CAN TAB PROJECT

By: Hazel Jackson
County Extension Agent
For Home Economics

For the last 2 years Rockcastle County Extension Homemakers have sponsored a Can Tab Project. Last year, 629 pounds of tabs were collected and given to the Indian Summer Camp, a camp for children with cancer and leukemia. All tabs collected are recycled and put into scholarships for children to attend the camp. The camp only collects tabs due to storage space that would be needed for entire cans and because many other groups and individuals recycle the cans. If you have been collecting tabs for this project, your tabs need to be brought to the Extension Office by January 19. Rockcastle County has already turned in 210 pounds to Indian Summer Camp volunteers this year. The remainder of tabs need to be taken to the volunteers soon so that they can be recycled for this summer's camp.

This is an ongoing project sponsored by the Extension Homemakers, so if you aren't already saving tabs, we encourage you to start. Saving the tabs takes little time and energy and is a good way to help get your children involved in helping others. For more information on this project, contact the Extension Office at 256-2403.

NUTRITION EDUCATION PROGRAM HELPS KENTUCKY FAMILIES IN POVERTY

Families in poverty in 52 Kentucky counties are improving their diets and using their resources more efficiently as a result of the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program. EFNEP focuses on families with young children because research indicates that children don't reach their full potential if they are malnourished up to 3 or 4 years old. Last year, EFNEP Assistants Judy Hudson and Brenda Saylor worked with 170 families in Rockcastle County. They visit homes to work with families, teach group classes in communities, and work with children through schools, 4-H clubs and summer camps. EFNEP Assistants give basic lessons on dietary guidelines, primary nutrients in food groups, meal planning, grocery shopping and stretching the food dollar, sanitation, and food storage. Other lessons deal with weight control, gardening, food preservation, nutrition during pregnancy, infant and young children nutrition, special diets, snacks and budgeting. Most EFNEP families graduate after one to one and a half years in the program. The U.S. Congress mandated EFNEP in 1968 to teach nutrition education and basic food skills to families with limited resources. In Kentucky, the program is funded entirely by the federal government. More than 200,000 families have received nutrition education information since EFNEP began in Kentucky in 1969. More than 625,000 additional families were given nutritional information through other agencies and programs that cooperate with be extremely busy making changes in the library. We are so pleased to get more room for expansion. This will help us to give all our patrons more and better services, especially to the students in the county.

We currently do not have any quiet study tables for them to do research and homework. Also, to increase the TV for home courses, I would like to see more people take advantage of this service.

We hope in the near future to have computers available for the public to use. One of the goals of this mock library day is to alert the legislators to the need of more technology in the public libraries. They will be asked to put one million dollars in the governor's budget to assist public libraries with technology grants.

The library board of trustees may be asking for volunteers to assist us when the moving of shelves and furniture is to be done. We would appreciate any help for we have a lot to be done and when we start with the renovation we want to finish as soon as possible.

There is a new book by Danielle Steel ready to be checked out.

Five Days in Paris... As president of a major pharmaceutical empire, Peter Haskell has everything: power, position, a career and a family that means everything to him and for which he has sacrificed a great deal. Compromise has been key in Peter Haskell's life, and integrity is the base on which he lives.

Olivia Thatcher is the wife of a famous senator. She had given to her husband's ambitions and career until her soul is bone-dry. She is trapped in a web of duty and obligation, married to a man she once loved and no longer even knows. When her son died, a piece of Olivia died too.

Accidentally on the night of a bomb threat, they meet in Paris, at the Ritz. They totally different lives converge for one magical moment in the Place Vendome, as Olivia carefully, steps out of her life and walks away. As the two strangers meet, their lives become briefly entwined.

Five Days in Paris is a novel about honor and commitment, love and integrity. It is about finding hope again.

Two new non-fiction books are: Burpee's Complete Gardener and The Comforts of Country. Whether starting your garden from scratch, redesigning a lackluster border, or planning a kitchen garden, Burpee's Complete Gardener can answer your every question.

Packed with solid information from start to finish, this book leaves no stone unturned, covering basics such as pruning, propagation, staking, division, and harvesting in comprehensive fashion.

It may seem out of season now to be thinking about gardening but I enjoy looking at books of this type when it's cold and making plans for my spring garden and all too soon spring will be here.

The Comforts of Country is brought to you by Country Home Books, America's foremost authority on country style, this book reveals the pleasures of American country through chapters on every room in the house. In sections on living area, dining rooms, bedrooms, baths, and kitchens, the comforts of country appear in all details, large and small, from the background color of a wall to the accessories that accent a corner table or a kitchen counter.

For the preschool children, we have some more of the easy books and cassettes. One is Barney's Wonderful Winter Day and another is Farm Animals. Children love animals and learning the sounds that animals make. This delightful audiocassette will encourage children to learn the sounds of farm animals while they sing ten different songs.

Come in and visit your public library and let us help you with all your reading needs, whether it's information that you need or a good book to read for pleasure.

Volunteers needed to help Red Cross get ready for winter storms

Winter is arriving very early this year and the local branch of the American Red Cross is stockpiling supplies and getting ready in case our community has some heavy snows, rains, floods or other disasters.

The Blizzard of '93 was a learning experience for everyone that was involved in taking care of the 850 people who were in the shelter at the high school. Many people volunteered their services and it is now time for us to think about the possibility of having to set up shelters this winter.

Many people do not realize how many people are needed to man a Red Cross shelter. It is necessary to be able, if possible, to work an 8 hour shift so the staff doesn't have "burn-out" symptoms. It is very easy to try to keep going more hours because of the desire to help others in their time of need. In order to comply with the guidelines issued by American Red Cross, the following numbers of people are needed for operating a shelter on a 24-hour basis.

	200 Victims	500 Victims	1,000 Victims
Mgr. & Assts.	3	3	3
Clerks/Recorders	1	1	2
Messengers/Communications	2	2	4
Security & Safety	2	2	5
Trans. Coordinator	1	2	1
Nurses (Red Cross)	3	4	5
Doctor (on call)	1	1	2
Ancillary (First Aid)	4	8	15
Clerical (nursing asst)	1	2	4
Cook	1	3	4
Cook Assist.	3	4	8
Kitchen Helpers	4	12	24
Servers	3	3	6
Bldg. Maint. Super	1	1	1
Janitors	2	2	2
Reception/Registrar	3	4	6
Dormitory Supervisor	1	2	3
Interviewers (assistance)	5	11	21
Records/Reports	1	2	4
Supply/Storekeeper	1	1	2
Recreation (babysitters)	3	4	9
Totals	46	73	131

In most instances 85 percent of the work should be done by shelter residents. This is for each 8 hour shift.

If you would like to be a part of the American Red Cross team, please contact the Rockcastle County branch office at 105 E. Main St., Mt. Vernon or call 606-256-9844/256-9599 and we will be glad to add you to our roster of volunteers. Training will be provided for those positions requiring special knowledge of Red Cross guidelines, regulations and procedures.

We appreciate the help of everyone who has helped us out during the winter of 1993-94.

