Notice To Parents, Teachers and Employees of the Rockcastle County Board of Education

On October 22, 1986, President Reagan signed into law the Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act (AHERA, Public Law 99-519). The law required EPA to develop regulations which provide a comprehensive framework for addressing asbestos problems in public and private elementary and secondary schools. On October 30, 1987, EPA published the Asbestos-Containing Materials in Schools Rule (40 CFR Part 763 Subpart E). This Rule requires all public and private elementary and secondary schools to inspect for friable and non-friable asbestos, develop asbestos management plans that address asbestos hazards in school buildings and implement response actions in a timely fashion.

To carry out the above activities involving inspections, management plans and response actions, the Rockcastle County Board of Education has utilized accredited personnel. On April 30, 1987, EPA published the Model Accreditation Plan (40 CFR Part 763 Appendix C to Subpart E) required by AHERA, which specifies training, examination and other requirements for persons who inspect, develop management plans and design or conduct response actions in schools. The Model Plan became effective on June 1, 1987.

In 1988, the Rockcastle County Board of Education retained Barry W. Cooper, P.E. who completed an initial inspection to locate all asbestos-containing building materials (ACBM) and developed and submitted to the state of Kentucky an Asbestos Management Plan that includes the results of the inspections. In December of 1988, the Rockcastle County Board of Education began to implement this management plan.

Copies of the management plan are always available for review for those interested persons at the Administration Office at Rt. 5, Box 69, Mt. Vernon, Ky. and at the Principal's Office at each school any time during normal office hours.

Copies are available for duplication at a cost of 25 cents for each 8 1/2 x 11 page of the Management Plan.

PUBLIC NOTICE
NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF NO SIGNIFICANT EFFECT ON THE ENVIRONMENT
AND NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF FUNDS
Date Published Nov. 18, 1993

Rockcastle County Fiscal Court
Rockcastle County Courthouse
Mt. Vernon, Kentucky 40456

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS, AND PERSONS:
On or about December 4, 1993, the above named COUNTY will request the Kentucky Department of Local Government to release Federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (PL 93-383) for the following project:

PROJECT TITLE: Northern Rockcastle Water Project
PURPOSE: To upgrade the Northern Rockcastle Water System by provision of a new 110,000 gallon water tank, repair of an existing 20,000 gallon water tank, replacement of leaking PVC pipes with new class 200 PVC waterlines.

LOCATION: Northern portion of Rockcastle County, Kentucky
It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and, accordingly, the above named COUNTY has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (PL 91-190).

The reasons for such decision not to prepare such Statement are as follows:
1. There are no historically/architecturally significant structures located within the Target Area.
2. All areas of the proposed activities have been previously disturbed and no archaeological survey is, therefore, required.

An Environmental Review Record respecting the within project has been made by the above named COUNTY which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental Review Record is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying, upon request, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

No further environmental review of such project is proposed to be conducted prior to the request for release of Federal funds.

All interested agencies, groups, and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the COUNTY to the Judge Executive. Such written comments should be received at the above address on or before December 4, 1993. All such comments so received will be considered and the COUNTY will not request the release of Federal funds or take any administrative action on the within project prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

Rockcastle County will undertake the project described above with Block Grant funds from the Kentucky Department of Local Government (KDLG) under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. Rockcastle County is certifying to the State that George "Buzz" Carlotts in his official capacity as JUDGE EXECUTIVE consents to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental review, decision making, and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval Rockcastle County may use the Block Grant funds and the State and HUD will have satisfied their responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. The State will accept an objection to its approval only if it is on one of the following bases:

- (a) The certification was not in fact executed by the County's Certifying Officer.
- (b) The COUNTY has failed to make one of the two findings pursuant to 58.41 or to make the written determination decision required by 58.47, 58.53 or 58.64 for the project as applicable.
- (c) The COUNTY has omitted one or more of the steps set forth at Subparts F and G for the preparation and completion of an EA.
- (d) No opportunity was given to the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation or its Executive Director to review the effect of the project on a property listed on the National Register of Historic Places, or found to be eligible for such listing by the Secretary of the Interior, in accordance with 36 CFR Part 800.
- (e) Objections have been made by a Federal Agency.

Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR Part 58) and may be addressed to the Kentucky Department of Local Government, Division of Community Programs, 1024 Capital Center Drive, 2nd Floor, Frankfort, Kentucky, 40601.

Objections to the release of funds on bases other than those stated above will not be considered by the State. No objection received after December 20, 1993 will be considered by the State.

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (24 CFR Part 8) requires the provision of access to the hearing impaired through telephone Telecommunication Devices for the Deaf (TDDs). As a result, an 800 number has been set up to provide access for deaf persons to CDBG Program information. This TDD number is 1-800-247-2510. An "interpreter" will connect the caller with the requested person.

Arnold

Thank You
The family of Dorothy Brock would like to thank all the friends and family who helped us during the loss of our loved one. A special thanks for all the flowers, food, cards and especially for keeping us in your thoughts and prayers. The kind and loving words of Bro. Charles Shivel will always be remembered by the family. To Barbara Brock Faulkner for the comforting words of song that had been requested by our loved one.

Thanks to the staff of Dowell-Martin for your thoughtful attention to all our needs. The family will always be grateful to all our friends in this time of need. May God bless each of you. Sadly missed by R.V., Grace, Judy & Kermit, Ada, Cleo, Leon and all the grandchildren.

In Memory Of
In Memory of My Brother
Fred Lee Mason
Who would have celebrated his birthday Friday November 20, 1993.
If he had not lost his life on July 3, 1991.
I will never forget that day, we never had time to say goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why.

Only those who have lost a loved one in this way can know the pain.
But in my heart I believe you are at rest in the arms of Jesus, where no more pain will ever touch you again.
I love and miss you, brother.
Your sis. Loretta

Virgil W. Arnold, 88, of Mt. Vernon, died Nov. 13, 1993 at the Valley Park Convalescent Center in Barbourville, after an illness of several weeks.
He was born March 26, 1905 in Rockcastle County, the son of the late James and Mary Kirby Arnold. He was retired from the Kentucky Stone Company and attended the Baptist Church.
Survivors are a son, Keith Arnold of Dayton; Ohio; three daughters, Mrs. Phyllis Hines and Mrs. Mary Howard, both of Mt. Vernon and Ms. Billie Janice Brant of Greenwood, Ind.; a sister, Mrs. Mollie Sneed of Dillsboro, Ind., seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Mrs. Opal Weaver Arnold, a daughter, Opal Faye Shaw, and by two brothers, Ernest and Sherman Arnold.

Services were held Nov. 15 at the Cox Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Harvey Penso officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Palbearers were Don Howard, Dale Howard, Gary Cromer, Casey Hines, Willie Hines and Lewis Cox.

Williams

Mrs. Lola Williams, 71, of Livingston, died Nov. 14, 1993 at the Rockcastle Hospital.

She was born in Knox County June 14, 1923, the daughter of George and Cora Helton Phipps. She was a retired waitress and a member of the Livingston Pentecostal Church.

She is survived by her husband, Cecil Williams of Livingston; a brother, J.B. Phipps of Livingston and three sisters, Arnetta Miller of Harlan, Jean McHargue of Louisville and Dema Norman of Knoxville, Tenn.

Services were Nov. 17 at the Livingston Pentecostal Church by Bro. Jimmy Miller. Burial was in the Ponder Cemetery.

Dowell and Martin Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Wolfe

Marie Gravit Wolfe, 83, of Berea died at U.K. Medical Center.

She is survived by her husband, Burl of Berea; and formerly of Wildie; a daughter, Gail Cope of Lexington; a brother Elwood Gravit of Clay City.

She was a member of the Berea Baptist Church, a native of Powell County and a retired employee of Parker Seal.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Vaughns Mill Cemetery, Clay City, with Rev. J.R. Phillips officiating.

Visitation will be from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday, at Lakes Funeral Home, Berea. Hearse Funeral Home in Stanton is in charge of arrangements.

Thank you

The family of Clyde Barnett would like to thank everyone that helped in anyway to console us during our loss. We especially want to thank Cox Funeral Home and staff, Rockcastle Hospital and staff, the Northside Singers accompanied by Lisha Cromer, Lily Thomas and Dollie Pillion, Bros. Lester Caldwell and Harvey Penso, those that brought food or sent flowers and especially everyone for their prayers. Your kindness will always be remembered.

McCauley to play for Marshall University

RCCHS senior first to sign with Division I

By: Chris Scott Renner

Looking-on as Cindy McCauley inks her Letter of Intent to play college basketball for Marshall University, were, from left: her parents, David and Kathy McCauley, Supt. Bibe Towery, Jr. and her coach, Christy Beaver.

This kind of work and dedication is probably what distinguished her as the first Rocket athlete ever to receive a scholarship to a Division I school.

I ran into an old college buddy in Lexington the other day. He prefers that his name not be associated with mine in your newspaper because, as he put it, he's, "in enough trouble already."

And, like most of your other Pulitzer Prize seeking journalists, I'm not in the habit of naming the sources of my privileged information anyway. Except what I get from my wife, Loretta. I quote Loretta from time to time because it adds some legitimacy to my argument and because she tells me that it's ok to use her name in the paper if she gets the check for that week's column. Believe it or not, there are newspapers who pay me to get this drive to you and Loretta will tell you anything you want to know for as little as $20.

I'm mentioning Loretta's name this week because she is going to get the money anyway so she can buy me a Christmas present. Normally I use the column proceeds to purchase fish hooks and shotgun shells but both of those sports are pretty slack right now. Besides, my Christmas present will include a couple of boxes of shells and a vast assortment of fish hooks. I actually come out, in the long run, when Loretta makes the paper this time of year.

Anyway, my more-timid-than-Loretta friend and I grabbed a corner in the Marriott Hotel lobby to catch up with each other and he got to talking to me about his oldest son who is a senior in high school this year.

"He's a pretty smart kid," my friend insisted. "He passes all his courses; sometimes just barely, but he seems to be real popular at school and he'd stay there around the clock if we'd let him but the problem is the kid has problems and his problems are causing us problems and the problems just keep building up and sooner or later we're gonna have serious problems with this kid's problems if you know what I mean. I'm telling you man; it's a problem."

Now going into this conversation I'd spent about ten minutes bragging on my kids. Genny's at the University of Louisville making excellent grades and is no longer intimidated by the big city. Carol is raising a baby and a husband at the same time and still making good grades in nursing school. Jennifer, our cheerleader, is screaming her little butt off at ball games and making A's in calculus. Chris, our 8th grader, is coping with diabetes and winning that battle.

When I talk about my kids I generally brag on them because I'm pretty pleased with the way things are turning out. Tough nuts is what we have in my household. Kids determined to avoid being a bit like Dad.

