To a dear and loving sister and daughter -
We miss you oh so much
Your laughter was the sunshine,
To everything you touched.

To see you happy on that day,
Was a blessing to my soul
I'll never see you smile again,
Until it's my time to go.

I'll always hold you close to my heart
And I'll always remember your name
Now since God has taken you away,
Nothing will ever be the same.

able far back in time to another land," he said. "I plan to let those engaging Renfro Valley folks tell their own stories."

Petry said that Renfro Valley folks are found everywhere. They might build birdhouses, rocking chairs, children's toys or be storytellers, backcountry explorers, writers, or just plain folks doing something a bit unusual. Joining features of this type with the best country music stage show anywhere will yield an immensely interesting and spellbinding hour of television programming.

Many of the features will focus on Rockcastle County people.

Renfro Valley has been internationally and nationally known for over fifty years for the very best in traditional, bluegrass and contemporary country music presented on one stage. Renfro has always been unique for providing a forum for homegrown talented performers who are the embodiment of Renfro Valley tradition and spirit.

Other areas of local interest like the Big South Fork, Bear River gorge, Perryville Battlefield and Shaker town at Pleasant Hill, will also come to life in this series.

Each week Renfro Valley folks will look back at fifty years of history in the valley with special segments from vintage television programs and films featuring Renfro Valley, its founder John Lahr, and myriad talented performers.

Petry said, Renfro Valley folks will be a show unique in nature produced in a place that preserves a richness of tradition and heritage in a way found no where else in this country. The Renfro Valley folks viewer will learn, appreciate and most certainly, simply enjoy the wonderful music, people, places, and things found in the valley where time stands still.

"New" barn will open at Renfro Saturday night

Renfro Valley Folks will open the doors of a new barn Friday with shows scheduled for 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. The new barn accommodates over 1,500 for each show. The 7:30 p.m. show will be traditional with barn dance music, comedy and singing. The 9:30 p.m. show is the Jamboree and is one of only two Jamboree Shows scheduled in the new barn in 1990. On Saturday there will be a 4 p.m. show in the old barn called the Mountain Gospel Jubilee. It will continue through the May to October season. The regular Saturday barn dance will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the new barn followed by the Jamboree in the new barn at 9:30 p.m.

The crowds since 1939 have shared their experiences so many times with their friends and families. Many visitors during 1939 have returned to Renfro Valley to re-live those early experiences. The owners and management believe that history will repeat itself when hundreds of people crowd into the new barn to have fun in the Valley Where Time Stands Still," said Carolyn D. Byble, public relations representative with Renfro Valley Folks, Inc.

Persons wishing to attend both shows Friday night may do so by purchasing one ticket.

Your Child's Health
By: Dr. John Payne

With the coming of sunny days and attempts to get sun tans, caution is again urged. We are more and more aware of the danger of skin cancers, especially deadly melanomas, being caused by overexposure. Young children should be protected especially.

It has been pointed out that the damaging effects of sun are greatest when the sun is highest in the sky. This is why it is recommended that we should avoid sunbathing between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

When the sun is lower in the sky the earth's atmosphere provides protection by diffusing the rays. When the angle of the sun is at 45 degrees a sun protection factor (SPF) of 2.4 is provided. At this angle an object casts a shadow exactly its own length. When the sun is more nearly overhead, the shadow is shorter (no shade at noon) and of course the opposite is true earlier and later in the day.

These observations have led to another reminder you could give your children to look at their shadows to see when it is better to play games in the shade.

Don't forget sun block lotions, especially for the very young children.

Rockets win

The Rockets hosted Jackson County Saturday in a close one. It was a pitcher's duel with Mike Spires gaining the edge as he threw a three hitter and put a kink in Jackson's offense to give the Rockets a one run win.

It was all Mike Lopez in Monday's 7-1 win over Williamsburg. Lopez went the duration, pitching a two hitter and striking out 15. Lopez fell only three strikeouts short of beating the RCHS record of 17, set by John Saylor against Somerset in 1973.

Individual hitting for the Rockets thus far are Mike Lopez, 512, John Saylor 390, David Sargent 257, Mark Houk 218, Michael Shaffer 200, Micah Parkerson 181, Chris Newland 137 and Mike Dixon 133. These averages are taken from players with 25 at bats or more this year.

Irene Hinstead was the hostess for the April meeting of the Busy Bee Homemakers. The Busy Bees welcomed two new members. Our next meeting will be May 8 at the home of Rachel and Verena Larks.

Brodhead Mayor Billy Bussell views the remains of the boiler room at the rear of the city hall building that was destroyed when the boiler exploded Sunday.

City hall boiler explodes

An explosion blew apart an addition to the Brodhead City Hall about 1 p.m. Sunday causing several hundred dollars in damage. A coal furnace boiler exploded ripping a section of the building apart and throwing coal and pieces of the concrete block addition as far as 250 feet.

Residents living a half-mile away heard the explosion.

A porch on the second floor of the addition that extends out back of the building, was intact but sagged

A four-foot hole was blown into the downstairs area that once housed the Brodhead fire trucks, but used now for storage. Pieces of coal was scattered inside the main building.

No one was injured in the explosion. Peggy King who occupies the apartment was not at home at the time. She reportedly operates a store at Pine Hill. The apartment did not show any visible damage.

Mayor Billy Bussell reported the furnace stays on all the time to heat water for the apartment.

No report has been made on the cause of the explosion, but a guess at the scene was that a steam release valve may have become stuck.

Insurance adjusters were at the scene Monday to survey the damage. Adjuster Todd Felner of London said the damage would be "a lot."

Mayor Bussell said he was pleased that no one was injured. "We can always repair the building," he added.

The city hall is located adjacent to the new Brodhead Fire Department Building. It was not damaged.

Renfro Folks to air on CMT

Renfro Valley may not be a household name just yet, but after 13 weeks of programming on Country Music Television (CMT) this summer, that is destined to change.

Renfro Valley Folks, a series of 13 one-hour programs will begin airing on CMT May 28, according to the show's producer Stan Petrey.

"The series will be produced in a mixed magazine format utilizing an appealing blend of musical numbers, comedy acts, and informative feature pieces," Petrey said.

