Volunteers raise over $5,000 to combat CF

Rockcastle County volunteers held the 12th annual Bike-a-thon at Brodhead Saturday to raise money to help fight Cystic Fibrosis. Over $5,000 was raised by the 37 volunteers and 34 riders that participated in this year's bike-a-thon. At left Louise Bengé and Angie Hines were among volunteers that worked a roadblock at the intersection of Hwy. 150 and 461 by-pass Saturday. The roadblock is held each year in conjunction with the bike-a-thon. Mrs. Bengé's daughter suffers from cystic fibrosis. At right, Angie Hines takes a donation from Babe Daugherty of Climax. During the past twelve years, Mrs. Clara Proctor and her volunteers have raised over $50,000 to help fight CF.

Rockcastle County High School Site-Based Decision Making Council meets in August

August 28, 1995

The August meeting of the Rockcastle County High School SBDM Council was held August 28 at 4 p.m. in the conference room of the high school.

Welcome

The meeting was called to order by Ronnie Cash, principal. Council members present were Ruth Allen, Debbie Brown, William Lynch, Joyce Machal and Charles Norris. Mr. Cash welcomed those in attendance and encouraged them to return for future meetings.

July Minutes

Minutes from the July meeting were distributed. Mr. Cash referred to the Math policy item, stating that this would be postponed until a later meeting. Asst. principal Jim Cox confirmed that the Internet charges first quoted would be less expensive.

Staffing
Mr. Cash informed the council of the employment of David Perkins as District Transportation Director. Mr. Cash further stated he had followed one of the options presented to the council at the July meeting of an RCHS employee was hired for this position. The option involved a lateral transfer of Tom Larkey to the H.E.L.P. Central (alternative school) and requesting a waiver from the Ky. Dept. of Education to employ a social studies teacher. This was done and Barry Noble was employed in the social studies position and as assistant basketball coach.

Budget Update

Mr. Cox told the council that due to curriculum changes in the various departments, the program offered through the Cumberland Valley Health Dept., "Reducing the Risk" (RTR) and "Postponing Sexual Involvement" (PSI) would better serve students if taught in Practical Living classes rather than Biology. Mr. Cox was requesting approval from the council to make the change and it was given.

Budget: Mr. Cash requested that the council postpone until later the budget alignment. This is due to the finances being received from the STAR grant. The council agreed.

District

Mr. Cash wanted the council to know that some rumors being circulated throughout the community are not true. The student expelled from Lincoln Co. High School has NOT enrolled at RCHS and RCHS has not been recruiting athletes. He further stated, "Any RCHS coach violating

K.H.S.A.A. policies will be fired."

Mrs. Ruth Allen, English teacher at RCHS presented the council with a condensed version of the higher English standards for RCHS. These are for grades nine, eleven and twelve. Grade ten standards are currently being revised and will be presented later. Mrs. Allen stated that the English teachers wanted the council to be informed as to what was being taught in order to gain support from the council. Mr. Cash, speaking for the council said, "We applaud your efforts and will support your continued improvements."

Mr. Lynch reported that Ms. Janet Wells, librarian, was finishing her inventory and would submit a needs list when completed.

Rockcastle educators awarded minigrant

Three Rockcastle County Schools educators have been awarded a minigrant from the Kentucky Middle Grades Mathematics Network to conduct professional development in the school district.

Shelby Reynolds, Rockcastle County Board of Education and Charles Napier and Terry Parkey, teachers at Rockcastle Co. Middle School, have received $8,500 to oversee professional development activities with all middle grades mathematics teachers in the Rockcastle County schools. The activities will include weekly sessions focusing on mathematics network activities and classroom visitations.

The network awarded 63 minigrants totaling $374,373 this summer to teacher leaders in 58 school districts and private schools in Kentucky. The minigrants range from $1,100 to $10,000.

Some of the professional development activities funded include all-day workshops, after-school seminars, classroom visitations by other teachers, peer coaching, mentoring and involvement in PBS Mathline, an electronic mail connection to middle grades mathematics teachers across the United States.

The network is run by a steering committee of university faculty from the eight state universities and a private college, middle grades mathematics teachers from across Kentucky, and a staff member of the Kentucky Department of Education. William S. Bush, associate professor of mathematics education in the University of Kentucky College of Education, is director of the network.

Eight regional teams of outstanding middle grades mathematics teachers and university faculty developed seminars focusing on better methods of teaching mathematics in the middle grades.

In the past year, 240 middle grade mathematics teachers from 100 school districts and 25 private schools were trained as teacher leaders in the network. Teacher leaders conduct professional development with other middle grade mathematics teachers in their districts.

Mt. Vernon High School Class Reunion

The Mt. Vernon High School will hold their reunion for classes of 1914-1962 at the Rockcastle Middle School Saturday, September 9th.

Registration begins at 4:30 p.m. with the meal being served at 6:30 p.m.

The 50th Anniversary Class (Class of 1945) will be honored.

Drive is Sept. 28th Donating blood is safe and easy

Despite the tremendous need for blood, about five percent of those eligible to donate actually give blood. Donating is quick, easy and safe. Volunteer donors undergo a thorough medical screening, including a medical history, blood pressure and other checks. Sterile needles and materials are used, then the needle is discarded. Donating takes about an hour and can save up to three people's life.

Rockcastle County Homemakers will sponsor a blood drive on Thursday, Sept. 28 from noon to 1:39 p.m. and 3 to 7 p.m. at the AG Services Blinding in the basement. All donors will receive a free T-Shirt. The need for blood is great this time of year. Please call Hazel Jackson at 256-2403 for more information.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,
In a recent letter requesting information about our Nicely ancestry, my address and telephone number were inadvertently omitted. We need to hear from any descendants of Henry Valentine and Polly Putnam Nicely. Their grandson, Thomas Jefferson (TI or Tom) Nicely, resided in Mt. Vernon and was county court clerk for many years.

Thanks for your assistance.
Sincerely,

Dear Editor
I am writing this letter regarding Falcon Cable TV, their service to their customers or lack thereof. For the last three weeks, our television reception gets snowy and has horizontal lines every evening, starting at about 6 p.m. and gets worse as the evening goes on. It gets worse with the final results being that you cannot see the picture. This has been happening every night, at my house and our neighbors.

I have called Falcon every night, leaving a message on their answering machine, which has never been returned. I have called Falcon during the day when the office is open and been told that a work order has been issued to correct the problem. Finally, last week on Tuesday, a man showed up, saying the problem had been corrected. In the daytime, the picture is good, the picture was good when he was here. He told me if the problem happened again, he would be back. That night, the problem showed up as if nothing had been done. I asked the technician why he waited till Tuesday to come out. He said that since Falcon only has five technicians to handle eleven counties, they only come to Rockcastle County on Tuesday.

Falcon Cable TV's franchise is up for renewal in their upcoming meetings of the Fiscal Court. I think it's time we citizens of Rockcastle county think seriously about getting another cable company. In Madison County, American Cable offers its customers 47 channels for less money, and gives service as needed when needed.

If any readers feel the same way as I do, why not show up at the next meeting of the Fiscal Court on September 12, 1995 at 10 a.m. and voice your concern.

Sincerely,
Terrance M. Secrist

Today In Banking

Some "Straight Talk" On Banking Today... That Can Make Banking Better For You...

One Day At A Time

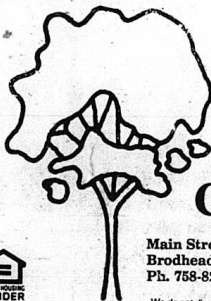

Achieving financial freedom is a tall order for anyone. It takes hard work, patience, and a whole lot of doing without.

Saving is one of those things that takes time before you really begin to see the progress that's being made. When you think of long term goals, such as attaining freedom financially, there is a tendency to lose sight of the fact that you reach the goal by doing the right thing on a day to day basis.

If you save every week, a geometric progression occurs by which you earn interest, and then you earn interest on the interest. With time this accelerates and before you know it, you've reached your goal — one day at a time.

FIBER: AN IMPORTANT PART OF CHILDREN'S DIET

The elitism of refined food products from days gone by contributes to poor nutrition for many children and adults today.

Our highly refined and processed American diet dates back to the elite connotation associated with foods that were more expensive because the fiber had been removed, such as white bread and white rice. Fiber is an essential element of the diet that aids digestion, helps protect against colon cancer and lowers cholesterol levels. It also helps relieve constipation - a common problem in children.

As a result of the trend toward processed diets, many adults, and probably children too, don't receive enough fiber in their diets. Children ages 3-10 years need 10 grams of fiber a day; teenagers, 15-20 grams; and adults age 20 years and above need 25-35 grams.

Fiber-rich foods include whole grain breads and cereals, brown rice, dry beans and lentils, and fruits or vegetables, especially those with edible skins. It's easy to meet your children's daily fiber requirements. Simply add raisins to whole-grain cereal; use whole-grain bread; serve dried beans or fresh fruits and vegetables with their skins on; or serve popcorn as a snack.

If your children have not been eating enough fiber, it's very important to increase their intake gradually. Too much fiber added too quickly will give children gas and stomach cramps and will make them feel full before they finish eating a well-balanced meal containing other needed nutrients. Remember, fiber is an important part of the modern child's diet.

MAKING SAFE BREWED OR ICED TEA

Recently, coliforms were found in the tea in restaurants in the Cincinnati area. This has sparked some inquiries about tea made in our part of the state and possible coliform contamination.

Coliforms is a broad term used for members of the Escherichia coli (E.coli) family and can be found naturally in the intestines of humans and animals. The presence of coliforms in food and beverages indicates poor sanitation techniques, poor personal hygiene or could indicate a contaminated water source.

Since a water advisory has not been issued for our part of the state, tea should be safe to consume in restaurants.

All restaurants have been advised of safe handling procedures of brewed tea and those procedures should also be followed at home. Water used to brew iced tea should be at least 175 degrees F. If you use your coffeemaker to brew tea (hot or iced) check the water temperature with a candy thermometer.

The 175 degrees F temperature will kill any coliform bacteria

EXPECT ASIAN LADY BEETLES SOON — BUT DON'T BE ALARMED

A beetle that made its first debut in Kentucky in 1993 will likely be dropping by for a visit in the coming months. The Asian lady beetle is annoying, but that's about all.

The Asian lady beetle was first reported in Kentucky in the fall of 1993 and has been a regular visitor since. The lady beetle or ladybug is considered a beneficial insect, because it feeds on aphids and other harmful plant pests. Lady beetles do not sting or carry disease, nor do they infest food, clothing or wood.