Lady Rockets defeat Mercer

The Lady Rockets hosted 12 region power Mercer Co. last Thursday night and came from behind in the second half to defeat the Scotties 49-41.

The Rockets started slow, with Suzy Carpenter coming off the bench to score all six of the team's first quarter points for a 11-6 deficit for the Rockets at the first quarter stop. And, in the second quarter, the Rockets managed only one field goal but much improved shooting from the free throw line helped their scoring and it was a 22-14 lead for Mercer at the half.

However, in the third quarter, the Rockets opened with a 14-2 run to take their first lead of the night and at the third quarter stop the Rockets were ahead 33-30.

Good free throw shooting and an aggressive defense, the Lady Rockets outscored the Scotties 16-11 in the fourth period for the final 49-41 score.

After the game, Coach Christy Noble praised her team's defensive effort and foul shooting, 23 for 31.

Suzy Carpenter led all scorers with 17 points; Jessical Albright added 12; Amy Robinson got 8; Kristi Moore 5; Ginger Mink 4 and Dee Reams, 3.

Monday night, Coach Noble took her Lady Rockets on the road, traveling to Richmond to take on Madison Central who is led by UK signee Robyn Embry.

Using their new found confidence, the Lady Rockets led most of the game by costly turnovers toward the end gave Madison Central the 45-42 win.

The Rockets used a balanced offensive attack and key defensive plays to take an early lead which they would hold until just under three minutes to go in the game when a steal by Embry and a lay-up gave the Lady Indians a 43-42 lead with 2:32 left in the game. Embry had 22 points and 14 rebounds in the game.

Madison Central (3-2) fueled its comeback from nine-point third quarter deficit by forcing seven turnovers and then outscoring the Rockets 16-6 in the final period.

"This was our best effort of the season," Coach Noble said after the game. "I am very proud of our girls and how hard they played, especially in the end when they could have given up."

Carpenter again led the Rockets scoring with 10; Jessical Albright added 9; Melinda Alcorn 8; Kristi Moore 5; Ginger Mink and Amy Robinson, 4 each and Dee Reams 2.

The Lady Rockets are now 2-3 on the season and will host Barbourville Thursday night and Jackson County next Monday night.

Larkey chosen coach of the year in district; six players named to team

The Class AA Region 3 District 2 committee recently made their selections for the All-District team and for Coach of the Year honors - Rockcastle fared well to say the least.

Rocket head coach Tom Larkey was named Coach of the Year and six Rockets were selected for All-District honors.

Senior Jason Childress, Jamie Laville, Dallas Rigby, Eddie Todd and Jason Weaver and junior tailback Jon Cromer were all named All-District.

The Rockets had the most players selected for the team followed by Essil Co. with five; Madison Southern, 4; Corbin 3 and Somerset and Wayne Co., 2 each.

Lady Jayvees beat Mercer; lose to Madison Central Taking an early 16-2 lead, the Lady Rockets jayvee team coasted to a 38-20 victory over the Mercer Co. Scotties last Thursday night.

Nikki Bullock led the scoring with 10 points; Tiffany McClure added 9; Amber Coffey had 5; Suzanne Brown and Amanda Osborne, 4 each and Jessical Rickles, Brandy Reynolds and JoAnna Lewallen, 2 each.

Monday night, the Jayvees fell to Madison Central 34-31 in a game that saw the lead change hands several times and the back breaker was the fact that the Lady Rockets managed only 1 fourth quarter point.

Tiffany McClure got 9 points to lead the Rockets; Amanda Osborne scored 8; Nikki Bullock had 7; Suzanne Brown 4 and Amber Coffey, 3.

RCMS 7th and 8th grade teams defeat Meece

Rockcastle Middle School traveled to Somerset Monday night and both teams came away with easy wins.

The 8th grade, now 5-3 on the season, never trailed as they took an early 20-7 lead. Coach Jason Cogger got to substitute early in the second quarter and the Rocket continued to dominate the game, taking a 39-12 half-time lead to the dressing room.

In the second half, Coach Cogger continued to use his bench freely to keep the game a little interesting and, as a result, 10 Rockets scored.

Jacob Burdette led the scoring with 12 points; Andrew Cash got 8; Luke Hayes and Daniel Morgan, 7 each; Matt Brown, 6; Brad McNew and John Renner, 4 each and Michael Allen, Chris Parsons and Robert Clark, all added 2.

After getting a 20 point half time lead, the 7th grade struggled in the third period but were able to hang on for the 63-54 win.

The Rockets 7th grade, now 6-3 on the season, were led in scoring by Chris Parsons with 22 points; Josh Singleton got 19; Greg Harper and Josh Linville each scored 9 and Thomas Coffey 4.

Both teams are now 2-0 in South Central Conference play and will host defending conference champion North Laurel Thursday night.

Rocket JV team wins second in as many games

The Rocket Junior Varsity team totally dominated the first game in action Monday night, beating the Harrodsburg JVs 68-35.

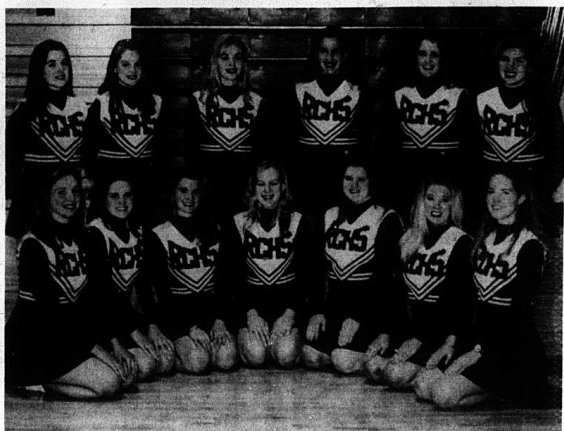

Led in offense by sophomore guard Dusty McClure, who had 15 points, the Rockets shot out to an early 15-2 lead and outscored the Pioneers every quarter.

Matt Ford scored 12 points for the Rockets; Blake Childress got 11 points and 8 rebounds; John Brown scored 8 points and pulled down 7 rebounds; freshman point guard Andy Hale scored 6 points, had 7 assists and no turnovers; Layne Nicely came off the bench to score two three pointers for the Rockets; Jared Reams got 5 points; Michael Vaughn had 4 and Stivie Bradley scored a free throw to round out the Rockets scoring.

Middle School sweeps Wayne

The Rockets opened conference play last Thursday night with all three teams defeating visiting Wayne Co.

In 8th grade action, Andrew Cash and Jacob Burdette combined for 37 points, to lead the Rockets to a 54-47 victory. Burdette hit two early three pointers as the Rocket jumped out to an early 13-6 lead. But Wayne Co. fought back, scoring 17 second quarter points and cutting the Rocket half-time lead to 24-23.

In the second half, the Rockets used a balanced offensive attack to stop a late charge by the Cardinals and held on for the win.

Cash had 22 points in the lead scoring; Burdette added 15; Daniel Morgan got 7; Matt Brown and Brad McNew, 4 each and Chris Parsons 2.

