Baptist Men's Day

First Baptist Church of Mt. Vernon will observe Baptist Men's Day on Sunday, Jan. 26, in both morning and evening worship services. A men's choir will be singing in both services, along with several other men leading in prayers, welcome, announcements and testimonies.

Special guest speaker in both services will be Gary Griesser of Burlington, Ky. Griesser is a graduate of Georgetown College and the University of Kentucky. He holds a bachelor degree in music education, a master degree in guidance and counseling, a Rank I, and will soon complete the doctor of education degree in educational administration.

Mr. Griesser has been a public school teacher, junior high, elementary and high school assistant principal; secondary supervisor; assistant superintendent of schools, and presently is deputy superintendent of the Boone County school system. He also serves as a musician for Evangelism, made four record albums, soloist for Billy Graham Reception, soloist for Kentucky Baptist Convention and Evangelism Conference, and soloist for many religious and educational conventions.

Dr. Hedrick invites the public to attend both worship services, at 10:45 a.m. and 7 p.m., as First Baptist laumen and Mr. Griesser lead in worship.

Foreclosure/Bankruptcy figures are low for state

Farm foreclosure and bankruptcy figures for the Commonwealth show that Kentucky farmers are doing better than their counterparts nationwide.

"Naturally, I am not happy with any farm foreclosures or bankruptcies, but I am pleased that Kentucky farmers are doing as well as they are," said Agriculture Commissioner David E. Boswell.

As an example of the farmers' position, Boswell pointed to figures from the Farmers Home Administration, a federal agency which is considered the lender of last resort for farmers.

FHIA bankruptcies since 1982 have averaged approximately 100 per year. In 1985, there were 141 bankruptcies.

"But these numbers don't mean much," said state FHIA director Kendall Seaton. "They need to be compared to the total number of 10,000 farmers holding loans totaling $762 million."

"That means that just slightly more than 1 percent of Kentucky's farmers went bankrupt during 1985," Seaton said.

Seaton also pointed out that Kentucky farmers have the lowest loan delinquency rate in the nation at 11 percent.

"We're very pleased with these numbers, and we want to keep them as low as possible. We are not in the business of foreclosing on farmers," Seaton said.

FHIA foreclosure figures are not available because there has been a moratorium against FHIA foreclosures since the latter part of 1983. That moratorium was lifted Jan. 15.

With the lifting of the moratorium, FHIA is preparing to notify some 80,000 farmers across the country that they must make their payments current or face possible foreclosure. These notices are going to all farmers who are at least $100 behind in payments.

Area CPA reviews tax laws

Dwight Griffin, a CPA from Mt. Vernon, recently attended the Individual Tax Returns Workshop offered by the Kentucky Society of CPAs.

The course, which enabled Mr. Griffin to advise clients on new developments in tax return preparation and individual income taxation, was produced by the Continuing Professional Education Division of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

Mr. Griffin is a partner with Griffin, Greer and Company, CPAs of Mt. Vernon. He is president of Southeastern chapter of Kentucky Society of CPAs, member of the board of directors of Kentucky Society of CPAs, and treasurer of the "Chamber of Commerce."

Continuing professional educational courses are designed to maintain and promote professional competence, increase CPAs' skills and insure a continued high level of service to the public.

The AICPA is the national professional organization of CPAs representing more than 230,000 members. In addition to providing continuing professional education, the organization sets audit standards, enforces the code of professional ethics and prepares and grades the CPA examination.

Poison control center updated

People in Kentucky who face the frightening experience of poisoning now have a faster and more thorough, regional help.

The Kentucky Regional Poison Center of Kosair Children's Hospital and the hospital's emergency room have purchased and installed a new computer information system. The new technology will assure the fastest and best information possible about poisons and drugs, as well as assistance in the diagnosis and treatment of emergency conditions.

The professionals who respond to emergency calls about poisons can retrieve information to help them identify the poison and determine step-by-step treatment for poisonings.

"A caller can learn whether or not there is a potential danger from a product and, if so, what should be done," said Dr. George C. Rodgers, Jr., medical director of the center. He said, "Many times, nothing needs to be done; in other cases, specific treatment is necessary, or a poison may be fatal to a hospital."

A second part of the new system provides information to aid doctors as they determine the cause of an emergency medical problem and the treatment to be used.

Another component makes available detailed information about drugs which adds information to assist the physician, who prescribes, dispenses and/or administers the drugs.

The fourth part of the new system supplies information on over 23,000 listings on United States and foreign prescription drugs, over-the-counter medicine, generic drugs, look-alike drugs and slang street terms for drugs.

The massive amount of information available at the touch of a button adds significantly to the ability of the Poison Center's staff to serve the thousands, so far, of people who call them every year.

"The information in the system is updated every 90 days," says Nancy J. Matynas, Pharm.D., director of the center. "We're ensured access to complete and current data when time and thoroughness can mean life or death."

Dr. Matynas emphasizes the necessity of calling the Poison Center before taking any other steps. "Don't read the label when a poison has been consumed," she said.

An oyster will produce a pearl when a foreign body such as a grain of sand irritates its soft body. The oyster secretes layers of pearl, a calcareous or limestone deposit, around the sand to protect itself.

Tito speaks, but E.F. Sutton wasn't listening

E. F. Sutton and things Tito heard and things he saw

...that E. F. Sutton was listening last week. However, before the dunking Dominican took an apparent agreement with Miami, Fla., he did UK a favor, giving UK coach Eddie Sutton a chance to make "a commercial" for UK and nobility over green.

If Sutton was not already on the way to being appointed Kaintuckee General and getting on a stroll with John and Happy and Dan and Louie and all the other good ole' boys we know so well, then the man who brought Eddie ball to this side of the Mississippi River, took an Abe Lincoln stride in that direction last week when he said "thanks, but no thanks" to Horford.

But let's be fair here. Horford the butt of so many "Where's Tito?" jokes, deserves a bit of compassion, even commendation. How about making the kid a Kaintuckee Korporal? After all, Tito's remark: "I want to be a Kaintuckee" is the best straight line since John Denver said "On God" and George Burns made two bits out of it.

In this case, Horford threw Sutton one that left Eddie (still) on a roll. With everybody in basketball's ears perked this way, E. F. Sutton had a chance to be noble instead of greedy. He said "no" and got national attention doing it. So, what's the big deal? Call it trickle down effect.

Sutton further endeavored himself to those who love Kentucky's fans.

In loving memory of my husband, Oscar Lee Hopkins, who died March 18, 1985.

During my days and nights alone, my mind wanders back to the first time I met you. As the days passed, we became a part of each other, sharing our hopes, dreams and our love, just the gentleness of your touch filled my world with joy. It's in times like these now that you are gone that I miss you so, though you are gone to be with Jesus. All I could do was chisel warm love words on your stone and whisper sweet words to you even though you are sleeping and walls of earth between us. I can still whisper to you that I miss you. Rest in peace, darling. Sadly missed by wife, Wanda

Next, the parents of youngsters like Derrick Miller of Savannah, Ga. who has not picked a school, but is considering UK, and others who are or will be on UK's recruiting lists, have to be impressed.

