Charlie Moore, Rockcastle county's oldest citizen dies at 102

Rockcastle's oldest citizen, Charlie "Pa" Moore, 102, of Livingston, died July 23, 1990.

He was a familiar face in and around Livingston for most of his lifetime. Even a year ago at 102, he was grand marshal in the Livingston Homecoming parade, enjoyed himself and posed for pictures with friends and relatives.

At that time, President George Bush sent him a letter congratulating him on his long life, as did Gov. and Mrs. Wallace Wilkinson. He was born in Laurel County Dec. 2, 1887, the son of Robert and Sarah Prewitt Moore. He was a retired railroader, farmer, construction worker, an employee of the Board of Education at Livingston School, and a member of the Livingston Christian Church.

In September 1906, he married Fannie Jones, who preceded him in death in 1940.

He is survived by a daughter-in-law, Maxine Moore of Brodhead, eight grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and nine great great-grandchildren. In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by two sons and two daughters.

A strong Republican, he recalled in a 1970 story in the Signal he would "always be a Republican," and continued,

"My brother was rebel (Democrat). That was his privilege. My dad was a 'swap-outer.' He voted one way and then another, but I don't aim to be no straddle-pole. My doctor said a body ought to vote for the best man. The best man is always a Republican. I ~~missed~~ missed a final election in my life since I started votin', I'd a voted in this election if he had to pack me in."

He was a survivor of the Depression of the 1930s. "People talks about the Hoover Depression, but I saved more money than ever before. I hauled crossties; made $4 a day. Most people was makin' 25 cents maybe 50 cents a day. But you could get a sack of flour, a sack of meal and a sack of coffee for a dollar bill. We raised a lot of our own food. We had a cow and a hog.

He noted in the interview that everybody nowadays wants a car and hit a rollick. They don't want to work. They don't know what hard work is." Services were held July 24 at Dowell and Martin Funeral Home with Bro. Billy Medley officiating.

Fair begins Saturday in Brodhead

ATTENTION: Parents of All Sixth (6th) Grade Students

These Students Must Have Record of TWO Measles-Mumps-Rubella Vaccines to Enter the 6th Grade in August 1990.

As you know, measles disease continues to be a significant health problem for our school age children. This is especially true for those students in middle high through high school. Because the vaccines used prior to 1980 were less than those currently in use, as many as 20% of these students may not be immune. Measles disease tends to be more serious for older children and adults. Therefore, it is important that these students be adequately protected.

The Kentucky Department for Health Services has recently issued a policy that requires all students to have two doses of measles-mumps-rubella (MMR) PRIOR TO ENTRY INTO SIXTH GRADE. Since the vast majority of students have already received one dose of this vaccine, only one additional dose will be required.

If you have a child in the sixth grade and there is record of only one dose having been received, then your child needs to receive a dose of MMR vaccine before the beginning of the 90-91 school year.

The local health department has adequate supplies of MMR vaccine and is giving the MMR vaccine to students now in the fifth grade. Please be aware that no child will be turned away due to an inability to pay. An alternative would be to receive the vaccine through your physician.

Thank you for your cooperation.

The rain forced three tries for the championship game of the Burnside Invitational Tournament, but Monday night when the skies cleared the Rockcastle 10-year-olds were ready and, after a loss in the first game to the Pulaski County all-stars, whom Rockcastle had beaten 24-4 Thursday night, Rockcastle won the second game handily 20-4 in 5 innings.

David Lynn King pitched two complete games for the 10-year-olds during the tournament, beating the Somerset All-Stars Tuesday night 19-17 and P.C. in the final game Monday night.

Matthew Sowder turned in an impressive performance Thursday night, going the distance against Pulaski County in Rockcastle's 24-4 win.

Then Saturday, in the battle of the unbeaten, Rockcastle's Nathan DeLeon pitched all four innings as the 10-year-olds shelled Burnside 31-8 in 4.

The tournament was originally scheduled to be finished Saturday, but after two innings of the Burnside-Pulaski Co. game to determine which team would face Rockcastle in the championship, the rains came, and play was play was rescheduled for 1 p.m. Sunday. However, on Sunday, with two outs, bases loaded in the bottom of the sixth, and Burnside at bat, the rains again came and play was halted. After a wait of about an hour, tournament officials gave the preliminary game to Pulaski County and the championship game was set for 5:30 Monday night.

In the first game, P.C. pitched Brandon White, their ace everything and although Rockcastle took an early 3-0 lead, it wasn't enough as P.C. went on to claim an 11-3 first game win.

However, in the second game, the Rockcastle All-Stars jumped on P.C.'s pitchers for an early 3-0 lead, added 8 runs in one inning and 11 in another for the final 20-4 win behind the very effective pitching of David Lynn King who had a shut-out going until the bottom of the fifth when the All-Stars gave up 4 runs.

It was a well-played game for the local all-stars. There were two awesome catches by center fielder Nathan DeLeon, the hitting was good, and there were very few errors.

Thus far, the all-stars have met the Pulaski County All-Stars 5 times in post-season tournament play and have a one game edge.

The all-stars are presently coached by Coy Taylor, Bo Brown, Larry Bullock and Linda Taylor, statistician. This week-end, the 10-year-olds will travel to Berea to participate in an invitational tournament.

by musicians, dancers and actors; an exhibit of projects completed by visual arts students; and a publication of works by the young writers.

The afternoon Performance Festival was followed by an evening ceremony where the students were presented certificates designating them graduates of the 1990 Governor's School for the Arts.

Students attending the Governor's School for the Arts were chosen based on their talents, from over 1000 applicants across the state.

Thanks to funding from the state legislature and private donors, students spend three weeks, at no cost to them, developing their talents in classes and living at Spalding University in Louisville. The program is administered by the Kentucky Center for the Arts.

The group of 135 high school juniors and seniors will meet again in November, when they return to Louisville for College/Career Day.