My friend, on the other hand, is not so sure about his off-spring. "Let me be frank with you," he insists, "my kid is, to put it nicely, wayward. He doesn't have a chance at anything."

For instance, he talks about basketball and nothing else. He's 18 years old and he won't eat breakfast cereal unless it has a picture of Michael Jordan on the box. He has posters of the all-stars pasted all over his room and he walks around the neighborhood with a real pro Wilson basketball under his arm that has been autographed by everyone on Todd May to Wil Chamberlain."

My friend bends over in his chair and cups his chin in the V of his palms so that his fingers can reach up and drag his lower eyelids down. "My kid can't even dribble the darn basketball," he murmurs in disgust. "And we have a collic that know more about the game."

"How tall is your kid?" I ask. "5'8, or so," he replies. "Is he overweight or sickly?" I ask again.

"Well, he is going bald headed and his ears are way too big," my friend confides.

"Then look at Dick Vitale, my friend," I suggest to him. It sounds to me like your kid is imminently qualified to commence work for ESPN and best of all, he shouldn't even have to go to college."

"Can he scream Bayyyyyyeeeee Bayyyyyyeeeee oh Yehuuuuuuuuuu Whooooeeeee Unkkkkkkhunk!!! and then snort melodies through his nose hairs?" I ask.

"He does it all the time," my friend confides.

"Sounds to me like he's already got a job," I advise.

"And if he strikes out at ESPN as Dick's replacement, why don't you point him toward the Ross Perot campaign. That's another place where big ears and low intelligence can turn you into a millionaire."

Think about it friends! If Dick Vitale and Ross Perot can become rich and famous then there is absolute hope for every baby ever born. I'm just so glad that I'm not the parent raising them. But if you are. Don't give up.

This is Monday morning, 8:45 by the clock, and seven weeks before the end of 1993. I'm looking out the window and seeing my life running out for this year as the raindrops run down the window.

I'll have a birthday in January making me one year older. My goodness, why do I have these dreary thoughts? Maybe it's the weather.

I should talk of all the good things

HERESAY

Precious souls, children of an evil age, greetings and salutations from Rockcastle County's nerve center. I speak, of course, the wonderful world of Wabed, where seldom is heard a discouraging word--well, at least not in winter when Wabdians are snowed in and can't be up and about, going hither, thither and yo, doing this and that, and resorting to so forth and so on, every now and then. (As you can readily tell, I heeded the instruction of my college journalism professor, Dr. Ewell Wrightmore, who advised his students to write with clarity and specificity.)

When my family and I lived in Boston, Massachusetts, we partook of a meal with the family of Lt. Col. James Riley in their second-story apartment on Hanscomb Air Base in Lexington. The Rileys were members of the church I served in Billerica, a township seven miles north of Concord, Bridge, where a band of patriots, as Emerson put it, "fired the shot heard round the world."

We had a few minutes to wait until the meal was ready. So, our sons, Mark and Mike, went outside with the Riley's son and daughter to a play area in the front yard. I strobbled by the window to make sure things were going right. A couple of other "base kids" had joined ours. One of them, a little red-head, stood still and stared up at me. I walked away, but when I strobbled back to the window, she was still looking my way. And she kept it up! I moved away again.

A few minutes later the children were called in. The red-head came in with them. She looked around, spied me, and walked across the room to where I was sitting. She just stood there. Silent. Staring at me.

"What's your name?" I asked. She didn't tell me her name, but 5 years ago, 1988. . . Alvin and Donna Pigg announced the birth of their first child, a son, born Sept. 28 at Patsie A. Clay Hospital in Richmond. He was named Donovan Noel and weighed 9 1/2 lbs. and was 21 3/4 inches long. Proud grandparents are Noel and Bell Pigg of Mt. Vernon and Donald and Mary Faulkner of Livingston.

Author and Berea College Trustee Alex Haley, author of roots, visited the college to give a 30-second Public Service Announcements to combat the high school dropout rate. Rockcastle County voted along with the state and nation to election George Bush the next President of the United States.

10 years ago, 1983. . . Donovan Howard, 14, of Mt. Vernon, went deer hunting for the first time and killed a 7 lb. buck in the county with a 12 gauge shotgun. Mrs. Joe Howard.

Charles Daniel Ashcraft celebrated his birthday Nov. 7 at his home. He is the son of Nita Ashcraft of Broadhead and Charles Ashcraft also of Broadhead. Grandparents are M.B. and Sue Kincer, Mt. Vernon and Johnny and Pearce Stevens, also of Mt. Vernon.

The Rockcastle County Rockets were defeated by Danville 33-12 to knock them out of the district title.

Pvt. Douglas E. Singleton II, son of Douglas E. Singleton of Rt. 2, Livingston, completed basic training at Fort Leonardwood, Missouri.

15 years ago, 1978. . . John Lair, founder of Renfro Valley, was awarded the "Outstanding Broadcaster Award" from the Kentucky Broadcasters Association at a ceremony at the Hyatt Regency in Lexington. Mr. Lair received a bronze and walnut plaque denoting his many years of service in radio and also received a standing ovation from the crowd. This is the highest honor in Kentucky broadcasting and was only awarded once before.

Freddy Ray Pruitt, Jr. celebrated his 3rd birthday Oct. 12 at his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Pruitt and his sister, Mickie Lee. Also attending were his grandmother, Mrs. Mary McWhorter, cousins Stacy and Corey Craig, Elizabeth Ann Parsons, friends: Johnna Riddle, Ramey Douglas, Tonya Parrett, Elizabeth Proctor, Brian Riddle and Jennifer Riddle.

Billy Cameron, Jr. received a trophy on behalf of the Quail Teen Club, named the outstanding 4-H Club in what she did say surprised the soup out of me.

"Are you God?" she asked. It was flabbergasting time, folks! Why would she ask that? Well, before I could say a word, I sensed a warm presence standing up on my left—and detected a faint odor of burning sulfur. Dear hearts, it was none other than Old Scratch himself!

"Say 'Yes!'" he whispered. I later lost hearing in that ear and suspect that event had something to do with it. Just listening to Old Scratch could sear your stirrup, singe your armpit, or deaden a nerve in the inner ear.

I knew the answer to her question was "No." But Scratch persisted. "She's paying you a compliment," he said, "don't disappoint her." I stifled my pride, however, and said to her, "No, I'm not, but I think I know Him." That led to my inviting her to learn about God in our Sunday School.

Folks, if you don't know it, you should: a preacher's greatest temptation—and believe me, there are some doozies!—is to play God in the lives of others. It's often made worse by parishioners who go along with it. And it's down right dangerous when a preacher is unaware he has assumed "diety." I speak whereof I know. Preachers get too glib with their "God-talk." I did my share of it, and I know some who do. But, please, I'm not writing about any of God's Mt. Vernon messengers.

Dear hearts, love your pastor. Pray for him. Care for him. But, please don't worship him. Don't put him on a pedestal. Up on a pedestal is a lonely and precarious place to be. Now, let me use the remainder of my space to thank those of you who have read my columns and complimented, discussed, or maybe cursed them. I've enjoyed putting Heresy together each week. However, I am now turning my attention to another arena of personal interest that will demand my full mental capacity (such as it is) and will not allow me to continue my column.

I thank Rick Anderkin for publishing my "stuff" for the past two years. And to you, dear readers, I leave these words. Read them carefully. What you see means . . . everything. GODSINOWHERE!

the county. Roy-Brown made the presentation.

that are coming up like folks drying pumpkin for the winter to make pies, shucking corn to dry for winter, home ground, meal which some swear is the best "hockade bread to eat with a glass of good, old, cold buttermilk." Folks in the hills kill hogs as soon as the weather gets cold enough.

Joe Abney lays a fat one in the scalding pan as soon as cold weather sets in, and he is such a good man he gives the neighbors a mess. He gives us the lights and some kidneys." City folks say why give all your fresh meat away.

Now there's a reason. By the time all of Joe's fresh meat, is thinning out, and Joe's neighbors will start killing their hogs, giving Joe meat, he will always have a supply of fresh meat.

The John Harding menfolks are hunters. As soon as a hunting season is open, the menfolks take off for the hills.

The family has tried rattlesnake steaks and say it's not bad. Something like frog legs.

A joke that some people play on city folks is to ask if the listener whom he's talking to has ever eaten "ground hog sausage." If the person makes a face and says, "I sure haven't!" Then they are asked if they've bought any hog sausage at the grocery.

"Why, of course we buy pork sausage," they'll declare. "Well, hasn't that meat been ground up?" and everybody laughs including the one who has been tricked, he'll laugh too.

I have seen some of the prettiest, handmade quilts around on the creeks, hills and hollows.

The women did pretty well when they displayed the ones they had quilted down at the homemade quilt fair we had last spring on Clear Creek. Some of the women would like to do it again in this coming spring of '94. They will make the articles this winter and have a 'Spring Fair' (we'll need a name). I could check with Hoyle and Jane Miller about the use of the building, old Disputanta Store and Post office at Three Forks of the road.

The Millers are always so good about sharing the use of the land or building with the neighbors.

Jane has so many pretty articles in their house, she might just show some of them at the fair.

I only heard Sunday that Marie Gravett Wolfe had passed away November 10th at a Lexington Hospital and was brought to Lakes Funeral Home in Berea for a visitation night then taken to Powell County for burial.

I was so sorry I didn't know in time for I would have liked being there. Marie and husband, Burl Wolfe, were so nice to me when I would see them in Berea. They laughed at the things I would say in my column and tell me how they liked it.

I would say this to Burl wherever he is now, you have my deepest sympathy and may God be with you in the times to come, as he has in the past.

I must tell you the brand new Senior Citizen Center on Jefferson Street, in Berea, has been opened and you are invited to attend the Christmas Bazaar that will take place November 19, Saturday, at the new building. There will be many pretty things for sale and the folks there hope you will buy them for it will benefit the center.

If you remember old timer Herschel Logsdon, deceased, used to bring a Money Plant for a dry winter bouquet and offer them for sale to the center.

I have seeds of the plant which he and I would give away. They make greenery, with them into a pretty flower arrangement. Etta Davis is the person who is in charge and she does a wonderful job. My-hardresser at Wayne's Fair Plus is Teresa Singleton. She is one of the girls from Rockcastle who does such good work. I wanted to tease her so I asked her the question which has a double side to it.

Teresa, has your husband stopped beating you yet?"

She gave me a cute answer which was tricky. "No, he hadn't until I turned and look after him so now he knows what I'll do."

Teresa's grandmother, Georgia Blair, has been very ill and the family is very worried about her. Teresa loves her a lot by the way she talks of her and the attention she gives her grandmother. And the attention Teresa shows her customers spoils us all.

She is one of the prettiest persons I know and I tease her to enter the "Mrs. Rockcastle" contests that comes to the county.

