

Happy Birthday to Shannon McFerron from Someone Who Cares

She Fussess and She Whines .. Because She's 49!!
Happy Birthday

Bethany Danielle McKinney celebrated her first birthday Friday, December 29, 1995. She would like to thank everyone who attended her party and for all the nice gifts she received. Bethany is the daughter of Tim and Dana McKinney of Mt. Vernon. Maternal grandparents are Donald W. and Dianna Bradley. Paternal grandparents are Bill R. and Carolyn McKinney. Great grandparents are Albert and Bethel Falin, Minnie Bradley, Bertha Adams and Arthur and Clarice McKinney.

Matthew Jeremiah Woodson celebrated his 7th birthday Saturday, Dec. 30 at his home in Lexington with lots of his classmates and cousins present. Matthew is the son of Ronald and Micki Jo Woodson and the grandson of Mrs. Myrtle Reynolds and the late J.D. Woodson and Beronice and Carol Martin. Great Grandma is Mrs. Florence Kiser of Cincinnati, Ohio.

On January 13, 1996, Morgan Danielle Hunt celebrated her 3rd birthday at Pizza Hut in Mt. Vernon. She would like to thank all her family and friends for attending and for all the nice gifts she received. Morgan is the daughter of Jeff and Angela Hunt of Mt. Vernon. Maternal grandparents are Linda Miracle and Jackie McClure of Mt. Vernon and paternal grandparents are Mildred Hunt of Mt. Vernon and the late Leo Hunt.

"Legislative Update"
(Cont. from B2)

CRIME: Kentuckians are not only calling for order in our classrooms, but in our communities. A number of bills will likely address juvenile crime. For example, one Republican colleague has filed a bill that would allow a juvenile charged with a violent crime at the age of 14 to be tried as an adult. Another provision of this bill makes public the juvenile records relating to violent felony offenses.

I also would like to bring to your attention an effort by one of my colleagues to curb taxpayers' cost that pay for lawsuits filed by inmates. This piece of legislation would allow a court to dismiss frivolous civil actions, and would also require inmates to pay a portion of the filing fee and court costs.

One of the most supported bills under consideration this session is House Bill 40. Nearly 50 lawmakers have co-sponsored the carry concealed weapons measure. Under this bill, state police would issue licenses to private citizens who pass a background check and successfully complete a firearms safety class. Supporters say the bill creates a legal way for law-abiding citizens to carry firearms to protect themselves. Others hope the bill will serve as a deterrent to crime. Recently, the Governor received a petition with more than 20,000 signatures supporting this bill. If adopted, Kentucky will be among nearly 40 other states with such a law.

TAXES: I will support legislation to reopen the filing deadline for Kentuckians to apply for refunds on taxes paid on federal pensions. Under this proposed bill, a federal retiree who filed a state individual income tax return for tax years 1986, 1987 and 1988 that included federal retirement income, and who paid the tax reported on the return, but did not receive a refund, can apply until May 1, 1997. Because they were not fully notified, many pensioners missed the earlier filing deadline.

The Republicans have also filed a bill that would allow Kentuckians to pay taxes on the actual price they pay for a vehicle in the state. Currently a formula is used that, in most cases, requires taxpayers to pay on the higher assessed value than what they actually paid for the vehicle.

You can also expect us to examine how unimined minerals are taxed. Currently, citizens pay taxes on unimined minerals at a similar rate as other property taxes. A bill has been introduced that would eliminate the tax.

VETERANS AFFAIRS: Two bills were voted out of State Government committee this week relating to Veterans. House Bill 90 would establish the Department of Veterans' Affairs as a separate division from the Department of Military Affairs.

Veterans now must deal with nine different departments, and this bill would place all veterans services under one roof. House Bill 92 asks for the General Assembly's approval and funding for two 120-bed veterans' nursing homes in Kentucky (one facility in western Kentucky, the other in the eastern part of the state).

There are scores of other issues we will address during this 60-day session which will conclude April 12. The budget is one. We realize that many worthwhile projects may not get the funding needed if there is a shortfall in the state budget. The Governor is expected to share with the legislature his budget recommendations for the next two years. No date has been set, but the Governor is required to unveil his plan during a joint session of the legislature before January 24. As you probably have heard, it is projected he will call for tightening of the state's purse strings, which I and my Republican colleagues have advocated for many years.

As the session meets, it will be important for me to know your views about legislative issues. To leave a message for me, you may call the legislative message line toll-free at 1-800-372-7181. To track the progress of bills, you may call the toll-free bill status number, 1-800-776-9158 between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. For an up-to-date schedule of committee meetings, call 1-800-633-9650.

Happy Birthday Lee and Joe!!

'Birthday number 71 was celebrated this week by brothers-in-law, Joe Hensley and Lee Duncan. They have been good friends for many years and have enjoyed lots of good times together. They have many things in common. Both will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary this spring. Both served in World War II, both belong to the Masonic Lodge and their favorite pastime is fishing and bragging about their catch - if they happen to have a good day.

She's in a Fix, She's 46 And Don't Know What To Do!!

Current Statistics say that one of nine American women will develop breast cancer in her lifetime. Mammography screening has become an important tool in the fight against breast cancer. The American Cancer Society recommends a baseline mammogram at age 35 and screening mammograms every one or two years for women, age 40 to 50. After 50 years of age, they recommend routine annual screening.

Former deputy clerk sues county

By Richard Anderkin
A former employe in the Rockcastle County Clerk's office has filed a sex discrimination suit against the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court.

Sheryl Bullock, who worked in the clerk's office as a deputy for over eight years, says in her suit that she was unfairly dismissed from her job because she had to take time off from work because she was pregnant.

But County Clerk Norma Houk said Tuesday that Mrs. Bullock's accusations in the suit are totally unfounded.

"The suit is baseless and we expect it to be dismissed very soon," she said. "Her alleged charges are without merit," she said.

The three term county clerk declined to comment on why Mrs. Bullock was actually dismissed from her position, but other people close to the situation, who asked not to be identified, said that it was their understanding that Mrs. Bullock's job performance was the main reason for her dismissal. Mrs. Houk would not comment on that information.

