GOODNIGHT NEIGHBOR

As long as I have lived at my present address on Tevis St. I don't think I've ever heard my neighbor across the street call me anything but neighbor. In the morning, when he would get his paper from the box, if I happened to be getting mine also, it was a soft voiced "good morning neighbor". In the middle of the day when he would be working around the yard or mowing, a hand would be lifted up and a smiling "Howdy neighbor," would be his greeting. When I went to him for help with a problem, which I seldom did, I was greeted with "come on in neighbor" and when I would apologize for disturbing him the yard or he was always quick to come back with, "now don't let this bother you for what are neighbors for if they can't help one another in their time of need." When I needed to borrow a special tool to hook up my air conditioner he not only brought the tools over he stayed and helped install it. When he put up a new post for his mailbox next to mine there was also a new one put up for my box. When I didn't know what to do with an old water heater and had the ugly thing lying in my flower bed, Joe and his wife, Bea, volunteered to haul it off and dispose of it.

Yes, I am talking about Joe Hensley, my neighbor from across the street, who emphasized the real meaning of being a good neighbor. My heart is heavy today for he was buried yesterday.

I watched Wednesday morning as he filled his bird feeders and readied things for their absence from home for a few days. He and Bea were going on a short vacation to Florida and Joe was seeing to it his wild friends would not lack for food while they were gone. Little did I realize then I had heard my last "Morning Neighbor" Nor was I prepared Thursday morning for the shocking message, Joe Hensley died this morning in Valdosta, Georgia.

Saturday night as I slowly walked down the aisle facing tiers of flowers then looked down on the sleeping figure of the man from across the street all I could think of was "Goodnight Neighbor."

My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the loved ones left behind, Bea, his wife, their two sons, grandchildren and all the many relatives and friends that were an important part of his life.

curring expenditures, plus $33 million for teacher's salaries, which will allow school districts to raise teacher salaries by at least 2.6 percent each year; 4 percent increase for higher education; 7 percent increase for adult technical education; 9.3 percent funding increase for Department of Corrections in 1997; 4 percent increase for AFDC programs and sufficient general fund support to leverage the maximum federal Medicaid dollars (15 percent increase).

Regarding tax cuts, the budget plan sets two goals: phasing out the provider tax and phasing in an increase of the standard tax deduction from $650 to $1,700 by the year 2000. Adjustments in these tax changes would be made for inflation. This could provide tax relief to some 660,000 taxpayers. Both tax reduction measures will cost Kentucky about $85 million a year.

The Governor pledged during his campaign to return half of the coal severance tax to the counties. However, he admitted that his budget does not reflect this and blamed the shortfall of revenue to fulfill his promise. The budget plan does not disturb block grants; keeping funding at the same rate. Area development funds were not addressed in the budget. While the budget excludes filling job vacancies, it does propose a 5 percent pay increase for state employees.

The fourth week of the session dealt with more than the state's finances. Several hundred people testified before the Health and Welfare Committee during the three-day series of public meetings on health care held this past week in Frankfort.

Most agreed several aspects of the reform bill need reworking, and expressed concern about increased premiums and deductibles. Some voiced concern about insurance companies leaving the state; other opposed having their choice of insurance companies limited. Supporters praised the concept of accessible insurance.

We also dealt with several other pieces of legislation: VOLUNTARY SCHOOL PRAYER: House Bill 10 sailed easily through the House with a final vote of 88 to 4. This bill allows voluntary, student-initiated prayer during non-instructional times.

TRANSPORTATION OF INMATES: House Bill 9 gives fiscal courts the power to approve agreements between jailers and sheriffs for the transportation of prisoners. This allows jailers, as well as sheriffs, to transport inmates. Another measure relating to counties, House Bill 48, sets the amount of performance bonds (minimum of $10,000) to be filed with fiscal courts.

STATE HORSES: One of the lighter pieces of legislation we reviewed this week was the adoption of House Bill 149. As part of their classroom studies, students from Rep. Jim Zimmerman's district learned first hand how a bill becomes law when they asked that he draft legislation to name and designate the thoroughbred horse the state horse of Kentucky. The bill passed 92 to 1.

As the session continues, it is vital for me to know your thoughts and opinions. Please share your comments with me by dialing the toll-free message line 1-800-372-7181. There are also several other toll-free telephone numbers that provide up-to-date information. To learn the status of a bill, call 1-800-776-9158. To find out the schedule of upcoming meetings, dial 1-800-633-9650.

Murray State University in Paducah. Of the budgetary surplus, $200 million will be placed in the state's budget reserve trust ("rainy day") fund to cover any unexpected revenue shortfalls and protect our bond rating. The Governor indicated that the remaining $107 million will be used to establish the Empower Kentucky program and additional funds for education, public safety and human service needs.

The Governor has proposed the empowerment program to use non-recurring revenues of approximately $90 million to enhance the state's technology. This is an effort to streamline services by cutting out the middle steps in order to reduce agencies' operating costs to improve the efficiency of state government. Portions of another $90 million will go to fund two juvenile detention centers (one in northern Kentucky, the other in western Kentucky); Hopkinsville Regional Technical Training Center ($14.4 million); Ashland Community College Classroom building ($5.5 million) and University of Louisville's Health Science Center Research Facility ($14 million).

Other aspects of the Governor's budget:

A 4 percent increase in funding for elementary and secondary education in each year of the budget for re-

Three-month-old DOA at local hospital

A three-month-old Washington State girl was dead on arrival at Rockcastle Hospital Monday morning. Emily Seppela, of Brush Perry, Washington, was traveling to Michigan with her family when she became unconscious, according to Rockcastle County deputy coroner Roy Martin.

Deputy Sheriff hurt slightly in wreck

Rockcastle County Deputy Sheriff Randall Reynolds was slightly injured last week when a Kentucky State Police Officer wrecked his cruiser in Brodhead. Trooper John Yates and deputy Reynolds were responding to a domestic dispute call at Brodhead when Yates lost control of his cruiser on Sycamore Street and ended up in the ditch.

County gets $25,000 more for road fund

The Rockcastle Fiscal Court amended the county budget's road fund last Thursday to include $25,000 more money from the state. The money was granted to Rockcastle by the state to help pay for some blacktop that was put down this past summer on the Hammond's Fork Road project, according to County Judge-Executive Buzz Carlofitis.

90 attend water meeting

"With cutbacks in public spending it may be "your" last chance for water." So said County Judge/Executive Buzz Carlofitis to about 90 persons attending Rockcastle County Water Association's first of five community meetings at Red Hill's first Red Hill Baptist Church Monday night. "The large turn-out indicates the great need for water in the Red Hill community," Judge Carlofitis said.

Even though the money ($1.6 million) has been set aside for this project in our county, it can only be a reality if the association's board of directors can sign up as many customers as possible along the roads in its proposed project.

For the first time in nearly 24 years, I have a full set of teeth. And believe it or not, nearly half of them are natural. It's just that over the last couple of decades, I've occasionally had to have a tooth lifted here and there because they would no longer hold fillings and it got to the point that my partial plate wouldn't stay in. So over the last four months, I've gone through the process of having my mouth completely remodeled and I feel so happy about it that I'm thinking about putting a "NO VACANCY" sign under my lower lip.

I worked as a night clerk at a motel for a year or two back in the sixties and about three weeks after I came on board the owners had a big new neon sign made that hung out over the road on highway 23. It cost nearly a thousand dollars, and for comparison's sake, you could buy a late model used car for even less back then. Cigarettes were a quarter a pack out of the vending machine and a dime got you three games on any pin ball machine in town. It was a heckuva sign and every evening at the edge of dark I'd proudly turn it on so that you could see its scarlet glow, a beacon for weary travelers, for miles in both directions up and down the Big Sandy River.

As far as I could tell it didn't do anything to lure in any new customers. In fact it was so gaudy that it probably scared many away. It had an especially boldly-lettered, day-glow, glass-tubed "NO VACANCY" sign at the bottom that you had to use a separate switch to make come on. The owners had even paid upwards of a hundred dollars for a recharging kit for the "NO VACANCY" letters because they figured the main sign would bring in so much business that they'd have to leave the bottom turned on pretty frequently during the day and that it would require more maintenance than the rest of the sign.

Months went by after the sign was hung before we had a night that more than 20 of our 32 rooms were occupied.

But every once in awhile, I'd look up and down the road to make sure that no cars were coming and I'd switch on the "NO VACANCY" just to see if she was still working and I yearned for the occasion that I could let her burn all night.

There's a great deal of pride and satisfaction in turning on the "NO VACANCY" sign if you're in the motel business because it lets the traveling public know that you must be running an exceptionally hospitable establishment or you wouldn't be full all the time. Theory has it that once you get the reputation it'll get to the point that folks won't want to stay anywhere else and they'll call you months in advance to make reservations. And sooner or later when tourists and travelling salesmen call in, you can politely say that you have no rooms available, but you'll be glad to call the Ramada or the Holiday Inn and see if you can't make some arrangements for them.

When you're in the motel business, there is no warmer inner-glow than that which comes from calling up the competition and telling them that your rooms are all taken but you wonder if they'd mind putting up some folks that really had their hearts set on staying at the River Vue.

The reason I know that is because the clerks at the Holiday Inn would call to send me business all the time and I could literally feel them glowing over the phone. I also know that they were basking in the warm rays that their "NO VACANCY" sign cast through the big picture window of the check-in lobby. To say that I was jealous is an understatement.

A few years later I worked a few months at the Suburban Motel in Whitesburg where we stayed filled-up nearly every night and where I had to frequently re-charge the neon in the "NO VACANCY" sign. It was in fact, a wonderful feeling.

Almost exactly like the one I got when I chomped down on a big ear of corn at super time last night.

PRECIOUS SOULS, CHILDREN OF AND EVIL AGE, greetings and generations from the windy Halls of Wald, native soil of the late Milago Drediflow, who was not known for anything in particular, except maybe an opinion or three that somehow were remembered, like the one he made regarding his mulish cousin, Siech Hapsawgger, down at Durthily's Tonsorial Parlor, back in the thirties. It's bad enough to have a sketchon in your closet," said Milago, "but having a honedhead in the family is downright distressful."