At that time, representatives from universities with strong arts programs meet with the students and advise them on college scholarships opportunities.

In past years, a very high percentage of Governor's School for the Arts students have won college scholarships.

companies that allegedly traded Contel securities based on inside information about the buyout.

The U.S. government would have to use international treaties to force the banks in Switzerland, West Germany and Luxembourg to identify other individuals or companies that ordered large blocks of Contel securities, Kidney said.

Union Bank of Switzerland was cooperating in the investigation and had interviewed six of the nine employees who bought Contel call options on July 10 and 11 for their own accounts, he said.

A call option is the right to buy 100 shares of a stock or stock index at a set price before a certain date.

John Dickey, an attorney for the bank, said the employees bought the securities because they noticed an increase in Contel call option trading and because a "substantial customer" had placed a large order for Contel securities.

The customer was not identified.

$1.5 million more for Rural Economic Development Center

An additional $1.5 million to build the Southern Kentucky Rural Economic Development Center has been approved by the House Appropriations Committee in Washington, at the request of Fifth District Congressman Harold Rogers.

Rogers, a committee member, said his recent trip with University of Kentucky and Southern Kentucky Agricultural Development officials to the UK research farm at Princeton in Caldwell County convinced him that the proposed center requires modern telecommunications equipment in order to be effective.

A computer network would link all 27 counties of the Fifth District with the center, which would in turn connect with Kentucky's universities and with countless information services all over the world, according to

Rogers. "The information and technology revolution is something rural America has been slow to tap into," Rogers said. "This Rural Development Center computer network will show how high technology and information systems can help create jobs and a better way of life for Southern Kentuckians."

"With (television) satellite hookups at the RDC and in all of our counties, we can set up training programs and video conferences with top experts in any field anywhere in the world, without leaving our Southern Kentucky home. The possibilities are limitless," Rogers added.

Rogers' request is included in legislation appropriating funds for agriculture programs, which awaits full House and Senate approval.

Bruce of Mt. Vernon preaching on his way. May God bless them and their families. I'm sure, so thankful for the good rain that we received last week. It had been so dry for some time, all vegetation was drying up, but now, thanks be to God, everything looks so pretty and green. Many times during our busy life we forget to praise and thank God for His many blessings. We need to be on speaking terms with Him at all times.

Hubert and I enjoyed our visit with Elmer and Edith Hale of Roundstone last Tuesday evening. Elmer is slowly improving from his illness. He spent a few days in the Berca Hospital recently. Elmer's many friends wish him a speedy recovery and we all miss Elmer and Edith so much at church. They have our love and prayers.

Baptismal services were held at our church Sunday evening - may God bless and keep the young man that was baptized.

The Saylor Reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tip Reppert and Melody of the Scaffold Cane area on Sunday June 17th. A large crowd attended (80 in number) and they all had a great time and enjoyed the day being together.

Melody Reppert recently spent ten days with her aunt, Mrs. Hildrey Smith in Houston, Texas. She always has a great time on her vacation there. Hubert and I visited Mrs. Irene Barnett of Mt. Vernon last Tuesday morning. We also visited with her granddaughters Tena Mullins and Sonya Robinson who were there.

Tena's little infant son Joshua Eli (one month old) was so cute and such a healthy looking child. The Barnett family has been good friends of ours for many years. I always enjoy seeing them.

Mrs. Jean Hayes of Winchester spent Saturday night and Sunday with her mother Mrs. Mary Cape. Her other two daughters Helen Powell and Christine Barnett of Berea visited her during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ingram and daughter Penny of Berea visited Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander and Kenny Thursday.

Mrs. Irene Alexander and two children and her sister Lorene Napier visited another sister Mrs. John Thomas and Mr. Thomas of Georgetown last weekend.

Our recent guests have been our daughter Joyce Seals and husband James and his mother Mrs. Mary Mullins of Berea. Donald Chastent of Conway, Gerald Alexander, near Fairview and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harbin of Florida and Bert Gene Garbin of Hamilton, Ohio.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Gabbard is Mrs. Gabbard's sister-in-law Mrs. Clance Wilson of Fairmount, Ga.

Margaret Marie Turpin of Akron, Ohio recently spent two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Tip Reppert and Melody. Mrs. Turpin is the daughter of the late Collie Belle Scott of Berea.

Please attend Sunday School and church every time you can. God is good to us and we all need to attend worship services and thank Him for all the wonderful blessings He gives us. God bless you all.

On July 18, the students of Destination Graduation went to EKU, WKYT-TV, and UK to enrich their educational experiences. First the students went to EKU to hear from Charles Sweet and Hal Blythe, who are professors at EKU and mystery writers. They go by the pen name Hal Charles and have written for various magazines. The two expressed the importance of writing and just how fun writing can be. The authors were humorous, informative and enjoyable.

Next the students went to WKYT-Channel 27 where they toured the building. The tour guide was a student at UK and informed the students very well. They were shown the studio and told how the newscast goes into production. The students went behind the news desk to see what it is like to be a newscaster.

At UK the students toured the Nutter Building where the UK football team trains. They saw their weightlifting room and where they get ready for games and practice. From there they went to the UK library and saw a display on frontier nursing in Southeast Kentucky. They also saw displays about Appalachian writers including Wilma Dyckeman whom they had studied in summer school.

From the library the students went to the Robotics Center where they saw how robots are made and used. Finally, the students went to Memorial Coliseum where the women's volleyball coach talked to us about sports at U.K. They also toured the workout area, and then returned home after a very educational day.

Individuals attend solid waste planning session

Nearly 180 individuals from 80 counties attended a solid waste management planning session in Frankfort earlier this month to learn more about the new planning requirements and the availability of financial assistance for local solid waste projects.

The two-day session, sponsored by the Kentucky Division of Waste Management, was held to assist counties in updating their solid waste management plans.

