IN MEMORY OF

In Memory of George and Nannie Smith

It's been a year since Jesus took mom home and in December dad went home. Dad and mom have won their race. They are home with Jesus. I miss you both but you left me, so many memories. All the good times we had together. Mom and dad always had time for me and always were there when I needed you. It seems like part of me is gone but Jesus's words comfort me. The dead in Christ shall rise first. Then those who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with those in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17.

The family of Nannie Johnson wish to thank everyone for the prayers, flowers, food, visits, etc., during the loss of our loved one. A special thank to Bro. Roger Ballinger, Bro. and sister Gerding and Watson Funeral Home.

Burdette and Cash will begin student teaching this fall

Two Rockcastle County students at Eastern Kentucky University are among the 150 teacher education students doing student teaching this fall semester.

They are: Rebecca Burdette of Mt. Vernon and Clayton Cash of Bradhead.

EKU's College of Education places its teacher education students in classrooms from the last 12 to 13 weeks of the semester to gain practical teaching experience, said Dr. David Rush, director of EKU's professional laboratory experiences office. Miss Burdette teaches at Southern Elementary in Somerset. Cash is at Madison Central High.

The student-teaching experience follows three to four weeks of on-campus instruction.

Student teaching experience is required in Kentucky before a college graduate may be certified, Rush noted.

He said students preparing for teaching careers at EKU may also gain practical classroom experience at Model Laboratory School before student teaching. Model is the only university-operated laboratory school in Kentucky and the nation's largest N-12 facility. It is designed to provide educational experiences for future teachers that might be otherwise unavailable. This fall, 48 EKU students are student teaching at the secondary level, 110 are teaching in elementary classrooms, and 17 are assigned to practicum arrangements or special education classes.

Eastern is the state's largest producer of classroom teachers.

In fact, according to a recent survey by the American Association of Colleges of Teacher Education (AACTE), EKU's teacher education program ranks among the nation's top 5 percent.

In 1990-91, EKU recommended 351 graduates for initial certification—more than any other institution in the state.

"Eastern has a historic commitment to teacher education," said Dr. Kenneth Henson, dean of the College of Education.

"The success of our program is based on high admission standards, a dedicated faculty, and a course of study that combines strong content and methodology courses with practical experience at the laboratory school before our students are sent out to student-teach," Henson said.

Eastern Kentucky University serves more than 16,000 students on its 359-acre Richmond campus, throughout its 22-county primary service region, and beyond.

Payne chosen as member of Chorale

Jonathan Payne, son of Arlene Marshall, of Mt. Vernon, has been chosen as a member of the 1992-93 Cumberland College Chorale.

The Cumberland College Chorale was organized in 1960 as a medium for artistic choral expression for Cumberland College students and the Southern Appalachian area.

The Chorale has enjoyed an excellent reputation. It has sung at state meetings of music educators and denominational leaders. In 1990, the chorale toured throughout western Europe singing in England, Scotland, and Ireland.

Cumberland College, located in Williamsburg, is a private four-year liberal arts institution which is in its 102nd year of operation.

Berea College Cont. from B-5

The session, which is open to women 35 to 50 years of age who have not attended college, is scheduled Jan. 26 through Feb. 15. Participants must be of low income, have a high school diploma or GED certificate, and demonstrate motivation and an eagerness to learn.

Rooms and meals are provided at no cost and grants for travel and childcare may be requested. Children cannot accompany their mothers to the campus.

Through individual counseling, participants will identify their skills and interests before being placed in part-time jobs at the college or in the community. They also will learn to write resumes and practice job interview skills. Seminars and other special sessions will focus on computer skills, self-confidence and stress management.

Educational and cultural opportunities will include classes in writing and Appalachian literature, lectures and field trips to museums.

Mrs. Jane Stephenson, wife of Berea College President John B. Stephenson, founded and directs the program. Requests for applications and additional information should be addressed to the New Opportunity School for Women, CPO 2276, Berea College, Berea, Ky. 40404.

Who has the power?

There is already a law suit in Boone County over who has the power to run a school. The School Based Decision Making Council or the local board of education.

According to the Kentucky Education Reform Act, the school

But, if everyone would keep in mind that they are sitting on the council to represent the entire school, and not just themselves or their family, things should go well.

One thing is for certain, Education Reform has severely limited the role of the board of education, but has it really limited the amount of politics that are played. Only time will tell.

On the subject of school politics, Superintendent Bige Towery Jr., was somewhat concerned this week that people will think that something is trying to be slipped past them because of the short notice given to the public about next week's public hearing.

The fact is the state did not let Towery know about the hearing until Monday. They have been very busy at the state department because of 170 facility surveys in the state. All the surveys have to be completed by November and therefore the state has to schedule public hearings when they can work them in.

CCC Reunion

Former enrollees in the forestry camps operated by the Civilian Conservation Corps from 1933 to 1943 are invited to participate in a reunion at the Daniel Boone National Forest on Saturday, Oct. 26. Families will also be welcome.

The reunion will start at 10 a.m. at the Craigs Creek Groups Use Area, Laurel River Lake, London Ranger District. The area is located approximately 13 miles southwest of London on Forest Service Road 62.

A free lunch will be served by enrollees in the Pine Knob Job Corps Center. Persons desiring to camp out may do so by using the Holly Bay Campground located approximately 17 miles southwest of London.

Persons planning to attend the reunion should contact Perry Thomson by writing to him at HC 68, Box 65, Big Creek, Kentucky 40914 or telephoning (606) 598-2192.

By Richard Anderkin

council has the authority when it comes to their school, the school board doesn't.

As I have stated before, I am somewhat leary of having so many council's within one school system. I think that in many districts, such as Boone, there will be problems, there may actually be more cliques and more politics than ever before.

It may end up that way, let's hope not. If indeed the system works the way it is supposed to, then it will be a good system. The people most affected: parents, children, teachers, other employees should have more say in their school than those not involved with that school.