Speaking of family, I recently learned some things about the maternal side of my family that I never would have known had not an unknown relative in Annville called me one evening last week. She's studying the Hellard lineage.

Was I surprised to learn that my great-grandfather was named Thomas Jefferson Hellard and was an officer during the Civil War. Which side my cousin did not say.

The penchant for naming a son after a president might have led my grandfather, known in his time in these parts as "Uncle Sidney," to be one of his boys Benjamin Harrison Hellard. After Benjamin became a preacher, he changed the spelling of "Hellard" to "Hillard," arguing that the latter was the original spelling of the name. Somehow, as a child, I was led to think he changed the spelling because it wouldn't do for a minister of the Gospel to have "hell" in his name.

Which spelling is correct? I don't know. Who cares, other than the Hellards and Hillards? "What the Sam Hill does it matter?" said my Uncle Sam Hillard, brother to Ben Like Meadows and Meadors. "Hillard and Hillard" probably sprouted from the same stump.

Speaking of stumps and getting on to my main line for today - it was a stump that inspired Job, unimmemorable generations ago, to ask, "If a man die, shall he live again?" (Job 14:14)

You know the story. There sat Job in his ash-heap in the company of three "friends" who had come to Uz to hear him. But when Job disagreed with their theological explanation of the calamity that had come upon him, they turned sour in a hurry. ("There is nothing new under the sun.") And somewhere in his malaise, Job, forsaken by everyone, thought a new thought!

"I'm going to the Pit (the grave)," reasoned Job. "I will soon die. My sons have been taken from me. Who will carry on the family name? If only I could return and vindicate my name!"

"Could I... return? I've seen a dead-tree cut to a stump. But let its roots get a scent of water, and it's alive again! Like a tree, I'm about to be cut down. Can I come back, like a stump? I wish God would hide me in Sheol until his wrath is over... and then bring me back!" (Sheol was another word for the grave, which sinks deep down into the dark, undefined bowels of the earth. So thought the ancients of the Near East.)

When I taught Old Testament in college, I made sure my students understood that the belief in "life after death" didn't come into play in Jewish thought until after the Babylonian Exile (586-538 B.C.). Job, I explained, would never have asked "If a man die, shall he live again?" were it common knowledge that a person lived on after death. I used the stump-passage to show my students that Job was plowing new ground.

Well it's been here and gone, my Birthday Fantasy party that I gave for the readers. I had said if you were a reader of this paper, you were there!

And they came, all 5,400 of you not counting the second and third class readers so it really was a bang. Those readers were given, or borrowed the Signal from the ones who took it first.

I had been asked what Resolution I made myself and after that wild night, I am not having another birthday party.

I didn't get to church Sunday and John, who felt well enough to go, told Bill Stephens that I was feeling tough with an after effect from the party in not coming to church and neither did Flossie, Bill's wife.

I thought reaching another year in my birthday years of 49 made me feel bad, I don't know what Flossie had not coming to church.

I'm telling you it was exciting with the old Disputanta Post Office being decorated with wild green limbs from the hills. With the doors open and a big fire in the big fireplace, the room bare and the tables with chairs around the walls was a sight for folks driving, walking, riding, coming in on one of the Three Forks of the Road, was a beautiful picture.

Most of the women on the creek wore red and green full-skirted dresses with ribbons in their hair as they stood behind the tables, getting ready to serve pies, cakes, and cookies to the folks coming in.

The Clear Creek women and girls did the refreshments for me and I really appreciate their help.

The men on the creek did the heavy work, such as getting wood for the fire, hanging the greens, and sneaking a bite of the good smelling food as I saw Junior King do when he thought no one was looking.

I owe thanks to Dr. Mary Ellen Shields and husband, Norm Woods who let us have the party in the old store building. They came to the party and I was surprised but she looks lovely in a rhinestone decorated blue dress. Then to the Andersons who gave me this job, I give thanks. But Richard, my boss, didn't have to take three helpings of the kumquat pie, Ruth Abney made and brought for me.

All these folks stood at the front door with John and I to welcome the guests. Clear Creek won't be the same after this "fantasy reader's party" that the folks helped to give. With all these readers coming in the front door, eating the good food prepared by Clear Creek women readers, and leaving by a side door, it was something no one will forget.

This time the readers were supposed to give a birthday present (I had been giving them one before at my paper's party so I thought I'd take my turn and let them give me one, which they did. My gifts were piled on the floor and I would open later.

But it was daylight next day when the party slowed down and the last guest departed.

I was so tired I could hardly hold up my head, but I'm so grateful to all these people that helped me and the readers who came from so far.

I really hadn't expected Lelamae Gaines of Sun City, Florida, nor John, her husband, who came from so far away but they are loyal readers. Lelamae was beautiful in a bikini and some of the boys' eyeballs almost popped out (I didn't let John look too long).

Since I didn't get all gifts and resolutions before my "reader's party", I will tell about them now and the things they gave me.

Joe Abney had brought me some jam made from the berries on Clear Creek hills saying the jam might have some dust in it as he made jam from the ones he picked twice, once from the bushes where they grew and next picked the berries from the ground where he had fallen trying to cross over a fence and not spill them.

Joe's resolution was not to go looking for berries unless he looks for a yellow jacket nest first.

Yes, Ruth did come to my party bringing a kumquat pie which was a big favorite at the party.

Her resolution, Ruth said, was to take long walks in the hills and get better so she had been sick all year.

Joe had been to Virgil Abney's funeral and talked to Marion Abney, one of Uncle Jack Abney's sons.

Marion told Joe he likes to read me in the Signal. He said, "When the paper comes in I grab it and read it from cover to cover. That woman can really write."

Well, I am close kin to Marion Abney. His dad was a brother to my grandpa Taylor Abney, Broder and Marion are the only ones living. He had better be careful in saying words like that about me. I'm liable to bring

John and our dog, Spot, and stay a week with them or until the cracklin' bread gives out.

Springtime is coming and Ruth Abney may make (persuade) Joe to get out and look for some sassafras roots to make tea. I'll stop by and maybe they'll offer me a cup.

Peggy Payne Rowlett says she'll bring me some greens to decorate the party walls.

Abley Raeburn, granddaughter of Peggy, has a birthday on January 30th.

Peggy has quit making resolutions, she says and I reply, "You just made one, kid."

Kenny Rowlett, Peggy's son who is a professor at a college in Virginia, has a birthday January 31st. So, Happy Birthday, professor and visit in Kentucky again soon.

Sharon Hurley Anglin, who works as a clerk for Don Foster Realty Company, gave me a big bottle of Castor Oil for my overeating as I do sometimes.

Her resolution is to be a good Mommie to her daughter, Deanna Anglin, and wife to husband, Dana.

In getting birthdays, Joe Abney has one April 3rd, and Ruth has one on April 18th.

Lee Abney, one of my favorite kinfolk, makes me a good resolution when he says "for the rest of 1996, I'm going to devote my time to God, my family, and my church. That should take it all in. I wish he had added "and to my kinfolk."

My time and space have run short on me again so I'll have to use some of next week's column.

Till next week: "I have a plan for your life, it is a plan to give you a future and a hope." Jeremiah 20:11

"Heresay"

the semester, mid-December, about a week before the final exam. Job is probably the oldest story in the Old Testament, but its final written form was fixed not long before the time of Christ. I taught the Bible as it came to be chronologically, as best we can tell

So, the first multiple choice on one December final exam read thus: 1. Job speculated, in part about the possibility of "life after death" when he thought about

- a. his old friends a-mourning
- b. his old wife a-nagging
- c. an old stump a-sprouting
- d. a partridge in a pear tree.

[END OF ASIDE]

Where was I? Oh, yes Job and his "comforters."

Eventually, after considerable theological reflection from his hard-line friends, Job ignored them and took his new thought a step further. (Should I say it was actually a giant leap for all mankind?) For a moment, his self-pity turned to assurance, and he exclaimed,

"Oh that my words were written! For I know that my Indecator [Redeemer] lives, and at last he will stand upon the earth [dust of his grave]. And after my skin has been thus destroyed, then from my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side. My heart faints within me!" (RSV, Job 19:23ff)

The King James Version reads "in my flesh," and instead of "My heart faints within me" the KJV says "My reins are consumed within me." Now that really speaks to our age!

[ANOTHER ASIDE]

Studying the Bible in its original language surely changed or did away with some of the traditional interpretations heaped upon me when I was a youth. For instance, I was taught that "from [or in] my flesh" was a prediction of a bodily resurrection.

Dear beloved, the Hebrew word translated "from" or "in" can and often does mean "away from," and in Job's case could mean "without my flesh." The King James translators really pushed it when they said "in my flesh." We cannot rightly say whether Job's word does or does not refer to a bodily resurrection. But the New Testament does! If you must "rise again," pitch your tent there.

Also, Job did not say "My kidneys are fading me!" In other words, the overwhelming thought of somebody seeing the Almighty face to face, on his side, made Job wet himself.

Dear hearts, biblical people didn't go around using King James capshifens for every thing that might offend some folk a few thousand years later.

[END OF ANOTHER ASIDE]

Job asked a passel of ponderous questions. Not one was answered. But the prospect of seeing God on his side so thrilled Job that his questions no longer mattered. A vision of God would be enough... everything.

Speaking of euphany, I'd like to ask, "Has God appeared lately to any of you out there in Signal Land? More times than you are aware, I'd venture to say. I'm not talking about seeing him in purpled mountain majestics, amber waves of grain, babbling brooks, and whooping cranes. I refer to a quite different way of apprehending the Almighty, possibly the way he intended. Let me explain.

When we talk about God, we are limited to human terms to describe him (her? other?) We have no words to depict him as he actually is because he is so beyond us, i.e., he is "the Wholly Other."

But don't forfeit hope. If the Bible be believed, the Almighty thinks a lot of his humans, so much so that he put his "image" or "likeness" into every person who comes into the world. (To be sure, we have marred that image.) And it's astounding that when God really showed himself, he did so as a lowly Nazarene carpenter.

Maybe my late, eight-some fishing buddy, Josh Oldham, knew what he was talking about that morning as we wet our lines in the still, black water around the roots of a worshipping cypress in beautiful An Lake, near the confluence of the Ohio and the Mississippi rivers.

