Sweet and Sour

By: Zi Graves

Does anyone except me get the feeling the day after New Years that a big bright balloon that it has taken weeks to blow up was just popped by a needle in some mischievous hand? It's a terrible let down feeling, eh?

It has taken intensive work huffing and puffing and blowing to get ready for this exciting holiday week. Then suddenly in the midst of winter when it's hard to find activities to take part in except the glow glitter of Christmas week, it's over. Just like that it's in the past. The bright bits of the big balloon fall all about us and get trampled in the mud of our thoughts.

All these fancy doo dads we've had stuck in our windows and on shrubs or porches, and all the pretty ornaments and nativity sets have lost their charm and actually now look a bit tacky along with all the empty boxes and bits and pieces of ribbon and paper scattered all over the place. It isn't nearly as much fun putting them away as it was taking them out of their hiding place. In fact it is a "chores" spoken like a dirty word.

Since I have no one to check up on me I can allow chores like this to go longer than most women can which really makes my life a little more miserable knowing it will be done sooner or later.

The other day while I was still in this mood I noticed the roads were free of ice and snow enough for me to give my car an airing so off to town we went. I was bored with the jumping Santa Claus in the fireplace and the artificial fruit filling green bowls to overflowing on the table. I wanted fresh air, so I dressed warmly and headed the 16 miles to Mt. Vernon.

I know these sixteen miles is a pretty far piece but I was not prepared for the weather changes that took place in that half hour it took me to drive it.

The first I realized there were no clouds in the sky nor snow in the air was when something touched my nose. I reached for my hand and it was so warm I turned to look and lo and behold a brilliant sun ray had slipped through my window and got my attention by touching my aching shoulder. It seemed to be saying, "ah ha, I've gone as far south as I'm going and now I'm heading home to Kentucky. I literally let out to a whoop of joy. I can do that whenever I please you know, for there is never anyone along to think I've lost my "marbles".

Sure enough when I looked out to see why that sun ray was so warm I realized by the very brightness of it and the blue in the sky the solstice had been reached and the sun was turning its brightest rays back home and what a great feeling warming its return in such a warm pleasant way.

If that wasn't evidence enough, the very next morning when I was feeding my cats on the porch my ears were greeted by beautiful bird song from the apple tree. Some little bird was trilling his little heart out. I wanted to join him in his song. It was not only an early morning song it was an early season one. A lilting melody that only a bird happy to be able to meet a new day can make. Maybe it was the same bird later in the day that I wanted to assist hunting for worms in my yard. That one was a big fat robin anyway.

I know this is the deal of winter but that ray of sunshine and the trilling of a bird said "Spring is on its way" and each of them took a break from the bleakness of the past few weeks to welcome me. Those two incidents eased the holiday season for me and it is now with contentment I can put away the dregs of the busted balloons and look forward to "Valentine's Day" with its hearts and flowers.

I hope during the days ahead of snow and ice which I'm sure there will be more of, I can remember the ray of sun hiding beyond the dark skies and the birdsong resting quietly in the throat of a little bird just waiting to burst forth again.

Then I can lift my eyes to the Heavens and say all is well.

Give Me A Smile

By: Heather M. Shivel
Age 10
In Memory of Dana Durham

I got to know a very special person. She was a very good friend and every time we'd meet she always gave me this special smile. In her soft voice, she always showed concern of how I was doing. After getting to know her for several years, I learned she experienced pain with a type of arthritis. She always put her pain aside from her mind to find out what I was doing and to encourage me.

Then in September, 1989, I came to really know the person behind that special smile. She became my tutor. We worked together very close. The encouragement and strength she gave me I have never felt from any one before. My understanding of how to work and study was growing clear each day we spent together. I began to feel she was the answer to my prayers. My mom had used the words, "she's a goddess." She made things seem so good. She made me feel a strength in myself that I was not aware of.

I had shared a dream with her of becoming an excellent student. She shared one of her dreams with me of becoming an excellent teacher, and one day teach at Brodhead School.

Then she would give me that very special smile that warmed my heart and gave me inner strength, and I would say to myself, "yes, we can!"

But, what I had forgotten for a little while was God. Do you get so involved in life that you forget who really controls your life? That you are really just a co-controller. Well, my mom's feelings were more true than she knew. My tutor was a goddess, and on October 23, 1989, God sent for my tutor to come to her real home. Now I have that very special smile in my memory. Do you know a special smile or have a special memory? If there someone you can reach out to?

I know I will do my best to be that student in my dreams. My tutor's dreams will be realized there, far more better than teaching at Brodhead. She is with the greatest teacher of all. God. She will be teaching in a much greater place than here. I consider myself very blessed because I've known two of the best teachers, number one, God; number two, Dana Durham, my tutor. Now I give you a smile, thank you.

Christmas Plants-
How to care for them
after Christmas

The colorful plants that you have enjoyed during the Christmas holidays can be a reminder of the holiday season for many months. Correct care of these plants will make them a welcome addition to your collection of houseplants.

All Christmas plants such as poinsettia, holiday cactus, Christmas pepper, kalanchoe, Jerusalem cherry or cyclamen require a bright, sunny location in the home. Regular thorough watering whenever the soil is dry is also very important. A sunny location and regular watering are enough for these plants during December but more specialized is necessary if you plan to have them flower again next Christmas.

In January, you need to decide if you want to keep your Christmas plants or discard them. Christmas pepper, Jerusalem cherry and chrysanthemum should be discarded because they will not flower again. Do not discard poinsettia, holiday cacti, kalanchoe, or cyclamen until February. They will remain colorful if they are cared for properly. These plants can be kept as houseplants after February if you give them the conditions they require. Poinsettias and holiday cacti are relatively easy to grow while kalanchoes and cyclamens are more difficult.

The major result of the year-long care of a Christmas plant is the large specimen plant you will have the following Christmas. It is easy to produce a poinsettia with 40 to 50 flowers from the same plant that had only 6 to 8 flowers the year before. Holiday cacti will be 2 to 5 times as large next year with many flowers.

Cultural practices use to grow these Christmas plants are described below. Consistent care throughout the summer and fall is the key to growing a large specimen plant for next Christmas.

Poinsettia
Jan. - May: Give plants a sunny location and water when soil is dry.
Mar. 15: Prune stems about 3 to 6 inches to remove colored bracts. Fertilize with complete houseplant fertilizer.

June 1: Repot the plant into a pot 2 to 3 sizes larger. Move the plant outdoors to a location that receives full sun each day for at least 6 hours.
June-July: Fertilize every 2 weeks. Water regularly.
Aug.-Oct. Fertilize every week. Water frequently.

Sept. 15: Prune all stems on the plant leaving 2 to 4 leaves per stem (2 to 3 inches long) or at a height 15 inches above the pot. Choose a full sun location indoors for the final 3 months of growth.

Oct.: Selectively remove the smallest new branches so only 25 to 40 stems remain to produce flowers. Begin the flower promotion treatment on October 1. The plant should receive full sun every day and complete darkness from 6 p.m. to 8 a.m. Ramona Denny and Darlene Bullock. Back row: Atha Petrey, William Durham, Rhonda Denny, Frank Nov.-Dec.: Fertilize every 2 weeks. Water regularly.