It's getting close to Thanksgiving so I always kinda look around as to where a good place might be.

I heard that Mr. Anderkin was going to go hunting again out west this fall (in the next week or two) so I plan to drop in as if I were on business and maybe be invited for dinner to eat bison or deer. But my second boss #2, Richard, may have a foot in the door first and you know how hungry boys can eat.

Margaret and Clyde Linville will miss her younger sister, Katherine, and husband, Bill Green, who will return to Florida for the winter. They have an apartment at her brother Edward's house in Scaffold Beach where they spent the summer.

This past summer I went to Berea Hospital to visit and saw crab apple trees in the lot with lots of the little red apples. I ate one or two and liked the tart taste of them.

The weather got cool so one morning I went over and the ground under the trees was covered with them. Now I can't stand to see anything go to waste, so I started picking them up. In my car trunk, I carry a gallon coffee can so I filled them up quickly, another lady came by and she started picking herself some.

I'm sorry I can't remember her name for she was such a friendly person.

I bought 12 jelly glasses with fancy covers for the fruit and gave the crabapple jelly to friends. It taste very good to me with hot biscuits.

Next week another wild fruit that I can use in this paper for different foods.

Till then, I love my bifocals! My dentures fit just fine. My hearing aid is perfect. But, lord, how I miss my mind!

Tiger Pause

The fourth and fifth grade Challenge classes had a very special guest on November 12. Mrs. Nina Cash visited with Mrs. Doyle's class; Mrs. Ruby McKinney was with Mrs. Ellington's 5th grade; Billy Riddle visited Mrs. Scott's group, and C.B. Owens visited Mrs. Cash's class. The students interviewed each of their guests about Thanksgiving when they were a child and how Thanksgiving has changed over the years. The students will use the interview information to write a comparison/contrast paper. Mrs. Nancy Hale is our Challenge teacher.

Attention all retired BES staff. You can still have a part in our school. Please help us by joining PTA. Your continued support is needed. You may join with a single membership for $3 or $5 for a couple. We are working toward maintaining our permanent school status. Send your membership fee to Mrs. Shirley Martin.

November 24th we will have a drawing from a cache of names of students with perfect attendance during the week of Nov. 15-19 Mrs. Owens who works diligently for good attendance is having the drawing in recognition of American education Week. (Nov. 15-19)

Broadhead hosted the quick-recall league games of Roundstone, Livingston and Science Hill, Tuesday evening. We would like to thank academic coach Ms. Regina Burton for all the work in coordinating the event. BEAST (Broadhead Elementary Academic Success Team) has the following students as members:

Emilij Potter, Nathan DeLeon, Josh McKibben, Cliff Marcovich, Scotty Moore, April Thompson, Beth Branch, Rebecca Mink, Mary French, Phillip Payne, father of BES student's, Courtney and Heath, made a chair as the class watched. Mr. Payne is the owner of Rustic Willow. His furniture has been featured in national magazines and has received national recognition.

Ashley Martin, Angela Owens and Brooke Roberts.

Don't forget to encourage your child to enter the 4-H Talk Meet which will be held Dec. 7 at 6 p.m. at M.V.E.S. This is an excellent opportunity for students to enhance their oratory abilities.

SWAT, the primary team of Ms. Annette Lawrence, Ms. Lena Hayes, Ms. Jennifer Nealey, Ms. Caroline Graves, and Mrs. Sharon Ponder have planned a field trip to the planetarium to see "Oasis in Space" which will complete their study of the solar system.

The 21st Century Class would like to thank the following for their visits this week. Phillip Payne, dad of Courtney and Heath, has a business called Rustic Willow. Mr. Payne visited the class and demonstrated his skill as an artisan by making a chair as the class watched. Ms. Bonnie Vanhook Brummett from Days Inn helped us understand motel management more clearly. We would like to thank postmistress, Liz Tipton, at the Broadhead Post Office for her helpful information and tour of the post office. David Ott of Professional Design was a great speaker and Dawn Lang of the Youth Services Center spoke to the students on many topics of interest.

Our second six-weeks grading period ends Thursday, Nov. 18. Report cards will be coming home Tuesday, November 30. A parent survey pertaining to the Youth Services Center will come home with reports. Please complete the survey and return it with report cards.

Tiger Pause will not appear next week. We wish you a Happy Thanksgiving Holiday!!

Mr. Gabbard's sixth grade students at RES are making displays of foreign countries for the classroom. Each student has written to the embassy of the country of their choice requesting tourist information and maps. The student have received lots of exciting information. The stamps on the letters are very colorful and have been educational. The displays are to be completed by Wednesday, Nov. 17 and will remain on display for several days. Parents are invited before and after the regular school day to view the displays.

Mr. Gabbard and four of his sixth grade students; Matthew Brown, Luke Hayes, Mark Parsons and Daren Poynter will travel to Cumberland College on Nov. 18 to perform "Poetry and Beyond" during the Forward in the Fifth Fall Conference. Roundstone School is proud to have a teacher and students sharing with other schools at this conference.

In the second six weeks of grading which ends Thursday, Nov. 18, the report cards at RES will be given out

Monday, Nov. 29. Please expect your child's report card to come home on this day. For questions about report cards or to make an appointment to see a teacher, please call the school at 256-2235.

vation Posters. They will have a Reward Day for perfect attendance and good behavior.

Ms. Wallin's classes have been studying the "Writing Process" and doing computer work. They are using flash cards to review words. They have been working on poetry in groups.

Mr. Napier's class has been dividing larger numbers in math. They are also finding averages and doing equations. In writing, they are doing persuasive pieces. In reading, students did weather lore cards. They enjoyed Mr. Penso's visit to their classroom. In social studies, they have been working on a new rubric. Their study is now about Settlers of the Atlantic Coast. In English, they are working on homophones, question marks, verbs and articles. In science, they have been working on the five senses. They learned their ABC's in sign language and realized that it would be like to be deaf. In spelling, students are working on suffixes. On Thursday, they do Sustained Silent Reading, a literary program for all reading levels.

Ms. Abney's academic team won 5 out of 6 games, winning against Broadhead west, Roundstone, Livingston and East Bernstadt. They lost to Corbin by 2 points. In Ms. Abney's English class, students are writing responses to the Kentucky Valley and Higher Ground Programs. In science, they are studying planets, earth and moon.

Ms. Henderson's homeroom (8C) welcomes student teacher David Owens. Mr. Owens is going to be with MVES until December 17, Mr.

Owens is a great help. Students have been writing tall tales and short stories in English. Although they won't be going to the middle school, they wrote some stories on how they would design it.

On Wednesday, November 10, the fifth grade classes enjoyed a trip to EKK's Planetarium. They watched a star show about planets and constellations. They also visited the Madison County Courthouse and Detention Center. The Detention Center is new and modern and has no bars. Students then went on to the Richmond Mall where they had lunch. Everyone was well-behaved and had a great time. The students and faculty would like to thank Citizens Bank of Broadhead and The Bank of Mt. Vernon for helping to make this trip possible.

Attendance Incentives

Recent perfect attendance prizes went to Boyd Smith, Brandi Sexton, Jerilyn Mink and Brad Wesley. These students were commended for giving 100 percent to LES. These four students have helped make LES attendance tops.

Also, Ms. Brenda Bullock's and Ms. Martha Eversole's classes were the happy recipients of pizza on Friday afternoon, November 5. The students earned a pizza party by posting 10 consecutive days of perfect attendance.

Trip to McDonald's

Monday, Nov. 8, marked 50 consecutive days of perfect attendance for Mrs. Peggy McClure's P2 class. Students were rewarded with a trip to McDonald's for their outstanding accomplishment.

The students and Mrs. McClure thank Mr. Carter for arranging bus transportation. Also, special thanks goes to the entire PTO for providing Happy Meals to all the students. P2 students have discovered firsthand that good attendance pays in more ways than one.

Primary News
The AFC Gang recently began a 4 week unit on Indians and Pilgrims. Activities planned include making Indian necklaces, totem poles, and Indian paintings.

Primary 1 and Primary 4's "Autumn Leaves" performance at PTO was a great success. The teachers would like to thank all students and parents for their participation and also express how exciting it was for the students to share what they learned with others.

The entire Primary School welcomes Mrs. Angie Ponder who is filling Ms. Paula's shoes during her absence.

Intermediate News
Responding to an ad placed by lonesome and loving grandmother, fifth grade students in Mr. Robbins' class wrote letters to Mrs. Hughes. Within two weeks, the class received a reply from Mrs. Hughes, who prefers to be known as Grandmother Lucy.

The fifth graders have another letter in the mail to Grandmother Lucy and they are in the process of producing a video to send to Grandmother Lucy within the next two weeks.

Also, students had a very special guest on Thursday, Nov. 11 when Mrs. Peggy McClure's class at Livingston Elementary enjoyed a trip to McDonald's for their 50 days of perfect attendance. Pictured front row, left to right: Joshua VanWinkle, Eric Pharris, Luke Halford, Justin Taylor, John Phillips, Samuel Isaacs, Chris Smith. Back row, left to right: Teddy Stallworth, Steven Pigg, Meagan Parker, Kara Martin, Tasha Farris, Rose Pruitt, Jessica Shepherd, Tamara McKinney, Steven Shackelford.

Mrs. Lucille Carolotis visited. In addition to sharing her experiences with Bed and Breakfast Inns, Mrs. Carolotis discussed the process she used to collect information for her book, Favorite Recipes, a collection of recipes and other information about specific ins. The class thanks Mrs. Carolotis for taking the time to share her knowledge with them.

Middle School News
Mr. Roark's 7th grade social studies class is engaged in a unit on Vikings. Students will use the Viking alphabet, write skaldic poetry, make models or representations of Viking ships, jewelry, etc., and examine Viking culture and government.

In science, Mr. Roark's students are involved in a CePup module entitled, "Plastics in Our Lives." A field trip is being planned as a culminating activity.

In Memory of Mr. Mink
The week of November 15 through November 19 has been designated American Education Week. The administration, teachers, staff, and students at LES have chosen this time to remember a very special educator, Jerry Mink.

On Thursday, November 18, ribbons will be available in the gym to students and staff in honor of Mr. Mink and to recognize his outstanding contributions to LES and the Livingston Community.

Mr. Mink dedicated much of his life to LES, first as a teacher and then as principal. He spent countless evening and summer hours upgrading the building and curriculum. His deep love for children will never be forgotten.

Education Program
On Friday, November 12, Bev Stuhr presented an education program to LES students entitled, "The Good Guys."

An animal lover by nature, Bev Stuhr has chosen to educate children as a career. She has traveled for six consecutive years and has sold out time after time. It is no wonder Bev puts on a show that is exciting, educational, and fun.