The coach's decision to pass up a so-called franchise-type player in his team badly needs starting next season shows some vision. Because Horford's checkered past and questionable status as a student/athlete has to score well with NCAA investigators on their way to Lexington with a mission to die into UK's basketball clothes.

And, just as the UK coach intimidated late in the week over WHAS' 50,000 watts that reaches from here to Fargo, there's another 7-footer out there some place who we're going to have a scholarship for.

Message: "By golly, cowboys 'n gals (you too J.R.), this E.F. Sutton is just the kinda fellar ya might 'won't yir youingin' to go see." On behalf of UK fans, thanks. Korgoral Tito by television's Milton Berle in the 1950s belonged to another Miltie last Saturday.

Louisville's Milt Wagner. The kid who, two seasons ago hobbled off the Freedom Hall basketball floor with a broken foot and a question-mark future, made his national television comeback in an 83-73 Cardinal victory over No. 4 ranked Syracuse and his curtain calls came from stage right...and left...and downtown.

UofL's Mr. Show Biz was swishing over 6-7 Raphael Addison from Peevee Valley, Fourth & Broadway and Shelbyville. To Wagner the hoop seems as wide as the Ohio River these days. In the last seven games he has smoked in 64.7 percent of his shots. But Saturday was prime time on CBS Television, showtime for Mr. Show Biz and Miltie stole the show that was supposed to belong to Addison Pearl Washington.

"My jumper is back and I have all the confidence in the world," crowed Wagner after scoring 24. "I just feel like I can't miss a shot right now. Everything is going in."

Almost everything did—nine of 12 from the floor, six of six foul shots.

"Milt rises to the top against the great ball clubs," coach Denny Crum said. "He's playing like Milt used to play, for those who remember him as a sophomore. He's a great basketball player."

And UL's future foes were dealt with from what here seems to be a fair warning by Syracuse coach Jim Boehm.

"Their (Louisville's) four losses have all been away from home against top 20 teams, when Milt Wagner was shooting about 30 percent. Since then they're a different team. This team is going

The Wildcats still maintain their big lead in the Rockcastle Bowling League at Maroon Lanes in Richmond with a 55 and 21 record. In second are the High Rollers with a 43 and 33 record and NAPA has 41 wins and 35 losses.

High Team Series for the week went to the Born Losers with a 1.925. The Wildcats took second with a 1.903, and the High Rollers were third with a 1.848.

High Team Game was taken by the Wildcats with a 729. The A-Team was second with a 673, and NAPA was a close third with a 672.

High Men's Series was taken by Henry Vanzant with a 549. Bill Reynolds was second with a 542, and Jamie Noe got third with a 521. Dale Winstead and Jamie Noe tied for High Men's Game Average with a 182. James Noe is second with a 178, and Jack McHenry and Henry Vanzant are tied with 175 each. Carol McGuire and Evelyn Mullins are tied for High Women's Average at 163, and Jeannine Parsons is third with a 148.

Girls beat Monticello; lose to Garrard

Junior center Sandy Hunter shined Monday night as the Lady Rockets defeated the Monticello Lady Trojans 43-41. Hunter scored 23 points in the contest and also had her best game defensively of the season.

The girls were out of their region, and the referees were strange, very "strange" at times since Hunter had to make most of her points with at least two and sometimes three girls hanging onto her. But, make them she did.

The Rockets were ahead by one point when a steal by sophomore forward Lori Mink, with 39 seconds left in the game, resulted in a foul which sent sophomore guard Tanya Parrett to the line for a one-and-one. Parrett sank the front end and then a steal by Paige Anderkin, on the Lady Trojans end of the court, put the Rockets ahead 43-41.

Others scoring in the game were Mink with 8, Paige Anderkin had 5, Parrett, 3, and Caroline Machal and Regina Lewis: 2 each.

Last Thursday night, the girls hosted a state-ranked Garrard and were defeated badly. The girls just couldn't get their game on track and numerous turnovers were capitalized on by the Lady Lions in their 63-39 win.

Hunter pushed through 21 points in the game; junior reserve Cindy Fain came off the bench to score 10 points, and Anderkin, Mink, Lewis and Carol Coffey had 2 each.

This Thursday night, the girls will host district foe Clay County, and next Monday night will journey to Jackson County hoping to average an earlier 10-point loss.

B-Team Wins on Last Monday Shot by Harper

The RCHS girls B-Team improved their season record to 8 and 3 Monday night at Monticello on a rebound basket by Phyllis Harper, giving the girls a 43-42 win.

The girls had held the lead through most of the game but a strong comeback and extra poor officiating gave Monticello a one point lead with 20 seconds left in the game. Harper's basket went in with one tick of the clock left.

The B-Team was led in scoring by their guards, Cindy Fain and Regina Lewis, who combined for 29 of the Rockets 43 points. The two guards shot 60 percent from the field, hitting 12 of 20 and 5 of 7 from the free throw line. Lewis led the team in scoring with 19; Fain got 7; Rhonda Cobb, 7; Carol Coffey, 4; and Harper, 2.

Thursday night, the B-Team thrilled the fans with aggressive defense, fast breaks and superb passes but came out on the short end of the scoring, losing to a big Garrard County team, 49-44.

The lead changed hands several times throughout the game but a big inside game by the Garrard County Lady Lions proved to be more than the Lady Rockets could handle.

Cobb led the team in scoring, hitting 7 of 12 shots for 15 points, followed by Regina Campbell, who hit 4 out of 5 field goals and a total of 14 points; Fain got 7; Coffey, 6; and Lewis, 2.

The Lady Rockets will be in action again Thursday night against a strong Clay County team.

Kenny Walker

UK's all-purpose senior is still in the first rank of contenders for college player of the year honors. To get some updated figures on Walker's competition, I made some telephone calls last week and came up with some interesting figures. (See inset.)

Walker's foremost competitor could be Walter Berry of St. John's who "The Sporting News (Jan. 20)" says is the favorite. But there are other reasons.

Michigan's Roy Tarpley was Walker's rival in preseason ratings by "Street & Smith Magazine," but the Wolverines have demonstrated such balance that Tarpley doesn't have to do as many things for his team to win.

Why Roy? Roy has the numbers this year that impress people. A Michigan spokesman said last week. "But the things Roy is doing makes it happen for other guys on our club and those things don't show on paper."

St. John's is winning and Berry has been most impressive.

And winning has meant television for the Redmen.

Television's exposure has made opportunities for Billy Packer. Al McGuire and Dick Vitale to drool verbiage over Berry and that impresses people who vote such things (coaches, writers, the wire services).

Footnote: And yet, all things considered, Walker means more to his team than either Tarpley or Berry. It will be interesting to see that happens. But it would be awfully special for Kentuckians to see Kenny Walker step up and accept a trophy named for one of Kentucky's old legends, Adolph Frederick Rupp.

UK's Points Club

Incidentally, Walker's chances of breaking Dan Isell's all-time scoring record at UK are dim at best. The 6-8 senior is averaging 20+ points per game at this writing, but would have to average nearer 30 to reach Isell's pinnacle. And UK would have to play 30+ or more games this season.

Walker won't make it for these reasons.

Enemy defenses are still making it increasingly difficult for him to get off enough shots.

For UK to win Walker does not mean as many shots in the "Eddie Ball" system.