Counties are beginning to review their 20-year solid waste management plans as the required five-year plan update cycle begins. Since 1984, counties have had to develop and implement plans -- detailed documents that call for specific actions toward proper management of the area's solid waste. The first cycle of solid waste management plans were approved by the division between 1985 and 1988.

The intent of local solid waste management plans is to promote the development of integrated waste management systems that include waste reduction, resource recovery and recycling, waste-to-energy incineration and landfilling. Components of the local plans include public education, resource conservation and recycling, collection, disposal, open dump elimination and financial accountability.

"We are encouraged by the number of participants and particularly the number of counties represented at the planning session," said Lisa De-therage, who directs solid waste planning in the Division Management. Participants, which included county officials, solid waste coordinators and representatives of area development districts and consulting firms, heard presentations on the new solid waste planning regulations that require more documentation and accountability.

In updating their plans, counties will be required to give the highest priority to activities that improve collection and provide for proper disposal of solid waste, eliminate open dumps and promote resource recovery and recycling. Improvements in collection services must include full participation of all residents by 1995. Formal agreements must be secured with permitted facilities for waste disposal through the 20-year planning period. Enforcement efforts at the county level must be increased to prevent littering and open dumping. Local recycling activities must be increased to prevent littering and open dumping. Local recycling activities must be increased to reduce waste.

"Just as officials know they must plan for water resources and new sewer lines, they also realize that waste management is an essential part of local infrastructure," said Waste Management division Director Susan Bush.

To assist counties in updating their solid waste plans, the 1990 General Assembly appropriated $800,000 in matching grants for distribution during the next two years. To be eligible for grant monies, counties will be required to implement universal garbage collection.

To carry out the goals and objectives of their solid waste management plans, counties will be able to apply for financial assistance from the Solid Waste Revolving Fund. Created by the 1990 General Assembly, the fund provides $4 million for grants and $16 million for low-interest loans to Kentucky communities. Access to these dollars will also be tied to universal collection. Regulations carrying application criteria for the grants and loans are being drafted.

Our Readers Write

Dear Mr. Editor:

In my fifth floor apartment there are scenic windows spanning the full length of the apartment. The dense trees on the towering hills, waving in the breeze afford a second home for the birds that escape the Cincinnati Zoo, a short distance away. I am reminded of Nat King Cole, singing "Those Lazy, Hazy, Crazy Days of Summer." As I went on day dreaming, I really thought I was living back in the fifties where all seemed fairly serene.

On the cocktail table lies a Cincinnati Enquirer, with head lines of the brutal murder of a young man as his wife walked with him down the steps of the Music Hall, where they had been to see the ballet. The man was beaten to death with rocks, a necklace and handbag were taken from the wife and the hoodlums fled.

I was reminded that this kind of tragedy occurs everyday. Will we ever see those lazy, hazy, crazy days again? I am so sorry to write I think NOT. It is all too much like the Holy Bible stories.

Where, Mr. Editor will it all end? With a world judgement Day?

I remain thank fully

A Weekly Report from
Fifth District
Congressman Hal Rogers

Overspending: Business as Usual Among Liberal House Leadership

The leadership of Congress has lost control of federal spending.

Congress spends so much more than it receives in taxes that the federal debt has ballooned to $3.2 trillion, leaving a bill of nearly $13,000 for every man, woman, and child in the United States. The federal debt alone will increase this year by more than $160 billion, more than the entire federal government spent in 1968. In fact, nearly one out of four of your tax dollars goes just toward paying interest on the debt.

Without regard for the burden they are placing on future generations, the liberal leadership refuses to heed calls to discipline its spending habits.

They refuse to take the President's advice for disciplining spending. They ignore his budgets to reduce wasteful programs. They deny the President the line-item veto to cut excess "pork" from spending legislation.

The leadership in Congress flouts even the laws that Congress has passed to discipline our spending. Congress enacted the Gramm-Rudman Deficit Reduction Act, which mandates automatic reductions in spending if the Congress fails to rein-in its spending. And yet, year after year, with blue smoke and mirrors and accounting gimmicks which would land businessmen in jail, the Congressional leadership finds ways to evade the discipline of the Gramm-Rudman law.

Most recently, they defeated a proposed amendment to the Constitution, which would have mandated that Congress spend no more than the coffers contain. In doing so, the Congressional leadership ignored even the wishes of the voters, who in poll after poll have demanded that Congress limit its spending to its income.

The only authority the leadership in Congress will heed is that of the U.S. Constitution enforced by the Supreme Court, which is why I supported a Constitutional amendment demanding that Congress balance the federal budget with no ifs, ands, or buts. With a Balanced Budget Constitutional Amendment, Congress would be forced to limit its spending.

Unfortunately, the amendment failed to pass by seven votes. The liberals, who publicly call for reduced spending, and then spend with abandon behind closed committee doors, united to defeat this Constitutional discipline against overspending.

In the wake of the Balanced Budget Amendment's defeat, the bipartisan Budget Summit called by the President deliberates how to hold next year's spending in line with the Gramm-Rudman guidelines. The negotiators have a difficult road ahead, since they already expect Congress to spend $100 billion more than Gramm-Rudman will allow next year.

New taxes surely are not the answer. For every dollar in new taxes that Congress collected during the 1980s, Congress spent $1.58. No wonder we face huge deficits today.

Fortunately, President Bush, when he called the Summit, demanded more than another business-as-usual short-term solution to Congressional overspending. He wants Congress to discipline itself over the long haul, to stop the spiraling increase of federal debts that the liberals controlling Congress are leaving to our children.

For the very future of the nation, I hope the President succeeds.

Rogers' financial problems continue

The Bank of Mt. Vernon has filed a cross claim against property of state Sen. John Rogers of Somerset asking that the bank's lien against all of Rogers' property be given priority over all other financial claims against the senator.