Unless House Bill 940 is repealed, and we all know that is highly unlikely, every school in Kentucky must have a school council by 1996. Of course if things do not go well for those that have already undertaken the project, the legislature may do some back stepping.

Rockcastle Jaycees presenting Grand Illusion Magic Show

The Rockcastle County Jaycees will be sponsoring Roger and Lee Ann's Grand Illusion Magic Show at the Mt. Vernon Elementary School Saturday, Sept. 28, at 7 p.m.

Roger Despard and his wife Lee Ann are from Cynthiana, where they have resided for the past five years.

Roger has been a professional magician for 18 years and has invested over $100,000 in his show which includes computer lighting, stereo sound and many special effects (flash pots, smoke, fog on the stage). They have also appeared in over 30 states in the last ten years.

New for this year's show is a 10,000-watt laser gun that cuts Lee Ann in half. Also new for the year is the Tube Illusion from Germany which is where Roger penetrates Lee Ann with four geometric objects and then she vanishes and reappears. Included with the new illusions are many classics in magic such as the levitation of Lee Ann and Harry Houdini's trunk escape.

Roger and Lee Ann are members of the Indian Creek Christian Church. Roger states that all of the magic that you see performed is done by natural skill and he doesn't have any supernatural abilities. Their show is family oriented and is good clean fun from small children to senior citizens.

"What Saith the Scriptures"

Monday marked the end of summer and the beginning of autumn. I am reminded of the words of Jer. 8:20 "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." With the passing of summer and as we moved toward the "deadness" of winter, we should be reminded as was Jeremiah that there are many souls in our world today that are not saved. In fact, most people are going to be lost. Jesus said "Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." How sad that many are going mindlessly toward destruction following the broad "easy" way. The problem is not with God and his desire for the salvation of man. Peter said "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." II Pet. 3:9 against Paul saith "Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth" I Tim. 2:4. yes, God certainly desires that men, all men, to come to the truth and repent, so that they can be among the saved. God is doing all that he can to seek to save souls from perishing, but too many live in unconcern. For the harvest of souls, who have come to God by obeying the gospel we rejoice; but for the majority who reject the gospel in unbelief and disobedience we can be nothing but sad over it. Soon the "summer season" to get right with God will be over. We shall either die or Jesus shall return and the opportunity to be right with God shall have passed. Have you been saved from your sins in Christ Jesus? You must believe the gospel message of Jesus Christ and his death, burial and resurrection, Jn. 3:16, 8:24; I Cor. 15: 1-4. You must then turn in repentance toward God, Ac. 17: 30-31, Lk. 13:3, Ac. 2:38. You must confess with the mouth the Lord Jesus, Rm. 10: 9-10, Ac. 8:37. And you must be baptized in the name of Christ for the remission of sins, Ac. 2:38, Mk. 16: 16. Then remain faithful unto death, Rev. 2:10, Mt. 10:22. Please don't let the "summer" of life pass by, without being saved from sin.

State says county should build high school

By: Richard Anderkin
 Rockcastle County School officials got a surprise last week, when they were told that the county needed a new Rockcastle County High School.

School officials and many local citizens had been under the impression for the past several months, that it would be a new middle school that they would have to build.

But, after the state completed their facilities survey a couple of weeks ago, they notified Superintendent Bige Towery Jr., that it was their opinion that the greatest building need for the local system at the present time was a new high school.

They say to have a good solid plan you must start from the top and work your way down," Towery said. A public hearing is scheduled for next Thursday, October 3, at 10 a.m., at the Rockcastle County High School.

The hearing will be conducted by twenty county Department of Education employees and they will field questions and comments from the crowd. The draft of the facility plan is available for public review at the administration office in Mt. Vernon.

The plan submitted to Towery and the local board of education by the state calls for the local system to move toward the middle school concept.

"They are requiring all districts in the state to provide for a middle school in their future building plans," Towery said.

When it is all said and done the state wants Rockcastle to build a new high school, move all county sixth, seventh and eighth graders to the present high school, designate Livingston elementary school as a transitional center for the time being, add a new library and a new cafeteria to Roundstone school and building a new Broadhead Elementary school.

Broadhead's new school would not come for about six years, according to Towery who said the state thinks Rockcastle County has about $15 million in construction needs.

The price tag on a new high school, $7.1 million.

If the state plan is approved by the Kentucky School Board, construction on the high school could begin next Fall.

Once the high school is completed, and the present high school

Present high school will be used as middle school for 6th, 7th & 8th

has been converted to a middle school, Livingston for any student from Livingston that wants to go to Mt. Vernon. But, for the next few years the school would remain open.

Towery said that the states requires that the new high school be built within a mile radius of the old one. If it isn't the local school system would have to get special permission from Kentucky's Commissioner of Education, Thomas Boyesen.

$7.1 million is a lot of money, and the question has to be asked, if the local school system can afford the building project?

"With a little belt tightening we think we can afford the project without putting us in a bind," Towery said.

No final decision on any building projects will be made by the state until after the public hearing.

Towery said that he requested an evening hearing, but the state refused, saying they had another hearing scheduled in Laurel County the same day.

New district will help others

By: Laura Mize

The fact that communities throughout Rockcastle County survive without a constant source of water is not the latest discovery.

With this problem at hand, different alternatives of obtaining vital water sources have been devised. Among them are both Western Rockcastle Water District and Northern Rockcastle Water District.

These groups are able to supply many residents with water, yet funding prevents this supply from extending throughout the whole county.

In effort to furnish water to those areas, the county gains yet another group — The Rockcastle County Water Association.

The Association has been working since May to devise sources and ways of receiving water in the unsupplied areas of the county. These areas include the Three Links/Climax/Brush Creek, the Red Hill/Sand Hill/Lamero, Slatesy Branch, and Sand Springs/Pongo areas.