Bev defended the less-loved reptiles in this world. By showing their eating, sleeping, and hunting habits, she proved that they are really quite humorous and are "good guys" in many ways. Her traveling companions included turtles, tortoises, skunks, iguanas, monitor lizards and a friendly crocodile named "Puff."

Counselor's Connection
This week we worked on "I Am" poems in Ms. Ballinger's homeroom. I'm always pleased with the creativity and effort that so many students demonstrate. The following are just two of the many great poems from Ms. Ballinger's room:

I am a guy who likes basketball
I wonder if Micael Jordan will return to the pros
I hear basketballs bouncing
I see a ball going through the hoop
I want to be a pro
I am a guy who likes basketball
I pretend I am in the NBA I feel the team spirit as they win the game
I touch the basketball as it leaves my hand
I worry if the show will go on
I cry sometimes when we lose
I am a guy who likes basketball

I understand the game
I say we will win
I dream we won
I try to make us win
I hope we will win
I am a guy who likes basketball
Robbie Gibson

I am a funny girl who can help others
I wonder about the future

I hear a waterfall rushing into a place of paradise
I see a beautiful place that has lots of colors and is tropical
I want to make something of myself
I am a funny girl who can help others

I pretend that I am not my age
I feel like I'm going to be a teacher
I touch cool water
I worry about my grades
I cry about my puppy
I am a funny girl who can help others

I understand about my brother's shyness
I say that life goes on
I dream about things I want to happen
I try to do my best in school
I hope that I get all A's
I am a funny girl who can help others.

Question of the Week:
If you could change the world, what would you do?

Gloria Phillips: "I'd put people who commit crimes over and over again in jail for good."
James Martin: "I'd build an animal shelter for stray cats and dogs."

April Martin: "I'd do away with taxes."
Joanie Mink: "Only police officers would have guns."
Kim Skidmore: "I'd stop pollution in factories."
Amanda Parker: "People would not take drugs."

Amanda Hensley: "I'd change my sister."
Ladonya Mink: "I'd make laws stricter for drunk drivers."

NOTICE
Rockcastle County Schools Plan for Inclement Weather School Closing - Early Dismissals

Every effort will be made to keep parents and concerned citizens informed as to school closing, early dismissal and possibly a delay plan.

The number one concern is the safety of students. After an extensive evaluation of road conditions in the county, taking into consideration all roads, a decision will be made in regard to closing school.

School closing will be announced on four radio stations and three television stations and they are as follows: Radio - WRVK (AM-1460), WKXO (AM-1500, FM-106.7), WVLC (FM-93); Television - WKYT (Channel 27) WLEX (Channel 18), WTVQ (Channel 36). If possible, the closing will be announced the evening before the closing date; if a determination cannot be made the day prior to the closing date, every possible effort will be made to reach a decision by 6:00 a.m. The announcement will be made no later than 6:30 a.m. This will be conducted the same for the delay plan, if it is concluded the delay plan would be the appropriate plan of action.

If the delay plan is used, breakfast will be served upon the arrival of students at school.

Early dismissal of school due to inclement weather will be announced only on WRVK. Roads will be closely monitored as school is in session to determine if there is a need for early dismissal. If the need for early dismissal does occur, parents should make arrangements to meet children as they arrive early.

Parents and students should not call any radio or television stations to inquire as to the information they may or may not have received in relation to school closing. This could delay the information distribution to the necessary channel by phone lines being tied up.

Rockcastle County School System Delay Plan

Occasionally, there are mornings when an additional hour is needed to check bus routes and temperatures/weather conditions sometimes can change between 6 a.m. and 7 a.m. As a result, the Rockcastle County School System will consider a one hour delay in school opening due to weather conditions.

If a one-hour delay status is warranted, the delay will be announced by the following radio stations: WRVK (AM 1460), WKXO (AM-1500 and FM 106.7), WVLC (FM-93), and the following television stations: WLEX (Channel 18), WKYT (Channel 27), WTVQ (Channel 36), at 6 a.m. or as soon as possible.

There may be a time when a few isolated bus routes may not be made or may be delayed for an hour while the rest of the bus routes will be made on the regular schedule. These bus routes will be announced only on WRVK radio station.

In instances of a delay schedule, breakfast will be served as soon as students arrive at school.

The Emory Martins celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Martin will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary November 24th. They were married in Atlanta, Georgia in 1943 and have one son and two grandchildren. A reception scheduled for Sunday, November 21 in Renfro Valley has been cancelled because of illness.

S.C.C. Advanced Registration

Continuing students may register for spring classes at Somerset Community College's Laurel County Center on Nov. 17 and 18. Registration times for both days are 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Students need to see their academic advisors by Nov. 16 in order to be eligible for advanced registration. Schedules for spring classes are also available to anyone interested in enrolling for the spring semester. Stop by the campus at 390 Faith Assembly Road or phone (606) 877-1421 for more information.

Cumberland hosts Chemistry Symposium

Rockcastle County High School participated in the 1993 Chemistry Symposium and Science Olympiad held Friday, November 5, on the Cumberland College campus, Williamsburg. More than 400 high school students and teachers, representing 26 high schools from across Kentucky including one high school from East Tennessee, took part in the day-long event which included exhibitions, seminars and competitions in the fields of chemistry, biology, physics, computer science, and geology. Teams and individuals from participating high schools competed in events such as metric estimation, biological science, topographic map reading, computer problems solving, earth science and land navigation. Contests were also held to build a mousetrap car. The Cumberland College Chemistry Symposium and Science Olympiad is designed to feature a varied and versatile science competition which excites young people about science, promotes science endeavors in high school, rewards academic excellence and provides a challenge for students pursuing an interest in any of the science and technology fields.

Rockcastle County High School received a second place award in the Physics Team demonstration by Courtney Adams and Dallas W. Graves.

Hopkinsville High School, in Hopkinsville, was named the Grand Champion of the 1993 Cumberland College Chemistry symposium and Science Olympiad.

RES participates in Choral Festival

The Kentucky Music Educators Association sponsored an Elementary Choral Festival in Richmond at Eastern Kentucky University on Friday, November 5. The festival combined over 500 elementary students from Central Kentucky to sing in two choirs. The music the students sang included Folk, Christmas, Dixieland, and even a Brazilian tune. Roundstone Elementary was represented by Hollie Best, Karah Bowles, Tracy Isaacs, Chrissy Himes, Amber Thacker, Mattie Carpenter, Cathie Midkaff, Bea McNew, Ashley Lawson, Amy Sutton, Steffany Gabbard, Ashley Holt, William Blair, Kyle Parsons and Bryant Reams.

KET marks assassination anniversary with three nights of JFK specials

To many Americans, John F. Kennedy was an admired president; an intellectual, witty, and charismatic man who embodied the spirit, hopes, and dreams of an entire nation. KET marks the 30th anniversary of his assassination with specials on three consecutive nights.

JFK: In His Own Words, airing on KET at 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 22, reveals the private man behind the public hero. The one-hour program includes audio tapes and features rarely seen film footage, including color home movies.

At 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 23, KET recreates the News presentation, "Who Shot President Kennedy?" In the program, both critics and defenders of the contention that Lee Harvey Oswald alone was the president's assassin are interviewed. To aid in the analysis, News uses sophisticated techniques of photo enhancement and three-dimensional computer modeling not available at the time of the Warren Commission's investigation.

Members of Rockcastle County Veterans Assistance Center at Conway gathered with flags at Hardee's Restaurant on Veterans Day. They are Michelle Donelson of Hardee's, James Revel, Dale Bradley, Allen Spears, Rick Collett and Becky Keefe, group leader at Hardee's. Unable to attend were Russell Eversole, Warren Stone, Wanda Eversole and Charles Thomas. The group assistance is described in the Veterans Day story.

Elmer and Virgil Alcorn were in midst of WW II

It was the fall of 1941, and the war in Europe had escalated to the point that it was inevitable that the United States was going to be dragged into it soon.

And, in preparation for their involvement in the conflict, the U.S. government reactivated the mandatory draft for men.

On September 11, twin brothers Elmer and Virgil Alcorn, left Mt. Vernon with the first group of draftees for basic training at Fort Thomas Kentucky.

Elmer Alcorn recalled sadly last week that many of the local men that he and his brother left Mt. Vernon with in 1941 did not return.

From Fort Thomas the Alcorns were shipped to the Presidio installation near San Francisco California where they finished their basic training.

"We were both stationed in California when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor, on December 7th, of '41 and I'm here to tell you that it was a scary time for everyone," Elmer Alcorn said during an interview last week.

"We were assigned to guard the Golden Gate bridge, because they were afraid the Japanese might try an attack on the mainland," Alcorn said.

The Alcorns stayed in San Francisco until December 11 when they were shipped to Pearl Harbor on the USS Monitor. "I will never forget the sight of Pearl Harbor when we arrived six days after it had been bombed," Alcorn said.

"Bodies were still floating in the water, ships on their side and upside down, now after rows of aircraft, completely destroyed while they sat on ground, buildings still ablaze and the total darkness at night," Alcorn said.

"All the electricity was knocked out during the raid and it was weeks before it was completely restored. Virgil and I stayed in Pearl Harbor for about a year helping re-build the base before we were both shipped to Gen. McArthur's 6th Army at Highlander Dutch New Guinea.

"We bounced around the islands the South Pacific for a couple of years, we encountered numerous battles, watched friends die in the trenches and went days without sleep," Alcorn said. "We took Biak Island from the Japanese during our stint and were part of the first group to land on the beach at Leyti in the Philippines," Alcorn said.

"In December of 1944 Alcorn came very close to being one of those unfortunate American men and woman who didn't make it home. During a terrible night battle in the Philippines, Elmer Alcorn was hit twice by gunfire. Once in the right elbow and once in the head. A bullet entered Alcorn's skull on the left side and exited through his left eye, putting his eye out.

"We were buried in a foxhole and they got me anyway," Alcorn said. "It was fierce fighting

"The medics did a great job taking care of me and I was shipped to a general hospital at Biak Island where I stayed for two months," Alcorn said. Then he went to San Francisco, Nashville and finally to Gainesville Florida to be fitted for a plastic eye.

Because of Alcorn's injury, he received the purple heart.

By the time Alcorn was wounded his brother Virgil had returned to the United States and was training officer candidates at Ft. Benning, Georgia.

Alcorn had been home for about six months when the Allied Forces dropped the bomb on Japan. "I was happy to be home and safe and to know that my brother would be home safe as well," Alcorn said. "It was just very sad for the many families who lost loved ones during the war," he said.

As most servicemen and women before Alcorn and after, Elmer Alcorn is proud to have served his country and thinks that it is a shame that many people do not realize what a high price has been paid for this country. "We have paid dearly and people should respect the other people who have fought and especially those that have died for this country's freedoms," Alcorn said.