So what's the problem? Asian lady beetles alarm residents when they congregate in large numbers — thousands at times — on windows, walls, light fixtures and other indoor surfaces, even the south-facing side of houses.

During spring and summer, adults and larvae feed on aphids outdoors, but as autumn approaches, adult beetles are attracted to buildings looking for a place to overwinter. In Kentucky, this movement begins in late September and continues through mid-November. The beetles are drawn to cracks and other dark openings as possible hibernating sites. As temperatures warm in the spring, the beetles become active again as they search for ways to go outside.

This particular species of lady beetle is native to eastern Asia, where it is an important predator of scale and aphid pests on trees. Over the years, however, several states, including Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, Maryland, Ohio and Pennsylvania have introduced the beetle as a natural control agent of agricultural pests. Their presence in Kentucky is presumably due to natural migration from these states.

Adult Asian lady beetles are oval, convex, about one-fourth inch long and pale yellowish orange to dark orange in color. Often, several black spots are on the wing covers. Most specimens have a small, dark "x" on the whitish area directly behind the head.

Homes and other buildings in heavily wooded areas are especially prone to infestation, although suburban and urban settings have also reported large congregations.

What to do? Because they are harmless, homeowners can simply ignore the beetles and as the season changes, they will disappear.

Those who want to rid their homes of them can simply vacuum them with a vacuum cleaner. A broom can be used to remove beetles indoors, but be aware that when disturbed they secrete an orange-colored fluid that smells bad.

To help prevent an infestation, homeowners can adjust or install tight-fitting door sweeps or thresholds at the bottom of all exterior entry doors. Use a good quality caulk to seal cracks around windows, doors, siding and fascia boards. Seal openings where pipes and wires enter the foundation and siding. Repair damaged window screens and install insect screening behind attic vents.

being held to replace acreage that was released under the early release provisions announced in May 1995. The maximum amount of acreage to be accepted is approximately 651,000 acres.

Under the new bidding procedure, producers have the option to request a CRO contract effective beginning with either the 1996 or 1997 crop year. Annual rental payments for approved CRO contracts will be made to eligible farm owners or operators who convert eligible cropland to permanent cover. The County CFA Office will calculate and inform the applicant of the bid cap for the acreage the applicant wishes to enter into CRP before the applicant submits a bid. In addition to the rental payment, cost-share up to 50 percent of the cost of establishing a permanent cover on the new CRP acres may be available.

New with this CRP sign-up are Environmental Priority bids. The Environmental Priority bids will include practices such as Grass Waterways and Filter Strip/Riparian Buffer. Acreage established to Filter Strip/Riparian Buffer will receive a 10 percent incentive bonus because of the environmental benefits. The implementation of these practices may be of particular interest to Kentucky farmers as they will assist in complying with the State Water Quality Plan for their farm which goes into effect in July 1996 as required by Senate Bill 241.

Producers may sign up or receive additional information by contacting the Rockcastle County CFA Office or calling 256-2525.

CRP sign-up

Sept. 11-22

Warden Alexander, Acting CED for the Rockcastle County Consolidated Farm Service Agency (CFSA), formerly ASCS, announces that between Sept. 11 and 22, eligible persons will be able to submit bids for the 13th Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) sign-up. This sign-up is previously labeled "fresh" will now be labeled "hard chilled". The "fresh" label will apply only to poultry that has never been chilled below 26 degrees. "Frozen" or "previously frozen" will apply to poultry chilled below 0 degrees F.

The regulation will take effect in one year. USDA estimates that the regulation will affect 1.4 billion pounds of the 8.9 billion pounds of chicken that Americans purchase annually.

USDA said there would be no health risks in shipping poultry at warmer temperatures, but that it may be more desirable for processors that send products more than 800 miles to continue to chill them to below 26 degrees F. Pure water freezes at 32 degrees F, but salts and minerals in poultry prevent it from freezing until it reaches 26 degrees. Transporting poultry at low temperature extends shelf life about 2 weeks, according to the USDA.

POULTRY COOLED BELOW 26 DEGREES WILL BE "HARD CHILLED" ON THE LABEL.

Chicken and turkey processors will no longer be able to label poultry that has been chilled to freezing temperatures as "fresh". In seeking to improve the accuracy in labeling, USDA has established three categories for the labeling of poultry products.

USDA to follow new environmental and conservation criteria in 13th CRP enrollment Agriculture Secretary Dan Glickman announced today that between September 11-22, 1995, eligible persons will be able to submit bids for the 13th Conservation Reserve Program signing. Land accepted into the CRP will meet higher environmental and conservation criteria to continue efforts to halt soil erosion, improve water quality, encourage tree planting and benefit wildlife.

"USDA can only accept about 651,000 acres into the CRP because this was the amount contract holders withdrew under the 'early out' opportunity announced May 5," Glickman said. "Because of the relatively small acreage, we have modified our bidding and enrollment process to ensure that only the most environmentally sensitive lands are accepted. Also, we have made the bidding process more understandable for bidders which will help them and us enroll the best land."

Bidders have the option to request a CRP contract effective beginning either with the 1996 or with the 1997 crop year. Annual rental payments for approved CRP contracts will be made to eligible farm owners or operators who convert eligible cropland to permanent cover. These payments will be limited to $50,000 per "person" per year. In addition to the rental payment, the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) may pay up to 50 percent of the cost of estab-

Retired teachers meet in Richmond

The 11th annual meeting of the CKRTA East was held at the Holiday Inn in Richmond on August 24. This district includes Estill, Garrard, Jackson, Lee, Lincoln, Madison, Montgomery, Powell and Rockcastle counties.

The session was called to order by our new president, Sue French. After some welcoming remarks, she related a little story she had read in the KRTA publication comparing our members to four bones - the WISH-BONE - wishes somebody else would do the job; the JAWBONE - all talk but no work; the KNUCKLE BONE - knacks what everybody else does and the BACKBONE - those who do the work.

A moving invocation was given by Betty Crabtree of Powell County. Montgomery County was in charge of leading the pledge to the flag and lishing a permanent cover.

Producers must comply with federal crop insurance and conservation compliance requirements in order to receive payments and must agree to comply with all terms and conditions for the length of the CRP contract.

Producers may sign up for and receive additional information about the 13th CRP sign-up at their local Farm Service Agency office. The Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) will participate during the sign-up in determining land eligibility and bid ranking. For further information, contact your local NRCS office and CFSA office.

Ted Crosswaite and Frank Hatfield, who is still at it, and others. M.L. Archer, committee chairman for membership and pre-retirement, talked to the group about the importance of membership. There are some 20,000 retirees in the state but only 15,680 are members of our association. A major drive for the year will be to push for increased local membership and local participation. Our membership is good - best in our district at better than 95%, but our participation needs improvement.

Next on the program was Robert Kelley, chairman for Insurance and Health care. Mr. Kelley discussed the programs available to us - medical, dental, hearing, etc., but said we tend to be unconcerned until we need coverage. He urged us to become more aware of what is available. Other speakers were Pearl Miller, state coordinator for AARP/NRTA; Steve Foust, KTRS representative and Bobby Humes, committee chairperson, who received proposals for the next legislative session. Gailiff Craig offered a blessing and we broke for a delicious lunch served by the Holiday Inn staff.

The brief afternoon session was called to order by Ms. French. The secretary/treasurer's report was given by Norma Willoughby and a memorial for those who have passed on.

PUBLIC HEARING

In accordance with the provisions of HB 44 enacted by the 1979 Kentucky General Assembly, a public hearing has been set by the Rockcastle County Public Library District Board of Trustees for Sept. 21, 1995 at 5 p.m. at the Rockcastle County Public Library. The purpose of the hearing is to inform the public that the Rockcastle County Public Library District is proposing the .0166 cent tax rate with anticipated revenue of $30,220.14. This tax rate reflects a 4% increase in anticipated revenue. The tax rate for the preceding year was .015 cents with revenues of $26,669.49. The compensating tax rate is .016 cents with anticipated revenue of $29,127.84. The expected revenue from new property is $783.40. Increase for the 1995/96 budget year is needed due to the rising costs of books and library materials, equipment and building maintenance.

Agencies overwhelmed by requests for help

By Lu Ed Nielsen
All of the local agencies have received many requests for assistance since the beginning of school and are now wondering what is in store for this winter.

Rockcastle Emergency Assistance Program has very little food left in the food bank and will be without by the first of October. There are no funds available until at least January, 1996. FEMA money should be available sometime in January but each of the past several years, our county has been getting less and less funds. This funding is used to help pay for rent assistance to forestall eviction, overnight shelter for transients, utility assistance and food for those who are hungry.

With the influx of new families to the county, we have been overwhelmed with requests for all types of help and we are not able to do much. The Migrant Program, the Family Resource Program and R.E.A.P. have been working very closely together to stretch our resources as far as possible. But we are using everything very quickly. With the shortage of housing and jobs, it all combines to be rather scary with winter fast approaching. We keep asking each other, "What are we going to do?" We don't have an answer.

Christmas food baskets will not be given out this year, unless we have a miracle.

If you would like to donate food, monetary donation, adopt a family for the holidays or help in any other way, please call R.E.A.P. at 256-9559 or mail to P.O. Box 60, Mt. Vernon, Ky. 40456. All non-perishable food will welcome.

This past fiscal year, we served 919 people 25,500 meals. We stretched $2600 to purchase $13,000 worth of food. We were closed 3 months due to my heart attack and surgery and moving into our new building at 105 E. Main St. We had to make some minor changes and had a lot of records, etc. to move.

Ashley's Homeless Shelter now has 1 apartment occupied. Work will begin soon on the other 2 efficiency apartments. We could use more money.

Most people are only one paycheck from hunger and homelessness. You could be the next family to need help in some way. No one knows what may happen tomorrow... Mt. Vernon Elementary School has a project to collect 1,000,000

(one million) beans. These beans will be donated to R.E.A.P. to be used to feed our hungry families. It will be exciting to see all of these beans and to realize what one million of something looks like. Thank you MVES.

Make a Difference! Be a Hospice Volunteer

Hospice of the Kentucky River is in need of people who will volunteer to assist patients and their families as they face a terminal illness. Training will be offered on Friday, Sept. 22 from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Sept. 23 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. Thomas Lutheran Church on Barnes Mill Road in Richmond.

Volunteers function much as a friend by being a good listener, assisting in running errands, providing transportation and offering brief periods of relief for the caregivers. Other volunteers provide clerical assistance in the Hospice office or on fundraising projects.