(Only a guess), but it seems from here that as long as the team is winning, Walker isn't concerned about personal records. And that is as it should be.

Wherever Walker finishes on Kentucky's all-time scoring list there is a more important consideration: UK fans got to see him play the game.

The young man has a fascinating/exhilarating effect on friend and foe. Sort of the way Steven Spielberg is able to mesmerize us with Amazing Stories. Walker takes even the most casual basketball fan to a new level of consciousness and excitement.

"He's amazing to watch all right." Auburn coach Sonny Smith has said. "The guy's just something special, that's all."
Lee Hunt, Ole Miss's Willie Loman-looking coach? "He's amazing. Kenny is just special. I'll be glad when the guy graduates."
Kenny Walker: the best player in college today.

Cheers, Jeers

CHEERS to the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers and Coach Clem Haskins for their stunning 75-72 victory over No. 12 Alabama-Birmingham on the road last week.

The road? WKU's victory could have set the Hilltoppers firmly on the road to the Top 20 now and the NCAA Tournament later.

JEERS to all the boo-birds who blamed Haskins for "not being able to win the close ones."

JEERS to the Jan. 13 edition of "The Sporting News" who reported that WKU was "out of the Sun Belt race" after the Hilltoppers lost at home to Old Dominion Dec. 28.

CHEERS to Jeff Hall of the Louisville Cardinals for becoming the first native Kentuckian outside Jefferson County to earn a place on UofL's 1,000 Points Club. Hall did it with the first shot of the game in its 75-72 victory at Southern Mississippi Jan. 13.

Comment: The last non-Jefferson County native Kentuckian to score 1,000 at UofL was Butch Beard in 1968. Beard is from Breckinridge County.

JEERS to Miami University coach Jimmy Johnson for allowing junior quarterback Vinny Testaverde to masquerade as a "student" athlete. During the fall semester Testaverde's class card read: Introduction to Sports, Nutrition, Introduction to Recreation, and Sports Letters.

Comment: And this guy's a redshirt junior.

Indie N' things
How are Kentucky's prize prep signees doing these mid-January days?

Kentucky-bound Rex Chapman. Although it has been written recently that Apollo's Rex Chapman has lost some of his intensity since signing with UK, the 6-5 cager drew raves in the LIT last week despite being slowed by a cold. "All the 'can't miss' things they're saying about this kid are right on target," one scout said.

Louisville-bound Fletton Spencer is reported to be overweight and not playing up to his potential.

Comment: Frankly, I still cannot see where 7-1 Spencer fits into UofL's style or on its roster for that matter since Barry Swarup will rejoin the team next season to battle Pervis Ellison.

Vanderbilt-bound Scott Draud of Ft. Thomas Highlands is another youngster who is supposed to have slipped since picking a college. Really, this kid is averaging 35.8 points per game up four points from last year.

Kentucky-bound Reggie Hanson is reported to be improving more all the time. The 6-6 forward from Pulaski County has his points per game average up by nine points from last season, into the mid-20s. Fans have a good chance of seeing Hanson, Inc. in the Sweet 16 in March.

Who are Kentucky's basketball's top prep seniors-to-be next season?

There are several of course, but a few who will rate at the top of some coach's wish list are (guards) David Hogg (Owensboro) and Sean Sutton (Henry Clay); (forwards) 6-5 John Pelphrey (Paintsville) and 6-5 Kevin Ertz (Washington County); (center) 6-7 Matt Elitutus (North Hardin).

Comment: Sleeper? Could be Ellery, a 6-5, 223-pound Charles Barkley-type who wears a size 17 sneaker.

* Kentucky fan noting that Vanderbilt's basketball roster is peopled by four Kentucky natives and one of them is the grandson of a rather famous fellow in the bluesgrass, said last week. "If Eddie Sutton had been coach here last year, there's no way Chip Rupp wouldn't be at UK."

Comments: Gee.

August 26, 1985

To the People of Kentucky
Honorable Martha Layne Collins, Governor
Honorable Bob Jasper, County Judge/Executive
Members of the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court

We have examined the statement of receipt, disbursements, and excess fees of the County Clerk of Rockcastle County for the year ended December 31, 1984. Our examination was made in accordance with the Standards for Audit of Governmental Organizations, Programs, Activities, and Functions, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, and accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As recommended by the State Local Finance Officer, pursuant to Kentucky Revised Statute (KRS) 68.210, the accompanying financial statement is prepared primarily on a cash basis. Consequently, certain revenues and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when a liability is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statement is not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statement presents fairly the receipts, disbursements, and excess fees of the County Clerk for the year ended December 31, 1984, in conformity with the accounting system described above, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

We also conducted tests of compliance with state laws and regulations, and unless otherwise noted below, the tested items were in compliance with applicable state laws and regulations. During our examination, nothing came to our attention to cause us to believe that the untested items were not in compliance.

We did not conduct a study and evaluation of internal accounting control as we concluded that the audit could be performed more efficiently by expanding substantive audit tests. Therefore, we placed very little reliance on the internal accounting control system.

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Our comments are intended to be constructive. The purpose of each is to point out areas for improvement. Accordingly, we offer the accompanying comments and recommendations:

Prior Year

In the prior year audit report, we reported the County Clerk failed to publish an annual settlement of receipts and disbursements. This non-compliance has not been corrected and is commented on in the current year audit findings.

Current Year

1) The County Clerk Should Publish An Annual Settlement

The County Clerk has not published an annual settlement of receipts and disbursements. KRS 424.220 requires county officials to publish an annual settlement within sixty (60) days after the end of the year. We recommend compliance with this statute.

2) The County Clerk Should Not Have A Deficit In Bank Account

Based on available records, there was a deficit of $13,935 in the County Clerk's account at December 31, 1984. However, the County Clerk has subsequently deposited $13,938 from personal funds eliminating this deficit. This deficit resulted from receipts of $20,640 not being deposited into the County Clerk's account less $6,705 in salary and expense allowance not taken by County Clerk.

3) The County Clerk Should Make Daily Deposits

The County Clerk failed to deposit daily receipts to the bank instant and on a daily basis. Officials are required by the Uniform System of Accounts to deposit all receipts on a daily basis. We recommend compliance with this system.

4) The County Clerk's Escrow Account Should Be Cleared

As of the audit date, $7,190 plus interest earned since January 31, 1985, remains in an escrow account for the payment of I-75 rights-of-way. It is recommended that those persons who have not appeared for payment be notified by letter of the money due them. For those who cannot be reached by letter, advertise their names in a county newspaper having the largest circulation informing them of the money due. At the end of this elected term, return all unclaimed money to the County Treasurer to be deposited into the county General Fund.

The excess fees reported herein have been paid to the County Treasurer.

We are confident the above findings and recommendations will be useful to the County Clerk in managing the operations of her office in a manner consistent with effective accounting and compliance controls.

Yours for a better Kentucky,

Mary Ann Tobin
Mary Ann Tobin

Fiscal Court gives green light to county garbage plan

By: Ray McClure

A motion to proceed with a "voluntary" plan for garbage collection in Rockcastle County was approved by the Rockcastle Fiscal Court at a called meeting Monday.

