Around Brodhead

By: Mary McWhorter

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Adams celebrated their Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary Saturday January twenty fifth at the Rockcastle County Library in Mt. Vernon. There were around six-hundred present. Among those from out of town were:

Mr. and Mrs. Bob York of Richmond, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yamell of Richmond, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Adams of New Palestine, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hordick of Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Ardie Adams of New Albany, Indiana, Mrs. Lois Nabiltand Rose Smith, Fern Reeves, Winchester, Rev. and Mrs. Darrell Martin of Winchester, Rev. and Mrs.

Darrell Ragan of Monticello. Also a large group of friends and relatives from here in the county attended. Everyone enjoyed the occasion very much and a lot of nice gifts were received and a delicious dinner enjoyed. We all wish them many more happy years together.

Mrs. Pearl Brown, widow of the late Russell Brown of Connersville, Ind. and formerly of Rockcastle County in the Willalla area passed away Jan. 11, 1992. She was laid to rest Wednesday, Jan. 15, in the Dale Cemetery at Connersville, Ind. Our sympathy goes to all the family.

Monday visitors of Mrs. Elva Mobley were Mr. and Mrs. David DeBorde and son Cody and Mrs. Norma Crank.

Mrs. Vivian Owens and Ruth Mink visited Mrs. Hazel Cummins Friday afternoon.

Miss Rebecca Cummins and girl friend visited her great aunt Ruth Mink Sunday.

Mrs. Audrey Hamm visited Mrs. Jewel Albright and Tooter Saturday afternoon.

Josephine Albright will celebrate her birthday on February 4th. As she loves cards, let's shower her with cards, as she is a shutin. Her address is Route #1 Box 217, Brodhead, 40409.

Legal issues explored on KET

The upcoming week on KET features examinations of explosive legal issues, with the premiere of a series devoted to discussion of constitutional issues -- leading off with the debate over abortion-- and a documentary on the trial of two white supremacists who claimed their activities were protected by the First Amendment's guarantee of free speech. Also airing are a Dick Cavett interview with Gore Vidal and a look at the origins of the Wilderness Act.

DICK CAVETT INTERVIEWS GORE VIDAL
An award-winning interviewer and one of America's most esteemed -- and most controversial -- writers trad anecdotes and insights in Dick Cavett with Gore Vidal, a one-hour special airing on KET at 10 p.m. Monday, February 3.

The American Experience traces the origins of the Wilderness Act

Bob Marshall was a Yale-educated millionaire socialist, Aldo Leopold a forester turned philosopher, and Howard Zahniser a bureaucrat. But they shared a fierce love for America's vanishing wilderness, and all three were instrumental in the passage of the 1964 legislation that set a system for preserving it. The American Experience chronicles their fight for the Wilderness Act in "Wild by Law," airing on KET at 9 p.m. Tuesday, February 4.

An Ordinance Amending the City of Livingston Rules and Regulations Regarding the Service Provided by the Water and Sewer System.

WHEREAS, the City is undertaking a Farmers Home Administration Water Extension and Improvements project; and

WHEREAS, the Farmers Home Administration requires that local governments adopt an ordinance regulation floodplain construction and water service;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the City of Livingston Commission as follows:

Section One: A new section of the rules and regulations under Section 21, Regulations, Prohibitions and Condition, is hereby adopted and states: The City shall deny water service to any new customer wishing to build in a designated floodplain.

The Week at Livingston

By: Frances Dickerson

Norman Mullins of Spokane, Washington is home due to the illness of his father Denver Mullins.

Mrs. Hazel Ball and Mrs. Guila Sizemore both of London were in Livingston Tuesday to attend the burial of their niece Betty James. While here they visited their brother Earl Ponder and Mrs. Ponder.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Bullock were in Louisville Sunday to visit Mrs. Bullock's mother.

Everett Holt of New Castle visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holt Monday.

Garland Cummins, James (Jim Bo) Cummins of Gum Sulphur and James Mink of Lexington visited Mrs. Carrie Lauder milk Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sinters and Mrs. Gladys Smith attended the funeral of Mrs. Smith's nephew, Fred Arvin, in Harlan Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tipton visited his father who is a patient in the hospital in Winchester. They also visited his mother who is in the nursing home in Winchester Saturday.

Jesse Mason remains in the Berea Hospital.

Brad Mullins and his family of Robinson, Ill., visited his grandfather Lee Mullins Saturday.

Irene Campbell and Winkie Knauth, both of Louisville, had dinner with the Mahaffey family Saturday.

spent that night with her mother.

Those girls are so good to their mother and she is so proud of them, and her other children too. They all love each other so much and get along together so well. It is wonderful to see families who love each other. There are so many that don't. I was happily surprised this past Sunday afternoon when we had as guests Allen Hudson of Berea and his daughter Betty Thacker of Lexington. We have known the Hudson family for many years. Allen and I went to high school together when I stayed with the Noland family at Valley View. They later moved here and lived for a number of years before moving to Berea. Allen wanted to go back to his old home place which is right down the road from where we live. After a good visit Hubert and I went with them to see the place where he had lived, of course the house is gone now. We all enjoyed the evening so much. Allen is in very poor health but I hope God bless him in his better soon.

On Monday morning of this week Hubert and I visited his step-mother, Mrs. Annie Chastean, of near Berea. She is doing well at age eighty five. Bless her heart she is a fine, lovely lady, but has had a hard life. We all love her so much.

Please attend church when you can. Hope all you parents treat your children good, and hope you boys and girls. Just remember they are the only father and mother you will ever have. Let's all love each other.

Fairview

By: Mrs. Hubert Chastean

Rev. Harvey Penson filled his regular appointment at the Fairview Baptist Church over the weekend with a large number for worship service and one hundred and sixteen for Sunday School.

Several of our folks around here have been ill with the flu and other ailments, including myself. I wasn't able to attend church Jan. 9th but was there this past Sunday. It hurts me so much to have to miss church services. I've always enjoyed being in church. Just thank God that I feel better and so glad others are better too.

Many of you have probably read about the number of deaths in and around here lately. There have been so many. But to each and every family we extend our deepest heartfelt sympathy. They all have our love and prayers, not only now but for weeks and months to come. God bless them.

We are having some mild weather and lots of rain but not too hotly any more. The temperature some days is in the fifties. The Good Lord knows what is best for us, and we should always be thankful and appreciate whatever He sends.

Mrs. Lucille Ponder visited her mother, Mrs. Edith Mullins on Sunday. Mrs. Mullins is doing very well. She is ninety one years old and is still able to care for herself, keep house and do her own cooking. She told me awhile back she had only been in the hospital one time in her life and that was around twenty years ago when she suffered from pneumonia and was treated by Dr. John C. Baker in the Berea Hospital. She is my favorite aunt and I love her so much (and many others do too). Her son Jesse and her daughters Lucille Ponder and Velma Croucher, who live close, are so good to her and do to her needs.

Some of our recent guests have been Eugene Alexander, Tip Reppert, Delilah Blair, Wayne Chastean and wife Carolyn and Joyce Seals and daughter Kim.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Croucher of Conway recently visited her sister Ardilla Tinch and husband Virgil of Franklin, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davidson and children Jenia and Jeremy of Brodhead, were Sunday guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tip Reppert of the Scaffold Cane area Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hudson of Lexington.

Hubert and I visited our son Junior and family in Berea a few days ago.