All volunteers complete the Hospice Volunteer Training Workshops prior to becoming a part of Hospice. The training includes:
• The Philosophy and History of Hospice
• Concepts of Death, Dying and Grief
• Communication and Listening Skills
• Spiritual Aspects of Death
• Signs Approaching Death
• Volunteering with Hospice

Hospice provides care when there is no cure. Caring volunteers enhance the lives of patients and families.

You can make a difference! To register or for more information, call (606) 256-3577 by September 18.

Willialla News

By Carol Martin

Vandals struck this community again early Sunday morning. Eighty rolls of hay, belonging to Kevin and Sharon Adams and sixteen rolls, belonging to Thomas and Debra Philbeck were destroyed by fire. The newspaper machines at Willialla Grocery and also Quail Grocery were stolen and some windows were broken out of automobiles. A Neighborhood Watch is underway to try to put a stop to this vandalism.

Shelby and Kathy Reynolds have sold their home to Herb and Marguerite Miller of Indiana. The Reynolds will be living in Mt. Vernon until their new home on Hwy. 461 is completed. The Millers will be moving here soon.

Dallas and Jennifer Salmon and sons have moved to Ferguson after buying a home there.

Andrew Salmon celebrated his 4th birthday Sunday, Sept. 10th at his new home in Ferguson. Those helping him celebrate were his mom and dad, Jennifer and Dallas and brother, Matthew, grandmother, Glenda Riddle, Conley Mize, Brian, Shelly and Christopher Riddle and great grandpa and great grandma, Ing and Fionnie Kirby.

R.G. and Edna Whitaker enjoyed the old fashioned days country ham breakfast on Saturday morning at Woodstock School. After breakfast, they visited Mrs. Pauline Burton and her mother, Dessie Reynolds, at Science Hill.

We would like to welcome Ray and Irene Willis and family to this community. They have moved here from Richmond after buying the former Larry Goff house.

Bob and Benita Helton of Mason, Ohio spent the week end on Lake Cumberland and visited with Benita's brother, Brownie Martin and family on Saturday.

Gerald and Bernice Cromer of Ohio were here over the week end visiting her mother, Mattie Burton, and other relatives. Mattie returned home with them for a visit.

Roger and Sue Siles and Brian and Sandy Bowman of Deer Park, Ohio were visitors of Sue's sister, Myrtle Reynolds, on Sunday. They were all enroute to Florida for a vacation.

Mrs. Florence Kiser of Deer Park, Ohio is here spending a month with her daughter, Myrtle Reynolds.

Mrs. Minerva Gentry of Ohio was here recently visiting her sister, Geneva Gentry and family.

Monday night guests of Clyde and Mae Thompson were Gano and Roxie Garner of Ft. Meyers, Fla.

Lawrence and Alene Smith of Cincinnati, Ohio and Jimmy Thompson of Forest Park, Ohio arrived here on Tuesday to spend a few days with Clyde and Mae Thompson.

Mrs. Mary Gentry of Somerset spent Thursday with Mrs. Geneva

Gentry.

Paul Ray and Judy Cash of Trenton, Ohio were here last week to attend the funeral of Paul's cousin, Jr. Harris, and to visit his brother, Lloyd Cash, who had open heart surgery. They also attended the Cash reunion while here and visited Judy's mother, Mrs. Gladys Adams.

Lindsay Thompson is spending this week with her papaw and mamaw Don and Norella Thompson and her great grandma Thelma Brown while her parents and brother, Eddie, Kris and Chase are vacationing in Orlando, Florida.

Matt Burton has returned home from the hospital where he was a patient for two weeks or more. His son, Donald, of Indiana has been visiting him and did some work on his house.

We would like to welcome new neighbors, Doug and Kelly Hughes, and new son, John Logan, to our community. John Logan was born August 29th.

The Poplar Grove Baptist Church hosted a surprise birthday supper for their pastor Rick Reynolds on September 3rd. A nice homemade quilt was given him by members at Poplar Grove. The quilt depicts twenty-five different Bible scenes.

Richard and Jill Cash and Josh attended the Chester Massed Reunion held Sunday, Sept. 10 at the Eubank Community Park.

Local retired teachers meet at Middle School

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the RCRTA was held at Rockcastle Co. Middle School on Monday, August 28.

An inviting refreshment table was set up for early arrival's enjoyment. Geraldine French provided a wonderful cake and Shirley Martin and Kathleen Stevens brought pineapple punch, nuts and mints.

The meeting was opened by Gatliff Craig, president. He welcomed us all, but especially guests Virginia Shaw, state association president of Crab Orchard; our new county superintendent Larry Hammonds and new retirees: Betty Gllovak, Loretta Dillingham and Bige W. Towery. Mr. Craig then called on Geraldine French for the devotional. She shared with us her thoughts on prayer, life and living in general. As always, a fine job.

Minutes were read by Elnora Burke, secretary, and a membership report was given by Aslee Bray. We have 121 retired teachers in the county, 117 belong to RCRTA, giving us a membership of 96.65%. Good! We still need more local participation.

During the business session: the meeting time was changed to 6:30 p.m. with location to be decided at a later date;

Sue French gave a short report on the district meeting several attended on Aug. 24 in Richmond;

Mrs. Shaw told of a meeting she had attended in Louisville with the insurance council where they discussed proposals that had been made and new state regulations;

Former superintendent Bige Towery spoke about beginning retirement and how he is coping. He then introduced his successor, Larry Hammonds who said he "felt very fortunate" to have the opportunity to serve and hoped he would be able to fill the office. We wish him all the best.

The door prize, a lovely floral arrangement, was won by Alberta Winstead.

To retirees not participating -- come on out, we always have an informative and enjoyable time.

Livingston News

By Frances Dickerson

The Homecoming was great success. It was nice seeing all the ones who came back for the event.

Mrs. Maggie Gilbert is very ill at this time.

Margaret Burdine and Juanita Medley were in London recently visiting Juanita's sister, Jessie Hibbit.

Herman Bond is seriously ill in a hospital in Lexington.

Brent Callahan celebrated his third birthday with a party. Thanks to the ones who attended and for the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Carroll of Berea visited her mother, Mrs. Margaret Burdine during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Goble Arnold have moved to Somerset from Texas.

The Smith family and their friends missed seeing Jesse Lee at the Homecoming this year.

A Correction. Last week, I wrote Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mason were in Livingston. It should have been Mrs. Mason and son, Vernon. Please forgive me.

Mrs. Lena McClure visited Charles during the week. She reports he isn't any better.

Harold Durham is ill at this time.

This was the first time for Curtis Coleman to miss the Homecoming. We missed him and hopefully he will make it next time.

Mrs. Arthur Waddle spent several days in the hospital at Somerset last week.

Cotton States Insurance group announces plans for further expansion in Kentucky

Cotton States Insurance Group, which consists of five insurance companies, announced plans recently to expand business operations in Kentucky.

Cotton States recently hired Paul

Fuqua as a district sales manager for the state. In this position, Fuqua will recruit new agents to represent Cotton States exclusively. In 1994, Cotton States Mutual Insurance Company, which offers personal lines insurance, posted its seventh consecutive year of profitability, while Cotton States Life Insurance Company exceeded company profit records for the third consecutive year.

Cotton States president and CEO J. Ridley Howard said this expansion decision that will benefit both Cotton States and the insurance consumers in Kentucky.

Cotton States Insurance Group, which began operations in 1941, is licensed in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi, Tennessee and Virginia. The group markets property and casualty, life and crop insurance products primarily through a multi-line agency system.

The Cotton States Insurance Group includes Cotton States Life Insurance Company, Cotton States Mutual Insurance Company, Cotton States Marketing Resources, Inc., CSI Brokerage Services, Inc. and Shield Insurance Company. Cotton States Life Insurance Company, the only publicly held company in the group, is traded on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol, CSLI.

Obituaries

Powell

Bentley Ray Powell, 45, of Dayton, Ohio and formerly of Mt. Vernon, died Saturday, September 9, 1995 in Dayton, the result of an apparent heart attack.

Mr. Powell was born June 26, 1950 in Dayton, Ohio, the son of the late Charles and Sudie Mae Howard Powell. He was a welder for the Duscrete Company.

Survivors are a son, Wayne Powell of Mt. Vernon; a daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Johnson of New Carlisle, Ohio; two brothers, William Foster and Larry Powell, both of Mt. Vernon; five sisters, Mrs. Janice Winkler of Romulus, Michigan, Mrs. Charlotte Brummett of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Nancy Pigg of Berea, Mich. and Miss Vicki Powell of Berea and two grandchildren. He was preceded in death by one son, Charles Swinney Powell.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Sept. 13 at Cox Funeral Home with Bro. Harold Eds officiating. Burial was in the Isaacs Cemetery.

Jones

Mrs. Anna Mae Jones, 68, of Livingston, died Sept. 11, 1995 at the Rockcastle Hospital.

She was born in Jackson County on July 20, 1928, the daughter of Bert and Lou Summers Carpenter and was a member of the Caloway Holiness Church.

Survivors are her husband, Ovie Jones of Livingston; six daughters, Ida Tankersley of Livingston, Georgia Atkins of McKee, Sue Meadows, Ella Jones, Jean Smith and Dora Lou Smith, all of Mt. Vernon; one brother, Virgil Carpenter of Searcy, Guy, 28 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a son, Arthur, and a daughter, Viola, and two sisters and four brothers.

Services will be at 2 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 14 (today) at Red Hill with Bro. Virgil Wynne and Bee McColun officiating. Burial will be in the Red Hill Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be: Bentley Carpenter, Mike Bullock, Danny Conner, Eddie Callahan, Ovie Lee Jones and Earl Adkins.
Dowell and Martin Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Hopkins

Herbert Hoover Hopkins, 65, of Rt. 3, Brodhead, died Monday, September 11, 1995 at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center in Danville. He was born October 21, 1929 in Rockcastle County, the son of the late George and Lula Brock Hopkins and was a retired forklift operator for General Motors Corporation.

Survivors are two sons, Larry H. Hopkins of Lewisburg, Ohio and Harry (Tom) Hopkins of New Carlisle, Ohio; three brothers, Virgil and Donald Hopkins, both of Brodhead and Ratz Hopkins of Somerset; one sister, Mrs. Marie Harmon of Dayton, Ohio; five grandchildren and three great grandchildren. His wife, Mary Lawson Hopkins and six step children, all of Ohio, and several nieces and nephews, also survive.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 13 at Watson Funeral Home with Bro. Paul Barger officiating. Burial was in Ottawa Cemetery.

