where the problem has been the worst according to Towery.

The lice problem reached its peak about the first of November according to Parsons. However, the situation has improved dramatically said Doris Towery school nurse.

Mrs. Towery and Mr. Parsons added that the parents have been most cooperative when dealing with the problem. They also ask the parents to check their children frequently to insure that the problem does not return.

over $50,000 on the project, in Rockcastle County.

The Family Life Center at Renfro Valley will also help the less fortunate, elderly and disabled. They provide things like: home repair, car repair for transients, temporary housing, used clothing vouchers, kerosene heaters, plastic covers, medical assistance on a limited basis and Christmas baskets. Terry Haarmann is the program manager. Their number is 256-4810. CAP's program is funded by private donations. CAP also has a program that will provide garden seeds, fertilizer and canning supplies to low income persons. Call 256-3923.

There is also help available for the hungry in Rockcastle County. REAP, which has been in operation for almost two years, provides emergency food for those who are in need. REAP is located on Main Street in Mt. Vernon and is open 10 a.m. to 12 noon Monday and Thursday. However, anyone needing food can call 256-2876, 256-2626, 256-2203, 256-2244 or 256-4177 anytime. A recent food drive by the local Boy Scouts garnered about 1,000 cans of food for REAP.

The Prime of Life

Well, my punkin on the vine,
you have reached the age of 39.
It's 6 o'clock and that is boring.
I should be in bed snoring.
When something gets on my mind,
has to be written at that time.
Now that I'm getting old and gray,
have to write down what I have to say.
You were born day after Thanksgiving.
Thank the Lord, you're still living.
November morning just about eight.
It's up to you and God whatever your fate.
Your growing up was sort of sad,
Not much interest from your dad.
In seventy-two heart attack came his way.
That changed his life until this day,
being born of God from above,
filled his life with Christian love.
I tried to do the best I could,
not always doing the things I should.
My son and four daughters have come far,
he has given each sister a scar.
Raising children isn't a bed of roses,
keeps dad and mom on their toesies.
They are a heritage from the Lord,
your parents at last have retired.
You have three sons of your own,
give them the love that you have known.
Living for Jesus trusting Him each day.
Meet us in Heaven,
"Remember what I say".
Your loving Mother 1988

If you work at an office, chances are, you'll spend at least 20 years of your life sitting down.

The Rockcastle Unit of the American Cancer Society attended an awards banquet of the American Cancer Society in Lexington recently. They were invited to attend because of their achievements throughout the year in fundraising and public education. There was a 15% increase in funds raised over the best year ever and they also educated 60% of the youth and 10.5% of the adults in the county. The money goes for research, community and patient services and education for the public and professionals in the county. Representing the unit were, from left: Dr. Bill Pesci, presenter; LuEd Nielsen, Sharon Palmer and Cathy Silmon. If you would like to become involved as a volunteer, please call 256-9315. We hope you will continue to support the unit with your generous contributions. Not in photo: Cynthia Howlett.

Fire, smoke highlight Santa's visit

By: Ray McClure

A smoke canister that turned into a smoke bomb that blanketed Main Street in Mt. Vernon in a thick, gray, swirling cloud, brought a new dimension to the annual Christmas parade Saturday.

The "smoke grenade" set fire to the chimney on the Mt. Vernon Fire Department float resulting in minor damage, namely, a plastic pipe and a frame holding the 10-foot tall chimney. However, it was repaired in time to be used in the afternoon Brodhead parade. Smoke canisters are used in training firemen.

Santa Claus, who was riding on the float and who set off the smoke canister for added realism, was not injured. Not even a white whisker was singed. Smokey the bear riding on the other end of the float also escaped with hair intact.

Burned or not, the float won best-in-parade. Second place went to Rockcastle Hospital. Third place was won by Future Farmers of America.

The bomb turned out to produce considerably more smoke than expected, and brought coughs and tears to many of the estimated 1,500 or more, who attended the parade.

It was ideal weather for a parade to open the Christmas season, but it hardly looked like Christmas. The sun was bright and the temperature starting out in the 20s rose to the 40s before the day was over.

"It couldn't have been a better day for a parade," Bud Cox, assistant fire chief said in evaluating the parade. Everything went off well, excluding, of course, the fire on the float.

The parade, as usual, was led by the Rockcastle County High School band followed by Mt. Vernon Mayor Gary R. Cromer and the various school queens. There were an ample supply of vintage cars from the sponsoring Rockcastle Street Road and antique Car Club. Horses were also much in evidence. Santa Claus came at the end of the parade riding a fire truck.

Send letters to Santa Claus

As in past years, the Signal will receive Dear Santa letters from the children to be published in the Dec. 22 issue of the Signal and then passed along to Santa.

Letters should be in by Dec. 19. They will be judged by an impartial jury and the winner will receive a $25 cash prize from the Signal.

Send letters to Santa Claus, P.O. Box 185, North Pole, Ky. 40456.

Christmas wish

Livingston hopes for water project

By: Ray McClure

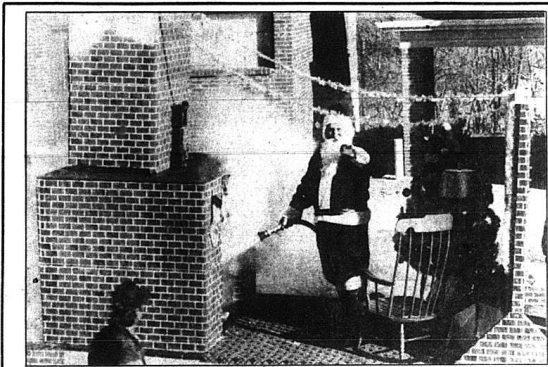

When Livingston Mayor Billy Medley makes up his Christmas list he will probably ask for Santa to bring the city enough money to improve the city water system.

Beset with an old and limited output system, the city has applied for a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) for a planned rehabilitation project estimated to cost $837,000.

Of the amount, $400,000 is expected to come from CDBG Public Facilities funds. The remainder probably will come through a Farmers Home Administration loan.

The project includes a new source of water for the city which now gets its water from the "boils," a spring beside Roundstone Creek.

The new water source will be Woods Creek Lake through the Woods Creek Water District in Laurel County. A six-inch line will be connected to a meter in the vicinity of the 1.75 m-ramp just over the Rockcastle-Laurel counties line.

Santa Claus sprays water on the chimney on the Mt. Vernon Fire Department float to extinguish a fire started accidentally by a smoke canister. At left, Santa Claus tosses candy to children as he rides down Main Street in Mt. Vernon. An estimated 1,500 persons turned out for the annual parade.

Brodhead approves grant

Acceptance of a $150,000 grant to go with a $150,000 loan from Farmers Home Administration to upgrade the city sewer plant was approved officially by the Brodhead City Council Monday night.

The grant had been announced earlier but the council finished the paper work at the meeting.

In a relatively short meeting, the council voted to draw up an ordinance prohibiting overnight parking on the city parking lot opposite Citizens Bank, a favorite of large trucks.

The council agreed refrigerators and other items should be removed from the sidewalk in the downtown area. The appliances are sold by Russell Bullock, the council was told.

The police were told to watch for drinking and other activities at Piney Grove Cemetery. The council heard that some items were stolen from graves.

Mayor Billy Bussell said he would consult with the cemetery board about the problem and possible remedy.

Benefit sing Friday night

A Christmas benefit gospel sing will be held at 7 p.m. Friday in the Old Barn at Renfro Valley. Gospel singers are The Reniners and Different Way singers.

Admission includes canned food, new toys, new clothing. Proceeds go to the needy.

declared. "It will also increase the potential for more housing in the area."

The city has already held public hearings on the project to solicit comments. Reportedly, those attending approved of the project.

The funding for the project will be similar to Brodhead's sewer plant project.

Livingston currently has 168 water customers. It is estimated that the new water system would add about 46 customers in the beginning.

Santa comes to Brodhead

A large crowd turned out for the Brodhead Christmas parade and visit by Santa Claus Saturday.

Winners of gifts include: Dessie Taylor, woodcraft item from Barbara's Beauty Shop; D.A. Robbins, $20 in gas from Bentley's; Marnibon; Shannon Lakes, $10.50 in food from Brodhead Cafe; Chris (Cont. to B)

State allocates money for road maintenance

By: Ray McClure

The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet has allocated $518,558 to Rockcastle County for maintenance of the state's 114 miles of rural secondary roads during the 1989-90 fiscal year, the Rockcastle Fiscal Court was told at a meeting Tuesday.

The amount is the same that was allocated to the county in the 1988-89 fiscal year.

Based on a maintenance cost of $2,900 a mile, the county will have $231,173 left for special road projects.

Nine special road projects were decided by the state and the court. The state suggested five projects and the magistrates added four, with the magistrate's four projects listed for priority work. They are, from one to four:

Johnetta-Dry Fork-Crooked Creek Road; Lake Linnville Road around the lake; Sand Hill Road and Wildie Upper Clear Creek Road. The state suggested, and the court approved:

Hurricane School Road from I-75 to Ky. 1505, resurfacing, 2.5 miles, at a cost of $61,700;

Negro Creek Road resurfacing, 1.64 miles from Lincoln County line to Bryant Road at a cost of $41,300; Negro Creek Road extension, surfacing, 2.4 miles from Bryant Road to U.S. 150 at a cost of $60,400; Jackson-Rockcastle Line Road, a half-mile, surfacing, from end of Blacktop south, $30,600;

Chute-Maxwells Road, surfacing, .46 of a mile from Ky. 1912 north, $35,200.