The court told the Cumberland Valley Area Development District (CVADD) to proceed to work up a plan that would make garbage collection voluntary for the household for at least the first three years the plan is in effect. The CVADD has a contract with the county to devise a garbage plan that the Environmental Protection Cabinet can accept.

Although details of the plan will have to wait until CVADD completes the plan, it is expected to call for garbage collection to be franchised; a charge for each household that participates; a coordinator to run the program; and participation in the state's Clean Community Education Program. Frank Groschelle, representing CVADD, told the court a volunteer plan can be made acceptable to the state, but the state will demand provisions that the court look at the program often to see that it is working, and to have a coordinator in charge of the program. The coordinator will be an employee of the county.

The plan will not include a landfill. Landfills are available at this time in other counties to take all garbage.

Groschelle said CVADD would like to have the plan completed by Mar. 15, have it approved by the court, and sent to Frankfort for approval. He estimated Frankfort would take from 30 to 45 days to make a decision.

Although mandatory collection was discussed—and there were proponents for mandatory collection—that method was bypassed by the court at least for the first few months—collection is made that once collection is started on a voluntary basis, the public will gradually take advantage of the service. If not, the court would have to make it mandatory with ordinances supporting penalties for failure to participate.

Groschelle said it is possible

Greenboxes are still in use in the county and will continue to be until the plan is put into effect. Then the boxes will be removed. The boxes are still at three locations in the county and are being well used, in some cases, over-used, with recurring problems of damaged trash bags, burning and littering in the area. Residents are asked to keep trash in the boxes and to take care of the area around them.

In other action, the court approved a request by Sheriff Clarence "Jebb" Hasty that his deputies receive $3.50 an hour instead of the $10,000 annual salary prescribed by law. If the Kentucky Department of Finance approves.

Hospital gets heart monitor

By: Ray McClure

A new computerized monitor that can keep track continuously of the heart beat of eight people at a time is now in use at the Rockcastle County Hospital.

Located in a new, four-bed, special care unit that once served as the delivery room, the monitor sounds a variety of alarms to let nurses know immediately what a heart patient needs.

"We're excited about the unit," said Wayne Stewart, hospital administrator. "We can give critical care now, whereas in the past we could not. Our previous machine monitored only two patients and there was no alarm."

All the doctors at the hospital, especially Dr. Michael A. Gutierrez. "When a person has a heart attack or is ill, they have an unusual heart rhythm that can be life threatening," Dr. Gutierrez explained. "The monitor will recognize the rhythm and tell the nurse what the patient needs."

Costing about $60,000 the monitor is connected to a recently acquired "bedside Swan-Ganz (Cont. to B)

Briefly... Condition improving

The condition of John Cox, Mt. Vernon Fire Chief and local businessman, is improving, according to family members. Mr. Cox suffered a major heart attack last week, following outpatient surgery at Central Baptist Hospital in Lexington. He is in the coronary care unit where his condition is listed as stable.

Fire destroys home

A fire destroyed the home of Roger Vanant on Orlando Road about 12:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Mt. Vernon and Livingston fire departments responded to the call. Firemen said the brick home was engulfed in flames when they arrived.

Clark promoted

George "Rusty" Clark, son of Old Joe and Jean Clark of Berea, formerly of Mt. Vernon, has been promoted to vice president at the People's Bank and Trust Co. in Berea.

Clark, 31, has been an assistant vice president since 1982. He is a member of the board of directors of the Mount Vernon Maternal Health League and has been active in United Way for several years. He and his wife, Brenda, live on Melindy Lane in Berea.

U.S. 27

Rockcastle County is not the only county receiving major highway funds.

According to State Rep. Danny Ford, R-Mt. Vernon, $4.7 million has been appropriated through the Federal Public Lands Fund to reconstruct 1.8 miles of U.S. 27 from Parkers Lake to a half-mile south of Greenwood between Somerset and the Tennessee state line.

A contract to reconstruct 4.1 miles of unimproved U.S. 27 from Flat Rock to Parkers Lake will be let next December at an estimated cost of $10.2 million.

Ford said he had been "waiting for these improvements for 15 years—ever since I started courting my wife in McCreary County."

Pick-up station

The Mt. Vernon Drive-Thru Pharmacy is now a shipping station for UPS. Pick-up of packages and documents will be daily at the pharmacy and no pick-up fee will be charged.

Besides regular delivery of packages up to 70 pounds and/or measuring up to 108 inches in length and girth combined, nationwide next day air service and second day air service are also offered. You may drop your packages off at the drive-thru window.

Flu bug invades state; Many sick in Rockcastle

The "flu bug" raced across Kentucky this week leaving schools closed, doctors overwhelmed and hospital emergency rooms swamped as ill residents sought something to ease the aches.

Schools in Anderson, Franklin, Scott and Marion counties, along with four more in west central Kentucky, were closed with administrators saying influenza is "really widespread."

Charles Calloway, director of the state Division of Public Attendance, said "administrators are saying it is the worst they have ever seen."

In Franklin County, over 1,100 students were absent Tuesday. About 200 who came to school had to go home before the morning was over.

Rockcastle has its share of ill residents, many with the usual high fevers, sore throats, chills and a persistent cough.

"Everywhere you go you hear someone sniffing and coughing," a nurse said. "And it takes over a month sometimes to really get over it. It often takes the help of a doctor to control it."

Officials were predicting the flu would gradually work eastward. "Some schools in the eastern part of the state are going to see a big rise in absenteeism before this subsides," one official said.

Monday, there were 130 out at Brodhead and 21 more were sent home, almost all exhibiting the symptoms mentioned above, according to Mrs. Mabel Cash, school nurse. Tuesday, the figure was a little better at 103.

The high school also took an attendance blow Monday when 235 of the 865 students failed to appear. This figure was down to 119 Tuesday. Assistant Principal Ronnie Cash said he felt some of

Many still in need

Commodities help make ends meet

Many Rockcastle Countians still depend on free food distribution to help make ends meet.

This is revealed in a report from the Cumberland Valley Area Development District (CVADD) which shows 1,808 "came through the line" in the county in December to receive cheese.

Judy Lawless, who is coordinator of the U.S. Department of Agriculture Commodity Foods Program (USDA) administered through the Kentucky Cabinet of Human Resources, and, in turn the CVADD, said this week that even that number may not reflect accurately the number of persons who hold cards, those who did not come for food, or those who have moved.

Ms. Lawless, who is an employee of CVADD and not the Rockcastle Fiscal Court, said as far as she knows, those who need food and are eligible for food usually sign for a card.

"Asked if many signees cheat, she said it is difficult to say, but all recipients must sign for a card and disclose their income; and that income must meet guidelines set down by the USDA.

It is a criminal offense to give erroneous information.

Cards are assigned annually. Recently, Rockcastle County took applications for new cards which are good for one year unless the income of the recipient changes. Should income levels increase over the required guidelines, cards must be voided.

Mrs. Lois Philbeck works in County Judge/Executive Hubert Thacker's office one day each month to assign cards to those who have moved into the county, lost their original card, or have become ineligible due to an increase in income. The only day she is there is the first Monday of each month.

Currently, the county is receiving food quarterly. Rockcastle will not receive additional food until February. The items received by counties each month vary due to the fact the district is not always allocated the odd items which include flour, corn meal, honey and rice. Cheese is always part of the distribution.