The cross claim was filed after Citizens National Bank of Somerset sued Rogers and his wife, Debra, seeking foreclosure on three tracts of land off Ky. 80, west of Somerset, totalling more than 85 acres and Rogers home in Hillendale Subdivision.

Sen. Rogers, the Kentucky Senate Republican minority leader, represents Rockcastle in the Senate.

Also filing cross claims in Putaski Circuit Court are two other banks, First State Bank of Manchester and First and Farmers Bank of Somerset claiming they are owed debts totalling more than $275,000.

Citizens Bank alleges Sen. Rogers owes nearly $400,000 in principal and interest on two promissory notes. The Bank of Mt. Vernon was awarded a $95,000 judgment against Rogers in 1987 and has filed the cross claim asking that its lien against all of Rogers' property be given a priority over all others.

The Bank of Mt. Vernon brought suit against Rogers on Sept. 17, 1985 claiming nonpayment of three promissory notes totalling $89,023.97. In 1986, when the senator failed to pay off the notes, the bank garnished his legislative salary.

At that time, Board Chairman, Jerry Ikard said the bank would be willing to drop the suit if the debt was repaid. He added that he was not angry with Rogers failure to repay the debt.

Again at that time, in an affidavit, Rogers said he used the money to refinance an original campaign loan made in 1980 when he ran unsuccessfully against incumbent U.S. Rep. Harold Rogers for the 5th Congressional seat.

As a result of the garnishment, Rogers was ordered to pay $260.20 from his $1,500 paycheck he received every 15 days while the Senate is in session, in front of the clerk.

During the 5th District race for the GOP Congressional nomination, Sen. Rogers outspent Rep. Harold Rogers (no relation) $200,000 to $65,000 but finished fourth in the race, leaving $100,000 in personal debts.

Rogers refinanced his original loan with promissory notes dated Oct. 6, Oct. 21 and Nov. 29, 1983.

In response to the Citizens Bank original complaint, Rogers claimed the loan amounts and mortgages listed are incorrect and requests the court to determine the actual amounts.

Court records show the Manchester bank holds a $75,000 mortgage on 90 acres or more of land on Ky. 80 west of Somerset, of which two tracts are the same as those listed by Citizens Bank. First and Farmers Bank claims to have a August 1977 mortgage of $68,000 on Rogers home secured by a $187,000 note dated July 13, 1988, and a $115,000 mortgage on a lot on Ky. 80, west, and a lot in Eagles Nest Subdivision on Ky. 39 north of Somerset.

2.50 inches of rain in July

A total of 2.50 inches of rain has fallen in Mt. Vernon during the first 23 days of July, according to records at Cox Funeral Home weather station.

Most of the rain, 1.05 inches, fell Sunday in at least three heavy downpours that crossed the city. However, some areas of the county had considerably more rain than in Mt. Vernon.

Several wrecks occurred in Rockcastle County Monday including a hit and run and a motorcycle accident. Around noon Daniel and Sandra Thornton of Bradenton Florida were traveling south on I-75 when they were forced into the median by a coal truck. Daniel Thornton, 45, told police that when he tried to re-enter the passing lane of the interstate he was hit in the side by a transfer truck. After being struck by the truck his 1987 Ford Bronco traveled across the median and struck the guardrail on the northbound side. Thornton was treated and released at the Rockcastle Hospital and his wife, Sandra 49, was transferred to the University of Kentucky Medical Center where she is listed in serious but stable condition. In the above photo Richard Pappker, 29, of Wisconsin lost control of his motorcycle and received only minor injuries. That accident occurred around 3 p.m.

GTE, Contel merger questioned

Investigation proceeded this week into GTE. Contel plans to merge the two telephone systems when it was learned nine Swiss bank employees bought Contel stock before the merger was announced.

The disclosure indicated the possibility of illegal activities, better known as inside trading, in the $6 billion merger.

The Union Bank of Switzerland employees were the latest to be mentioned in a Securities and exchange investigation of the alleged inside trading.

Contel operates in 16 Kentucky counties, including Rockcastle, and has 69,558 customers with the largest exchange in London with 12,000 customers.

GTE, based in Stanford, Conn., provides phone service to more than 14 million customers in 31 states. In Kentucky, GTE's largest exchange is Lexington with 131,000 subscribers and 321,638 customers in 33 Kentucky counties.

When and if the merger takes place, GTE would have 391,196 customers, but would not be near the 800,000 customers of South Central Bell which serves 78 counties.

James A. Kidney, an attorney with the SEC, also said the commission was investigating trading activity involving a bid by Rainers Group PLC to buy Kay Jewelers Inc. on July 2.

Rainers Group, Britain's largest jewelry chain, offered $328 million to acquire Kay Jewelers, a retailer based in Alexandria, Va.

Some of the foreign accounts involved in the Contel-GTE investigation also "seem to have been doing a lot of trading in Kay Jewelers," Kidney said.

The SEC alleged in court papers filed July 13 - the day after the Contel-GTE merger was announced - that "individuals or entities whose identities are yet unknown" used inside information about the deal to make profits of at least $1 million.

On Friday, the SEC named four West Germans and three European

New emergency number for Mt. Vernon residents

As a reminder, effective Aug. 1 the telephone number for all emergency calls for the Mt. Vernon police Department will be 256-2121.

On Aug. 1, the City of Mt. Vernon will begin operations of its own police and fire communications center, manned 24 hours by professionally trained communications officers.

This telephone number should be considered for emergency use only, and will reach a city police and fire dispatcher who will transmit all calls to city police units on duty.

The emergency telephone number will also be used for the Mt. Vernon Fire Department, who will continue to answer all fire calls in its designated city/county fire district as before.

The number change should reflect a more efficient way in which calls are answered and dispatched to both police and fire units.

Interviews begin next week Three apply for assistant's job at Brodhead

By: Richard Anderkin

Three local educators have applied for the asst. principal's job at Brodhead Elementary School.