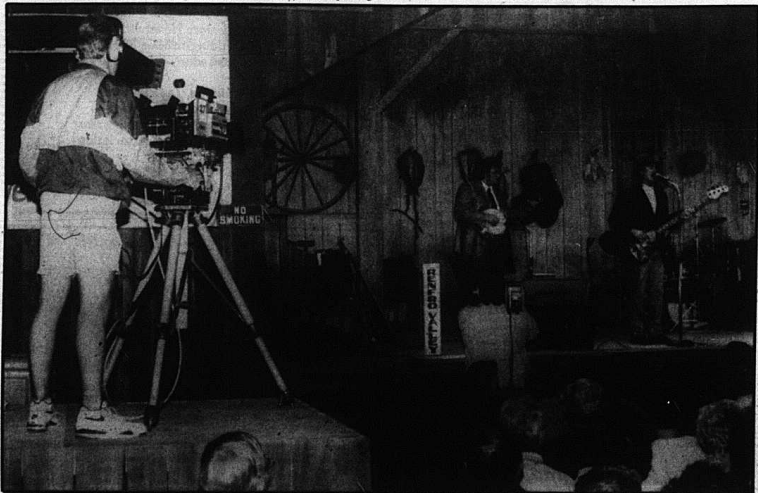

Taping for the series began in the old barn during Friday night's Barn Dance Show.

Renfro Valley Folks will capture the spirit of Renfro Valley tradition and the old-time ways in an uplifting, often moving fashion, according to Petrey, who is a noted fine lace prodigal from Lawrenceburg.

Petrey, who will also host the series, plans to explore the pioneering spirit so richly preserved in the Kentucky hills and hollows. "There are so many stories to be told, all unique, all rich in tradition, all trace-

City annexation ordinance gets first reading by council

By: Ray McClure

Attorney discusses annexation

In a statement to the Signal on annexation, Attorney Debra Hembree Lambert, who represents those opposed to annexation wrote:

"I first learned of the Mayor's rejection of the petition through a reporter for the Mt. Vernon Signal. At least four hundred (400) signatures were submitted on the petition in opposition to annexation. To place the issue of annexation on the ballot for public vote, only half of the eligible persons are required to sign the petition. My clients are unable to believe this number is insufficient to satisfy the requirements of the law.

"The persons signing the petition have never been informed as to the number city officials require. On behalf of my clients I intend to require the city to furnish this information and review their decision in detail. A suit is now pending and it can be amended to bring the issue of the city's action before Special Circuit Judge William T. Jennings.

"The Mayor of Mt. Vernon and each council member has a duty to personally examine the hundreds of signatures on the petition and determine the exact number of eligible persons and the exact number of authorized signatures on the petition. At this juncture, we seriously question whether the city and its officials have discharged this duty.

"Petitioners in opposition to annexation do not wish to impede local progress, but they are unwilling to pay additional sums in city taxes without receiving any additional services. To date the only additional service which has been identified is "maybe a little police protection." This is simply insufficient to justify substantial new taxation. My clients respectfully request that the Mayor and each council member of the Mt. Vernon City Council review the petition submitted, the persons eligible to participate in the election, and fairly determine whether my clients should have a right to vote on an issue which will cost them substantially more money.

"All we are asking of the city at this point is to place the matter on the ballot for a vote."

Reporting there were not enough valid signatures to bring a proposed annexation of areas around the city to a vote, the Mt. Vernon City Council took the first step to annex areas to the city at a called meeting of the council Tuesday.

A second and final reading of the ordinance will be held at the council's regular meeting Monday night.

Mayor Gary R. Cromer told the four council members who attended (Wayne Adams, Bob Bailey, Lloyd Cain and Clarice Kirby) that he had received a petition from those opposing the annexation, but after checking it with City Attorney John Clontz, it was found there were not enough signatures to bring annexation to a vote.

The mayor did not give a specific number of signatures that were found to be valid. But Attorney clontz reported that a specific figure would, or could, be made available to the public at the next meeting.

It was the second time the council has "annexed" the areas. Earlier, a suit was filed by six property owners to set aside the first annexation pointing out that the council failed to give notice to those who were to be involved in the annexation. The council then amended the ordinance and began the process again.

What effect the new annexation will have on the suit has yet to be determined. It could be continued in court or dropped now that a new annexation ordinance has been approved, or will be approved on May 14.

Under the new ordinance areas to be annexed include along and on either side of U.S. 25 south to the Burr Interchange of I-75; and along either side of U.S. 150 to just beyond the Ky. 461 bypass, and along the bypass to the I-75 interchange at Renfro Valley. A second tract extends from the I-75 interchange at Renfro Valley along, and on either side of U.S. 25 to the bottom of Green Fish Hill and the property of Norma Mullins.

Under Kentucky Statutes, only land owners in the areas to be annexed and persons actually living in the area who are registered voters can petition opposing the annexation. To bring the annexation to a vote, it takes 50 percent of those two groups to get the petition on the ballot.

Fiscal Court gets new county budget

By: Ray McClure

A tentative 1990-91 budget totaling $1,438,320 was handed the Rockcastle Fiscal Court at its regular meeting Tuesday.

The new budget is up 19 percent over last year's budget of $1,167,057. The new budget does not figure in the road bond issue of $1,065,000 which would bring the total budget to $2,503,320.

Broken down the budget includes $268,065 in the general fund which itemized general government at $148,477; general health and sanitation is $7,600; protection of persons and property, $22,100; recreation and culture, $35,450; and administration, $48,438.

The road fund totals and maintenance, $737,163 with road construction and itemized at $476,490 out of the total budget.

The Jail fund totals $320,644. With protection to persons and property totaling $19,919 and administration, $126,725.

The Local Government Economic Assistance Fund totals $67,500 with the most money, $26,500, going for general government.

The Economic Development Fund totals $42,348 with general government getting $26,752. The Forestry Fund totals $2,600. Final passage of the budget will be held at the next regular meeting of the court.

State highway department officials from the Somerset district was at the court meeting to tell the court two of 10 previously announced bridge replacements will be done this year. The bridge program was announced last year with priority bridges listed.