Nov. 15: Stop the flower promotion treatment. The plant can remain in its usual full sun location as the upper leaves (bracts) turned pink or white.

Holiday Cactus
The following schedule is appropriate for all holiday cacti (i.e. the true Christmas cactus and the Thanksgiving or crab cactus (Figure 1) that is commonly available in many colors.)
Jan. - May: Give plants a sunny location indoors. Water the plants 2 to 4 days after the soil is dry. This plant prefers to be drier than most houseplants. Fertilize each month with a complete houseplant fertilizer.

June 1: Place plants outdoors in a location that receives about 6 hours of sunlight every day. Repot into 8" or 10" pot or basket and use very light, well-drained growing media.
June - Aug: Continue watering and fertilizing your plants as in the spring. Summer rainfall may give the plants all the water necessary for good growth.

Sept. 1: Begin dry period; reduce frequency of water by one-half. Fertilize only every 6 weeks.
Sept. - Oct.: Plants should remain outdoors until the cool weather. Protect plants from frost on the coldest nights. Thanksgiving cacti bloom completely after the dry, cool temperature treatment or sporadically without treatment. Plants flower for 3 to 4 weeks beginning in mid November. If Christmas cacti do not remain outdoors until October 15, treat plants with the unintermittent (short day) treatment described for poinsettias.

Don't Leave Freezer Out in the Cold

If you've put your food freezer in your garage or an unheated entryway to save on energy costs, you may have created a few problems for your appliance.

Putting your freezer in a place where winter temperatures drop below freezing may cause uneven temperatures within the appliance. The temperature in the top of the freezer may get warm enough that ice cream will be soft, because the compressor doesn't operate often enough to keep the space evenly cold. If temperatures get cold enough, there may be some real freezer problems. Oil in the freezer's compressor gets thick, which can make it difficult for the motor to start and run smoothly.

With the temperature dropping as low as minus 15 degrees on Dec. 22, East Kentucky set one peak after another throughout the morning. As the demand surged above East Kentucky's generating capacity, system operators in the Energy Control Center scrambled to find emergency power.

The demand was satisfied with the help of 150 megawatts of diversity power from Cincinnati Gas and Electric, and 75 megawatts from the Southeast Power Administration (SEPA). Date Unit 2 and Cooper Unit 1 were not on line at the time.

But if you must keep your freezer in a space where temperatures fall below 50 degrees Fahrenheit, there may be some ways to avoid problems.

Adjust the control to the coldest setting. This will cause the compressor to operate more frequently, which will result in a more even temperature throughout the appliance.

The extra energy needed for this operation will be small, since the compressor will be operating for shorter time periods.

Another solution is to keep a burning incandescent bulb near the compressor to keep the oil from getting stiff. The heat from the bulb will keep the oil warm, a trouble lamp would work well.

If you're planning to buy a new freezer and keep it in an unheated space, check your warranty carefully. Cold weather can limit or void some warranties.

Recognized for two years' perfect attendance were these two employees of Rockcastle Manufacturing. They are: Argie Bullock and Atha Petrey.

City police chief arrests escapee without incidence

By: Richard Anderkin
A convicted murderer, who escaped while on furlough from prison, was captured Monday in Mt. Vernon. Police Chief Joe Howard said he arrested John Harvey Taylor, 50, without incident about 9:45 a.m. when Taylor and his wife showed up at her former workplace to get her last check. Mrs. Taylor had tried unsuccessfully to get her check by mail and had not been back to work at Plastics since Taylor escaped.

Fannie Taylor was not charged yesterday but Howard said he planned to present information to a grand jury later this month for a possible indictment against her.

John Harvey Taylor was sentenced to life for the Aug. 10, 1983, murder of Bentley Furman, 58, in Rockcastle County, Kentucky. State Police said Furman was shot several times in the head and upper body with a .25-caliber semiautomatic pistol.

Taylor's escape prompted questions about furloughs for some convicted violent offenders.

No information was available from the state corrections Cabinet yesterday on whether Taylor's escape would lead to a review of the furlough program.

"He said, 'I'm ready to go anyway,'" Howard said. Taylor had been in inmate at the minimum security Marion Adjustment Center in Marion County. He did not return from a 48-hour weekend furlough Dec. 10.

Howard said he arrested Taylor in the parking lot of Mt. Vernon Plastics, where he found him sitting in a car.

Howard received a call Monday with second-degree escape. Officials from the Marion Adjustment Center picked him up Tuesday afternoon.

Audit shows Mt. Vernon with $18,381 deficit

By: Ray McClure

As the Mt. Vernon City Council began its new year, the councilmen found the general fund showing a 1988-89 fiscal year deficit of $18,381, according to the audit by Gatska, Lawton and Clontz, accountants.

It was not unexpected since the city has operated "on a shoe string," so to speak, after Revenue Sharing money was cut off in 1985.

"Acknowledging the problem with the deficit, Mayor Gary R. Cromer said of course he is not happy with the deficit but that it is less than in the past.

"We're whittling on it," he said, "and gradually getting it down."

A check on the audit shows general fund revenue for the city from June 30, 1988 to June 30, 1989 was $156,875.

A breakdown of revenue for the year shows $72,413 from property taxes; $47,126 from licenses and permits; $21,662 for intergovernmental revenue from the courts; $15,674 listed as other revenue, including parking meters, fines, insurance proceeds and boat dock revenue.

Total expenditures in that fund during the same time frame was $175,256, for a deficit of $18,381.

Expenditures for general government for the year totaled $83,931, including such items as utilities, insurance, postage, maintenance. Expenditures for the Police Department totaled $78,135, including salaries, vehicle expense, uniforms and clothing. The city allocated $3,598 to the Fire Department and $9,592 listed as investment in general fixed assets, such as write-offs of vehicles as well as other items.

In the Water and Sewer fund (Enterprise Fund), the city had revenue of $637,473 and operating expenses of $641,883 for a deficit of $4,410. However, part of the operating figure includes $142,933 for depreciation which is an "on paper" expense for auditing purposes and is not actually an operating expense.

Incidentally, the water plant pumped 331,435,000 gallons during the 1988-89 fiscal year with 305,110,900 or 92 percent billed to customers. A total of 8 percent, or 26,342,100 gallons, were unaccounted for, meaning water used through fire hydrants, lost from leaks, sewer plant use, water plant use and other city usages. Unaccounted for water is the same percentage as 87-88 and is down from 24% in the 1986-87 year.

City begins on path to annexation of residents

An ordinance that would eventually annex the Renfro Valley area to the city had a first reading at a called meeting of the Mt. Vernon City Council Tuesday night.

Annexation, if finally approved, would include property from the I-75 interchange at Renfro Valley along U.S. 25 to the Harry Mullins property.

The annexation would take in Derby City South truck plaza, Renfro Valley Folks, Inc. and KOA campground, as well as private homes and property along the route.

An ordinance to annex the area and a map of the area are on another page in this issue of the Signal.

To oppose the annexation, a petition bearing names of property owners and eligible voters who actually live in the area to be annexed must be presented to the city council.

Plans now are for the city to install a sewer line along Dailey Street and to continue along U.S. 25 and through Renfro valley to the Mullins property.

The city has been given written approval from Renfro Valley Folks to be included in the annexation.