The court turned down, from a lack of a majority, a plan to use students from Bell County Vocational School to do heavy equipment work on some dangerous areas along county roads. The project was suggested by County Democrat Chairwoman Verla Scott since the county doesn't have heavy road equipment.

The court voted unanimously to hire a private local bulldozer operator for the work that was suggested by the magistrate. The areas are (Cont. to 9)

Four more candidates

Four new candidates have been added to the growing roster for the May primary election.

They join J.R. Brummett Jr., who filed for magistrate, District 3, and Buzz Carlifris, who filed for county judge/elective.

Newcomers filing are incumbent county clerk Norma Hawk for a second term.

Michael Mink of Callaway filed for magistrate, District 2.

Filing for magistrate, District 5, were V. Maxwells, McNew of Orlando, and former magistrate Justice Clark of Red Hill section of the county.

To date no one has filed for magistrate in Districts 1, 7, and 4.

Deadline for filing for county officials is Jan. 23.

County ready for snow

State transportation Cabinet road crews are in place to deal with any accumulation of snow so roads will be cleared quickly and efficiently.

"It is absolutely essential we have effective snow removal so motorists will be able to travel Kentucky safely during the winter months," said Gov. Wallace G. Wilkinson.

In order to accommodate the traveling public and their winter driving, the Transportation Cabinet has announced that in Rockcastle County the transportation crew will clear I-70, Ky. 464 and Ky. 1505 first. The next roads cleared will be priority B and then priority C.

Work begins as soon as precipitation becomes significant. Crews will salt or plow the top priority roads.

Priority A roads include interstates, parkways, urban expressways and other state roads with exceptionally large volumes of traffic. Priority B roads are state primary roads, by-passes and roads with slightly less traffic than Priority A roads. State secondary roads, rural secondary roads and other routes with equal traffic fall into Priority C category.

Remaining state roads are cleared after these categories have been treated.

Motorists can plan their trip more safely by using Priority A roads whenever possible during bad weather.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
On behalf of the eighth grade students and faculty of Brodhead Elementary School, I would like to express our appreciation to The Bank of Mt. Vernon and The Citizens' Bank for the matching funds along with Ashland Oil Company that enabled us to participate in the program "A Day on Campus" offered by The Council on Higher Education.

The goal of "A Day on Campus" is to introduce elementary students to higher education and its relevance to their future.

Our visit was to the campus of Centre College in Danville. Our students were especially impressed with the warm welcome, the "Chemagic Show", the glassblowing demonstration, and a visit to the computer lab. The schedule was well planned and communication with the administration at the college was helpful. It is hoped that the goal was met and fulfilled.

Thank you for affording us the opportunity to participate in this educational and enlightening experience.

Sincerely,
Mary B. Hamm
Guidance Counselor

To the Editor:

I am a 15 year old sophomore at RCHS. I have had hunters safety courses while in Boy Scouts in 1984. I am writing this in response to a survey in a paper I read this week.

I believe that everybody over 45 years old should have to take the hunters course before they get their license. It includes gun safety.

There should be stricter laws for people not wearing hunters orange. It's very dangerous not to. Violators should have to spend a year or two in jail. This is especially true for gun hunters. Bow hunters and gun hunters alike should have to wear hunters orange especially during the season that fall together.

The people who hunt on their own kind shouldn't have to have a license. Therefore, people who hunt on someone's land should be required to have their license, tags and a permit for land owners with them at all times. If the landowner sees somebody who didn't have permission to hunt on his land, or if he sees somebody violating the law, he should be able to make a citizens arrest. Then the landowner could call the game warden to pick them up. There should be a $500 fine for this and enforced.

Deer season for guns should only be allowed Nov. 24 to Nov. 30. Same game season should remain as it is. Most deaths occur during deer season. Hunters are more careless during this time.

Dear Friend,

This Christmas the Rockcastle County Unit of the American Cancer Society would like to help the community get into the holiday spirit by participating in the decorating of a Christmas Tree in the lobby of Rockcastle Hospital. Mr. Wayne Stewart has graciously donated the tree and placed the tree in the lobby. There will be a festive tree lighting ceremony Dec. 17 at 7 p.m.

Donations from individuals, corporations, students and civic groups will place lights and decorations on the tree. A donation to the project, which is being called "Love Lights-A Tree", will be a special way for Rockcastle citizens to reach out to other people at Christmas. For a contribution of $2 a red or white bow will be placed on the tree. For a contribution of $5 a white light, symbolizing life and hope, will be placed on this beautiful Christmas tree in honor or memory of a person who has touched the life of the donor. Single contributions of $50 or more will place a lovely ornament on the tree and cards will be sent to all donors, honorees, and families of deceased honorees acknowledging the gifts with invitations to the ceremony. Also, all donors' and honoree names will be entered in a special book placed on an easel next to the tree.

Please light a light for: $5.00 tax deductible donation (White light bulb)

The tree lighting ceremony promises to be a very special event. There will be refreshments and caroling after the tree lighting.

We do hope that you as an individual will support us in this effort to raise money for continued research and education by the American Cancer Society, while honoring a loved one, friend or co-worker at the same time. Attached you will find a copy of a form for ordering lights and decorations which you may fill out with the requested information and send back to our office in the enclosed envelope. Additional forms will be available at the office of Rockcastle Hospital.

Thank you for your consideration.
Sincerely,

Dear Editor,

During the holiday season, we at the Kentucky Sheriff's Boys and Girls Ranch are very thankful and want to express our appreciation.

To our members: Thousands of Kentuckians are to be thanked for being members of the Kentucky Sheriff's Association and Boys and Girls Ranch. These people allow us to remain operational. They make it possible for over 900 unfreezable 9 through 13 year olds to enjoy a free camping season each summer. Our membership is now at an all time high and we are thankful.

Our sheriffs and deputies: The majority of the 120 county sheriff's offices participate in the underprivileged youth program and we are thankful. These law enforcement officers transport the youth to and from camp at no charge to the child. These sheriffs and deputies have transported over 8,000 needy children since 1979. We are thankful for these outstanding sheriffs and deputies.

Our contributors: Groups such as the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels have given us enough funding to help build new facilities since 1980, the latest being a new barracks that will now serve 130 children per week, and double the amount that we could take care of in the late 70's. We are thankful for all the golf pros and club managers all over who help us put on fund raisers that keep our camp solvent, plus the many other sheriffs, good citizens, etc. who help us with our fund raising efforts.

We are thankful to be able to provide gifts to over 250 children at Christmas time. We are thankful for our good friend, Frank Impflizeri who makes pizzas for the children at our Christmas Party and during summer camp...

Yes, we are very appreciative and thankful to everyone who helps us build the underprivileged youth of Kentucky. We can make them good citizens, great Kentuckians and outstanding Americans.

Sincerely,
Ray H. Stoess

On December 2nd, a group from Rockcastle County Senior Citizens were in Frankfort to hear the Special Session of the Legislature at the Capital Annex. At noon, they had lunch with Rep. Danny Ford and Supreme Court Judge Joe Lambert. Judge Lambert escorted the group on a tour of the Supreme Court room, his office at the Capital and to the House of Representatives. After the meeting of the House, Representative Ford rejoined the group and arranged for photographs to be taken. In the photo are, from left: Edna Cameron, site manager for Livingston Center; Mary Ann Cromer, site manager for Ironhead Center; Todd Mink, Rebecca Jones, Rep. Ford, Hazel Stemp, Alfair Burkhardt, Shirley Cummins, Director, Rockcastle Co. Senior Citizens.

Lois Hayes was the winner of the quilt at the drawing at a Pot Luck dinner, Brodhead Senior Citizens and Adult Day Care Center.

New items included in commodities

Low income Kentuckians who receive federal surplus food will see new items when distribution of commodities begins in 1989, but some counties may not get some of the items.

Peanut butter, canned dry beans, canned pork, dry egg mix and raisins have been added, according to a report by the Kentucky Cabinet for Human Resources.

Flour, corn meal, and butter will remain in distribution. Surplus cheese, soap, dry milk and rice were dropped from the list in 1988.

Judy Lawless, assistant director for administration for Cumberland Valley Area Development District, who is in charge of the commodity program in the eight-county district, said an average of about 1,250 to 1,300 receive commodities in Rockcastle, and although the items are listed for distribution, not all will be received in Rockcastle.

"For example, the state will receive about 35 truck loads of peanut butter (1,162,175 pounds) and five trucks of raisins (182,935 pounds). Both items are to be distributed in all 120 counties.

"So, we may not see some of the items," Mrs. Lawless related, "but we think we'll get some of the peanut butter in January, the next distribution."

Two from here in EKU program

Two students from Rockcastle County are among more than 160 Eastern Kentucky University students participating this fall in the University's Cooperative Education Program.

EKU's co-op students apply principles and theories learned in the classroom to practical, on-the-job situations.

Participants also receive a salary from the participating employer, which may help to defray college expenses.