Nuisance ordinance gets final approval

A second and final reading of an ordinance setting guidelines for the elimination of nuisances in the city was held by the Mt. Vernon City Council at a called meeting Tuesday.

The official ordinance in its entirety can be found on page B-11 in this issue of the Signal. It is now in effect.

The vote for the ordinance was 4-0, with councilman Bill Cash and Ott Bond unable to attend.

There were no changes made in the ordinance as it was presented to the council on April 26.

The ordinance virtually covers all kinds of violations from loud noises, animal noises, stagnant water, trashy areas, and violations that could "injure or endanger the comfort, repose, health or safety of others."

Under the ordinance, an officer designated by the city council will follow up on complaints to determine if the complaint is in violation of the ordinance. The officer will then recommend to the council the necessary action. If needed, a written notice will be sent to the violator giving the property owner five days to clean up or abate the nuisance, or request a hearing. If no action is taken by the owner, the city will have the nuisance cleaned up and bill the owner for the cost. If there is no payment a lien will be placed on the property and the cost added to the persons property tax bill.

Carried to the extreme the property could be sold for the debt if the lien is brought into court by the city. Ordinances on nuisances have already been upheld by the courts.

At a previous meeting of the council, Mayor Gary R. Cromer told the councilmen the ordinance does not mean for the council to go down a street and see a yard that needs mowing or a house with the wrong kind of paint and make a complaint. He added, however, that there are areas of the city that need to be cleaned up.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor:

I would like to congratulate Ms. Mari Adkins Dillon for a job well done. I appreciate someone who will stand up for our flag. Hopefully by the time you read this, something will have been done about the shameful condition of our flag which flies over city park in Mt. Vernon. If not, I think it's high time somebody gets off their high horse and does something. I think it's a crying shame that the country's flag is come to this in the first place. When I visit Mt. Vernon or anywhere else for that matter, I feel especially good to know that the citizens of that town care something about their country and the flag which represents it. I consider Mt. Vernon my home, and when I go home, I would love to look up and see a flag as beautiful and graceful as this magnificent country of ours that it stands for.

Dear Editor,

I am sure the National Education Association is extremely proud of Kentucky and is looking forward to watching with us in the future since Kentucky has as some have said; become a forerunner and a role model for so called quality education.

The following statements are not my own but I believe they should be made public knowledge. And I quote:

The NEA's Agenda
The NEA's agenda is spelled out by resolutions passed by delegates at their annual conventions. In their own words, their own Resolutions specify their anti-Christian dogma. The NEA:

- * Actively promotes acceptance of homosexual teachers and the teaching of homosexuality as an "alternate lifestyle," not to be condemned; they resolutions favor retaining teachers (in classroom) with AIDS or for those who test positive for HIV antibodies (with no concern for its contagious potential). They urge "counseling for gay and lesbian students and for helping teens accept and adjust to their homosexuality."

- * Urges Sex Education to be taught without parental choice or review. NEA's definition: "Healthy sexuality is sexual freedom." They contend that teachers "must be legally protected from censorship."

- * Supports school-based "health" (sex) clinics with Planned Parenthood-style Dispensary Education including the dispensing of: condoms and other contraceptives - with instruction on their use; abortion information and counseling - even for teenagers under age 18.

- * Favors abortion and endorses the concepts covered in "death education."

- * Promotes the mind-control teaching of "values clarification."

- * Advocates the teaching of "globalism" (a multi-cultural approach leading to sentiment of anti-Americanism and ridicule of patriotism).

- * Opposes voluntary prayer in school and the teaching of creationism.

- * Opposes the use of school facilities for religious meetings, but favors use for secular activities.

- * Endorses "Early Childhood Education" programs (for earlier brainwashing of even preschool children).

- * Prescribes totalitarian control of all primary and secondary education, including curricula - without any accountability to parents, by opposing parental inspection of instructional material.

- * Opposes tuition tax credits, vouchers or any other type of "parental choice" and expresses extreme animosity toward private, Christian or home schools.

- * Is intensely against any kind of teacher accountability - such as teacher competency testing or pay increases determined by MERIT.

- * Vigorously supports higher spending "for quality education" by all government agencies (code-named "educational funding," but translates, "higher, better, more affluent lifestyles for teachers and administrators.")

- * Offers tax-supported courses for teachers and administrators entitled, "How to Combat the New Right." (Christians)

The NEA's Resolutions do not include any positive means to improve the current rate of functionally illiterate graduates (approximately 30 percent), to decrease the dropout rate (25-30 percent), or to improve the college entrance exam scores (the United States trails almost every nation in the free world!)

If parents object to NEA's positions, NEA believes the ignorant (Cont. to A7)

Points East

By: Ike Adams

Too many people have been worried about how the peach pit is coming along for me to put off writing about it any longer. If everybody just stays as interested as they are right now, they'll probably want to buy a few peaches come picking time. If everything works out, we're going to need customers in the middle of June.

Ralph and I have just shy of an acre of snow peas about four inches high and if this weather doesn't kill them, we're going to have to work our behinds off soon. Gonna be a lot of sack-backs onto Highway 1016 in a few weeks. Gonna be more peasing than we can handle and I'm dreaming it. I'm probably going to wind up using a couple of vacation days to cope with snow peas. (Hey! It beats Gatlinburg.)

Last year we pretty much got it done working afternoons and weekends, but good night, it was intense. We picked snow peas right through thundershorns- through hard steady rain. We made a truck load of low mud off snow peas with a garden hose and they glistened like roses.

We had friends who showed up to help pick peas that we haven't seen since. We hired total strangers who threatened to sue us after they became infected with crippling cases of white eye.

I'd get on the phone and call the produce managers at local grocery stores and I'd have to spend five minutes explaining to some of them just what a snow pea is. Let me tell you, they were three in Lexington and a few of the customers bought several pounds, but they left angry. And when they had decided that arguing wasn't going to get them anywhere, they'd commence speaking perfect English. Not nice, but fluent nonetheless.

When I slowed down a bit, a parker from Crab Orchard was a guy right beside me walked over. "This is your first time here, ain't it." "It wasn't a question. My name is Lexington." "You're insulting your customers," he told me. "If you have to have two dollars, then price em higher and back off some."