Mrs. Jean Hayes of Winchester visited her mother Mrs. Mary Cope last Monday. Jean and her other two sisters Helen Powell and Christine Barnett took their mother out to a Berea restaurant for lunch and Jean

District lines will be re-drawn in Rockcastle

By: Ray McClure

First the state; now, the counties. A commission is expected to be appointed shortly to reapportion the county's five magisterial districts to achieve one person, one vote, according to federal law. The Rockcastle Fiscal Court is expected to get together unofficially Thursday for an informational meeting to discuss reapportionment but not to take any action. All 120 Kentucky counties are subject to reapportionment based on the 1990 census. In a letter to County Judge/Executive Roland Mullins, Bruce Ferguson of the state Department of Real Government, stated: "Every 10 years each fiscal court must initiate reapportionment proceedings for the district boundaries within the county. The month of February is the time when, by law, this must take place." The last two reapportionments were carried out under former county judges Charles C. Carter and Bob Jasper. Ferguson wrote: "I wish you as your county begins the reapportionment process. Many of you have gone through the process before and may recall how it works. For others, this will be your first experience." The reapportionment in 1982 under Judge Jasper was marked with some concern when a complete precinct was moved from one district to another. A precinct cannot be broken up and can only be moved in total from one district to another, and only if it is needed to achieve one person, one vote. It is doubtful if any precinct will be moved this year. If so, it can only be done by the Rockcastle Election Commission, a permanent commission. According to figures furnished by the state, Rockcastle has a 1990 population of 14,803. If divided equally among the five districts the equal population would be 2,960 for each district. Members of the commission to determine reapportionment must be over 21 and must be residents of different districts. The county clerk also serves, ex-officio, as a non-voting member of the commission. Which will be appointed by the fiscal court. Any registered voter of the county may, within 20 days after the establishment of the new districts, bring action in circuit court challenging the reapportionment plan adopted by the fiscal court. The present districts, magistrate, precinct, population, total population of districts and percentage of total are:

First District: Charles Holbrook North Brodhead, 1376 North Mt. Vernon, 1114 Total, 2490 or 17 percent.
Second District: Jack Bradley South Mt. Vernon, 1220 West Livingston, 563 West Mt. Vernon, 1493 Total, 3276 or 22 percent.

Third District: Clinton Brown Brown, 1190 West Brodhead, 1668 Bullock, 417 Total, 3275, or 22 percent.
Fourth District: Amos Burdette Conway, 1646 Roundstone, 991 Climax, 322 Total, 2959 or 20 percent.
Fifth District: Donald Bullock East Mt. Vernon, 1173 Orlando, 813 East Livingston, 817 Total, 2803, or 19 percent.

Falcon announces 5% rate increase

Falcon Cable Corporation will increase its Antenna Basic Service rate by 82 cents a month, (a 5% adjustment) March 1, according to System Manager Roy Baker. Expanded Cable Service will also increase by $1.25 per month. "Like every business in town, we are faced with increased operating costs," Baker noted. "We hope our customers understand that in order to provide better service, more channels and more original programs, and to keep pace with the costs of doing business, we have to adjust our rates. We still believe we offer a great value for the dollar when compared to other entertainment options."

"Few of our customers realize that we pay the cable networks, such as CNN, ESPN, and WTBS, a fee to carry them on Falcon Cable. As the quality and originality of programming increases, so too do the rates charged to us by the networks," Baker said. "We are also committed to making substantial improvements in the area of customer service. This, however, requires a significant investment in additional manpower and improved technology. We have made a major commitment to this effort in the last three years, and will continue our effort."

The new Antenna Basic Rate will be $17.17 per month and Expanded Cable Service will increase to $4.25 per month per month. In the past year, Falcon Cable has added American Movie Classics and Headline News to its channel lineup, for the total of 23 channels at an average cost of $.93 per channel, a month. In addition to increased costs of utilities, wages, insurance, telephone, rental, pole renters and other expenses, Baker pointed out that network programming fees are also a major contributor in the adjustment.

Ag lender to open new office here

Farmers are invited to the opening of an office of Agriculture lenders in Mt. Vernon. Larry Conner will have an office in the Agriculture Center near the railroad, and will be open Tuesday, Feb. 11 and every Tuesday from 8:30 a.m. to noon. The phone is 1-800-221-7579. "We are ready to serve all your credit needs, whether it's money for operating expenses, equipment, a rural home, or long term financing for your farm real estate need," Conner stated. "Call any time for information."

Sand Hill man arrested

Starling Cress of Sand Hill was arrested by State Police Monday on a charge of Wanton Endangerment in the first degree. He is under a $9,000 bond. Cress is accused of shooting into a pick-up truck and endangering Kenneth Sturgill and Harlan Lawson both of Sand Hill. Joe Knudsen of Conway is under $5,000 bond charged with receiving stolen property over $100. He is accused of stealing a riding mower from Lowe's in Richmond.

Weather . . .

A total of 2.69 inches of rain/snow fell at Cox Funeral Home weather station during January. Most fell on Jan. 2 with .82 of an inch and on Jan. 22 with .53 of an inch. Warmest day during the month was 56 on Jan. 13. Coldest was 2 on Jan. 16 and 17.

Murder trial heads into second week

Witnesses in the trial of the accused murderer of Stanford Police Officer Gary Kidwell were sent home again Tuesday as jury selection in the case entered its second week. Circuit Judge Robert Jackson told the approximately 30 witnesses scheduled to testify for the prosecution in the case, that finding a panel of qualified jurors is taking longer than expected. He told the witnesses to report back to court in Nicholasville at 9 a.m. Thursday, when he hopes the trial will commence. The jury selection is taking longer than normal because Thomas Wade Watkins, 33, could get the death penalty if the jury finds him guilty of killing Kidwell after the patrolman was struck by a routine traffic violation on Jan. 20, 1991. Potential jurors are being interviewed individually for Watkins and by Commonwealth Attorney Thomas Lockridge. The defense attorneys, public defenders Allison Connolly, Joe Myers, and John Halstead, are conducting lengthy inquiries with each potential juror, seeking out their opinions on the death penalty, police brutality and other matters that may come up once the trial testimony actually begins. Potential jurors were scheduled all last week to be interviewed in 20-minute intervals. Some interviews are taking more than two hours, however, with the average falling about 45 minutes. As of Tuesday morning, 23 of the spots on the panel of qualified jurors had been filled. Judge Jackson said he wants to find 32 qualified jurors -- basically those who say they have no opinion of the Kidwell murder case and who feel they could impose whatever penalty the facts warrant, including death. From the panel of 32, Watkins' team of lawyers will have the right to strike nine names and the prosecutors may strike six to arrive at the final panel of 14 who will decide the case. The actual deliberations of guilty or innocence, and punishment, if necessary, will be done by 12 jurors but two alternates will also sit in on the trial. The actual trial is expected to take two weeks or longer. Watkins lawyers said Tuesday Nine seeking nomination When U.S. Rep. Chris Perkins decided not to seek re-election to the 5th District Congressional seat, it opened the flood gates. When registration was over Tuesday, nine Democrats were seeking the nomination to oppose Republican U.S. Rep. Harold Rogers in the November election. Rogers is unopposed. Probably the best known Democrat is former Superintendent of public Ingrusion John Brock of Bell County. Other Democrats who are in the field are Nelson Bingham of Hartland County, a car dealer; Steven Maynard of Inez, and Logan Turner of Jackson. Turner is 44 and says he's scrutinized and has been unsuccessful three times for public office. Another is Carol Hubbard of Mayfield; Ned Pillersdorf of Prestonsburg and Jerry Cecil of Winchester. Brock, 54, who ran for the U.S. Senate in 1990, and was unsuccessful, owns property in Bell County but said he will be moving to London. Also candidates are former State Sen. John Doug Hays of Pikeville and Attorney Bobby Rowe, 34, of Prestonsburg.