"Cooperative education provides exceptional opportunities for students to gain experience outside the classroom," said Ken Noah, director of cooperative education at EKU. "Many people don't realize that the majority of our co-op students are paid for their working hours in addition to the academic credit they receive."

Since EKU's program began in 1973, more than 7,500 students have been placed with employers in Kentucky and throughout the United States, Noah said.

EKU currently serves more than 13,600 students through programs offered by its nine colleges and the graduate school.

Local residents participating in EKU's cooperative education program include:

Mickie L. Pruitt, Route 1, is working as a claims representative for Social Security Administration.

Katharine R. Bullock, Route 1, is working as a claims rep. trainee for Super America, Lexington.

Brodhead PTA meets

The Brodhead PTA held its monthly meeting, Nov. 10, at the school cafeteria.

Dr. Robert Morgan, a professor from Berea College was the guest speaker. His topic was preparing our children for college and other opportunities after high school.

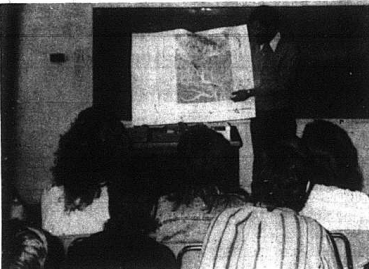

The PTA is starting a clothing

project for students who are in need of various clothing items for the winter months.

If you have good quality used clothing (especially coats or shoes) that would fit children ages from K-8th grades, please call 758-9604 or 256-4039 and we will be glad to pick up your donation!

Mrs. Shirley Martin's first grade class performed and said the Pledge of Allegiance at the October PTA meeting.

Mr. Robert May, a geologist from Interstate Coal Company, was the guest speaker for the 7th and 8th grade science classes at Brodhead Elementary recently.

"What Saith the Scriptures"

"And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. And the angel said unto them (the shepherds vs. 8), fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." - Luke 2:6-7, 10-11.

The birth of Jesus was one of the marvelous events of history. For it was necessary for the word to be made flesh, in order to live and then to die on the cross for man's sins. In 17 days (Dec. 25) man in Christendom will have a religious celebration of the birth of Christ. Though Mt. 1-2 and Luke 1-2 records the conception and birth of Jesus, the Bible no where teaches or gives any example of where Christians or any New Testament Church ever had a "Christmas service". It's ironic that folks talk about putting Christ back into Christmas, the truth is, He never was there to begin with!

Religious holidays (Holy Days) such as Christmas and Easter, stem from pagan holidays that were mixed with Bible events like the birth of Christ and the resurrection of Jesus. Paul told the Galatians he was afraid concerning them, in their actions of "observing days, and months and times and years." Gal 4:10-11. The reason being, God has not authorized us to make and observe such religious "Holy Days". Such actions are iniquity or lawlessness, which Jesus talks about in Mt. 7:21-23. Why can't people be satisfied with only what God has said He wants in religious matters? "Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son." II Jo. 9.

If you'd like to learn more of the origin of Christmas, check one of the better encyclopedias on this subject.

Writing Workshop at RCHS

Ten students and four teachers from Rockcastle County High School joined other students from nearby schools at Laurel County High School on Nov. 19. The participants in the program engaged in a series of Writing Workshops associated with the Appalachia Region of Kentucky.

The Rockcastle County participants were Leslie McCracken, sophomore, Anita Durham, sophomore, Angie Carl, senior, Sherman Cook, sophomore, Chuck Mink, sophomore, Fannie Martin, senior, Jennifer Isaacs, senior, Shannon Clark, senior, Tiffany Carter, sophomore, and Becky Harding, sophomore. The accompanying teachers were Ruth Allen, Bill Lynch and two student teachers, Melissa Bradley and Alice Latham.

The organization of the program was done by Jackie Betts of the Berea College faculty. Three professors from Berea College directed the workshops. They were Jim Gage, Bob Boyce and John Lewis.

Jim Gage spoke on Folklore in Kentucky and how it should be valued. This was an interesting workshop, according to the RCHS students and teachers. Professor Gage demonstrated a type of folklore by singing two folk songs. He went on to discuss some folk tales and "Jack tales."

Bob Boyce directed a seminar on Architecture and its different styles. He discussed architectural changes over the years and the previous use of some older architectural techniques. He used some slides and filmstrips and gave the classes some idea of how to find information on the subject.

John Lewis, a director at the Appalachian Museum, involved his seminar in a discussion on Material Culture. He discussed the material parts of culture that had changed over the years. He used a basket and a hand-made hatchet to show how the need for and the use of such things had changed.

Each workshop was informative, according to students, and very enjoyable. The idea was to present topics in different areas to students and teachers that could be interesting writing projects.

4-H NEWS

Hayes honored

Larissa Hayes was honored by Southern Belle Dairy Corp. for her outstanding achievements on her 4-H Dairy Records. Larissa recently attended the 4-H Dairy Conference in Madison, Wisconsin. Larissa has accomplished many things in 4-H and Southern Belle Dairy Corp. has been really kind to her and we thank them for her recognition.

4-H'ers learn to knit

The first week of knitting classes were a great success. Knitting projects were held at Roundstone Elementary School and Livingston Elementary School with a total of 25 4-H'ers participating.

The leaders at each school were Darlene Martin at Livingston, and Judy Makin at Roundstone. All the 4-H'ers learned the basics of knitting, they all learned how to cast on, then learned the knitting stitches, each of the 4-H'ers are required to make a scarf over the next month then in January they will come back and knit something else they can wear or exhibit at the County fair in August.

We really appreciate all the 4-H'ers showing great interest and the leaders a very special thanks to Darlene and Judy. We appreciate you. You really have done a fine job. I hope you are looking forward to January.

The Council also provided a request by Fire Chief David Out to help with the purchase of 500 feet of three-inch hose for the county fire truck housed at Brodhead. The Rockcastle Fiscal Court will pay $1,000 and the council up to $1,000.

Pesticide recertification

December 13, 1988

By: Tom Mills
County Extension Agent
for Agriculture

EPA regulations have recently added more chemicals to the Restricted Use list as well as more restrictions on farm supply dealers selling such chemicals. Farmers purchasing restricted use chemicals such as Methyl Bromide, Gramox-one, must have a current restricted use Pesticide Card.

Cards are issued for five years and can be renewed by attending one recertification meeting during the five year period. To check the expiration date on pesticide cards, read the last two numbers in the identification code. This is the year that on December 31 the card expires.

Farmers wishing to receive a Pesticide Card should attend the recertification training, Tuesday, Dec. 13 at 7 p.m. at the Agriculture Service Center Meeting Room. This is the only meeting planned for the winter months.

Your Extension Service

Report to the people

The Rockcastle County Cooperative Extension Service is a unique cooperative agreement between USDA, the University of Kentucky and Rockcastle County.

The Extension Service today delivers unbiased new technology and information in four program areas. Agriculture, Home Economics, Youth Development (4-H) and Community Improvement, and leadership with the principles of helping people help themselves.

Presently three agents at University of Kentucky employees, advise and administer the Extension programs in the county. These programs are planned and often conducted by the people of the county. Tom Mills is the County Extension Agent for Agriculture. Cheryl Witt is the County Extension Agent for Home Economics. John McQueary is the County Extension Agent for 4-H. All these agents are responsible for 4-H and Community Development. The Expanded Food and Nutrition is a federally funded program that is also supervised by the Home Economics Agent. The EFNEP employees are Fie Poynter and Therese Mathis. The agents and EFNEP employees are located in the Cooperative Extension Service Office in the Agriculture Service Center Building in Mt. Vernon. The telephone number is 256-2403 or 256-9652. All programs and services provided by the Cooperative Extension Service are available to all persons without regard to sex, race, color, National origin, religion, age, and handicap.

During 1988 the Agriculture Extension program included Dairy herd improvement records with five local dairies. Three producers have been assisted in planning the Artificial Insemination Service in their Dairy herds. An Artificial Insemination school was held in Rockcastle at the Brodhead Fair grounds. Short courses, newsletters, and beef management projects have been conducted to assist beef producers. The Beef Association is a very strong and active organization. Demonstration plots for Black Shank was conducted on seven different varieties of tobacco. The Agriculture Extension Agent had a field day to discuss how to prevent the spread of Black Shank. A demonstration on Johnson grass control and forages was also held. Also, information was provided to farmers about peppers, strawberry's and sorghum production as well as other commercial vegetables.

4-H is the largest youth organization in Rockcastle County from July 1987 to June 1988. 1857 youth participated in organized 4-H clubs, camps, activities, and school enrichment projects. Participation has remained the same as previous years approximately 63 percent of school age youth in Rockcastle County participated in some way of 4-H programs. Over 180 volunteer leaders worked with 4-H'ers in clubs, project groups and judging teams and various other activities.

Activities include 4-H camps, variety show, speech contest, fashion review, fair exhibits, 4-H Week. Judging teams include Dairy, Land and Vegetable Judgings. All these judging teams went to the state contest and did very well. 4-H projects groups are conducted by agents and leaders. They include electric, clothing, woodworking, photography, and this year a first knitting project at two elementary schools. Three teens have attended National meetings this year. Bringing back new ideas to our county.