Two ladies strolled up. "How much peas," they wanted to know. "Three dollars a pound." "On no no no ---- noooo. Too much! Give two dollar fifty cents." I couldn't believe it. They bought em like that till I ran out. I believe you could take a truck load of young horse weed stalk and fix up a sign that said "ORIGINAL ALL-GROWN GREEN STUFF" and sell enough of it to stay in business. Hand out a few price sheets and they'd go for it.

It sure worked with snow peas. Folks would walk up and ask what those things are, anyway? and I'd hand em a stir fry recipe that called for two pounds. The recipe sounded so good they'd buy five pounds so they could fix it twice.

I have all that to look forward to again in about four weeks. Envy your hearts out.

Charting Rockcastle

By: Richard Anderkin
Managing Editor

Things are happening in Renfro Valley and although Renfro Valley folks have taken quite a bit of heat lately, Rockcastle Countians should be very supportive of what they are trying to do.

After all what Renfro is doing will benefit us all, and we should be willing to work with them to make their expansion of the historic complex a success.

It probably is ridiculous that the group is trying to keep other people from using a 200-year-old geographical name, but when you look at from their point of view, you can understand why.

As Jim Tillery explained it to me, they are only trying to protect what they are involved in. Records, crafts, camping and so on.

They certainly are not trying to keep people from doing business in the valley and if they are successful with their expansion efforts then those businesses will also be successful.

And everyone should keep in mind that without the Renfro Valley Barn Dance and Fambore to draw in the people, most, if not all the businesses surrounding the valley, would certainly suffer.

We should also keep in mind the economic impact the valley will have on the county once they are in full swing. Over 300 people will be working in the valley at that time.

It just seems to me that everyone should be more cooperative and try to work with each other instead of fighting all the time over things that really don't amount to a whole lot.

It may be time that we stop the Renfro bashing, after all it seems to me they are making an effort to cooperate with the community.

In the past U.S. Senator Mitch McConnell has not gotten very positive remarks in this space, but I guess everybody deserves credit when credit is due.

Wayne Stewart has told me that without McConnell's help the recent $400,000 UDAG grant received by the hospital, would have not been approved by Congress. Stewart said McConnell fought for the grant harder than any other Kentuckian in Washington and that without his efforts it would not have been possible for the hospital to go ahead with their expansion project. Once the expansion is completed, 84 more people will be hired at the hospital and the hospital will pump about 3.5 million into the economy in salaries alone.

The hospital has its critics, and at times some of the criticism may be warranted, but it is very difficult for me to criticize something that is so important to our county.

Mt. Vernon firemen Tiny Bostic and Gary Hansel work to extinguish a blaze in a car in the southbound lane of I-75 Monday afternoon. Paul Robinson, Jr. of Orlando told firemen that he was driving down the interstate when his car engine shut down and then he saw smoke rolling from under the hood. Hansel speculated that an electrical short caused the AMC Eagle to catch fire.

In recent years the hospital has made many changes in an effort to improve their facility and they are presently remodeling all of the rooms on the old side of the hospital.

A couple of final notes this week. Each morning as I fight to get in and out of the new post office in Mt. Vernon I wonder if the new facility has made things any easier for Mt. Vernon residents.

It certainly hasn't helped the traffic problem on Richmond Street, but then I guess that is progress.

It would be nice to see a couple of drop off boxes put in around town, especially on Main Street where much of the county's business is conducted. That would at least help ease the traffic problem for folks simply wanting to drop something in the mail.

Actually we need some kind of city delivery, but the postal service has said no to that idea in the past.

I was fortunate enough to attend the local Celebration of Excellence at the Renfro Valley Barn Monday night.

I was very impressed with the exhibits that were on display and with the work of third through eighth grade students. One thing is for certain, there is no lack of talented students in our lower grades.

masses should be "brushed off, stone-walled, snagged as censors, and otherwise put down as the intellectual inferiors of the "professional educators."

Christian responsibility should be seriously prayed about by any believer who insists on continuing to support the NEA or their state counterparts. The union's major objective is to change the way children think through manipulating pupils' minds by brainwashing and indoctrinating them with their secular humanist agenda. These teachers' unions are anti-parent, anti-family, anti-children, anti-God and most definitely anti-Christ!

"What Saith the Scriptures"

In Mt. 16:13-19, we read of a conversation between the Lord Jesus and his disciples. He asked the disciples "Whom do men say that I, the son of man am?" They responded by saying that some thought he was John the Baptist some thought he was Elijah or Jeremiah or one of the prophets. "He saith unto them, but whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." (Now keep in mind that Jesus responds to this confession of truth that Peter made in vs. 19). Jesus is more than a man, a prophet, he is the Son of the Living God.

Jesus was a man but he is also God, Deity, Divine. John's gospel states the fact that Jesus is God or Deity in Ch. 1:1-3, Jn. 8:58, Jn. 10:30-33.

Jesus was the promised Messiah or Christ, that the Old Testament foretold to come. Jesus told Peter in Mt. 16:18 that God the Father had revealed this unto him. Then Jesus said, "And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this Rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Upon what Rock is Christ's church built? The Catholic position is that the church is built upon Peter for his name means Rock or Stone but the words offer as a pebble and boulder would differ. Both are rocks but do not carry the same concept. The Lord's church is built upon a massive rock which the context, vs. 16 in particular shows. The fact and truth that Jesus is the Christ the Son of the Living God. This is a solid foundation upon which the church is built. If one could destroy the foundation, the rest of the building will come tumbling down. But, who can destroy the divinity of Jesus Christ? Infidels have sought to undermine Jesus Christ and his claims, but such cannot successfully be done. They are running into "Solid Rock" and the church he built will continue to stand. Paul said he had laid this foundation among the Corinthians in I Cor. 3:11.

Next time, we will continue our study of this text and give a series of articles on the church that Jesus built.

Rockcastle County Retired Teacher's Association Banquet

By: Elizabeth Mullins

At 5:30 p.m. Monday 12, around twenty retired teachers (plus some spouses) sat down at tables in Renfro valley Lodge's dining room. A country fried chicken dinner was set before each diner with cobbler pie, if desired.