A minimum of 20,000 pounds of cheese is due in February. Based on the going rate of $1.34 a pound, the value of Rockcastle's 20,000 pounds is $26,800 a quarter, or $107,200 for the four quarters.

Due to budget constraints, with both the commodity program (Cont. to 10)

Shooting results in assault charge

A Brodhead man has been charged with assault in the first degree following a shooting about 8 o'clock Tuesday night at the home of Kirby Calloway, approximately 1 mile west of Brodhead on Hwy. 150.

Anthony S. Nolan, 21, of near Brodhead, was treated and released from the Rockcastle Co. Hospital after allegedly being shot in the calf of the leg by William (Bill) Joe Schafer, 31, of Brodhead. The shooting reportedly followed an argument between the two men.

Brodhead city policeman Billy Lawrence assisted State Police detective Ernie Boggs in the investigation.

Schafer is free on $10,000 property bond pending his arraignment in early February.

Miss Jenny DeBoard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny DeBoard of Brodhead and a freshman at RCHS, was named Homecoming Queen during between game activities last Friday night. The ballteam responded to the occasion with a 3-point win over Barboursville. Members of Her court are, from left: Denise Bowman, third runner-up; Sara Anderkin, second runner-up; Paige Anderkin, last year's queen and Paulita Thomason, first runner-up.

Mrs. Carter's efforts are appreciated . . .

Dear Editor:

During the last two weeks, we witnessed a performance, which deserves a compliment.

Betty Jo Carter at Rockcastle County Weatherization remained at her office many extra hours to accept applications for assistance and provided help for those in need very promptly. We can appreciate her concern and the efficiency of handling a crisis situation.

On behalf of the Senior Citizens, whom I represent, we appreciate the extra time Betty Jo spent toward processing their claims so quickly, even though this meant staying longer at the office and taking much of the work home with her during the evening. At a time when people need help, this kind of dedication is commendable.

Following Christmas, it is a real let down to discover that it's time to begin gathering up all available information and get going ready to prepare your tax return. I know I've said it before but I still feel the same way. I almost think it would be easier to send all the federal government and then have them return to you what they think they can spare—that's usually the way it winds up anyway.
 The other day we received another official looking brown envelope in the mail with the return address of our friendly IRS office. It seems that I had been late in filing another one of the myriad forms we're required to fill out on daily, weekly, monthly, quarterly, yearly basis (at least it seems that often). Anyway, for this oversight on my part, I was asked to pay no less than $33.17 at my earlier convenience (like the week before). After a careful perusal of the document, and not being a "Philadelphia lawyer," I gave up trying to figure out what my sin of omission was this time and sent the $33.17. My daughter remarked that I was no doubt on the IRS's "hit list" since I never question when I am asked to forward a check for almost any amount, I just do it.

I expect it to be a hairy time from now right up to midnight April 15 (since I don't believe in sending it in any sooner than I have to). I lie awake at night during this period trying to figure out one more deduction available to me and cringe every time I see a "refund tax tip" from the IRS on TV or in newspapers. I don't personally think they want to be helpful and I know they aren't trying to save me or anyone else money with their little "tips." I think they lie awake nights trying to figure out one more of my deductions they can disallow. And, just think, how horrible it would be if I had any significant amount of money to worry about.

And now, on to the other "inevitable" subject, death. I don't really mean to be flippant, it was just a lead-in I couldn't resist. We would appreciate it if, when bringing or mailing us information include their place of residence of someone's death, you would

What is Repentance?

Jesus commissioned that "repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations . . ." (Luke 24:47). Paul said that God "commandeth all men everywhere to repent" (Acts 17:30). The Lord is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance" (2 Pet. 3:9).

Repentance has been called "THE DIFFICULT COMMAND." But what does repentance mean to you? It is more than being sorry for sin. It is more than developing a sense of "guilt" which is needed to produce a need for repentance. In fact, if you have a continuing feeling of guilt, it may be that we have not repented at all. True repentance requires the following things:

Contrition or godly sorrow. Paul said that godly sorrow will bring about repentance (2 Cor. 7:10). Jesus died for our sins, not His own. It was our sins that plained the crown of thorns and pressed it to His brow, put the stripes on His back, laid the cross on His shoulders, drove the spikes, and caused Him to plead, "Father, forgive them." This realization of sin against God ought to prompt godly sorrow and bring about repentance.

Change of mind. In the parable of the two sons (Matt 21:28-29), one son said he would not work in his father's vineyard. He later repented (changed his mind) and went to work. A change of mind was also expressed by the prodigal son who said, "I will arise and go to my father" (Lk. 15:18).

Forsaking of sin. It is not enough to admit wrongdoing; the sinner must cease doing the wrong. Isaiah says, "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord" (Isa. 55:7). One who has repented does not return to his old life of sin. John called this "fruits of repentance" (Matt. 3:8-10). Unfortunately, some claim to have repented, but like the prodigal son who was washed, return to wallowing in the mire (2 Pet. 2:22).

Restitution. Repentance is not genuine unless accompanied by restitution, if possible. If a man stole $1,000 from you on Saturday and was baptized on Sunday, do you think he repented if he didn't return the money? Zacharias' statement illustrates the point. He said, "If I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold" (Luke 19:8).

True repentance then, brings forgiveness, cleansing, and wholeness. It does this by causing the non-Christian who believes to obey from the heart and be buried with Christ in baptism (Rom. 6:4). This becoming a "new creature" in Christ. It causes the Christian to confess sins committed and ask God for forgiveness.

When repentance has been granted, the guilt is gone. Through God's grace, the forgiveness one is told to go and sin no more. Forgiveness brings deliverance from sin and freedom. This is the true function of repentance.

God gives every person opportunity to repent (2 Pet. 3:9). Yours is NOW! Who you come to? Those who wait until the eleventh hour to repent often die at 10:30.

Work on extension of sewer lines began this week on Paul Street in Owens Subdivision in Mt. Vernon. Lines will also be installed on Cox Lane and Fairground Hill in the next few months. Karish Construction of Mt. Vernon has a $497,000 contract with the city to do the work. In the picture are Bethel Collins, equipment operator, Robert Teague, foreman and engineering inspector, and Bill Hardy of Schimpeler-Corradino Associates of Louisville, engineers.

by Dwight Griffin CPA

Beginning with this week's issue of the Signal, this "Financial Planning Column" will be appearing on a weekly basis through the tax season. It will cover such topics as tax, investments, business and finance. The goal of these articles is to give easy-to-read information on topics of interest such as stockbroker selection, advice, under standing new tax laws, combating inflation, cutting taxes, etc.

The column is being written by Dwight Griffin, CPA, who has several years experience in tax and business matters. Mr. Griffin said, "I hope that readers enjoy this material and that it will give them a profitable idea or two. As always, any comments or questions they might have are welcome."

The column will be found weekly on page 3 of the Signal.

Estimated Income Taxes

Know a little more! The average person doesn't need to be a tax specialist. Accountants are here to serve that need; they will see that all the niceties are taken care of so that you pay the least amount of tax under the current law. Nevertheless, you will get more value from your accountant's services if you are better acquainted with general tax concepts.