The Home Economics programs include the Extension Homemakers Association. As of July 1, 1988

membership is 191 persons which represents 117 members in club members and 74 county wide members. There are currently seven clubs organized. Over 364 persons have participated in Special Interest Workshops from Folk Art painting to Food Preservation to Budgeting.

During the past year Extension Homemakers sponsored a Quilt & Craft Show, held an International Dinner, sponsored three community Blood Drives and participated in county, area, and state events. There have been over 16,500 hours of volunteer service by club members. This represents a savings of $132,000 to their community and county. Homemakers donated $6700 to community activities.

Homemakers lessons include Nutritious Snacks, Celebrate Holidays with Nutritious Foods, Nutrition and Cancer Prevention, Emergencies and First Aid, Cooking with Herbs & Spices. Newsletters are also a source of information and were sent to 469 families on consumerism and nutrition.

The expanded food and nutrition programs works with over 93 families. Four hundred twenty nine teaching visits have been made on health and nutrition, menu planning and food purchasing.

Stayton and Kirby on National Dean's List

Two students from this area are among the 108,644 students included in the 11th annual edition of The National Dean's List just published by Educational Communications, Inc., Lake Forest, Illinois.

Students are selected for this honor by their college deans or registrars and must be in the upper 10 percent of their class, on their school's Dean's List, or have earned a comparable honor. Listed students are eligible to compete for $25,000 in scholarship awards funded by the publisher and may also use a referral service for future employment opportunities. More than 2,500 colleges and universities nationwide use the publication to recognize their academically qualified students.

Local students selected include: Dennis W. Kirby, Sue Bennett College and Scott W. Stayton, Liberty University.

along Bowling Ridge Road, Trace Branch Road, Mutt Ponder Road, Grace Baptist Church Road, Sowder School Road and Dennis Marler Road.

The court was told the Bell County workers would require transportation to and from Bell County daily, lunch for workers, gas for the heavy equipment, and purchase of a van to haul the workers, all at county cost.

The magistrates decided the cost would probably exceed the amount they could get the job done, by local contract.

To get the question resolved, Magistrate Jack Bradley made a motion to accept the program, seconded by new magistrate Rocky Kirby. Magistrates Glen Ellison, Donald Bullock, Amos Burdette and County Judge/Executive Hubert Thacker all abstained, resulting in lack of a majority.

In other action, the magistrates voted to buy a new stove (cooking range) for the county jail; voted to hire Ray McGuire as a road worker as of Jan. 1 at $4.75 an hour; agreed to contribute $1,000 toward purchase of 500 feet of three-inch hose for the county fire truck housed at Brodhead; to purchase Christmas turkeys for the 25 county employees, and set 3 p.m. for regular court meetings.

1988 Cluster Meeting

Outrageous! Exciting! Awesome! These are three words that can describe the 1988 Cluster Meeting in Louisville. On Friday, Nov. 11, the Rockcastle County High FHA chapter officers and two advisors went to the Galt House in Louisville, to meet up with 3,150 other FHA officers and advisors. The purpose of this convention was to help FHA officers to develop a "New Attitude".

While at this convention we, the officers and advisors, had the opportunity to attend exciting workshops. Some of the workshops that we attended were: Aids, Choices, Student Body, Teen Time Rap, and Me, Myself, and I.

Other exciting things that we were able to do while in Louisville included going shopping at the Galleria, eating at the Liberty Street Restaurant and seeing the beautiful sights of Louisville.

The Rockcastle County High FHA officers and advisors had the time of their lives. Each and everyone of us learned a lot and now we're ready to share our excitement with the rest of our FHA members.

Harper accepted to Phi Alpha Theta

A resident of Brodhead has been accepted to join the Cumberland College chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the international honor society in history.

The Cumberland College chapter has been awarded the "Best Chapter" citation ten of the last eleven years and is active in presenting lectures and discussions, holds an annual booksale, and publishes an annual historical journal.

Acceptance into Phi Alpha Theta is dependent upon a student's grade point average, scholastic accomplishments, and interest in the fields of history and/or political science.

Malissa Harper, daughter of Harold and Edna Harper, will be initiated into the society during a ceremony in December.

Disaster sign up

Sign-up for the 1988 Disaster Program began Oct. 3 and continues through March 31, 1989 at the Rockcastle County ASCS office.

Congress has passed legislation that authorizes disaster payments for participating program crops, non-participating program crops, tobacco, soybeans, and nonprogram crops.

The program provides payments for losses in excess of 35 percent of production of specialized crops. Disaster payments will be available to eligible producers on losses which are greater than 35 percent of normal production.

Eligible producers with crop losses greater than 65 percent must agree to purchase multiple crop insurance under the Federal Crop Insurance Act for the 1989 crop for which disaster payments are made.

This requirement may be waived by the county Agricultural Stabilization Committee under certain conditions. The total amount of payments and benefits a person may receive for combined crop and livestock emergency losses in 1988 may not exceed $100,000. Emergency livestock program benefits may not exceed $50,000 in any calendar year.

Disaster applications for crop losses must be filed not later than March 31, 1989 at the Rockcastle County ASCS Office, together with crop acreage reports and acceptable crop production evidence.

Payments will be calculated by determining the amount of loss below 65 percent of normal production and multiplying the eligible loss by the applicable disaster payment rate.

There are two payment levels: 90 percent of the payment rate for losses in excess of 75 percent of normal production and 65 percent of the payment rate for losses between 35 and 75 percent of normal production.

For computing payments, the target price will be used for producers of wheat and feed grains who are paricipating in the 1988 program and for producers who are not in these programs, the county loan rate will be used.

The basis for other payments are: For tobacco which receives price support, the national average loan rate for the type of tobacco involved. For soybeans and other eligible crops, the average commodity price received within a state for the previous five years excluding the high and low years.

The basis for payment yield are: For wheat and feed grains, the ASCS farm program payment yield. For other eligible crops, proven yields based on actual production from the three previous years with the established county yield being used for any year that actual production evidence may be missing.

Participants in the annual programs for wheat and feed grain will be allowed to retain advance deficiency payments for crop losses up to 35 percent of their normal production.

Any producer may sign-up for the 1988 disaster program at the Rockcastle County ASCS Office between now and March 31, 1989.

Conservation Report

"Don't fall plow" is the advice given by Henry Amos, agronomist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service (SCS). This could have an adverse effect on erodible land following the drought."

Amos says that the SCS generally does not recommend fall plowing. But he says that the 1988 summer drought has caused ground conditions that make this fall an especially poor time to till the soil.

Fall tillage of corn and soybean ground, especially plowing, leaves land susceptible to wind and water erosion in a normal year. But this year drought left the ground drier than usual. That makes it especially vulnerable to erosion.

Heads that fall tillage also effects how much moisture gets into the soil. He says tillage this fall could seal ground cracks caused by the drought; those cracks, Amos says, become an asset in the fall.

The drought has already done the deep tillage work by causing deep cracks," Amos says. "Those cracks will allow rain to filter deep into the soil and recharge moisture levels. At this time, it is best to leave those cracks open."

By not plowing under the corn and soybean stubble left over from the 1988 crop, farmers also will be doing one of the best things they can do to protect their soil from erosion, Amos explains that the stubble protects soil by softening the blows of falling raindrops and by providing the necessary weight to hold the soil in place when it is subjected to the forces of wind and moving water.

Amos recommends that farmers allow the stubble from their crops to lie on top of the ground until spring. And then they say, they hope that farmers will consider planting their 1989 crops by using some method of conservation tillage, which utilizes the residue from the previous crop to reduce erosion and retain soil moisture.

For more information on Soil Conservation practices contact the SCS office at 256-2541 or stop by the Agricultural Center on Richmond Street.

Long Term Agreement sign up

A sign up period for Long Term Agreement (LTA), will begin Dec. 5 and will run through Jan. 4.

Anyone interested in getting a LTA for their farm must come by the ASCS office during this period.

A LTA is a conservation plan for cost-shared conservation practices such as ponds, grass seedings, etc. to cover all conservation needs on this farm. The farm must have enough

Changes made in 1988 waterfowl season

In response to low duck populations, several changes have been made in waterfowl hunting regulations for the 1988 season.

For the December 10 through January 4 duck season, a three duck conventional daily bag limit is in effect.

The daily bag limit of three may include no more than two mallards (only one of which may be a hen), one black duck, two wood ducks and one redhead. No pintails or canvasbacks may be taken. The possession limit is double the daily bag.

The goose season is already underway in the Eastern zone for all species, and in the Western Zone for all species except Canada goose season.

The daily bag limit on geese is five, with no more than two Canada geese and two white-fronted geese. The boundary between the Eastern and Western Zone is a line beginning at the Kentucky-Tennessee border at Fulton and extending north along the Purchase Parkway to I-24, east on I-24 to US 641, north on US 651 to US

60, northeast on US 60 to US 41, and then north on US 41 to the Kentucky-Indiana border.

Non-toxic steel shot is required for all waterfowl hunting in the Western Zone. Within the next few years, steel shot will be required for all waterfowl hunting nationwide.

Another important change for this season concerns shooting hours. In the past, hunters were permitted to begin shooting one-half hour before sunrise and sunset. During the 1988 season, shooting hours are sunrise to sunset, except in the Ballard Reporting Area (Western Zone) where shooting hours are sunrise to 3 p.m.