Looking around the room, they could see strung instruments displayed on two walls, a huge, beautiful wreath joined instruments on one wall.

The mantel on top of a fireplace held a clock, violin case, a dried bouquet with a U.S.A. Flag standing near-by.

Small cups and saucers graced indented shelves on the wall below the fireplace.

Wagon wheels held lights shining through lanterns hanging around the wheel from the ceiling. Before we ate, Juanita Witt presented a devotion about spring ending by quoting the first commandment of our Bible.

Our guest speaker, Rep. Danny Ford, gave thanks to God for the food, etc., before we ate. Our drinks were served in canning jars.

When we finished our dinner, our associations' president, Barbara Rader, introduced Rep. Danny Ford, as our night's speaker.

As usual he started his speech with some funny stories.

D.A. Robbins, as well as the rest of us, heard a story about him. It went like this.

On a cruise, Mr. Robbins refused the soup that came with a meal.

After he retired, a doctor's aide came into his berth and poured a liquid down his throat.

A woman in the next berth had become deathly sick and ordered something to "settle" her stomach, and the doctor's aide went to the wrong place, you see.

Mr. Robbins said to another traveler the next day, "You'd better take the soup that comes with your meal. If you don't someone will come to your bed at night and pour it down your throat!"

Of course, D.A. grinned sheepishly, while the rest of us laughed loudly.

Well, when Rep. Ford told us the low-down of how the 400 page Educational Bill passed so quickly, it made us feel low down.

Did it have everything in it that we wanted?

Discipline and incentives were not mentioned on any page.

Rep. Ford continued, "I heard someone say, 'Conduct! Invert took conduct in school.' (or something similar to this).

Will the billions of dollars spent on the new plan for Kentucky's education be worth it?

I'll probably take ten years to see the results.

When Rep. Ford asked us some questions, silence prevailed. None of us knew the answers to how the new law would effect us -- retired teachers.

He told us, "you need to do your homework."

This reminded me of telling my pupils the same thing.

When his informational speech ended, we cheered to show our appreciation as well as the time he spent with us.

I hope the pictures that Aslee Bray and Sue French took, turn out well.

They probably caught some of us hugging and patting each other in greetings or adieux on their film.

Barbara Rader announced that our next meeting would be in June.

Farm and Home News Tobacco Transplants Grown in Water

By: Tom Mills
County Extension Agent
for Agriculture

Farm terminology has grown from plant beds to include raised beds and now water beds. That's right, tobacco farmers are now growing transplants in water beds. The correct term, hydroponics, is a process where plant roots are suspended in water. From this they receive all the required water, nutrients and warmth for growing.

Rockcastle County Vocational Agriculture Department in conjunction with the University of Kentucky Extension Service is experimenting with this new process of growing transplants. Seedlings grown to the 4- or 6-leaf stage were purchased from Southern greenhouses then transplanted by Vocational Agriculture students into trays containing 100 one inch by one inch plugs. A soil-less mix containing 100 one inch by one inch plugs. A soil-less mix containing time-released fertilizer was used as rooting medium.

The water bed is 2' x 6' boards

Poet's Corner

A Mother's Prayer
copyright by Christine McKinney

When life for me has run its course
when time is at an end,
When I have said my last farewell to family and friends...
If those who cared for me in life and those who knew me best Could say that, as a mother, I had passed the crucial test;

That I had had no serious flaws
as far as they could tell;
From all the evidence, it seemed
I'd done the job quite well...
I'd like to think my children felt-- to have them all agree--
That motherhood was something more than a task imposed on me!
I'd like to leave this vale of tears with nothing to regret (Not struggling with some memory and trying to forget.)
But, most of all, I'd like to feel way deep within my soul
That God had not misplaced His trust in granting me this role.

And yet I know that, in this life,
no mortal gains perfection;
Alas, I must accept the fact that I've been no exception!
So, Lord, just look me over now,
past the vanity and pride,
Past all the imperfections that I've tried hard to hide,
And tho' you've been long-suffering
Your patience must be thin--
But grant me one last favor, Lord,
before I say Amen:
Let all my failures, great and small,
be cast into the sea
To be no more remembered
when my loved ones think of me.
And when they write my epitaph
to mark my place of rest,
I hope it reads: "While falling short,
she mostly did her best."

People caring for people

By: Richard Anderkin

For those persons with special needs, chances are they'll find them at the Comprehensive Care Center in Mt. Vernon.

Housed in an impressive new building on old U.S. 25, the Center brings help and advice to dozens of persons daily, according to Betty Lewis, director of the Center.

At a recent open house, the public got a tour of the facility including an explanation of the many activities found there, including such services as alcohol and drug rehabilitation, consultation and education, work/adult habilitation, a pre-school program (formerly housed at Maple Grove) and mental health services.

The public is invited to visit the center between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. They will find:

Outpatient Services
For those who are troubled, depressed, or anxious, for people having problems coping with situations in their lives, for those whose marriages are less than they want them to be, for emotionally disturbed, and for the more seriously ill patient who is stabilized on medication, our outpatient clinic in Mt. Vernon is located on old U.S. 25.

Inpatient
For short term therapy the center utilizes the services of the inpatient unit at the Southeastern Kentucky Baptist Hospital in Corbin. For long term therapy, clients are referred to Eastern State Hospital in Lexington.

Partial Hospitalization
For the person who is in need of fairly intensive mental health services, but is not in need of full-time hospitalization, the county's Partial Hospitalization Program is available. Clients are carefully screened into the program on the basis of their needs and ability to benefit from this type of treatment. The program meets daily and provides group and individual therapy, music and recreation therapy, and chemotherapy. Contact Elizabeth Baker for more information.

Alcohol and Drugs
The Center provides assistance to people unable to control the use of alcohol and drugs. Available to any individual of any age experiencing problems. Services include crisis intervention, individual therapy, group therapy, and inpatient services. Contact Virgil Hayes for information.

Consultation and Education
Removing the stigma of mental illness and emotional disturbance is a primary goal of the Consultation and Education program. Emphasis is given to prevention and early treatment. In attempting to prevent serious mental health problems for developing and, when they do develop, to get people into our treatment program as early as possible, KCC consultation services are provided to schools, law enforcement, community agencies, clergy, physicians, and many others. Professional members of the treatment staff are always available to give talks to schools and organizations throughout the community on any aspect of mental health, alcohol/drug abuse, and the services available through our center.