"The only God I know," Josh said, "is the God I see in the faces of my friends... and maybe my foes."

Dear hearts, let me run with Josh's thought and suggest that the only time you and I see God is when we see him in each other as we care for each other.

— beyond — the circumscribed boundaries of our little cultures, and especially beyond the walls of our sanctuaries, where a corporate, soul-stilling pretense of care is all to often the order of the day. Will we ever care for and about each other as persons, instead of face-car alienating one another with our superfluous traditions, custom-made commandments, and dismal denominational differences?

I agree with a decision of the congregation of which I'm a part. Said he to me, "The way to God isn't as hard to find as some folks make it." Oups! I must cease my Meadowlawn meandering, precious souls, and go sharpen our scythe so Nancy can clean out the fence row when she gets home from work.

I find next week, beloved — the Almighty willing — don't get your bows in an uproar, don't eat in your meetin' house, and don't think too much of yourself lest your reins be consumed within you!

Outstanding volunteer, citizen Betty Lewis succumbs to cancer

Betty Carolee Reed Lewis, who was instrumental in the establishment of several volunteer organizations in Rockcastle County and active in many more, died of cancer Monday at Rockcastle Hospital in Mt. Vernon after an illness of several months. She was 61 and lived on Greenway Drive in Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Lewis, a licensed clinical social worker, was the family resource and youth services director of Mt. Vernon and Roundstone elementary schools. She also was a counselor for Cumberland Valley Comprehensive Care.

She introduced literacy programs in seven southern Kentucky counties and started a Candy Strippers program at Rockcastle Hospital. She also re-established Girl Scouting in Rockcastle County and started the school system's Big Buddy Program in which model high school students are paired with younger children.

Over the years, she also had served on the boards of the Rockcastle County senior citizens organization, library and housing authority. She had been a Rockcastle County Council member for the Arts volunteer and was a member of First Christian Church in Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Lewis received the 1995 Everett C. Brown Award, given each year to the Kiwanis Club of Rockcastle County in recognition of outstanding service and commitment to the community. She also received the Lydia Award for Community Service from Mt. Vernon First Christian Church and the Children's Service Award from the Children's Service Council in Rockcastle County.

Mrs. Lewis, a West Virginia native, was a graduate of Berea College and held a master's degree in social work from the University of Kentucky and a master's degree in community counseling from Eastern Kentucky University.

Mrs. Lewis was born in West Virginia on January 23, 1935, the daughter of Evelyn Games Reed and the late Guy Livingston Reed.

Besides her mother, Mrs. Evelyn Reed of Charlton Heights, West Virginia, she is survived by a son and daughter-in-law, Jack Douglas II and Shelley Raines Lewis of Somerset; two daughters and sons-in-law, Lisa Clontz and John Clontz of Mt. Vernon and Julie Lewis and Steven C. Beard of Jacksonville, Florida; two brothers, Games Reed of Pratt, West Virginia and Wallace Reed of Mountainburg, Arkansas; three grandchildren, Lauren Reed Clontz, Victoria Anne Clontz and Morgan Diane Palmer.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday, February 1, 1996 (today) at 2:00 p.m. at the Dowell & Martin Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Eddie Hammond officiating. Burial will follow in the Cresthaven Memorial Cemetery in Mt. Vernon.

Pallbearers will be Roland Mullins, Bill Cash, Mark Bray, Larry Hammond, Steven Beard and Joe Clontz. Honorary Pallbearers will be Wayne Stewart, Emory Martin, Bige Towery, Joe Henderson, Aster McNew, Jack Raines, Billy Hiatt and Doug Mullins.

The family has requested that contributions be made to the American Diabetes Association, PO Box 96911, Washington, D.C. 20096 or the First Christian Church of Mt. Vernon Building Fund.

Cards of Thanks

Thank You Mr. and Mrs. George Collins and family would like to thank everyone who helped them celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. They received many nice cards, gifts and flower wishes. A special "thank you" to all those who helped make this day a very special occasion.

George, Irene and family

Burnam B. Baker

The family of Burnam B. Baker would like to take this time and opportunity to express our appreciation for the love and many acts of kindness shown to us during this time of sadness. Thanks to all those who came to sit with us, showed us comfort, brought food, gave donations and sent the beautiful flowers. An extra special thanks to my daughter, Anna Basham, for being here during our loss. A very special thanks goes to Dowell and Martin Funeral Home and his kindness, Bro. Jack Watkins for his words and the singing by Alonzo and Pat May. We can never express enough appreciation. Thanks to the pallbearers: Vietnam Veterans out of Richmond and the Navy Reserves out of Lexington. Again, thanks to everyone who showed us love and kindness at this saddest at the time of Burnam's death.

Joe Hensley

The family of Joe Hensley would like to thank everyone for the love and kindness that was shown in great measure during our recent loss. We appreciate every dish that was prepared and brought to our home, every flower that was given, every kind that was done or offered, and most of all we appreciate the prayers that was said for us during our time of grief.

Thanks to Bro. Olen McGuire and Bro. John Hoskins for the excellent way they conducted the funeral service and their comforting words. Also the singers and music was beautiful. Thanks to Roy Martin, his son Steve and the staff at the funeral home for their services. They were there at all times and seemed to meet our every need. We did miss our friend, Billy Dowell, but understand he was away in Honduras.

Thanks to our dear friends, Dorothy Clark and Mattie Miller who missed the funeral to be in our home and have everything prepared for friends and family to come back to a table set with care and love.

We appreciate Truman and Charlotte Adams, and Joe's brother, Owen Hensley and Lillie for getting to their location in Florida to Valdosta, Georgia so fast to help me get back home. It was so good to see a familiar face. I thanked God for them.

Manley McGuire

We would like to take this time to express our thanks for the care of our father during his illness and death at Rockcastle Hospital and to Dr. Griffith for his care.

We would like to thank Maple Ridge Baptist Church and McNew Baptist Church and all friends and relatives who brought food and flowers or just visited us in our time of sorrow.

May God Bless You All, The family of Manley McGuire

Calcium Intake Is Low For Adults

By: Hazel Jackson County Extension Agent
for Home Economics

"Most children learn early in life to drink milk for strong bones!" Adults sometimes feel that since their bones are fully developed that they no longer need dairy products. In fact, according to recent USDA surveys, average calcium intakes for women and younger men are below their Recommended Dietary Allowance (RDA).

The RDA for calcium has been set at 800 milligrams per day for adults 19 to 24 years of age and 800 milligrams for adults 25-50 years of age. The standard of 1,000 mg. is used for calculations on food labels.

The average calcium intake by women 19 to 34 years of age is about 665 mg. per day and the intake by women 35 to 50 years of age is about 565 mg. per day. Average calcium intake by men 19 to 34 years of age is 975 mg.

Calcium absorption is dependent upon the calcium needs of the body, the foods eaten, and the amount of calcium in the foods eaten. Vitamin D, whether from diet or exposure to the ultraviolet light of the sun, increases calcium absorption. Calcium absorption tends to decrease with the increased age of both men and women.

Eating a variety of foods that contain calcium is the best way to get an adequate amount. Milk, of course, is an excellent source of calcium. So are cheeses, some breads and grain products and some seafood.

Here is a calcium-rich shake recipe. To lower the fat, choose 2% or skim milk and lowfat yogurt.

Strawberry Yogurt Smoothie

- 1 (10 oz) pkg frozen strawberries, thawed
 - 1 1/2 cups milk
 - 1 cup frozen strawberry yogurt
- In blender container, combine ingredients; blend until smooth. Serve immediately. Refrigerate any leftovers. Makes 4 cups.

For more information on calcium or calcium-rich recipes, call the Extension Office at 256-2403.

will not be allowed to perform. Registration information will include:

- 1) Name of Act
- 2) Type of music that will be used (tape, record, piano)
- 3) Number in the act
- 4) Need names of participants if it is a Specialty Act

Sheep producers to vote on sheep industry checkoff Feb. 6th

By: Tom Mills
Co. Ext. Agent for Agriculture

Kentucky sheep producers will vote on the Sheep Industry Checkoff February 6. Voting will take place in the Cooperative Extension Service offices across the state.

If approved by the voting sheep producers, the checkoff will fund a program designed to strengthen the position of sheep and sheep products in the market place through promotion, research and education.

County sheep producers may vote at the Cooperative Extension Office between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. that day. All producers, feeders and importers who certify they were engaged in the production, feeding or importation of sheep or sheep products (except importers of raw wool) between

RIBBONS AWARDED

This year, all acts will receive either a Red or Blue Ribbon, according to their score. (No green ribbons will be given). The First Place Specialty and Club Acts will also receive Champion Ribbons. First and Second Place acts will receive plaques.

January 1 and December 31, 1994 are eligible to vote.

The Consolidated Farm Service Agency, formerly the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, will determine the eligibility of voters, count the ballots and tabulate the results.

If two-thirds of the voters approve the program, it will be funded by a mandatory assessment on domestic sheep producers, sheep feeders and importers of sheep and sheep products. Sheep producers will be assessed one cent per pound on sales of live sheep and two cents per pound on sales of greasy wool.

Passage of the checkoff is expected to bring in $13 million to $14 million for lamb and wool promotion, with $6 million anticipated to come from importer contributions.

For additional information, concerning the vote, come by the Cooperative Extension Service or call 256-2403.

4-H Variety Show to be held

By: John McQueary

County Extension Agent for 4-H

COUNTY SHOW

Date: Thursday, March 28th
Mt. Vernon Elementary School
Registration Deadline: Friday, March 22nd

AREA SHOW

Saturday, April 27th
Knox County

Now is the time for 4-H'ers to begin their preparation for the County 4-H Variety Show. This event consists of specialty and club acts and is held annually at the county and area level. It provides an opportunity for large numbers of 4-H participants to gain poise and confidence and develop character and sportsmanship while working cooperatively with others.

Clubs planning to participate need to carefully read over and follow the rules and guidelines.

1. Specialty Acts shall consist of four (4) 4-H participants or fewer and have a time limit of four minutes. A 4-H club may have up to two specialty acts. Specialty acts will be divided up into junior and senior divisions. Anyone in a specialty act who is 14 years of age by January 1, 1996, will be in the senior division.
2. There must be 5 participants or more for a Club Act. Club acts have a time limit of 8 minutes.
3. One person who is not a 4-H participant, such as a pianist, may accompany the act. Other than the one accompanist, only 4-H participants may appear on the stage during the act.