The reduction in bag limits and shortening of shooting hours for the 1988 season is an effort to protect low waterfowl numbers, but still provide hunting opportunity. The decline in duck populations is primarily due to drought conditions which have existed in the Canadian prairies and Northern United States nesting grounds. The disappearance of suitable nesting habitat has been occurring for the last several years, not to mention the continuing loss of other wetland habitat to agricultural and other commercial development.

Fortunately, geese have fared much better than ducks. Kentucky's quota in the Western Zone continues to be raised each season, up to 22,500 for 1988. Goose season in the Ballard and Henderson-Union Reporting Areas will close when the quota in these two portions of the Western Zone is reached or on January 28, whichever comes first.

Waterfowl hunters in both areas are required to obtain and fill out a waterfowl hunting and harvest registration form, whether or not any geese are taken. This allows the harvest to be monitored so that quota will not be exceeded.

All waterfowl hunters age 16 and older must carry a valid federal migratory bird hunting stamp. Hunters required to possess a Kentucky hunting license must also carry a Kentucky Waterfowl Stamp. Both stamps must be validated by the hunter's signature written across the back of the stamp.

Lady Rockets lose to Williamsburg

A fierce comeback in the second half could not save the girls' varsity from dropping their second game of the season, 57-48 to the Williamsburg Lady Jaxets.

The Lady Rockets, as they had in their season opener, came out cold and quickly fell behind the hot shooting Williamsburg girls. Coach Judy Bullock said after the game that Williamsburg, "Was probably one of the quickest teams we will play all year."

The Lady Rockets fell behind 19-9 in the first quarter and trailed 39-20 at the half. Poor shooting and even worse rebounding led to the halftime deficit.

"We're still a very young team and are going to be mistake prone," said Coach Bullock. Williamsburg was pushing the ball up the floor in the first half and it took until halftime for the Lady Rockets to make the necessary adjustments to stop the momentum that Williamsburg had gained in the first stanza.

The second half looked like a whole new ballgame for the Lady Rockets. "We played much better defense and better control type of offense in the second half," said Bullock.

"We missed enough free throws to win the ball game," Bullock stated. The Lady Rockets were only 12 of 22 from the charity line during Monday's game.

Rebounding, or lack of it, led to several easy baskets by the visitors. "We work on rebounding practically every day in practice, but we're just not aggressive enough during the games," Bullock added. "We don't practice on the weekends and this hurts us especially with such a young team."

Stephanie Northern, the only Rocket in double digits, led the team in scoring with 24 points.

B-Team girls lose to Williamsburg

In B-team action Monday night the Lady Rockets dropped their second game of the young season, 36-23 to Williamsburg.

The most interesting note about the B-team game was the play of 2 eighth graders on the team—Amy Kinsell and Beth Amyx who both played and scored during Monday's game.

"Not only did Kinsell score, she was also the leading scorer during the B-team game with 12 points. She handled herself very well against older, more mature girls and certainly appears to have potential to develop into a good basketball player. Rebounding, one of the sore spots for the Lady Rockets, was also one of the bright spots in that they were led in rebounding by a sophomore, April Burton pulled down 10 boards and scored five points. "A good effort by the sophomore," Bullock stated. Angie McClure came off the bench to grab 5 rebounds.

In addition to Northern's 24 the rest of the Rockets scoring was: Angie McClure with 6, Donna Harper 6, April Burton 5, Karla Bullock 3, Angie Senters and Jennifer Thacker with 2 each.

Three-point shot, which had

A few of the eighth graders are playing on the B-team squad because as Coach Bullock said, "Many times we do not have enough girls to run five on five at both ends so we brought up some of the eighth graders to help and to also give them experience."

The rest of the scoring during the B-team contest was as follows: Kristy Rappe 3, Jamee McGuire 1, Sharon Hines 1, Clara Smith 3, Angie McClure 1, and Beth Amyx 2.

The next B-team game will play Thursday (tonight) at Clay County.

Rockets lose to Sayre Spartans

The Rockcastle Rockets boys' varsity dropped their second game in as many tries last Friday night, 70-55 to Sayre School in Lexington.

The visiting Rockets saw the host Sayre Spartans jump out to an early advantage behind their pressure defense and hot shooting.

Not much went according to plan for the Rockets not even the time clock on the scoreboard. It seems that the timekeeper was having technical difficulty stopping the clock when the referee blew the whistle. The time was eventually kept by a stopwatch by Mt. Vernon resident Jeffrey K. Burdette. Not even Burdette keeping the time could stop the more experienced Spartan attack.

The Rockets had difficulty stopping the deliberate tempo of the Sayre team. In addition, they were victims of their own cold shooting and poor shot selection. Kris Ponder, leading scorer for the Rockets, never found the mark from three-point land Friday night.

The taller and more aggressive Sayre team won the battle of the boards easily over the younger Rocket team coached by David Perkins.

Turnovers cost the Rockets dearly as did their inability to get into their set offensive patterns. This was due in part to the defensive pressure of the Sayre team and in part to the Rockets.

In the second quarter the Rockets played their finest eight minutes of the season thus far. They played good defense, took good shots and made the type of effort that they are capable of putting forth. However, they were not able to stand the prosperity and in the second half reverted back to their old style of ball that ended up in defeat in their first game against Mercer County.

brought the Rockets back into the game against the Mercer Scotties was not to be found in this road game as the Rockets launched several three-point bombs that only wound up in the defenders' arms. The Rockets return home Friday night to play their first home game of the season in a homecoming affair with West Anderson High School.

John McQueary, right, of Livingston and 4-H Agent for Rockcastle County, killed this 7 point buck which dressed out at 150 lbs. with a large shotgun in Adair Co. recently.

OOPS! We reported last week that Eddie Alcorn killed an 8 pt. buck. This was wrong. Mr. Alcorn killed a spike buck on Nov. 21 in Adair Co.

"Sonny" Northern, 10, at right, was successful on his first hunt as he bagged this 4 point buck in Taylor County.

Ms. Julie Lamb has only the little stove at right with which to cook and warm her house this winter.

Ms. Lamb lives in this two room house, which is an old church on May Apple Road near Conway.

Mt. Vernon fireman, Mike Kerns walks away from the 1983 Ford 4-Wheel drive that caught on fire Tuesday night on the Brush Creek Bridge. The truck owned by Steve Anglin of Rt. 1 Orlando was completely engulfed when firemen arrived on the scene.

Heat a luxury for Ms. Lamb

But county agencies are set-up to help the needy

By: Richard Anderkin
An old church with no insulation and only a small wood stove is not necessarily a home, but when it is all you have, it has to be called home. 52-year-old Julie Lamb of Conway lives in such a place, a place her mother gave her about 5 years ago to live in because she had no where else to go. Ms. Lamb lives alone in the two-room structure that will probably not be standing much longer because of damage termites have done.

Ms. Lamb has no television or radio and, more importantly, she has only a small wood stove with which she cooks and heats her home. Even her stove is in such bad shape that she uses a brick to keep the grate from falling out. The firebox in the stove is so small that it is impossible to keep a fire through the night. Ms. Lamb said Tuesday that it gets so cold on winter nights in her home that she must wear extra clothing and put quilts up to block off the other room. It has been cold enough so far this winter that Ms. Lamb could see her breath.

Ms. Lamb did not come to us with her story, looking for charity. As a matter of fact, had it not been for her neighbor, Mrs. Betty Adams, we would not have learned of Ms. Lamb's plight.

Emaciated, Ms. Lamb is a victim of circumstances, she however talks about her situation very candidly and certainly does not complain about it.

She explained that a few years ago, her father died and left the family's old home place to a son. The home place was where Mrs. Lamb lived with her mother. After a short while, her brother made her and her mother move. Her mother moved in with another son and Ms. Lamb moved to the old church that her mother owned.

Without an ill word for anyone, Ms. Lamb said that she gets by with help from her mother and by cleaning house for people. Her mother pays her electric bill, which runs about $20 a month and her phone bill.

Ms. Lamb has never worked for anyone who paid social security on her. She gets only $40 a month food stamps because she pays no rent or has no house payment. She needs help, help in the form of some kind of different heating system and winterization of her home.

Is Ms. Lamb's situation a problem in Rockcastle County? According to Mrs. Betty Carter, director of the Rockcastle County Home Weatherization Project, Ms. Lamb is not alone. Last year, Mrs. Carter's agency helped about 500 low income Rockcastle Countians with heating assistance. Her agency spent about $54,000 on coal, oil, gas or wood. The Home Weatherization Project, which is funded by the state also repairs homes in a effort to get them ready for winter. For instance, Ms. Lamb is in dire need of a front door window pane. It is broken out and only a piece of plastic hangs to keep the cold out at night.

In September, Mrs. Carter, and several other local agencies including the state and Christian Appalachian Project (CAP), helped a couple, who had been living in a cave just south of Livingston, get into a low income apartment in Mt. Vernon. Mrs. Carter said that if a situation like the couple from Livingston is found out about, something is always done, whatever can be.

Ms. Lamb, however, did not know that agencies like the Home Weatherization agency existed and planned on trying to get through the cold winter with what she had and some help from friends who bring her coal now and then and a small check she will receive from the state department of social insurance.

