The City of Mt. Vernon got some good news in February when Rock-castle Circuit Judge William T. Cain ruled in their favor in a lawsuit between them and Renfro Valley Entertainment Company.

Renfro sued Mt. Vernon claiming they were being unfairly singled out by the city. In January of 1991 the city of Mt. Vernon imposed a business license fee on Renfro tied directly to the number of tickets sold. After losing the first decision in Circuit Court Renfro has appealed the ruling to the Kentucky Court of Appeals. Oral arguments were heard in the case earlier this month.

Pending the court of appeals rul-ing, either the city of Mt. Vermon or Renfro Valley can appeal the decision to the Kentucky Supreme Court. One of the biggest news stories of the year also happened in February when Mt. Vermon resident Allen Gilpatrick found his wife, Virginion beaten to death in their Mt. Vermon home. Christmas Shopping

After today, there are only 360 shopping days left till Christmas. For those of you have not begun your 1994 Christmas shopping, now is the ne to get busy. Christmas leftovers from 1993 are at an all time bargain price and if you can get through the crowds making exchanges of unwanted, or wrong color, or size or damaged goods - you will be well on your way to finish your 1994 Christmas shopping and have it out of the way so you can begin paying the bills for Christmas

On second thought, maybe you had better wait until all the things have been returned so there will be more things to search through. And don't say you didn't read the warning in the Mt. Vernon Signal first. I'll bet Christmas by wearing it out during the late summer and early fall months.

A bright sun shines this Monday morning after all the bad weather of last week.

I'm so tired of all the excitement last week. I him k Christmas is for young folks.

We were glad to see our son, Chessley Cornett, and his three tall, young, men and our great-grandson Chase.

It seems we love a baby more than ever and this one at eleven months simply took over the attention of the family.

I had told the menfolk of our family hat I would cook the Christmas din-ner but, they insisted we go out in town to eat, which I was glad to do, then we opened gifts. One of John and my gifts was a money card which we opened to find a 550 bill each. Chess received a Christmas bonus from his obb as an eagineer with High

Chess received a Christmas bonus from his job as an eagineer with High Voltage Maintenance Company, so he said he thought he'd make Mom & Dad a present with some of it. Chessley is a bachelor now and I feel so lanely as the women in company.

Chessley is a backelor now and I feel so lonely as the women in our family keep dropping out. Ifeel I may be dropping out myself by next year. My oldest son, Russell Cornett and daughter, Diana Lynn Cornett did not come to the family gathering since they were told the weather would make the roads bad.

Russell wired me a "Little Drummer Boy" bouquet which was very beautiful.

They were a nice looking couple, especially Allene, who is kin to all the Scaffold Cane Stephens.
I gave a present of kumquate to Joe and Ruth Abney on Clear Greek - Joe raises them and Ruth makes a wonderful pie of them. I was going to eat some pie but the weather turned bad and we didn't get to go to Cleve-land's and Blanche's house as we planned on Christmas Day.

What Saith the Scriptures

"Amazing Grace! How sweet the sound! That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found; was blind, but now I see." Indeed, how true are these words from John Newton's early American melody. God's Amazing Grace is a profound topic that we want to consider today.

indeed, now true are tness words from John Newton's early American melody. God's Amazing Grace is a profound topic that we want to consider today.

Grace is defined as favor, the friendly disposition from which the kindly act proceeds, graciousness, loving kindness, goodwill generally. Often we use the term unmerited favor.

I don't know why God has manifested his grace toward sinful man. All who reach an age of accountability fall into sin Rm. 3r23, Rm. 79. We deserve death and condemnation for our sins, Rm. 6r2.3, Rm. 29. We discrete death and condemnation for our sins, Rm. 6r2.3, Rm. 29. God's grace is sufficient to save us to the uttermost in Christ Joseph God's grace is sufficient to save us to the uttermost in Christ Joseph God's grace is sufficient to save us to the uttermost in Christ Joseph God grace is sufficient to save us to the uttermost in Christ Joseph God grace and mercy.

Tim. 112-16, nad if God could save him, then God can save anyone today, no matter how bad, how foolish, how indifferent,how wicked you may have been. None can get too vide or sinful, that God's grace cannot forgive those who come to Christ.

God's grace is extended to all, Tit. 2:11, but only those who meet the conditions of salvation will benefit from it. Alien sinners must believe in Jesus, In. 316, I Cor. 15:1-4 (typ must repert, Lk. 13:3, Ac. 17:30; they must confess with the mouth the Lord jesus, Mt. 10:32, Rm. 109-10; they must be subjected, Ac. 2:23, Mk. 16:16. After obleying from the heart these steps, one will be saved and be in God's good grace or favor. We must grow and be faithful unto deth, Rev. 2:10, II Pet. 3:18.