The city will apply for a loan of $224,500 from the Kentucky Infrastructure Revolving Fund at two percent interest as its share of the project, with the remaining $200,000 of the $424,500 sewer project coming from a grant from the Economic Development Fund.

New constable

Because of a conflict of interest Eddie Delaney, newly elected constable in District 1 has resigned.

Delaney notified County Clerk Norma Hook of his resignation prior to swearing in ceremonies on New Year's Day.

Delaney is a Mt. Vernon city policeman and cannot serve also as constable.

County Judge/Executive Roland Mullins appointed Johnny Jones to the post, since Jones ran second in the May primary.

Jones, will serve until the November election. If more than one Republican and more than one Democrat files for the constable job they will be listed on the ballot in the May primary. The winner will then be on the November ballot.

Persons wishing to be a candidate must file by Jan. 29 in the office of the county clerk. The person who is appointed by Judge Mullins must also file if he wants to continue in the job.

Jennings will help alleviate case load

Circuit Judge Daniel J. Venters court has a No. 1 ranking that he could have done without.

His caseload for Rockcastle/Pulaski is at the very top of a statewide examination of counties by the Kentucky Supreme Court that shows the circuit court caseload in the two counties is increasing 5 to 9 percent annually.

Help is on the way. The Supreme Court has authorized Judge William T. Jennings of Madison Circuit Court to serve as a special judge in 100 Rockcastle civil cases a year, including 1990.

Other judges assigned include District Judge William T. Cain as special judge to Pulaski Circuit Court. Judge Farmer Helton and James L. Bowling Jr. to Harlan County. Judge Charles Luker, Lewis B. Hopper, Roderick Presser and Henry Statiz to Whitley Circuit Court. Judge Edward Jackson to Clay and Leslie Circuit courts.

In his order, Supreme Court Chief Justice Robert F. Stephens told clerks in Rockcastle and Pulaski Circuit courts to "randomly assign not more than 100 cases a year to Judge Jennings and not more than 200 cases a year to Judge Cain.

The assignments are the result of a Supreme Court order dated July 1, 1988.

"Judge Venters said, 'up until now, I have avoided the assistance made available by the order, but my caseload remains the highest in the state and continues to rise. I find that the implementation of the order is absolutely necessary.'

"I hope it will improve the efficiency of the Rockcastle Circuit Court," Judge Venters continued. "Judge Jennings is very highly regarded by the bar and by his peers on the bench."

The judge said no pending cases will be re-assigned, and as new cases are filed, the clerk's office will implement a system to randomly assign cases to Judge Jennings.

Judge Venters added, "neither judge, nor the clerks, nor attorneys, nor parties in cases will be able to control the assignment of the case to a particular judge."

Following Rockcastle/Pulaski as No. 1 in caseloads are in order: Boone/Gallatin; Bourbon/Scott/Woodford; McCreary/Whitley; Franklin; Floyd; Henderson; Clay/Jackson/Leslie; Calloway/Marshall; Bath/Menifee and Montgomery/Roswell.

Best in the State

Family Life Center School Director Gary Eldridge announced this week that the local program for adult education had been voted the most outstanding program for adult continuing education in the state. The presentation from the Kentucky Association for Adult Education was made to Eldridge by Sen. Joe Wright. Above members of the Family Life Center School staff are shown with the plaque. They are front row, left to right, Joyce Hannan, Kaye Cameron, Barbara Roberts and Cathie Bailey. Second row, from left, John Nugent, Anne Toner, Regina Lannon and Steve LaBrun. The Family Life Center School has been in operation at Renfro Valley since 1985.

The Mt. Vernon PTA would like to say "thank you" to all the students, parents, faculty and staff that made "Santa's Workshop" a great success.

Due to returning our remaining inventory we do not have a total to report at this time. Look for a treasurer's report at a later date, to see how the workshop profited, our kids. Due to personal reasons Cynthia Hewlett had to resign as president, of our PTA. She has moved to Louisville, Ky. I will assume her duties as president until the end of this school year.

I hope to have your support and help. PTA is always looking for a few interested people to help out at school. Come by the school Mondays, Wednesdays or Fridays to see me or call me at home on evenings at 256-5496. I will always give 100 percent to do my best.

Some thoughts to pass along to the legislature now that it is in session:

If ever there is to be a time when a succession amendment might fly with the voters of Kentucky, this has to be the year. My advice is to go ahead and send the issue to the public. So many people are so angry at the Governor who not only doesn't want to raise taxes but doesn't pay the ones he does owe that they will stand in line to vote against him. It is an opportunity that may never come again. Besides, I would really like to see Scotty Baesler have the opportunity to run for re-election in 1996.

I am also informed by one state representative that he intends to vote against any form of gun control that Santa. He visited the Mt. Vernon Elementary School, Tuesday. The weather on Friday before Christmas seemed to be a major problem. Fifty-three children received Christmas gifts that may not have, otherwise. The "make a wish tree" names, which were referred to us by the teachers, were all taken from our Christmas tree by several of the greatest elves in town, who request to remain anonymous. We express our gratitude to the elves and Santa for making many wishes come true. Christmas has always been a holiday for giving and give they did. Again our deepest thanks.

Dear Editor:

I think it is time that the people wake up and take a look at the way some of our mental handicap children are being treated on regular school buses. Especially in Rockcastle County. It does not matter how they get treated on the main bus.

Worst of all it does no good to go to the school before the parents have the rights at all. Not according to the people up there.

I have been trying to get a bus route changed for years but they are complaining that they don't have the money. Well we seem to have money enough to make sure that the bus drivers can drive their buses home every morning and night. That takes more of the school money than a simple bus route change in my book.

The way I see it is that the parents in Rockcastle County have no rights when it comes to trying to get a fair deal for their children.

I also don't think that a bus driver should have the right to set children off beside the road. The tax payers pay them to haul the children. Not to just put them off wherever they please.

D.L. Debroed

may come up. He has been in touch with the National Rifle Association and has come to believe a number of things that generally insult sane folks.

First of all, the NRA has convinced him that an AK-47 can be used to hunt deer. To prove it, the president of that organization went out and shot one. Since an AK-47 will, in fact, kill a deer, the NRA maintains that it should be classified as sporting weapon and left alone. Of course, the NRA also says that automatic weapons are protected by the constitution which gives the people the right to keep and bear arms.

Let's examine that for a moment. When the constitution was written, the only arms available were muzzle loading guns with un-rifled barrels that could only be fired in dry weather. Swords, spears, knives, clubs and cannons were also considered weapons, but for the sake of argument lets stick just to guns. When our founding fathers spoke of arms, they had in mind a weapon that had to be filled with powder to be poured down a 40 inch barrel and then a round lead ball wrapped with a piece of old rag to be rammed in on top of it. Another little enclosure just above the trigger and on the side of the gun barrel had to be filled with powder to prime the charge that had been put in the barrel. A piece of flint rock had to be attached to the gun's spring loaded hammer. Two triggers had to be pulled to activate the hammer which drove the piece of flint down into the powder, hopefully creating a spark that would cause the gun to fire. In warm dry weather, the gun would dry go BOOM and send the bullet on its way to a target slightly more than 50 percent of the time. I know, because Loreta got me one for Christmas.