Smith

Leonard Smith, 61, of Middletown, Ohio and formerly of Rockcastle County, died Sept. 11, 1995 at the Middletown Regional Hospital. He was born in Rockcastle County, the son of Mary Joie Smith and the late Ratz Hopkins of Somerset.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his wife, Barbara Jean Smith and three daughters, Maria Grigsby, Shelly Reynolds and Rhonda Goodlett, all of Middletown, Ohio; six brothers, William Smith, Shirley Smith and Herman Smith, all of Mt. Vernon, Arnold Smith of Trenton, Ohio, Kenneth Smith of Glendale, Arizona and Mearle Smith of Middletown; six sisters, Gertrude Stephens, Hazel Smith and Edith Coffey, all of Mt. Vernon, Bonnie Lea Schwartz of Milford, Ohio, Faye Powers of Berea and Esther Houston of Cincinnati, Ohio and five grandchildren.

Services for Mr. Smith will be Thursday, Sept. 14 (today) at 1 p.m. at the Joseph Baker Funeral Home in Middletown, Ohio.

In Loving Memory of Michael Ray Coffee

A very loving and wonderful father and husband, you will be greatly missed.

Sometimes life isn't fair, to take someone so young. So if you have a special someone, please tell them how you feel.

A special thank you to everyone that sent flowers, cards and food and especially the pallbearers: Rodney and Robbie Reynolds, Kelley Hoskins, Gary Denney, Charlie Denny, Timothy Coffee, James Hendrickson, Tommy Woodall and Victor Ball.

CARDS OF THANKS

The family of Terrell Chandler wishes to express our thanks and appreciation to the many friends and relatives who so faithfully supported us during the illness and death of our loved one. We are especially aware and grateful for the prayers offered on Terrell's behalf. Thank you for the offerings of food and flowers and loving thoughts. We wish to extend special thanks to Dr. Karen Saylor and staff, Margie Wilcox and Johnna Ward for the beautifully rendered music, the Watson Funeral Home for the many kindnesses and courtesies, Bro. Mark Whicker and the Brodhead Baptist Church membership for their constant support and love. Very special thanks to the Brodhead Baptist male members who paid Terrell such honor at the church and graveside services. Our load of grief is lightened by the knowledge it is shared by so many. Terrell Chandler Family - Mabel, Terry, Ruth Ann, Happy and Jodie.

Card of Thanks. The family of Lillie Mabel Taylor would like to express their deepest appreciation and gratitude to everyone for being so kind during our time of sorrow. We especially want to thank Bro. Dan McKibben and the members of Providence Church of Christ for the congregational singing. Also, we thank all those who brought food, sent flowers or visited the family. Our appreciation to Watson Funeral Home for their kind and considerate services. Willie Taylor and Billy Jo Hopkins and family.

Paul Patton tells Rockcastle group he is best choice in election

By: Richard Anderkin
Ky. Lt. Governor Paul Patton told a group of Rockcastle County supporters Thursday that he is without a doubt the most qualified candidate in this fall's general election.

In a rally Thursday at the Rockcastle County Courthouse, attended by about 60 people, Patton said that his experience made him the best possible person to run this state.

The Lt. Governor said that his campaign is currently 12 percentage points ahead of his Republican opponent Larry Forgy's campaign, and that people all across the state "believe in us and 'know we are not full of hot air.'"

Patton pointed to his 20 years in the coal business, his work as Pike County Judge-Executive, a county he said that he greatly changed for the better in a ten year period and his extensive work in economic development as Lt. Governor, as his resume for the governor's office.

"My opponent has never run anything, he has never gotten his hands dirty supporting his family," Patton said.

"The easiest thing in the world to take a poll of the people, find out what they are concerned about and start making promises," Patton said. The engineer by trade said that he had come home dirtier to his family after a day's work than anyone in the third floor courtroom where he was speaking. "I know what it is to put in a 20 hour day to support my family, I know what it is to lay down under the ground to fix a piece of equipment, it was hard work, but it didn't hurt me," Patton said.

Patton said that when he got out of the coal business, he decided he wanted to help the community that had been so good to him, so he ran for county judge-executive in Pike County. "I changed that county and when I'm elected Governor I am going to change Kentucky," Patton said.

The Lt. Governor said that one of his main goals for Kentucky, was to get the income of all Kentuckians to be the national average. Patton who has been head of Kentucky's Economic Development in the Jones Administration said that his economic development experience will enable him to attain his goal.

Patton said that 160,000 new jobs have been created in Kentucky since he took over economic development in the state. "The $184 million dollar surplus the state ended up with certainly had to come from some place, it wasn't there two years ago," Patton said.

"That money was a direct result of the taxes paid by those people working in those new jobs" Patton said.

The Lt. Governor told the group that his administration would also address juvenile crime. "It is a great concern of many Kentuckians and well it should be," Patton said.

"We are neglecting our children by not teaching them the rules and by not having the proper facilities to house these offenders when they break the rules," Patton said.

"Juvenile crime has increased in this state 110% since 1989 and there is not one more juvenile bed in the state in which to 'keep a juvenile,'" Patton reported.

"We slap their wrists before they are eighteen because we really don't have anywhere to put them and once they turn eighteen, we change the rules on them, send them to prison and basically ruin their lives," Patton continued.

Patton also said that he would be a strong supporter of the tobacco farmer and that he strongly disagreed with President Clinton's efforts to try and classify tobacco as an illegal drug. "Tobacco is the foundation of farming in Kentucky. It has supported rural life and given people the opportunity to raise their families on the farms," he said.

"I will do everything in my power as Governor of this state to protect tobacco," Patton said.

The Lt. Governor also said that he would work very hard to create more markets for other Kentucky crops such as corn.

Patton also said that his administration, unlike others, would not change the state's six year road plan.

"We are going to finish all projects that have been slated to be finished and not simply take roads off or put them on, to suit our own political agenda, as other Governors have," Patton said.

"Ability, experience and commitment make me the most qualified to serve as Governor of this state,"

Patton said.

Among those attending Thursday's rally were Patton's local campaign chairman Lee D. Keene, current Democrat County Chairman, Larry Doyle and former Democrat County Chairman, Verla Scott.

Patton made his stop in Mt. Vernon after attending the annual Tobacco Festival in Garrard County.

Indictment for murder of hitchhiker

A Marlhester man was indicted for murder Friday by the Rockcastle County Grand Jury in connection with the shooting death of a hitchhiker near Livingston on August 17.

Billy Don Begley, 32, is being held in the Rockcastle County jail under a $250,000 cash bond.

David Longknife of Vancouver, Washington apparently died from gunshot wounds to the chest and abdomen after he was reportedly shot by Begley.

But the only eyewitness to the shooting Linda Triplett, who was with Begley at the time of the shooting, said that her boyfriend was acting in self defense when he shot Longknife. "We picked him up around Barbourville and were traveling north on U.S. 25 when he became abusive and attempted to harm us," Triplett said.

"Billy tried to get him out the car and just leave, but he (Longknife) would not stop coming at Billy," Triplett said.

"Billy kept backing away and told him (Longknife) that he would shoot him if he didn't stop trying to hurt us, but he kept coming," she said.

Triplett said that the hitchhiker became upset when he thought Begley purposely did not get on 1-75. "He

Ambulance board wants county guarantee

By Ray McClure

Two new ambulances are parked outside in the weather. David Pensol, chairman of the Rockcastle Ambulance Service Board, told the Rockcastle Fiscal Court Tuesday.

Pensol said the Service needs a clarification of its property near the hospital and an earlier addition of 12 to 15 feet of land to the hospital is now in the way of its ambulances.

He reported the Service wants to build a three-bay garage for the ambulances and said they wanted to make sure, from the court, that the land "won't be sold out from under us (the ambulance service)."

County Attorney Jeff Burdette told

Pensol that he could draw up a restrictive deed saying the ambulance service could maintain the land as long as it is used by the service, but, if it is no longer used for the ambulance service, then it reverts to the court (county).

The court took no action on Pensol's request and instead, decided to discuss the question before making a determination.

The court accepted the sheriff's settlement. It will now be sent to the state.

The court was told 500 calls in the last seven days came into the sheriff's department since that department took over dispatching from the jail.

In other business, the magistrates decided to look again at the mileage on county roads turned into the state.

Three charged in drug raid

Three men have been charged for drug and alcohol related offenses in Rockcastle and Pulaski counties.

One drug arrest by State Police was on the county line between Rockcastle and Pulaski County.

Terry Fultz who rents an apartment in Blue Grass Inn Motel on Richmond Street in Mt. Vernon, was arrested by county deputies in a raid at his apartment Friday.

He was charged with marijuana possession and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Making the arrest were sheriff deputies Randall Reynolds, Doug Thomas and Jack Weaver.

Ricky Stevens of Brush Creek is out of jail on a $4,000, 10 percent bond, on whiskey and drug related charges.

Deputies Reynolds, Thomas and Weaver raided his camper/trailer and seized 167 cans of beer and nine bottles of whiskey Friday.

He was charged with illegal sale of alcohol, possession of alcohol, possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia.

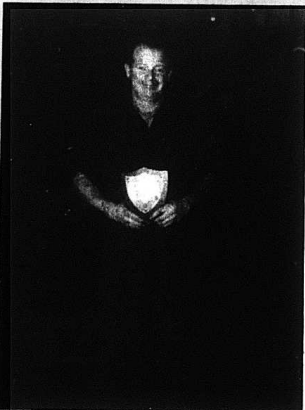

Danny Deborde, 39, of Poplar Grove Road on the Rockcastle-Pulaski line, was charged by state police and Pulaski deputies.

The deputies found marijuana growing at his mobile home. Inside the trailer they found a police radio. Police also seized 21 marijuana plants.

Hewas charged with cultivation of marijuana, trafficking in marijuana, possession of drug paraphernalia and a police radio.

Lake Cumberland task force charged Deborde with possession of a defaced firearm and possession of a controlled substance not in a container.

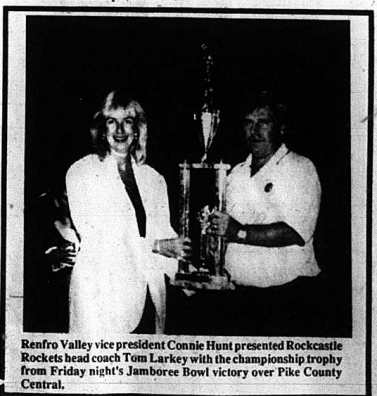

Livingston honorees

David Durham of Livingston was presented with the Outstanding New Business Award for 1995 by the Livingston Homecoming Committee during last week end's festivities. David Durham's Auto Repair is located on McClure St. in Livingston.