The suit was filed against the county because Mrs. Bullock's attorneys said the County Clerk's office is a political subdivision of Rockcastle County. The suit, which was filed last week in Rockcastle Circuit Court, was discussed by members of the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court during their regular monthly meeting Tuesday. Those discussions were held in closed session. Mrs. Houk has not been sued.

In her suit Mrs. Bullock alleges that Mrs. Houk acted negatively when Mrs. Bullock told her she was pregnant with her second child on December 3, 1993. She also alleges that when she (Mrs. Bullock) presented Mrs. Houk with a doctor's disability slip and requested a maternity leave Mrs. Houk grabbed a brown paper bag and "stuffed" Mrs. Bullock's personal items from her desk in them.

The former deputy clerk also alleges in her suit that when she was prepared to go back to work after her child was born, Mrs. Houk presented her with a specific list of job expectations and requirements. Bullock says that Mrs. Houk asked her to sign the letter before she could come back to work full time in the clerk's office. In Mrs. Bullock also alleges that she had never been presented with any such list in her previous eight and one-half years of employment in the clerk's office.

In November of 1994 Mrs. Bullock alleges that Mrs. Houk would not let her return to work because she agreed to sign the letter of requirements under protest. The suit says (Cont. to A12)

Lottery may determine who gets in pre-school

By Richard Anderkin
Some potential Rockcastle County pre-schoolers may find themselves at home next August when school starts.

At last week's Rockcastle County Board of Education meeting, Tammy Gabbard, director of pre-school in Rockcastle County presented the board with a plan that will change the way students are admitted to the pre-school program. The changes will mainly affect students who do not qualify under state guidelines.

Board extends option

The Daniel Boone Development council has until March 30 to purchase the Livingston school property from the Rockcastle County Board of Education. The board gave Daniel Boone another extension on their option at last week's board meeting.

Robbie Phillips with Daniel Boone told the board that it appeared funds would be available to purchase the property. The board gave Daniel Boone an option on the property last (Cont. to A12)

Work begins on Industrial Park II

Work has begun on the Rockcastle County Industrial Park #2. Workers took advantage of the mild winter weather Tuesday to begin installing culverts on the park which is located on Hwy. 150, directly across from the current industrial park. One Richmond company has already said they would locate there.

Judge: County spent $30,000 removing snow

Kentucky has been added to the list of states eligible for federal assistance funds for clean-up after the recent winter storms.

County Judge/Executive Buzz Carlolitis estimated this week it cost about $30,000 to cover snow removal operations in the county.

He said the federal government would come up with 75 percent of the cost very soon. The state will take (Cont. to A12) longer. The judge said some roads may have been overlooked, but not many. "We just don't have enough equipment to get everyone but we tried. In some cases, we'd plow a road and it would be covered again before we finished," the judge said.

Little World's Fair Inc. gets three year deal

By Ray McClure
Rockcastle County and the Little World's Fair, Inc. entered into a lease agreement for 1996 through 1998 at a meeting of the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court Tuesday.

Under terms of the lease, the property known as the Brodhead Fairgrounds, will be for a minimum of two weeks prior to the designated week of the fair and one week after the last day of the fair, not to exceed (Cont. to A12) a total of five weeks each year during the 1996-98 period.

At one time, the lessee was known as the 4-B Fair Company but later, when Billy and Brian Russell left the company, it became the Little World's Fair, Inc. with president William M. Gentry and William F. Martin.

The lease, drawn up by Clontz and Cox Attorneys, contains only two changes the court wanted. One change (Cont. to A12)

Ky. General Assembly likely to pass concealed weapon law Republicans hurt by new district lines

By Richard Anderkin
After the 1996 session of the Kentucky General Assembly has called it quits for another two years, Kentuckians will likely be able to carry a concealed deadly weapon on their person.

This proposal and many other important issues are facing the General Assembly as it meets in Frankfort.

House Republican Minority Floor Leader Danny Ford of Rockcastle County sat down with us this week to discuss the issues, the redistricting and the probable fate of many bills.

Ford, who has been a member of the Kentucky House since 1982 was very candid about what he calls the personal political agenda of Kentucky Democrats who have tried, in Ford's opinion, to make their majority against the Republicans in the house larger by way of splitting up Republican districts. "They are trying every way possible to eliminate as many Republicans from the Kentucky General Assembly as possible," Ford said. "Whether or not they manage to get their plan past the Kentucky Supreme Court or not remains to be seen, but whatever happens, the Democrats are playing politics with the new district lines," Ford said.

The recent redistricting bill passed by the General Assembly pits six incumbent Republicans against each other this Spring with two other in-

Poynter took back to jail

A Flat Gap Road man was arrested by police Sunday and charged with escape in the second degree.

Warren Rodney Poynter escaped from the Rockcastle Co. Jail on July 10, 1995.

He was on a work release program, working on the jail renovation, when he asked to go to the bathroom. He didn't come back.

Poynter was serving time on burglary, second degree, and sex abuse, third degree, charges when he escaped. Both charges are felonies.

Sheriff Shirley Smith, who helped arrest Poynter Sunday, said Poynter was in a car with a female and jumped from the car and ran when officers approached to make the arrest.

Assisting Smith in the arrest were Deputies Doug Thomas, Leonard Miller, Matt Bryant and Ronnie Rork and constable Dale Miller, Smith said.

cumbent Republicans against two incumbent Democrats.

No matter what happens in the election three Republican seats will be eliminated from the Kentucky House.

Ford's new district includes Rockcastle, a small portion of Pulaski and all of Lincoln County.

Potential candidates have until January 30, 1996 to file for Ford's 80th district seat, which he has held since 1982.

Points East

By: Ike Adams

According to an Associated Press story that ran in last week's Mountain Eagle pleated pants for men are scheduled to go out of style in 1996. My immediate reaction to the story was a warm sense of satisfaction and a gleeful "all right!" which I uttered out loud and which caused me to have to read the piece out loud to Loretta.

The story went on to explain that the well-dressed gentleman should be wearing plain fronts as soon as the spring fashion shows are over. And since I don't own anything except plain fronts, that means I should be back in style.