In damp weather a slingshot is more practical. Or a bow and arrow. It is inconceivable that the founders of our constitution could have even imagined a fully automatic fire-arm or the damage it is capable of rendering. The arms that they intended to preserve our right to keep were also necessary to put food on the table. They were handy in killing hogs and shooting game, but they could not be used to wipeout gathering B people, with one pull of the trigger the way that an AK-47 can.

The fully automatic weapons that some folks, including myself, are concerned about getting into the wrong hands were designed and engineered with one and only one purpose in mind. They are made specifically for killing people. Period. They are not toys nor are they intended for sporting use. They are tools of war. Allowing them to be sold across the counter is asinine, irresponsible and used for the purpose they are intended, people will be killed with them.

There are practical weapons designed specifically to cast a bullet accurately for hundreds of yards that were designed for efficient, accurate hunting and target shooting. I have several such firearms and I cherish the privilege to keep them. I enjoy squirrel, ground-hog and deer hunting as much as anybody who goes afield but the notion of carrying an automatic military style weapon in pursuit of wild game is utterly ridiculous.

Anyone who tries to convince you otherwise is an idiot and that goes for the people who work at the National Rifle Association.

I believe that such weapons are necessary in the modern military. But that's where they should be kept. Anyone so bent on playing Rambo that he or she needs possession of a military weapon should visit the nearest armed forces recruiter. After 16 weeks of basic infantry training the possessor of a fully automatic firearm should be adequately versed on how to use it. And if he or she winds up in Panama or some other fire zone the gun should be used to defend him/hcr.

The NRA would have you believe and apparently some of our legislators are buying the argument, that if we allow the government to take military weapons off the market and make it against the law to own them, the government will then take away our hunting guns.

That is absolute #@!#!@* and that is the kind of warped reasoning that caused me to cancel my NRA membership three years ago. We can legislate gun control without threatening our hunting guns. Easy. All we have to do is write it precisely that way. It's not a complicated issue at all.

I do believe that an AK-47 can be used to kill a deer. I believe that some idiot at the NRA actually went out and proved it. But I'll also bet you any amount of money that you care to

Hot striper fishing at Lake Cumberland

Striper fishing at Lake Cumberland is hottest during cold January days.

Beginning in December as day-light hours shorten and water temperatures drop, striped bass action picks up at Cumberland. Throughout the month of January, lunker stripers are caught consistently.

Lake Cumberland is nationally known for its excellent striped bass fishing during winter. Stripers weighing 40 to 50 pounds are taken from this lake each year, along with several hundred smaller versions of the transplanted salt water species.

Lake Cumberland has both the cold-water habitat and the open water area needed to support a striped bass fishery. But since this species has not yet reproduced naturally in the lake, striped bass are stocked annually by the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources.

Because early stocking efforts in the 1970's were so successful, a sizable percentage of large stripers are present in Lake Cumberland, providing anglers a trophy striped bass fishery.

According to fisheries biologist Benjamin Kinman, continuing stripers releases in Lake Cumberland provides anglers plenty of fish to catch, including a good number of striped bass which now have reached the 20 to 40 pound range.

There were 26 striped bass that qualified for the Trophy Fish/Master Angler program in 1989. To qualify, stripers must measure at least 36 inches. Of the 26 entries, 25 were taken from the Cumberland waters.

Boat casting and trolling are effective methods for taking stripers. Live bait such as shad, a striped bass favorite meal, works well when drifted along creek channels and off points.

For either casting or trolling, try tying on a white doll fly jig with a white twister tail. Sometimes a large shad-imitating surface lure will draw strikes as well. Since striped bass feed heavily on gizzard and threadfin shad, the best lure colors to use are white, silver or shad-colored.

Striped bass are quite mobile and sometimes difficult to locate. However, during cold-weather months most stripers are found in the creeks flowing into Lake Cumberland. On the lower half of the lake, Beaver, Otter, Wolf, Indian and Lily creeks provide superb striped bass fishing during January.

Remember, Cumberland's waters are usually clear and striped bass prefer low light, so an overcast January day should produce optimum fishing conditions.

Anglers may take three striped bass per day, and no more than three stripers may be kept after two or more days fishing. Each keeper must be at least 15 inches long.

If you haven't tried winter stripper fishing, Lake Cumberland awaits you as one of the best opportunities anywhere in the states. Located in Russell, Pulaski and Clinton counties in southcentral Kentucky, the 50,000-acre lake is also the site of a beautiful state resort park (near Jamestown).

The lake is served by 10 major marinas, half of which is open year-round for angler convenience.

New herbicide

The Kentucky Department of Agriculture is seeking federal approval for Kentucky corn producers to use two new herbicides that control Johnsongrass, a costly weed to state farmers.

The department has asked the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency to issue a one year exemption for the use of Accent and Beacon, herbicides that currently are not registered for use by farmers. Accent is manufactured by DuPont and Beacon by Ciba-Geigy.

Several field tests, included those by the University of Kentucky's Agronomy Department, have proven that Accent and Beacon provide greater Johnsongrass control than herbicides currently on the market. Accent and Beacon are the only herbicides that can be applied over the top of corn for post emergence control.

Johnsongrass is widely considered the worst weed encountered by Kentucky farmers. This perennial plant has become an increasing problem in recent years because of greater use of no-tillage production systems which precluded the use of herbicides that must be incorporated into the soil before planting.

Kentucky leads the nation in percentage of crop acreage under reduced tillage systems.

"With so many of our farmers using no-till, Johnsongrass has become a greater problem," said Agriculture Commissioner Ward "Butch" Burnette. "No-till farmers need these herbicides for postemergence control. They could prevent millions of dollars in losses caused by lower yields of doctage."

Brodhead Willing Workers

The red and green wreaths and red bows of the back wall of Kastle Inn's dining area, were highlighted by flickering candles placed in red glass vase-like holders on each table. This surely put us in the mood for a Christmas party on Dec. 9.

After the Brodhead Willing Workers, with their spouses, if they had one, laid their gifts close to the tree, with twinkling lights, before they were seated and after Eugene McBee said the blessing, the dinner was served. A fruit salad set in front of each of us started our usual Christmas meal.

This was eaten hardily and quickly. We were anxious to find out what was in one of the many packages piled high. One of them had our name on it from 1989's secret pal, for the ladies present.

When these were passed out, there were exclamations of surprises.

The men always choose one gift-wrapped package and then keep exchanging it for another one - back and forth - creating a lot of laughs and saying, "Now don't you wish you'd kept this one."

They really have more fun than the women.

Those attending the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fletcher; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Riddle; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Newland; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brooks; Mrs. Eugene McBee; Barbara Watson; Lorraine Newland; Willie Lawrence; Emily Glavak; Ella Mae Martin; Elizabeth Mullins and Jean Albright.

Lucky Deborah Newland won the rocky horse door prize from The Country Peddler Craft Shop.

As we prepared to leave, "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year greetings could be heard."

On Jan. 25, 1990, the regular Willing Worker Homemakers will meet at Willie Lawrence's home with Lorraine Newland as co-hostess.

Elizabeth F. Mullins and daughter Evan were: Mrs. Edna Caldwell and daughter Ella Faye; Mrs. Eleanor West; Mrs. Jewell Denney and son Lonnie; Shirley Ray Cable and wife Donna Mae and Miss Mattie Bullock.