Mrs. Lena McClure was presented an American flag in honor of her husband, Charles, a World War II veteran. Mr. McClure is presently in the VA Hospital in Lexington. The McClures were married in 1954 and have three sons, Gary, Mike and Dale.

Renfro Valley vice president Connie Hunt presented Rockcastle Rockets head coach Tom Larkey with the championship trophy from Friday night's Jamboree Bowl victory over Pike County Central.

If, every time you stop to smell the roses you burst into a fit of sneezing, coughing, crying and itching, chances are pretty good that you are not looking forward to the next several weeks. Because you don't have to stop and smell the ragweed, horse weed, goldenrod and more than a dozen other pollens that ripen this time of year for the single purpose of causing folks like you and me to go through living hell.

We don't even have to stop to take a sniff. These noxious, microscopic seeds track us down and invade our bedrooms, automobiles, offices or wherever we go and find lodging in our nostrils and windpipes. And most of us get very sleepy when we do manage to find a medicine that quiets the headaches and runny noses.

So even though we have cucumbers just getting ready to bloom and our fall beans are just now starting to come on strong, we find ourselves praying for an early, killing frost. And we wonder why God, when He was sending all those plagues on the Egyptians didn't include a few thousand acres of ragweed along with the locusts. I don't know about ole Pharaoh, but that's when I'd have thrown in the towel.

I have, however, found a partial solution to this seasonal plague that you might want to try. Get yourself some dust masks or painter masks or even some of those tissue jobs that doctors and dentists wear that cover your nose and mouth and still enable you to breathe. The best ones have a sturdy, plastic frame that holds a replaceable styrofoam filter. An elastic band around the back of your head holds the apparatus in place and you will be amazed at the difference it will make when you are working outside.

The paper filters aren't nearly as heavy and they are fine for indoors as long as you change them about once an hour. You can get the paper ones at most drug stores by the dozen or even by the gross for less than a nicker each. The heavy-duty, plastic masks are available at hardware stores and they usually come with a dozen filters, one of which will last all day.

In fact, you can wash the foam filters out a time or two before you have to discard them. The major problem with the plastic job however, is that they also hold heat. If the temperature is very high and you have to keep removing the filter to wipe sweat off your chin and upper lip, it's just a matter of time before you sneezing and hacking again. And, of course, if sweat gets on the paper ones, they soon fall apart and become their own sort of aggravation. But, the bottom line is that filters will make your life much more livable if you don't mind other folks staring at you when you're out in public.

I'm reminding you of this new medicine that hasn't been on the market very long called Claritin. You have to get a doctor to prescribe it and you'll probably have to ask for it specifically. It seems particularly effective for the ragweed family of plagues but it doesn't do much for goldenrod. On the other hand, goldenrod pollen, which is particularly troubling to me, is heavy and doesn't spread as widely as most other pollens. You have to walk or drive right by it to get the quasi-lethal dose.

It may be against the law to kill or mutilate the state flower, but you will be able to find some relief with a few gallons of RoundUp. I've eliminated goldenrod in my fence rows, along the road in front of my, around the barns and sheds and the mailbox and I already believe that my ten dollar investment in weed-killer is one of the best I've ever made.

And if you a legislator or state politician you can influence, send him or her a big bouquet of the Kentucky State flower and suggest they sniff it frequently. Maybe they'll introduce a bill that will get us back to trumpet vine (which was once the state flower) or burdock or cat tails or morning glories or anything less noxious than goldenrods. As I've said before, poison ivy is as common as goldenrod and makes at least as much sense for a state flower.

PRECIOUS SOULS, CHILDREN OF AN EVIL AGE, greetings and scintillations of love-busting weald of WabNet, CNN, and the WPA.

I almost didn't get today's column written. I've been busy around the clock helping Mert Stillus and a few other WabNetians do an Indian raffle. We succeeded in getting a little shower last night, but as soon as this mess is finished, I'll be right back at it with Mert and the guys. (Women are banned from doing the raffle dance. I think that's biblical. If it isn't, it ought to be.)

A mountain of mail covers my desk and begs reply. Because of the rain dance, I have time to respond to only one letter.

DEAR MR. MEADOWS: I was disappointed to hear about the failure of your plan to buy The Britannia. I wanted to buy some shares. You mentioned that you had another venture in mind that has to do with Jacob. I'd be interested to know some specifics. (J. P. Getty, Jr., Scarsdale, New York)

DEAR J. P.: Thanks for your inquiry. I do not have all the details at the present time. I can, however, give you a brief summation of what I have in mind.

As you know, Jacob, son of Isaac, son of Abraham, had to run for his life after he, with the help of his conniving mother, tricked his father into giving him the family blessing that rightfully belonged to his brother, Esau. (Jacob had earlier taken advantage of Esau and haggled the family birthright away from him.)

(Note: to any "heathens" reading this reply, I'm talking about a story in the biblical Book of Genesis.)

The first night away from home Jacob had a dream in which he saw angels ascending and descending from heaven on a ladder. When he awoke, Jacob realized the Almighty was with him, despite the wrongs he had done—Jacob had fallen asleep with his head on pillow-shaped rock. So, after the vision, he stood the rock upright, soaked it with anointing oil, blessed it, and called it "Beth-el," which means "house of God."

Jacob's story is a long one, so let me just say that the Almighty finally got the trickery out of Jacob and gave him

We were at Richmond last week so we decided to eat supper at Captain D's or that is John decided. He says they have the best fried fish anywhere. While we were eating, someone tapped me on the back and I turned to see Aslee Bray of Brodhead. She was a good friend to my late niece, Barbara Owens whose picture was in my column recently with a group of girl friends. Barbara was such a good friend to Aslee.

I turned around and there she was, all smiles as she said, "Well, I see you are back writing your column again. I'm sure glad. Now if you have any trouble with Rick Anderkin, be sure and let me know. I know how to quiet him."

"Oh, no, we are getting along just fine," I said, not having any idea what she had in mind. Did she suppose that I wouldn't do a thing to disturb him. Last week, I went to the office on some business and told him I was about to bring him some grape wine and asked would he like a small (very) bottle.

Mrs. Anderkin (Rick's mother) who had come in heard me and said, "Oh, no we don't have that around (Cont. to A3) her."

"But, I'm just offering a tiny sip of grape juice that soured. Could I bring a small extract bottle to Mr. Anderkin. He has been sick and doctors say a sip would help him," I asked Mrs. Anderkin.

When I put it that way, she agreed he could have a little. I want to warn her not to leave it in the office for if Spencer Berge or Raymond McClure should know of it, the tiny amount of wine would go in a hurry with their claiming to have an ailment that wine would help them a lot.

I asked Mrs. Anderkin if she'd ever seen a long neck gourd as I had some growing.

"Yes, and I've tried and tried to raise some but none have ever done anything," she said.

Then I'll bring you one when mine stop growing," I told her, "and you can have your own seeds."

My sister, Angie, would have been 95 years old on the 2nd of September and she would have been raising the roof for she hated to get old so bad. John was laughing at me last week over the fact that our anniversary picture said we had been married 46 years this month.

"How are you going to explain that," John laughed "when you say your age is 49?"

It is a smart woman that you can't catch up with and that is me.

"Oh, I'll just say I married young. I was a child bride. They do that in Kentucky you know," and I went out leaving John shaking his head. He hadn't caught me that time.

I sure enjoyed the newspaper picture of Henry Voltner, a long time good reader of mine, in Lowell Health Care Center in Indiana.

Imagine my surprise when our doorbell started ringing last week (our dog Spot barks hard when anyone tries to come in).

I came out on our front porch and saw a large van had pulled up in the drive.

I greeted Susan and greeted Mildred Holz who used to take care of Henry Voltner when he lived in a trailer next to her home in Indiana.

With her was a kinfolk, Mildred Zimmer, who now lives in the trailer and she, too, has trouble with her walking.

Mildred Holz seems to keep everybody and gets along well at the Care Home.

In talking to us of her childhood, Mildred made a funny remark I'll repeat for you.

She said, "We weren't poor at our house, we just didn't have any money."

These women had come down to Renfro Valley to see the shows and had seen and talked to, many of the performers, one being Susan Tomes who has a great friendship with Henry.

We made pictures and, with any luck, we'll have one in soon.

The women were on their way to see Rev. Samuel Corns in Waco in Madison County and he is some of their kinfolk.

They hope to visit Rockcastle next year and bring Henry down here too. He is in very good health and we hope it holds.

We went up Little Creek hollow and saw Hallie Alexander and Eugene. She had just had a birthday on September 28th and had been given a permanent by her women kinfolk. It looked great on her and guess who she said had given it to her? That's right, Tommy Singleton's cute wife that my husband says, "She's a pretty woman."

Clay Gabbard has a large tree in his yard and it is full of chestnuts. I'll go out and maybe Clay will give me some if I can pick them up.

Remember when there used to be plenty of Chestnut trees in Kentucky but a blight killed them some years ago, now they are beginning to come back. You sure had to be careful in gathering them for they would stick in the burr.

Cordy Jackey, who is a sister to Flossie Stephens, Mary Ann Williams and Neva Bullens is ill with cancer in a hospital in Louisville. He end seems to be drawing closer for the three sisters, with Mary Ann's husband, Al Williams, have been to Louisville twice in the last week to see her. Flossie said Cordy wanted to be brought back to Macedonia for her funeral since she had attended church there and she felt good in it.

The baptizing of Macedonia Church at Scaffold Cane went off very well. One half of the church was filled with our members and some visiting members.

Ronnie Owens united from Brassfield Church, near Waco, with our church at Macedonia Baptist and his whole family came to the Scaffold Cane Church to see him washed clean. His wife, Connie, united with him the same day he did and rededicated her life. His brother, Jerry, came along and Ronnie's boys did also.

It was a swell send-off that his family did to come and help Ronnie as he takes this new road to a better life.

Larry and Ina Abrams were at the baptizing Sunday. Have I got a surprise for him in a few days!

Stopping at the Holt Grocery near the Madison County line, we bought some lunch to eat Sunday before we went on out to the baptizing.

There we heard Blon, the owner, talking to Sam Taylor and Saundra about their visit to Fat Jack's Restaurant where you can get any kind of seafood that you want.