they were undecided whether to put their client on the stand. While they said they believe he will make a credible witness, they're not sure whether it will be necessary for their client to testify in his own behalf. Watkins is accused of shooting and killing Kidwell on the night of Jan. 20 last year. Police say Kidwell was approaching Watkins' car on Goshen Road after stopping him for running a stop sign. Kidwell was just turning to face Watkins when shots were fired, according to police reports, and Kidwell never got his gun out of its holster. At that time, Police Sgt. Bobby Durham, who was off duty but riding with Kidwell, fired through the back window of Watkins' car, wounding him in the back. Police say that slug remains in the defendant. Watkins took off as Durham went to aid Kidwell. He got out of sight but ran his car into a ditch. James Young II, who was driving on Crab Orchard Road, saw the car and stopped to help. Watkins kidnapped him and two young female companions and made them drive him around the eastern end of the county for three hours following their abduction. Watkins released them in Rockcastle County and fled south on Interstate 75 in Young's car. By the time he got to Williamsonburg near the Tennessee line, he was arrested.

Rockcastle jail escapee arrested in Mississippi
A former Manchester police chief who escaped from the Rockcastle County jail while awaiting trial on charges of cultivating marijuana in Jackson County was arrested Friday in Mississippi. Wallace Vaughn McDaniel, 58, was arrested by U.S. Marshals in Walnut, Miss., where he had been raising fighting chickens. He was using the name Curtis W. Suggely. A police officer for six years, McDaniel was convicted in London Federal Court of armed robbery in December 1988. He was serving a 30-year sentence in a federal prison in Michigan before being transferred to Rockcastle. McDaniel escaped from the Rockcastle jail Aug. 19, 1990 when he used a semiautomatic pistol to force deputies to turn over their keys. Rockcastle Jailer Billy Kirby said he doubted McDaniel would be brought back to Rockcastle at least until he would go on trial here charged with escape. Where the gun McDaniel used in his escape came from still remains a mystery. Kirby said that is still being investigated. A Manchester attorney and McDaniel's son, James, visited him in the jail Aug. 11. He held a gun on Deputy Jailer Leonard Miller and Margaret Kirby, the jailer's daughter, and locked them in a cell, and fled on foot.

People are already asking how many acres of peas me and Ralph are gonna grow this year. In case it had crossed your mind and you intended to ask, the answer is that Ralph and I are on sabbatical from the snow pea industry this spring. We're letting the ground rest.

It was a tough decision to make because growing snow peas is one thing you can do on a farm and still make a profit. Last year, we only invested about 100 hours of time each.

When all was said and done, nearly three thousand dollars changed hands and at the end of it all, after the seed and fertilizer bills were paid, after paying the pickers and putting gas in our trucks to haul them all over Central Kentucky, we still had $75 left over.

Split two ways, that amounted to $37.50 profit each or 37 cents an hour.

There's all sorts of other things that we could have done with that time, but they would have cost money instead of turning a profit.

I figure growing peas kept me from going fishing at least five weekends. A fishing trip, when you figure lost hooks and bait, wasted line and gasoline to get there costs me at least 15 dollars. So last year, instead of blowing $75, I actually earned money.

I would have spent another 5 afternoons playing golf at $20 a day if I hadn't been in the pea patch. That's another 100 bucks saved while I was earning money.

There were at least four Friday nights that I was too darned tired to take the family out to dinner that normally costs about $30. And another $120 profit to the pea venture and we're up to $327.50! So I saved and saved growing snow peas. And that's exactly what they're charging for a boat and four days of crappie fishing at a place I know about on Kentucky Lake.

What I'm trying to do is convince Loretta that I've earned enough money growing peas to pay for the trip and I can't understand why she's so upset about it. It's not like I'm taking it out of the pay check. I did this all on the side and I believe I've earned this trip.

People want to know how I got started in the snow pea business in the first place. I came by it honestly and this is no exaggeration. My Dad used to grow up to 100 bushels of beans every summer and sell them to grocery stores or people who wanted to buy a bushel. Dad sold his beans for $8-10 a bushel and he made about $7-9 on every bushel. Beans money bought my school clothes until I earned a pea, please contact me. Open dumps are both fire and health hazards, in addition to being eye sores.

I also wanted to let you know that Rockcastle County Ranger Marvin Stone was a great help to me in the burning of the house ruin and showing us where the waste concentration is. He was an able ambassador of Rockcastle County.

I want to meet you and Judge Mullins when I visit Mt. Vernon and look forward to working with you on future projects.

Sincerely,
John Perry
College Forester

At that point in my life, cleaning urinals had more appeal to me than picking beans. We grew them in field corn. Half runners, cornfield and Lazy Wife fall beans. Kentucky and Missouri Wonders. Picking them meant wearing long sleeved flannel shirts in 90 degree weather in corn that was two feet over my head. The long sleeves kept the corn blades from slicing my arms to shreds, but they didn't do a thing to keep a pack saddle from stinging right through the cloth.

A sadder, for those of you who never worked in corn, is a fat, green worm that grows three inches long with a white mark on its back that looks just like a saddle on a horse. He's covered from bow to stem with a thin row of stingers. Sadders are almost precisely the same color as a blade of corn so they hide on the undersides of them and lay in wait for bean pickers. If you brush up against one it's like getting stung by, say 25 wasps at exactly the same time. I've seen others get stung on purpose to get out of picking beans but I can honestly say I've never crossed my mind.

Anyway, I got to telling Ralph about how much money Dad used to make growing beans and we both decided that beans were too boring but that growing something like that seemed pretty romantic. So we settled on snow peas after a bit of research showed that there was not a single other commercial grower in the state. There's about 500 now which is another reason for the sabbatical. And we figure 499 of them will join us next year.

Five years ago when Ralph and I started, snow peas cost $3.99 a pound at Kroger stores, and you couldn't find them anywhere else. You would be able to get all you want for a quarter a pound this spring. Everybody is getting in the pea business. Even the Japanese. I swear I'm not lying. There's a Japanese guy growing 14 acres in Woodford County this year. Big time pea grower, this guy. He intends to export them. I've talked to him. In fact, I'm trying to land a marketing consulting contract.

And speaking of Lazy Wife fall beans, I'd be willing to pay a premium price for some seed of those beans. My brother Keeter who lives in Leitcher County found them in a seed catalogue two years ago in one of those ads that claimed to have the last little handful. He paid, and again I swear this is the truth, $10 for 36 seeds!! Call him up and ask him if you don't believe me.

Only two of Keeter's seed came up and neither vine set a bean. He figures they were both the same sex.

This year both Keeter and myself will gladly pay $10 for 36 Lazy Wife fall beans seeds if they are guaranteed to sprout. Send us the seed and we'll put them and if, in fact, they sprout and produce Lazy Wife beans, we'll gladly send you $10 and a mess of beans at harvest time. I'm serious. Keeter said if his grew, he'd pay $15. Send 'em to me and I'll see that he gets 'em.

Notice of Public Meeting

The Cumberland Valley Area Development District, in cooperation with the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court, is in the process of updating and making major revisions to the District and County's Overall Economic Development Plan. This plan is used to document need for many types of public improvements and services and is necessary to document the need for grants and loans for many purposes.

