity, thinking skills, and muscle-motor coordination.

*Choose toys that are sturdy, safe, and versatile. To get the most for your money, give toys that can grow with the child.

*Before purchasing or making a gift for a child, check with his or her parents or older siblings to find out about the child's interests and abilities, as well as what toys he or she already has.

*When buying toys for children under three, avoid those with small parts that can be ingested and toys with sharp points and edges. The Toy Manufacturers of America's Safety Standards includes special requirements for Testing

"FISCAL COURT" (Cont. From Front)

The court agreed since he was the prisoner of that state, Indiana should pay the hospital bill. The court agreed to reconstruct or repair a high-water 50-foot bridge leading to property of Fred Doan at Blue Springs. The present bridge floods out and is in need of repair or reconstruction. Doan suffers a heart condition, the court was told, and the bridge is the only access.

The court voted to add two roads on the county road plan. One is Houk Road, about a half-mile long just off Old Broadhead Road and leading to three houses and a mobile home. The other is Houston Point Road, about a half-mile long, off U.S. 150 between Mt. Vernon and Broadhead.

When the magistrates adjourned, Magistrate Joe Clark said, "All right, I'm turning the rock over to Donald Bullock." He was talking about road gravel and the new magistrate.

"SCHOOL BOARD" (Cont. From Front)

year ago. Parsons also laid much of the blame for dwindling funds on the state, saying it was getting harder each year to meet state standards. The superintendent also admitted the excess money in the General Fund would be even less next year because there were more teachers in the school system than the state would pay for.

All this bad news also put a dark cloud over the new building for Mt. Vernon Elementary School.

"Looking ahead to the 1986-87 school year with the General Fund operating on a close budget, I feel it would be unsafe financially to commit local funds which are needed for school operation. This could cause a financial problem in 1986-87. I recommend the following time table for reconstruction: 1986-employ architect and start planning details; 1987-establish restricted building account, and 1988-start building program if funds are available." Parsons said.

"To commit all capital outlay funds at this time would render the board unable financially to make necessary repairs on the furnace breakdown or a roof," Parsons further stated.

He also noted that the vocational school will need a new roof this spring at an estimated cost of $60,000.

In order for the school district to establish a restrictive fund account, they must put all capital outlay money from the state; all bonding potential; the general fund; and all of the new tax revenue collected into the fund. Parsons stressed to the board that he did not think it would be sound judgment to commit all of this money now.

The state's accreditation team has said Mt. Vernon Elementary needs a new building before any other construction is done in the county.

In other business the board voted to --approve a leave-of-absence for Mrs. Delphia Cox, due to family illness, effective Dec. 4.

--employ Alwanda Falin, Mildred Renee Wolf, Melinda Pillion and Tammy Hamm as substitute teachers, subject to certification.

--approve G.E.D. certificates for Yolanda Ramsey, James L. Ferguson and Debbie S. Bishop.

Farmers receiving higher prices for commodities

At mid-November, Kentucky farmers were receiving slightly higher prices for several commodities than they received in October, according to the Kentucky Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

"Though in many cases the increases in November were small, several commodities are bringing much higher prices for farmers than they did at this time last year," said Agriculture Commissioner David E. Boswell. "We must be encouraged by this upward trend."

The mid-November beef cattle price of $47.20 was up from the October average of $45.90 and up $3.20 from the November 1984 price of $44.

Calves had a mid-November price of $58.30 compared with an average price of $56.10 for October. Both prices this year were up from the October 1984 price of $51 and the November 1984 price of $49.70.

Corn, which had an average price of $2.23 per bushel for October, was up slightly to a mid-month price of $2.36 a bushel for November.

Soybeans continued their upward move with a mid-month price of $5.08 per bushel, compared to the October average of $5.03. Both prices this fall were considerably lower than the November 1984 average of $6.19.

Wheat had a mid-November price of $3.17 a bushel, up from the October average of $2.80, but lower than the 1984 November price of $3.42.