To date, RCWA has applied for a grant through ARC and a loan from FHA to help fund the project in the Three Links/Climax/Brush Creek area.

Each area will be completed one at a time. Currently the Association is waiting for the Three Links/Climax/Brush Creek grant and loans before applying for any of the others.

A fee for connection to the water source will be assessed, although the Association has to collect those fees prior to hook-up. Connection fees began at $300 if paid by the due date. The date set for the Three Links/Climax/Brush Creek area was September 1, after which time the fees increased by $50.

If the applications to ARC and FHA are not approved and the water does not get to the resident, the fee is reimbursed in its entirety.

Projected cost to the consumer is estimated at a minimum of $10,000 for 2,000 gallons and $5,000 per 1,000 gallons beyond the minimum.

The next area for consideration will be the Sand Springs/Pongo area. The area has undergone preliminary testing to determine if the current sources of water are contaminated beyond safe usage.

The Department of Mines and Minerals took samples of the water to determine if the area requires further study.

Should the area need further research, there exists the possibility of receiving a 100% grant from the Department of Mines and Minerals for the Sand Springs/Pongo area if the water there proves unacceptable.

19-year-old shot to death

A Livingston man died Sunday at Rockcastle Hospital about an hour after he was shot in the abdomen.

Jeffrey Clinton Bailey, 19, and a friend, Eddie Sturgill, were in the bedroom at Sturgill's home and were "handling" a .38 "special" when the gun went off accidentally, Sturgill told police.

No ruling has been made in the death, police reported. The investigation is continuing.

The shooting occurred at the home of Sturgill's stepfather, Charles "Bud" Loyell. No one else was in the bedroom but the two men.

Bailey was born in Ft. Wayne, Ind., July 28, 1972, the son of Lack Bailey and Phyllis Saylor and was a member of the Bible Baptist Church.

He is survived by his mother and stepfather, Phyllis and Roger Lopez of Livingston; his father and stepmother, Lack and Ruby Bailey of Bledsoe; his maternal grandparents, Woodrow Saylor and Lancy Helton, both of Cumers Creek; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Bailey of Bledsoe; his maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Tallie Saylor of Garrard County; a brother, Tim Argerbright of Livingston; a sister, Carl Argerbright of Berea; a stepbrother, Michael Lopez of Mt. Vernon, a half-brother and two half-sisters.

Services were conducted Sept. 25, at the Cartersville Holiness Church by Bros. Raymond Pingleton and Donnie Pingleton. Burial was in the Saylor Family Cemetery in Garrard County. Arrangements were by the Dowell & Martin Funeral Home.

Kentucky School Commissioner Tom Boyesen has proclaimed September 30 as "Support the Spirit" Day. In an effort to show support on the local level, County Judge Executive Roland Mullins, left, and Superintendent Bige Towery signed a proclamation to encourage participation in the "Support the Spirit" program within Rockcastle County, which is one of 13 school systems that has been chosen as host districts to a group of Kentucky Education Reform Act supporters.

Poet's Corner

On the 26th day of September,
A day for all to remember,
A country boy came to be
In the year of 1933.

He grew up at what is now the lake.
Not knowing the toils life must take.
New shoes and overalls, what a combination!
Everyone should be in that situation.

Life Without a Wife

By: Lewis F. Bowling

Believe me when I tell you it is a lonesome life.
When in this world you have lost your wife.
There is no love greater on this earth
No price can be put on its worth.

A part of you is gone for good.
You can't bring her back though you wish you could.
Her love and cheer and good advice is gone forever from this life.
She has gone to a better place.
Given to her by God's love and grace.
There to dwell forevermore on that bright shore.

We must live this life day by day.
For there is no other way.
Waiting for the call to come.
To join her in that heavenly home.
There to be together again.
In a life that has no end.
To live forever from this life.
For those who are His very own.

If you ask how I know,
The Holy Bible tell us so,
His Word is very true
What He does for others
He will do for you.

January twenty-six nineteen eighty seven. My wife Roxie went to be with Him in heaven.

The Mount Vernon Signal, Thursday, September 26, 1991 A-P3

He started to Little Rock University.
To finish 8th grade without electricity.

Whoever got rid of that school was a fool.
Today he feels we still need that little school.
After finishing his Alma Mater of Little Rock.
To Brodhead he walked to join the flock.
That required several miles a day so he leaves after a two year stay.

He's out in the big world now.
What a surprise for a country boy, wow!
He joins a branch of service known as the Army,

All the big places he'd read about,
he now can see.

Still a young man, he returns home,
Not much farther to roam.
For heaven smiled down on you.
At all the good you seemed to do.

For 33 years you have cut hair,
At prices more than fair.
You married and a sweet family did raise.
We love you and give you lots of praise.

Although you are only 58,
There's lots of life you can make.
Your friends will always love you
the same,
As well as the day you learned their name.

When you grow old and ugly,
As most folks do,
Remember you have friends
Who's old and gully too.
Happy Birthday!

county clean!

County-wide 4-H Talk Meet set for October 29

By: John McQuary
County Extension Agent
for 4-H

The Rockcastle County 4-H Council will hold their annual speech contest on Tuesday, October 29th at 6:30 p.m. at the Mt. Vernon Elementary School (in the gymnasium area). Just as last year, the contest will be held as a joint project with the schools. Through 4-H, winning speakers will have the opportunity to advance to area and state competition.

The number of participants eligible for the county contest per class has been determined according to how many students in each grade at each school. Teachers may wish to work together to determine grade (age) representatives.

