speed, but Rockcastle will have eleven men on the field this time which will make a difference

Somerset - Oct. 4, Away, 8:00 p.m. Two years ago Somerset beat the Rock in Somerset in the final minutes and with the questionable transfer of potential all-state back John Booker from Williamsburg, Somerset will be a very tough opponent. Somerset was young a year ago and will return a number of starters to go with Booker. Look for a dog fight to begin district play.

Corbin - Oct. 11 - Home 8:00 p.m. The Rockets will findout quickly if Corbin is the team to beat this year or if the Rock will continue their domination over the Red Hounds. Each of the six meetings with the Red Hounds have been very tough contests and this year will be no exception. The unusual transfer of one the state's top receivers from Leslie County, Ricky Hensley, will make Corbin a good team. Ironically Corbin's coach is a former player and coach at Leslie County.

Wayne County - Oct. 18, Home - 8:00 p.m. This may be the only weak opponent on the Rock's schedule but last year's team was decimated by injuries and the Rock is looking for a tougher time this year.

Madison Southern - Oct. 25, Away - 8:00 p.m. The ROCK fell behind to Madison Southern 21-0 a year ago and Coach Mike Elkins has said the team's number one goal this season is to beat Rock-castle and Madison Southern is a much better team than a year ago. The folks in Berea would give anything to get their first win over the ROCK and playing the game in Berea will help the Eagles gain a slight edge. Look for a dogfight in Berea the last week in October.

Estil County - Nov. 1, Away, 8:00 p.m. The Engineers are down this year because of a large number of graduates from a year ago. They will not be nearly as tough as they were when they came to the ROCK last year but they will be able to throw the ball and that always makes a high school team dangerous.

There are few things more frustrating than spending half aday sneaking through the woods looking and listening for the best part of squirrel gravy and never hearing a squack nor seeing a limb snake.

It's happened to me twice already this month. However, there is something far more frustrating that I have also experience twice.

also experience twice.

Twice you see, I have spent fruit-less—well actually I've found some apples and raspberries—then meatless, shall we say, days in the woods. I've returned to my pickup with my clothing covered with sticktights and cockle burns, with chigged dug into places you'd rather not heat about, with large whelpso my what with ticks crawing all over me. All this without ever having thought about pushing off the safety button on y22 rifle or even looking through the scope.

Then, in the middle of the day when any self-respecting squirrel should be dozing in his den, I have eased my truck through rugged terrain and finally back to a blacktopped rain and finally back to a blacktopped road. Then, by the time I've gotten up one only speed to shift into high gear. I've had to come to a screeching halt to avoid running over a squirred hunkered up in the middle of the road gnawing on a hickory nut or a big black walnut.

One morning on a fifteen minute drive from the woods to my house, I saw at least a dozona rajurrels either on re beside the road. And that's the very definition of frustration to me. It's against the law to shoot game on a public road, I wouldn't doit even if it were legal. Two or three big fox if it were legal. Two or three big for squirrels have taken up residence in a big silver maple in our back yard and I wouldn't think of shooting them.

I wouldn't think of shooting them.
I'd just as soon eat a cat as to kill something that tame.
The point I'm trying to make is that squirries are much smarter than most folks give them credit. They've learned that it's much safer to move into town where the only thing they have to fear is getting run over when they cross the road than to live in the woods where they have to deal with sankes, coyotes, hawks and hunters. Especially hunters.

Kentucky even has a squirrel Blvd. And Berea sirrels in Berea even use ought to. Squirrels in Berea even use the telephone lines as major throughfares. So what is a poor, frustrated hill-billy desperately craving a big pot of quirrel gravy to pour over his baked sweet stare and fall beans to do? The cops in Berea shot and killed a buffalo on the golf course the other day. (For you folks who live outside Berea, I swear I'm telling the truth.) I'm thinking about calling city hall and reporting that I was attacked by squirrels on Chesthut Street and then offering to dispose of any carcasses the police force might come up with in their quest so serve and protect. On the other hand, if you shot a squirrel with a .45 automatic there probably wouldn't be much left to put in the kettle.

The woods are full of mast this year and I figure that sooner or later some of these city squirrels are going to move back into the wilderness to get a change of diet if nothing else. I'm going to hold off hunting for a couple of weeks before I venture back ut.

In the meantime, I hope my fall cans last that long. Squirrel gravy in't near as good if you don't have a ig pone of hot corn bréad and mess f fall beans to go with it.

So, we ma newy of the basic idea of Deuteronomy. 22:5 if we twist that verse to fit a "men wear panes, women wear dresses" mentality. What we should be on guard about is anything that would obliterate the differences between the sexes. the differences between the sexes.

