Sarah Ramsey

Mrs. Sarah 'Sadie' Parrett Ramsey, 82, of Mt. Vernon died, Jan. 27, 1991 at the Rockcastle Hospital. She was born in Mt. Vernon, Jan. 3, 1909, the daughter of Cornelius and Tabitha Pennington Parrett. She was a member of the Mt. Vernon Christian Church where she taught Sunday School for 40 years.

Survivors include a son, Benjamin I. Ramsey of Richmond and a daughter, Linda Ramsey Ashley of Marshfield, Massachusetts; four grandchildren and four great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, William Ramsey, a brother and two sisters. Services were Jan. 29 at Dowell and Martin Funeral Home with Bro. Eddie Hammond officiating. Burial was in the Elmwood Cemetery.

Memorials are suggested to the Mt. Vernon First Christian Church. Pallbearers were David Henderson, Terry Owens, James Earl Hammons, Don Ramsey, Billy Dowell and Leo Hopkins.

Maudie Collier

Mrs. Maudie Cromer Collier, 64, died Jan. 9, 1991 in Norwalk, Calif. She was the daughter of William Albert Cromer and Provie Overbey Cromer and a member of the Church of Christ.

She is survived by a daughter, Linda Warner, and two grandsons; a brother, three sisters and two aunts, Archie Kirby of Mt. Vernon and Rissie Brock of Broadhead.

Services and burial were in Whittier, Calif.

Michael Kirby

Michael Glen Kirby, 6, of Conway died Jan. 22, 1991 at the University of Kentucky Medical Center, Lexington, after he was struck by an auto after he alighted from a school bus.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Bonnie Kirby of Berea; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Portland of Lancaster; his great grandmother, Gracie Blackburn of Livingston; a sister, Jackie Lynn Kirby of Conway, and a half sister, Julia Kirby of Nicholasville.

Services were held at Lakes Funeral Home in Berea with Revs. Virgil Bussell, Pete Hard and Russell Ballinger officiating. Burial was in Kirby Cemetery on Chestnut Ridge.

Pallbearers were Willie Morris, Jason Holman, Anthony Holman, Keith Napier, Otis Conley and Daniel Napier. Honorary bearers were Bobby Lee Kirby, Junior Thompson and Andy Locker.

Fairview News

By: Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Greetings to all good friends and readers of the Signal, just hope you are well and happy.

* We are living in a world today where it is difficult to be happy but we have to try. We are engaged now in a terrible war with Iraq on the Persian Gulf and God only knows what the outcome will be, but we need prayers and more prayers for our thousands of troops stationed over here in Saudi Arabia. I'm so thankful for the enormous number of Americans who are standing behind them and supporting them in every way they can. We, as Americans too, are supporting our President George Bush for the way he is handling this situation, standing firm and not backing down from what he believes in and has to do.

We also are seeing a great change in people, we are now hearing more requests for prayer, seeing more American flags displayed and many many people now are wearing red, white and blue ribbon lapel pins. Our country for the past few years has been plagued with crime, murder, immorality, drugs, killings, sexual abuse, alcohol and just about any other thing that we could mention. We heard for awhile, some saying "God is Dead" but we all know better than that. We should be on our knees more than we are, thanking God for all the great blessings of life and the good Lord for America that has been so blessed with freedom. I'm so thankful to be an American and for our heritage. So let's all say together "God Bless America and all its people". Thank you Lord for this wonderful country.

On Sunday evening a baptismal service was conducted with a large crowd attending including a number of visitors. Baptized were Mrs. Tracie Jean Alexander and Lawrence Clayton McNew. We warmly welcome them into our fellowship and pray that God will use them in a great way.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tip Reppert and Melody of the Scaffold Cane area is Mrs. Reppert's niece, Mrs. Margaret Marie Turpin of Akron, Ohio.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the families of Gary Kidwell-

Stanford police office and a little six year old boy, Michael Kirby of Conway - and all others who have lost loved ones recently. Death and sorrow comes to all families, and we as Christians need to remember them at this time. God bless them.

Visiting Mrs. Mary Cole over the weekend were her son William and son of Dayton.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander recently have been Allen Alexander of Madison County and William Alexander of Willallia.

Our daughter Joyce Seals and Kim visited us Sunday afternoon.

We are having so much rain and cold, windy weather, it seems like most of us stay close to home. But we are thankful for the telephones. We can keep in touch that way.

My sister Mary Jane and husband Earl are spending the winter in Florida. She has been sick but is some better now.

Please remember church and Sunday School and continue to pray. God is alive and hears His people when they pray. God bless our military men and women around the world and let's all pray for all our ministers who are proclaiming and preaching God's Holy Word. God bless every one everywhere in my prayer.

Quail News

By: Vivian Owens

Ronald Mink and a friend of Richmond visited his aunt Ruth Mink Sunday afternoon.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Sarah Cash were Mrs. Kathleen Brown of Danville, Mrs. Clinton Brown, Gaf-fey Cash, Mrs. Albert Long and Mrs. Irene Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Owens and grandson of Somerset visited his mother Mrs. Mattie Owens Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Vivian Owens visited Mrs. Ronald Rogers, Zachary Kersey and Jeff Todd Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Larry Todd, Ruth Mink and Mrs. Maggie Whitaker visited Mrs. Rissie Smith at the Fort Logan hospital at Stanford.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rogers this past weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Godbey of Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Kersey and Zachary of Hustonville and Jessica and Jeff Todd.

Mrs. Irene Taylor visited Mrs. Sella Scoggins Saturday afternoon.

Gutenson on Dean's List at Clear Creek

Daniel R. Gutenson has been named to the Dean's List at Clear Creek Baptist Bible College. His inclusion in the Dean's List means that he has achieved a grade point average of 3.25 or higher for the 1990 Fall semester.

Gutenson, a native of Waynesburg, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gutenson of Waynesburg. He is a former member of Mt. Hebron Baptist Church in Waynesburg. Gutenson is married to Sheila Kirby of Broadhead and they have two children.

Clear Creek is a Kentucky Baptist Bible College in its seventh decade of service to Southern Baptist ministers and churches. The college specializes in preparing adults called to Christian ministry by combining practical training and high spiritual standards.

"ROTARY CLUB"

various places of business, and this suggested the name "Rotary."

Since 1905, the ideas of Paul Harris and his friends have become ideals which have been accepted by people of practically all nationalities, and of many political and religious beliefs. Today there are Rotary clubs in Austria and American Samoa, in Brazil and Brunei, in India and Italy, in Scotland and South Africa -- in 168 countries and geographical regions. The universal acceptance of Rotary principles has been so great that there are now more than 24,000 Rotary clubs, which have a membership of over 1,087,504.

"4-H NEWS"

September, 1989, and may only represent one club. 4-Hers belonging to two clubs may not be in both club's acts.

5. An act exceeding the time limit should be permitted to finish but cannot be awarded champion.

6. Since participation is of the utmost importance, the combination of clubs for the purpose of presenting a club or specialty act is not permitted.

7. Dramatic readings can be entered as a variety act.

8. All acts must use the same P.A. system. No act will be allowed to provide their own system. As it was last year, an additional P.A. system will be used to supplement the existing Broadhead system. A record player and tape recorder will be available and must be used by participants.

9. Leaders must take care of their own music. (Have tapes set at starting point).

10. Each school will sit together until time for their acts. Club leaders are responsible for keeping their group together and quiet. Parents should be recruited to help as chaperons.

11. Admission will be charged to those who are not participating in acts. Tickets for participants and leaders will be delivered after clubs call in to register their acts. 4-Hers who lose their tickets will have to pay the admission charge.

12. Clubs must register their act by calling the Extension Office (256-2403) by Friday, March 1, 1991. No acts that fail to register will be allowed to perform. Registration information will include:

* Name of act

* Type of music that will be used (Tape, Record, Piano)

* Number in the act (need names if specialty act)

* How many leaders assisted with the act

RIBBONS AWARDED

This year, all acts will receive either a white, red or blue ribbon according to their score. (NO GREEN RIBBONS WILL BE GIVEN). The first place specialty and club acts will also receive champion ribbons. First and second place acts will receive plaques.

Training scheduled for Foster Parents in February

Training will be starting on Feb. 2, for people who are interested in becoming foster parents or adoptive parents of special needs children.

The first session will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the McKee Social Services Office, telephone 686-287-7114. If the weather is bad and the roads are icy, the first meeting will be on Feb. 9, 1991.

Ambulance problems unresolved at Friday's fiscal court meeting

By: Ray McClure

Board members of the Rockcastle Ambulance Service got together Friday with the Rockcastle Fiscal Court to discuss and devise a way to solve financial problems that reportedly plague the ambulance service.

When the words were said and done an hour later the problem remained unresolved and likely will for some time to come.

Tom Welch, former chairman of the board of the ambulance service, was at the meeting although he had resigned earlier because of his wife's health. It was also announced he will be replaced by David Penson who has been secretary of the board.

Welch said rising prices and decreased revenue due to Medicare and Medicaid cuts have reduced revenue for the service.

He noted the service received $1,500 a month from the county in 1983 when it took over private ambulances in the county (funeral homes) and is still receiving the same amount.

Welch repeated figures presented to the court in a Jan. 11 letter that said,

"We are able to pay our bills for December because County Judge/Executive Roland Mullins advanced us $4,500 and because we borrowed $2,000 from the bank. We must borrow more for January."

He explained the service now gets only 40 percent of the Medicare and Medicaid that are paid and has over $60,000 in accounts receivable. He said the service has written off several thousand dollars due in part to the reduced Medicare and Medicaid payments.

Welch ended his discussion by saying county people deserve good service, and he would "hate to see the service go down the drain."

"I have seen lots of progress because we have well trained and reliable persons operating the service. So we will and must have ambulance service."

SERVICE EXPLAINS NEEDS
What does the service want and need? It was in the Jan. 11 letter to the fiscal court and judge of the ambulance service.

The letter stated: "During our board meeting on Jan. 10, 1991, a unanimous decision was reached that the Rockcastle Ambulance Service would be willing to make an effort to continue operations until June 1991 at which time we would like to be able to re-evaluate our position if: The fiscal court is willing to increase our subsidy to $3,000 per month retroactive to January, 1991, and assume, or pay, our loans as they come due in the amount of $8,500 due Sept. 20, 1991 and $11,200 due Aug. 25, 1991.

Ambulance board members say new equipment is needed to operate the service properly.

The letter noted, "this is the minimum amount on which we can hope to survive and is not negotiable. Failure to resolve this issue at the next fiscal court meeting (Feb. 5) or a decision not to grant our requests will force us to exercise our option as stated in our contract." That is, turn the service back to the county.

The letter added: "We have further resolved that in the event the county chooses to assume control of the ambulance service, we will engage the services of an attorney and have an audit at our expense to ensure that the transition is in strict compliance with the law."

