12-year-old dies Saturday after accidental hanging

Officials are calling the bizarre hanging death of a Rockcastle County Middle School student on Saturday, a very unfortunate and tragic accident.

Madison County Coroner Emory Curry said that Joshua Brian "Josh" Durham, 12, of Conway Road, died Saturday afternoon, shortly after arriving at the emergency room at Berea Hospital.

Curry said that Durham, a sixth grade student at RCMS, apparently died of strangulation, but that an autopsy was performed to determine the exact cause of death.

According to Curry, Durham's parents Scott and Rhonda found Josh in the yard of their Conway home around 3 p.m. Curry said Josh was unconscious and the Durhams rushed him to the hospital in Berea.

The coroner said that Josh had apparently strangled a saddle to a propane gas tank in his family's yard and was riding the tank like a horse when the accident occurred.

Curry said that Josh had made a set of reins and a lasso out of some wire material and apparently had put some of the wire material around his neck.

The coroner said that Josh apparently fell from the propane tank and the wire around his neck got entangled somehow in a nearby clothes line. The saddle did not come off the tank, but it would move around on the tank, according to the coroner.

"I don't think anyone will ever be able to figure out just exactly what happened, no one witnessed the accident and it is simply one of those tragic accidents involving children," Curry said.

Curry said that Josh was pronounced dead at 3:40 p.m. at Berea Hospital.

Road workers voice concern over pay scale

By: Richard Anderkin

At least six employees of the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court's road department are not happy with the recent pay increases the county passed for equipment operators.

In August, the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court voted to pay $2.50 more per hour to county road workers who operate graders, bushings, backhoes, pavement drivers and pavement rollers.

The six men Lee Earl Adams, Larry Barron, Fred Barron, Billy Adams, Orville Childress and Carlos McClure told court members they thought the pay increase was unfair because it did not cover everyone.

Some of the workers suggested the county drop the pay increase and even the current $7.47 hourly rate each worker is paid and provide health insurance for county workers. Other wanted the additional $2.50 per hour to operate the equipment dropped to as little as .50 per hour.

After a motion to drop the $2.50 per hour rate failed, the fiscal court agreed to discuss the matter at the next meeting in October.

Rockcastle County Judge-Executive Buzz Carlolufs said he thought the rate of $2.50 per hour to operate the equipment for what he called skilled workers was fair.

"We have to try and keep good people to operate and take care of our equipment - they could go elsewhere and make more, but they don't," he said.

Carlolufs also said that in the last two week pay period, only $328 was paid to the men working on the equip-

Briefly Six indicted by local jury

The Rockcastle County Grand Jury handed down six indictments Friday.

Indicted were:
Timothy Renner, Rt. 5, Mt. Vernon, on two counts of receiving stolen property.

KSP Detective Gary Lane said Renner had two all terrain vehicles in his possession on July 3 that had apparently been stolen.

Renner, 27, will be arraigned on September 25.

Daniel David Jones, of Rt. 5, Irvine was indicted for the offense of trafficking in a controlled substance in the first degree.

Mt. Vernon police officer Matt Bryant said that Jones, 34, had cocaine in his possession on June 20.

He will be arraigned Sept. 25.

Charles D. Mink, of Rt. 1, Mt. Vernon was indicted on a charge of making a false statement or failing to make proper disclosure of employment wage earnings to the Department of Employment Services concerning his unemployment insurance in excess of $300 in January and February of this year.

Mink, 26, will be arraigned on Sept. 25.

Joel E. Kirby, of Mt. Vernon was indicted on three counts of theft by unlawful taking over $300.

He is accused of taking three deposits from Super Test in Mt. Vernon on June 17, 18, and 19.

Kirby, 40, will be arraigned on October 9.

Ricky Caudill, of Mt. Vernon was indicted for bail jumping and being a persistent felony offender.

Caudill, 28, apparently did not show up to be sentenced on July 31. He is still at large. He will be arraigned on October 9.

Billy C. Shearer, Blue Lick Road, Berea, was charged with a fourth offense driving under the influence on June 21 and operating on a suspended license.

Shearer, 27, will be arraigned on October 9.

Judge declares ban on outdoor burning

On Monday, Rockcastle County Judge-Executive issued a ban on all types of burning in Rockcastle County until further notice.

In a written release, Carlolufs said the extremely dry conditions have prompted the ban, which will remain in effect until weather conditions in the county change.

The ban is on all types of burning, trash, yard debris, etc. and is in effect 24 hours a day.

At the Cox Funeral Home weather station in Mt. Vernon, only 1.14 inches of rainfall was recorded in found indoor growing lights, a timer and assorted other indoor growing devices.

Rockcastle County Attorney Jeff Burdette said that he was glad to see the cooperation between state and local officials and that cooperation was working to help curtail the illegal drug trade in the county.

Police would not say whose residence they raided and the case will be presented to the Rockcastle County Grand Jury in October.

Mt. Vernon firefighters were called to the scene of a trailer fire on McFerron St. in Mt. Vernon Monday morning. The trailer was owned by Ms. Hazel Hines and was being rented to Robert Fletcher. Firefighters said they believed the fire started in the living room of the trailer. Above, firefighter Tim Bostic helped extinguish the blaze which virtually destroyed the trailer.

Mullins honored as Citizens of the Year at Livingston

Lee and Lois Mullins were the 1998 recipients of the Citizen of the Year award at the Livingston Homecoming last weekend. Mr. Mullins owned and operated Lee Mullins Grocery on Main St. in Livingston for 42 years before retiring in 1996. He is also a veteran of World War II.

Homecoming at RCHS Friday

Tiffany McClure, Jennifer Cromer, Swantia Koismeyer, Shalanta Nicely, Karlee Coleman, Paula Marcum, Tara Abney, Ashlie Holt, Ladonya Mink, Angela Boring, Emily Wright and Suzanne Graves will vie for RCHS homecoming queen for 1998 on Friday night.

The queen will be crowned at half-time of the Rocket - Dayton game that starts at 7:30 p.m.

Sophomore Derrick Bussell, #10, rushed for 131 yards on 17 carries in the Rockets win over Madison Southern Friday night. The 35-14 victory ended the Rockets season record at 2-2. It was the eleventh straight time the Rockets have defeated Madison Southern. The Rockets play host to the Dayton Green Devils on Friday night. The 1998 RCHS Football Homecoming Queen will be crowned at halftime.

In Loving Memory

In Memory of Carsel Blanton who passed away a year ago, September 18 God's Garden God looked around His garden, and he found an empty place. He then looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face; He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest; God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best, He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain, He knew that you would never get well on earth again; He saw that the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace be thine." It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone; For part of us went with you the day God called you home. Sadly missed by wife and children

WE MAKE FUNERAL PLANNING EASIER

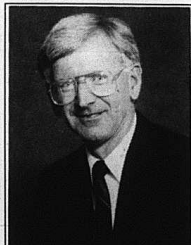

Cox Funeral Home is located on Maple Drive. This elegant home with its distinctive construction and traditional interior offers a warm and comfortable atmosphere.

Few decisions offer the peace of mind that comes from pre-planning a funeral. It helps a family respond to a difficult situation without the usual urgency and that means intelligent, emotion-free choices you'll be satisfied with later. The pre-arrangement only takes a few minutes and there is no charge, however, the beneficial gift that it will give to a family is immeasurable. For more details on funeral planning, call us anytime or stop by our office and we will give you a "Personal Record Guide" and a brochure on the complete funeral arrangement process.

54th Wedding Anniversary

William Edward and Kathalene Quinn Hunt were married on September 16, 1944 at the Evangelical Church in Dearborn, Michigan. After his discharge from the US Army, at the close of World War II, they made their home in Birmingham, Alabama. It was here that they became the parents of two daughters, Mary Alice and Virginia Lee. They returned to Rockcastle County and established a residence on the Old Broadhead Road (Hwy. 1326), where they have lived for 47 years. Until his retirement, Ed was employed by the Department for Human Resources, Commonwealth of Kentucky. Kathalene taught for the Mt. Vernon Independent School System and Rockcastle County Schools until she retired in 1984.

