Eternal Truth
IN OUR CHANGING WORLD
By: Austin Mobley, Minister-Providence church of Christ

What is the most important thing to you?
Have you recently considered the above question? Before you answer it, take time to seriously think about it. We are addressing this question to people who believe in God, who believe there is a heaven and hell, and who believe that every person has an immortal soul which will be in eternity somewhere. Now on with the question.
Is YOUR FAMILY the most important thing in the world? It should not be Jesus said, "He that loveth father of mother more than me is not worthy of me and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me" (Matt. 10:37). Luke includes companion, brother and sisters also (Lk. 14:26).
Is YOUR PHYSICAL LIFE the most important thing to you? It should not be Christ said, "He that loveth his life shall lose it, and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal" (John 12:25).
Is WORLDLY PLEASURE the most important thing in your life? It should not be! It was the "pleasures of this life" which choked the spiritual development of those in Luke 8:14 and caused them to be lost. Paul warns of those who are "lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God"; and states, "I have a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof from such turn away" (2 Tim. 3:4-5).
Is MAKING A LIVING more important to you than living the Christian life? When making a living interferes with your responsibilities to God, to the church and to your family, it becomes a liability! Making money should not be the most important thing in your life. Jesus Christ said, "No man can serve two masters; ye cannot serve God and mammon" (Lk. 16:13). Mammon is money. OTHERS the most important thing to you? It should not be! The divinely inspired apostle Paul said, "For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For I yet please men. I should not be the servant of men" (Gal. 1:10).
"Is your LOVE FOR THE WORLD more important to you than love for God? It should not be! God tells us to "love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him" (1 John 2:15).
What is the most important thing to YOU? After you eliminate the aforementioned matters, you can begin to clearly see what is left as the most important thing in life. And it is plainly stated by Jesus Himself in Matt. 6:33 as He discusses the necessities of life: "But seek ye first the KINGDOM OF GOD and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." The Lord and His spiritual body; the church; are first for those who want to go to heaven. Let's put FIRST THINGS FIRST!

Shuttle explosion a tragedy for Americans

Last week, all of us watched in shock and horror the pictures of the fiery crash of the Space Shuttle Challenger. Perhaps not since the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963 have Americans been so affected by such a tragic event.

The Shuttle crew of seven outstanding Americans was continuing the mission of our space program—developing new technology, learning more about our universe and providing an example for all of us to follow. Several of them were experienced astronauts with thousands of hours logged aboard all kinds of aircraft.

The others, including New Hampshire teacher Christa McAuliffe, were newcomers. But each was there to perform valuable service to our country and to further our scientific knowledge about space.

The shock and sadness which this disaster created in all of us was due, in part, to the fabulous success our space program has had over its entire history. Since we began to fly men and women into space some 25 years ago, only three astronauts have ever died, those in a fire on the ground 19 years ago. Our record of in-flight performance was perfect, and the American space program was the shining star of our technology and science capabilities.

Yet, it was this very success which lulled us into forgetting that space travel is still in its relative infancy. It is still fraught with danger—where tremendous speeds combined with volatile fuels and critical engineering requirements put man on the very edge of his technical abilities.

A few have suggested that NASA was pushing too hard on the Shuttle program. The investigation which is now underway to learn why this accident occurred will undoubtedly delve into that possibility. Some have even wondered if it should pull back from our space program.

But I believe that would be wrong. We have come so far in the past 25 years, too far to turn back because of one single accident. America was built on innovation, and with any new science or program, risks are always with us.

Those early pioneers who came through the Cumberland Gap in the 1700s to explore and settle the West faced far greater dangers—Indians, disease, harsh weather and, more, it would have been easy for those settlers to stay along the seacoast, content with their lives. But that is not the American way of viewing the world, and rightly so.

As we mourn the loss of these seven brave astronauts, we must use their tragedy as our inspiration to continue the quest they began. America is the greatest nation on Earth; we didn't get that way by walking away from challenges and risks.

State going after dog license fee

A word to dog owners: State agriculture officials want to put a short leash on counties that ignore dog licensing laws, claiming the inactivity deprived state and municipal governments of more than $1 million last year.

Of the estimated 1 million dogs in Kentucky in 1985, licenses were issued for just 63,194, the state said.

If all dogs had been licensed, the $1.50 fee per dog would have generated about $1.5 million, half of which would go to the state. Instead, the 80 counties that collected dog license fees raised just $94,790, the state said.

As a result, the Agriculture Department is putting together a bill that would raise the cost of an annual dog license to $5 for a neutered animal and $10 for a fertile animal. It also would increase the amount now paid to counties and their dog wardens and raise the reimbursement level for livestock killed by stray dogs.

A department lawyer, Thomas Troth, said the proposed law might grant counties more incentive to enforce the licensing requirement because they would receive more money for doing so.

Fishermen and Farmers Must File Tax Return Soon

Certain farmers and commercial fishermen must file their 1985 federal income tax returns and pay any tax due by March 3, 1986, the Internal Revenue Service said.

Persons who earned at least two-thirds of their 1984 or 1985 gross income from farming or fishing and did not pay estimated tax by January 15, 1986, (or who paid by that date and underestimated their tax liability) must file their returns and pay all tax due by March 3, 1986, to avoid paying a penalty.