POINT OF NO RETURN
Board member C.B. Owens, Jr. told the court the service had come a long way with private contributions from Welch and Wayne Stewart, but "we are at a point of no return. We can't go forward or back and we can't stand still."

"This month, we lack $550 to make our payroll (7 fulltime and 5 parttime employees). We have $4,995 accounts payable; $1,424 in taxes to pay; $18,000 we owe the bank," Owens said.

"You can see our need just for this month." He also pointed out that the service will need a new ambulance and equipment soon.

That need was echoed by director, Vernon Sowder, Penson and board member, Kevin Fletcher.

Judge Mullins told the board the county does not have the money to help the service in the amount suggested, but "it is the desire of the judge/executive to maintain the ambulance service at the highest level of quality and efficiency."

"When I look at your problem I see that it's chronic, but not acute," the judge related. "But you are not broke. Your cash flow is slow, but you have $14,000 in your depreciation account."

The judge also asked board members to suggest ways to solve the financial problems in the long run. Noting the short term solution could possibly be solved. He heard:

Sowder: a tax, occupational or property. Cont. to A-8

Courthouse annex bids will be opened February 21, court agrees to pay for lot

By: Ray McClure

It's all GO for the proposed courthouse annex. County Judge/Executive told a called meeting of the Rockcastle Fiscal Court Friday.

He told the magistrates the option on a lot the court has with owner, Henry Hines, would be due on Feb. 3 and the court may as well go on and buy the lot.

The price of the lot is $50,000. Judge Mullins' bid of the new courthouse annex will be opened Feb. 21.

At a public hearing prior to the court meeting a representative of Cumberland Valley Area Development District (CAVDD), Steve Taylor, reported an application will be made again to receive funds to construct a new Rockcastle County Health Department building on a lot near Elmwood Cemetery in Mt. Vernon.

A resolution will probably be approved at the next meeting of the court, Feb. 5. The property is a gift of the Cox family.

The Health Department wants a new location and building to bring all its offices together in one area. Also, to prevent duplicate services and have better parking and easier access.

Several women from the local department expressed their approval of the new structure.

Only protractor was former County Judge/Executive Hubert Thacker who said the location was not suitable as far as he was concerned and it would not be accessible to the public as the one in downtown Mt. Vernon.

The court was told the building would be near the comprehensive Care Center and Valley View Apartments.

Filings for councils

Mt. Vernon and Livingston voters will have a choice for city councilmen on Feb. 5. The primary is a gift of the Cox family.

At Mt. Vernon, six councilmen will be chosen out of seven that filed at the deadline Tuesday.

Those who filed are incumbents Bobby Bailey, Wayne Adams, Clark (Joe) Mullins, Arthur "Out" Bond, Clarice Kirby, and newcomers, Beslie

Judge Thacker asked if the road to the area belongs to the city. Attorney Jerry Cox, a member of the Health Department Board, said it was, as did Judge Mullins.

The new building is to be 7,500 square feet. The grant to be sought is for $183,160, with the health department to give $230,000. The site value is about $126,000 for a total of $440,000.

Renner shot

Jeff Renner of Pahl Street, Mt. Vernon, was treated and released at Rockcastle Hospital, after he was shot in the shoulder at the residence of Tim Denny, according to Police Chief Bill Mink.

Charges are pending. City policeman Ed Delaney and Chris Baker investigated.

Red Devil Mascot Controversy Survey says mascot should remain same

By: Richard Anderkin

Apparently the majority of students and parents at Mt. Vernon Elementary School want the Red Devil Mascot to remain the same, according to figures released by Rockcastle County School Board Chairman George Poynter Tuesday afternoon.

Poynter said that he had been informed by Mt. Vernon Principal John Hale and school superintendent Bige Towery that the survey sent home to parents had come back not in favor of a change.

According to Hale, 584 survey forms were sent home to parents, and 342 of those were returned to the school by the deadline, which was last Friday at 4 p.m.

Of the 342 parents responding to the survey, 237 said they wanted the mascot to stay the same, while 104 wanted the Red Devil removed as the school mascot at Mt. Vernon. One survey sent back a no opinion.

Hale said that he would present the statistics to the board at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night, which will be held at Mt. Vernon Elementary.

The principal said that he would recommend to the board that the name not be changed. "It is obvious to me from the results of the survey that majority of the community does not want the mascot changed," Hale said.

A group of parents, headed by Sheila Nicely of Orlando had asked the board to change the mascot because they felt it was a Satanic emblem, and would keep "GOD from looking favorable upon Mt. Vernon School." At the time of their request the group presented the board with an 800 signature petition.

The group indicated that if the mascot were not changed they would file a suit against the board. The group also contended that it was unconstitutional to have the Red Devil as a mascot because Satanism is now recognized as a religion in the United States.

Members of the local school board asked that the survey be conducted by school officials before they would make any decision on the matter.

Three arrested following high speed car chase

When three juveniles from Berea stole a car they picked a fast one.

Sheriff deputies reported a 1979 yellow Pontiac Firebird was clocked going 141 miles an hour on I-75 at the Madison/Rockcastle Counties line Saturday night.

At the time, the deputies had a prisoner who was found intoxicated on the road. They called State Police and the chase was on. The car sped through the Mt. Vernon city limits and was joined by Mt. Vernon and Brodhead police.

Police soon ran the car off the road and it was disabled. Three juveniles were arrested. The car was stolen from Berea.

A 1978 Dodge Truck belonging to Ed Wesley of Renfro Valley was recovered by deputies soon after. Arrested was Rick McCutchan of Renfro Valley who was charged with taking off over $100.

Florida utility truck belonging to Clifford Colton was recovered undamaged at Burr about one mile in the woods of a dirt road. Charges are pending.

Ralph Carpenter reported someone stole his 12 gauge shotgun while he was at a poolroom at Conway. A person seen leaving the poolroom is being sought for questioning by the sheriff and deputies.

Four men were arrested Monday night about 11:15, deputies report, with 15 cases of Bic ink pens taken from a pick-up truck owned by Don Stigners of Shelbyville, which was parked at Best Western Motel in Mt. Vernon.

Also found was a tool box owned by Mark Owens of Somerset. The men reportedly left a movie screen outside the truck.

The four were stopped as they came down the hill by deputy Ronnie Roark.

Arrested and charged with theft by unlawful taking over $100 and receiving stolen property over $100 were Jeffrey Ellison, Rt. 3, Crab Orchard; John L. Paim II of Rt. 4, Mt. Vernon; Marty Bussell, Rt. 1, Brodhead; and Wesley H. Mullins of Rt. 4, Mt. Vernon.

Roads closed for hour after truck wrecks

A tractor-trailer carrying bombs for the military had a close call Friday night at the Burr Interchange of I-75, according to records in the Sheriff's office.

The truck driver had planned to get off at the Renfro Valley interchange but got off at Burr. While turning around at the Country Kitchen Restaurant his back wheel dropped off into a hole and the truck almost turned over.

It was pulled back on the road and proceeded on I-75. Roads in the area were closed for about an hour.

Carpenter home destroyed by fire

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Carpenter on Trace Branch was destroyed by fire Monday night.

According to Livingston Fire Chief Jerry Mink, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter had to break a window to get out of the house. All their household furnishings were destroyed.

An electric shock is suspected of causing the fire.

London woman injured Tuesday

Debra Watkins, 18, of London, was injured early Tuesday when she lost control of her pickup truck on Ky. 461 in the cut south of Red Top Restaurant.

Ms. Watkins was treated at Rockcastle Hospital and sent on to University of Kentucky Medical Center.

Her truck slid on the wet road, hit an embankment and overturned. City Policeman Chris Baker investigated.

Dragon slayers needed; parents with children in grades K-8

Parents have you ever felt deep concern over so many of our children and young people becoming involved in drugs? Have you ever feared that your own children might get involved? No one is really completely sure this will not happen!

Parents of children K-8, there is a program that works to help increase your chances of having DRUG FREE CHILDREN. We the UNDRESSED parents have attended a workshop to learn about the alternative, effective, and common sense approach we have ever seen, as a solution and prevention to drug related problems with our children.

We, along with the Rockcastle County Board of Education, invite you to be a part of this exciting program. Your child's school will notify you of upcoming meetings concerning this program.

If you come, you will sing the praises of the Parent to Parent program as we already are.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,

I am somewhat disturbed by the Letter To The Editor that appeared in the Signal on January 24th. B. Yvonne Carmack states her opinion regarding the mascot at Mt. Vernon Elementary School, which may have done and have every right to do. My disturbance is with the flavor of the letter that was written.

B. Yvonne Carmack implies quite strongly within the text of her letter that those who have voiced their opinion regarding getting the mascot name at Mt. Vernon Elementary School changed, are not involved in any work of benevolence or civic functions within the community. She seems to think that this is the only issue that these people think about day and night. How sad it is when we fail to respect an opinion that differs from ours and then begin to assault the character of those with a different view.

I personally have two sons enrolled at Mt. Vernon School and would desire that the name of the school mascot be changed.

For those who desire to keep the mascot the same, I respect your opinion but I differ with it.

I certainly hope that as time progresses that we as a community can learn to disagree in an agreeable fashion without assaulting each other's character.

Dear Editor,

I am writing this letter concerning the anti-war protests that are going on in this country but first I want to saw a few words about our soldiers in the Middle East. I am sad, mad and proud at the same time.

Sad because so many people will lose their lives. Sad because I know not all our troops will return home. Sad for the families and friends of those who don't. And I'm very mad at the one man who started all of this.

It's my opinion if and when they get a hold of Hussein he ought to be put in front of a firing squad, and show him how the shoe fits on the other foot. And last but certainly not least, I am just as proud as I am mad of the men and women who are over there in a strange country risking their lives for what they believe in, serving their country!!!

Lately the things I have been seeing on the television makes me absolutely sick. I've seen the burning of the United States Flag. I've seen our country and the leader of our country put down. The reasons our troops are fighting and dying for are being scoffed at. What these people are doing with the flag is no different than what Roseanna Barr did with the National Anthem. The people of America were absolutely outraged with her. I wonder how these same people felt when she mocked the Anthem and spit on America!!! Well maybe they felt about the same way as some of us do right now watching them degrading our flag because in my eyes it's no different. I've seen the same people put down our President saying he's no better than that Iraq, Saddam Hussein.

Well maybe these same people ought to live under this madman's command. While his country and his people are being blasted away, he is hiding away in some hole shouting his commands to kill more people not caring if his own get caught in the crossfire. Or maybe if this country is not good enough for these people and they think they have it so bad maybe for these people and they think they have it so bad maybe they ought to live there and have their 14 and 15 year old children jerked out of school to fight a war they most likely know little about.

These same people are shouting peace all a very good example. I'm very upset about what is going on in the Middle East, but these people upset me almost as much. Our men and women are over there fighting for a reason, a reason they believe in, a reason President Bush believes in, and I am behind them one hundred percent. I thank God for each and every man and woman in the Middle East, the United States and its allies.