To make this joint project possible, the following rules are necessary:

1. The maximum number of representatives that can be sent to the county talk meet per age group at each school is as follows:

School: Brodhead - age 9-grade 4 (4); age 10-grade 5 (5); age 11-grade 6 (5); age 12-grade 7 (5); age 13-grade 8 (5)

Livingston - age 9-grade 4 (3); age 10-grade 5 (3); age 11-grade 6 (3); age 12-grade 7 (3); age 13-grade 8 (4)

Mt. Vernon - age 9-grade 4 (6); age 10-grade 5 (6); age 11-grade 6 (5); age 12-grade 7 (6); age 13-grade 8 (8)

Roundstone - age 9-grade 4 (3); age 10-grade 5 (3); age 11-grade 6 (4); age 12-grade 7 (3); age 13-grade 8 (3)

2. Any boy or girl, age 9-19, may participate in the 4-H Talk Meet Program. (The participant does not presently have to be enrolled in 4-H).

3. The top speeches from each grade will compete against other youth of their own age category and not necessarily against their grade. The age category is determined as the age on January 1, 1992.

4. 4-Hers CANNOT use the same speech this year in the county speech contest if he or she won with that speech on the county, area or state level last year.

5. Junior age categories are 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13. Senior age categories are 14, 15, and 16-19.

6. Junior age category talks are to be 3 to 5 minutes long. Senior age category talks are to be 5 to 7 minutes long.

7. A participant may secure assistance from anyone he/she chooses in writing or preparing his/her talk. There is no specific topic, any suitable topic can be used.

8. The participant and those who may work with him should be familiar with the following:

a. Objectives of the 4-H Talk Meet program.

Sweet and Sour

By: Zi Graves

Howdy y'all. Guess what? I just discovered my stock of yellow tablet paper I use for writing "Sweet and Sour". I never did like yellow paper to write on when I was a child but for some reason or other it now seems to bring forth the words from my faithful pen better than the white paper does. Excuses for my delay in writing?

Maybe so, but I think almost everyone knows I've been in the process of moving and things like writing material have a way of disappearing. My patience, and strength and train of thought were also casualties of the move. But now that I've found my writing material maybe I can get back in the groove.

27th Anniversary

Ebb Ben and Willa Robinson Allen celebrated their 27th wedding anniversary on Sept. 12. They reside on Rt. 2, Mt. Vernon. Mr. Allen recently retired from Harlan Co.

Thanks to all of you who keep calling and writing to ask why they can't find "Sweet and Sour" in the Signal. It's no fault of the editors.

I do appreciate every call and letter I've received, keep them coming for that's the only way I have of knowing you are reading and enjoying them. I would also like to know what you enjoy most, "down memory lane", traveling through the U.S.A., local problems, or just plain gossip? Then I will have a talk with my pen and see what can be done about it.

This funny little pen though, has a way of its own. I may start it on a trip down memory lane and it will end up pecking in the paper and cheering an article written by Perlina on the evils of T.V. programs. Keep it up Perlina, I'm glad you walked into the room when you did and saw what your children were watching. Now you can more fully understand what I have previously written about when I made the statement that today's T.V. programs are the wrong teachers for our children.

The minds of young children absorb what they hear and see like a sponge as it forms the character of the child for life. It's up to us parents and grandparents to see that our T.V. programs are cleaned up. We can, by writing letters to producers or boycotting programs, or the products of the sponsors of programs accomplish this if we all work together. United we stand, together we celebrate.

Webbs to celebrate 65th anniversary

The 65th wedding anniversary of Roscoe and Locie Mae Doan Webb will be celebrated at the Rockcastle County Library in Mt. Vernon on Sat., Sept. 28 from 2 to 4 p.m. An open house invitation is extended to everyone.

And speaking about accomplishments, as I'm writing this I am also looking around my room and seeing the multitude of things I need to accomplish and wonder what I am doing just sitting here at a desk holding onto a crazy pen. There are pictures to be hung, boxes of books to be unpacked and put in the bookcase, and papers, (ugh), to be gone through and filed. Will I ever get it all done? You bet I will! I've never failed yet to accomplish what I set out to do and I'm too old now to accept failure as a new way of life.

Hopefully my next "Sweet and Sour" will be written from my old place of writing it, looking out my dining room window at the farm and enjoying the fall scenery of which I am so fond.

I will be dividing my time between the farm and city living. Each has its attractions and advantages and I love them both.

Since this is the start of a new year for Homemakers we held club elections and voted in a new president, Sandi Thomas; vice president, Pearl Burdette; and secretary/treasurer, Linda Williams.

Our lesson was on "Managing Grief" given by Linda Williams. It was a mini lesson on how to help others through grief. Knowing how to be a good listener and being there for them shows you really care about them.

After refreshments, our meeting closed with a reminder of our next meeting on Oct. 5th at Conway Baptist Church at 7 p.m. The lesson will be on "Litter and Recycling".

Points East

By: Ike Adams

Two or three neighbors and several people at work have been complaining about the mice that invade their homes about this time every year. Little tan colored fellers with white bellies and threats and ears that are a tad longer than the little gray rodents that get in most homes. People were standing in line at the counters with boxes of D-Con and Eagle 7 last Friday afternoon after the cold snap hit on Thursday night. One lady told me she had called seven different places trying to find mouse traps. They're all sold out.

We have a cat in our house, ole Socrates, so we don't see many mice. He buries them in his litter box. A cat box smells bad enough when cleaning time comes without any help. But if you want a real stink, let a dead mouse ripen up for about a week in one and then mix with the other odor.

You have to use a gas mask to get it out of the house. There's probably a law somewhere, that says you have to bury it six feet deep and I'd bet it would still kill grass.

But we don't have many mice. For that matter, I wouldn't mind having one of the brown guys - field mice is what they are - cause I think they're sort of pretty.

We give ole Socrates a lot of credit, ing fellowship. May God bless them all.

Please attend church and Sunday School every time you can. We all need to be good to each other, love and pray for each other and always honor God and His House. And try our best to be good witnesses for Him. And about all I prepare to meet the Lord when He calls. Life is uncertain but death is sure. Love to you all.

so far, but they might as well be as big as a light pole.