Rockcastle school superintendent Bige Towery Jr., said Wednesday that Mark McKinney, Ona Kaye Owens and Glen Vanwinkle had applied for the job, left vacant, when Sue Hamm retired at the end of the school year in May.

Last Tuesday was the deadline for applications. Towery said that the interview portion of the hiring process would begin next Tuesday.

A five member panel and Towery will interview the candidates for the job.

Members of the committee are Brodhead principal Tom Payne Jr., central office staffers Richard Bray and Shelby Reynolds and Brodhead teachers Judy Doyle and Katherine Bradley.

McKinney, who is presently assistant principal at Mt. Vernon Elementary School, taught math and science at Mt. Vernon High School from 1967 to 1972. In 1976, he taught at the Rockcastle County High School and in 1977 he taught at Brodhead Elementary School. In 1978 he took the assistant's job at Mt. Vernon.

Glen Vanwinkle taught at the Rockcastle County High School from 1972 until he took over as principal at Roundstone Elementary in 1981. Vanwinkle was at Roundstone until he asked for a transfer in 1984. Since then he has been coordinator of the JTPA program at RCHS where he works in drop-out prevention.

Ona Kaye Owens began teaching in the local system in 1968. She taught one year at Livingston Elementary and the rest of the time she has been at Brodhead. She presently teaches fifth grade.

Clara Napier a teacher at Mt. Vernon Elementary School had applied for the job, but withdrew his application.

Towery said that following the interviews, he would meet with the committee and principal Payne before coming to a decision. He said he hoped to have a decision soon.

As of July 13th, all of the hiring and firing in the school system is done by the Superintendent. Towery said that he may have a decision to announce to the board by the August 7th board meeting but he wasn't sure.

Under the new reform act, the board will have no say in any hirings and the Superintendent will simply inform them of his actions.

Teachers report for work on August 15th

School starts for all Rockcastle County teachers on August 15th. They will attend two full days of inservice at the Rockcastle County High School on the 15th and the 16th and they will work at their respective schools for a half day on August 17th.

Students begin school on August 20th

Students will enroll in school this year on Monday August 20th. They will attend only until 11:30 a.m. on opening day, but teachers will remain at school to work on their records the entire day.

All sixth grade students must have record of two Measles-Mumps-Rubella vaccines to enroll in school, because vaccines continue to be a significant health problem for school age children.

Corbin woman arrested after interstate chase

A high speed chase on I-75 early Sunday resulted in the arrest of a Corbin woman on three charges.

Sheriff Partin was arrested on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicants, attempting to elude police and no operator's license in possession.

Deputy Sheriff Phillip Chestnut stopped the Partin woman near the Rockcastle-Laurel counties line after he was alerted by officers at the Kentucky State Police Post at Richmond that a red car was headed south at speeds up to 100 miles an hour. Ms. Partin passed Chestnut at the Burr Interchange and he gave chase.

She posted a $250 bond for her appearance in District Court Aug. 22. Sheriff Shirley Smith, Mfs. Smith and Deputy Chestnut found and destroyed 176 marijuana plants in the Big Sandy area of Seaford Cane July 17.

Deputy Chestnut said the sheriff's office was alerted to the locations of two plots of plants near each other. He said the plants were waist high in some places, had high in others, and well fertilized.

County agent says tobacco crop good

The recent rains "made all the difference in the world in our crops," County Extension Agent Tom Mills reported this week.

"Now that we've had rains, I think all the crops will improve, in fact, they already are improving," Mills said.

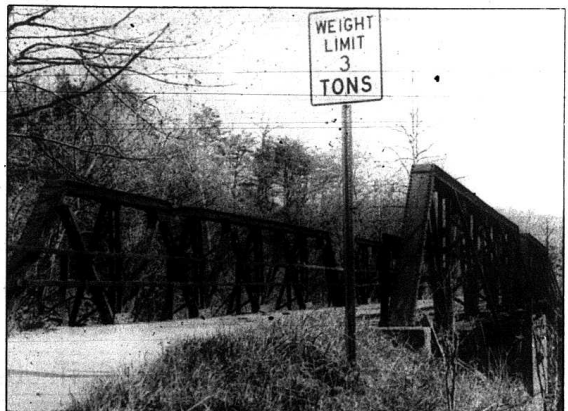

He reported the early cool, damp weather caused premature blooming in some tobacco, then the dry weather caused stress.

"But now that we have had more rain, I think the tobacco crop will come out and be much better than last year," Mills added. Although, tobacco may turn out to be a good crop, some growers have had tobacco blooming that is no more than foot high. There also has been short plant mingled in with taller plants.

Considering gardens, Mills said there has been some early blooming, and rot on tomatoes, but generally gardens are good, especially those that were watered, something needed regularly.

Locally, vegetables have started to appear, with tomatoes and corn leading the way. Mills related that there has not been a good second cutting of hay this year because of the stretch of dry weather. But again, now that there has been rain, hay will probably be good.

The Kentucky Highway Department will begin work this week on the one lane bridge on Chestnut Grove Road. The bridge will be completely re-done and the road will be blacktopped. The bridge has been condemned by the highway department for some time.

Points East

By: Ike Adams

The next time I go to Chicago and a hotel clerk asks me if I'm scared of heights, I'm gonna make him be a little more specific. Cause when I was there last Thursday night, I said I wasn't. Then you won't mind the thirty third floor?" he asked.

"Not if it's got a room with a bed in it," I told him. So, he gave me two keys on a holder marked 3311.

My ears popped three times before the elevator stopped. When it finally did, they were already ready to pop again. They were right at the point where I couldn't have heard it thunder and it just stopped. Five more feet and I'd have been alright but I stepped out into the hallway deaf as a fence post. Holding my nose shut and trying to blow through it to build up enough pressure to make my ears pop.