Many taxpayers are paying unnecessary penalties for underestimating their income taxes. Most people who work for a salary have an adequate amount of taxes paid in through withholding to eliminate "underestimating penalties." Those taxpayers with income not subject to withholding such as rents, royalties, dividends or self employment business income may need to pay quarterly estimated taxes.

In general, you will not be subject to an underestimating penalty if you have paid at 80% of your tax due on your current tax return. It's difficult to determine 80% of your tax liability when you don't know your annual income until the year is completed. Therefore, many taxpayers use a reasonable allowable computation for avoiding penalties; this is 100% of prior year's tax liability. If you pay 100% prior year's tax liability, you will not be penalized for underestimating 80% of your current year tax liability that that amount.

If you file your tax return and pay the remaining taxes due by January 31, 1986, you are not required to make your fourth quarter estimate which otherwise is due January 15, 1986.

If you receive a penalty notice for underestimating your taxes, do not pay it without a close review by your accountant. A review of the notice could result in a reduction of the penalty.

Tobacco markets will re-open February 3

Burley tobacco markets, which have been closed for the last week because of a lack of sales stocks, will reopen on Feb. 3, the Burley Sales Committee announced yesterday.

Markets in the eight-state burley region closed last week because a lack of rain in December and early January made leaf so dry and brittle that growers could not strip it to bring it to market.

But the sales committee said in a press release yesterday that "weather conditions have recently improved for tobacco to return to market."

An estimated 60 million to 70 million pounds, or about 8 percent of the market quota, remains to be sold in the eight states. About 90 percent, or 365.5 million pounds, of Kentucky's crop has been sold for an average price of $160 1/2 a hundredweight.

From Dec. 1 to last weekend, most areas of Kentucky had less than 2 inches of precipitation. But over the weekend there was rain or snow or both throughout most of the Southeast, the National Weather Service said.

With moisture in the area, tobacco became softened to the point where it could be handled without shattering or breaking.

High was 63 Tuesday

It was a warm day Tuesday, with a high of 63 degrees, the highest this month, according to Bud Cox at Cox Funeral Home. That contrasts to a low of four degrees on Jan. 8.

A year ago this month, the high for the month was 69 degrees and the low, a very low 18 below zero.

and their connection locally. Also, for local obituaries, we have decided that it would be more informative if, instead of "for example, Rt. 3" given for an address, it would be better to say "of the Scaffold Care area," etc. This would perhaps better identify the person for our readers.

In addition to the hassle of tax time, it's also that time of year when the "insatiable monster" known as our fuel tank goes on a spree and we start wondering if this is going to be the year that colder than usual temperatures are going to be our complete economic downfall. By the time you cringe every time you hear the furnace come on and every time you think of the tax deadline approaching, by April 15 (which is also usually when the weather breaks if it's going to, you are in pretty bad physical and mental shape.

There's always a silver lining in every cloud though. At least Allison is here to take up the dependent slack we would have lost with our daughter marrying this year.

Library News

LOST-BOOKS

Do you realize how many books are lost each year? These books are lost from the library through neglect.

When a book is lost, it deprives someone else from enjoying that book. The lost books are an expense to replace in the library. So please, anyone that has books out that are overdue, return them.

For the next two weeks, we are not charging anyone for overdues on their books. We need the books returned to us so we can give better service to the public.

So look in your big chairs, under the couch, in your car, or any place a book could be hiding, and bring them in.

Your child's health

By: Dr. John Payne

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! There is a near epidemic of streptococcal pharyngitis (strep throat) going around in our schools. Over the past two or three weeks virtually all the schools in our area have reported an increase in absences due to sore throats. The current type of strep germ going through our area is apparently a very nasty one producing a special toxin which causes children to break out in the typical bright red, rough rash which is Scarlet Fever or Scarletina. The rash itself is not contagious, but may be thought of as an allergic reaction to the strep germ. However, the rash is a marker to show that the child probably has strep throat and needs prompt treatment.

Strep throat can now be diagnosed quickly (ten minutes) in the office with a simple test performed by the nurse. You do not have to wait two days as with previous culture tests. Your child should be tested if he or she shows any symptoms of sore throat, headache, fever or other illness.

The treatment will do the best job of minimizing the risk of rheumatic fever or kidney damage which can result from the infection. The child will not be contagious after about 24 hours with the "shot." If a shot is declined, or if the child is allergic to penicillin, treatment with antibiotics by mouth for ten days can be used, though it is somewhat less effective and the child will remain contagious for at least 48 hours.

A few words of advice: The rash associated with this epidemic is NOT MEASLES as many old timers have insisted with all good intentions. There have not been any cases of measles around here in years; thanks to modern immunization programs. Scarletina does look something like measles, but the current problem is due to the strep germ. Finally, a few people have referred to the condition as "stripped throat" as if all the lining of the throat had been stripped away by the germs. The throat can feel like it has been stripped by the strep before it is treated, but the name is still strep throat.

Mental Health notes

By: Marilyn Dameron, M.A.

What is mental health? Mental health is the way a person thinks, feels, behaves, and interacts with others. Mentally healthy persons are well-adjusted and can handle the usual daily tensions and crisis of everyday living, even though this may involve moments of fear, anger, anxiety, distrust and/or depression.

Mentally ill persons are frequently worry bound and tend to exaggerate these same moments of fear, anger, anxiety, distrust and/or depression.

There is no sharp line of division between mentally healthy and mentally ill people. Often the behaviors may be the same but the frequency of occurrence may be abnormally increased or decreased. (For example: daily crying spells for no apparent reason.)

But mental health, like physical health, can be improved by good habits, environment and relationships. To feel "good" you must be in good physical and mental health.

Mental health affects everyone—the individual, the family, the employer and the community. It is a factor in delinquency, divorce, alcoholism, drug addiction, crime, and the "everyday blues."

What are some warning signs that signal things are getting out of control?

1. Anxiety—a prolonged feeling that something unpleasant is going to happen, even though there is no apparent cause for worry.

2. Depression—a bad case of the "blues" that persists...leading to withdrawal from the outside world...not caring what is going on around one.

3. Sudden change in mood or behavior (noticeable to family, close friends, or co-workers). This is action that is inconsistent with one's normal behavior.

4. Physical complaint with no organic cause. Examples would be tension-induced headaches, nausea, insomnia, pains, etc. Such psychosomatic symptoms are real, and so is the pain even though the cause may be a mental health issue.

Poor performance or discrepancy between performance and potential.

If any of the above symptoms are prolonged and severe, it's time to get a professional opinion. Often understanding the cause can clear away the symptoms.

Things get out of control for all of us at times and sometimes we bounce back quickly and other times we need assistance to help us get back on the right track.

The staff at your local Comprehensive Care Center is trained to help you get back on the "right track." We help those who are having minor adjustment difficulties and only need support and a sympathetic ear to listen, to those who have serious psychiatric problems and need more long-term care. We are here to help assist you with your mental health needs the same as your local physicians are here to assist you with your physical health needs.

If we can be of assistance, please call us at 256-2129, or drop in to see us. We are located in a trailer on East Main Street in Mt. Vernon, diagonally across the street from Sears.