Charles Cox

Charles B. Cox, 76, Floyd Knobs, Indiana and formerly of Rockcastle County, died November 13, 1993 near Mt. Vernon the result of an automobile accident.

He was born in Rockcastle County, the son of the late Robert and Bessie Hook Cox, was a retired accountant for Standard Oil Company of California, a veteran of World War II and a member of the St. Marks United Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Martha Moser Cox of Floyd Knobs, IN, one son, David C. Cox of Floyd Knobs; two sisters, Mrs. Nina Peytan of Houstonville and Mrs. Jane Turner of Springfield, Illinois.

Services were November 17 at the Diechmann Funeral Home in New Albany, Indiana.

Vets remembered

Veterans gathered last Thursday morning at the Rockcastle Courthouse to remember veterans of past wars.

Most were from VFW Post 5908 and they pledged allegiance to the flag, prayed and placed a wreath at the war memorial containing names of those who gave their lives for their country.

Later in the day, a group calling itself the Rockcastle County Veterans Assistance 677, located in the Conway area displayed flags at Hardee's Restaurant.

The group helps veterans and their families in filing claims for benefits. Dale Bradley, of Mt. Vernon, said it does not cost anything for any services that the group helps with.

Speaking of veterans, in a letter to the editor, the wives of the group wrote:

"These men and women give their time to help veterans and their families in this area file claims for benefits due them as a result of their service to their country. They do their best to help any veteran and/or their family regardless of the time or branch of their service. Since opening the doors of the center in February 1993 they have obtained over $800,000 in benefits for various veterans in this area."

"This service for the veterans is run with no funds from any governmental agency. The members of this club have worked many long hours and put a lot of their own money into making this center usable. They have taken a shell of a building and turned it into a building which is being used for karate classes and dances as well as regular club functions."

The building is also available to rent for private functions as long as no drugs or alcohol are involved. They are firm about this. They want their club to be a community place where people can let their children go and feel comfortable about what is going on.

They need the help and support of the community to continue the work they have started and to keep the building going. We would like to ask the people of this community to help these people by attending their functions. If there are any veterans out there that need help with claims or just want someone to talk to, come by the center on Wednesdays or call them at 256-3499. Any thing that can be done to help these people will in the long run help us all.

No person in this club is paid any salary for the time they put into helping the veterans and their families, and they don't want any. They only want a chance to go on helping others and keep the building they have worked so hard on.

The center is located 6 miles north of Mt. Vernon on U.S. 25 next to a Sunoco Gas Station. They are open every Wednesday from 10 a.m. until the job is done.

The group operates under the authority of Kentucky Center for Veterans Affairs in Louisville. The phone is 256-3499.

Absolute Auction

Third consecutive loss in play-offs

Admirals sink Rockets again

BY MARK MALONEY

Reported from the Lexington Herald-Leader

DANVILLE — Danville's two-time defending state champions struck for a pair of long first-quarter touchdown runs and intercepted four passes to shut out Rockcastle County 27-0 in the second round of the Class 2A football playoffs last night.

An Admiral Stadium crowd of about 5,000 saw Todd Harris' 71-yard touchdown run four minutes into the game spot Danville a quick six-point lead. Ben Kinley made it a two-TD advantage when he scooted around right end for 82 yards with 2:07 left in the quarter.

Danville backed on a 1-yard touchdown run by Colin Rogers, and a 39-yard TD pass from Rogers to Jose Pope.

The Admirals (12-0), seeking their sixth state championship in 10 years, ran their winning streak to 41 games. Only two schools, Pikeville and Trinity, have won three consecutive state football titles in Kentucky.

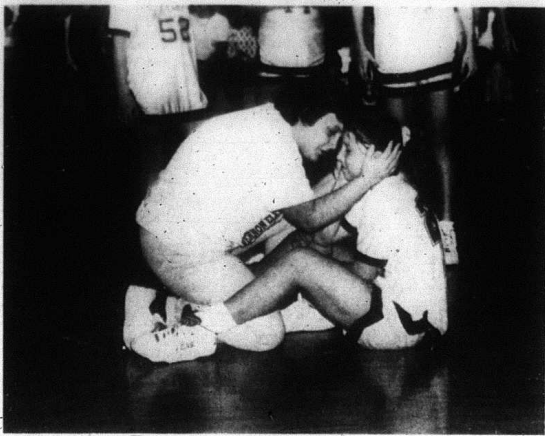

Rockcastle (10-2), second only to Danville in Dave Cantrell's ratings of 2A playoff teams, was eliminated from post-season play by Danville for the third year in a row. The Rockets fell 39-12 last year and 18-13 in 1991, going 11-2 each season.

Danville will play host to the winner of last night's Corbin-Somerset game in next Friday's state quarterfinals.

"I feel like we played pretty well offensively, defensively and in the kicking game," Danville Coach Sam Harp said. "But we had far too many penalties tonight. But most of the penalties we had were aggressive mistakes."

The Admirals were penalized 13 times for 114 yards, compared to three flags for 16 yards against Rockcastle.

Danville's speedy backfield offset that by rushing 42 times for 336 yards. Rockcastle gained 82 yards on 28 rushes.

Amber Falin, a guard on Mt. Vernon's 5th and 6th grade girls' basketball team was consoled by head coach Judy Bullock, after Amber fell on the hardwood during the championship game of the girl's 5th and 6th grade tourney at Mt. Vernon Tuesday night. Mt. Vernon defeated Brodhead 23-21. Falin had three points. (All 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade girls' team pictures from each county grade school will appear in next week's Signal. The girl's 7th and 8th grade tourney will begin Thursday and conclude Friday night at Mt. Vernon.)

"The big difference in the two teams is that when they get in trouble, they can always pitch it to a little speedy back," Rockets Coach Tom Larkey said. "We don't have those speedy backs like they do."

"We really had to work for every yard we got tonight," Harris, who gained 104 yards on 10 carries, got Danville going on his 71-yard left-side pitch with 7:59 left in the first half.

"The blocking did a good job," Harris said. "I saw a seam and just took it."

Kinley's score went to the right side. He finished with 103 yards on four carries.

"They were putting 10, 11 men right at the line of scrimmage," Harp said. "You've just got to be patient. You're eventually going to bust one, and when we bust one there's very few people that have got the speed to run our backs down."

The Rockcastle air game met head up [with Pope and Ryan Trachsel, who each intercepted a pass, and Kinte Bess, who picked off a pass.

"The secondary is going to get a lot of credit for intercepting those passes," Harp said. "But there was good pressure put on that quarterback, too, to force those passes." Danville led 20-0 at halftime, thanks to Harris and Kinley's long runs. The Ads' third touchdown came on Rogers' 1-yard keeper with 24 seconds left in the half.

Rogers' score took some starch out of Rockcastle, capping a 20-play drive of nearly 6 1/2 minutes and 82 yards.

Danville was prepared to make the ninth play a punt, but a Rockcastle offside penalty left Danville with a fourth-and-1 at the Rockets' 41. Rogers' sneak gained the necessary yard.

Four plays later, on fourth and 25, Pope faked a punt and

Thank You, Fans

I want to thank the entire county for the support you have given to the football team this season. The following we have had all season has been super. The signs, displayed in the businesses during the week and along the side of the road on our way to Danville, really made the boys feel good. The escort back into town from Crab Orchard, and others that joined along the way, illustrated you were still supportive even after the loss.

The football team had another great season. None of us can make any excuses for the loss at Danville, except we just got beat by a good team. I am very proud of the effort the team gave and the discipline they displayed on the field.

Our team has been complimented several times this season by officials on how they conduct themselves during the game. This speaks very highly of them as young men.

Last week, the Danville coaches made comments in their local paper on how dirty we played, how we talked trash and tried to intimidate players by making racial remarks to them, and how we like to hit late. If you were at the game, you were witness to the fact that it was not our football team doing those things.

From the time our team took the field until we left, they had to take severe verbal abuse from the Danville fans and their players. I did not appreciate the tactics they used and will never forget them. I hope in the future that when we play Danville, we can just go get there and play football and not have to listen to the trash talk. This is not good for high school football and should not be part of the competition.

Again, thank you Rockcastle fans, you are the best.

Danville wins third straight, Bussell throws four int's, seniors finish 41 and 8

For the third straight season the Danville Admirals have eliminated the Rockcastle County Rockets from the state 2-A play-offs.

Friday night the Admirals handed Rockcastle their second loss of the season a 27-0 defeat that was a lot closer than the score indicated.

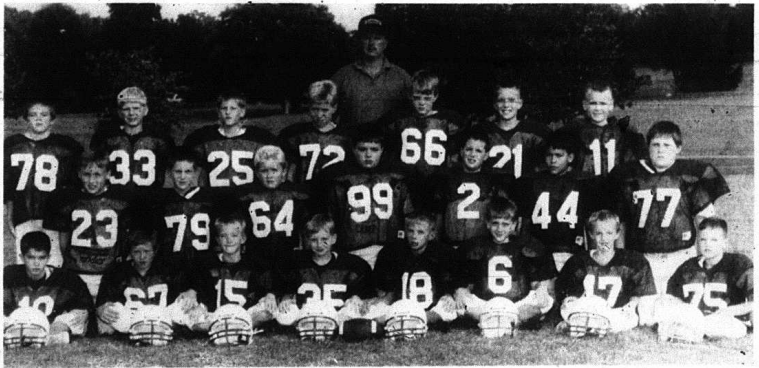

"We could not overcome their exceptional speed and their quickness and size on defense," said head coach Tom Larkey. "We are proud of how our team played, they have nothing to be ashamed of and very few teams in the state finished with as good a record as we did," Larkey said.

Although quarterback J.D. Bussell threw four interceptions he did complete eight of nineteen tosses for 104 yards, which gave him 1046 passing yards for the season.

Senior end Jason Hunt, who by all accounts has had an M.V.P. season, caught four passes for 50 yards and also had six tackles on defense.

Louie Davis led the defense with a season high 15 tackles. Stacey Kirby had 3 tackles, Jay Stevens had 6, Gordon Sowder 3, Chris Goff 6, Mike Tackett 11, Mickey McClure 6, Bussell 7, Mike Shafer 2 and Doug Cromer 6. Tackett and Brian Mink each recovered a fumble and Shafer picked off a pass.

Shawn Thacker rushed 7 times for 25 yards, Jason Payne rushed 5 times for 23 yards, Shafer had 21 yards on 2 carries and one catch for 12 yards. McClure caught 2 balls for 22 yards. Doug Cromer had 31 yards on 7 carries. (Season totals will appear next week)

The Rock Remains Hard
By: DeAnn McFerron

It seems like only yesterday
Football season started
And now our seniors have departed
(from football)

We've played Danville for three straight years
And each time walked away with tears
But this time I believe it hurt us more Because next year we won't have our seniors anymore.