4. Variety Show participants must be a 4-H club member or have participated in a 4-H activity since October, 1995, and may only represent one club. 4-H'ers belonging to two clubs may not be in both clubs' acts.

5. There shall be absolutely no pantomiming in any act, club or specialty.

6. Please use good judgement on dance routines.

7. An act exceeding the time limit should be permitted to finish but cannot be awarded Champion.

8. Since participation is of the utmost importance, the combination of clubs for the purpose of presenting a club or specialty act is not permitted.

9. Dramatic readings can be entered as a variety show act.

10. All acts must use the same P.A. system. No act will be allowed to provide their own system. A record player and tape recorder will be available and must be used by participants.

11. Leaders must take care of their own music. (Have tapes set at starting point.)

12. Each school will sit together until time for their acts. Club leaders are responsible for keeping their group together and quiet.

13. Parents should be recruited to help as chaperones.

14. Admission will not be charged.

15. Clubs must register their act by calling the Extension Office at 256-2403 BY FRIDAY, MARCH 22nd!! Acts that fail to register

Agriculture News

by: Warden Alexander

County Executive Director

Burley tobacco producers are urged to return their marketing card to the county office immediately after the final sale. The cutoff date for recording sales to the county office has been set for January 26, 1996. Notices for the '96 crop year are scheduled to be mailed March 1, 1996. Producers who have a tobacco sale date after January 26 are urged to bring the tobacco sale bills for reconciling the marketings prior to the '96 notices being mailed. Producers who fail to bring the sale bill will NOT receive the '96 quota notice until a later date.

There is still no work on the '96 Wheat and Food Grain program. Until a farm bill is passed, there are no provisions for the program. As soon as (and if) details are received, we will publicize them.

Dairy Refund program is going on now until March 15. Producers may be refunded the government assessment which is withheld from their checks if production does not exceed that of the preceding year. Proof of production is required by either check stubs or production summary sheet provided by the milk buyer.

It is once again time to accept applications for new burley tobacco farm quotas. Applications are being taken through February 15, 1996. Before an allotment or quota is recommended, it must be determined that each applicant meets all eligibility requirements as set forth in the guidelines. Requirements include: No burley tobacco quota, land suitable for tobacco production, producer has 2 of 5 years marketing history of burley tobacco, and 50% of all income is received from farming.

What: KIRIS Testing Information Night
Chili Dinner
Basketball Game

Who: Parents and Community

When: February 6th • 5 - 7 p.m.

Where: Rockcastle Co. High School

Why: To Inform Parents & Community of Assessment and Portfolios
(Specific information about the program is printed below)

MEMO TO R.C.H.S. PARENTS
RE: KIRIS (Testing and Portfolios)

This is to inform you of a KIRIS testing and portfolio information night being planned for parents on February 6th from 5 to 7 p.m. at R.C.H.S.

We plan to be together with a Chili Dinner in the cafeteria at 5 p.m. General information concerning KIRIS will be available, as well as tips for you to help your child do his/her very best. The testing is scheduled for the following week; therefore, this will give you enough time to help us create a positive attitude toward assessment. Senior portfolios are due to be completed by March 22.

You will also be able to join a writing workshop or participate in a performance event (if you choose). This will help you to understand what is expected of your child. A boys' basketball game is scheduled for the same night. You will be given a free pass to attend, if you wish to go.

We invite you to join in any part or all of these activities. Our primary concern is your child.

Four projects in Rockcastle County gets $18,000 grant

School-to-Work, Local Labor Market Area 16 serves the following counties: Estill, Garrard, Jackson, Lincoln, Madison, Powell and Rockcastle. Recently each county was given the opportunity to write a Request for Proposal to the Local Partnership Council, which consists of representatives from business, education, labor, economic development and various other organizations. The Request for Proposals were reviewed by a team representing both business and education.

Rockcastle County submitted four Request for Proposals and all four projects received full or partial funding totaling over $18,000.

Mt. Vernon Elementary Media Blitz will partner with a local business to develop a school based enterprise, a newspaper. The paper will be published, printed, marketed and managed by students of Mt. Vernon Elementary. Students will be responsible for selling subscriptions and completing all necessary accounting for the business. The project director is Sheila McQuay, a fifth grade teacher.

Broadhead Elementary also submitted a project for Micro-Societies. The school has been involved in the creation of mini-societies in each classroom. During the last 30 minutes each day, students are allowed to hold "jobs" that are modeled in the community. Some students are policemen, others are mayors, storekeepers, bankers, etc. They are involved in publishing, manufacturing and accounting using verbal, written, mathematical and physical skills. Students are required to "apply" for the job that they wish to perform. They are interviewed and hired, just like in a "real world" job. The funding awarded by School-to-Work will enable the school to expand the mini-societies to a school-wide micro-community. The difference being that the school would have a bank, post-office, store, etc. for the entire school. To make the job even more realistic for the students, the funding will help to purchase "real life" uniforms, mailboxes, and for minor renovation to establish the bank, post-office and store. The project director is Ms. Cindy Ellington.

Rockcastle County Middle School was also awarded funds to develop a school-based enterprise called Holiday Express to market hand made crafts to students in the school and to the community. The participating students will apply, interview, and be hired just as in a real job. Students will also be involved with the financial side of the business which will involve working with a local bank to open and maintain a bank account. The Holiday Express Project co-directors are Regina Little and Debbie Bugg.

The Rockcastle Area Technology Center received awards to develop a 21st Century Free Enterprise. Secondary students at the technology center will be involved in a state-of-the-art school-based enterprise involving development of specialized products, basket trays, horse-shoe racks, dinner bells, and various other products which would be marketed via the Internet, as well as through local festivals and businesses. The award from School-to-Work, in addition to local funds, will help pay for the installation of Internet in each classroom. The project will also offer a service to local businesses by creating "home pages" on the Internet, the home pages would serve as an information base for potential employers and businesses which offer specialty projects. The Adult Education Programs at the Technology Center will also benefit by having convenient access to up-to-date relevant information. Project Team includes Patty Himes, Ralph Baker, and principal, Donna Hopkins.

The Rockcastle County School District also received, along with the other six counties in Local Labor Market Area 16, nearly $12,000 for travel, supplies, local-School-to-Work development and promotion funds. School-to-Work is a federal initiative that works to reach ALL students but can also involve ALL individuals in a community. If you would like to know how you can become a participant in the School-to-Work Initiative please contact Diana Waddell at 256-4816, Rockcastle County School District Coordinator, Jenny DeBord-Sweet, Local Labor Market Area 16 Coordinator can also be reached at 256-1111.

Lifelines

This past week marked twenty-three years that abortion has been legal in the United States. Kansas was the first state to legalize abortion on-demand to time of birth. The national floodgates for abortion were opened on January 22, 1973, when the United States Supreme Court in Roe vs. Wade, held that a woman has the right to do as she chooses with her body.

Human sacrifice on the altar of nihilistic humanitarianism continues. One out of every three children conceived is aborted. When it comes to abortions, we have a lot in common with communist countries. In the Soviet Union there are about 10 million abortions a year. In Communist-dominated Poland, while 700,000 children are born, 800,000 are aborted. In China, the government's birth control policy permits only one child; two in rural areas.

Dr. Bernard Nathanson, a founder of the National Abortion Rights League, performed about 5,000 abortions following the 1973 Roe vs. Wade court decision. Dr. Nathanson once vehemently subscribed to and promoted abortion arguments. As he has changed his mind; he now fights against abortions and abortionists. As to a woman's right to control her own body, Nathanson reports: "I think everyone should control their own body... But we have very sound

My name is Ronnie Lainhart and I just turned five years old on January 15th. I had a great Power Ranger party at my Na Na, Pa Pa, and C.C.'s house. I want to thank all my friends and family for being there and for all the great gifts. I had lots of fun. My mommy and daddy are Gail and Alan Lainhart. My Na Na and Pa Pa are Linda and Roger McClure and my C.C. is Aunt Amanda McClure, my mommy's sister. My great grandma and great grandpa are Sallie Hale and the late Homer Hale. My great mammy and great papaw are William and Rene McClure. I have a great great grandma, her name is Della Cromer. I have a mammy and pappy in Fairfield, Ohio, their names are Tye and Pearl Lainhart. The late Ronnie Lainhart is my grandpa. I also have a grandma Netie in Peoria, Illinois, her name is Annette Sherwood.

Gilbert (Spud) and Cynthia (Sue) are proud to announce the birth of their second child, Kimberly May Chesnut born January 14, 1996 at Lake Cumberland Hospital in Somerset. She weighed 6 lbs. 5 1/2 ounces. She was welcomed home by her big sister, April. Grandparents are Gladys Chesnut and the late Floyd Chesnut and Leonard and Margie Scarborough.

We have done all we can do—it is now up to the citizens to show support for the project by signing a water user's agreement form and paying hook-up fees.

Without any doubt, this project can transform the areas which it will serve, and I am extremely glad that the citizens can finally see—not light at the end of the tunnel—but water at the end of the pipe. This is why I urge everyone to work with the association's fine board of directors and its officers to realize this potential for our county.

Following meetings Tuesday and Wednesday nights, the next meeting of the association will be 7 p.m. at Sand Springs Baptist Church on Thursday, February 1, (tonight), followed by another meeting at 7 p.m. Friday, February 2 at Buffalo Baptist Church.

with community members, in an effort to make Renfro Valley the best it can be and make Rockcastle County a county everyone can be proud of," Thorne said. "We need everyone's support," she said.

Thorne also announced headlines for Renfro's 1996 concert schedule. They include: Ronnie McDowell, Ray Stevens, Johnny Paycheck, Jerry Clower, The McKameys, Carl Huxley, Tom Williams, Roy Clark, Leroy Parnell, and Connie Smith. Renfro Valley opens for its 57th season on March 1.

Livingston History

By: W.M. Owens, Substituted by: Tom Welch

Livingston was named for James Livingston, who was one among the first to settle in this town. Livingston is situated 165 miles from Cincinnati, 140 miles from Louisville, and 137 miles from Knoxville. Originally Livingston's name was Fish Point, but was later changed to Livingston.