I've never been able to come close to wearing pleated trousers. I've received a pair or two on Father's Day and Christmas that I managed to return to the stores without even trying them on. If I was going to wear something that looked like a skirt, I'd go ahead and buy a tarkan kit and a bog pipe and be done with it.

A couple of years ago Loretta bought me a pair that were cut from the light gray wool I like to wear and they were the exact shade of bluish gray that I feel comfortable with. But when I saw that they were pleated, I looked her straight in the eyes and asked if they came with matching panties and did I need to wear hosiery under them.

She snatched them back and muttered something about what kind of weather it would be in hell before she ever brought me anything to wear again and stomped out of the room, and true to her word I've done my own clothing shopping ever since.

Now don't get me wrong here. What other people wear is their own business and they should dress however they wish. I've never made whatever somebody else was wearing of any concern of mine and to be honest I don't pay very much attention to fashion. I could sit and talk to a drag queen all day without feeling a twinge of discomfort as long as she didn't expect me to dress that way.

After thinking about it however, I suspect that this new trend in britches is going to be pretty rough on my wallet. My wardrobe, you see, consists largely of fashion by Attie, Rummage, and Yard Sale. A few years back when pleated slacks became the rage and men began discarding their plain fronts I managed to acquire half a dozen pairs of good quality pants for about a dollar each by shopping the "previously-owned" market. When what you want is something that nobody else does, you can generally get it for whatever you're willing to pay.

I suspect that when the weather breaks and it's time to go yardsaleing again, there won't be a pair of plain fronts on the market. It's going to be one long rack of pleats after another and I doubt that anybody is going to be the least bit interested in them. I personally wouldn't put a pair of pleated slacks on a scarecrow.

The Community Service Team of Mt. Vernon Plastics recently coordinated a Christmas project for local needy families. Thanks to MVP employee participation in the non-perishable food drive, bake sales and Angel Tree gifts, 26 families received a well-stocked food basket and 86 children received toys and clothing. Members of the team pictured here, with some of the many gifts, are, front row, from left: Donna Blanton, Connie Price, Jennifer Waddles, Rhonda Smith, Minta Bullock. Back row: Doug Brock, Jr., James Bray, Sheila Proctor and Diane Stewart.

Roamin' Rockcastle

By: Hilda Payne Gabbard

This is Tuesday as I write and all the snow filled with diamonds with its clean, sparkly white look is sinking into the ground while the streams are rising filled with trash.

Nature has its way to do house, or should I say earth, cleaning of man's lazy ways. When he throws down so much trash. I feel we are like Adam and Eve who didn't take care of the Garden of Eden. We will all be cast out of this beautiful land.

We were in Estill County to see Leman Tose about buying some fresh pork sausage since he butchers animals in the winter to sell.

Mr. Rose didn't have any had sold out but we bought a fresh shoulder and a jaw as John was bound to have some to season food.

Back in Berea we went to a store called "Get It Quick," to get the meat slicer out of Seaford Cane Pike going out of Berea.

There we met some of the nicest folks. Mr. Wiles and daughter, Linda, who helps her father keep the store along with Johnny Broadus their butcher who does a good job of cutting up meat for folks who come there to get the work done.

Mr. Wiles lost his wife, who helped him in the place, last week and Linda was helping her father carry on the store business. Linda Wiles is a great employee to have in the business. With her pretty eyes and beautiful black hair, she sparkles as she talks to a customer as she waits on them and there were plenty of them coming in.

The store was clean with a well arranged stock of groceries. When I asked if they sold the Mt. Vernon Signal as well as the Richmond Register there, where I saw it lying in a pile, Linda said, "No, we don't have the Signal and I wish we did, for so many folks come in and ask for it."

I said, "I write a column for the Signal and if you want to be an outlet, I'll tell the folks who own it and they may be glad to have you run an outlet for them since no one else sells the paper out of Berea on this road."

So keep an eye on their store where a notice may be hung about the paper being sold there. Maybe you'll start buying and reading before my Fantasy Birthday Party on January 16 when I'll be 49 years old (again). The party will be in the old Disputanta post office at the Three Forks of the Roads.

If you are a reader, you will be at the party so no excuses. We'll have fun and some good things to eat.

Have you ever eaten a kumquat pie? Ruth Abney makes them and they melt in your mouth. That is why Joe, her husband, looks so well, he eats them all the time. I'm hoping she makes me one for my birthday.

Well, I better get started on my party as folks are telling me what they mean to give me and also their New Year Resolution which they can all during January and we'll see if they keep them.

We had a nice Christmas holiday even with John sick when we had a Christmas Dinner and so many of our family came home.

Folks seem glad to tell me what they are giving me as a present and then tell me what their resolutions are.

When the winter weather gets cold and bad, Wayne Dollins, who owns Hair Plus Beauty Shop, takes off and goes to Florida for a 10-day vacation. He said, "I won't be here for the 26th so I'll tell you and give to you now a bottle of Jack Daniels to sip on this cold weather. My resolution is to take several vacations down there where I have a lot of fun with blondes or brunettes."

I got a new permanent to start the year out and of course I go to Teresa Singleton who is the prettiest woman I know, bar none. I don't allow John to come up to the shop to get me.

But she was all heart when she said her gift to me was a pair of trout boots which would come up to my waist when I shoveled snow. Then Teresa's resolution was not to put water from their water heater in the shop, which had gone out, on your people's head—she hates to hear their yell of surprise. That happened to me there once and I almost left the chair.

I met some kin folks while I was at the shop and her name was Sarah Rader. She had been the wife of Dola Rader who passed away some time ago. Dola Rader was related to me through his Abney relation to my mother, Martha Jane Abney.

Sarah has been living in Rockcastle but is moving to Berea where she will live now and get to read the Signal each week.

Zeller Rader Daugherty, her daughter, came in the shop where we were talking to pick up her mother.