The 7th Grade Rockets struggled early, due to poor foul shooting, 12 of 30 attempts, but were still able to win their conference opener 46-38.

Chris Parsons led the scoring with 18 points; Josh Singleton added 14; Shea Davidson got 9; Greg Harper 3 and Josh Lyons, 2.

In 6th grade action, the Rockets took a 20-1 half time lead and coasted to a 41-15 victory as eleven players got in the scoring column.

Shane Kirby led with 8 points; Andrew Hammond got 7; William Blair 6; Josh Hale 5; John Bray 4; Mike Howard, Brian Reynolds, Brandon McIntosh, Lee Deatherage and Cody Reams all added 2 points and Josh Taylor got 1.

Rockets fall to Harrodsburg, 71-67; Severance has 23 first half points

Senior forward Chad Severance set a blistering first half pace by scoring 23 points for the Rockets but it wasn't enough as the Rockets fell to the Harrodsburg 71-67.

The story of the game was 6'8" sophomore center Dennis Johnson who was simply too much for the Rockets on the board. Johnson had several put backs and was the Pioneers go-to man when they needed him.

The Rockets, behind 11 points by Severance, were ahead 21-19 at the first quarter stop and the score was tied at the half 40-40.

But, the third quarter spelled doom for the Rockets with the Pioneers outscoring the Rockets 18-10 for a 58-50 bulge.

The Rockets fought back in the fourth quarter and, with 59 seconds on the clock and the Rockets down by 3, center Gary Burns stole the ball and brought it down the floor. His 15-foot jumper failed and the Pioneers came up with the rebound. The Rockets immediately committed the foul and it worked to perfection, almost. The shooter missed the front end of the one and one, and the Rocket rebounders block out their man but that man happened to be the 6'8" Johnson who was able to take the ball away from the Rocket rebounders from behind so it was another trip to the foul line for the Pioneers with the Rocket rebounders this time managing to tie up Johnson on the rebound but the possession arrow was in the favor of the Pioneers. The third time the Rockets had to foul, they fouled out #23 Michael Dunn who sank both free throw shots. This time, Burns canned the two, bringing the Rockets to within three at 70-67. The Rockets again immediately fouled and again Dunn sank the front end of the 1 and 1 for the final 71-67 bulge and too little time for the Rockets needed two possessions.

Severance was shut down by the Pioneer defense the second half but his first half performance was enough to garner him Pizza Hut Player of the Game honors for the second week in a row.

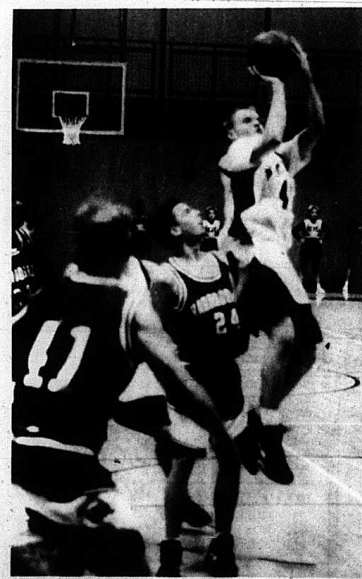

Burns played a hard, hustling game, scoring 17 points with 5 rebounds, but the Pioneers front line was just too much for the Rockets on the boards and on offense as the three front line players had 65 of the team's 71 points.

The Rockets cut their turn-overs down drastically, only 3 the second half for a total of 13 for the game, against nine take-aways but, their other stats were not quite as good. They were 2-10 from the 3 point line for 19%; only 23 total rebounds and were 10-16 from the free throw line. Their field goal percentage was decent at 51%.

Leading rebounder for the Rockets was Dallas Rigby with 6. Rigby also had 12 points, which included Senior Chad Severance pumped in 23 points in the first half against Harrodsburg.

Senior Eric McGuire goes for two of his seven points.

Suzie Carpenter led the Lady Rockets in scoring Thursday night with 17.

Seniors Dallas Rigby, Eric McGuire and Gary Burns fight for a rebound in Monday's action against Harrodsburg.

Amy Robinson had 8 points in the Lady Rockets win over Mercer County.

Senior Dee Reams goes for two points in the Lady Rockets win over Mercer County Thursday night.

three free-throws on a 3 point attempt foul.

Also scoring for the Rockets were: McGuire with 7; Mark Carpenter with 5 and Corey Scott got 3.

The Rockets are trying to reschedule Friday's game with Bracken Co. which was cancelled because of the expected bad weather.

The next scheduled game is at Danville Tuesday night, Dec. 19 and a tournament at Campbellsville Dec. 27, 28 and 29 will round out games for the first month.

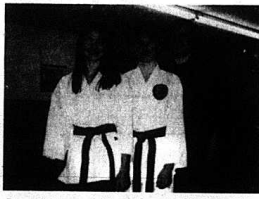

Rockets play next Tuesday night at Harrodsburg

Lady Rockets play Barboursville Thursday night (tonight) at home.

Montgomery indicted for shooting local man to death

A Livingston woman was indicted Friday by the Rockcastle County Grand Jury for allegedly shooting her ex-boyfriend to death on November 18 at his home.

William Carpenter, 69, of Livingston died from a single gunshot wound to the face. Marjorie Gail Montgomery, 34, also of Livingston is charged with firing the fatal shot.

According to court records Carpenter and Montgomery each held restraining orders from the court against one another.

Montgomery, who is being held on a $50,000 cash bond is scheduled to be arraigned in Rockcastle Circuit Court on Monday.

Election board says Offutt did comply with requirements

The Kentucky Registry of Election Finance has ruled that Rockcastle County Property Valuation Administrator did not receive free advertising from Cumberland Media, Inc. DBA WRVX radio station and the Banner, during last May's primary campaign.

Mrs. Offutt's opponent in the primary, Doug Bullock filed the complaint July 7, asking the state to look into the possibility that Offutt had received free advertising from Cumberland Media during the campaign.

According to an order released last week, Mrs. Offutt filed an amended report correctly reflecting payment to Cumberland Media for advertising expenditures to the radio station and publication.

Joe Lambert appointed Deputy Chief Justice

Kentucky Supreme Court Chief Justice, Robert F. Stephens appointed Justice Joseph E. Lambert Deputy Chief Justice effective Monday, December 4, 1995.

In making the appointment Chief Justice Stephens said: "Joe Lambert is well qualified and has the experience and ability to serve as Deputy Chief Justice. I am happy to appoint him to this position." In response, Lambert said, "I appreciate the confidence the Chief Justice has shown in me and will endeavor to serve in the finest traditions of the Court."

Justice Lambert, 47, of Mt. Vernon, has served the Third Appellate Supreme Court District for nine years and succeeds Justice Charles M. Leibson of Louisville as Deputy Chief Justice. Justice Lambert is a graduate of Georgetown College and University of Louisville School of Law. He is a recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Award presented by the University of Louisville School of Law.

The duties of the Deputy Chief Justice are to preside over the Kentucky Supreme Court and fulfill the obligations of the Chief Justice when he is absent or unable to serve.