Labor Day Celebration

By Dave and Dee McKinney
We would like to thank the many relatives, friends and neighbors who joined with us in making this holiday weekend a most festive and memorable event. Extra special thanks are due the Bogie Hill Boys, a very talented local group who provided the musical entertainment. And a find job they did, too!

who worked the grills, and the ladies who prepared such a wonderful variety of home-cooked foods and pastries. We would also like to express appreciation to Cox Funeral Home in Mt. Vernon for the use of their chairs and the Blue Springs School for the tables.

County Attorney Burdette emphasizes school bus laws

More children were killed in Kentucky while entering or exiting their school buses than in any other state in the country during the 1996-97 school year.

Kentucky lost three children to these accidents that year. The nation as a whole lost 19, according to a survey by the Kansas State Department of Education.

"The big, yellow school buses seem so safe, but the harsh reality is that when other drivers don't obey the traffic laws, children are in danger, according to Rockcastle County Attorney Jeff Burdette.

"I can't emphasize enough how important it is for drivers to stop when they come upon a school bus that has stopped," Burdette said. "The school bus stop sign and flashing lights are there to remind us to stop." There are many factors that contribute to the death and injury of children entering and exiting school buses: school bus driver error, motorists who do not obey traffic laws and children who dart in front of traffic.

Burdette said these threats could be eliminated. Kentucky law states that motorists meeting or following a school bus that has stopped must stop their vehicles before reaching the school bus if the bus is displaying its stop sign or the flashing lights. Vehicles can proceed once the school bus resumes motion or the flashing lights and stop sign are no longer displayed.

Those who fail to obey these laws are subject to a fine of $100 to $200 and/or imprisonment of 30 to 60 days. Subsequent offenses occurring within three years are punishable by fines of $300 to $500 and/or imprisonment of 60 days to six months.

"In addition to obeying traffic laws, parents should educate their children on the proper way to cross the road," he said.

Burdette recommended these rules:

- Children should stay on their side of the road—far away from traffic—until the school bus arrives.
- Children should wait for the school bus to come to a complete stop and for the driver to signal that it is safe to cross.
- Children should then check traffic both ways—at least twice.
- Children should walk directly across the road and cross 10 feet away from the bus bumper. "With a little caution on everyone's part, we can protect our school children," Burdette said.

Patsy Morgan and Brenda Saylor, Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program Assistants with the Rockcastle County Extension Service.

EFNEP program assists Rockcastle families

Families in Rockcastle County are improving their diets and using their resources more efficiently due to the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program. A total of 105 families in the county were enrolled in the EFNEP program in the last year.

EFNEP Assistants, Patsy Morgan and Brenda Saylor visit the homes of families enrolled in the program. The assistants teach basic nutrition, food preparation and food safety lessons. The EFNEP program focuses on families with young children. Research shows that children do not reach their full potential if they are malnourished up to 3 or 4 years old.

The EFNEP Assistants also teach basic nutrition to youth through the schools, 4-H Clubs and child-care programs. If you are interested in more information on the EFNEP program call the Rockcastle County Extension Service at 256-2403.

Rockcastle County Livestock Improvement Association past president Clay Colson presented William Ledger with an $800 scholarship. William, the son of William, Sr. and Karen Ledger, is attending the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. Scholarship funds were made available from membership dues of the past Livestock Improvement Association. Also receiving funds for the Rockcastle County Cattle Association are president, Anthony Asher and secretary/treasurer Geoff McGuire.

Coffey pursuing studies at UK

Six students are back in college this month attending classes through scholarships provided by the Kentucky National Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet. One of the six students is Marilyn E. Coffey from Mt. Vernon who is majoring in biosystems and agricultural engineering.

This is the eighth year for the scholarship program that was instituted to find candidates for critical environmental job classifications in the cabinet. The scholarships cover the approximate cost of tuition, room and board, books and fees. Recipients of awards must become enrolled in one of Kentucky's public universities at least a junior in their first scholarship-supported semester.

They are also expected to accept employment with the cabinet upon graduation.

In the past, scholarship students have attended several different Kentucky colleges, but in an unusual turn of events, all six of this year's recipients are attending UK. Marilyn Coffey is a master's degree candidate.

The Kentucky Water Resources Research Institute, with programs across the state, and the University of Kentucky Research Foundation administer the scholarship program with the cabinet. Persons who are interested in applying must file an application with the institute by February 15 to be considered for funding in the following fall semester.

JobStart students tour buildings in Frankfort

Thirty participants in the Christian Appalachian Project's JobStart in Garrard, Rockcastle, Jackson and Owsley Counties traveled to Frankfort on Thursday, September 2, to tour the seat of state government.

The enrollees in CAP's 12-week job readiness program toured the governor and lieutenant governor's mansions and the capitol. They were interested not only in the affairs of government, but in the unique architecture in each of the buildings. While several of the students had traveled to Frankfort in the past, for others it was their first visit to the state capitol.

Jenny Griffin of Mt. Vernon, on her first trip to Frankfort, said, "I'm not really into politics; I vote, but that's about it. This has been really educational. I've learned a lot about things from different places," she said.

The trip was conducted by Peggy Harrison, the JobStart caseworker in Booneville.

Janet Ryan, program manager, was pleased to bring people from the various JobStart locations together for a field day and an opportunity to increase their education in a new area. "Our goal is to make them feel good about themselves and enjoy the day," Ryan said.

If you are interested in participating in an upcoming JobStart session, please contact Judy Dillingham at 606-256-5307.

We are more than halfway through our first 7-week term at RCMS and the teams have sent out mid-term reports. Also, our seventh graders are already hard at work on their writing portfolios. Schools is in full swing and our days are back to a routine.

There is much activity in our exploratory classes. Practical Living classes will be cooking this week. The Careers/Drama classes are working on props and costumes for their upcoming play. Also, students in the various music classes will be learning some skills in playing keyboards, flutes, and guitars.

Our girl's basketball team will be playing at home Thursday night against North Laurel and at Berea Friday and Saturday in the Berea Invitational. Next Tuesday, September 22, the girls will be playing at North Laurel Middle School. The RCMS football team will compete at Wayne County Thursday night against Floyd Middle School.

There will be an SBDM Committee meeting Monday, September 21 at 3:30 p.m. followed by a PTA meeting at 5:30 p.m.

Our Peer Mediators completed their training last week. These students are now ready to help our students deal with conflicts. The following students are trained mediators: Bridgette Lear, Aaron Anderkin, Allison Anderkin, Rachel Childress, Amber Bussell, Emily McKinney, Aaron Cash, Jamie Ellison, Bryanna Bussell, Michelle Harrison, Sarah Parsons, Amy Parsons, Scotty Cromer, Bryan Mullins, Jessie Hayes, Amanda Cummins, Jonathan Baldwin, Jessica Carpenter, Devin Taylor, Jessica Denny, Ben Taylor, Nina Zorick, Kyle French, John Alney, Jordan Hall, Ronny McClure, Britany Perkins, Tara Rowe, Nick Williams, Ricky Sandusky, Joshua D. Hayes, Jacob Taylor, Matthew Silcox, Jameson Cable, Chris Seales, Austin Miller, Vanessa Childress, Jennifer Zidwell, Elizabeth Matkevich, Jessica Thacker, Maggie Phillips, Jason Leger, Tiffany Hopkins, Philip Beth Laswell, Amy Elliott, and Brandon Reams.

"It Is Written"

"Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation." John 5:28-29. These are some of the plainest and most powerful words that our Savior spoke while here on earth:

"When Jesus comes again, 'ALL' will be raised from the dead, the same 'hour.' None of us shall be exempt from the resurrection. Both good and evil alike shall be raised up at the same hour. Are you ready for eternity? Will you be raised to life, or will you be raised to damnation? My friends, if you have not obeyed the gospel of Jesus Christ, then let me cite the warning of scripture: 'And to you who are troubled rest with us; when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.' II Thess. 1:7-9.

In 5:28-29 also lands a crushing blow to the head of premillennial theology. Premillennialism is the false doctrine that teaches Jesus is coming back to reign on the earth for a 1000 years in the City of Jerusalem. They say that the righteous will be raised from the dead before the 1000 years, and the wicked after the 1000 year rule. Yet such will not harmonize with Jn. 5:28-29, plus a lot of other passages. The true hope of the Christian is to go to heaven, as I Pet. 1:3-5 teaches us. Paul said there is one hope, Eph. 4:4. Premillennialism offers a hope that is not found in the scriptures. If you have a question, we may answer through this column, let us know.