Free IRS publications 225, Farmer's Tax Guide; 595, Tax Guide for Commercial Fishermen; and, Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, provide additional information.

To order these publications, taxpayers should write or call the IRS.

Mount Vernon Signal

Serving Rockcastle County Since 1887

Mount Vernon, Kentucky 40456

Thursday, February 6, 1986

Briefly . . .

Driver revealed

Now we know. The billboard at the railroad tracks on Richmond Street in Mt. Vernon was hit by a truck owned by Walbert Trucking Co. of Glasgow and driven by Marvin T. Corder, of Mt. Vernon, Ky. . . .

Break-in reported

Burglars broke into the home of J. J. (Hank) Coates on Cox Lane in Mt. Vernon Friday night and took an estimated $3,335 worth of guns, silver, cotons, rolls of coins and jewelry. Entrance was gained by forcing a back door. Among items were a 12 gauge automatic shotgun and a 30.06 rifle. City police are investigating.

Beet wet

Just over an inch and a quarter of rain (1.27) has fallen this week, according to the weather station at Cox Funeral Home. The rain was accompanied by warm temperatures. The high Tuesday was 67 degrees.

Home burns

The home of Angie VanWinkle located on Little Clear Creek was destroyed by fire about 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The frame home was engulfed in flames when the Mt. Vernon Fire Department arrived. Mrs. VanWinkle was at the home of a neighbor when the fire of undetermined origin started.

Coming home?

Mt. Vernon Fire Chief John Cox, who suffered a heart attack several days ago, is expected to return home this week. He was released from Central Baptist Hospital in Lexington last week and has been staying with his sister, Mrs. Dorothy King, in Lexington.

He didn't see it

If you haven't heard already, you may have slept through the weekend. The groundhog failed to see his shadow almost everywhere east of the Mississippi River, including Rockcastle County. That means spring is just around the corner. If that's what you want to believe.

Ford reports on local poll

Rep. Danny Ford (R-Mt. Vernon) has released the results of his recent questionnaire which citizens in his district were asked to fill out and return. Ford said his response from Rockcastle County was good, not as good from Lincoln County, and the questionnaire was not printed in the McCreary County paper.

Drawing the biggest "Yes" vote was the question: "Would you support a tax credit for families caring for elderly or disabled family members in their home?" 83% of those responding were in favor of this legislation; 15% opposed and only 2% had no opinion.

There was a tie for the question with the most "No" votes. 75% of those responding voted "No" on the question "Would you favor legislation requiring the mandatory use of Muddy ground has greeted workers on the Mt. Vernon bypass of Ky. 461 in the area of Horseshoe Bend, an area that will soon be covered with a fill. The bypass is not expected to be completed until 1987. Top picture overlooks Horseshoe Bend. Bottom picture, taken from Negro Town Road, looks up the steep incline. Mud became a dangerous item this week when trucks carried it out on U.S. 25 near Red Top Restaurant. It brought out a needed clean-up crew.

Fiscal Court begins planning for added handicap facilities

By: Ray McClure

Detailed planning for additional handicap facilities at the Rockcastle County Courthouse has not been done and time is running out, the Rockcastle Fiscal Court was told at its monthly meeting Tuesday.

Andy Meadors, public administrator for the Cumberland Valley Area Development District (CVADD) and acting for the Office of Revenue Sharing (ORS), reminded the court that the ORS had made arrangements with the previous court to do considerable work at the courthouse, and that the deadline for completion is Aug. 26.

The court instructed County Judge/Executive Hubert Thacker to proceed with making the necessary arrangements.

No estimate was made on the cost of the project, but it could be expensive. Revenue sharing funds could be withheld by ORS until construction is completed.

The most expensive item will likely be the construction of a ramp at the rear of the courthouse, that leads to the second floor. Another expensive item will be remodeling the men's and women's restrooms on the first floor to comply with handicap requirements.

Also to be relocated is the handicap parking space from its present location to the courthouse parking area at the rear of the building.

An entrance ramp at the front of the courthouse has been completed.

If the amount of the project exceeds $7,500, the court will be required to call for bids.

County Treasurer Floyd Owens, on behalf of the Mt. Vernon Development Corporation, asked the court to approve a resolution that will go to the U.S. Postal Service indicating the county will cooperate in any way it can with the postal service in numbering houses and other property throughout the county.

Since the numbering would be no cost to the county, the court approved the resolution. The City of Mt. Vernon has already approved the measure. The exact date when the numbering would get underway has not been determined. Owens said it would be next week, next month, or next year.

If another action, the court agreed to build and maintain suitable areas for safe turn-arounds for school buses, if an easement on the necessary land is made available. Joann Smith, who lives on U.S. 150 near the Rockcastle-Lincoln county line, asked the court to repair the turn-around near her home.

The Office of the Kentucky Attorney General recently wrote the court the county could build and maintain the turn-arounds if

Brodhead city, police named in suit over arrest during the fair

A Brodhead area man filed suit Monday in Rockcastle Circuit Court against the City of Brodhead and Police Officer Billy Lawrence, "and against the city for wrongfully unlawfully and without probable cause," arrested on a "drunk in public" charge.