She was so pretty I would have been proud to say I was kin to her. But the Raders were all dark headed while this girl was so blonde. I was surprised to get a telephone call from a reader in Mt. Vernon who wanted to know if I could tell her where she could get some goat's milk for her mother. She said it would help along with stomach trouble. Her name was Ruth Nicely McFerron and she is the daughter of Simmie Cummins who is 96-years-old. I remember the woman who taught school over on Clear Creek many years ago. I told Ruth about Junior King having goats and she might get the milk from him.

I have an apology for a mistake in last week's paper. Philip Gatliff's name was printed as Keith Gatliff and I don't know how it was put down that way but the best of us make mistakes.

I was happy to hear that Ruth and he were moving back to Kentucky.

Till next week: Nothing so needs reforming as much as other people's habits.

Extension Home Economics News

Sewing can be beneficial

By: Hazel Jackson
County Extension Agent
for Home Economics

Did you know that sewing can be beneficial? Of course, sewing can be beneficial to your pocketbook, but it can also benefit your health. A recent study by the American Home Sewing and Craft Association has revealed that sewing has a stress-relieving benefit. In the study, both novice and experienced sewers showed a reduction in heart rate and a reduction in blood pressure while they were sewing a simple project. Here are some tips to help in making sewing a stress-reducing activity:
*Make sure that the project that you are sewing is within your skill level. Start with easier projects or garments and work your way up to more complicated ones. Attempting a project beyond your skill level can be frustrating instead of stress-reducing.

*Set up your sewing area for convenience and comfort. Have all the necessary tools within reach and make sure that the area has adequate lighting.
*Make sure that your sewing machine is working properly to avoid frustration of rethreading and constantly adjusting the settings.
*Make sewing a social activity as well. Teaching your child to sew can be beneficial to both of you.

Also attending classes on sewing can increase your skills as well as allowing you to become acquainted with others who have your same interests.

You can increase your knowledge about Serger Sewing Machines during a class on January 23rd at 6:30 p.m. The class is free of charge and will be taught at the Extension Office. If you have thought about purchasing a serger or have recently purchased one, this class will show you the features and ease of this type of machine.

If you are interested in sharing your sewing skills with others, you might want to consider volunteering to help children to learn to sew during after-school 4-H Clothing Projects. During the month of March, clothing project classes will be held for one week at each elementary school. The Extension Office is looking for volunteers who are willing to give a few hours of their time to this project.

For more information on upcoming sewing and home furnishings classes or for information on 4-H Clothing Projects, contact the County Extension Office at 256-2403.

Agricultural News

FY 96 ACPLTA (Long Term Agreement) sign-up is currently underway. The sign-up period is now until January 31st. Funds earmarked for LTA's will be used to install Agricultural Waste Control Facilities to address poor water quality caused by animal waste. Dairy and beef farmers should take advantage of this sign-up, as animal waste problems are rapidly becoming a target for discussion. Applications for contracts will be taken at the county office, but will be forwarded to the State Committee (STC) for approval. Contracts funded by the STC will be limited to 3-year contracts. County Committee (COC) may approve these as 5-year contracts if needed and the COC provides the additional funds needed. Persons interested in signing up should contact the Rockcastle County FSA Office no later than January 31, 1996.

Producers interested in participating in the Wool and Mohair program need to apply no later than January 31, 1996.

The Agricultural Department will conduct a nationwide sheep referendum on February 6th to determine whether sheep producers, sheep feeders and importers of sheep and sheep products approve the sheep and wool promotion, research, education and information order. If the order is approved by those producers, feeders and importers voting in the referendum, the order would be effective, and assessment would be collected on domestic and imported sheep and sheep products.

USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service will conduct the referendum in cooperation with the Cooperative Extension Service and the Farm Service Agency. Registration will be held at the Extension Service. Absentee ballots will be available from January 16 thru January 26, 1996. A request for an absentee ballot must be made in writing from the Extensions Office serving the County in which the voting entity is located. The Farm Service Agency will determine the eligibility of challenged voter, county ballots, and report referendum results.

All producers, feeders, and importers who certify that they were engaged in sheep production, sheep feeding or importation of sheep or sheep products between January 1, 1994, and December 31, 1994, will be eligible to vote in the referendum. For more information contact the Cooperative Extension Service at 256-2403 or the Rockcastle Farm Service Agency at 256-2525.

Rockets win one; lose two

The Rockets showed two different faces in their three most recent games. Last Saturday night, in their 73-45 rout of the Garrard Co. Golden Lions, they were aggressive on offense, played team ball and were tenacious on defense. The Lions were simply no match for the Rockets and the score proved it.

However, on Monday night, when the Rockets traveled to Clinton Co. to take on the 3-9 Bulldogs, none of the above adjectives described the Rockets — lethargic, confused and cold, cold shooting would be more accurate and the Bulldogs were hot, shooting at least 75% from the field. When the smoke cleared, it was an 87-64 drubbing by Clinton.

And then on Tuesday night, the Saturday night Rockets showed up for a regional match-up against Barbourville and gave the 3rd ranked team in the region all they wanted, only losing by six, 62-56.

In the Garrard Co. game, the Rockets, behind a balanced scoring attack, took an early lead and never relinquished it. Dusty McClure sank three straight three pointers and helped the Rockets to a 19-12 first quarter lead. Severance and Burns kicked in the other 10 points for the Rockets in the quarter.

In the second quarter, the Rockets extended their lead to as much as 24 points, 38-14, after a 19-2 run by the Rockets (including nine points by Eric McGuire off the bench). However, when Coach Clayton Cash took the opportunity to rest several starters before half-time, the Lions rallied for 10 unanswered points and it was a 38-24 halftime lead for the Rockets.

The third quarter saw the Rocket starters slowly build the lead back to 18 at the quarter stop and the Rockets outscored the Lions 20-10 in the fourth.

Senior Chad Severance led the Rockets in scoring with 17; McClure got 11; Burns double-dimed it with 10 points and 10 rebounds; Travis Anderkin scored 8; Dallas Riggsby 7; Adam Powell 4; Mark Carpenter 2 and Andy Hale 1.

Then on Monday night and the Rockets were at Clinton Co. and, despite 21 points and 11 rebounds for Gary Burns, the Rockets simply couldn't get anything going. Clinton jumped out to an early lead and exended it throughout the game, leading 19-16; 40-29 and 64-39 at the quarter stops.