The purpose of the public meeting is to obtain citizen input from throughout the county as to what the goals and objectives for development of Rockcastle County should be for the future. After broad goals and objectives have been established, the public will be asked to suggest specific projects that they feel are important to Rockcastle County and to the implementation of the suggested goals and objectives. The meeting will be held at 3 p.m. in the District Courtroom in the Rockcastle County Courthouse on Tuesday, February 11, 1992. All interested persons are urged to attend.

To the Mount Vernon Signal

I was hoping you would do a series of articles on the injustices suffered by our sexually abused children. These children need our protection and they deserve it. Why is it that their parents are protected by the law. There are no laws to protect our children. Why can't we take each offense in 1991 and do a follow up on the trial, the verdict, and if the guy served any time? Do a different case every week or two, so the readers can see how widespread this problem has become.

Please write your legislators. If Rockcastle County they are Rep. Danny Ford, P.O. Box 1245, Mt. Vernon, Ky. 40456; Sen. John D. Rogers, P.O. Box 518, Somerset, Ky. 42051.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
On behalf of the Livingston Volunteer Fire Department, we would like to thank the Livingston Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary for the $500 donation which they gave to the fire department.

David Mason
Assistant Fire Chief

Dear Editor,
We would like to thank all who donated and gave towards Christmas fruit baskets for the needy families in Rockcastle County. This was our first year of making the baskets and we served 34 families, 3 of whom lost their homes due to fire. This was done through LEAP of Livingston.

Thanks again to: Citizen's Bank, Dowell and Martin Funeral Home, Best Western Motel, Jean's Restaurant, John Cloniz and Carter's Market, Snack Shack, Foodtown, Sparks Flower Shop, Mt. (Editor's note: This letter was sent to Rockcastle County Solid Waste Coordinator, Lilly Lawhorn From Berea College Forester)

I want to thank you for your help in our disposing of the garbage that was around the old house site in Shearer Hollow. The house ruin was a fire hazard and an attractive nuisance. I was especially concerned about the old refrigerator because children live in the area. I was glad to find a safe disposal option.

As I told you on the phone, I just moved here from Hart County where there was a waste problem. I realize that funding and political support for solid waste issues are difficult to come by for rural counties. If I can be of assistance to you and Judge Mullins in this

Basic burley quota to drop for 1992-93 marketing year

By: Tom Mills
County Extension Agent
for Agriculture

A 13 percent decrease in the amount of burley tobacco manufacturers intend to buy means growers will have a smaller basic quota for the 1992-93 marketing year.

The six major tobacco manufacturers have notified the U.S. Department of Agriculture that they intend to reduce burley purchases by 65 million pounds to 442.5 million pounds for the 1992-93 marketing season.

The Secretary of Agriculture sets the basic quota based on a three-component formula -- that they intend to reduce burley purchases by 65 million pounds to 442.5 million pounds for the 1992-93 marketing year, up from 47.9 million pounds in 1990-91 and 28.1 million pounds in 1989-90.

In addition, the world burley supply is expected to continue the consistent trend toward lower stocks, which began in 1986. World stocks dropped as markets in the Pacific Rim opened, foreign demand moved toward traditional cigarette blends, and production decreased.

To maintain the required stocks in the grower-owned cooperative, it is projected one million additional pounds must be put in the pool for the 1992-93 marketing year, up from 47.9 million pounds in 1990-91 and 28.1 million pounds in 1989-90.

Governor approves funds for Brucellosis vaccinations

Gov. Brereton C. Jones and Agriculture Commissioner Ed Logsdon announced today that funding would be provided to reimplement the Fee Basis Calhoun Brucellosis Vaccination Program. The calhoun vaccination program to curtail infections of the deadly cattle disease was suspended in December due to a lack of funds. But Governor Jones has approved a transfer of $216,000 in funds from within the Agriculture Department's budget to continue the program through this fiscal year, said Agriculture Commissioner Ed Logsdon.

Under the calhoun vaccinations, mandatory depopulation of infected herds and various surveillance activities has enabled Kentucky to make great progress in eliminating brucellosis, a highly contagious disease that causes cows to abort or produce weak calves. Brucellosis also can spread to other animals, including dogs, and humans can contract it as undulant fever.

In the past five years the annual number of infected herds in Kentucky has declined from 253 to about 30. With continued progress, Kentucky could be free of brucellosis within the next three years, said Logsdon.

"The calhoun vaccination program has been a key element in eradicating brucellosis," Logsdon said. "Governor Jones realizes this and has supported our effort to continue the program by authorizing funding for the remainder of this fiscal year plus agreeing to fund the program in the Executive Budget for the next biennium.

"This will allow us to continue to move forward. We are greatly appreciative of the governor's support."

In 1989, Kentucky's national classification for brucellosis control improved from Class B to Class A, a development that facilitated increased exports of Kentucky cattle. The Class A status from the U.S. Department of Agriculture meant that Class A states or states free of the disease had to place stiff testing and monitoring requirements on Kentucky cattle entering their state. Such restrictions do not apply to cattle from "A" and "Free" states.

Cards of Thanks

The family of Juanita Cox Robinson wishes to express their appreciation to all the family, friends, and acquaintances who expressed their love and sympathy during our loss of Juanita.

We deeply appreciated the overwhelming response in cards, flowers, food, gifts, and donations. We thank God for each and every one of you.

Special thanks to Dowell & Martin Funeral Home, Brother Wendell Romans, Brother Olan McGuire, First Baptist Church, Brush Creek Holiness Church, Kiwanis Club, Dr. Billy George Griffith, Glen and Donna Roberts, McGuire Sisters, Hosanna, Maranatha, & Koinonia Sunday school classes, Mt. Vernon Elementary, Mt. Vernon Signal, and Mt. Vernon Pharmacy.

God Bless You All!
The Family of
Juanita Cox Robinson

The family of Ethel Durham would like to thank each and everyone for your kindness, support, and sympathy during our mother's sickness and death. May God bless and keep you always. Thanks for the flowers.

Sincerely,
The Family of Ethel Durham

The family of William Keith and Johnny Allen Ballard would like to express their appreciation and gratitude to the wonderful friends and relatives for their expressions of sympathy and help; the Conway Baptist Missionary Church for their gift, the Dixie Park Baptist Church for their gift, the Rose Hill Baptist Church for their gift.

A special "Thanks" goes to Rev. Jack Frost for his kind words spoken and to Williams Funeral Home for their service.

The Family of William Keith
and
Johnny Allen Ballard

The family of Elizabeth Vance wish to thank everyone who was so kind to us during the death of our wife and mother. Especially to Cox Funeral Home, Brother James Nicely for the comforting message, the singers who sang beautifully, the pallbearers, the ones who brought food and sent flowers and to the ones that took the time to come and be with us.

Husband and Children

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to those who helped to make our 50th wedding anniversary a joyous occasion. We appreciate everyone who came to be with us on this special day. All the cards and gifts were beautiful. A special thanks to our children for the effort they put forth in making this truly a day to remember.

Dairy Quiz Bowl Team members needed

By: John McQueary
County Extension Agent
for 4-H/Youth Development

In the past four years, we have had a Dairy Quiz Bowl Team in the spring which leads up to our summer Dairy Judging activities.

The Dairy Quiz Bowl is an event whereby four youth on one side compete against four individuals on the other side by answering questions about the Dairy Industry; first team to buzz in and answer the question correctly wins the question.

As in most 4-H events, we have age categories. We can have a Junior Team (ages 9-13) and a Senior Team (ages 14-19). Would you like to be interested in participating in this 4-H event? We have to have a least four youths to have a team. Practice sessions would be held once a week at night at the Extension Office from 7-8 p.m. Then, the state event will probably be in early May. If you would like to participate, please let me know by calling the Extension Office at 256-2403 so that we can plan our first meeting.