The November index of Prices Received by U.S. Farmers for All Farm Products increased three points (2.4 percent) from October to 126 percent of its January-December 1977 average. Higher prices for cattle, broilers, corn, strawberries and oranges were partially offset by lower prices for lemons, hogs and grapefruit. The Index was 10 points (7.4 percent) below last year.

The Index of Prices Paid by U.S. Farmers for Commodities and services, interest, taxes and farm wage rates for November was 163 percent of its 1977 average. This is one point higher than a month earlier, but one point (6 percent) lower than in November 1984.

wipers and use an antifreeze-washer solution.

Have the exhaust system checked and brakes properly adjusted.

Make sure headlights, brake lights and turn signals are clean and operating.

Check tire inflation pressure.

Use snow tires when needed.

Carry additional equipment: flashlight, ice scraper, tire chains, snow brush, sand or traction mats, small snow shovel, cleaning rag, boots, cables, extra fuses and blankets.

Driving in winter weather is hazardous. Don't get into ice and snow-covered roads unless absolutely necessary. If you do, stay well behind other cars. Clear air windows, lights and mirrors of ice and snow. Start your car gently and move slowly. Use extra speed at the bottom of a hill to help you over the top and avoid braking while going downhill.

When you stop, pump the brakes for maximum steering control. Downshift when possible. If you can't shift up on the accelerator—don't brake. Steer in the direction the rear of the vehicle is skidding. After you regain control of this vehicle, slow down by pumping the brakes lightly.

Crop residue management

By: Steve Hieneman
Soil Conservation Service

Crop Residue Management is a very good and easy to use conservation practice that can be carried out with very little expense and with a minimum amount of labor. This is a conservation practice that can be used with a small amount of management but still do a good job in controlling erosion.

• Corn stubble is a very good source of a residue that can be left on the field after the corn has been picked and helps a great deal in the control of soil erosion. The residue on the field also serves the land by helping to conserve moisture and if increases, the infiltration and improves the tilth of the soil. The residue can be left on the field over winter and plowed under at planting time. Another effect that crop residue has on the land is that it improves the organic matter content of the soil which plays a big part in crop development during the growing season.

Crop residue management may be a practice that all farmers who grow corn or other grains should consider to help control soil erosion and reduce the loss of vital nutrients necessary for growth.

The Soil Conservation Service will be happy to assist you at any time. If you have any questions, call us at 256-2541.

Report to Kentucky

SENATOR WENDELL FORD
 U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510

SENATE PASSES FARM BILL

After months of debate, the Senate finally finished work on its farm bill. Senators will now meet in a Conference Committee with members of the U.S. House of Representatives to work out differences between their separate pieces of agriculture legislation.

In my opinion, neither farm bill goes far enough toward maintaining farm income. However, the Senate and House both resisted Administration attempts to decrease farm income through drastic reductions in deficiency payments, the difference between target prices and loan rates.

While they are not ideal, both farm bills mark an improvement over agriculture legislation of the past. I am especially pleased that both contain provisions to boost U.S. farm exports and to take our highly erosion-prone land out of production. This is a must for preserving cropland for tomorrow.

Target prices will be a key item to be negotiated by Senate and House conferees.

The five-year House bill would freeze subsidy rates at current levels through 1990. I argued, in Senate debate, that as a minimum we needed a four-year freeze. The Senate bill, as passed, is essentially a two-year freeze.

Soybean farmers should know that I attempted to pass an amendment that would have established a $4.50 a bushel minimum loan rate. While that failed, I believe it helped push the Senate toward its passage of the compromise level of $4.25 a bushel for the next four years. I hope that level can be increased during negotiations of the House-Senate Conference.

I opposed a Senate-passed proposal which twisted basic elements of a long-term plan, for budgetary reasons, into a one-year package. In exchange for a $35 an acre payment, the minimum floor for soybeans would be removed. I believe the effect of the proposal could be reduced income and, in the long term, erosion of market stability.