Turnovers and poor shooting, against a team that appeared to want it more than the Rockets did, all contributed to the 87-64 defeat.

Scoring besides Burns were: Dallas Riggsby, 10 points and 8 rebounds; Severance, McClure and Andy Hale, 6 points each; Anderkin, McGuire and Carpenter, 3 each and Powell, Blake Childress and Corey Scott, 2 each.

And then it was Tuesday night at Barbourville, and the Rockets were a 17-point underdog. In the first quarter, it looked as though the Tigers would bury the Rockets worse than expected, jumping out to a 25-13 first quarter lead, fueled by four three point baskets by the Tigers.

But, the Rockets sucked it up in the second quarter and put on a 19-5 run to lead 32-30 at the half. Burns scored 11 of his 21 points in this quarter; Riggsby got 6 and Severance the other 2.

Senior Chad Severance was the high scorer in the Rockets win over Garrard County last Saturday night. The Rockets then traveled to Clinton Co. Monday night where they fell to the Bulldogs and on Tuesday night, almost pulled the upset over Barbourville.

Lady Rockets Beat Jackson Co.

The Lady Rockets, behind 18 points by Kristi Moore and 17 by Suzie Carpenter, led the Rockets to 156-46 win over district rival Jackson Co. Monday night 56-46. It was the second win of the season for the Rockets over Jackson Co.

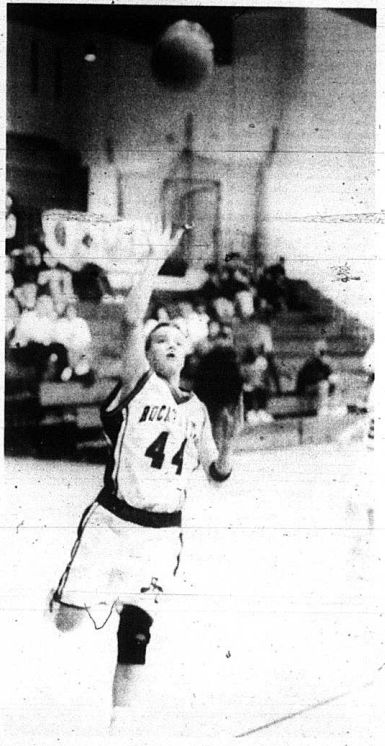

The Rockets held the Lady Generals to just 16 first half points and, after playing even in the third quarter, outscored them by one in the fourth for the final 10 point margin. Besides Moore and Carpenter, other Lady Rockets scoring were Amy Robinson 8; Jessica Albright 7 and Melinda Alcorn and Dee Reams 4 each.

Thursday night, the Lady Rockets travel to Whitley County and next Monday night host Monticello.

Kristi Moore, inset, and Suzie Carpenter scored 18 and 17 points, respectively, in the Lady Rockets second win of the season over Jackson Co.

The Lady Rockets travel to Whitley Co. Thursday and host Monticello Monday.

8th grader Matt Brown, shown here putting up a lay-up, hit the boards hard in the RCMS's 8th grade team win over Northern Pulaski Monday night.

Jayvees beat Garrard Co. and Barbourville; lose to Clinton Co.

Rocket fans did have something to cheer about in the first game at Barbourville as the Jayvees easily handled the Jayvee Tigers 59-41.

But Monday night at Clinton Co., the Jayvees lost a close one 40-37. The Jayvees erased a 23-15 half-time deficit to take the lead at the end of the third quarter 29-27 behind some hot shooting by guard Layne Nicely who poured in 10 of the Rockets 14 points in the third quarter. But, a 6-2 margin at the free-throw line in the fourth quarter in the Bulldogs favor made the difference in the 40-37 win.

Nicely's 14 led the Rocket scoring; Andy Hale got 7 points; John Brown 4 points and 10 rebounds; Michael Vaughn also scored 4; Blake Childress had 3 points and tied Brown for rebounding honors with 10; Jessie Bugg got 3 and Billy Kirby scored 2.

Friday night, the Jayvees added another one to their win column, crusing in an easy 46-23 victory over Garrard Co.

Andy Hale led the scoring with 11 points; Nicely got 9; Childress 6; Brown 5 and 10 rebounds; Matt Ford and Stevie Bradley, 4 each; Jessie Bugg, 3 and Billy Kirby and Nathan DeLeon, 2 each.

Freshmen get win over Danville Admirals

Behind 19 boards for Nathan DeLeon, the freshman Rockets hung on to beat the Danville Admirals 40-34 Saturday night. The "hung on" part came after the Rockets lost an 18 point halftime lead but persevered for the win.

Nicely led the scoring for the Rockets with 16; Andy Hale got 13; Nathan DeLeon 7 and Blake Childress and Stevie Bradley, 2 each.

Junior Pro Round-up

Rockcastle Junior Pro got back into action this past Saturday, January 13th at BES after games were postponed the previous Saturday due to the '96 blizzard. Those games will be made up at a later date. The largest crowds of the year came out for some great basketball action and were not disappointed. The results of the games this weekend were as follows:

IV LEAGUE: HORNETS 31 CELTICS 23

Both teams came out a little sloppy after not being able to practice in some time due to the Christmas vacation followed by the '96 blizzard. After a hard-fought first half, however, both teams had managed to knock some of the rust off and played well. The hard-luck Celtics went into the start of the fourth quarter trailing by just three points. Despite the Celtic hustle, the Hornets managed to pull out the victory behind another solid performance by their strong inside-outside combo of Matthew Renner and Devin Taylor. Renner again led the way in scoring for the Hornets with 15 points and also added about a dozen rebounds; Taylor drove and shot for 11 points; Alex Martin scored 3 points and added tough defense, and Sabrina Hensley picked up 2 points and several rebounds with some aggressive play. For the Celtics, Aaron Anderkin again led the way with 13 points and several rebounds; Derrick Shelton continued to show improvement as he put together a good game of 7 points and several steals and assists, while his brother Rod added 1 point and several aggressive rebounds; Steven Coffey capped off the scoring with 2 points and grabbed several boards.