Tribute to a "Swim" Parent

Few sports in Rockcastle County or anywhere else for that matter, could survive without dedicated parents to support it. They drive to practices, meets and games. They wash uni-forms, find lost equipment, serve as coaches, keep scores and have a multitude of other responsibilities. The Cedar Rapids Swim Team is no different. It depends on its pan for nearly every facet of organizaM Thurnday, August 29, 1996 P.A3. As the 1996 Swim Season ends, one pareft in particular is recognized for her many years of dedication to the Cedar Rapids Dolphins. In 1979 as Mrs. Sondra Mullins led her then very young son, Clark into his first swimming practice, she had little motion that she was stepping into what would be a 17 year career as a swim mon. Through the years with first, Clark then son, Cliff and daughter,

This year her youngest child, Cassie is beginning college and is finishing a swimming career that began in 1982. As Cassie finishes began in 1982. As Cassie finishes with swimming, so too does her mom finish with years of morning and evening practices, summer Saturdays at a pool somewhere, hundreds of trips between her Renfro Valley home and Cedar Rapids and hours and hours of scoring many, many meets.

Our hats are off to you, 'Ms

Sonny', for your dedication to the Cedar Rapids Dolphin swim team. Thanks for everything you've done

In Loving Memories

In Memory of Betty Jo Baker Norton Author: Heather McCoy

God saw you getting weary So he did what he thought was best He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and rest."

You bid no one farewell nor even said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it and
God only knows why.

It broke our heart for you to go, but you did not go alone, for a part of us went with you., The day God called you home. God will give us strength to bear it

And courage to take the blow. But what it means to lose you no one God will ever know

Sadly missed by husband, R.J. Norton; daughter, Debra Robertson & family and son, R.J. Norton, Jr. & family

In Memory of Flossie Burdine Who departed this life September 1, 1993.

It's been three years since your death, God took you to a place of rest.

Children always love and obey your mother, When she has gone there is no other.

You prayed for your children and gave unconditional love, Now you live eternally with the sav-ior up above.

Mother, I miss you, Shirley Poynter

They were not there a month, till they were gone. They were took off the headstones last year and it broke my heart to see they were gone this year too. All I could do was look at the graves and cry and ask why. I just don't understand why anyone would do this to them.

But God knows who you are.

Your are pretty low down to steal

Rockets open '96 campaign Friday

By: Richard Anderkin

When the Rockcastle County Rockets kick off their 1996 campaign in London Friday night - it will be a totally different team from a year ago.

The departure of ten offensive starters and eight defensive starters may make 1996 an interesting year for the ROCK.

"We are inexperienced at the varsity level, to say the least," Head Coach Tom Larkey said.

Larkey, now in his 12th season as head coach, said last week that Rockcastle's schedule is tough, but a lot of players will not see action on both sides of the ball, which will keep his somewhat inexperienced team fresh.

"Right now we only have three players starting on defense and offense, so we will at least have fresh people in the ballgame for the most part," he said.

. And on the optimistic side, the Rockets are healthy heading into the '96 season.

"Other than some bumps and bruises we' are fine," Larkey said.

The Rockets played two scrimmages in the pre-season, one against North Laurel, which is in a re-building year under new head coach, and former Rocket lineman, Larry Welch and Lexington Catholic Although Kentucky High School Athletic Association rules prohibit score keeping during a scrimmage the Rockets played better than both teams.

"We handled North Laurel with relative ease, but it was a much tougher scrimmage against Lexington Catholic,"

Larkey said.

If the Rockets are to match last year's accomplishments which included a district championship and a 10 and 2 record, they will have to be quick learners.

"There is no doubt we will get better every game and if we can keep some key personnell healthy we will be competitive," the coach said.

Just how competitive - only time will tell.

When the Rockets line up against South Laurel on Friday night, they will start three sophomores on the offensive line and one sophomore in the backfield.

Sophomores Josh Martin,

Kevin Bradley and Andy Hale are presently starting on the offensive line and sophomore Andrew Carrera has the fullback position at this time. Martin will start at center, Bradley at one of the guards and Hale at an end.

Rounding out the rest of the offensive starting unit will be seniors Malcolm Shepherd, Andrew Gisler, Slade Calhoun, Kyle Kirby, Jon Cromer and Jason Brown. Calhoun will start at tackle, Kirby will start at a guard, Gisler at an end and Brown and Cromer in the backfield.

Shepherd will start at quarterback and junior John LaFevers will also start at one tackle.