Before being elected to the Supreme Court, Lambert practiced law in Mt. Vernon with his father, former County Attorney James W. Lambert. Lambert's wife Debra Hembree Lambert currently practices law in Mt. Vernon. They have two sons.

Farmer-Business Banquet

The annual Rockcastle County Farmer-Business banquet was held Saturday night at the Rockcastle County Middle School. Rockcastle County Farmer Tim Mink was honored as Rockcastle County Farmer of the Year by the Rockcastle County Soil Conservation District. Presenting Mink with his award was Soil Conservationist Randall Templeman. Also in the photo, at right, is Roy Brown, chairman of the soil conservation district board and left, Clethid Thacker, president of the Mt. Vernon Lion's Club, co-sponsor of the annual event.

David Parsons of Wilde, standing at right, was selected as Rockcastle County Businessman of the Year for 1995 at the banquet. Parsons, who is co-owner of Parsons Gas at Roundstone, was selected for community and church involvement as well as his business practices. Making the presentation to Parsons was Clethid Thacker.

Rockcastle County's famed storyteller Beverly Carter-Sexton was the speaker at Friday night's banquet.

Organizations need help

Local volunteers trying to help needy children this Christmas are having some difficulty getting enough community support for their projects.

The Toys for Tots Program and the folks at Renfro Valley are making last minute appeals in Rockcastle counties to help the needy this Christmas.

At Renfro Valley, a Tree of Love in Santa's workshop contains the names of 50 children, who are going to be without this Christmas unless someone helps. The children's names were submitted to Renfro folks by the Kentucky Department of Social Services and each card lists the child's age, gender and request for Christmas. "Very few of those names have been picked up and the deadline is December 19," said Connie Hunt, vice-president of Entertainment at Renfro Valley.

Anyone interested in helping can contact Renfro Valley at 256-2638 or stop by the information office or Santa's workshop, in Renfro Village.

Shannon Rogers coordinator for the Toys for Tots program said this week that her program is also experiencing difficulty getting enough donated toys to meet the needs of the children on her list.

Toys for Tots is for children one to sixteen. Anyone wishing to donate an unused, unwrapped toy can do so at the Rockcastle County Ambulance Service, Sheriff Shirley Smith's office, Clerk Denver Miller's office, Norma Houk's office, RTEC, Ford Brothers, BMW, Mt. Vernon City Hall, Li's Restaurant, Sowder Nursing Home, Dollar General, Family Dollar, Super Saver, Hiatt's 5 & 10, Rockcastle Hospital and Brodhead Dairy Mart.

Toys will be distributed Monday, December 18 by members of United States Marine Corp.

For more information contact Mrs. Rogers at 256-2159.

Fredrick arrested on drug charge

Danny Fredrick, 30, of Marietta, Ga., was arrested by Sheriff Deputy Randall Reynolds last Monday.

Fredrick's car was stopped by police at U.S. 150 and Ky. 70 and police found a pound of marijuana in the car.

No changes in control of library after court meets

The Rockcastle Fiscal Court let stand a November, 1995 motion that will turn the library building back to the library board come Jan. 1.

The court passed up a request by the Rockcastle Historical Society to officially adopt the society as part of the library.

However, the court made it clear it felt the society should be part of the library and have space in the library. The court did say they felt library officials had made an effort to find room in the building for the Historical Society to operate, the court's only original requirement, and so the court's motion remained.

A solution to the problem has been discussed many times since the Fiscal Court left it up to the two organizations to reach an agreement. But an agreement has not been forthcoming.

"They should be in the library," Librarian Geraldine Robbins said recently. "We want them there if they'll just go along with us."

"It's just a broom closet," said Mrs. Juanita Witt last week. Mrs. Witt spends time keeping track of society business. "All we have asked is that they come down and see what we do."

She said among work done by the society is the publication of a news letter four times a year that goes to 260 members and help persons in search of ancestors.

"We accomplish a great deal and we've got a lot of time and money in it," Mrs. Witt said. "We just want them to give us enough space to work."

According to a plan by the library board, Mrs. Robbins will move her office to the former senior citizens office at the back of the library building.

A room now used for storage by the library was made available to the Historical Society. According to information released by the library, the room is 16 feet long and 9 feet wide and the society's records can be locked up.

The original office used by Mrs. Robbins will be cleared for use as a Heritage Room and adjoins the area referred to the Historical Society.

The Senior Citizens no longer occupy the library, having moved to the former skating rink south of Mt. Vernon on U.S. 26.

In other business, the court was informed of a multi-county industrial park being organized by Laurel County and to be located in Laurel.

Laurel has asked Rockcastle and several other surrounding counties to join in the project. Rockcastle would not have to put any county funds into the project, rather they would let Laurel Co. have state funds earmarked for Rockcastle for use on a multi-county industrial park. Judge Carlottis told the court that if these funds were not used for this purpose, they would not be available to the county for any other purpose.

However, Carlottis expressed reservations to the court about the project. Carlottis said he feared the park would "gobble up" several small factories that might possibly locate in our county, thereby depriving Rockcastle of the development. He said he would favor a stipulation that only factories employing a very large work force be solicited for the park.

On the positive side, Carlottis told the court that since Laurel Co. has a 1 1/2 percent payroll tax in place, that whatever percentage of funds Rockcastle put into the project, that percentage of the workforce's payroll tax would be returned to our county.

Sheriff Shirley Smith was before the court to inform them of his purchase of a $1,000 surplus state car which he wanted to assign to the county in order to get an official license and lower cost insurance. The court approved the transfer.

The court also discussed the organization of a group of residents in the Brindle Ridge area who are trying to form a fire district.

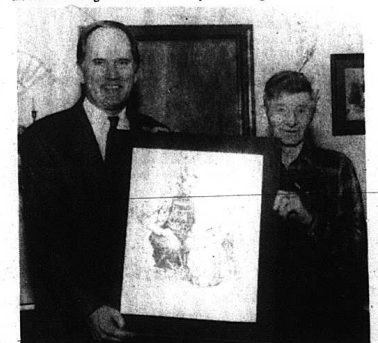

The Brindle Ridge group will be meeting with the Brodhead Fire Dept. Dec. 19 at 7 p.m., to discuss the new project.

Judge Carlottis will be candidate

County Judge Buzz Carlottis has decided not to keep the voters in suspense.

The judge told a reporter for the Signal and Larry Doyle Tuesday, "I plan to run again."

Former Kentucky Governor Brereton Jones was in Rockcastle County last week to help dedicate the Town Hill Project in Mt. Vernon and announce that a $1.7 million water project had been approved for the county. During his visit was presented a limited edition print by artist Mark McFerron by William McClure of Blue Springs. Jones was a lunch guest of the McClures.

Points East

By: Ike Adams

If I had my druthers, I'd drouther Christmas came in Spring instead of in the dead of winter.

That partly has to do with the fact that both my parents were buried at Christmas time—Mom on Christmas Eve in '73 and Dad on the 26th of December in '83; ten years apart. So it's hard for me to feel jolly or even revert this time of year.