Sincerely,
Dola Gustin

P.S. I thought the burning of or as that goes anything degrading our flag was against the law. I think the people who do such things should be punished to the fullest extent. After all men and women have fought and died in its honor through many wars.

Dear Parents,

Under Kentucky's Education New Reform; parents now have a great advantage to challenge and monitor their children's curriculum more than ever before. I encourage you to do so. The New Age movement has infiltrated Rockcastle School Systems. You may not be able to stop its advancement but you can certainly slow it down. Last fall television's 20/20 program aired a documentary on death education. Some may remember it.

The following is a few portions of a Christian News letter that followed that program.

Anybody who has taken the time to study the public school system already knows it is a death trap for our children in spite of the few Christians still involved. Their hands are tied in making any lasting, far-reaching changes in a system under the control of the National Education Association (NEA) whose many anti-God policies are influenced by the religion of humanism which was birthed in hell. This is manifested in their embrace of Planned Parenthood, availability of birth control on some campuses, amoral sex education, classes in parapsychology (the occult), the removal of God and the Bible from the classroom, and now the introduction of death education to your children.

Television's 20/20 reported that 10 percent of all schools now offer a curriculum of death for kids. Beginning in kindergarten with trips to the morgue to see the cadavers and feel how soft and comfortable they are right through high school where the teens actually view a nude dead body already in the process of preparation for burial, these children are encouraged to begin a preoccupation with death. "Come and touch it," the priest crooned, "and see how cold it is."

The children were scared and repulsed as their normal inclinations manifested. Some cried. They were then taken to the crematorium to view and handle the ashes of a cremated body. Death was explained to be just a natural part of life, nothing to fear, an adventure to actually look forward to. The only plan for eternity taught, however, was that of reincarnation—die, learn all the knowledge God has, and then come back as a much better, more beautiful person. For a young person battling hormones, pimples, broken relationships, the idea of starting over with God's knowledge and a better body can begin to sound very appealing. One young lady said of her suicide attempt, "I just wanted to be free from my body and to know everything God knows. The teacher made it so easy."

One scene showed a classroom being led by a New Age teacher into a trance where they would re-discover grief over the death of a loved one, dig it all up, and deal with it again. Many of the children were

What makes Druther's biscuit breakfasts such a big deal? Breakfast at Druther's is more like the breakfast you'd have at home, if you had the time. Made-from-scratch buttermilk biscuit sandwiches topped with a farm-fresh Grade A large egg and your choice of a sausage patty, crispy bacon strips, or a slice of ham. Sausage and biscuits — two fresh-baked biscuits, not one, each filled with a sausage patty. Or biscuits and gravy — two fresh-baked biscuits, sliced in half and smothered in creamy, delicious sausage gravy.

So start your day off right with a Druther's biscuit breakfast. The only thing small is the price.

Troops need support, not protest

Surprisingly enough my nineteen-year-old sister and I agree on the following subject.
 Actually many of the thoughts to follow are hers as well as mine. The subject matter is the war in the Persian Gulf. A war that many Americans don't want the U.S. involved in.
 No one wants a war. Everyone agrees that it is a terrible thing. It takes away precious lives and tears homes apart. It doesn't care whose father or brother, sister or mother that it destroys in its path, it's not particular. War is ugly.
 However, war happens. There's little anyone can do about it. We can march, protest and rally until our hearts is content.
 And because we live in the United States we are able to do this without fear of persecution. I often wonder if the protestors ever think about that.
 How many men and women have died to preserve their freedom. How many men and women have died so they could get on television and tell the whole world that if a draft is instituted again; they would slip to Mexico to avoid being drafted.

 Many of my friends think that I am crazy, don't know what I'm talking about and probably lying when I say that if I were drafted, even today, I would go.
 I'm satisfied that I would not want to go, but I would never dodge the draft, as many have.
 Rarely do I get upset when I see people doing things that they're allowed to do under the laws of this country. Rarely do I feel like going out to these people and asking them why they are there. As a matter of fact, the flag burners did not really bother me. I considered the source, but this is one time I have to voice my opinion and protest against the anti-war protestors.
 I don't want to be in this war anymore than the anti-war protestors, but unless most of them are less incligient than I think they are, there is nothing any of us can do about it now.

 I know that many protestors don't want to see American lives lost because of oil. But this war is being fought over much more than oil. It is being fought because a madman decided that he wanted to rule a neighboring country. He did so by force and from what I have read and seen, he probably would not have stopped with just tiny Kuwait.
 This war is really about the basis upon which our country is founded - freedom.
 And being the world power that we are, we must help to preserve the rights of any country that wants freedom.

crying and some went on to settle into deep depression as they remembered their hopeless separation from those they loved.
 Death education is only another step in the process of desensitizing this generation to the act of dying. They witness over 32,000 television deaths during their childhoods. Heavy metal rock groups encourage them to take their own lives or the lives of others. And now the school system brings it to their fingertips, stirring a great amount of grief and depression in some which could lead to their own mental and/or physical destruction and stirring excitement about the possibilities of a better life in others through reincarnation, causing some to contemplate ending their "crummy" lives now.

Shouldn't children know about death and have their fears of the unknown alleviated? Death education is a lot like sexual education - a little bad but a little kid. What their minds are constantly exposed to becomes what they dwell on, and what they dwell on, they will eventually act out.
 If your children are still a part of the public school system, you can't be too nosy in determining their moment by moment curriculum. Satan, the destroyer, has targeted every one of our kids and we must protect and defend them against every onslaught of the enemy. Beware and be wise over your own life and those God has entrusted to your care.

William Mullins
 Dear Editor,
 I wrote a letter about the Cincinnati Reds. I nicknamed, Big Red Machine 1991. You all did not publish it so I evidently you all must have lost it so this letter is about the Brohead Invitational Tournament BIT, played at Brohead Elementary School gymnasium Monday, Jan. 28th, Tuesday, Jan. 8th, Friday, Jan. 11th and Saturday, Jan. 12th. The Mt. Vernon Red Devils defeated Roundstone 64 to 59. A good basketball game. The Brohead Tigers defeated Livingston Blue Devils 55 to 44 in the second game. Tuesday there was an exciting game, Red Foley 46 and Garrard Middle 45. A one point victory for Foley. The second game found Meece defeating Model 78 to 34. A Meece blowout and after two nights off the BIT swing back into action.

 Friday night, Jan. 11 the Brohead Tigers defeated the Mt. Vernon Red devils 44 to 30. In the second game it was another good basketball game with a win for Meece defeating Foley 54 to 47.
 The final night, Saturday, Jan. 12th third place went to Foley Middle School 47 over Mt. Vernon Red Devils 30. Mt. Vernon took fourth place trophy; Foley third place trophy. Brohead took the second place trophy by being defeated by Meece 66 to 47 with Meece taking home the first place trophy.

The biggest surprise was getting an autographed basketball from coaches, basketball players and cheerleaders on Saturday night. To each one of the workers Mrs. Shirley Martin from the bottom of my heart would not be a BIT without Mrs. Shirley Martin. Good job cheerleading judges. You know who you are.
 Better close for now.
 Brohead Tigers Announcer and scout David Brock

P.S. So as not to leave anyone out good job with BIT 1991, good Lord Willing another one in year, 1992.

From My Window

By: Spencer Bengie

Something I stand totally against can be seen this week as I look out into the world. It's an act of violence, tragedy, vengeance and just pure sickness. I'm talking about the inhumane treatment of prisoners of war (POWs) in the Middle East.

There was no doubt in my mind that the recent Allied pilots captured by Iraqi forces under Saddam Hussein and plastered all over the news were mistreated. There's also no doubt that the mistreatment is continuing and is probably going on right this minute.

I shudder with fear and greatness when I think of those men in the hands of such a twisted minded leader as Hussein. But most of all, I feel anguish, sorrow and every other terrible feeling that comes with the thought of a man being imprisoned and tortured as if he were just a mere object of play.

Those brave men aren't the first to be taken such a demanding situation and unfortunately, probably won't be the last.

It makes me think back to the Vietnam War, which in my mind is mostly noted for POWs, and the many stories I've listened too by the many who were involved.

I've also seen numerous films on the subject and let me tell you, the price a POW has paid for his country is beyond anything that can ever be imagined. I think too that in some cases, death wouldn't be such a bad alternative.

But Americans are taught to live. It's our way of life. Many POWs in the past have hung on to that tiny thread of life, grasping it and clinging to it and never once saying the words, "I give up," although everything else says they should.

They hold on to their values in life. They think of their sons and daughters awaiting their return, they pray continuously with faith their prayer of release will be answered. They are the American fighting soldiers.

American military members are all aware that they can be put in such situations but they can never be prepared for them. They've read The Code of Conduct, the military guidelines which instructs them on how to act, but to follow and act out those instructions is by far, easier said than done.

For example, has anyone ever tried to touch their elbows together behind their back. It can't be done without help. In help, I mean by your hands and then pulling the rope so tightly that the force brings both elbows together behind your back. And in the process, pulling both shoulders completely out of their sockets creating tremendous pain. But to tip it all off, you are then dangled from the ceiling by your elbows for extended periods of time. If you black out, as most do, your captor will awaken you. It's severe pain.

So to sum it up, would you resist or do what you are told? The torture maneuver I just mentioned is only one of many used on POWs as they are used. I don't mean to be so crude in explaining it but I feel if our Armed Forces can experience and endure it, then the least we could do is read and acknowledge it.

I, for one, take great honor in saying that I share these United States with such valiant people as those serving in our Armed Forces. Again, may God bless them.

Craft workshop at Berea College Mar. 16

"Starting Your Own Craft Business," a one-day workshop, is scheduled Saturday, March 16, at Berea College.

The program is designed for home-based crafts artists who will learn how to find customers and distributors, price products and maintain business records. Enrollment will be limited to 25 participants.

Those attending will have an opportunity to show their crafts and receive individual advice. They also will visit the Berea College Crafts store and warehouse.

Scheduled from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Alumni Building, the workshop is being conducted by Berea College's New Opportunity School for Women and Student Crafts Program in cooperation with MACED, the Mountain Association for Community Economic Development.

The cost for attending is $5 which includes lunch at the college cafeteria. To request registration forms or more information, write the New Opportunity School for Women, CPO 2276, Berea, KY 40404. Completed application forms must be returned to the college by March 8.

"CHARTING ROCKCASTLE"

(Cont. From A-4) cause of the simple fact that they don't know who was killed and who wasn't. That type of information should be withheld from the news media until the families are notified.

I wonder how my many friends and co-workers that have so strongly disagreed with me on this subject, would have reacted when Hitler started taking Europe by force. Would they have thought we should have stayed out of that war too.

Nobody wants war. Very few of us have not been affected at some time in our lives by the tragedy of war. My father left for World War II six weeks before I was born and came home four years later—a stranger. The first of my high school graduating class to die did so in Viet Nam.