Andy Hale of Mrs. Kincer's 4-H Club at Mt. Vernon was the winner in the 5th grade category.

Cory Bailey, of Mrs. McKinney's 4-H Club at Mt. Vernon, was the winner in the 6th grade category.

Lee Ann Stigmon of Ms. Little's 4-H Club at Roundstone was the winner in the 7th grade category.

50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burton, Sr. of Roundstone were honored with an Open House on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on December 20, 1991 at the Family Life Center. Bro. Burton has been a Baptist minister in Rockcastle County for 25 years. He and Mrs. Burton have two children, Paul Burton and Donna Mahaffey, both of Rt. 3, Mt. Vernon, 7 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

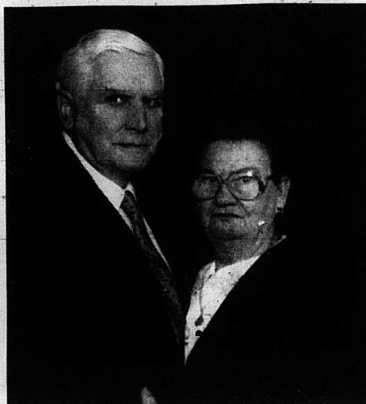

Kirby-Daughtery

Wendy Renee Kirby, daughter of Coy and Hazel Kirby of Livingston, and Trent David Daughtery, son of David and Lola Daughtery and the late Geneva Daughtery, were united in marriage Saturday, Nov. 16, 1991, at the Carmichael Chapel in London. The couple now reside in London.

Kirby-Burke

Dallas and Joy Kirby would like to announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Erica, to Eric Burke, son of Chester and Janie Robbins. The wedding will take place Feb. 14 at 6 p.m. at the Maple Grove Baptist Church.

50th Anniversary

Milton (M.V.) and Sussie Stokes of Fairground Hill will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary on January 31, 1992. The couple were married in Ages, Ky, in Harlan County and have retired to Rockcastle County from Los Angeles, California.

Denny-Sizemore

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Deny are proud to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Sandy, to Wayne Sizemore of Mt. Vernon. The wedding will be an event of February 2, 1992, at 2:30 at the home of Sue Cromer of Sand Hill.

Baptist Convention dates scheduled

Kentucky Baptist Convention Brotherhood Department has set dates for their 1992 Regional Mission Congresses. The Congress for South Central Region will be held from 10 a.m. to 3:45 p.m., Feb. 15, First Baptist Church, 128 N. Main Street, Somerset.

The South Central Region encompasses the counties of Green, Taylor, Adair, Washington, Marion, Russell, Wayne, McCreary, Putaski, Casey, Mercer, Boyle, Garrard, Lincoln, Madison and Rockcastle. P.A. Stevens will be leading the congress.

The Speak Out competition provides an opportunity to speak out for the cause of missions. Winners will receive scholarships to state Baptist camps. Winners in the High School Baptist Young Man division consisting of grades 10 and above may go to the national competition. The national winner will have an opportunity to go overseas on a mission project. Any High School division member can participate as a candidate for regional president, thereby winning a camp scholarship.

Missionary ladies meet at Watson home

January 11, 1992, the Brodhead Christian Church's Missionary Ladies met at Barbara Watson's home at 7 p.m.

The president, Ella Mae Martin, called for Barbara Watson to read the minutes of the December 1991 meeting and to give the treasurer's report.

Then the group was ready for Marjorie Shivel's excellent lesson. Remembering the loss of Mrs. Lou Payne at 99 years of age, Nellie Colson quoted, "I know Mrs. Lou is so happy to finally be at home." Elizabeth Mullins said, "How I'd like to have a recording of one of Lou's beautiful prayers!"

After a blessing, the ladies enjoyed Barbara's home made cheesecake. All that were present wanted the recipe.

Congratulations to Kelly and David Pensol upon the arrival of their son, Andrew Harvey. Congratulations also to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Payne.

Mrs. Mable Cash, our school nurse aide, was surprised Friday in celebration of School Nurses' Day. Mrs. Jeannine Parsons' class made an attractive bulletin board for the hallway and "Miss Nurse" received some beautiful notes from the students and beautiful flowers from the staff. Many school systems have no nurse assistance school nurse program. We are fortunate to have a program and especially fortunate to have Mrs. Cash!

Mrs. Regina Burton and our academic team have busy preparing for the district Governor's Cup competition, which is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, January 31 and February 1 at Livingston Elementary School. The students will compete in quick recall, future problem solving, and will be in individual competition.

We would like to welcome Mrs. Annette Gevedon as fifth grade teacher. Mrs. Gevedon, who taught in Harlan County, had been teaching in our Early Childhood Program. She has two daughters, Rene and Rebekah. She has a BA and MA degree from EKU and is currently working on her Rank I.

We want to extend congratulations to Harold Woodall, who has accepted a position at MVES. Our loss is Mt. Vernon's gain. Congratulations, MVES!

Parents, it is very important that you attend the next PTA meeting, February 13. Election of parent members of our SBDM council will be held at 7:30 in the cafeteria. The fifth grade classes of Mrs. Judy Doyle and Mrs. Annette Gevedon will perform "Valentine's On Parade". Please attend.

Our eighth grad. students will be registering for high school the second week of February. The students will visit the high school and make decisions regarding their fall schedule.

Kentucky Counseling Week sponsored by the Kentucky Association of Counseling and Development will be celebrated Feb. 3-7. Miss Molly Hamm, our counselor, is planning special recognition events for that week.

PTA Reflection Contest entries have been sent to the next level of competition.

Congratulations to new parents Mr. and Mrs. David Pensol. Andrew Harvey Pensol was born January 22, 1992 at Pattie A Clay Hospital in Richmond. David Pensol is a second grade teacher at RES. Kelly Pensol (Mrs. David) is the technology coordinator for Rockcastle County School District. Mother, baby, and father are doing fine.

Mrs. Shelby Poynter, RES reading teacher, has announced that Roundstone Elementary School plans to participate in "Reading in the Mall Day" at the Richmond Mall on Saturday.

Another Home Economics class at RCHS is Comprehensive Home Ec. I. In this class, students learn about child care, foods, housing, and other family related skills. Above are students "showing off" their "egg babies" project. This project allows students to realize how some of the responsibility in rearing a child. This is an enjoyable as well as informative project. From left to right are: James Mink, Jim Cook, Mike Poynter, Janet Martin, Paula Delph, Paula Wilmont, and Jerry Bishop.

Traditionally, Home Economics has been a part of the RCHS curriculum which was only taken by females. However, in our rapidly changing society, males as well as females need the information taught in the Contemporary Home Economics classes. Meal planning and social skills are integral parts of these classes. Shown above are Gina Partin, Brad Kirby, Robert Lawson, Brian Coffey, and Doug Smith ready to share a meal prepared by them recently.

Rockcastle County High School offers its students a variety of informative and beneficial courses. Driver Education is such a course. Driver Education, taught by Mr. David Riddle, teaches students to abide by the laws and to be knowledgeable of the "rules of the road." In the photo above, Mr. Riddle assists Paula Morgan with her perception of depth. Observing and assisting their turn are Missy Cook and Sarah Wilson.

Congratulations to Mrs. Becky McClure on the birth of her daughter, Lyndee Carol, born Jan. 18 at 5:52 a.m. We wish Mrs. Becky and her family much joy and happiness. Gary Fain will be teaching for Mrs. McClure until her return to school.