RCMS Rockets sweep Pulaski

In eighth grade action Monday night, Andrew Cash scored 16 of his 18 points in the first half and Matt Brown controlled the board, as they led the Rockcastle Middle School Rockets (8-4) to a 44-28 conference win over the Northern Pulaski Knights.

The Knights tried to mount a rally in the third period with a full court press which resulted in three quick scores, but they could not cut into the Rocket lead.

Josh Singleton and Chris Parsons came off the bench to score 9 and 7 points, respectively. Also scoring were Jacob Burdette with 4 points and Brown, Daniel Morgan and Brad McNew each added 2 points.

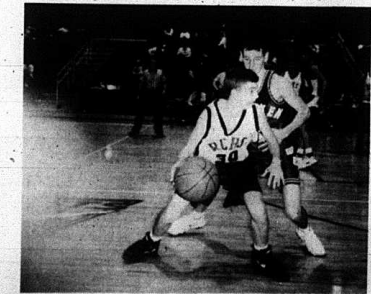

The seventh grade Rockets (9-4) were never challenged in their game with the Knights as they jumped out to an early 16-0 lead and coasted to a 45-22 win.

Josh Singleton led all scoring with 23 points; Greg Harper added 9; Chris Parsons got 5; Josh Lyons and Joe Clark each scored 3 and Jeremy Neeley, 2.

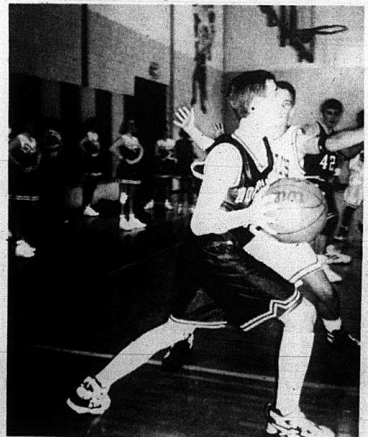

The sixth grade ran their record to 5-1 with a 24-15 win over the Knights. The Rockets were led in scoring by Andrew Hammond with 7 points; William Blair got 5; Josh Hale and Brandon McIntosh each added 4 and John Bray and Shane Kirby both got 2 points each.

Tuesday night, the 7th and 8th grade teams hosted Lexington Catholic and the 7th grade came away with a win but the 8th grade lost by 18.

The Rockets travel to Wayne Co. on Thursday with all three teams in conference action. On Saturday, Jan. 20, the seventh and eighth grade teams will participate in the Little Caesar's Classic at Lexington Catholic High School where they will take on Scott Co. The first game will begin at 2:15 p.m.

Freshman Layne Nicely's 14 points led the Jayvee Rockets in their 40-37 loss at Clinton County Monday night. In this photo, Nicely works the ball against a Bracken Co. defender in an earlier game this season.

At left, Andrew Cash, shown here in an earlier game this season, got 16 of his 18 points in the Northern Pulaski Co. game in the first half and led the scoring for the Middle School's 8th grade team's 44-28 conference

Rocket Roundup

The third quarter saw the Tigers regroup, tighten their defense and outscore the Rockets by four for a 46-44 edge at the quarter stop.

It was an exciting fourth quarter as Rocket fans watched their team get down by six, 55-49, but Severance and Burns combined for seven straight points and the Rockets took a 56-55 edge with less than a minute to play. But, Burns picked up his 4th and 5th fouls in the fourth quarter (the fourth one was a foul charge call) and had to leave the game with 30 seconds left to play. The Tigers then took a 58-56 lead but the Rockets had the ball and 21 seconds on the clock. After a time-out, McClure, whose shooting eye deserted him in the game, missed a two point shot with 16 seconds on the clock. McClure fouled the shot and got his own rebound but the referee said he stepped on the end line and it was Tigers ball and they proceeded to sing four clutch free throws to seal the victory.

The Rockets next opponent is Bell Co. Friday night in a away game and their Tuesday night trip to Madison Southern where the Eagles will be looking to avenge an earlier season loss to the Rockets. The Rockets are also scheduled to play Hart Co. in a tournament at Scot Co. next Wednesday night at 6:30. Their game will be followed by a game between Leslie Co., featuring Kentucky's Mr. Football Tim Couch, and Grant Co.

The Rockets take on Hart Co. in the Toyota Classic at Scott County High School January 24 at 6:30 p.m. They travel to Bell County Friday night and Madison Southern Tuesday night.

miles of road," he stated. "We need three more snow plows."

President Clinton has added New Jersey, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia to Delaware, Maryland, New York and the District of Columbia and Kentucky to receive help with snow removal.

Judge Carolotis thanked the public for its patience during the snow removal process. He especially thanked farmers for their tractors.

Small dead-end roads were a problem, the judge said. "We put our effort on major roads," the judge observed. "We didn't want plows stuck on dead end roads."

He said the big problem for the county will be gravel roads when the snow melts. "Gravel roads will fall apart," he noted. "Even the ditches are filled up."

County road employees spent 80 plus hours overtime, Judge Carolotis stated. "Some of them worked non-stop."

Salting, sanding and other anti-skid measures are not covered by the federal assistance and hauling of snow is eligible only when it can be shown that the hauling was absolutely necessary to maintain the required lane openings.

Gabbard's plan was approved by the board although each member expressed a desire to serve all students.

Vice chairman Dr. G.W. Griffith cast the only no vote against Gabbard's plan, mainly to make the sure the problem is revisited by the board, according to Rockcastle County School Superintendent Larry Hammond.

Hammond said the main problem with too many students in the preschool is at Mt. Vernon. Numbers are alright at Brothhead and Roundstone.

Hammond said that students who qualify for the program are admitted and other students who do not qualify take the remaining spots.

The problem occurred at Mt. Vernon this year when several qualifying students registered late and had to be given spots already occupied by non-qualifying students.

"Several parents became upset, and you can't really blame them," Hammond said. "However guidelines for this program are very strict and we must serve the handicapped and low income students first," Hammond said. Most students qualify by family income and others by handicap. Handicapped students are eligible for pre-school when they are three. Low income and other students can go when they are four.