All of a sudden, I felt light headed. Like I was going to stumble if I didn't catch myself. And, my ears popped about the same time and I figured my momentary dizziness had something my nose blowing too hard through time that that was dangerous. But one didn't last more than two or three seconds and, after a minute or two, I didn't think anymore about it.

I walked into the room, kicked back on the bed and turned on the television. Everything's remote control these days in the big city and it does have some advantages, not that getting up and down to change channels is any great chore. Anyway, I guess I had there half an hour or longer just figuring out what they get on television in Chicago before I stood up again. When I did, a tiny, just noticeable little dizziness hit me again. Just there and gone.

And, I thought to myself, that it felt vaguely familiar. I knew that I had experienced the same sensation before, but I couldn't place it. After a bit, I picked up the newspaper and began reading something about the Iran earthquake and I bolted upright. Earthquake. Several years ago, I was standing around talking to some friends and everyone of us experienced the same sensation. One of those deals where we glanced around for a minute or two before somebody asked, "Did any of you all feel something funny a year ago?" and everybody else says "YEAH!" and feels relieved instead of foolish.

That evening on the news, we found out that we'd had a mild tremor related to an earthquake. And I had that precise feeling standing in the middle of the floor in room 3311. Six hundred and some few feet above the pavement of North Columbia Drive. Nowhere near where I'd want to be in the middle of an earthquake.

My heart beat tripled and I told myself not to panic. I looked out the window and although the automobiles looked twice as long, they seemed to be getting about fairly normally. No sirens screaming. No warning horns.

I switched the television onto a Chicago station. No little lines of information going across the bottom of the screen to let us know about the earthquake. Still no alarm was being sounded to however million folks who live in Chicago and it happened again. Just enough to feel. To know that my balance wasn't exactly right. I called the front desk.

"Did you all feel anything strange just a minute ago?" I wanted to know. "Sir?"

"Is this blankety blank, thus and such, etc. building shaking!" "I beg your pardon. "Dumfounded innocence on the other end of the line. The guy's voice sounded as if he'd poured molasses on it.

"Would you like us to move you down to the eleventh floor?" he asked. "I have a vacancy on 11." All business now, but he never did answer my question. "I asked if you were afraid of heights." is all I could get out of him.

"Has anyone ever suspected an earthquake was in progress in this room before?" I queried.

"We've had guests request that they be moved down a few floors on several occasions Mr. Adams. Some people are simply scared of heights," he replied, still refusing to answer my questions.

"Hey, I think I know you," I told him. "Didn't you used to work at a used car lot in Frankfurt?" He hung up on me.

Chicago is a windy place and it does blow all the time. Hard. Clothes would dry on a line in ten minutes if you could keep them fastened on. Every once in a while a larger than normal gust will pop and make a sound sort of like whipping a wet towel around the side of a building.

Apparently the force of the wind was just enough to make the pressure inside my hotel room switch around now and then and that was where my earthquake was coming from. So, I stayed in the room. I don't want a used cars salesman thinking I'm scared of anything cause most of 'em are mad at me right now.

Still, the next time I go to Chicago and they ask me what floor I'd like to stay on, I intend to see if they have anything in the cellar.

ATTENTION, Members of Western Rockcastle Water Association

Do you pay your water bill? I do! Are you satisfied with the service you are receiving? I am not!

It is my opinion that Western Water has been grossly mismanaged by inept management personnel. We are receiving substandard service while paying the highest water rates in the county. All the water districts receive their water from the same source, but we at Western seem to experience the most problems. What does this tell you? Got any ideas yet? The time for complaining and crying is past! Your complaints have fallen on deaf ears. The time for action is at hand! We as voting members can and will control the future service of Western Water.

DON'T GET MAD!!
GET WHAT YOU ARE PAYING FOR!!
TAKE CONTROL WITH YOUR VOTE!!

The next scheduled meeting of the Western Water board is Tuesday, August 7, 1990 at 7:00 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Western Water office on Richmond Street in Mt. Vernon.

I urge all members to attend, but if you cannot, please sign the attached form and return it to me either in person or by mail. YOUR VOICE WILL BE HEARD!! Make sure your neighbors are informed. If we all get involved, we can resolve these problems.

STAND UP FOR WHAT YOU ARE PAYING FOR!!

Charting Rockcastle

No doubt the sweeping education reform recently passed in the state of Kentucky was needed, but a few thoughts about the reform act concern a lot of people.

Many of those concerns center around school-based management, a relatively new idea that will probably change Kentucky schools as much as any other aspect of the Education Reform Act.

For one, am I concerned about school-based management because I think it will increase politics in county schools instead of decreasing them.

For instance, a local school council is formed. On that council are teachers, parents, and the principal. They make all of the decisions. All of them—from hiring the basketball coach to the cooks and janitors. All the superintendent does is provide the council with a list from which to choose.

The council then does the hiring as well as set the budget and they virtually control all aspects of the school. The school is subject to far less regulation by the state and the local school board.

The main thing the state looks at is the school's performance on test scores and as long as they stay good the council proceeds as they see fit.

Sounds great and, if it works properly, it will give control of our local schools to the teachers and parents where it should be.

But, not everything goes according to plan and school-based management has the potential to be very corrupt and political.

For instance, the principal appoints the teachers on the council and the largest parent organization selects the parents.

It would be crazy for a principal to put anyone on that council that does not agree with his or her policies and the teachers and the principal would have the majority vote on the council, if they vote together on all matters. That would leave the two parents without any say - if it occurred that way. There is hope that will not occur and that everyone will work together, but we all know that most of the time when there are five people in a crowd there are five opinions.

From all indications, Rockcastle County High School will participate in the program in the coming school year so I guess we will just have to wait and see how that goes.

One other aspect of the school reform that concerns a lot of people is the fact that school superintendents across the state have complete control of hiring and firing employees.