Mrs. Alice Buswell has been moved to Fort Logan Hospital in Stanford and is improving. We hope she continues to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson took her mother Mrs. Ellen Brown to the Red Lobster restaurant in Lexington to celebrate Ellen's eighty-second birthday. Ellen looks well and can outwalk a Greyhound so that makes me happy she is doing well. Ellen is a good person, she worked in my first husband's store for us quite a few years, well it was when Blanch was small enough to sit on the counter and believe it or not she wouldn't move. I couldn't say that about mine they would be all over the store but I wish I had that time to go over again; they grow up too fast. My children are all very very good to me. I just wish they lived closer to home.

Glen Edward Lewis of New Lebanon, Ohio visited his mother, Ellen Brown. He also visited Frank and Blanch. Ellen has a sister Verla Pike who celebrated her birthday the eighth. Ellen talked to her by phone.

HELP YOUR HOUSE OF WORSHIP WHENEVER IT NEEDS YOU

The word "help" is one of the most versatile ones in our language. It can mean something as little as holding a door open for someone, or as much as offering your services as a full-time volunteer to help the poor. Your local community is full of people and organizations in need of your assistance, and this list includes your House of Worship. When you think of all the blessings you have received there if you have been attending the services regularly, you will be filled with a natural desire to do whatever you can in return. This might involve making phone calls, typing the bulletin, baking cookies, painting the stripes in the parking lot or performing some other needed job. You depend on the Lord for many things; show Him that He can depend on you to be there when you are needed.

Fairview News

By: Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Rev. Harvey Pensol filled his regular appointment at the Fairview Baptist Church over the weekend with good attendance. Our Jan. 7th Sunday School attendance was one hundred and thirty nine for which we are very thankful.

We are now entering into the new year of 1990 and to every one, I'd like to say, may the good Lord bless you with good health, joy, peace and happiness. Each year is like a brand new start in life, only we are a year older. But I know we are all thankful for every year God gives us. Each year takes its toll on our life, it's so sad to see our elderly people growing more feeble, their eyesight dimmer and their steps slower, but it's coming to all of us. But as we grow older, the love of God grows deeper in our heart and soul. Then one day when God gets ready for us (if we are born again children of God) He will call us home for forever be with Him and our dear loved ones who have gone on before and are waiting for our coming.

Our Sunday School average attendance for the month of December was one hundred and twenty two. During this month we had a lot of snow, ice and cold weather.

Sympathy is extended to all those who have lost loved ones in the past few weeks, including Henry Chasteen of Berea. May God comfort the loved ones during this sad time in their life.

Thirty two perfect attendance Sunday School pins were awarded at the Fairview Baptist Church Jan. 7th. One year pins were presented to Stef-feny Gabbari, Angela Mullins, Bailey Canterbury, Cory Canterbury, Jeffrey Linville and Jancey Linville.

Second year to Kent Mullins, Jeremy Davidson, JoAnn Croucher, Kelly Croucher and Glen Ponder.

Third year to Jenia Davidson, Marvin McCollum, James Poynter and Wallace Williams.

Fourth year to Kent McCollum and Debbie McCollum.

Sixth year to Dewey Thomas, seventh year to Hubert Chasteen and Anna Lee Chasteen, nine years to Monica Cummins, eleven years to Jamica Cummins, twelve years to Doris Gabbari, fourteen years to Dreama Cummins, seventeen years to Cletus Peters, eighteen years to Jimmy Cummins and Jeffrey Poynter, twenty years to Judy Cummins, twenty-one years to Buddy Gabbari and twenty four to Wesley Lambert.

Mrs. Edith Mullins of Snider recently spent a week in Franklin, Ohio with her daughter Mrs. Ardilla Tinch and husband Virgil. It was a very enjoyable visit.

Miss Connie Adams of LaGrange, Ga. spent a few days during Christmas here with her mother Mrs. Janet Ridgell, Mr. Ridgell and Sherry and other relatives and friends. Connie is our granddaughter and we were so glad to see her. (We love you Connie.)

Mrs. Barbara Ann (Noland) Croucher of Berea celebrated her birthday Sat. Dec. 30. Also on this day four years ago her sister Gustava Peters was laid to rest in the Berea Cemetery. Barbara's brother Charles Noland of Independence came down to spend the day with her. After visiting with her and her husband Bert for awhile they came to see their nephew Mike Peters and family at Fairview. They also visited with their brother-in-law Claus Peters. Later in the evening they came to see Hubert and me, and that was one of the most pleasant evenings I have ever had. They are such warm, friendly people. Charles made pictures of Hubert and me and brought pictures with him to show us and I got a lot of my pictures, some old and some new and we sat and talked about many things that brought back memories of long ago, some happy, and some sad. We talked of our loved ones that have gone on to be with their Lord and how people lived and were raised years ago. We talked of the hard times when we didn't have the conveniences that we have today, the school years and our friends of long ago and how much we loved them and the love and concern that we had for each other. (That we don't see much of anymore. Several times as we talked I saw tears in the eyes of Barbara and Charles. I am so thankful to see that they have tender hearts and could shed tears. Their mother and father James Murray and Margaret (Reppert) Noland would be so proud of them if they could see them today. I'm thankful to have them as a niece and nephew. Charles it was sweet of you to spend the day with Barbara. And Barbara I wish you many more happy birthdays and I love you both very much.

And I do want to mention this, Charles told me he had subscribed to the Mt. Vernon Signal. He had there were one or two of the people he worked with that got the paper and they would pass it around, but he decided to take it for himself and now they enjoy it so much.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alexander of Orlando, Fla. spent a couple of days at the home of his uncle and aunt, Eugene and Hallie Alexander last week.

Hope you all had a blessed Christmas. Everyone I've talked to seemed to have enjoyed it. I know I did.

Let's try to love each other more this year and attend Sunday School and Church every time we can. And above all love the Lord.

And to all young people, please, say no to drugs and yes to life. And let's all remember that the way we die is the way we will meet God. You have my love and prayers.

wager that I can take a bazooka and do the same @H* thing. I could take a Sherman tank and wipe out an entire herd. That doesn't mean that I need or have the right to own such a weapon. The same reasoning that the NRA is pushing to protect private ownership of military rifles could be used to allow people to cut missile silos in their back yards. And I don't believe for a moment that our founding fathers had that sort of thing in mind.

Times have changed since the constitution was written. So have the arms that it gives us the right to bear. Come down and see me and I'll let you shoot my muzzle loader so you'll have a better idea about what a fire arm was in 1776. In the meantime, I urge you to write your state senator or representative and tell them that you think it's wrong for people to be carrying around weapons that were designed solely for the purpose of killing other people. You may have saved some lives.

Rockcastle Grand Jury hands down indictments

Two persons have been indicted by a Rockcastle Grand Jury in connection with a stolen pick-up truck and another was indicted for allegedly stealing tobacco.

The indictments were returned during the December term of the Grand Jury.

He is accused of taking a 1982 Chevrolet pick-up belonging to Jack Bailey of Berea on August 30, 1989, and starting a fire with intent to destroy the pick-up.