Also, we want to congratulate David and Kelly Pensol on the birth of their first child, a boy, Andrew Harvey. Mrs. Pensol is the Technology Coordinator for Rockcastle County.

LES is hosting the 1992 Governors Cup competition, Friday, Jan 31 at 4 p.m. - Future Problem Solving, Saturday, Feb. 1, 7:45 - 8:15 registration, 3:45 (estimated time) Awards Ceremony.

Good luck Rockcastle County students! Go Livingston!

Classroom winners for the Courier Journal Spelling Bee must be submitted by Monday, Feb. 2nd. Classroom winners will compete on Tuesday, Feb. 4 at 1 p.m. in the library to represent LES in the County Spelling Bee on Thursday Feb. 13 at 9:30 a.m. The winner of the county spelling bee will represent our system in the Courier Journal and possibly the KEA Spelling Bee.

Many plans are underway for a focus on Australia during the month of March. Parents are encouraged to ask questions and share in discussions about Australia with your children.

The eighth grade has fixed an Art Gallery in the hall to display their talent. Come one, come all and see what we can do.

We've begun our Aussie unit on Australia and have started folders or scrapbooks.

We've read fourteen books. Next week 1-13-92 will be our last report-a project to display in the hall.

We're working on discipline. Best - worst - complaints - con-structive criticism.

Three of our students Arron Azbill, Michael Crouch, and Ben Campbell have moved to other schools. We sure miss them. We now have 24 students in our class.

We've begun working on our Livingston Link School Newspaper second issue. We hope to have it ready to sell February 27-28.

We reorganized our room, in hopes to improve class behavior and conduct grades.

Mrs. Bryant showed us "Stand and Deliver" in challenge and as supplement to Atticus, a story in Journey's we watched "To Kill a Mocking Bird" Grigsby's Super Eighth News.

day, February 8, 1992 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The theme of this special event is "Fall in Love with Reading". Classrooms from area schools will set up displays demonstrating students' efforts in the language arts area.

That's not all, boys and girls will portray his or her favorite storybook character in a "Storybook Character Parade." Storyteller will also be on hand to entertain you with your favorite tale.

If you're present you might be lucky and win a door prize or a balloon, so come, bring your child and experience a fun-filled day.

Mrs. Hale's Super Sixth grade reading classes are currently enjoying a study on anthropology. After reading autobiographical accounts of some famous anthropologists, the students decided to become amateur anthropologist themselves. Each student is conducting an interview of people from different generations as a way of recording cultural differences. The classes would like to thank Wendy Himes for her extra research and reports on anthropology - the information provided us with a richer background for our interviews.

also be held. State Royal Ambassador camps will be presented, with many new programs to be offered this summer. A Missions Round the World Basketball Shoot out will be offered for one team per church. A Sloppy Joe lunch, $1.50, will be served.

Brotherhood is a Southern Baptist organization for men and boys. It promotes missions through emphases.

Teen Center Perspectives

My name is Jennifer Blain and I have been working at the Teen Center for the past three weeks. Coming from California I was a bit nervous to find out what the Teen Center had in store for me. To my delight I have had a wonderful experience. So many of the teens at the Center are full of life. They have taught me a lot about appreciating each day that we have with one another. One day one of the teens asked me, "Who's your favorite person at the Teen Center." I thought about his question and realized there are so many teens who I have come to like. Although I have only one more week here at the Center, I look forward to each and every day. I will never forget my experience here at the Rockcastle Teen Center and I hope to make a return visit to beautiful Kentucky in the future!

Girl Scout News

Roundstone Junior Troop 602 held a Court of Awards Ceremony at Roundstone Elementary School Monday, Jan. 13. The Court of Awards Ceremony included a flag ceremony, candle lighting ceremony, and a patrol leader ceremony.

The girl scouts have been very busy since the first part of the school year. The badges, patches, certificates and awards they received are to honor their accomplishments. The girl scouts present to receive their badges were: Elizabeth Bullock, Tracy Mink, Elizabeth Chastain, Emily Coffey, Jean Thacker, and Sonya Chastain, senior girl scout, and their parents.

The girls have also received the Royal Troop Patch from the Wilderness Road Girl Scout Council in Lexington, Ky. for some of the girls, this is the second time they received this patch.

The other badges they earned were Safety sense, First-Aid, Musician and My Heritage. They also received awards for selling Girl Scout candles and for entering the National Girl Scouts poster contest called, "Girl Scouts Care for the Earth."

We want to congratulate the troop for their efforts and the ability to learn how to make a difference in their families, schools and communities.

Sue Bennett Dean's List

The following students from Rockcastle were on the Fall Dean's List at Sue Bennett-Clouse in London. They are: Wendy D. Whitaker of Brothard, Karla K. Bullock and Timothy W. Davis, both of Mt. Vernon.

Scott Thompson comes from a "Renfro Valley family"

By: Kathy McCracken

Most Renfro Valley acts are met with cheers and applause from the audience, but when Scott Thompson walks on stage, there are screams. Scott's good looks and deep voice have made him the "idol" of many of the young ladies who attend the Renfro Valley Jamboree.

What does Scott think of all this commotion? "It's all right," he says. "It's nice. But, honestly, when I'm on stage, I'm concentrating so much on doing my song right that I don't hear much else."

"Getting it right" is important to Scott Thompson. "I think I get that from my dad," he says. "He taught me that you can hear a song in your head, but unless you play it right, nobody else will ever hear it the way you did."

Anyone who's attended the Renfro Valley Barn Dance knows that Scott's dad "plays it right." As Band Director, Glenn Thompson is constantly concerned with charts, chords, and kick-offs. Both he and his wife, Retha, control the sound at many of the shows, and Scott often helps his parents with this task.

Those parents were both mighty proud when, at the recent Awards Dinner, Scott was named "Most Promising Entertainer." It was the culmination of an effort that had begun years ago when Glenn brought home a set of second-hand drums.

"I was five or six," says Scott, "and Dad got this set of old drums somewhere. He showed me how to make a beat, and I went from there."

Ronnie Milstap was my idol then. I couldn't talk plain, and when people would ask me what I wanted to do when I grew up, I'd say I'm gonna pway dwums for Ronnie Milstap! Ronnie was my idol, and George Jones is my favorite singer, but I owe 99.9 per cent of my music to Dad."

At 15, Scott joined his first group, a band called "Pure Grain." He played drums and sang, first harmony, then lead. At 16 or 17, he joined another band, "Straight Shot," and stayed with them until his high-school graduation.

The next couple years brought jobs with the popular band, "Josh Logan," and then with "Hillbilly Deluxe." "I was with Hillbilly Deluxe for about eight months," Scott remembers. "We got booked into some really nice clubs, like the Longbranch Saloon in Raleigh."

Eventually, an opening came up at Renfro Valley, and Scott was invited to audition for Ralph Gabbard, President of Renfro Valley Folks, Inc.

"He liked me," says Scott, "and here I am." Scott sang his audition song again on the last Barn Dance of the year. He dedicated it to Mr. Gabbard.

Pete Stamper introduces Scott as "the young man who was raised in the shadow of the Old Barn." Just what does that mean?

"I've been around here since I was two years old. Dad played here and Mom worked second shift, so Dad would bring me to rehearsal with him. Then on Saturdays, Mom brought me to the shows with her."

"Bob Baker was my great uncle. Really he was more like a second dad. He played in the Old Barn. Dad played in the Red Barn, and I ran all over the place in between."

Does Scott ever think about playing in Nashville? "I guess everybody that's raised around country music dreams of Nashville, but I'm going to take things one day at a time."