The Medicine Chest

By: Tina Cain Hasty RPH

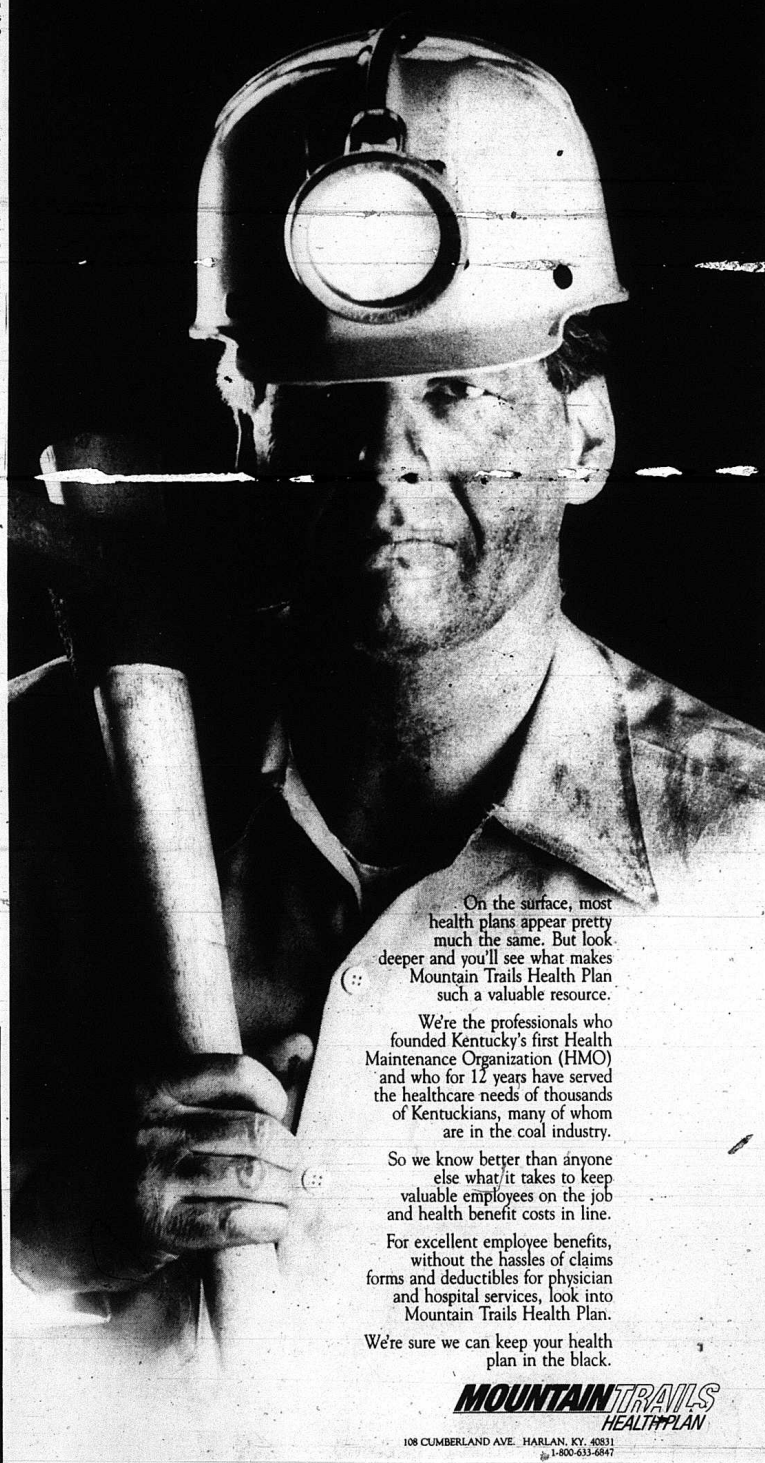

Osteoporosis is a condition in which bones become weakened. It usually affects older people and is much more prevalent in women than men. About 1.3 million fractures a year are blamed on this condition. It also can cause the spinal bones to become so weak that they collapse, leaving a hunched back, which can rob the person of several inches of height.

The bone weakening in osteoporosis is due to a loss of bone mass or density. One reason for this loss is a calcium shortage. 99% of the body's calcium is stored in the bones. The other 1% is in the blood and other body fluids where it helps in many processes, including blood clotting. When the daily intake of calcium is not enough to meet the needs of the body, the stored calcium in the bones is drawn out, which can lead to osteoporosis.

The major sources of calcium are milk and other dairy products, fish with bones (e.g. sardines), oranges, leafy green vegetables

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Taft Bullock, 73, of Mt. Vernon will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception hosted by their children at 2 p.m., February 2, 1986 at the Family Life Retreat Center, Mt. Vernon. The couple were married February 1, 1936 in Rockcastle Co. They are the parents of nine children: Mrs. Jean Pruitt of Perryville, Mrs. Anita Hutson of Miami, Florida, Mrs. Martha Whitson of Somerset, Mrs. Gail Malott of Independence, Valeria Reynolds of Walton and Mrs. Carol Sowder and Mitchell Bullock, both of Mt. Vernon. Two sons, Michael and Giles, are deceased. The Bullocks also have 13 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. All friends and relatives are invited. The gift of your presence is the only gift requested for this occasion.

Ms. Eslesen Stewart of Mt. Vernon wishes to announce the engagement of her daughter, Katrina Louise, to Clinton Anderson Graves, son of Ms. Jewell Irene Graves of Mt. Vernon and Clinton Graves of Coffeaville, Kansas. Miss Stewart is a 1985 graduate of RCHS and is presently attending Eastern Ky. University as a nursing major. Mr. Graves is a 1981 graduate of RCHS and is enrolled at Somerset State Vocational School, acquiring machinist certification. Miss Stewart is also the daughter of the late Lee Stewart of Barbourville. No wedding date has been set.

Mrs. Aslee Bray to chair Bike-A Thon in Brodhead

The Central Regional Office of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital announced today that Mrs. Aslee Bray has agreed to chair the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Bike-a-Thon in Brodhead.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas. The institution opened its doors to the public in 1962 to combat catastrophic diseases which afflict our children. St. Jude Hospital is non-sectarian, non-discriminatory, and provides total medical care to over 4,200 patients.

At St. Jude, scientists and physicians are working side by side seeking not only a better means of treatment, but also the causes, cures and prevention of these ~~lethal~~ killers.

All findings and information gained at the hospital are shared freely with doctors and hospitals all over the world. Thanks to St. Jude Hospital, children who have leukemia, Hodgkin's disease, sickle cell anemia, and other childhood diseases now have a better chance to live.

The bike-a-thon program is dedicated to "Jaime." Jaime is from Ohio and was diagnosed with leukemia in May 1983 and began treatment at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Today her cancer is in remission and she is doing quite well. Jaime is a living example of the progress and success of the research, patient care, and educational programs of this internationally recognized hospital.

We sincerely appreciate the concern that Mrs. Bray has for our work, and we hope the citizens of Brodhead will support the bike-a-thon this spring to help provide the funds that are needed to preserve the world's greatest asset... "Our Children."

Poynter arrives for duty in Colorado

Army Spec. 4 Marquita L. Poynter, daughter of Leonard C. and Virginia A. Nicely, of Rt. 2, Mt. Vernon, has arrived for duty with the 4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, Colo.