The Senate bill's dairy provision calls for continuing the current price support system. However, it allows cuts in the price support rate, beginning in 1987, when surpluses exceed certain levels. I opposed an amendment that would have resulted in a price support reduction beginning in 1986. It would have cost U.S. dairy farmers nearly $200 million in lost income.

Our important export market would benefit from a proposed $2 billion-a-year in-kind export bonus program contained in the Senate bill. This would make our commodities more competitive abroad, with another $325 million to go specifically to offset the effects of subsidies which other nations put on their exports.

About $4 billion a year would be made available in short-term export credit guarantees, as well as $400 million annually in intermediate export loan guarantees. The Senate bill also extends the Food For Peace program which provides food aid to developing nations.

It is clear that agriculture, which is responsible for 22.5 million farm and non-farm jobs, is simply too important an industry to allow farm income to fall further. It is already experiencing its worst period since the Depression. Farm state lawmakers must now turn our attention to seeking further legislative improvements in the House-Senate Conference.

KET FAMILY VIEWING for December

by Debbie Ward Baker

The holiday season brings with it magic, mystery, and a special aura. It is a time of family togetherness and unity. As we grow older, adults relive the spirit and magic of the season through the eyes of children.

With the approaching holiday season, many television presentations convey that magical element. In December, your local KET stations will offer a variety of holiday presentations, both traditional and new. Whatever the status of the programs offered, all promise enjoyment and pleasure for a variety of tastes.

The fantasy of the holiday season will be presented in "A Box of Delights." This two-hour "Wonderworks" special will air Saturday, Dec. 28, at 6 p.m. (ET), 5 p.m. (CT). It is repeated Sunday, Dec. 29, at 10:30 a.m. (ET), 9:30 a.m. (CT).

Coming home from boarding school for what he thinks will be an ordinary holiday vacation, schoolboy Kay Harker meets Old Cole Hawkins who gives him a Box of Delights for safekeeping while he confronts a villain.

With the magic box, Kay is taken on a series of mystical adventures.

"Wonderworks" presentations should be reserved family viewing each week. Many of the shows are based upon books and provide a catalyst for communication within families.

Communication with your child will be the essence if you watch the "Wonderworks" presentation, "Bridge to Terabithia," which airs Saturday, Dec. 14, at 7 p.m. (ET), 6 p.m. (CT). It is repeated Sunday, Dec. 15, at 11 a.m. (ET), 10 a.m. (CT).

In an imaginary land called "Terabithia," two fifth-graders experience and share in an unending friendship and love which lasts longer than life itself. The friendship of Jesse Aarons and Leslie Burke changes Jesse forever and enables him to face an unexpected tragedy.

Your children will want, and need, to talk about "Bridge to Terabithia."

Several musical presentations will have appeal to both youth and adult family members. One such program is "The Glory of Christmas: A Louisville Bach Society Concert for Young People." The program airs Monday, Dec. 23, at 9 p.m. (ET), 8 p.m. (CT).

The story of the Nativity will be presented through classic choral music of Bach, Handel and Schutz, as well as familiar Christmas carols. Additionally, a popular account of the origins of some of our best-loved carols is given.

Comet Tales*

Halley's Comet is coming back! History's most famous comet is due to pass by the earth once more in 1986.

Did you know that the last time Halley's Comet appeared was in 1910? Sensational newspaper stories caused some minor mass hysteria — people heard there were some poisonous gases in the tail and feared that the world might come to an end.

During the 1910 appearance, much was learned about the comet for the first time. As it approached the Sun, its tail grew at the rate of a half an inch miles per day and was estimated to be 100 million miles at one time.

The Comet hasn't come back yet, but strange stories about its reappearance are already getting started. Some youngsters, for instance, pretend a group of strange creatures are hiding in the Comet's tail, ready to invade Earth.

Those cosmic creatures are the Parasites, new action toys from Matchbox Miniatures. They minimize their size by folding and squeezing into their own vehicles — to hide from unsuspecting humans. Pull the vehicle apart and a Parasite emerges.