The two most mournful events of my life, thus far, happened at Christmas and try as I may, I find it impossible to shake those memories. As a consequence, the kids and Loretta find me more like Scrooge or The Grinch than Santa Claus.

Shopping for gifts for those I love is an aggravation because I am impatient enough with waiting lines at the check-out counters under normal circumstances. And nine times out of ten, the very item I want to look at doesn't have a price on it during the Christmas season.

"Could you come over here and tell me what the price is on this set of golf clubs?" I asked a sales clerk at a discount store just tonight. (My son, Chris, is taking up golf and he's been playing with a "set" of clubs made by at least five different manufacturers and the newest one is at least ten years old. I'd like to find him a reasonably priced set of matched sticks because he's getting pretty good with other folks' throw-aways and he can't use mine because I'm left-handed. And, I can't afford pro-shop prices).

Anyway, "Just as soon as I can sir," the sales clerk politely replied.

"How long do you reckon that will be," I asked, clinging to his arm as he dragged me down the aisle on one arm while an irate lady somewhat heavier than myself dragged him by the other.

I'm six feet and two inches tall and I weigh 202 pounds. The lady on the other end was probably five feet eight inches and weighed close to 250. The clerk in question was about her height but he wouldn't have weighed 125 pounds soaking wet. So I just turned him loose before we split him down the middle or broke him like a wishbone. Because it was obvious she was going to get the longer end and I figured the manager would serve her first even if we wrenched the guy in two.

I spent more than two hours in that store and walked out with nothing. Mad because I couldn't get any

Government's "find" of more revenue smells like pair of old tennis shoes

By Richard Anderkin
As the budget battle continues in Washington, we get news this week that the Congressional budget office is very optimistic about growth that will generate billions and billions of dollars over the next seven years and make it easier for the Republicans and President Clinton to reach a compromise on a balanced budget amendment in seven years.

This country has got to have a balanced budget in seven years. It is a must. Anyone who doesn't think so, is only kidding themselves and don't really know just how bad a shape our country's finances are in.

The problem I have with the Congressional budget office's latest revelation is that a couple months ago, when the Republicans drew the line in the sand over the budget, there was no mention about this extra money being available to help ease the balanced budget fight. It smells of the same odor a pair of gym shoes do that I have to keep in the garage. It smells of a deal between politicians - politicians who want to stay in office at all cost. Most of them like the power, the ultra-comfortable living, the perks that come with their job, and while down deep they know what the right decisions are, they do not want to upset the electorate that controls their fate in Congress.

A deal will likely be reached this week, and I am willing to bet that even if that, Republicans and Democrats alike, tell us the budget will be balanced by law in seven years, it really won't be and they will know it won't be going in. But, it will be something they all can live with something that won't upset the elderly over medicare, the environmentalist over the environment and the working families over the not-so-large tax cut.

What many people don't realize is that the government borrows money from lending institutions, just like everybody else. They, in effect, are the largest single debtor in the United States and the huge deficit they must feed each year puts a strain on the money supply and in essence, keeps interstate rates for everybody else.

Projections by people who don't make their living off the taxpayer are scary. If something isn't done, these experts say this country has never seen the poverty it will in the next century. The country as a whole will be in financial chaos worse than the time of the great depression, yet the Republicans seem to be backing off and the President continues to fight a truly balanced budget.

Everyone is for a balanced budget until it comes to their own pocket book, until it takes $11.00 a month away from senior citizens or stops an unnecessary construction project in their Congressional district. It seems most people say cut spending, but cut it somewhere else.

I am not an expert on this country's finances, but there are certain things that are absolutely ridiculous. For example, when a U.S. citizen turns sixty-five, he or she is automatically eligible for medicare. Their financial situation has nothing to do with whether they qualify or not and

by: Bev. Rockwell

The Rockcastle County Kiwanis Club would like to thank all the wonderful citizens and businesses of our community for the tremendous support given the CHRISTMAS IN THE PARK event this year. Without the donations of money and man hours so freely given by so many, the tree lighting ceremony at the Mt. Vernon city park would not have shown so brightly.

The big tree was a little shy of illumination due to the difficulty in finding a high lift bucket truck large enough to string all the lights in time for the ceremony, but diligence won out. Mayor Cromer found a truck. The big Norway Spruce is now bedecked in a shower of shimmering light. A trip to town some evening will be well worth the trip! It is beautiful.

Besides donations for lights, support for the improvement of the park with shrubs, new trees, and flowers has been generously donated also. This spring will bring many changes to the little park and members of the Community Service Committee of the Kiwanis Club would like to thank the listed local businesses and individuals for championing this on going effort as well as all the help in making CHRISTMAS IN THE PARK such a splendid event: McKinney Tire, Town & Country Chevron, Ford Brothers, Joe Clontz, Beulah's Antiques, Dr. George Griffith, Richmond Eye Care, Mt. The Cumberland College family, along with the City of Williamsburg "officially" ushered in the Christmas season on the college campus at the annual celebration November 30, 1995.

just forget about this gift-giving, shark shopping commercialism that too often defines our modern Christmas and settle into the humanity we ought to feel about the birth of the One we Christians call our Saviour? I, for one, intend to "cool-it" as we used to say and my gifts are going to be written descriptions of things I intend to find and give when there's far less hassle in acquiring them.

And Spring, it seems to me, when the mornings are free of frost and the birds are yodeling loudly at the crack of dawn—when every living thing is genuflecting in love with almost every other—when you hope the nights won't last too long because you simply can't wait for morning—when Santa Claus could wear cut-offs instead of that ridiculous red suit and maybe get a touch of sun-burn on his cheeks—that's the time I intend to pass out presents.

In the meantime, if I'm to find any joy in this Christmas, I need for it to be a far more solitary affair. And if you haven't written for your fall bean seed, the address is still 6945, Hwy 52 West, Paini Lick, KY 40461. "National Debt" if they get sick Uncle Sam picks up the bulk of the tab.

Medicare is a wonderful program that has a place in this country. It serves millions of elderly people who could not afford health care any other way, but it is absolutely wasteful to the tune of millions and millions of dollars each year. Citizens who are sixty-five and can afford to pay for their own health care should have to do so. It's that simple. Most wouldn't like it, but I don't like paying over $300 a month for health insurance either, but I manage to do so.

The Republican plan has plenty of flaws in it as well, such as increased defense spending, which certainly seems unwarranted, while cutting spending on the environment. Someone should tell Newt that this is the only place we have to live and he can't send us all to a boy's home on Mars if we continue to destroy our environment.

I can understand the Republican tax cut proposal to a certain extent, but if things are as bad as they say and if we need a balanced budget as badly as they say we do, then don't cut taxes right now. Use that money to pay off the deficit even faster, just don't turn around and raise taxes again.

Most people have figured out how to work, live, pay their taxes and make ends meet.

One indication of how inept our federal government seems to be at managing their financial affairs, is the fact that it cost taxpayers $120 million dollars a day to send 800,000 non-essential federal workers home without pay. Of course they all did get paid, for not working, but we knew they would, didn't we.