Indicted last year on the same charges in the same incident was Dewayne Singleton, 26, of Mt. Vernon.

Wayne Owens of Orlando was indicted for theft by unlawful taking over $100. He is accused of taking tobacco from James Mullins of Orlando on December 10.

Accused murder's trial delayed for evaluation

Attorneys for Ronnie L. Bowling of Manchester, who is charged with the murder of Rev. Marvin Hensley at his London gas station last February, may use insanity or mental illness as a defense at his trial.

Bowling was to go on trial Monday in Laurel County for Hensley's murder and the murder of another Laurel County man at a gas station near I-75, but the trial was delayed at the request of his attorney, Cleus Maricle.

Maricle sought a delay so he could have Bowling's mental condition evaluated - standard procedure in a case where the death penalty is a possible sentence.

Laurel Commonwealth Attorney Tom Handy has said that he plans to seek the death penalty in the case.

Bowling, 23, is also charged with attempted murder and robbery in Rockcastle County, in connection with a shooting incident at Rick Smith's gas station at Burr, last February.

Eleven more inches of rain last year

It's something we knew all along. There was heaps more rain in 1989 than in 1988, almost 11 inches more.

According to records at Cox Funeral Home Weather Station, a total of 55.97 inches of rain fell during the year compared to 45.12 in 1988.

Although no average is available for rainfall in Rockcastle over the years, it's in the 40 inch range. So 1989 gave the county much needed additional water.

Most rain in 1989 was in February when 9.49 inches fell, followed by 6.76 in March and 6.40 in June. Four months has over 5 inches-May, 5.18; August, 5.03; September, 5.69 and October, 5.67.

There was 4.02 in January; 2.61 in April; 1.74 in July; 3.38 in November and 3.66 in December.

Wettest months in 1988 were September with 6.23 inches and November with 7.47 inches.

Hottest day in 1989 was 92 on July 26; coldest was 16 below in December. Some areas in the county may have been colder, depending on elevation and location.

There was 13 inches of snow mixed in with the rain during 1989. Most of the snow - 10 inches - fell in December. There was only a trace last January and March and 3 inches in February.

East Ky. Power breaks peaks

East Kentucky Power generates the electricity for Jackson County RECC and 17 other Rural Electric Cooperatives.

On the coldest December day in recorded history, East Kentucky shattered its record peak prior to this month by 250 megawatts.

With the frigid December Kentuckians have experienced so far, energy usage by the 18 distribution cooperatives has increased 30.2 percent for the first 27 days of this month compared to the same period last year. Jackson County RECC is one of these distribution Cooperatives.

With the higher usage of electricity in December, it follows that bills for December service will naturally be more than usual.

At 10 a.m. on Friday, Dec. 22, with the temperature at minus 4 degrees, the East Kentucky system transmitted 1,402 megawatts of power. If not for the loss of several substations due to weather-related problems, the peak number would have been significantly higher.

While East Kentucky has set several records this month, the province high was 1,151 megawatts, set on Christmas Day of 1983. The new peak is 21.8 percent higher.

Brock's photographs of "A Day in the Life of Kentucky" now on display

Local professional photographer Doug Brock of Morehead is nearing the completion of a project that he started almost six months ago.

"A Day in the Life of Kentucky," was the title of Brock's latest project, in which he photographed people, places and things in Kentucky for a continuous 24-hour period.

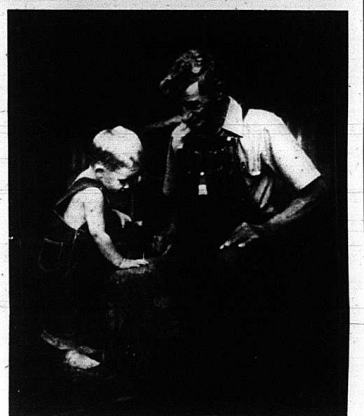

Ninety percent of Brock's over 500 pictures were taken in Rockcastle County during the 24 hour period on Sunday, July 16.

One of his photographs, which featured local artist William McClure and his youngest grandson Derek, won first place in the state as Best of Show at the Kentucky Professional Photographers Convention in October.

Another of Brock's photographs from "A Day in the Life" captured third place at the convention. It featured little Sheena Miller.

Many of Brock's photographs are on display in the lobby at the Bank of Mt. Vernon and he is also working on an album that will feature 100 of the photographs from the project for the archives of the local county library. That will be ready sometime this summer.

Many local businesses helped sponsor Brock's project:

Boys thump Rose Hill 80-60

By: Spencer Benge

The Rockcastle County Rockets got their third win of the season at home Saturday night after homecoming. The Rockets put on a good show beating the Rose Hill Academy Royals from Ashland, 80-60.

The Rockets who scored first with 3 straight baskets never trailed the Royals during the game.

With a full court press and a run and gun offense Rockcastle kept the tempo of the game in their favor.

But the Royals with good offensive ball movement started getting the good percentage shots allowing them to pull within two of the Rockets 17-15 at the end of the first quarter.

The Royals, who got their first basket in the second period to tie the score, could only sit back and watch the Rockets take off.

Solid rebounding on both ends of the court, added with the fast break, allowed the Rockets to take charge.

About Saylor's college basketball contest

By: Richard Anderkin

A Weekly Feature

Thanks to a generous donation of $25 a week and the willingness to accept entries at his store, a new college basketball contest will be held each week throughout the winter.

This contest is being sponsored by Howard Saylor and the folks at Saylor's Pharmacy on Richmond Street in Mt. Vernon.

The contest began last week and will conclude the last week of regular season play in college basketball.

To enter all a participant has to do is check the team they think will win. The teams in the right hand column will always be the home team.

The participant must also pick the score of the tie breaker game, which will usually feature Ky, and their opponent. The tie breaker is figured on the total number of points, closest to the total number scored.

As an added feature our panel of experts at the SIGNAL will give our readers a little help, with our consensus picks in the far left hand corner. (Of course our picks are not always right, as was the case this past week, but it may give some of you lucky warm sports fans a little help when it comes to picking the winners.)

The winner of each week's contest will be announced in the SIGNAL, or you can find out by calling Saylor's Pharmacy anytime after Sunday's games.

Nonemployee of the SIGNAL or Saylor's or their immediate families are eligible.

There is no purchase necessary to enter, but all entries must be at Saylor's no later than 10:30 a.m. Saturday of that particular contest.

Last week's winner was Gilbert Dawson of Mt. Vernon, who picked eight of ten games and was closest to the tie breaker.

The contest will return next week.

Girls lose two of three

Defeat Deming's varsity 67-48

By: Spencer Bengt

The Rockcastle County Lady Rockets, 3-4 on the year, lost a tough one Monday night 51-41 against the Estill County Lady Engineers.

The Lady Rockets played well through three periods but just couldn't pull it out down the stretch against the Lady Engineers.

With a good offensive setup and boardwork underneath the Lady Rockets still had difficulty getting the shots to drop. But the shots that pull it out down the stretch against the Lady Engineers.

With equal play by both teams in the second period, the Lady Rockets kept their 2 point margin over the Lady Engineers and went to the half leading 25-23.

A close game already only got closer in the second half.

Freethrows did not play a role as the Lady Rockets sank only 3 and the Lady Engineers only 5.