We had a Class-A program all year
With the state championship pretty near
We gave the Ads a good hard game
And our boys should feel no shame

The seniors played their hardest
That's all that we ask
Because in our hearts we know
Beating Danville is no easy task

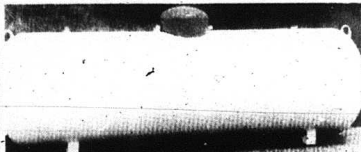

Now we draw our season to a close
We still love you guys
I just wanted you to know

My hat goes off to Coach Larkey and Coach Saylor

For a job well done
In our hearts you guys are still #1
You've got the best coaching staff in the state
Thanks for making this '93 Rocket season great!

Miss Croucher in Homecoming

Miss Twila Carol Croucher recently represented the Baptist Student Union of Eastern Kentucky University in Eastern's Homecoming Queen Events. Twila is a senior child-development and family studies major, minoring in special education. There were nineteen women selected from a pool of forty six pre-candidates by their fellow students at Eastern. The nineteen women participated in a luncheon, interviews, a ball, parade and pre-game activities. Twila received 2nd runner-up in the Homecoming Queen ceremonies on Sat., Oct. 23. She is a 1990 graduate of Rockcastle County High School and the daughter of Roy L. and Velma Croucher of Conway.

Sears attends L.A. Songwriter Expo Oct. 23-24

Steve Sears, of Rockcastle County, attended the Los Angeles Songwriter Expo at the L.A. Airport Sheraton on October 23-24. The Expo was an opportunity for up-and-coming songwriters to meet publishers, record executives, and other songwriters.

Sears' song, A Shadow On The Wall, was one of only a few to be selected by internationally-known panel members for further evaluation. After performing original work at the Laguna Room at the Sheraton, Sears received much praise from both executives and fellow songwriters and was approached by an artist developer who referred him to a major record label in Nashville.

While in Los Angeles, Sears had the opportunity to tour popular attractions such as Hollywood, Bev-

Attempt being made to deliver tax refunds

It's that time of year again when the Internal Revenue Service attempts to return undelivered federal tax refunds. Bruce Dittman, IRS public affairs officer, says Kentucky taxpayers are due an average of $468 in federal tax refunds that were returned as undeliverable to the Treasury Department. "Those taxpayers who feel they are due a federal tax refund should call the IRS."

An incorrect mailing address is a common reason for an undelivered tax refund. Sometimes a taxpayer relocates after filing for a refund and neglects to leave a forwarding address with the post office and the IRS.

Address changes can be made in several ways: Change the address directly on the post-off label of your 94 tax package; Write the IRS Service Center (listed in the tax package) where your last return was filed; complete and mail IRS Form 8822, "Change of Address." Call 1-800-829-3676 to order the form.

Another way taxpayers can be more assured of receiving their refunds is to file electronically. Refunds can be electronically deposited in the taxpayer's bank account. For additional information on undelivered refunds, call the IRS toll-free at 1-800-829-1040.

Surface mining and Kentucky forests: A better idea to help both

Here's a better idea on how to harvest two of Kentucky's major natural resources - coal and forest products.

Forty-six counties in Kentucky - 13 in western part of the state and 33 in the eastern mountain coal fields - contain surface coal mines, and almost all of them are in forested areas. "Regulations require that all vegetation be removed from the area and piled for burning," said Don Graves, Extension forest and reclamation specialist with the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.

"Most of the timber removed is simply bulldozed from the area and piled for burning," he said. "The average cost of the timber removal exceeds $2,000 per acre." After the timber is bulldozed, hundreds of dollars worth of diesel fuel is usually poured on the piles to hasten the burning.

"This practice constitutes a direct cost to the coal industry and an economic loss to the state," Graves said. "And it is unnecessary."

"Graves offers a suggestion for a better way in the new special issue of "Natural Resources Newsletter," which deals with forest disturbances, published by UK's College of Agriculture.

"The timber being removed should be fully utilized," Graves said. "Material suitable for lumber or hardwood or hardwood plywood production should be merchandised and the remainder could be converted to chips and mulch by using portable whole tree chippers."

Tree bark could be used as mulch in reclamation efforts as mining proceeds and chips could be used as either dust control material on haul roads or as a biomass fuel to co-fire with coal in electric power generation which would reduce sulphur dioxide emissions, an environmental concern.

"This co-firing of woody biomass with coal not only would help the environment and lower coal production costs, it could also reduce the price of electricity to the consumer," Graves said.

Power generating facilities usually reduce sulphur dioxide emissions by purchasing low sulphur coal from outside the state. Most Kentucky coal contains relatively high sulphur. Or facilities may install scrubbers which clean the exhaust coming from the plant, an expensive option costing millions of dollars.

"The use of co-firing of woody biomass with coal can eliminate the need of either scrubbers or purchasing outside coal while allowing a steady production of Kentucky coal," Graves said.

"Is there enough woody material in mined areas to achieve this goal?"

Yes, Graves said. Studies show that mined areas in Kentucky yield almost 52 dry tons of biomass per acre per year. That translates into 795,000 dry tons of biomass fuel per year or 13,000 billion clean BTUs of energy.

"The loss of timber acreage through mining can arguably be offset by the creation of pasture land not previously available and potentially high value industrial sites in areas that desperately need industry," he said. "The losses incurred by not using timber in advance of mining, however, are non-recoverable."

New officers named to the American Burley Cooperative

American Burley farmers and quota holders in five states are represented by the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, Inc., which has its headquarters in Lexington.

The Burley Co-op, first established in 1921, is one of America's oldest agricultural organizations to still represent farmers.

The Co-op, which is owned by its members, works in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Agriculture and by contract with the Commodity Credit Corporation to operate the U.S. Burley tobacco support program in Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Missouri, and West Virginia.

New officers of the Co-op are: John M. Berry, Jr., of New Castle, president; Ray Brantner of Horse Cave, vice president; Danny McKinney of Rockcastle County, chief executive officer; Allen T. Harman of Lexington, assistant secretary-treasurer; Scott Althaus of Richmond, leaf processing supervisor; Jay Shewmaker of Mercer County, recording secretary; Amy Rankin of Garrard County, alternate recording secretary; William B. Blackford of Lexington, director emeritus; Joe McDaniel of Harrison County, president emeritus; and Berry and Floyd of New Castle, legal counsel.

"pool" program that supports U.S. burley prices. The new import regulations were prompted, in part, because the stocks of foreign grown tobacco held by U.S. cigarette makers were, by July 1 of this year, the highest on record.

Starting in 1994, however, cigarettes made in the U.S. are limited to 25 percent of foreign content, compared to the total amount of leaf and stems used.

"McCauley Signs" (Cont. from Front)

This is not the first time Cindy had made history at RCHS. Last year she broke the all-time scoring record (boy or girl) with over 1,000 points.

Marshall discovered Cindy at the University of Kentucky Basketball Camp she attended this summer.

One of the counselors there happened to be Marshall's assistant coach. He relayed what he saw of her talent back to Marshall and at the beginning of the year, they began recruiting her.

Representatives came to her house and spoke with her and her parents. Shortly afterwards, Cindy and her family made an official visit to Marshall.

"I loved it. The campus was beautiful and not spread out like UK's

The health of Rockcastle County

How much does health care mean to Rockcastle County? For many parts of rural Kentucky, health care means more than good health. Health care means local jobs.

Between 1980 and 1990, 160 health care jobs were added in Rockcastle County. In the Cumberland Valley Area Development District, 1,346 new health care jobs were added to the local economy. During the same time period, the area lost 3,432 mining jobs.

Health care is one of the fastest growing industries in rural Kentucky.

Between 1980 and 1990, 15,000 new jobs in health were added to Kentucky's rural counties.

Rural people and rural health providers should keep a careful watch on health care reform. It will be particularly important to see how the development of regional systems of care can help rural economies by reducing the outflow of health care dollars from rural towns to the urban centers.

Be on the lookout for more information on health in your community from the UK Center for Rural Health.

Two accepted into teacher ed program at EKU

Two Rockcastle County residents have been accepted into the teacher education program at Eastern Kentucky University.

Among the latest additions to the program are Cloia Smith and Angela Busell.

Students are accepted into the program their junior year only after meeting stringent EKU College of Education standards. They must display above-average academic ability, demonstrate proficient computer and communications skills (including a satisfactory performance on the University writing exam), perform satisfactorily in an individual interview and receive positive recommendations from four EKU faculty members.

A Christmas Gift Idea

Are you seeking something really nice as a Christmas gift for that good friend or relative who is so unfortunate to live away from Rockcastle county????

Why Not "Rockcastle County, Kentucky and Its People"! It is a beautiful book of stories about those wonderful friends and relatives who live (or have lived) within Rockcastle's borders. Between its covers, they may revisit the country school they once attended or the community where they spent their childhood days.

If you do not own one of these beautifully-bound books, you may wish to indulge yourself. You are sure to enjoy it!

You may use the convenient order form below, or the books may be purchased locally at the Rockcastle County Public Library. Orders are limited to the books now on hand and the history book committee does not anticipate their availability after December 1993.

Library News

By Geraldine Robbins

Happy Thanksgiving!!!

All of us here at the library wish for everyone a very happy Thanksgiving. This is a wonderful occasion for families to get together to give thanks for the many, many blessings that we have and to just enjoy the love for family members and friends in being together.

The library has just received the third edition of Affording Higher Education. This is a reference book created by KHEAA to help Kentucky students locate sources of financial aid for postsecondary school. It lists the eligibility criteria, award amounts, number of awards, deadlines, and contacts for hundreds of financial aid programs.

Adults Returning to School is another reference book designed for nontraditional students who want to receive more education. This book discusses educational opportunities for those who completed high school as well as those who did not. It has suggestions to help adult students find their way back into the educational system, a question and answer section on student financial aid, and a listing of the major sources of aid. Both of these books should be very helpful to both the high school graduate and adults.

Also, we now have Free Applications for Federal Student Aid. You may use these forms to apply for financial aid from Federal student financial aid programs, and you may also use the FAFSA to apply for some state and private aid, although some may require an additional form. To find out more about which forms to use contact your high school counselor, financial aid office, or state scholarship/grant agency.

Pam and I attended a Legislator's Luncheon at Laurel County Public Library, Friday, Nov. 12. The luncheon was planned for all the state senators and representatives in the Cumberland Valley Region. This service was provided by all the libraries in this region to show our appreciation for their concern and the help they have given public libraries in appropriating special funds in grants. We now receive state aid money and the amount is set per capita. Since our county is small, we do not receive nearly as much as the larger counties. We are hoping that this will be changed so that we will be able to receive additional funds to better serve our patrons.