Who is the Mystery Citizen?

Can you identify December's Mystery Citizen? This month's mystery citizen is 24 years old, he likes to do his business in the evening hours. A graduate of Rockcastle County high school you can find him at his work place six days a week.

Although it may look like it in the above photo this month's mystery citizen does not have a beard. That is the shadow from the flash.

If you think you can identify the mystery citizen, you must be the first caller to correctly identify him. Calls will not be accepted until Friday morning at 9 a.m. This will give everyone in the county a chance at the prize. Remember no calls will be accepted until Friday morning.

The winner cannot be part of the mystery citizen's immediate family. No brothers, sisters, husbands, wives, parents, grandchildren or children are eligible.

This month's winner will receive a 18 lb. turkey, which has been donated by Rockcastle County Circuit Court Clerk Denver Miller.

If your business would like to sponsor the mystery citizen contest, please notify the SIGNAL office.

Cecil Dailey, a long time Christian Church preacher, was honored with a plaque in appreciation of his service to the Rockcastle County hospital. Dailey has served as chaplain for 29 years and donated many hours of free electrical work to the hospital. Administrator Wayne Stewart, at right, presented the plaque.

Winter arrives in County on rain, snow and cold wind

It took awhile, but winter finally arrived this week accompanied by snow flurries and frigid temperatures even though officially winter is still over two weeks away.

After what seemed a warmer than usual fall, the temperature dipped to a low of 13 degrees early Tuesday morning (Dec. 2), according to the weather station at Cox Funeral Home in Mt. Vernon.

It was a warm 56 degrees on Dec. 1 with a low of 43 degrees. Then came the rain and wind and down went the mercury to an overnight low of 20 degrees. That was followed by snow flurries that continued through Monday and Monday night, leaving a trace on grassy spots early Tuesday.

The first snowfall in 1984 was on Dec. 6 when an inch fell overnight. The sudden change in the weather sent residents digging through closets for coats, hats and gloves. Many autos also had a cold time when batteries failed.

"I didn't think we'd have any cold weather," one resident said as he braved the howling wind on the Signal corner. "Boy, was I wrong."

Another person who was questioned said, "it's winter and I kinda like winter, even deep snow."

The smart ones, most agreed, have already found a warm spot in Florida.

For the record, it was a wet November. It rained, or there was a trace of rain, 22 days for a total of 6.06 inches. But that was less than November 1984 when rainfall measured 7.09 inches.

The most rain this past November was on Nov. 27 when 1.50 inches fell, followed by 1.35 inches on Nov. 28, and .52 of an inch on Nov. 17.

Second annual "D" Day

The second annual "D" Day on Trafficways will be observed again this year on Friday, Dec. 13. "An Uhhilku Day for Drunk Drivers" and will usler in President Reagan's Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week, Dec. 15 to 21, including Rockcastle.

Operation C.A.R.E. (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) sponsors "D" Day, which is a concentrated enforcement effort by local and state police agencies to remove impaired drivers from the roads. The effort will include sobriety checkpoints, joint roadblocks, managed by officers from both states and joint DUI patrols by state and local police agencies on high-density traffic and high-accident rate roadways. The intensified effort will run from 4 p.m. on Dec. 13 through 5 a.m. Dec. 14.

Public perception of the danger involved in alcohol/drugged driving is on the increase.

The Fourth Annual Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week highlights activities that not only include police agencies, but also these various organizations and individuals that want to participate.

Kentucky State Police urge all citizens to abstain from drinking and driving at all times, but be particularly aware of the dangers combination during Awareness Week and the upcoming holiday seasons.

According to the U.S. Department of Transportation and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, one person dies every 20 minutes in an alcohol-related crash. Every American now stands a 50-50 chance of being involved in an alcohol-related crash at some time in his or her lifetime.

Boys and girls lose close games as basketball begins

Rockcastle County Boy's Head Coach David Perkins, in center with beard, and new B-team coach, Gary Scott, with back to camera, coached their first games at the high school Tuesday night. Both teams lost by two points.