John French, an uncle of Mrs. J.D. Cook, cleared the land and rolled and burned the logs on the ground where Livingston now stands.

Named by the name of Goff ran a floating saloon on Rockcastle River after whiskey was voted out of Laurel and Rockcastle counties.

Ike Newland ran the first pump station for the L&N Rail Co. in the year 1870. He was succeeded by G.D. Cook, who was retired a few years ago.

The L&N track was laid to Livingston in the year 1870 after the terminal remained at Mt. Vernon for two years awaiting the completion of the big fill just east of town. It was at that time, the largest railroad fill in Kentucky and probably in the United States.

A man by the name of Cox, was the first agent of the Kentucky Central R.R. at Livingston and was there but a short time. He was relieved by Frank Carr, who is today the general agent for the L&N at Lexington. His office at Livingston was in a box car. J.D. Martin, once a coal miner at Livingston, is now conductor on the fast freight.

Captain Low and Captain Swinney were passenger conductors when the Kentucky Central turned at Livingston. Rev. B.B. Van Nuy, a Presbyterian minister, who came from New Jersey, built the first church in Livingston. He died years ago and when his wife died his casket was taken up and both taken back to New Jersey. Judge Jacob Sambrook went with the remains. Their photographs still hang in the Presbyterian Church here. George Sambrook was the first hotel keeper. George D. Bowline first agent for the L.B. Division of L&N. Later Frank Clifford, Tom Gear, and a man by the name of Turner, McRoberts, C.P. Reynolds, A. W. Boume and C.A. Blanford, who has been agent for the past sixteen years.

The Shrieves mined the first coal in Livingston and it was brought across Rockcastle River in large buckets on large wires. Charley Phillips was clerk for the company and Dan Adams was tip boss. D.W. Moore ran the boarding house.

Rockets beat Pulaski Warriors 88-79; fall to Whitley County 82-77

All five Rocket starters scored in double figures and the Rockets won their sixth game of the season Tuesday night, defeating the Pulaski Southwestern Warriors 88-79. Last Friday night, the Rockets lost 82-77 to a good Whitley Co. team and Wednesday night of last week lost to Hart Co. in the Toyota Classic at Scott County.

Tuesday night, the Rockets jumped out to a 26-16 first quarter lead, primarily behind the hot three-point shooting of forward Chad Severance. Severance hit 4 of 5 threes in the first quarter and a two-point basket. The second quarter saw Severance hit two more threes for 20 first half points.

However, the Warriors were hitting their threes also and that, combined with several turnovers by the Rockets, gave Pulaski a 41-37 half-time edge.

The Warriors shot Severance down the second half but sophomore Dusty McClure stepped up and scored the first eight points of the second half. All told, McClure scored 11 of the Rockets 26 points in the third quarter and added 7 in the fourth quarter. Thanks to a steal by Travis Anderkin with 7 seconds on the clock and a three pointer, the Rockets managed to cut one point off the Warriors half-time lead and trail 66-63.

A lot of the fourth quarter was spent at the free throw line, as a total of 22 fouls was called, including a technical on the Pulaski bench, (12 on the Warriors and 10 on the Rockets). A basket by Anderkin pulled the Rockets within one (66-65) to begin the fourth quarter, but the Warriors came right back with their third three of the half to go up 69-65 and went on to take a 74-66 lead. Then the Rockets went to work. Following a free throw by Dallas Rigby, McClure scored a basket, Rigby and Burns hit free throws and McClure put in a three and a two to give the Rockets a 76-74 lead. Severance, who had one foul the first half and picked up four more in the fourth quarter, took a charge at mid-court and it was Rockets ball again. However, the Rockets couldn't capitalize on the turnover, Severance picked up his fourth foul and the Warriors had a chance to tie it at the charity stripe. However, Pulaski went cold at the line and managed to hit only 5-12 free throws the rest of the game and one basket, while the Rockets were connecting on 10-14 free throws and a basket by Burns.

In all, there were 62 fouls (33 on Pulaski and 29 on Rockcastle) whistled in the game, causing the exit of two Pulaski Starters and Severance. The Rockets were 23-33 from the free throw line and the Warriors were 17-27.

Thanks to his big 20 point first half, Severance took scoring honors for the Rockets with 23. McClure had 21; Burns got 18 points and 16 rebounds; Rigby and Severance both accounted for several rebounds and Rigby came up with several steals and 13 points and Anderkin scored 13.

The Rockets are now 6-10 on the season and the Warriors are 7-11.

Fouls were a factor in the game Friday when the Rockets hosted the Whitley Co. Colonels. There were 56 called in the game — 39 against the Rockets. When the smoke cleared, four Rocket starters were on the bench with five fouls and the Colonels had the game in the win column by a score of 82-77.

Center Gary Burns had a big night with 37 points and 14 rebounds but the Rockets trailed at all the quarter stops: 20-12, 42-35 and 58-51. However, a 16-8 run by the Rockets in the fourth quarter put them up 67-66 on two free throws by Eric McGuire with 5:05 left to play. However, the Colonels came right back to put on a 10-0 and take a 76-67 lead under two minutes to go. Rigby had departed the game with 6:56 left in the fourth quarter; Anderkin got his fifth at the 1:51 mark and McGuire and McClure followed shortly afterwards. The Rockets, behind three baskets by Burns and one by John Brown in the last two minutes, put on a valiant effort but the Colonels made their last nine points at the free throw line (14-17 in the fourth quarter) and the Rockets couldn't overcome.

Besides Burns' 37; Severance got 13; McClure 9; McGuire 7; Andy Hale 4; Rigby 3 and Anderkin and Brown, 2 each.

Friday night, the Rockets will travel to North Laurel and next Tuesday night, February 6th, will host Knox Central.

Jayvees lose to Colonels and Warriors

Following their loss Friday night to the Whitley Co. Colonels, the Jayvees also didn't fare so well against Pulaski Southwestern, losing 44-31, due to a bad second half. The Jayvees led at half-time 16-11 but the Warriors came back to outscore the Rockets 32 to 15 in the second half.

Layne Nicely led the Rockets with 14 points and 4 rebounds; Matt Ford got 4 points; Nathan DeLeon 3; Andy Hale 2 points and 4 rebounds; Michael Vaughn, John Brown, Billy Kirby and Jesse Bugg, each scored 2.

Freshmen win

The Rocket freshmen defeated Lincoln Co. 69-53 at Stanford Monday night with Stevie Bradley leading all scorers with 23 points.

The Rockets got off to a quick start, taking a 35-27 half-time lead and put together a strong third period, outscoring the Patriots 17-9.

Jared Reams added 14 points to the total; Nathan DeLeon scored 12; Layne Nicely got 10; Andy Hale added 8 and Jeremy Martin 2.

The freshmen now have a 10-1 record.

Baseball registration

Rockcastle County Little League registration will be held Saturday, February 10 at Brodhead Elementary gym from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Sunday, February 11 at Mt. Vernon Elementary gym from 2 to 4 p.m.

February 23rd is the absolute cut-off date for registration to play in the spring of 1996.

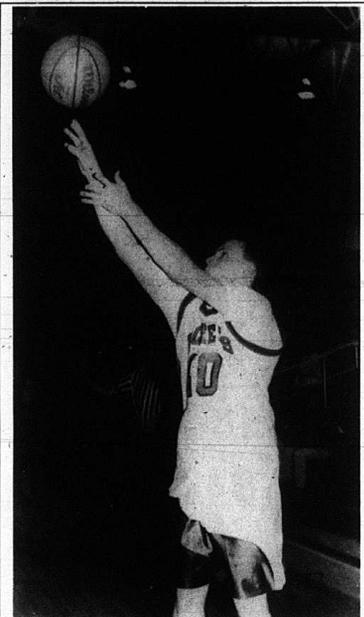

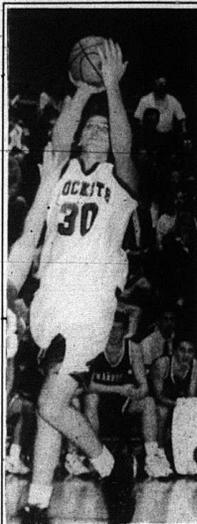

Attention Baseball Coaches

Anyone interested in coaching a t-ball, coach-pitch, minor, major or senior league baseball teams must contact John Hale at Rockcastle Co. Middle School at 256-4932 as soon as possible.

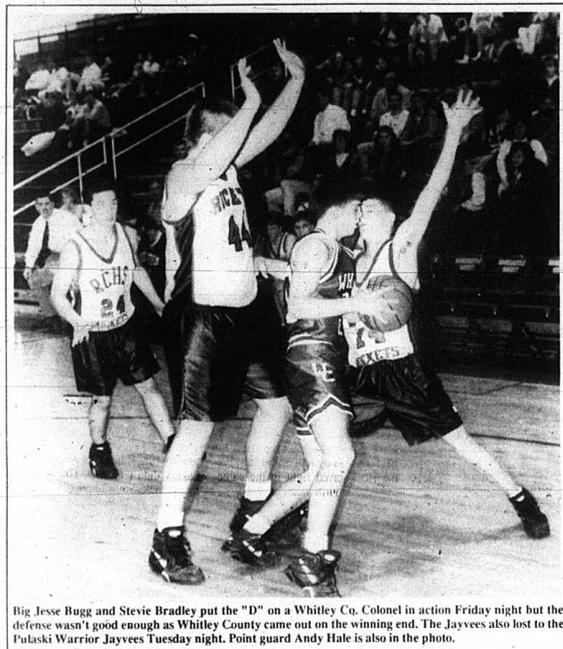

Pizza Hut Player of the Week

Senior Center GARY BURNS has been named the most recent Pizza Hut Player of the Week for his performance in the Whitley Co. game. In this game, Burns scored 37 points and pulled down 14 rebounds.