And now another war. Different, I think, from any of the others because television makes it all so much more accessible. I've watched Patriot Missiles take out Scuds. I've seen people don gas masks, fearing the worst of Saddam Hussein's threats. I've held my breath with the Israelis during air raid warnings, waiting for the all-clear to sound. I've cried as I watched American POWs being paraded before television cameras.

Desert Storm is now a part of me. My friends have sons and daughters there. I have friends in the National Guard and Reserve Units. I am afraid for them.

And I am angry. I don't understand Saddam Hussein. I find it hard to believe that one man can reek so much havoc. But he is, and he must be stopped.

The Bible says "there is a season for everything," and I don't believe this is the season for war protests and peace marches. Don't misunderstand—I pray for peace everyday and that everyone will come home safely. I pray for the innocent victims. I grieve for the children. Hurt and hungry children are the worst part of any war.

I do believe this is the season to give support to our President and especially to the brave men and women who are fighting for freedom for all of us. Many have said this is a war for the price of a barrel of oil. Not so. If Saddam Hussein is allowed to gulp up a country here and a country there, how long before he reaches U.S. shores? If we sit back and do nothing, will there be anyone left when they come for us? At a Berea College basketball game last week, the ball players, coaches, and cheerleaders joined hands at mid-court in support of our troops, as a young lady sang a medley of patriotic songs. During the stinging of our National Anthem, you could have heard a pin drop. Then the cheers of the crowd nearly brought the house down.

There are other days, I was in Brodhead. The other American flags flying everywhere. Patriotism is alive and well in our area, but we can all do more to show our support. Let's fly our American flags, put up yellow ribbons to honor our POWs, and red, white, and blue ones in remembrance of our troops. And pray for peace.

Points East

By: Ike Adams

I get letters in the mail all the time from people wanting to know what I do for a living when I'm not feeding my writing habit. Most people already suspect and I have gone to the trouble of proving without doubt that there's no fortune to be made in writing a column for weekly newspapers in rural Kentucky.

This is, in fact, my Thursday night habit. Lots of other people go bowling or coon hunting or watch the tube on Thursday night. Every week I swear to you that I was in a manufacturing plant this week, sitting in the break room while a friend of mine toured the building with the manager. I already had a coffee machine where you could get a large cup for a nickel a shot in the break room. So I told them to take their time.

Anyway a bunch of people came into the break room and I heard two guys talking.

"How'd you do last Thursday night Ray?"

"Had a 167 average. Almost hit 200 in the last game. How about you?"

"Oh man! We need three!"

"Whereabouts?"

"You know that little holler down there at Pine Hill where me and you deer hunt?"

"No s-word. Why don't you bowl for me next Thursday night and let me be your dogs in there?"

I was dying to chime right in. I wanted to offer to let the coon hunter write my column and I was gonna offer to go bowling if they'd made the trade, but he didn't go for it.

"No Sirree", he said. "I'm going back myself."

Both fellows were serious. I'd bet anything that if the coon hunting hadn't been so good, they would have swapped out. So I'm right here behind the typewriter like I have been almost every Thursday night for the last ten years.

I actually work for The Christian Appalachian Organization and there's some folks in our organization who would probably prefer that I keep that as quiet as possible or at least keep it out of the column. Not everybody that I work with is totally in line with my editorial perspective and they might not want it advertised to their neighbors that I'm on the same payroll that they are. So I'll be brief.

Mostly what I do at CAP is write funding proposals to private foundations all across the country. And even folks who don't always agree with what I have to say will tell you that I believe very strongly in the work we do. CAP is a wonderfully gifted organization. Our human development programs are second to none in this state. I'm convinced that we are making it possible for thousands of people to improve their lives, most notably by increasing their education levels. I believe that the services we provide to elderly people brighten lives where there are far too few bright rays.

It takes more space than the editor allows me to just list the programs we have scattered around. There's nearly 70 of them. And while we're frugal - George screams in pain before Bill Hamm assumes the dollar is well spent -- it costs a lot of money to keep things going. I'm a small, but not insignificant cog in the department that raises money. They call me Manager of Corporate and Foundation Grants.

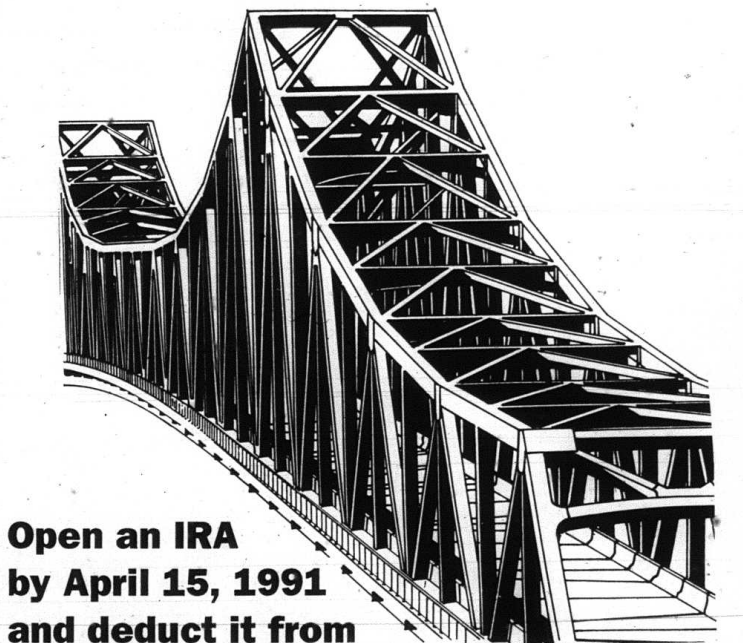

What I really do though is act as an advocate for the eastern Kentucky Mountains. I grew up in Leitch County in the head of a long holler called Blair Branch where the values today are not unlike they were 50 years ago. Where people flag you down when you make it home once or twice a year and make you tell them how you're doing. Where they still plant peas and fence rows along side the road and in my brother, Steve, thanks God for Rick Panno and worships the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

My job requires that I travel all over the mountains - to Martin and Hazard and Pineville and Whitesburg and Pikeville and Salyersville and Morehead and Whitley city and on and on and on and I love it with passion. It also requires that I go to New York once in awhile and frankly, I ain't too enthralled with that, but the big cities are where the funding sources are and most of the time they prefer I come and see them instead of the other way around. So off I go to talk about good things that are going on in the mountains. Things that I believe in and make the trips worthwhile.

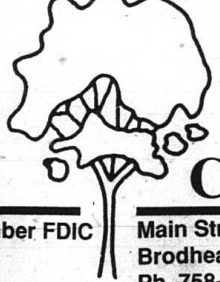

I tell people up north that the two things we have to fix first in Kentucky, and it sure ain't just the mountains, is education and politics. Too many people dropping out of school to suit me and a lot of young adults who just need a little encouragement to get involved in a good GED program. Those things can be fixed and when they are, people will get smart enough to fix the politics. And when politics get fixed we'll get more responsible and competent people in positions to start doing something about economic development. It's a slow process, but I'm encouraged enough to stay at it.

Teen Center Perspectives

By: Ginny Gilpatrick
Rockcastle Teen Center

It is easy to look around the county and lament the high school drop-outs, the rate of teenage pregnancy, and the teenage DUI's listed under the Courthouse News. One might conclude that this is a hopeless generation and that the negative forces in the teen culture predominate. If that is the direction of your thinking, read on.

Last week about thirty parents of adolescents took time, and precious gasoline, to come in to the Teen Center to get their children excited about the upcoming on day trip to Washington and Massachusetts. Parents, with their teens, seriously considered and signed an agreement on the list of responsibilities involved in the trip including attendance at twenty weekly sessions of preparation. They perceive the cultural value of the experience and are willing to commit to it.

A high school senior, Ricky Welch, came in to the Center of his own volition awhile ago and expressed interest in beginning a devotions group. Rick, and about eight other boys began this week long devotions on Thursday evenings following Teen Challenge. (Apparently there is a much larger group that currently meets for prayer before school.) This will be a time set aside for any teens to come and lift their spirits and share some quiet time. Teen who don't regularly attend church will find that this is a comfortable and welcoming setting. It is a time to find peace in a busy and problematic world.

By request, Monday afternoons have now been programmed for writers and artists. A number of teachers have begun work on graphics to be framed and hung on the Teen Center wall, but the usual recreational atmosphere is not particularly conducive to concentrated effort. Mondays will be a good time to work on these graphics, begin other art work, or write for the monthly Teen Center publication. The atmosphere will encourage creative pursuits and individual help with projects.

Expanding interest and participation in Teen Center programs of substance should lead one to conclude that there is a strong positive force still operating in today's teen culture. A few dismal statistics can be falsely interpreted. Christian Appalachian Project, along with the fine Rockcastle County schools, and other community agencies offer a variety of valuable programs for our valuable teens. Parents are encouraged to take time to cover the various cafen-das of events with their teens and select activities that fit with their time schedules and interest.

I take time off on Thursday nights to write the column. Loretta mails it on Friday morning. She tells me that she's in it for the money. Last year she bought a new set of tires for the station wagon with all that she had earned. To me it's just a habit and it doesn't do much harm.

Tiger Pause

Mrs. Kelly Pensol's fourth grade class is participating in the Valentine's for Vets Program, thanks to a student, Christina Crawford. Christina shared an article with the class which reminds us that there are about 50,000 veterans staying in veterans hospitals nationwide. These men and women served in World War I, World War II, the Korean War and the war in Vietnam. The students are hoping to give the veterans some heart-warming cheer and show them that they have not been forgotten.

The Academic Team will participate in the District Governor's Cup at MVES Friday evening and Saturday, Feb. 1-2. Good luck, Tigers!

Mrs. Lillie Parsons' third grade class enjoyed a visit from Richard Valentine, Friday, Mr. Valentine works with Children's Theatre in Lexington and teaches at the University of Kentucky. The students performed brief renditions of "The Lion and the Mouse", and "Little Red Riding Hood". Students playing roles were Nicholas Leger, Mary French, Janda Mink, and Jay McKinney. Each student was included in the activity. A Beta Club sponsored Valentine's Dance will be Friday night Feb. 8, from 7 to 9 p.m. The dance is for the sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students only. Admission: $2.00.

Mrs. Pam Martin, Yearbook Sponsor, and the annual staff: Rachel Treholo, Kristy Bullock, Denise Benge, Rebecca Blanton - are diligently working to beat the editor's Feb. 15th deadline.

Mrs. Lisa Johnson and Junior High classes are making yellow and orange ribbons to wear to show their concern for the hostages and soldiers during the Middle East Conflict.

Mrs. Thompson's third graders have received recognition for their participation in The Tobacco-Free America Project, sponsored by the American Cancer Society, American Heart Association, and the American Lung Association. The students made posters and discussed the effects of smoke on the environment and human life. This project enhances Health and Science.