Jennifer, the 14 year-old in our domicile has our upstairs all to herself. We're talking teenager with a whole floor and it's worked out pretty good for the rest of the family so far. Except for the daily smug she gives Christoper's room, the rest of us don't get insulted nearly as much as we might if she had a room on our floor. She refers to Chris's room as "the dump", "the pig pen", "hell on earth" and several other cutting descriptions. For the most part, the observations of her brother's room aren't terribly inaccurate.

And it's not a feature of our home that she ever shows friends who come to spend the night. She frequently suggests that sleeping in it is probably a health hazard.

She hasn't done a speck of cleaning, but for the last few nights, Jennifer has slept in the other bed in her

Vacation in the Rockies

Cumminses bicycle through Canada

By: Laura Mize

The thought of a vacation in the Rocky Mountains suggests rest and relaxation to most. To Robert Cummins, it suggests a challenge.

On July 3, 1991, native Rockcastle Countians Robert Cummins of North Carolina and his nephew David, a Franklin, Kentucky, lawyer, embarked on a most memorable excursion through the Rockies.

Peddling their way to mountain tops, the two rode their bikes from Kallispell, Montana, to Lake Louise, Alberta, Canada.

The journey encompassed over 500 miles through Kootenay, Banff, and Glacier National Parks where David and Robert enjoyed a close-up view of the scenery and wildlife.

"You really learn to appreciate nature by traveling on bikes," commented David.

The highlight of David's ride was the Going-to-the-Sun Road. The descent on the west side was about 12 miles long with an approximate grade of 6%. If they stopped for pictures, they would have to let their bikes roll backwards before getting enough momentum to proceed forward. "The road in itself is unbelievable," said David.

After completing the 500 mile, nine day trek, Robert and David continued touring by taking in the sights. They biked around Calgary and visited the largest glacier south of the Arctic Circle.

A popular recreation in Western Canada, bicycling proves profitable for everyone involved. Not only does it promote better health, but it is economical and ecological as well.

The area welcomes the sport as it provides wide shoulders on many of the roads - ideal for biking.

Robert began such adventures 15 years ago when he took up the sport to maintain his health. In that time he guided his bicycle through parts of Europe and much of the U.S.

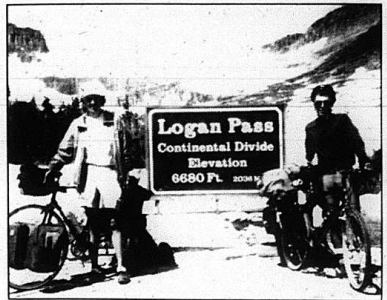

A seasoned bicyclist, Robert takes several excursions each year. David, however, experienced his first long ride in this summer's trip. As David commented, Robert is a "bicycling extraordinaire".

The Cummins encourage traveling by bicycle as it keeps one in good health and provides a picturesque backdrop for travelers.

According to David, anyone in average physical health and accustomed to exercise should be capable of participating in such bicycle tours with little training. He believes that a lot of a bike rider's success depends on the equipment he/she uses.

David is a 1979 graduate of RCHS and the son of Jeannine Cummins of Danville, formerly of Mt. Vernon, and the late Kenneth Cummins.

From WHAS Crusade

Hospital receives $10,000 grant

By: Laura Mize

The Respiratory Unit of the Rockcastle County Hospital is the proud recipient of a $10,000 grant from the WHAS-Crusade for Children.

WHAS out of Louisville is a veteran radio station as well as a newly established television station.

For 17 years, WHAS has sponsored the Crusade for Children which raises money that is allotted to organizations throughout Kentucky to benefit children.

Since 1954, over $7 million dollars have been raised for the aid in care and treatment of handicapped children. Basically, any organization that oversees the well-being of ill or handicapped children is eligible to apply for a grant.

Rockcastle County Hospital Speech Therapist, Linda Peavie, expressed her belief that raising funds on the local level was the key factor in receiving the generous amount.

"Organizations must put forth an effort to raise money themselves so the Crusade will know they are trying," Linda explained.

Application deadlines for the Crusade were fast approaching as Linda and her helpers began frantically trying to raise as much money as possible in a short amount of time.

"Most fund-raisers are done all year long, but we did ours from March until May," recalled Linda.

On Memorial Day Weekend, Ms. Peavie, Ed Yount and a host of others joined together at the intersection of highways 461 and 25 to create a road block where they collected over $2,000 from passers-by.

With the help of community donations and Central / Eastern Kentucky Crusade Coordinator Ed Yount, over $5,000 was raised for the cause.

The grant application was for the intended purchase of a van to transport ventilator dependant children, however, $10,000 was insufficient funds to purchase the van.

When the Board of Directors at the hospital approved the grant, they also agreed to provide the department with the difference in order to purchase the van.

Although the grant did not fulfill the entire expense, it is to the respiratory department's advantage. If the Crusade would have covered the full amount, the van would only transport children instead of adults.

Partial coverage allows usage by both. The grant from the Crusade will be the first of such allocated to Rockcastle County.

According to Linda Peavie, it is unusual for a first time recipient to receive such a high amount.

WHAS radio and television provide the promotional vehicle for the Crusade. All across the state the airwaves become saturated with WHAS signals that carry telethons and advertisements.

The Crusade not only offers financial relief to the hospitals, but to universities, boards of education, training workshops and the opening of such establishments as the Ronald McDonald House in Louisville.

A non-profit organization, the Crusade accepts applications from any organization that deals with handicapped or ill children. Although the Crusade can not approve all applications for lack of funds, each one is given intense consideration by a group of five ministers who then allocate the funds to various places according to the organization's need and willingness to use the funds wisely and properly.

Operated solely on interest funds, the Crusade proudly reports a total of over 2 million dollars collected and dispersed in 1990. This money was utilized to fund 171 different programs, which equals 12 more than 1989's Crusade.