Sam said he ordered some gator tails and they were pretty good but one of the best.

I said to Sam's wife, "Don't let him start juggling around."

I have met a good friend in Judy Hudson who works at Comprehensive Care and she's real pretty. That helps a lot, too.

John has been gathering corn that he raised in our once garden, to make cornmeal for the coming season.

He always gives Cleve a sack of the white field corn so that Blanche can make cornbread for Cleve. But Cleve has to shuck and shell the corn. Cleve may be like a lazy man in the community who the neighbors decided to hang because he was so lazy.

They put the man in a wagon for he was too lazy to walk. One fellow said, "I'll give him a turn of corn if you don't hang him."

The lazy man sat up in the wagon and asked, "Is it shelled?"

"No, you'll have to shell it," was the reply.

The man said, "Drive on," and lay down in the wagon."

Till next week. It is easy to sit up and take notice. What is difficult is 'getting up' and taking action.

"Heresay"

a new name, "Israel" (which means "one who strives with God") and Jacob's twelve sons eventually became the twelve tribes of the nation Israel.

Hundreds of years later the nation of Israel split into two kingdoms: Israel, the northern kingdom (ten tribes), and Judah, the southern kingdom (two tribes). Thg. in 721 B.C., Israel was defeated by the empire of Assyria. They were carried away and dispersed throughout the Assyrian kingdom. In other words, they were never a "people" again. They are sometimes referred to as "the ten lost tribes of Israel."

Now, J. P., you know all that, but let me clue you in on what you might not know.

According to Hyram Huriburt's History of Peoples Who Lived a Long Time Ago, some Israelites climbed the Assyrians, fled to Europe, and eventually settled in what is now England. And - get this, J.P. - when they fled from the Assyrians, they carried with them Jacob's stone pillow because it meant so much to them as a people.

Well, centuries went by, and somehow the "pillow" disappeared. Many historians assume it was lost forever.

Nay, not so! It appeared again in this is such a wonderful story - in the Land of Camelot! Do you remember the story of how Arthur came to be the king of Camelot? Merlin, the wizard, showed the people that rock in the forest in which a sword was stuck. He declared that whoever pulled that sword from the stone would be the rightful king. Many tried and failed. But when young Arthur tried, the sword came out!

J. P., the sword was Excalibur, and the rock was Jacob's rock! So, all during the days of Arthur right up to the days of George, the Third, that rock lay beneath the throne of England's monarchs.

Here the story takes another turn. Several years after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock, the colonists of Virginia grew envious of Plymouth's rock and wanted one of their own. So, Huriburt avers and avouches, a band of Virginians went to London on the pretense of business and swiped the rock from beneath England's throne. (Thereafter, according to Huriburt, a mouse took up residence where the rock once lay - except when visitors frightened him away.)

Well, all England was furious, as furious as Esau had been, maybe more so. Troops were dispatched forthwith and forthright to bring the stone back to England. But the Virginians were not to be outdone. They loaded the rock in a wagon headed for the "Frontier" of Virginia, which would later be known as "kain-tuck."

Finally, J. P., I can tell you what's up. While I was in England on that Britannia business, I visited the Oxford Library and followed up on a footnote in Huriburt's History. And, to shorten this explanation, just let me say that my sources lead me to believe that Jacob's pillow was buried for safe-keeping somewhere along the Daniel Boone trail, and specifically, somewhere between Lammers and Wildie, right here in my own county.

And J. P., I have reason to believe that Jacob's pillow, rounded like a pillow, accounts for the name, Roundstone Creek and that famous rock remains buried somewhere near that creek.

What I want to do is begin an archaeological expedition in the Wildie area and find that stone. Once it is found, I and my backers will build a cathedral about the rock. Such a venture is bound to issue in bushels of bucks from tourists from all over the world.

There you have the basics, J. P. Call me if you're interested. I'll about two million to get started, buying rights of way, permissions to dig, ticket taxes on prospective incomes; et cetera, et al. and et tumuch.

In fairness, however, I must say, J. P., that one writing I came across at Oxford seems to put the locale of that stone - smack-dab - under the Campbellite church in Wildie. If that is the case, we're done for. If the only way they'd let you and me in is for us to renounce our Baptist heritage and pledge allegiance to theirs. As I think about it, however, in the interest of history I might cross over. NOT!

Wallin Reunion

After many months of planning, we were fortunate to have good weather, with a hazing sky and a delightful breeze, for the first Wallin Family Reunion held Saturday, August 26 at the Ottawa Baptist Church of Broghead.

As many as 115 were in attendance with 85 or more being descendants of Jesse Walling (1812-1880) and David Walling (1844-1892). Descendants in attendance represented the families of Robert "Rob" Wallin (1868-1937), James "Jim" Wallin (1870-1940) and Jesse James Wallin (1875-1941), who are sons of David Walling.

Reverend Tim Smother, pastor of Ottawa Baptist Church, attended the event and gave the invocation. Additionally, the reunion presented a $200 donation to Rev. Smothers for the Ottawa Cemetery Fund.

Special recognition was given to the eldest family member, the youngest grandmother and grandfather, youngest male and female, person who traveled the furthest and to the boldest man.

Mrs. Della Webb-Scoggin of Broghead, Carl Francis Wallin of Georgetown and Mrs. Loreta Bernice Wallin-Sanders, of Crab Orchard, were recognized as the eldest of the three family generation groups in attendance. Each was given a plaque, bearing the Wallin Family coat-of-arms and a booklet written by Glenn Wallin, containing brief information of the Wallin family heritage.

After the presentation and a good picnic lunch, everyone rejoiced in the fellowship of meeting many new cousins, relatives, viewing many old and new family photos, exchanging stories and a walk through the Ottawa Cemetery.

McKinney Dinner

Dave and I would like to say thanks to everyone that came to our get-together.

I would like to say a special thanks to Roger Bullock for bringing us the wagon. Thanks to C.S. and Marie McKinney for setting the table for us and to everyone for the good food and fellowship.

God blessed us with beautiful weather, so we thank Him for that. Those that didn't come, you were very much missed.

If I have left anyone out, please forgive me, it was not intentional. Hope to see you next year.

Those attending the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Hall, Burt and Della Hicks, Gary Lee Hall, all of Hamilton, Ohio; Vincent and Barbara James, Billie and Jimmy of Ross, Ohio; Bobby Dale McKinney; Timmy McKinney and Jason, Kristen and Danielle Marks and Bob and Ruby, all of Cincinnati, Ohio;

Audie Wayne McKinney and friend, Sharon and Jack and Lillie McKinney, all of Reading, Ohio; David and Carla McKinney Perkins of Brownsburg, Ind.; Jerry and Angie Taylor, Tony Amber and Holly; Jerry Perkins and daughter, Carolee and Tony and Amy Howell, all of Crawfordsville, Ind.; Estel McKinney of Wilmot, Ohio; Roger and Ronnie McKinney; Roger McKinney, Jr. and Krystal and Paul McKinney, all of Gainesville, Texas;

Graduates

Holly J. Childress, a May, 1995 graduate of Eastern Kentucky University College of Allied Health and Nursing, successfully passed the national council licensure examination for registered nurses. Holly is currently employed at the Rockcastle Co. Home Health Care Agency in Mt. Vernon. She is the wife of Steve Childress and the daughter of Siella and Jr. Hopkins.

Rock rolls over Hawks 60-6

By: Richard Anderkin
By the end of the first quarter most Rocket starters had found the bench and by the end of the game every Rocket player had found the field.

The Rockets set another school record Friday night in their home opener, as they walked on Pike County Central 60-6. Two weeks earlier the record was set when the Rockets beat Prestonsburg 56-7.

In unusual fashion for the Rockets, they threw the football seven times completing all seven, three of which were for touchdowns, to capture the third annual Renfro Valley Jamboree Bowl crown.

Senior quarterback Jamie Linville was chosen offensive player of the game because of his seven for seven performance, which was good for 149 yards of Rocket offense.

The Rockets took little time in setting the pace for the blow-out, taking the opening kick-off and marching down the field for the first score when junior Jon Cromer scored from the seven yard line. The first drive took only three minutes and, before the clock ran out in the first quarter, the Rockets had already up 28 points and the starters were on the bench, for a well deserved rest.

"You need one of these (a weak team) every now and then," said head assistant coach Tony Saylor.

"We were able to get our starters some work to keep them in their routine, but we were also able to get them off the field without anyone getting injured," Saylor said.

The Rockets second score came on a 46 yard strike from Linville to wide out Jason Childress, who was streaking down the left sideline when Linville's pass landed perfectly in his hands.

Fullback Neil Sparks scored the third touchdown of the first quarter when he rambled in from the nine yard line and senior Jarrod Singleton finished the scoring for the Rockets in the first quarter when he caught a ten yard Linville pass.

Childress scored on a 25 yard pass from Linville at the start of the second quarter and sophomore Chris Bishop broke two tackles on his way to a 24 scoring run just before the half to make the half-time score 41-0.

Sophomore Dusty McClure who carried the ball 13 times in the blow-out scored on an eight yard run in the third quarter for the Rockets only score in that period.

In the fourth quarter two Rocket freshmen, Brooks Ingram and Josh Hendrickson found pay dirt, when they scored on a two yard run and a four yard run respectively.

Hendrickson's score ended the misery for Pike County Central, which is in only its third year of varsity football.

Because of his 13 carries, McClure led the Rockets with 68 yards on the ground. Brooks Ingram had 40 yards on 13 carries and Josh Hendrickson had 39 yards on just five carries, and Chris Bishop averaged 15 yards a carry, gaining 30 yards on two rushes.

Jon Cromer had 33 yards on three carries and Neil Sparks carried the ball once for nine yards and a touchdown. Anthony King, touched the football once and picked up 15 yards.