To qualify for the low income heating assistance program, a family of one cannot make more than $5,294 a month. A family of 2 has a limit of $7,091. These people are limited to $888 of income a month and 2 people $1,068. 5 people have a limit of $1,258 while a 6 member family can make $1,427 a month and still qualify. For each family member over 6, those applying should add $180 a month. The number is 256,5315.

But, besides the Home Weatherization office, which is located on the second floor of the courthouse and which will start taking applications for assistance on January 9, there are other places to get help.

The State Department of Social Insurance took applications in October for heating assistance for the elderly and disabled. According to Brenda Hayes, who headed the sign-up, about 500 Rockcastle Countians were served by the state, which spent

Lice has been problem for Roundstone school

Since school began in August there have been 78 cases of head lice at Roundstone Elementary, according to Roundstone principal Bill Jack Parsons.

"We have done everything that we know to do," Parsons said Wednesday.

Rockcastle School Superintendent Bigg Towery Jr. said there have been isolated cases at the other schools but that the Roundstone school situation had become widespread.

Preventive measures have been taken. The school system has consulted with Dr. G.W. Griffith, their medical advisor, the state health department and called other school districts to see what they do to combat the problem.

"We have been right on top of the situation," Towery stated. "We do random screening at all the elementary schools but we have done intensive screening at Roundstone."

When they do discover a child with head lice they are sent home and the parents are informed of the problem. The child is not allowed back at school without some type of doctor's statement saying that the problem has been addressed and resolved.

Groundbreaking for Care Center

Groundbreaking ceremonies for a new Cumberland River Comprehensive Care Center were held Friday at Mt. Vernon. The center will replace temporary trailers on East Main Street. The building will be 6,800 square feet and is expected to be completed by July. Roland Mullins, executive director of the center at Corbin, said he hopes the bids on the project will be under $400,000. Several officials of the county and city of Mt. Vernon were on hand for the ceremonies. Land for the center was donated by the Cox family. In the above photo, Willie Griffin Jr., Wayne Bullock and Billy Robinson break ground while Margie Wilcox, Betty Lewis, Elizabeth Baker, Lucille Carlotis, Dr. Joe Korn, Roland Mullins, Jack Parsons, Jerry Cox and Tillman Daugherty look on. At left, Gene Jones gives the invocation before the ceremony.

Poet's Corner

SONG
By: Karen Noe

If I were a writer
Oh, what would I say
About my love for you
Growing day by day?

If I were a singer
With a voice so sweet
Would I tell the world
How we loved to meet?

If I were a painter
With my brush and paint
I'd paint your sweet love
Oh no, but I can't!

If I were a sailor
I'd sail across the sea
Just to tell my love
To hurry home to me.

Most of all I would have
What I wanted so bad
That is the love you have
That I almost had.

It's Up To You
By: Bernice Wilson

Have you made someone happy,
or made someone sad.
What have you done with the day that you had?
God gave it to you to do just
as you would,
Did you lift someone up
or push someone down?
Did you do what was wicked,
or do what was good?
Did you lighten some load,
or some progress impede,
Did you look for a rose or just gather a weed?
What did you do with your beautiful day.
God gave it to you, did you
just throw it away?

Breakfast at Kastle Inn
By: John E. Holbrook

I was invited to the breakfast
by a letter through the mail
To make up my mind to come took only a tiny spell

Just as you requested
I came by and let you know
When invited to a free breakfast
I will surely, surely go
I choged the early serving
It was at seven a.m.

I didn't want to lose the chance to eat some country ham

When I ate the breakfast
I ate more than I should
And even though I was full
I ate less than I could

All that was set before me
Was really good to eat
But I have to leave now
So to work, my boss, I'll beat

Thanks for the invitation
I hate to eat and run
Not only was the breakfast good
The fellowship sure was fun.

Appointment
By: Floyd W. Stokes

I went to the doctor,
Because I was sick and in a bad way,
The nurse said, "You got to have an
appointment,
You can't see him today".

I was running a high fever,
And a real bad cold.
The nurse said, "You still can't see
him,
For silver or gold".

The next time you're going to be sick,
You have to know in advance,
For to see a doctor without an
appointment,
You don't have any chance.

So I go back home and go to bed,
Just saying there, wishing I was dead.
I did get better in about a week,
I was still in bed feeling mighty weak.

In a little while the nurse called to say,
"You better get out of bed, your appointment is today".
I told the nurse you called too late.
For I was much better this date.

So I got well in seven days,
I got well without having to pay.
If I had seen a doctor, I am here to spare.
I would have got well in about a week.

'Red'
By: Mayzell Ries

He came from Cincinnati,
A long time ago,
He was brought to the town of Brothead,
To the Hubbard family we know.

At first they kept him tied
In the barn upon the hill
So he could get used to the place
The farm was quiet and still

He loved to roam all over the woods,
but mostly he came 't town
There just wasn't any way
The Hubbards could tame him down

A man that lived upon the ridge
Wanted old Red for his own -
So Mr. Hubbard told the man
To take Red to his home

But old Red wouldn't stay there
He ran on back to town
He loved to be around people
And they all loved him around

Sometimes he went to the Watsons
They were friendly over there,
And then he'd go to the Taylors
He'd get food, he knew they cared

He started coming to Fletchers
bakery
To get pieces of meat
Then he'd go to the drug store
Garna always gave him something sweet

He started coming to W&W
Discount Store
For water when he was dry
The lady would feed and brush him
He was so happy he could die

Sometimes he'd go to Bradley's station
Red always knew
He'd get a ration

Red was one of the best dogs
I know
We all loved him
And he loved us so

He lived with Kathy Bussell,
Now she thought Red
Was a real swell pal

Old Red got sick
A long time ago
So they took him to a vet
His progress was real slow

He got a lot of
shots and pills
That vet was trying
To cure Reds ills

Old Red was back
And fit as a fiddle
He ate all the time
He was getting fat around the middle

He came to town everyday
And greeted the people on the street
He hoped they'd pat him on his head
And give him something sweet to eat.

I could write all day, about Old Red
He really was neat
It was a joy for me
To see him running down the street

Old Red is gone now
He's been gone a few years
But when I think of him
It always brings tears

I know the people in Brothead
Loved Old Red
I just can't get it in my mind
That Old Red is dead

I imagine I see him
Coming into town
Wagging his tail
Whenever someone is around

I shall miss him
And I know they do too
Old Red had a good life
He was loved by me and you

This poem is dedicated to "Red". He was Brothead's town dog. We all loved him. He's been gone several years now. We all miss him.

Life
By: Mae Taylor

The rain patters on the roof top and the wind swings down the chimney as I sit Waiting by the window for my health to return.

I look out and can see the birds flittering around seeking their mates who are not far away
I can see the tiny buds coming to life again, still I wait and wonder when I can feel their soft, sweet fragile petals as I always liked to do.

The wonder again, knowing I'm not young any more.
Why I love so much the youthful beauty for nature, why because God me this nature to love and enjoy

As a stream flows on its way to the sea
Our lives are the same
Life starts out so small and grows on and on till we get out to sea
Then our lives are soon finished
We now have time to sit and wonder what we have done with our small
life that God gave us.

My walk through life has been an open one
I have not done as much for my friends as I could or should.

I have been busy with my home life
Then when we have time to think
Wonder why, our life has been so full
With hope that the beauty of things have passed by

But raising a family is filled with love and work which we do not mind

As a mother, am waiting for things
I want most is to be well and loved
so I can truly enjoy my loved ones.
As we grow older, we see that we have lost some of the beauty of life by not being with our friends
as we once did

We were happy days for us all
But people now are too busy, they no longer have time for a smile or a chat

But some time everybody will have to wait by the window, then they will have plenty of time to think of
An unusual smile that would have driven away a liar.

Rest Room
By: John Holbrook

I think the time I really liked best
Was when I went to this little room
to rest

I went in there and looked all around
There was only one place to really
sit down

I had never seen such a chair
In the center was water and air

I sat down with care in mind
Cause I was leading with my behind

I moved every handle within my range
Then all of a sudden the water did change

I jumped up in total fright
And swore to tell no one of my pught

Then I discovered how really neat that thing could be used to wash my feet.

Just as soon as one foot was clean
I pushed a handle on that machine

From somewhere unknown the water poured in
Then on the other foot I did begin

On my second foot I forgot my sock
And this gave me quite a shock

All of a sudden, well, bless my soul
My sock was sucked down that hole

There I stood with two wet feet
I wanted them dry but had no heat

I just had to dry them off
All I could find was this paper cloth

It was folded into this thing on the wall
No one could tell I'd used any at all

Cause just as soon as I pulled one out Another was there when I turned about

Then I spied something odd
It looked like a neat little scroll

I sat down on that comfortable seat
And wrote a few words over so neat

All this excitement gave me heart
throbs
Then I spied two shiny bright knobs

There was water warm and water
cold
I said I'll be dogged, well bless my soul

I didn't get any rest at all
Cause I was too busy having a ball

I could hardly contain a shout
I could go in instead of out

No more walking thru rain or snow
When I really had to go.

Just one thing I'd like to mention
Isn't necessity the mother of invention.

Your Child's Health

By: Dr. John Payne

A couple of medicines for diarrhea have recently come on the market in over the counter or OTC form. Just as with any other OTC medicine these products can be very helpful, but can cause problems if misused.