By Warden Alexander,
FSA Director
AMTA Payments
On Oct. 23, 1997, Commodities Credit Corporation (CCC) published an interim rule in the Federal Register which changed the provisions for determining whether a lease is a cash lease or a share lease with respect to combination leases. Section 1412.303 sharing of contract payments state:
(2) A lease will be considered a cash lease if the lease provides for only a guaranteed sum certain cash payment, or a fixed quantity of the crop.
(4) Beginning on Oct. 1, 1998, for years in which payment shares had not been designated prior to Oct. 23, 1997, a producer's lease, including a lease which provides for the greater of a guaranteed amount or share of the crop or crop proceeds, shall be considered a share lease if the lease provides for both a guaranteed amount such as a fixed dollar amount or quantity and a share of the crop proceeds.

(6) A lease that the COC determined to be a cash lease under Sec. 1412.303 as contained in the 7 CFR, parts 1200-1499, edition revised as of Jan. 1, 1997, will be considered a cash lease for the years in which payment shares were designated if, prior to Oct. 23, 1997 the designation of shares was executed and the COC was provided a copy of the lease applicable for the designated years.

Farmers have just been recently issued their final 1998 Agriculture Marketing Transition Act (AMTA) payments. Dan Glickman, USDA Secretary, Dan Glickman, urged farmers to contact their local USDA Service Center to select how they want to receive their 1999 AMTA payments.
Under a plan passed by Congress and signed by President Clinton, farmers eligible to receive AMTA payments in fiscal year 1999 can choose to receive the payment all at once or in two equal payments during the fiscal year, which begins Oct. 1, 1998 and ends Sept. 30, 1999 with initial FY99 payments being distributed by Oct. 22, 1998.

"These are payments farmers were entitled to receive even before this bill became law," Glickman said. "Advancing the payment date will provide limited financial assistance in a time of stress on our farmers. We need to move forward on many fronts to ensure family farmers and ranches have a strong, secure future on the land."
Farmers should call or visit their local USDA Service Center to select payment options. Those who do not choose a payment option will receive their full payment near the end of FY99.

Loan Deficiency Program
The Farm Service Agency (formerly ASCS) is currently taking applications for the loan deficiency payments (LDPs). New changes to the marketing assistance loan program and the LDPs program make them more flexible for farmers to use during the 1998 harvest.
Many farmers are experiencing low commodity prices and many others have suffered natural disasters and these changes will give farmers more marketing flexibility and will allow them the opportunity to maximize their cash flow.
Farmers participating in the Agriculture Marketing Transition Act (AMTA) program will be able to use marketing assistance loans or LDPs for all of their production of wheat, corn (in Rockcastle County), and program crops of other areas without regard to how the commodity is harvested.
These changes will also allow producers who produce non contract commodities, harvested as silage, cabbage, cracked, rolled, or crimped, to be eligible for a farm-stored nonrecourse marketing loan or LDP.
If you are a farmer who is a participant in the AMTA program with corn production or soybean production in 1998—we urge you to come to the local FSA office and obtain more details and to file for the LDP payments.

Merle Haggard at Renfro September 26

To some, Merle Haggard is considered the "Godfather" of Country Music. In 1963 he had his first national hit "Sing a Sad Song" and over the years more than 40 of his singles reached number one of the charts. One of the biggest hits "Today I Started Loving You Again" has been recorded by over 400 different artists.
 Merle's book, written by Peggy Russell, was released back in 1981, and was titled "Sing Me Back Home." In that book he told of his troubled childhood and his brush with the law that landed him in prison. In 1960, he was paroled and was pardoned in 1972. In the early sixties, he turned his life around after being signed by a record company. Singer, songwriter, remarkable musician, bandleader and historian, Haggard may well be the most well-rounded country talent ever to take the stage in front of a microphone on an audience.

 Make plans to see Merle Haggard in concert on Saturday, September 26. Tickets are $21.00, $23.00 in center sections (prices do not include tax and handling fee). For tickets and reservations for this special concert and all other Renfro Valley shows, concerts and special events call 800-765-7464 or 606-256-2638. You may also visit Renfro Valley on website at renfrovalley.com.

Hospice Care Plus offers training and seeks volunteers

Hospice Care Plus, Inc. will offer in-depth hospice seminars on Friday, September 18th and Saturday, September 19th, which cover areas relating to death and dying and caring for friends or loved ones with terminal illness. While the training is primarily for volunteers who are interested in working with terminally ill patients and their families, any community member interested in learning more about the Hospice concept, death, dying and grief are welcome to attend.
 Hospice Care Plus, which serves Estill, Jackson, Lee, Madison, Owsley and Rockcastle counties, is in need of volunteers who can attend this training and serve as part of our patient care team. Volunteers function much as a friend by being a good listener, assisting with errands, and offering brief periods of relief for caregivers. Other volunteers provide assistance to the Hospice offices through clerical work and help with fund-raising projects, special events, and community education. Caring volunteers enhance the lives of hospice patients and families, and help raise awareness of the Hospice concept.

The training will take place at First Christian Church in Berea on Friday, September 18th from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and on Saturday, September 19th from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Hotel accommodations are provided for volunteers attending the training from counties other than Madison. Snacks will be provided on Friday evening, juice and pastries Saturday morning, and lunch on Saturday afternoon. Areas covered in the training include: The Philosophy and History of Hospice; Concepts of Death, Dying and Grief; Communication and Listening Skills; Care and Comfort Measures; Spiritual Aspects of Death and Dying; Volunteering with Hospice.
 To register for the training, contact Brenna Devereaux, Hospice Care Plus Volunteer Coordinator, at 1-800-806-5492 by Friday, September 11th.

Berea Hospital extends special invitation

There will be a whole lot of celebrating going on Saturday, September 19, at Berea Hospital. As part of the centennial celebration, Berea Hospital employees invite the entire community to share in an afternoon of old-fashioned music, food and fun. This picnic, held under a huge tent on the lawn between Blue Ridge Hall and U.S. 25 North, will take place from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and is free and open to everyone.

Plans for this picnic began as early as January by the Centennial Committee. "We planned many activities this year for the community and several just for our employees," Chairperson Katie Heckmann says, "but this is one event where everyone in the hospital's service area can celebrate the 100th birthday together." With the invitation open to everyone in the service area, there will be folks from southern Madison, Rockcastle and Jackson Counties, all enjoying a variety of activities.
 During the event an old-fashioned picnic will be served by Ann Overby's Catering by Ann. For the kids there will be a petting zoo, pony rides, toys, cloths and balloons. Of interest to young and old alike will be horsethrawn carriage rides, a historical display of early hospital photographs, and the contents of a Centennial Time Capsule assembled by hospital employees to be stored away for future generations to find. Everyone will receive a complimentary copy of Garry Barker's book, Berea Hospital: The First Century.

Floating over the entire event will be the nostalgic strains of The Gary Nelson Band, playing standards and favorites from the turn of the century to now. Best known for swing and jazz, the band had been requested to round out their repertoire to include Dixieland, blues, and some country standards so folks can use the dance floor for a little line dancing. The band is sure to play something for everyone.

So, plan now to attend this free community event, you might enjoy a picnic supper with your family and friends, then spend an hour or two while your kids or grandkids ride the ponies. Or just come, relax, and eat while you and your loved ones soak up the good vibes of The Gary Nelson Band and catch up on the news from folks you may not have seen in a while.

There will be short Garden Scapes dedication at 2:00 at the picnic site after which tours of the hospital will begin. Parking will be in the front hospital lot and in the employee lot over the hill behind the hospital. The picnic will be held rain or shine. Look for the big white tent.

Abrams graduates from tank turret mechanic course

Army Pvt. Walter G. Abrams has graduated from the M1 Abrams tank turret mechanic course at Fort Knox, Ky.

In addition to basic combat training, the course instructs the soldier to perform maintenance on the Abrams tank turret. Included in the training were the skills for maintenance on the hydraulic and electrical systems, range finders, and main gun firing components.

Abrams is the cousin of James Abrams of Rt. 3 Mt. Vernon. He is a 1996 graduate of Rockcastle County High School.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,
 We think the homecoming turned out real well this year.
 It is impossible to thank everyone that helped us. We always leave someone out so let's just say to everyone that helped us in any way we thank you so much.
 Thanks to Bill Hammons and his two men for doing a fine job. It was a lot of ask to just three men to control the crowd of people we had. We need more help next year and we are going to see if the KSP will help us.
 The homecoming is a family affair, and we cannot allow just a few people that drink too much and fight to mess things up for everyone else.
 It was so good to see the WWI vets. I wish more could have come. Once again with all the feeling and respect we can muster we say to all of you thank you for what you did for us.