Ms. Peavie extended her thanks to all who made the donations and the grant possible. She emphasized that the project was a community project as many residents and businesses donated.

"I want to be sure we raise the money next year to continue the grants," said Linda as she anticipated the possibility of future grants for Rockcastle County's children.

Local business people to teach students in "Project Business"

Junior Achievement, the program designed to bring business and economics to life for students, is making its debut in Rockcastle County.

Beginning this semester, local business leaders will enter the classroom to teach 8th grade students basic economics in a program called Project Business.

These business consultants enter the classroom one hour a week to elaborate on classroom studies by giving personal examples and using fun activities to illustrate what students learn in textbooks.

Students learn how to write checks and balance a checkbook, how to invest and sell stocks, how to start a business, etc.

High school students will be involved in Applied Economics, another Junior Achievement program that will be piloted in the spring semester.

A training was held for these business leaders at the Rockcastle County Hospital on Wednesday, Sept. 18, 1991.

Mary Wilkin, President of Junior Achievement of the Bluegrass, stated, "The training marks the beginning of a special relationship between education and business. Both communities are eager to start a program that helps students understand the business world which surrounds them."

Teachers piloting these programs are Carol Pybas, Roundstone Elementary, Betty Henderson and Carla Parsons, Mt. Vernon Elementary, and Janie Grisby of Livingston Elementary. Bill Lynch will pilot the Applied Economics course at RCHS.

The business consultants involved include Ed Cheatham, Mt. Vernon Plastics, Steve Estes, Rockcastle County Hospital, Devin Ford, Ford Brothers Realty, and Charles Burdine, Bank of Mt. Vernon. All of these volunteers not only contribute financially, but their time as well.

During the training meeting, Ms. Wilkin and her assistant, Heather Standifer, explained to the consultants how the children initially react to the program, how to present the working world to children in a realistic yet interesting manner, and what to expect from the program in general.

In addition to learning about business, the consultants become role models from our community that the children can identify as someone they really know.

Junior Achievement not only teaches students about business, but also allows them hands on training.

Although the specific program is not installed everywhere in the state, some students get the chance to own and operate their own company.

From president down to the laborers, all employees are Junior Achievers. Together they create a product, market it, distribute it, sell it and reap both financial and educational benefits from it. Each company is formed with the help of business consultants giving their time to share their trade.

To date, Junior Achievement of the Bluegrass houses 10 operating businesses, all youth operated. Students who participate in a company do so voluntarily as an extra-curricular activity.

Mary Wilkin stated that Junior Achievement programs as such are popular, however prove to be inconvenient for consultants and students alike because all meetings and transactions are held in the evening. This is why Junior Achievement is becoming a part of the school program.

Student involvement in sports and other activities allows little time for another after school program. On the same principle, businesses are willing to allow a representative from their company to participate in a school program during the day. After all, these businesses may be producing future company assets.

Shelby Reynolds, Rockcastle County Instructional Supervisor/ Director of Special Education, said that Project Business and Applied Economics is laying a foundation from which a Junior Achievement company could be formed at a later date.

Never before pursued in the system, Project Business provides students with an understanding of business procedures. Reynolds commented that with the input business has in our society and community, it is important for the children to understand it.

This understanding makes students aware of the many career choices. As Mr. Reynolds commented, "The students might say, 'Sure, you're out there but there's no way I can do it.'" He continued by saying, "The sooner we create that awareness, the more choices they'll have to draw from."

In addition to those benefits, Reynolds believes that the program will serve as a deterrent to drop-outs as he stated, "They will be with successful business people, and most were school successes who pursued an education to do their jobs."

According to Reynolds, when students learn that business has two sides - consumers and producers - they also learn that they need to choose a vocation where there is a demand for products.

Applied Economics, which is the Junior Achievement program for high school students, will teach the students the specifics of the economy whereas Project Business will simply provide an awareness.

Ed Cheatham, Mt. Vernon Plastics and Devin Ford, Ford Brothers Realty and Auction Co., both standing and Steve Estes, comptroller of the Rockcastle Co. Hospital are all supporters of Junior Achievement in Rockcastle Co. Schools.

School psychologist Kenna Mogg with Shelby Reynolds, right, instructional supervisor/director of special education and Larry Hammond, director of student services.

Kenna Mogg begins fourth year here

School Psychologist Kenna Mogg is embarking on her fourth year with the Rockcastle County School System.

She spent her first semester at Rockcastle creating an early childhood program. Kennas referred to students of all the schools from any source. She is always there to guide and direct students with school related problems.

Ms. Mogg is the first school psychologist Rockcastle has ever had. She received the position after serving her internship here.

Rockets whip Pulaski, 31-0; now ranked 15th in the state

Again, there was no change in the Rockets' winning streak in the '91 season thus far. The latest victim was Pulaski County last Friday night when the Rockets rolled over the Maroons 31-0 at RCHS.

With the win, the Rockets have now moved their record to a perfect 4-0 and have moved themselves into a 15th ranking overall in the state. It's the first time ever that a Rockets football team has ever been ranked within the top 20 across the state. Also, the Rockets have moved up two notches in Class 2A and are now ranked fourth. Pulaski's head coach John Brown said in a radio interview last week that he thought his team would defeat the Rockets by two touchdowns, however, Rocket's head coach Tom Larkey commented after the game that he knew after the first few plays of the game that Pulaski would never score.

Larkey also said after the game, "I feel that this was the best defensive game so far this year."

The Rockets' defense held Pulaski's offense to under 50 yards rushing and Pulaski had only two first downs the whole night.

This game also marked the third shut-out of the year for the Rockets defense. This sets a new record during the Lahey era. Two shut-outs were the previous record.

The Rockets wasted no time getting on the scoreboard Friday night. Only four plays into the game, J.D. Harris broke away for a 54 yard touchdown and Curtis Cotton's extra-point attempt was good and the Rockets had an early seven point lead.