Developmental Disabilities
Work/Adult Habilitation
Provides socialization and education skills to mentally retarded adults to prepare them for a work training program to help them become self-sufficient. Program is open to all mentally handicapped persons 17 years of age and older. A daily program meets from 8 until 12 noon. Contact Elizabeth Baker for more information.

Pre-School
Focuses on developing skills in self-help, gross and fine motor, language, emotional, socialization and play, for ages 3-5 years. Speech therapy and bus service are also available. Breakfast and lunch are served in addition to an afternoon snack. There is a daily program from 8:30 to 3. Children referred must be ambulatory and potty-trained. For more information call 256-2129.

The local Comprehensive Care Center held Open House last Friday afternoon to show-off their new facility. ## Softball girls wins 3 of 6

The Rockcastle County High school girl's softball team won 3 of 6 games this past week against some stiff competition.

The Rockets had their hands full when they hosted Garrard County. They squeaked by in the first game with a 8-7 win and slipped by in the second game with a 11-10 win.

It was scarce as many as you can get time when the Rockets locked up with Williamsburg. The Rockets fell short in the first game when they lost 18-15 but were right back in it in the second game as 21 players rolled across the plate to defeat Williamsburg 21-10.

The Rockets then went down two games straight when they hosted the high caliber ballclub from Russell County Monday evening. Although the Rockets played well they lost 14-6 and 8-3.

Rockets head coach Debbie Cash commented that her team played extremely well this past week, especially against Russell County. Coach Cash said her girls didn't hit the ball as well as they could have against Russell but, considering the team, she was pleased. Russell County has a 26-3 record this year.

The Rockets put up a .393 percentage from the plate against Garrard and an excellent .573 against Williamsburg but dropped to a .238 against Russell County.

Individual hitting against Garrard County for the Rockets were Christy Coleman .625, Kristi Sargent .571, Jennifer Thacker .500, Stephanie Northern and Patricia Leece .428, Karla Bullock .400, Shonda Renner .333, Cindy McCauley .285 and Janet Collins .166.

The outstanding hitters against Williamsburg were Cindy McCauley 1.000, Christy Coleman .777, Shonda Renner .625, Kristi Sargent, Jennifer Thacker and Katrina Ponder .571, Patricia Leece and Janet Collins .500 and Mindy Sargent .250.

Against Russell County it was Christy Coleman .571, Katrina Ponder .400, Shonda Renner and Cindy McCauley .285, Kristi Sargent .250, Stephanie Northern and Gina Martin .166 and Patricia Leece and Janet Collins with a .142.

Receives scholarship

Vicki Lynn Martin of Mt. Vernon was among the 243 Berea College students recognized as new honor society members at the annual scholarship program on April 5.

Vicki is one of 13 new Beta Beta Beta members recognized. This national society is open to students making the biological sciences one of their major studies. Organized in 1922, the society has three major aims: the development of scholarship, the dissemination of scientific truth and the promotion of research.

A junior nursing major at Berea, Vicki is a graduate of Rockcastle County High School. She is the daughter of Mary Sexton and Joe Martin.

It was a slugging festival in the Padres vs. Cubs game of the Little League pre-season tournament at Thacker Field in Brodhead. The Cubs knocked in 18 runs to nip the Padres, who had 17.

Padre Steven Day crosses the plate to give his team an early lead over the Cubs Monday evening in the Little League pre-season tournament. Although the Padres scored first, the Cubs came back to win 18-17.

RCHS in new football district

By: Richard Anderkin

Most Kentucky high school football coaches have nightmares when the words Corbin, Somerset and Middleboro are mentioned.

But, at Rockcastle County High School, head coach Tom Larkey just grins. "Yes we wanted in that district," he said last week.

What he was referring to, was the recent realignment of many of Kentucky's football districts.

That realignment has placed Rockcastle in the same district as Corbin, Somerset, Middleboro, Madison Southern and Wayne County.

Larkey said last week, that beginning in 1991 Rockcastle will have to play all of the schools in its district, and according to Larkey, they are looking forward to it.

"We can compete with these schools and it will certainly be easier on our team and fans to travel to schools only 25 to 40 miles away to see us play," Larkey said.

Larkey, by far the most successful football coach ever at RCCHS, said that with the realignment bigger home crowds could be expected as well.

"Corbin has won numerous state titles and Somerset is a few under their belt as well," Larkey said.

RCCHS won't begin its new schedule until 1991 with the 1990 schedule virtually the same as last year when the Rockets finished with seven wins and four losses.

Under the current play-off system only the top two teams in each district go to the play-offs. But, next year, the top four teams from each district will qualify for post season play.

Weekly fishing report

Fishing activity over the April 28-29 weekend was moderate to heavy on most of the major lakes. Water temperatures ranged from 62-72 degrees. Crappie and largemouth bass are being caught primarily in shallow water as spawning time approaches. The lake-by-lake report:

Kentucky: Largemouth bass were hitting spinnerbaits and plastic worms 1-5 feet deep along the shoreline; crappie were active on minnows and jigs 5-10 feet deep over brush piles; clear, falling, 1/2 foot above summer pool and 65 degrees.

Barkley: Crappie were taking minnows and jigs 5-10 feet deep over drop-offs, brush piles and submerged trees; largemouth bass were active on

Also, at that time, each school will be limited to 10 games so that the extra week, when most teams played an eleventh game, can be used for the extra week of play-offs. To win a state championship a school must win 15 games.

While the new district and the anticipation of playing Corbin and Somerset are on Larkey's mind, next season is foremost in his thoughts.

Coming off a good season with a relatively young squad, Larkey has hopes of a better year next season.

"We are still young, but our kids are stronger than ever before," he said. "If we can get some good play from our skilled positions, we should be able to have a pretty good year," he said.

crankbaits, spinnerbaits, plastic worms and jig & pig combinations 5-10 feet deep along the shoreline, over drop-offs and off rocky points; clear, falling, 1/2 foot above summer pool and 66 degrees.