As of July 13th, a superintendent can hire and fire without consulting the local board.

Although I don't think it will be a problem here the potential is also there to create the most political situation ever.

In many school systems, and who knows it could occur here some years down the road, only allies of the superintendent could be hired and those he or she considers enemies would have no chance of employment. The only restriction on a superintendent is that he notify the state 30 days before he plans to fill it. Once filled he must then notify the state that it has been filled.

The local board approves none of the hirings and firings. None at all. That, my friends, could create some bad situations in the state and particularly Eastern Kentucky.

As I travel throughout the county I meet many, many people who are concerned about the crime in our county.

They, and I have to agree, say that the problem is the fact that we don't do anything to the criminals in this county.

A friend of mine said that the criminals know that if they do get caught they probably want get anything out of it and from the way things seem to be going in the courts, they are probably right.

And then there are those that don't get caught for whatever reason. I know for a fact that one man, who was recently indicted for a serious crime, has no driver's license but he continues to drive whenever and wherever he pleases and some of our authorities know about it, but have done nothing.

Many Rockcastle countians have been victims of crime and our family is certainly no exception. In the past fifteen years we have been broken into four times, we have had vehicles, bicycles, lawnmowers, fishing equipment, purses and money stolen by thieves.

Of course many other people have experienced much worse crimes and I know we are sick of it and would like to see something done as would most Rockcastle countians. But, the only thing we can do is voice our concerns at the polls and we don't seem to be ready or willing to do that, at least we haven't in the past.

Sweet & Sour by Zi Graves

Sights and Sounds

There are many kinds of sounds. Some are pleasant and some are very unpleasant. What is music to one person's ears is pain to another.

This morning as I was cleaning up the mess made by peeling peaches for freezing and canning and was gloating over all the cobbler I'd be able to make, a noise attracted me from outside the window. What a pleasant and nostalgic sound it was and went right along with my mood. Its always around the time of ripening peaches and summer apples that Katydids make their appearance. This was not the first one I'd heard but it was the one that triggered my memory of pleasant and unpleasant sounds.

Katydid's their peculiar sound are a harbinger of fall days ahead. Each season has its own particular sounds and most of us find ourselves unconsciously listening for them. Those we listen for are nature's own way of saying, "it's time for a change of seasons."

After the gloom of January and February we suddenly hear a throaty little sound coming from our meadows and ponds and our hearts give a leap and we call out to those inside. "I hear frogs!" It doesn't matter if there are still days of snow and ice ahead we have already heard the frogs saying, "Spring is almost here." Then it seems almost suddenly the lawn is filled with robins on their way north to give the folks there the same mescreates was the only sound heard in this muffled scene.

There was an unseen artist showing off His delicate handwork that can never be imitated by man. Thank you God for allowing me to witness this.

This is the time of year we can almost hear an audible wawn and feel nature setch as she awakens from her winters nap.

Now instead of softly falling snow we hear rain pounding down and when the storm passes a glorious sun appears. This is the combination that brings forth leaves to cover those naked trees and flowers to brighten the bare ground.

This is when we throw open our doors and open our windows wide to let out the stale air of winter to be replaced with sun warmed air.

The sound of tractors revving up reminds us that spring is the time to prepare the soil for another harvest. In the not too distant past it was the sound of going and having to a team of mules that was heard.

Other than these sounds, spring is a quiet and beautiful season. It reminds me of a good cup of coffee after a night's sleep.

It is along about this time I begin to listen for the call of the whip-poor-will. This strange night bird has a call that once heard is never forgotten, a whip-poor-will, like the little frog is a harbinger of a new season and we greet both with joy.

distance sometimes and it sounds as if a conversation is going on. There will be a pause between and after each call and then an answering one. At other times they will be close by and the whip-poor-wills will be so fast and close together it sounds as if they will lose their breath. Often we have sat outside and put up with the gnats and mosquitoes just to listen to them serenade us.

This is the sound of a summer's eve along with the buzzing of mosquitoes over our heads. I liken this sound to that of a dive bomber seeking its prey. The Bzzzzing gets louder just before it strikes its target then all is quiet until the victim lies out a yell as he slaps madly at the spot of landing. Also there are ormy little gnats that do their best to imitate their larger version of noise and pain and do a great job of it. They attack in the day time as well as evening and their ability to make us slap and scratch is just as great.

Summer sounds would not be complete without the buzzing of bees of all kinds. I can't even imagine a berry field where the juiciest of the lot are hiding in the midst of the thorn patch, without big bees buzzing all around them. They go together like jam and biscuits.

Then there is the sound of splashing water as it receives kids, or adults who simply love water, into its cool depths. There's nothing like the feel

Canning Summer Squash

The new Complete Guide to Home Canning from the U.S./Department of Agriculture does not include instructions for canning summer squash such as yellow squash and zucchini.

"The USDA decided to omit summer squash because of the poor quality of canned squash," said Fudeko Mayuyama, food and nutrition specialist for the Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service. Though most people prefer to freeze summer squash, it may be canned safely, she said.

Because summer squash grows close to the ground and comes in contact with garden soil, high numbers of Clostridium botulinum spores may be found on their surfaces.

If these bacteria are able to survive and grow inside a jar of food, they can produce a poisonous toxin. Even a taste of food containing this toxin can be fatal, said Maruyama.

Therefore, the USDA recommends peeling summer squash before canning it. The squash then are cooked and processed for the same length of time as cubed pumpkin and winter squash.

This process may seem long, but because the summer squash turn mushy, heat is slow to penetrate the center of the jar. This severe process is necessary to destroy the Clostridium botulinum spores.

Summer Squash: Wash and pare squash. Trim ends. Cut squash into 1/2 inch slices or into chunks of uniform size. Boil 20 minutes in water.