Would you be interested in becoming a part of "Friends of the Library"? A lot of libraries have this organization and they have been very helpful in assisting the libraries in public awareness, securing funds, doing volunteer work in the library and etc. If you are interested and would like more information call me here at the library or Sue Hamm at 256-2012. Sue is one of the library trustees and she has suggested that we try to get a Friends of the Library group organized at our library. Please let us hear from someone of you that really enjoy using the library. Our number is 256-2388.

Two new novels that are available: 1. Finnegan's Week By Joseph Wambaugh. No one portrays crime and cops with the outrageous humor and vibrant color of Joseph Wambaugh. Now, in a timely new novel, the bestselling author sends an unforgettable trio on a mission to make sense of a seemingly irrational conspiracy involving deadly toxic waste and a theft of U.S. Navy goods.

A master of the skewering one-liner, and at that awkward age between mid-life crisis and catastrophe, San Diego police detective Finbar Brendan Finnegan is also an aspiring actor whose agent can't even get him an audition for a cheesy TV series. And the three-divorced, cynical police-veteran thinks he has seen it all and he faces a killer more deadly than any psychopath: a fifty-five-gallon drum of deadly chemicals.

That's what two disgruntled truckers are hauling for a toxic waste disposal company owned by yacht club playboy Jules Temton, an amoral practitioner of extortion, forgery, and much, much more. With their boss's entrepreneurial spirit, the two haulers decide to steal two thousand pairs of shoes from the U.S. Navy to sell to the Mexican black market, but once they cross south of the border their impulsive scheme goes haywire and results in horror and death.

From millionaire's yacht in San Diego harbor to biner's bars teeming with violence, from the machinations of evil and greed in the toxic waste business to the exotic killing streets of Tijuana, Finnegan's Week unfolds in an electrifying and unexpected finale.

2. Murder by Dean Koontz. A stylish, spellbinding tale from America's number-one bestselling master of suspense.

Because he has a happy marriage, two adorable small daughters, and a successful career, mystery writer Marty Sullwatter considers himself a lucky man. But all this is shattered when a stranger breaks into his house on rainy afternoon to announce: "You stole my wife, my life, and my children. I want them back." Claiming to be the real Martin Sullwatter, the madman wages a relentless and terri-lying campaign to eliminate Marty and recapture the family and life he believes to be his own.

When even bullets fail to stop this savage intruder, the police are hard-pressed to believe Sullwatter's harrowing account. Unable to rely on the protection of the authorities, the family goes on the run. But no matter where they hide, their enemy finds them.

In Mr. Murder, Dean Koontz creates the most enduring family to appear in a novel in a long time makes us love them and makes us fear for them as they cross the path of a psychotic killer unlike any who has previously haunted the pages of fiction.

The Rockcastle County History books are still available here at the library. These make excellent Christmas gifts. Come, in get your yours before they are all gone. The price is $52.47.

Another history book that is now available is: Wildie: The Beginning of a History, 1893-1993. This was compiled and edited by Norma Ramsey Eversole. Norma, with the help of the Wildie History Committee, has compiled an excellent history book. This sells for $4.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor, Within the next two weeks, a Kiwanis Club member will visit residents and businesses to solicit funds.

The Kiwanis Club of Rockcastle County is a voluntary service organization with a membership of individuals who want to become personally involved in making their community a better place in which to live. We are a group of members working together to achieve what individuals cannot do alone. This past year the Kiwanis Club made contributions to our community in the following ways:

- Option 8 A $500 donation to Project Graduation
- A $500 scholarship to a RCHS graduate who has demonstrated community service and leadership.
- A $250 contribution to the Early Childhood Education program.

- A $250 contribution to the Public Library for pre-school books and materials.
- Sponsored two children to the 4-H camp.
- Sponsored a prayer breakfast to honor our local clergy and to pray for world peace.
- Purchased 2 smoke detectors and 2 fire extinguishers for REAP.
- Provided food baskets for Thanksgiving and Christmas to needy families through the REAP program ($200).

- Sponsored the Everett C. Brown Award for community service.
- Provided volunteer service in Respiratory Care Unit of the Rockcastle County Hospital.
- Provided volunteer service in educational tutoring.
- Provided volunteer service in literacy tutoring.
- Sponsored and conducted an Adopt-A-Highway litter abatement program.

- Provided volunteer service for the Children's Crusade roadblock.
- In 1991 the Kiwanis Club held the first New Year's Eve Charity Ball. We provided an elegant affair of safe, fun, fellowship and celebration of this holiday here within our local community.

The first ball was successful enough to encourage the club to continue with a second annual Charity Ball. We were successful in raising some funds the second year. We are currently planning for the 3rd event. This event is our primary fund raiser.

It costs $3000 to produce this quality evening which includes dancing to five band music, elegant delicious food and a beautifully decorated ballroom. Donations from local businesses and professionals help make this possible. The first year with some generous donations we broke even, the second year we were able to raise $1200 after expenses. Our goal for this third event is to have the production cost covered by charitable donations and the ticket proceeds becoming profit for our fundraising. All funds raised by the Kiwanis Club are returned to the community in the above stated projects. Additional projects are planned for the coming year.

New projects planned include: Option 8 • Sponsoring a RCHS sophomore to the High O'Brien Youth Conference.

• A photo contest of Rockcastle County for postcards to promote the beauty of our county for tourism purposes.

• Sponsor a Builders Club in the middle school to build a student service club.

• Increase volunteer service in community.

• Conduct a talent show to encourage the arts.

• Conduct Christmas Homes decorating contest.

Your donation will benefit the community and be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Geraldine Mize,
President

School Attendance Report Card

School personnel continue to work diligently with students, parents and community businesses to promote better attendance. Various attendance incentives are being offered to create enthusiasm with students, the ultimate incentive being the desire to obtain an education appropriate to function in today's society. Rockcastle county Schools continue to work toward improvement in all areas, with attendance efforts being one of the most visible. A portion of the accountability index (gauge for measuring school improvement) is determined by school attendance, therefore a high rate of school attendances is in the best interest of all.

Comparative attendance percentages for the first 3 months of school are as follows:

	BES	LES	MVES	RCHS	RES
	92.93	92.93	92.93	92.93	92.93
Month 1	98.2/99.0	97.9/99.3	98.7/98.4	96.5/97.0	97.7/97.5

Rev. Harvey Pensil filled his regular appointment at the Fairview Baptist Church over the weekend with good attendance and one hundred and five (105) for Sunday School.

We, all thank God for the wonderful, glorious and spiritual revival we had last week. It was one of the best series of meetings that we have ever had. The preaching by Rev. Mark Whicker of Brodhead was great, and our attendance was wonderful with large crowds every night. We saw souls saved and many, many rededications. I don't know how anyone could listen to all those good sermons and not be drawn closer to the Lord and be a better Christian. Bro. Mark, I sure thank you and hope and pray that God will continue to use you. We

-Movie Review-

"The Three Musketeers"

D'Artagnan, played by Chris O'Donnell, wants to become a Musketeer. Unbeknownst to him, while he is traveling by horseback to join the King's army, Cardinal Richelieu, played by Tim Curry, has disbanded the Musketeers in his plot to overthrow the King of France.

D'Artagnan runs into Aramis (Charlie Sheen), Athos (Kiefer Sutherland), and Porthos (Oliver Platt), one at a time and challenges each to a duel. Of course, D'Artagnan finds out they are rebel Musketeers that have stuck together to protect the King.

D'Artagnan is arrested and over-hears the Cardinal talking to Milady, played by Rebecca De Mornay, about the plot to overthrow the King, while he is trying to escape. The Three Musketeers help D'Artagnan escape, and the adventures continue from there.

Swordfights, castles, beautiful horses and scenery, make up this fantasy movie of heroes, villains and beautiful women.

"All for one, and one for all!" is not only the battle cry of the Musketeers, but, also, is my recommendation to see this movie.

The Three Musketeers* is rated PG and is now playing at the Regency Cinema 7 in London.

also thank all you visitors who attended, we enjoyed having you, and welcome you back anytime.

On Sunday evening Nov. 14 a baptismal service was conducted, one young lady and three young men. We love these converts and pray that God will keep them in His care.

We extend our heart-felt sympathy to the families who have lost loved ones recently, including Armon Neeley of Disputanna, Clyde Barnett of Mt. Vernon and James Sparks of Conway. May God bless each relative at this time. Let's remember them in our prayers. Death of a loved one is so hard to bear, and no one gets over it quickly. It lingers on.

This Monday morning Nov. 15 is rainy, dark and dreary, but the fall of the year is upon us. We (if God permits us to live) will probably see many days like this before spring time. But, let us rejoice and be glad in each day that God gives us.

Well, I hope you readers weren't too dumbfounded in the Fairview and Livingston news last week. I wrote and sent in my news article on Monday morning Nov. 1st. But there was a delay at the post office so it didn't get to the Signal office in time to be printed. It should have been delayed news the next week but it wasn't and then, lo and behold some of it got into the Livingston news. I hope the correspondent there wasn't too upset.

But when we spend our time writing the news, we hope for good results.

On Sunday afternoon Nov. 7th, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Isaacs and infant son and Mrs. Eugene Alexander were in London shopping etc. On their way home they had supper in a Renfro Valley restaurant.

Hubert and I visited at our son's home; Junior and Lynette, in Berea Friday.

Mrs. Hallie Alexander visited Mrs. Wayne Sparks one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R.J. Ridgell and daughter Sherry visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ridgell of Corbin, last Sunday.

Our daughter, Joyce Seals and our son Wayne and wife Carolyn, visited in our home recently.

Holiday Time

Jack Frost has taken a back seat to old man winter and is allowing the monarch of winter to lead us into the season of holidays and excitement. His stay was long enough though to paint the trees that covered the hillsides and hollows with every possible shade of reds, golds and browns the imagination could deal with, then made a blanket of them to cover the earth. His job was well done so now he is ready for the back seat while the new man on the job drives us into the next season.

Our eyes, which never cease to tire of the beauties of the fall colors are now ready for the more somber colors of gaudy trees burdened of leaves that seem to be stretching upward as new growth seeps into their roots. While the colder rains of the coming winter chills our body, our hearts are being warmed with the thoughts of the season of merrymaking just ahead. And as the warm rains of spring awakened the earth, so the cold rains and snow showers are putting it to sleep for awhile. Every season has its beauty and special joys if we only look for them.