Lucas Noel, third grade student of Mrs. Daina Thompson, has an uncle serving in Saudi Arabia. Sgt. Phillip A. Chumbley is a mechanic in the 1st Infantry. The class is sending letters, class pictures and Valentines to Phillip.

"What Saith the Scriptures"

With the events of the past couple of weeks with the war in the Persian Gulf, the question arises in the minds of many. Are these events prophesied in the Bible? Are these the signs of the times? Is this the "Battle of Armageddon?" Let's look to the Word of God for our answer.

Let me say unequivocally that the answer to the above question is NO.

The scriptures declare "But of the times and the seasons, brethren, we have no need that I write unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night." 1 Thes. 5:1-2. We have no idea when the Lord is coming. We don't know the times and the seasons, what events, what situations, what periods shall be when the Lord comes again. Jesus will come as a thief in the night, totally unexpected! Jesus may come soon or he may come years and years down the line. I don't know and neither does any other man. The Bible does not give us any information about the coming of Christ as to the question of when, thus we need to be ready at all times for his coming. Mt. 24:44, Mt. 25:13.

But, someone will ask "What about the signs of Mt. 24?" Notice vs. 1-3 begins the chapter with a discussion of the times before the third day of the night. Then in vs. 34 Jesus said, "Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled." Now either these things were fulfilled or we still have some of that generation still living. Yes all those signs were fulfilled in the 1st Century.

Then someone may bring up passages out of the book of Revelation. Notice that the book opens by stating in vs. 1 & 3 "things which must shortly come to pass" and "for the time is at hand." Then in ch. 22, the book closes on the same note, vs. 6 & 10, "the things which must shortly be done" and "the time is at hand." Now that definitely tells us that the book of Revelation dealt with things in the days of the early church and not things in 1991! It is an abuse of the book of Revelation to try to make it fit the events of our day and time.

No, we have no idea when the Lord shall come, he will come as a thief in the night. When will men be satisfied to quit trying to figure out when the Lord is about to come; it's all a waste of time! "Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the son of man cometh." Mt. 25:13.

Mt. Vernon Message

This week we are honoring the seventh grade. We have 83 seventh grade students. There's three seventh grade classes. Here's what they teach. Mrs. Parsons teaches three 7th grade Social Studies and two 8th grade Reading classes. Mrs. Darst teaches all 7th and 8th grade Science classes. Mrs. Schaefer teaches three 7th grade English classes, one 8th grade Social Studies, and one 8th grade Reading class.

Seventh graders have been studying the structure of paragraphs in English. We have learned to write topic sentences and "clincher" sentences. We have learned to gather information by "brainstorming" and "clustering." We have just finished a "S-W-How?" process today, to prepare us for writing a narrative paragraph.

Congratulations to Melissa Cummins, Steven Owens, and Jason Weaver who will represent their teams in the Annual Spelling Bee.

Our Artistic-in-Residence, Ms. Ruth Hazard, brought Mr. Valentine to several classes to show how to use drama in the classroom. Corey Allen, from 8A, proved he was multi-talented by performing as "grandma," "The Wolf," and the "hunter" in an impressive production of Red Riding Hood. Liz Allen—starred as Red Riding Hood.

The first thing we do each day is World History. Right now we are studying about the Aztecs and Incas. We stay in World History for one-hour. Our teacher is Mrs. Carla Parsons. Our class has a pet named Chad Maloney.

These past weeks in our 7th grade Science class we have been learning about animals and their main characteristics. The group of animals that we studied about was "Vertebrates." We also learned that the word "Vertebrate" means, "animal with a backbone." Now we're studying about mammals and birds.

Our 8th grade students have been studying about the implications children experience viewing television broadcasts of the war issue.

and when we get into our next chapter, "Human beings," I'll inform you on it. By: Angie Robinson

This is the schedule of Mrs. Brock's 7B class. Monday we do Power Builders in SRA's. Afterwards we define vocabulary words. Then we read a story silently. Tuesday we do Rate Builder, also in SRA's. We're given three minutes to read two paragraphs and do eight questions. Next we have a quiz over the story we read Monday and have a vocabulary good haul. Wednesday we have a listening skill, which tests how well you listen. Then we have the final test over the story. Thursday Mrs. Smith takes nine students to a remedial class where they work out of "Journeys," a book of short stories. They read and do questions. Friday she also takes them out. They review the story, then they take the test. Also every six weeks each student picks a book and reads it, to show how well they comprehend. By: Amy Prewitt-7B

Mr. Alexander's 6th grade class had a new girl come to our class. Her name is Jamie Grubb. Tuesday school was called off because of snow. Thursday, we had a drama program. A man named Mr. Valentine came and brought a puppet named Pete with him to our room. Mr. Alexander, our teacher, recorded it on video camera. Friday our class had art, we made snowmen. By: Jessica Rose, Shannon Cox, Jennifer Kirby

Bales' 6th grade news
There is always something going on in Bales' 6th grade class. We are trying to earn a trip to Apollo Plaza. We have 8 days perfect attendance. We need two more.

We had D.A.R.E. in our class for 17 weeks. On January 15, we all graduated and received T-shirts. Sgt. Fortner, we miss you!

Angie Lawless is our representative to the school spelling contest. Congratulations, Angie and good luck!

Mrs. McQuary's sixth grade class had a spelling bee Friday, January 25. The winner of the spelling bee was Kevin Rader. Now Kevin will compete with the other winners. We wish him and the other winners good luck!

We are sorry to say that the 4th Valentine's dance will be cancelled. We hope that Mr. McQuary will schedule another dance soon. By: Talona King and Kim Mink

Mr. Napier's fifth grade are continuing to make A's in spelling. This can be contributed to co-operative learning. In Science, we studied what neap tides and spring tides are. Neap tides are when the sun, earth and moon are at right angles. Spring tides are high tides caused by the alignment of the sun, moon and earth.

We've studied fractions in Math. In reading ability, metaphors and personification have been our course of study. We've followed the Iraq situation since it first began. We have great support for our troops and we hope you'll all remember them in your prayers. We feel it is in the best interest of our world that the United Nations take immediate and successful action to end the Gulf War. It's also been a great geography lesson this year.

(Due to a lack of space, the rest of Mr. Vernon Message will appear in next week's Signal)

The period 1986-1990. Income increased from $130,598 to $232,291 over the same period.

The service has a depreciation allowance of about $14,000 to apply against replacements. (If the budget audit of the service operated the same as the county records, the net income over expense would be about $4,000. The county's failure to pay the 1987 allocation of $6,000 did adversely affect the service.

The service has a note payable in the amount of $16,358. Other counties in this district reimburse their ambulance service as follows: Jackson, $1,000; Harlan, $10,000; Knox, 4.64 percent ambulance tax; Laurel, $90,000; Clay, $150,000; Bell, 25 percent of insurance premium tax.

The judge noted that "it is apparent that the staff and board are doing an excellent job of collecting funds to operate this excellent service."

Judge Mullins then polled the magistrates for remedial suggestions. Clinton Brown: "The service needs more money," but where to find it. Charles Holbrook: "Work out something on the accounts receivable."

Donald Bullock: "Don't know. We have good service."

Amos Burdette: "Don't know. Should work something out."

Jack Bradley: "Need to work something out, but we (the court) have to operate within guidelines."

Judge Mullins then recited a long list of figures from the county budget and current finances and noted the 1991-92 budget has already been completed and forwarded to the state. JUDGE HAS PROPOSAL

However, he had a proposal for the board. He said the county will have $5,000 in the 1991-92 fiscal budget, an amount the court distributed to Sheriff Shirley Smith to get him started when he assumed office. That money will be recovered in the next budget, he said this money can be had by the service now.

The judge also suggested the county could pay next year's monthly allocation ($1,500) in a lump sum in July or about $18,000 including incidentals, so the service could have about $23,000 in up front working capital.

The board members were apparently not impressed. They asked for and got a closed discussion among themselves to discuss the offer. When they emerged, Penrod read a prepared statement:

"We could not come to an agreement as a group and we would like for you to refer back to the boards' letter that outlines our requests."

With an obvious stalemate, the magistrates voted an earlier suggestion to have County Attorney Lambert look into the possibility of other agencies sharing their money with the ambulance service, possibly with the exception of the health department and library which money was voted by the public.

It was obvious throughout the meeting, which was called an administrative discussion and not an official court meeting, that the magistrates would not vote any kind of tax. Further discussion was left to the Feb. 5 meeting.

"Ambulance Service"

Fletcher: tax. Welch: payroll tax or property tax. Penrod: Tax, but don't have time to wait for a vote of the court to put it on the ballot. (It failed once several years ago).

Owens: Agreed with Penrod. In the long term a tax will be needed. At that point, it was questioned if funds in some county agency, other than health and the library, could be switched to the ambulance service. It will be checked by County Attorney James H. Lambert.

JUDGE DISCUSSES MONEY Judge Mullins then took over. He pointed out that the documentation and the request forwarded from the board reveals:

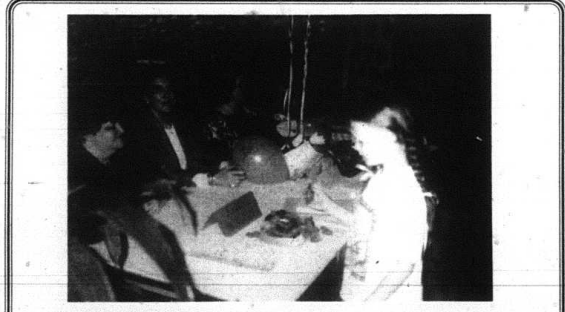

The service has a net operating income over expense of $21,088 for

Second consecutive year

Cheerleaders head to National Championships

By: Spencer Bengt

The Rockcastle County High School cheerleaders have done it again. They will have the prestigious honor of competing, for the second consecutive year, in the National High School Cheerleading Competition held at Sea World, in Orlando, Florida.

The cheerleaders will depart on a chartered bus from Knoxville/Tours from Rockcastle County Thursday (tonight) and return Tuesday, February 5. The actual competition will begin Saturday and conclude Sunday. The competition will be aired again this year on cable television's sports channel ESPN sometime in April.

The only true differences between this year's competition and that of last year's are the amount of squads participating in the field of competition and the amount of members on the RCHS squad itself.

According to RCHS sponsor Tracy Gabbard, the amount of schools competing has expanded from 87 last year to around 100 to 130 this year. As is the RCHS cheerleaders, who went into last year's competition with 12 members, have 15 members this year.

Of course, all the members of the squad and Gabbard have worked extremely hard this year and are especially looking forward to making the trip to Sea World.

They began in April, 1990 and focused all of their efforts on the Mid-East Regional qualifier in Bloomington, Indiana. The qualifier, which began in November, named the RCHS cheerleaders first runner-up, also for the second year in a row, December 1, 1990. The placing automatically qualified the cheerleaders for the national competition again this year.