That's the way that Christmas works in my experience of late and I'm absolutely sure it's not the way that Christ would have any of us celebrating his birthday.

Wouldn't it be nice if we could all

Rockcastle County Schools Superintendent, Larry B. Hammond (left) meets with area principals and N.A.R.E. consultants on how Project N.A.R.E. supports the district's instructional program.

$50,000 grant to impact schools

The Rockcastle County School District has been awarded a $50,000 Goals 2000 grant to participate in the National Alliance for Restructuring Education (Project N.A.R.E.). This grant will be awarded annually for three years to fund the federal government continues to fund the initiative. The National Alliance for Restructuring Education provides resources to schools from several states as they continue to search for ways to improve.

Project N.A.R.E. will impact each of the schools in Rockcastle County, including the vocational school. Early last spring principals informed their schools and SBDM Councils about the possibility of being a part of this project. All Councils then voted to participate in the initiative.

Participation in Project N.A.R.E. will enable our schools to have links with schools all across Kentucky and other states as they work together to improve education. This project emphasizes that schools organize their specific areas.

Arrested

He was charged with trafficking in marijuana over 8 ounces, a felony.

Another man in the car with Fredrick's was not charged. State police detective Gary Lane and deputy Nathaniel Price assisted in the arrest.

1. Setting high standards for all students and assessing them for master;
2. Creating an environment conducive to learning using technology and helping students plan for a life of work after school;
3. Accessing the services available in the community for any students who may need extra service;
4. Securing support and involvement from the community in the life of the school; and
5. Helping administrators use resources and develop the necessary skills to lead in school improvement.

The participation in N.A.R.E. will enable each of the schools to send representatives to meetings to learn about school improvement initiatives throughout the United States. These representatives will then return to their schools to lead in helping their schools design plans for improvement. The district will participate in one national meeting this year. Representatives from each school and the district administration will travel to San Diego, California January 6-8, 1996 for the National N.A.R.E. Conference.

Superintendent Hammond believes participation in this initiative will enable our schools to gain resources and information necessary to continue improving our schools as we attempt to provide every child in Rockcastle County with the skills necessary for life in the 21st Century.

I read in the papers, another child that was killed. The world screams, oh well, just more blood that was spilled. Love of money, is the root of all evil, that's what the scripture does say. Lack of food for the hungry, no room for the homeless to stay. As Christians we all know, the Lord is by our side. With the sound of his trumpet, the wicked will hide. Jesus come quickly, we want to come home. Bring the chain for the evil one, he doesn't need to roam.

Fiscal Court Meeting

Judge Carlotis reported to the court the receipt of a check for $3,338 from FEMA for ice damage in 1994.

County Attorney Jeff Burdette tol the court that juvenile crime in Rockcastle County is getting worse and that he and the courts are busy looking at alternative sentencing.

The court has bills this month from various regional facilities that incarcerate juveniles totaling $4,640. A total of $1,240 came from Lincoln County; $1,500 from Big Sandy Regional Center; $1,875 from Clark County Regional Center and $25 from Gateway Juvenile Center.

The court also:

- Approved discontinuance of Eagle Creek Road for maintenance;
- Reappointed Jerry Cox as a member of the Rockcastle County Health Board;

Heard a report from Judge Carlotis that the county received $56,000 from the state for road work, with another $56,000 due in February, the usual time for distribution of money by the state.

The All-American Club reported it picked up 159 bags of litter in the county during November.

The court also reported that beginning in January, the club will be known as Litter Pick-up because prisoners are being used. The court will use a van or vehicle for prisoner transportation to the pick-up sites.

Judge Carlotis also reported that CDL random alcohol add drug testing will become effective January 1 for county employees who drive county vehicles.

Lifelines

by: Cecilia Renner

Well, I had it right the first time. 18 weeks is 4 and one half months. This week in order to make abortion as real as it is, I am going to share an interview of a lady who once worked at an abortion clinic. Her name is Carol Everett. She has been a guest of Dr. Dobson's radio broadcast a number of times, and you may have already heard this before. Q. What is the governing force behind the abortion industry? A. Money. It is a very lucrative business. It is the largest unregulated industry in our nation. Most of the clinics are run as chains because it is so profitable. Q. How much money were you making in the abortion industry before you quit? A. I was getting a commission of $25,000 on every abortion I "sold". In 1983, the year I got out, I would have pocketed approximately $250,000. But, in 1984 we expected to be operating five clinics, terminating about 40,000 pregnancies, and with that projection I planned to net $1 million. Money, Money, money... that's where my heart was. Q. Why do you refer to "selling" abortions? A. The product, abortion, is skillfully marketed and sold to the woman at the crisis time of her life. She buys the product, finds it defective and wants to return it for a refund. But, it's too late. Her baby is dead. Q. In what way is the woman deceived? A. In two ways—the clinic personnel and the marketers must deny the personhood of the child and the pain caused by the procedure. Every woman has two questions, "Is it a baby?" and "Does it hurt?" The abortionist must answer "NO." He/she must lie to secure the consent of the woman and the collection of the clinic's fee. The women were told that we were dealing with a "product of conception" or a "glob of tissue." They were told there would be only slight cramping, whereas, in reality, an abortion is excruciatingly painful.

Q. What type of counseling was offered at the clinic? A. In the clinics in which I was involved we didn't do any real counseling. We answered only the questions the woman asked and tried not to "rock the boat." We did not discuss alternatives to abortion unless the woman forced us to. We sold abortions.

"What Saith the Scriptures"

"It Is Written"
In Mk. 8:34-38, we read, "Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his father with the holy angels." Let's consider these verses for a few minutes.

To follow Jesus requires sacrifice. We must be willing to lay it all on the line for him, for we must deny ourselves, take up the cross and follow him. Self-denial can be a very hard thing for us to do. We must be willing to lose our life, that the Life of Christ may live in us. Paul said he was "crucified with Christ nevertheless he lived, for Christ lived in him, for he lived his life by the faith of the Son of God, who loved him (and loves us also), and gave himself for him, Gal. 2:20.

Jesus raises a couple of questions to make us think. To what profit, benefit, would it be to gain the whole world but will lose our souls? Usually, what happens is that we gain very little of this world as we then lose our souls. What is more important than our souls, that we would exchange it for?

Jesus said if we are ashamed of him and of his words, he will be ashamed of us at his glorious return with his holy angels. Of course, if we are not ashamed of him and of his words, he will not be ashamed of us. Heb. 2:11 - Heb. 11:16. If we truly believe, we will not be ashamed of him and of his words: for he the Lord and Saviour, and his words are true! Let us know if you would like to study the word of the Lord.

County Tech Center gets Flag of Excellence

Kentucky TECH Rockcastle County Area Technology Center was among 38 technical schools awarded Flags of Excellence in Frankfort.

The Department for Technical Education presented the awards at its 10th annual ceremony to honor schools for excellence and outstanding achievement.

Department for Technical Education Commissioner Tara Parker said that the flag is presented to the school as a whole, but they really recognize individual contributions.