"I'm happy here. You know, we entertainers hear a lot of comments from visitors after the shows, and the one that I hear most is 'We've been to Nashville, and we've been here, and we like here better!'"

Even with all the shows and all the practice, Scott still finds time for his hobbies. He is an avid bow hunter, works on his truck whenever he can, and is building a stereo with components he "hand picked." "And don't forget JaDawn, my fiancée," he says with a smile. "I spend a lot of my free time with her."

Folks who are close to Scott know him as a serious but fun-loving, stern but sensitive guy. "Since I've grown up," he says, "Skip Ewing has been one of my main influences. When I first heard his song 'Love Me,' I cried. I guess I get my sensitivity from my mom. I think a guy should be able to let his feelings show. Maybe it's got something to do with the time period I grew up in."

And growing up within the last 20 years has given Scott a special perspective on Renfro Valley. "I see the valley really booming," he says. "I see lots more shows, lots of tours. But I don't think the music will change. The music has been the same from day one at Renfro Valley, and I don't think the people will ever change. The music and the people. That's what makes Renfro Valley special."

And how does Scott see himself in this picture of the future? "I'll keep playing and keep practicing. I want to be the best I can be. I want to be able to sing a song so people listening can know how I felt when I heard it - or maybe when I wrote it."

"I never want to stop short of the best and say 'That's good enough.' 'Good enough' just isn't good enough."

Hall is first baby at Ft. Logan Hospital

Lincoln County's first birth of the year finally occurred 11 days after the new year began.

Seven-pound, 3-ounce Sharon Grace Hall was born Jan. 11, more than two weeks early and in time to win first baby honors at Fort Logan Hospital.

She is the daughter of Lonnie and Norma Hall of Rockcastle County. The young Miss Hall joins a brother, Andy, 3, at home.

In honor of the first baby of the year born in Lincoln County several local merchants provided the following gifts for the parents and Sharon Grace:

A stuffed teddy bear from Coleman's Drug Store.
A $25 gift certificate from E.C. Porter Supermarket.

The first baby born at Fort Logan Hospital in 1992 was Sharon Grace Hall. The first baby arrived Saturday, Jan. 11. The parents are Lonnie and Norma Hall. Sharon Grace is welcomed home by Andy, 3.

Two wins and one loss push Lady Rockets to 12-7 mark

The Rockcastle County Lady Rockets won two and lost one this past week to up their record to an impressive 12-7 on the season.

The Lady Rockets lost to Monticello, 72-64, Monday night but beat Cawood, 64-53 and Estill County, 62-36.

The Lady Rockets lost a heart-breaker to Monticello after being up by as many as five in the fourth quarter. After a couple of missed shots, the Lady Rockets just seemed to lose their momentum and allowed Monticello to get in the game. The Trojans are ranked third in the region.

"It is really disappointing to know we could have won, and we didn't," head coach Christy Beaver said, "the girls are really disappointed in themselves," she added.

Jennifer Thacker scored 19 of her 21 points in the second half and seemed to come through with a clutch basket when needed but it wasn't enough as the Trojans rallied in the fourth quarter and hit some clutch free-throws to give the Lady Rockets their 72-64 defeat.

Foul trouble once again plagued the Lady Rockets as they lost three starters, Kristy Sargent, Beth Amyx and Cindy McCauley, to fouls in the fourth quarter.

"Our press really hurt us, time and time again, our girls got beat down the floor and the Trojans got an easy bucket," Beaver said.

The Lady Rockets fell behind early in the first quarter and were down 17-12. The Lady Rockets and Trojans played evenly throughout the second quarter and the Trojans took a 27-22 lead at the end of the half.

But the third quarter was for the Lady Rockets. The Lady Rockets outscored the Trojans 25 to 17 to take a 47 to 44 lead at the end of the third quarter.

But the fourth quarter proved to be all Trojans. The Lady Rockets began fouling and the Trojans answered hitting their free throws when needed.

"Free throws were the difference in the ballgame," Beaver said. Monticello hit 21 of 31 and the Rockets hit only eight of 19.

Scoring for the Rockets were: Jennifer Thacker, 21; Cindy McCauley, 13; Kristi Sargent, 9; Beth Amyx, 9; Christy Coleman, 8 and Danetta Ford, 4.

The Lady Rockets hosted Cawood Friday night and came away with an impressive victory, 64-53.

"We did what we had to do to win," Beaver said.

The Lady Rockets started out slow getting behind early 13-11 at the end of the first quarter.

But, the Lady Rockets picked up the tempo and shots began falling in the second quarter and the Rockets took a 26-23 lead at the end of the first half.

"We hit the boards really good for the first time," Beaver said, we shot the ball really well as a team," she added.

The Lady Rockets came out and played a great second half shutting down Cawood and turning up their own offense. Beth Amyx hit three three-pointers to help lead the Lady Rockets. The Lady Rockets outscored Cawood 38-30 in the second half for the final score of 64-53.

Scoring for the Lady Rockets were: Kristi Sargent, 18; Beth Amyx, 15; Jennifer Thacker, 12; Cindy McCauley, 12; Danetta Ford, 4 and Christy Coleman, 3.

The Lady Rockets traveled to Estill County last Thursday night for an easy win, 62-36.

The Lady Rockets were ahead by only five at the end of the first half but the second half the Lady Rockets got warmed up and outscored Estill 37-16 in the second half for the victory.

The Lady Rockets were ahead by only five at the end of the first half but the second half the Lady Rockets got warmed up and outscored Estill 37-16 in the second half for the victory.

Scoring for the Rockets were: Cindy McCauley, 20; Jennifer Thacker, 14; Kristi Sargent, 13; Christy Coleman, 5 and Becky Osborne, 2.

The Lady Rockets will host Berea Thursday night and travel to Mercer next Monday night.

Lady Rockets' point guard Jennifer Thacker shoots for two of her game high 21 points against Monticello this past Monday at RCHS. The Lady Rockets fell shy to Monticello, 72-64.

Rockets suffer three losses

The Rockcastle County Rockets had a rough way to go last week losing three games in as many tries. The Rockets lost to Barbourville last Tuesday night, 77-68, lost to Bell Friday night, 73-67 and to Mercer County Saturday night, 81-55.

The Rockets had a tough game all around against Barbourville.

"We played pretty bad and the officiating was pretty bad," head coach David Perkins said.

The breaking point was at the beginning of the fourth quarter when the Rockets were down by only two and the home book decided the Rockets had three points they didn't need.

The officials took the three points away from the Rockets and minutes later the Rockets were down by 10.

The difference in the ballgame was free-throws. Barbourville hit 57 of 49 and the Rockets shot a measly eight of 14 on the night. The Rockets had six players foul out of the game.

"We should've won, but everything went against us this night," Perkins said.

The Rockets got behind early 13-12 at the end of the first quarter and never could catch up. They were down by five at the half 29-24.

The Rockets were never able to catch up in the second half as Barbourville hit their free throws and the Rockets had to settle for the 77-68 loss.

Mikhael Shaffer came alive in the fourth quarter helping the Rockets in their rally scoring all of his 14 points in the final period.

Scoring for the Rockets were: Micah Parkerson, 21; Mike Durham, 16; Mikhael Shaffer, 14; William Bullens, 9; Mickey McClure, 5; Corey Craig, 3; Scottie Bullens, 2; Mitch McCollum, 2.

The Rockets traveled to Bell County Friday night and faced another close game.

The Rockets were down by only four at the end of the first quarter. 15-11 and by only three at the end of the first half, 33-30.