Gary Shepherd, who lives in the Brindle Ridge area of the county, was arrested by officer Lawrence on Aug. 10, 1985 on the Brodhead Fairgrounds and jailed. Shepherd is asking "in excess" of $2,500.

Also arrested at the time was David Deborde on a similar charge, but he is not included in the suit.

A District Court date for the two men was scheduled for Jan. 28, but postponed. The court appearance date has not been rescheduled.

In his complaint, through his attorney, Roger M. Oliver of Berea, Shepherd said he was "deprived of his liberty, has suffered physical pain and mental suffering in the form of fright, nervousness, humiliation, and has been damaged in his name and reputation."

He complained that his arrest "was also intentionally and with malice, with full knowledge or its unlawfulness, without just cause or excuse, and/or with gross negligence and recklessness and with a wanton disregard for the rights of the plaintiff."

He stated in the suit that at the time of his arrest he was "acting in a quiet, peaceful and law-abiding manner, and had not committed, nor was he then committing, any offense."

He is asking for a judgment against the defendants, jointly and severally, for damages in such amounts as are "fair and reasonable" for being "deprived of his liberty," having "inferred physical pain and mental suffering and for damage to his name and reputation."

He also asks for punitive or exemplary damages in such amounts "as are fair and reasonable."

Insurance break seems likely around Brodhead

By: Ray McClure

Residents in and around Brodhead will apparently get a break on homeowners insurance rates now that the Brodhead Volunteer Fire Department has a county-owned fire truck stationed at the Brodhead fire house.

Fire Chief Brian Bussell told the council Monday night he expects the Insurance-Service Office in Nashville, Tenn. to give a higher fire protection rating within the city, and within a radius of five miles outside the city, meaning homeowners will see a decrease in rates once the change is authorized and insurance companies notified.

Brodhead is now listed as a "seven" within the city limits on the insurance office listings. The rating is expected to become a "six" within the city, and possibly a "five."

The rating in the county is a "10." With the change, the rating could be a "nine" or possibly lower for homeowners within the five mile radius of the city.

Chief Bussell said the new rating, whatever it is, will remain until the water storage capacity in the city is increased to 250,000 gallons. The capacity is now 125,000 gallons.

The city will publish a map showing the new fire protection areas at a later date.

The chief also told the council his decision has been made by Southard Railroad to sell, lease or "sever" within the city limits on

Peace Corps beckons local couple

The Peace Corps has two new volunteers.

Todd and Lynell Hammons Fields will be leaving Rockcastle County Feb. 9 for a two year assignment with the Peace Corps in the Philippines. They will fly to Seattle, Washington for a six day orientation and then on to Manila, the capitol city of the Philippines.

For three months the Fields will live with a Filipino family in order to learn the language and absorb the culture. There they will receive their exact location assignment for the next two years.

Todd will be working as an agricultural extension agent with the Filipino government in the area of fish farming. Lynell is prepared to work as a dental hygienist or other jobs where her skills would be of benefit.

Lynell is the daughter of Libby and Jim Earl Hammons of Mt. Vernon. She graduated from RCHS in 1979. She attended the University of Kentucky and graduated in 1983 from L.T.I. with an associate degree in Dental Hygiene. She has worked as a hygienist in Mt. Vernon and Berea.

Todd, the son of Rev. Bob and Eddie Fields, moved with his family from Israel to Mt. Vernon

Letters

Dear Mrs. Anderkin:

I read with interest your "Ramblings..." column in the January 16 edition of the Mt. Vernon Signal in which you discussed the pros and cons of a seat belt law. I was pleased to read that you, like most other Kentuckians, believe that wearing seat belts can save many lives, and I agree with your statement that "it would be better if the habit was acquired through education rather than legislation." However, I must point out that safety belt education has been going on for more than a decade. Millions of dollars and countless man hours have been invested in coming up with new ideas and incentives to get Americans to buckle up, and after twenty years the usage rate has increased to less than 20% nationwide and much less in Kentucky. Yet, in states (and more than thirty foreign countries) where safety belt use laws have been enacted, the usage rate has increased to three and four times the rate before the law; and, more importantly, deaths and serious injuries have declined as the seat belt usage rate increased. This indicates that legislation can accomplish immediately what long years of education alone could not.

You also mentioned "government infringement in every area of our lives." Consider this: highway accidents are the third leading cause of death in this country (behind only heart disease), and the leading killer of our young adults. If there was some new disease (consider AIDS) gaining more than 40,000 victims every year, wouldn't our citizens insist that their government do something to control the epidemic? Wouldn't it be the responsibility of our government to protect its citizens from such a lethal killer? Kentuckians won't use the free vaccine already available and proven to be 50% effective against death by automobile, the federal government will impose mandatory inoculation in the form of passive restraints in 1989. Such restraints will cost every new car buyer, whether they want the device or not. So much for individual rights and freedom of choice.

Kentucky law requires all drivers to have liability insurance on their vehicles; this can be very expensive and it is for the protection of others. Your seat belt is an insurance policy that costs nothing, and yet can be far more effective in protecting you and others by preserving the one thing valuable beyond all price: your life.