 We talked to Thy Togami who is with the Herald-Leader about coming to Livingston but he said he did not think people would care about reading about a parade in Rockcastle Co. We are so glad we were able to make it without them. After all, we have a very good newspaper right here in our own county.
 Again, let us say thanks to all of you. We saw a lot of old friends, made some new friends. This is what a homecoming is all about.

Kentucky Wood Expo September 18-20

People in the timber industry can have fun, learn and more at the Kentucky Wood Expo September 18-20 at the Laurel County Fairgrounds in London. Expo demonstrations and exhibits will focus on wood industry activities from the time the tree is selected for harvest until it is converted into various stages of lumber and other wood products for further manufacturing.

 Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on September 18 and 19 and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on September 20. Admission is $3 in advance, $4 at the gate, and $1 for children age six to 12. Admission is free for children under age six.

"We believe this expo will have something to interest and entertain people in most every aspect of the timber industry - woodland owners, foresters, loggers and sawmill owners and employees," said Matthew Smidt, Extension forest harvesting specialist with the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.
 "Exhibits and demonstrations will present the range of timber managing and processing equipment and high-light technology and advancements in the wood industry," added Smidt, who is stationed at the Robinson Experiment Station in Quicksand. "They will include demonstrations of portable sawmills and exhibits of log-moving equipment, chain saws and other necessary equipment. People also can discuss the income potential from timber, using best management practices, and other management topics with timber buyers, loggers, manufacturer representatives and others. The educational exhibits are another valuable source of information for people in the timber industry."
 Expo visitors also can take part in a "Log a Load for Kids" silent auction during the three-day event, ac-

Cross-Country team competes at Pulaski

Rockcastle's cross-country team got the season underway in exciting fashion last Tuesday afternoon at Pulaski County, home of the defending state champions.

The girls' varsity team ran a very hard-fought race and finished third, just behind second place Southwestern Pulaski and first place Pulaski County. Leading the way for the girls was sophomore Cheyenne Carmack, a two-time state championship participant. Cheyenne finished in seventh place with a time of 17:23, an excellent time for the first meet of the season. Her time also improved over four minutes from her first meet last season. Junior Brandy Reynolds also ran a great race and finished 18th with a time of 19:54. Junior Jessica Cobb ran a great race and placed 19th with a time of 20:15. Seventh grader Cassandra Ramsey ran very well and placed 20th with a time of 20:15. Brandy, Jessica, and Cassandra are all well ahead of where they were last season at this point. Rounding out the top five for Rockcastle was sophomore Tara Abney. Running in her first cross-country race ever, Tara ran an exceptional time of 20:21 and finished in 21st place. Sophomore Rachelle Hammond also ran in her first race ever. She ran very well and finished in 26th place with a time of 21:29. Sixth grader Chere Emba also ran a great race. She placed 29th with a time of 21:53 in her first competition ever. Eighth grader Rebekah Lyons ran well and placed 34th with a time of 22:36. Sophomore newcomer Ashley Lawson ran very well in her first race ever. Ashley placed 35th with a time of 22:37. Eighth grader Jennifer Brooks ran a hard-fought race and placed 42nd with a time of 24:16. This was also Jennifer's first race ever.

The girls' third place finish at Pulaski was one of her best ever. Overall, eight teams competed with a total of 49 runners.

Rockcastle's elementary school girls ran a very hard-fought, exciting race. Third grader Katie Burdette ran an awesome race and placed ninth overall. Fifth grade Rachel Killen also ran an awesome race. She made the top twenty runners placing nineteenth overall.

The boys' varsity team had a great competition and placed fourth overall out of eight teams, finishing close to third place Williamsburg. 46 total runners were present.

Junior Stewart Abney led the way for the boys with a 14th place finish and an excellent time of 21:02. Stewart is well ahead of last season's pace. Sophomore Jeremiah Myers ran a great race and placed 18th with a time of 21:50. Seventh grader Andrew Nelson ran the varsity race after competing in the middle school race. Andrew ran very well and placed 28th in 24:16. Eighth grader Matthew Brooks also ran two races. He placed 34th with a time of 26:26. Junior Matthew Brown ran in his first race ever and placed 35th with a time of 26:56. Freshman Josh Ramsey ran well and placed 40th with a time of 28:12.

The middle school boys ran an awesome team race and placed first overall out of seven teams. 38 competitors were present. Seventh grader Andrew Nelson ran an awesome race and won first place overall by outstripping Pulaski's best middle school boy. Andrew's time was 16:10. He received a nice first place trophy for his effort. Eighth grader Matthew Brooks ran a great race and finished in third place with a time of 17:16. Matthew also earned a trophy for his hard work. Seventh grader Brandon Cameron ran very well and placed sixth in 18:26. Sixth grader Brandon Cole ran an awesome race and placed tenth in 19:08. The fifth athlete to score for the boys was sixth grader Tim Simpson. Tim placed 25th in 21:48. Other finishers for the middle school boys were: Adam Stallworth - 27th (22:56), Zach Shepherd - 28th (23:23), Bill Burdette - 30th (23:29), Jerry Barron - 32nd (23:38).

Both varsity and middle school teams had excellent competitions. With last year's experience and a few new competitors, this year's teams show tremendous promise and potential.

Junior varsity ups record to 4-0

The Rockcastle County Rocket Junior Varsity football team is 4-0 for 1998.

Last week their junior varsity won games over North Laurel 20-6 and Whitley County 15-8.

In the win over North Laurel, Matt Smith recovered a fumble and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown.

Kevin Childress caught a 15 yard touchdown pass from Josh Hale and Josh Dooley scored on a 8 yard run. Greg Tarry added two extra points.

At Whitley County on Monday night, Rockcastle scored on an 80 yard kick-off return by Josh Dohley and a one yard run by Josh Hale. Greg Tarry kicked one extra point and Dackery Larkey hit Matt Smith for a two point conversion on a fake kick attempt. The JV's other wins were over Catholic 30-14 and Danville, 20-0.

Whatever the sport, eye protection is a must

"Every year, approximately 37,000 people suffer sports-related eye injuries serious enough to require emergency room care," says Dr. George Rooney of the Kentucky Optometric Foundation.

The sports that cause most of these injuries are basketball, baseball and racket sports. But any sport with a projectile is considered hazardous to the eye.

To help prevent sports eye injuries, athletes should use protective athletic eyewear whether or not prescription eyewear is needed. Choices include:

- any sturdy eyeglass frame with polycarbonate lenses (used for non-contact sports like golf, biking, archery);
- sports frames with such features as padded bridges, rubber bridges, deep-covered eyewires, so lenses won't fall out if the frame is hit hard, a face formed-shape for a wider field of view, and headband attachments to keep them in place.
- One piece plastic sports frames with prescription or non-prescription polycarbonate lenses (used for baseball/softball, racquetball, tennis, handball, squash, badminton, basketball, volleyball).
- goggles designed primarily for protection and able to hold either prescription or non-prescription lenses (used for swimming, water skiing, snow skiing, scuba diving, hunting); eye-face guards designed, or wearing over other glasses (used primarily for football, ice hockey and similar high-risk sports).

"Contact lens wearers need protective athletic eyewear also. Contacts alone do not provide sufficient protection," says Dr. Rooney. The other side of sports eye safety is playing defensively. To do this, sports participants must be aware of the potential eye hazards in their sport. Racketball players face the greatest risk from the racket and body of the opponent. To play defensively, they need to be visually aware of the opponent's position at all times and should not look back when the ball is hit.

In tennis, the greatest eye injury risk is from the ball. So having the vision skills to follow the ball, judge its speed and get into position to hit it not only helps to score a point but also to protect the eyes.

Tennis players should also use only one ball during warm-up and should control their temper. Several tennis players have suffered serious eye injuries from being hit by a ball fired in anger or frustration.

Athletes who are hit in or near the eye or suffer a blow to the head should seek immediate care from their optometrist or the hospital emergency room. Although some may see stars or spots or notice a change in their vision, damage may not be immediately apparent. Prompt attention can be vitally important, particularly in treating a detached retina.