Imodium, or loperamide, comes as a cherry flavored liquid which is pleasant tasting. It acts by slowing down the contractions of the intestines. It is intended for children over two years of age. Since it is pleasant tasting, children might want to take bigger doses than intended. Side effects have included allergic rashes, abdominal aches and pains, nausea, vomiting, constipation and fatigue.

Another fairly new product is Di-absorb which works by binding up the extra fluid in the gut. It should not have as many side effects as it works into the intestine and is not absorbed into the body. However, it can cause constipation if used too long or in too large a dose.

It is important to think of the cause of a child's diarrhea. Most commonly it is due to a virus, and the body is having loose stools to help "wash out" the virus. It is hard to know how much to treat, and how much to let nature take its course. Teething, ear infections, too much fruit juice and other food intolerances may also be the cause.

So, if your child has diarrhea, follow the feeding advice of clear liquids for several hours, and perhaps use a little of one of the anti-diarrhea medicines. If the problem doesn't clear up in a couple of days, the child should be seen by the doctor to try and determine the cause.

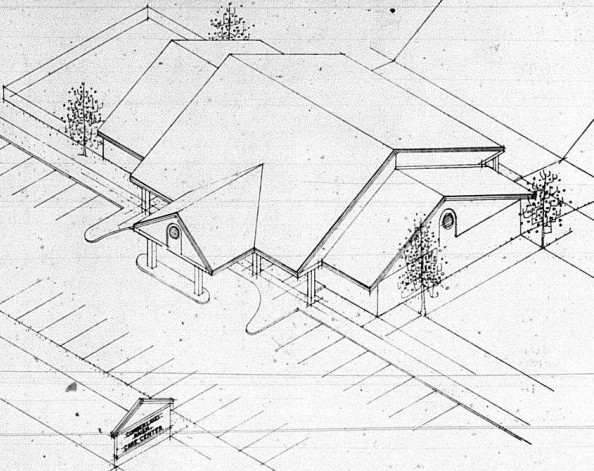

The opera was first written as a "singspiel," a spoken text with musical accompaniment based on folk melodies, to be performed at home - although the original version of the work was actually performed in a private theater.

Great Performances is presented by an alliance of WNET/New York; KERA, Dallas-Ft. Worth; KQED, San Francisco; SCETV, Columbia, S.C.; and WTTW, Chicago.

"Hansel and Gretel"

KET celebrates the holiday season with a Sunday afternoon filled with music. On December 25 at 1 p.m./12 noon KET airs a Great Performances presentation of the fairy tale opera "Hansel and Gretel."

A European cast featuring Edita Gruberova, Hermann Prey and Brigitte Fassbaender joins Sir George Solti and the Vienna Philharmonic for this lavish two-hour production.

Fairview News

By: Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Worship services were well attended at the Fairview Baptist Church over the weekend. Sunday School attendance was one hundred and thirty six and several more came in for worship service. We are so thankful for anyone and everyone who attends.

Sunday School average attendance for the month of November was one hundred and seventeen.

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 27, at the Fairview Baptist Church, a special Ordination Service was held for Carl McCray who is going into the ministry. He was a member of our church for some time but now is a member of Pine Hill Baptist Church where he has been called as pastor. He is also attending school at Clear Creek.

A large number attended the service and everyone enjoyed it so much. It was so beautiful and inspiring. Our pastor Rev. Harvey Pensol brought the ordination message which was so well presented. All in all it was wonderful. Carl is a very dedicated young man and well liked by everyone. We wish for him a good life in the ministry and he has our love and prayers.

Thanksgiving Day dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tip Reppert and Melody were Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Reppert and Ronnie Dale of Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Reppert and Allis of Berea and Elizabeth Smith of Lancaster.

Mrs. Edith Mullins of Snider returned home last Tuesday from Franklin, Ohio where she spent ten days with her daughter Ardilla Tinch and husband Virgle. While there she saw many of her kinsfolk. Among these were the four children of the late Candy and Mary Thomas, Argie Rader, Faye Alder, Charles Thomas and Jesse Thomas, Mrs. Stella (Thomas) Coyle of Muncie, Ind., she also spent a few days at the Tinch home during this time. It's always good for loved ones to be together. They all enjoyed it so much.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ponder spent the Thanksgiving holidays vacationing in the south. They left on Wednesday and visited in Georgia and Florida, toured Jekyll and St. Simons Islands then on to South Carolina, spent Friday night in Bryson City, North Carolina, then on home through the Smokies on Saturday. (A nice trip for some good people).

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chasteen of Conway visited us last Thursday. They recently moved back here from New Jersey.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bowles in Junction City last Saturday were Mrs. Mary Cope, Sylvester Cope and friend, and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Cope. Mr. Bowles is very sick, we hope he will be better soon. God bless him and his wife Pearl.

Seldon Gabbard of Berea and Ray Isaacs visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander on Sunday afternoon.

Visiting at our home recently have been our son Junior and son Rodine of Berea and our daughter Joyce Seals and Kim of Paint Lick.

Please attend Sunday School and the church of your choice every time you can. Love the Lord and be good and kind to others. God loves us so we should love each other. God bless you all.

LET US SAY A PRAYER FOR THE RIGHTS OF ALL MANKIND
We in this country take our freedom so much for granted that we tend to forget those unfortunate souls in other parts of the world who are not allowed to enjoy the rights and privileges that we have guaranteed to us by the Constitution. We can live and work where we choose, say and write what we choose, meet with anyone whenever we choose and go where we choose; even if we choose to leave the country, for a visit or for good. We can also worship God as we choose, with no interference from the government. We should exercise that right on a regular basis, and particularly at this happy time of the year, remembering those who cannot share that happiness with us. Let us help them any way we can and pray for them, that they may one day enjoy with us the blessings of liberty that are such a vital part of our own lives.

There may be times when we are powerless to prevent injustice, but there must never be a time when we fail to protest.

EXTENSION HOME ECONOMICS

Microwaved Holiday Candies

By: Cheryl Witt
County Extension Agent
for Home Economics

The holiday season creates increased interest in giving ourselves to family and loved ones. Making microwaved candy can be an enjoyable way of sharing some of your creativity with others outside the family circle.

The microwave oven is not ideal for all cooking, but it really is an asset for candy making. Candies need only occasional stirring since chance of scorching is minimal. A microwave candy thermometer is helpful to assure reaching the proper temperature. To help achieve perfect results, check the reading on your thermometer by placing it in boiling water. If you are at or near sea level, the thermometer should register 212 degrees when placed in the boiling water. If the thermometer reads above or below the temperature, make these same adjustments to the final temperature recommended in the candy recipes. Even with a candy thermometer, it is still helpful to use a second test where a small drop of hot mixture is placed in cold water. When weather is humid, candy tends to be stickier than normal. Cooking to a 3 to 5 degrees higher setting can be helpful in such conditions.

To make your candy gifts look extra special, check candy or baking supply stores in your area for brightly-colored foil liners or wrappers, special tins, doilies and decorative labels. Remember, hard candies need to be wrapped separately to prevent them from absorbing moisture and sticking together.

Turn candy making into a family tradition at your house. Spend an evening together creating some very special memories as well as unique homemade gifts.

Coconut-Almond Brittle

- 3/4 cup flaked coconut
- 1/2 cup sliced almonds
- 1 teaspoon butter or margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 teaspoon almond extract

1. Combine coconut, almonds and butter in 2-quart glass mix'n pour

- 2. Microwave (high) uncovered, 3 to 4 minutes or until mixture just starts to brown, stirring 3 to 4 times. Add sugar and corn syrup; stir well.
- 3. Microwave (high), uncovered, 7 to 8 minutes or until syrup is golden brown. Stir in soda and extract. Pour onto buttered metal cookie sheet. Let cool until set, about 30 minutes. Break into pieces
- 4. 4 1-inch pieces = 50 calories each

Peanut Butter Thins

- 12 ozs. chocolate coating
- 3/4 cup butterscotch pieces
- 1/2 cup peanut butter

- 1. Cut chocolate into pieces if necessary; place in 4-cup glass measure.
- 2. Microwave (high) uncovered 1 to 2 minutes.

Nutrition: It's Possible.

The University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service sponsored a video series last week on, "Nutrition: It's Possible," at Foodtown in Mt. Vernon and Foodland in Brodhead. The series features detective Nelliot Less in "The Case of the Missing Calcium." The short episode answers questions about current nutrition concerns, in an entertaining manner.

"Nutrition: It's Possible" provides information on making those food choices," according to Cheryl Witt, County Extension Agent for Home Economics. "We have many calls regarding nutrition topics. The videos offer some answers to often asked questions."

Working with the displays were Icie Poynter and Theresa Matthis, Expanded Foods and Nutrition Program Assistants. "Nutrition: It's Possible" will be shown in area stores again in February and April. Printed information on the featured topic will also be available at displays.

For further information, contact the County Extension Agent for Home Economics at 256-2403.