Among the changes in the program are better communication between the school system and parents and a lottery for non-qualifying students for the remaining students.

Mrs. Houk told Bullock not to bother returning to work unless she just signed her name to the letter.

Mrs. Bullock also alleges that Mrs. Houk fired her on November 7, 1994. However the suit also says that Rockcastle County Attorney Jeff Burdette told Mrs. Bullock's attorney that Mrs. Bullock could return to work on November 9, 1994. Mrs. Bullock then signed the letter of requirements and expectations, under protest, and returned to work. In her suit, Mrs. Bullock alleges that when she returned to work she was subjected to retaliatory actions by Mrs. Houk. She says she was not allowed to return to the desk she had worked at for four years and she was given only a chair in the corner in which to sit.

Mrs. Bullock also alleges in her suit that she was required to perform duties she had never been given before and she was not allowed to use the postage machine as were her co-workers.

The suit says that on or about June 27, 1995 Mrs. Bullock was terminated from her employment with the County Clerk's office. Mrs. Bullock says her eventual firing was in retaliation for filing a charge with the Equal Opportunity Employment Commission in January of 1995 for pregnancy discrimination.

In her suit Mrs. Bullock has asked for damages in excess of $4,000, reinstatement and backpay, money damages for embarrassment and humiliation and several other things that normally are requested in such a suit.

Mrs. Bullock, who began working in the clerk's office in January of 1986 is asking for a jury trial.

Card Meeting
By: Tom Mills
Co. Ext. Agent for Agriculture

Farmers who purchase and apply restricted-use pesticides are required to keep their certification up-to-date. To do so requires farmers to attend one update training every 5 years. Farmers may check to see if their card is about to expire by checking the last two numbers in the serial number. The last two numbers are the year in which the card expires (on December 31st). Any card with 95 (or below) as the last two digits will need to be updated before purchases can be made.

On Thursday, January 18th at 7:00 p.m. in the Agriculture Service Center, Richmond Street, Mt. Vernon, farmers may attend a training session to qualify for a new card. We encourage tobacco farmers who plan to purchase methyl bromide in early spring to attend this session. The Department of Agriculture in Frankfort issues the cards, and long delays have been common in the past. For that reason, we encourage early attendance.

Any questions concerning this may be directed to Tom Mills, County Extension Agent for Agriculture, at 256-2403.

Burdette in compliance

Rockcastle County Attorney Jeff Burdette's office has again successfully complied with federally mandated time frames and accuracy in the child support enforcement program, a recent audit showed.

1995 is the second year the Division of Child Support Enforcement in Frankfort has conducted a program compliance audit to determine the accuracy of case work within the County Attorneys' offices across the state. Burdette also successfully passed the previous audit.

Steven P. Veno, Director of the Division of Child Support Enforcement, stated, "We appreciate the fact that your (Burdette's) office works hard to make sure the children of Rockcastle County receive the child support services due them."

Along those same lines, the financial audit of the Rockcastle

County Child Support Program was recently completed. Anthony A. Davidson, C.P.A. has completed the annual financial compliance audit for 18 months ending June 30, 1995.

The child support program administered by Rockcastle County Attorney, Jeffrey T. Burdette, received a clean and flawless audit opinion.

Mr. Davidson commented that, "Excellent accounting records are maintained for the Rockcastle County Child Support Program," and that, "The program is being managed very effectively and efficiently by Mr. Burdette and his staff."

Burdette indicated that, "Even with these successful inroads in the child support program, there are still many that are not paying the child support they owe, and children are suffering as a result. There is still progress to be made."

State announces priorities for snow removal

In order to make winter travel as safe and easy as possible, the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet is announcing the 1995-96 snow and ice removal priority road routes and at the same time, is extending availability of road conditions on the 1-800-4KY-ROAD toll-free information line.

Transportation Cabinet Secretary, Fred N. Mudge said state maintenance crews will clear the roads in Rockcastle County with the highest traffic volumes first before moving to the smaller, less-traveled roads. Every year cabinet engineers study traffic volumes and patterns to determine which roads are critical to traffic flow, taking into consideration geographic factors, before making changes to the system.

"Safety is our number one priority. Through planning ahead, the priority route system is designed to make traffic movement during inclement weather as safe and convenient as possible for the traveling public," said Mudge.

Priority A roads in Rockcastle County, which will be cleared first by Transportation Cabinet road crews, include I-75, US 25, US 50, a portion of KY 70 and KY 461. This category includes interstates, parkways, urban expressways and other state roads with exceptionally large volumes of traffic. The next roads to be cleared will be Priority B and then C, as indicated on the attached map.

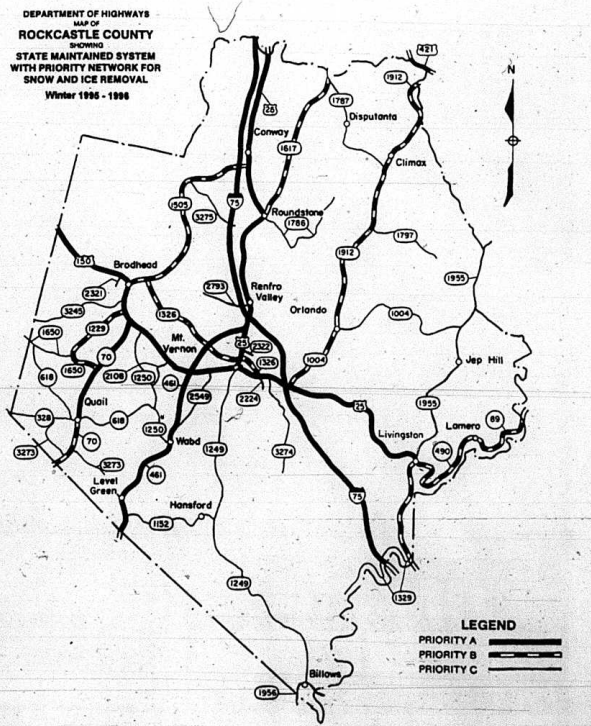

Priority B roads include state primary roads, bypasses and roads with slightly less traffic than Priority A roads. State secondary roads, rural secondary roads, and other routes with comparable traffic volumes fall under the Priority C category.