The Renfro Valley Church
by William Jerry Ayers
The Renfro Valley Church
It looks to be about a hundred years old.
What memories of days gone by it must hold
The pews look handmade, not for money, but for love
Where visitors can sit and talk to God in heaven above

The Renfro Valley Church
For many years that little building has stood
Made up from great love, stone, glass and wood
Singly built, the years have slowly ruined away
And perhaps it's where John Lair sometimes went to pray

The Renfro Valley Church
Visitors can make the bell in the tower ring
While waiting for entertainers at "Sunday Renfro Valley Gatherin'" to sing
I'm told weddings are being held at the church even today
My family and I always stop in when we are out that way

The Renfro Valley Church
How long will it still be standing there?

Sports fun for everyone
by William Jerry Ayers
A good sport always wears a smile, win or lose.

Mary...what's your husband really like?
Mrs. Fun...he's so sneaky, he could steal second base with his foot on first.

Some people win all the arguments on sports, but no friends.

Pat...your husband took a shotgun to the ballgame, why?
Mrs. Happy...he heard the lions were playing the tigers.

Every hunting season some accidents happen because both the gun and the hunter were loaded.

Glen...in a fight last week he had the other guy scared to death.
Craig...I know he thought he had killed you.

Mr. Fun feels right at home at a rac track where it's nag, nag, nag.

Old golfers never die, they just end up in a hole.

Mrs. Fun appeared recently in a beauty contest and got several offers, from plastic surgeons.

Race Track—that's a place where windows clean people.

Everyone leaves footprints in the sands of time, either a great soul or a heel.

"Quizon County Music Legends" by William Jerry Ayers Question:
1. Which county singer was also a highly-praised race car driver?

"Road Workers"

The Judge also said that the county could not afford to pay the road workers insurance because they would have to pay insurance for all county employees, such as deputy jailers, deputy clerks, maintenance people and other county employees.

"The road fund probably has enough revenue to pay the road employees insurance, but there is no way financially we could do it for everyone," he said.

Before the $2.50 per hour raise to operate equipment all county road workers were paid the same, no matter how long they had been on the job or what job they do.
That rate is $7.47 per hour.

2. What singer died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound?

3. Who is known as "The Voice of Renfro Valley?"

4. Was Elvis ever on the Grand Ole Opry?

5. Who had a big hit with "Flowers on the Wall?"

6. Which comic singer performed "Ain't She Arty?"

7. Who made "The Devil Went Down to Georgia" famous?

8. Which county music singer spent time in San Quentin?

Answers:
1. Marty Robbins 2. Faron Young 3. Jim Gaskin 4. Yes 5. The Stater Brothers 6. Ray Stevens 7. Charlie Daniels 8. Merle Haggard.

The $2.50 per hour to operate the equipment was passed by the magistrate on a trial basis. The pay increase will stop on December 31, 1998, unless the court votes to keep it.

Baker, Durham charged

Two Rockcastle County men were arrested this week and charged with burglary in the third county in connection with a break-in at the home of Chris Jones in Fairview on September 2.

Will Baker, Jr., and Kolan P. Durham were arrested by Rockcastle Deputy Sheriff Doug Thomas, who said the two men are also suspected in other break-ins in the area.

Durham was held on bond, until his arraignment on Monday and Baker is being held under a $5,000 cash bond. His next court date is November 4. Both men have previously been indicted in Rockcastle Circuit Court on similar charges.

HERESAY

By: John Norman Meadows

Precious soul, children of an egg age, greetings and nocturnals from Nod's Little Aerie, the Op Center for all Wabdonia, located in my new basement office. The Op Center keeps me very busy (1) thwarting terrorists' diabolical designs - just last week I defused a pipe bomb at the Tomb of the Unknown Taxpayer, visited daily by scores of tourists, (2) monitoring nightly Wabdi activity on Norton's Mount behind my house. The Wabdi, you will recall, are extraterrestrial beings who have inhabited the mount since time immemorial. Insofar as I can tell - my research is quite thorough - the Wabdi should not be regarded as "hostile," and (3) responding to a plethora of inquiries via the Wabdi line (1-800-007-6667), an around-the-clock service by which I provide answers to questions regarding epistemology, metaphysics, and mythical subjects that are much on the minds of the local gentry, and many of our well-to-do citizens as well.

Close at my side on the cool Op Center floor (hardwood design vinyl on concrete) are Marnie and Tyson, my two older Chow-Chows. Sophie, my cute but "spooked" Chow, prefers to be outside, cruelly hot though it may be. And finally hot it has been most recently. I do keep a fan running on the back porch to provide her some relief.

Now, beloved, Nancy has the say-so regarding our new sun room and basement upstairs, but the basement Op Center is mine. (Yeah, Right.) And that is where I am right now as I compose this my weekly missive to you my Heresay readership (no relation to penmanship, statesmanship, or the Ol' Ship of Zion).

Ah, beloved, I get myself in hot water three weeks ago when I said I would "lay aside my foolishness" and do a series of "sermonic essays." Let me explain.

The Op Center has a day-bed, and to I went from our bedroom last Thursday evening because I was restless - and rousing Nancy from her much needed sleep. But I should have gone to our other bedroom rather than to the Op Center's day-bed if rest was what I wanted.

[Aside] Unknown to many, beloved, is the fact that sleeping on a day bed at night can do physical and mental harm. According to Herr Doctor Heimlich Hurlbut, world famous authority on sleep disorders, sleeping on a day bed at night can cause shingles, hives, and dyspepsia, not to mention numbness of the cerebellum, upper flutetus tube rot, and creeping ecclesiasticism.

You can read more about this problem at my local library. Ask for Herrbut's History of Day-Bed Sleeping. (That's a 1991 translation of Der Historie von Tage-Bett Ueber-Snoozlig, Wilhelm Machschull, Translator, Buchen und Schnapp's Pubschen House, Dusseldorf, 1987)

[End of Aside.] So, there I was in the day-bed at mid-night. But I couldn't get to sleep, so I decided to read a chapter of Albert Schweitzer's autobiography, Out of My Life and Thought. (Now there's a man for all seasons if ever one lived!)

As I lay there reading, suddenly there came a banging, almost like a clanging, as if one were banging, clanging at my office door. I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter, rushed to the window and threw up the sash, slipped on a banana peel and fell on - No! That's another story. I rushed to the door, opened it and looked about. And what to my wondering eyes should appear - same wrong story again, John!

I walked out onto the patio. I heard the clanging again, and then a voice.

"Over here, Knucklehead." I turned to my right. The moon had gone down, but I could tell someone was sitting in one of our wrought iron chairs at the patio table. I took a couple of steps backwards, reached inside the office, and flipped on the porch light.

It was Ophelia, muse of would-be journalists! (She could pass as Bett Midler's identical twin.) The two times before when she had visited me, she wore a flowing, loose-fitting purple dress, and seals of jewelry. But this night she had on a UK Wildcats sweat suit and white Nikes. And hanging on a white cord about her neck was a cow-bell, adorned with a blue and white ribbon and streamers.

"What's this 'sermonic essay' stuff in your last article? It sure didn't come from me - and never will!"

"Ophelia," I said, "There are some things that ought to be said from our pulpits that aren't being said, and I thought it would be worthwhile to give those ideas a voice in my column."

"Worthwhile? Hmm... Nah! Try Stupid."

"I don't understand," I said as I sat down across from her. "Look, John, if you want to be a writer, I might be able to help you. But get this straight: Preaching and journalism are two different tasks. And you need to make up your mind which it will be. Besides, I have an idea that your 'sermonic essays' would be little more than a re-regurgitation of your bad times in the ministry - and a plea for pity. That stuff will turn folks off quicker than sardines in your ice cream."

She stood up. "Now you chew on that while I go upstairs and tinkle in your wife's new bathroom." She took off her cow-bell and laid it on the table. "And I did just that. While Ophelia tinkled, I pondered. I didn't take me long to see that she had sized me up correctly. I told her so when she returned from a lengthy tinkle."

"Stay with your 'foolishness.' You get a lot of good shots in that way if you must say something sermonic, put it in the mouth of one of those WHAM preachers (that's Wabdonian Hierarchical Alliance of Ministers, beloved, in case you forget).