I hope you'll reconsider your position on a seat belt law and, as an influential member of your community, urge Representative J. Frazier Jones to vote for a law that will benefit all Kentuckians and perhaps save the life of someone you know.

Sincerely yours,

Jill P. Mulholland

Concerned parents discuss Grading in Library Science

Lack of class time in Library Science at Mt. Vernon Elementary School was the major complaint of a Concerned Parents Committee meeting last Friday night in the Community Room at the Bank of Mt. Vernon.

The meeting was attended by about 25 parents and teachers.

Louise Carter, spokesman for the committee, told the group that 30 minutes in class time each week is causing children to have lower grades than normal in class.

The Library Science program was introduced for the first time this school year at the elementary school, although it had been a program at two other grade schools in past years.

The first six weeks there were several "F's" given out by the teacher, but since many students said they did not know they would get a grade in the class, and the fact that it was a new program, they did not take the class seriously.

The students were allowed to do make-up work to bring their grades up, although some students even failed to take advantage of this opportunity. But Mrs. Carter said that children who made high grade in other classes were still being pulled down by their Library Science grade, and that this wasn't fair since they were only in class 30 minutes a week.

Since the first six weeks, most of the children's grades have risen. Johnny Hale, principal at MVES, stated that most of the students who made low grades in Library Science also made low grades in their other subjects. He also stated that only eight students were kept off the honor roll by their Library Science grade.

Hale also said there was no evidence that the teacher was grading too drastically since the grades were the same as was used in the other subjects. The parents wanted to know why a class that only meets 30 minutes each week carries the same weight as their other subjects which with the children have daily. Hale cited the large number of students at MVES and the limited teachers' time available as the reason.

Hale said the necessity for the new program is that the students will be given a new kind of "achievement test" at the end of the year, the Kentucky Essential Skills Test, and that Library Research Reference Skills would be included along with Reading.

Mathematics, Spelling and Writing. These test results would serve to rank the schools in the state.

In closing, several parents asked Hale to see about getting them study guides, like they had been given before but had not been given for the new material, so that they may help the students at home.

give the department the parking lot opposite the Citizen's Bank for a new fire station. He said the lot has not yet been appraised by the railroad.

Regardless of the outcome of the railroad's decision, the fire station will be under construction at that location, or a location adjoining the present fire station/city hall, in March or April.

Russell reported the Fire Department Building Fund, made up of public and other contributions, has reached about $7,000 and requested residents to continue to contribute to the fund. It is estimated it will take about $12,000 to complete the new building and/or addition.

"Any amount will help," Russell stated. "We, the residents will see our need and give as much as they can."

The night instructed, City Attorney Jerry Cox to write a letter to the State Highway Department indicating the council had approved reconstruction of the Boone Fork Bridge in east Brodhead, and that the city will see that utilities which are in the right of way of the new bridge are changed. The bridge is not expected to be constructed until 1987, at last report.

Tabled until the next meeting was a request by County Judge Billy Kirby that the $25 payment check from the city for police dispatching service from the jail be made out to his wife, Cindy.

The council decided to "think it over." In recent times the check had been made out to the jailer.

able as shown by the evidence. He asks for a trial by jury and for his costs plus "all other just and proper relief" which he "may appear entitled to."

Brodhead City Attorney Jerry Cox has 20 days to file an answer to the suit.

In a closed session Monday night, the Brodhead City Council discussed the suit with Attorney Cox and Police Officer Lawrence.

an easement is obtained. Pete Hurd appeared before the court to ask for a grave marker to be erected at the grave of long-time public official and magistrate Matt Jones. He said several residents of the Fifth District has asked him to petition the court for the marker. The matter will be discussed by the court and a report made at the next meeting.

To clarify a previous report, money to pay the hourly wages of sheriff deputies will come from the sheriff's fund and not from the fiscal court budget. At the last meeting, the court agreed to allow Sheriff Clarence "Big" Hasty to pay deputies hourly instead of annually at the sheriff's request.

All-State Chorus

These students, under the direction of Mrs. Margie Wilcox, will be members of the Kentucky All-State Chorus to be held February 6, 7 and 8 in Lexington.

The school regional and state auditors where they received a very high school and were chosen to participate in the Honor Chorus of Kentucky.

To be chosen an All-State singer is the highest honor for a high school choral music student.

The Kentucky All-State Chorus will perform at 11 a.m. Saturday morning at the Lexington Civic Center.

Selected from RCHS were: senior James Cox, daughter of James and Martha Cox; junior Natalie Pybas, daughter of Robert and Carol Pybas; senior Paula Blewins, daughter of Paul and Doris Blewins; and senior Carla Baker, daughter of Perry and Rosaline Baker.

"Would you favor legislation imposing stricter regulation of Kentucky's two-acre surface mining program?" 29% marked the "No Opinion" slot of this question, obviously indicating a lack of knowledge about the subject. 48% approved the measure and 23% opposed it. Another large "No Opinion" vote went to the question "Should the Constitution of Kentucky be amended to permit the elimination of elections every second or fourth year?" 21% had "No Opinion"; 28% favored the question, and 51% were opposed.