"For schools to meet the high standards for the Flags of Excellence, they must excel in several areas," she said. "This is possible only if teachers, students, staff and administrators set their own personal goals of excellence."

"These schools prove that when we pull together as a team toward a common goal, we can accomplish uncommon results."

To be eligible for a Flag of Excellence, secondary schools must have at least a 65 percent student completion rate, have a student job placement rate of at least 90 percent and have a 4-point average rating on the annual Employer Satisfaction Survey.

Hendrickson is coordinator for RC&D

The USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service recently announced Rodney Hendrickson as the Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) coordinator for the Cumberland Valley RC&D Area. The Cumberland Valley RC&D area serves Estill, Jackson, Rockcastle, Laurel, Clay, Leslie, Knox, Bell, Whitley, and Harlan Counties.

RC&D is designed to provide technical assistance to local people who are interested in enhancing their communities, local economies, and natural resources.

Supported by the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service, the RC&D program operates as a partnership between federal and private organizations. "This is very much a people oriented program," stated Hendrickson, "RC&D is locally driven. I'm here to help people help themselves and provide technical assistance when it comes to solving local problems." RC&D coordinators provide coordination to locally organized nonprofit councils.

RC&D projects are widely varied according to Hendrickson. "We can be involved in anything from improving rural fire protection, to transportation, to developing outdoor classrooms," said Hendrickson. Funding for RC&D projects is generated from a variety of sources such as grants, federal money, and in-kind donations from volunteers.

Although headquartered in Washington, D.C., RC&D is active in every state and territory of the U.S., with over 275 councils. 98 of Kentucky's 120 counties are part of an RC&D council. RC&D brought in over $6,000,000 in direct grant money for VICA ATTENDS REGIONAL CONFERENCE -- The Rockcastle County VICA club elected its senior officers for the year 1995-96. They are as follows: Brian Brown, president; Shawn Vanzant, vice president; Ryan Messenger, secretary; Robbie Singleton, treasurer; Jesse Vanwinkle, reporter; Michael Crouche, parliamentarian; Sam Dees, chaplain; Jon Mobley, historian; Jason Dideoli, sergeant at arms and Michael Todd, photographer. The ten officers and advisors, Donna Hopkins and Ralph Baker, recently attended the Southeast Regional Fall Leadership Conference at Pine Mountain State Park. The group attended classes on officer duties, community service projects, professional development programs, parliamentary procedure techniques and opening and closing ceremonies. Regional officers elections were also held that day. Brian Brown was elected president and Shawn Vanzant was elected vice president. Brian and Shawn will now go to the Kentucky Leadership Training Institute in Frankfort to gain further leadership training.

Cumberland student completes seminar

Christiane Kelly, granddaughter of Eula King, Mt. Vernon, has successfully completed the 10-week Leadership Seminar at Cumberland College. Students who completed the program were presented with a certificate by Dr. Mike Colegrove, vice-president for Student Affairs.

The seminar is provided to assist student leaders to better understand how leadership is effectively exercised, the program is designed to enhance the student's personal leadership skills, thus making them more effective campus leaders.

The family of Bill Randolph has my sympathy and prayers in the loss of their loved one.

Busy Bee News

We last met for our monthly meeting on the 14th of November. We had seven in attendance. President of the club, Barbara Prater, called the meeting to order, and the devotion was given by, Cecelia Renner. The acrostic, Being a Homemaker Means... was chosen for the devotion.

Carolyn Gilbert asked for roll call and we answered by, sharing something, or some things, we are thankful for. Everyone agreed upon families and health. We could never stop counting, or run out of things to be thankful for, it is so good to us.

Carolyn read the last month's minutes. Old business was then taken care of, and made a change in the time for our annual Christmas Dinner. We went to the Columbia Steak House in Berea, on the 1st of December. Those attending were: Otis and Barbara Prater, Roland and Wynona Isaac, Brittany and Brandon Cromer, Irene Winstead, Bethada Mullins, Carolyn Gilbert, Faith Spires, Jack and Lydia McLemore, Lynda Renner and Cecelia Renner. We enjoyed a wonderful meal and had a great time being together. We also found out who our secret pals had been for the past year.

Next meeting is scheduled for January 9th, 6:30 p.m., in the basement of the ASCS building. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone.

Ladies Auxiliary says thanks

Roundstone Elementary School student Mandy Ballew explains how to play the guitar to KET videographer for broadcast December 23, 8:30 p.m. on KET.

Roundstone Elementary School students featured on KET December 23

Roundstone Elementary School students will be featured December 23 at 8:30 p.m. on the Kentucky Educational Network's broadcast of "Kentucky Living." The students, under the direction of Melanie Lyons, will perform Christmas songs and play scaled down guitars and dulcimers. The instruments were made by Artist-In-Residence, David Musser and purchased with funding from the Rockcastle County Forward In The Fifth local affiliate. The first set of instruments were purchased for the Brodhead Elementary School music program in 1991. Since then all county elementary schools have received a set in addition to staff development time with Musser. According to Musser, "This particular example of teaching kids music is universal. Because of the size of the instruments, students feel ownership. Every child can be successful."

Governor visits with McClures

A large entourage, including officials from Washington, accompanied Kentucky Governor Brereton Jones to the home of William and Rena McClure in Blue Springs last Tuesday. Later in the day, Jones announced that McClure, and over 300 other Rockcastle County residents would get water, thanks to a $1.7 million financing package approved by state and federal agencies. Governor Jones worked hard to get the project approved after a visit from the McClures and Rockcastle County Judge-Executive Buzz Carlolitis. Jones was presented a dough bowl hand carved by McClure, who has work on display in the Smithsonian Institute in Washington. Shown above, from left, Mike Wenger, William McClure, Jesse White, head of the Appalachian Regional Commission, Governor Jones, Mary Helen Miller, a Jones' staff member, Rena McClure, Dana Robinson, Jones' aid, Tom Hunter, co-chairman, ARC and County Judge-Executive Buzz Carlolitis. Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,
 We really appreciate the excellent coverage of the Open House activities on December 5, 1995 at Town Hill Rental Project and Ashlee's House.

The Open House Ceremonies at the Town Hill Low Income Rental Project and Ashlee's House in Mt. Vernon, Rockcastle County, Kentucky on December 5, 1995 was a tremendous success!

The purpose of the project was to allow Kentucky Housing Corporation staff (who provided funding for the projects), other agencies, and the general public to view a successful project that is the result of coordinated efforts on the part of local communities.

We wish to thank the following for their contributions to Open House activities:

Hon. Buzz Carlofits and the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court for their support, expertise, and contributions to the project; Hon. Gary Cromer, Mayor of the City of Mt. Vernon and the City Council of Mt. Vernon for their support and acceptance of the maintenance of the streets, water and sewer lines after the project is completed; Ms. Shirley Cummins, Director of Rice for coordination and transportation of visitors and distinguished guests to Town Hill from the court house; Mr. Gene Hensley, from the Christian Appalachian Project for the four beautiful Christmas wreaths that decorated the front doors of the four rental units; Charles Martin, Director of Planet Lexington for the preparation of the food at cost, and for the four $100 gift certificates from Halffield Photography that were used for door prizes.