Ophelia and I talked for an hour about various elements of writing, such as plot, foreshadowing, irony, forms of support, and use of action verbs.

"Keep it at, John. Write every day, regardless of your manual lunch. And keep working on your lying. You've made it into an art form!"

Ophelia positioned herself for flight, but before she could say what ever it is she says that makes her take off, I said,

"Ophelia, may I ask you one personal question?" "Ask away. Just don't ask where I go when I leave here."

"Why the cowbell?" I asked. "You've never worn it before."

"For lots of reasons, dummy. For instance, if I have to make a crash landing, a farmer will think I'm just one of the boys."

"Nahhhhh. I'm putting you on. I'm getting ready for Midnight Madness at Rupp Arena. I'll probably have to sneak the cowbell in, but I'll rattle the roof when I ring it. Neat, don't you think?"

"Yes, it is," I said. "I'll be looking for you on television."

"Do you like my bell?" she asked. "Do P! When I first saw it tonight, I said to myself, 'Self, that's the perfect Christmas gift for Nancy. She likes jewelry, and I know she will just go bonkers over a cowbell like the one you're wearing. Where did you get it?'"

"Cow's Hardware, where else? You won't find it at WalMart."

Then WHOOSH, and she was gone. Or so I thought. Ophelia made a wide U-turn over C. S. McKinney's place, sailed down by me slowly, and said,

"One thing more, John. Confession is good for the soul, but it's awful hard on the reputation. Take that for what ever it's worth!"

Hard on the reputation. Take that for what ever it's worth!"

Rockets roll over Eagles again, 35-14

By: Dackey Larky
Eleven was the lucky number for the Rockets on Friday night (September 11) as they pounded the Eagles of Madison Southern 35-14.

The win was the eleventh straight over the Eagles in as many years. Madison Southern is still winless against the Rock on the gridiron. It was a game of highs and lows on Friday night, with the Rockets looking good at times and extremely poor on others.

The Rockets may have also lost starting linebacker senior Brooks Ingram for their homecoming contest on Friday night with Dayton.

Ingram was ejected from the Madison Southern game late in the fourth quarter after he was called for pass interference. During the incident with a referee, Ingram had two unsportsmanlike conduct penalties called on him.

According to Kentucky High School Athletic Association rules, Ingram is ineligible for the next game, which is Friday night at home. However the Rocket coaching staff have said they intend to appeal Ingram's suspension.

Although the Rockets crinkled out 345 yards of total offense and scored five touchdowns, they got off to a very slow start.

On their first possession the Rockets lost 15 yards and had to punt the ball from their own 15.

Madison Southern came up with a good punt return which resulted in good field position for them on the Rockets 29.

Southern then gained fifteen yards on their first play from scrimmage and had the ball on the Rocket 14.

But, two quarterback sacks by Josh Hendrickson and Greg Harper and an incomplete pass forced the Eagles to attempt a field goal, which was blocked by Brooks Ingram.

The Rockets took over on the 17 and three plays later they led 6-0.

Sophomore Derrick Bussell's run of 57 yards highlighted the short drive and Singleton had a run of ten yards before taking the ball in from the six.

Greg Terry added the extra point and the Rockets led 7-0.

Southern couldn't get any offense going on their next possession and was forced to punt.

On the Rockets first play from scrimmage after the punt, tailback Josh Singleton ran into an official in open field and fumbled the football, giving Southern the ball back on the Rocket 35 yard line.

The Rocket defense stepped up again and forced two quarterback sacks and 20 yards in losses. Brooks Ingram, Greg Harper and Bobby Cundiff were responsible for the sacks.

On third and 35, junior Derek Bradley intercepted a Southern pass and ran the ball back to the eight yard line before being run out of bounds.

On the next play, Bussell carried the ball in for the score and Greg Terry added another extra point for the 14-0 lead.

Southern again found lots of trouble when they tried to pass the football at the beginning of the second quarter. Greg Harper and Henry Bryant sacked Southern's quarterback on two different plays and the Eagles were forced to punt again.

Two runs of 14 and six yards by Derrick Bussell set up a beautiful 43 yard scoring strike from Quarterback Christopher Parsons to end Andy Hale. Terry's kick made it 21-0.

Rockcastle failed on their next possession and punted the ball away with 2:00 minutes left in the half.

The Eagles took the football and marched 70 yards on just four plays to make the 21-7 at half.

The Eagles momentum from the quick scoring strike carried over into the second half when they returned the opening kick-off from the end zone to cut the Rocket lead to just 7, at 21-14.

The Rockets got into field goal range on their next possession after two complete passes by Parsons of nine and 33 yards. Josh Hendrickson hauled in the nine yarder and Andy Hale caught the 33 yarder. But placekicker Greg Terry's attempt of 39 yards fell short and the Rockets lead was still just seven.

However, Southern couldn't mount anything on offense and a terrible Eagle punt gave the Rockets great field position.

Derrick Bussell added his second touchdown of the night from the three and Terry's kick gave the rockets a 28-14 lead.

After sacks of ten and 15 yards by Greg Harper and Sean Smith the Eagles again gave up the ball at mid-field.

On the Rockets first play of the drive, Christopher Parsons found a wide open Andy Hale in the end zone for a 47 yard touchdown pass and the Rockets increased their lead to 35-14.

On the Rockets next possession Josh Dooley picked up 13 yards and Matt Smith caught a 12 yard pass to move the ball the 12 yard line before the Rockets fumbled.

However Derek Bradley picked off another Southern pass late in the game and neither team would score again.

On offense Bussell had 131 yards on 17 carries and he scored two touchdowns. Singleton had 31 yards on 11 carries and scored once.

Dooley had 29 yards on 7 carries. Parsons picked up 5 yards on two carries and Thomas Coffey had 4 yards on one carry.

Parsons had his best game of the season with 145 yards and two touchdowns. Parsons completed five of nine attempts and had no interceptions.

Hale caught two passes for 76 yards and two touchdowns, Bussell caught one pass for 47 yards and Matt Smith had one catch for 13 yards. Hendrickson also caught one pass for nine yards. Greg Terry was a perfect 5 for 5 in extra point kicks.

On the defensive side of the ball the Rockets were led by Brooks Ingram and Derek Bradley.

Ingram had eight tackles, a sack and a blocked kick.

Derek Bradley had seven tackles and two interceptions.

Greg Harper had five tackles and was in on four sacks. Sean Smith had four tackles and two sacks and Big Daddy Josh Martin, who played extremely well on the offensive line had three tackles.

Henry Bryant had three tackles and two sacks and Andy Hale had two tackles.

Derrick Bussell and Josh Jones each had two tackles. Travis Ingram had one tackle.

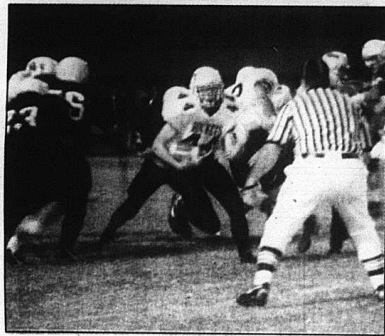

The Rockets evened their season record at 2 and 2 and are ranked tenth in class 2A in the state.

The Rockets host Dayton for homecoming on Friday night.

There is an early 7:30 start for the game.

Sophomore Josh Singleton #44 looks for running room in Friday night's win over Madison Southern. Singleton gained 31 yards and scored a touchdown.

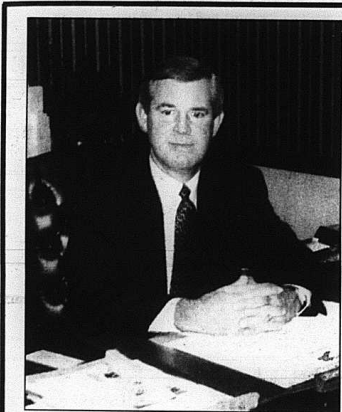

Junior Derek Bradley intercepted two Eagles passes on Friday night. He returned one of them to the eight.

Volunteers raise over $8,800 to help fight CF

52 riders and four walkers participated in the annual Rockcastle County Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-Thon held in Brodhead on Saturday. Volunteers also collected donations at the intersection of Hwy. 150 and 461. Over $8,800 was collected to help fund research to fight Cystic Fibrosis. Among those riders were, far left, Dustin Olivia Bullock, left, and Jarika Robbins get set to ride in Saturday's bike-a-thon. Both children helped raise money last year as well.