Other results of the poll were as follows: "Would you favor legislation establishing and funding nursing homes for veterans?" 62% voted "Yes"; 31% said "No" and 7% had "No Opinion."

"Would you favor legislation re-establishing a presidential preference primary in Kentucky?" 39% were in favor; 51% were opposed and 10% didn't care one way or the other.

Only 27% favored the State Superintendent of Public Instruction being appointed rather than elected. 59% were opposed and would refer back to the response from the questionnaire and, hopefully, use the information in making some of the decisions. Ford said that for the most part he agreed with the answers in the questionnaire but he would have to wait and make his final decision after seeing the wording of the actual legislation and any amendments that may be attached, etc.

Hunters fined

Jefferson County Men Fined $3,395

Darin Koch and Gary Cody of Jefferson County were arrested for poaching deer in Hardin County. They were charged with possession of illegal deer; resisting arrest; wearing no hunter orange and hunting without permission. Koch was fined $1,947.50, lost his hunting privileges for three years and was given six months in jail (probated for two years). Cody was fined $1,447.50 and lost his hunting rights for one year. Arresting officers were Chuck Warren and James Shipp.

Two Scott County Men Fined $1,115

On Dec. 9, 1985, Kenneth Gene Hillard and Gene Johnson, both of Scott County, were found guilty in Grant County court of taking deer by prohibited methods (taking deer at night with the aid of artificial lights). The two men were fined a total of $1,115. The fine included court costs, deer replacement costs and restitution to the landowner for crop damage. Two Remington Model 700 7MM magnum rifles and a spotlight were confiscated and hunting privileges were revoked for two years. A 30 day jail sentence was probated for two years.

License for veterans

The Senate gave final passage yesterday to House Bill 68, which would allow veterans with at least a 50 percent service-connected disability to obtain a free hunting and fishing license from the state. The vote was 34-0. The bill now goes to the governor for his consideration.

Filing Joint or Separate?
If you are married on December 31st of any year, you and your spouse may elect to file either a joint income tax return or married, separate returns. If you are not married, filing a joint return will save you taxes, because the tax rates for married persons filing jointly are higher than the rates for single persons. There are also certain deductions and credits that are not available to you if you file separate returns. However, there are times when married couple can save taxes by filing separate returns. If one spouse has large medical expenses or casualty losses and moderate income and the other spouse has few medical or casualty deductions and relatively high income, the expenses may not be deductible if they file jointly but will be deductible if they file separately. In certain cases where one spouse has capital gains and the other has capital losses, filing separately may give an overall lower tax.

In cases where one spouse wishes to limit his or her liability to only his or her own debts and liabilities, separate returns may be advisable. When joint returns are filed, both spouses are liable for the entire amount of the tax, as well as any penalties and interest. With separate returns, each spouse is liable only for his or her own returns. Once you've filed your returns you may, with amended returns, change from separate filings to a joint filing, but you may not switch from a joint return to separate returns. Consult your tax advisor for assistance in making the election that will give you the lowest overall taxes each year.

By: Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Due to so many people out with the flu, our Sunday School attendance was down to 104. But we thank God for that number.

Specials are expected to be the families and relatives of Mrs. Geneva Dooley of Scaffold Cane, Frank Harding and Mrs. Mary (Shearer) Thomas of the Clear Creek area and Hershel Jones of Berea. May God bless and comfort the loved ones in their sorrow. Many times we too quickly forget to pray for families like this. It's like I've said before, "The grief doesn't end when the casket lid is closed."

At this time of the year my mind wanders back many times to Feb. 5, 1975 when with my mother, Mrs. Liddie Reppert, was called out of this life to go home to Heaven to be with Jesus and her loved ones. My dad, Eugene Reppert, died Oct. 13, 1958, and since then we have had several more to go out of the Reppert family—three brothers, Robert, Mark and Everett; two sisters, Margaret and Bertha; a sister-in-law, Lucille Reppert; a brother-in-law, John Vaughn; a niece, Gustava Peters, and out son-in-law, John Church. I miss them all so much, but it would be selfish to want them back in this world of pain, tears and unhappiness. So, the things now differently from the way I used to. Now sometimes I see death as a blessing. God takes our loved ones out of the pain and suffering that they are going through. I now have learned to thank God for the years He allowed us to have them with us. At this time, nearly half of the thirteen Reppert children have gone on to join Mom and Dad, and as each one is called out, it just makes Heaven seem a little closer, so much dearer and sweeter than it was before. To each of my brothers and sisters scattered over different states, I'd like to say, "May God bless you and I hope and pray that one day we will all meet Mom and Dad again, never to be separated again. I love you."

Please remember in your prayers those who are ill or suffering in some way. Anne Linville, Colbie Scott, Georgia Bluff, Cleo Riggsby, Edith Ort, Charlene Hill, Dan Moore, Alvin Isaacs, Willard Todd and Bill Dean. Bless their hearts, we love them so much and hope they can all be feeling better soon.

We also hope everybody will be over the flu soon and enjoying life again.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cope of Dayton, Ohio were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cope, the weekend of Jan. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cope celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Jan. 25. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Cope, treated them to a delicious supper at a Berea restaurant. Another son, Buddy, and wife, Mary, also accompanied them for this joyous event. Congratulations to Willie and Mary on their 60 years together. We are so proud of them and thankful as they are that they are still in very good health and able to do most of their work and to attend Sunday School and church. They certainly mean a lot to our community and I count them as some of my dearest friends. God bless them both.