Mudge also said the Kentucky Road Report, which provides information on weather-related road conditions for interstates, parkways and major routes, will be in operation around the clock when snow and/or ice storms hit the state this winter. Otherwise, normal hours for the toll-free phone number are Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. EST. From any North American state, members of the public can call 1-800-4KY-ROAD (1-800-459-7623) for a recorded message or receive a faxed version by dialing (812)

914-7422 from their fax machine telephone.

County Attorney Conference

Legislative issues dominated the agenda during a recent meeting of the Kentucky County Attorneys' Association attended by Jeff Burdette, Rockcastle County Attorney.

The group emphasized the Unified Prosecutorial System budget that county attorneys and commonwealth attorneys have submitted to the General Assembly for review during the upcoming session.

"Our number one priority is to have this budget passed as we have submitted it to the General Assembly," said Clay Bishop, Jr., president of the Association. "Eventually, our counties will begin to suffer without the much needed funding we've requested for employee salaries, office supplies and equipment in order to maintain the level of prosecutions and keep up with the increasing responsibilities of each county attorney's office."

The group also hosted representatives from the Child Support Division of the Cabinet for Human Resources and from the Department of Revenue to discuss two services many county attorneys provide to their constituents: the collection of child support payments and delinquent taxes.

"We are pleased with our meetings with the Cabinet for Human Resources and the Department of Revenue," said Bishop. "We believe we will continue to develop good working relationships with both of them."

Rockcastle County Attorney and member of the County Attorneys' Legislative Review Committee, Jeff Burdette, appreciates the opportunity to discuss relevant issues with other county attorneys.

"The conference not only benefits me as a county attorney, but also our community," said Burdette. "It gives me the opportunity to hear ideas from other county attorneys who face circumstances similar to the ones we face here in Rockcastle County."

Nearly half of all county attorneys across the state attended the two-day conference.

Ninety-two of the state's 120 county attorneys are members in the County Attorneys' Association, which was founded in 1978 to unite Kentucky's county attorneys and help them to better serve their communities.

Legislative Update

By State Representative Danny Ford

Reports From Frankfort, January 23, 1996

The winter storm that blasted Kentucky last weekend buried many portions of the state in a foot or more of snow, and caused many businesses to close their doors for a day. However, the one-day delay did not slow down our pace in taking care of legislative business in Frankfort.

This second week of the session, members of the 1996 Kentucky General Assembly once again dealt with redistricting. As you know, House Bill 1 passed 58 to 39. It was voted out of the House last week along party-lines with all but two Democrats voting for its passage. I voted against this bill because I felt it violated the state constitution regarding how legislative district lines should be determined. The constitutionality of this bill is now being challenged in Frankfort County Circuit Court by a Republican colleague.

On Wednesday, House Bill 1 went before the Senate and passed. That same day, we voted on the Senate's redistricting bill, which also passed along party-lines in a final vote of 61 to 33. Once again, my objections were that this bill also failed to meet the mandates of the constitution.

The Governor signed both bills into law on Thursday. However, it appears the debate over legislative redistricting will continue for some time while we wait for the outcome of a court ruling on the House plan. During these first two weeks of the session, a menagerie of bills have been filed addressing issues that range from designating the thoroughbred horse as the state horse of Kentucky to allowing voluntary school prayer. As the momentum of the session picks up, we will consider about 1,400 pieces of legislation and discuss in depth, and possibly fiercely, topics such as health care, education, and juvenile crime.

HEALTHCARE: Calls from citizens frustrated by the newly-enacted health care reform bill of 1994 have flooded the legislative message line. The most common complaints about the state's health care measure are increased premiums and insurance carriers being forced out of the state. We will look at these complaints, as well as reconsider the provider tax. A Republican bill has been filed to repeal this tax.

EDUCATION: Kentucky's educational system has been closely scrutinized this past year by lawmakers, educators, parents, and other concerned citizens. The result is the need to re-examine how students are tested; how tests are graded; how students are evaluated; and other areas of accountability.

We will also consider a bill that will let each school-based decision making council decide whether to implement an ungraded primary program in its school.

Two bills have been introduced relating to voluntary school prayer. One bill allows voluntary, student-initiated prayers during non-instructional times; the other House bill permits observation of a moment of silence for one minute at the beginning of the first class each day.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,

I'm writing to all of the overweight people who will take time to read this. I am an overweight mother of one and have until recently, kept on the weight since the birth of my daughter in 1993.

A friend of mine noticed how heavy I had become lately and called to invite me to an open house at TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) in Brodhead. As soon as I heard of the success she had been having at losing weight, I had to check it out!

When I arrived, I saw people laughing, clapping, ringing bells, and having a good time, not anything like I'd imagined. What I didn't see was a lot of money-hungry people trying to fool me into joining for my money. I also didn't see a quick fix no miracle diets, no fat-free food to buy, no exercise program to follow. I just saw a lot of down-home friendly people sharing laughs and applauding one another for losing weight (if only 1/4 pound).

Since joining on September 21, I've lost 12 pounds. Now that may not sound like a whole heck of a lot, but I've lost a lot of fat and gained a lot of respect for myself.

I've not reached my goal yet, but you can bet when I do, TOPS #KY476, Brodhead will be applauding and ringing bells till dawn!

For more information on TOPS please call 256-2490 or 758-4047. Sincerely, F.E. Lamb

Some "Straight Talk" On Banking Today... That Can Make Banking Better For You...

IRA — You Can Start Small

Usually when Individual Retirement Accounts are advertised, the main point of the ad is the fact that you can invest $2,000 annually ($2,250 if your spouse doesn't work). This is the maximum contribution allowed each year.

Because of the fact that the ads on IRA's always emphasize the maximum contribution, many people have been left with the feeling that you have to contribute $2,000 annually. This is not true. You can contribute whatever amount you want as long as it doesn't exceed the maximum.

The important thing is that you get started with an IRA even if you can only contribute $200 a year initially. Come in and see us about an IRA. Substantial penalty for early withdrawal.