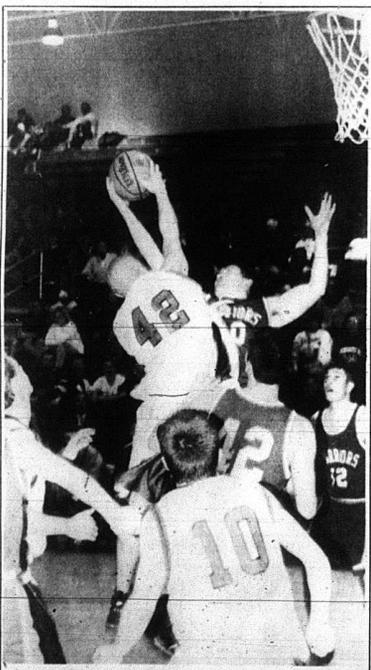

At left, Burns is shown in action in the Rockets' 88-79 win over Pulaski Southwestern Tuesday night.

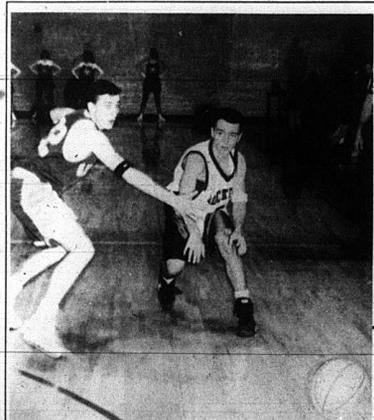

Senior Chad Severance displays his shooting form which stood him in good stead Tuesday night. Severance was 4-5 from three-point range in the first quarter and scored six in the first half. Severance scored 20 points in the first half and 23 points for the game.

Big Jesse Bugg and Stevie Bradley put the "D" on a Whitley Co. Colonel in action Friday night but the defense wasn't good enough as Whitley County came out on the winning end. The Jayvees also lost to the Pulaski Warrior Jayvees Tuesday night. Point guard Andy Hale is also in the photo.

Dallas Rigby soars high to fight for a rebound in the game at RCHS Friday night against the Pulaski Warriors. Also in the photo are Chad Severance and Dusty McClure, No. 10. Severance scored 20 points in the first half and McClure scored 18 in the second half.

Sophomore point guard Travis Anderkin bounce passes the ball away from a Pulaski Warrior in action Friday night. Anderkin scored 13 points in the game, including 6-8 from the free throw line.

Rocket cheerleaders Holly Machal, Jill Cummins, Jama Cornelius and Tracy Sears cheered the Rockets on in action Tuesday night against Pulaski Southwestern.

Lady Rockets rout Paris 91-36; lose to Clay County and Wayne County

The Lady Rockets won one big, lost one big and lost a second one at the charity stripe.

Last Thursday night, the girls hosted Paris and came away with a big 91-36 win. The game was never in question as 13 Lady Rockets scored in the game. Junior Kristi Moore led the scoring with 16 points. Seventh grader Jessica Rickles came off the bench to get 14. Suzie Carpenter scored 12; Jessica Albright 11; Amy Robinson 8; Melinda Alcorn 6; Dee Reams and Amber Coffey, 5 each; JoAnna LewAllen, 4; Amanda Osborne and Nikki Bullock, 3 each and Suzanne Brown and Brandy Reynolds, 2 each.

At Clay County Saturday, the Lady Tigers showed why they are ranking first in the 13th grade in girls as they easily handled the girls 69-37. Coach Christi Noble tried various combinations to get the Rocket offense clicking but it was to no avail.

Ten Rockets scored in the game, but no one broke into double figures. Junior Kristi Moore was the leading scorer with 8 points; Carpenter got 7; Albright 6; Alcorn and Rickles, 4 each; Brown 3; Robinson 2 and Reams, Osborne and Tiffany McClure, 1 each.

Monday night, the girls hosted the Wayne Co. Lady Cardinals and had to play catch-up ball all night.

The girls trailed at the first quarter stop 11-8 and, at half-time 26-23. They got behind 37-31 in the third quarter, but then put together a 9-2 scoring run that put them up 40-31 at the end of the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, after a two-point basket by Suzanne Brown, the girls again fell behind by 8 at 40-42 and got trouble finally caught up with the Rockets with Albright and Moore departing the game with over four minutes remaining. However, the Rockets didn't quit as Reams, Alcorn, Osborne and Brown combined to outscore the Lady Cardinals 16-9 and come within one at 59-58. In this run, Reams sank two three pointers and Osborne got one. Alcorn got a basket and free throw and Brown two free throws. But, the Lady Cardinals proceeded to make their final six points at the free throw line while Nikki Bullock accounted for the only field goal for the Rockets. Reams, Alcorn and Carpenter also fouled out of the game.

Free throws were a big factor in the game with the Lady Cardinals shooting 56 free throws and making 37 of them and the Rockets only getting 23 tries at the charity stripe and scoring on 15. In fact, in the fourth quarter, Wayne County scored 18 of their 26 points with free throws. Dee Reams led the scoring with 12 points, all in the second half; Melinda Alcorn and Amy Robinson got 8 each; Suzanne Brown and Amanda Osborne, 7 each; Suzie Carpenter, 6; Kristi Moore and Jessica Albright, 5 each and Nikki Bullock, 2.

Thursday night, the girls host Model, Saturday they play at North Laurel and Monday are at home to South Laurel.

Lady Jayvees win two

The Lady Jayvees added two to their win record in their last three games, beating Paris 44-17; barely going to Clay Co. 31-27 and holding Wayne Co. off 33-27.

In the Paris game, 11 Jayvee players scored for the Rockets, none in double figures. The girls came out on fire and ran up a 21-1 first quarter lead. However, they cooled off in the second quarter, as Coach Christi Noble substituted freely, to only post 5 points to 6 for Paris for a 26-1/2 half-time lead. In the second half, the girls outscored Paris 18-10 for the final 44-17.

Tiffany McClure led the scoring with 9 points; Amanda Osborne got 8; Suzanne Brown 6; Nikki Bullock, JoAnn LewAllen and Brooke Roberts, 4 each; Amber Coffey, Brandy Reynolds, Jessica Rickles and Nikki Moore, 2 each and Jennifer Cromer 1.

At Clay Co. Saturday afternoon, the game was exciting for Lady Rocket fans until a technical on the Rockets bench in the fourth quarter gave the Tigers two points and the ball at a crucial time and the Rockets could only garner three points to the Tigers 10 for the final 31-27.

Tiffany McClure had a big night with 11 points; Suzanne Brown got 3 and Nikki Bullock, Amanda Osborne and Joann LewAllen had 2 each.

It was another exciting game Thursday night when Wayne Co. came to town. The Lady Rockets won the first three quarters 27-20 and lost the fourth by one 7-6 for the 33-27 victory.

For the third straight game, McClure led the scoring with 9 points; Bullock got 8; Osborne and LewAllen, 6 each and Brown and Nikki Moore, 2 each.

RCMS 6th graders win Lions Club Tourney

The Rockcastle Middle School 6th grade team (now 9-1) won the Lions Club Tournament last week by defeating Jackson Co. 44-27. The Rockets reached the championship game by defeating Berea 47-31 in first round action.

Against Berea, the Rockets were led by John Bray and Josh Hale with 8 and 7 points, respectively, as the Rockets jumped out to an early 14-6 lead and were never challenged.

In the second period, with many Rocket starters on the bench, the Pirates did attempt to mount a rally but a tenacious Rocket defense allowed only four points and ran up a 23-10 half-time lead.

In the second half, the Rockets went on another run, this time 9-0 and it wasn't until the starters went to the bench that Berea attempted another comeback. It was too little too late as the Rockets held on for the win.

Brandon McIntosh and Kris Linville had strong showings, coming off the bench to score 6 points each. Andrew Hammond added 5; P.J. Rowe and Mike Howard scored 4 points each; Adam Childress added 2 and William Blair and Shane Kirby, both added 1 point.

In the championship game, the Rock again jumped out to an early lead, led by Andrew Hammond with 16 points.

The Rockets led 24-12 at the half and, once again, Coach Greg Parsons was able to allow his bench a lot of playing time.

In the third period, the Rock kept Jackson Co. from scoring a single point while they were scoring 9. But, in the fourth, it was all Jackson as they outscored the Rockets 15-9.

Also scoring for the Rockets were Josh Hale with 7; William Blair 6; John Bray and Mike Howard, 4 each; Kris Linville and Brian Reynolds each got 2 and Brandon McIntosh added 1.

The Rockets were 22-42 at the free throw line for 53%.

Jackson Co. reached the championship game by defeating Madison Middle from Richmond. Madison Middle went on to defeat Berea in the consolation game.

The sixth grader's next game is this Thursday at home against South-ern Pulaski. Game time is 5 p.m.

Junior Pro Round-up

A special reminder for all coaches, players and parents:
This Saturday, February 3 is picture day during the game!
Please make sure you are at the gym at least 40 minutes before your scheduled game! If your team is not playing Saturday, please contact the directors to make sure you know what time to be at the gym for your pictures!

A recap of this past Saturday's Rockcastle Junior Pro action:

IV LEAGUE:

CELTICS 36 SUNS 31

The first game of the day set the tone, as this was a jim-dandy of a game. The teams came out fired up looking for a victory and played as hard as they could to secure one. The lead see-sawed through much of the game and the Celtics had a one-point lead at the end of the first half and third quarter. During the fourth quarter, however, the Celtics managed to hang on for a tight win by doing what it takes to win ballgames — hitting free-throws. The green team connected on 6 of 8 from the charity stripe in the last period. For the Celtics: Aaron Anderkin put on a show with 25 points, several rebounds and great play in the clutch; Derrick Shelton hit for 4 points and added nice play at the point; Steven Coffey scored 3 points and attacked the boards aggressively for several rebounds and Rod Shelton and Jonathan Baker picked up 2 points while helping on the backboards, as did Ben Taylor who grabbed some boards. For the Suns: The Boreings led the way with Stephen connecting for 10 points and several rebounds, while sister Angela, hit for 9 points and grabbed as many boards herself; Michael Hayes tied for scoring honors with 10 points and added tenacious defense and hustle and Adam York rounded out the scoring with 2 points and added nice defense, as did Justin Cornelius.