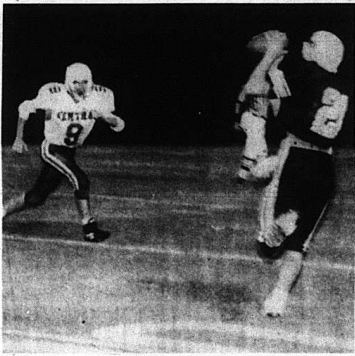

Senior Jason Childress had 93 yards on three catches and scored two touchdowns, while Jarrod Singleton caught one pass, good for ten yards and a touchdown. Chris Bul-

Melinda Alcorn Jamboree Queen

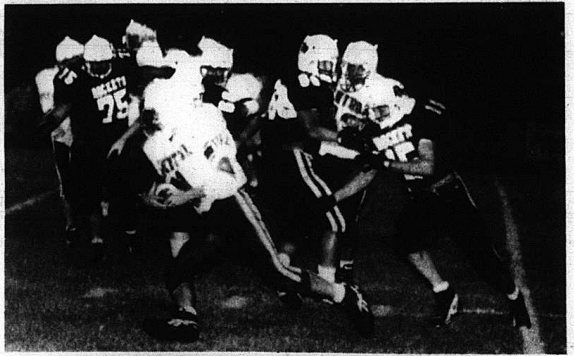

Candidates for the 1995 Jamboree Bowl Queen title were from left: Adrienne C. Sargent, Angela D. Morris, Deanna Stallsworth, Melinda Alcorn, queen, Jama Cornelius, Jamica Cummins, and Catherine Lamb. Each senior girl was a candidate selected from their hometown.

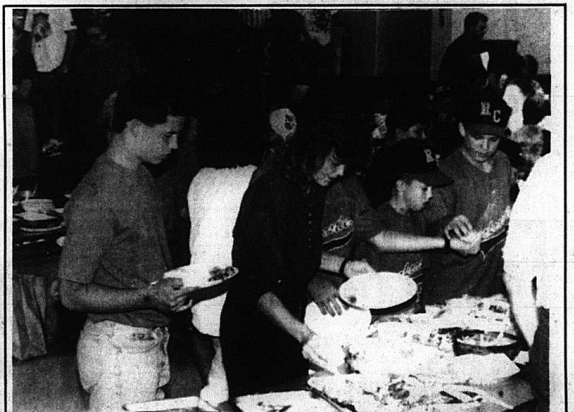

Senior Chris Bullock, left, had two receptions for 29 yards in Rockcastle's 60-6 blowout of Pike County Central Friday night.

At right, Jason Weaver, Adam Browning and J.B. King pursue a Pike County Hawk during Friday night's action.

Below, Jamboree Defensive Player of the game, Dallas Rigby.

About 250 players, coaches and parents turned out for the annual Rockcastle County Little League Picnic and Awards Ceremony Sunday at the Rockcastle County Middle School. Howard Saylor led the balloting for the fifteen Rockcastle County board members for 1995-96. Other members of the board are: Cindy Anderkin, George Bishop, Bobby Boreing, James "Bear" Bradley, Richard Bray, Ronnie Brown, Burley Burkhardt, Jim Bussell, Debbie Cash, John Hale, Glen Roberts, Jimmy Sandusky, Howard Saylor, Johnny Boone Saylor and Coy Taylor. At right, Keith Smith and Darrell Neeley county votes for the board elections.

Life Lines Submitted by Cecilia Renner, RTLRC

Abortion, the murder of a preborn child, is the number one killer in the United States (cardio-vascular diseases second). In the United States, it is confirmed that the most dangerous place for anyone to be, with regard to the preservation of one's life, is in the mother's womb.

Abortion is a major business in the United States; there are over 5,500 abortuaries (abortion clinics) in the nation. Fortune magazine estimates that their take is more than half a billion dollars a year. That does not include revenue from the sale of aborted babies bodies. Planned Parenthood receives about $33 million a year from Title X Appropriations, a program originally intended to provide "preventive family planning services" and it receives millions from Title V, XIX, XX and other TAX-SUPPORTED programs. Its 50 chapters, 200 affiliates and 800 clinics perform more than 800,000 abortions annually.

The advocates of the right to abortion-on-demand insist it is a woman's right to terminate an unwanted pregnancy. It is part of her freedom of choice, part of her own body. Pro-choice advocates urge the termination of pregnancies as a way to ease economic poverty, remedy sexual promiscuity and build a "planned" and "perfect" society. Pro-abortionist claim that the preborn baby is simply "fetal tissue" and not a living entity until delivery. They argue that having an abortion is no different than having a tooth pulled or getting a hair cut.

Pro-life advocates know that the pre-born baby is a living human being, created by God. Psalms 139 verses 14-16 tells us: "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvelous are they works; and that my soul knoweth right well. My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of earth. Thine eyes did not see my substance, yet being unperfected; and in thy book all my members were written, when as yet there was none of them."

It is the Lord God, not the "planners" and "social engineers, who writes the span and sets the stretch of life for each of His creations. We are instruments of His power and providence through His gift of procreation, evidence of His incredible love. The astounding structure of the body - that the abortionist slashes apart with a scalpel or rips with a suction pump, or burns with saline solution - that body is the product of His omniscience and omnipotence and grace.

Walk for Life

September 23rd at 9 a.m., in front of the Rockcastle County Courthouse, Right To Life will hold their second annual WALK FOR LIFE. Registration will begin at 9 a.m. so that we will be able to start the walk promptly at 10 a.m. Everyone must sign in and turn in waiver.

The walk will begin and end at the Courthouse. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be available at this location. Each person with a pledge of $10 or more will receive a T-shirt, sport cap, baby feet pin or bumper sticker. Prizes will be given away for the largest group number, the individual bringing in the most pledges and the family with most numbers of walkers.

You may call 256-4034 to obtain a sponsor sheet or you may keep a list of sponsors and fill the sponsor sheet with the names the day of the walk. We will walk, rain or shine.

This is a great way to show our community that we care about the preborn and to take a stand against the murder of innocent little lives. Thanks to all those who sponsor the walkers, without you this WALK FOR LIFE would not be possible.

Library News

The Adult Reading Group will begin its third year on Monday, September 18 at 10:30 a.m. at the Rockcastle County Library.

Dr. K. Maynard Head, pastor of First Baptist Church, will be here to help the group begin the new year. He will discuss his first book, Brigams, Clothespins and a Twist of Tobacco. We are all excited about this special session!

The Adult Reading Group began three years ago with nine women of different ages and varied interests who shared the love of reading. They meet for an hour or so once a month (usually the 4th Monday, but this first meeting is an exception). This is an informal group and they have had some interesting, stimulating, challenging and humorous discussions on different kinds of books.

I believe you will enjoy this group and we invite you to give us a try at this special meeting. There's no obligation to continue. There's no obligation to join! Membership is free and open to the public - male or female.

If you have a book you want them to read as a group, please bring the title and author with you and they will try to work this into their schedule.

The Children's Story Hour will be changed from Tuesday to Wednesday September 20. We hope this will not inconvenience anyone. This change is due to some of the staff taking a class at London and I will have to be at a hospital in Lexington with my husband who is having surgery. We will resume the regular day Tuesday, Sept. 26th.

I would like for those people who are interested in a craft class, to let me know what days are most convenient for them to meet. We have some interesting new crafts to make this fall and winter. We would also like some suggestions for different crafts, so bring in your ideas and we will set some dates for the class.

I have received a new shipment of Avalon books. A lot of the young adults like these. They have adult themes but are on an easier level than some of the adult fiction. Some are romance, some westerns and some mystery.

Someone new adult fiction books are:

A Place Called Freedom by Ken Follet. Mr. Follet's new novel recaptures a forgotten moment in America's history, it begins in the infernal coal mines of the Jamieson family, in the Scottish highlands, where twenty-one-year-old Mackie McAsh spends most of his waking hours. Bound to his employer for life, and threatened always by Firedamp, the explosive gas that may ignite at any moment and bury him, Mackie battles his desire to escape.

He finds an unlikely ally in Lizzie Hallin, the beautiful, willful young aristocratic woman who yearns to get away from her own kind of hell.

A story of adventure and passion. For those who have been waiting for Sue Grafon's new book, "I" for Lawless, it is here. Call it Kinsey Milhone in bad company. Call it a mystery without a murder, a treasure hunt without a map, a quest novel with truly mixed-up motives. Call it the return of Kinsey as a bad girl - quick-witted and quicksilver, smart mouthed and smartalecky - poking her nose into everyone's dirty laundry as she joins up with a modern-day Bonnie and Clyde in an Our Gang comedy that will take her halfway across the country and leave her with a major headache and an empty bank balance.

America's favorite borderline delinquent is back with her one-liners on tap and her energy level on high, romping through her fastest and funniest adventure in this, her twelfth foray into the alphabet of crime.

Another favorite author, Janet Dailey, has a new novel, Legacies... Now, as in her acclaimed Calder family series, she creates a new dynasty - The Stuart and Gordon families - telling their story in a grand, sweeping novel colored by history and emotions. In this breathtaking work set against the explosive backdrop of the Civil War, a part-Cherokee man and a Union officer's daughter find themselves drawn together by a desire as wild as the hot summer winds... and torn apart by a heritage of passion, feuds and unbending pride. Readers will be entranced by this glorious love story of a man and a woman divided by loyalties but struggling to find each other in a time of turmoil and upheaval. Legacies is Janet Dailey at her finest.

Bullock named chairman

Edd Hatchett, candidate for state auditor, has announced the selection of Charles Wayne Bullock of Mt. Vernon as chairman of his campaign in Rockcastle County.

Cotton coaching

Curtis Cotton has joined the football coaching staff at Henry Clay High School in Lexington. He is attending the University of Kentucky. A former Rocket football player, Cotton's future plans are to be a college professor and coach. He is the son of Darlene Cotton of Mt. Vernon and John Cotton of Cincinnati, Ohio.

and John Hammond caught one pass good for 17 yards, junior Raymond Blackburn kicked six extra points. Quarterback Jamie Linville was named Jamboree Bowl offensive player of the game.

The Rockets were led on defense by Junior Dennis Miller who had seven tackles.

The 5'8" 170 lb. linebacker saw a lot of playing time as did a lot of underclassmen because of the blow-out, and turned in an excellent performance.

Dallas Rigbsy, who was named Jamboree defensive player of the game had four tackles all in the first quarter. Neil Sparks also had 4 tackles in the first quarter.

Sophomore Chris Bishop had 6 tackles and junior Jimmy Kidwell had 3 tackles and one fumble recovery.

Adam Browning, Malcolm Shepherd, David Coffey and Anthony King each had three tackles, while Jason Childress, Ronnie Vanzant, John LaFavers, and Mike Muncy each had two tackles. Jason Weaver, Stevie Owens, Jason Dillingham, Chris Cromer, Dusty McClure, Jason McFerron, Daniel Forbes, Josh Martin, Brooks Ingram and Sonny Parker each had one tackle. Parker also had a fumble recovery.

Stats from Southwestern game

Rigbsy led the Rockets in rushing with 76 yards on six carries, while Jarrod Singleton had 57 yards on seven carries.