Mrs. Clara Proctor, center, helps Debbie Bentley to register her daughter Jessica for the bike-a-thon on Saturday. Mrs. Proctor and her family has organized and coordinated the annual bike-a-thon for several years. Mrs. Proctor's granddaughter, Suzanne Graves suffers from CF. Also helping to register participants on Saturday was Mrs. Martha Proctor, far right.

Riders of all ages helped to raise money for the fight against CF on Saturday. Two of those older riders were: Rockcastle County Middle School teacher Nelson Graves, left, and Walter Cash, right, both of Brodhead. Cash is also a candidate for Brodhead Mayor in the November election. He was the oldest rider at age 62.

A look back at Rockcastle County

Reprinted from the 1992 Rockcastle History Book which was published by the Rockcastle County Historical Society

A Civil War Recalled
Written January 18, 1922 at Berea, Kentucky.

Autobiography of William Merida Hayes, named for his two grandfathers: William Hayes his paternal grandfather born in North Carolina May 7, 1791, emigrated to Tennessee and then to Kentucky about 80 years ago. He reared a large family of 13 children which have all long since passed away.

My father George W. Hayes was the oldest of the family, born July 13, 1818, died in his 49th year. He married Louisa Dalton to which union were born 12 children. Six boys and six girls, three little girls dying in infancy. One girl, Sarah, the wife of J.H. Proctor, died several years since. The four oldest children, all boys, volunteered in the Union Army and only one, the subject of this sketch, returned, William M., the youngest of the four oldest was the only one who got back home alive.

Alfred, the oldest boy, was a married man when he volunteered. He served for about two years in the 3rd Kentucky Infantry. He volunteered under Capt. Fraiser (sp?) of Mount Vernon. His first colonel was Thomas Barnett. He was wounded at the Battle of Missionary Ridge. He was shot down bearing the regimental flag; took to hospital at Chattanooga, Tennessee, died and is buried there. Barnett Hayes, the second son, belonged to the same company and regiment was wounded somewhere in Georgia and was brought to some city and hospital and died and was buried there. Ruben Hayes, the third oldest, volunteered in the 4th Kentucky Infantry under Capt. James Hiatt, he had two uncles and a cousin in the same company. Speed S. Foy was his first Colonel. He was wounded at the Battle of Mill Springs and discharged from the army. They thought he would not be able for service in the army any more. He came home and got well, then volunteered in the 14th Kentucky Cavalry. Major Alfred Smith of Mt. Vernon was his Major. So he served his time out there and then returned to his old regiment the 4th Kentucky. He served for some time there and was finally taken prisoner, sent to Andersonville and died there.

The subject of this sketch, W.M. Hayes, was only 15 years old when the war began. I stayed home for about two years with my father and mother and then I ran away from home and joined the army. I volunteered in Co. D, 49th Kentucky Infantry at the age of 17 and served about or nearly 2 years. My Colonel's name was John G. Eve (sp?) of Barbourville. John Cook of Mt. Vernon was my Captain. William Carson of Rockcastle my first lieutenant. Henry S. Brannaman 2nd Lieutenant. W. H. Brannaman, orderly sergeant a part of the time. I served my time out and got an honorable discharge and have it yet and I want to keep it as long as I live for I think a great deal of it. So this ends my army career.

When I got back home I wanted to go to school some and did, but not as much as I would like to have gone, for my chances were limited. I went to some good old teachers as I could get a chance. Silvester F. Stone was one of my teachers I went to two or three terms and he was a good one and I love his memory yet. Finally I took to teaching in the common schools. In 16 years I taught 15 schools. I will say this I never could satisfy myself as a teacher as I could see my future plainer than my relations could. But I never taught in a district where I could not get the next school.

I did not like teaching as a livelihood. The worse fault I had to teaching was I had to correct other peoples children. Any teacher who follows teaching as long as I did will have this to do if he or she does their duty. I never whipped a girl or very small boy in school in my life. But larger boys would sometimes get so rude that they would get me roused up and I would have to flag them a little. But it was always something I did not like to do.

I married my first wife, Susan Proctor, June 3rd, 1869. We lived happily together until August 22, 1876 and she died. I was left with three small children. My first wife's name was Susan F. Proctor of Pulaski County. Just one of my first children out of three are now living. Mrs. J. W. Riddle of near Mt. Vernon. Mrs. W.J.

Dooley passed away many years ago.

The wife boy Alfred Francis lived to be 10 years old.

On January 24, 1878, I married Miss Mary Wood of Wildie. To this union were born three children, two boys and one daughter. J.R. Hayes of Conway. Mrs. E.F. Coyle of Berea and W.O. Hayes of Berea.

She was very devoted to her children. She almost worshipped them. She often remarked, she would like to live to see them grow up. She chafed to see them leave home. Especially her only daughter. She was so much company to her. Not that she had anything against the man she married for he is a good man and she like him as a son-in-law.

It was good to me, far better than I deserved. I reckon she was good to my first children and they all liked her and I have all hopes that she is in a better world today than this sin stricken world. And I have a strong hope that I will meet her and the rest that are gone before in the Sweet Bye and Bye in a better country than this, where trials, trouble and partings are over.

A few words in regard to my other brothers and sisters. I had two sisters and two brothers yet living. One sister, Mrs. James Hiatt somewhere in Illinois, Mrs. ???. Proctor near Mt. Vernon, J.C. Hayes of Crab Orchard, G.H. Hayes of Tennessee, he is the youngest child of the family.

My maternal grandfather I never saw. He died before I was born.

My mother before marriage was Louisa Dalton. She was an industrious, saving, good woman. She worked hard all her life. She had so many children to look after that it was a big job in that day and time. My father was a poor man and had to work hard. She would spin flax and card, spin and weave cloth to keep us children clothes. We never wore any store clothing in those days. I never had a store clothing until I was discharged out of the army. Mother always made us good warm clothes for winter and flax clothes for summer. When I was growing up we never got but one pair of shoes a year, homemade at that. We generally got them about Christmas and Oh how proud I was of them for Christmas. I am glad to know that people are living easier today than in those long bygone days. If they had to shift now like they did then some of them would almost give it up and starve. But if it did come on them by degree they would soon learn to be shifty. It was root hog or die then and most of us learned how to root.

A few more words in regard to my maternal grandparents, Merida Dalton my grandfather married Delpha Rucker. They lived in Tennessee. I don't know where they were born. Whether in Tennessee or elsewhere. I never saw them. I have heard my mother and father talk about them. William Hayes and Merida Dalton, my two grandfathers married sisters. My father and mother were cousins. My mother lived to be about seventy-three years old. She was born 1820. By William M. Hayes. (deceased)

The following first appeared in the Mount Vernon Signal on September 21, 1906. It was recently transcribed from microfilm of that issue of the Signal. One of my Internet genealogy friends, Mrs. Cindy Durham Crawford, of Badvia, Ohio loaned me some of her University of Kentucky King Library microfilms of the Signal. I thought it would be a nice gesture to share these gleanings with the Signal's present readers.

BROADHEAD NEWS
Miss Clyde Wilmont attended the burial of Wm. Watson at Crab Orchard Wednesday. Walter Miller, K.C. brakeman, of Lebanon Junction, was at home sick for a few days this week. B.E. Albright was in Williamsburg a few days last week. Miss Don Flay Jones has returned to her home in Bedford, Indiana after spending a pleasant month here as the guest of Miss Sadie Evans. R.G. Wilmont was in Mt. Vernon last week on business. One of the swellest parties of the season was the one at Judge C.H. Frith's, given in honor of Mrs. Frith's brother, Charles R. Pike of Knoxville, Tennessee. Those registering were Misses Lydia and Ethel Hilton, Lizzie Cable, Jewell Francisco, Bettie Hicks, Eliza Pike, Maude Watson, Sadie Evans and Messrs. A.C. and H.B. McClary, R. G. Wilmont, W.H. Anderson, George McFrith, J. Conrad Evans, M.C. Albright, E.L. Durham,