Little League season opens at Thacker Field

Except for a little bad weather, Thacker Field in Brodhead is alive and well with the sound of youngsters giving it their all in the little league pre-season tournament.

The tournament began Saturday with teams from the Major League, ages 9-12, and the Minor League, ages 8-12, going head to head.

It was the Reds defeating the Twins, 15-13, in a close ballgame in the Major League and the Cubs defeating the Pirates, 26-3, in the Minor League.

An opening ceremony was scheduled for last Saturday to begin the Little League year but according to Benny Craig, the league president, some difficulties were encountered so the ceremony has been postponed to a later date. All the games following the Cubs-Pirates game Saturday were cancelled due to rain and were rescheduled for Monday and Tuesday.

The Cubs were once again winners Monday when they edged out the Padres, 18-17, while the Orioles knocked off the Bears, 22-16, in the Minor League.

But once again Rockcastle County saw rain and Tuesday's games were cancelled and rescheduled to Thursday. The times are not available at this time.

The championship games are scheduled for this Saturday with the Major League taking the field at 4 p.m. and the Minor League at 6 p.m. The regular season for Little League will open Monday, May 7.

RCCHS Baseball team gets first victory

The Rockcastle County High school baseball team didn't just get their first win of the season this past week but walked away with four.

Two of those four wins came at home in district play when the Rockets defeated Oneida 12-5 Wednesday and Jackson County 4-3 Saturday. The Rockets also defeated Williamsburg 7-1 Monday, and since Monticello didn't show last Friday the Rockets got a 1-0 win due to forfeit.

Clay County and Lincoln County were the only two teams to defeat the Rockets this past week. Lincoln pulled out a 17-13 win Thursday and Clay stopped the Rocket fever sweeping their district with a 6-3 victory Tuesday.

The Rockets have two wins and one loss in district play and, according to head coach Ryan Riddle things have fallen into place. Riddle said he was hoping his team would come out and win their district game, and they did. "These are the ball games that count," he said.

The Rockets opened this week last Tuesday at home against Clay County. Senior Mike Lopez started on the mound for the Rockets and put in a good day's work, according to coach Riddle. Lopez went the distance, pitching a five fitter and out of six runs scored by Clay, only two were earned runs.

The Rockets then traveled to Oneida where they put on a hitting clinic, scoring 12 runs. Pitcher Mike Dixon got the win although he was accused of throwing a spitball and was ejected in the fourth inning. "I couldn't believe it," said Coach Riddle. "Dixon was on but he wasn't throwing anything illegal," he added. Mike Spires got the save after shutting Oneida down the remaining three innings.

It was then Lincoln at Rockcastle, in a game the Rockets almost pulled out. Lincoln had their number one pitcher on the mound and a 13-10 lead in the bottom of the seventh inning when Mike Lopez stepped up and sent one over the fence for a three run shot to tie the game. Although it was a good effort, it was one run short because Lincoln came back to outscore the Rockets 4-0 in the eighth inning for the win.

Fairview

By: Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Worship services were well attended at the Fairview Baptist Church over the weekend and one hundred and thirty seven attended Sunday School.

Revival services were conducted by Rev. Shelby Reynolds (pastor of Mareburg Baptist Church) starting Sunday morning and ending Friday night. And Oh! What a glorious inspirational revival we had. Rev. Reynolds delivered some wonderful sermons and we saw souls saved and a great number of re-dedications. This revival will be long remembered by many people. We had large crowds every night and so many visitors for which we are thankful. To all you visitors I'd like to say, we enjoyed having you (one precious lady came in a wheel chair and another one using a walker) and hope you can visit us again real soon. We love you all.

Baptismal services were conducted Sunday evening with eight being baptized. Bless their hearts, as they step out into the world as young Christians they will face many problems and temptations, but I hope and pray they will put their trust in the Lord and stay in Sunday School and Church and close to good Christian people. We love them so much.

As we gather together in our worship services and hear the congregational singing, which I enjoy so much, all those beautiful voices blending together in harmony and praise to the Lord, I am reminded of the Bible verse in Psalms 98:4 which says, "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth; Make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise." Also I thank God for our music director, Clonus Peters, who has been so dedicated and faithful in this profession for the past several years. We need to give glory, honor and praise to the many good people that we know and love and always give God thanks for the many blessings of life. He has been so good to us down through the years.

Mrs. Helen Powell of Berea visited her mother Mrs. Mary Cope on Wednesday.

Robert Chasteen of Berea visited with Hubert and me on Sunday afternoon.

Visiting Ray Gabbard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hart of Berea on Sunday were Mrs. Fannie Alexander and daughter Jewell Davidson. Mr. Gabbard is Mrs. Alexander's uncle.

William Alexander of Willailla visited his brother Eugene and family Sunday morning.

Please remember church and Sunday school. God bless you.

Tiger Pause

National PTA Teacher Appreciation Week begins May 7. This is the time to say "thank-you" to all the teachers across our nation. Our teachers work hard to help our students to be as successful in school as possible. Perhaps you may want to take the time to write a small note of thanks to your child's teacher or to one of your own favorite teachers from the past. It's never too late!

Congratulations to one of our faculty, Mrs. Charlotte Bullock, who has been accepted for the Foxfire Seminar in Berea this summer. Experiences such as these enrich our teachers' lives and help them to become better teachers.

Monday was "Perfect Attendance

Day at BES", although we didn't have perfect attendance, we came really close. We had only three absences! This beat last year's record of six absences. Thank you for your support, and we hope that we can have this good attendance for the rest of this year. Now, that would indeed be a great record!

Our boys' athletic banquet is at 6 next Monday, May 7. As usual, it is "pot luck" and all parents of cheerleaders and boys' basketball team managers etc. are invited. Our speakers will be John Pelphrey and Sean Sutton.

We appreciate your supporting and encouraging your children during "Test Week". Our attendance has been good and our attitudes positive. You can see your child's scores in early August by watching The Signal for

We were so very proud of our challenge students and the awards they won for their fine accomplishments. These awards were presented at the 6th Annual Celebration of Excellence, which was held Monday, April 30, at the Old Barn in Renfro Valley. KAGE/Rockcastle is a very vital part of our educational system, and if you don't belong to this fine organization, you may want to consider joining. We need all the support we can get in order to continue encouraging our students.