From that point on, the Rockets had full control of the tempo which never once turned in Pulaski's favor.

"I feel Pulaski was a very boring team to watch. Their offense didn't do anything exciting," Larkey said. In the first play of the second quarter, after a 60 yard drive by the Rockets, quarterback Scott Parkey ran the ball in from the 20 yard line for the second touchdown of the game. Cotton's kick was good and the Rockets were leading 14-0.

The Rockets kicked to Pulaski and the Maroons took over on their own 37 yard line. On the first play of their drive, Pulaski fumbled and Mike Durham recovered for the Rockets. This was only the first of many key plays made all night by the Rocket defense.

The Rockets took over on Pulaski's 31 yard line and on the first play of the drive, Parkey connected with William Hellard for a 31 yard touchdown. Cotton's kick was good and Pulaski could only watch the Rockets lead increase to 21 points.

"I was pleased with Parkey's performance at quarterback," Larkey said. "He threw for a touchdown, ran for a touchdown and was instrumental all over the field on offense," he added.

The Rockets managed to get three more points on the scoreboard before the half was over when Curtis Cotton kicked an 11 yard field goal to give the Rockets a 24 point lead at the half. The Rockets were silent through the third quarter and their last touchdown came when Johnathon Saylor carried the ball in from the goal line and Cotton's kick was good for the Rockets 31 point lead.

The Rockets' offensive coordinator Tony Saylor noted that Bobby Coffey's defensive play of the game Cont't to B-3

Rockets' quarterback Scott Parkey rolls out of the pocket during last Friday night's homecoming game against Pulaski County at the high school. The Rockets dominated the game which was proven by the 31-0 outcome and with the win moved themselves into a 15th ranking in the state.

Scouting Report for Leslie County

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Scouting report: Head Coach Tom Larkey feels this could be the hardest game thus far this season. Leslie is 4-0 having beat Hazard, Knott Co., Central, Cawood and Clay County in two overtimes. "I feel this is a good time to be playing them. They have come off a big win against Clay Co.," Larkey said. Leslie County starts 10 seniors and fields an all-state quarterback. Leslie usually throws the ball 25 to 30 times a game. They have two returning receivers.

Junior varsity beat Madison Southern 49-0

The Rockcastle County Junior Varsity football team are 3-0 on the season as they easily defeated Madison Southern 49-0 Monday night.

Michael Shaffer and Greg Bowman each scored touchdowns in the first quarter. Shaffer scored on a 60 yard pass from Jason Fletcher and Bowman scored on a 50 yard run. J.D. Bussell completed the two-point conversion to Mickey McClure and the Rockets were leading 14-0 in the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Louie Davis ran in a five yard touchdown and Bowman's extra-point kick was good. Bowman had an eight yard touchdown run and Bowman's extra point kick was good for a 28 point lead at the half.

J.D. Bussell completed a 50 yard touchdown pass to Jason Fletcher and Bowman's kick was good during the third quarter. Jeff Navarre ran in a five yard touchdown and Bowman's kick was good and the Rockets had a 42 point lead at the end of the third quarter.

The Rockets' only touchdown in the fourth quarter came when the Rockets marched down field and Jeff Navarre carried the ball in from the one yard line. Bowman's extra-point kick was good for a 49 point victory. The junior varsity's next game will be next Monday night against Wayne County at RCHS. Game time is 6 p.m.

Chris Kirby scored on a three yard run in the second quarter and Whitley County scored again to hold a six point lead at the half.

Teen Center Perspectives

By: Ginny Gilpatrick

The big news this week at the Teen Center is the Saturday Night Dance for all. Live music will be provided by the "Lost Angels" of local fame. Eric Brock, Eric Ballock, Joey Ballock and Billy Kidwell comprise the group, all from RCHS. If the weather is good the dancing will expand to the parking lot behind the Teen Center. Admission is $2 and the hours are 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. Decorating will be done on Friday since the Teen Center will be closed during the day on Saturday so employees can attend the annual CAP picnic.

The following Saturday, October 5, a trip to the Louisville Zoo is planned. Teens will meet up with Garrard Teen Center along the way. Permission slips, accompanied by the $4.50 admission fee, must be turned in Friday, October 4. The van will leave promptly at 10 a.m. and teens will return home by about 7 p.m. Teens plan to actively participate in the Bittersweet Festival on October 11 and 12. Under the supervision of staff they will man the concession stands in an effort to raise money for a new pool table. They will also assist the children in the Library's Storybook Parade. Young children, through grade 5, may compete for trophies for best costumes depicting their favorite storybook characters. Teens will help judge and present the prizes. (Children may register at the library.)

And volleyball for all ages is still on for Wednesday nights, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Teens are a vital part of the community and teen energy is a valuable commodity. Rockcastle County is fortunate to have active and motivated teenagers and needs to support their efforts.

Tiger Pause

Brodhead Elementary welcomed the first day of autumn (Mon.) with bulletin boards and displays of harvest signs: pumpkins, squashes, apples, colorful leaves, etc.

Undeterred fourth graders gathered in the gloomy mist, Monday morning to watch "Pioneer Annie" who was dressed in shawl and bonnet - as she churned butter, made cornbread and demonstrated spinning and weaving with a spinning wheel and table loom. Some students participated in the preparation, while others copied recipes. Mrs. Nancy Parkinson, librarian, will, no doubt, have numerous requests for Laura Wilder's Little House books. Mrs. Annie Silva, from Bowling Green, is showcased through art sponsorship for the Kentucky Center for the Arts.

Words have been received that alumnus, Amy Johnson was published in Beta Club's national magazine for winning state level competition for a pastel drawing entered while a student at BES. Amy is a freshman at RCHS. Congratulations, Amy!