For every disappointment that ever comes your way there will also be happiness upon another day

Sometimes there will be failure in things you try to do but with both faith and fortitude success will come to you

When life appears its darkest and clouds obscure your view and know that behind to find the sun come shining through

The faith that posess in God is never placed in vain it will sustain and be your guide life's finer things to gain.

Fill jars with slices or chunks and cooking liquid, leaving one inch of headspace. Adjust lids and process.

Perspective

Proclamation
Wallace G. Wilkinson
Governor
Commonwealth of Kentucky

How much is a local health department worth? In an average day, we inspect 27 restaurants, 15 grocery stores, 2 motels or hotels, 6 mobile home parks, 121 new sewer systems, 4 schools, 14 milk producers and 2 food manufacturers. We provide 2,700 family planning visits, 651 WIC (Women, Infants & Children) visits, 263 prenatal visits and 110 well-child visits. We lend 25 child safety seats, and train 9 more local professionals in care of diabetes patients. We provide 1,400 immunizations, 726 fluoride mouthrinses, 564 home health visits, 211 hypertension education visits and 353 Pap smears along with breast self-examination instructions.

On an average day, we add about 1,200 new patients, many of them too poor to afford private care, but not poor enough to qualify for a Medicaid card. I haven't even mentioned our programs in health education, radiation and product safety, laboratory work and health planning, among others.

Not a bad day's work for a system that gets less than two percent of the state's budget. When Kentucky government spends a typical ten dollars, we get 16¢. Think how much we could do if we got 18¢. Or maybe even a whole quarter....

"Sweet and Sour" (Cont. From A4)

and sound of a stream of clear cool water one can dive into and feel as well as hear the splash that comes when contact is made. Belly-whoppers give the biggest splash. Then while lying flat on your back floating listen to the ripples as the water slaps on a lone rock on the shore. That is a super sound and feel of summertime. One of the greatest joys of my life has been swimming. Whether it be in a cool mountain stream, a wide flowing river like the Ohio, the pounding waves of an ocean or a heated pool, I like to do my bathing suit and dive in. It is one of the healthiest and most fun sports there is for old and young alike. I miss the invigorating thrill of it.

There are other sounds associated with summer such as thunderstorms and rain on the roof that I'll let you remember while I reminisce about autumn.

Autumn is my favorite season. This is the time of year when the air is warm but crisp. It is also the time for the most beautiful colors nature can create. People drive for hundreds of miles just to view the glorious show the woodlands put on.

Some trees seem to be ablaze with their scarlet leaves shimmering in the fall sunlight. Some are more subdued and add a touch like an arranger has placed them there. Then to all this color a few evergreens are always present. The woodlands seem to be a huge bouquet of ever-changing shades and colors.

The sound of the leaves rustling to the ground has a soothing quality that makes one want to stay awhile longer to just walk in them and breathe deeply the crisp fragrance of them.

When I was a child one of my delights was to rake these leaves into huge piles and dive into them. I still like to see them as a covering for my lawn. I always dread the task of raking them for then my colorful blanket is gone.

The smell of burning leaves can be one of the most pleasant smells there is and can be classed in the same category as bacon frying in the early morning. It can also be a frightening smell for those of us who live in wooded areas.

Here the smell of burning leaves can mean another sound, that can chill one's blood, will follow. That will be the roaring sound of a forest fire and flames crackling through the branches. It also means pollution that may cause some people ending up in the hospital coughing and wheezing. These are unpleasant sounds. Many people are severely allergic to smoke including leaf smoke. There should be laws that are enforced to ban all burning of leaves. They should be ground up instead and the pulp used for a natural fertilizer. These leaves drifting from the trees and leaving bare branches ever reaching toward the sky is preparing us for the colorful holiday season ahead.

Different sounds now become dominate. Not the wittering of birds and the song of the Katydids but the sound of hunting dogs chasing their prey is heard night and day. At night they howl mournfully at the moon or some distant dog. And in the day time they can often be seen chasing a deer across the fields. This means hunting season is with us again and Thanksgiving will soon be here.

The hunting instinct is stronger at this time of year, or so it seems, for it was the time of year our forefathers always hunted and laid up the meat for winter use. I guess these poor modern day animals can't get that out of their system even though they, like man, get all their nourishment from the market place.

Modern day Thanksgivings are celebrated with turkeys from the deli or already cooked hams. And instead of sleigh bells being the sound of merriment the T.V. is the entertainment. The only other noise associated with the dinner may be an occasional belch from an embarrassed overstuffed diner.

The chattering going on is about the new season that Thanksgiving introduces, Christmas.

From now on until after Christmas Day bells will be ringing on every street corner. Some of them will be rung by lassies in Salvation Army uniforms and they will be holding nice little pots in their cold hands to receive your offering. This will be used to help the unfortunate they serve. Other bells will swing from the street lights along with all the lights and garlands of greenery. These bells are the symbol of gladness, ringing out the news a Saviour is born.

Other sounds of winter begin to appear. One of them I remember is the creaking snow under my feet as I walked. Ice has a way of popping and cracking just before it breaks and slides off the roof.

Then there is the sound of a fire crackling in the fire place, and of pop corn popping in an open kettle. All these sounds have scents that match them.

And so --- a whole year of sounds and smells are wrapped up and put away while we take our winter nap and wait for another spring.

Your House of Worship is a Good Place To Cool Off

Every summer many articles appear in newspapers and magazines, filled with advice on how to "beat the heat." We are told how to dress and what to eat and drink, cautioned to avoid sunstroke, and warned against leaving small children or animals in a hot car. All of this is good advice, particularly since many of us are not so fortunate as to have a swimming pool or some body of water handy, or to live and work in an air conditioned environment. Another good suggestion during these summer dog days is to attend your House of Worship. You'll find it very cool and pleasant inside, and you will receive the same spiritual refreshment now as at any other time of the year. Remember that the love of God is right there with you, to help you "keep your cool."