Dr. W.F. Carter and A.D. Wilhoite. The projected wedding of the M.E. McClary is still progressing and doing much good. Things are warming up some. One of the prettiest and most impressive weddings which ever occurred was the one performed by the Rev. R.G. Wilmont, of Hahersham, Tennessee. The principals being A.C. McClary, assistant cashier of the Citizens Bank, and Miss Maude Forbes, one of the teachers in our school. This wedding was solemnized at the home of Miss Jewell Francisco. Miss Mae Magee furnished the music and played the wedding march. Misses Etta Frith and Katie Cass were the flower girls, while Dr. Carter and John E. Evans with Misses Dora Dickerson and Lem Flay Jones acted as best men and bridesmaids, etc. Those of their friends who had the honor of seeing this grand affair were Misses Saida Evans, Ethel, Lydia and John Eva Hilton, Bettie Hicks, Lizzie Cable, Jewell Francisco and Dr. A.D. Wilhoite, Messrs. F.L. Durham, Conrad Evans, George Frith, George McFrith, Oscar Gilpin of St. Louis, Missouri, C.R. Pike of Knoxville, Tennessee. They have the best wishes for their future. Miss Ethel Hilton left Monday for Morehead where she will attend school. Miss Anna Tate, of Mt. Vernon, visited Mrs. J.W. Tate, first of the week. Mrs. W.K. Shugars and son are visiting her father, K.L. Tanner, at McKinney. George Frith left Tuesday for Baraca where he will enter school. Mrs. Timan Griffin returned to her home in St. Louis after spending two weeks here as the guest of Mrs. M. E. Wilmont. Chas. R. Pike has returned to Knoxville, Tennessee, after being at home for two weeks. Mrs. Ed Smith continues to be very low with heart trouble. Mrs. J.W. Tate and niece, Miss Annie, are attending the Bluegrass Fair at Lexington this week. Clarence Miller, and Mrs. Marguerite Tharp are numbered among our sick this week. A.C. McClary, M.C. Albright, R.G. Wilmont and J.W. Hutcherson are attending the State Fair at Louisville this week. Miss Willie Benton left Monday for Nazareth where she will attend school. Dr. A.D. Wilhoite is confined to his home with typhoid fever. We hope for him a rapid recovery. Dr. M.L. Meyers, of Mt. Vernon was here last Monday. Our barber, W.C. Swinford, has discontinued his weekly visit to Livingston. Miss Mae Magee, of Lancaster, is here teaching music. Prof. Snodgrass spent last Sunday in Lexington with his family. Work has begun on the new Baptist church. Our boss contractor, W.A. Teece, thinks he will have it ready for service by November 25th. Mrs. J.W. Blair, of New Hope, is visiting her sister, Miss Nola Keisinger at Dr. J.M. Clark's. Mrs. Tharp has returned from a weeks visit in Harrodsburg. Last Saturday as Mr. and Mrs. Sig Leece were driving into town their horse became frightened and ran away throwing Mrs. Leece out of the buggy and badly crippling her as though as first. Dr. Perry Benton hurried to the scene but found Mrs. Leece to not be in a very serious condition. Mr. Leece was not hurt at all, but the buggy was badly demolished. Miss Carrie Frith and Mrs. T. Basin were pleasant visitors of Mrs. J.G. Frith Wednesday. Orus Bowers has returned home from Somerset. Rubie Thompson and family of Lebanon Junction are visiting friends and relatives here.

ADVERTISEMENTS IN THIS ISSUE
U.G. Baker (King of Low Prices) had a two column advertisement for wagons. His ad states: "With the thought in mind that: 'The recollection of Quality remains long after the price is forgotten.' We will offer for the next 10 days the celebrated 'OLD HICKORY WAGONS' Complete with Bed, Spring Set and Top Brakes for only $38.50." He goes on To Say: "Strength, Durability and honest construction are distinctive features of 'Old Hickory Wagons'. Woodwork and Ironwork is the best ever put into any wagon. 'Old Hickory' Wagons are the lightest running wagons ever produced anywhere in the world."
John H. Sparks Famous Shows and Great Train Animal Exhibition also ran a two column advertisement for a show to be held in Mt. Vernon on September 25th. They boast that their show is "Known everywhere as the highest class exhibition of the kind in Railway cars. A great company of Real Arenic Celebrities in a Mammoth Programme full of snap, novelty and surprising excellence. A highly modern organization, conducted on clean and respectable principles for the entertaining American Citizens. See the Gorgeous Street Parade at noon, and Free Exhibition at the Show Grounds immediately following the parade."

PINE HILL NEWS
Mrs. Martha Gibson, of Wilton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poteb. Wheeler Meadows, of Lebanon Junction, was here last week visiting his brother, James. Will Roberts and family have moved to East Bernstadt. Mrs. Will Cottingham and children were with relatives at Withers last week. George Burdine and family have moved here from Sinks. Mr. David Griffin and wife, visited in Corbin last week. Mr. Ben Ramsey and family have returned to their home at East Bernstadt after a month's visit to relatives here. Miss Alice Burdine is on the sick list. Miss Orrey Sears, of Four Mile, arrived last Saturday to visit her aunt, Mrs. John Hansel. Rev. Blackburn, of Skeggs Creek, will preach here Sunday night. Mr. Lee Chesnut, of Orlando, visited her sister, Mrs. Will McHargue, Saturday night and Sunday. Mrs. John Hilton entertained the young folks with an apple cutting last Monday night. Quite a crowd from here attended the Children's Day exercises at Maple Grove Sunday. Miss Rose McFerron visited in Mt. Vernon on Saturday. Mrs. Jake Dean and little daughter, Susie, who have been very sick with typhoid fever are improving. Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, of Junction City, visited the family of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Sympton, the first of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Arch Chastain, of Orlando, visited B.G. Mullins from Friday till Sunday. Wm. McHargue is the champion trader of this part, having traded fourteen times in two weeks. Miss Lucy Poteb has returned from a three months visit to Wilton. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Griffin, of Livingston, visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stallworth last Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. James McHargue returned to her home in Blanche, after a two week visit with relatives here. Mrs. J.L. Owens, who has a slight case of typhoid fever is about well.

The Family Room

By Dr. Don Whitehead

Our President Has A Problem
Something is missing from the current national discussion of President Clinton's behavior. What is missing is an attempt to look at the psychological issues with which the President is dealing.

President Clinton is the child of an alcoholic. Both his natural father (who died just before he was born) and his stepfather had a problem with alcohol. His stepfather was also abusive. Addictive parents sometimes produce addictive children. While the President may not have an alcohol or drug problem, it seems to me that he has a sexual addiction or sexual obsession.

Every addiction is an attempt to feel better. A sexual addiction is usually not about sex, it is about seeking reassurance, comfort and a surke for one's ego. The addict turns to his addiction when he is stressed or upset. Unfortunately, the addict feels worse after acting on the addiction. He feels ashamed and guilty for what he has done. That is the nature of addiction.

We have learned much about other effects an alcoholic parent may have on the family. Consider the following list of characteristics of adult children of alcoholics (from Adult Children of Alcoholics by Jay Wolitz).

1. Adult children of alcoholics (ACOA) lie when it would be just as easy to tell the truth. Denial that there is a problem is a lie the family tells itself and the world. The children learn to cover up the fact that the parent has a problem, because "we shouldn't air our dirty linen in public." The alcoholic parent may often lie to the children by breaking his promises, such as, "I will be here for your football game." Thus, the child learns to lie.

2. ACOAs judge themselves without mercy. No matter what their achievements, they still look in the mirror and see an inadequate person. This makes them feel even worse about themselves, which makes them more vulnerable to their addictions.

3. ACOAs have difficulty with intimate relationships. Lack of marital closeness makes it easier for the sexual addict to rationalize an affair, by saying "My wife doesn't give me what I need."

4. ACOAs constantly seek approval and affirmation. They may be high achievers. They may also seek this approval in extramarital affairs.

5. ACOAs are impulsive and may act with little consideration of the serious consequences of their actions. The pull of an addiction is so strong that the addict may ignore horrible consequences to keep his addiction fueled. If this seems hard to understand, consider how difficult it is to give up nicotine, though almost every tobacco user knows the terrible consequences of continued use.

Having an addiction neither excuses the president's actions nor means that he should resign. It means he needs help. Living in denial does not solve the problem. The president's major mistake is that he has not sought help before now.

Harsh judgment also does not solve the problem. The president should be careful because he may be called to give account for his own addiction.

The moral authority of the Presidency comes, not from avoiding mistakes, but from the way the President deals with his mistakes. I hope President Clinton looks honestly at his addiction.