Aggressive play by the Lady Rockets was matched by the Lady Engineers as Estill County got the edge in the third period leading Rockcastle by one, 37-36.

A game that went to the wire saw the Lady Engineers put together an offense when they needed to, to pull away from the Lady Rockets for the win.

Individual scoring for the Lady Rockets were: Angie McClure, 15; Donna Harper, 11; Jennifer Thacker, 10; Angie Centers, 3 and Clara Pigg, 2.

In other action this past week the Lady Rockets went on the road to Nicholas County Friday night where they came up short losing 49-24.

The Lady Rockets then traveled to Deming Saturday night and picked up a solid win over the Black Devils 67-48.

Unaccompanied by the junior varsity, the varsity Lady Rockets made the trip to Nicholas County for their first overnight road trip.

With a struggling offense the Lady Rockets could only put together 8 points in the first half compared to the Yellow Jackets' 25.

Outscored 17-6 from the free throw line, the Lady Rockets trailed 40-18 at the end of three periods of play and could never get closer.

Lady Rocket scoring against Nicholas County were: Stephanie Northern, Angie McClure and Jennifer Thacker, all with 4; Angie Centers, Carla Bullock, Beth Amyx, Cindy McCauley, April Burton and Tiffany Carter adding 2 each.

After a poor showing by the starting five at Nicholas County, Rockcastle County Lady Rockets coach Judy Bullock compiled a starting lineup of junior varsity players to take on the Deming Black Devils.

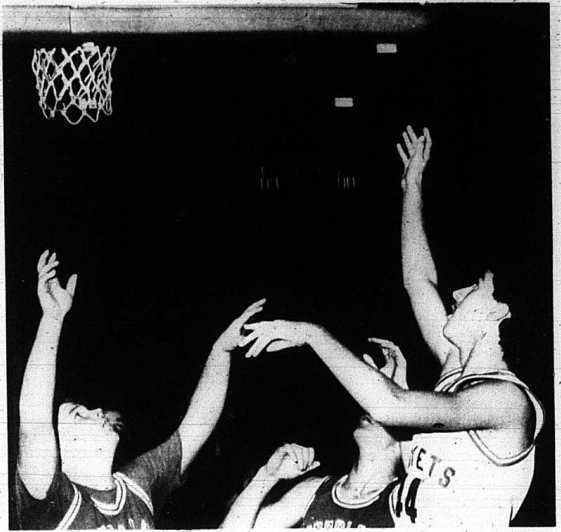

The decision made by Coach Bullock had great results.

The Rockcastle junior varsity starters played aggressive ball with the Black Devils and only trailed by 2 when they left the game midway through the first quarter.

With starting jobs on the line, the regular Rockcastle Lady Rocket starters entered the game and played with enthusiasm sparked by Coach Bullock's decision.

The Lady Rockets took over the lead 16-10 after one period of play.

Freshman Stacy Smith goes against two Lincoln Co. defenders in Thursday night's game. The Rockets went on to lose 40-22.

Freshman 0-9

The Rockcastle Freshmen boys extended their losing streak to 0-9 with two losses in the past week.

The first loss came at the hands of Lincoln County with a final score of 40-22.

The Corbin Redhounds handed the freshmen their second loss by a score of 52-47.

Individual scoring in the Lincoln game was: Scott Winstead, 6; Scotty Bullens, 6; Corey Craig, 4; Mike Albright and Doug Smith both with 2; Mike Albright and S. Smith both added 1.

Scoring in the Corbin game is as follows: Jason Kirby, 12; Doug Smith, 11; Scotty Bullens, 8; Mike Albright, 5; Scotty Winstead, 4 and John Hamm, 3.

The next freshmen game will be against Berea at home on Saturday, Jan. 13 at 11 a.m. and never look back.

The Rockets outscored the Royals 24-11 through the second period which allowed the Rockets to sit on a comfortable 41-26 lead at the half.

Led by a combined score of 44 points from the Rockets outside man Robbie Phillips and inside man Darren Smith, Rockcastle had no difficulty maintaining their lead over the Royals through the second half.

With a tight zone defense, the Rockets closed off the inside pass, forcing the Royals to take unwanted shots from outside.

Continuing with fundamental ball the Rockets ended the third quarter leading the Royals 57-39.

Due to consistent boardwork and quick outlet passes the Rockets continued their fast break giving the Rockets their biggest lead of 25 over the Royals late in the game.

Individual scoring for the Rockets were: Robbie Phillips, 25; Darren Smith, 19; Billy Todd, 10; David Eaton, 8; William Bullens, 5; David Sargent, 5; Micah Parkerson, 3; Scott Parkey, 3 and Steve Clark, 2.

In other action, the Rockets were able to up their record to 4-4 after defeating the Redford Cardinals 76-66 at Bell County Tuesday night.

According to Rockcastle County Rockets Assistant Coach Jerry Reynolds, the Rockets played good all round ball in every aspect against the Cardinals.

But to get the win the Rockcastle defense would have to shine above the rest.

With an effective box and chaser defense the Rockets used junior guard Billy Todd as the chaser on Cardinals sophomore point guard Edgar Asher.

The Cardinals' Asher averages 22 points a game but could only manage 2 field goals Tuesday night, thanks to Rockcastle's Billy Todd.

The Rockets led the first quarter 22-14 over the Cardinals.

Committing only 13 turnovers the Rockets controlled the ball well on offense putting together a 23 point second quarter which left the Cardinals down 45-30 at halftime.

With a good night from the free throw line, the Rockets sank 24 or 31 attempts, ending the third quarter with a 61-43 score.

The fourth quarter ended with senior Darren Smith fouling out and the Rockets taking home a win.

Individual scoring for the Rockets were: Billy Todd, 18; David Sargent, 17; Robbie Phillips, 17; Steve Clark, 15; William Bullens, 4; Darren Smith, 4 and David Eaton, 1.

According to Brodhead Elementary Coach Gary Scott, the game cancellations made in December for the Brodhead Tigers are rescheduled to January. The Tigers will travel to Stanford Monday, Jan. 15 and Southern Pulaski Tuesday, Jan. 30 for the make-ups.

Girl's B-team wins one loses one

The Rockcastle County Junior Varsity Lady Rockets, 3-3 on the year, fell on the losing end against the Estill County Junior Varsity Lady Engineers Monday night 44-32.

Beginning the game with only six players on the Lady Rocket Junior Varsity roster, the Lady Rockets lost duo Beth Amyx and Cindy McCauley to fouls in the fourth quarter.

But with just four players on the floor the Lady Rockets worked hard against the Lady Engineers, keeping the score reasonable to the finish.

With the score still tied at 8, the Lady Rockets watched Estill County get hot with good outside shooting leaving the Lady Rockets trailing 23-12 at intermission.

Although foul trouble hurt the Lady Rockets, the fighting four closed the gap to 12 late in the fourth quarter after trailing by 16 in the third period.

It goes as a loss in the book but you have to give the Lady Rocket Junior Varsity a win for the heart as four against five is a mismatch in any game. Lady Rocket scorers were: Tiffany Carter, 10; Cindy McCauley, 10; Beth Amyx, 8 and Danetta Ford, 4.