But before the regional qualifying began, the cheerleaders had their eyes focused on the trip to Sea World. They started focusing their attention and time toward the trip in August, 1990 and from there have put in over 300 hours of practice in preparation. And, at the same time, they have not limited their talent and potential to just cheerleading awards and honors but to other activities as well.

Over the span of the past year, the RCHS cheerleaders have had: five members selected to the Universal Cheerleading Association All-Stars; two selected as all-state in chorus; two chosen as Governor Scholars; all chosen as the camp champions for two years straight in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association Camp at Eastern Kentucky University and finally, were all presented with the 'Key to Spirit Award', an award also given from the camp that is decided by a vote from all the participating squads attending the camp.

But during all these outstanding accomplishments, the cheerleaders have still been able to pursue their main goal, studies. During the past year the cheerleaders, as a squad, have averaged over a 3.0 grade point average. And that's not to mention four members with a perfect 4.0 mark.

It just all boils down to a 15 member cheerleading squad (seven seniors, two juniors, four sophomores and two freshmen) that not only are a very talented group but also a highly motivated group willing to assert the dedication required to become successful in everything they do.

So with ambition, high and their routine in place, the cheerleaders are ready to go. Their new routine this year, consisting of dance, cheers, gymnastics and stunts, has been developed with the assistance of University of Kentucky graduate assistant coach for cheerleading Rich Tourtelat and also UK dance instructor Jim Lord.

However, there is still one loose end, funding. The cheerleaders, as of this week, are around $1500 short of the amount needed to make the trip to Sea World and, if not acquired, a bill that will come out of their own pockets.

The cheerleaders have already raised the money for their uniforms, used their own money for shoes, routine assistance and gymnastic training. They have received $1500 from the Board of Education and $285 in donations for the trip itself. But still, the remaining funding for the trip, which will cost an average of $117 per member, is unsettled.

Before the cheerleaders leave,

The Rockcastle County High School cheerleaders will travel to Sea World in Orlando, Florida again this year to compete in the National High School Cheerleading competition. Members of the squad that will depart from Rockcastle on a chartered bus for the competition Thursday (today) are from front left, Tina Durham, Jennifer Bishop, Anna they would like to thank Pepsi of Corbin, Citizens Bank, Ford Brothers Inc., Norma and Russell Hoak and Gary Gentry for their donations for the trip.

They would also like to thank Mt. Vernon Elementary School Principal John Hale for the use of the MVES gymnasium when the RCHS gymnasium was unavailable, the Board of Education and Superintendent Bigge Towery Jr., RCHS Principal Ronnie Cash for allowing them to go and a special thanks to all the parents for their support and help in raising money for the trip.

Charter meeting to help organize Rotary Club is February 5 - 12 Noon

Plans are under way to organize a Rotary Club in Mt. Vernon by a group of 30 local business and professional men.

A charter meeting will be held at noon Tuesday, Feb. 5 at Renfro Lodge where future weekly meetings will be held.

Charter membership will be the topic of discussion at the Tuesday meeting.

Rotary is an organization of business and professional men united worldwide, who provide humanitarian service; encourage high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in the world.

Pete Gleich, Rotary representative from the Lancaster Rotary Club will be present to help with the organization of the club. Bob Singleton and George Maunz of the Richmond Rotary will also be at the meeting.

This is not the first Rotary club for Mt. Vernon. The first was chartered in May, 1939. W. R. Champion, school principal, was chosen president. N. M. Smock was vice president. Secretary was drugist Marcus Maggard, and treasurer was attorney Bob Bird.

There is also a Rotary Foundation which is a philanthropic trust organized by Rotarians to further understanding and friendly relations between peoples of different nations. The Foundation is undoubtedly the largest scholarship program in the world and is supported by voluntary contribution by Rotary Clubs, Rotarians, and others. There are several types of awards granted by the Rotary Foundation.

The first Rotary club in the world was organized in Chicago, Illinois, U.S.A., on Feb. 23, 1905, by Paul P. Harris, a young lawyer, who gathered together in a spirit of friendship and understanding a group of men, each of whom was engaged in a different form of service to the public. That basis for membership -- one person from each business and profession in the community -- still exists in Rotary. At first, the members of the new club met in rotation at their

Smith appoints Ronnie Roark, Leonard Miller

Fourth District Constable Leonard Miller has resigned and has been appointed a deputy sheriff.

Miller was elected without opposition in the November 1989 election. Also chosen deputy sheriff is Ronnie Roark, 26, of Mt. Vernon, who has been a driver for Hines Trucking Inc. of Mt. Vernon.

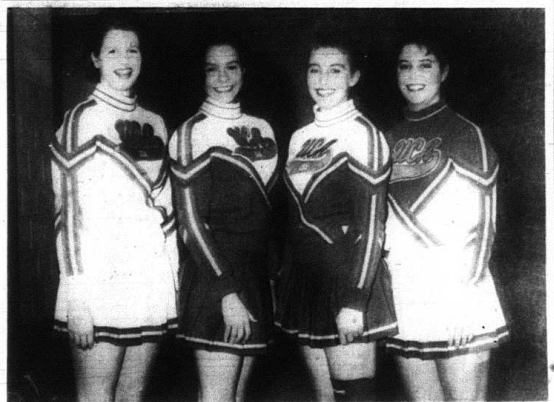

Sheriff Shirley Smith now has six deputies in addition to the new deputies. There are Phillip Chesnut, Darrell Dean, Karen Alcorn, T.J. Parsons and Smith's wife, Libby, who is a part-time deputy.

According to County Clerk Norma Hoak, Judge/Executive Roland Mullins will appoint a constable to replace Miller who will serve until the November election.

By Aug. 6, officials of both political parties will nominate a replacement for Miller. They will be on the November ballot.

The Fourth District includes communities in the north area of the county such as Wildie, Roundstone, Conway, Boone and Disputana.

Four tour England

Four Rockcastle County High School cheerleaders recently had the distinct pleasure of traveling to England to attend and perform in the annual New Year's Day parade before the Queen of England.

Teresa Burdette, Cindy Gregory, Dawn Lewis and Amy Jo McClure all had the honor of performing in the parade which traveled around Barkeley Square, down Bond Street and to Hyde Park in London, England.

During the week-long trip, the cheerleaders were able to visit Westminster Abby, Windsor Castle (one of the official homes of Queen Elizabeth), Stratford-on-Avon (William Shakespeare's birthplace), Hans Rock Cafe and the Tower of London. The cheerleaders also enjoyed a pleasant river boat tour of the Thames River and a boating tour of one of England's clipper ships.

The four were among 500 All-Star Cheerleaders chosen by the Universal Cheerleading Association (UCA) during the UCA cheerleading camp this past summer to make the trip. The average cost for the trip was around $2,000 per cheerleader.

More road improvements

Transportation Secretary and Commissioner of Highways, Milo D. Bryant has announced an additional road improvement project to the 1990-91 Rural Secondary Program. This project includes the replacement of a culvert on a section of Ky. 1326, Mt. Vernon-Broadhead Road.

The culvert, located under the roadway, helps to provide water drainage during flooding or high water conditions.

"We have seen an increased need for the repair or maintenance of our roadway drainage systems during the past several months due to the large amounts of rain we've gotten here in Kentucky," Bryant said. "The Governor and I are aware of this need and are continuing to ensure proper repairs. Our main priority here is to provide safe, efficient travel to all Kentuckians during heavy rain."

The project in Rockcastle is expected to total approximately $17,159 and is being financed through the Rural Secondary Special Emergency Account. State Forces will be completing the work on the project and will begin initial phases as soon as possible.

Groundhog Day is Saturday

If you want to know what the weather will be like for the rest of the winter, you can find out when the groundhog makes his appearance Saturday.

If the old fellow sees his shadow it means six more weeks of "bad" weather. If not, start looking for your summer clothes, or so the old adage says.

To date it's been a warm and wet January; not big rains but 14 days of precipitation. The most fell on Jan. 6, a total of 1.51 inches, according to records at Cox Funeral Home Weather Station.

A total of 3.54 fell during January. That hardly compares to December when 14.56 inches fell. Last January there was 3.38 inches.

Highest temperature in January was 60 degrees on Wednesday, Jan. 30. Coldest for January was 11 degrees on Jan. 21.

Top Guns and Pin Busters tied in Bowling League

The Top Guns, 56-28, walked away with three wins this past week to tie the first place Pin Busters, also 56-28, in the Rockcastle Mixed Bowling League in Richmond. Dropping to five games out in second place are the Ten Pins, 51-33, and pulling within seven games in third place are the Rockers, 49-35.

In action, the Top Guns took high team series HDCP with a 2335. The Wild Things followed in second with a 2300 and the Misfits in third with a 2286.

Taking high team game HDCP were the Misfits with an 855. The Rockers were second with an 816 while the Top Guns were third with an 810.

Henry Vanzant bowled the high men's series with a 601. Rick Bryant took second with a 592 and Jamie Noe third with a 563.

High men's game went to Jamie Noe with a 246 and second high to Henry Vanzant with a 223. Rick Bryant was third high with a 219.

Wavelene Mullins captured the high women's series with a 529. Jamie Bryant took second with a 490 while Pennie Fortner took third with a 457.

Wavelene Mullins also took high women's game with a 212. Jamie Bryant also followed again in second with a 206 as did Pennie Fortner in third with a 197.

Taking high men's series with a 664 was Rick Bryant. Todd Cromer followed in second with a 654 and Henry Vanzant in third with a 640.

Jamie Noe had high men's game HDCP with a 258 while Rick Bryant had second high with a 243. Perry Noe took third high with a 238.

High women's series went to Wavelene Mullins with a 637. Jamie Bryant had second high with a 586 and Pennie Fortner third high with a 574.

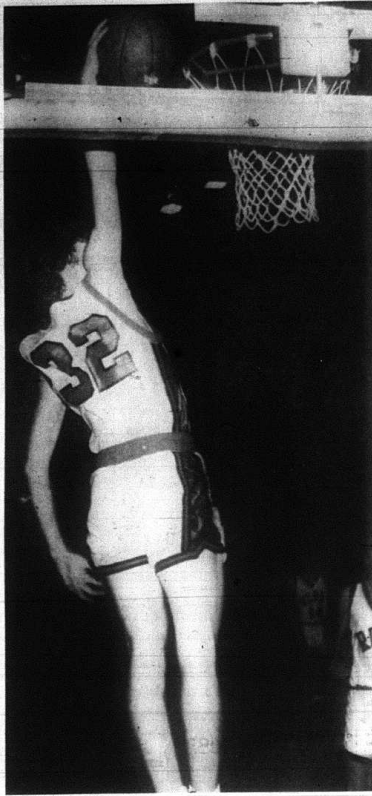

Wavelene Mullins also took high women's game HDCP with a 248. Jamie Bryant's 238 was good for second high. Taking third high was Pennie Fortner with a 236.