"We played a pretty good game; we should have won," Perkins said, "they were a lot bigger than us and their inside game killed us," he added.

Although Bell was much bigger, Perkins noted that his big men, Corey Craig and Mike Durham still rebounded well.

Bell County came out hot in the third quarter outscoring the Rockets 18-11 to take a 51-41 lead at the end of the third.

"This seemed too much for the Rockets to overcome as they could only make up four points in the fourth quarter for the final score of 73-67.

Scoring for the Rockets were: William Bullens, 19; Mikhael Shaffer, 17; Mike Durham, 14; Micah Parkerson, 8; Corey Craig, 6; J.D.

Bussell, 3.

The Rockets traveled to Mercer County Saturday night and were heavily defeated 81-55.

"We never got into the flow of the game," Perkins said, "I really feel we were tired," he added.

Mercer County was the third game the Rockets had played that week.

The Rockets shot a cold 27% of the night.

Mercer jumped on the Rockets early taking a 22-6 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Mercer only added to their lead at the end of each quarter for the final score of 81-55.

Scoring for the Rockets were: William Bullens, 15; Corey Craig, 15; Micah Parkerson, 10; Mickey McClure, 5; Mike Durham, 4; Mikhael Shaffer, 2 and Mitch McCollum, 2.

Bulletin: The Rockets defeated Madison Southern 69-54 to bring their record to 9-6 on the year.

The Rockets will now host Whitley County this Friday night, travel to Jackson County Saturday night and Middlesboro comes to town next Tuesday night.

Tracking the Cats

Fans will be fickle, even when you're 14-4 and one of the top teams in America.

This is especially the case at Kentucky after the Wildcats lost back to back games at Tennessee and Arkansas at home. Especially, last Saturday afternoon, when fans asked me "What's wrong with the Wildcats and why is Pitino doing some of the things he's doing."

Give me a break. The Wildcats ran into a buzzsaw known as the Razorbacks with three seniors likely to play in the NBA next season. Todd Day is a top five pick, Les Mayberry reminds me of Joe Dumars of the Detroit Pistons and Oliver Miller is a 6-9, 300 pounder with the grace and agility of a ballet dancer. And, to top that off, Kentucky's top gun, Jamal Mashburn was saddled with foul trouble and scored only four points in what was probably his worst game at Kentucky. And, still, Kentucky led 51-50 at halftime and trailed by only three points with four minutes remaining. And the whispers and complaining among the fans continue.

At Tennessee, Kentucky was playing in a town in which it wins as often as a Democrat wins the presidency since World War II. Last week was the most difficult five day period for the Wildcats this season. A home game this week against Mississippi should cure some jills, but it's back on the road Saturday to face big, bad Shaquille O'Neal and the LSU Tigers in Baton Rouge.

It is unlikely that Kentucky will their first win of the season in the third game Monday night but still came out on the losing end to Teen Challenge, 54-53. First Baptist had a new player with their; Gene McAdams, who was the high point man scoring 23 points. However, it wasn't enough to stop the combination of Teen Challenge's Jeff Edwards and Bryan Reed. Edwards fired in 30 while Reed grabbed 12.

Bible Baptists and Ottawa Baptist I were both tied for second place coming into Monday night's game. Bible was short several players with Darrin Allen out due to a broken hand and several others who were out of town. Ottawa captured the victory, 57-40. Leading Ottawa were Mark Bishop with 28 points and Dennis Harris with 16. Bible was led by David Bryant's 28 and John Ford's six.

Grace Baptist I did not see action Monday night but still remain the only undefeated team in the league.

League standings thus far are: Grace I, 6-0; Ottawa I, 5-1; Bible I, 4-2; Ottawa II and First Baptist II are 4-2; Scaffold Can, 3-4; Teen Challenge, 2-4; Grace II, 0-6 and First Baptist I, 0-7.

win at LSU, but it could also be the final conference loss of the year for the Wildcats. If that happens, 15-3 in league play isn't shabby. But there are still other difficult road games at Mississippi State, Auburn, Florida and Georgia ahead.

It will be a homecoming of sorts for former UK assistant coach Doug Barnes on Wednesday night. Barnes, a top-notch person, was an assistant under Eddie Sutton a few years back but left coaching before the UK scandal hit.

He became a successful Lexington businessman, investing into the "Pot a Shot" games seen in restaurants and malls across the Commonwealth. Apparently, the love of coaching drew him back into the game.

I spoke with former teammate and good friend Sam Bowie last week. Bowie is having the best season of his career, averaging about 17 points and nearly 10 rebounds a game. New Jersey, the butt of many NBA jokes, is on a roll and could make it to the playoffs for the first time in years.

Another former Wildcat, Kenny Weldon, injured his Achilles tendon in a Spanish league game and will miss the rest of the season. Formerly with the New York Knicks, Walker was one of the top players in the league during his first season in Europe.

Pitino took time out last Friday night to watch Darnell Burton, a 6-4 junior from Lexington Dunbar. Ar-

ramblings

You can't go home again, or back to school either

by: perlinia m. anderkin
Many, many years ago, I decided that I would complete requirements for my college degree. I had started college after high school but, with little or no enthusiasm for the project, I didn't find it at all difficult to forget it and enter the job market as a secretary.

Then, in 1966 or thereabouts; shortly after the birth of our third child, I decided it was time to get a degree. Things went pretty well for three semesters and then, about midway through the fourth semester, I found I was expecting our fourth child. I finished that semester, just in time I might add, and decided I would lay out one semester before returning. That fourth child is now almost 24 and I finally got back to school in January -- my how time flies when you're having fun (and babies).

Anyhow, the point of all that was to recount the problems I am having with present day higher education. I am many years older, of course, and my memory isn't what it used to be, along with my reflexes, my energy, my waistline, my attention-span; you get the picture.

Don't get me wrong, we are not talking 18 semester hours here, we are talking a measly one three-hour course--Accounting 201, the sound of which has been to be associated in my mind with the same feeling I get when I hear the word Armageddon.

I had accounting in high school and did well. And, how hard can accounting be. After all, math is the basis right? A precise science of logical reasoning which, if anyone applies themselves can be understood, right? Wrong.

I knew I was in trouble in Chapter 1 when the professor (young enough to be my son I might add) carefully explained that when cash is received for payment of goods or services you debit the cash account. Now come on folks, anyone knows that when you make a deposit in the bank, your account is credited, suddenly this is backwards and there's no reasoning I can see for it. On question, the professor explained that this was just the way the system was set up in 1494 (?) and not because of logic but just because. My daughter is taking the course with me and she scolds me constantly because she says I tend to make things too hard. Her solution is to just accept the way the system is set up and apply it. Easy to say but she doesn't realize that I have to understand in my own mind why I am doing something a certain way before I can apply it down the line.

If this is coming across as a cop-out, it probably is. We had our first quiz Monday and, if a negative score is possible -- I was so hyper I think I spelled my name wrong -- I probably got one. I could just hear in my mind, the young professor at home Monday night grading the quiz, saying to his wife, "Let me tell you about this old woman trying to take my Acct. 201 class."

On the way home from class, my self-esteem was at an all-time low and stayed there for some time. I finally managed to up it a notch by recounting to myself the things I do well. After using up about a half a minute in this pursuit, I decided that Joe Clinton is personable, reasonable, ethical and a whiz at accounting! So, who needs to know how to do-it-yourself in everything. And, after all, higher education isn't for everyone and I can recoup the $220 I invested in one class by cutting some frills out for a while and I really would rather spend my time quilting instead of studying and, as you can see, if you ever need justification for being a quitter, call me, I'm great at justifying.