Mrs. Angie VanWinkle and family of Little Clear Creek Road lost their home by fire this past Saturday night. They lost all their possessions but we are thankful that there were no deaths or personal injuries due to the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Chasteen recently visited their daughter, Mrs. James Seals, and family of Berea.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noland of Independence visited his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Croucher of Berea, last Sunday evening. They had just returned from a trip to the Smokies.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cope on Sunday were their daughter, Jean Hayes, and husband, Frankie, of Winchester.

Please remember church and Sunday School. Pray for all those who are hurting in any way, and thank God for all the blessings of life. Believe me, there are many.

My thought for the day: "I think the times we cherish or remember the most are those that we have shared with our friends and loved ones. They are precious."

God bless and keep you all in my prayer.

A LESSON IN BRASS:
SOLID, WRAPPED AND PLATED

Warm and mellow brass, giving that quality touch to the room it inhabits, was once used mostly for hinges, clasps, latches, and decorative plaques for doors and graves.

During the eighteenth century, this alloy of copper and zinc became especially popular for such household objects as clocks, candleabra, oil lamps, fireplace accessories, kitchen appliances and table utensils. A great many of these valuable and treasured items from the past decorate our homes today.

Brass household furnishings are still being made, particularly bedsteads, lighting fixtures, tray tabletops and decorative containers of all sorts. And that "brass look" can be arrived at in several different ways.

The most valuable pieces are cast of solid brass. You can usually identify them by their heaviness, lack of seams and sturdy look.

Another way to fashion home furnishings with a brass finish is to wrap a rolled foil sheet of brass around another metal. This method is often used in making bedsteads. You can recognize the technique by seams in that thin outer layer of brass.

Brass can also be plated on another metal or wood. This uses even less of the metal alloy than the foil sheets and it results in the least expensive and least valuable of the "brass-look" furnishings using real brass. Plated brass finishes deteriorate under heavy use. (You'll also find plastic look-alikes, cheap imitations of the real thing.)

Brass in its natural form calls for constant polishing, unless you want to cultivate that mellow, warm patina. Solid brass items that have been cleaned, polished, and lacquered usually require only dusting with a soft cloth. The brass will mellow some under the clear coating.

However, you may need to touch a lacquered finish from time to time. Just remove tarnished spots with 4/0 steel wool and reapply the spot with clear metal lacquer.

With proper care, a good polish and lacquer job from a reliable business should last for several years.

More than two million Americans at one time or another, have suffered from the tragic mental disorder of schizophrenia. It is estimated that two to three percent of the population will have an episode of schizophrenia sometime during their lives.

In the next two to three weeks we will discuss this disorder more in the Mental Health Notes. We will discuss the symptoms associated with the disease, some probable causes and different methods of treatment.

NEWS

Curbing the Common Cold

In earlier times, many people relied on home remedies to relieve the symptoms of a cold. One old-time cure involved heating two tablespoons of castor oil and mixing it with one tablespoon of spirits of turpentine. The mixture was applied to the chest, rubbed in and covered with a warm cloth.

Fortunately, modern science has created remedies that can be relied on to alleviate some of the bothersome cold symptoms much of the time. Many parents choose to treat their child's runny nose, congestion, sneezing, and watery eyes with antihistamine/nasal decon-

Chickenpox is "going around" in the community and children often need relief from itching. The doctor may prescribe something by mouth for itching, but there are several things you can do at home to help. Keep the child as cool as possible. Place some uncooked oatmeal in an old stocking or wash cloth and wet it and dab it on the sores. Baking soda and water paste may also be used. Do not use any over the counter cortisone cream or any cream prescribed from your doctor for itching due to other causes. Keep the child's fingernails short and change clothing frequently. Calamine containing lotions from the drug store are also fine. Your druggist can suggest some.

Children will get the disease from 11 to 21 days after exposure, with most cases showing up in 14 days. It is very catching and almost all children in a family will get it if one child does. Repeat cases are very rare, though "shingles" or Herpes Zoster is a reactivated case of chickenpox along a nerve that can happen years later. Children can give it to others from one day before the rash until the rash is dried up. Keep children away from pregnant women if the expectant mother has not had the disease. Keep children away from other children who have serious illnesses or are taking cortisone.

Usually chickenpox is not serious. If the child seems very sick, if the expectant mother has not had the disease, or if she should be taken to the doctor. Do not give aspirin with chickenpox. Use aspirin-free products only. A vaccine has been developed in Japan to prevent this disease but it is not yet available in this country, so sayonara and happy scratching.

The Medicine Chest

By: Tina Cain Haastv, RPh

Did you ever hear the term "tablets"? No, it's not a movie title or a Ray Parker, Jr. song. The term can be used to describe a wax matrix portion of a tablet which is seen in the stool. When these are spotted, many patients are concerned that their medication is not effective and may ask for a different drug product.