Babe Daugherty still holds the high men's average with a 186. Jamie Noe has the second high with a 185 while Bill Reynolds and Henry Vanzant are tied for third high at 183.

Holding a one pin lead for high women's average is Kim Daugherty with a 161. Following the mark with the second high is Alice Faulkner with a 160. And again following only one pin behind in third place is Jamie Bryant with a 159.

Rockets' freshmen split two game series

The Rockcastle County High School freshmen Rockets split a two game series this past week. The freshmen fell victim to Southern Pulaski, 65-57, last Thursday but bounced back to defeat Berea, 41-36, Monday night. Both games were on the road. Forward Jason Fletcher led the freshmen in their losing effort against Pulaski with an impressive 22 points. Fletcher was followed closely by guard Mikhael Shaffer who had a good night of 20 points as did J.D. Bussell with his 10 for the game. Rounding out the scoring were Mickey McClure with three points and Marvin McCollum with two. The freshmen nailed 18 of 28 free throw attempts for a nice 68% on the night. Fletcher also led the freshmen in their win over Berea with 14 points. He was trailed by Shaffer's nine, McClure's six, McCollum's and Bussell's four each and Shane Adams and Freddie Pruitt's two each. The freshmen went 8 for 16 from the charity stripe in the game. The freshmen will host Corbin Thursday (tonight) at 7:00 p.m.

Rockets' junior forward Micah Parkerson slam-dunks two of his eight points for the night against visiting Woodbridge Academy Tuesday night. The Rockets routed Woodbridge, 115-40, for the second time this year.

Lady Rockets send Mercer County home empty handed, 55-47

By: Spencer Bengé
Last week the Lady Rockets were finding wins hard to come by, however, they found one this week and a well deserved one to say the least. The Rockcastle County Lady Rockets played a solid game against visiting Mercer County Monday night. Although the game was very close, the Lady Rockets talent prevailed in the end to send Mercer home with a 55-47 loss.

The win now moves the Lady Rockets' record to 6-10 on the season.

"We played well," Lady Rockets' Head Coach Christy Beaver said earlier this week. "We hit the boards and shot the ball extremely well," she added.

Of course, a great improvement for the Lady Rockets, since shooting was noted as probably their greatest weakness when the season started.

Freshman Cindy McCauley led the pack of shooters for the Lady Rockets with a hot night of 17 points (eight of those from the free throw line).

But it was McCauley's output combined with seven others reaching the scoring column that allowed the Lady Rockets to thunder out to a 15-8 lead in the first quarter.

And given the fact that the Lady Rockets also had a very good night underneath with their rebounding, it was remarkable that Mercer was able to close the gap to two points, 26-24, at the half.

The Lady Rockets were able to pull down 38 rebounds during the game. A feat that has been accomplished only once or twice before but one that Beaver is longing to see become consistent.

Another key factor in the Lady Rockets' success, especially in the second half, was junior Jan Durham. In only her first year of basketball, Durham has proven and become one of the dominating players for the Lady Rockets. Aside from her six points added to the score, Durham also claimed rights to 10 of the 38 rebounds hauled down. And in doing so, helped guide the Lady Rockets to a 41-34 lead in the third period.

Still, two more attributes weighed heavily on the outcome of the game. For one, free throw shooting. The Lady Rockets took their sharp shooting from the field to the charity stripe and nailed 18 of 33 attempts to also better a lot of past performances.

Secondly and maybe more importantly, the Lady Rockets used a variety of successful half-court trap throughout the second half that affected Mercer's offense to a great extent. And to such an extent, combined with everything else, allowed the Lady Rockets to easily top Mercer, 55-47.

The Lady Rockets will now take to the road where they will face

Madison Southern Thursday night (tonight).

Scoring along with McCauley and Durham for the Lady Rockets in the Mercer game were: April Burton, 10; Kristi Sargent, 7; Karla Bullock, 6; Beth Amyn and Christy Coleman, 4 each and Danaeta Ford with 1.

JV Action
The Lady Rockets' junior varsity found the good as well as the bad this past week. The junior varsity fell short, 39-27, to visiting Whitley County last Friday but like the varsity, handed Mercer County a 55-32 loss Monday.

Jan Durham and Greta Burdette led the junior varsity against Mercer with 12 points each. They were followed closely by Cindy McCauley

Lady Rockets' Player of the Week

for Jan. 20-26

Junior point guard Kristi Sargent has been selected as this week's player of the week by Lady Rockets' Head Coach Christy Beaver. Sargent's play in last week's Monticello game was unapproached. Sargent fired in her season best of 20 points during the game. Beaver commented that Sargent, who has had to take on the role as the team's floor leader due to an injured Jennifer Thacker, has done an excellent job. "Sargent is already an extremely good defensive player and is becoming a better passer, she keeps improving," Beaver said.

Rockets' Player of the Week

for Jan. 20-26

Forward Kevin Mullins has been selected as this week's player of the week by the Rockets' coaching staff. Only a junior, Mullins has seen valuable playing time for the Rockets this year while proving himself as a very physical player during those minutes. Like the Barbourville game this past week, Mullins has shown his ability all year to give the Rockets that extra muscle down underneath the basket. And like so many other Rockcastle players, Mullins will be looked upon to progress and develop to play a key role in the future of the Rockets' program.

DARE Graduation

Graduation exercises were held recently at Livingston Elementary School for students participating in the DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) program. DARE is aimed at preventing drug abuse in school age youth. Sgt. Jack Farmer of the Mt. Vernon Police Dept. gave the thirty-three sixth graders at Livingston Elementary School alternatives to using drugs and taught them how to "Just Say No!"

The 17-week program was enjoyed by all the students and they made a firm commitment of a negative stand on drugs.

During the graduation ceremony on Jan. 17, the students each received a DARE shirt, a certificate and a DARE pin. Guest speakers were Chief Bill Mink of the Mt. Vernon Police Dept. and Buford Parkerson of the Rockcastle Board of Education. Parents and grades 3 through 8 attended the ceremony.

DARE Graduation at LES January 17th

The Rockets will travel to Jackson County Friday, February 1 to take on district rivals, the Generals.

and Danetta Ford who had 10 each. Rounding out the scoring for the junior varsity were Heather Deckard with five, Christina Silmon with four and Beth Amxy with two.

The top point getter for the junior varsity in the Whitley game was also Jan Durham, this time with 14 points. She was followed by Greta Burdette with six, Danetta Ford with four, Christina Silmon with two and Heather Deckard with one.

Lady Rockets' Player of the Week

for Jan. 13-19

Senior center April Burton was selected by Head Coach Christy Beaver as the Lady Rockets' player of the week for her contributions in the Madison Southern, Knox Central and Berea games. Beaver said that Burton's play at the post position ranks with finest of opposing centers in their region. Burton, who fired in a total of 36 points in the three games, is noted by Beaver as a hard worker, solid rebounder, good leaper and a very agile player with one of the best fluid shots around. In other words, Burton is a complete player.

Rockets' Player of the Week

for Jan. 13-19

Junior forward Chris Nowland was selected as player of the week by the Rockets' coaching staff for his efforts in the Rockets' games against Jackson County, Garrard County and Barbourville. Nowland, known for his great leaping ability, pumped in his year high of 13 points against Garrard and was very instrumental for the Rockets in sending the game to the wire. Nowland, who plays an important role off the bench this year, will definitely take on an even larger role in the future for the Rockets.

Continuous sign-up now for ACP at ASCS office

The Rockcastle County ASCS Office now has a continuous ACP sign-up, according to D.G. Albright, chairman of the Rockcastle Co. ASCS Committee.

Anyone wanting to sign up for spring seeding practices can do so at any time, as long as you have a copy of a current soil test results from the County Extension Office.

Practices will be approved in March and April.

Albright stated that practices available to the farmers of this county include, new seedings, renovations, no-till, water conservation, critical areas, and forestry practices. A more detailed list of the practices available for this period is available in the county office.

Rockcastle County is now under the variable cost-sharing method. Requests are evaluated before County Committee Approval according to soil erosion, ACP practices which result in the highest saving of soil may receive up to 75 percent of the actual cost of completing the practice.

All requests must be filed and approved by the ASCS Committee prior to the starting of work pertaining to the practice.

All requests must be filed and approved by the ASCS Committee prior to the starting of work pertaining to the practice.

A soil sample must be turned in to the county agent's office and the results must be in the ASCS Office before signing up for a cost-share practice.

Scouting Anniversary Week, is Feb. 3-9

The week of February 3-9 will be observed as Scouting of America on February 8, 1910. Some local councils will have special events during the week for the BSA's 81st birthday. Thousands of packs, Boy Scout troops, and Explorer posts will also celebrate.

Many boys will attend religious services in uniform on Scout Sunday, February 3. In some churches, Cub Scouts will have a part in the service. Scouting Anniversary Week may also be observed by doing a good turn, raising and lowering the U.S. flag each day at school, or inviting non-member friends to join scouting.

Seven deaths last year on Lake Cumberland

Of the seven water-related deaths last year on Lake Cumberland, water patrol officers say, three were caused by boating accidents.

During a six-day period alone (in September), there were three deaths. In one fatal boating accident, an elderly couple in a fishing boat were rammed by a cruiser. The third death occurred when a personal watercraft crashed into a rocky bluff, and the rider died of head injuries.

"In the case of the collisions, you've usually got poor judgment by one party," said Capt. Roger Pike, supervisor of the 30-county eastern region of the Kentucky Water Patrol. "Most of the times these types of accidents could be prevented."

On a holiday weekend it's not unusual for many as 250,000 people to be out on the lake, Pike said. Memorial Day, Fourth of July weekend and Labor Day are the busiest holidays.

"Anybody who has the money can buy a boat, put it in the water the same day and take off, regardless of their (driving) skills or experience," Pike said. "A lot of power and no driving skills are a deadly combination."

The number of water-related deaths in 1990 on Lake Cumberland was a sharp jump from preceding years. There were no water-related deaths reported in 1989, and only one in 1988.

World events have taken the joy out of a lot of ordinary things, like writing, for instance. It's hard for me to concentrate on anything so I'll just turn my pen loose and see what it comes up with. This seems to be a magic pen for when it touches paper words just begin to flow from it and shortly an idea has been expressed.

Right now it wants to write two words, war and taxes. I guess I'd better guide it to the second word, the one most hated after war which is taxes. You know that time of year is here again. It, like Christmas, gets our whole hearted attention once a year. But unlike Christmas, that comes to us with twinkling lights, bells ringing and music every where, this little demon slips in quietly as if on dark padded paws and sinks its fangs into your jugular vein where it can suck your lifesavings away with out another person knowing about it.

"SWEET AND SOUR"

Money has always been such a private thing to one who wants to discuss it. We were taught it was bad manners to talk about either having lots of it or being so poor we had none. So because of our financial inhibition surrounding it, only our tax filer knows and the I.R.S. and that is if we are honest with him or her. I'm not quite sure everyone is.