WARRIORS 41 HEAT 31

The Warriors were able to finish the regular season with an unbeaten record intact, but it took some doing as the Heat gave them fits despite being short-handed due to a couple of players being out sick. The Warriors held the lead by four at the half, but the Heat stayed right in the game until the fourth quarter when the Warriors deeper bench allowed them to stretch out the lead following an 8-0 run. For the Warriors: Aaron Cash topped the tally in scoring with 18 points and picked up several rebounds. Jeremy Rowe provided serious offensive punch off the bench by firing in a season best 8 points; Amber Denny added 6 points and about twice as many rebounds; James Michael Bussell picked up 3 points and used his quickness to provide great defense and Tim McClush, Courtney Alexander and Jessica Thacker all rounded out the tally with 2 points apiece. For the Heat: Jason Reynolds led the way with a season best performance that included 12 points and several assists and boards; Kane Holbrook provided offensive punch with 10 points and defensive muscle inside; Matthew Bustle used his quickness to penetrate and dish for 6 points and several assists; Rodney Payne scored 2 points and dragged down several rebounds; Darin Harris hit a point while helping on the backboards as did Robekah Lyons who also added good defense.

TRAINING LEAGUE

The Training League regular season championship was on the line in this game, and the crowd was there to prove it. A very crowded BES gym was loud and excited as these two teams squared off against each other. The Magic drew first blood as they jumped out to a quick 10-4 lead. The T-Wolves were not about to roll over in the game. Behind some aggressive defense and rebound put-backs, the T-Wolves soon had the margin narrowed to 10-9. Every rebound and loose ball was important and had to be fought for in this game and each team proved they knew it by their very aggressive defense and the way they mixed it up in the paint. In the end, it would be the Magic who claimed the championship on this day, as they held on for a tight victory. For the Magic: Forney Sandusky stepped up in the clutch for 8 points and added good defense; Blake Roberts grabbed 6 points and several rebounds; Derrick Hurst sprined for 5 points and had several steals; and Mikah Reams fired in 3 points and added nice defense. For the T-Wolves: Caleb Blair sprung for 5 points to lead a balanced scoring attack; Anthony Cummins bulled his way to 4 points and several rebound and Jarred Burdette, Kyle Mullins, Andrew Nelson, Cody Moore, and Jonas Adams all got on the scoreboard with 2 points apiece.

LAKEERS 17 BULLS 13

Defense was the name of the game in this one as each team belted up and stuck with hard "D". The Bulls appeared to have charged, but their second win in three games, but the Lakers didn't agree. For the Bulls: roared back with an impressive fourth quarter that saw them put together an impressive offensive spurt that saw them outscore the Bulls 11-2 in the final period and claim the 21-point victory. For the Lakers: Jacob Taylor stepped up for the scoring being week with an impressive offensive outing that saw him net 7 points; Nathan Doan grabbed 4 points and several rebounds; Max Saylor put in 3 points and added strong defense and hustle; Dustin Lear scored 2 points and attacked the glass to take a

RCMS 7th grade beats North Laurel; loses to South Laurel

The seventh grade Rockets (14-5 overall and 8-2 in conference action) were got a big conference win last Thursday night by defeating North-Laurel 55-52. Three Rockets were in double figures: Josh Singleton with 16; Chris Parsons 15 and Greg Harper 13. Other Rockets scoring were Shea Davidson with 6 points; Thomas Coffey added 3 points and Josh Lyons got 2.

In the game Monday night at South Laurel, the score was tied with six seconds on the clock. Chris Parsons had the ball for the Rockets and went end-to-end to put up a shot jumper. The shot was good and one referee signalled it good. However, the other referee waved the shot off and the Rockets wound up losing the game in overtime 52-51. By the way, the shot was good. South Laurel has rights on their backboards that go off when time has expired and a video replay of the game showed that the ball was on its downward track to the basket before the light came on and the buzzer went off.

Parsons led the Rockets in scoring with 21 points; Harper added 14; Derrick got 8; Davidson 7 and Derrick Bussell 1.

8th graders get two conference wins

The RCMS 8th grade Rockets (11-7 overall and 8-2 conference) hit four three-point shots in the first period and jumped out to an 18-6 lead on their way to a 60-35 win over North Laurel last Thursday night.

The Rockets were led by Andrew Cash with 17 points; Matt Brown got 14; Luke Hayes added 7;

Brad McNew got 5; Jacob Burdette and Robert Clark each scored 4 points; Jon Renner 3 and Daniel Morgan, Stephen Robinson and Chris Parsons all scored 2 in the game.

On Monday night, the Rockets again took an early lead, this time a 31-6 half time margin as they won over South Laurel 56-37.

As in the 7th grade game, questionable calls by officials in the third period kept up for the Rockets being able to pull out the starters as South Laurel outscored the Rockets 15-8, cutting the lead to 10 points and even to six points, early in the fourth quarter.

Andrew Cash again led the Rockets in scoring with 11 points; Brad McNew and Matt Brown each got 10; Daniel Morgan added 9; Luke Hayes scored 8; Jacob Burdette got 6 and Jon Renner 2.

The seventh and eighth teams will be play again this Thursday, hosting Southern Pulaski. This will be Eighth Grade Honors night.

Todd named to All-Mountain team

Eddie Todd has been named to the Big Dipper All Mountain Team. Todd and his parents, Roy and Anita and Coach Tom Larkley, attended a banquet for players selected in Hazard on Sunday, January 28.

Dave Baker, Channel 27 sports director, spoke to the group and presented a plaque to each player.

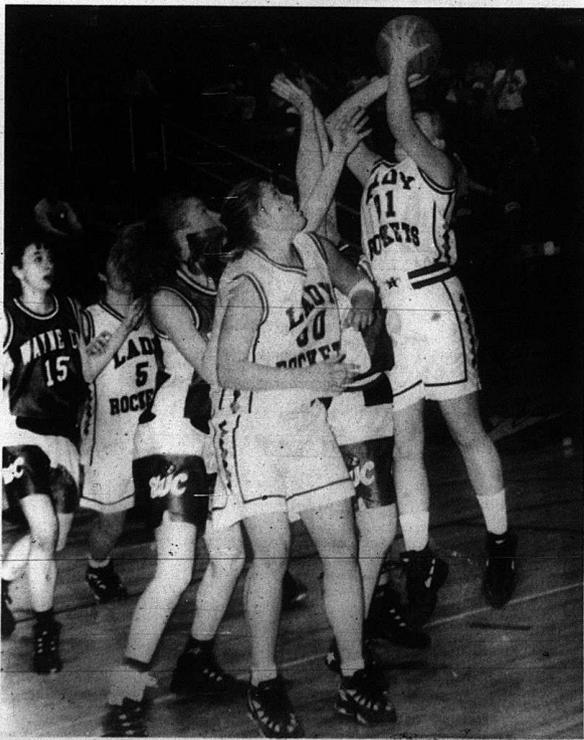

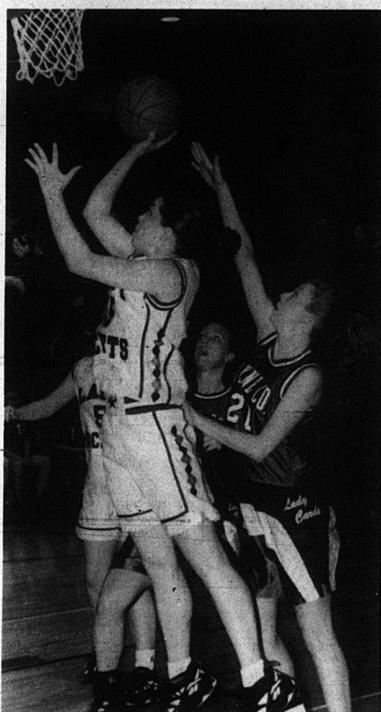

Channel 57, Mountain News, also chose a Mountain Team of their own.

Picked from Rockcastle County were Jason Childress, first team defensive back; Jason Weaver, second team offensive line; Eddie Todd, honorable mention defensive end and Jon Cromer, honorable mention running back.

Lady Rockets in Action

At right, Junior Kristi Moore goes for the goal in the Lay Rocketes game against Wayne County Monday night. Moore scored 5 points in the game which was hard-fought from start to finish.

Literacy volunteer and adult learner; a successful partnership

Betty Rozier of Mt. Vernon is a retired nurse and a shop owner in the Renton Valley area. In addition to her busy life, Betty has found the time to make a difference in the life of another person. She is an active community volunteer for the CAP Adult Learning Center. During the past year, Betty has spent about three hours each week to tutor an adult who needs help with reading.

Betty's student, Alice, is a woman in her mid-fifties who comes for lessons after she gets off work. She meets with Betty twice each week. Alice hopes that someday she can earn her GED (high school equivalency diploma). She would like to have a better job, she cannot get without an education. When Alice first came to the adult learning center for help, she was upset about being denied a factory job that she was very capable of doing. She had worked over twenty years in automobile factories in the north and knew this particular component quite well. The factory here in Kentucky required a GED or a high school diploma as a prerequisite for employment. Alice found a job that did not require the high school diploma, but was determined to further her education. She was paired with a tutor and worked toward fulfilling her hope of learning to read. When her tutor moved to a different state, she was paired with Betty Rozier. This was the beginning of a successful partnership.

Recently, Alice has reached new milestones with learning to read and write that have brought joy to her and to her tutor. She was able to choose a birthday card for her sister and could read the words on the card. Alice then went a step further and wrote a letter to her sister. Alice said that her sister was so excited that she cried. Another time, Alice commented, during one of her lessons, that her husband had left her a note.

He had never done that before. As Betty says, "You have no idea how much joy that note gave me." He realizes that she can read. Alice continues to make progress with help from Betty. She can read short passages in a newspaper and interpret them. She has worked hard to achieve her goal. Betty says, "She really wants to learn and is making every effort."

Reasons for adult illiteracy are many and varied. Alice was kept at home to help out. She rarely attended school. When she did attend, she was far behind her age group, so eventually she left school. When Betty was asked about tutoring and what she would tell a potential literacy tutor, she replied, "It's not that demanding for me. There is another person who needs the help I can give her. It gives me a certain amount of satisfaction to be able to help somebody." Betty adds, "I didn't realize the barriers that some have had to overcome, just to get a basic education. I have become more tolerant and understanding."

A recent study, the National Adult Literacy Survey, conducted by the United States Department of Education indicates that approximately one-fifth of the adult population in our nation has trouble with written material. Some are totally illiterate (unable to read and write), while others are functionally illiterate (unable to perform everyday tasks involving reading and writing). In Kentucky, estimates are about 400,000 adults in this category.