Wax matrix products include Slow K and K-Tabs which are potassium supplements. They are designed for sustained drug delivery by putting the medicine in a wax matrix. If you see a "ghost tablet" before deciding your medicine is not effective, ask your doctor or pharmacist if your medicine is a wax matrix formulation. Being "haunted" may be completely normal.

Wax matrix tablets. As the tablet passes through the stomach and intestines, the drug slowly leeches out of the matrix. Potassium chloride is very irritating to the gastrointestinal tract lining, so this method allows for minimal irritation. The wax matrix passes on through the tract and may be spotted in the stool. This is no cause for alarm because by this time, the drug has leaked out and all that is left is the empty matrix.

MENTAL HEALTH NOTES

By: Marilyn Dameron, MA

Schizophrenia is a term used to describe a very complex and puzzling condition. It has a multitude of causes.

Because of its complexity, no generalizations hold true for all persons who receive this diagnosis. In fact, it is possible for two people labeled schizophrenic to show entirely different symptoms.

Two broad categories are often used to differentiate two forms of schizophrenia: acute and chronic.

With the onset of severe symptoms the individual is said to be experiencing acute schizophrenia. Some persons have only one acute episode during a lifetime, while others have many such episodes but lead relatively normal lives in between.

The individual with chronic schizophrenia does not fully recover normal functioning and typically requires maintenance on medication to control the symptoms. Without treatment for chronic schizophrenia, the symptoms generally worsen.

This disease is not new. It has been diagnosed for years, but it still remains poorly understood and largely feared by the public.

Hospital blood drive yields 24 pints

Thirty-three people participated in Rockcastle County Hospital's blood drive with 24 pints donated. Chairperson Betty Purcell organized the drive in conjunction with Central Kentucky Blood Center and the hospital department heads.

Blood drives are held in hospitals for the convenience of drivers and hospitals; the result is a two-part community service. The employees' community service is demonstrated when they share their good health by donating. The hospital's community service is demonstrated by providing their employees paid release time to donate, the chairperson's time to organize and by providing the site.

The people of Rockcastle County and Central Kentucky Blood Center are thankful for Rockcastle County Hospital and the persons who participated.

The next blood drive for Rockcastle County is scheduled for March 18 at the Bank of Mt. Vernon.

The following people took time to try to share their good health at the Rockcastle County Hospital blood drive:

Larry Bullock, Gary Thomas, Darlene Cromer, China Brummett, Cindy Burton, Tammy Bray, Regina Hodge, Connie Harmon, Frankie Renner, Jeffrey Hammond, Diana Thompson.

Deborah Carpenter, Robert Robinson, Eula Lawrence, Kenneth Johnson, Marion Clark, Sherry Cash, Jan Gutierrez, Audrey Hamm, Earnest Singleton, Jo Ann Hammond, Joyce Baker.

gestant syrups. These can provide temporary relief of nasal congestion due to colds. Even hay fever or sinusitis sufferers can obtain relief with such medicines. Doctors tend to recommend the syrups that are alcohol-free. Not only are they better for children, they can be had without a prescription.

One such medicine, Drixoral from the Schering Corporation, was introduced in 1967. In 1982 it was made available without a prescription. Now it's available in a pleasant-tasting wild cherry flavored syrup. A number of pharmacists involved in a taste panel determined that this wild cherry flavored product was better tasting than a competitor's product. Better tasting means children are more likely to take it without a fuss. If your child is under six, consult your physician.

When he was in the eighth grade. He graduated from RCHS in 1979. He and Lynnell married in June 1984. Todd graduated in May 1985 from Eastern Kentucky University with a major in fisheries management.

When asked: "Why are you going to work with the Peace Corps?" Todd replied, "Several years ago I realized my calling in life was to help alleviate world hunger and I prepared to do this by studying in an area I personally enjoy. The Peace Corps has a solid record of valuable contributions in this endeavor so it seemed the logical next step. Lynnell and I talked about doing something like this before we married. I'm sure we'll be homesick and probably face hardships, but we've counted the cost as much as we can from this position and we're ready."

In what was billed as "absolutely the last Groundhog Banquet ever at the church," members of the First Christian Church celebrated their 3rd Groundhog Banquet Sunday night. Following the delicious pot-luck meal, several members were recognized for their contribution to the church during the past year. From left are Angie Dowell and Anthony Machal, who received the outstanding youth awards; Mrs. Sara Machal, faithfulness award; Shirley Riddle, man-of-the-year award; Mrs. Marie Cox, Woman-of-the-Year; Mrs. Juanita Davis, recognized for her contribution to the banquet each year; David Craig, faithfulness award and Bro. Ernie Johnson, pastor. John Cox, not present, tied for the man-of-the-year award. The recipients all received some moments in keeping with the theme of the banquet.

Activities with the Junior Troop to become Juniors next year.

In February, they are planning a Mother-Daughter Valentine party and also a trip to the Planetarium and McDonald's in Berea.

The girls did great in the calendar and magazine sales. They are also doing great in the cookie sales. If you need any cookies, please call 256-5976 or 256-4090. Help the Girl Scouts if you can. They plan a special trip with the profit they make.

Here are the dessert recipes that Scouts would like to share with you that you can make with the Girl Scout cookies.