The funny part of it is, we think of the I.R.S. employees as being experts in the field of taxes but really they aren't so expert as one is lead to believe. A few of my following experiences will show a few of their weaknesses.

I called the IRS headquarters of a couple of weeks ago and asked what I thought was a simple question, "what do you mean by deadline for filing estimates is it the day it is mailed or the day it is received?"

The person answering the phone had no idea so I connected me to an expert in estimated tax. He said the mailing dates was not his expertise so I connected me to the third person. When he came on the phone he began a spiel about estimate taxes etc then asked, "Now what do you need to know?" Again I asked for a simple answer to a question which by now I had simplified even more since I recognized I was talking to people so highly technical they couldn't understand simple language, I simply said, "Jan. 15 is the deadline for mailing or receiving my estimate taxes?" He went into a long harangue on the need and desire to receive it earlier but finally said Jan. 15, was the final mailing date. Another question I called about was the need to file an estimate. I was switched to four different experts before I got a final. "Yes Mam, you must file and you will be penalized for not filing earlier."

The third call that day was about long term investment benefits. I simply wanted to know if they were still in effect since in the past when we sold timber we always got credit for long term investments. Again I went through the rounds of experts and none of them had ever heard of such a thing. They went into details of big business and banking but had no knowledge of such a thing as people raising timber getting a break for their long term investments. I finally laughed out loud at their expertise and hung up.

Now comes the crowning I.R.S. experts mistake that sorely affects me. It seems to me that any time an expert makes a mistake I will be close by to reap the benefits of it.

Last year I finally got my taxes filed away and paid what I owed to federal and state with only a little belyaching about it then safely tucked all my records away. Well, in July here comes an official letter from internal revenue service. A letter we all dread to see in our mail boxes. So with butterflies doing a dance in my stomach I opened it. Low and behold it was a refund check for $150.00. It seems there had been a mistake in my filing and all credits due me hadn't been taken. My daughter-in-law Helen, who does taxes in W. Va. looked over my papers and could find no mistakes so I was a little leary when I put the check in the bank.

Now, today, I received a letter from our I.R.S. experts saying I owe them $150.00 for incorrectly filing my taxes last year and will be penalized an extra $14 for tax on it.

They are saying it was my mistake when it was them that sent the payment back to me I had already made.

Now, I feel like this little demon has snuck up on me from behind and thrown a lasso around my neck. It's bad enough to go through the torture of saving receipts, bills, payments and statements then locating a person with the knowledge and ability to put them together and come up with a bill for my share of the privilege of living in the U.S.A. but to have them, the experts, do a double take, one to refund a part of my payment, and one to reclaim the refund, then place a fine on the part they have refunded and reclaimed is simply too much for me to understand and handle. I think I'll SIC my pen on them and see what expert they call on to handle it.

Hi, my name is Ashley Nicole Elizabeth Chattle, my parents are Scott and Joey. I was born Dec. 15, 1990 at 11:55 p.m., weighed 7 lbs., 10 ozs. and was 18-1/2 inches long. My paternal grandparents are Kenneth and Jean Chattle. My maternal great grandparents are Arthur and Nannie Bullock. My maternal grandparents are Sondra Johnson and William Kermit Blair, Sr. and my maternal great grandmother is Charlotte Nickerson. Maternal great grandparents are Ed and Eva Blair.

Beware of IRS scam
The Internal Revenue Service has warned taxpayers that people posing as IRS agents may be calling Kentucky residents and telling them to pay taxes for a new car or other prizes they supposedly have won. The impostors tell the people that they have won cars or other prizes, but they must pay taxes before receiving them. The callers give false names and instruct the victims to pay the money through Western Union. There has been one incident reported so far in Kentucky, but the bogus phone calls have been reported in other states. The IRS Inspection Service in Kentucky requests that anyone receiving a suspicious call requesting money for a car or other prize supposedly won, to immediately telephone the IRS collect at (502) 582-5298.

IRS recorded information
The Internal Revenue Service provides recorded information on current tax topics for use by radio and other media outlets. The recorded messages are updated periodically and provide some very useful tax information, especially during the tax filing season. The sound quality of the messages is excellent. The toll free number to call for these recorded tax messages is: 1-800-TAX-NOWS.

Take the Long Way Home by Patricia Brown Shelton will be one of the paintings on exhibit during the traveling exhibit of Appalachian art on display at the Rockcastle Co. Library Feb. 8-24. Darlene Martin of Rockcastle County will also have work displayed in the exhibit.

Traveling exhibit of Appalachian art to be at Rockcastle Co. Library February 8 - 24

Images From the Mountains: A traveling exhibit of Appalachian art will be on display at the Rockcastle County Library from Feb. 8-24, 1991. The public is invited to meet Rockcastle County artist Darlene Martin at an exhibit opening on Feb. 8 at 6:30 p.m. Ruth Hazard (artist in residence) from Madison County will also be a participant as well as co-coordinator for the exhibit.

Now in its fourth year, Images From the Mountains is a juried exhibit that showcases Eastern Kentucky artists. This year's exhibit includes 27 paintings and prints by 21 regional artists, Susan Dickson, Director of the Ohio Arts Council's Individual Artist Program, selected the work and gave Merit Awards totaling $1,000 to five of the Images participants. Featured artists and their home counties are:

- Breathitt County: Clarence Wooten
- Carter County: Sam McKinney (Merit Award winner) and Ruby Queen
- Fleming County: Gretchen Baum
- Floyd County: Thomas Whitaker
- Greenup County: Sandy Nelson-Perrine
- Harlan County: Barbara Rochelle
- Johnson County: Nan Spradlin
- Knott County: Robert Moler (Merit Award Winner)
- Letcher County: Patricia Brown

4-H News

By: John McQueary
County Extension Agent
for 4-H

County Show - Tuesday, March 5, at 7 p.m. Brodhead Elementary School, Registration deadline is March 1.

Area Show - Saturday, March 9, at 10 a.m. Renfro Valley

- 1 cup unsifted all-purpose flour
- 1/3 cup finely-chopped almonds
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- 1 cup sugar
- 3 cups frozen unsweetened raspberries
- 2 cups (1 pt.) whipping cream
- 1 teaspoon almond extract

1. MICROWAVE (high) margarine in uncovered 2-quart glass mix 'n pour bowl 20 to 30 seconds or until softened. Blend in 1/2 cup sugar. Add flour and almonds; mix with fork until combined.
2. MICROWAVE (high), uncovered, 4 1/2 to 5 minutes or until mixture starts to appear dry, stirring 2 or 3 times. Press hot mixture evenly with fork into bottom of 10-inch microwave springform pan.
3. MICROWAVE (high), uncovered, 1 to 1 1/2 minutes or until lightly toasted. Cool.
4. Combine water and gelatin in 4-cup glass measure; let stand about 5 minutes to soften gelatin. Stir in 1 cup sugar.
5. MICROWAVE (high) 3 to 3 1/2 minutes or until steaming hot. Add frozen raspberries to hot mixture. Stir occasionally until thawed. Cool until slightly thickened. Beat cream and extract in 2-quart mix 'n pour bowl until thickened. Fold in raspberry mixture until thoroughly blended. Pour over crust. Refrigerate until set, at least 5 hours. Cut into wedges to serve.

TIPS: If a microwave springform pan is unavailable, substitute a 12 1/2 x 8-inch microwave-safe baking dish. Fresh raspberries can be substituted for frozen.

Sliced strawberries can be substituted for raspberries. Other favorite nuts, such as pecans or macadamia, can be substituted for almonds.

Two 10-oz. packages frozen sweetened raspberries can be substituted for unsweetened berries. Reduce water to 1 cup and sugar to 1/2 cup. Nutrition Info: Serving: 267 calories, 3 g protein, 16 g fat, 29 g carbohydrate, 58 mg sodium, 41 mg cholesterol.

Now is the time for 4-Hers to begin their preparation for the County 4-H Variety Show. This event consists of specialty and club acts and is held annually on the county, area and state level. It provides an opportunity for large numbers of 4-H participants to gain poise, confidence, develop character and sportsmanship, while working cooperatively with others.

Clubs planning to participate need to carefully read over and follow the rules and guidelines:

1. Specialty Acts shall consist of four (4) 4-H participants or fewer and have a time limit of four minutes. A 4-H club may have up to two specialty acts. Specialty acts will be divided up in Jr. and Sr. Division.
2. Minimum requirements for the Club Act state that twenty percent (20%) of the club participants or five participants, must be involved. Club minutes.
3. Only one person other than 4-H participants, such as a pianist, may accompany the act. Other than the one accompanist, only 4-H participants may appear on the stage during the act.
4. Variety Show participants must be a 4-H club member or have participated in a 4-H activity since September.

Cherry and Berry Microwave Desserts

Red berries and cherries are perfect in incorporating in desserts during the winter, especially in February. The brightness adds an edible touch of cheer during those somewhat dreary winter days. And, the fresh, slightly-tart flavors add spark to dinner menus as well as special desserts.

Use berries and cherries in combination or individually as we have in the recipe sampling that follows. Discover delicious eating by serving some of these desserts to friends and family.

Bran flakes add extra crunch and fiber to this easy microwave dessert. It's ready to serve warm in about 30 minutes.

- Cherry-Berry Crunch
- 1/3 cup margarine or butter
- 1 cup unsifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup rolled oats
- 1/2 cup bran flakes cereal, crushed
- 1/2 cup packed brown sugar
- 1 can (21 oz.) prepared cherry pie filling
- 1 package (10 oz.) frozen sweetened strawberries, thawed

1. MICROWAVE (high) margarine in uncovered 1-quart glass mix 'n pour bowl 20 to 30 seconds or until softened. Add flour, oats, bran flakes and brown sugar; mix with fork until crumbly.
2. MICROWAVE (high), uncovered, 5 to 6 minutes or until lightly toasted, stirring twice. Press half of crumb mixture into bottom of 8-inch round or square microwave-safe baking dish. Combine pie filling and strawberries until mixed. Spoon fruit mixture over crust. Sprinkle with remaining crumb mixture.
3. MICROWAVE (high), uncovered, 5 to 6 minutes or until filling is bubbly. Serve warm or chilled.

About 8 Servings
TIPS - To quickly thaw strawberries in microwave oven, microwave (low-30%) 3 to 4 minutes, turning carton over once and gently squeezing to move frozen area to edges. With Microwave-Convection Oven, soften margarine in step 1. Preheat oven to 375. Omit microwaving in step 2. Press half the crumb mixture into microwave-conventional oven-safe baking dish. Combination-bake (high mix or 30% power) 10 minutes. Add filling and remaining crumbs as directed.

This pretty and elegant dessert is perfect for a larger gathering. Prepare the night before for easy serving as a dinner menu finale or as part of a festive dessert table.