The Lady Rocket Junior Varsity also went to Deming Saturday where the Rockets defeated the Black Devils 29-21 behind a 12 point game by freshman guard Danetta Ford.

Report to the People

By: John McQueary
County Extension Agent
for 4-H

The Rockcastle Cooperative Extension Service is a unique cooperative agreement between USDA, the University of Kentucky and Rockcastle County.

The Extension Service today delivers unbiased new technology and information in four program areas - Agriculture, Home Economics, Youth Development (4-H) and Community Improvement, - and leadership with the principles of helping people help themselves.

Presently three agents serve as University of Kentucky employees, advising and administering the Extension programs in the county. These programs are planned and often conducted by the people of the county.

Tom Mills is the County Extension Agent for Agriculture, Cheryl Witt is the County Extension Agent for Home Economics, John McQueary is the County Extension Agent for 4-H. All these agents are responsible for 4-H and Community Development. The Expanded Foods and Nutrition Program is a federally funded program that is also supervised by the Home Economics Agent. The EFNEP employees are Judy Hudson and Brenda Saylor. The agents and EFNEP employees are located in the Cooperative Extension Service Office in the Agriculture Service Center Building in Mt. Vernon. The telephone number is 256-2403. All programs and services provided by the Cooperative Extension Services are available to all persons without regard to sex, race, color, National origin, religion, age and handicap.

During 1989 the Agriculture Extension program included tobacco follow-up on black shank plots and a field day program on a new rotary sprayer. Several tobacco growers were certified for restricted use pesticide application.

Corn moisture checks were done frequently to check corn dry down. A variety corn plot was also harvested on a local farm. Soil tests were analyzed and recommendations were made on several hundred acres.

Pasture and hay were big topics this year. 29 producers participated in a 2-night mini-session on alfalfa production.

Best producers held a pre-conditioning demonstration on 30 calves on a local farm in Rockcastle County, which was part of the Fall Herd Health Meeting.

Dairy assistance was given on free stall sanitation design.

4-H was the largest youth organization in Rockcastle County. 1724 youth participated in organized 4-H clubs, camps, activities, and school enrichment projects. Participation has remained the same as previous years with approximately 63 percent of school age youth in Rockcastle County participated in some of the 4-H programs. Over 180 volunteer leaders worked with 4-Hers in clubs, project groups, judging teams and various other activities.

Activities included 4-H camps, variety show, speech contest, fashion review, fair exhibits, and 4-H Week. Judging teams include dairy and vegetable judging. All these judging teams went to the state contest and did very well. 4-H projects groups were conducted by agents and leaders. They include electric, clothing, woodworking projects. Four teens have attended national meetings this year, bringing back new ideas to our county.

The Home Economics program include the Extension Homemakers Association. As of July 1, 1989 membership is 163 persons which represents 118 members in clubs and 45 county-wide members. There are currently seven clubs organized.

During the past year, the Extension Homemakers sponsored a quilt and craft show, held an international dinner, sponsored two blood drives, hosted the WTA Annual Meeting and participated in other state and county activities. Over 13,000 hours of volunteer service were given by club members. This represents a saving of $104,000 to the community. County Specialty acts will be divided up in Jr. and Sr. Division. Anyone in a specialty act that is 14 years of age by January 1 will be in Sr. Division.

2. Minimum requirements for the Club Act state that twenty percent (20%) of the club participants or five participants, must be involved. Club acts have a time limit of eight (8) minutes.

3. Only one person other than 4-H participants, such as a pianist, may accompany the act. Other than the one accompanist, only 4-H participants may appear on the stage during the act.

4. Variety Show participants must be a 4-H club member or have participated in a 4-H activity since September, 1989, and may only represent one club. 4-Hers belonging to two clubs may not be in both club's acts.

5. An act exceeding the time limit should be permitted to finish but cannot be awarded champion.

6. Since participation is of the utmost importance, the combination of clubs for the purpose of presenting a club or specialty act is not permitted.

7. Dramatic readings can be entered as a variety act.

8. All acts must use the same P.A. system. As it was last year, an additional P.A. system will be used to supplement the existing Broadhead system. A record player and tape recorder will be available and must be used by participants.

9. Leaders must take care of their own music. (Have tapes set at starting point.)

10. Each school will sit together until time for their acts. Club leaders are responsible for keeping their group together and quiet. Parents should be recruited to help as chaperones.

11. Admission will be charged to those who are not participating in acts. Tickets for participants and leaders will be delivered after clubs call in to register their acts. 4-Hers who lose their tickets will have to pay the admission charge.

12. Clubs must register their act by calling the Extension Office (256-2403) by Friday, February 22, 1990. (Cont. to B10)

From the past...

Tiger Pause

Mark these dates on your calendar for some exciting tournament action Jan. 22, 23, 26 and 27. That's the annual Brodhead Invitational Tournament (BIT). If you would like to volunteer your time or volunteer food for the hospitality room contact Shirley Martin at 758-8076 or call 758-8512 and talk with Gary Scott or Dennis Lawrence.

The monthly PTA meeting will be Thursday, Jan. 11. Help is needed and appreciated for this organization. Our monthly attendance at PTA is very small and the PTA has done lots of beneficial things for our school. If you can't attend the meetings, but would like to offer your support, call president Jennifer Nealey.

Our guidance counselor, Ms. Molly, has completed a series of class presentations with grades 2-6 on POPS. This multimedia program, Power of Positive Students, is designed to help develop better self-awareness, encourage higher goals and expectations, and support enthusiasm for life, even in the face of life's disappointments. This program was put into every elementary school in Ky. through the generosity of John Y. Brown and family, Ashland Oil and fifteen other contributors. Ask your child to tell you about POPS.

Christmas is over and we are settling back into concentrating on academics. Report cards will go out this week which marks the end of the first semester. With half the year behind us we will be looking forward to the testing program which will be conducted in the Spring.

School has been called off seven days thus far for inclement weather. If we miss no more than 3 additional days we can look forward to a full week of spring vacation.

The computer room is going real well. Mrs. Judy Petrey reports that the kindergarten classes, which have been in orientation the last several weeks, are now beginning their word cycles. The first grade classes are doing great writing stories and learning letter sounds. Everyone is enjoying working in the computer room.

Our school has been invited to participate in the 1990 Courier-Journal Spelling Bee. The winner of this bee will win an all expense paid trip to Washington D.C., to participate in the Scripps Howard National Spelling Bee during the week of May 28, 1990. You may want to help your child at home to bone-up on his/her spelling skills. Each school winner will be awarded a certificate and each county winner will receive a medalion. Since our school views this event as an educationally worthwhile program, we are asking you to encourage your child to participate.

Our Beta Club sponsor, Caroline Graves, is preparing the club for a trip to the Jr. Beta Club Convention in March. They will take part in writing, speaking and talent activities. The Beta Club is also helping with the BIT.

In closing we would like to pay accolades to our secretary Mrs. Carol Riddle. Have you seen someone trying to do ten jobs at once? Mrs. Carol can! She maintains her patience daily with students, teachers and staff. Thank you Mrs. Carol for an often thankless job.

The word of the week is hypothesis, a noun, meaning something not proven, but assumed true. Help your child to be aware of the word, its spelling, its meaning and part of speech, that they might receive a "sweet" reward during recess for learning.