We, of our own free will, must accept God's grace into our lives by obeying the gospel. And we, of our own free will, must accept God's grace into our lives by obeying the gospel. And we, of our own free will, must accept God will to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip." Hebs. 2:1.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

All of the staff here at the library send a sincere wish for a happy and send a sincere wish for a happy and prosperous new year to everyone.

A lot of our friends and acquain-tances here in the county have expe-rienced sorrow in the death of family members recently and this has not been a very good holiday season for

been a very good holiday season for them.

Our sympathy goes out to all of these people. Death has a terrible impact on families at any time but it does seem worse at Chrismas. This is a time for families to come together and express love for one another by giving gifts and sharing holiday meals and just being together means a lot.

The beginning of a new year is a good time to reflect on blessing of the past year and also the mistakes that we have made and in turn do our best to improve in those areas. It is also our aim here at the library to reflect on the year 1993 and realize that progress has been made in some areas but to give more attention to other areas that the progress has been made in some areas that to give more attention to other areas that in any have been needed.

It is our goal to make this a better library in 1994. Please give us your support in the new year by making suggestion and comments. By letting me know what books and n that our patrons want. This helps me get the most requested items, whether it be books, magazines, videos, audio of the trustees of the library and I will be going over our long

In the past few months, we have received a large number of easy books for preschoolers up to 3rd grade. I would encourage you to read to your children and start at a very early age. This helps them to develop a love for books and this in turn will help them to be a better student when thew them to be a better student when they are in school. I also want to remind are in school. I also want to remind anyone with preschool children that we have a Story Hour each Wednesdy at 1 p.m. The children enjoy playing together, listening to stories, making a craft and watching a movie. We received a shipment of new books from the Department of Libraries in Frankfort last week. Included in these are adult non-fiction and both fiction and non-fiction for children and young adults.

Old Friends introduces to Lou

Spring turkey hunting seasons

The 1994 Kentucky spring turkey hunting season promises to be a good one. The 14-day statewide spring turkey hunting season promises to be a good one. The 14-day statewide spring turkey hunting season opens April 20 and continues brungh May 3, 1944. Last spring, Kentucky turkey hunters harvested more than 5000 gobblers. With the state wide population estimated at 40,000 birds, hunters have good chances of similar success this spring, Turkey biologist George Wright expects fewer two-year-old gobblers to showup in the spring harvest because of one year's poor hatch. All in all, however, wild turkey reproduction looks good and about the same as last year.

Turkey hunting is growing more popular every year. As proof, 14,000 wild turkey hunters went afield in Kentucky in 1993, surpassing 1992's number of spring hunters by 3,000.

Bagging a wild turkey is a challenge requiring skill and prepared to the state of the state ment. Turkey hunters required to purchase a hunting license must also have a turkey permit. All turkey hunters in Kentucky born after January 1, 1972, except youngsters age 10 and under, must carry a state-approved hunter education card while huntine.

Ky. Division of Water marks 10 years of permitting progress

In the ten years since the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) delegated responsibility for the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System program in Kentucky to the state Division of Water, the division has issued 12,096

The Kentucky Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (KPDES) Branch of the division, which is responsible for the program in the state, has won regional and ralitonl awards for the quality of its work. But, as branch manager Clyde Baldwin points out, the recognition received by his branch should not overshadow the awards received by permittees. "We pushed received by permittees." received by permittees. "We pushed and guided the cities to comply, then nominated them for a job well done," he says. By the end of September, Kentucky cities had received more other state in the nation.

One of the major efforts of the division now is the institution of regionalization efforts. By encouraging small inefficient plants to merge with larger more efficient plants, there has been a net reduction of new indi-uidual permit sequence and improve vidual permit issuance and improve-ment in water quality in Kentucky's ment in water quanty in Kentucky water ways. Regionalization has been particularly effective in the following areas: Boyd County; Bath and Rowan Counties; Jefferson County through the Metropolitan Sewen District; Northern Kentucky with the assistance of the Campbell/Kenton County Sensitive Districts and the County Sanitation District; and the Caveland area (Barren, Hart, and onton Counties).

KPDES is responsible for writing and issuing permits for anyone who discharges wastewater to a body of discharges wastewater to a body of water in the state.