Community volunteers are needed. A three session workshop can certify a volunteer tutor. Tutors are then placed with an adult who needs their help. No experience is necessary. The workshop and materials needed by the tutor and student are furnished by the literacy program at CAP Adult Learning Center. Some volunteers meet with students in the learning center, or in the homes. Others meet at the library or at a church. Illiteracy is a problem with a solution. You can help. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer tutor or need more information, call Paula Woodman at 256-5307. Our next tutor training begins on February 6th.

data which has demonstrated that the fetus is not part of a woman's body. It is an uneasy tenant... immunologically distinct, biologically distinct... it is not in fact a part of a woman's body.

Dr. Nathanson made public an ultrasonic filming of abortion (The Silent Scream) which shows the embryo in the womb, thrashing about, trying to avoid the suction device which is tearing off its head. Viewers of the film saw the child dismembered, its head crushed, as it was sucked out of the womb. The physician who filmed the abortion has never performed another. Right to Life of Rockcastle County has this tape available to anyone who would want to view it. You may call at 256-4034 or 758-8406 for the video tape.

Number of rebounds and Charles Canagar added 1 point to round out the scoring. For the Bulls: Weston Riddle stepped up to score 5 points in a nice performance that included good all-around play. Matthew Evans added 4 points and grabbed some rebounds and James Isaac and Justin Gibson each put in 2 points and added good defense.

RAPTORS vs. CELTICS IS

The hard-luck Raptors, who came so close to victory so many times this season made no mistake about this fact that they wanted to win the season finale. They came out fired up and hustled for every loose ball and rebound. There can be no denying the second place Celtics anything though, as they also dived on the floor for loose balls and played hard, but this day belonged to the Raptors who managed to claim the nine point victory. For the Raptors: DeJon Graves put together an impressive offensive display that included 14 points and several steals; Brandon Cameron picked up 4 points and several steals, while Luke McCauley picked 4 points and several rebounds and Amanda Rogers finished with 2 points, but dragged down about a dozen rebounds in an impressive performance. For the Celtics: Matthew Silcox led the way with 6 points and several steals; Devon Bussell grabbed 4 points and several rebounds; Jesse Hamm connected for 3 points and several rebounds; and Justin Burkhardt rounded out the scoring with 2 points and another display of hustling defense.

INSTRUCTIONAL LEAGUE

The Instructional League (for 6 & 7 year olds) played their third games of the season, and continued to show improvement. Every player hustled and played with enthusiasm and excitement that was great fun to watch for the large crowd in attendance. As noted last week, there are no scores to report in the Instructional League, as these games are non-competitive and the score is not kept. However, we want to recognize all the little Bulls, Celtics, Grizzlies, Magic, Mavericks, and Rockets for another great job!!!

RTEC seeks funding

Rural Transit Enterprises Coordinated, Inc. (RTEC) will be participating in a statewide effort to create awareness about the community transportation needs in Southeast Kentucky and around the state. Governor Pat Patton has declared February 7, 1996 Community Transportation Day in the Commonwealth. Beginning at 9:00 a.m., transit vehicles will line Capitol Avenue to celebrate community transportation. A press conference will also be held at noon in the Capitol Rotunda. RTEC along with 35 other members of the Kentucky Public Transit Association, will be asking both the Governor and the General Assembly to support an 8 million dollar funding initiative for community transportation in the Commonwealth. Kentucky's lifeline service, provided by RTEC, operates 48 vehicles and serves the counties of Bell, Clinton, Cumberland, Knox, Laurel, McCreary, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Russell, Wayne and Whitley in Southeast Kentucky. In 1995, RTEC provided 186,195 rides in the 11 counties. Of that number, 4,879 rides were for wheelchair users. RTEC operates from 8:00 to 5:00, Monday through Friday with the office located in Mt. Vernon and can be reached at 606-256-9835 or toll-free 800-321-7832.

Free Help With Tax Forms!

Are you age 60 or older? Do you have low to moderate income? AARP Tax-Aide volunteers, trained in cooperation with the IRS, will answer your questions and help you prepare your tax forms. To locate a Tax-Aide site near you, call your local IRS Information Office (listed in your telephone book).

Tax aid available thru AARP

Senior Citizens can get free help filling out federal and state income tax forms at the Rockcastle County Senior Citizens Center in Mt. Vernon.

The assistance is designed particularly for older people, but it is also available to those of any age with low to moderate income.

The center will be open Thursday, February 1 thru April 11 at 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. As in the past years, it is being staffed by volunteers trained by the American Association for Retired Persons and the Internal Revenue Service.

When you visit the center, you should bring the IRS tax package you got in the mail; records of your income such as forms W-2 (wages) or W-2P (pension); information on deductions or tax credits; and copies of last year's tax returns.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,
Mark your calendar for Saturday, February 17! This is a very important date for you, your readers, and the Kiwanis Club of Rockcastle Co. WRVK is graciously helping us sponsor a radio auction to raise funds for our young children: Priority #1 and our many community service projects.

The response from businesses and individuals has been great thus far. We already have numerous items donated; some of these are a 27-inch TV, UK Basketball tickets, Massey Ferguson 3650 WD Tractor Replica (collector's item), steak dinners, etc.

We anticipate a big listening audience for this event. Many of the items will be on display at the Bank of Mt. Vernon and City Hall a few days before the auction.

This program will come to you through WRVK on the 17th from 9:00 a.m. to noon. We encourage you to take an active part in this special fun-filled charity auction.

All proceeds will benefit the children and others of Rockcastle County. Help us Help Others, Kiwanis Club Radio Auction Committee

Dear Editor,
Both houses of Congress have now approved a bill to place a national ban on partial-birth abortions. President Clinton says he will veto the bill.

However, Congress will not take final action on the bill and send it to the President until late January.
Brenda Pat Shafer, a registered nurse, from Dayton, Ohio testified at the Senate hearing of assisting Dr. Haskell in a partial-birth abortion. The baby boy was 26 1/2 weeks (over 6 months old). The doctor delivered the baby's body and the arms... everything but the head. He kept the baby's head just inside the uterus. The baby's little fingers were clasping and unclasping and his feet were kicking. The doctor stuck a pair of surgical scissors through the back of his head and the baby's arms jerked out in a flinch, a startle reaction like a baby does when he thinks he might fall.

The doctor opened up the scissors to make the hole bigger, stuck a high powered suction tube into the opening and sucked the baby's brains out, causing the skull to collapse. Now the baby was completely limp. The dead baby was then removed.

Under the Partial-Birth Ban Act (HR 1832), a doctor who performs a partial-birth abortion, except to save the mother's life, would be subject to up to two years in prison, fines of up to $250,000.00 per offense, and civil lawsuits.

America please pray that President Clinton will not veto this bill! Killing unwanted unborn babies today, could very well lead to killing unwanted unproductive elderly people tomorrow.

Mrs. Shirley Wilson
16710 Ky. Hwy. 1247
Waynesburg, KY 40489

Dear Editor,
In response to Jeffrey E. Barnett's letter who lives at Rockcastle Villa Apartments: I can really relate to your comments in last week's paper. Rockcastle Villa Apts. has slowly become one of the most talked about, poorly managed, drug and crime infested apartment complexes in Mt. Vernon. I know this because I personally know several people who lived there and my daughter and her children once lived there. When my daughter moved into that complex and signed her lease, she was promised and "guaranteed" by the management a meeting from management. The HUD representative came and went without a meeting. Nit-picking by the management then began. She not only was lax in keeping trouble to a minimum but most often started it. My daughter could sit at her window and watch drug deals going on in the parking lot. And she knows who the people are who deal and so do the police. The police have made a start in cleaning up the trash in that building. It's a shame they can't do something about the management.

So Mr. Barnett, call the main office of HUD and request better lighting, security guards and whatever else is needed to make it a safer place for your family and others to live in. Why don't you and your "good neighbors" form a drug and crime watch? That's your home, don't let the bad element have it, force them out. I wish you much luck.
A Concerned Citizen
E. Batchelor

Legislative Update

By State Representative Danny Ford

For sometime, we have warned that the state can no longer spend more than it had in revenue. Governor Patton unveiled his budget plan before the joint session of the General Assembly on Thursday, and our prediction that government must get spending under control was accurate. In his combined State of the Commonwealth speech and budget address, the Governor described his top priorities in reaching his budget proposal. Gov. Patton called it a continuation budget of $11 billion, which means no existing programs will be eliminated and no new programs will be added, except $200,000 the first year for the technology center at (Cont. to B4)

We are much more than a Long-Term Care Facility...

We are much more than a long-term care facility. Are you aware of the other services offered by your community hospital's Physical Therapy Department?

The philosophy of the department is to work closely with the physicians, industry and health delivery systems in the Rockcastle area in providing the maximum of quality care. In the rapidly changing health care system, it is important to the Physical Therapy staff to remain concentrated on the needs of the community and concerns of the local residents. They feel a strong sense of commitment to the Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle area and are dedicated to providing services concerned with the rehabilitation needs of the community.

The wound care clinic has the final components needed to provide a center-based approach to the treatment of difficult wounds. A newly-renovated hydrotherapy room, adjacent to the physical therapy department, will provide the equipment and space needed to provide a clinic-environment for the treatment of wounds. Expanding on this, the clinic will also be involved in providing education and training to caregivers and family in providing care at home. For the physician as well as the patient, treating a wound that refuses to heal is frustrating, time-consuming and expensive. Effective management usually requires a multi-disciplinary approach of working together in a collaborating, supporting manner.

Under the direction of Dr. McElwain, the members of the Physical Therapy Department -- Steve Coy P.T., Steve Marcum P.T. and Don Roberts P.T.A. -- have assumed responsibility for this program.

We are introducing other special programs to assist the community, not only in injuries and rehabilitation after the injury or trauma, but also in educational activities to help prevent injury and trauma. These will include working in developing back injury prevention, repetitive injury prevention programs, fitness and walking program advice and other wellness issues.

These are just a few of the professional services offered by our fine hospital's Physical Therapy Department. We welcome all to stop by and tour our facility. We are very proud of what we can offer.