Coach Larkey said that he is expecting a good season from Shepherd, who has little varsity experience, but who started for the freshman team and was a two year starter for the junior varsity.

"He has come along way as a team leader and he is certainly a tough kid who has also improved a lot as a passer," Larkey said.

The Rockets leading rusher from a year ago is also back. Jon Cromer, who started for the Rockets the past two seasons, amassed over 2,400 yards in those two seasons and is expected to have another good year for the Rock.

Coach Larkey said that he is planning on splitting up his playing time in the offensive backfield between Cromer, Jason Brown, Andrew Carerra, Chris Bishop and Dusty McClure.

"These kids have all worked hard this summer and at camp and they will each see their share of action," Larkey said.

When the Rock passes, Shepherd will be looking for Hale, Gisler and Anthony King, who is expected to get quite a bit of time at end. Roy Howard will also see playing time at end.

Brian Scalf, Jason Dillingham and Chris Cromer will also see action at offensive line positions throughout theseason and may start some games.

Possibly the Rocket's top offensive weapon this season will only see a few plays of action each game, but those few plays could add up to a lot of points and senior Raymond Blackburn is probably the best place kicket to ever play football at RCHS.

He has kicked 55 yarders in practice and last year he kicked at least two 37 yard field goals during the game. "A lot of colleges are looking at Raymond and I think he has the talent to kick at a Division I school," Larkey said.

"Raymond has worked hard to improve his kicking and the last two summers he has attended the Doug Pelphrey Kicking Camp where he has learned a lot," Larkey said.

"We have enough faith in Raymond's ability that when we get stopped inside the 30 yard line we will probably kick. Three points is better than nothing," Larkey said.

Seniors Slade Calhoun, David Coffey and Ronnie Vanzant, all returning starters from last year, will anchor the Rockets defense.

Calhoun will play one outside linebacker/defensive end position and senior Jon Cromer will play the other one.

Seniors David Coffey. Mike Muncy and Anthony King will play in the defensive line as will senior Daniel Forbes who will rotate in and Senior Dennis Miller will start at middle linebacker and Jason Brown and sophomore Brooks Ingram will play the two inside linebackers.

Vanzant will start at cornerback and junior Dusty McClure will start at the other cornerback. Junior Chris Bishop will start at free safety.

Other players, including quarterback Malcolm Shepherd will see defensive action.

Defensive coach and head assistant Tony Saylor said his squad is also inexperienced at the varsity leyel.

"We have a lot of seniors playing on defense but only three of them saw much action last year," Saylor said.

"We will be looking to Calhoun, Coffey and Dennis Miller to step up and lead our defense," Saylor said.

"We'll get a real test the first ballgame against South Laurel. They have a lot of speed which could make it tough for our kids with the lesser experience," Saylor said.

Although the Rockets may be down a little when the season starts, they are still well respected across the state. In the two polls published last week in the state's largest newspapers the Rockets were ranked eighth in one poll and tenth in

The Big Dipper publication out of eastern Kentucky also picked the Rockets to win the Region 3 District 2 title again this season

The Rockets have won the district title the last three out of five years, and although the Rockets have beaten Corbin four out of the last five meetings the RCHS coaching staff thinks Corbin is the team to beat this season.

Sizing up 1996 Rocket opponents

Here is how Coach Larkey thinks Rockcastle will stackup against their opponents this season.

South Laurel - August 30, Away - 7:30 p.m. A quick backfield and an away game at a tough 3-A school, will certainly make for a close ballgame on opening night.

S.W. Pulaski County -Sept. 6, Home - 8:00 p.m. Eight returning starters on offense may give Southwest a legitimate shot at knocking off the Rockets in their home

Allen Central of Floyd County, Sept. 13 - Home 8:00 p.m. (Renfro Valley Jamboree Bowl ) 18 returning starters from a year ago will make Allen Central a much tougher opponent than Pike County Central was a year ago.

Garrard County (Homecoming) Sept. 20, 8:00 p.m. Rocket fans beware - this homecoming may be spoiled & by an excellent Golden Lions team that lost only offensive end Gordon Crowe to graduation. Crowe moved on to the Wildcats, but the Golden Lions are still loaded and looking to revenge their only homefield loss from a year ago. Garrard has super speed and a great quarterback.

Whitesburg - Sept. 27, Away, 8:00 p.m. The longest road trip of the season combined with the fact that Whitesburg's football program is hitting on all cylinders could result in the Rockets losing two straight - something unheard of in modern times at the Rock. Whitesburg will have great