Wednesday, September 25, marks the ending of the first six weeks grading period. Report cards will be sent home. Wednesday, October 2, Kentucky Kid's Day, Tuesday, Sept. 24, was recognized by the PTA by giving each of our students a sucker.

Noel Dodson visited the seventh grade classes of Mrs. Caroline Graves. Mr. Dodson gave a slide presentation of his visit to Africa. The seventh graders are studying Egypt in World History and African art in Art class.

The Performing Arts classes will be performing "Sing and Celebrate", Tuesday, Oct. 1, at 2 p.m. in the school gymnasium. You are invited.

Our seventh and eighth grade students traveled to MVES, Thursday for an orientation to National Youth + CARE - hotline 1-800-729-4227. If there's a problem, or maybe things just aren't going right, sometimes someone to talk to is just what we need. The "I CARE HOTLINE" is open 24 hours a day. It's toll free and it's totally confidential, so no one has to know that you called, or what you called about.

STATIC, our Primary Block, celebrated "Johnny Applesced Day", Tuesday, Sept. 24, by planting a tree, taking a walking tour to Taylor Produce, where each student received an apple, then Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Dyehouse and Mrs. Wright directed the children in making "apple" art and related applies to the language arts area of the curriculum.

"Support the Spirit" of the Kentucky Education Reform Act will be celebrated through out the state on Tuesday, Sept. 30. Dr. Boysen, elected officials, and state department personnel will be making visits to Rockcastle County schools.

Roundsone staff members and students are excited about the possibility that these distinguished visitors could visit to view our progress toward implementation of KERA. Some activities at Roundsone to help implementing KERA include interactive teaching, students experiencing hands-on/manipulative instruction, students on tasks that promote critical thinking, preschool, and transition toward primary school. Also, as a part of KERA, students in grades 4, 8 and 12 will develop portfolios demonstrating their abilities in writing. Other grade levels will be participating in these activities on a limited basis.

Mrs. Paula Davis' preschoolers have had fun this week learning about estimation. They had a practice guessing the number of beans in jars. Also, they counted and planned to mate seeds.

The kindergarten classes of Mrs. Vickie Scott have been adopted by Mrs. Renee Bartlett's third grade class. The third graders will be doing special activities with the younger students. Mrs. Scott's class has adopted the tree in front of our school. They will watch and care for the tree during the seasonal changes.

Mrs. Scott's class members would like to thank Mrs. Kathy for the delicious doughnut for Mr. D'.

Mrs. Coffey's fourth grade class has had an exciting week. They have been studying the layers of the earth. Within this unit, volcanoes were studied. With the help of Alan Pencil, basiscarts coordinator for the county, the class constructed a two foot tall paper mache' volcano. Along with the volcano, a background was drawn and palm trees were made of construction paper. The class plans to display the completed project in the hall near their classroom. The students would like to thank Cox's Hardware for donating the chicken wire for the base of the volcano.

Parents of Roundsone students are invited and encouraged to schedule conferences with their children's teacher. Conferences can be scheduled by writing a note to the teacher or by calling 256-2235.

Mrs. Bottoms has been visiting with faculty at RCHS to discuss communicating writing with students. Workshops have been held to share writing techniques that work with students by the faculty. ### Library News

By: Geraldine Robbins

The Rockcastle County Public Library is co-sponsoring a Story Book Parade (see additional ad in this week's paper) for all children, preschool to fifth grade. The children should dress as their favorite story-book character. The parade will be held on Friday, October 11th at 3 p.m. on Main Street in Mt. Vernon. This will be part of the Bittersweet Festival. Register your children at the library or mail in the form with the parent's signature on it.

I'd like to remind anyone that might be interested in entering their art work in the "Images From the Mountains" art show, the entries must be post-marked no later than October 12. For more details and entry forms, please contact us at the library.

Some new books available at the library are: 1. For All Their Lives by Fern Michaels; The year is 1966. The conflict in Vietnam is beginning to tear the nation apart. Captain Mac Carlin, handsome son of one of Washington's most powerful and influential justices, defies the father he hates and volunteers for duty in the war. Empty and lonely, he is ready to leave his life- and his marriage-behind.

Across the country in San Francisco, Casey Adams has just arrived from France, where she has been raised in a Pakistani orphanage. Casey has a true vocation for nursing, and her surgical experience makes her ideal for duty in Vietnam.

A chance encounter in a California coffee shop changes the lives of Casey and Mac forever. They meet again in Vietnam, and as the war rages around them, Mac and Casey fall deeply in love.

For All Their Lives is an unforgettable saga of love and war, of heartache and hope as men and women, friends and adversaries, lovers and strangers, confront their lives and the challenges of fate to answer the calling of their hearts.

2. Night Over Water by Ken Follet. In 1939, two days after Britain declares war against Germany, a group of desperate people gather to board the largest, most luxurious airliner ever built. Over the Atlantic, bound for New York from England, the passengers are gripped in fear as their journey reaches the point of no-return.

3. Me, an autobiography by Katherine Hepburn. In that inimitable Hepburn voice-witty intelligent, candid, immediate- she tells us the stories of her life. She takes us back to her childhood, into her family life... to her early days in New York and Hollywood... through the ups and downs of her career... into the sanctuaries of her private life... through her long friendship with Spencer Tracy... into her close collaboration with many of the leading actors, directors and producers of the past sixty years. She reveals the person behind the persona in a vivid, unforgettable self-portrait; Katherine Hepburn as we have never seen her.

4. Exposing Myself, an autobiography of Geraldo Rivera, written by Geraldo with Daniel Paisner. Award-winning broadcast journalist, Geraldo Rivera recounts his struggles as a minority kid with dreams of stardom and his rise to the top- and fall to the bottom- of America's pop culture scene. Exposing Myself not only shows the hard-edged media celebrity we all know, but divulges a personal side as well- including details of his four marriages.

Two new quilt books are available: Quick Quilts and Great American Quilts 1992.