Thanksgiving, the holiday for overeating and watching football, and families getting together to hash over old times is just ahead. Turkeys and pumpkin pies are being readied for the feast and women are complaining of too much work while the men are looking forward to loafing before the T.V. watching their favorite sport. Yet, all in all, it is a holiday we are proud of. Our forefathers set aside this day of giving thanks to God in honor of their free-

Daily tobacco market news available on toll-free hotline

Updated news from Kentucky's tobacco markets will be available each day of the market season from the Tobacco Information Hotline. The hotline, provided annually by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture and the Federal Tobacco Market News Service, can be reached by dialing 1-800-432-9262. The hotline is free of charge to all callers. Preliminary information on the burley market will be available until Nov. 22, when the market opens, and up-to-date information will be available thereafter. Information on dark-tire and dark air-cured tobaccos will be available as those markets open. The recorded messages will give average prices farmers are receiving for their crops at different locations, the number of pounds of tobacco sold and pertinent grade and price information. The messages will be updated around 11 a.m., 3:30 p.m. and again at 6:30 p.m. EST. The morning update will give corrected figures for the previous day's sales across the Burley Belt and in Kentucky. The late-afternoon update will give current information for all that day's sales, corrected figures from the previous day's sales and some grade averages. At 6:30 p.m., the sales figures from each market and the day's averages will be available on the hotline. The hotline will be in operation until the end of the marketing season in early 1994.

No Kentucky tax on nurses

A senior state official reiterated yesterday that nurses will be excluded from Kentucky's tax on health-care providers. "There is not going to be a tax imposed upon nurses; we are going to amend the regulation; it is being amended," said Masten Childers II, deputy secretary of the State Cabinet for Human Resources.

Still, Barbara Dermody, executive director of the Kentucky Nurses Association, said later she would not comment on the situation until she sees a written statement that the provider tax won't apply to nurses.

Childers later provided a copy of a letter he said he mailed to Dermody yesterday afternoon. It stated "please be advised that the Cabinet for Human Resources intends to delete nursing services" from the tax.

Brown Recipient of KAAMR Professional Excellence Award

Robert G. Brown, Jr., son of Priscilla Dawn Brock and Robert G. Brown, Sr. and grandson of Christine Brown, also of Brodhead, was the recipient of the KAAMR (Kentucky American Association on Mental Retardation) 1993 Professional Excellence Award. This award is given annually to help recognize the efforts of those in Kentucky working to improve the quality of life for persons with mental retardation and developmental disabilities. The plaque Mr. Brown received read "The KAAMR Professional Excellence Award Presented to Robert Brown for Caring, Professionalism, and Advocacy on behalf of People with Disabilities 1993."

Mr. Brown graduated from Rockcastle County High School in 1981. He received his B.A. from Berea College in 1986 and his M.S.S.W. from the University of Louisville in 1990. Currently, Mr. Brown is the Director of Social Services for a 50 bed Intermediate Care Facility for persons with Mental Retardation/Developmental Disabilities in Louisville (Central State ICF/MR/DD), where he has been employed since 1980. He became a Certified Social Worker in March of 1991 and became a member of the Academy of Certified Social Workers in November of 1992. The award was presented during the annual conference (KAAMR) October 28-29 at the Executive West Hotel in Louisville and was accepted in memory of his brother, Jerry Lynn Brown, who was killed in a car accident November 4, 1991.

Rise & Shine Homemakers Meet

By: Zi Graves, Reporter

Delicious aromas were drifting from the kitchen of Irene Hopkin's home when the members of The Rise and Shine Homemakers club began to arrive for their monthly meeting, November 9th.

It was still early in the day for we begin our meetings at 10 a.m. That is so we can have plenty of time to do the monthly business of the club before we gather around the table, always filled to overflowing with good home cooked vittles and catch up with all the news while we gorge ourselves on the feast spread before us. I know of no better place to hear of the local happenings than at an organization of women trying to be better homemakers. That is what we are, "women who would like to do things a bit better than in the old days of scrubbing clothes on a washboard and having "beans, taters and combread" for every meal. There is nothing wrong with that kind of living except today's methods of cooking and the availability of fresh vegetables make it easier to have a well balanced meal with much less work.

Following the business meeting a schedule was set up for our project for November. We will be visiting a few of the folks who can no longer get about easily and sharing with them a bit of our club's good cheer.

The lesson for the month on holiday food and gift wrapping was given by Zi Graves. It is surprising how a few bits of bright cloth or paper can make an otherwise plain gift a show piece to put under the tree. The literature we handed out was chock full of some delicious recipes for simple snacks and drinks made in our own kitchens.

Our next meeting will be December 14, 10 a.m. at the home of Kathy McCauley. We all look forward to this day of Christmas Cheer.

Holiday Decorations Workshop

By: Hazel Jackson
County Extension Agent for HomeEconomics

Are you beginning to think about the holidays? Well, now is the time to start your handmade Christmas decorations and gifts. Attend a workshop at the Extension Office on November 30, to get new ideas. The workshop begins at 6 p.m. and will feature several ideas for decorations and gifts that are inexpensive and easy to make.

There will also be a sharing session; so participants who have an idea to share should bring an example to show the group. Written instructions and holiday recipes will be provided. The class is free and open to anyone. Call 256-2403 to preregister.

also met a high standard earlier this year when it was reaccredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the agency responsible for professional accreditation of teacher education programs.

When students graduate from EKU's program, they will be prepared to lead a contemporary classroom; in the commonwealth, that means a classroom environment transformed by the Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA).

The elements of KERA are continually stressed to teacher education students at Eastern, who have ample field experiences, both observing and student teaching, to see and apply those elements in practice.

"Our graduates are prepared to be teachers," wherever their career takes them," said Dr. Kenneth Henson, dean of EKU's College of Education.

While teacher education is viewed as a University function, the College of Education assumes primary responsibility for students majoring in early elementary education, middle grades, and special education. Secondary education students have majors in other colleges, but do have education counselors in the College of Education.

dom from the oppression of another country. Thanksgiving Day may have lost its quaint charm of "Over the River and through the woods to Grandmother's house we go," but it hasn't lost its place as the second biggest holiday in a nation full of trivial holidays. Songs could now be written about, "Fill up the gas tank and pile in the cars we have a ten hour drive ahead," or, "Be sure of reservations for the jets will all be filled." Time and progress have not only changed the way we travel it has changed the way we think about the importance of family holidays and the meaning behind them. There may be a few people who are satisfied to spend Thanksgiving Day eating in a fast food place but if there is one here with a drop of Kentucky blood in their veins I would be safe betting my last dollar he/she will be thinking about "back home" and the table spread full of good things like shuck beans that no one can cook like mom. Thanksgiving is the one day of the year that everyone seems to use for reminiscing.

And it is only the forerunner of the next big holiday, "Christmas." I think this day is what the old monarch had in mind all along and simply paused for a short time on Thanksgiving Day to allow people to catch their breath and get in practice for the big day ahead.

Christmas! The day we celebrate the birth of the Christ. The day gifts are given in honor of the greatest gift to human-kind, Jesus Christ. This is the day people around the world bow their heads in thanksgiving for the feast spread before them, or for some, a mere crust of bread. How can anyone think they can take Christ out of Christmas when Christ is Christmas. Well, the old man in the driver's seat now, with his little brother taking the back seat, and allowing snow to take the place of frost, or fast approaching his final goal, mud water, where barren trees, and frozen streams, take the place of a deep shade beside a clear stream of bubbling water. If one ventures outside now his nimble fingers get stiff from the cold and footsteps are slowed by heavier clothing. Moods even seem to change as winter approaches. The lazy days of autumn are turned into days of hectic buying spices and uncertainties of not being ready for the big days ahead take the place of the calm days left behind. I can almost see this old driver changing his clothes into a Santa Claus suit as his days become numbered. Then into his last suit, the one with the very long beard and frail body handling over his duties to a new baby. The New Year.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander Sunday were their son, Gerald, wife Irene and two children and their daughter, Jewell Davidson, husband Rex and two children.

Please remember church and Sunday School. Pray much, and regardless of what other people say, always stand up for the good old U.S. A. God bless you.

ABSOLUTE Auction

of the late Charles Clark's Properties

87 ACRE FARM, more or less

Store Building w/Apartments

Mobile Homes and Lots

Saturday, November 27, 1993

In order to settle the estate of the late Mr. Clark, Mrs. Clark has authorized our firm to sell this farm for the absolute high dollar.

Absolute Auction No. 1 - 87 Acre Farm, m/l
Saturday, November 27th at 10:30 a.m.
Wolfe Creek Section of Rockcastle County

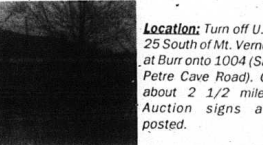

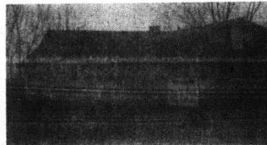

Location: Turn off U.S. 25 at Burr onto State Road 1004 (The Brush Creek Road). Follow State Road 1004 to State Road 1912. Turn left on 1912 and proceed approximately 2 miles to the Wolfe Creek Road. Auction signs are posted.

The property consists of 87 acres, more or less, of which approximately 6 acres is cleared and balance in woods. Basic tobacco allotment for the farm is 1300 lbs. However, since the tobacco was not raised this year, you will be able to raise over 2,600 lbs. next year. Water for the farm is furnished by a good spring. The property does have some good marketable timber.

The farm is improved with a seven room house. The house has living room, kitchen, 2 bedrooms and bath downstairs with 2 bedrooms upstairs. Besides the house, there is also a combination stock and tobacco barn.

Absolute Auction No. 2
Store Building w/Apartments
Saturday, November 27th 11:30 a.m.
Orlando Section of Rockcastle County

Location: Turn off U.S. 25 South of Mt. Vernon at Burr onto 1004 (Salt Petre Cave Road). Go about 2 1/2 miles. Auction signs are posted.

This store building is situated on a large lot measuring approximately one acre. The building itself has approximately 3600 sq. ft. in the main area with 2 large spacious rooms for display area and a spacious living quarters consisting of: kitchen with built-in cabinets, living room, 3 bedrooms, bath and utility room. Besides this area, there is also an additional apartment with 2 bedrooms, living room, kitchen and bath which is presently rented. There is also a dandy basement under the store.

Auctioneer's Note: If you'd like to be your own boss and operate a country store plus have some additional income from apartment rental, then look no further. Bid fast and buy at this absolute auction manner reflects the best returns for the sellers. When combined, there is a total of 254 acres, more or less. These tracts do offer some timber.

Absolute Auction No. 3 - 2 Lots and Mobile Home
Saturday, November 27th 12:30 a.m.
Orlando Subdivision, Orlando, Kentucky

Location: Turn off U.S. 25 south of Mt. Vernon at Burr onto 1004 (Salt Petre Cave Rd.). Go about 1 1/2 miles to auction site. The lots measure approximately 105x315x120x310 and 105x348x15x315 and have city water. There is also a 1976 12x60 mobile home. We reserve the right to sell the mobile home and lots separately and then together, selling whichever way that reflects the best results.

Terms: 10% down day of sale, balance in 30 days.
Announcements day of sale take precedence over printed matters.