It has been a heartbreaking week for the RGHS athletic program.

First the girl's varsity lost by one point to the Knox Central Panthers on Monday and the boy's varsity dropped a 2 point game to the visiting Estill County Engineers Tuesday.

The girls were ahead by one point and had the ball with seven seconds remaining in the game. Senior Forward Caroline Machal was fouled on an inbound pass and, before she could shoot the free-throws, head coach Preston Parrett got off the bench to argue that no time had been taken off the clock.

The girls were slapped with his second technical foul of the game. Coach Parrett was foul of the game, because of the new rule this year which does not allow coaches to get off their bench, except to make a player substitution or call a time out.

Machal missed the front end of the one-and-one and the Lady Panter calmly hit both technical free throws and Knox Central got the ball out of bounds.

The Panthers then ran the seven seconds off the clock to hand the Lady Rockets their first loss in as many games 36-35.

One bright spot for the girls was the fact that the B-team won the preliminary contest by a wide margin.

Leading the girls in scoring in the varsity game was junior center Sandy Hunter who garnered 10 points. Sophomore Lori Mink added 9. Caroline Machal had 6 while Regina Lewis got 4 and Tonya Parrett, Rhonda Cobb and Paige Anderkin each scored 2. Anderkin was hurt in the first few minutes of the ballgame and sidelined the entire evening.

The lady rockets shot a dismal 28 percent from the field and 43 percent from the foul line. Machal lead the rockets in rebounding with 10.

The boys then proceeded to lose their game Tuesday night in two overtimes, 68 to 66.

It looked like early on that new head coach David Perkins would be victorious in his first outing at the helm of the boy's team. But it was not to be. The varsity proceeded to blow a 10 point half-time lead and blew numerous chances in the overtimes.

With 35 seconds left in regulation Rockcastle found themselves behind by two points. The Estill County coach jumped up off the bench and was slapped with a technical foul. Senior Guard Benny Blanton went to the foul line and sunk both free throws. Rockcastle got the ball out of bounds and Senior Forward Tony Harrison scored a basket to give the rockets the lead 56 to 54.

Estill County brought the ball down the floor and took a shot with three seconds left on the clock. The Estill player did not hit the shot but he was fouled by senior center Harold Graves. It was Grave's 5th foul and he left the contest with 17 points. The Estill County player calmly sank 1 both free throws to send the game into overtime.

Almost the same exact thing happened in the first overtime. Rockcastle had a two point lead and Estill County had the ball.

With no time on the clock

(Cont. to B-11)

Senior Guard Scott Parrett looks for room under the basket Tuesday night during the boy varsity's 68 to 66 loss to Estill County. Scott scored 10 points in the losing effort.

4-H Members May Nominate Face for Farmer Memorial

The American Ideals Foundation, of Brooksville, Fla. and the Agricultural Hall of Fame and National Center of Kansas City need help in finding faces of farmers and rural people to cast in bronze for the National Farmers

Memorial to be dedicated at the Hall of Fame June 14, 1986.

4-H boys and girls are invited to submit names of anyone connected with agriculture, for a drawing to be held Jan. 2, 1985 to identify the half dozen or, so individuals who will have their faces preserved forever, on one of the three American Farmer past, present and future 10x30 foot bronze murals that will be housed in an open air pavilion on the Officers for the club are: James Hammond, president; Shawn Mize, secretary; Jamie Medley, vice president; Junior Doan, pledge leader. grounds of the Agricultural Hall of Fame.

Nomination is easy. Just list the name, address and approximate age of your candidate at the top of a sheet of paper. Then in 100 words or less, tell why you think this person deserves to be honored by having their face on the Memorial. Sign it with complete and correct address and telephone number, so you can be notified where to send the two pictures (front and side profile) needed for the sculpturing process.