This week we're saluting a very special group of ladies. These "cooks", as we so fondly call them, are very much a part of the Tiger Spirit. Not only do they work hard to prepare nutritious meals, but they take personal interests in our students. They are quick to join in on any special days, assemblies, etc. and to lend a helping hand. Thanks, Mrs. Wanda Carroll, Mrs. Helen Albright, Mrs. Geraldine Anglin, Mrs. Mary Bussell, Mrs. Doris Blanton, Mrs. Ruby Hasty and Mrs. Janie McClure.

Cox named Academic winner in English

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Paul Cox has been named a United States National Award winner English.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10 percent of all American high school students.

Cox, who attends Rockcastle County High School was nominated for this National Award by Irish Young, an English teacher at the school. Cox will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly United States Achievement Academy award winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Cox is the son of Paul and Ruth Cox. The grandmother is Sue Cox of Broodhead.

Educators honored by Forward in Fifth

"We depend on you teachers to be positive and have a vision and hope. As in Proverbs, if there is no vision, the people perish."

JoAnne James, chairman of Forward in the Fifth, addressed 150 persons at Campbellsville College's fourth annual "Excellence in Teaching Awards" Saturday, April 21 in the college's cafeteria.

Winners from the Rockcastle County School System are: Norma Ramsey Eversole, first grade at Roundstone Elementary School; Charles Melvin Carter, physical education at Mt. Vernon Elementary school, and Marjorie June Hiatt Stevens, home economics at Rockcastle County High School.

Mrs. James encouraged the teachers to not have negative thoughts. She said traditional reasons Kentuckians' education has not been good have been addressed with the new school reform passed in the last state Legislature.

She said low funding and politics have been addressed, but teachers and others need to address the problem of low expectations of those in the Fifth Congressional District.

Forward in the Fifth, a community-based organization dedicated to improving educational achievement in the Fifth Congressional District, has been working for education since 1986.

Mrs. James told the teachers they have a "monumental" task, but the type of teachers being honored by Campbellsville College are the ones who can improve education.

Mrs. James thanked several persons in the audience including Sen. David Williams, R-Burkesville, for his work on the reform bill; E.R. (Buddy) Purdon, associate director of government relations with the Council of Independent Kentucky Colleges and Universities, and John Chowning of Campbellsville, secretary of the regional Forward in the Fifth board.

Dr. Ken Winters, president of Campbellsville College, also praised Williams, Purdon and Chowning for their work in education. He pledged Campbellsville College's support and cooperation to help Kentucky's educational system be an enviable one.

Winters told the teachers "you are what makes it work." He said Campbellsville College had honored 290 outstanding teachers since the program began in 1987. Twenty-eight districts participated in the 1990 program up from 17 for the first one.

Eighty-one teachers received awards in 1990 up from 50 in 1987. He thanked Earl Aaron of Gary, Ind., formerly of Russell Springs, for his idea and considerable support of the program.

He told of the physical improvements happening on the College's campus and also of a $75,000 grant which has been received from Lilly Endowment Inc. for faculty development.

He explained the College's Montgomery Library's automated system which is a tremendous boost to the college. He also told of the college's athletic teams' success and that the school is adding a swimming team.

Winters also said the college had recently received specialized accreditation from the National Association of Schools of Music. He also said the college has started a major in organizational administration and a life-learning experience credit proposal which will help those in the fifth district who have no college degree but who have had experiences which can count toward a degree.

Campbellsville College Academic Vice President Dr. Robert S. Clark helped present the awards. Dr. Ron Ellis, executive vice president, gave the invocation, and Dr. Bill Pennebaker, professor of education, gave the benediction.

Music was provided by Carpenter's Apprentice, a Campbellsville College singing group. Winters thanked his secretary, Judi Stewart, for her help in the program.

Mrs. Eversole has taught at Roundstone two years and was a second grade teacher there two years. She was transition room teacher at Roundstone one year. She has also taught special education nine years.

Mrs. Eversole has belonged to the Kentucky and National Education Associations 14 years and Eastern Kentucky Teachers Network two years.

She has had stories published on family oral history in "Appalachian Heritage" at Berea College and Renfro Valley "Bugle."

She is a 1961 graduate of Mt. Vernon High School and received her bachelor of science degree in 1976 from Eastern Kentucky University and her master of arts in education in 1977 from EKU. She has participated in Appalachian studies in 1986 and Foxfire in 1988 at Berea College where she was a Mellon Scholar.

She and her husband, Elbert, have two sons, Eric Elbert and Ethan Henderson Eversole. Their address is Mt. Vernon.

Her parents are Hugh and Pauline Bishop Ramsey, Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Stevens has taught at Rockcastle County High School since 1972. She also taught at Brodhead, Mt. Vernon and Livingston High Schools from 1958 until 1972.

Mrs. Stevens has belonged to the Rockcastle County Education Association, the Kentucky Home Economics Education Association and the Kentucky Association of Home Economics Teachers 25 years. She has belonged to the Kentucky and National Education associations 20 years.

She has been head of the home economics department at Rockcastle County High School 18 years and advisor of Future Homemakers of

Brown member of Extension program at EKU

A Rockcastle County student is among more than 400 Eastern Kentucky University students participating this spring in EKU's Cooperative Education Program.

She is Teresa Gaye Brown of Rt. 1, Brodhead, a student dietitian at Berea Hospital.

EKU's co-op students apply principles and theories learned in the classroom to practical, on-the-job situations.

Participants also receive a salary from the participating employer, which may help to defray college expenses. Cooperative education provides exceptional opportunities for students to gain experience outside the classroom," said Ken Noah, director of cooperative education at EKU.

Combs to speak at Somerset

Dr. Rollin T. Watson, president of Somerset Community College, announced that former governor Bert T. Combs will be the commencement speaker for the college's twenty-fourth graduation ceremony.

Commencement will be held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, May 6, on the college campus. In case of rain, the ceremony will be moved to the W.B. Jones Auditorium.

Gov. Combs is considered by many the "Father of the Kentucky Community Colleges" because they were established and authorized by the legislature during his term as governor.