We would also like to thank Gov. Brereton Jones and his staff and Mr. Robert Adams, Executive Director of the Kentucky Housing Corporation, and his staff for their attendance at Open House activities and for the tremendous amount of technical assistance and support in the development of the Town Hill Projects as well as the funding of the project and Dr. George W. Griffith and the Rockcastle County Housing Development Corporation Board that serves as the local Housing Advisory Board to Daniel Boone Development Council Board of Directors. We realize that without the guidance and assistance given by the Rockcastle County Housing Development Corporation Board of Directors, we could not have accomplished so much in housing development in Rockcastle County.

We also recognize the Daniel Boone Development Council, Inc., Rockcastle County Staff - Betty Carter, Housing Coordinator; Nancy Meadows, Assistant Housing Coordinator and Kathy Owens, an employee of the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court who has been so helpful during the course of this project.

In closing, we really appreciate the opportunity to serve Rockcastle County in housing and community development and look forward to working with you all in future projects.

Sincerely,
 Ruth J. Martin
 Housing Program Director

Thank You

You don't have to travel for the latest in medical technology. At Rockcastle Hospital we are proud to offer such services as nuclear medicine to our patients. Since 1993 this high-tech service has been available right here in your community. Think about it, why travel when you can get the care from people who are concerned about your family and our community.

Nuclear Medicine Installed in 1993

Exams performed in nuclear medicine include:
 Bone scans which help detect bone cancer, arthritis, osteomyelitis and stress fractures.
 Lung scans show blood clots in the lung.
 HIDA or gallbladder test will evaluate the function of the gallbladder.
 Thyroid scan detects most thyroid diseases.

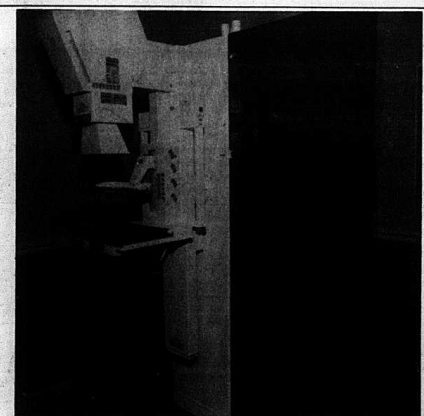

The new Diasonic color-flow machine installed August, 1995

Color-flow is an added feature to our new ultrasound machine. Below is a list of diseases that color-flow enhances:

- stenosis caused by plaque
- leaky valves within the heart
- absent blood flow in arteries
- blood clots in the legs

G.E. Mammography machine installed in 1993. Accredited by American College of Radiology.

Current Statistics say that one of nine American women will develop breast cancer in her lifetime. Mammography screening has become an important tool in the fight against breast cancer. The American Cancer Society recommends a baseline mammogram at age 35 and screening mammograms every one or two years for women, age 40 to 50. After 50 years of age, they recommend routine annual screening.

The First Baptist Church choir will present a Christmas Cantata Sunday evening, December 17, 7 o'clock.

First Baptist Church to present "City of Life" cantata

The First Baptist Church will present a Christmas Cantata, City of Light, created and arranged by Tom Fette, Sunday evening, December 17 at 7 o'clock.

Orchestrated by Bruce Groer, monologues for the program were written by Ragan Courtney. Directed by Tommy Hodges, pianist Tina Hasty and organist Pam Martin provide musical accompaniment for the congregation's sanctuary choir.

The cantata declares that "the ancient world lay restless as darkness ruled the land; centuries of silence past awaiting God's great plan. The coming of Messiah for years they had prepared; At last it came, the night of nights -- and God declared: Let there be light."

The congregation and choir of First Baptist Church extend a cordial welcome to the public to join them for this Christmas program.

Local Farm Bureau Honored

The Rockcastle County Farm Bureau was recognized for outstanding membership and program achievement during the recent 76th annual Kentucky Farm Bureau convention in Louisville. Here, Virgil Mullins accepts the award from David S. Beck, left, Kentucky Farm Bureau executive vice president and James Batts, executive vice president of Kentucky Farm Bureau Insurance Companies during a December 8 recognition and awards program.

Library News
By Geraldine Robbins

Attention!! Parents don't forget to bring your children to the Story Hour December 19. Betty has a special surprise for them and we are expecting a visit from the man in a red suit. The children have really had a great time at the Christmas parties in the past and we are hoping to have a good turnout next Tuesday.

We are wishing a Happy Holiday Season for everyone out there. The library will be closed for Christmas, Saturday, December 23 and Monday, the 25th. Also we will be closed on Monday, January 1st.

I'm hoping everyone will be very cautious during this busy season. There is already a lot more traffic with all the shopping and there will be even more with people traveling to visit family and friends during Christmas and New Years.

Last December my husband and I were involved in a bad accident and I still feel the effects of it. I know how quickly an accident can happen. Just two weeks ago a car did several flip flops and skidded across the road and landed against the guard rail on my side of the road about 25 feet in front of me. The young man was thrown out and severely injured. This sure gave me a scare especially after being involved in the accident last year. If we had just been two seconds faster, we would have been hit again.

Plans are being made for a mock library to be set up in the Capitol rotunda during legislative session (end of January). Librarians across the state are being asked to participate in this event. Each library in the state is also requested to send some art work, prose or essays to exhibit on the walls of the rotunda.

I am asking that any students in the elementary, middle school or high school that would like to help us call me and I will give you more information on this project. I have already had some students promise to do either an art project or an essay, but I would like to have more. Some of the artwork may be selected for a postcard blitz for legislators.

I need to have all the work in by December 18th. Please help us with this effort to let our legislators know how very important libraries are to all the citizens of each county, young and old alike.

Come January 1, we are going to Children and youth featured in program at First Baptist

The children and youth of First Baptist Church presented A Celebration of Christmas last Sunday evening in the church sanctuary. The program, coordinated by Laura Durham, included presentations by the Cherub Choir and the Mini Cherubs directed by Janice Davidson, Vicki Arnold, and Cathy Allen, accompanied by Talona King. The Carol Choir presented The Children of Bethlehem, directed by Laura Durham and Cloye Mills, accompanied by Tina Hasty. The Sunshine Puppet Choir presented Christmagine, directed by Judy Bullock, Joyce Head, and Tammie Wesley. Youth Carolers presented Yuletide Joy under the direction of Jamie Cornelius and featured soloists Nicole Nicely, Amber Dillman, and Neal Shepherd. Old-fashion Christmas sack treats were given to everyone in memory of Ruth H. Lambert and James E. Hembree by Joseph E. Lambert and Debra Hembree Lambert.

Mrs. Nielsen Honored

Mrs. LuEd Nielsen was presented a Kentucky Colonel award by Governor Brereton Jones during his visit to Rockcastle County last week. Mrs. Nielsen was given the award in recognition of her efforts to help people in Rockcastle county. Mrs. Nielsen is active in many organizations including R.E.A.P. and the local Red Cross.