Remember anyone may make a nomination, but those nominated must be involved in Agriculture in some way. Nominate your parents, grandparents, other relatives, neighbors or even yourself, and send it to Farmers Memorial Fund, c/o Agricultural Hall of Fame, 630 North 126th St., Bonner Spring, Kansas 66012. Donations of no more than $1.00 are solicited to help with the dedication ceremonies and may be sent along with your nomination letter.

Should you for any reason request a reply or additional information, do not forget to include a stamped, self-addressed long envelope.

Brohead PTA Committee meets

The Brohead PTA Finance Committee met Nov. 21.

The 1985-86 budget was organized with priorities set for this year. Our expected major fundraisers will come from sales from the House of Lloyd, the BES Spirit Pacs and our Spring Festival.

Our projects for this year include our newsletter "A Note From School," along with our long-term goal of making a donation for playground equipment and building the much needed walkway.

Our membership drive will continue. The classroom with the largest PTA membership is Mrs. Katherine Bradley's 7th grade. They will be awarded a pizza party at the December PTA meeting.

The classroom with the most parents in attendance at our September and October meeting was Mrs. Shirley Martin and Mrs. Molly Hamm's first grade. They will be awarded a $10 cash prize to be used for classroom supplies. These awards will be given out at our December unit meeting on Dec. 12 at 7 p.m.

The program for December will be given by Ms. Cora LePorin, Department for Social Services. The topic will be the Impact of Family Violence on Children, along with child abuse and neglect indicators. An area also to be covered will be the obligation of all report suspected neglect or abuse based on Kentucky law. Please attend. You could learn something that would be helpful to our county's children. Your continued help and support of PTA is appreciated.

"WEATHER"

(Cont. From Second Front)

As of Tuesday (Dec. 3) there has been 20 of an inch of precipitation for the three December days. In all of December 1984, there was 5.18 inches of precipitation of one form or another. Temperature-wise the low for December 1984 was on Dec. 7 when it was 4 above.

Total precipitation January to November 1985 has been 40.28 inches, considerably lower than in all of 1985 when the total was 54.39 inches.

The National Weather Service has predicted it will be warmer and wetter in Kentucky during this winter, all because of a meandering jet stream that seems to be keeping the blizzards out west and up north. Don't put your coat away.

Rockcastle County Council Meeting

At the Rockcastle County Council meeting Nov. 25, plans for 1986 were discussed. The general theme, Rockcastle County Homemakers' president Carolyn Chasteen, led the council group in making decisions for next year's plans.

After a report on the bazaar, the Children's Table will be left out in 1986. The bazaar will be held again at the Mt. Vernon Elementary School.

The Rise and Shine Club made the largest amount of money at the 1985 Bazaar. Congratulations to them!

The 1986 Bazaar Committee will be: Alta Bullock, Sandy Thomas, Christine Taylor, Gienna Brooks and Lois Philbeck.

The revision of the county Constitution was read and members voted to accept it.

The International Program date is March 7, 1986 in the Community Room at the Mt. Vernon Bank. Ireland will be the theme, so everyone is asked to wear a green outfit and bring an Irish dish.

The February Hawaii Trip's plane still has some empty seats. Call the Extension Office if you are interested.

Quilt and Craft Show date is May 16-17. If you want to display an older craft, there will be a table for "Display Only."

Blood drive dates for 1986 are March 18, July 8 and Nov. 11.

May 26-30 "Know America Tour" to Washington, D.C. has created so much interest by homemaker members, their spouses and non-members, that the buses are filling up fast!

All clubs will choose lessons in January for the rest of the year. January's lesson is "Your Medical Rights."

On Jan. 20 at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. at P.C.A. Building there will be a workshop on yeast breads; Jan. 30, Leader Training on Stir Fry Cookery; 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. at P.C.A.; Feb. 17 workshop will be on microwave cooking.

Could each club be responsible to quilt one block to add to a State Quilt to sell at the State Fair?

To recruit new members, you could send a friend a gift certificate as a County Wide Member. The Extension Office has them.

The date of the next council meeting is Jan. 27, 1986.