Peanut Butter Crunch
1 quart vanilla ice cream
6 Girl Scout Peanut Butter Pattie cookies

Soften ice cream. Chop cookies coarsely. Fold cookies into ice cream. Refreeze.

Easy Peanut Brittle
10 Girl Scout Peanut Butter Sandwich cookies
2 tablespoons margarine
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cut cookies into large pieces. Melt margarine in a heavy skillet. Add sugar, salt and vanilla. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until sugar is melted and smooth. (Sugar will turn a golden brown.) Do not overcook. Remove from heat and add cut up cookies, mixing to coat them. Pour immediately into well greased 9x13 inch pan. Cool thoroughly. Break into pieces for serving.

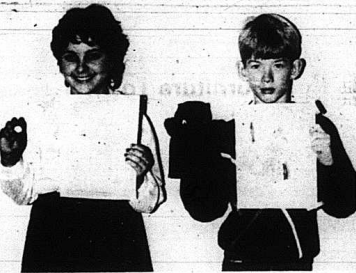

The pot-luck meal was well received as always. Dr. Charles Steele, pastor of Westside Christian Church in Richmond, in forefront of photo, was again the guest speaker for the occasion. Others in the photo are: Dr. G.W. Griffith, Jim Cox, Henry Cox, Carrie Mullins, Angie Dowell and Cassie Mullins.

Brownie Troop 1079 activities told

Brownie Troop 1079 has been busy. As a service project, they picked up paper at the school. They are working on the Sister Troop Patch with the Roundstone Daisy Troop. Also, the third grade Brownies are doing the Bridging

Winning the Groundhog coloring contest in their age groups were Amanda Johnson and Cliff Mullins. The children's choir also provided a number of "Groundhog Carols," adapted for the occasion. Other entertainment for the night was provided by the Gospel Good-Timers.

Senior forward Tony Harrison goes for two points in a recent contest. Harrison scored 16 points in the Rockets win over Whitley Co. last Friday night. However, the Rockets weren't so fortunate Saturday night as they journeyed to Jackson Co., a team they had beaten by 15 points earlier in the season, and lost there by 21 points. Senior guard Benny Blanton, No. 14, was high point man for the Rockets in the game with 14. The Rockets then took on Williamsburg Tuesday night in an away game and won their second game of the year from the Yellow Jackets by a score of 82-74. The boys are off until next Tuesday night when they play Lynn Camp in an away game.

Bowling news

The Wildcats maintain their hold on first place in the Rockcastle League at Maroon Lanes at Richmond with a 59 and 25 record. NAPA is second with 47 wins and 37 losses, followed by the High Rollers at 45 and 39.

High Team Series for the week was taken by the Rebels with a 2,411. The Wildcats and the Born Losers tied for second with a 2,390 each.

The Wildcats took High Team Game with a 922. The Born Losers were second with an 865. NAPA was third with an 849.

* High Men Series for the week went to Jamie Noe with a 619. Jack Noe had a 542 and Henry Vanzant and Roy Winstead each had 530.

Noe also took High Men's Game with a 253. Bill Reynolds had a 223, and Noe also had third, High Game with a 217.

Carol McGuire took High Women's Series with a 548. Evelyn Mullins was second with a 534, and Kim Mullins was third with a 490.

Evelyn Mullins had High Women's Game with a 213. Carol McGuire was second with a 195, and Millie Reynolds was third with a 189.

The girls team lost to district foe Jackson Co. by 10 points in a home game earlier in the season but revenge was sweet Tuesday night as the girls went to Jackson Co. and brought home a 53-44 victory. The girls were led in scoring by junior guard Cindy Fain who played an outstanding game and scored 16 points. Paige Anderkin scored 15 points in the game; Caroline Machal, 12; Sandy Hunter, 8 and Tonya Parrett, 2. Hunter is shown in the above photo during the girl's game against defending state champions Whitley Co. Monday night which the girls saw get away from them.

The girls were within 4 points early in the third quarter but wound up losing the contest 49-34. The girls' next opponent is an away game at Somerset Thursday night and a game at Lynn Camp next Tuesday night.

ROCKCASTLE COULD HAVE JAPANESE VISIT

Rockcastle County families are invited to share in a state-wide 4-H youth exchange program which has been ongoing with Japan and Kentucky. The exchange is jointly sponsored by 4-H and the LABO International Exchange Foundation for the promotion of international friendship and cultural exchange.

To be eligible to participate in the exchange, a family must be interested in sharing their home with an exchange youth from Japan for three to four weeks, mid-July to mid-August. Families would also be expected to assume the costs of room and board for the youth while hosting.

The LABO Exchange program is designed specifically for families with children between the ages of 12-17 years old. It offers these families the experience whereby they can know and appreciate another people and their culture and gain a better understanding of themselves and their culture. Families are asked not to alter their lifestyles for the guests so they can see how Kentucky families function in day-to-day life.

This 230-hour program also involves Kentucky youth who travel to Japan. However, these Kentucky youth do not have to be the same youth who hosted the Japanese exchanges.

Applications for hosting a Japanese youth this summer are available in the County Extension Office and are due Feb. 19. For more information, call the Extension Office at 256-2403.