Poynter, an equipment records and parts specialist, was previously assigned in West Germany. She is a 1974 graduate of Rockcastle County High School.

The piano was invented by an Italian harpsichord maker called Bartolomeo Cristofori, to remedy the harpsichord's inability to play soft, "piano" in Italian, and loud "forte."

and broccoli. A cup of lowfat yogurt contains 350 to 450 mg. of calcium, while one-half cup of ice cream contains 100 mg., and a cup of skim milk has 300 to 350 mg. The U.S. Recommended Daily Allowance of calcium for adults is 1,000 mg., but some experts say that postmenopausal women may need up to 1,500 mg. per day. It's easy to see the calcium need is not usually met by diet alone.

Therefore, many experts recommend calcium supplements for women. There has been some controversy over this issue. One group of people who should be cautioned are those with a history of kidney stones. Calcium may increase the production of stones in these people. They should consult their physician before taking any calcium supplements.

Another problem concerns the source of the calcium supplement. The FDA has warned that bone meal and dolomite, two calcium sources, contain lead in amounts that could be risky.

Increasing calcium may also mean increasing vitamin D, which is required for optimal calcium absorption. It is particularly important for the elderly, because their intestines may not absorb calcium as well as younger people. Vitamin D is added to many dietary products, and it is also received from exposure to the sun. If supplements of vitamin D are used, they should not exceed the RDA of 400 IU per day because continued use of high doses can be toxic.

There are many different calcium products available without a prescription. If you have any questions, check with your doctor or pharmacist.

and fiscal court. The court is forced to depend on volunteers to operate the program. The court has only $3,000 to contribute to the program this year, from Oct. 1, 1985 to Sept. 1, 1986.

There are four distribution points within the county. They are Broadhead City Hall with director, Mrs. Yvonne Swander; First Baptist Church, Mt. Vernon, with director, Ms. Ada Martin; First Christian Church, Mt. Vernon, with director, Ms. Ola Smith, and Lexington Pentecostal Church under the direction of Mrs. Edna Cameron.

Volunteers receive food at the same rate everyone else does. They have to meet eligibility guidelines along with all other recipients of food under the program.

The county does help defray some of the transportation costs and exists for bookkeeping functions. Mrs. Lois Phillips, as noted, takes care of bookkeeping, coordination functions within the county. Robert Settles was hired

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1 package (1.25 oz.) taco seasoning mix
- 5 cups square rice cereal
- 3 cups regular size corn chips
- 1 cup unsalted roasted peanuts

1. MICROWAVE (high) butter in 1-cup glass measure 45 to 60 seconds or, until melted. Stir in taco seasoning mix. Set aside.

2. Combine cereal, corn chips and peanuts in 8-quart microwave-safe bowl. Drizzle butter mixture over cereal mixture; toss lightly to coat.

3. MICROWAVE (high), uncovered, 4 to 4 1/2 minutes or until lightly toasted, stirring 2 to 3 times. Cool; store in covered containers.

4. About 9 cups, 105 calories per half cup.

TIP: For added flavor, add 1/3 cup (1.3 oz.) chopped beef jerky after toasting.

Mocha Chip Dessert
[This light, refreshing dessert may remind you of chocolate chip ice cream.]

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 3/4 cups graham cracker crumbs
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- 1 package (10 oz.) large marshmallows about $2.
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup (6 oz.) miniature semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- 1-pint (2 cups) whipping cream
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/4 cup strong coffee

1. MICROWAVE (high) butter in 12x8-inch microwave-safe baking dish 30 to 60 seconds or until melted. Stir in crumbs and 3 tablespoons sugar. Reserve 1/4 cup for topping. Press remaining mixture evenly into bottom of dish.

2. MICROWAVE (high), uncovered, 2 to 2 1/2 minutes or until hot, rotating dish once or twice. Set aside. Combine marshmallows and milk in 2-quart glass mix 'n pour bowl.

3. MICROWAVE (high), uncovered, 4 to 5 minutes or until marshmallows are melted, stirring twice. Refrigerate 30 minutes. Add chocolate pieces, reserving 2 tablespoons for topping. Continue refrigerating another 30 minutes or until cool.

4. Beat cream until slightly thickened. Beat in sugar and vanilla until thickened. Fold into marshmallow mixture along with coffee. Pour into crust. Sprinkle evenly with reserved crumb mixture and chocolate pieces. Cover and refrigerate until set (about 3 hours) or overnight. Cut into squares to serve.

About 15 servings, 340 calories each.

TIPS: Chocolate cookie crumbs can be substituted for graham cracker crumbs.

4-H YOUTH LEARN SKILLS IN 4-H CLOTHING PROJECT

Anyone who has purchased clothing lately at a retail store knows just how "valuable" sewing skills can be. These skills also come in handy when a garment needs repairing or altering and can even be used to give you a "one-of-a-kind" designer ensemble.

The 4-H clothing project continues to be one of the strongest 4-H projects in Rockcastle County. Beginning next month, 4-H boys and girls will once again have the opportunity to participate in clothing project meetings. Youth, grades 4-8, will meet at each of the elementary schools and high school youth will meet in Mt. Vernon. Classes will continue through March, ending with the grand finale, the 4-H Fashion Review.

For the junior 4-H'ers, grades 4-8, projects will be offered in four units, depending on whether the 4-H'er has taken sewing before.

Unit I is offered for beginning sewers. It consists of 4-H'ers learning how to use the sewing machine, how to make a straight seam, how to make a seam finish, and how to make a casing. Girls will be making a skirt, and boys, shorts.

Unit II will build on the learning experiences 4-H'ers had in their first year of sewing. The most common garment constructed in this unit is a simple top. In addition to reviewing the previous skills learned, the 4-H'er will learn how to put in a facing.

In Unit III, the 4-H'ers apply the skills they have learned to sewing on knit fabrics. Sweatshirts or jogging pants have been popular garments made in this unit. Unit IV will advance the sewing skills of the 4-H'er even further as they learn how to put in sleeves or how to make button holes.

High school youth have several options in the sewing project. In casual wear, they can construct one or two garments which will make a complete outfit such as a dress, slacks and top, skirt and top, or a jumpsuit. In coordinates, the senior 4-H'er can construct three or four garments that mix and match to make a complete outfit which can be modeled together, such as a skirt, blouse, vest and jacket. In dress-up attire, the 4-H'er will construct a street-length garment to be worn for semi-formal functions.

Another unit offered to the senior 4-H'er is specialized clothing. This is the unit, the 4-H'er will construct one or more articles to make a complete special occasion outfit, such as costumes, sleepwear, or swimwear.

Formal wear is another senior unit. This unit is for the experienced sewers. In this unit, they will construct an after-six formal or party outfit.

This last unit offered to senior 4-H'ers is tailoring. In this unit, 4-H'ers use either traditional or speed tailoring techniques to construct a garment.

In order to help the 4-H'ers complete their garments, we will once again need volunteer leaders to help teach sewing skills. This year, we will hold our classes after school for one week at each school. Even a basic knowledge of sewing is helpful in teaching the beginning 4-H'ers.

If you can help in the clothing classes at one of the schools or would like more information about the project for your child, contact the County Extension Office at 256-2403.