Jon Cromer carried the ball 17 times for 51 yards and Neil Sparks had five yards on two carries.

Dusty McClure had seven yards on five carries.

Quarterback Jamie Linville completed four of six passes for 47 yards with no interceptions and one touchdown pass.

Jason Childress caught two passes for twenty-two yards and a touchdown and Chris Bullock caught one pass for eight yards.

Rigbsy caught one pass for 17 yards.

Cromer and Rigbsy each rushed for a touchdown and Adam Browning picked up a Southwestern fumble and ran for 38 yards for the touchdown.

Raymond Blackburn kicked three extra points.

The Rocket defense sacked Southwestern ten times, recovered two fumbles and picked off one errant Southwestern pass on their way to the 29-0 shut-out.

The Rockets were led on defense by seniors Eddie Todd and Neil Sparks who had six tackles each, with Todd picking up 2 sacks. Slade Calhoun had two sacks and five tackles, while Adam Browning had four tackles, two sacks and a fumble recovery. David Coffey had three tackles and a fumble recovery and Stevie Owens had four tackles including one sack.

J.B. King also turned in a five tackle night, while Jason Childress had four tackles. Jason Weaver and Jarrod Singleton had two tackles each and Dallas Rigbsy, Anthony King, Andrew Carrera, Dusty McClure and Mike Muncy each had one tackle.

Junior Ronnie Vanzant picked off a Warrior pass.

Saddle Club News

Club members enjoyed a super week ending with Bobby Taylor's wagon ride, at his farm Friday evening. The weather could not have been nicer. Fourteen wagons and nearly thirty horseback riders enjoyed a tour of the Bee Lick area with some great fried chicken served after the ride. Also on hand to greet the group was wagon master Hester Tye. A number of the wagon riders stayed over at Bobby's and went on to enjoy the festivities at the Woodstock Old Fashion Day Saturday. Over 40 riders gathered at Jim and Jan Combs new farm in the Sand Springs area Sunday afternoon for an enjoyable trail ride and tasty dinner.

Riders are looking forward to the remaining rides for the month. Sat., Sept. 16, Jr. Mullins and Bobby Ball will host a wagon ride at Jr. Mullins' farm on Scaffold Cone Road, 9:30 a.m., B.O.L. Gene, Rosalind and Jason Phibbey will host tractor's ride at their farm Sun., Sept. 17 at 2 p.m. On Sat., Sept. 23, Ray Phibbey will have a wagon ride at Paul Gentry's farm Sat., Sept. 30, beginning at 9:30 a.m. and, on Oct. 1st, Roger Bullock will be a director's ride at Buffalo, beginning at 2 p.m.

It is with much pleasure that our club, in conjunction with the Kentucky Horse Council, announces plans to host a Horse Camp Benefit Ride October 14th and 15th at the Stearns Ranch District at Barren Forks. Monies raised will go toward the completion of this beautiful facility. The all-day ride begins at 9:30 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. A half-day ride starts at 10 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. Water for horses is available as well as toilets, bring your own portable water. Supply your own food or eat at the local restaurants in Whitley City. Coggins papers are required. Camp sites are graveled, level and big enough to set up rigs. Cost: $15 a person. A drawing will be held during the week end for a new Sundowner Two Horse Trailer, to be given to some lucky person!

For more information, contact: Darlene Henley, 606-346-3951; Greg Jones, 606-498-4337; Gene Phibbey, 606-758-4706; Bobby Durham, 606-792-2279; Eddie Abney, 606-546-3405.

Please come out and enjoy this lovely facility and the wonderful trails that have been established since this camp was built last year.

The Kentucky Horse Council is helping to make permanent facilities for horseback riding throughout the state. It is through the efforts of all of us that these camps will grow and improve.

Forest fires aplenty as dry weather stays

With nearly three weeks left before the fall fire season begins, there have already been 42 fires which burned 478 acres since Aug. 21, according to the National Division of Forestry.

In Rockcastle, there was an unreported report that there had been 14 forest or other woodland fires since Aug. 21. The dry season got less dry this week as .45 of an inch of rain fell at Cox Funeral Home in Mt. Vernon on Tuesday with .03 Wednesday morning early.

A total of 91 of an inch of rain has fallen since Sept. 1 made up of rain-falls of .36, .07, .45 and .03. "The high date in September has been 88 on Sept. 5 and the low was 50 on Sept. 3.

But, be careful of forest or woodland fires, according to the Forestry Service. The dry conditions have also caused early leaf fall which increases the possibility of fires. The fire season runs from Oct. 1 to Dec. 15.

Starters got a lot of rest during the Rockets game against Pike Co. Central Friday night in the Jamboree Bowl. In the above photo, seniors Chris Bullock, Jason Brown and J.B. King got to watch the action from the sidelines for a change in the 60-6 win by the Rockets. The Rockets travel to Garrard Co. this Friday night for what may be their toughest encounter thus far this season. Garrard Co. is a I-A school but have proven their prowess on the football field this year with wins over Beechwood and 4-A power Shelby Co.

Game at Garrard Co. begins at 7:30 p.m.; arrive early as seating is scarce

For Rockcastle fans, coaches and players the real football season starts this Friday night at Lancaster.

Rockcastle will face one of their toughest opponents of the season, a team that is 3 and 0 with wins over Class A powerhouse Beechwood and Class 4-A Shelby County.

Garrard County has established themselves as one of the top Class A programs in the state and this year's squad may be their best ever.

In their opening game of the season against Beechwood in the Constitution Bowl at Danville, the Golden Lions knocked off four time state champ Beechwood, 22-20 and Friday night they traveled to Shelbyville where they defeated 4A power Shelby County 21-13.

"This team is for real, they are certainly one of the best, if not the best team we will play all season

Rocket JV team wins again, 14-6

The Rocket junior varsity behind the running of junior Anthony King, defeated Whitley County 14-6 Monday night at home.

King scored on runs of seven and 25 as the junior varsity upped their record to 2 and 0. Their first victory came against Lexington Catholic on Labor Day in Lexington, 17-0.

In the past six seasons the junior varsity has a record of 56 and 3. They are coached by Jerry Pensol and Chris Comelius.

The JVs will take the field again Monday night when they host Pulaski Southwestern at home.

long," said Rocket head coach Tom Larkey.

It will take an extraordinary effort on our team's part to come away with a victory Friday night," the coach said.

Lions Stop Shelby

A big offensive play, early in the game and a key defensive stand late in the contest, were key factors as Garrard County downed Shelby County 21-13 Friday to remain undefeated.

The Golden Lions, a team that does not put the ball in the air often, surprised Shelby on their first offensive play of the game when quarterback Nick Sullivan connected with tight end Gordon Crowe for an 80-yard touchdown play.

"Crowe was wide open since Shelby was not expecting a pass and sent everybody to stop the run," said Garrard coach Jerry Perry. "He outran two defenders and scored about six minutes into the game."

The defensive stand that preserved the win for the Lions (3-0) came with 3:40 left in the game. The Rockets (1-2) drove from their own 35-yard line to the Garrard 2 and had a first down.

On third down, from the one-foot line, Shelby quarterback Mike Brooks pitched the ball behind his tailback. The loose ball was recovered by the Lions' Wayne Kiser.

"That was a great defensive stand on our part," Perry said. "We actually didn't play all that well in the game. Our team was flat from the beginning and never really got into the game."

After scoring the quick early touchdown, Garrard was unable to accomplish a lot the rest of the first half. Greg Shouse scored for Shelby if you are planning to attend Friday night's game in Lancaster, game time is 7:30 p.m. not 8:00 and you should go early. The Lions have as many or more fans than the Rock and seats will be scarce.

In the second quarter on an 11-yard run, Kevin Gross' extra point kicked the score at 7-7. Travis May boosted the extra point following Garrard's first touchdown.

The Lions came back to play better in the third period while scoring touchdowns on the first two offensive series. Sullivan capped a 70-yard drive with a 41-yard run before Wayne Kiser scored from five yards out. Sullivan passed to Crowe for the two-point conversion following the second tally.

"We came out and did a good job as the second half opened," Perry said. "We appeared to have the game in good shape with the 21-7 third-quarter lead. But, we seemed to tighten up after Shelby scored with 11:25 to play to make the score 21-13."

Garrard rushed for 183 yards. Sullivan completed both passes he threw to Crowe for 91 yards.

Shelby rushed 37 times for 179 yards and completed five of 16 passes for 57 yards. Shelby was credited with 13 first downs while Garrard had seven.

Sullivan was Garrard's leading ground gainer with 71 yards on 10 attempts. Aaron Ball had 60 yards on seven rushes and also intercepted two passes.

Thank You

I would like to express my appreciation to Renfro Valley Entertainment Center for sponsoring the 6th annual Jamboree Bowl. Special thanks to Connie Hunt at Renfro Valley for doing a fantastic job in organizing this event.

Congratulations to the team on your fine victory and also to Jamie Laville, MVP offensive player, Dallas Rigby, MVP defensive player and to Melinda Alcom, Jamboree Bowl Queen.

said his wife was dead and he didn't care if Billy shot him, Billy didn't have any choice," she said.

Begley's girlfriend also said that Lonnie continued to go after Begley even after he had been shot once.

Triplet, who testified before the Grand Jury on Friday said that she and Begley stopped in Mt. Vernon after the shooting and told some local people what had happened and continued on because they were very scared.

"As soon as we found out that he was dead we turned ourselves into authorities because we wanted to straighten everything out," she said. Begley is scheduled to be arraigned in Rockcastle Circuit Court on October 13.

Edward Earl Sturgill, 26 of Livingston was indicted on three counts in connection with an August 30th shooting on I-75.

Sturgill is accused of shooting Chris Kirkpatrick and Charles Lovell with a rifle. He is also charged with wanton endangerment in the first degree for apparently shooting at Donna Johnson in the same altercation, which apparently took place while Sturgill was chasing the three down I-75. He is currently in jail awaiting his arraignment Oct. 13.

A Conway man was also indicted on two counts of assault for allegedly beating his grandparents with a walking cane on July 8.

Mark E. Mathis has been held in the Rockcastle County Jail since the incident, which according to police, hospitalized his grandfather, Robert L. Banks. His grandmother Elsie Banks was not hospitalized.

Mathis, who is being held on a $10,000 cash bond will be arraigned Sept. 22.

School Board Note

The Rockcastle County School Board will meet in special session Thursday, September 14 at 6:00 p.m. The purpose of the meeting will be to have a board team planning meeting and approve the budget for the 1996 school year.