- 1/2 minutes or until softened, stirring once. Stir until smooth. Spread half the chocolate in butter 10 x 6-inch baking dish. Place in freezer about 5 minutes or until set. Mean while, combine butterscotch piece and peanut butter in 2-cup glass measure.
- 3. Microwave (high) uncovered 45 to 60 seconds or until pieces are softened; stir until smooth. Pour over chocolate layer, spreading evenly. Set in freezer about 5 minutes or until set. Spoon remaining chocolate over peanut butter layer; spread evenly. Let stand at room temperature until set. Cut into squares.
- 4. About 64 pieces
- 125 calories each

Anise Candy

- 2 cups sugar
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- 1/2 cup water
- Dash salt
- 3/4 teaspoon anise oil
- 5 to 6 drops red food coloring

- 1. Generously butter 10 x 8-inch cookie sheet. Coat pan with sugar; set aside.
- 2. Combine sugar, corn syrup, water and salt in 2-quart glass mix'n pour bowl; mix well.
- 3. Microwave (high) uncovered, 10 minutes. Stir well to dissolve sugar; insert microwave candy thermometer.
- 4. Microwave (high) uncovered, 6 to 8 minutes or until thermometer registers 300 degrees. Stir in anise oil and food coloring. Pour mixture onto prepared pan. Let stand 10 to 15 minutes or until edges start to harden. Use a pizza cutter or sharp knife to cut candy into 1-inch squares. When completely cold, break along cuts. Store in airtight container.
- 2. About 80 pieces
- 25 calories each

TIPS...Other tasty flavors include root beer, peppermint, lemon, grape and cherry. Extracts can be substituted for flavoring oils. Increase amount to 1 teaspoon. If candy thermometer is not available, cook candy mixture until a small amount dropped into cold water forms brittle threads.

Berry Holly Wreaths

- 1 cup (3 oz.) vanilla-flavored white chocolate pieces
- Green food coloring
- 1 1/2 cups (3 oz.) chow mein noodles
- 1/4 cup (2 envelopes) cherry-flavored real fruit snacks

Bryant attends conference

Among the attendees at the 1988 Kentucky Association Annual Conference in Louisville Nov. 1-3, were Mike Bryant, Family Services Office Supervisor, from the Department for Social Services and Pat Montgomery and Gloria Jordan, Program Managers, from the Christian Appalachian Project. The theme of the conference was "Tomorrow's Staff for Tomorrow's Children-Childcare in the 1990's" with thirty-four workshops dealing on job burnout, home-based family counseling programs, therapeutic community living, dealing with professional stress, outdoor adventure counseling, serving the child with emotional problems, strategies for building self-esteem in youth, teen suicide and unpredictable therapy.

In Loving Memory of Robert Laswell and Randall Laswell

My Lord gave me a son to hold
Tears and tears that I cry
Rock the baby
Rock the baby bye.

My heart to keep
My hand to hold
I love you, I love you
Go to sleep, you were told.

Somewhere between a laugh and a tear
My baby has become a little boy I fear
With your first love, came
A sparkle in the eyes
My sparkle was a tear
For to hold a son a Mother tries.

Beside you I will forever stand
As my baby, my boy, becomes a man
My prayers for you, I pray each night
May you have another day
In which to share I pray we might.

If only my tears could have kept you alive,
Never should you have had to die.

Tears and tears that I cry
To hold my sons, I wish I might.
Lord, two brother you have to keep.
Oh Lord, please rock my baby bye.

The group from the Department for Social Services and the Christian Appalachian Project were among 300 youth workers/counselors, administrators, supervisors, social workers and other human services professionals who attended the conference from South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky.

KAHC is the professional statewide organization for twenty-three private residential child care agencies throughout the Commonwealth of Kentucky. These agencies operate thirty-seven residential programs in providing a wide variety of care and treatment services for Kentucky's abused, dependent, behaviorally disturbed and delinquent children and their families.

Among the keynote speakers at the conference were Loretta Kowal, Executive Director, Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. The $7.5 million annual budget agency provides prevention, protective and mental health direct service to children and families, as well as research and advocacy. She spoke to the group on "Child Care in the 1990's-What Does the Future Trend in Residential Child Care?" Barker is Chairman of the Child Welfare League of America Out-Of-Home Care Task Force. Closing out the conference was Dr. David Kirk, Executive Director, ChildServ, Park Ridge, Illinois who spoke on "The Challenge of the Future - Will Be Part of the Problem or Part of the Solution?" Kirk is president of the Child Care Association of Illinois - the Kentucky Association of Homes

Don't know what to get for that hard-to-buy for person??

Why not give the gift that gives all year long??

A subscription to the Mt. Vernon Signal

This is an ideal gift especially for those loved ones away from home. For only $1.80 per year more than the counter price, you can send the Signal anywhere in the continental USA plus any foreign country. Or, for $2.20 off the counter price, the Signal can be sent anywhere in Kentucky and the savings is even greater for a subscription in Kentucky - $6.20. This is an ideal gift so they can keep up with what's going on -- in politics, society, sports, etc. Plus, we will send a Christmas card with the name of the giver. Hurry so the first issue can be received by Christmas.

Just send this handy order coupon to P.O. Box 185

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Wayne Renner

Falin-Renner vows said

Kimberly Ann Falin and Gregory Wayne Renner were married Nov. 12, 1988 at 5:30 p.m., by Bro. Eddie Hammond.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Falin, of Mt. Vernon. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin W. Renner, also of Mt. Vernon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a classic bridal gown romanced with lace. The fitted bodice was beautifully adorned with sequins and pearls, from the scooped neckline to the basque waist. The lace bordered skirt extended in form a cathedral train. The fingertip length veil was sheer illusion netting held by a princess bridal crown. She carried a cascading bouquet of white silk roses accented with black streamers.

Mrs. Lisa Mackey, of Mt. Vernon, served as her sister's maid of honor. Mrs. Jennifer Cash, of Mt. Vernon, was chosen bridesmaid. They both wore identical black, lace-over-satin, tea-length dresses. The dresses were accented with a drop waist sash and a large bow on the hip. They carried white silk rose stems with black ribbon streamers.

The flowergirl, Rebecca Renner, sister of the groom, wore a miniature bridal gown of white satin and lace, and a miniature princess veil. Her basket was adorned with black ribbon streamers and filled with white rose petals.

The groom wore a black tailed-tuxedo with a white vest and tie. Michael Cash, of Mt. Vernon, friend of the groom, was bestman. Stacey Brewer, of Mt. Vernon, cousin of the groom, was groomsman. Ushers were B. J. Bradley and Scott Renner. All men wore black tuxedos with black tie and cummerbunds.

The bride's mother chose a dusty-rose dress with pleated bodice and dropped waist skirt. The groom's mother wore a teal green dress.

An arrangement of wedding music was performed on the piano by Miss Teresa Parrott. Miss Sharon Phelps attended the guest book. Miss Christie Napier distributed the rice bags.

A reception followed in the church basement with Mrs. Dianna Napier and Mrs. Connie Barnes serving.

After a honeymoon in Gatlinburg, Tn., the couple are making their home in Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Dewayne King

Miss Henson weds Mr. King

Adraine Michelle Henson of Stanford married Bobby Dewayne King of McKinney in a Saturday afternoon, Aug. 27 ceremony at Stanford Baptist Church.

Officiating for the 7 p.m. candle light service was the Rev. Stan Stephenson. Musicians were Larry Todd, pianist and Sonya Fain, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny M. Henson of Stanford. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cam Holcomb of Brookhead.

The bridegroom is the son of Emma King of McKinney and the late James King.

The bride given in marriage by her parents was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a long gown of Chrysaline featuring a Sabrina neckline edged with pearls and a scalloped deep V-back. The illusion sweetheart yoke had scattered pearls, pearl droplets, iridescent sequins, and Schiffli Lace Motif. At the shoulders were wire edge ruffles with satin roses. Wire edge ruffles surrounded the full skirt of illusion over satin and all of the cathedral length train.

A crown, studded with matching pearls and iridescent sequin held her veil of illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of daisies, carnations, and miniature carnation entwined with illusion and fern.

Maid of honor was Jennifer Williams of Stanford.

Bridesmaids were Susan Goodwin, Stanford, Annalisa Gilbert, Lexington and Elizabeth Fox, Lexington.

They wore ballerina length gowns of royal blue taffeta featuring a dropped waist with a large bow in the back.

Each carried a hurricane lamp with babies breath and lace ribbon. Bestman was Thomas Franklin of McKinney. Ushers were Scott Kennedy, Stanford, Larry Braun, McKinney and Larry Dale Shearin, Lexington.

The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo. Bestman and ushers all wore black tuxedos.

Flowergirl was Nicole Henson, cousin of the bride, of Danville. A reception followed in the church fellowship hall.

The reception tables were covered with two identical hand crocheted table spreads made by the brides great-grandmother Gracie Adams and great aunt Edna Adams of Brookhead.

Graduates

Debbie Shaffer of Brookhead has passed her state board exam for L.P.N.s. Mrs. Shaffer, an August graduate of the Danville School of Practical Nursing, is employed at Berea Hospital. She is the daughter of Alwanda and Tommie Falin of Mt. Vernon.

Rick and Pam Leger of Princeton, Ind. are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Tara Chantel, born Sept. 18 at St. Mary's Hospital in Evansville, Ind. She weighed 6 lbs., 5 ozs. at birth. Grandparents are James and Loretta Leger and Tommie and Maxine Falin, all of Orlando.
